

POPULAR ANGER AGAINST PEACE TREATY CULMINATED TO-DAY IN SERIOUS RIOTS IN TOKIO

Crowd Voted in Favour of Resolutions Declaring Nation Humiliated and Denounced the Terms Upon Which the Treaty of Peace was Arranged—No Enthusiasm Over Peace in Any Part of Japan.

Tokio, Sept. 6.—The first turbulence attendant upon the popular anger over the terms of peace arranged with Russia took place to-day. A mass meeting of the Government was called to take place at Hibiy Park, but the metropolitan police closed the gates and attempted to prevent the assemblage of the people. The municipality protested against the action of the police, and finally the gates were thrown open and a large crowd gathered and voted in favour of resolutions declaring the nation humiliated and denouncing the terms upon which the treaty of peace was arranged. The crowd was very serious in its conduct rather than angry, and the police handled it discreetly. The gathering eventually dispersed in an orderly manner. Later on, however, a crowd attempted to hold a meeting in the Shintomi Theatre, and the police dispersed it. A portion of the crowd proceeded to the office of the Kokumin Shinbun, the Government organ, and began booting. Three employees of the paper were killed with swords and bayonets. A portion of the crowd made a rush at the building, hurled stones and damaged some of the machinery. Several persons were injured during the attack, but the police eventually cleared the streets and arrested a number of the rioters. The disorder is not general and the situation is not serious. Similar meetings have been held at Osaka and Nagoya, which in round terms denounced the Government and asked them to resign. General sentiment throughout the country seems to favor reactionary measures, but it appears clear that the majority of the people will eventually accept the result of the peace conference, however disappointing it may be.

A Feeling of Chagrin.

Nagasaki, Sept. 5.—The peace news was received with enthusiasm in the chief centres of Kyushu province. There is a general feeling of chagrin that Japan has been deprived of the fruits of victory, but there is disappointment especially at the fact that permanent security from Russian aggression has not been secured. The diplomatic failure is considered to be due to the negotiations commencing prematurely.

N. Y. Japs May Snub Komura.

New York, September 6.—Baron Komura and Minister Takahira, the Japanese peace envoys and suites are expected here this afternoon from Portsmouth. Baron Komura and his suite will occupy the rooms at the Waldorf-Astoria which they had before going to Portsmouth. Mr. Takahira, who lived at the Majestic will join his colleagues. It has not yet been decided by the local Japanese most of whom are deeply resentful over the peace terms just how they ought to receive the envoys. There will be a meeting of the trustees of the Nippon Club to-night when that point will be settled. "We will know to-night," said a Japanese yesterday, "whether the reception of Baron Komura is to be cold, lukewarm or cordially warm."

Interned Vessels Will Sail.

Vallejo, Cal., Sept. 6.—The Russian cruiser Lena, which has been interned at the Mare Island navy yard for nearly a year will leave for Seattle next Saturday where she will go into dry dock. Permission has been received and orders are now awaited for the vessel to depart for Seattle and it is expected that she will sail for that port about September 20.

Will Name a Street Roosevelt.

Vienna, September 6.—The municipal council proposes to perpetuate the memory of President Roosevelt's success in restoring peace by renaming a street. The proposal is to name a street in the city of Vienna. The proposal has been formally introduced and is set down for early consideration.

Anglo-Japanese Treaty Criticized.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 6.—There is much comment in the morning papers on the peace treaty. The treaty is claimed to be not conducive to peace because it upsets the balance of power in the Far East and makes Great Britain and the United States allies. The Novoye Vremya expresses the opinion that it is directed against German designs in the Far East, while the Soviet says that the treaty is directed against the interests of the Pacific and the open sea anywhere in Asia. The Bourse Gazette takes a similar view.

WOULD NOT ACCEPT HIS RESIGNATION

The Quebec Bridge Co. Re-Elected Mr. Parent President.

Quebec, Sept. 6.—(Special).—Mr. S. N. Parent at a meeting of the Quebec Bridge Company yesterday tendered his resignation as president but it was not accepted.

At the annual meeting of the Quebec Bridge Company held specially to elect a board of directors, Mr. Wm. Wainwright, assistant general manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, claimed that the Montreal shareholders were entitled to at least one director and he proposed the name of Mr. Hugh Allan. Mr. Parent said the aim was a just one and the Grand Trunk and the Allans had acquired a large block of stock in the company, and had a right to be represented. The number of directors was limited to eight, and as one of the Quebec directors would have to step out in order to make room for the Montreal representative, he was glad to offer his own seat on the board to the incoming man.

He thought he had done his share for the bridge and now that he was connected with the Transcontinental Railway he thought it was the right time for him to step out. He thereupon tendered his resignation as a member of the board.

Mr. Wainwright replied that this did not at all meet his views and that if Mr. Parent's resignation was accepted, a vacancy could be created without depriving the company of the services of its present president.

Mr. Parent again stated that he was no more a candidate for the directorate and asked the shareholders not to vote for him.

The directors elected Mr. H. A. Allan, R. Audette, Vesey Rowell, Hon. J. Garneau Gaspard, Lemoine, Mr. Parent, H. M. Price, Hon. John Sharpe. The representatives of the Government, viz. J. R. Laliberte, N. Roux and P. R. Dumoulin.

At a subsequent meeting Mr. Parent was unanimously re-elected president.

STR. HOSANNA RUN INTO; SUNK AT LONGUE POINTE

Captain and Crew of Government Boat Had Thrilling Escape When the Empire Crashed Into Their Vessel in the Night—Channel is Not Blocked

The Government steamer Hosanna was run down and sunk last night off Longue Pointe by the steamer Empire, from Toronto. The Hosanna, which is a small affair of sixty-eight tons, used for carrying supplies, etc., between Montreal and the Government works at Lake St. Peter, was almost out in two, and the crew of eleven say it was a miracle that none of them were drowned, as the boat sank in nearly thirty feet of water within five minutes of the collision.

An extraordinary story of the affair is told by Capt. Honore Roy, of the Hosanna. He says that he was coming up from Montreal about 7:45 last night when he met the Empire on the main channel, shaping her course as though she had lost her way, being quite out of the regular route. The Empire showed red and green lights and the Hosanna's helm was pointed to give her room. But the Empire kept bearing down on her, and forced her out of the course, and finally ran bows on into the Hosanna's stern, right beside one of the northern buoys.

The impact was tremendous, smashing a huge hole in her completely round, so that she immediately filled and sank, with her bows down stream, about 100 feet outside the Government wharf. Capt. Roy stated that from this it is obvious the whole 300 foot channel had been left for the Empire, and he could not understand how she followed the course she did. The Hosanna is now lying in twenty-three feet of water, with her upper works showing. Fortunately neither the Government boat the Shamrock, was close by, Capt. Roy had the Hosanna's boats out in time to get the crew of nine men and two women off, and the Shamrock picked them up. The Empire was damaged, but she was not seriously injured and proceeded on her course to Quebec.

A full report of the occurrence will be at once sent to the Marine Department. Wreck Commissioners will undoubtedly hold an investigation without delay.

Capt. Boucher, Government marine agent here, visited the sunken boat this morning on the Shamrock and stated to The Herald on his return that the wreck was well out of the channel, so that she would not be a menace to navigation. She will be raised at once, if possible, but it looks as though she were so severely damaged that she would not be broken up and the machinery and fittings taken out.

The Hosanna was used last year by the R. & O. Navigation Company on the Longue Pointe line, but was taken off and chartered under option of sale to the Government this spring. She was an old boat, but in good condition and was valued at about $5,000. She carried only five men, and it is total, except for the salvage of the machinery.

The Empire is owned by Capt. Gillespie of Cornwall. She was formerly the White Star, which was burnt at Tilton and was valued at about $100,000. She is an ordinary passenger and freight steamer, 160 feet long. Capt. Gillespie was on board at the time of the collision.

THE HARVEST IN ONTARIO

Premier Whitney: We have been waiting for thirty years to get a job harvesting this crop, and there's not going to be any gleaning after we're through.

THE MINTO CUP LACROSSE MATCHES

Arrangements Will be Made Saturday Between St. Kitts and Shamrocks.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—(Special).—Mr. T. Timmons, the manager of the St. Catharines Athletics, will be in Montreal next Saturday to arrange for the Minto Cup matches with the Shamrocks, of that city. It is thought here in the West that the first of these games will take place a week from Saturday. The Athletics are anxious to have the contest come off as soon as possible in order that there may be no deterioration in their form. While they are desirous of having two games, the majority of the goals scored in both to indicate the winner, they are not unwilling to make it a sudden death effort if the Shamrocks are so disposed. The utmost confidence reigns in St. Catharines over the result. The Athletics are playing a very fast game with a combination that has had no counterpart in the C.I.A. series, and the Shamrocks will have to put their best foot forward should they emerge the victors.

DR. CLARK MAY BECOME HEAD OF TORONTO ASYLUM

It is Said That President of Conservative Association Will Succeed Him.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 6.—(Special).—It is said that Dr. C. K. Clark, Superintendent of Rockwood Hospital for the Insane, here, is to be transferred to Toronto as successor of Dr. Daniel Clark, of the asylum there and that Dr. Edward Ryan, of this city, president of the Conservative Association is to become head of the Kingston institution. Neither of the gentlemen concerned have anything to say. Dr. C. K. Clark is an abolitionist of much eminence.

WESTERN PEOPLE ARE SATISFIED

So Says Mr. Morse Regarding G. T. P. Route on His Return.

