World News In Brief

Rome, April 30—(AP)—X-rays have disclosed that Ingrid Bergman is expecting twins in June.

This was disclosed today by Roberto Rossellini, husband of the film star. He said:

"There was so much journalistic invention saying she was going to have twins that we decided to check up. Even the doctor did not think so, let alone us. Two days ago we had a doctor take X-rays. Now we find she is having twins."

With The Canadians in Korea, April 30—(CP)—Brig. Patrick Bogert of London, Ont., took over command of the 25th Canadian infantry brigade Monday from Brig. J. M. Rockingham of Victoria.

Brig. Rockingham, who commanded the brigade since arrival here late in 1950, left Tuesday for Australia to fulfill a brief speaking engagement. He is en route to take over the post of director general of military training.

The change of command took place following a two-week, front-line inspection tour of all units in the brigade by Brigs. Bogert and Rockingham.

Tokyo, April 30—(AP)—Eight United States airmen were killed in two transport plane crashes in southern Japan, the Far East Air Forces announced today. A C-46 transport crashed into the rim of Mt. Aso, 550 miles southwest of Tokyo this morning, killing all four crew members. A C-119 cargo-transport hit a ridge last night on an instrument approach to Ashiya air base on Kyushu island. F.E.A.F. said four airmen were killed.

R. Curran, British United Press, Limited, Montreal.

Order Directing Return Of Steel Mills To Owners Is Signed By Judge David Pine

Judge Turns Down Plea To Delay Effectiveness Of Order.

Washington, April 30.—(AP)—Judge David Pine signed formal orders today directing the return of seized steel mills to their owners, and then turned down a government plea to delay the effectiveness of the order.

These legal formalities cleared the way for the government to appeal to a higher court Pine's ruling that President Truman's seizure of the steel industry is illegal.

Holmes Baldridge, chief government lawyer, immediately filed notice of appeal.

The next step presumably will involve a government request to the U.S. court of appeals to overturn Pine's decision.

Baldridge refused to tell reporters when the government will press its appeal action.

Out of the steel mills streamed the majority of 650,000 C.I.O. United Steelworkers in swift reaction to yesterday's ruling by Judge Pine that Truman exceeded the bounds of his authority in taking over the steel industry April 9 to head off just such a walkout.

In a blistering opinion, Pine called the steel seizure "illegal" and denied what he termed a Presidential claim of "unlimited and unrestrained" power.

With the President thus backed to the wall—for the moment, at least—in the constitutional struggle over his "inherent" powers to act in an emergency, government lawyers moved swiftly to:

1. Get the United States court of appeals to postpone the effective date of a formal give-back-the-mills order; and

2. Bring the case as quickly as possibly before the Supreme Court in the hope of getting Pine's decision reversed.

With the vast steel industry shutting down overnight, the government slapped an embargo on shipments of steel from warehouses to producers of civilian goods and to foreign countries.

The national production authority issued the order within two hours of Pine's decision in a move to conserve the supplies on hand until it is determined whether they will have to be diverted from civilian to military use.

Outside the courts, one further course was open to Truman: to invoke the Taft-Hartley law.

Philip Murray, president of the steelworkers union and the C.I.O., sought to nip such a move in advance, saying the union already has complied with Taft-Hartley provisions. Murray declared the strike would continue until the workers get a contract along the lines recommended by the Wage Stabilization Board.

The Taft-Hartley law requires an 80-day cooling-off period before a strike can start.

Pine, after weighing opposing arguments since last Friday, declared in his 14-page decision:

"There is no express grant of power in the constitution authoriz-

Coast-To-Coast Steel Strike Starts In U.S.

Pittsburgh, April 30—(AP)—Grim C.I.O. United Steelworkers claimed a coast-to-coast steel strike on the United States with breath-taking speed today.

The haste with which 650,000 unionists answered president Philip Murray's cease-work order caused scattered damage to costly steelmaking equipment.

But generally, the walkout was peaceful and orderly.

The work stoppage began in Gary and South Chicago, Ind., within an hour after a federal judge nullified government seizure of the steel industry.

Pickets popped up at plant gates everywhere. Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo and Baltimore were among the first to report workers walking out.

Most of the workers waited until their local union offices received Murray's cease-work order. But many of them dropped their tools and picked up their lunch boxes as soon as they heard of the court decision.

The U.S.W.'s contract with practically all major steel producers expired Jan. 1. Union-industry negotiations produced no new pact. Federal mediators failed to break the deadlock on the union's demand for an 18½ cent hourly wage boost, union shop and other objectives.

A 17½-cent hourly pay increase and a union shop, plus other benefits was recommended. U.S.W. accepted. Industry balked. President Truman averted a strike April 9 by seizing the steel industry. The companies successfully fought the action by getting a federal court injunction. An hour later they were strike-bound.

Wheeling Steel Corp. was one of the few companies which reported damage to plant facilities as a result of the hasty leave-taking of workers.

Wheeling Steel issued a statement which said:

"Extent of the damage to coke ovens, furnaces and other equipment at the Steubenville, O., plant could not be ascertained."

At Gary, Ind., a union spokesman indicated no effort was being made to safeguard the expensive iron and steel-making furnaces which must be cooled slowly over a period of 24 to 48 hours to prevent damage.

Murray instructed his men to arrange for stand-by operation of steel plants and most of the workers were glad to obey. They knew that if furnaces were damaged, they would not have jobs to come back to for a long time after the strike ends.

The steel strike of 1952—originally called for Jan. 1 but postponed four times—is in support of demands for the union's sixth post-war wage increase.

Only a handful of steel companies are unaffected by the strike. They employ about 24,000 men. They are firms which have already signed with the union or which do not bargain with the United Steelworkers.

Oil Workers Quit Jobs Across U.S.

Denver, April 30.—(AP)—More than 90,000 unionized refinery and pipeline workers are on strike across the United States today as negotiations with the oil industry continue.

The union demands a 25-cent hourly wage increase and higher night differential pay. The present average wage ranges from $2 to $2.10 an hour.

Government officials report they have no present intention of intervening.

Negotiations in some localities were reported progressing on a note of optimism especially in San Francisco where about 25,000 union-affiliated industry workers were represented in talks — none of them on strike.

The Oil Workers International Union (C.I.O) in Denver requested 10,000 members in California to remain on the job so as not to hinder operations for the Korean war effort.

Motorists are expected to be hit hardest by a prolonged strike. Long lines of cars were reported at filling stations in Detroit and other sities last night before the midinght strike deadline.

Some shortages of natural gas are anticipated through the idling of pipeline crews.

The Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co., supplier of natural gas to more than 400 communities in eight states, will cut down on its supply.

A spokesman said supervisory employees would man compressor statons to keep the supply going to Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

The east coast also is in for a shortage of natural gas piped from the midwest and southwest.

Differences In Diagnosis Are Revealed

Ottawa, April 30—(CP)—Documents tabled yesterday in the Commons indicated that federal veterinarians did not agree on methods to diagnose the disease that later proved to be foot-and-mouth in southern Saskatchewan.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner said in tabling them that the new outbreak of the easily-spread disease near Weyburn, 75 miles southeast of Regina, was the "worst" yet.

Twenty-four head of cattle from a herd of 41 near Mansur, five miles northwest of Weyburn, were among other cattle in a community pasture before the latest outbreak was discovered.

The documents showed that Dr. Thomas Childs, veterinary director-general, countermanded an order by other federal veterinarians for collection of animal specimens for shipment to nearby Hull, Que., for diagnosis. That was before the outbreak was confirmed Feb. 25.

Dr. Childs, returning from statutory leave, sent a telegram to Dr. N. D. Christie, district veterinarian at Regina, Feb. 15 ordering that the collection be stopped and diagnosis be made instead on the spot.

The collection and shipment was ordered by Dr. Orlan Hall, assistant veterinary director-general and Dr. C. A. Mitchell, head of the Hull animal research laboratories.

Dr. Childs, asked to comment on the reasons for the countermand, said he will make his position clear before the Commons agricultural committee today.

Opposition members criticized the government for alleged delay in diagnosing the disease. They also said Mr. Gardiner delayed tabling documents concerning the outbreak although the Commons ordered them produced early in the two-month-old session.

The documents also showed the first report of a disease similar to foot-and-mouth was made Dec. 28, 1951, from an outbreak in the Burns and Company feed lot in Regina. They were climaxed by a telegram from Dr. Childs in Regina to Dr. Hall in Ottawa that "movement to the United States and eastern Canada should be prohibited. Move quickly."

Meanwhile, the quarantine zone around Regina was extended to include three municipalities in the area of Ormiston, 100 miles southwest of Regina, where foot-and-mouth was found last week. Another six municipalities likely will be added in the Weyburn area to bring the total of quarantined municipalities to 26.

In Victoria, Agriculture Minister Harry Bowman of British Columbia said B.C. "will take action" if cases of foot-and-mouth develop outside the control area.

That appeared to be an indication B.C. may pimose a ban on western movement of meat and livestock out of Alberta. B. C. took similar action during earlier outbreaks this year but partially reopened its borders later.

Foot And Mouth Disease Reported At Weyburn, Sask.

Regina, April 30—(CP)—A community pasture northeast of Weyburn holding between 800 and 900 head of cattle has become a centre of investigation in southern Saskatchewan's epidemic of foot-and-mouth disease.

Spread of the livestock malady to the Weyburn district, 75 miles southeast of Regina, was disclosed Monday with an announcement that a herd of 41 head of cattle and eight hogs had become infected.

A more serious aspect of the outbreak developed yesterday when it was learned that 24 head of cattle from the infected farm had been sent to the community pasture in the area a week before the disease broke out.

The 24 animals now are under close observation and if they develop symptoms of the disease, cattle in the community pasture which had contact with them may have to be destroyed. It is not known how many of the 800 or 900 animals would be considered possible contacts since the pasture is divided into sections.

Community pasture on the Prairies are areas where farmers can graze their animals on payment of a fee. They bring together cattle from many farms.

It was perhaps with this situation in mind that Agriculture Minister Gardiner told the Commons in Ottawa yesterday that the Weyburn outbreak was "the worst epidemic of foot-and-mouth disease we have yet had."

Slaughter of the herd known to be infected again was delayed yesterday as excavating crews ran into new difficulties in preparing the burial pit. The ground is stony and frozen and special heavy equipment had to be called in.

The status of a herd of 74 head of dual-purpose cattle on an adjoining farm, previously reported on the slaughter list, remained in doubt. Federal officials have made no definite statement about contact herds in the area. Dual-purpose cattle are animals raised for both milk and beef.

A team of veterinarians is checking premises in the area. So far no clues have been uncovered as to how the disease spread to Weyburn, at least 50 miles from any previous outbreak.

25 Per Cent Increase In Allowances For Aged, Needy Veterans Proposed

Ottawa, April 30.—(CP)—A 25-per-cent increase in war veterans allowances, paid to 40,000 of Canada's aged and needy overseas veterans and their dependents, was proposed yesterday in a series of government bills introduced in the Commons.

The Bill, sponsored by Veterans Minister Lapointe, would boost to $50 a month from $40 the maximum allowance payable to a single veteran or widow; to $90 from $70 the maximum for a married recipient.

The maximum monthly allowance for an orphan would be $40; for two orphans $70 and for three orphans $85.

The ceiling on allowable outside income would be made more flexible so that veterans would be able to earn more without having their allowance reduced.

The allowances are paid to needy veterans, prematurely aged as a result of war service, to veterans' widows or to their dependents.

Spokesmen for the opposition parties, speaking before the amount of the increases were disclosed, welcomed the move to increase the allowances. They spoke on a resolution to the bill which contained the new amounts.

The bill, made public after the resolution was adopted, will be debated later.

Also introduced and given first reading were bills to:

1. Extend for one year the government's authority to grant veterans of the Korean forces benefits similar to those granted to veterans of the Second World War.

2. Amend the veterans insurance act to make it clear that the entire amount of an insurance policy can be paid to a veteran's estate.

3. Increase the annual allowances to amputees for the wear and tear caused to clothing by artificial limbs.

In the veterans debate, Mr. Lapointe rejected the annual opposition bid for a permanent Commons committee on veterans affairs. The bid was made before members agreed to establishment of a committee to study the measures introduced by Mr. Lapointe.

A motion by Col. A. J. Brooks (PC — Royal) to widen the committee's terms of reference to take in any veterans' problem was ruled out of order by the Speaker. A number of members said Veterans Land Act changes should be considered and that a permanent committee annually should consider inevitable changes affecting veterans as a whole.

Mr. Lapointe replied that a House committee was by no means the only way to air complaints and problems. Members could bring up any veterans matter during the budget debate, on consideration of departmental estimates and on other occasions.

He hinted at possible changes in the Veterans Land Act — the statute under which veterans are settled on farms and small holdings — when he said he has officials "looking into the whole question" of V. L. A.

One of the amendments to the pensions act would increase the clothing allowance to veterans with artificial limbs. Amputees who lost all or part of a leg now get $54 a year as compensation for the wear and tear to clothing. The amount will be increased to $72.

Amputees who lost all or part of an arm now receive $22 a year. The amount will be increased to $30.

The bill also will increase to $100 from $90 the monthly amount two pensionable dependent parents of a deceased member of the forces may receive.

Next Session May Settle Korea's Fate

Munsan, Korea, April 30.—(CP)—The communists are expected to call for an armistice meeting in the next few days which may make or break Korean truce talks.

The outcome will depend on communist reaction to a secret United Nations package offer.

Dispatches from Washington quoted allied diplomats as saying the proposal handed communist negotiators Sunday is "about the last offer we can make."

The Washington view was that there is a 50-50 chance the offer would lead to an actual armistice or an ultimate breakdown of the prolonged talks. It all depends on the decision reached in Red capitals where the plan is being studied.

Officials in Washington privately agreed the secret package offer was a three-point program keyed to the U.N. demand for "non-forcible repatriation" of prisoners of war, which the Reds repeatedly have called a "preposterous demand."

Washington dispatches indicated the allied package deal would (1) allow Reds to rebuild North Korean military airfields during a truce if (2) the communists accept the U.N. principle for prisoner exchange and (3) drop their nomination of Russia as a "neutral nation" to help police an armistice.

Seoul, April 30.—(AP)—United Nations planes today shot down six communist Mig-15 jet fighters and damaged four in battles today over North Korea, the United States Fifth Air Force announced.

U.S. Sabre jet pilots knocked down the half dozen Migs and damaged three in a fight just south of the Yalu river border between Manchuria and Korea.

U. N. planes swarmed over North Korea on bombing missions in clearing skies.

Red infantrymen jabbed into allied lines on the eastern and east-central fronts in Wednesday's predawn darkness. They were driven back after a flurry of hand-grenade skirmishes.

An Eighth Army officer said the actions were "a little more brisk than usual."

American warships and naval planes pounded North Korea's east coast Tuesday while British carrier-based planes and other allied naval units attacked west coast targets.

