Vast Wealth In Labrador Dr. Hare Tells Association

"Quebec is hamstrung by the people's ignorance of the country and its wealth. The original nucleus of Quebec grew up around the rivers where our pioneer fathers found them," Professor F. Kenneth Hare, chairman of McGill University's Geography Department, told members of the Westmount Municipal Association at their spring meeting in Victoria Hall, Tuesday evening.

"My chief impression of Canadians is their unwillingness to take themselves seriously or to take adequate notice of their nation," he stated.

Describing the northern part of the Province as "savage country" he pointed out that the populated part of the province lies to the south but the real wealth is in the interior to the north.

"This is true of the whole Dominion but particularly so of the Province of Quebec."

The size of Quebec is fantastic, almost as large as the area of Europe west of the iron curtain, he stated. North to south it is almost the distance of Montreal to Miami.

The west coast of Hudson Bay is inaccessible to man and cannot be approached because of the continual ice blockade.

Population in the north, Mr. Hare said, is Eskimo, ministered to by the Moravians who are virtually independent from Canada and whose word is the law of the land.

Further south the unique Labradorians are looked after by the celebrated Grenfell Missions. On the north shore of the St. Lawrence between Lake St. John and the Strait of Belle Isle are trappers and fishermen.

"The interior is as unyielding as a stone, yet, paradoxically, it is the greatest potential source of wealth," he said. Numerous discoveries of iron ore have been discovered in the vicinity of Fort Chimo.

Increased demand for steel on the world market has led to the building of a railroad.

Dr. Hare said that we should learn from this vast region that no country can afford to ignore itself.

"We have been living in a fragment of the country while oblivious of the rest," he concluded.

The speaker was introduced by Ray Caron and thanked by Hugh Seybold.

Westm't Dips The Reserve To Pay Municipal Cost Hike

Total expenditure of the City of Westmount during 1951 was $2,397,900, exclusive of school taxes, Mayor J. S. Cameron stated in a written report at the spring meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association.

This represented an increase of $154,741 or 6.9 per cent over the previous year, he stated. The increase was caused by a substantial raise in wages, higher material and equipment costs and increased debt charges.

"It was necessary to transfer $66,200 from the city's reserves as revenue from taxes was not high enough to meet municipal needs," he said.

Of the increased cost, $24,059 represented debt charges for debentures sold during the year to finance capital work. Mayor Cameron said. Cost of maintaining winter roads was $28,300.

He stated that total departmental cost rose $95,550 and that wage increases to police and firemen and manual workers were $128,300.

The important capital works listed in the mayor's report were: Widening and repaving Sherbrooke street between Roslyn and Clarke avenues.

Repaving and straightening Cote St. Antoine road between Clarke avenue and Stanton street;

Widening and repaving Lansdowne avenue between Sherbrooke and Western streets;

The paving—the southern half of Summit Circle;

Resurfacing—Greene avenue between Prospect and St. Antoine streets;

Completion of the Olivier avenue electric power sub-station which increased the city's capacity to supply electric power from 8,000 to 12,000 kilowatts with a reserve of 7,600 kilowatts;

Enlarging and remodelling the Stanton street police and fire station which provided complete garage, office and service accommodation for both departments.

Yearly Barn Dance Huge Success At Y

To the call of Do-Si-Do and A-la-Mond-Left, members and friends of the Westmount "Y", square danced the hours away on Saturday, May 3.

Nearly 100 couples crowded the Gymnasium as callers Howard Fairburn, Jay Conn, Bill Hopper and Bob Hill kept the gang moving in time to the music of Jack Snyder.

The Gymnasium was suitably decorated with special "farm effect" posters and drawings. Everybody had a hunk of straw in their mouth and jeans with bright coloured shirts were the order of the day for dress. It was the heart of Westmount but the integrity of the old West prevailed.

The proceeds from this Y.M.C.A. affair will be used to provide much needed new equipment for the Club, and a substantial donation will be given to the Y.M.C.A. World Service Fund.

Tuesday, May 6, the Square Dance Club met for their final dance of the season. Howard Fairburn reminded the members that during the summer months it was hoped to hold a few outdoor Square Dances. Members were encouraged to watch the Notice Board for further information.

Edward C. Harper Promoted To Lt.

Firemen Edward C. Harper, of 4384 Sherbrooke street, Westmount, has been promoted to Fire Lieutenant for the Westmount Fire Department, Fire Chief W. Cobb announced this week. Lt. Harper received his promotion on May 1.

Born Dec. 25, 1912, Lt. Harper started his career with the Westmount Fire Department May 29, 1932. He was granted a leave of absence by the City on March 30, 1950, and joined the Canadian Provost Corps. He received the rank of Regimental Sgt. Major (WO1) while stationed overseas.

Lt. Harper was mentioned in dispatches for bravery and was decorated by the U.S. Government.