Mr. Frank W. Morse, vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, returned last night from a trip to Winnipeg, and expressed the greatest satisfaction with the general prospects of business in that portion of the Dominion. Especially was this the case in regard to the new transcontinental line.

"My trip," said Mr. Morse, "while a hurried one, was very satisfactory, as all the work in connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific was progressing as rapidly as could be expected or desired.

"The awarding of contract to a purely Canadian company seems to have met with general approval of the merchants in the West, as they feel a large amount of money will be expended for supplies, etc., in that section, and they will get a large share of the orders."

"What impression prevails as to the C.P.R. protest against the location of the new line?" enquired the reporter.

"The protestations of the Canadian Pacific," was the reply, "as to the location of our line, as filed up to date, are unwarranted. The people of the West, who know the real conditions and who most emphatically endorse the action of the Government in approving location as filed by the Grand Trunk Pacific.

"Tenders for our new work will be opened on the 15th inst. and will cover the Lake Superior branch, or the line running from Fort William to Fort Arthur to the junction of the Transcontinental Railway, about 200 miles northwest. We hope to have the work started on that branch as promptly as it was on the line west, for which latter tenders were opened on Aug. 22, contract awarded 23, and the work started on Aug. 25.

"Of course, everyone in the West is now very happy over the prospects for such an enormous wheat crop," concluded Mr. Morse, "which will mean general prosperity, the figure they most talk of being one hundred million bushels, which I trust will prove to be correct."

IN CONFERENCE MOST SECRET

S. Teddy Was On the Job HE PUTS THE SIEVE WISE

Behind Closed Doors the Plenipotentiaries Settled Questions That Interest the Whole World and Toronto.

(By S. Teddy Lyle.)

I am due to be slapped on the wrist by Nick. But enough of this, S. Teddy, let's go over to the conference hall and see what's going on.

So we went up the line in an automobile, along with Rosen, and I was cheered all the way, though, of course, Witte gave himself credit for attracting the plaudits. On reaching the hall, we got down to business at once, and in 2 minutes, 46 2/3 seconds peace was signed, sealed, stamped and delivered. Then Witte called the Japs and Rosen into a side-room, and then took place the conversation which I now hurl at the world for the first time. Other correspondents tied to buy or beg my information, but my usefulness by aid to the sieve of course precluded any possibility of my forking out news that was obtainable only by myself. Anyway, here is a verbatim report of the colloquy.

Witte.—"Say, Komura, what about that five spot you borrowed from me the day you put this job's I may not see you again, and I need that five in my business."

Komura.—"I'll be paroled if I return that coin till Rosen gives me back that $250 he touched me for the night we busted him at freeze-out."

Rosen.—"Sorry, but I'm running my face just now and will have to wait till I get to little old St. Petersburg to raise the price to liquidate."

Kakihira.—"You have your nerve with you, Witte. How about this I.O.U. for $125?"

Witte.—"I'll tell you what I'll do, fellows, I'll play a show-down for all the I.O.U.'s in the party."

Reynolds.—"I'm on."

And the show-down was played and was won by— (To be Continued.)

WE DON'T LIKE to rub it in, but we cannot refrain from remarking that we warned those naval officers that if they visited Toronto they would be sorry.

MOUNTED POLICE WILL BE REDUCED

Gradual Reduction of the Force—Result of Forming New Provinces.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—(Special).—As soon as order has been evolved out of the somewhat chaotic condition of affairs in the Northwest Territories, an unavoidable result of the creation of the two new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, it will be possible to form a better idea as to what reductions will be necessary in the Northwest Mounted Police.

It is inevitable that reductions shall be made. The force of the Territories and the Yukon numbers about 800 and costs about $1,000,000 per annum to maintain. The strength of the force in the Territories is about six hundred men. This number will not be needed now that the new provinces assume administration of criminal matters.

This result has been foreseen and for some time past recruiting has practically been suspended. The reduction of strength will probably take place at the rate of from 25 to 30 per cent a year. Nothing will be done for the present in order that the machinery of the two provinces now in a transition stage may be established as smoothly and early as possible, but next year will witness a big reduction in the estimates for the Mounted Police. Some of the force who are mustered out will be re-enlisted into the permanent cavalry force of the Dominion.

This idea is believed to be in contemplation by the Federal authorities. It is known that the Militia Department has first call for sites for new barracks on the land in possession of the Mounted Police. Buildings not required by the police hereafter will probably be taken over by the new provinces on payment of a reasonable amount.

THE BEST MATTER

TORONTO'S FAIR NAME ASSAILED

Stories of Shabby Treatment of Prince Louis' Men Current.

REFUSED TO PAY HOTEL BILL

Toronto Authorities Claim That This is Untrue, and That They Balked Only at the Champagne Bill.

Ottawa, September 6.—Toronto's neglect of the officers and men of the second cruiser squadron has developed into a scandal. The men were camped next to the elephants, poorly fed, and treated as part of the circus performance. The climax was reached, however, last Thursday, just previous to the departure of the officers and men had been invited to Toronto, it was understood, as guests of the Exhibition Association. The officers were sent to the King Edward Hotel, and there the attentions of the Toronto people for the navy in general were relieved by the action of a prominent citizen of Ottawa, Mr. C. Berkeley Powell, ex-M.L.A., who put up his cheque to cover the bill.

What 'Scanda' Amounts to.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—(Special).—The story sent out from Ottawa regarding Toronto's treatment of Prince Louis' men, is indignantly denied by the civic authorities here. Their version in regard to the hotel bills is as follows: "When the bluejackets arrived in Toronto last week, Dr. Orr, manager of the Exhibition, engaged rooms at the King Edward for the officers. When the bills came in there was an account of $30 for extra in other words, champagne. This Dr. Orr refused to pay whereupon Mr. Berkeley Powell, of Ottawa, paid the amount. Subsequently, however, a cheque was sent by the Exhibition authorities to Mr. Powell to cover the amount.

PILOTS SILENT REGARDS ACCIDENT

Doesn't Mention Victorian Disaster in His Official Report

The attempt to float the Victorian has been defeated, and conditions of wind and tide are more favorable. When she stranded on Friday it was within an hour of an exceptionally high tide. In the meantime additional appliances have been sent down to facilitate the success of the operation; no pontoons being available, 1,000 barrels will be used in the hope of increasing the buoyancy of the vessel.

The exact position of the stranded turbine is defined by Mr. F. W. Corrie, the Dominion superintendent engineer of the ship channel, as follows: Her bow is 1,000 feet above black buoy, No. 790, opposite Cape Charles, and 1 1/2 feet south of the edge of the channel. Her stern is 1,500 feet above the same buoy and 20 feet inside the channel, with the outside edge of the counter only encroaching 50 feet in the channel. The leaves 25 feet of dredged cut clear for navigation. The ship is upright and shows no signs of swinging. She is resting with less than her forward end on the bottom.

If the steamer should unexpectedly swing across the channel so as to block it, as soon as the news reaches the semaphore at St. Elizabeth's, the latter will be cleared of all except the inch arm, which will extend horizontally across toward the river. The tug Eureka has notified all ships to come up and down the river. The official report of the pilot of the Cape Breton, G. J. Dussault, who is favorably spoken of by Mr. Wanklyn, vice-president of the Maritime Steamship Company, makes no allusion to the disaster or to the ship he was in charge of having anchored or being in the act of anchoring at the time of the accident.

SOUTH AFRICAN RAILWAY EXPERT

Mr. C. W. Francis Harrison, assistant to the general manager of the Natal Government Railways, South Africa, is a visitor to Montreal on a visit to the Pacific Railway general offices this morning. Six months ago Mr. Harrison left Natal on a pleasure trip, and has been all over Australia and New Zealand Africa looking into railroad questions. He left Yokohama seven weeks ago, and came across the continent by the C.P.R.

Mr. Harrison was much impressed, both with the steamer and railroad service of that company and considers it the finest railroad in the world. On the mountain section of the line the use of using five engines and twelve coaches struck him as being extraordinary.

"In Natal," said the visitor, "the railways are the Government's chief asset, and while the traffic of the war time was necessarily great, business is now at a low ebb. The Natal Government South African war, with thousands of officers and men, was carried off by blacks. Then, too, the tonnage ran up as a result of the war."

"Then we have to use the narrow gauge, three feet six inches, on account of the curves and hills, but the coaches are not any smaller than those you have here. It would be impossible to use a standard track in South Africa, such as the railways here have, as the curves are very sharp."

"South Africa," concluded Mr. Harrison, "and especially the Orange Colony, are on the verge of a boom; the political atmosphere is becoming clearer, and the business is reviving. Mr. Harrison will leave Montreal for Liverpool tomorrow, and will spend some time on business in England."

OLDEST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 6.—The 155th anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's Church, Halifax, for divine service was celebrated Sunday. The first Church of England service was held in Halifax on June 21, 1748. St. Paul's was opened for divine worship on Sunday, Sept. 2, 1750, and was the first Church of England built in what is now the Dominion of Canada and is as well the oldest Protestant Church.