Eisenhower Easy Winner In Primary

By RELMAN MORIN

Boston, April 30 —(AP)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower wrapped up his biggest campaign victory today, destroying all Republican opposition with nearly 200,000 popular votes in the Massachusetts primary, and taking an unsought second place among the Democrats.

He also won 26 convention delegates in 13 out of 14 district elections, and his backers were running close in the other one.

This near-sweep put Eisenhower virtually even with Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio in tabulations of their convention strength.

The Associated Press delegate score-sheet, compiled before the Massachusetts delegate results were known, showed Taft leading Eisenhower, 265 to 237.

With 1,410 precincts tabulated out of 1739, the popular-vote total showed:

Republicans:
Eisenhower—182,148
Taft—78,026
Gen. Douglas MacArthur—1,598
Governor Earl Warren of California—1,020
Harold E. Stassen—762
Democrats (1,387 precincts):
Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee —21,270
Eisenhower—12,028
President Truman—5,390
Taft—4,322
Governor Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts—1,885
Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois—987
Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia —496.

All votes were write-ins on the preferential ballot yesterday.

Eisenhower's total popular vote in the Republican election alone was greater than the combined votes cast for all other names, Republican and Democratic. He had more than 68 per cent of the total

Developments In CP Are Outlined

Toronto, April 30 —(CP)— The most spectacular development in newspaper production in many years is the teletypesetter, Herve Major, president of The Canadian Press, told the annual meeting of members today.

Experimentation in the use of this device, which permits simultaneous automatic typesetting in many composing rooms through operation of a single machine at a remote point, was authorized by CP members a year ago.

Now, Mr. Major said, nearly half the evening papers in Ontario are served by a CP wire which actually operated their type-setting machines. Others would be added to the Ontario circuit this summer, and the service would be available in other regions before long. The development at the moment was of particular value to smaller papers; its uses in larger publication was under study.

Mr. Major said the day-and-night service of CP news in French, inaugurated last year, has the support of all 10 members who publish in that language.

Gillis Purcell, general manager of the national news co-operative, reported on details of the news service.

The financial position was reviewed, new members welcomed and directors elected.

Seven transfers of membership in The Canadian Press, were reported to CP's board of directors which concluded a two-day meeting yesterday.

One new application was approved, bringing total membership to 91, and to 95 the number of Canadian newspapers served with CP news on leased wires.

The transfers, involving changes of CP representation among existing newspaper members, are: Fredericton Gleaner from J. Alex Crocket to Horace M. Block; Moncton Times from John C. Keating to J. Clair Ganong; Quebec Le Soleil from Henri Gagnon to Oscar Gilbert; Sherbrooke La Tribune from Senator Jacob Nicol to Alphee Gauthier; Montreal Le Canada from Fernand Lacroix to Bernard Tailleur; Guelph Mercury from A. M. Macalister to R. L. Hamill; Victoria Colonist from H. Sandham Graves to Seth Halton.

The new membership, effective Sept. 1, goes to the Corner Brook, Nfld., Western Star. Member for the Western Star will be Kenneth S. Pritchard.

Directors paid tribute to the late James W. Curran, publisher of the Sault Ste. Marie Star, a charter member of CP, who died Feb. 20; and to D. E. Burritt, CP general news editor, who died Dec. 5 after 28 years in CP service.

Arthur R. Ford, editor-in-chief of the London Free Press, noted that Mr. Curran's gifted writing and persevering industry had made the Star one of Canada's best-known newspapers.

C. H. Peters of the Montreal Gazette referred to Mr. Burritt as one whose faithful and intelligent service would not soon be forgotten. He was one who "loved his work and loved life and was able to infect others with his wonderful spirit."

Chicago, April 30—(AP)—Traffic deaths in the United States showed a slight increase in the first three months of 1952. The National Safety Council said today the toll for the first quarter of this year was 7,930, a gain of two per cent over the first quarter of last year.

Jungle Area Is Combed For Missing Air Liner

Rio de Janeiro, April 30.—(CP)—Search planes today combed the dense, unexplored jungles of Brazil and its desert-like plateaux for a giant Pan-American stratocruiser, the last word in modern air travel, which disappeared with 50 persons aboard.

Among the 41 passengers were the sister of a Canadian government official and the president of the Willys-Overland Auto Export Company of Canada, Ltd.

The passenger list incuded several United States and Latin American officials and business men. Ten passengers and the crew of nine were Americans.

One search plane droned through the night over the wilderness between Rio de Janeiro and Belem, hoping to spot a light or a fire if anyone survived in the thinly-populated wilds where the plane was believed down.

Many more searchers, after giving up the hunt at dark, returned to the air at dawn.

The double-decked Boeing stratocruiser, a peacetime development from the B-29 Superfortress, was the first plane of its kind to be reported missing. It is powered by four 2,800-horsepower engines.

The plane had flown from Buenos Aires, Argentina, to Rio de Janeiro on the first leg of its flight to the United States. It took off shortly after dark Monday night for Port of Spain, Trinidad, its oply other scheduled stop before reaching New York.

It was due at Port of Spain at 10 a.m. EDT yesterday, and carried enough fuel to stay in the air four hours beyond its scheduled flying time for the 2,600-mile trip to Trinidad.

Mrs. Lucy Geils Wood, 37, formerly of Montreal, and her husband, John Vincent Wood, 47, a British engineer, were among the missing. Mrs. Wood is the sister of Edmond Joly de Lotbiniere of the Canadian External Affairs Department's information division.

The Woods were en route to Canada from Buenos Aires for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Wood, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. de Lotbiniere of Pointe Platon, Que., was born and educated in Montreal and was married in London, England.

The auto official was Marcel Francois DeMueller, 50, Toledo, O., president and general manager of Willy-Overland Export Corporation, and president of Willys-Overland Export Corporation of Canada.

Abbott Warns Of Danger Of High Tariffs In U.S.

Washington, April 30.— (CP) — Canada today suggested to the United States that it fears the resurgence of high-walled tariff protectionism in the U. S.—a move that would cripple Canada's exports to its biggest foreign customer.

Hon. Douglas Abbott, Canada's Finance Minister, in a speech prepared for delivery to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said such a development would be the "height of folly."

The issue was of "crucial importance," not only to Canada but to other members of the North Atlantic community.

He added that Canada is "not unaware" of the "magnificent" role the U.S. has played in postwar years in removing trade barriers and in helping European countries to regain their feet through economic aid.

"Yet most European countries do not want to continue indefinitely as recipients of foreign aid," he said. "They want to be permitted to earn their own keep.

"They find it difficult to understand policies which encourage them to produce and export on the one hand, and on the other, impose restrictive measures which make it impossible for them to market their goods in the U.S. and in this way pay for their dollar imports."

Signs of a "resurgence of protectionism" were visible in such actions at the restrictions on imports of dairy products "in contravention of trade agreements," the "long delays" in revising restrictive customs procedures "as well as the growing number of applications to your tariff commission requesting increased protection against imports."

"Clearly, if these signs were to develop into a growing protectionism, it could have serious consequences for the commercial relations between our two countries.

"When you consider the immense volume of mutually-profitable trade between us, the largest between any two countries in the world, such a development would surely be the height of folly."

Canada was "undergoing huge industrial expansion, but she still depended on foreign trade for basic prosperity. A tremendous flow of foreign capital as investment in this expansion overcame the effects of a "considerable" deficit in current trade with the rest of the world last year, Abbott said.

"At the same time we know that borrowing today means incurring obligations to pay interest and to repay capital in the future. Hence we must have constant regard for the level of our foreign trade and the conditions which will foster its growth."

The importance of the American market to Canada could be realized when it was understood that in 1951, no less than 60 per cent of Canada's exports went to the U.S., compared with 32 per cent in 1938.

Mr. Abbott made no apologies for referring to the question of U.S. tariff policy.

"We in Canada and the United States have become accustomed to speaking to one another frankly on matters of this kind. May I add that in Canada we have taken some comfort from the efforts of the United States' administration and various private organizations like your own to point the serious implications of these issues."

London, April 30—(Reuters)—The latest move of foot-and-mouth disease to grip British farms has forced slaughtering of more than 22,000 animals so far and the worst is still to come.

The agriculture department today reported 23 outbreaks since last Friday. A spokesman listed 11,429 cattle, 5,964 sheep and 5,274 pigs already destroyed on government orders. The spokesman said more slaughtering is pending and the infection rate is still climbing.

Flynn Takes Consequence

Errol Flynn tells this story: He was stopped for exceeding the speed limit and muttered that he supposed the traffic guardian was going to give him a ticket.

"I'd like to do you a favor, Mr. Flynn," said the policeman, hauling a 50-pound manuscript out of his motorcycle tool box. "I'm a writer and this story of mine would make a great movie for you."

Errol gulped, looked at the weighty bundle of paper and groaned:

"You mean that about doing me a favor, officer?"

"You bet."

"Then save the manuscript for Clark Gable," said Errol, "and give me the ticket." Flynn got the ticket.

"Palm Springs taken at 15,000 feet above sea level at midnight by Kathryn Grayson (on her broom.)"

Madge Kennedy, the former silent star who returns to the screen in "The Marrying Kind," tells this as her favorite story about W. C. Fields.

Madge co-starred with Fields on Broadway in "Poppy." One of the touching scenes in the play came when a petite actress named Emma Janbier appeared in a fluffy costume as a princess.

Each night, Fields would look at her tenderly as the script dictated and would murmur: "Go to your bower."

But one night, Emma was too ill to play the role and her understudy, a large, stoutish woman, was rushed on stage in her place.

Fields, who had not been warned of the change, gazed at the new Amazonic princess in horror and said:

"Go to your hangar!"

AT THE GRANADA

Showdown in New Orleans. Stan, pulling no punches, tells "innocent" Blanche that he's wise to her "lady-like" behavior, in a memorable scene from "A Streetcar Named Desire" which opens today at the Granada Theatre. Vivien Leigh (above with Marlon Brando) won the Academy Award for her portrayal in this film as Best Actress of the year. Co-starring also are Karl Malden (Winner as best Supporting actor) and Kim Hunter (Best Supporting Actress).

Ascot Q. W. I. Branch Meets At Lennoxville

The monthly meeting of the Ascot branch of the Quebec Women's Institute was held in the Assembly Room at the Experimental Station, Lennoxville, on the regular day.

The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. Joseph Ashe and members repeated the Salute to the Flag and Mary Stewart Collect in unison.

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. S. Richardson and approved.

In the absence of Mrs. Stuart Coates, due to illness, the treasurer's report was read by Mrs. W. S. Mitchell and showed a substantial balance in the bank.

The roll was answered by 27 members. One new member, Mrs. Sam Brazel, joined.

Plans were made to hold a rummage sale in the Town Hall on April 19th and members were reminded of the County meeting to be held in the Scott Hall on May 10th at 10:30 a.m. and the Art tea on May 5th in the W.I. Room.

Interesting letters were read from the parents of the three little children who had received silver spoons form the branch to commemorate the opening of the W.I. children's ward in the new Sherbrooke Hospital.

Two food parcels were sent overseas and replies from the grateful recipients received. A small sum of money was voted to buy seeds for School Fair work.

A committee, composed of Mrs. Dawson Savage, Mrs. W. Blodgett and Mrs. A. Church, was appointed to make plans for the making of a quilt to enter in the Tweedsmuir competition.

Mrs. Wallace Wingeat read an instructive article on "Blight on Tomatoes." An interesting account of the party tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ste. Marie was given by Mrs. W. S. Mitchell. Mrs. Ste. Marie expressed her thanks to the families who had contributed to their gifts.

The citizenship convener, Mrs. Frank Ingham, read an article from "The Reader's Digest" on "The Value of a Birth Certificate."

A splendid account of the biology exhibition held at Bishop's University, was given by Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, education convener.

Mrs. Earle Savage, R.N., made an appeal for more cotton for the cancer clinic, and Mrs. James Woodward reported cards sent to two bereaved families and books and candy to shut-ins.

A questionnaire sent by the provincial convener of home economics was filled in and the branch convener, Mrs. D. Savage, was responsible for the gathering of several "Household Hints" which were read by the members.

A large number reported hearing Mrs. R. Waldron's radio broadcast earlier in the day on "Soil Conservation" and excerpts were given by several members for the benefit of those who did not "listen in."

A doughnut contest was held at the close of the meeting, the judges being Mrs. Richardon and Mrs. F. Lundeborg. The winners were Mrs. Austin Church and Mrs. Wallace Wingeat.

Plans were made to visit the Carnation milk plant next Institute day. Members are asked to meet at the plant at 10 o'clock for a conducted tour.

At the close of the meeting a delicious tea was served by Mrs. J. A. Ste. Marie, Mrs. A. Parsons, Mrs. W. S. Richardson and Mrs. T. Cleveland, assisted by Mrs. Lundeborg.

Mrs. E. Hackett Of Derby Line Hostess Of Circle

Rock Island, April 30. — The Helping Circle of Stanstead South Church was pleasantly entertained one evening at the home of Mrs. Earl Hackett in Derby Line, with Miss Etta Taylor the assisting hostess.

Mrs. Raymond Wheelock presided over the meeting, which was opened by Mrs. L. O. Selby, in charge of the devotional period.

Mrs. Kenneth Baldwin, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved, and called the roll, and Miss Etta Taylor submitted the treasurer's report.

The convener of the committee in charge of securing a guest speaker for the Mother and Daughter banquet, reported that she had not as yet been successful in making arrangements for anyone, but is still working on it.

A committee of Mrs. Thomas McCune and Mrs. Daisy Peatti was named to make the supper arrangements, and they will meet with the Ladies' Aid and 35 Club committees in the near future.

Workers also volunteered to be on hand for the rummage sale to be held on Saturday morning in the church hall.

It was voted to pay one-third of the repairs on the parsonage.

The next meeting will be held on May 7, the place to be announced at a later date.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Merton Davis was hostess to a number of young people on Wednesday afternoon, April 23, in honor of the ninth birthday of her daughter Edith.

The party was held after school and the children had fun playing games outdoors until the supper hour, when a delicious supper was served by the hostess. Miss Maud Roberts assisted with the serving. A prettily trimmed birthday cake topped with flaming candles centred the table.

Edith received a number of lovely gifts for which she thanked her friends.

A quiz game was played and Miss Joanne Davis was the winner of the prize.

Attending the party were the Misses Joanne Davis, Gail Perkins, Cheryl Webb, Sandra Brand, Sandra Webb, Gail Higgins, Beverly Dustin, Verdena Ellis, Elizabeth Hatch and Edith's sisters, Linda and Marion, and brothers, Merlyn, Rodney and Gerald.

General Notes

Guests at the home of Mrs. John Converse at Rock Island, have been Mr. and Mrs. George Moir, of Graniteville, Mr. Hazen Converse, of Orleans, Vt., and Miss Grace Libby, of Ayer's Cliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jarvis and daughters, Joan and Janet, of Rock Island, have been spending a few days at the home of his parents in Smiths Falls, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hill, of Lennoxville, were week-end guests at the home of his brother, Mr. Edgar Hill, and Mrs. Hill, in Rock Island, on April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodall, all of Derby Line, to the Vermont Country Dance Festival at Northfield, Vt., and reported having a fine time and enjoying the beauty of the "square dances."

