

TARIFF INCREASE MEANS SPLIT IN WESTERN LIBERALS

So, Says Mr. H. W. Rowell, Who Has Just Been Out There.

NATIVES SHARE TIMING AGAINST IT

West Will Shortly be Powerful Enough to Sway the Dominion's Destinies.

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Toronto, Sept. 22.—N. W. Rowell, speaking here yesterday upon his return from Winnipeg, said: "The sentiment of western Liberals should already be tolerably well known; it is unanimous against any increase in the tariff. What surprised me most was that so far as observation went, this sentiment seemed to be shared by Conservatives as well. In answer to my enquiry as to what the effect would be in the west if the Liberal party yielded to the request of the Manufacturers' Association and made a substantial increase in the tariff, the opinion was expressed that the probable result would be the formation of an independent party in the west, having as its chief plank in its platform a reduction in the tariff. Many in the west think the present tariff very much higher than it should be, and the new party's policy would be a radical reduction in the tariff of the country, and while in view of their limited representation in the Dominion Parliament, the west might not at the present time be able to exercise a controlling influence, yet with the rapid coming of settlers in the near future they would be able to elect a large number of power and debate terms to the old political parties if they adopted such a course."

END OF MARINE INVESTIGATION

Captain Spain Will Send the Verbatim Evidence to the Department.

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Quebec, Sept. 23.—The marine investigation which has been proceeding from time to time to examine witnesses in regard to the accidents to the steamers Indiana, Monticello, Rustington and Sahara, is now closed, and Commander Spain, the president of the investigating tribunal, will send the verbatim evidence to the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa. The last session was held yesterday afternoon, when Captain W. Lewis of the S.S. Strathcona, gave evidence in regard to the position of the Sahara when he observed the wreck, and the position of the tugboat, and the assistance rendered by the tugboat.

WHAT WAS COL TOWNSHEND?

If He Inspected Our Forts He Cut Our Militia Department Dead.

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—In connection with a statement published in the London Daily Express some time ago purporting to come from a Col. Ferrer Townsend, who made a report to the War Office that the forts along the American frontier were in a state of inefficiency, it is learned at the department here that Col. Townsend did not report to the Canadian Government before making his tour of inspection. It is considered that if he had been an inspecting officer his first duty on arriving in the country would have been to report to the Militia Department, but as he did not do so, and has never been heard of at the department, his criticisms are not taken seriously.

THREE RIVERS CAMP A GREAT SUCCESS

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—The military camp at Three Rivers has been a great success as that at Sussex, N.B. The officers and men were highly pleased with the new system of drill with six-ton battalions, and have done excellent work in cutting and building fortifications. They constructed one fort which they have designated Fort Dunderberg in honor of the new general, who supervised the work personally. Lord Dunderberg, according to the official report, was very much impressed with the men. His mode of handling them is so quiet and cool that the men look upon him as a very different man from the one who was in command at the camp on Saturday for Niagara, going up by way of the St. Lawrence, in order that he might ascertain the points most suitable for defence along the frontier.

MANY SUBSCRIPTIONS TO PRIVATE REFUGE

The two men, David Carey and Thomas O'Brien, who were arrested on charges of getting money by false pretences, seem to have had a lucrative experience. Francois Laive, a Parisian, was arrested last night, and a 10-day remand was given on Friday for enquete, on the charge of being connected with the scheme. Several books of subscriptions to the Night Refuge, at 1071 Notre Dame street, were found, and the names in them show that the two men have thoroughly well canvassed the city. They contain the names of hundreds of prominent men and firms who subscribed anywhere from 50 cents to $5. Several cheques endorsed by Carey, as president of the Refuge, have been found, and on the top of each page of the book he is designated as superintendent. In the month from August 23 until their arrest, one man had collected $355. This thing is believed to have been going on for three years.

CONTINENTAL EGGS IN CANADIAN CASES

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—Professor Robertson had a conference recently in Montreal with the poultry and eggs branch of the Montreal Produce Merchants' Association. The president and members represented that, owing to the attention which had been directed lately to the profits from the fattening of chickens, they feared that farmers were fattening and killing a large number of pullets. If that practice should be carried to any greater extent, the merchants feared there would be a great reduction in the production of eggs. Consequently, they advised that farmers be encouraged to put in the crates for fattening only one egg, and that they should rear as many as practicable of good pullets for the supply of eggs during the winter and also for the supply of eggs during the summer. The exports of eggs from Canada amounted to the value of $97,068 in 1898 and to the value of $1,601,040, in 1901. The egg men further recommended that the farmers be advised to kill off the cocks after the first of June. This is desirable in order that eggs collected during June and later, will be infertile and therefore would have better keeping qualities during the hot weather.

CONTINENTALS IN CANADIAN CASES

It is reported that large quantities of eggs are now imported into the United Kingdom from continental countries, notably Russia and France. These eggs are received in large cases packed in straw, owing to the excellent reputation won by Canadian eggs. English dealers, in many cases, do not know that the continental eggs are similar to the Canadian standard egg case, holding thirty dozens each. Although the eggs are not labelled and sold as such, they are sold as Canadian eggs, and it is to be feared that they will be sold as such. While the practice is a convenience to the quality and reputation of Canadian eggs, it is also a direct injury, since some retailers may like to take these continental eggs in Canada, and sell them as Canadian eggs. These continental eggs are similar to them in size, quality and condition.

WAR DEPARTMENT THANKS CANADA

For Maintaining the Third Special Service Battalion at Halifax.

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—Hon. Jos. Chamberlain has called the Government that the 2nd Battalion, Royal Grenadier Artillery, will leave Halifax on Sept. 20th, and that on their arrival they will relieve the third special service battalion. The chief goal is to state that Secretary of State for War desires to convey appreciation of the valuable assistance rendered by the Canadian Government in maintaining the 2nd Battalion at Halifax. He has much pleasure in testifying to the good behavior of the battalion.

IRISH LANDLORDS SICK OF LAND LAWS

Lord Mayo, Leading Irish Peer, is in Favor of the Conference.

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) London, Sept. 23.—Lord Mayo stands for so much in Irish landlordism that he is writing a public paper approving the proposed constitution on the land question, with the Nationalists and Russellites will probably ensure the early holding of a conference. When Lord Mayo says that he and many other non-absentee Irish landlords are heartily sick of the present land laws, he speaks the simple truth, though many of them try to hide it for political reasons. Some Irish Tory journals illustrate the difficulties of all Irish landlords by pointing to the fact that the Nationalists that such representative leaders of the tenants' movement as Redmond and T.W. Russell must not be given places in the conference. Few who have attempted to master the complexity of the question believe that any conceivable private conference can settle the problem, but none will advocate the meeting, and the frankest discussion, in order to educate the ministry and English public opinion up to the necessity of the proposed bill. It is not a little significant that the new ministerial bill has not even mentioned the Nationalists, who are the only ones who have been proposed for consideration of the conference.