His father, the late Basil P. Harper, who served with the Westmount Fire Department for 29 years.

Suffers Slight Injury By Car

Philippe Hudon, age 3, of 301 Grosvenor avenue, suffered a bleeding nose and a large bump on the left side of his forehead when struck by a car at the north corner of Grosvenor avenue and St. Catherine street.

The car, driven by L. Weiner, 48, of the Town of Mount Royal, apparently struck the child when he had wandered off the curb. He was struck by the right front fender and knocked to the street. Weiner told police that he had not seen the child.

Young Hudon was taken to the Homoeopathic Hospital where he was treated for his injuries and held for observation.

Youngster Buys Matches; Firemen Busy 2 Hours

Montreal and Westmount firemen joined forces Sunday to battle burning trees and underbrush in the biggest grassfire the district has seen this year.

Situated at the rear of 3300 Ridgewood Avenue, the two hour blaze was opposite the Forest Hill apartments.

An official said, the flames, given a chance to spread, would quickly engulf buildings under construction at Forest Hills and definitely endanger already inhabited apartments.

A huge crowd watched firemen pour a steady three-stream barrage at the growing inferno.

The fire was started by a seven and one half year old boy, an investigation revealed. The frightened youngster also confessed to three other fires, all minor ones, in the vicinity of the apartments.

Westmount Recreation Dept. News

IV Why Does The Municipality Conduct Recreation?

The experience of several decades has yielded a number of reasons for the intervention of local governments in recreation.

1. It is not financially practical for private organizations or individuals to acquire the areas and facilities necessary for the recreation of the public as a whole.

2. Difficult problems such as the pollution of streams, lakes and ocean beaches can be dealt with only by governmental action. Similarly the recovery for the people of waterfronts, areas suitable for active recreation and lands of striking scenic interest can be achieved only through the government. The resources available to the government for these purposes include not simply funds but also such legal powers as the right of eminent domain.

3. Because of the contribution of recreation to health and good citizenship, court decisions have held this activity to be an essential governmental function.

4. Municipal recreation is inclusive and democratic. It serves both sexes, all age groups, people of all shades of economic and social opinion and persons of varying colors, national origin and religious preference, and the rich as well as the poor.

5. Government recreation facilities are permanent. Owned by the public and dedicated to public use, they usually continue in perpetuity as enterprises for all the people. Private properties are subject to change of ownership and function. In London, England, is an area that has served as a public playground for one thousand years.

6. Municipal recreation is relatively inexpensive. Just as public schools generally can educate children at much less cost than private institutions, so public recreation is much less expensive than private. It costs only a matter of a few cents when an individual makes use of the playground or other recreation facility. It was estimated before the war by the National Recreation Association that current minimum park and recreation services need not exceed the cost of $3.00 per capita annually. Postwar costs will raise this standard somewhat higher.

More important is the fact that adequate public recreation facilities together with other proper community facilities, such as housing, save the taxpayers much greater amounts in other directions. A recent study in Newark, N.J., estimated that its slum areas were costing the city fourteen million dollars annually; that the cost of municipal services in slum areas was 3.2 times as great as the municipal revenue produced from these areas. In other high rent residential areas the reverse was true — revenues were found to be 2.2 times greater than the city's expenditures. Rehabilitation of slum areas reduced the number of cases of tuberculosis and other communicable diseases, fire loss, delinquency, and similar expenditures. Studies in other cities confirm the figures for Newark.

For these reasons recreation has come to be ranked with other well-established municipal recreation activities. It is as much a legitimate municipal function as schools, police and fire protection, sanitation and health, or libraries.

It's the moth-eaten looking boulevard on Park Place, between St. Catherine Street and Academy Road. With little more than twenty-five feet of grass left, this area needs re-sodding very badly. How about it, city fathers?

High Cost Of Travel Bars Uk Immigrants, Rotary Told

The only reason British people are not coming to Canada in greater numbers is the high cost of transportation to this country, H. Gurton, Canadian manager of the British Dominions Emigration Society, told the Westmount Rotary Club yesterday.

He said the story that United Kingdom citizens don't want to leave their homeland was not true.

A recent public opinion poll showed that several millions want to emigrate to the Dominions, he stated.

"The currency export regulations are not a real barrier."

Currency regulations in Britain are much freer than in almost any other European nation, he stated. As much as $10,000 may be brought out of the country to buy equipment.

"Only two per cent of those who want to emigrate have this much money," he said. "It is the high cost of transportation that stops them."

He said a British family can travel to Australia for one-fifth the cost to Canada because of the Australian government subsidy.

"Recently a man with a family of 12 told me he had decided to go to Australia instead of Canada. The total cost of his family's transportation was only $150 and there was a job waiting and a housing guarantee."

