World News In Brief

Taipei, Formosa.—(P)—The official news agency of the Chinese Nationalist defence ministry said today that China's Premier Chen Kai-shek will lead a delegation to Moscow soon for instructions on purging "Beria elements" of the Chinese Communist party.

Timmins, Ont.—(P)—Police said more than 100 striking miners hurried into the Brown Reef Gold Mines shortly after dawn today, attacked 25 workers who had crossed picket lines and carried them outside the gates. Two workers were seriously hurt. The miners were reported to have beaten up the workers, carried them to the gates and tossed them into the street.

Wilmington, Del.—(P)—The 3,179-ton tanker Pan Georgia burst into flames Thursday night as its crew completed unloading 110,000 gallons of high octane gasoline and fuel oil at a Delaware river dock here. One crew member, Ray Ott, a second assistant engineer from Galveston, Tex., is missing and presumed dead.

British Freighter Escapes Damage

Tokyo.—(P)—The United States navy said today a "single shell, bomb or mine" exploded today near a 3,000-ton British freighter in the Japan sea but the ship was undamaged.

U.S. warships were manoeuvring in the area, the navy said.

The navy said the freighter, the San Eduardo, was heading from Japan to the Red Chinese port of Chinwangtao.

Earlier, the Japanese coast guard had reported U.S. ships fired on the freighter and it might have sunk.

The coast guard said the freighter San Eduardo reported by radio that it was "under shell fire" and though they tried for several hours to contact the ship after the message was intercepted they got no reply. They said it was feared the ship had been sunk.

Radio Pusan broadcast a report from Korea that the San Eduardo was on fire.

Decide Election On Major, Not Personal Issues: Drew

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Trois-Rivieres, Que.—(P)—Hon. George Drew took issue Thursday night with "vicious and dishonest personal attacks" he said have been made against him in the present election campaign, and urged that the election be decided on the "great issues before us."

He coupled this with a promise that a Progressive Conservative government, if elected Aug. 10, would bridge the St. Lawrence river at this point, in co-operation with the provincial government.

The Progressive Conservative leader's speech was made to 3,000 persons—the largest audience he has met to date in his campaign. It was also broadcast over a network of provincial radio stations.

Mr. Drew said that in the campaign against him, words were being "torn out" of statements he made years ago as premier of Ontario "in an effort to convey the impression that I am an enemy of the people of this province."

Voters of Quebec province had been told "that you should not vote for me because I am a Protestant."

The "most fantastic suggestion" was that he and Tim Buck, leader of the Labor-Progressive (Communist) party in Canada, had some things in common.

"We have only one thing in common. Both of us were in Moscow. But I was in jail there, and I don't think Tim Buck was."

In 1937 Mr. Drew spent six hours in Moscow's Lubianka prison for taking pictures of one of the purge trials.

"If I took the time to answer the false and malicious statements made about me, there would be no time to discuss the real issues... I do not believe that the kind, generous and chivalrous people of this province will approve of propaganda of that nature."

There are great issues before us to be decided. Let us discuss them as sensible citizens of a great nation."

Mr. Drew's reference to a St. Lawrence river bridge here was a departure from a prepared speech which he read partly in English and partly in French.

A bridge was needed half way between Montreal and Quebec City, he said, keep pace with the needs of an expanding province.

"I promise that if a Conservative government is elected, and with the co-operation of the provincial government, we will immediately see to the construction of a bridge across the St. Lawrence river."

Gaspe Hunters Murdered; Arrest Expected Following Discovery Of More Remains

Political Unrest Stirs North Korea

Tokyo.—(P)—Korean sources indicated today Marshal Kim Il Sung the boss of Communist North Korea, is swinging away from Russia and toward closer ties with Red China, even as contradictory reports said Kim himself had been purged.

There was no way of checking the rumors, but it appeared that political unrest gripped North Korea.

Kim is reported to have been turning out Korean Reds who lean toward Russia and boosting party members who put China first.

At least three members of Kim's cabinet were reported purged: Foreign minister Park Hun Yung; Justice Minister Lee Sung Yung; and vice-premier Hu Ka Wee. All are Koreans.

Park Hun Yung was reported in jail after being purged three months ago. He was formerly head of the Communist party in South Korea until his defection to the north in 1946.

What happened to the other two cabinet members was unknown.

In Seoul, South Korean home minister Chun Hun Shik said intelligence reports received there indicated Kim, whose real name is Kim Song Ju, is throwing out the Koreans favoring Russia and backing Korean Communists favoring China.

The news was confusing because other Korean sources said Park Hun Yung favored China and this stand cost him his job. There was no way to reconcile the conflicting reports.

Home Minister Chun Hun Shik said the chairman of the North Korean peoples supreme committee, Kim To Bong, had won the favor of Marshal Kim.

There were other reports that Marshal Kim, whom the South Koreans call an imposter, was close to Lavrenty Beria, the deposed secret police chief of Russia.

Bear-Gnawed Remains Of Two Youngest Hunters Found Scattered Along Bank Of Stream.

By BERNARD DUFRESNE

Canadian Press Staff Writer

Gaspe, Que.—(CP)—Grim-faced police early today followed carefully-laid plans for an arrest in a deliberate triple slaying, cunning and cold-blooded killings made even more gruesome by ravenous bears.

The shocking end to a bush-country mystery of three weeks came Thursday when the ghastly remains of two young United States hunters were found scattered along the bank of a winding little stream.

Their fate was the same as that of the eldest of the three, who came to the bear-hunting country from Hollidaysburg, Pa. Human hands brought about their death; the animals they hunted devoured their flesh, gnawed and chewed their bones. Only one skull of the three victims has been found.

Last week the bones of Eugene H. Lindsey, 45, were found at the end of a trail near an unused logging camp. Thursday, searchers came upon the grisly scene at another camp, four miles away.

There they found all that remained of Lindsey's 17-year-old son, Richard, and Fred Clair, 20. Parts of skeletons had been dragged and hauled about a 1,000-square-yard area near a tiny branch of the St. Jean river.

Two hip bones were on the far side. Torn and chewed clothing, small personal belongings and a few rifle bullets were mingled with arm bones, leg bones, pieces of spines, ribs and one skull.

Only one piece of clothing appeared, practically intact. It was a white sweatshirt, bloodstained and with a neat round hole, as if from a bullet, drilled cleanly through it.

Since the discovery of the elder Lindsey's remains, robbery has been advanced as a motive. He was known to have had about $700 with him when he and the youngest men went into the bush six weeks ago. Little more than $1 was found near his remains.

With the odds and ends of personal belongings, searchers found only 36 cents. But their day-long search turned up what may be a valuable piece of evidence for police. Carefully buried under the roots of a tree was a leather coat.

Just how the killings were carried out had not been made known officially here early today. But Thursday night in Quebec City, a spokesman for the attorney-general's department said bluntly: "It is murder, cold-blooded and planned."

Yesterday's discoveries were made at camp 26, four miles west of camp 24, where the elder Lindsey's remains were found, and about 65 miles from Gaspe.

Personal belongings found in the all-day search included a watch, a lighter, shaving soap container, a razor, a comb, a toothbrush, a handkerchief, a pair of socks, a pair of underwear, a piece of paper bridge-work was also found.

Supervision of the work was carried out by Capt. J. Alphonse Matte, provincial police crime-investigation expert from Quebec.

He said he did not plan to go into the bush again today, but would send in a few of searchers to carry on with the work of finding everything possible.

Gaspe, Que.—(P)—Provincial police reported today a robbery and murder at New Richmond, Que., about 160 miles from the centre of investigation into the case of three murdered American hunters.

A police spokesman said apparently there was no connection between the killing of the hunters in the Gaspe woods and the slaying at New Richmond Thursday night of 40-year-old Edgar Audet, manager of a consumers' co-operative.

The manager's body was found in a back room of the "La Co-operative de Consommation Agricole" shortly after midnight.

Audet appeared to have been beaten with an iron bar.

Police said $30 was missing from the cash register and the robbery and killing apparently were the work of two men thought to be armed.

Hungry Germans Clamor For Food

Berlin.—(P)—A potato famine fanned the anger of hungry East Germans against Communist misrule today.

Failure of promised shipments from Russia and her satellites has forced the reintroduction of strict potato rationing, the West Berlin newspaper, Nacht-Deutsche reported.

This was an embarrassing setback to the puppet East German government's attempt to overcome the passive resistance which continues to spread among its sullen workers.

Communist bosses fought this resistance with a frenzied mixture of new arrests, threats, promises, wage boosts, and propaganda claims of increasing food plenty. But strikes and slowdowns continued. The hungry populace clamored for more food.

U.S. Still Opposes Red China In U.N.

Washington.—AP.—United States Senator H. Alexander Smith (Rep., N. J.) said today that "as things stand now, I am sure we would use the veto" to block the entrance of Communist China into the United Nations.