This idea is believed to be in contemplation by the Federal authorities. It is known that the Militia Department has first call for sites for new barracks on the land in possession of the Mounted Police. Rugby Football Players Are Preparing for Festive Season

This week marks the inauguration of the Rugby football season. The Montrealers will practice to-night, but as the lights will not be ready, the first regular workout has been postponed to tomorrow night. However, players are requested to be at the grounds at five o'clock this afternoon for a light workout. Mike Shea arrives in the city Monday and has spent his time getting things in shape for the season. By the end of the week the programme of work will be drawn up and the club's machinery will be working smoothly. Mike intends to give the seniors afternoon as well as night practices, as he thinks that day work is essential to a team's success. The Montrealers have an excellent chance to win the championship this year, judging from the present outlook. Their back division will be strong and the forward line should be a whirling aggregation. Among the players who will grace the back division are Jimmie Craig, Billy Christmas, Bert and Percy Johnson, Hammy Gordon, Dr. Cliff Jack and possible George Macdonald, the captain of the team. The Westmounts held their first practice yesterday morning at six o'clock at Westmount Park. They will practice again to-morrow morning at the same hour and every player is requested to be on the job. Twenty players were out yesterday and as many more will be out by the end of the week. The Westmount's prospects are encouragingly bright and

COTTON YIELD 14,000,000 BALES

The Largest Crop Ever Produced in the United States.

New York, Sept. 6.—Superintendent William V. King, of the New York Cotton Exchange, has issued his annual report on the cotton crop for the year 1934-5, in which he states that the crop will go upon record as the largest ever produced in the United States. Mr. King says that 13,654,029 bales have been marketed, and if to this the amount held at the interior towns and plantations he added the total growth will be about 14,000,000 bales. Mr. King's report in full is as follows: "In point of yield the cotton crop of

And a long pull describes the pathway of a woman afflicted with female weakness unless she is under the care of a doctor who has had successful experience in the treatment of such cases or else has found the right remedy which can be safely used independently of the doctor. Forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that women were being grossly maltreated—mainly through ignorance and carelessness, and he determined to devote himself to study and research till he found the real cause of their suffering and a proper remedy for it. He found it, and dug from Nature's Laboratory, the earth, Nature's remedies for woman's weaknesses and ailments. He found in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, the required ingredients.

The remedial virtues of these he extracted, combined and preserved by his own peculiar non-alcoholic, glyceric processes, and the result is now known throughout the world over, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. "The wearing of corsets too tight seemed to have brought on an abdominal pressure, weakening the ligaments and resulting in displacement, which troubled me until I was not fit to walk, and times could hardly stand," writes Mrs. Beverly Sitreaves, of 124 Fulton St., San Francisco, Cal. "A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before the first bottle was used I felt much better. Improvement went steadily on, and within four months I was able to walk and work as usual. I feel like a new and well woman once more. I can now perfectly walk and stand, and am extremely grateful to you for your blessed remedy—a boon to sick women."

theory that the convention of anthracite miners, which will draft new demands for presentation to the coal companies on the expiration of the strike commission award on April 1st next, will be held in Shamokin, Pa. It was learned that the convention will be held in Shamokin, Pa. Recognition of the miners' union by the coal operators in the form of a signed agreement; the substitution of an eight-hour work day for the present 9-hour work day, awarded by the strike commission; an increase in pay over the minimum wages now paid to men and boys not contract miners, but generally classed as unskilled labor, and a uniform scale of wages for workers not actually miners, at all collieries.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY FRUSTRATED.

St. Hyacinthe, Que., Sept. 7.—(Special)—St. Hyacinthe is infested with a lot of tramps heading from Boston, Portland and other eastern points and naturally extra vigilance must be exercised by the police force during the night. About two o'clock this morning a bold attempt was made by three masked men to enter the Bursar's office in the Bishop's palace. Fortunately, the Bursar was not in, but the noise and the shouting of the men caused the Bursar to enter the office. Several shots were exchanged before the burglars made their exit. Policeman Tanguay who was on his beat in the vicinity gave chase but was unable to capture them. The pursuit was so close that one of the boys turned upon him and fired two shots.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

Government ownership and administration of the telephone has been urged as a remedy for certain imaginary grievances against the telephone service in Canada, which have been the stock-in-trade of certain professional agitators for some time.

European countries where the telephone is operated as a Government monopoly have been pointed to as examples which should be followed by the Dominion Government.

In France the Government owns and operates both local exchanges and long distance lines. The method adopted by the Government to obtain funds for Telephone development will be considered peculiar by most people in this country and would not meet with the approval of many Canadian municipalities.

The funds required by the Government to buy out the Company which originally exploited the business were borrowed from the Savings Bank Department. These moneys do not appear in the State's balance sheet for the telephone service and no interest or sinking fund is provided for, nor is deduction made for rent of offices and other expenses inevitable to very commercial enterprise.

In addition to this the subscriber has to buy his own Telephone of a pattern approved by the Government and has to pay for a portion of the line and the cost of installation.

For extending the service into various provincial towns the method of financing was still more unique. The municipality advanced to the State the sums required for all the new installations and also for working and maintaining them, the loan to be repaid to the Municipality without interest by instalments taken from the receipts.

The State did not bind itself with regard to the dates at which this peculiar repayment should take place. In this manner the general taxpayer has to bear the cost of the telephone service whether he is a subscriber or not.

The rates charged to subscribers for exchange service are: Paris, $80.00 per annum; Lyons, $60.00, and in the smaller towns, $40.00 and $30.00. There is no difference in the charges between office and residence service.

In our next Talk we shall review the general results in France of Government administration of this service.

SIR THOMAS CLEVE ON DAIRY MISSION.

Here on Government's Invitation to Give Pointers on Dairy Products.

Sir Thomas Cleve, senior partner of Cleve Bros., the large Irish butter producers and chairman of the Condensed Milk Company of Ireland is here at the invitation of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The fact that Sir Thomas is the controlling spirit of the largest condensed milk factories and creameries in the south of Ireland induced Mr. J. A. Ruddick, the Dominion Dairy Commissioner and Hon. Dr. Fyfe, Minister of Education in the Ontario Government to visit the Cleve establishments at Limerick where between 3,000 and 4,000 hands are employed and where they turn out from 20 to 25 tons of butter per day and over 40,000,000 tons of condensed milk a year.

One of the difficulties that Canada has to contend against in this regard he informed a Herald representative today is the absence of cold storage accommodation in Liverpool, office Sir Thomas says the Canadian authorities are very anxious to interest the Mersey Docks Board in the trade and to induce them to import the United Kingdom and the Canadian product suffers in consequence.

Sir Thomas intends to examine the processes of the various different creamery districts, and wherever he sees defects he will draw attention to them. In doing this he feels that he will be helping competitors with his own establishments in the English market, but as an old Canadian he would like to see Canada take a leading place in butter manufacture. No country, Sir Thomas says, can rival the Danish in butter production and he is not surprised at the experience related in the cable despatches some months ago of Canadian butter obtaining having been purchased in England and re-shipped to Denmark for treatment there and subsequently sold as Danish butter.

Sir Thomas is in hope that as the result of this visit he will be able to give Canadian producers some pointers that will enable them to compete more effectively with these enterprising rivals.

Ottawa—Hon. F. N. Parent, chairman of the Transcontinental Construction Commission, is now a citizen of Ottawa. His family arrived yesterday, and while the new house purchased by Mr. Parent is being put in order, they are the guests of F. A. Gendron, M.P.P., of Hull.

They are in great favor all over England, Scotland and Ireland, and we wish to have them equally well-known all over the world. We know of no better way to do this than to give absolutely free to every sick woman a full-sized box free. One box is enough to do a lot of good. If the St. James' Wafers are not a specialty for diseases peculiar to women only, they would not make this offer.

PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN ADDED TO THE CONFEDERATION

Inaugural Ceremonies Carried Out on Elaborate Scale at Regina—Congratulatory Messages Received From King and British Government.

Regina, Sask., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Province of Saskatchewan was formally taken under the wing of the Dominion Confederation Monday, and the ceremonies in connection therewith were most elaborately carried out. The weather was magnificent and the celebration was most successful. The principal figures in the day's proceedings were naturally Lord Grey, the King's representative in Canada, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Prime Minister. These distinguished personages were accompanied by many prominent public men from the East and the West, and the gathering of notables was one which marked the day as historic.

His Excellency then read telegrams from Prince Louis of Battenberg and from Right Hon. Alfred Lyttelton Colonial Secretary. A third despatch was as follows: "Marienbad, Sept. 4. 'Accept my best thanks for your telegram. I am deeply gratified by expressions of loyalty on part of your Northwest provinces. Pray convey to them my earnest hope that great prosperity may be in store for them.'"

Mr. J. J. McGe, Clerk of the Privy Council, then notified Lieutenant-Governor Forget of his appointment, and the commission was read to His Honor. In the evening the City Council gave a luncheon at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the chief speaker.

Regina, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Province of Saskatchewan was formally taken under the wing of the Dominion Confederation Monday, and the ceremonies in connection therewith were most elaborately carried out.

Mr. G. A. Forbes has just returned from a trip to British Columbia and the Territories, and is highly elated with the evidences of prosperity on every hand. No person can go through the country without noticing the wonderful growth from year to year.

The main object of Mr. Forbes' visit was to attend a meeting of the Southern Okanagan Land Co., of which he is a director. This company was organized last January with a capital of $500,000 to acquire the estate of those hills in the Okanagan Valley, consisting of over 30,000 acres of the best fruit lands in Canada. Although the company has been such a short time in existence, the sales of land in small blocks of ten to twenty acres to date is 500 acres for over $100,000—the most optimistic expectations have been more than realized and by the way, some are flocking in, the remainder of the available land will soon be taken up.