SMALLPOX HAS AT LAST BEEN STAMPED OUT

Dr. Laberge Considers the City Practically Free From the Disease.

FIRST CASE REPORTED IN APRIL LAST YEAR SINCE THAT TIME THERE HAVE BEEN IN ALL 654 CASES RECORDED.

Smallpox, Dr. Louis Laberge announced this morning, has now been practically stamped out. There are two cases still isolated at the Civic Hospital, but one of these leaves tomorrow and the other at the end of the week.

As no new cases have been reported for fourteen days, it is consequently thought that next week the city will be entirely free from the disease.

The first case was reported to the Health Department on April 30th, 1901, and from that date until the following October 15th 185 houses were quarantined.

From October 15th last up to September 20th of this year, 325 additional houses were placed in quarantine.

The total amount expended in exterminating the disease has been $33,963.05. In all there were 654 cases of smallpox, and of these 564 had never been vaccinated.

The mild nature of the contagion is seen in the fact that only 17 deaths occurred, or 2.6 per cent. of the total number afflicted.

Dr. Laberge thinks that the efficacy of vaccination has now been proven beyond peradventure, and he estimates that three-fourths of the entire population of the city is now in this manner satisfactorily protected against smallpox.

As showing the dissemination of the disease, the following figures are interesting, giving, as they do, the number of houses in quarantine in the various wards since the outbreak of the disease:

YOUNG IN NEW YORK, NEAR TO COLLAPSE

Strangely Differing Statements by Counsel for Alleged Mormon Murderer.

Derby, Conn., Sept. 23.—Apparently an earnest William Hooper Young, the perpetrator of the ghostly murder of Mrs. Annie Palmer, in New York, left Derby early today for New York, in the custody of two New York detectives. His departure in spite of his earnestness, was witnessed by several hundred persons who gathered at the railroad station. The police were not allowed to enter the car, and Young was handcuffed to one of the New York detectives, but went willingly enough, and to those who have watched his demeanor during his confinement here, he presents the appearance of one whose mind was relieved of a tremendous strain.

It had been expected that the New York officers would spirit their man away in the night, but this morning Young was still at the Derby Hotel. Young was received by Captain Tamm, of the Detective Bureau, in New York, at a conference of the police in the city hall. The conference was held in the morning, and the presence of the press was necessary. Accordingly arrangements were hurriedly made to take the man away.

William S. Hart, of New York, counsel for Young, had an hour's talk with the press at the police station. He said that the confession of the murder of Mrs. Palmer was not a confession, but a statement of fact. He said that the confession was not a confession, but a statement of fact.

Young was not even an accomplice. He said that the confession was not a confession, but a statement of fact. He said that the confession was not a confession, but a statement of fact.

BUYERS ANXIOUS TO GET PREMIUMS

Several complaints have come to the detection department regarding the workings of the "La Societe Nationale de Publication Hebdomadaire" and last night Detectives Trudel and Gote arrested "La Societe" in the person of Henri Lalonde, of 344 St. Timothee Street.

The business was conducted in this way: The company published magazines and stories every week. The customer signed a contract for 14 take 95 books at 10c each, and an inducement to sign this and take the goods a present was offered when the last book was taken. The contract sets forth a long list of gold and silverware, and goods of all kinds, and it was over these presents that all the trouble came. When

MANY FRESHMEN IN ALL FACULTIES EXCEPT SCIENCE

Work at McGill College Began in Earnest This Morning.

MAY LENGTHEN COURSES IN ARTS AND MEDICINE Arguments For and Against Adding Two Months to School Year.

In every faculty of McGill University work is in full swing to-day. As a result of getting the matriculation and supplemental examinations over before the opening of the session, the regular class work of the University begins a week earlier than last year.

When it is a little too early yet to know accurately how the attendance this year will compare with last year, there appears to be a very large freshman class in every Faculty excepting Science. In the Faculty of Applied Science the number of students graduating from schools and other colleges is smaller than that of last year, so that the first year will probably be not quite so large. This is probably due to the University officials, however, for last year the first year was abnormally large, there being enrolled between 90 and 100 students.

ENROLLMENT SATISFACTORY

The enrollment of new students in the Faculties of Medicine, Arts and Law is considered satisfactory, and it is expected that in Medicine a large increase will be shown. The time of the McGill Medical School may well be said to be world-wide. In its Freshman class last year nearly every section of the British Empire was represented and this year not a few overseas students will be among those who will listen to the introductory lectures.

MAY LENGTHEN SESSION

There is a good deal of talk around the University just now of lengthening the session in the Faculty of Arts and Medicine. At present there are only twenty-two working weeks in the session. There is a feeling among the faculty that the valuable libraries and equipment of the Science Faculty especially are left too long idle under the existing arrangement of the calendar. Though the question of lengthening the session has not yet been formally broached in any meeting of the governing body, it is believed that the matter will be brought up for discussion. While no very definite plan has yet been mooted, there is some talk of adding an extra two months at the end of the session. Thus the Convocation

BOTH BAKERS AND THEIR CUSTOMERS OBJECT TO THE NEW BREAD BY-LAW

Weight of Loaves Required Pleases Neither the Men, the Bakers Nor the Man Who Buys Them.

By-law No. 30, relating to the manufacture and sale of bread, is receiving much attention at the present time than any other of the city enactments. General interest is being manifested as to what will be made the standard weight. The recent amendment to the by-law stipulates that the standard must be one, two and four pounds. Before the amendment, as explained in the Herald, the standards were six and three pounds in brown bread and four and two pounds in white bread.

THE ORIGIN OF TROUBLE. The theory given by The Herald on Saturday as to the origin of the trouble was corroborated yesterday by Mr. J. Courso, of 382 City Hall Avenue. The contention on the part of the Bakers' Association is that the bread manufacturers who deal principally in white bread do not use the best wheated flour, but a compound of wheat and coarse flour, in accordance with Mr. Courso, merely a pretext. The real reason, he says, is that the Bakers' Association is looking for higher prices.

The farmers themselves who are settling in the Northwest are men of substance who are thoroughly familiar with the conditions of life, who are provided with the best modern agricultural machinery.

Thence they drove to the Mohawk Indian Church, one of the oldest churches in Canada, and also visited Chief Brant's tomb, and the cemetery of the Mohawk farms. Sharkey was held in $10,000 bail for the action of the grand jury.

THE CONSERVATIVE SECTIONAL POLICY

What the Globe Deduces From the Vague Utterances of Mr. Borden and Henchmen. (Special to The Montreal Herald.) Toronto, Sept. 23.—The Globe, in discussing "Two Tariff Policies," says: "Conservative leaders and their newspapers have recently been much disturbed over certain alleged disagreements between Liberal Ministers on the subject of the tariff. As we have said, the place to look for the Liberal tariff policy is in the tariff itself, and not in occasional ministerial utterances on the platform, which may express only the opinions of the individual minister. In his speech in Toronto last December, Sir Wilfrid expressed his strong approval of the present system of tariff duties, and showed that it had resulted in a great increase in our British trade."