The Canadian government does provide some assistance in a repayment plan started last year, but he said it is good for workers only. Less than 3,000 Britons used the plan last year as compared to 17,000 other Europeans.

Australia is using the Empire Settlement Act to subsidize its immigration policy, but Canada is not. Under this legislation the U.K. government will share the most of transportation on a 50-50 basis with any Dominion that requests it.

The proportion of British to all immigrants has sunk to 16 per cent, the lowest in any year since the records were first kept, he said.

Mr. Gurton pointed out that Australia received nearly three times as many British immigrants in 1951 as did Canada—107,234 to 34,294.

He said the last great movement of immigrants from 1900 to 1920 saw 3,750,000 new people flow into Canada of which 45 per cent were British and 24 per cent were of British origin.

LEGION MEETING

The Northern Electric Branch of the Canadian Legion will hold its monthly meeting at the Legion Memorial Hall on Mountain Street on Friday, May 9. The president, Cyril Tranter, will be in the chair.

Hansel, Gretel Performance To Be Repeated

The Children's Theatre, Montreal's talented juveniles directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, whose stage and radio performances have delighted Montreal audiences for the past number of years, have come to the conclusion of a highly successful season with the presentation of Hansel and Gretel—a performance which will be repeated this Saturday.

Carol Hamill and Joseph Oliver were perfectly cast as the two children. Though very young, they played the parts like veterans, with all the charm and sympathy needed for the two lost children.

David Luck and Phyllis Gioson as the parents did a splendid job, and it may be remembered that these two youngsters played the parts of Hansel and Gretel in the Children's Theatre production six years ago. Denyse Leroux made a charming pink fairy, her grace and simplicity and her beautiful voice endeared her to the youthful audience. Lola Kipnis as the witch invested the role with the venomous qualities expected of the character.

June Steinberg was a delightful Pixie, Ruth Crites a picturesque Hope, Mona Kreaden got plenty of comedy out of the role of the Mad Rabbit, Yamila Pachl a graceful Butterfly Fairy, Carol Cohen a sweet teddy bear, Emily Bambiger made a splendid Black Dwarf, and Sandra Wittenberg and Doreen Blackman were the two delightful fairies of the forest.

One of the delightful scenes of the play was the appearance of the Witchlets whose evil spells and witch's dances held the young audience spellbound.

It was a very interesting new version of this old time fairy story, adapted by Jean Low, and each and everyone of the players, including Little Linda Raff who gave the curtain speech, are deserving of congratulations for a splendid show.

This Saturday, the new members of the cast will include Beverley Abelson, Donald Wright, Ellen Chinks and Wilma Golstein, and this will conclude successful season.

National Council Women President Speaks Sunday

Mrs. A. Turner Bone, President of the National Council of Women, will give the address next Sunday morning at Rosedale United Church for the Annual Service of the Rosedale Girl Guide Company and Brownie Packs. Mrs. Turner Bone is a graduate of McGill University who has been very active in leadership in various community organizations and is now giving fine direction to the work of the National Council. She has just returned from a speaking tour of the Niagara Peninsula.

Weather permitting the girls of the Guide Company and Brownie Packs will assemble on the church lawn not later than 10:15 a.m. In case of rain the meeting place will be the vestibule of the church hall.

At the evening service Dr. Dewey will preach on "A Prophet of God's Love."

Mrs. Shields will be soloist for the service and the choir will also sing an appropriate anthem.

Barbara Wilson Elected President Of Hi-Y Club

Barbara Wilson, a grade 10 student at Westmount High School was elected president of the Westmount Girls "Hi-Y" Club for the 1952-53 season. Barbara was vice-president of the Club during the past year. Elections were held at the Club's meeting this week.

Other members of the executive include the following: Janet Buzzell, secretary and Judy Cornell who has been treasurer for the last half of the year was re-elected to the financial post.

The outgoing executive are as follows: Patsy Smith, treasurer, Bonnie Lawson and Judy Cornell, treasurer and Elizabeth Alexander, secretary. This executive committee were to the fore in club activities during the year. Anne Clayton was elected club chaplain for next year, replacing Margaret Cragge who was an indefatigable worker in Hi-Y this year.

The reports of the executive and committees show that the Club had a most interesting and worthwhile year. The Club's program included service projects, social activities and speakers and discussions.

Among the service projects were the Christmas party for some family welfare children, ushering at the Alumnae Association play, and serving at a number of dinners and banquets at the Y.M.C.A. In co-operation with the Boys Hi-Y, the Club sponsored the Westmount Boys and Girls Hobby Show, held during the Easter holidays, and the Halloween party held for younger children at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. In conjunction with the Boys Hi-Y and the Westmount Rotary, the Club sponsored the Safety Driving Campaign at Westmount High School. The Club also sponsored their annual Sadie Hawkins dance on February 29.