Smith said in an interview he was greatly pleased at assurances given the Senate foreign relations committee by a former member, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., that the U. S. can and should use its veto to keep Communist China out of the U.N.

Lodge, former Massachusetts Senator and now chief U. S. representative to the U.N., testified before the committee Thursday in support of the world organization. It was his first report to Congress on his stewardship as UN ambassador.

Smith, who heads the Far East sub-committee of the foreign relations group, said he expected "a lot of heat" from America's friends and enemies to get China into the U.N. after a truce in Korea.

"That's when we're going to have a stiff backbone," he said. Both branches of Congress are on record as being against admitting the Chinese Communists to the U.N. President Eisenhower has said he is against it under present world conditions. The United States has never recognized the Communist government at Peking and China's UN seat is occupied by the Chinese Nationalists.

But the New Jersey Senator said he expects the Communists to put on an adroit campaign to get Red China into the U.N.

"I would not be at all surprised," he said, "if they offered to permit unification of Korea in return for admission. They might even agree to stop the shooting in Indo-China."

If the Chinese Communist regime goes into the United Nations and consolidates its position, all of Asia will be lost."

St. Laurent Enters P.C. Strongholds In Maritimes

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Halifax.—(P)—Prime Minister St. Laurent today centred his campaigning on territory providing some of the strongest Progressive Conservative threats in Nova Scotia.

On a flying visit to this province, he scheduled speeches in one Conservative-held riding and in another that sent Resources Minister Winters to Parliament in 1949 but since has switched provincially to the Progressive Conservatives.

Two of the prime minister's speeches were aimed at electors of Digby-Annapolis-Kings, a redistributed riding where the old constituency was held by George Nowlan, national president of the Progressive Conservative party.

The third, in the evening, was in Mr. Winters' constituency of Queens-Lunenburg. The two counties in this federal riding sent three Progressive Conservatives to the Nova Scotia legislature in May, reversing a long trend of Liberal successes in them and topping a provincial cabinet minister.

It was Mr. St. Laurent's second visit to Nova Scotia in the general election campaign. The first time, he just passed briefly for a speech at Sydney in CCF-held Cape Breton South, on the way to Newfoundland.

This time, he is spending the better part of two days in the easternmost mainland province after several days campaigning in Quebec. He flies back to Quebec Saturday for a week-end rest in his summer home at St. Patrick.

The major speech of the prime minister's current Nova Scotia stay was delivered here Thursday

London Times Assails Gossip About Princess Margaret's Reported Romance

London.—(P)—The Times today roundly assails the talk about Princess Margaret's reported romance. In its first comment on the matter, the Times' column-long editorial says that "based on the flimsiest structure of supposition, it (the gossip) that the Princess wants to marry divorced RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend" has been given, unforgivably, the shape of a scandal."

The editorial is the Times' most searching comment on Royal affairs since the abdication crisis of 1936.

The Times suggests that Margaret should be moved down, but not removed from the line of succession to the regency which would act should Queen Elizabeth become incapacitated or die before her heir is of age.

The government on Wednesday announced its plans to amend the Regency Act. As the act now stands, Margaret is first in line.

The new order of regency, says the Times, should be Prince Charles after he comes of age, then the Duke of Edinburgh or the Duke first if a regent is needed while Charles is too young, and the Princess after the Duke.

"Honourably placed on the list but called upon only in the event of a highly improbable catastrophe,"

Though the government has not said how it plans to change the regency line, the parliamentary correspondent of the Press Association reported Thursday that the proposed bill, expected to be introduced in the House of Commons in November, still would leave Margaret regent in case of the death of Elizabeth's husband.

Acting Prime Minister R. A. Butler's announcement of the impending regency change didn't mention the Princess, but it was widely interpreted as a move to pave the way for her marriage to Townsend.

The Times editorial says the Queen has been "personally saddened... by the bandying about of her sister's name in public gossip."

Only public opinion can impose a check upon the cruel business of prying into private lives that small and sickly eyes may glare and gloat."

Meanwhile Margaret attended the American musical comedy "Guys and Dolls" Thursday night with her sister and the Duke. Earlier in the day, smiling and serene, she helped the Queen play hostess to 8,000 guests at a Buckingham Palace garden party.

Townsend was in Brussels, where he took up new duties last week as air attaché at the British embassy.

Mr. St. Laurent said Mr. Drew "missed the boat" in that he is promising tax cuts that were put into effect by the Liberal government in its last budget.

The specific cuts were those of $300,000,000 a year that Mr. Drew would drop off the budget by eliminating surpluses and taking advantages of rises in the national income. But, said the prime minister, Finance Minister Abbott already had done that to the extent of $300,000,000 a year in the February budget.

Dealing with Progressive Conservative proposals for tax slashes elsewhere, Mr. St. Laurent said he was "shocked" to see that Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes, the official opposition's chief military critic, was saying defence expenditures could be reduced by $250,000,000 a year. This later had become official Progressive Conservative policy.

But in the last Parliament, Mr. St. Laurent said, the Progressive Conservatives had been demanding more armaments. The election had changed their minds. Mr. Drew had suddenly discovered—"in Quebec," Mr. St. Laurent said—that Canada was "doing too much for our own defence."

Brig. Bogert Is Honored By Queen

London.—(P)—The Queen today pinned a medal on Canada's Brig. M. Patrick Bogert at a Buckingham Palace investiture, making him a commander of the Order of the British Empire.

The Queen chatted briefly with the former commander of the Canadian 25th infantry brigade in Korea, asking him how long he had served there. After the ceremony Bogert said he was "very proud."

"I had never seen Her Majesty before, and it was a great moment," he added.

The award was in recognition of Bogert's service in Korea. More than 300 persons from the Commonwealth were also honored.

Bogert, 45, was born in Toronto. A graduate of the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., he was a staff officer on headquarters of the 1st Canadian division in Sicily, and was wounded in action there in December, 1943. He has commanded military regions in eastern Ontario and British Columbia and prior to his Korea appointment was director-general of mili-

Syngman Rhee Denounces Proposed Korean Armistice

By SAM SUMMERLIN
Pannunjom.—(P)—South Korea's president Syngman Rhee today angrily denounced an armistice agreement which appeared all but signed and warned that some Allied promises to the Reds "cannot be allowed to happen."

Rhee's new threats brought no immediate reaction here as liaison officers put finishing touches on a truce. The full truce negotiations were expected to be called together at any moment to set a signing date. It could come this week.

The liaison officers met for two hours, 48 minutes, then recessed without scheduling another session.

The stubborn South Korean president was acknowledged that a truce was imminent but added bitterly: "I have no word on this crucial matter."

In a strongly-worded statement, Rhee accused the Allies of giving the Communists pledges which "render impossible a fulfillment" of some of South Korea's basic understandings with the United States.

He said his agreement with U. S. assistant secretary of state Walter S. Robertson, President Eisenhower's truce envoy, provided:

1. "... That no troops from India or any other foreign nation will be landed in South Korea to guard prisoners of war."

Yet said Rhee, "The Communists claim Gen. William K. Harrison has agreed that such troops will land in South Korea and that they will be granted police protection by the United Nations forces. I can only say that the Korean people will not permit this to happen."

2. "... that the United States will join with the Republic of Korea in setting a time limit to the political conference."

Yet, Rhee added, "it has been announced there is agreement that there will be no time limit on the armistice..."

3. "... that Korean prisoners who refuse repatriation shall be set free in South Korea and that the Chinese prisoners who refuse to return to communism shall be sent to a destination of their own choice."

Yet, Rhee said, "the so-far uncontradicted report from Pannunjom directly states that this will not be done... this cannot be allowed to happen."

Last month Rhee threatened to

Malenkov Seems Able, Sure Of Self

(How does Georgi Malenkov look? Eddy Gilmore, AP correspondent in Moscow for 11 years, is one of the few Americans who have seen the Soviet premier in action. Gilmore gives his appraisal of Malenkov—and of his chances of staying premier—in this article, last of a series written this side of the Iron Curtain.)

By EDDY GILMORE

Paris.—(AP)—Who is running Soviet Russia today?

Is it really George M. Malenkov? Could it be V. M. Molotov? Is Nikolai Bulganin the real man in charge? Is it possible that Nikita Khrushchev is manipulating things from the dark corners of the Kremlin? Or is it government by committee as the Communist party would have us believe—a committee composed of the party, the government and the Supreme Soviet?

Or, is it the army? Frankly, I don't know and I doubt if anyone outside the Kremlin knows.

The dismissal of L. P. Beria listed officially as Malenkov's No. 1 lieutenant—has narrowed the field. But it has also confused it. A wise Western diplomat, with many years' experience in Soviet affairs, is not completely convinced of the Beria story. He explains: "This could be another grand piece of Russian make-believe and deception. They may be trying to confuse the West as this extremely important moment of our times. The Beria disgrace would be a huge hoax."

I do not hold with this diplomat.

I believe Malenkov is in charge and has been in charge since Stalin was stricken. I believe he saw Beria smiling up behind him and, out of the corner of his quick, Slavie eye, caught a glimmer of the knife in Beria's hand. That he felt strong enough, or desperate enough, to eliminate the high chief of the political police with his principal henchman.

What do we know about Malenkov? Not much. I've seen him a lot of times. But I've never had before, and it was a great moment," he added.

The award was in recognition of Bogert's service in Korea. More than 300 persons from the Commonwealth were also honored.

Garden Party
Held At Brown
Home In Hatley

Hatley, July 24 — Cottage Farm Gardens, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Brown, was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering on Tuesday evening, July 14, when an ice-cream social sponsored by the Guild of St. James Church was held.

The beautiful grounds were looking their best, quantities of regal lilies spilled their perfume on the air, scenting the whole grounds. A cherry tree, with branches loaded with crimson fruit and shining leaves, made a lovely background for the small tables, where the guests were served with ice cream and cake while listening to the music of the Ayer's Cliff Band. A sale table was looked after by Mrs. C. Hyatt, while Mrs. Bray was in charge of the finances.

Many came early so that they might enjoy a stroll through the gardens at the back where nearly every kind of fruit and flowers common to this section and some rare varieties are to be found. A large gathering of village people and many from surrounding towns gathered to enjoy this annual event.

CHILD DIES SUDDENLY

The community was shocked on Sunday morning, July 19, to hear of the sudden death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dobb. The three-months old child, Terry Allan, appeared as well as usual the previous evening, and through the night, but had evidently just passed away when Mrs. Dobb came to pick him about quarter past six Sunday morning.

The doctor was called immediately and stated that death was due to some internal disorder with which the child had been afflicted such as being not infrequently ill. Mr. Dobb was in Ontario at the time, but started home immediately on receipt of the news.

Much sympathy is felt for the parents to whom this sudden bereavement came as a very great shock.

Eastman Residents Attend Dedication
Service Of New Sunday School Camp

Eastman, July 24 — Miss F. A. Bryant, M.A., and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tichhurst, and Miss Winona and Gwendolyn Tichhurst, motored to Lake Lovering near Fitch Bay, on Saturday, July 11, to attend the dedication service of the new Sunday School Mission Camp. The impressive service was held on the grounds of the new camp. Rev. J. Tetreault, superintendent of the C.S.S.M. for the Province of Quebec, told of the sacrifices of people all over Canada, which had made it possible for the Mission to purchase this camp for the use of the young people and children. The camp will be known as Camp Livingstone of the S.S. Mission in Canada. Rev. Mr. Jones, of Cookshire United Church, delivered the dedication address. He spoke of the good work done by the teachers in the vacation schools and of the great need of Bible teaching in our province today. Several of the teachers spoke of the schools already held this year in Mystic, Cookshire, Swetsburg, Marlinton, Bolton Centre, and Fitch Bay, telling of the interest shown by the children in the Bible stories and memory work.

At the conclusion of the service a picnic lunch was enjoyed by all present.

Transport Minister Tells Local Audience That Government Is Tightening Anti-Dumping Procedures

By MARGARET DOHERTY

Dealing with the controversial question of textiles, the Hon. Lionel Chevrier, Minister of Transport in Mr. St. Laurent's government, said last night that his party realizes the remedy to the present situation lies in tightening anti-dumping procedures, and added that it is doing so in three ways.

First of all, however, he assured the crowd which gathered in Dufresne Park—and remained in spite of dark clouds and intermittent drizzles—that the present textile situation is peculiar not only to Canada but to the whole of the world wherein textile industries exist. With the amount of research and scientific development going on at the present time with new methods and new fabrics coming on to the market, he said, a tremendous change is resulting in the field of textiles. However, so long as it is possible to create new fabrics, so it will be possible to create new jobs for textile workers.

Two solutions to the problem have been suggested, increased tariffs and the imposing of quotas. "I notice that Mr. Drew has kept away from the subject of increasing tariffs," he said. "Mr. Drew told you what happened when he went to the States. He said that the markets of the world? Our party follows the middle of the road policy. We wish to keep our tariffs low enough to sell our products and high enough at the same time to guarantee the protection of legitimate industry and its workers."

"We have determined to meet the problem in the following three ways: We must show that goods are being sold to Canadian importers at prices lower than the home market, and with this in view we have today in the United States a number of expert men studying prices. We have instructed appraisers to scrutinize invoice values and prices and in questionable cases the values under inquiry are subject to amendment. And finally, we have set up in the Department of National Revenue a special valuation branch to deal with the whole problem."

Touching on the Currie report in connection with the Petawawa railway incident, and the Opposition's charges of waste on the part of the Liberal government, Mr. Chevrier said that it was at the express request of the Defence Minister, Mr. Claxton, that the report was drawn up. As a result of the findings of this report Mr. Claxton succeeded in bringing charges against the individuals concerned in the Currie affair at the military camp and most of them are now in prison. All this was accomplished at a cost of from $50,000 to $60,000, the Minister said.

"Our opponents accuse us of waste but what about the one million dollars the Conservative Government spent in Ontario for a Royal Commission as a result of lack of surveillance in connection with the Don jail break-out of the famous Boyd gang? There is no mention of this."

He added that all efforts on the part of Mr. Drew and his supporters to insinuate fraud and corruption either in the government or the civil service have failed. "Our opponents say we have lost the world markets," he continued, "yet never before has Canada's trade reached the present day peak. The Liberal government has given the country prosperity without precedent, and Canada's economic stability is the envy of the rest of the world."

Declaring that the St. Laurent government has answered the demands of the people and has kept faith with the population of Canada, Mr. Chevrier pointed to the international trade doctrine of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who believed that to succeed and to expand, a country must seek markets everywhere available. This policy was continued by Mackenzie King and today the Prime Minister, through Mr. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce and Defence Production, has entered into commercial agreements with at least 43 countries of the world. He quoted statistics to prove Canada's excellent position in the export field, her ever increasing expansion and development of her natural resources, and the enviable position of her currency on world markets.

"The Conservatives will attempt to convince you that there is urgent need for a change in government," he continued. "They are saying that we are too old and too tired, that we are arrogant, that we are a dictatorship and that we refuse to answer questions in the House. Well, if it is time for a change, the people will want to know just what they can expect from such a change."

It is a well known fact that the Conservative party has never been as divided as it is now, he stated, and further proof of this division can be found in the lack of support the PC leader has received in his tour of the country.

"On the eve of the closing of the House, Mr. Drew clashed with members of his party and today all those who fought with him in the House against us are conspicuous by their absence from Conservative platforms. They are remaining in their respective constituencies, very much afraid that they will lose out in their own ridings."

He dismissed as ridiculous the Conservative promise to reduce taxes to the tune of $500,000,000 on one hand, while on the other they will attempt to put into effect a 16 point program.

Striking out at Mr. Drew himself, the Transport Minister said his tactics have always been for and against, that he is now for and against so many things, he has no definite program for the great issues at stake.

"Is Mr. St. Laurent arrogant?" he asked. "Is he a dictator? You have only to follow his triumphal tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to see how the children love him, how all respect and admire him. Can such testimony be given a dictator?"

Mr. Chevrier said that, contrary to the Opposition's contention that their questions remained unanswered in the House, the past four years have seen more questions put, and more answers given than ever before.

He paid tribute to the local candidate, Maurice Gingues, lauding him for his sincerity, his spirit of justice, and his sense of responsibility both to the government and to his electors, and congratulated the people of Sherbrooke on their wise choice of a man who is definitely of ministerial calibre.

In conclusion the Minister urged his listeners to develop a spirit of Canadianism, reminding them that the Liberal Leader, while he wishes to preserve the traditional bonds of the Commonwealth, also is concerned with the autonomy of Canada and may be described as the "Apostle of Canadianism."

Mr. Chevrier was introduced by the Honorable Senator C. E. Howard, and thanked by Louis Roberge, Liberal candidate for Stanstead County.

Loud applause greeted Sherbrooke's candidate and member of the last House, Maurice Gingues, who spoke briefly, stating that there is room in the Liberal party for young and old, for the ladies, in short for all who cherish liberty and the democratic way of life.

He promised that he would meet his electors within the next two weeks, when he will attempt to visit all the parishes in his riding to tell the people what has been done for their welfare and what the Liberal regime hopes to do for them in the future.

Two-Party Contest Expected Here; C.C.F. Will Not Have Candidate

Believe it or not! Prospects are that Sherbrooke County will have a straight two-party fight in the August 10 federal elections for the first time in years.

Officials of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation announced this morning that no candidate would be entered here this year. The Social Credit's Quebec section, Union des Electeurs, has temporarily abandoned the election field in favor of educational work. Both the Liberals and Progressive Conservatives appear to have their support well in hand and no independents are expected to show up with their $200 deposit before nominations close at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

So the field appears clear for the official Liberal race, Maurice Gingues, who has been member since 1940, and Antonio Pinard, carrying the Progressive Conservative banner.

The spokesman for the central executive of the C.C.F. party gave no reason for the decision to vacate the field, merely stating, "No candidate," but the fact that stalwart, Gerard Bilodeau, received only 117 votes in 1949 to trail a five-man poll may have something to do with the decision.

The last straight fight in Sherbrooke took place in 1935 when Charles B. Howard was elected by a majority of 498 votes over W. H. Lynch, Q.C.

In 1949, five candidates were in the field, the official Liberal, Mr. Gingues, an Independent Liberal, Alphonse Trudeau, the Progressive Conservative, Redmond Hayes, Q.C., a Union des Electeurs, G. Gauthier, and the C.C.F.

It was also announced that no C.C.F. candidate would be placed in the running in Stanstead, where another straight fight is promised between L. E. Roberge, the last member for the county, and Calixte Chamberland, a Progressive Conservative.

In Richmond-Wolfe, the C.C.F. are out of the battle, but the Labor Progressives—the erstwhile Communist party—have entered a man to complicate matters. Huber Rheume, a former Richmond native now living in Montreal, doing battle with E. O. Gingras, ex-M.P., Liberal, and Albert Nicol, Progressive Conservative.

Compton-Frontenac will "enjoy" a triangular battle, with E. Jamieson, a paper mill worker from East Angus, being nominated by the C.C.F. to oppose the last member, J. A. Blanchette, seeking reelection as a Liberal, and Philippe Brulotte, running as a Progressive Conservative.

Home, Garden Competition Is Still Open

The Lennoxville and Ascot Community Association home and garden competition is still open to receive entries and the committee invites all citizens to submit their homes and grounds for entry into the competition by telephoning Mrs. W. B. Brady or C. L. Norwood.

The judges will be D. J. MacMillan, agriculturist, Cookshire, and L. Mathon, gardener, Experimental Farm, Lennoxville.

There will be prizes for the winners and there is fun in taking part in the competition and joining in with friends and neighbors in this community effort. July 27 is the last day on which entries can be received as judging will take place on Tuesday afternoon, July 28.

Beauty Contest Winner Sings With Tucker Band

Clare Nelson, Miss Pennsylvania of 1951, is the featured vocalist with Tommy Tucker's orchestra which plays at the Arena tomorrow night.

Employed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, Clare accepted a dare from her co-workers to enter "Miss Pennsylvania" contest of 1951 and she walked away with all honors.

This was followed by many personal appearances, in all parts of the country, as Miss Pennsylvania. She introduced the 1952 Ford and Packard cars, did command performance for Veep Alvin Barkley and was the feature attraction at the grand opening of the Pennsylvania Turnpike extension to the west.

Clare entered the University of Pittsburgh in the spring of 1952, but was still called upon to make many personal appearances on week-ends. It was during one of these when Tommy Tucker first saw her. She appeared on a floor as Miss Pennsylvania, at Cannonsburg, Pa., and Tommy became so impressed with her singing and natural charm, he asked her if she would like to sing with the band. She consented and Tommy immediately signed her to a long term contract.

Clare studied piano for 9 years, singing 8 years and has been an excellent tap dancer since the age of four. She is young, lovely to look at, unusually talented in all lines of entertainment and with a golden voice—her future should be brilliant, exciting and secure.

Y.W.C.A. Stay At Home Camp Will Start On Monday

The Y.W.C.A. Stay-at-Home Camp, a morning camp for girls 6-12 will open on Monday, July 27 at the MacKinnon Memorial Building, 300 Montreal Street.

The program features swimming, games, handicrafts, picnics, sing-songs and dramatics and will run Monday through Friday, from July 27 to August 21, 9.30 to 11.30.

There will be choice of handicrafts, including scrapbooks, for the children's wards of local hospitals. Campers may bring along used Christmas and "all occasion" cards for these scrapbooks. These should be clean and attractive.

Staff members will be on hand Monday next to welcome the campers and it is hoped that many more girls who are remaining in town for the next four weeks will register, either by the week or full time.

Staff members include Miss Thomasine Mawhood in charge of the pool, Miss Eleanor Doherty who recently joined the Y.W.C.A. as front desk secretary, and Miss Linda Therrian who has accepted a position in her home town but will be on the staff for the first week. Myrtle Shufelt and Patricia Hurley will act as counsellors. The camp will be under the direction of Mrs. E. J. Warcup.

Many Joined Today In Paying Last Respects To J. A. Archambault

A cold, damp rain fell steadily this morning as sorrowing relatives and friends gathered in St. Jean Baptiste Church to pay their final tribute to J. A. Archambault, prominent local business man who passed away Monday while on a fishing trip, at the Apache Club near Trois Pistoles.

The long and impressive cortege led by Mayor Emile Levesque left Montfort's Funeral Home for the Church, where the body was received by Rev. H. Tremblay, Rev. Brother Ignace, both of Montreal, a sister, Mrs. Arthur Bedard, and two adopted children, Madeleine (Mrs. Guy Levesque) and Marc Mayrand, a son-in-law, Guy Levesque, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marc Mayrand, as well as a number of nephews and nieces.

Lennoxville Chief Hangs Up His Badge After Twenty-Four Years Of Service

By HUGH DOHERTY

Lennoxville's brawny blacksmith of the law will pound his last beat tomorrow.

Thomas Bozer, for the past 24 years Lennoxville's chief of police and sometimes sole constable, fire chief and traffic director has decided at the age of 72 to hang up the badge of office which he has worn with honor for so long. But he will not retire, for he feels that there is still some service he can do for the town which has come to know him simply as "Tom." Although no longer active as a law enforcement officer, Mr. Bozer has accepted a position with the town looking after meters.

Actually, he is not taking on a new job at all, for at one time or another Mr. Bozer has held just about every town position available as well as serving as regular police chief. When he first came to Lennoxville on June 22, 1929, he officially accepted the positions of Town Foreman, Superintendent of Waterworks, Jailor and Chief Constable, and in addition was obliged to find his own substitute and supply his own means of transportation. Mr. Bozer recalls that his earliest conveyance was an ancient Willys car.

Though the multiplicity of Mr. Bozer's duties have officially lessened as the town has developed, he still undertook many odd responsibilities. He was made bailiff of the Municipal Court of the Town of Lennoxville, sells dog tags and apprehends offenders, catches truants, although he is not the truant officer, and in the words of his fellow townsmen is "a jack of all trades." He even makes many odd repairs for the town and its inhabitants.

For you see, Tom Bozer was a blacksmith before he was a policeman. Perhaps that accounts for the fact that at the age of 72 he looks not a day older than 60.

Born in Montreal, Mr. Bozer moved to this area when he was five years old and was educated at the old Racey Schoolhouse. At the age of 18, he left school and worked as an apprentice with V. L. Fish of Johnville learning the blacksmith trade. After having acquainted himself thoroughly with the business in North Hatley and Lennox, Mass., Mr. Bozer set up a blacksmith shop of his own in

Approach Of Nomination Day Gives Impetus To Election Campaign In E.T.

With nomination of candidates for the forthcoming federal elections closing at two o'clock Monday afternoon, the campaign is now entering its most intense stage, and from now until the eve of election day, August 10, local and regional rallies will be the rule almost every night.

In Sherbrooke, Antonio Pinard, Progressive Conservative candidate, has scheduled an all-English meeting at the Mitchell School in the North ward for Monday evening, July 27, at eight o'clock.

Albert Nicol, Progressive Conservative candidate in Richmond-Wolfe, has two important meetings on the list for this week. Tonight he will speak in Richmond and on Saturday night at Windsor Mills. On both occasions he will be accompanied by English and French speakers.

Mr. Nicol opened his campaign last Saturday night in his home town of Bromptonville. Speaking before a large audience in the parish hall, he declared he accepted the nomination because of "civic spirit and patriotism when I saw the way the Liberal party treated the farmers of this province."

"We have 135,000 farmers in this province, compared with 80,000 in all the western provinces and all the attention of the government goes to them and the Liberals forget that agriculture is the basis of the national economy."

No basic prices are allowed to the eastern farmers for their produce. Considering the hard conditions under which they have to operate, many farmers are seriously studying the question of leaving their farms, a move that would be a national disaster, Mr. Nicol said.

Mr. Nicol promised that he will not work for the farmers alone, although principally concerned with agricultural problems, but said he would work if elected, to have workers with families exempt from the income tax.

During this week he also addressed meetings at North Ham and Weedon. At all these meetings he was supported by his chief organizer, J. Orlan Poirier, of Asbestos, Lionel Crevier and Maurice Hebert, Q.C., of Montreal, Wilfrid Garard, Bromptonville, and Louis Langlois, Q.C., Asbestos.

While the old-fashioned contradictory meetings which generally followed the official nominations have been dispensed with to a great extent, several are scheduled for ridings in this vicinity, when the candidates and their supporters will exchange "pleasantries."

Local Armoured Regiment Returns From Summer Exercises At Petawawa

Summer Camp has come and gone but the members of the 12th Armoured Regiment (the Sherbrooke Regiment) who took part in the exercises at Petawawa Military Camp this year will remember them for a long time to come. The officers, NCO's and men who attended for the annual summer exercises, under the command of Lieut.-Col. N. A. Welsh, commanding officer, put in an extensive week of training.

The 12th Armoured attended the camp near Pembroke, Ont., returning Brigade of which Brigadier E. M. Wilson, DSO, is commanding officer.

The Regiment took part in a two-day, one-night battle and the Sherbrookers held their own with the "enemy." This event is one of the highlights of the week's training and gives the crews the opportunity of putting their tanks through actual wartime manoeuvres.

But it was not all work for the boys who attended the camp. The 12th Armoured members took part in all the sport programs which are included in the training syllabus.

Although competition was keen in all these events, the members of the local unit held their own with the best of the other units. Food was good at the camp and the billeting of the different units was excellent. The boys at times had a hard battle warding off their old enemy "Mr. Mosquito" but, generally speaking, the camp was enjoyed by all and Lieut.-Col. Welsh was pleased with the showing of the local unit while here.

He announces that the annual winter training will start at the end of September and vacancies are available for men of good physique and character. Prospective recruits will be interviewed any evening at the William Street Armoury.

Coatcook and operated it successfully for about twenty years. Thinking they could get no better man for the job than a blacksmith, the Lennoxville Town Council approached him for the job in 1929 to succeed Chief McKee.

Mr. Bozer remembered that he accepted the job only after careful consideration. "I knew the job was tough," he remarked. "And yet, despite the early diversity of jobs, Mr. Bozer thinks that the police chief now has an even tougher job, for not only has the town grown from a modest village of approximately 1,500 in 1929 to a town of 3,000, but also the increase in the use of cars and other mechanized vehicles has added to the administrative headaches of the job."

Married to Margaret Agnes MacNeil in 1905 Mr. Bozer has lived in the same house at 8 Bowen St. ever since he moved to Lennoxville. Of two children, a daughter Ursula is a teacher, formerly at Lennoxville High School now at Sawyerville, while a son, Donald, was killed while on a bomber mission for the RCAF in the Second War.

It was lucky for the town that Mr. Bozer also took over fire-fighting duties for the first few years of his office, for he provided it with their present fire engine. Mr. Bozer recalls that when he first arrived in Lennoxville, an old horse-drawn reel was in operation and because of an unfortunate scarcity of horses, the volunteers had to pull the reels to fires themselves. "I pulled the thing just once," laughed Mr. Bo-zer, "and that was enough." Then he set to work and converted an old Chevrolet truck into the fire truck which is still in use today. Most of the old official jobs were divided up amongst several men soon after Chief Bozer arrived, but he still continued to work as many as eighteen hours a day, and was of course, on twenty-four hour call. About ten years ago, constable was assigned to work nights, so that Mr. Bozer might "rest," but if anything comes up during the night, the townspeople call "Tom" first, largely from force of habit, and he has never failed them. At one time he used to work all year round, until he was granted the usual two weeks holiday a year.

Mr. Bozer can remember a good many memorable experiences in his life as a policeman. Although he never carries a gun, he has never had any real trouble with criminals. He said that his most exciting experience was a post-office hold-up which occurred about a few years ago one Christmas Eve. He surprised two young bandits in the act of drilling the post office safe by walking in the back door behind them and pointing a revolver at them. The thieves, who were unarmed, tried to escape through the front door, but Chief Bozer had placed men there, too. Mr. Bozer recalled with an amused smile that one of the bandits, arms raised had exclaimed, "All that darn work for nothing!"

The changes which have taken place in the last 25 years Mr. Bozer thinks have largely been for the better. The old jail used to consist of two damp, dark and filthy cells but now it is one big cell which although still not a

He has long black hair that he parts on one side. Dark intelligent eyes, if you can say eyes are intelligent. A triple chin and he wears the traditional party khaki jacket, long khaki trousers and usually black shoes.

His voice is firm and extremely clear. His delivery is that of a practised orator. He looks at his audience when he speaks.

He seems sure of himself. He handled himself very well at his first public appearance after becoming premier. He paid not the slightest bit of attention to Beria, Molotov, Bulganin, Khushchev or anyone else. He was in charge.

Few foreigners have had conversations with Malenkov. I have two notations from men who sat beside him in Kremlin banquets.

Note No. 1: "He didn't talk very much and when I told him a joke he managed a faint smile. He seemed preoccupied. He volunteered no remark to me. He had a certain poise. However, an unpleasant character, I'd say."

Note No. 2: "He seemed interested in his food more than he was interested in me as a dinner partner. But talking through a translator, he did appear to be intelligent, though reluctant. When I made some remark about the way he said he said he was never very conscious of the weather. All in all, not the kind of a fellow with whom to take a long trip on a tandem bicycle."

At 52, he is one of the youngest of the Communist leaders. And, of course, he's playing for time. He is consolidating his position, or trying to. Does he have time enough? And strength and intelligence enough? I believe so. And I believe that Malenkov, more than any single man, is running Russia.

POLITICAL UNREST STIRS

Kim's history is something of a mystery. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said at the start of the Korean war that Kim's name was Kim Song Ju and that he is a nephew of Kim Il Sung, a Korean guerrilla leader who made life miserable for the Japanese when they controlled Korea. MacArthur's headquarters gave Kim's age as 42.

South Korean reports say he is the son of a North Korean tenant farmer and is now 38. They say he went to Russia as a child and was decorated by Joseph Stalin during the siege of Leningrad. After the Second World War, the South Koreans say, Kim returned to Manchuria and led Communist guerrilla bands. The Koreans say he showed up in 1950 at Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, a handsome, slim young man. The man whose name he now bears would be 60 years old if he is still alive. His fate is not known to the South Koreans.

good place to spend the night, is at least large and clean. The job said Mr. Bozer has always been interesting, but (with a wry grimace) sometimes rather disgusting. In recent years, Mr. Bozer has been appointed special constable for the CPR and the CNR as well as carrying out other duties. But the people of Lennoxville know "Tom" more as a fellow citizen than as a police chief. He has been a Mason of the Ascot Corner Branch No. 3 for the past six years and is an active member of St. George's Anglican Church, especially interested in the choir. He is a particular friend of the children in Lennoxville with an avid interest in sports and the Boy Scouts. Through the years children have come to respect and like "Tom" but never to fear him, so that even the littlest toddlers often ask "Tombozer" to do them a small favor or help them out in some way.

The townspeople know him as a "very shy" but altogether a "darn good guy," and will miss the sight of his strong uniformed figure about the streets of their town. Replacing Mr. Bozer on Monday is Alan O'Rourke, formerly a sergeant on the Verdun police force with twenty years' experience in police work. Forty-one years of age and married, Mr. O'Rourke has been particularly capable in supervising the parks, playgrounds and swimming pools of the Verdun area and takes a great deal of interest in youth work of any kind. Perfectly bilingual, Mr. O'Rourke promises to maintain the high tradition of police leadership set in Lennoxville by Mr. Bozer.

Saves Two Men

Magog, Que.—A vacationing Toronto man was credited Thursday with saving the lives of two Montrealeers, whose boat overturned on Orford lake, eight miles west of this Eastern Townships community.

Rescued were Ernest Viberg, 73, and Ralph Winslow, 65.

Lorne C. Thompson, formerly of Montreal and now of Toronto, said he was sitting in front of his cottage when he saw the mishap occur. He rowed his boat out and pulled the two floundering men out of the water.

tary training at Ottawa. Before leaving for the palace, Bogert gave this estimate of the Commonwealth division in Korea: "It is one of the finest I have ever served with. There was first-class co-operation among the various elements of the Commonwealth group, and I consider it an efficient and happy formation."

The citation to Bogert's award says his command of the Canadian brigade in battle was outstanding, marked by "quick decisions and decisive action." It says he was a constant visitor to all front-line positions, and sound tactical judgment and timely advice to subordinate commanders have built up a splendid feeling of confidence within the brigade.

Bogert is married and has a five-year-old son, Patrick.

AUTOMOTIVE HINT

The thin-brained wire core from the inside of an old speedometer cable, with one of the solid ends cut off, makes an excellent tool for cleaning a radiator overflow pipe. Its flexibility permits it to be slipped easily into the pipe, and the sharp end cuts any scale or sludge.

Mount Everest, world's highest mountain, was named for British explorer Sir George Everest, who first fixed its position and altitude in 1871.

LABATT'S

An occasion for celebrating!

Anniversary Ale was brewed especially for just such an occasion. The lightest and smoothest of all ales, it leaves no regrets. Yet Anniversary contains all the traditional Labatt's body and character to brighten an already glad occasion. Luckily, there's no need to wait until you receive a legacy to celebrate with Anniversary Ale. The combination of a thirst and a bottle, or better still a case, of lighter, smoother Anniversary Ale is an occasion in itself. John Labatt Limited.

JOHNNY CERBO BLANKS DRUMMONDVILLE ON 4 HITS

Bob Diers Bashes His 17th Home Run As Indians Extend Winning Streak; Quebec Braves Here Tomorrow, Sunday

Behind the four-hit pitching of right-hander John Cerbo and aided greatly on the offensive by a towering three-run homer by Bob Diers, Sherbrooke Indians last night blanked Drummondville Royals, 8-0, before 723 fans at Municipal Stadium.

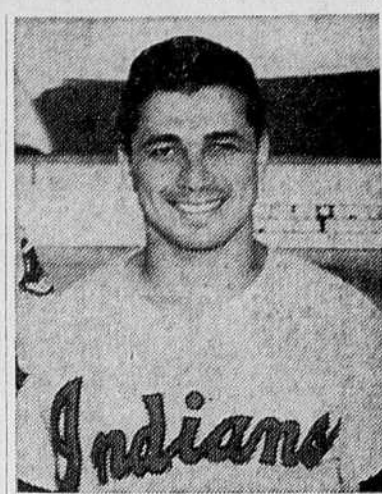

The win was the sixth in a row for the League-leading redskins. It was the 11th triumph for Cerbo against two defeats and the circuit blast by Diers was the 17th of the campaign for the Provincial home-run king.

Diers' sky high blast over the left field fence came after the following, in the third inning.

Jack Waters was safe at first on an error by Drummondville third baseman Tom Perez. Waters moved to second as Al Pollard grounded out to first, a play so close that in a heated discussion Pollard was thrown out of the game. Clell Hobson socked a double into left center, Waters pulling up at third. Diers then acted on the urging of the fans and hit his 17th home run of the season.

Sherbrooke scored a fourth run in the same inning. Jack Castro followed Diers and was safe at first on the second error of the inning by Perez. Bob O'Donnell singled him to second and he scored on a base knock into right by Windy Hall.

That made the scored 5-0 in Sherbrooke's favor as the locals had scored a run in the second frame, when Castro boomed a triple into center field and raced home from third when Hall made the second baseman back up for a

CERBO

It had drizzled through most of the game but this did not seem to affect the locals' DP combination. Indians enjoy a well-deserved rest today but start a harrowing five-game local schedule tomorrow night. First opponents are the power-packed Quebec Braves who play a single contest at Municipal Stadium Saturday night at 7:15, a double-header here Sunday afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, and a single game at eight o'clock Monday night. Then Three Rivers Yankees come to Sherbrooke for a Tuesday night contest.

Indian Manager Pinky May hopes he can use his colorful southpaw "Major" Jack Bowes in the tiff with Quebec Saturday night. Quebec has already announced the Braves will shoot with Johnny Ambrose who hooked up with Bowes in that fabulous 1-0 pitching duel which the locals won here Monday night in ten innings.

Bowes had complained of arm trouble and it will not be known definitely until tonight if he can pitch Saturday or not. If Bowes is fit for Saturday night's game, Manager May will probably use Danny Osinski and Gerry Underwood in Sunday afternoon's twin bill.

Tomorrow night is ladies' night and 12 pairs of Kayser hosiery will be given as door prizes by the Indians' management.

Another dozen pairs will be given away at Monday night's game and for the tiff with three Rivers Tuesday, General Manager Lew Matlin has a "Mystery Night" arranged. He won't say what this attraction is but concedes that "even Major League impresario Bill Veeck hasn't tried this."

The Indians' new third baseman, Dennis Luby, will arrive here today and will probably be tried out in the week-end games. The Indians can keep the newcomer as a returned war service player without exceeding their 16-player limit. Luby will actually be the 18th man on the Sherbrooke roster but he and Don Harper are under this service classification.

St. Joseph Yankees blasted St. Pat's Indians 17-4 last night at Sangster Park, in the only game played in the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Minor Baseball League.

The Yankees took the lead at an early stage of the game, banging out thirteen runs in the first three innings while the Indians only accounted for three in the same number of innings.

St. Pat's then settled down to play better ball, and held the Yankees to four more runs, while they could only score one more in the fourth inning.

Saturday afternoon at Sangster Park, St. Joseph Yankees and the Center Ward Royals meet in a doubleheader. On Monday the Lennoxville squad will tangle with the West Ward Dodgers.

HERE and YONDER

By GORDON HARMER

Two veterans, Miss Eileen MacMurray, of Asbestos, and Mrs. J. Dagenais, of Laval, are playing in the second half of a inter-district friendly match.

The first match was played in St. Albans and the locals went down to a 17 to 15 1/2 defeat.

Playing at home the local team is expected to give a much better performance.

Dave Walsh and Les Mercer will be two of the top players competing for the U.S. team.

INDUSTRIAL TOURNEY

Tomorrow the annual Industrial Tournament will be held at Asbestos.

Golfers from the leading firms in the district will compete.

The Atlantic handicap system will be used and there will be gross and net prizes.

There is expected to be quite a battle for the team prize.

STRIKES IT RICH

A lot of race fans were unhappy the other night when the judges moved back the winner of the second race to third position and thus broke up the favorite quinnella combination.

One man was very much pleased with the change. He collected $803.70. His name is Mr. Poulin from St. Eustache and won several other bets that night.

Judge Redmond Hayes has won several quinnellas this year also.

This-and-that: The world's richest horse race is the Garden State at Garden State Park, carrying a purse of more than $200,000.

When Hal Newhouse, of Detroit (Ige) was given his unconditional release recently, one of the most colorful pages in the history book of baseball was torn out.

Professional Mac Henderson is giving golf lessons on Monday of every week at Orleans, Vt.

The other night we went out on the limb and picked some Day E. and Fez Rosecroft at the local track, one won the other placed. Going out on the limb again, watch Feed Bill, and Cardinal Bette on Saturday.

Jeon Lessard is apparently just as good at water skiing as he is at skiing in the winter. She sure can handle the boards.

Indians Down Yanks, Boston Stops White Sox, Detroit Tigers Win 2

It takes a brave team to invade Ebbets Field these days but Milwaukee opens a four-game series in the home of the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight.

This is another of those "do or die" clashes that keep popping up by now with a 5 1/2 game lead and the season now rapidly toward the two-thirds mark.

A four-game Brooklyn sweep would pretty well write an unhappy ending to the first edition of Charlie Grimm's Milwaukee fairly tale.

The Braves, however, may be just the team to cool off the Dodgers who have won 10 of their last 11 Milwaukee is the only club in the league with a season's edge over the Dodgers in Brooklyn, having won three of the five games played there so far.

Brooklyn fans only have to go back two seasons to remember that a 5 1/2 game lead in late July is not an open invitation to buy World Series tickets. The current Dodgers team is good one though, especially since the recent pitching improvement, and it will take a lot of beating to knock it out of first place.

Both Brooklyn and the Braves were rained out Thursday so they'll go into tonight's game with a welcome day of rest. The Dodgers were supposed to play Chicago and Milwaukee was scheduled at Philadelphia. The rain also cut short the St. Louis Cardinals' series with the New York Giants. Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 7-0 in the only National League game played.

The big noise in the American League was the collapse of the New York Yankees in Cleveland for the third straight game. This time the world champions looked like real country bumpkins as they were swamped 10-2.

The Chicago White Sox muffed their chance to close in on the Yanks when they bowed to Boston 4-3. The White Sox trail by 4 1/2 games.

Detroit's slumbering Tigers popped up with a four game winning streak, taking a pair from Washington 9-6 in 10 innings and 5-4. The victories moved the Tigers within half a game of the seventh place St. Louis Browns who lost to Philadelphia 7-4 in 14 innings.

The Yankees tried a couple of their young pitchers against Cleveland and the Indians battered them for 14 hits and 10 runs in the first six innings. Tom Gorman made his first start and lasted into the fifth inning. Art Schall lock toiled two and gave up five runs, four of them unearned because of an error by first baseman Don Bollweg.

Home runs figured strongly in the Cleveland victory. George Strickland hit one with two on and Al Rosen with the bases empty in the fifth. Luke Easter opened the scoring with one in the second.

Cleveland lost its first seven games to New York this season and now has won six in a row, three in New York and three in Cleveland.

At Chicago Hector (Skinny) Brown came back to haunt his old White Sox team mates with a four hit performance.

He gave up two runs without a walk in the second inning when he hit three men.

Ray Boone, who says he likes it better with last-place Detroit than he did with first division Cleveland, hit a three run homer in the 10th inning for the Tigers' first game victory over Washington.

The Athletics solved Salch Paige's relief efforts for four hits and three runs in the 14th to win their marathon at St. Louis. Eddie Robinson brought home two of the tallies with a triple.

Harry Perkowski, who has been buying steadily after a bad Ray Boone, who says he likes it better with last-place Detroit than he did with first division Cleveland, hit a three run homer in the 10th inning for the Tigers' first game victory over Washington.

Buffalo And Montreal Lose

Buffalo and Montreal, the two top contenders for first place in the International Baseball League, both lost their games last night.

The Bisons dropped a 5-4 count to Ottawa Athletics. The Athletics scored the winning run in the 10th inning when rightfielder Emil Restaino misjudged a fly ball and allowed the winning run to score.

Ottawa won the six-game series 4-2.

Fred Gerken led off the bottom half of the 10th by taking first on shortstop Buddy Hicks' error. He went to second as Gerry Scala walked and came home on Restaino's bobbie.

Buffalo scored singles in the first, fourth, sixth and seventh innings, two of them homers by Frank Carswell in the sixth and Harvey Zernia in the seventh.

Ottawa pushed one run across in the eighth when pinchhitters Jack Spruill and Hal Bevan doubled and singled respectively. In the ninth pinch-hitter Bob Trice hammered out a three-run homer to tie the score.

Toronto Maple Leafs shocked a Montreal audience, chalking up six runs in the eighth inning to defeat the Royals 12-10.

The current five-game series now is tied at two each.

Trailing 4-0 the Leafs scored five times in the fourth inning to move ahead. The Royals retaliated with three in the fifth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Red Fahr, one of the five Toronto pitchers to appear in the game, was credited with the win. It was Fahr's sixth win against five defeats.

At Rochester, Baltimore Orioles and the Red Wings exchanged three hits and rallies in the ninth inning before Rochester capped the decision 6-5 and bounced back into third place.

Vern Rapp's pinch double drove in the tying runs for Rochester in the ninth and with the bases loaded Charley Kress tapped a bunt single to the left side to score Rapp with the winning run after two were out.

Mrs. H. Doleschell Is Canada's Only Hope In Canadian Tennis Tournament

Toronto—The Canadian tennis championships went into their fifth day today and the country's hopes in singles competition rested with Mrs. Hilde Doleschell, Toronto bakery owner, the only homebrew survivor in the men's and women's division. Expert opinion is that she hasn't a hope of gaining a final spot.

The 28-year-old former Australian champion is matched against Mrs. Thelma Long, Australian champion seeded No. 2 behind Mexico's Melita Ramirez in the foreign division. The last of the men's Canadian entries were blasted out Wednesday and quarter-finals in the women's singles Thursday brought elimination for June Merrill and Louise Brown, both of Toronto, and Pat Macken of Montreal.

In the other semi-final are Miss Ramirez and Laura Lou Kunnan of St. Petersburg, Fla., the 20-year-old darlings of the tournament. The betting is that the Mexican school teacher will continue into the finals, to be played Saturday.

But the topic today around the Toronto tennis courts centred on Thursday's quarter-finals in the men's singles between Eddie Moylan, an old pro from Trenton, N.J., and baby-faced Astushi Miyagi, Davis Cup player from Japan. Their four-hour set, which saw Moylan spot the 21-year-old Japanese the first and then take the next three, was labelled as the greatest in the Canadian championships in years.

The drama was packed into the 26-game final set which Moylan took 14-12 after capturing the second and third 6-4, 6-3. Miyagi, full of bounce and threatening to chase his older opponent off the court, took the opener 8-6.

Moylan, one-time ranking U.S. player and a smoothie around the nets, matched stroke for stroke against Miyagi early in the match and refused to yield in the marathon 50-game match. The turning point came in the 25th game of the third set when Moylan broke through Miyagi's serve to take a 13-12 lead and then retained his own service to keep in the running for the title won in 1952 by Dick Savitt of Orange, N.J. Savitt did not enter this year.

Joining Moylan in the semi-finals were the Australian big three, Mervyn Rose, Rex Hartwig and George Worthington, seeded in that order among the foreign entries. They will play Saturday with Rose meeting Moylan and Hartwig going against Worthington.

In quarter-finals Rose disposed of Tony Vincent of New York 6-3, 6-3, 7-5 and Hartwig eliminated Mexico's Mario Llamas 6-1, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

It was a cinch for the invading stars in the women's singles Thursday. Three hours after Miss Brown defeated Miss Merrill 9-7, 6-1 in the third round, she tangled with the chubby Mrs. Long and went out 6-1, 6-1.

Miss Macken was overwhelmed 6-0, 6-2 by Miss Ramirez. Matches were played also in the men's and women doubles, mixed doubles and veterans singles.

Golf Greats Honor Hogan

New York — (AP) — Golf greats of more than half a century joined Thursday night in paying tribute to Ben Hogan, current undisputed king of the fairways.

Robert Tyre Jones Jr., the immortal Bobby of the golden 20s headed the case of former champions who honored the Texas golfer at a special dinner given by the United States Golf Association.

Hogan was presented with a hand-embossed copy of a USGA resolution eulogizing him for his four U.S. Open championships and his recent British Open victory at Carnoustie, Scotland.

Finley Douglas, who won the U.S. amateur title in 1898, and Fred McLeod, 1908 U.S. Open champion and the oldest living holder of that title, were among the 96 guests.

Other champions present included: Gene Sarazen, who won both the U.S. and British open

Start Separating Men From Boys

Port Dalhousie, Ont. — They began separating the men from the boys today as 19 events face the starter's gun on the third day of the 71st Royal Canadian Henley regatta.

Nine of the races are finals while eight are heats for Saturday's big senior events. Two are eliminations left over from Thursday's program, not completed because of wind and rough water at the head of the mile and 550-yard course.

Largest field on today's card will be the high-school fours when six crews face each other over the mile collegiate distance. Ecorse high school is favored to repeat its 1952 victory, but faces strong opposition in Buffalo Tech, Detroit St. Anthony's, Brockville, Wyandotte, Roosevelt and Merriton.

The host St. Catharines Rowing Club will throw crews into almost all of today's races in an attempt to maintain the point lead which they lifted from the New York Athletic Club Thursday.

The coxswain and blue oarsmen piled up three wins and four seconds to amass 88 points in first place in the aggregate for the Maple Leaf trophy, emblematic of regatta supremacy. However, the New Yorkers held second with 42½ points.

The Hamilton Leander boat club placed third after two days of rowing with 38½ points and Toronto Argonauts were fourth with 20. Buffalo West Sides, last year's regatta champions, lag in fifth place with 15 points, two up on Detroit Boat Club.

St. Catharines' win the finals of the junior 135-pound eights and the junior 155-pound eights helped increase their point margin. They also caught a second in the 135-pound eights to add to the aggregate.

Hamilton Leanders also clicked twice in the finals, but since they were fours and doubles event, did not gain as many points.

Freddy Lane stroked his Leander quartet to a victory while Don Williams and Bob West came through in the junior 145-pound doubles.

Vancouver And Montreal Entrants Star In Dominion Swimming Meet

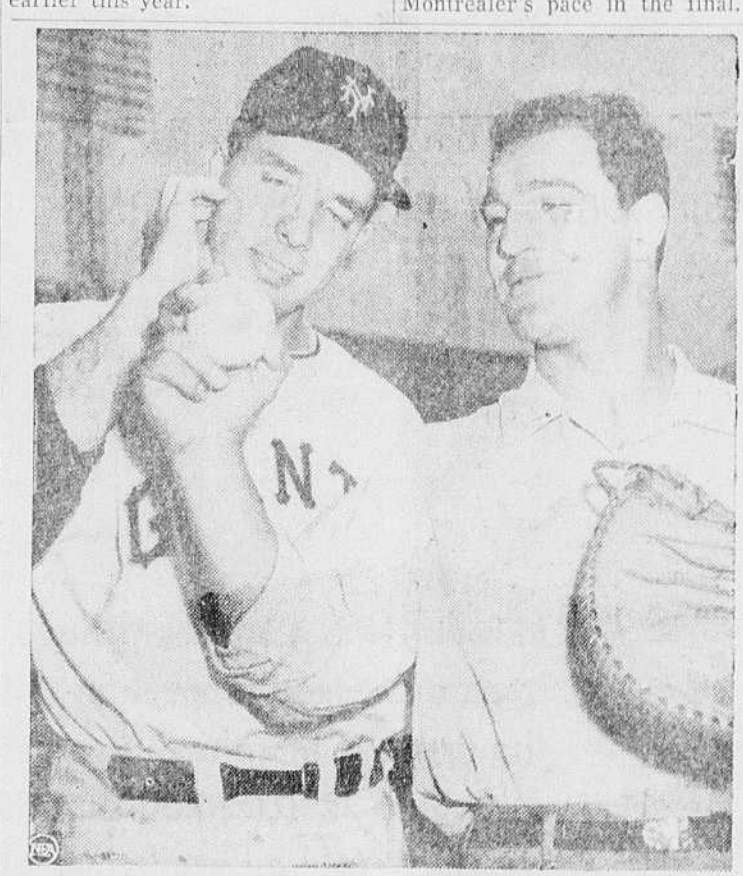

Winnipeg — (CP) — Vancouver and Montreal entrants showed kicking heels and white water to opponents in the first day of the Dominion swimming championships Thursday.

