CAMPBELL - ATKINSON

On June 6, 2009 in a beautiful setting at Strathmire in North Gower, Ontario, Kristen and Alexander exchanged their wedding vows. The ceremony was performed outside under a rose arbour by officiant Lynne Langley. Kristen wore a Maggie Sottaro original with a strapless sweetheart bodice, complimented by a lace bolero jacket. She wore a gorgeous set of pearl earrings, necklace and bracelet, which were custom made by Linda Stewart-Burton. She also made Kristen's headpiece, which was constructed around her Grandmother's (the late Hazel Hines) brooch, attached to a blusher veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, feathers and pearls. Alex wore a black pinstriped suit, with a yellow rose boutonniere. Kristen's attendants were her cousin and friend, Jonathan Hitz as man of honour, Shannon Carmichael, Ashley Smith (friends of the bride) as bridesmaids, Vanessa Campbell (sister of the groom) as junior bridesmaid and Jillian Campbell (sister of the groom) as flower girl and ring bearer. Alex's attendants were Peter Storr as best man, Craig McKinnon and Andy Seabrook (all friends of the groom) as groomsmen and Collin Campbell (brother of the groom) as junior groomsmen. Following the ceremony, guests enjoyed a gala cocktail reception. Kristen is the only daughter of Linda and John Atkinson and granddaughter of Helen and the late Cyrus Atkinson, all from Shawville, Quebec. Alex is the son of Debbie and John Campbell, from Orleans, Ontario. Kristen and Alex were so grateful that Pappy could be with them on their very special day.