One of the highlights of the year's program was the "parent youth dinner and panel discussion".

Not Serious If Tots Tell Fibs

If a small child becomes a little careless with the truth and is not too respectful of other people's property rights, he is not necessarily showing signs of a future criminal career. He may tell untruths because he doesn't understand adult valuations or because he has need of his daydreams to compensate for lack of child companionship or because he does not feel secure in his parent's love and affection. If Junior helps himself to Daddy's belongings or his sister takes Mummy's lipstick from her purse, it may be because the children feel that they have need of these things at the moment. If the older members of the family respect a child's ownership of his toys and clothes, it will help him to realize that other people's property may not be commandeered without permission.

Rheumatic Fever With Youngsters

Rheumatic fever is responsible for a large percentage of heart disease among children and its after-effects cause more disabilities among school children than any other disease. Rheumatic fever in early life often accounts for heart troubles later on. When a youngster is listless, pale and complains of pains in his joints he should have a thorough medical so that early treatment may prevent the disease from developing if it has already been contracted.

The Smithsonian mineral collection is probably the largest and most complete in the world.

Stuttering May Be Controlled

The youngsters who stutters may be suffering from nervous tension which upsets the delicate muscular balance he needs for controlled speech. Occasionally stuttering is caused by forcing a left-hand child to use his right hand. Fatigue may also contribute. Regular bedtime hours and conditions under which the child can have adequate relaxation will help to control the nervousness. By proper training he may be helped to control his stuttering.

Ready Response To "Army" Appeal, Seek $165,000

Mrs. Roger Cordeau has been appointed Co-Chairman with Mrs. W. Hayden Bryant, of the Westmount East District, in the Red Shield Appeal of The Salvation Army now in progress with an objective of $165,000.

A thousand footsoldiers of the Salvation Army, many of them temporarily enrolled for service to help in the annual Red Shield Appeal because they are enthusiastic supporters of the splendid work done by the "Army" in helping the sick, poor and needy, are reporting a ready response in their house-to-house canvass.

The objective for this year, as for the past three years, is $165,000, the minimum needed to carry on the 24 services which the Salvationists render irrespective of creed, sex or nationality to all who need it. To date the amount reported is $75,681, which is approximately one half of the objective. The campaign runs until May 15, and it is hoped that during the next few days there will be a big jump in the returns, as Salvationists are tireless workers, and prefer to seek to reach their quotas before reporting to campaign headquarters through their district chairmen.

Special Names

Returns from the Special Names and Industrial Committees started the campaign off on May 1, with a total of $44,110, including a special donation for a substantial amount from Mayor Camillien Houde, O.B.E., when he formally inaugurated the two weeks' Appeal, and commended the Red Shield to all citizens on the Island. C. F. Harrington, general chairman of the campaign, with Mrs. John G. Harper, chairman of the Women's Division, are confident that the objective will be reached, but they are also hopeful that a considerable sum in addition will be donated, so that it can be added to the special fund being built up for the expansion of the Eventide Home for aged men and women. Present accommodation is for 50 old men, and the ambition of the Salvation Army is to provide quarters for another 100 men and women, as well as 16 apartments in four cottages specially built for aged married couples. A central dining hall and administration block are also needed.

The nucleus of a building fund has been provided through a legacy of $160,000 by the late Harry S. Norton, and while no appeal for capital funds is now being made, many people are increasing their regular contributions to the Salvation Army knowing that any money not needed for their daily charitable services will go towards this building fund.

Contributions are being received at the rate of about $9,000 per day, which is slightly lower than the average last year, and Sr. Major T. L. Carswell, campaign director, is confident the tempo will increase during the last week of the campaign. Every canvasser gives a temporary receipt to contributors, and an official receipt for income tax purposes will be sent from headquarters later.

The Salvation Army operates 24 services under the Red Shield — it stands ready at all times with understanding heart and human touch to give aid to the needy, seeking to re-establish men and women through hostels, centres, hospitals and welfare bureaus, whenever and wherever required. The slogan of the Red Shield Appeal is "Give — with Heart and Hand" and it fittingly exemplifies just what the Salvation Army has been doing during the 70 years it has been in existence in Canada.

Until the first British settlers were established in 1788 Australia was inhabited only by descendants of the stone age natives.

Legion Concert Set For May 12

The Annual Concert of the Canadian Legion Choir will be held in the auditorium of the Legion Memorial Building, 1191 Mountain Street on Monday, May 12, at 8.15 p.m.