Mr. Gerald Hill, of Lennoxville, was a guest at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hill in Rock Island.

The week before Easter, Mrs. Solon Gray, of Derby Line, sustained a fall in her home and is now confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Palin, and Mr. Palin, in Newport, Vt. Mr. Gray is also staying at his daughter's home in Newport, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and family, of Rock Island, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Vancour, of Libbytown, were in Sherbrooke, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer.

Mrs. Rex Ritch and Miss Diane Shannon, of Montreal, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Laberee, and family in Rock Island for a few days.

Mrs. Frank Washington and grandson, Johnnie, of Chester, Vt., are staying at the home of the latter's aunt, Miss Helen Cosgrove, while little Johnnie is convalescing from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Copp, of Derby Line, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harold Chumbly, and Mr. Chumbly, in Detroit, Mich.

On Monday evening Mr. Richard Reynolds, of Rock Island, was riding his bike on the Beebe road, and at the railroad crossing the pedal fell off and he was thrown to the ground, sustaining an injury to his cheek, necessitating his being hospitalized a the Sherbrooke Hospital for one night. Richard is now back at his work at the Union Twist Drill Co.

Rotarians Hear About Work Y's Men Do At Shore Acres Camp For Boys

Rotarians, at their regular meeting last night, heard an outline of the work carried on by the Y's Men at their Shore Acres camp for children of the district.

Ed Bryant, District Governor of Y's Men, and chairman of the camp committee, was spokesman for his club which he termed "the service club of the Y.M.C.A. for the Y, and through the Y, for the community."

He traced the growth of the organization, paying tribute to the men who started the camp project and those who have helped in its continued success.

The year 1951 was recorded as having the largest camp occupancy of any year in its history and with proposed improvements, the speaker said, the Y's Men look forward to another banner season.

Boys of the district are given an opportunity to enjoy a summer vacation under ideal conditions. They have plenty of fresh air, good food, supervised sports and the advantages of learning woodworking in the hobby shop, in addition to the valuable training which they receive in outdoor life. They are also taught to get along with one another, to assume responsibility and to cultivate a taste for the right kind of recreation.

Only the camp committee and the director know which boys are paying their way and which are guests of the organization.

Mr. Bryant mentioned the improvements which have been added to the camp during the years, among them an automatic pump, army double mattresses, double metal bunks, two new boats, the woodworking and hobby shop, folding units, four large size tents, and so on.

Funds to meet the ever increasing expenses of the camp are raised by the Y's Men through their Tag Days, track meets, Christmas Tree sale, turkey raffle, rummage sales, and through the help of other service clubs with the same aims, the bettering of the community.

This year the Y's Men hope to improve the kitchen and garbage disposal, to purchase two additional boats, a diving tower and raft, to screen the veranda, and to build a small store room, as well as install new pumps.

Mr. Bryant said that the boys always look forward to the annual visit of the Rotarians to the camp, and have some very pleasant memories of their keenly disputed softball games.

He quoted some of the figures in the camp committee reports which indicate the considerable finances needed to keep it in good running operation, but added that the Y's Men receive a great deal of satisfaction from the knowledge that they are, through this boy's camp, accomplishing something which is undoubtedly of great benefit to the community.

The speaker was introduced by Gerald Spafford and thanked by Archie Mitchell.

President Emile Levesque extended congratulations to three Rotarians, Wright Gibson, who has been made a Fellow of the McGill Conservatory of Music, Gerard McManamy, recently elected president of the Lennoxville Curling Club, and Ivan Saunders, new director of the Sherbrooke Record.

One visiting Rotarian, Arthur Knight, of Worcester, Mass., attended the meeting, and the following guests, Harry Foley, George Bowen, both of Montreal, David Audet, Lennoxville, Earl Bryant, Sherbrooke, Jean Laporte, of Paris, France, a Rotary Foundation Fellow, who is studying at Laval, Jeff Wilson, president of the Y's Men, and James Strickland, treasurer of the Club.

At the head table were: J. E. Shortt, G. Spafford, the speaker, President Levesque, J. Wilson, A. Mitchell, J. Strickland and L. Lindskow.

"Millionaire" Pleads Guilty

Granby, Que., April 30— (CP) — Georges Dubois, 26, known by his friends as "the Granby millionaire," yesterday pleaded guilty to obtaining $87,000 under false pretences. He will be sentenced Tuesday.

Dubois has been in jail since his arrest by provincial police Jan. 21. He was unable to meet cash bail to $10,000, later lowered to $5,000. He originally pleaded innocent.

Police said Dubois fleeced Adeodat Marquette, a 55-year-old Granby farmer of $87,150. They said Dubois claimed he and his brother, Maurice, had an arrangement whereby they could get American automobiles for $1,400—without paying the usual customs duty.

7 Grass Fires Break Out In 12 Hours

Grass fires continue to menace property in this city.

The Fire Department yesterday extinguished seven such blazes in widespread sections of Sherbrooke.

Great bulk of the work went to Captain Henri Donahue's men from No. 4 Station. They were employed at five of the seven fire scenes. Stations one and five had one each.

The fires started at approximately 11:25 o'clock in the morning and the last one was not extinguished until 11:12 at night.

They ranged in intensity from one at 26 Seventh Avenue North which took just fourteen minutes to subdue to one at the rear of the Belmont Snow Shoe Club which required more than one and one-half hours before it was extinguished.

Other grass fires occurred at 45 Leclerc Street, in a vacant lot; Belmont road, causing slight damage to nearby Garage Castonguay; in the back yard of a home on Victoria Street and two other vacant lots.

Court Deals With Variety Of Charges

Henri Poirier, of Magog, charged with reckless driving, pleaded guilty in Court of Sessions here Monday before Judge Patrick Delaney and was ordered to pay a fine of $50. In addition to the fine he had his driver's licence revoked for four months.

Benoit Gagnon, of Sherbrooke, charged with assault, was sentenced to time spent in jail. He pleaded guilty recently after his case had been postponed frequently.

Napoleon Pouliot, of Moe's River, was found not guilty by Judge Delaney to a charge of having in his possession a chain saw on which duty had not been paid. The saw was stolen in the United States and sold to Mr. Pouliot.

"I declare that Mr. Pouliot purchased the chain saw with good intentions and knew nothing about the theft or that the duty had not been paid," stated Judge Delaney. Mr. Pouliot was represented by lawyer Paul-Emile Brazeau.

Miss Lucille Bedard, 30, and Roger Pruneau, 20, both of Magog, pleaded guilty before Judge Edouard Boisvert here yesterday to a charge of theft and were sentenced to six months in jail each.

The two were charged with the robbery of some $75 worth of clothes from the cottage of Mrs. A. Gaudreau at Little Lake.

MAN FINED

Willie Roberge, of Notre Dame de Ham, was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs by Judge Edouard Boisvert yesterday after being found guilty of a charge of hit and run.

He was accused of colliding with a car, property of A. Woodard, on the Georgeville-Magog highway on April 28.

In addition to the fine he had his driver's licence revoked for 3 months.

PAYS FINE

Ulderic Dion, of Greenlay, charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor, was fined $75 and costs after pleading guilty. He appeared before Judge Boisvert yesterday.

The incident occurred in Windsor Mills on April 28.

In addition to the fine the accused had his driver's licence cancelled for six months.

3 consecutive want-ads may be inserted for $1.25.

BUSY INCOME TAX TEAM: The above four beauties of the local office of the Department of National Revenue are busy typing income tax assessments for taxpayers in the twelve-county area served by the Sherbrooke branch. Up to Monday some 65,000 persons had "anted up" of approximately 80,000 listed in this area.

These girls are bent on seeing that early filers of returns receive their assessment notices promptly and are thus notified whether or not they are entitled to a share in the one-million dollar lemon which the Ottawa authorities have announced is forthcoming for over-payments in the territory served by the Sherbrooke office.

Typing five-hundred assessments a day each, the girls are: front, left to right, Madeline Emond and Monique Roy. Back, left to right: Mrs. Marjorie Alexander and Rita Nadeau.

Even If Accidents Are Very Slight All Drivers Must Stop, Police Warn

The Police Department today warned drivers to stop and report accidents in which they are involved no matter how slight the accidents might be.

"If there is injury to persons or damage to property, the driver must stop," Police Chief Edouard Moreau said.

To show just how important to the Police Department were even the slightest accidents, the Chief quoted an example that happened last week. A driver who failed to stop damaged a little wagon belonging to a child.

And this is only one of six cases that is laboring the Police Department today.

"No matter how small the damage, whether only a dented fender or a nicked knee, drivers must stop and report the incident to the Police," the Chief stated. "There are Municipal, Provincial and Federal laws to punish such offenders with the utmost severity.

"The Police Department has enough work to do without chasing after drivers who were involved in petty accidents yet failed to stop. The laws are much more lenient on a car driver if he stops and reports the accident than if runs away.

"Excuses such as, I was in a hurry and the accident was not serious, will not do," Chief Moreau warned.

Laws supporting the Chief's statement are: Municipal Traffic By-law 506, article 39; Provincial Motor Traffic Law, section seven, article 39; article 13, judge six, chapter 46 of a Provincial law passed in 1949 and article 281 of the Criminal Code of Canada.

The Municipal statute states: "In case of any accident to a person or when damages are caused, such vehicle shall stop." The other laws read in similar vein.

Mr. Justice Gervais Will Render Judgment Friday In Chartrand Case

Judgment in the legal action taken by the S. Rubin Company against Michel Chartrand, syndicate organizer, will be rendered on Friday by Mr. Justice Cesaire Gervais. The hearing which got underway several days ago was adjourned until yesterday when it was concluded.

The S. Rubin Company—whose employees have been on strike since March 13—maintains that the 35-year-old Chartrand, a resident of Varennes, Que., violated a court injunction, issued by Mr. Justice William Mitchell, which permitted the company to export goods during the strike.

Chartrand during the hearing admitted having grabbed the keys to a truck which was being loaded at the company and throwing them into the crowd.

Chartrand said he had nothing to do with the "joy ride" on which two employees were "taken for a ride," one being beaten and both left stranded on the road. He also said he had nothing to do with an incident which occurred at the New Sherbrooke Hoted during the strike. A group of men told company officials, who had rented a room to hold a meeting, that they had better evacuate the place or there would be trouble. They were given three minutes to leave and left.

Yesterday Chartrand was cross-examined by Evender Veilleux, Q.C., who with Jean-Louis Peloquin, is representing the company. Carriere Fortin is representing Chartrand.

"Sherbrooke police sided with the company. The local police tried to prevent us from picketing. I called the police chief and told him we were being insulted and he said he did not care," Chartrand said yesterday after being questioned by Mr. Veilleux.

Constable A. Beauregard, of the local Municipal Police force apparently cleared up an incident which occurred at the mill and led to the arrest of a lady striker. The striker who admitted striking the constable claimed earlier in the case that she was insulted and called a big pig. Constable Beauregard said yesterday that he said to another constable on the force that "those three" are the ones who he was indicating as causing mischief. He said he spoke in English so that the girls would not understand "Those three" was mistaken for "gros truit."

Mr. Veilleux said that Chartrand had violated the injunction and that he insulted the police, judges and civic officials. He referred to newspaper clippings containing speeches made by Chartrand. He also referred to the key incident.

Mr. Fortin said that there was no direct evidence against Chartrand and said that he was never against the court injunction. He said his client had nothing to do with the "joy ride" or "hotel scene" pointing out that the men who have since been detained were not employees of the Rubin firm.

Entertainment Planned For Doctors' Wives

During the Canadian Medical Association (Quebec Division) annual meeting, to be held in North Hatley this week-end, a special program has been prepared for the ladies.

Friday at 10 a.m., the English movie of Somerset Maugham's "Quartet" will be presented at the Premier Theatre, and will be followed by a buffet luncheon at the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, offered by the Sisters of the Hospital.

At 2.15, the ladies are invited to visit the Julius Kayser Company plant on Frontenac Street, in groups. Each lady will receive a gift of a pair of hose.

Tea is to be served by the Board of Governors of the Sherbrooke Hospital, at the Hospital on Argyle Street, at 4 o'clock. Completing the day's activities will be a cocktail party at Pleasant View Hotel, North Hatley, at 6.30, followed by the annual dinner of the Canadian Medical Association in the Hotel, and a dance.

Saturday's activities include a boat ride on Lake Massawippi, if the temperature will permit. This is scheduled for 10 a.m., and will be followed by luncheon at 12.30 at the Pleasant View.

CONTINUING A BAD CUSTOM

The announcement that a House of Commons Committee on redistribution has been appointed means that constituency boundaries for the next general election will be drawn up by men with a deep personal and partizan interest in the political map. There is an alternative and better way of doing the job, The Toronto Globe and Mail believes, pointing out that in Britain, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, when seats in Parliament are to be reallocated, an independent commission handles the job. Continuing, the Toronto paper comments that it is strange but true that no concerted effort was made at Ottawa, by an party or group, to have this fair system introduced in Canada.

The objection to Canada's traditional procedure is that it leads to gerrymandering, the process by which the party in power stacks the cards in its own favor. Two answers are made to this objection. Some say gerrymandering is impossible; others say it is unprofitable.

If these statements are true, why have four other Commonwealth nations adopted the commission plan? Why was it recently suggested in Manitoba, which is to lose two seats by the current redistribution, that this would be a fine opportunity to abolish Brandon and Souris — the two ridings that are most friendly to the Progressive Conservative Party? In Ontario, why have the normally Conservative Yorks, with half a million population, only the same representation as normally Liberal Glengarry, Prescott, Russell and Stormont, with fewer than 150,000 people between them? And why did Mr. C. G. Power, a veteran Parliamentarian with an independent mind, rise in the Commons last month and denounce the present system of redistribution?

The evidence is pretty strong that gerrymandering has been both possible and profitable. To say that it can happen again is not to say that MP's as a class are dishonest. It is merely to say that not all of them are proof against the temptation to gain personal and party advantage by rigging constituency boundaries. It is extraordinary that the House of Commons is so little concerned about its own reputation that it can allow the bad old system to survive. But that is the kind of House of Commons this country has; and at the moment there is nothing that anybody can do about it.

CARE NEEDED IN FORESTS

Quebec has been fortunate in that to date it has not suffered the epidemic of forest fires which have been plaguing other parts of the Dominion this spring, but with the unusually dry spring which has prevailed, the record established up to now can only be maintained by the exercise of the greatest care and co-operation in the observance of safety measures.

The forests in many sections are reported as almost tinder and it would take only a single act of carelessness to cause a major holocaust.

The rules for forest fire prevention can be summed up in a single word: Care. If each individual using the woods and forests of the province were to use reasonable care to see that he removed any fire hazards which he might create the toll of fire losses would be held down to a surprisingly low figure. Surveys have proved that the overwhelming portion of forest fires are man-made, that nature herself usually does little damage.

With man the chief cause of the fires, it is incumbent upon man himself to see that this loss is held to a minimum.

KOREANS OF ANCIENT CULTURE

The modern notion of Korea and Koreans does not reflect the enlightened people of the Hermit Kingdom of a century before Columbus landed on the shores of America. While the Chinese had no alphabet the Koreans invented one containing 11 vowels and 14 consonants during the fifteenth century and Koreans were printing more simply than China before the Korean alphabet appeared, but they used Chinese characters. In the American Museum of Natural History are samples from Korea of the oldest metal type in existence made in 1403, at least 37 years before Gutenberg's invention in Germany. This type was obtained from Korea in 1897 from the education department at Seoul where there were other remnants of sets of metal type cast before 1434. Moveable type in metal was in use there long before cast metal type was evolved.

A Korean official named Li-Ku-Po, who died in 1241, left a record saying his father compiled a book that was printed from moveable type of metal sometime between 1224 and 1241. They are proud of this accomplishment as they are of the fact that they built the first warship that used metal plates and a metal ram, erected the first successful suspension bridge, built the first bombs and the first mortar, as well as being alone among the people of their part of Asia who evolved a phonetic alphabet. Of course, the Koreans had no printing press. The printer used the method by which printers today "pull proofs." He sat before his tray and used a brush to apply liquid ink to the printing surface. He laid a sheet of paper lightly on the form, patted it with a felt pad and carefully lifted it off. Nor was this method so slow as one might imagine. It is said that an experienced workman could strike off 1,500 impressions a day.

PRESS COMMENTS

NOT A PLAYTHING BUT A MACHINE

The Montreal Gazette

The city of Sherbrooke in the Eastern Townships has thought up a new approach to the problem of traffic accidents. Out there the Rotary Club has sponsored the "Good Driver Club" with the objective of cutting down the toll of highway accidents. This in itself is a constructive project but the big-time idea lies in a feature of the campaign which is going on for club membership.

The Sherbrooke Rotary Club has noted the disturbing pre-eminence of teen-agers among those involved in motoring mishaps. It has evolved an official-appearing agreement which may well prove a potent factor in curbing youthful carelessness. The agreement is in two forms, a "Man to Man Agreement" between father and son, and a "Dad to Daughter Agreement."

Both forms are much the same and they cover points which, if observed, cannot fail to be effective. For instance, one of the eight clauses agrees: "That, because I am fully aware of the risks involved in driving after drinking, I will not allow the car to be driven by anyone who has been drinking any form of intoxicating liquor while the car is in my charge."

And, among others: "That I fully realize the car is not a plaything but a machine which has power to kill and injure, and I will not try to show off with it." — "That I will not race with other cars regardless of how much of a temptation it may be to do so." — "That I will not attempt to drive if I feel sleepy." — "That I will obey all signs, street and highway markings, signal lights, and other traffic regulations."

The agreements are to be signed by the youths, and then by the fathers, who agree that: "I, the father of Johnny Doe, subscribe to what my son has promised above and know that he will do what he has promised. On all suitable occasions, therefore, I hereby grant him my permission to use the automobile registered in my name."

This looks like a very fair deal and it is a demonstrated fact that most youngsters will enter into and live up to a deal when they are offered one. If it works out that way in the case of this Sherbrooke Rotary Club project, it will be a big idea in practice as well as on paper.

TEACHERS SNEERING AT PARLIAMENT

Ottawa Journal

Recent years have brought frequent suggestions that teaches in our schools "teach more of democracy." As democracy is compounded of many things, and basically is respect for the individual's worth and dignity, the suggestions are somewhat loose .

What can and should be demanded, though, is that our teachers at least refrain from sneering at democracy — avoid the cheap jibes at our democratic institutions which are the stock and trade of those who would end democracy.

The Journal has in mind a publication which has just come to its desk, namely, "The Canadian Teachers' Federation News Letter," issued from the Normal School building, Elgin street, Ottawa. Dealing with the recent debate in the House of Commons on Federal aid to education, this "news letter" speaks of the "Debating Society" on Parliament Hill, adopts a note of at one point says:

". . . some of you will be proud of the representatives you sent to the 'Debating Society' on Parliament Hill. Others will have cause to feel that a little more 'education', relative to the issues at stake would not be amiss in the person you choose to represent you in the Parliament of Canada."

The question of whether we should have Federal aid to education, which involves the right and desirability of the Dominion entering a field reserved exclusively to (and guarded jealously by) the provinces, is debatable. There must be a better way of debating it than to have teachers entering the controversy with reflections upon the education and intelligence of Parliament.

COMMUNISTS AT WORK

Fort William Times-Journal

In Port Arthur, Fort William and other Canadian centres, little bands of communists, parading as members of gentle organizations devoted to brotherly love and, above all, peace, are engaged in a vicious program of propaganda to drive a wedge in the friendship between Canada and the United States.

In the communist press which these bands support with their dues and contributions, the line of attack grows plainer each week.

"How Yankee warlords seized Alberta oil."

"Yankee Doodle comes to . . . corrupt!"

"Ottawa's war policy means death for our children!"

"Yanks invade Canadian campus."

"Merchants of death must be curbed."

These and more like them are the headlines which communist papers in Canada are circulating wherever they can.

Under the guise of promoting peace, these dupes of Moscow struggle doggedly to wreck the co-operation of free nations which are setting up a common defence strong enough to stop communist world aggression.

In the rank and file of the phony organizations, there must be a few who follow sincerely, believing they are merely lining up against war.

Leaders of the groups, informed from Moscow, know the fake they are trying to make people swallow. The only peace they want is that which would follow communist domination of the world.

And if domination can be obtained through the use of atom bombs and the slaughter of armed conflict, they will be for it.

WOODLAND BEAUTY

Again the friendly sun shines down,
Upon the trees and grassy ground;

While the woodland creatures call
Through the forest thick and tall

Wild beast or tame and fowl
Who cheerily sing or screech or howl

Who in this land of beauty dwell
And would not for all money sell

Their homes of joy and happiness
Their land of unseen beautiness

With fairy ferns and fragrant flowers
And trees that high above them tower

And little ponds and singing brooks
With minnows in the shady nooks

The wind blows softly through the trees
As you slip upon your knees

And remember the Lord that made
This beauty which will never fade.

ALL THINGS

All things are good and gifts from God:
Shelter and food; the greening sod
Of spring. Brown furrowed fields, new grain.
Orchards reborn, and slanting rain.

The timbered hills, and season's yield
At harvest time from farm and field.
Bird songs and flowers, eternal snows
That cap the heights; the breeze that blows.

A trusty friend; beloved home ties;
The grace to see where duty lies.
Life, health, and strength. At set of sun
To rest content, with tasks well done.

Summer and autumn, winter, spring,
And all of everything they bring.
Whatever weather, what the mood,
Of this be sure: All things are good.

PSYCHIC THOUGHTS ARE VERY VALUABLE

When today's hand came along in the recent Eastern Tournament, West was sick and tired of all the smart-aleck opponents who bid suits that they didn't really hold. This was one time that West was going to show up the psychic bid so that East would know what suit to lead.

So West doubled two clubs, never dreaming that the hand would be played there. Naturally North re-doubled to show the power of his hand. East couldn't very well run out to spades, and he shuddered at the thought of bidding diamonds. Besides, he hoped South would run out. But South was happy enough to stay where he was. And so was West—for a short time.

West opened the jack of hearts, and dummy won with the king. Declarer cashed the ace of clubs and entered his hand with the queen of hearts to lead the jack of clubs. West hopped up with the king of clubs, and East dropped the eight. This confirmed declarer's very strong suspicion that West had started with five trumps.

West shifted to spades, but dummy won with the ace. Declarer then led the ace of hearts from dummy, allowing West to ruff. This reduced West to two trumps, while South had three.

West led his other spade, and South ruffed. Declarer next cashed the queen of clubs, leaving one trump in his own hand and one trump in the West hand. Then South returned to the hearts.

By this time it was obvious to West that he could not set the contract. East's discouraging discards in diamonds also indicated that South held the king of that suit. West didn't want to ruff a heart and then lead diamonds to South, so he discarded two diamonds on the fourth and fifth hearts.

Declarer now had eight tricks safely home. It was therefore safe to lead his last trump, forcing West into the lead. West had to lead away from his diamonds after all, giving South an extra trick.

South scored 710 points for the re-doubled contract with an overtrick—far more than the value of the game in hearts that was made at most of the other tables.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 Spade	2 Diamonds	?

You, South, hold: Spades K-8-3-2, Hearts 8-6-5-4, Diamond 5, Clubs Q-J-7-3. What do you do?

A—Bid two spades. This hand represents a very sound free raise. Compare with the hand shown yesterday, which was not quite worth a free raise. A raise from one to two is not a very strong bid, but it shouldn't be made on sheer nerve.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-8-3-2, Hearts A-6-5-4, Diamond 5, Clubs Q-J-7-3. What do you do?

Plan Legislation To Allow Corneal Graft Operations

London. — Thousands of blind people in the United Kingdom have been given new hope that their sight may some day be restored.

Their rising optimism rests on the fate of legislation to be introduced in the House of Commons providing for removal of existing restrictions on what is known as corneal graft operations.

Surgeons complain that many are condemned to live in blindness when the grafting of a tiny piece of tissue from the eyes of a dead person, would bring back sight.

The delicate operation must be performed immediately after a death, but the law forbids removal of such tissue until it is too late to be of any help to the living.

The new bill, with the blessing of the ministry of health, will be introduced by Gerald Williams, Conservative Member of Parliament for Tonbridge. It will be jointly sponsored by a doctor of philosophy, Horace M. King, Socialist Member for Southampton.

Intense public interest has been aroused in the campaign to have the law amended. Medical men say that if the measure gains Parliamentary approval, as expected, immediate steps will be taken to set up a national eye-bank.

Williams hopes to introduce the new bill after the Easter recess.

"Our main concern and that of the surgeons," he said, "is to ensure that the donation of these corneas shall be completely voluntary and with the consent of all concerned."

The Record Short Story

OPENING DAY

By CHRISTOPHER KING

It was opening day at Wrigley Field, and while thousands of Chicagoans were out, trying to yell the Cubs out of last year's cellar finish, Bloodhound Gilman and I were investigating the trouble at Tony's. Tony ran a billiard parlor, not a nice one. A 3 o'clock, he phoned the station saying that there was a little trouble. When he opened the door to us, we saw that the trouble was serious.

Otto Bishop was slumped in a telephone booth, three bullet holes in his chest. Bloodhound examined him while I phoned homicide. Bishop's killer had cleaned up Chicago to the extent that he had removed one bookie from the local scene. Bishop had been a big blot, ever since prohibition he had made the headlines, headlines about killings.

"You don't know what trouble is, Tony," Bloodhound said to the little proprietor. "Let's have your story."

"Bishop's been here all day. Just me and him, listening to the ball game on the radio. I get hungry about two-thirty, and ask Otto to watch the place, while I go around the corner to the tavern to get a sandwich. When I get back, I see this."

"When did you get back?"

"About three, I called the station."

"Anyone at the tavern know you?"

"Sure. About five guys are watching the ball game on television. They all know me."

"Anyone else come in here today?"

"No."

"Harry Halverson or Sam Webster?"

"No."

Harry Halverson and Sam Webster were two more bookies who hung out in Tony's. Halverson was a little guy, about five foot high, known as a knife artist. He had his start during prohibition, and had served two terms. Webster was newer to the Chicago scene, a big powerful man, with the dirtiest racket of all, dope. That was a sideline, the main income for Halverson, Webster, and Bishop was the horses. All were bookies, and all of them hung out at Tony's. I had heard stories of trouble between them, but this was the first outbreak.

Homicide arrived, listened to Tony again, and put through a pickup call for Halverson and Webster. Bloodhound and I went back to the station, too late to hear the end of the ball game. I went home to supper, helped Helen get the boys in bed, and sat down to enjoy the television.

I didn't sit long. Bloodhound and his wife came over, Mrs. Gilman to keep Helen company, Bloodhound with news that we were wanted down at homicide.

"They got Webster and Halverson," Bloodhound told me in the car. "Both men walked in and gave themselves up."

"What about Tony?"

"They're holding Tony. His alibi checks with the time of death, between 2:30 and 3 o'clock. Halverson and Webster have alibis, too. They were at the ball game."

"Anyone see them?"

"They say so. That's what we're being called in for. Question them all night if we have to."

Bloodhound was always welcomed at homicide. He had solved several cases for them with his super-sensitive sense of smell, others with brain work. It looked like the nose wouldn't have much play in this case.

They had finished with Tony, and were questioning Webster when we came in. It was a strange recital we broke in on, Webster was giving a play by play account of the ball game by memory. His memory was good. When he was interrupted or questioned about the game, he came up with clear answers.

"It was in the seventh, two down in the last half, when they had the fight," he said. "They must have argued about a half hour, finally threw three men out of the game. The pitcher made the last out, went down with his bat on his shoulder."

He continued his recital, became a little confused about the ninth inning, when all the pinch hitters came up, but he cleared that up, and ended with a big smile. Captain Kelly told him to wait outside, but Bloodhound stopped him at the door. "You with Halverson at the ball game?" he asked.

"No. I already told about that."

Bloodhound let him go, and Captain Kelly told us about the questioning. Webster and Halverson had both been at the game, but not together. Both had met friends at the game who remembered them. Tony's alibi was airtight. It looked like a tough one to crack.

"When did they show up??" Bloodhound asked.

"Right after the game. They didn't have a chance to buy a newspaper to read a play by play of the game. They also described the game in such a way that I knew they hadn't heard it over the radio."

"The people they saw don't mean a thing," Bloodhound said. "They'd get anybody to tell a story for a price."

"That's it," Kelly said. "We have to prove they weren't at the game."

Halverson came in, and the questions brought out nothing. He went through a recital of the game as had Webster, and although he was not as sure of himself, he was accurate.

"How did you hear about Otto Bishop?" Bloodhound asked.

"Clem Marble told me, right after the game, just outside the ball park. I figured I'd be called in, so I thought I'd show up quick."

"Marble told Webster, too," Kelly added. "They came in within a half hour of the end of the game."

Bloodhound had been standing over Halverson, looking down into his face. Suddenly Bloodhound bent down on his knees, and examined the cuffs on Halverson's pants. He didn't say a word, and Kelly told Halverson to wait outside.

It looked like a dead end, a night of constant questioning, checking on every one who saw them. Captain Kelly looked tired.

"Send Webster back," Bloodhound told him. "Maybe we can crack this quick."

Webster came in, still in a good humor. "Want me to go through the game again?"

"You're a real baseball fan?" Bloodhound asked. "Go to the game often? Have a big time?"

"Sure. It's a great game, and I enjoy myself. Like to get out in the air, peanuts, popcorn, hot dogs. I'm a fan."

"That's what I thought," Bloodhound said. "You don't smell of peanuts, popcorn or hot dogs, you smell of beer and smoked fish. You didn't see the game at the ball park, you watched it on television in a tavern. When the fight started at the ball game, you went out to Tony's, killed Otto, and came back to the tavern.

"I had forgotten that popcorn and peanuts have very distinctive odors until I saw Halverson, smelled his breath. I also examined his trouser cuffs, and found peanut shells and popcorn. That was good proof that he had been at the game, but you smell of beer and that dried, smoked fish that every tavern sells. He bent down and turned up the cuffs on Webster's pants.

"No peanut shells, no popcorn Webster, you just saw your last opening day."

Internment Experiences To Be Related

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Leonard Stranks, Australian-born officers who have served the Salvation Army in their own and many other lands for some years, are coming to Sherbrooke this Friday.

Mrs. Stranks will address a special women's rally at 2.30 p.m. at the Salvation Army Citadel on the subject, "A wedding in internment," and at 8 p.m. Lt.-Col. Stranks will speak of their internment by the Japanese. His subject will be "How we got in and how we got out."

LT.-COL. STRANKS

The Colonel was trained for Salvation Army officership in Melbourne, Australia, in 1914. His outstanding musical ability and gift of eloquence quickly brought him into prominence and when, in 1920, it was decided that Australia should become principally responsible for the officering of the Salvation Army's recently established work in China, the then Captain Stranks was the first officer chosen for this important work.

During his many years in China he became a master of the Chinese language and customs, and served the Army and the people in many capacities — Corps Officer, Sectional Officer, Divisional Commander, Territorial Young People's Secretary and Training College Principal.

MRS. STRANKS

Following the outbreak of war between Japan and China he was, with Mrs. Stranks and his son and daughter, interned for a long period. At the conclusion of the war in the Pacific he was repatriated to Australia and had command of the Army's work in the states of Tasmania and West Australia.

The Colonel retired from Active Service in 1951 and has recently visited his son, Dr. Gordon Stranks, who is a practicing physician in Vancouver.

Lt.-Colonel Stranks' extensive knowledge of the Chinese language and customs has enabled him to prepare a series of fascinating talks which bring to those who hear him, new light on the problems of the Far East.

Auditions Will Continue This Evening

Bernard Symons, adjudicator at last night's piano auditions in connection with the annual Youth Festival, stated that he considered the musical standard quite good, judging from the performance of the eight young musicians.

Mr. Symons is head of the piano department of the McGill Conservatory and was formerly with the Royal Academy of London. Last night's auditions were well attended and interest in the festival seems to be growing as the week progresses.

Alexander Brott, well known Montreal conductor, is to act as adjudicator this evening for the violin, viola and singing auditions, which are scheduled for 8.30, in the hall of the Superior School on King street west.

The program follows:

Una Voce Poco Fa (Barber of Seville) ..... Rossini
Matus Moja, Polish Folk Song ..... Y. Ravell
Gaby Bilodeau—soprano.
Sonate in D No. 4. (First and second movement) ..... Handel
Paul-Edouard Brunelle—violin.
Sonato for viola ..... Handel

E. T. Textile Men Named To Council

S. W. Milnes of Lachute was elected president of the Quebec section of the Canadian Association of Textile Colourists and Chemists at the annual meeting held Saturday in Montreal.

Council members elected included A. Grayborne of Cowansville, J. Ramsden of St. Hyacinthe and E. Sewell of Magog. The honorary president is E. Bradley of Magog.

Guest speaker at the closing banquet was Hon. Milton F. Gregg, V.C., federal minister of labor, who said that the "temporary recession" in the Canadian textile industry is the result of world-wide rather than domestic conditions.

"The knowledge that the slump is world-wide provides little consolation to Canadians who have been thrown out of jobs and directly affected by the slump. In all the textile-producing countries, the basic problem is to get rid of the heavy stocks which were accumulated in response to artificial, war-stimulated buying and to resume production at a level consistant with normal demand."

He said it was necessary to go back to Korea to fully understand the present situation in the Canadian textile and clothing industries. With the outbreak of the Korean war, he said, came fear of shortages and runaway prices which resulted in a "buying spree" by consumers, retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers. By early 1951, very heavy inventories had been established at all levels of the trade.

Then, he said, earlier fears of shortage proved groundless. The world wool market suddenly broke and prices slipped drastically within a matter of weeks. The splurge of consumer spending ended. Caught between heavy inventories, uncertain prices and indications of falling consumer demand the clothing merchants reduced or cancelled orders and at all stages or production activity was reduced and employment fell off.

He did not believe that the Government should raise the tariff on imported textiles. Such action, he said, "could very easily boomerang to the detriment of the Canadian economy." He believed "we must be very careful to avoid any change in our tariff policy which would bring retaliation from other countries."

Theatre Thieves Believed Caught

With the arrest in Montreal yesterday morning of a Rock Island youth, Provincial Police, Sherbrooke detachment, now have under lock and key the two young men believed to have robbed the Border Theatre at Rock Island of some $200 in the wee hours of April 18.

The other youth being held is also of Rock Island.

Provincial Police say that one of the youths came down to Sherbrooke on April 24 and confessed to the robbery of his own accord. His information led to the arrest of his confrere.

The robbery occurred at approximately four o'clock on the morning of April 18. The youth's story has it that he and his companions were patrons of the Border Theatre the night before and had opened a washroom window in order to gain entrance to the building after the theatre had closed.

The story continues that they got into the theatre as planned, forced entry into the office and relieved the cash box of about $200.

Jean Scarth, Harry Maude To Be Soloists

Jean Scarth, soprano soloist at St. James' United Church, Montreal; Harry Maude, baritone soloist at St. James the Apostle, and John Stewart, tenor soloist at St. James United, also of Montreal, will be soloists on May 19th, when "The Creation" and "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" are presented in Trinity United Church, under the direction of Professor R. Havard.

Oil Workers

Cities service officials said supply to the Chicago area could be affected if its daily intake from Kansas fields is curtailed.

O. A. Knight, president of the O.W.I.U., said slightly less than half the country's production of refined oil products will be cut off.

"Our union is immediately shutting down refineries with a daily production totalling approximately 2,200,000 barrels daily," he said. "Independent and A.F.L. unions are expected to close refineries with a daily capacity of about 650,000 barrels daily."

Union officials would not disclose exactly how many plants had been closed or their locations.

Texas and Oklahoma appeared among the most heavily-struck sates. At least seven Texas Gulf coast refineries reportedly were out, including refining units of Magnolia Petroleum, Gulf, Texas and Atlantic Oil and gas companies.

ing the President to direct this seizure. There is no grant of power from which it reasonably can be implied. There is no enactment of Congress authorizing it."

Truman, in directing commerce secretary Charles Sawyer to take over and operate the steel mills, had said he was acting "by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution and laws of the United States, and as commander-in-chief of the armed forces."

Minutes after Pine's decision was handed to a crowd of clamoring reporters, Murray announced that the steelworkers had no choice but to "cease work immediately," with the usual arrangements for safeguarding steel company property.

The Wage Stabilization Board has recommended wage increases and other benefits totalling 26 cents an hour, plus industry-wide acceptance of the union shop.

Steel companies refused to grant the pay raise unless the government allowed compensating steel price increases. They figured they would need up to $12 a ton more. The biggest increase allowed under existing price regulations would be $3 a ton on top of the present $110.

Republican count to Taft's 29 per cent.

Complete Boston Republican returns gave Eisenhower 15,242 votes to Taft's 6,811. Boston Democrats voted 5,835 for Kefauver and 5,081 for Eisenhower. The Democrats also put Taft ahead of Truman by 42 votes.

The result of the popular vote is not binding on the delegates at the convention.

He ran virtually neck and neck with Kefauver through early returns. Taft also was the choice of many Democrats. The total vote for the two Republicans exceeded Kefauver's tally in the early count, and then Kefauver drew away.

LAKE MEGANTIC

The regular monthly meeting of the Guild of St. Barnabas' Church was held at the home of Miss Florence Bailey, one evening. There was a good attendance. The meeting was opened with prayer, led by the vice-president, Mrs. D. S. Clark. The regular business was transacted and it was decided to hold a rummage sale some time in May. After the meeting closed, a social time was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Alice Wood.

The Easter Thank-Offering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Knox United Church was held in the Sunday School room, one Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance of members. Mrs. Miller conducted the devotional period and Mrs. Clark presided at the business session. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A letter was read announcing the Presbyterial meeting to be held in Sherbrooke, in May. Mrs. G. Gonyer and Mrs. E. Hawthorn were appointed as delegates. It was decided to pack a box of good used clothing, at the next meeting, to be sent overseas. The meeting was closed with the "Mizpah Benediction," after which, a lunch was served by a committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stewart spent a few days in Boston, Mass., and other points in Massachusetts, visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Mavis Wood spent Easter in Sherbrooke with relatives.

Miss M. Neil, of Montreal, was a guest of her mother, Mrs. G. Neil, for several days.

Mr. Robert Thombs has returned from Ottawa and Arnprior, Ont., where he visited relatives.

Miss Jean Boyle, of St. John, spent her holidays with her mother, Mrs. D. Boyle, and her uncle, Mr. Thomas Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ross, of Sherbrooke, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gonyer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lunnin, of Mattawamkeag, Me., were in town for a day.

Miss Ruth MacDonald was in St. Cecile for her holidays and was a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thombs and son, Bobbie, were in Brownville Junction, Me., for the week-end.

Wilfred and Ronald Nason, of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. McAdam, N.B., were guests of and Mrs. C. Duplessis, for the holidays.

Miss Shirley MacDonald, of Sherbrooke, and Mr. Lloyd MacDonald of Montreal, spent a week-end with their mother, Mrs. D. MacDonald.

Miss Janet Taillon spent her vacation at her home in Bury.

The Doctor Says:

EAR INFECTIONS TREATED NOW MAY PREVENT TROUBLE LATER

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

One of the causes responsible for some cases of difficulty with hearing is the presence of a chronic running ear, or ottis media.

Quite often the cource of the difficulty is early in life from an acute infection of the middle ear. Prompt action by the use of the germ-killing drugs or by early drainage by making a little incision into the ear drum may prevent a great deal of difficulty later on.

The source of the trouble is in the portion of the ear called the middle ear, which is a sort of closed cavity shut off from the external ear or canal by an ear drum or membrane. This cavity is connected to the nose by a passageway called the eustachian tube. It is by way of this tube that many germs originating in the nose pass up to the middle ear.

A chronic running ear is a common complaint among grownups as well as children. The material which is discharged from a running ear consists of germs, deal cells and pus. Usually it is whitish or yellowish in color but the color and consistency vary with the germs which are responsible for the infection.

When dangerous germs get into the middle ear they cause inflammation of the delicate mucous membrane lining. Blockage of the eustachian tube is common.

When doctors look at a person with a painful earache they can usually tell whether the trouble is in the middle ear by the appearance of the drum membrane. This will usually bulge in acute ear infections and can be cut allowing the pus to escape through the external canal.

If the process goes on and the drum membrane is not cut, the pressure generally bursts it and the material escapes by ihself.

Cleanliness Is Important

Once a chronic condition has become established, treatment is often difficult. Cleanliness is important and includes the removal of crusts and anything which interferes with drainage.

Washing with various solutions is of great help in accomplishng this purpose. Some doctors have used sulfa drugs in powder form to blow into the middle ear. Also, suction is helpful in cleaning out the pus and mucous. Surgery may be considered if other methods fail.

Because a chronic condition is so troublesome and interferes so much with perfect health, it is highly important that such infections be treated as early as possible and treated properly.

Infants who are unable to say what bothers them may need to be watched particularly for the development of acute infections of the middle ear. Prevention or appropriate treatment will help many to avoid hearing and other difficulties.

Perfume That Clings

Q.—Dear Claire: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. A. W.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a brand new fragrance medium by Houbigant called Liquid Skin Sachet. It smoothes on the skin very easily and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.95.

MARRIAGES

GELINAS—GOYETTE

Dixville, April 30 — A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mathieu de Dixville, Roman Catholic Church, on Saturday morning, April 19, 1952, when Miss Madeline Goyette, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Goyette, was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Achille Gelinas, son of Mr. Philias Gelinas and the late Mrs. Gelinas. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. Lanouette, parish priest, and Miss Angelina Nadeau, the church organist, played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly gowned in white slipper satin. Her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion was held by a tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white lilies and red carnations. Miss Monique Goyette was maid-of-honor for her sister, and wore pale pink tulle over taffeta, with matching cap.

The bridesmaid, Miss Evelina Champagne, was attired in mauve nylon over taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet. The flower girl, little Diane Lefebvre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Lefebvre, was daintily gowned in pale blue and carried a basket of flowers.

Mr. Marcel Goyette, brother of the bride, was the best man.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Goyette, was in black and white sheer, with black accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the rooms were decorated with tulips and daffodils. The table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Gelinas left for a trip to Three Rivers, and other points of interest in Quebec. For travelling, the bride chose a suit in a pale beige shade with navy accessories. On their return they will reside in Stanhope.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lauriat Caron, Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Biron, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roberge, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Gelinas, Miss Laurette Gelinas, Mr. Philias Gelinas, Mr. and Mrs. O. Goyette, Mr. Marcel Goyette, Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbrod Goyette, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marcoux, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Champagne, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Lefebvre, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Charest, Miss Bernice Chartier, Lorraine Boyer, Mr. Paul Champagne, Miss Evelina Champagne, Miss Mariette Gingras, Mr. Robert Charest, Miss Arselia Devast, Miss Alphreda Beaudoin, Misses Rose and Lina Champagne, Miss June Elaine Melrose, Miss Georgette Champagne, Guy Charest, Diane Lefebvre, Fernande Lefebvre, C. J. Goyette, Michele Goyette, and Monique Goyette.

Miss I. Miller, R.N., Tells Waterloo Club Of China

Waterloo, April 30.—St. Hilda's Guild of St. Luke's Anglican Church, Waterloo, met one evening in the Church Hall with Mrs. Garret Chapman opening the meeting with a short devotional period. The business was tabled for the next meeting.

There was a large number of members, visitors and friends present to listen to the guest speaker, Miss Isabelle Miller, R.N., who was introduced by Rev. E. D. Mitchell.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell stated that this was not a formal get-together but rather a private party, as Miss Miller, a returned Missionary from China, had gone to school with two presons present, Mrs. Chapman had been her teacher and she had trained in the Sherbrooke Hospital with another so she centainly was not among strangers. Miss Miller had gone to China primarily as a missionary to train Chinese student nurses. She flew from San Francisco to Shanghai over three years ago.

Her first impression was that it was not terribly Chinese but a miniature of all elements. After a three day stay in this city she was moved inland, almost to the Tibet border, which was the last stronghold being held by the Nationals, but even then they were preparing to leave as the Communists were on their way.