A Calgary boy, 20-year-old Bill Patrick, soared to an easy victory in the senior men's three-metre diving competition.

There were no swimming records broken in the first day's competition.

Gerry McNamee, of Vancouver, a Canadian representative at the last Olympic games, churned to victory in the 400-yard free style and 100-yard back stroke events. He was pace maker for the West Coast swimmers as he held the anchor spot on the Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club senior men's team winners of the 400-yard free style relay.

Ted Simpson and Helen Stewart topped junior and senior wins for Vancouver. Simpson took the 100-yard free style event for juniors in handy fashion but was more than a second off his own Canadian record of 54.2-10 set earlier this year.

Sports Roundup

New York — (AP) — Gil Hodges wore the goat's horns gracefully, but mournfully, last World Series time. Blanked 0-for-21, the Brooklyn first baseman went into the books with the worst batting record in all series history.

"That was only the World Series," they said. "Watch him snap back next spring."

But Gil didn't snap back. In mid May he was hitting a sad 181. The man of muscle with the blacksmith's biceps didn't hit a home run in the first 17 games and drove in only one run. This from the fellow who, in 1951, inspired daily tables comparing his pace with Babe Ruth's all-time record of 60 home runs.

As late as Memorial Day eve, Hodges, normally an extra base powerhouse, had only one hit longer than a single, one home run.

Chuck Dressen went along with him, longer than any other manager would have gone, but finally he had to bench Hodges. Brooklyn fans took Gil to their bosoms as a fallen brother.

One look at the daily averages tells the story of Hodges' comeback. Harnessing his power with a new stance, Hodges slowly moved up among the leaders. When he had five runs batted in, Roy Campanella had 46. Now he has passed Roy for the National League lead, 85 to 84. His home runs throw him into the thick of the race. At .313 his batting average is among the first ten. Hodges talked about his slump, and cure, Thursday.

"I can't express my feeling," Hodges said. "The fans are good to me. They really treated me wonderfully. I can't never do enough to even things."

"The turning point? It was right after I was benched. We were on the road in Cincinnati when Charley told me to sit out a few games. I didn't blame him. He had been very patient. I still was on the bench when we came back to New York to play the Giants in the Polo Grounds."

"We were losing when Charley called on me as a pinch hitter. I came through with a single. That was it . . . That one hit relaxed me."

200,000 Potential Silvana Manfano's Tend Italian Rice

Rome — (AP) — Nearly 200,000 "mondine" today are bent in the backbreaking work of the rice paddies of northern Italy, knee-deep in water, broad-brimmed hats protecting their heads from the blazing sun.

Until shapely Silvana Mangano played the leading role in the Italian film "Bitter Rice" a few years ago, few people were aware that Italy was a big rice producer.

In fact, Italy produces more rice than her people want to eat. This month the mondine, women workers who take their name from the Italian word "mondare" meaning "to clean," are sweating in the 500,000 acres of Italy's 26,000 rice producing farmers. The crop this year, it is estimated, will total 900,000 tons.

The mondine, whose ages range from 15 to more than 60, now are transplanting young rice shoots. The rice fields provide about 40 days work for the mondine, many of whom trudge each year to northern paddies from Calabria and other poverty-stricken areas in southern Italy. For many, the rice paddies provide the only chance of paid work, $2 a day.

Their work day begins at 4 a.m. and ends at 12:30 p.m. by the time the sun becomes intolerably hot.

Canadian Planes To Show At Dutch NATO Exhibition

Soesterberg Airbase, Holland. — (CP) — Canada's contribution toward arming North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations will be exhibited here July 18 when the Royal Netherlands Air Force celebrates its 40th anniversary with a display of jet strength.

More than 400 planes from Canada and seven other NATO nations will join in Western Europe's biggest air show, from the field where the first Netherlands air force plane took off in 1913.

With the United States and Kingdom, Canada has supplied arms and training to the rebuilt Netherlands air force, as she has to France, Denmark, Italy and Belgium.

Supplied under her two-year, $361,383,000 mutual air program have been armaments, ammunition, jet engines and other equipment. Last year, she trained 1,400 pilots and navigators for continental NATO countries.

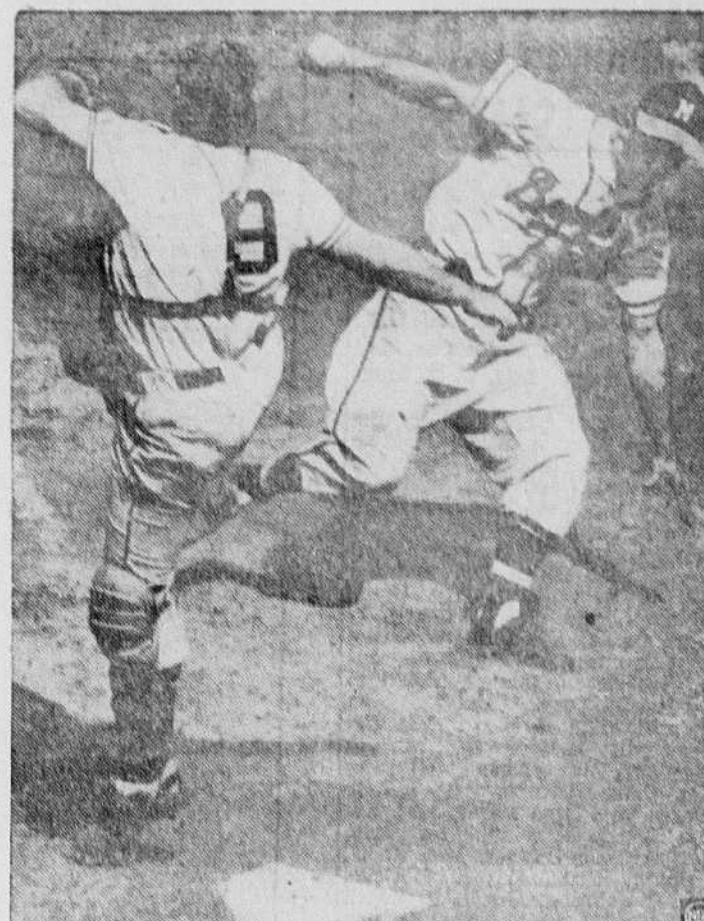

Guest of honor at the air show will be Queen Juliana of The Netherlands.

Noise Problem In Jet Planes Is Under Study

London. — (CP) — Assets brought to the aviation world by the jet engine are as evident as one of the liabilities, the ear-splitting scream most jets produce.

The problem as it effects commercial aviation was underlined recently when the Queen was photographed at London airport holding her ears.

British and United States air technicians are working on the noise problem. Work done to date in this country indicates that ways and means do exist whereby the bone-rattling, ear-piercing jet shriek can be toned down.

Some newer types of jet engines contain the "by-pass" principle, which reduces the speed of the jet stream slightly and are less noisy.

Other experiments show that certain types of suppressors can be fitted to the jet stream exit point, lessening the noise without reducing the engine's thrust power.

YOUR VOTE CAN CUT TAXES

$500,000,000 this fall!

In four years, Canadians have been overtaxed more than $1½ BILLIONS! In the first two months of this year, there's already a $200,000,000 surplus in the Federal treasury. Yet you are being told by Liberal leaders that taxes can't be reduced!

This is your money. But make no mistake about it—the present Government will not reduce taxation. So long as they stay, you'll pay—more tax dollars every year for the most expensive Government in history!

Certainly taxes can be reduced! The only way to stop reckless spending is to lower taxes.

A GOVERNMENT THAT CAN'T STOP WASTE CAN'T CUT TAXES!

we can . . . we will!