The reason for this is the success attained in the growing of fruit, such as peaches, plums, apples and other small fruits which grow to perfection in Canada. The districts on which trees were planted some few years ago, are now yielding a handsome profit. From two acres of ground one man received $1,000 for the fruit on the trees. Another received $110,000 for cherries grown on one tree. The fact that the Province has grown so fully in consequence of this development of the fruit culture. From a little scattering village of a year ago it is now a flourishing town with wide streets and sidewalks, several large stores and mills. The Canadian Bank of Commerce has just opened a branch there, several hotels are doing a rushing business, and a large new one to cost in the vicinity of $25,000, is shortly to be erected. Electric light and water supply will shortly be supplied. Two of the principal railroads will soon enter the town.

The wheat crop throughout the West is magnificent and should realize a high price. The wholesalers may have felt, as there is practically no danger now and the crops will be harvested in good condition. The district surrounding Brandon is particularly fine and in consequence Brandon is enjoying great prosperity. Brandon city is marked among Western cities as one which affords the most substantial class of buildings now being erected in the city are now in advance of those at other points. Brandon is second to Winnipeg in the educational centre of the whole Northwest. She will always be known as the "Great wheat city."

In spite of the immense number of houses that have been built in Brandon, there is a big demand for residences and rents are advancing all along the line. From the present indications the population of Brandon in 1905 will certainly be doubled in 1906. Already the architects and builders are busy on plans for new buildings, and improvements for next year.

Mr. Armand Groulx, proprietor of Le Louvre, has accepted the position of managing director of the firm of Rouger Freres Co., Ltd., the well known importers of dry goods. Mr. Groulx will retain his interest in his retail house.

Pray convey to them my earnest hope that great prosperity may be in store for them.'"

Mr. J. J. McGe, Clerk of the Privy Council, then notified Lieutenant-Governor Forget of his appointment, and the commission was read to His Honor. In the evening the City Council gave a luncheon at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the chief speaker.

Regina, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The Province of Saskatchewan was formally taken under the wing of the Dominion Confederation Monday, and the ceremonies in connection therewith were most elaborately carried out.

Mr. G. A. Forbes has just returned from a trip to British Columbia and the Territories, and is highly elated with the evidences of prosperity on every hand. No person can go through the country without noticing the wonderful growth from year to year.

The main object of Mr. Forbes' visit was to attend a meeting of the Southern Okanagan Land Co., of which he is a director. This company was organized last January with a capital of $500,000 to acquire the estate of those hills in the Okanagan Valley, consisting of over 30,000 acres of the best fruit lands in Canada. Although the company has been such a short time in existence, the sales of land in small blocks of ten to twenty acres to date is 500 acres for over $100,000—the most optimistic expectations have been more than realized and by the way, some are flocking in, the remainder of the available land will soon be taken up.

The reason for this is the success attained in the growing of fruit, such as peaches, plums, apples and other small fruits which grow to perfection in Canada. The districts on which trees were planted some few years ago, are now yielding a handsome profit. From two acres of ground one man received $1,000 for the fruit on the trees. Another received $110,000 for cherries grown on one tree. The fact that the Province has grown so fully in consequence of this development of the fruit culture. From a little scattering village of a year ago it is now a flourishing town with wide streets and sidewalks, several large stores and mills. The Canadian Bank of Commerce has just opened a branch there, several hotels are doing a rushing business, and a large new one to cost in the vicinity of $25,000, is shortly to be erected. Electric light and water supply will shortly be supplied. Two of the principal railroads will soon enter the town.

The wheat crop throughout the West is magnificent and should realize a high price. The wholesalers may have felt, as there is practically no danger now and the crops will be harvested in good condition. The district surrounding Brandon is particularly fine and in consequence Brandon is enjoying great prosperity. Brandon city is marked among Western cities as one which affords the most substantial class of buildings now being erected in the city are now in advance of those at other points. Brandon is second to Winnipeg in the educational centre of the whole Northwest. She will always be known as the "Great wheat city."

In spite of the immense number of houses that have been built in Brandon, there is a big demand for residences and rents are advancing all along the line. From the present indications the population of Brandon in 1905 will certainly be doubled in 1906. Already the architects and builders are busy on plans for new buildings, and improvements for next year.

Mr. Armand Groulx, proprietor of Le Louvre, has accepted the position of managing director of the firm of Rouger Freres Co., Ltd., the well known importers of dry goods. Mr. Groulx will retain his interest in his retail house.

WHICH PROSPECTORS ARE FLEECEED

Avaricious Schemers Are Wont to Mercilessly Flim-Flam the Discoverers of Valuable Mining Properties— They Have Their Own Little World of Duplicity and Chicanery.

(Staff Correspondence of The Herald.) (Copyrighted—All Rights Reserved.) Jack-Mac Newspaper Camp, Fort-Hole Lake, B.C., Aug. 1, '05.—In my last letter I described what should be a good copper mining prospect. In this I shall endeavor to show how it may be developed into a mine of plenty, or, for that matter, a barren-hole certainty. Suppose your capitalist has either invited or sent a competent mining man to look over a prospect and that he has been satisfied with the outlook of the property, he will then proceed to deal with the prospector. The latter may or may not be like the typical inventor, with an exaggerated idea of the value of his property. He may or may not know its real worth. He may be careless and indifferent. He may be of the class which is satisfied with a few thousand which he will blow in Vancouver in a few weeks. He may have been sitting on this property living in his lonely shack until he has got sick of the sight and sound of it, or his health may be impaired by a protracted diet of his own cooking bannocks and bacon—and will be glad to get rid of it at any price. He may be hard up and need the money, no matter how small the price. One way of securing such a property is by the simple process of outright purchase. If the property shows good indications and the prospector is in position to hold it and wait for his price he may want anywhere from $10,000 to $50,000 for a single claim. If he has a group he may want from $25,000 to $200,000. Another way to secure a claim or group is to bond it, the purchaser paying a stipulated sum for the privilege of the claim and to ascertain to prove its value, when, if he is satisfied with it, he is to purchase it outright for another stipulated price. The price he will pay will be much higher than if holes sunk on it, and the shaft shows it to continue in thickness to the fifty-foot level, it is then only a matter of arithmetic to compute the amount of ore in sight. If the investor is still desirous of pursuing his investigations he may sink to another fifty-foot level and cross-cut again, and he may continue to do this for four or five, or as many levels as he wishes to. Core drills are often employed to test a property also, but these are more useful in coal propositions, which lie in strata approximately horizontal, and which may be pierced by vertical borings from the surface. In the case of a perpendicular or oblique seam or ledge of mineral it may be missed altogether. A number of core drills are useful after the ore body has been followed, to ascertain the best method of opening and working a mine economically and to the best advantage, and for the purpose of definitely ascertaining the quantity of ore on the property. We have now placed our investor in possession of a proven prospect, in which he has found that there is ore sufficient to warrant the investment necessary to develop it to a mine. He has by now discovered that his property is, as a mine, worth many times its cost to him, assuming that he paid its full value as a prospect. It may be asked why the prospector does not undertake this proving process for himself and get a proven price for his prospect. Sometimes he does, but nine times out of ten he has not got the few thousands necessary to work with. And if he did do it, it is doubtful if he could interest the large amount of capital necessary to purchase and make a working mine of it. In other words, a prospector is a prospector only, he is not a middleman, he is not a financier, he is not a student of business methods, and he is difficult in approaching capitalists. In a future letter I shall give a character sketch of the prospector as I have seen him in his mountain environment. In my next letter I will show how a business man, with straightforward methods of dealing, will have seen him in his mountain environment. In my next letter I will show how a business man, with straightforward methods of dealing, will have seen him in his mountain environment. In my next letter I will show how a business man, with straightforward methods of dealing, will have seen him in his mountain environment.

Ready to quit the scene of another busted dream

bought on the spot outright. Terms of payment in case of outright purchase may often be secured which will enable the purchaser to prove the property before more than one or two payments have become due. Should it have proven a "dry hole" he may then default and the property and moneys paid the vendor will revert to him and the purchaser will be out just the amount expended for development and the instalments of purchase price paid. In the other hand, the property proves valuable the purchaser may go on with his development and exploration work and ascertain to a certainty the extent and value of his deposits. In either of the above methods of dealing for a property a clause is usually inserted in the agreement limiting the amount of ore to be shipped from the mine to a nominal amount for test purposes only. This is to protect the vendor from the prospect's greed, who will take and throw back on his hands before final payment has been made. This is a trick that has often been paid upon claim owners in the past, but most prospectors are aware of it now. Under exceptional circumstances it may be permitted in the agreement to allow an amount of ore equal to the instalments paid to be shipped, but in no case will a prospector allow ore to the extent of both payments and development expenditure to be shipped. Another method of securing and proving a property is to lease and bond it. Such a property must, however, be in a shipping condition when the deal is made. The owner is paid a percentage of the profits, say 20 to 25 per cent., and the lessee takes an option at a stipulated price, to be paid on an agreed time if the mine is satisfactory.

But for one man's greed sixty or eighty must be disappointed, broken, and robbed. Much the same sort of deed is often perpetrated under a bond. Just before the term of the bond expires the shaft caves in, or is filled with water. The property is thrown back on the hands of the prospector. The shaft and drift may be full of ore, but he cannot get at it; they are filled in with water or rock, and the pumps are taken away. Much the same sort of deed is often perpetrated under a bond. Just before the term of the bond expires the shaft caves in, or is filled with water. The property is thrown back on the hands of the prospector. JAPANESE STUDYING CANADIAN RAILWAYS

Mr. Yoshio Kinoshita, a representative at the International Railway Congress at Washington for the Japanese Imperial Government railways, was in Montreal yesterday, and saw a number of the railway officials here. Mr. Yoshio Kinoshita, the Japanese general passenger agent, and in America to study American and Canadian roads, with the idea of utilizing any of the features of the systems here. While enquiring over the future of his own country, the Oriental visitor admitted that railway work would have to go slowly in the Land of the Rising Sun, as the Japanese and English coaches were generally used on short hauls, while on through runs the American coaches were the best.

