Perfect conditions at Driving Club opener

Dilly Bob wins Connaught Stake

The day at the races at the Shawville Driving Club's new training track was such a success in every way that they plan to hold three such meets next summer.

A wonderful crowd came to watch the races, to watch the ball games, to hear the Shawville Community Band to eat abundantly at the booths, and to watch their children on the pony rides.

The weather was grand and both the Hon Raymond Johnston MP and Tom Lefebvre MP were on the grounds with their families and enjoying the informality and friendliness of the occasion. Programs provided by merchants of the area were handed out free.

Clarendon Mayor Sterling Hodgins officially opened the track with a ribbon cutting ceremony and the races commenced with the first elimination for the Connaught Park Jockey Club Stake.

Yvon Plouffe of Angers, Que came first with Minty Rose, Denis Houle of Rockland, Ont came second with The Fighter, Norman Horner of Shawville came third with Peter Redstone, Arthur Rennick of Shawville came fourth with Lord Clarendon and fifth was Lyle P. Hodgins of Bryson with Dick Bingo.

In the final race Dilly Bob came first, Minty Rose second, Northwood Ernie third, Peter Redstone fourth and The Fighter fifth.

The consolation was won by Sharp Adios with Lord Clarendon second and Dick Bingo third.

A Junior Invitation Matinee was run in two heats. Ebert Richardson's Dr. Axworthy won a picnic cooler donated by Renfrew Bottling Works, Dr. Arm-itage donated two tins of vitamins which were won by William Horner's Suzy Sunshine and the Shawville Driving Club $5.00 prize went to Lyle P. Hodgins for Sandy Star. Results in the two heats for all horses entered in the Junior Invitation were as follows: Suzy Sunshine 1-2; Dr. Axworthy R. 2-1; Sandy Star 3-4; September Morning owned by Harvey Ferguson of Castleford 4-5; Skip-A-Long owned by Fred Fraser of Quyon 5-6; Monty Hal owned by Tom C. Smith of Renfrew 6-3 and times for the race were 2.25 and 2 in heat one and 2.21 in heat two.

The Invitation Matinee was a seven way contest.

Keons Store donated a picnic cooler won by May Queen J. owned by Barrie Murray and Bill Horner; Smiths Harness Shop donated a halter and brush which was won by Miss Patsy Pokabout owned by Norman Horner and Fosters Harness Shop donated a whip which was won by Deanna King owned by J. A. and M. R. Young.

The results for the two heats of the Invitation were as follows: May Queen J 1-5; Deanna King 2-3; Lochinvar Todd owned by Milburn Horner 3-2; Poplar King owned by Joe Hetherington 4-6; Miss Patsy Pokabout 5-1; Shirley Faber owned by Ivan Farr 6-4; Iva Sea Patch owned by Frank Fleury 7-7. Times were 2.17 and 2.17 and 3.

Hail hits Hardy's hilltop greenhouse

"Business as usual" is the story at the Hardy Plants greenhouses despite the fact that 842 panes of 20"x20" glass were smashed and crashed down through the new addition during the hail storm two weeks ago.

Hail stones were so large that they did no damage to the 400 gloxinia plants which were bedded outdoors under slats set about two inches apart but they wrought havoc in the glass house. Large slabs of broken glass as well as slivers of every size and shape flew in all directions driven by a crazy wind of tremendous speed and ice balls bounced off the floor and the flower beds to break still more panes on the rebound.

When the damage was cleared away and the seedlings removed to the other greenhouse, the plastic covered one, conditions became crowded but plant growth continued. Work in the strewn portion was made more difficult by the fact that overhead were many shattered panes, and their removal was a feat requiring hours of patience and skill.

Hardy Argue and Lawrence Dagg worked around the clock in hard hats to preserve the growing stock and Hardy and Marion managed to supply the needs of customers during the emergency without a break. Most of those who came to visit the greenhouse in the first week after the big storm came to offer sympathy and help whenever it might be needed.

By this week the slow task of removing the glass has been completed and replacing of the panes is in progress, hampered considerably by the rain. But where many would lose courage under such an unfortunate calamity, smiles still abound in and around the greenhouse, Ottawa florists still carry away truckloads of potted mums and Hardy is presently planning a special sale to clear room for his next planting; for in his business while the rest of us are complaining of the summer heat, he is preparing beds for the transplanting of Christmas poinsettias, come hail or high water!

Blood donor clinics at C. Bay and Quyon

Tuesday, August 23, at St. George Anglican Church Hall in Campbell's Bay there will be a blood donor clinic from three to 5.30 and from seven to 9.30 in the evening.

