

ATTORNEY GENERAL INTERVENES IN CASE; ASKS SPEEDY RELEASE OF HARRY KENDALL THAW

District Jail Neither Boarding House Nor Refuge. Means Early Delivery into Hands of Immigration Authorities. Habeas Corpus Case Called This Morning. Effort to Get Adjournment Fails. Argument in Chambers. General Public Excluded.

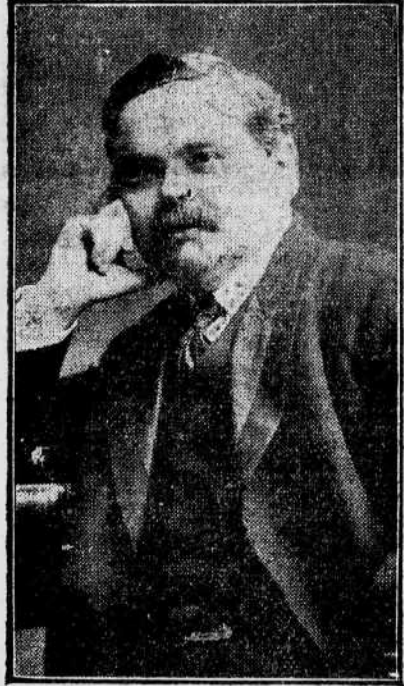

JUDGMENT DEFERRED TILL WEDNESDAY OR THURSDAY

A new sensation was sprung in the case of Harry K. Thaw this morning, and the lawyers for the famous Matteawan refugee admitted that it came as a bolt from the blue. They urged upon the Court the necessity of adjournment to meet the new situation. This the Court, for reasons stated below, denied.

Intervention of the Attorney-General was the new emergency which the attorneys for Thaw were called upon to face.

Mr. A. Geoffrion, K.C., presented himself as the special embassy of the Attorney-General.

The first request of the Attorney-

SIR LOMER GOUIN, Premier and Attorney-General of the Province, who has intervened in Thaw case.

General to the Court of St. Francis District was that the case be dealt with expeditiously; that there be no unnecessary delay in bringing it to a conclusion.

Mr. Geoffrion further stated to the Court the desire of the Attorney-General that if it appeared to the Court that the prisoner, Harry K. Thaw, was held in the district jail illegally, that he should be set at liberty as soon as possible.

"The Attorney-General desires me to point out," said Mr. Geoffrion in his statement to the Court, "that he does not desire the district jail to be made use of, either as a boarding house or as a refuge from the working of Federal Statutes."

Mr. Geoffrion further set forth that the Attorney-General was only concerned with the question of the legality of the prisoner's present incarceration. If he was in jail illegally, he wanted him set free as speedily as possible. With any subsequent action which might be taken under Federal law he had nothing to do, and was not concerned in this direction.

So intervention of Attorney-General is the big issue which the counsel of Harry K. Thaw found themselves up against this morning.

HABEAS CORPUS PROBLEM FIRST.

The habeas corpus problem was however first before the Court. As Mr. Geoffrion stated the attorney general would prefer that the prisoner be liberated under habeas corpus if the Court finds that this can be done.

If not he requests his speedy release by the Court if it appears that he is illegally held.

"We contend that that grand old institution, the Magna Charta, is being violated by this writ, taken out by Constable Boudreau, pretending to act in interests of the prisoner, while it is well known that the action is really taken on behalf of the foreign state. Harry K. Thaw is an alien, but is just as much entitled to the protection of the British flag as Mr. Jerome or any other American in the city. He should be delivered over to his enemies under this writ, pretended to be in his interests, but actually on behalf of the State of New York which seeks to return him to Matteawan Asylum.

The above is the gist of the pretensions of the counsel for Thaw.

PROCEEDINGS AT COURT HOUSE

At 10 o'clock this morning Harry K. Thaw was brought before Mr. Justice Hutchinson, in chambers. Only the attorneys and officials connected with the case and the newspapermen were present.

A large crowd gathered in the vicinity of the Court House and the large court room was filled with interested spectators. They were, however, doomed to disappointment. Thaw was brought to the Court House at 10 a.m. and conducted, not to the large court room, but to the judge's chambers.

This morning's proceedings, therefore, were without the spectacular features which marked the hearing the other day.