Her first job, Miss Miller stated, was to attend language school, which numbered seventy-eight but had dwindled down to but three due to Communist pressure.

In learning language, the tone is all important, as words are formed with tonal quality, there being four.

Miss Miller described her first Christmas in a hospital, with conditions very tense. The leaders flew to Formosa, and this was followed by a period of waiting in the walled cities.

The speaker related several experiences during this period, which were humorous as well as pathetic. The people took all their jewellery and money and buried it in back of the compound. These were very difficult to find again.

The first Communists filtered in, and the officers were very polite, at first, and the gullible Chinese believed all their promises and accepted all gifts, paving an easy path for the army, who were cheered by the conquered Chinese. Gradually the picture changed, conditions grew tight and tense, everything was closely watched, people disappeared for minor offenses. Everyone was encouraged to attend church, but the Communists arranged other things at the same time to disrupt the routine. They knew everything about everybody. They were very subtle, and everything was extremely well planned, almost with cunning, Miss Miller explained.

The speaker then went on to describe the Chinese dress, houses, food, hospital, living conditions very carefully.

In concluding, she explained that she felt Christianity was not lost, as the Chinese are still Christians at heart, though they dare not admit it at the present time. There are no meetings allowed, and no more than three people are allowed to meet together at one time. The police are all around ,and enter homes at will, at any time, and are always watching.

Miss Isabelle Miller concluded her interesting talk in repeating the Twenty-Third Psalm, in Chinese, and then followed a question box.

Mrs. Chapman thanked the guest speaker, and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harold Roach, Mrs. Carl Chapman, Mrs. Arthur Basiner, Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Fred Marsh.

It was announced that there would be a Military Whist held in the Church Hall on April 30.

THE LEGION AUXILIARY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Waterloo Branch, met on Tuesday, April 22, with Mrs. Phyllis Savage presiding in the absence of Mrs. Reba Holloway.

It was decided to have a food sale in the Southern Canada Power building, on May 17.

A brush demonstration was put on. At the end of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. M. B. Holloway, Mrs. B. Taylor, Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Kenneth Lewis.

General Notes

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Chambers and their daughter, Janet, visited Mrs. Chamber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell, in Como.

Rural Dean Andrews attended the Montreal Diocesan Synod meetings.

Miss Isabel Wanzer visited Miss Wendy Child, in Toronto, Ont., and Miss Susan Montagne, in St. Albans, Vt.

Mrs. F. W. Jones and Mr. W. Gunner accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Whitehead and daughters, Linda and Janet, of Alexandria, Ont. were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wadsworth, in Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bouchard, of Montreal, were guests of Mrs. A. Henry Smith.

While spending a few days in Montreal, Mrs. Harold Bresee visited and called on Mr. W. J. Bourke, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hochner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bourke and family, Miss Eunice Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Len Bourke.

When in Waterloo to give a talk on "China" and her experience there while officiating as a missionary at a meeting of St. Hilda's Guild in St. Luke's Church, Miss Isabelle Miller and her sister, Miss Christine Miller, R.N., were tea guests of Mrs. Arthur Reed, all of whom were in training together in the Sherbrooke Hospital. Later, Miss Isabelle Miller, R.N., worked in the Neurological Hospital, in Montreal.

Bury W. A. Held Largely Attended Meeting

Bury, April 30.—There was a large gathering of members for the April meeting of the Women's Association, which was held at the home of Mrs. R. Mayhew, with Mrs. Eva MacRae and Mrs. Elsie Morrison for the joint hostesses.

The president, Mrs. E. Lake, presided and the devotional period was conducted by the first vice-president, Mrs. R. MacLeod. The Scripture was taken from Romans XII. The subject under discussion was "In the Community," and several interesting thoughts were brought forward. The "Lord's Prayer" recited in unison, concluded this period.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and confirmed, the correspondence was dealt with. Several letters of appreciation were read, also a letter from Mrs. R. Stafford, re the formation of a W.A. Presbytery. Action is to be taken on this later.

All bills were ordered paid and three members made their contribution to the "Birthday Box." The S.S. bags were received at this meeting and a substantial sum was realized.

The roll call was called and seventeen members responded and the meeting was closed by the "Mizpah Benediction."

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Several visitors came in for the tea hour.

The May meeting is to be held with Mrs. Whitehead, with Mrs. E. Cathcart for the assistant hostess.

General Notes

Masters Wayne and Roderick Dods have returned to Montreal, after spending their holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitehead.

L.A.C. Foreman and Mrs. Foreman, of Edmonton, Alta., spent their honeymoon with his parents, Rev. S. and Mrs. Foreman.

Mrs. Raymond MacLeod spent a few days in Scotstown, helping to care for her mother, Mrs. Morrison, who is ill again.

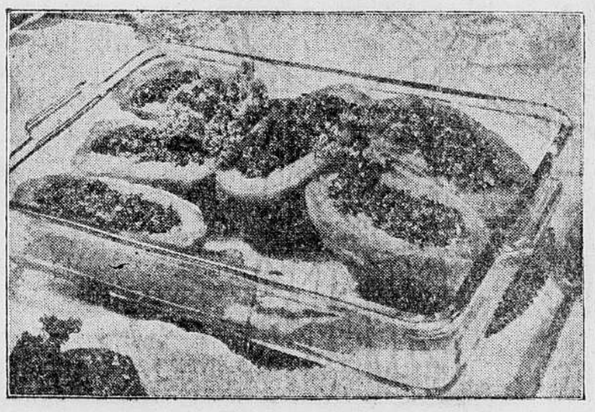
COOKBOOK OF THE WEEK

From the Collection of 24 of the World's Greatest Cookbooks
SPONSORED BY THIS NEWSPAPER

For That Party Touch Fill Glazed Sweet Potato Boats With Mincemeat Or Cranberries



Glazed Sweet Potatoes can be served plain or stuffed with any tart fruit to afford a contrasting taste.

Everyone can bake or boil potatoes but when company is coming you want something just a little special. For all sorts of ideas for that something just a little special you must see "250 Ways of Serving Potatoes," the thirteenth in the series of twenty-four cookbooks being made available a-book-a-week to readers of the Record.

Like its twelve predecessors, Snacks, Leftovers, Cakes, Poultry, Pies, Soups, Salads, Meat, Fish, Eggs, Vegetables, and Desserts, the Potato Book covers only one phase of cooking but it covers it completely with new and unusual ideas, timeworn but delicious concoctions, and many attractive ways of serving even the most commonplace dish. The beautiful illustrations do much to add unusual serving ideas and to explain how some of the more novel dishes should look when finished.

Here is a recipe taken from the Potato Book which would certainly be worth the little extra time needed for even a family dish but it would go along appropriately with a lavish turkey dinner. As with most of the recipes in the Potato Book, several variations are given.

GLAZED SWEET POTATOES

6 sweet potatoes
1 cup brown sugar
¼ cup water
Salt and pepper
Butter

Boil potatoes until tender, drain and skin. Make a thick sirup of sugar and water. Cut each potato in half, dip it into the sirup and place in a baking dish; season each piece with salt, pepper and butter. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) until the potatoes are brown, about 15 minutes, basting occasionally with the sirup. Serves 6 to 8.

Add ½ cup sliced Brazil nuts and 6 cloves to the sirup.

STUFFED—Hollow centres from halves before glazing. Fill glazed potatoes with mincemeat or cranberry sauce. Heat thoroughly in oven.

East Angus Guild Held Meeting

East Angus, April 30. — The Ladies' Guild met at the home of Mrs. Warner with a good attendance. Rev. Mr. Robins opened the meeting with prayer.

The president, Mrs. Bailey, was in the chair, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. McFadden, and approved.

Some finished work was brought in and a rummage sale was planned for Friday, May 23.

Rev. Mr. Robins showed the miniature altar and cross completed, which he had taught some of the Girl Guides to make for their G. A. Festival. Recipes were brought in and sold.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Warner served delicious refreshments assisted by Mrs. Hodge.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Brebner.

A CARD PARTY

A very successful afternoon card party was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall one afternoon by Protector Rebekah Lodge.

During the afternoon bridge, "500" and canasta were played at seventeen tables and a prize was given at each table.

The lamp, which was drawn during the afternoon was won by Miss Carmen Reuthier.

Mrs. Alfred Rowland and Mrs. J. R. McFadden poured tea at an attractively laid tea table, which was centered with a bowl of spring flowers and lighted tapers in silver holders. The members assisted in serving.

General Notes

Bolton Centre House Saved From Fire

Bolton Centre, April 30. — The home of Thomas E. Cousens and Donald Cousens, of the Cousens Mink Farm here, was saved from destruction by the efficient help given by Mr. Rodney Davis, who happened to be near at the time. Sparks from a chimney fire caught on the roof.

The local fire engine was called by a passing motorist, who noticed the flames and phoned to Mansonville, which immediately responded with its well equipped department and firemen.

It was thought at first that the attic was also on fire but it was found that the smoke was backing up.

The neighbours turned out with their pails and ladders and all helped in saving a home, which would have been hard to replace.

General Notes

Miss Mary Paige was in Sherbrooke for a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charters and family, of Mansonville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce George.

History Of Way's Mills W. I.

Way's Mills, April 30. — The first Homemaker's Club in Stanstead County was organized by Miss Frederica Campbell, with Mrs. W. H. Holmes, for president. Mrs. Fred Wilkinson, vice-president, and Mrs. W. B. Sargeant, secretary-treasurer.

December 15, 1914, saw the first meeting of the club with the charter members as follows: Mrs. Leslie Bean, Mrs. P. B. Buckland, Miss Mildred Buckland, Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Holmes, Mrs. C. Hovey, Miss Marie Hovey, Mrs. W. B. Sargeant, Miss Florence Sargeant and Mrs. Fred Wilkinson. There were shortly joined by Mrs. W. A. Cramer, Mrs. Fred Brown, Miss C. Davidson, Miss C. Smith and Mrs. Carl Wheeler.

In 1917, Mrs. Holmes resigned the presidency to preside over the newly formed Stanstead County Women's Institute.

It would take too long to review all the work done from 1914 to 1951, but let us look at the highlights. The first act was the securing of a McGill College Library.

Girls were taught to sew and were interested in hobbies. The School Fair was supported.

The First World War called forth the ingenuity of the members. At this late date, it would be impossible to tell of all the knitting and sewing done, how many yards of material and pounds of wool were purchased, nor how many boxes were packed and sent to the books overseas, and the extra ones to be given to a buddie, who did not have friends to remember him. Hands were never idle.

There was other work on the home front. Food, wood, electricity, and nursing furnished for the sick and needy; a wheelchair purchased to give comfort to an invalid and then loaned to others in their need; a home found for a young girl so that she could attend school; books, tuition and other necessities were paid and when she married, a generous gift was made to her. Tuition was paid for several others, scholarships given and expenses paid in part or full for Courses at Macdonald College and Lennoxville.

During this time here was work to do for the public. The debt on the Union Hall had not been wiped out. The W.I. needs must help with that and supply many needed things, such as stove, curtains, dishes, trays, tablecovers, etc. Upwards of $500 was spent in this way, while over $400 were given the Hall Committee for the use of the hall to earn money for this and other social duties. It amounts to nearly $1,000.

From January, 1915 to 1922, the Institute held all its meetings in the hall and nearly all those in 1922 and 1923, and for these seven years and eleven months, there is no record of any charge having been made for its use, for this purpose.

The W.I. also sponsored street lighting in the village and for many years held itself responsible for light bills, plus the breakage of bulbs, etc., which was plenty. The sidewalks seem to have been the responsibility of the W.I. too, for there was a bill for work done on them, which of course, was paid.

What about the watering trough in front of the Hall and the desperate attempt of the W.I. to secure a guarantee that the hall should always have a supply of water. The short sightedness of some outsiders made this a failure.

We seem to have forgotten the school, except to look after the lighting. Oh, no! A library, which was frequently enlarged, hot lunches, grounds improved, and had it not been for the W.I., would there have been an enlarged playground and playground equipment? The flowers and shrubs and their care, whose responsibility was that?

Medical inspection in the school was arranged and most often the bills came to us. The doctor's assistant was one of our members. A member opened her house so that six children might get rid of diseased tonsils and adenoids. That bill was paid too. Diphtheria, immunization was a more recent health project.

"Sunshine" baskets and gifts to the sick and aged, has always been a yearly pleasure.

Our motto is "For Home and Country." Let's not a few endeavours outside our own community. Magazines to the Sweetsburg School for Delinquents. Money to the Wales Home and Sherbrooke Hospital. Canning for Bethany House. Parcels to Britain. Save the Children Fund; Cancer Fund. We have sponsored the baseball Club, Skating Rink; Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and Brownies.

During the second World War, the Canadian Red Cross and Norwegian Red Cross Societies were grateful for the help we gave. Nor was the Mobile Kitchen, which was a contribution of the Stanstead County Women's Institute rejected and we did at least our part to provide it.

At our September meeting, 1939, Mr. R. Alex Sim, of the Rural Adult Education Service, and now Associate Professor of Toronto University, made his first official visit to Stanstead County. He explained "the necessity in the present crisis of the public being properly trained to do its bit." The purpose of the School for Leaders was explained clearly, developing from his address was the calling of a meeting at Ayer's Cliff, on September 12, to try to organize a school for this County. All Institutes in the County were asked to send two delegates to this meeting.

Parents often find that children do not develop as they had planned and so, with this child born September 12th, 1939. The plan for this child was to train leaders of various communities. However, with the advent of the Farm Forums the idea of schools for leadership was pushed aside and Community Schools were concentrated in the urban centres and devoted to general cultural or vocational interest. Thus Way's Mills was the cradle of the Stanstead Community School.

In January 1940, an Adult's Study Group was formed, which was held in the School House. All expenses were met by the W.I. Mr. Sim writes of this: "Here the seed was planted that grew into the Farm Forum Project, the Co-operative Creamery, at Way's Mills."

The County Spelling Contest in Grade VIII and IX was a child of our W.I., as was the attempt to have Formal Grammar returned to the Course of Study. Though this was not accomplished, Mrs. Dow, who was provincial president at the time, admitted that she had found, when she returned to teaching, that the need for grammar instruction was truly great.

The Home Economics portion of the W.I. Exhibit at the Ayer's Cliff Fair was the brain child of one of our members.

The last venture was the rug-making class, which produced truly beautiful additions to the home, proving that the W.I. is far from ready for burial.

This is the answer in part to the queries, "Why the Women's Institute? What has it ever done? Do you think it has justified its existence and our continued interest in it?

Border H. & S. Association Held Annual Meeting

Rock Island, April 30. — The Border Home and School Association met at Parish Hall, Stanstead on Tuesday evening, April 22, with a good number of parents and teachers attending to hear the annual reports.

The president, Harold Cass, was in the chair and the meeting was opened by the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved. Leonard McGilton gave the annual financial report, which shows the year's work closing with a cash balance on hand of $148.05.

A motion was made that a letter of thanks be written to Mr. Cooper of Ayer's Cliff, for his assistance given at the Home and School dance and social evening of April 19, held at the I.O.O.F. Hall, in West Park. Votes of thanks were given to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeley, of Tomifobia, and to Mrs. Austin Ticehurst, of Stanstead, for making up the four piece music for the dance.

Mrs. Margaret Abbott gave the report of the recent survey of children interested in the hot dinner project for next school year at the new Sunnyside School, with returns showing the majority interested. The estimate given for the furnishing of the new kitchen was stated to be approximately $1,400. President Cass thanked the committee, making the survey for their time and effort. It was decided to make application to the Junior Red Cross Society for a grant to be used in furnishing the kitchen.

President Cass read a letter asking for a donation for "Save the Children Fund" and the sum of $10.00 was given for this appeal.

Dr. E. C. Amaron stated that the Dramatic Club of the college will present an operetta at the Haskell Opera House, on the evening of May 2, and said that he hoped as many as possible would attend.

Hector Channel reported that the sum of $34.44 was realized from the dance of April 19, after expenses of $13.12 had been deducted.

Mrs. Abbott, chairlady of the hot dinner project this past winter thanked the teachers and parents who had co-operated in the serving of them.

Miss Catherine McKenzie, guest speaker of the evening gave a very interesting address on "What Is Going On In The Schools" speaking to the parents, she emphasized the improvements in modern teaching in the schools today, compared to that of years ago. She asked for the co-operation of the parent and the teacher in the schoolwork, which adds up to the fact that the scholar is the one who benefits from it.

Mrs. McGilton on behalf of the gathering thanked Miss McKenzie for her interesting and lucid address.

Mr. Cass, the retiring president, expressed his appreciation to the executive for their co-operation in working with him the past two years of his office as president.

Dr. Amaron then taking the chair called upon the chairman of the nominating committee, Donald Hackett, for the report of the slate of officers as prepared by the committee of Mr. Hackett, Mrs. Lloyd Kezar and Mrs. C. Lee Jenkins, which follows:

President, Alden Peasley; first vice-president, Howard Wells; second vice-president, Malcolm MacDonald; recording-secretary, Mrs. George Hatch; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Warren Soutier, treasurer, Mrs. K. Mitchell. Executive: Mrs. Margaret Abbott, Mrs. Hugh McClary, Hector Channell, Mrs. R. A. Hatch and Mrs. W. B. Dustin. These officers were approved and a motion was made that they be accepted at read, which was voted.

Dr. Amaron suggested a vote of thanks be extended to the outgoing officers.

The newly appointed president took the chair and the business continued with Harold Cass named as chairman to form a committee for the purpose of being in charge of purchasing the equipment for the new school kitchen and making the cafeteria arrangements.

The banner for the elementary school was won between class three and class six and the academy banner won by Grade VII.

The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by Mrs. Clarence Hill, Mrs. Gordon Petrie, Mrs. Jack Kirvin and Mrs. M. Abbott.

Compton Ladies' Guild Held Meeting, Shower

Compton, April 30. — The ladies of St. James Church, held a Guild meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Cox, on Wednesday afternoon, April 27. The meeting was opened with prayer by the president, Mrs. F. Green. The roll call and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. E. Hyatt and a "Sunshi-ne" letter by Mrs. Nichols. A number of finished articles was brought in, also some mystery parcels. A tea and sale of work was planned to be held in the Guild room on May 7. Friends are cordially invited to attend. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Hyatt and Mrs. Cox presented the guest of honour with a pretty pink and blue basket of dainty parcels, which were unwrapped and admired by all. Mrs. Benoit thanked the ladies for the lovely gifts and surprise.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. J. Cox assisted by Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Hyatt.

TRUTONE White is intensely white to start with. And it STAYS WHITE — year after year — because it actually cleans itself . . . keeps your house free from ugly stains and grime.

TRUTONE White is a dollar-saver, too. Because of its extra hiding power, one coat covers as well as two coats of ordinary paint. That means less paint, less work, lower painting costs . . . and its exceptional durability is a plus value that saves you more paint dollars.

C-I-L Prepared PAINT

You can rely on C-I-L PAINTS for lasting beauty and stout resistance to wear and weather. Their uniform high quality, their long life, their exceptional coverage make them so much more economical than ordinary paints.

Painters know that C-I-L PAINTS are easy to apply . . . flow smoothly from the brush . . . thus saving extra dollars in time and labour. Your choice of 24 colours (also black and tinting white) which will retain their fresh brightness long after inferior paints have faded.

— and for Outside Trim DULUX Exterior Trim Enamel

An exceptionally tough, lustrous enamel specially made for door and window frames and other outside trim. Fast-drying lessens risk of spotting from insects, dust, etc. Made in 6 popular colours (and black) which hold their colour and gloss far longer than ordinary paints or enamels.

DULUX Super White ENAMEL The WHITEST of all enamels

DULUX Super White Enamel is brilliantly white to start with . . . and stays white. It won't turn yellow with age, won't absorb grease. Cooking vapors or steam don't affect its porcelain-like surface, and throughout its long, lustrous life, you'll find it as easy to clean as a china plate.

It dries overnight, too, and is easy to use. DULUX Super White is the ideal long-wearing enamel for kitchen and bathroom walls and woodwork, cabinets, furniture — any interior surface where you want an immaculate WHITE finish that stays white. Your choice of gloss or eggshell finish.

Ted Williams Doffs Red Sox Uniform For Second Time In Ten Years; Fans To Honor Top Slugger In His Adieu

Boston, April 30—(AP)—For the second time in 10 years Ted Williams, latest of the major leagues' 400-hitters, today doffs his Boston Red Sox uniform for that of a United States Marines flyer.

But before so doing, Williams will be honored by 35,000 admirers who will jam Fenway Park for his farewell appearance against the Detroit Tigers. They will shower him with modest gifts.

Among them are a large stack of "memory books" that include the signatures of about 500,000 well-wishers, a collection made by the Boston Herald-Traveler.

Other gifts are a wrist watch, flowers for his wife, toys for his small daughter, a film projector from his Red Sox teammates and a silver bowl from Mayor John B. Hynes of Boston, who suggested the demonstration.

Now 33, Williams reports for a 17-months tour of duty as a Captain at Willow Grove, Pa., on Friday. He will be out of baseball until the 1954 season but has hopes of resuming the career that has earned him about $500,000 in Red Sox wages.

"I don't know whether or not I will be able to return to baseball but I hope so," Williams said. "I had only one ambition when I joined the Red Sox back in 1939. It was when I'm through I want them to say, 'gee, that guy was one hell of a hitter.'"

Baseball statistics insure Williams his fondest wish. They show his lifetime average, through the 1951 season, as .346. So far this year, due to a leg injury, he has started only one game, the opener against Washington. But he is fit enough to return to left field today to sing another baseball swan song.

With Coleman And Brown Leaving For Armed Services, Imagine Fun Stengel Can Have Juggling Infield

New York, April 30—(AP)—Gerry Coleman plays his last games for New York Yankees today. Dr. Bobby Brown awaits the result of today's army physical. So Professor Casey Stengel is polishing up his old infield juggling routine.

Chances are Old Casey will have more combinations revolving around shortstop Phil Rizzuto than a man trying to hook up a winning daily double ticket.

Here's a rundown on the nine-man field:

1. Phil Rizzuto, THE Shortstop.
2. Johnny Mize, first base until Joe Collins is ready.
3. Joe Collins, first base when sprained ankle is okay.
4. Johnny Hopp, first base when Mize is tired and Collins isn't hitting.
5. Gil McDougald, second base—except when he plays third.
6. Bobby Brown, third base against righthanders until the bugles call.
7. Rookie Andy Carey, third base against lefties if he hits.
8. Billy Martin, second base when the broken foot is sound.
9. Jim Bridgeweser, shortstop if Rizzuto is hurt.

There are other combinations, too. Martin also plays short and third. Stengel worked Bridewesser at second in the south. Hopp plays the outfield. So does Collins. McDougald has played third base every game so far.

Replacing Coleman is no easy job for Stengel. He knew it was coming ever since Gerry and Ted Williams passed their Marine physicals early this month. But he didn't know Coleman would be leading the league at .394 or helping the Yanks rack up 21 double plays in nine games.

Brown also will leave a gap. Although he reported late from his interneship at Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco, and has done nothing but pinch hit this year, he was a consistent hitter and a five-year regular at third base against righthanded pitchers.

Ron Northey Sold To Los Angeles By Cubs

Chicago, April 30. — (AP) — Ron Northey, a major league outfielder since 1942, yesterday was sold by Chicago Cubs to Los Angeles of the Pacific Coast League.

Northey joined the Philadelphia Phils in 1942, went to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1947 and in 1950 played for both Cincinnati Reds and the Cubs.

P.C.H.L. Sets Record For Attendance Mark

Seattle, April 30. — (AP) — The Pacific Coast Hockey League played to more than 1,000,000 customers this season for the first time in its four years as a professional circuit.

The league office reported yesterday attendance for the 1951-52 was 1,094,359 paid admissions.

Edmonton led all eight cities by playing to 165,895 fans at home during the regular season. For all home games, including the playoffs, Victoria took the lead with 182,664, while Edmonton's total was 178,503.

Other attendance figures for all games: Calgary 154,283; Saskatoon 146,400; New Westminster 132,386; Vancouver 127,155; Seattle 89,963; Tacoma 83,005.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

New York, April 30.— (AP) — There is a plot ready-made for some bright young baseball novelist in the latest set of instructions sent out to National League umpires on how to conduct themselves in certain crises which might arise now that lights are an integral part of the pastime.

"In the event of a temporary failure of lights while a ball is in flight or a play in process," stipulated the bulletin from Cincinnati, "the umpire will immediately call time and when the lights are turned on again and play is resumed the batsman and all runners shall return to the last base touched by them at the time of suspension."

"Should the batsman be compelled to return to the batter's box, he shall assume the count of balls and strikes, if any, that prevailed at the time of suspension."

Get the idea? Score tied, last of the ninth, and a visiting bludgeoner connects with a mighty swipe. Obviously it's a home run, but just before the sphere clangs into the distant stands our hero, who has mortgaged the old homestead on the locas, throws the master switch and saves the night.

Possibly there would be a bit of an argument, but the head umpire would have no choice once the bulbs were relit. In other words, given the right set of circumstances, that famous swat of Bobby Thomson's last fall could have escaped from the record books entirely. Now they tell Charlie Dressen!

Our second favorite instruction probably is the one which cautions National League arbiters that "if two games are scheduled for one admission, the first game of the doubleheader shall be compleed before the second game is started." Any umpire who gets mixed up on that one should be severely reprimanded.

The question of whether the lights should be snapped on to complete Sunday afternoon games has the two major leagues split down the middle. The National League instruction sheet flatly forbids it, and says that any Sabbath contest which runs into darkness shall be suspended and played off the next time the two clubs meet. The American League is leaving the decision to its individual clubs, though play must cease at 7 p.m. in any case.

COOKSHIRE

Friends of Jimmy Waldron will be sorry to learn that he is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

What became of the man I married?

Wise provider, faithful husband, good father—yet many a husband deprives his wife of the one thing she wants most: love.

In May Reader's Digest, Marjorie Holmes tells why a woman needs love; why not getting it is often the reason she nags, wastes money, loses her looks; and why many a husband may mistakenly believe his wife is "cold."

Read what men should realize (but seldom do) about women's attitude toward love and sex.

COLD, RAIN AND STRIKE BRING GLOOM TO BASEBALL FRONT

Philadelphia Only Bright Spot In East As Curt Simmons Still Shows Form Which Made Him Outstanding

Cold and rain continued to paralyze baseball in the East and a strike threatened to black out a park in the West but followers of Philadelphia Phillies could find no gloom anywhere today — Curt Simmons is back and he's in the groove.

The hard-throwing, 22-year-old lefthander, three weeks out of the Army, made his first major league start in 19 months yesterday and proceeded to tame Chicago Cubs with a smooth seven-hit performance, 8-2.

He didn't look any different from the trim, young southpaw whose blazing fast ball won 17 games for the Phillies and helped lead them to the National League pennant before Uncle Sam snatched him up in September, 1950.

Simmons' effectiveness was emphasized by the job he did on Frankie Baumholtz, the Cubs' rightfielder who had hit in 11 straight games and had carried a .422 percentage, the National League's highest, into the game.

Baumholtz didn't get a smell of the ball in four times at bat. "He had plenty of swift, for my money," said the hard-hitting Chicago flychaser.

In the season's first head-on collision of east and west, the favored Brooklyn Dodgers strengthened their grip on the National League lead by turning back the St. Louis Cardinals on the masterful clutch pitching of Preacher Roe, 4-1.

The game was delayed 65 minutes by a strike of A.F.L. bartenders who threw a picket line around St. Louis' Sportsman's Park. Union electricians refused to cross the line to go in and turn on the lights.

So 20,384 fans sat in darkness until Fred Saigh, Cardinal owner, could persuade the bartenders, who work in the park's concessions, to pull off their pickets.

The Dodgers thus increased their lead to a game and a half over both Chicago and the Cincinnati Reds, who fell victim to the New York Giants at Cincinnati, 2-1.

Sal Maglie, a 23-game winner for the senior league champions in 1951, limited the Reds to three hits in edging Cincinnati's gangling Ewell Blackwell and he also accounted for the winning run when he singled Alvin Dark home in the ninth. Blackwell pitched a four-hitter.

In the other National League game Warren Spahn, the Boston Braves' crack lefty, nailed Pittsburgh tighter to the cellar by humbling the Pirates, 5-1, on five hits. It was the tenth loss in a row for the hapless Bucs.

Only one game was played in the American League as unseasonable cold and wet grounds, which already have cost eastern clubs more than a quarter of a million dollars, forced three more postponements.

Postponed were the St. Louis Browns' debut against the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium, Chicago's game at Washington and Detroit's opening appearance at Boston They'll try again today.

The single American League conflict was at Philadelphia and the Athletics and Cleveland Indians must have felt obligated to put in a few licks for their idle contemporaries.

The Indians won, 21-9, in a wild slugfest that saw the two teams pound out a total of 43 hits, 25 of them by the Indians. The American League record for two teams is 45, set by Philadelphia and Boston in 1902.

Rookie Cleveland outfielder Jim Fridley came close to making baseball history when he pounded out six hits in six times at bat, all singles. While many players have collected six straight hits in a game, only one man — Wilbert Robinson, the old Brooklyn boss—has made seven in a row. He did it with Baltimore June 10, 1892.

Al Rosen, Indian third baseman, also had a banner evening at the plate, hitting three home runs and a single and knocking in seven runs. The veteran Bob Feller, who lost a double one-hitter on his last outing to St. Louis' Bob Cain, won this one although he gave up 18 safeties.

Hill Gail Sets Track Record In Derby Trial

Louisville, Ky., April 30—(AP)—The Calumet Farm's Hill Gail cracked the Churchill Downs track record yesterday to capture the 11th running of the derby trial with a brilliant exhibition that probably will make him the betting choice for the $100,000 Kentucky Derby Saturday.

With Eddie Arcaro merely waving his whip at the dark bay son of Bull Lea-Jane Gail, the Calumet Flyer gave up the lead only briefly about one-quarter of a mile after the start of the one-mile event.

He finished with a terrific burst that put him under the wire six lengths ahead of the second horse, Mrs. Gordon Guiberson's Arroz, an invader from California.

Arroz finished four lengths before Milton Shagrin's 70-1 shot, Shag Tails. It was another length back to the fourth horse, Sub Fleet from the Dixiana Stable of Charles T. Fisher.

Hill Gail carried 118 pounds and was caught in 1:35 2/5, knocking one fifth of a second off the track standard set by Whirling Dough in 1951.

Doris Hart-Shirley Fry Advance In Net Event

Bournemouth, England, April 30.—(AP)—Doris Hart and Shirley Fry, both of the United States, swept to second-round victories in the women's singles of the British Hard Courts Lawn Tennis Championships yesterday.

Top-seeded Miss Hart, Wimbledon champion, overwhelmed Britain's Mrs. M. S. Wavish, 6-0, 6-1, and Miss Fry, seeded second, turned back Mrs. Vera Thomas, Britain, 6-3, 6-3.

Britain's bespectacled ex-schoolteacher, Gerald Oakley, gave Australia's world champion Frank Sedgman a tussle before Sedgman took over to win 4-6, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1 in a third-round men's singles match.

Jean Beliveau May Accept Offer To Play With Canadiens; Debt Of Gratitude Now Paid To Quebec Fans

Quebec, April 30— (CP) —Jean Beliveau's resistance to tempting National Hockey League contracts may be lowering now that he has no more fields to conquer in amateur hockey.

But the big, high-scoring centre who led Quebec Aces to the Alexander Trophy and the Canadian Major Hockey Championship is not saying anything definite.

At the start of the late hockey campaign, Beliveau, who will be 21 Aug. 31, turned down a bid by Montreal Canadiens "for personal reasons" and signed with Aces of the Quebec Senior Hockey League.

Beliveau said in an interview that the same reasons 'might not apply' when an expected new offer is made by Montreal, with whom he has signed a B-form, giving the N.H.L. club first call on his professional services.

The six-foot-three-inch, 205-pound player with a free-skating style, blazing shot and smooth stick-handling was considered ready for the big time by Canadiens two years ago when he turned down his first N.H.L. offer. His stock as a player has risen since his fine showing in his first year of senior play.

He won the Q.S.H.L. scoring championship with 45 goals and 38 assists for 83 points, was selected the League's all-star centre, best rookie and best professional prospect.

Beliveau indicated that he owes a debt of gratitude to Quebec hockey fans, who gave him an automobile and other gifts two seasons ago, his last year with Quebec Citadels, a junior team.

This may explain his decision to play in Quebec last season. The debt could be considered paid, now that Beliveau has led Quebec to its first Canadian hockey title since 1944.

President Jack Latter of Aces said recently he "definitely" wanted to sign Beliveau next season. How much "Gros Bill" (Big Bill) was paid to play here is a secret, but the best estimate is about $12,000, including a job as a public relations man for a Quebec dairy.

Fort Frances Canadians Can End 1952 Allan Cup Hockey Final With Win Tonight Over Stratford Club

Fort Frances, Ont., April 30—(CP)—Fort Frances Canadians and Stratford Indians go into the fifth and possibly last game of the 1952 Allan Cup hockey final here tonight.

The town threatens to bust wide open if Canadians can add another two points to their 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven series. This is the second entry for Canadians in the senior final in five years of trying.

Fort Frances took the fourth game here Monday, displaying a tremendous third-period drive worth four goals. Five points went to Frank Eizensoph who tore open the Stratford defence.

The comeback was patterned on previous Fort Frances victories—all gained in the third period when they were behind. It drove almost 3,000 loyal fans into a frenzy.

But the turn-about victory had the same effect on dimunitive Joe Balzan, Canadians coach.

"They almost drive a coach wacky in the first two periods and then go ahead and win it for you in the third," he said.

Canadians showed a new style of hockey in the game. Stratford, which plays a bumping style to a degree, were whacked from one end of the premises to the other.

Injuries played a major part and may prove even more costly tonight. Bill Wash, rugged Stratford rearguard, was injured in the second period when he received a painful gash on the upper leg. He isn't expected to return tonight and may not be available if Indians can stretch the series to six games.

Vern O'Donnell of Canadians pulled a muscle and is another probable starter. Gord Gosselin has a bruised back, the result of a misplaced stick, but it shouldn't keep him from the Fort Frances line-up.

Fans started lining up for tickets yesterday well before box offices opened. Even Mayor Joseph T. Livingstone was busy preparing for the game by hooking up a public address system.

Regina Coach Believes One Win Against Guelph Could Turn Tables In Memorial Cup Junior Finals

Toronto, April 30—(CP)—Regina Pats, winless to date against Guelph Biltmores in the battle for the Memorial Cup, think that if they can win tonight they may take the series.

Regina coach Murray Armstrong, after an hour-long workout yesterday in preparation for the third game in the best-of-seven series for the Canadian Junior hockey title, said he'd like nothing better than to see his Pats ahead of Guelph "just to see how they operate when they're behind."

Biltmores haven't yet trailed Regina.

The Westerners showed improvement Sunday night in dropping the second-straight of the finals, and victory tonight isn't inconceivable.

Following his team's workout, Armstrong wouldn't say whether he plans any line changes. There have been no serious injuries to either team.

Guelph has an imposing lineup of scoring talent for the Western Canada Junior Champs to buck. The Pats' goalie, Bob Tyler, who has turned in sensational work, has been given much of the credit for the fact that Biltmores haven't more than an eight-goal lead in two games so far.

The two Guelph front lines are finely balanced—each has scored 37 goals in 21 playoff games to date.

Dean Prentice is top Biltmore goal-getter in those games, with 18. Ron Murphy is next with 17 while defenceman Ron Stewart has 15 goals and 10 assists.

Cousin May Not Start In Derby Saturday

Louisville, Ky., April 30.—(AP)—Trainer Bill Winfrey last night said it was doubtful if Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Cousin would start in Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

Cousin, an unpredictable colt, finished last in yesterday's Derby Trial, beaten some 42 lengths.

"I can see no reason why I should start him," said Winfrey, "can you?"

Tampa, Fla.—Willie Pep, 131, Hartford, Conn., outpointed Santiago Gonzales, 130, Mexico City, 10.

Quebec Civil Servants To Hold Bowling Here

President of the local Association des Fonctionnaires (civil servants of the Province) Joseph Labrecque, and Dr. Raymond Bellavance, head of the bowling association, will be hosts Saturday to some two hundred fellow members from Montreal, St. Hyacinthe, Quebec and Sherbrooke at an afternoon of bowling to be followed by a banquet.

The bowling tournament will be held from 12.30 onwards, at Gerry Mathieu's Bowlorium, King street west.

The banquet at the Tuque Rouge snow shoe club begins at 7.30 o'clock in the evening and Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands, Forests and Hydraulic Resources for the Province, will be the guest speaker.

Branch Rickey Denies Money Demand Reports

Pittsburgh, April 30—(AP)—Reports that Branch Rickey has asked the three Pittsburgh Pirate owners for $300,000 to bolster the club's finances brought a strong denial from Rickey yesterday.

Published reports had the Pirates General Manager planning to ask John Galbreath, Tom Johnson and Bing Crosby for $100,000 each in anticipation of another losing financial year.

Rickey said:

"This is the first I've heard of it. But if the club needed money—even a million dollars—that's something I wouldn't discuss with anyone."

One report said the reason for Rickey's need of money is his expensive build up of a farm system and the 1951 signing of several hundred players. It is said Rickey spent in excess of $600,000 accomplishing this.

Cage Stars Handed Suspended Sentences

New York, April 30.—(AP)—Judge Saul Streit yesterday dealt suspended sentences to three former University of Kentucky basketball stars for shaving points in a gam

The players, Olympian Al Groza and Ralph Beard, and Dale Barnstable, members of the University's "fabulous five" of 1948, were placed on "indefnite probation."

They were given light sentences at the request of the District Attorney's office. The District Attorney had recommended clemency because "of substantial aid to our office."

They had pleaded guilty to fixing the point spread in a National Invitation Game with Loyola of Chicago in Madison Square Garden, March 14, 1949. Loyola won 67-56, in a sensational upset. Coach Adolph Rupp's talented crew had been favored to sweep the tournament.

Doc Romnes Resigns As U.M. Hockey Coach

Minneapolis, April 30. — (AP) — Elwin (Doc) Romnes resigned yesterday as hockey coach at the University of Minnesota. He said "continued criticism" by Athletic Director Ike Armstrong is "affecting my health."

Armstrong could not be reached for comment.

In his letter of resignation, released to the Minneapolis Star, Romnes said:

"I just couldn't take it any more. Armstrong's continued criticism was affecting my health. I couldn't eat and I couldn't sleep. So I'm throwing in the towel."

Romnes is the third Gopher coach to hand in his resignation this year. The other two are Ray Chisholm, boxing coach, and Dave Bartelma, wrestling coach.

Romnes, coach since the 1947-48 season, has played in the National Hockey League with Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks.

Bobo Holloman Tosses One-Hitter For Chiefs

Lee (Bobo) Holloman seems to be getting further and further ahead of the hitters as the International League season progresses.

The ace hurler of Syracuse Chiefs tossed a one-hitter yesterday to give his team a 1-0 triumph over Springfield Cubs and in the process advance it all the way to third place in the race.

Chris Hitsos was the "Spoiler," banging out a fifth-inning single off Holloman. Bobo was given errorless support by his mates but he was in hot water several times because of his own wildness. He gave five walks.

The League-leading Montreal Royals and the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs each scored victories. The Royals remain a half game in front.

Montreal slapped the offerings of three Buffalo pitchers for 14 hits and a 9-5 victory over the Bisons. Carmen Mauro led the victors' attack with two doubles and his fourth home run of the campaign.

Bob Alexander went all the way for Montreal, and it was fortunate that the Royals were in a hitting mood. He yielded nine hits and handed out five free tickets.

The Maple Leafs had no trouble whipping the last-place Ottawa Athletics, 4-1, behind Red Fahr. Andy Anderson knocked in two of the winners' runs, while Stan Jok broke up Fahr's bid for a shutout when he doubled home John Metkovich in the eighth.

St. Paul, Minn.—Glen Flanagan, 128, St. Paul, stopped Lenny Alvarez, 130, New Orleans, 8.

Fifteen Horses Expected To Form Kentucky Derby Field But Talk Refers To Only One---Hill Gail

Louisville, Ky, April 30.—(AP)—The 78th Kentucky Derby looked very much like some Derbies of other years today with the combination of a Calumet-owned horse, Trainer Ben Jones and Jockey Eddie Arcaro playing the familiar favorite's role.

The combine looked like the best bet in the $100,000 added run around Churchill Downs at 5:30 p.m EDT Saturday when Hill Gail took wings yesterday and fairly flew over a mile to smash the track record in the Derby Trial.

With Arcaro merely flicking his whip in Hill Gail's face, the big son of Bull Lea reeled off the mile in 1:36 3/5 to clip one-fifth of a second off the track standard and leave eight other Derby eligibles far up the track.

The closest, Mrs. Gordon Guiberson's California-owned Arroz, was five lengths back. And some 42 lengths back came Alfred G. Vanderbilt's temperamental Cousin—blowing his last chance to prove his right to be in the Derby post parade.

As a result of the prep, the odds on Hill Gail dropped to 8-5 today and he may go to the post at even shorter odds.

Four times in the last 11 years the devil-red silks of Calumet Farm have been carried home first in America's most famous horse race. They were Whirlaway (1941), Pensive (1944), Citation (1948 and Ponder (1949).

And each time the winner was saddled by Jones, who also chalked up his fifth with Lawrin in 1938. That's a record for trainers.

Twice Arcaro has been up on a Calumet winner (Citation and Whirlaway) and to these two he adds Lawrin and Hoop, Jr. (1945) for a mark never matched by a jockey. The combination of Jones and Arcaro has never been beaten in a Kentucky Derby.

Despite all the preponderance of facts that makes Hill Gail the apparent standout there was no indication today the other owners plan to fold their tents and steal away.

As many as 15 are expected to answer the calls before the usual Downs crowd, which in recent years has reached an estimated 100,000 But it is difficult to find a trainer who would say he would send out his horse to try to run with the Calumet flyer.

Woody Stephens, trainer of A. W. Abbot's Blue Man, best described Hill Gail's speed when he said:

"I got a cold from the wind he created.

And that came from a trainer whose horse is rated the second choice at 3 to 1 to take down the major share of the purse.

Mrs. Marion DuPont Scott's Pintor is considered one of the speed horses of the field but his trainer, Dion Kerr, said he wasn't going to instruct Jockey Henri Mora to try and run with the Calumet flash.

Louie Letourneau, One Of Montreal's Outstanding Sportsmen, Dies; Member Of "Three Musketeers" In Sports

Montreal, April 30.—(CP)—H. A. (Louie) Letourneau, one of the "three musketeers" of Montreal sport, died yesterday at his home here. He was 84.

Under the guidance of Letourneau Leo Dandurand and the late Joe Cattarinich, the two other "Musketeers", Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League, bought for $11,000, became one of the most colorful teams in history.

Howie Morenz, Aurel Joliat, Sylvio Mantha, George Hainsworth, Sprague Cleghorn, Pit Lepine, George Vezina and Billy Boucher were among the outstanding names that dotted the roster of the Canadiens under the direction of the Big Three.

Letourneau came to Montreal from St. Roch, Que., and entered the fish market business, later joining Dandurand and Cattarinich in race-track promotion early in the 20s.

He was the business man of the partnership, leaving showmanship and club operation to his partners. Self-effacing, he referred to himself as the "least of the Three Musketeers."

The partners worked in close accord. Cattarinich was the chance taker, Dandurand the tactful diplomat and Letourneau the sage counsellor. Cattarinich died 15 years ago.

Letourneau retired from sports promotion 20 years ago when he sold his share in the Canadiens and his racing interests in Dorval, Connaught Park and United States tracks to his partners.

He then entered the real estate field, handling property in Rigaud, Que., where he had a summer home. He was in constant attendance at Canadiens games until two years ago when ill health forced him to retire.

He is survived by his widow and a son, Romeo.

Vic Towel To Meet Carruthers In Fall

Johannesburg, April 30.—(AP)—Vic Towel agreed to defend his world bantamweight title against Jimmy Carruthers, Australian champion, here either late in September or early in October.

The South African Boxing Association told Towel he must defend his title by the end of July but the champion's brother and manager, Maurice, said it would be impossible to stage a fight during the summer season.