This Choir was organized three and a half years ago for the purpose of entertaining veterans in hospitals, and to support any worthy cause directed by the Canadian Legion. In this respect they have made frequent appearances at the veterans hospitals at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Queen Mary Road and St. Hyacinthe with full concerts in their auditoriums, outdoor concerts, as well as singing carols in the wards of these hospitals and in charitable institutions at Christmas time. Annually, they participate in VE-Day commemoration services in Notre Dame de Grace churches sponsored by the N.D.G. Branch of the Legion, as well as taking part in Remembrance Day services at the cenotaphs at Dominion Square and in the Town of Mount Royal. Last year they held a concert in the Legion Memorial Building, donating the entire proceeds to the Montreal Hospital Visiting Committee of the Legion. It is to further the work of the Choir among hospitalized veterans that this concert is being held. The Choir is proud to have in its ranks this season, several singers from other musical groups in the city, who are also interested in the work being done by this Choir, and making a total of approximately 80 voices.

Some months ago I handed out a tip as to how one might antique an old picture frame. This must have aroused considerable interest for the matter has continued to pop up from time to time. It is a pleasure to repeat the formula.

TO ANTIQUE A PICTURE FRAME

Old picture frames, heavily ornamented with deep carvings are ideal for the purpose. In applying the glazing fluid the trick is to brush it on evenly, then wipe off immediately by working from the centre towards the edges, or removing it from the high points of the carvings. A light coat of varnish gives the finishing touch.

BEDROOM SCREEN

We have a new neighbour on our street. He turns out to be quite handy with tools. His first job after moving in was to construct a fine bedroom screen using B.C. Fir Plywood, and when finished he started to construct a second one for his sister, but this time he utilized scrap wood from packing cases. It is a question which is most attractive.

BIRD FEEDING STATION

A naturalist friend has constructed a bird feeding station from an old piano seat, the top being of glass to permit full view of the birds. An old coffee table might serve the same purpose. He endeavoured to impress upon his visitors that the closed end should always face the prevailing wind as this prevented the feed from being blown away.

STRETCHER FOR SOCKS

Necessity is the mother of invention, so my friend George turned a coat-hanger into a stretcher for socks. To make it more attractive he gave it a coat of enamel by simply dipping it in the can and then hanging it up to dry.

The Desert Threat

Canadians Can Take Lesson From Southwestern States

Canadians, who are killing the chances of coming millions by wrong cropping, should visit the desert area of the southwestern states to see what fresh water means to millions of people whose livelihoods depend upon irrigation and whose future is threatened by a decreasing underground water supply.

The disaster that nature worked in the deserts of America is being extended to the greater part of the continent by cropping methods that create soil depletion and erosion.

Man is working miracles in reclaiming the desert by irrigation and is threatening underground water.

In Canada most areas that have sufficient snow and rain to produce good crops on conserved soils can assure a sufficient continuing underground water supply by forest and soil conservation in each watershed. In the arid areas profitable irrigation is possible without decreasing the volume of wasted flood water.

Adequate soil and forest conservation must be undertaken now or never. Despite our achievements, history will record us as one of the most greedy, wasteful and stupid generations of men if we fail to conserve and improve our soil, forests and water supply. Our own immediate interest demands that we save by producing greater yields of conserving crops.

Back To Education

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor,

As I said some time ago, Christianity demands a place in our schools because of the very nature of education, for education is, in part, the handing on to the next generation of the things which we value, and Christianity is one of them.

In the second place Christianity claims a place in our schools because of the very nature of Christianity. I can use this argument because I am addressing myself to Christians or to those who admit the claim of Christianity upon themselves.

Christianity does not address itself to a part of man, or to some of every man, woman and child in it. It is the original totalitarianism. That is part of the reason why it cannot come to terms with either Nazism or Communism.

So in particular Christianity claims a place in our schools where our children are being offered a formal training in that selection of materials which we consider essential to the good life in the twentieth century. It has a place in school because it has a place in life; further it claims the most important place in school because it claims the most important place in life — "Thou shalt have no other gods but Me;" no other thing or person shall stand first in the life of the Christian.

Christianity claims the first place in school because the school of the community is the one place where all the children are to be found.

If I may digress slightly I should say at this point that the schools are claiming more and more of our children's time and loyalty. The school rather than the Church is becoming the centre of the community. The school provides all that the mind of the child requires; it provides for his relaxation as well as his work. I hear of head-masters who will not allow their children to join any club or engage in any activity except those connected with the school. Further the school buildings which are the property of the whole community are largely used by the community after school hours, for Home and School Associations, for Adult Education, for hobbies such as woodcraft and homecraft, for physical training, dancing and many other things. There was a day when the Church provided some of those recreations for its members, but the school which provides for the community has a tremendous advantage. Then from the very nature of Christianity it must claim its place in that setting. If the Church is to be excluded from the school it will not long have a constituency to work with.

That, however, is a digression. It is the kind of claim on the part of the Church which the world may describe as purely selfish. There is another and perhaps more valid reason why Christianity from its very nature claims a place in the school. In this world

Final Plans Made For Sodality Day Holy Hour Service

At the World Sodality Day celebrations in St. Thomas More Church, Sunday at 8 p.m., the program will begin with the recitation of the Rosary, led by Father George Thoms, of St. Malachy's Parish, director of the Union of Parish Sodalties.