The proceedings opened with the reading by Prothonotary Broderick of the famous commitment under which Harry K. Thaw is held.

ATTORNEYS DECLARE THEMSELVES.

The attorneys in the case then declared to His Lordship their stand in the case.

Attorney Geoffrion, representing the Attorney-General.

Attorney F. Campbell representing the Minister of Interior.

Attorney H. Verrett representing Petitioner Boudreau.

Attorneys Nicol and Jacobs as counsel for Petitioner Boudreau.

Attorneys Shurtleff, Fraser, White and McKeown representing the prisoner, Harry K. Thaw.

SEEK ADJOURNMENT.

The lawyers for Thaw made a big effort to secure adjournment till next Friday morning.

The reasons offered were: 1.—That J. N. Greenshields, K.C., leading lawyer for Harry K. Thaw, could not be present, being obliged to be in Montreal to attend a meeting of the Quebec Railway bondholders, a matter in which he was heavily interested.

2.—That Boudreau, petitioner in the habeas corpus proceedings, was not present, though they had had assurances that he would be. Yesterday being a legal holiday they were unable to serve a summons on him in this connection. They regarded his presence as essential.

3.—That the intervention of the Attorney-General, through Mr. Geoffrion, had taken them absolutely by surprise, and they desired time to consult authorities and prepare to meet the new situation.

The opposing counsel, including Mr. Geoffrion, opposed the request for adjournment. The argument in this connection occupied an hour.

Mr. Geoffrion stated that it was the expressed wish of the Attorney-General that the case be dealt with with all possible expedition. On behalf of the Attorney-General he opposed delay.

ADJOURNMENT DENIED.

Mr. Justice Hutchinson denied the request to adjourn. He pointed out that he did not regard the presence of Boudreau as essential to the case. There were only two points involved.

1.—Is the prisoner detained in jail illegally.

2.—Has Boudreau a right to petition in habeas corpus proceedings for his release.

His Lordship called for argument on the count of habeas corpus.

THAW DENIES BOUDREAU'S INTEREST.

Dr. Shurtleff filed declarations on behalf of Harry K. Thaw, denying the interests of Constable Boudreau, of Coaticook, the petitioner for habeas corpus.

COURT PROMISES JUDGMENT IN DAY OR TWO.

At the conclusion of the argument, Mr. Justice Hutchinson said he was not prepared to deliver judgment immediately. He would have to take time to consider the matter and would prepare his judgment on the habeas corpus writ in writing.

He would deliver judgment perhaps to-morrow, perhaps on Thursday. In any event, he would notify the interested attorneys of the hour and place.

The court then adjourned and Thaw was returned to jail, where he will remain at least for another night. Should the writ of habeas corpus be denied, even on the Attorney-General's intervention, a delay of some days would be necessary before the matter could come up on another form.

EVENTFUL DAY FOR THAW.

There was little time for rest in the rival legal camps, or in the newspapermen's reserve last night. Keyed up to the highest pitch over the prospect of a most important break in the Thaw case the reporters dared not go to sleep. Starting at eight o'clock the lawyers for the prosecution paid a visit to the Court House Library, where they labored over the scores of leather bound books containing authorities that might prove useful in today's argument. The conference lasted until ten fifteen, after which the lawyers returned to the Magog House.

The lawyers were also active. In a small room in the Magog House, J. N. Greenshields, K. C., W. H. Mc-

Keown and C. D. White, K. C., labored on, and when seen about midnight, Mr. McKeown stated that the defence were as certain of victory as it was possible for mortal man to be.

STILL ANOTHER LAWYER HAS ARRIVED.

The midnight brought in a large number of prominent people, all connected with the Thaw case. Perhaps the most important was Mr. A. Geoffrion, K. C., of Montreal, who is here as the representative of the Attorney-General of Quebec Province. It is understood he will be present and take part in the hearing this morning. His mission here is to have all trifling stopped, and if Thaw is illegally incarcerated to see that he is liberated at once.

AND MORE IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS TOO.

The same train brought E. Blake Robertson, Assistant Superintendent of Immigration, back to Sherbrooke. He was accompanied by Dr. Douglas, the department's alienist; inspectors David Reynolds, W. R. Little and M. Beauchamp. R. J. Little, an official stenographer from the House of Commons was also a member of the party. Here they were joined by Mr. Williams, another inspector, who has been here all week.

JEROME THREATENED.

It was brought to the attention of Mr. Jerome, last night, that several threats had been heard against him. He laughed, but admitted that he did not appear to be popular up here. Captain John Lanyon, who accompanied the former district attorney here, is not so ready to discredit these rumors as is Mr. Jerome, and has a number of men guarding Thaw's prosecutor.

These threats, if such ever were made, are mere idle boasting and no citizen of Sherbrooke expects any outburst of disorder.

THAW HAS NO LEGAL RIGHT

Supt. Scott of Canadian Immigration Says He Must Be Sent Out of Canada

WILL BE SENT BACK TO WHERE DOMINION AUTHORITIES KNOW HE CROSSED.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—(Special).—"Thaw has no legal right in Canada, and I see absolutely nothing else to do but send him back to the United States," declared W. D. Scott, Superintendent of Canadian Immigration, before he left here this morning for Ottawa. He said he would take up the case immediately upon his arrival.

"I am not in touch with the details of the case, but my mind is practically made up that I have but one duty to perform," he asserted. "The question of whether Thaw is insane or had committed a crime need not be considered by me. He did not come into the country at a recognized port of entry, and must be sent back."

Asked if the New York authorities would be permitted to take charge of Thaw, the superintendent replied that "it would seem most obvious that he should be sent back where the Dominion authorities knew he crossed the line."

Among those who were not at their positions, were Mr. F. J. Griffith and Mr. B. A. Dugal.

Mr. E. C. Gatton, the newly appointed Treasurer of the City was on hand at the opening of the office this morning and took over his new duties.

ST. FRANCIS DISTRICT LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Daily Reports from Correspondents Of What Is Going on.

LAKE MEGANTIC.

Mr. Murdo McDonald, son of John McDonald, of Marshboro, who went to the hospital at Montreal two or three weeks ago and underwent a very successful operation for appendicitis, returned home on Saturday with his sister Annie, a nurse.

Mr. Huard shipped another carload of calves and other young stock for Montreal on Saturday. This is the third car Mr. Huard has sent off recently. He also expects to have another one ready for next Saturday.

Mrs. W. Wilder and Mrs. Horsay, of Montreal, who have been occupying their camp at Three Lakes for the past few weeks, left last week for New York.

There was a very sharp frost here the early part of last week that badly damaged potatoes and other garden vegetables on low-lying ground.

Mr. D. S. Draper, of Wilton, N.H., was in town last week with his auto, calling on friends at Lake Megantic, and will return again for the hunting season.

Mr. Carl Covey, of Woburn, has moved his family into the new house that he has had built this spring. It is quite a large two-story building that will accommodate a number of guests, which he expects as soon as the hunting season opens. Several new buildings have gone up in the Woburn district since a recent visit there, showing that it is prospering and is a growing place. It was also noticed the only modern reapers and binders are to be seen around Lake Megantic, cutting the grain.

The Rev. J. S. Michaud, the cure of Woburn, St. Augustine Church, is to be moved in a short time to St. Romane. He will be replaced by the Rev. J. V. Lafontaine, from Windsor Mills.

Dr. O. C. Ramsey, of New Haven, Conn., is at present occupying his camp at Arnold Pond, which he purchased from Mr. Draper.

There are several guests at the camps of the Megantic Fish and Game Club at Arnold Pond which are this year under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Durell, of Eutaw, Me. The new dining camp is a nice, large building, with a wide verandah around three sides, which, with the old dining camp and several private camps, forms quite a village on a prominent point jutting out into the lake, and with the majestic pines overshadowing them and the mountain on the north side of the lake for a background, it forms quite a picturesque scene.

Mr. Leopold Girard has finished his new home near the Three Lakes wharf, and it is quite an improvement to the district. It is a large, square, two-story building, nicely painted in white, with dark facings, and is a conspicuous object from the wharf.

Mrs. Aulis, who was so severely injured, does not show much improvement.

Mrs. McDonald and Lynch performed an operation on Friday for appendicitis on Mr. Malcolm Smith's little daughter. The operation was very successful. Latest reports are that she is progressing favorably.

The Model School re-opened here today, Sept. 2nd, with the following staff of teachers: Mr. Duncan, principal; Miss Hurd, model; Miss Collegh, elementary; Mrs. McLeod, primary.