ELEVEN TON TUG WAS SUNK IN LAKE SUPERIOR

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—A tug of eleven tons burden, named the Shamrock, owned by J. J. Roussain, of Magallow Point, Lake Superior, came into collision with the American-owned freighter Richardson in the upper river yesterday. The result was the sinking of the tug in about fifty feet of water and the drowning of the captain and engineer, named Charles Roussain, and John Roussain, sons of the tug-owner. The other member of the crew, which numbered three only, was Oscar Carlson. He was the wheel when the accident occurred. He clung to a small box as the tug sank and was picked up by a passing steamer, C. M. Tower.

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY SEPT. 6. THE DISQUIETING RUMORS FROM THE COAL FIELDS.

Notwithstanding the disquieting reports that continue to emanate from the Pennsylvania coal fields, the coal merchants of the city are disinclined to believe that there will be a renewal of the conflict between the operators and the miners when the agreements expire in April next.

President B. H. Reading, of the Reading Railway, and President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers' organization, have made reassuring statements as to the feeling existing between the various interests; but it is evident that the persistency, with which the rumors of impending trouble are circulated, is creating apprehension.

The head of one of the largest coal firms in this city declares that the reports are disseminated through the trade and in the public press for the purpose of inducing dealers to increase their stocks at the higher prices that prevail during the winter months.

Despite the fact that many of the miners work only a few days a week, a great deal more coal is produced at the mines than is requisite to meet the demand, and if the operators can get rid of this surplus stock, which amounts to between three and four million tons, at the present time, at the top winter prices, they will do a good stroke of business for themselves.

It can hardly be doubted that the operators are willing to renew the agreement, for it has resulted very greatly to their benefit. It is computed that of the advance in the price of coal which followed the settlement of the strike, two-thirds went into their pockets, and the coal roads were never so prosperous as they are to-day.

One miner will, it is asserted, make two demands next spring. They will ask for an eight hour's day and for the recognition of their union. With regard to the first, the operators assert that most of the miners work less than that now, and that to give a shorter day to the employees would necessitate another advance of fifty cents per ton in the price of coal.

The public is not in a mood to submit quietly to the payment of that advance, and there is good reason to suppose that the attempt to enforce it would produce intense dissatisfaction, and irritation. As to the recognition of the union by making an agreement with it, that is something that the operators say they will accede to under no circumstances.

It is, therefore, in the possibility of the miners insisting upon this recognition that the greatest danger of a strike lies. Should such an interruption of operations in the mining districts really occur, the effect would be far less serious at the end than it would be at the beginning of winter; but those who are best informed on the subject maintain that the consumers will assert themselves far more energetically than they did on the last occasion, and will insist upon a settlement of the dispute by arbitration rather than see the industry interrupted for a prolonged and indefinite period.

CANADA AND BRITISH EMIGRANTS. The Herald has of late received several letters, for the most part from Canadians domiciled in the United Kingdom, relating to the charge brought by some of the English press against Canada of encouraging alien rather than British immigration.

Few more unfortunate misunderstandings than this could have arisen, at a time when the precise attitude of the colonies to Great Britain is a matter of keen partisan discussion; and our correspondents are unanimous in begging that the charge be refuted if false, and that, if it be true, Canada should abandon a policy so calculated to buttress up the theory of colonial ingratitude.

This is one of those peculiar cases where to state the bare fact to a person ignorant of the conditions under which immigration work is carried on is as effective as telling a falsehood. It is absolutely true that Canada pays, to the steamship company or other agency which procures the sailing of the immigrant, five dollars a head for persons coming from certain European countries and about a dollar a head for Britishers.

This is a prima facie case for the charge of discrimination; and our reputation in England is not bettered by the fact that a large class of conservative journals of this country, quite contented with any prima facie case against the Government, and careless whether it has ever been refuted or not, give currency to the bald statement we have quoted, and use it as material for anti-Laurier thunderings.

That much of the British press should be blankly ignorant of the true facts, and that Canadians in Britain should be annoyed by charges of dishonesty, is not under these circumstances surprising, but we do not suppose it makes the smallest difference to our Opposition friends.

The real attitude of Canada and the Canadian Government towards British and foreign immigration can only be understood when the conditions of immigration work in the respective fields are considered. In Great Britain emigration propaganda work is not merely tolerated, it is encouraged.

The Canadian Government itself therefore at considerable cost maintains a large staff and offices for the purpose of making emigration to Canada as easy and as popular as possible. The work of persuading the emigrant is practically done before the steamship company enters the field at all; and the small per capita payment to the line is less in the nature of a payment for work done than a bonus to enable it to meet the fares quoted by larger and busier traffic routes leading to rival countries.

In the northern European countries included in the recent "pound-a-head" contract, propaganda work is prohibited. The contracting company undertakes the whole work of procuring emigration. The Dominion, through its own officials, does nothing, and in most cases can do nothing; the whole business must be carried on privately and by individual effort.

For such work the sum of five dollars a head for converts does not seem excessive; nor is it at all disproportionate to the total cost in bonuses, office cost and literature, of every Britisher who comes to this country. We are now, it is true, owing to the strong tide of immigration that has set in, getting our new-coming Britishers fairly cheap; but in that we are only repeating the returns of years when ten, fifteen and even twenty dollars was expended by the Department of the Interior for one Britisher that came Canada-wards.

THE TROPICAL ANNEX POLICY. One fact of great present interest stands out prominently from that letter of the Times' West Indian correspondent, which a short time ago drew the world's attention to the possibility of Caribbean-Canadian federation. The federation movement itself, in spite of having the endorsement of the Maritime Board of Trade, is too misty, too distant, and too exclusively confined to commercial circles to be a factor in practical politics or economics to-day.

But it is impossible for us to disregard, when it is placed so patiently before our eyes, the fact that the commercial prosperity of the West Indian islands of Great Britain is largely bound up in this Dominion. By the acquisition of its new tropical territories the United States has abolished its dependence upon the West Indies for tropical products for its Eastern consumers, and in consequence "the reciprocity treaties with the West Indian colonies have not been ratified, and are now permanently shelved."

Products from Porto Rico the United States admits free, while those from the Republic of Cuba are admitted on a preferential basis; and while the banana plantations of those islands have not yet received prohibitive protection, it is generally admitted that the banana business of Jamaica is a pure gamble because of the uncertainty of the entry to American markets.

The West Indies must have an outlet on this continent, and Canada, the only great consumer which has no tropical supplies of her own, seems to be their only hope.

The fiscal tendencies of this continent, are dominated and directed by those of the greatest fiscal unit in its area, the United States. The United States has lately developed the policy of bringing into its already almost self-sustaining area a number of territories of the only class, the tropical, which it did not already possess. The ideal fiscal unit, as conceived in the United States, is one which shall contain every different kind of productivity, each in such degree as to minister adequately to the requirements of the others.

LIFE ON A MAN-O-WAR. The squadron was detailed for a cruise round part of the English coast. The ships would leave one port upon a certain day, taking perhaps a week to reach the next port.

Instantly there is a rush and scurry. A bosun runs round the ship like a comet, blowing his whistle and shouting in a hoarse voice "Away all boats crews." There is a dash and turmoil. Men come tumbling up from below and run to the falls. Boats are lowered in quicker time than it takes to write about it, and are away pulling round the fleet.

The first ship to have all boats back and hoisted, breaks the affirmative pendant at the main, and later on the day the flagship signals the order in which ships finished.

On Tuesday the order may be "Out torpedo nets," with an alternative for cruisers which do not possess them. On Wednesday possibly "Out kedge anchor" is signalled. One ship which had a desire to be credited with extra smartness had a wooden anchor made, similar in size and shape, but the commander got so careless as to have it out and in again at an impossible speed, which gave his contrivance away.

Thursday is "make and mend clothes" day—the bluejackets' Sabbath, and is generally chosen in harbor for the day for pulling and sailing races.

It is rumored that Lord Charles Beresford carries a chest full of silver cups, which he uses on all possible occasions for these races. "Friday is always 'General Quarters' day. The bugle sounds, and there is the rush and tramp of men. Hallings are pulled down, guns trained over the sides, men come tumbling on deck with rifles and cutlasses and all is ready, for the foe. The officer in charge of a gun suddenly shouts his orders, "Enemy in sight on port bow, 3,000 yards away, steaming ten knots," and the man behind the gun trains his weapon accordingly.

A torpedo lieutenant shouts elsewhere, "Enemy on starboard quarter, 1,500 yards, steaming twelve knots." There is a momentous pause, and then one hears the word "fire," and the click which shows an imaginary torpedo winged its flight.

On Saturday all is devoted to cleaning up. Even the chaplain does not read prayers, but from early morning till midday the decks above and below are crowded with men, scrubbing with holystone, washing down with hose, and drying up with mops and "squeezers."

The officers' meal hours are: 7.30 to 8.30 breakfast; 12 lunch; 7.30 dinner. After dinner unless on duty they are usually to be found playing "bridge" or "pique."

In addition to this routine there are the great quarterly prize firing days. Each ship in turn fires at a fixed target on a raft at sea, (towed by a tug) steaming at a fixed speed and firing so many rounds per gun in a certain space of time.