The slogan this year is "roll up your sleeve to save a life". Ernie Dagg is the chairman of the clinic committee and expects this year's clinic to be better than ever. The blood which is given by donors at the Campbell's Bay clinic each year is used to augment the district blood pool which is available free at any time for life preserving after accidents and during other medical emergencies.

The clinic in Campbell's Bay receives donors from an area roughly delineated by Bryson and Chapeau but there are always a number of Shawville people there as well who find it convenient to attend the Campbell's Bay Clinic. Otter Lake people come in and give blood at Campbell's Bay as do carloads from Portage du Fort.

There have been statements by local doctors that the giving of blood is good for the donor and this would appear to be true from the number of healthy citizens who give regularly.

The refreshments at the clinic are given freely by the ladies of the various Campbell's Bay churches; with cokes given free by Renfrew Bottling Works; nursing assistance given free by registered nurses; the hall is donated free and clerical assistance at the clinic is given free.

The blood is also given free, and all are welcome to give.

Also there will be a similar Blood Donor Clinic at Quyon on Wednesday, August 24, afternoon and evening at St. Mary's School. As far as can be discerned there will be no clinic in Shawville but everyone is welcome to give blood at the Quyon Clinic and Shawville donors are particularly welcome. Dr. Hudson is convener of the Quyon Blood Donor Clinic.

Shawville went western for third great Rodeo

Calgary may have it bigger but Shawville had it here and by the number of people who attended the rodeo on Sunday, August 7 it is obvious that the emphasis is on the "western" in this corner of Western Quebec.

The Hon Raymond Johnston visited the Rodeo and spoke words of greeting to those who had come from afar and words of congratulations to the organizers of the very successful event.

The rodeo was a series of competitions among owners and riders of ranches within a wide radius of the host ranch, Shawville's Diamond T. Hosts for the day were the members of the Shawville Pony and Saddle Club and two special events were held for them to participate in. The fathers of some of the youngsters were on duty in the ring and at the gate while some of the mothers presided at the refreshment booth.

Claude Bergeron and his very professional announcer took a large hand in the success of the day and all the events were exciting. Bucking broncos were nimbly handled by some of the best riders in the territory and right down to the charming attempts at a barrel race by Bonnie Sue Cruikshanks and Valery Thompson, every item was a crowd pleaser.

Rain threatened during the afternoon but the games went on and finished under a glow-

Plans are for completion of artificial ice installation by the middle of November

The Artificial Ice Committee held an executive meeting this week and a feeling of encouragement prevails in this project. They have decided to get complete costs from three companies who are in the business of installing ice plants and to choose one.

Soil testing is now being done as a preliminary to this costing.

The installation is to be completed by mid-November.

Although the fund has only hit the $25,000 mark and has another $25,000 to go to completion, there is hopes for a large government grant and several large companies have not yet been heard from.

Now that the committee feels the plan is definitely going ahead they hope that those many people who said they would contribute when they were sure will come forth with their donation to the fund.

The final, formal and written agreement between the Municipal Council of Shawville and the Agricultural Society has yet to be completed and the Lions Club executive which is steering this project is anticipating an early settlement between those two groups.

Bryson man killed riding motorcycle

Theophile Spencer, 46 of Bryson was killed instantly August 6 when the motorcycle he was driving collided with a car on Highway 8 near Bryson at the foot of Stonewall hill.

Police said Mr. Spencer was proceeding west in front of a truck which was being followed by a car driven by Marcel Gagnon, 42 of Bryson. As Gagnon pulled out to pass the truck, Spencer attempted to make a left turn onto a sideroad just east of Bryson. Gagnon struck the motorcycle in the left hand lane and threw Spencer 35 feet into the ditch.

The investigating officer Constable Jean Claude Chabot of Campbell's Bay detachment of the QPP said Mr. Spencer died of a broken neck and compound head injuries. He was not wearing a crash helmet. The car received $250 damage and the motorcycle valued at $500 was demolished.

Mr. Spencer is survived by his wife one son and two daughters. He was a former owner of a Bryson restaurant, operated a taxi and was employed at Consolidated Paper Corp.

Mill construction nears $9 million

In a procedure which must be next to impossible to reckon, the costing of a mill building project, someone down in Montreal has determined the expenses are nearing the nine million mark at the kraft pulp mill being built for the Consolidated Paper Corporation Limited here.

They've been calling it a $50,000,000 mill so this milestone might seem to indicate that it is less than one fifth on the way to completion but actually probably the most expensive parts will be the quickest going in, being the machinery and equipment.

Our unidentified informant from Montreal has also written that about 700 workers are on the site presently and that the staff of the finished mill will be about 300, with another 300 in woodlands operations, supplying wood to the mill. The information came on CPC head office letterhead so we can assume it is accurate.

AT THE MINE

The strike is over and the men have been back at work for two weeks. The feelings of the people were feelings of great relief.

The entire matter had got completely beyond the control of anyone locally and negotiators waited on the word from Toronto.

It was a surprise to many that the meeting of union and management minds was achieved so soon.

There can now be clear sailing for another few years and it is greatly to be hoped, next time the union and company decide to negotiate, that the employees won't so easily be stampeded into strike action.

To each his own responsibility. The worker's job is to do the work and there is no reason why his union representative cannot be negotiating at the same time. The compromise which was reached this time could have been reached without the strike.

BOOKS FOR SHAWVILLE

The question has often arisen, "when are you going to get a library in Shawville?" The question comes to us, as editors of this newspaper, from people in Shawville and outside.

The answer has always been "When Shawville wants a library, one will happen. Organizing a library is simple but useless if the people don't want one".

Well it seems the people now want one and so it is to happen.

A bookmobile will appear at Shawville Fair to demonstrate how a library works.

After the fair it will roll into Shawville on a regular schedule and after book borrowing habits have been established here there will be shelves built at the town hall and borrowing can then be done every day.

The Shawville Council has organized this and will operate it. The bookmobile and books come from a library organization supported largely by grants from the Dept of Culture of the Quebec Government.

Mr. Alfie Armstrong of Clarendon Front has collected several stocks of Timothy from his field, the longest measuring 6 ft 1 in. This outclasses anything we have heard of this season.

A violent thunderstorm accompanied by a cyclonic gale swept over the country south of Shawville on Friday afternoon and left considerable wreckage in its wake. Mr. Roy MacFarlane had a barn blown down and other farmers whose premises lay in the track of the storm sustained more or less damage. The rainfall was exceedingly heavy, and farther east, it is said that hailstones fell in considerable quantities.

For eleven long years he's been the man

Safety still foremost on Pontiac millsite

The safety program at Rust Associates has maintained its enviable record through strikes and layoffs and every other sort of disturbance. Safety engineer Larry Mosgrove has divided the site and building program according to calculated risk of jobs and hazards and has placed more emphasis on safety in those areas where the risk is high.

He and his assistant have been checking out all accidents and following through with an improvement of conditions where they occur so the same thing will not happen again.

Accidents which do happen are being referred first to the first aid department which is able in most cases to attend to the matter. When the scope of the accident is beyond first aid the man is sent to a doctor and if necessary to the hospital or home. This is the theory under which the safety department works but in actual practice there hadn't been anyone sent home from May 10 when the Safety Program took effect until the end of July. August reports have yet to be made.

With a total of 254 reported sick or hurt only 47 required the attention of a doctor and only two were sent home and two to hospital, all four of these being before May 10 when the Safety

Engineer took over with his first aid department.

Since Mr. Mosgrove has been on the site there has been no lost time due to on the job accidents. When a man has been slightly hurt he is returned to the job and given whatever light work he can do until he can resume his full time job. The painting of safety signs is one of the things Larry Mosgrove likes to have men on light duty do.

At the end of July there were 403,968 working hours with no loss of time in 77 working days.

Comets maintain top positionBill Murray aces Pembroke; Gagnon wins homerun title

North Renfrew finished off its schedule on a thunderous note on three fronts Sunday Aug 7.

Biggest noise was at Pembroke's Centenary Park where pennant winning Fort Coulonge Comets climbed all over Pembroke Ponies 22-1.

And these two teams went at it in the league's best of nine semi-final round which now totals as a result to date of two wins for the Ponies and one win for the Comets.

In the final games of the schedule, Chalk River defeated Douglas 14-0 and Petawawa blanked Barry's Bay 10-0.

However this area's interest is in the direction of the Comets and Ponies and their final game drew the biggest turnout of the season in the park. The visitors chased home 15 runs in the first inning, believed to be a league record and breezed home from there. The Ponies just never got started. This win clinched first place for Coulonge.

George Gagnon clubbed his 6th homer of the season late in the game with two mates on base to win the league's home run title even though he has not played more than a handful of games for the leaders this year.

Bill Murray in solid form, went the whole trip for the winners and had the Ponies literally eating out of his hand most of the way.

The playoffs are set up this way.

Ponies and Comets play a best of nine semi-final series; There are two quarter-final rounds, one between Chalk River and Pembroke Pirates and other series is between Petawawa and Douglas.

The quarter final winners will play a best of three set to meet the survivor of the Ponies-Comets playoffs.

Pony picnic at Manary's

The pony boys and girls and their parents and their grandparents of this neighborhood had another wonderful picnic at Bob Manary's farm last Wednesday. The usual games were played along with a few not so usual ones. One of the novelties was a hand-in-hand contest which required great control on the parts of both the young riders and their ponies.

Families from Quyon, Shawville and points in between were represented, some very substantially, and with great co-operation from the weatherman a memorable picnic was enjoyed.

Ribbons of every hue were distributed to all who participated and the event will long be remembered by each of those who attended.

65th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Hodgins of Vermillion, celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary Wednesday.

They were married at Shawville and moved to the Vermillion district in 1907. They homesteaded seven miles south of town on the Grisley Bear Coulee where they farmed until their retirement 17 years ago.

Mr. Hodgins took a keen interest in municipal affairs and was councillor and reeve for many years.

Mrs. Hodgins was the former Lina Dale of Greermount. They received messages from The Queen, Prime Minister, Premier Manning also a number from relatives and friends in the East and West. A nephew and niece Ken and Emma Hodgins of Noranda attended.

Mohr family reunion

The Annual Mohr Reunion was held Sunday in Churchill Hill Park in the Gatineau Hills with near one hundred present.

Friends came from Almonte, Pakenham, Oxford Mills, Ottawa, California and Aylmer.

The day was highlighted when Cliff Mohr, Quyon produced old Mohr books, papers, deeds etc explaining each.

The day was filled with games, food and chat.

Claude Belisle drowned Sunday

Last Sunday saw the first drowning in many years in Luskville when 15 year old Claude Belisle son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Belisle, Breckenridge drowned when he tired of rowing and decided to get out and push the boat ashore with his two young companions Louise and Monique Gosselin inside. All three were non-swimmers and it is believed that Claude underestimated the depth of the water.

Three other teenage girls in a boat nearby also were non-swimmers therefore were unable to go to his aid, none of the six young people were wearing life jackets.

Claude's body was found about thirty minutes later by some of the summer residents and artificial respiration was given by a nurse and a local doctor but to no avail.

Claude the youngest son of Alex Belisle and his wife Celina Allen leaves also his four brothers, Ronald, Aylmer, Noel, Raymond and Fern Luskville, five sisters Rolande (Mrs. M. Valin) Rejeanne (Mrs. R. Lauzon), Muriel (Mrs. A. Lauzon), Rose, Alice (Mrs. R. Revet and Fernande).

Funeral was held Tuesday from Emond's Funeral Home, Aylmer to St. Dominic Church Luskville for burial in adjoining cemetery.

John Carman McCallum of Portage du Fort died in Ottawa Civic Hospital on August 3 as a result of an accident at the municipal water works at the age of 46 years.

He was born January 13, 1920 in Renfrew, Ontario the son of the late James McCallum and the former Laura Pultz who survives in Kingston.

His education was in Renfrew and he married the former Mary Margaret Ducharme also of Renfrew. Surviving besides his mother and his wife, are sons Garry and Barry of Portage du Fort, brothers Norman and Leslie of Kingston, sisters Mrs. Howard Clark of Kingston and the members in the family, graced the casket. Mr. Belsher was the first in the family circle to have died. His wife, Mae and all the sixteen sons and daughters were able to be home for the funeral of their father. Also surviving are 65 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren, two brothers Perley and Russell of McCord and two sisters.

Mrs. Wm. Thibierge of Washington.

Mr. McCallum was a member of St. George's Anglican Church and of the Royal Canadian Legion Campbell's Bay Branch. Funeral service was at St. Georges with Rev D. C. Bolton, and burial at Portage du Fort cemetery.

Pallbearers were Percy McCarriston, Hugh Schlegert, Ted Mallette, Roy Dagg, Len Vaughan and Garnet McCallum.

The tragedy which took the life of Mr. McCallum struck at Portage when the chlorine plant which purifies the village water supply blew up. Carmen McCallum was badly burned and eventually succumbed and several others were also burned but survived.

Chlorine gas caused great danger until the Shawville High School Chemistry teacher George Stones explained how the tanks could be turned off without danger. It had been believed that the gas would harm the skin. But Mr. Stones and Mr. Ben Tanguay entered the premises and Gen got the gas stopped, after which the damage could be repaired.

Pastoral comment...

Rev. Jos. E. Gravelle

All Christians and Jews believe that there is but one God one Supreme Being, whom we must love and serve, since He is being honored and worshipped. all admit that God is worthy of our Creator and Master. We all agree on many basic truths and These beliefs bind us in a common brotherhood and distinguish us from the Pagans who adore other gods.

Christians and Jews differ in their interpretation of God's revelations to Man and so we find many different religions or religious sects, each with its own Creed or Profession of Faith, each with its own form of worship.

Christians and Jews can be divided into two groups, the one, the other whose worship is not non-sacrificial. The former keeps up the offering of a victim, as a means of honoring God of taking Him for past benefits, of atonement for sin and of imploring His help. In this group are the Jews and the Catholics. The latter worship God by prayer, by preaching of the Word of God and in certain liturgical ceremonies resembling to some extent the sacrifice offered up in the former churches, but without the imolation of any visible victim as is done in the Jewish temple or the appropriate transformation of substance by a qualified minister, as is done in the Catholic service.

The Apostle's Creed, dating from the origin of the Christian Church, sums up all the truths that Christians accept and hold firmly to. The Moral Law, contained in the Ten Commandments given directly by God to Moses, have always been considered as binding on all Jews and Christians. It is nice to know and to feel that we have these important ties binding us together. They are the solid basis of any future church unity. Both the first christian truths taught to the Apostles and the laws handed to Moses came from God himself. No one should dare to change them or to alter them in any way.

Moreover the Jewish Bible, the Old Testament, is accepted and retained by us all as an inspired work of God and for this reason should be read and studied by us all. Though Jesus, as a child of twelve, was lost to his parents for three long days, yet these days that the Doctors spent with Jesus, while He explained to them the Scriptures, were not lost. He was performing His first duty, the all-important work He came to do on earth, the work of transforming the Jewish Faith established by God Himself, into the New Doctrine He came to spread. He had to show them how everything in the Old Testament led to what He would teach in the New Testament, that the prophecies made in the one were now to be accomplished in the other, that He was the Messiah promised to redeem the world and had now actually come. Three days was short indeed for such an important lesson. He knew fully well that his parents were worrying over His loss, and were seeking for Him without success, but His Father's Business must come first. It was all-important.

"Why is it that you sought me Did you not know that I must be about My Father's Business?"

Waltham and the Regionale are facing an impasse

In June the School Commission of Waltham passed a motion which was forwarded to the Department of Education in Quebec and to the Catholic Regional Board in Hull to state that in future no fees in excess of $150 per pupil will be paid by the Waltham Commission.

They also stated that the rates will revert to their own requirements based on this fee and will be imposed within the current year to avoid the necessity of loan interest occasioned by delayed budget approval.

Thirdly, they resolved that in the absence of immediate recognition of the needs of Waltham, with due consideration given to their economy and to their geography, the recommendation be made to abandon high school education as presently offered and look elsewhere for a solution.

This three part resolution came as a result of having submitted for two years to what Waltham considered excessive rates for high school pupils imposed by the Outaouais Regionale. These rates today are more than five and a half times the cost at Waltham in 1963-64 and show every indication of continuing increasing costs with what Waltham considers absolutely no change or improvement in the standard of education whatever.

Waltham also was moved to the resolution by the recent "disgraceful strikes" by high school and technical teachers which they feel indicate a gangster-like direction by an irresponsible union which ignored the government directives with impunity and displayed on the part of the teachers an utter lack of dedication to the cause of education.

The Waltham Commission stated in the preliminary paragraphs of their resolution that this strike action on the part of the teachers showed a single loyalty, not to their employers, not to the pupils entrusted to them, but to "the almighty dollar alone".

The Board felt it was severely and unjustly penalized in respect of grants by the fact of having industries, notwithstanding the fact that industry brings people and people bring children which add to the burden of their obligations.

On August 1 the Outaouais Board met and read the Waltham resolution. Present at the meeting were Commissioners Rene Lalonde, Jean-Paul Tremblay, Maurice Marcotte, Dr. Henri Robinson, Gilbert Osborne, Avila St-Jean and Calumet Island's Mr. Eugene Pigeon, as well as secretary treasurer J. Robert Proulx. Commissioners Jean-Paul Labelle and Harold Yetts were absent.

This Board made a resolution about the Waltham resolution as follows. "It is proposed by Mr. Maurice Marcotte to advise the Waltham school board that the ORSB (Regionale) does not accept their resolution on date of June 13th, 1966 and that in the event of the Waltham school board refusing to pay the school fees determined by the ORSB for non-member school boards, their students shall be refused attendance in September 1966.