All welcomed the homecoming of our esteemed friend and neighbor, Mr. F. G. Goodenough, after a month's tour through the Western States, touching Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota. He did not find the grain and corn crops very good. Corn, especially, was very poor and not a 50 per cent yield. Continuing his tour through Winnipeg, Crow's Nest Pass, Kootenay Lake, arriving at Kaslo, B.C., he remained there two weeks and spent a most enjoyable visit with his son, Mr. James Goodenough, and family. Continuing his route to Nelson, up Arrow Lake to Revelstoke, and then home through parts of the Canadian North-West, where the wheat crop yield is extra, but seems to be somewhat late. On the whole he had a most enjoyable trip, but would advise middle-aged people to locate in the Eastern Townships, as there is certainly more comfort here.

Next Sunday, September 7th, will be children's day at the Methodist Church. The Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. Moore, will take the choir at both services. Special music has been prepared and several solos will be rendered.

Exhibition Pianos

Our Exhibit at the Fair includes some of the choicest pianos ever shown in Canada.

Among the famous Heintzman & Co. instruments is a superb small size Grand in Colonial case, Art finish; a new design in Chippendale upright piano, and a full assortment of the regular and less expensive styles.

In Chickering Sons of Boston, we have a specially attractive small Grand piano, known as the Quarter-Grand, which is probably one of the most desirable small size Grands known or used in the United States.

The special collection of Wilson Pianos is without question the best we have ever received, and are sure to sell quickly.

Added to the above are a full line of the reliable Weber Pianos in mahogany and mission cases; Milton Pianos of New York, and others.

The line of Player-Pianos for the Fair will be found most attractive to all who are interested in these very popular instruments.

We shall offer these splendid Exhibition Pianos at very reasonable prices, and hope you will favor us with a visit at our stand in the Main Building, also at our new piano store, 144 Wellington St. Convenient waiting rooms for ladies, and all visitors welcome.

HAS BROUGHT SHERBROOKE INTO GREAT PROMINENCE.
Mr. A. M. Sangster has just returned from a ten days' automobile trip to Old Orchard. He went through the Crawford Notch and returned via Laconia and the Franconian Arch. As his car was flying the Sherbrooke pennant he was immediately connected with the Thaw case at every stopping place. In the hotels, numerous enquiries were made, invariably commencing "I see you have got Thaw up in Sherbrooke."

Mr. Sangster came from Colebrook to Coaticook over the same route covered by Thaw in his flight.

Mr. Sangster praises the New Hampshire roads very highly.

A TREAT COMING.
Geo. R. Guy presents this season the best show he ever had and the best that ever came to His Majesty's.

The Guy Brothers Minstrels are on the top-notch of success and guarantee to give the finest entertainment ever given by any similar organization. A clean, chaste and refined performance, with elegant new scenery and costumes, a lot of surprises for the public, some of the hits of last season being retained, such as Adams and Hill, who made every one scream with laughter at their very funny falls. The Great Ludwig, a wonderful impersonator will be seen, with his elegant gowns, etc. The Davis Brothers, two gentlemen that play on every kind of musical instrument, draw a very large salary, but are the very best of entertainers and worth the admission alone. Herman, the Human Bird, a European novelty act, is well worth going miles to see and will keep you guessing. Fritz & Arnold, the expert dancers, are sure to please you. The singing is grand. Several new soloists will be heard, who are of the best. The orchestra will be of the same high standard as ever. This attraction will appear at His Majesty's three nights, commencing Wednesday, September 3rd.

Anti-Boxing Agitation

Fred Welsh, the light-weight champion of the world, gave a boxing exhibition at the Carnarvon Pavilion to an audience which numbered about 1,000. The nature of the exhibition had provided much adverse criticism among Nonconformist leaders in the town, and, had time permitted, an endeavor would doubtless have been made to put a stop to it. The agitation may lead to county council candidates being asked to make the exclusion of boxing exhibitions a condition of granting theatrical licenses.

Blowing Open a Safe

On the charge of attempting to blow open a safe at the Theatre Royal, a young man named Alfred Smith was at Liverpool committed for trial. His lips and chin were covered with plaster, and it was alleged he had used gunpowder for blowing open the safe and had been injured by the explosion. He was stated to have said: "I had the light at the end of a stick and stood near the door, but it went off too quickly. The two other fellows cleared to the top of the building they were frightened."

Mother of 42 Children

Mr. Fred W. Edwards writes from Swadlincote, Derbyshire to the Editor of "The Daily Mail":

Sir,—The mention in your Saturday's issue of an hotel-keeper's large family reminds me of a tombstone in the churchyard of Monks Kirby, near Rugby. The inscription reads:

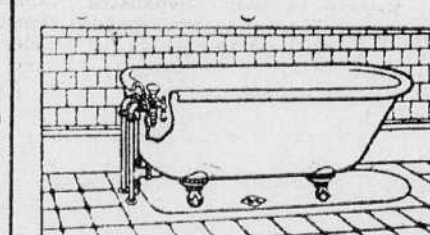

"In memory of Eliza Mott, wife of John Mott, who died October 24, 1726 married 44 years, and the mother of 42 children.

"A loving wife, a tender mother, scarce left behind her such another."

Chemical Company's plant at Weedon, including wood alcohol, acetate of lime, charcoal, etc., a somewhat unique collection of wood products, commanding much attention. There are also exhibits of Chrome Ore, Copper Ore, Brick, Square Birch, Lime, Maple Sugar and numerous other products.

The exhibit is being looked after by the Boston representative of the Quebec Central Ry., Mr. P. R. Neill, and Mr. F. Castonguay, of Quebec, and those who pay a visit to it will be well repaid for the time so invested.

H. C. WILSON & SONS.

The exhibit of H. C. Wilson & Sons, Ltd., pianos, organs and pianos, is the most extensive and valuable collection of the instruments ever shown in Sherbrooke or elsewhere in this province.

In this exhibit may be seen the famous Chickering of Boston small Quarter-Grand pianos in "Art" finish mahogany; Heintzman & Company Colonial Grand piano in very handsome mahogany case, Heintzman & Company Chickering Upright Piano, and a full line of the regular Heintzman & Company instruments, including the great Heintzman & Company Player-Piano with Patent Aluminum Action.

Next to these is shown the splendid group of Wilson Pianos, new designs of walnut, oak and mahogany case, many of which are of special design made for the Fair. Weber pianos in mission oak and mahogany, and a full line of the regular Heintzman & Company instruments, including the great Heintzman & Company Player-Piano with Patent Aluminum Action.

A specially attractive feature of Wilson & Sons' exhibit is the "Scenograph" showing the large factories of the Hudson River, with battleships and steamers passing. This is a most ingenious and attractive "Moving Picture" and should be seen by all visitors at the Fair, at Messrs. Wilson & Sons' stand in the Main Building.

In this exhibit is also shown a very complete display of the celebrated Victor-Vietrolas and Berliner Gramophones, for which Messrs. Wilson & Sons' store is headquarters for Eastern Townships.

Very attractive music is being furnished by Mr. Bourguignon, the well-known pianist from His Majesty's Theatre.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL HOSPITAL. General Hospital St. Vincent de Paul have a large and attractive tent erected on the same location occupied by them for the past few years where lunch, fruit, ice cream and cigars are offered for sale. This popular refreshment booth was largely patronized yesterday by those attending the Fair and receipts were largely in excess of first day of all former years. At about five o'clock last evening the ladies in charge received a great surprise in the form of a check on the Bank of Commerce, Sherbrooke for fifty dollars from Harry K. Thaw. The receipt representative was shown this check and received assurance that the gift was very much appreciated. Mrs. L. H. Oliver and Miss A. McWilliams have the management in hand and thank all who so kindly contributed to the worthy cause, and feel sure of adding a substantial sum to the funds of General Hospital St. Vincent de Paul at the close of the Exhibition week.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY EXHIBIT, SHERBROOKE FAIR. The C.P.R. policy, as regards Exhibitions, is "Don't exhibit at all unless your exhibit is absolutely first-class." Those who visit the Sherbrooke Fair this year will agree that the C.P.R. has lived up to its standard for nothing could be more attractive or original than the show it has put up.

The stand is at the entrance to the main building, in the same portion as last year's, but an entirely new scheme of decoration has been put in with illuminating models which have never been exhibited in Canada before. Two fine moose heads catch the eye as one approaches the C.P.R. stand, and then a row of life-belts, each with the name of a C.P.R. Atlantic or Pacific steamer painted upon it; the general scheme of color is subdued and very harmonious, but a note of gaiety is struck in the centre which illustrates the Pacific service of the C.P.R., particularly the splendid steamer, the "Empress of Russia."

A highly decorative Japanese parasol, 12 feet wide, caps this centre piece, flanked by rows of real Japanese dolls, in the quaint costume of the land of the Chrysanthemum. On each side of this Oriental exhibit are two fascinating models—one a facsimile of the interior of a peasant cottage in the Austrian Tyrol (this to illustrate the C.P.R. Steamship service to Trieste and Observation Car Service in the Tyrolean Alps), the other, the interior of a room at the C.P.R. Hotel in the Canadian Rockies. Through the windows of these models one sees a landscape, an ingenious el-ion with the above case were made and are the work and personal dictation of Mr. H. Verret, K. C., of Coaticook, Que.

Third—I may state that I have signed the said documents in the regular course, and in good faith. Fourth—I bitterly regret any errors and omissions which may have been made, and I believe it only legitimate that Mr. Verret should place real and proper light.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for the insertion of the above correction, I am Yours Very Truly,
A. L. DUPUIS,
Coaticook, Que., Sept. 1st., 1913.

FORMIDABLE CASE SAYS AMERICAN JUDGE.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—Justice Parker, of the Washington Supreme Court of Appeals, fails to see how the New York State Jurisdiction can demand the return of Thaw to that State.

"It appears to me," he said, "that the question is not a legal one but purely one for administration. Thaw was never convicted of a crime. He is an escaped ward, not a criminal." Asked if the present tangle would have resulted were positions reversed and Thaw escaped from this country into the States Justice Parker said it probably would under identical circumstances.

"Under these conditions, however, I do not see how the Courts would have anything to do in the matter. The Courts do not decide in our country as to whether a man is a fit person to admit or not. The administration decides on that and if the officials deport the man he has no recourse in United States Courts, not being an American citizen. Had Thaw been tried in England and pleaded insanity he would have first another writ of Habeas Corpus, in which it is said the Justice of the Peace, A. L. Dupuis, erroneously committed him to the common jail for the District of St. Francis at Sherbrooke, without any form of preliminary inquiry or remand, and in no way was the procedure made and provided in such cases complied with.

I feel it my duty, Mr. Editor to place before the public the exact facts in connection with the above commitment.

First—Whilst a Justice of the Peace is presumed to possess some legal knowledge of law, he is supposed to believe documents when prepared by lawyers, to be legally drawn up.

Second—The documents in connection with the above case were made been convicted and then judged as to insanity. He was never convicted in New York State so they have no hold on him, as England would have had. As the affair now stands, I agree with Viscount Haldane, it is a formidable case."

"FAKE" STORY SAID THAW HAD BEEN SHOT.

New York, Sept. 2.—New Yorkers were startled late Sunday afternoon, when they were met at railroad and ferry terminals and on the principal thoroughfares by swarms of apparently excited newshy, who waved copies of "The Philadelphia Telegram," which read:

"Harry Thaw shot trying to escape."

The type covered the whole of the top half of the first page. For each copy sold, the newshy received five cents, and they disposed of thousands.

Afterwards it was ascertained that the paper was a "fake."

Evelyn Thaw, when called to the telephone, dropped the receiver, and did not resign her composure for some moments when told of the publication in regard to her husband.

CHEQUES FROM THAW.

Both the St. Vincent de Paul and Protestant Hospital received cheques yesterday, for $50 each, from Harry K. Thaw.

MARSHALL TALKS TO CROWD.

Lewis J. Marshall, former inmate of several U. S. asylums, harrassed the crowd in Stratheona Square this morning.

He would deliver judgment perhaps day that 50,000 sane persons are held in U. S. asylums.

Quite a crowd remained to hear him, being debarred from the hearing of the Thaw case in court.

HEAVY MAIL AT POST OFFICE.

The volume of mail at the Sherbrooke Post Office has greatly increased as a result of the Thaw case. This applies both to outgoing and incoming mails. All parties who have received prominence in the case are receiving letters from all parts of America.

Mr. Jerome is receiving an especially large mail, not all, it is said, complimentary to his mission here. The former district attorney, however, has been in the thick of the fight for a good many years, and the opinions of those opposed to him do not worry him.

Thaw's mail is heavy in both directions. Lawyers and doctors who have been mentioned in the case are not forgotten, and all are receiving letters.

NEW YORK BUSINESS FIRM'S OPINIONS.

Dr. H. Spencer has received a business letter from E. B. Estes & Sons, a big manufacturing firm in New York.

The business part of the letter is about four lines in length, and to this is added a couple of pages of Thaw observations.

This is the usual way with business letters that are coming out of New York nowadays.

The following are extracts from Estes & Sons' letter:—"We hope that you Canadians are going to allow Thaw to go to Europe un molested. New York State has no wish to have him return here. At least, the taxpayers of this State don't wish, as they have already spent half a million dollars in prosecuting him and taking care of him. It is the gang that simply want to get hold of Thaw's millions that is making the fight to have him returned to New York. They are not worried about his sanity; he is perfectly capable of taking care of himself, but why should New York State be so anxious to spend thousands of dollars in having him returned, when if he is allowed to escape he will never come within New York's boundary again. Thaw's millions are the big attraction, but this present government that is in control of New York State will be swept of the political earth at our first election next November."

"We earnestly hope and sincerely pray that you will not permit this lot of gangsters to dictate to you. If there were not fifteen or twenty millions back Harry K. Thaw he would be permitted to go to Europe or wherever he wished to go. There have been many escapes from Matteawan, but no particular efforts made to get the persons back. Canadian justice should permit him to go to Europe or pass through their country unmolested. The American people will be better pleased, and ninety-nine out of every one hundred New Yorkers will be better pleased if the Canadians do not play into the hands of the gang that is after Thaw, and if Thaw is permitted to leave the country."

ESCAPES FROM MATTEAWAN.

The following is a record of escapes from Matteawan:— April 10, 1895—Oliver Curtis Perry, Patrick McGuire, Michael O'Donnell, and Frank Davis. Overpowered guards, stole the keys and walked out. Missing several days before located and recaptured.

Dec. 19, 1910—Michael O'Donnell (second escape) and Patrick Quinn. Attacked their guards and got away. Quickly recaptured.

GIRL KILLED AT PICNIC.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—An accident, in which a young woman, 25 years of age, was crushed to death, marred the Highlanders' picnic at Beaconsfield yesterday. Otherwise the picnic which was attended by some fifteen hundred members of the Highlanders' sweethearts, would have been completely a success, the weather being fine and the arrangements made for an enjoyable day working out satisfactorily.

BAD WRECK IN ENGLAND

Fifteen Persons Lost Their Lives

LONDON—SCOTLAND EXPRESS MEETS WITH DISASTER.

WRECK CAUGHT FIRE.

Kirkcubright, County of Westmoreland, England, Sept. 2.—(Special)—Fifteen persons are believed to have been killed and thirty persons injured in a collision of two sections of the famous London-Scotland express, at an early hour to-day.

Official reports account for nine known dead, while correspondents on the spot reported that the fatalities numbered fifteen. The wreck occurred on the Midland Railway, near Hawes Junction, the two sections being southbound. The second section dashed into the rear of the first, telescoping several coaches, which burst into flames. Many persons were trapped, and if not killed outright they were burned to death. At least thirty passengers were taken from the wreckage suffering injuries or burns, and as many as ten of these may die.

Nine charred bodies were taken from the wreck, and it was believed that several others were still among the debris. Another disaster occurred near the same spot on December 26, 1910, when eight passengers lost their lives and twenty-five were injured.

TURNED SOMERSAULT WITH AEROPLANE

Thrilling Manoeuvre of French Aviator Pegoud, While in Air.

SHOWED THAT HE HAD CONTROL AND FAITH IN STABILITY OF AEROPLANE.

Versailles, France, Sept. 2.—(Special)—The thrilling manoeuvre of turning a somersault in the air with an aeroplane, flying at a rapid speed, was repeated today by the French aviator, Pegoud, over the aerodrome at Buc, near here, with perfect success.

Pegoud had promised to demonstrate that his performance at Juvisy yesterday was not the result of an accident, but was proof of proper control and also of the stability of the aeroplane, and he carried out the daring feat with apparent ease again to-day in the presence of the second in command of the French Army flying corps, about 100 military and civilian aviators, and a large assemblage of the general public.