The ship credited with the greatest number of hits in the quickest time makes the prize.

THE THIN MAN'S DANGER. He can't resist disease germs—that's why he's such a mark for consumption. In this land of plenty, thinness is wickedness, especially when it's so easily overcome with Ferrerozine.

This remarkable tissue builder makes you fat quickly; it does so by forming blood that's rich, nourishing and health-giving. Ferrerozine supplies the nutriment needed by worn-out nerves, rapidly constructs muscle and fatty tissue. The form fills out, the cheeks redden, proving that weight is being added. To be thin and stay well, use Ferrerozine. Fifty chocolate coated tablets in a box for fifty cents or six for $2.50 at all dealers.

At the moment when Great Britain is being implored by Chamberlainites to abandon her system of taxing the importation of "luxuries" not raised in her own territory, the United States is seriously considering a proposal to revert to the tariff policy, which was abandoned in 1872 and impose a purely revenue tax on coffee.

There would be a very slight protectionist interest involved in the case of Porto Rico, but the total yield there is less than 1-10 per cent. of the country's requirements. The tea tax is needed in Britain because that country imposes no duties on articles from abroad, which can be procured at home. The coffee tax is needed in the States because that country imposes so high a duty on such articles that importation is kept at a minimum.

The Huntingdon Gleaner, that peculiar journal which is so useful to Conservative leader-writers because it once called itself Liberal, is out with a protest against "that fool holiday, Labor Day." We gather that the Gleaner would like Labor Day abolished throughout the Dominion because it interferes with the Monday Council meeting of the Huntingdon rural authority. Doubtless the significance of the celebration, which is peculiarly that of the organized wage-earner, is less in country districts than in the cities; but few even of the most rural editors indulge in such a sectional view of it as does the Gleaner. The agricultural and the industrial classes are too closely related in this country for the betterment of one not to interest the other.

A Liverpool produce house has refused to permit the Canadian inspector to take the temperature of butter consigned to it from Canada, and is exhibiting great satisfaction thereat. If the dairying industry were one which flourished under the old non-interference policy which still has such a hold in Britain and doubtless dictated this merchant's action, there would be nothing to say. But the nations which are making the most conspicuous success as dairying exporters to-day are those which have most fully developed the science of government inspection and regulation. It is difficult to see what trouble the Liverpool man can have been caused by this inspection, except as system is always a trouble to the unsystematic; and the benefits to be gained by it are obvious enough. The dairying business needs uniformity of temperature conditions more than anything else.

The attacks on the Salvation Army in St. Louis are the most disgraceful breaches of public order that have occurred in this neighborhood for many months. Unless the police of this suburban municipality can cope with this sort of thing better than they appear to have been doing, they will provide a new and powerful argument for the greater Montreal movement. For with the exception of periodical demonstrations by its floating sailor population, to which every maritime city is subject, Montreal seems to be a much less disorderly city than Toronto. The latter has no marine population to bother it, but does very well with its own permanent residents in the way of jumping on the police. Attacks on these unfortunate officers by mobs of two or three hundred men are regular Saturday night occurrences, and the small percentage of the disturbers who can be arrested under such circumstances get $20 fines and go home to lay for their arrester at the next chance. On Saturday an intoxicated gentleman fired off a revolver on a Toronto corner, which would about compare in point of crowded sidewalks with the Herald's new position in Montreal. The gun was loaded with shot and a pedestrian nearly killed, but the shooter only incurred a $20 fine. Toronto may be trying to show us that she is not of the effete East, but this is not the spirit of the West as understood by the real Canadian Westerner.

TARTAR TERROR IN THE CAUCASUS

Country in a State of Panic and People Fleeing Their Homes.

St. Petersburg, September 6.—A despatch from Tiflis says: "The whole of the Southeast Caucasus is now terrorized by Tartars. Refugees are pouring in here from Bakou, Erivan, and Shusha. Details from Shusha show that several engagements were fought between Tartars and Armenians behind regular positions, and that a considerable part of the town was soon in flames."

Oil Interests Suffered

CALEDONIAN JUBILEE DINNER SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Six of the Chartered Members of Fifty Years Ago Answered to Their Names and Were Cheered by Lusty Scottish Throats—Hon. W. A. Weir Made a Stirring Address on Canada and Her Future.

Many were the memories of the earlier days of Montreal evoked at the Caledonian Society's banquet held at the Queen's Hotel Monday night in honor of the society's jubilee, and at which no less than six of the veterans who founded the society were present, each of whom made a brief speech. Another feature of the evening was the presence of a number of ladies, who evidently enjoyed the proceedings as much as the gentlemen. Of the forty-five founders of the society, but nine remain alive. Messrs. Chas. Alexander, Lieut.-Col. A. Stevenson, Hugh Cameron, William Cunningham, Hugh McIntosh, William Robb, William McGowan, Robert Burry and William Smith. The first six of these were guests of honor at last night's function and sat at the right of President Peter Lyall, who acted as toastmaster. Amongst others at the head table were Rev. J. M. Crombie, chaplain to the society; Mr. William McNab, first vice-president; J. A. McLean, second vice-president; Hon. W. A. Weir, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly; Mr. Brown, president of St. Andrew's Society, Portland; Ald. Levy, Mr. Beauchamp, representing St. Jean Baptiste Society, Mr. W. Henry president of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society; Mr. William Smith, of St. Andrew's Society; Mr. Alex. Fraser, of Toronto, who attended in full Highland costume. As soon as the guests were seated, Mr. Robert Reid read an original ode of welcome, which was much appreciated, as was also an original poem recited by the Albany Caledonian Society in honor of the event. During the evening songs by Messrs. Duquette and Wilson were much enjoyed. The toast of "The King" was naturally honored with the National Anthem.

HONORED THE PRESIDENT.
 Then President Peter Lyall proposed the President of the United States, and in a brief speech pointed out that this toast demanded more than passing mention in view of the great part in the world's politics played by President Roosevelt in the Portsmouth peace negotiations between Japan and Russia. The toast was accordingly honored by the audience rising and singing the "Star Spangled Banner," and concluding the toast with cheers. Mr. W. Brown, president of the Portland Caledonian Society, responded with a brief speech.

THE GUESTS.
 President Lyall then proposed, amidst applause, the toast of the surviving member of the society—a few charter members who for half a century had been on the society's books. Out of forty-five, he said, only nine survived, and of these but six could be here tonight. It was the society's delight to do proper honor to them, and when the society started with only forty-five, it now had nearly 1,500 members. It was a great thing to think that such a society, formed to study and do honor to the literature, songs, poetry and athletics of Auld Scotia, should have done such proud work during a half century, and still have so many of its original members present.

LIEUT.-COL. STEVENSON.
 The toast was most enthusiastically honored, with "They're All Jolly Good Fellows," and Lieut.-Col. Stevenson was first called upon to reply. Referring to the origin of the society, he said that the beginning of the St. Andrew's dinners in 1855 was the beginning of the Caledonian Society, which was first called upon to reply. real Battery was founded by Lt.-Col. (then known as "Sandy") McPherson, Mr. McGibbon (then known as "Bill") and Mr. (then "Charley") Alexander. With regard to the latter he laughingly remarked that he doubted, but almost believed the legend that when Jacques Cartier landed at Montreal wharf he was greeted with an offer of scones made by Mr. Alexander. But it felt sure that this same Mr. Alexander would be there to drive the last rivet in the two storey sheds which were to finish our harbor. Other charter members who gave a few modest words of fealty to the society were Messrs. Hugh Cameron, Wm Cunningham and Hugh McIntosh.

VALUATION ROLLS CAUSE PROTESTS

Many Westmount Citizens Displeased With Amounts of Assessment.

The Westmount Town Council's session last night was devoted almost entirely to a consideration of the homology of the valuation roll. Half a dozen parties entered protests against the figures accredited them on the original roll by the assessors Mr. P. W. McLagan, of the Arena Company; Mrs. J. Norman, the C.P.R., and the Montreal Water & Power Company were the most important. Mr. P. W. McLagan's claim was granted, the Arena's was withdrawn, and the others were adjusted. The last stage was reached of the proceedings regarding the town's loan of $150,000. It was secured by the City & District Savings Bank at 101, for forty years, at four per cent. The town has fourteen days' option on another loan for the same amount. Before adjourning the Council authorized the purchase of a $12,000 boiler for the electric plant, and to buy the lot on St. Stephen or Stratheona avenue, at the Cote Road, at fifty-two cents a foot.

SPECIAL NOTICE. A PROSPEROUS SOCIETY.

How the Independent Order of Foresters Has Grown.
 The Supreme Court of the Independent Order of Foresters held its triennial session at Atlantic City, New Jersey, recently. The report made at this meeting show the society to be a wonderfully prosperous one. An Independent Finance Committee investigated the society's affairs, and reported that they found the business affairs of the order managed in a thoroughly business manner, the investments made and wisely made, and that no losses had been incurred during all the years of the order's history. The order's accumulated funds have increased in the last three years $3,272,845.15. The order's position is growing better every year; for instance, the increase in accumulated assets during the last two years, 1903-4, was $424 per cent, while the increase in insurance at risk during the same period was only 6.97 per cent. The order has increased its accumulated fund since the last meeting of the Supreme Court more rapidly than it increased in any equal time previously. During the $13 working days of the year the order pays out $3,922.29 per day, and each day puts away a surplus of $3,907. The order's accumulated funds now amount to over $9,000,000, and these, the committee reports are all well and safely invested. The society has added 11,000 members each year of the past triennial period. No changes were made in the rates, the Supreme Chief Ranger contending that the rates of the order at the present time were ample. All the Supreme Executive were re-elected, with Hon. Dr. Cronhyak at their head. It should be added that the death rate of the order is low, indeed, much lower than it was some years ago, and the average age of the membership is only thirty-seven. The medical work seems, therefore to be well and carefully done. As a fraternal society the Independent Order of Foresters certainly has been a wonderful success, and something of its financial strength may be understood from the fact that the reports show that it has already paid in its treasury to pay all probable death claims for about five years without collecting any premiums from any one of its members.