That Gold Spoon.

There are some men who seem to be favorites of fortune. They are industrious, cheerful workers, full of overflowing energy and splendid health, and success seems fairly to drop into their hands. It is of such as these that the less hardy and less successful man says, "I wish I were like that gold spoon."

In Trouble Over a Cheque.

Last night Detective Cowan and Samson arrested Charles Langway, 22 years of age, of Logan Street, on the charge of passing a cheque belonging to a man named O'Brien. The cheque was for $125, and made payable to bearer. It was cashed at the branch of the Bank of Montreal at the corner of St. Timothee and Catherine streets. He claims he received the cheque from a man with a request to get it cashed. From that time he has not heard of the man, and thinks the man got the cheque by some other means.

Do Such Union Exist?

Before Judge Lafontaine yesterday two men named David Carey and Thomas O'Brien were arraigned on a charge of obtaining money on false pretences. It is alleged they canvassed the city with subversive literature, and for the "Longshoremen and Workmen's Union," and for the "Freight Handlers and Checkers' Union," and also for the Night Refuge. The two men, it is claimed, do not exist, and they had no authority from a change Refuge. Both pleaded not guilty and claimed to be citizens of the unions which they declared were regular organizations. Carey said a man named McEwen was president of the Freight Handlers and Checkers' Union, but that gentleman was present and pointed out the man, and said he had never even heard of the union. Carey and O'Brien were arrested last night in connection with the case. The men will come up again on Friday.

PAY SCHOOL TAXES IN STE. CUNEGONDE

Ald. Walsh has now undertaken to work for the redress of a grievance under which a small section of Catholic school supporters labor at the present time. In the block bounded by the north side of Notre Dame Street, the south side of Dorchester, the west side of Canning Street and the fourth side by the city limits, the Irish Catholics supporters, who formerly paid into the coffers of the Catholic School Commissioners in the city, now pay to those of St. Cunegonde. The rearrangement was effected by an act of the Legislature.

$100 FROM EVERY SALOONKEEPER FOR THE REFERENDUM FIGHT

(Special to The Montreal Herald.) Toronto, Sept. 22.—Judging from a circular issued by the all-Canada Victorian Association, committee, the liquor interests purpose spending much money in the active campaign against the referendum. It is estimated that $100 has been made on all hotel keepers of the province, the amount of which may be judged from the fact that Toronto alone has had a special levy of $100,000, although, from this city, considerable murmuring is heard respecting what some call an unreasonably high assessment. Part of the circular reads as follows: "The committee which was appointed by the convention of license holders in this city has been organized and in charge of the campaign in Ontario has formulated such a plan and fixed what

LIVELY SQUABBLE CONTINUES OVER PROJECTED STABLE

City Attorney Ethier has prepared an opinion to the effect that the City Council cannot prevent the erection of a livable in any stable in the city, unless it is apt to become a public nuisance or is prejudicial to the public health. The opinion was called forth by the application of Mr. Alex. McGarr for permission to build a livable stable opposite the Stanley street Presbyterian Church, against which the members of that congregation had instituted vigorous opposition. At the meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon Dr. Laberge and Sanitary Engineer Dore, in a report on the subject, declared that, after examining the locality, and the existing by-laws, they had reached the conclusion that the stable would not be in itself a nuisance, though it might become so by defective construction, by the neglect of sanitary arrangements. Notwithstanding this report, Ald. Stearns was successful in having the matter left in abeyance until the next meeting in order that the congregation interested might have an opportunity of placing its scientific side of the question before the committee. No body of men, said Ald. Stearns, disagreed among themselves so much as

A. H. KERR WILL NOT PLAY IN CHAMPIONSHIPS THIS YEAR

Play in the amateur golf championship of Canada competition begins to-morrow morning on the links of the Royal Montreal Golf Club at Dixie. At present the prospect for brilliant play in the opening rounds is not very bright. To-day's heavy rain will have a appreciable effect on the links, which have been put in the best possible condition for the competition. The number of entries is not so large as last year. Among those who find themselves unable to take part in the contest is Mr. A. H. Kerr, of Toronto, who won and an expenditure of $276,028. A basis was adopted for the current year of $84,000 expenditure for domestic missions. The basis of salary of missionaries remains the same as last year, except for British Columbia, which gets an advance of $25 for each of the three classes, married ordained, single ordained, and single unordained, making $700, $400 and $300.

CONTRACT FOR PUMPING GOES TO THE LACHINE CO., THE LOWEST TENDERER

City Council Goes Over the Tenders Carefully and Then Gives Its Decision by a Large Majority.

The Lachine Company was yesterday afternoon successful in obtaining from the City Council a contract to supply power for the new electric pump at the high level reservoir throughout a period of five years.

Though the meeting had been called especially for the purpose of considering certain specified reports, it was considerably after five o'clock before the orders of the day were reached.

There were only two tenders—the Lachine Hydraulic Company and the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company—each of whom submitted figures for both day and night work.

The Montreal Company offered the electric power required on a three or five years' contract, from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the annual price per horse power of $21.50, or from midnight to noon for $25. For extra hours of pumping beyond the 12 hours this company asks one-half cent per horse power per hour.

The tender of the Lachine Company offered the electric power required on a three or five years' contract, from 10 p.m. to 10 a.m. at the annual price per horse power of $20, or from midnight to 2.30 p.m. of $25.

Ald. Couture made a lengthy speech in which he gave it as his opinion that the Heat & Power Company, at $21.50 per horse power, should get the tender.

When Ald. Couture had taken his seat, Ald. Ames immediately took the floor and before he concluded proved conclusively that no matter in what light the matter was viewed, the offer of the Lachine Company were the lower.

Metropolitan House Furnishing Co., Complete House Furnishers, 1678 & 1680 Notre Dame.

It will be seen that ordinarily the tender is a mere bagatelle. "It is needless to discuss fractional hours," concluded Ald. Ames.

Each company, Ald. Ames pointed out, gave a price for extra time, assuming that it might be necessary to run the pump for more than 12 hours a day.

The amendment was defeated on this division. Nays—Laporte, Vallieres, Robertson, Cleghorn, Chauveau, Ames, Turner, Sadler, Ekers, Gullery, Lariviere, Bumbay, Carter, Nelson, N. Lapointe, Walsh, Sauvageau, Stearns and Dagenais.

The original motion was then adopted. Nays—Laporte, Vallieres, Lebeuf, Robertson, Cleghorn, Ames, Turner, Sadler, Ekers, Martineau, Gullery, Wilson, Lariviere, Bumbay, L. A. Lapointe, Ricard, Payette, Lemay, Hebert, Dagenais.

But the Violence at Scranton Suggests the Desperation of the End.

Washington, September 22.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, said today that the striking miners in the Pennsylvania coal fields were prepared to hold out for months.

He said the miners were disposed to make concessions, but the operators had refused all overtures from them, and that the men now "are not going to yield."

"The strikers," he said, "are resolved to support their fight until they are victorious."

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 22.—(Special to Herald.) McCool, 25 years old, a breaker boy, stopped the strike of a couple of hundred pupils at the Hillard Grove School, this city, yesterday, by a bold and audacious act.

The pupils were going to leave the school because some of the children had relatives working at the mines. Only was asked to make the school a place of refuge for the children, but instead he spoke to them.

"When there ain't no strike," he said, "I've got to work in the breaker; and now, when I can go to school, I'm going to get all the schoolin' I can, and no goin' to work in the breaker."

Pupils at No. 31 school at Scranton were on strike because of the detention of the school being heated with non-union coal.

POINT ST. CHARLES

The boating season being over, the oarsmen and paddlers at the Grand Trunk Boating Club are taking a lively interest in the races which will be conducted by Father O'Meara.

The Rev. J. L. Jarrett gave a very interesting and interesting lecture to the people of Cuzco, Peru, their lives and customs, at the Centenary Methodist Church, last evening.

There will be a dance and supper given at the Grand Trunk Boating Club on Friday evening, at which some of the prizes for the series races which were overlooked will be presented.

It will be interesting to note that a few of the Point boys are likely to figure on the Brits this year. C. W. McLean, Arthur Marshall, Jack Marshall and Roberts are attending practice with them.

A bicyclist, while going at a good rate of speed through the subway yesterday, ran into a little boy, on his way to school. The boy was very badly hurt and it was found that nothing beyond a little shaking up and a bad fright had happened to him.

A very interesting service will be held in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. The children will sing anthems and the organ will be played by one of themselves. There will be two or three addresses. The subject of the addresses will be interesting alike to young and old.

"She loved Lord Orme, yes, she loved him; and he—pretended to be her suitor and treated her with infamous neglect. Oh! At that moment she felt as if she could kill him and that child of a girl, with the refined features, who had dared to come between her and the man she had believed was her very own."

So fierce and violent was the paroxysm into which Lady Bury had worked herself, before she was able to utter a word, that she had not been the result of this sudden mental strain there is no saying what rash and intemperate act she might have committed. It was her nerves saved her, and the tempest of rage was succeeded by a burst of hysterical sobbing. But few tears came, it was as if some invisible hand had checked her, and which I do not believe is anything but the outcome of a desperate passion.

"Then you do not intend to go there or make any inquiries?" asked Mrs. Danvers, still persistent, though the snub she had received made her rise and prepare to depart.

"I shall go in the ordinary course of events; but I shall in no way undertake to interfere with Constance Burghley's acts of charity."

With this ultimatum Mrs. Fitzroy Danvers was compelled to be satisfied, and she soon after took herself off, altogether satisfied with her visit, yet strongly suspicious that she had implanted a deeper sting than Lady Bury chose to acknowledge.

And so she had. Yet why Mrs. Danvers wished to sting and annoy Lady Bury was a question that could not be readily answered, except that some women are born jealous and spiteful and that the older lady, though by no means deprived of good looks, and her fortune, and her popularity.

Though Mrs. Danvers' information had been made up of the scraps she had seen her for half an hour after she was left to the privacy of her boudoir Mrs. Danvers would perhaps have in some degree regretted her unjustifiable interference.

For ten minutes after the door had closed on her visit, Lady Bury walked furiously up and down the room as though she were a tigress in too small a cage. Her teeth and hands were clenched, her cheeks were crimson, and her whole mind was that of a woman who was allowing herself to be mastered by disappointment and rage.

CHAPTER IV. AWAKENING. Lord Orme's studio was rather the lounge of a sybarite than the working room of an earnest painter. It had been the studio belonging to Lord Redmayne's house, but had been so luxuriously fitted up with modern appliances that not a vestige of its former use was apparent. Eastern rugs and eastern tapestries abounded, and on the walls amid the many colored embroideries that so often were "studied" portraits, in fact, of some of the beautiful women who had crossed Lord Orme's path. By a curious omission, either purposely or accidentally, Lady Bury's piquante face had never been represented by his pencil, but that Betty Temple should sit to him was his intention, whatever opposing or difficulty there might be in the way. Her face was a very lovely one, full of softness, intelligence, and refinement; but it was not solely on his account that Lord Orme wished to commit it to canvass. He had fallen, suddenly and overwhelmingly in love with Betty. Even before she had quitted Bonbonniere's shop, where he had first seen her, his pulse had quickened and the depths within him had been stirred. Not for the first time, as men are in the habit of averring when seriously smitten, Lord Orme could not, with the recollection of old love affairs, have asserted this; but before the second day of his acquaintance with Betty Temple was over he had decided that it was no transient fancy, but essential to his happiness that he should win her. On Lottie Bury—or, rather, on her thousands, for in them, and not in herself, lay her charm as far as he was concerned—in these first hours of madness he did not bestow a thought. All his attention was devoted to scheming how he should win Betty. Lord Orme was no mean schemer, since the greater portion of his time had been spent in intrigue; but the winning of Betty, though it seemed so easy was, nevertheless, difficult to achieve. A Woman's Calvary. By Jean Middlemas. SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS. Betty Temple and her younger sister Mabel are orphans in London, and in great poverty. Chance, however, brings them into the acquaintance of the Ladies Constance and Gladys Burghley, the daughters of the Earl of Redmayne, and Lord Orme, the heir to the title, remarks on their beauty, and particularly that of the elder, whom he wishes to sit to him for a portrait. Betty is not quite sure she enjoys the sudden change of fortune, but Mabel, the younger, is perfectly satisfied. In her romps about the house of Lord Orme she meets a peer old enough to be her grandfather, suddenly finds herself a widow, rough death, and possessed of great riches, she is not yet 30 years of age. She, when the conventional period of mourning has passed, mingles much in social events at which Betty finds herself growing to like Lord Orme, and is charmed that he should pay so much "homage to mere street girls." CHAPTER III.—(Continued). "Very good of Lord Orme to interest himself about that horrid fire," she said, with seeming carelessness, her attention being apparently chiefly directed to a scheme de toilette for which Lady Bury's chef was celebrated. "Yes, he is very kind and feeling," murmured Lady Bury, "and I must make some remark, and happening not altogether upon a true one since the neglect of herself in the fog rankled." "Helpful he is—sometimes too helpful. They all are; they are silly. Would you believe it, they have taken the two bosoms of the family as intimates two girls they picked up in the street?" "Impossible! How do you know this?" and Lady Bury got very red, since she held the glass in her hand, and I got the story from my maid, on whom Martin, their confidential man, is rather sweet." "But in the street?" queried Lady Bury, "how do you know any—"

HISTORY OF THE PENNANT WINNERS

Second Time a Toronto Team Has Captured a Baseball Championship.