During the Holy Hour Miss Rita McGowan, president of the Union, will crown a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary, assisted by Frances MacDonald, vice-president, and Miss Shirley Gillies, recording secretary.

Highlights of the annual event, expected to attract more than 1,000 young women from Montreal, several other Quebec cities, Burlington, Vt., and Malone, N.Y., will be a talk by Father Russell Breen, chaplain of Cardinal Newman High School, and assistant of relativism and uncertainty Christianity offers an absolute standard of values. I defined education as the process of handing on the things of value to the next generation along with the ability to stand back and criticize. But what is to be the standard of criticism? As a matter of fact it was Christianity which in the past built up most of the values which we now hand on. But Christianity is needed, officially, as it were, with an assured place in the school, so that the growing generation may know that which has helped to shape its culture, and may also see how far past generations have failed to approach the patterns. It may be said that the individual teacher does that. It is true that some of them do, and we thank God for it, but it is also true the teachers are a part of the community, with exactly the same standards as the community. They need the absolute standard as much as the children, both for direction and protection.

Dual-purpose models are plentiful in some collections, and include reversible coats as well as skirts which can be turned inside out.

chaplain of the Newman Club of McGill University, and solemn Benediction by His Excellency Bishop Lawrence P. Whelan, under whose patronage the celebrations are being held.

General chairman of the day is Miss Joan McMurdo.

Westmount Baptist

Family Day will be observed in Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday. At the morning service gifts of Spring blossoms will be available for the children to present to their Mothers. The theme of the address will be: "The Solitary in Families." "Behold how good and how beautiful it is to see brethren dwell together in unity." A happy family makes a happy home and happy homes make a happy nation.

At the evening service Dr. J. A. Johnston will have as his Subject, "A Ladder up to Heaven." Jesus came down to earth before He went up to heaven. The Message of Grace demands of us that we too "Come down to Earth" to find the utter reality of the Grace of God. "There is a way for men to rise to that Sublime Abode, An offering and a sacrifice, A Holy Spirit's energies, An Advocate with God." These Services attract large numbers of Young People. Visitors are welcomed.

the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Does Spirit enter dust, and lose therein the divine nature and omnipotence." Does Mind, God, enter matter to become there a mortal sinner, animated by the breath of God? In this narrative, the validity of matter is opposed, not the validity of Spirit or Spirit's creations. The offspring of God start not from matter or ephemeral dust. They are in and of Spirit, divine Mind, and so forever continue."

By E. GEORGE COCHRANE

(Assistant Principal, Van Horne School)

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE I.Q. (Part II)

Psychologists themselves cannot agree on the question of just how valid intelligence testing is. The general feeling appears to be that the tests can be of great value to educationists but that they are by no means an infallible panacea for all the ills of contemporary public education. The tests do indicate a child's degree of mental capacity. But it is ridiculous to state that a pupil who scores 100 on a group intelligence test possesses greater ability than the child who scores 95. Intelligence tests, particularly group intelligence tests, do not measure mental ability as finely as that.

What do the tests measure? What can be inferred from the measurements? Those, as Dr. J. W. Bridges has aptly pointed out in his book "Psychology — Normal and Abnormal," are the two questions which must be answered in the evaluation of intelligence tests.

The answer to the first question is the obvious one: the tests measure just what they measure. To quote Dr. Bridges, "The test for 'repeating digits backwards' measures ability to repeat digits backwards. Similarly, 'the penny counting test' measures ability to count pennies; 'the comprehension test,' ability to comprehend sentences; the 'weights test,' ability to arrange weights in order, and so forth."

Many people, particularly those who discover that they or their offspring have high I.Q.'s, are not satisfied with that answer and are prone to believe that the intelligence test measures innate ability. In the opinion of many psychologists it does no such thing. The tests measure abilities which have been acquired, not those which are innate.

Values of Test

What, then, are the values of the intelligence test? Let me again quote Dr. Bridges to answer that question: "The tests measure intellect and skill rather than native intelligence. Furthermore, since intellect and skill are roughly indicative of educational and social development, the tests may be regarded as measures of social and educational status. In sociology the term 'culture' is used in a broad sense to include education, training, customs and all social traditions. It may thus be said that intelligence tests are rough measures of general cultural status. A person's cultural status is obviously the joint product of many causes, partly hereditary but chiefly environmental. It might, therefore, be better to speak of 'general ability tests' and 'special ability tests' instead of 'intelligence tests' and 'aptitude tests.'"

Of what use is the information gleaned from intelligence tests in our schools? The tests are extremely valuable in selecting children for special classes, both for the above-average and below average pupils. They are also useful as a guide, but only as a guide, in determining whether or not to promote a pupil from one grade to the next. Lastly, the tests are of some value in the realm of vocational guidance.

Let me conclude this two-part article on intelligence tests by reiterating that the tests are not infallible, that they are only a guide, that they are not worthy of the blind worship with which they are frequently cursed. Whether a child is successful — using that word in its broadest sense — in school depends upon many more important factors than his Intelligence Quotient.

"I put away my hard-earned money"

This young bank depositor recently wrote to his bank manager:

"I made a goal of $1,000 for this year. It is two years since I opened the account with two dollars. I owe thanks to you that I put away my hard-earned money where it will benefit me... I do not wish to touch it for the time being."

Building up a bank account means work and sacrifice. But Canadians know the value of having savings handy in time of opportunity or need: they maintain 7½ million savings accounts in the chartered banks—almost twice as many as ten years ago. At the same time bank staffs have almost doubled. That, and higher wages, have increased bank payrolls almost three times.

More people use the banks, more people work for the banks than ever before.

"THE CLOUDED YELLOW"

TODAY and SATURDAY

"TOO YOUNG TO KISS" with Van Johnson and June Allyson. Also "THE PEOPLE AGAINST O'HARA" with Pat O'Brien and Diana Lynn.

The dramatic story of a big city detective, sans hokum and loaded with frank realism, will take over the screen of the Monkland Theatre when Paramount's "Detective Story" opens on Saturday till Tuesday. Based on the sensational Sidney Kingsley stage hit that ran on Broadway for almost two years, this William Wyler production spots Kirk Douglas, Eleanor Parker, William Bendix and Cathy O'Donnell at the head of a large cast.

Hailed by advance audiences as an unusual and unforgettable thriller that would rate among the top films of any year, "Detective Story" dedicates itself to the proposition that police officers are not callous and insensitive. In the day's work they face emotional problems, tormenting dilemmas and psychological crises — along with the threat of sudden death. These hazards, and more, are framed in a tense, high voltage story tracing twelve turbulent hours in and around a New York station house.

Against the backdrop of big city crime, the terrible conflict tormenting Detective Jim McLeod is played out. McLeod, portrayed by Douglas, is a relentless officer who hates crime and criminals, admits no middle ground between good and bad. While desperately trying to pin a conviction on an unlicensed doctor who victimizes girls in trouble, he uncovers an appalling fact: His wife has had professional dealings with the unsavory medico while keeping company with a small time gambler.

Torn between love for his wife and outrage at her guilt, McLeod resorts to violence in an episode that threatens his marriage and his job, then learns the folly of an uncompromising moral code in the explosive climax.

The millions who cheer "The Harlem Globetrotters" on the basketball courts of the world will thrill to that fabulous basketball team's razzle-dazzle on the screen in the Columbia picture which opens Saturday till Tuesday at the Monkland Theatre. The new film features Thomas Gomez, Dorothy Dandridge, Bill Walker and the Original Harlem Globetrotters in a story which shows the miracle men of sports at their best.

Musical and British Drama Start Sunday at Westmount

Gus Kahn, who ranks with George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, and Cole Porter as one of the great popular music writers, joins these fabulous tunesmiths with a film tribute to his own career. Now it is Warner Bros. again who are bringing "I'll See You in My Dreams" to the Westmount Theatre on Sunday.

Starring Danny Thomas as the man who penned 800 tunes during an era of Ziegfield musicals, gay cabarets and the Broadway of 25 years ago — all excellent material for motion picture treatment — the film also has the popular Doris Day as Gus Kahn's wife and partner, Frank Lovejoy as his collaborator and Patrice Wymore as a musical comedy star.

The film traces Kahn's life from the day he walks into a music publishing house with a set of lyrics, to get only as far as the secretary who promptly adds the melody herself. The song, "I Wish I Had a Girl," is a smash, and it's still on the list of alltime big sellers. Played by Doris Day, this is the girl he marries and Gus Kahn goes on to reach the heights of American songwriting with the score of the biggest Ziegfield production of the day.

A partial list of Gus Kahn tunes includes "Memories," "Carolina in the Morning," "My Buddy," "Making Whoopee," and "Yes Sir, That's My Baby."

"I'll See You in My Dreams" was directed by Michael Curtiz, one of Hollywood's top megaphones who did "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and "This Is The Army,"

Belmont Park

Benny Louis, whose rise to fame in Canada as the leader of one of the finest dance bands in the country—winner of seven different popularity polls—began when he first came to Belmont Park in 1946. Since that time, Benny Louis and his orchestra have climbed the heights. He comes from Toronto's swank Casa Loma to fulfill his Park engagement and will return there at the end of the season.

Famed Orchestra For Dancers At Belmont Park

The glistening newly-painted gates of Belmont Park opened last week-end to usher in the new season of fun and games at that popular amusement park.

Official opening however, takes place Saturday, May 10, and it will see the return to the Park of one of the finest dance band groups in the country when slim modest young Benny Louis returns to the scene of his first triumphs.

Interviewed in Toronto where he is currently finishing off his winter season at the swank Casa Loma, Benny Louis expressed considerable delight at the return engagement here.

"I'll never forget that rainy miserable night in Oshawa when Belmont Park's managing director, Rex Billings made a special trip to see our band which had just been formed," Benny recalls. "That was back in 1946, and we didn't know whether he would like our music or not. But he did, and we came to the Park to play our first big-league engagement. He was good enough to say then that he thought the band would prove to be one of the best in Canada, and he may be interested to know that in seven High School and University polls, the students backed him up by picking our band as their favorite one. The Toronto press seems to have gone along with that, for they selected us to play for the annual By-Line Ball."

St. Leo's Pee Wee Boxers Hold Slugfest Tonight

ACADEMY BOXING NIGHT

At 8.30 p.m. this evening, St. Leo's School hall, will be the scene of the Annual Junior & Pee Wee Boxing Show. Close to thirty bouts will feature this year's pugilistic parade. Tickets for the show, may be procured at the Clarke avenue entrance of the school. Although ticket sales in the school has been fairly brisk, there are plenty of seats left for those who decide to come at the last moment.

Coach Andy McGillis, has the following bouts lined up for presentation to local boxing fans, this evening.

Peter Grant, has been nominated as the first winner of the John Rogers Memorial Trophy, to be awarded annually to the St. Leo's athlete who best personifies sportsmanship and school spirit. Peter a hard-working member of the school's 1952 Senior A Hockey squad was a good choice. It is true Pete did not burn up the league in a scoring way but it was not for the want of trying, as he showed a fine spirit on the ice and off.

Karl Hurley will have to miss his place in the boxing show this evening. Kid Karl was a casualty, the other day in a Ping Pong game. It is a tough break for Karl who survived a boxing season, only to fall victim to a ping pong game. Ray Losito, St. Leo's top athlete, looks to be headed for Colorado College next Autumn. Ray expects to graduate this term and St. Leo's will lose one of its finest athletes and sportsman.

St. Leo's little leaguers, the Indians will participate in the opening of Little League Baseball on Saturday, May 17th at the Town of Mt. Royal. This opening will feature the usual parade, band music, flag raising and baseball games. The parade will start at 1.00 p.m. sharp from the corner of Cote des Neiges and Laird Blvd, and will proceed from there to the Town Park, where the first game will get underway at 2.00 p.m. Supporter of St. Leo's and Little League Baseball will be made welcome at these opening day ceremonies.

Y.M.C.A. Notes

May 15 is the date set by the Y.M.C.A. Membership Committee for the start of the Summer Membership privilege at Westmount Y.M.C.A. For further information call GL-3916.

The "Y" Learn-to-Swim campaign shows a record enrollment. With the first course nearly completed and the second course with capacity enrollment, the instructors predict that all swimmers are making excellent progress.

The Residence at 4585 Sherbrooke Street is enjoying "full house". There one may find in Residence, artists, salesmen, a Captain for one of the better known Air Lines. Mrs. Tilley Mays, or "Aunt Tilly" as the boys call her, holds sway over her domain and is a second mother to all the residents.

The Westmount Y.M.C.A. Building has been used extensively for swimming by Members of the new Northmount Branch of the Y.M.C.A. These boys from Ville St. Laurent visit our Branch for their weekly swim period.

Camps Kanawana and Perrot are rapidly filling up, many former campers have sent in their applications. All boys who want to go to these Y.M.C.A. camps should get their applications in today. Call the Y.M.C.A. if you need information.

Members and friends said goodbye to C. A. Buckley, Physical Director for the past two years at the Westmount "Y". Mr. Buckley left the local "Y" to take on responsibility as Physical Director at the Halifax Y.M.C.A. We wish him good luck in his new job.

Roland Asselin, the dynamic coach of the Westmount Y.M.C.A. Fencing Club, travels to Toronto soon to participate in the Eastern Canada Fencing finals. If he places in these tests, he is a sure bet for the Olympics.

The stalwarts are still meeting on Monday, Wednesday and Friday to vie for honours on the Hand-Ball courts. On Tuesday and Thursday the exercise classes are still active. Rumour has it that in the absence of the Physical Director, the Executive Secretary plans to lead this group. Members are invited to join the group for this show.

Capture the Flag

On Saturday at 11:30 a.m. a hike to the Mount Royal will begin to prepare for the game of "Capture the Flag". All members are invited. Bring your lunch.

Girls Hi-Y

The girls Hi-Y club will hold their installation of officers tea tomorrow afternoon at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. All parents and teachers are cordially invited to attend.