 They obeyed, and the three of them remained alone together. Then Rosamund knelt down beside her father, and they whispered into each other's ears. Hassan turned his back upon them, and threw the corner of his cloak over his head and eyes that he might neither see nor hear their voices in this dread and holy hour of parting. They found some kind of hope and consolation in it—at least when Rosamund kissed him for the last time, Sir Andrew smiled and said:

"Yes, yes; it may all be for the best. God will guard you, and His will be done. But I forgot. Tell me daughter, what you seem to me to be so anxious about. Again she whispered into his ear, and when he had thought a moment, he answered: "You are right. I think that is wisest for all. And now on the three of you—aye, and on your children's children's children—let my blessing rest upon you. Come, hither, Emir."
 Hassan heard him through his cloak, and, uncovering, came.

"There was a gent in Middle Temple Lane," said Mrs. Wilkins, "as I thought of it, it's my belief as he killed 'imself worrying 'twent-four hours a day over what 'e called 'is 'ygiene. Leastways 'e's dead and buried now, which must be a comfort to 'imself, feeling as at last 'e's out of danger."
 "All 'is time 'e spent taking care of 'imself—'dint seem to have a leisure moment in doing on 'is back 'ere just an hour every morning 'e'd lie on 'is back on the floor, which is a draughty place, I always hold, at the best of times, with nothing on but 'is pyjamas, way-lin 'is arms and legs about, and twisting 'imself into shapes unnatural to a Christian."
 "Then 'e found out that everything 'e'd been doing on 'is back 'ere just wrong, so 'e turned over and did tricks on 'is stomach—begging your pardon for using the word—that you'd have thought more fit and proper to a woman than to a man. Then all that was discovered to be a mistake. There don't seem nothing certain in these matters. 'Tis the awkward part of it, so it seems to me."

"I hear your words, and I will deliver them," answered Hassan. "More I believe that they are true, and for the rest you have the oath of Salah-ed-din—aye, and my oath while she is in my charge. Therefore, Sir Andrew, I forgive you, for I do not wish the instruments of Allah, and die in peace."
 "I, who have so much to be forgiven, forgive you," answered the old knight slowly.
 Then his eyes fixed themselves upon his daughter's face with one long, searching look, and closed.

DO YOU GET BILIOUS?

No remedy could be more prompt and agreeable than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No matter where you go you'll hear of the grand cures they make. Writing from Ottawa Mrs. M. E. Lege says: "For people inclined to biliousness and sick headache I don't think there is a remedy to compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I formerly had bilious attacks about once a month. Dr. Hamilton's Pills and other remedies failed to give me any relief. My stomach has been put in good order and my health greatly improved." No medicine better for men, women or children. stood before him—at once a cross, a brand of battle, and a lady's token. "His grandeur bore it," she said in Arabic, when he leapt on to the walls of Jerusalem. It is my last gift to him." But the Saracens muttered and turned pale at these words of evil omen. Then taking the hand of Hassan, who stood searching her white, inscrutable face, with never a word or a backward look, she swept down the length of the long hall, and out into the night beyond.

"It would have been well to take my counsel and fire the place, or at least to cut the throats of all within it," said the man Nicholas to his guard Ali as they followed with the rest. "If I know aught of these brethren, cross and sword will soon be hard upon our track, and men's lives must pay the price of such soft folly." And he shivered as though in fear.
 "It may be so, Spy," answered the Saracen, looking at him with sombre, contemptuous eyes. "It may be that your life will pay the price."
 Then he was drawing, dreaming that he stood on his head upon a wooden plank as once he had seen a juggler do, which turned round one way while he turned round the other, till at length some one shouted at him, and he tumbled off the board and hurt himself. Then he awoke to hear a voice shouting surely enough—the voice of Matthew the chaplain of Steeple Church. "Awake!" said the voice. "In God's name, I conjure you, awake!"

SADIE MAC DIED WHILE RACING. Expired on the Track While Trotting for Charter Oaks Stake.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 6.—The opening day of the Grand Circuit races at Charter Oaks was marked by the death of Sadie Mac, the Canadian queen, who dropped dead in the fourth heat of the $10,000 Charter Oaks trot. She fell dead about 200 yards from the finish, after having gallantly held it until the rounding of the last turn. Sadie Mac seemed to have lost her strength just at the period when her driver was urging her to do her best, and dropping to the track, rolled over and died instantly. A veterinary surgeon attributed death to a broken blood vessel, and horsesmen who had been watching her declared that she acted strangely all afternoon. The gallant mare had met her Waterloo, falling to take a single heat of the four that were run. It was apparent from the outset that she was in the fastest company of her brilliant turf career, and she died trying to save her laurels. Anglin, Fryer, and Greenwood M. proved too fast for her yesterday.

Sadie Mac was a big favorite in the first heat, but only third, and it was then that the big following of horsemen scented something amiss. At the end of the first heat she broke away. Eight times the field had to be sent back, and the driver, Stinson, attributed Sadie Mac's defeat by the fact that she was tired out by the time the word go was given. When the tragic climax came hundreds of men thronged the track, and when it was announced that the great mare was dead, all sorts of rumors spread through the crowd. It was first hinted that she had been drugged, but those rumors were finally discredited, and the word of the veterinary was accepted. The scores of hardened old-horsemen actually lay down on the track, and when her *****

OWNER, Miss Katherine Wilkes, Galt, Ont., who was in a private box, heard of her death she was deeply affected, and left the grounds immediately. All the finishes in the Charter Oaks event were heart-breaking, and the heavy condition of the track, and the rain, prevented the finish of the big event, after Anglin and Zephyr had both won two heats. The big crowd of 5,000 persons stayed up to a high pitch when the fourth heat was finished. Zephyr was in great form in the first two heats, which were won in whipping finishes, but under the strain of the crisis finished up a lashing style. Kid Shay was withdrawn at the close of the third heat. Seven heats were required to settle the grand old man of dogdom, Mr. Mortimer, and no better selection could have been made, as there is no man in the dog fancy who is held in higher esteem than this same gentleman. *****

BASEBALL AT COWANSVILLE. Cowansville, Que., September 6.—Labor Day was observed here Monday in a manner never equaled before in this part of the Eastern Townships, in spite of the rain which fell all Sunday, and the early part of Monday morning, as it had not interfered with the best of tradition of the day, two baseball matches between the Stars of Montreal and the home club, which resulted in an even break. Although it was impossible to play fast ball in the first game, the play was interesting and both sides were often applauded for several plays. The home club came out ahead by 10 runs to 7. Before the second game started the sun came out and it did not take long before the infield was in fast condition, and one of the best games ever played here was the result. The final score was in favor of the Stars by 7 runs to 6. *****

PAPPALAU'S CURVES WERE HIT HARD. And Toronto Won Out in Two Last Innings 5 to 4.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—The Leafs made it two out of three by beating the Birds yesterday 5 to 4, winning out in the seventh and eighth innings, when they hit Pappalau's offering with an audacious freedom. The Montreal pitcher had them cold till the seventh, when they landed on him hard and scored enough runs to tie the score. In the eighth they hit out another run and clinched the game. Dutch Hartman was unable to play, and Jimmie Bannon held down third in stellar style. At the bat he hit safely three times out of four times up, and besides he scored half the Birds' runs. O'Brien and Soffel were the Leaf's sluggers, each getting three hits. Raub and Bannon were the only Birds to find the ball to any extent. Pappalau made his first error of the season, but at that he fielded well, accepting eight out of nine chances. The stockholders of the Toronto Club will lose a lot of money this year, as the team has received but meagre support at home. The score: *****

MONTREAL DOGS PRIZE-WINNERS. They Made Good Showing at the Toronto Bench Show.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—(Special).—The annual bench show of dogs held in connection with the Toronto Industrial Exposition opened yesterday in the large pavilion near Machinery Hall. The dogs benched totaled a much larger number than ever before and the entries amounted to 1,310 which is also the record mark for this show. Every breed was well represented, the terrier classes especially being well filled. Four judging rings were kept going from 1.30 up till six o'clock, and with the press of visitors and the somewhat limited space it was at times very difficult for attendants and exhibitors to get the dogs into the rings on time. However, the judges got through with their duties, and all things considered, the breeds judged were Alreada terriers, collies, setters, fox hounds, toy dogs and some others. *****

THE JUDGES ARE: Mr. Clair Foster, Douglastown, Long Island, bull terriers; Mr. H. B. Hungerford, Chicago, collies; Mr. Marshall Byers, Grand Rapids, setters; Mr. G. S. Local Market More Active; Lake of Woods Pfd. Higher

Nova Scotia Steel and Dom. Iron Show Weakness.

The local market showed considerable improvement to-day but the tone was irregular, some stocks making good gains while others suffered declines.

The improvement in Dominion Textile preferred was thought to be in anticipation of the declaration of the first half yearly dividend at the rate of 7 per cent. a year.