For the second time since Toronto has been in a professional baseball league a champion has been captured by that city. In 1887, when Toronto was member of the International Association, the local club finished first. Curiously enough, Buffalo was also second that year, but the race was not so close at the finish as it has been this season. Last year Rochester won the pennant, with Toronto second, 29 points behind.

Manager Ed. Barrow, Who Piloted Toronto to the Pennant.

Hamilton fourth, London fifth, and Buffalo, Troy and Albany in the order named. The Hamilton club did much to kill Toronto's chance of landing the pennant this year, as the Ambitious City's team always proved a hoodlum.

In 1890 the league went out of business, and a new six-club international league was formed, composed of Detroit, Saginaw, Bay City, Toronto, Hamilton, Buffalo and London. Only part of the season was played out. Detroit led when it broke up, with Toronto third.

The Toronto club then dropped out of the circuit now known as the Eastern League, and from 1891 to 1894 inclusive were not represented in the association. In 1895 the team was again out in the league, backed by Mr. Peter Ryan, with Charlie Madcock as manager. After July 4, John Chapman went there as manager, Springfield won the pennant, with Providence second. Toronto was the only Canadian team, and finished last.

In 1896 A. Buckenberger went to Toronto, backed by the Pittsburgh club. During the latter part of the season the Toronto club was transferred to Albany under the impression that they would receive better support and that Sunday ball could be played. The make was soon realized, as a transfer back to Toronto took place, and the club finished the season. Providence won the pennant, with Buffalo second, Rochester third, and Toronto fourth. Toronto was the tail-end team.

In 1897 Arthur Irwin managed the club, and had an exceptionally strong, hard-hitting team, many of the members of that team are now stars in the National and American Leagues. Syracuse won, with Toronto a close second, and Buffalo third. Springfield, Providence, Scranton, Montreal and Wilkes-Barre finished in the order named.

In 1898 Montreal landed the pennant, with Wilkes-Barre second, and Toronto third. Buffalo again tagged the Toronto club, and was fourth, with Providence, Syracuse, Springfield and Ottawa finishing in the order named.

BASE HITS. Pittsburgh. To-morrow. Game starts 3.30. Will be worth seeing. Buffalo has made money this year. Sebring batted for .333 in 11 games. Ritchey made but three errors in 33 games. Young has dropped three out of his last four games. Keeler has batted safely in all but one of 33 games.

Some who wish to enter in The Herald's competition, choosing an all-league lacrosse team as announced on Saturday, may have forgotten some of the players in the various teams. Below are given the names of those who have played in three matches with any of the teams.

Up to Saturday the Athletics had won 22 out of 23 games at home. Hardy, the young left-hander of Selee's team, pitched out the Joliet (Ill.) team last Wednesday with one hit.

Wrigley, of Worcester, says the Worcester players all thought Dunleavy was a better pitcher than Selee. Louis Bruce won a suit of clothes for doing the best hitting on the Toronto diamond.

In 11 games Huskiss made 13 errors. Previous to that he had played an errorless game in 16 contests. So runs the game.

In the final games with Toronto, the Providence team was crippled by the absence of First Baseman Cassidy. Right Fielder Wagner and Third Baseman Suter Sullivan.

The Toronto Star is authority for the statement that Manager Stallings, of Buffalo, offered $100 to Worcester pitcher who defeated Toronto. If true, Groy came in for a century.

Mr. James Bannon says he will manage Toronto next year. Burnham also insists he will manage Newark. Burnham also insists he will manage Newark. Burnham also insists he will manage Newark.

Of the many players tried this season by a National League, no one has made a better impression than young Tinker, of the Chicago club, where he plays a great deal of ground, is a splendid thrower and a fine hitter and baserunner. Manager Selee is fortunate to command his services for another season.

THE COST OF PLAYING GOLF

English Paper's Statement That the Poor Man is Being Driven Out is Challenged.

Some of the English newspapers have been raising a cry about the increasing cost of golf, and that the poor man is being driven out of the links. Gordon C. Smith, writing in the London Daily Mail, gives an answer to this. He says:—

It is a pity that the cry should be raised in the first place, that there are, and always have been, two kinds of golf. There is rich man's golf and there is poor man's golf, each involving a very different rate of expenditure. But golf is one of those happy games which it is possible to spend a great deal of money on, but which can still be played and enjoyed at a very modest expenditure. It can never be like polo or deerstalking, which nobody can indulge in without plenty of money.

A man can enjoy golf as he enjoys the theatre according to his income, and many people will tell you that the pit is the best seat in the house. If a man is rich he may belong to a club, wear expensive clothes and boots, ride in cabs, and travel first-class by rail, and from his club, always employ a caddy, and indulge in refreshments, and find that he has very little change out of a week's golf. If he goes golfing, but one does not require to do any of these things in order to play and enjoy golf properly.

Tom Jenkins and John Pienig have been matched to wrestle mixed styles, two in three. Palmer, late of the Granites, and one of the best flying wings in Canadian Rugby, has gone to Ottawa, where he will play with the College team.

The backer of George Hackenschmidt, the noted Russian wrestler, has posted a forfeit in London for his man to meet Oscar Jack Czeko of Tom Cannon. Charles Littlefield, accompanied by his son, Fred Littlefield, is at Lexington for the purpose of selecting from the Elmendorf Stud material for next year's Haggis.

George Sullivan grappled with Umpire Cox and threatened to take a fall out of him because of a decision which he did not like.—Toronto Globe-Sullivan was probably right. Cox was Toronto's friend.

J. G. N. Whitaker's yacht Inroquois, of Philadelphia, after one of the closest contests of the kind on record, has won the ocean race, on corrected time for leeches, which started from Sea Gate on Saturday morning. The total distance was 210 miles.

current cost of golfing necessities other than balls with their price ten or fifteen years ago, keeping in view the vastly increased popularity of the game with all classes of the community, does not appear to suggest any serious cause for alarm. In spite of the fact that in that period the price of clubs has been raised about a third—that is, roughly, from 4s. to 6s.—and repairs in the same proportion, and that golf club subscriptions have doubled, the number of clubs and golfers has been increased nearly ten fold, and goes on steadily augmenting.

In regard to the new balls it certainly seems at first sight that an addition of at least 2s. to the price of one of the essential and most fragile implements of the game, must be a serious matter, but the cry of the alarmist may be dismissed with the simple statement that the new balls last so much longer than the gutta-percha balls that the initial outlay which they involve is a positive economy. The present inflated prices are merely due to the demand for the extra-percha balls that the initial outlay which they involve is a positive economy.

Nothing of a sensational nature was disclosed in the examination here yesterday of Donald Sutcliffe, M.P.P. for South Oxford. He denied doing any treating at hotels during the contest. H. G. Coram, C.P.R. agent, Owen Sound, goes to Winnipeg as assistant to General Superintendent Leonard. Owen Sound citizens gave him a case of silverware and the C.P.R. employs a gold watch, books and chain. Geo. Crane, of Owen Sound, is dead. He was 90 years old, and with the exception of one son outlived his family of ten. Samuel Perkins, of Plains Road, announced his neighbor's need, and the P.M. Hamilton fined him $30.50 for the damage.

PITTSBURG TO-MORROW

If the clerk of the weather only sends along the right brand of his commodity the attendance at the baseball game which the Pittsburgh National League team is to play with the Toronto club in the local grounds to-morrow promises to break the record. There have been but few sporting events which have aroused a similar amount of interest. Never before has a baseball team been gathered together which has shown such marked superiority over all its opponents as the Pittsburgh club in the season now rapidly drawing to a close.

Miscellaneous

Newfoundland Protecting Caribou. Quebec, Sept. 22.—American sportsmen who contemplate a visit this autumn to Newfoundland for deer stalking will do well to note the recent amendments to the game laws of the island. The system of graduated licenses, to not only hunters but also to sportsmen, this system enabled sportsmen upon payment of a graduated license fee of from $40 to $80 to hunt in the island for from four to eight weeks, and to kill from three to seven deer. The result of the system was a butchery of deer, for when a party of sportsmen and guides went out together they often killed enough caribou to allot seven to each gun carried by the party.

Lacrosse

Ivy Leaf Defeated. Calumet, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The Ivy Lacrosse Club, of Montreal, played a match with the Calumet team here on Saturday and were defeated by eight games to one. The visitors put up a plucky game from start to finish, but were outclassed in weight and speed by the locals.

Ottawa Fall Fours. The fall fours of the Ottawa Rowing Club were decided Saturday before a large crowd of spectators, and the sport furnished was of the best. The crews competed for the powers, and the winner turned up in Fred Burbridge's crew, which showed greater steadiness and more speed than the other competitors. The men pulled together in good style and rounded the buoy faultlessly. The weather was perfect for the sport.

Tom Jenkins and John Pienig have been matched to wrestle mixed styles, two in three. Palmer, late of the Granites, and one of the best flying wings in Canadian Rugby, has gone to Ottawa, where he will play with the College team.

The backer of George Hackenschmidt, the noted Russian wrestler, has posted a forfeit in London for his man to meet Oscar Jack Czeko of Tom Cannon. Charles Littlefield, accompanied by his son, Fred Littlefield, is at Lexington for the purpose of selecting from the Elmendorf Stud material for next year's Haggis.

George Sullivan grappled with Umpire Cox and threatened to take a fall out of him because of a decision which he did not like.—Toronto Globe-Sullivan was probably right. Cox was Toronto's friend.

What is Being Played at Local Theatres This Week

"A NORMANDY WEDDING," AT THE ACADEMY.

"A Normandy Wedding," described as a comic opera, by J. Chever Goodwin, author of "Wang," was given the first presentation in Montreal, at the Academy of Music, last night. The piece is not new. It is a revival of the "Normandy Wedding" produced some three years ago in New York. Its career then was brief—six weeks it ran in the race for popularity without arriving within sight of its goal. Since then until the present it has remained in seclusion.

The opera, if opera, even comic opera, can be called, is a marvel of melodiousness. There is nothing even in the music, which is often the saving feature of a poor musical play, to which one can turn for relief. It is hopelessly ordinary excepting occasionally when a few bars of a vagrant air recall something like the music of a better company. The libretto is, for the most part, a sea of dreary drivel flecked with jokes and witticisms which are veritable gems of acuity, and sometimes allusions of a breadth which span the distance between stage and gallery to a nicety.

"CAMILLE" AT PROCTOR'S—MR. DROUET AS ARMAND.

Mr. Robert Drouet at Proctor's yesterday again gave a lesson in the art of playing French plays without being French. His Armand Duval was big, lusty, breezy, thirty-five, dominant and several other things not usually associated with the lover of Marguerite Gautier. But it was never uninteresting. Mr. Drouet is so superbly at home in his matter that the scenes that one cannot help believing in him as long as the curtain is up.

Denise, the goose girl, is a part that gives Miss Grace Cameron ample scope for her abilities as a comedienne and a singer. It also gives her an opportunity of carrying on a live and most unhappy looking goose in the first act. Miss Cameron will never win a niche in the temple of fame as a comedienne. Her part, however, includes one or two songs that are above the ordinary level of the piece, and with these she succeeded in winning the favor of the audience. The other members of the company are gifted with more than enough ability to fill their roles, while the chorus, though small, sings and dances vigorously and pleasantly.

MODERN FABLES BY GEORGE ADE

THE KIND OF MUSIC THAT IS TOO GOOD FOR HOUSEHOLD USE.

One Evening a little Flock of Our Best People got together at the Home of a Lady who invariably was first over the Fence in the Mad Pursuit of Culture. She loved to fill her Front Rooms with Folks who wore 7 3/4 Hats and read Norwegian Novels that no one else every heard anything about.

zest looking thing. Henry seemed to be a perfect slave to tobacco. So on on. The Horrible Example would sit and listen to these Disclosures, and he would groan and groan until he felt about Four Pounds lighter than Smoke. One Evening, after she had publicly dissected him and turned the Strong Light on all of his Idiosyncrasies, old Henry revolted. "I may be an Onion, and I know I'm feeble-minded, and I suppose I need a Guardian," he said, rumping up his Hair, "but you want to remember a few Things. You jumped eight feet to nail me when I sipped up the Proposition. And this tottering intellect has managed to fix you up with more Tailor-Made and Picture Hats than your whole Family ever saw before."

WESTMINSTER CHOIR AT WINDSOR HALL.

Those members of the Westminster Choir who are visiting Canada this year under the direction of Mr. Edward Branscombe, sang last night before an audience which filled Windsor Hall practically to its capacity. That the audience was filled with enthusiasm may be best seen in the fact that fourteen encore numbers were given. How much of this enthusiasm may be laid at the door of patriotism and how much at that of music is an entirely different problem.

Several Ladies of the Dun and Bradstreet Aristocracy received an Invitation one Day to chimp in on a new and glorious party to be given at the Little Club, organized to do Good, and no Woman could break in unless her Pearl's were as large as Hickory Nuts. One Day genuine Philanthropy appeared at a meeting of the Club and put in a hot Plea for some persecuted and neglected Children that he had lately discovered. "I know that you are sitting up Nights trying to think up Schemes for helping the Dumb Animals and the Waifs, and that is why I don't put you up to some poor little Tikks who are being cut out of nearly All that makes Life worth living for the average Kilted. We have right in this cruel City a lot of Children who never had the Fun of getting out in a Vacant Lot and playing House with a Store Box and some Broken Dishes. They never run Bare Feet so that they could enquire the Mud between their Toes, the one True Pleasure on which the Gods have set no Heavy Price. They never went Fishing in their lives, and the poor little Boys never went swimming in a Creek and got their scanty Wardrobes fitted into Hard Knots. The unhappy Children to whom I refer are confined in large Stone Houses, before they are condemned to a constant association with frozencased English Servants and the Governess who got the Position because she was Chromo. The Grimsmen's Offspring may watch Mother hang out the Wash, and see Father sail by on the down-town Car, but the Little Ones for whom I am pleading get a peep at their Parents about once per Week, and in preparation for this Ceremony they are dressed up until they can't sit down. They never play Hook because they are not permitted to go near the Public Schools, and the History of the United States is locked away from them. I don't know how many of these Kids are created equal. Unless we do something to rescue these unhappy Youngsters I fear that the Girls will grow up with a perverted Preference for Blueed Princes and the Boys will sit around all their lives apologizing for their Native Land."

As has been invariably the case at each concert given here by members of the choir during the last three years, the programme was not begun until the audience had been roused to audible impatience. The first number, however, was received with such patient appreciation that the sins of the management were relegated to the background. The two Messiahs, with their wonderful alto voices, the like of which have almost never been heard on this side, were recognized by those who had heard the choir as its two previous appearances here, as was Mr. Edward Branscombe, whose method seems to increase in effectiveness each year. Mr. Hilton's venerable figure was mistaken and the other adult members of the party seemed distinctly inferior to their predecessors. The glees, part songs and madrigals were, however, sung with attention to details which has always made the singing of the choir different from that of any other musical body.

The choir boys who accompany the party are more numerous but less effective than either last year or three years before. There is not among them a single soloist who can rank with the well-known boy sopranos of this country, and while the ensemble singing shows excellent training, their solos were distinctly disappointing. Madame Marie Hooton is again with the party, and her songs were as usual, unfortunately applauded by the lovers of old melodies, and again the lack of good instrumental accompaniment not only marred her solos but several others as well.

"LE VOYAGE EN SUISSE" AT THE FRANCAIS.

The antics and tricks of the two harlequins, made familiar to the public through the medium of "Fammas," that ilk, receive a new setting in the play which holds the boards at the Theatre Francais this week. Though lacking the weird background of mythical characters, sprightly fairies and tropical scenery, their frolicsome gambols are the first in Paris, the second on board a sleeping car of the continental express, and the third in the interior of an inn among the mountains of Switzerland. The harlequins appear this time as the servants of Dr. Cornet, a doctor who is not, however, and though almost as speechless as yore, are dressed in a fashion more becoming modern times. The doctor has just succeeded in bunting a young American out of a fortune and a young Englishman out of a bride when the play opens, and, as the curtain rises, the two disconsolate individuals are plotting revenge. They decide to accompany the newly-married couple on their honeymoon, and in the second act are found occupying an adjacent compartment in the sleeping car. This setting is most ingenious, the entire action taking place in the four compartments of the train, and the revolving wheels of which give it the appearance of motion. Here the doctor's troubles begin in earnest. Not a moment's content is he permitted, his tribulations continuing until the final fall of the curtain. All the male members of the company are on the train, and they are busy taking the scenic to the bride. She encourages the advances of her old actor, but warns him to do nothing rash. At the Swiss inn, the four Males, sisters present themselves as housemaids and do some very creditable singing and dancing. The Meeker Baker trio also exhibit several feats of acrobatic agility. To the Century comedy four falls the duty of singing a number of unaccompanied selections, which they executed in very good style.

"NOS INTIMES" AT THE NOUVEAUTES.

The initial performance of Victorien Sardou, celebrated four-act comedy, "Nos Intimes," at the Theatre des Nouveautés last night, was well received. The play, which is set in the city of Paris, is a study in the management of a little bright light play-house. The management of this play-house has certainly earned the appreciation and praise of the artistic and artistic public of Montreal by the success of its efforts to produce the French classics in a way that will do them justice even before the eyes of the English. Those who desire instruction will also greatly appreciate the little biographical sketch of the author, published in the programme, which, in a brief and plain explanation of the motive of the play, which will be found of particular assistance to English-speaking patrons of the house, whose knowledge of the French language is somewhat limited.

BURLESQUE AT THE THEATRE ROYAL.

The Brizalliers Burlesque Company opened at the Royal last night, and played to the capacity of the house. The opening skit is an absurdity known as "An Extra Session" in which some shapely and good looking women do some domestic work and singing, and several comedians do some quite clever work. In the olio there are seven specialties, all of which have merit. Reed's acrobatic ball does not seem worth going to see. John Wet does a good musical turn. Hayes and Wynne are good dancers, Palmer and Harvey are good looking women who do some domestic work and singing, and Adeline Hostina sings very well. Nellie Burt and her society

ORATORIO SOCIETY'S PLANS FOR SEASON.

The Montreal Oratorio Society, under the direction of Mr. Horace W. Keyner, will commence rehearsals on Thursday, October 16th, in Douglas Hall, Chomberg street. The society has decided to give two concerts. Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" and Coleridge Taylor's "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" will be given at the first concert, followed by the annual performance of the "Messiah" on Good Friday. The "Hymn of Praise" and "Messiah" being so well known, do not call for further notice. The Herald in its columns last week has had a marvelous success, being performed all over England and the United States. The Pall Mall Gazette says of his work: "There is no pretence, no show of composition, no imitation of a supposed national style; but it has the fragrance on the contrary, of a peculiar nationality, one, and while the rhythmical and melodic habit, of artless melodies, of poignant if simple emotionalism, while to all these qualities Mr. Taylor has added a finely trained technical skill, and noble inspiration in harmony. We trust that the time may come when we shall be able to hail him as a rash exaggeration, as the Tschakowsky of his race."

MELBA WILL SING HERE IN FEBRUARY.

Incomparable Melba will sing in Montreal about the middle of February. Mr. Stewart Houston, of Toronto, who is active in bringing to Canada many of the great musical artists of the day, states that he obtained a binding contract for a Canadian tour last spring for Canada, in recognition of her operatic engagements, the great soprano cancelled all her engagements in the States, so that she will come direct from Australia to Canada and sing in Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa about the middle of February. The manager of the Oratorio Society, Victor Herbert's direction, which Mr. Houston considers the best concert orchestra in America, will also make its Montreal tour under his direction, and will be heard in Montreal, Madame Lelle de Lussan, the famous soprano, who has been, after much effort, induced to give an extended concert tour, will also be in Mr. Houston's charge this season in her Canadian arrangements.

STEAM YACHT BURNED.

Belleville, Ont., Sept. 23.—The handsome steam yacht "Carman," owned by T. S. Carman of this city, was burned at her dock Sunday night. The vessel had been out during the day and the fire is supposed to have been caused by a spark from the smokestack. The vessel, which was one of the prettiest craft in these waters, was valued at about $5,000, and was insured against water's edge. The insurance amounts to $3,700.

DENY THAT DINGLE GIRL WROTE THEM

Letters Elicit Important Evidence in the Tragic Rochester Murder Case.

Rochester, N.Y., Sept. 23.—Leland D. Kent was yesterday held by the coroner for the grand jury, charged with the murder of Ethel Blanche Dingle, the Canadian nurse. All witnesses on the coroner's inquest are being held here, and the grand jury is promptly considering the case this afternoon.

Dr. Edward L. Villanue was the first witness to testify before the coroner to-day. He admitted helping to move the trunk and said it belonged to Miss Dingle, from Buffalo, and said they opened the trunk. Witness was greatly confused. He denied that Mr. Raines told him to open the trunk and get out certain stuff and leave the trunk, but if he could not open it to take the trunk, Dr. Lillian Craig Randall, owner of the Riverside Hospital, Buffalo, was called.

She said she had known Miss Dingle for five years and Kent since spring. She said she neither suspected nor knew of intimacy between Kent and Miss Dingle. Answering a question as to whether Miss Dingle ever spoke of suicide, witness said she never did. "Once, prior to eight months ago, when I hesitated about taking her into my hospital. He said then, 'Dr. Randall, if you do not take me back, I don't know what to do, except to commit suicide.'"

Dr. Randall was shown the patched up letter which was found on the floor, and which began: "Dr. Randall, I blame you—" and asked to identify it as that of Miss Dingle. Witness said she could not, but "Dr. Randall" did not look like Miss Dingle's penmanship.

"Was she right or left-handed?" asked the coroner. "Right-handed," she said.

Dr. George H. Grant, of Buffalo, was called to the stand. He said he first met Dr. Kent on June 21st, and noticed that he paid much attention to Miss Dingle. He admitted that he knew Miss Dingle, and had paid attention to her.

Grant was shown the patched up letter, and asked if he could identify it as Miss Dingle's writing. He said "Rechester is not hers, I am sure; nor is the 'Dr. Randall,' nor is the 'my life' as in a letter," and she never signed her name that way."

RAILWAY NEWS

Very large quantities of steel rails, which are generally supplied from American mills are being negotiated for in the European markets. The shortage of coal and coke has restricted production in several of the steel rail mills, two of which are now working only four days per week. Railway requirements are enormous and increasing. The European market is said to be in an exceptionally healthy condition.

C.P.R. FREIGHT TERMINALS.

It is understood that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company have a scheme on foot in connection with their Ottawa terminals for extending the lines at the Sussex Street depot with the main line at or near the Int provincial bridge.

The main object is to secure better and more convenient freight terminals, and the company's engineers are now at work surveying the proposed line which would cross Sussex Street near the Bowie's residence and run round the bank and Neeban Point to the front of connection with the interprovincial line. Some time ago the railway secured a large vacant property near the Sussex Street depot, and the Grey Nuns convent and running back to the river bank. With the control of this and an extensive yard in Sussex Street, the main freight terminal is being extended to acquire some additional land and houses, and the lease of some Government property near the Printing Bureau to enable them to carry out the scheme.

NEW G.T.R. FREIGHT OFFICES.

The new Grand Trunk freight offices in Campbell Square, which were described some time ago in this paper, are approaching completion. A slowly longitudinal structure with artistic facade, new arrangements, the rather antiquated and inconvenient structure directly opposite, and the new structure, when the company began the improvements, which they had had in progress all the summer, their intention was to erect a new structure, but the old building has accordingly been already raised several feet and placed upon new foundations. The roof, too, has been elevated. The object of the change is to furnish additional light to the interior. When the renovation has been completed the two structures, the old stands and the new will be uniform in height and will have the same general appearance.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN RAILWAYS.

Mr. W. M. Aeworth, a member of the English Parliamentary bar, who has made a special study of railway questions, and has written a book on the Railways of England, has entered the arena of controversy on the question of the safety of English railways and on the difference in methods of management pursued in the old world and the new.

In an interview with the Daily Mail Mr. Aeworth explains the difference in this way: "The distinction is that an American

CITY COUNCIL VISITS ORPHAN ASYLUM AT MONTFORT

Annual Visit Paid Saturday—New Wing Opened and Bells Blessed.

The orphan asylum at Montfort was the scene of an interesting outing on Saturday, the occasion being the annual visit of the City Council.

The Provincial Government provides for 65, while the remainder, 64, are given free instruction.

The Montfort Institute was established in 1880 for the education and maintenance of orphaned children.

With that object in view, every inmate is given a good primary education and is also instructed in the rudiments of agriculture.

The asylum officers, like an eagle's nest, to the crest of a mountain, and far away, everywhere the eye travels, is to be seen a rugged but generous country—a wealth of hilly farm land, abounding pasturage and practically inexhaustible forestry.

Through the generous thoughtfulness of Mr. Thomas Tait, manager of transport for the C.P.R., a very comfortable train bore the city visitors out of the Place Viger at eight o'clock in the morning.

Prior to the arrival of the train the children had been assembled on the front verandah, and upon the lengthened steps leading thereto, so that the visitors had an admirable opportunity of coming in contact with the little ones.

Many of these were at once seen to be bright and alert, and all were uniformly dressed in a cleanly and appropriate fashion.

Between the station and the Institute—a distance of possibly a hundred yards—cedar trees had been erected at short intervals, each being surmounted by a flag.

All the visitors were given both their dinner and their supper, served in one of the large class rooms. After the noonday meal, Father Bouchet read an address of welcome, which was gratefully acknowledged by Archbishop Duhamel.

Acting Mayor Lamarche, in the course of a few observations, said that he had received a letter from Mayor Cochrane regretting the latter's inability to be present.

Advantage was taken of the presence of the visitors to formally open the new wing of the building and to bless a set of fine bells.

Shortly after they had been blessed by the archbishop, the bells were swinging in their position in the tower, making the air joyous with their peals.

Among the invited guests were Ald. N. Lapointe, Ald. and Mrs. P. G. Martineau, Ald. and Mrs. the Misses Chausse, Ald. L. A. Lapointe, City Clerk and Mrs. David, J. Brunet, M.P., and Mrs. Brunet, J. L. Archambault, city attorney, Mrs. and the Misses Archambault, Rev. Father Nadeau, Rev. P. St. Pierre, P.P., St. Saviour, Rev. Father Corbett, P.P., Ste. Agathe, Rev.