There is something very peculiar about the way Dom. Iron common is moving," remarked a local broker to the Herald to-day as the tape showed small lots of the stock coming over the board.

Nova Scotia was again on the downward grade and sold as low as 62 3/4. As will be seen in another column the officials of the company are very well satisfied with the showing that is being made and as far as operations are concerned there seems little reason for the decline.

The Dominion Securities Corporation has purchased $150,000 worth of 4 per cent debentures at 105 1/2.

Wall Street—The irregular movement of prices at the opening reflected the unsettled opinions of operators in stocks. There was a jump of 1-2 in Delaware and Hudson. Hide and Leather pfd., rose, and Illinois and Republic Steel showed good fractional gains.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Noon.—The market opened irregularly this morning. The feature was advance of 1 3/4 in Reading. A good deal of realizing set in, after first few minutes rally and there was pressure on Copper and Smelters.

E. C. Randolph—St. Paul was offered down to 17 1/2 to facilitate the absorption of this stock of interests concerned in Northwestern railroad matters. This buying is understood to be connected with a plan to acquire late all the stock possible in connection with the unification of Hill-Morgan-Rockefeller interests and the head of this morning was asserted to be preliminary to a sharp upward movement.

Marler & Hodgson—The change of attitude on part of London was ascribed to the possibility of complication over the Morocco question.

Norris P. Bryant—It is believed that foreign bank rates will advance soon but that rates here will not go above five per cent.

MARKET REPORTS.

Over Ninety Per Cent. of Western Crop Has Now Been Cut

Weather Conditions Have Continued Remarkably Favorable.

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—Harvesting conditions continue good. At one point the thermometer is reported to have registered at freezing point this morning. A remarkable fact is that few points have there been even a touch of frost. It is estimated that about 90 per cent. of the wheat has been harvested. The remainder of the crop is not heard. All reports from the country are that the Easterners are delighted with their outing, and seemingly take kindly to their work.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—The grain market continues steady and there is a fair business passing in Canadian No. 2 white and American clipped oats. The demand for new crop Manitoba spring wheat from foreign sources continues good, and some business is done on an export basis. Locally No. 2 white are selling at 36c and No. 3 at 35c per bushel, ex store.

Local Cattle Market

Trade was dull at the East End cattle market this morning. A feature of the market was the easier feeling which prevailed in hogs, prices being 25c per 100 lbs. lower than on Monday. Offerings were about 500 head of cattle, 600 sheep and lambs and 900 hogs. Good to choice cattle sold at $3.50 to $4 per 100 lbs., and inferior at $2.50 to $3.25 per 100 lbs. Sheep sold at $5 to $5.25, and lambs at $4.75 to $5. Hogs sold at $7 and at $5.50 to $6.75 for inferior grades.

Apple Crop Will be Small But of Good Quality

The following is the fruit crop report for the month of August which has just been issued by the Department of Agriculture: "The conditions are practically unchanged since the July report. The weather has been on the whole most favorable. A few windstorms have been reported, but the effects have been localized and not serious. The orchards, insects are slightly more numerous than last year, especially the Codlin moth and San Jose scale; fungous diseases are also developed abnormally during the month."

Country Produce

Beans.—The demand is chiefly for small lots, but the tone of the market is steady and prices are unchanged at $1.50 to $1.65 per bushel. Honey.—The demand continues fair and prices are steady at 12c to 13c for white clover in comb, and 8 1/2c to 9c for extracted. Syrup.—The market is dull and featureless. Syrup, in 60-gallon cans, 5 1/2c to 6 1/4c per lb. in tins, 60c to 75c per imp. and Heuzeuger sugar, 3 1/2c to 3 3/4c per lb.

C.N.R. Crop Report

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Canadian Notes, 34 to 35c; heavy Canadian short cut mess, 32c to 32 1/2c; Canada short cut back pork, 32c to 32 1/2c; heavy Canada long cut mess pork, none; heavy Canada short cut mess pork, none; light Canada short cut clear pork, 21.50 to 22.50.

To-Day's Receipts

Table with 3 columns: Commodity, Price, and Quantity. Includes Wheat, Corn, Oats, Barley, etc.

Cheese, Butter and Eggs

The receipts of cheese this morning were 14,623 boxes. The market continues quiet, the offers from the English dealers still being out of line with local quotations. Butter, 22c to 22 1/2c for Ontario and 1 1/4c to 1 1/2c for Quebec makes. The receipts of butter were 5,742 packages, of which one is reported to be on the market, but prices this morning were steady at 22c to 22 1/2c for choice creamery. The English market is quiet, but prices are lower and conditions in the local market and at a slightly lower figure it is said a good business can be done. It is not likely that there will be any slump, however.

Bonsecours Market Prices

Business was fairly active at the Bonsecours market this morning, a large number of farmers being in attendance. The market was steady. There is an improved demand for meat, many people having returned to the city from their summer homes. Retail quotations to-day were as follows: Fruits.—New Canadian apples, $2.25 to $3; bananas, $1.75 to $2.25 per bunch; lemons, $5.50 to $6 per box; California peaches, $1.75; plums, $2.25 per crate; Canadian plums, 30c per basket; watermelons 25c to 30c each; blueberries, 7c to 8c per bushel. RECIPE FOR BIG INCREASE IN FIRE LOSSES

Pienickers' sandwiches—Clark's Potted Ham with hard boiled eggs chopped fine spread between buttered bread. Delicious and sustaining sandwiches—adv.

August Exceeds Same Month Last Year by Two Million.

New York, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The fire loss of the United States and Canada for the month of August, aggregated $1,425,600, as compared with only $975,200 for the same month last year and $4,238,350 during August, 1902. The total for the first eight months of the current year is $117,727,900. There were 211 fires during August, when the loss reached $10,000 or more and a complete list of these appears below. A noticeable feature of the fire waste of the current year is the numerous fires due to lightning, and in some instances these caused heavy losses.

MUCH IN A NAME.

Speaking of the famous Duchess of Devonshire and the fashions to which she gave vogue, Mr. Harry Furniss says in "The Gentlewoman": "If the Duchess of Devonshire had been an original designer of fashions, she would have been a name to catch on and to last must, like a patent medicine, be labelled with a definite and attractive name. The idea originally associated with the name may have as little to do with the fashion itself as the name of the quick nostrum has to do with the nature of the cure for which it is advertised. The fashion following would want something to talk about, some definite sign by which to recognize its fetish, and a name is everything. Like the lady who, after a missionary sermon told the preacher she 'should never forget which it is composed of,' 'Garibaldi' blouse, which had been something to mouth, and they do not let the least care whether they know what it means or not."

TOO FUNNY TO LAUGH.

In the memoirs of Sir Henry Hawley we are told that once at the Old Hatley, an alderman asked a barrister: "What is the difference between a pair of silk stockings and a donkey?" As the other could not reply, the city magistrate replied: "One you wear; the other you are!" See? Ha, ha!"

In the course of a few weeks the different contractors will have completed their work. Representatives of this firm have visited all the leading stores of the United States and Europe, with the object in view of securing ideas that our architects might adopt in the laying out of the store.

In a large establishment one of the greatest difficulties is the overcrowding on the street floor, which, at times, makes shopping anything but pleasant. To obviate this, we have changed the aisles which formerly ran lengthwise from St. Catherine Street to the rear, to one broad central aisle, extending from the entrance to the main stairway and elevators. Opening off the central aisles, are the other aisles running to the east and west of the building. By this arrangement customers are able to reach the different departments more quickly than formerly.

A visitor will be much impressed with the perfect natural light coming from the four different sides of the building. This is not blocked in any way by fixtures or merchandise. The height of the fixtures and show cases will allow one entering a complete view of the main floor with its busy throng of shoppers and salespeople.

On the main floor, to the right of the elevators, will be a General Information Bureau, Transfer Desk, Complaint Office, Lost and Found Office, and also Accommodation Desk, where parcels and hand bags may be checked free. On the second floor are the Public Telephones, also Writing and Rest Rooms. The elevators are simple and safe, with a double safety device against accident. They are thoroughly inspected and are operated by competent men. We believe you will like this store as we have made it.

If you have any suggestion to make that would tend to make this a still better store to shop at, we would be pleased to hear it. If not convenient to come and tell us write us. We will be glad to hear from you. It is our wish to make this Montreal's best store.

New Stocks of Dress Goods

Keep Coming In

Stores are very much like men: ambitious. Some are much more optimistic than others. Some debate where increased trade is to come from; others multiply the stocks and multiply the reasons why those who have accorded their support in the past may continue their patronage in the future, and attract the interest—a test order from those unaware of the advantages accruing to its patrons. The Store of Satisfaction's Dress Goods department is a shining example of the latter class—the store that sets the pace in assortments, as well as in values.

A growing stock of Dress Goods, reflecting the sanctioned fabrics for Fall wear. Observe these pace-setting values. Close range inspections are invited to-morrow.

Plain cloths are to have their day. In anticipation of an unusual demand we've procured an unusually liberal supply of plain Broadcloths, Venetians, Ladies' Cloth, etc. The selection of shades will interest you—the variety of weaves will decide nine persons out of every ten who look, to buy.

Lightweight Broadcloths, for street wear and carriage costumes, evening wraps, etc. Some of the shades: Grays in the silvery tones, smoke gray, plain dark garnet, blues in the new soft dull shades of electric and china, greens of the olive tints, beige, pale blue, lavender, browns and navy, in newest tones, etc. Price hints:
