Companies Say:

Railmen's Demands 'Shocking'

MONTREAL (CP) — A strike threat appeared a possibility today after management of Canada's major railways denounced union proposals for a wage increase as "shocking" in their "extravagance."

The 15 non-operating unions represent 140,000 men—127,000 of them yard and maintenance employees of Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railways.

They are asking a 17-cent hourly increase plus a raise equal to 11 per cent of their current pay. Both parties figured the total at about 35 cents an hour.

Non-operating employees make about $1.63 an hour under the present contract, which expires Dec. 31.

"The extravagance of these demands is shocking," the railways said in a joint statement issued by their vice-presidents for personnel.

$1,000 PER MAN

The demands would average more than $1,000 a year for each man, an additional labor bill of $128,000,000, said Dr. D. I. McNeill of Canadian Pacific and W. T. Wilson of Canadian National.

The extra cost would jump to $200,000,000 a year if the 50,000 other employees of the two railways not covered by the non-operating unions were included, they said.

In the face of "drastically" falling revenues, rising costs, and warnings of inflation, the demands are "absolutely irresponsible," they said and added that the demands "pose a grave threat to the railways and would inevitably deal a blow to the whole Canadian economy."

Frank H. Hall, chairman of the general conference committee of the rail unions, said the proposal for an increase is designed to bring railway workers wages to the level of those of other industries and to maintain parity during the life of the contract.

Fringe demands include a better vacation-with-pay deal, an eighth statutory holiday—Remembrance Day, Nov. 11—introduction of severance pay and means within the contract for negotiating differentials between hard and easy jobs.

Drastic Cure

OTTAWA (CP)—The only way to stamp out monopolies in Canada is to send directors of offending companies to jail. Alistair Stewart (CCF-Winnipeg North) said Wednesday.

Brandos Expecting

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Marlon Brando said Wednesday he and his actress — wife, Anna Kashfi, are expecting a baby early next July.

GUAM.—(AP)—Guam is braced for typhoon Lola, expected to pass 20 miles to the south by noon Friday.

Lesage Says PCs Without Policies, Covering Up With Election Threats

OTTAWA — (CP) — Liberal Jean Lesage has charged Prime Minister Diefenbaker with having no policies of his own and hiding that fact by threatening to call an election.

If the government does call an election, said the MP for Montreal-L'Islet in the Commons Wednesday, it would be "an admission of failure... a retreat from reality... a confession of a lack of policy."

Mr. Lesage, former resources minister, said the Progressive Conservatives are giving Canada "government by postponement." Most of their legislation to date was merely an extension of policies developed by former Liberal governments.

Even the appointment of a royal commission to study energy resources, including the trans-Canada natural gas pipeline, was the government's way of hiding the fact that it wanted to adopt Liberal pipeline policy.

ATTACKS LIBERALS

Alistair Stewart (CCF-Winnipeg North), following in the throne speech debate, said it appears one must have "an illimitable amount of gall" to be a successful Liberal party member. In 12 years in the Commons, he said, every Liberal policy he had seen had been filched from other parties.

Mr. Lesage's speech was one of the strongest Liberal attacks on the government of the throne speech debate, which today moves into its second-last day. Tonight the Commons votes on

Montreal Tops Fatality Rate

MONTREAL — (CP) — Montreal has the highest rate of fatalities per car registration of any city in North America, Oliver Quevillon of the city's traffic department said Wednesday.

Speaking at a public safety forum sponsored by the young men's section of the Montreal board of trade, he said the total economic loss in deaths, injuries and property damage by car accidents amounted to some $18,500,000 during 1956.

Missile Defense To Be Costly

OTTAWA (CP)—Big Canadian expenditures are in prospect for a defence against the intercontinental ballistic missile.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker said in the Commons Wednesday the defence research board and the United States Air Force are conducting a joint research program into detection and interception of the intercontinental ballistic missile. He added:

"It is our intention to follow up very closely this joint development and to give this project of creating a defence against the ballistic missile high priority in our defence program."

Officials have said that an effective defence against the missile—if one can be perfected—will cost hundreds of millions of dollars, mainly in electronic

Diplomatic Revolution NATO's Need

PARIS (Reuters)—NATO chief Paul-Henri Spaak today called for a "revolution in diplomacy"—a compulsory common Western foreign policy.

The secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization also said the West's task of matching Russian scientific achievement is difficult because "we must have both the Sputnik and the washing machine."

Spaak was addressing legislators from 15 NATO nations at a six-day conference here prior to the December meeting of NATO government chiefs.

The necessity of "guns and butter"—Sputnik and the washing machine—calls for Western nations to work together. "None of our countries can do it alone," he said.

Last year's Suez crisis showed that NATO must have a common world policy.

Eisenhower Tells US Defence Comes First

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—President Eisenhower says that the cost of weapons in the space age means that there will be "very considerable" boost in United States defence spending.

As a result, non-essential national programs will have to be cut drastically or eliminated entirely and a balanced budget will have to be sacrificed for the time being, the president said Wednesday.

He departed from his prepared text to add: "And pressure groups will wait in anguish."

In a television-radio address, the president also called for a stepped-up educational program of training scientists to meet the Russian threat. He suggested the program include such incentives as fellowship grants to provide more science teachers. But he did not go into detail on his suggestion.

Eisenhower asked for greater concentration on basic research, saying "the warning lies in the fast rate of increase of the Soviet effort" in that field of science.

MEETING CHALLENGE
Making the second of a series of "chins-up" talks, Eisenhower said Russia's challenge is being met and will continue to be met.

He cautioned that Russia's development of weapons of the future mean "there is danger ahead for free men everywhere."

The president, addressing an overflow audience in the 6,000-seat Municipal Auditorium, recalled that Nazi dictator Hitler once boasted he would bury the free world.

"Not enough people took him at his word," Eisenhower said in likening the situation then to the Russian threat today.

"We shall not make that mistake again."

After outlining some individual and specific defence costs, the president said:

"There has been much discussion lately about whether Soviet technological breakthroughs in particular areas may have suddenly exposed us to immediately increased danger."

NOT THE CASE
"As I pointed out last week, this is not the case. But these

Judge Took Him At His Word

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Judge Fred J. Hyder warned the defendant in an arson trial Wednesday to keep silent.

But James van de la Bogart, 65, continued to interrupt court proceedings with loud cries of "I'm being railroaded. I demand my constitutional rights."

Judge Hyder issued another warning.

Van del a Bogart yelled back, "Why don't you gag me?"

Judge Hyder answered by instructing sheriff's deputy Kenneth Love to push a dish towel over the defendant's mouth.

The gag stayed there until a jury was selected.

French Protest Tunisia Arms Deal

PARIS (Reuters)—France today accused Britain and the United States of acting against the interests of the Atlantic alliance by planning to send arms to the former French protectorate of Tunisia. The French claim the arms are sent to Algerian rebels.

An official statement said the French government "regretted the Anglo-American initiative contrary to the conceptions of Atlantic solidarity which should come into play in all parts of the world."

The financial plight of municipal and school corporations also would be considered.

The government gave notice it will bring down 12 bills during the first days of the session, including measures dealing with the courts of justice, maritime fisheries and highway construction.

BIRTHDAY AT SCHOOL
Although his picture was in the paper, flags flew in his honor and salutes were fired, the heir to the throne spent today as any other day at his boarding school. It meant a routine day of classes and sports, but with presents from his family, of course.

Commenting on the official ninth birthday photo, The Daily Mail says it "captured the eternal spirit of the schoolboy."

The Daily Mirror says it showed Charles "growing up fast" and "very much the young man." "The mood of a boy at ease," adds the London Daily Sketch.

The Daily Herald finds the prince "surprisingly at ease," but, even so, the photo is "slightly unreal." Why, it asks, the grand piano instead of something "informal and natural" for the background.

New Legislative Program

QUEBEC — (CP) — The Provincial Government yesterday called for a larger share of federal tax revenues collected in Quebec.

The Speech from the Throne inaugurating the annual Legislature session said continuing industrial development in widely-scattered areas of the province makes large government expenditures "imperative."

These in turn will require "a more complete use of the revenue sources which the Canadian constitution recognizes as belonging to the provinces — to the province of Quebec particularly."

The speech, read by Lieutenant-Governor Gaspard Fauteux, said a federal-provincial conference is scheduled to take place in Ottawa Nov. 25-26 and the Quebec Premier will "again express the present government's constant policy in constitutional matters."

The government expressed the hope the talks would be a complete success.

Since Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale party won the 1944 election, federal-provincial taxation proposals have been turned down and federal grants in several fields refused.

Quebec now is the only province in Canada which collects its own direct taxes on personal income, corporation income and successions.

Quebec taxpayers may deduct 10 per cent of their federal personal income tax, nine per cent of the corporation tax and 50 per cent of the inheritance tax for provincial purposes.

LARGER DEDUCTIONS

Government circles say the Premier will ask the federal government to permit larger tax deductions. Mr. Duplessis has described the deductible 10 per cent in the field of personal income tax "as a fraction of our rights."

He is expected to seek at the federal-provincial talks a full 15 per cent deductibility matching more closely the rate of the Quebec tax on personal income. Persons in the higher wage brackets now pay more to Quebec than they are allowed to deduct from their federal income tax.

Traditional ceremonies marked opening of the session, second since the 1956 provincial election when the Union Nationale elected 72 members to the 93-seat legislative assembly.

Since then four deaths created vacancies which were filled after by-elections in September. The government maintained its position in three ridings and won the fourth seat from the Liberals.

Standing in the Assembly at present is Union Nationale 73, Liberals 17, Independents 73. The Assembly was adjourned until today when the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne will be proposed. Traditional Throne Speech debate will start next week.

NO SURPRISES
The 1,550-word Speech from the Throne contained no surprises.

The government reasserted its view that education is exclusively a provincial field. Health problems would continue to be resolved "without compromising our essential rights."

Specifically, the speech forecast legislation to increase funds available for farm credit, housing aid, rural electrification and road construction.

It also said provincial rent control imposed after the federal government vacated the field following the Second World War would continue for another year.

The government said it would continue its ban on margarine in the province, and promised to look into farm marketing problems.

The financial plight of municipal and school corporations also would be considered.

The government gave notice it will bring down 12 bills during the first days of the session, including measures dealing with the courts of justice, maritime fisheries and highway construction.

2 Eastern Townships By-Election Winners Take Assembly Seats

By WARREN SPAFFORD

QUEBEC — Two Eastern Townships M.L.A.'s, Dr. J. Emile Fortin, representing Megantic and Claude Gosselin, of Compton, were sworn in before the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, Antoine Lemieux, yesterday prior to the opening of the Second Session of the 25th Legislature.

Dr. Fortin, who at 72 is embarking on his political career, will move the acceptance of the Speech from the Throne and Mr. Gosselin will second the motion. He is the youngest member of the Legislative Assembly.

The Speech from the Throne was read by Lt. Gov. Fauteux in the Legislative Council chambers in a ceremony starting at 3 p.m. Lt. Gov. Fauteux arrived at the Parliament Buildings shortly before 3 p.m. and inspected a guard of honor.

He was scheduled to be met by Premier Maurice Duplessis at the Indian's Door before going into the Legislative Council chambers, but the Premier was delayed and they met in an anti-chamber of the Parliamentary cafeteria.

Accompanying the Lt. Gov. to the chambers were the cabinet ministers, among them Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Hydraulic Resources who represents Sherbrooke in the Assembly.

Of the 12 Eastern Townships members, only one, J. R. R. Bernard of Drummond County was absent for the opening day events. The two Liberal representatives, Glen Brown of Brome

West Still Dicking With Reds

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) The United Nations assembly turned to the thorny disarmament issue today as the West sought to bring Russia back into negotiations by agreeing to add 10 countries to the disarmament commission.

Western delegates hoped to introduce a compromise proposal after the assembly vote on a 24-nation resolution calling for new disarmament negotiations based on the latest Western proposals.

The resolution, which cleared the political committee 57 to 9 last week, was certain of assembly approval.

The compromise plan appeared headed for trouble, however. A Soviet spokesman told a reporter his delegation did not agree with the political makeup of the proposed additions. They include only one Soviet bloc member—either Poland or Czechoslovakia—and would have pro-Western Tunisia represent the Middle East.

The Russians have announced they will not negotiate with either the 12-nation disarmament commission or its five-nation subcommittee. This would render pointless the Western call for new arms talks and cripple the whole UN disarmament machinery.

Krush In Party Mood

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev was in his best cocktail party form again Wednesday night, tossing off comments on a wide variety of topics. Some remarks of the Soviet Communist party secretary:

"I know (the United States) doesn't have the kind of rockets we have and you won't have them soon."

President Eisenhower, State Secretary Dulles and all other U.S. leaders would be welcomed in Moscow "as dear friends."

Marshal Georgi Zhukov "did not turn out well as a political figure but as a military figure he was a remarkable man..."

"Does anyone doubt" that Britain is a satellite of the United States? Khrushchev immediately apologized for this remark and said he was "ready to take it back."

HONOR EGYPTIAN

Khrushchev and most important Soviet government leaders turned up at an Egyptian embassy reception honoring Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, visiting Egyptian minister of war and joint commander of Egyptian and Syrian troops.

Khrushchev proposed a toast "to our armies—the armies of the Soviet Union, Egypt and Syria." Both the Egyptian and Syrian armies are armed and advised by Russia.

A British correspondent suggested to Khrushchev that the Soviet Union halt firing of its big rockets.

"We have to test them," the Soviet leader said. "What can we

By BOB THOMAS

NEW YORK (AP)—James Cagney, flanked by two New York policemen, walked to the end of Pier 17 through a crowd of tough longshoremen.

The workers greeted him warmly, shouting comments to him. He answered them back in kind, and they were delighted. It was obvious that they accepted him as one of their kind.

Cagney was reporting for a scene in his new movie, Never Steal Anything Small, which was filming near the Brooklyn Bridge. It's a musical satire in which he plays a tough guy who sings his way to control of a corrupt labor union.

When he did his campaign number before the rugged-looking audience on the wind-swept pier—some actors, some not—was immensely convincing. James Cagney, ex-hooper, an actor who has earned millions, still could act the mug.

"That's what growing up in this town did for me," Jimmy said as he sat in the shelter of a truck and surveyed the skyline of New York. "Imagine me trying to play a tough guy if I hadn't been brought up in a tough part of town! Believe me, it has paid off well over the years."

SCENES OF BOYHOOD
Being back in the scenes of his boyhood prompted some nostalgia on his part. He talked about his early days around 79th Street on the east side.

"Sure, the kids were tough in those days," he said. "They used blackjacks and knives then, too. But there didn't seem to be the organization that there is today. We travelled in gangs, but every guy was fundamentally a free-lancer."

"Today, the kid gangs seem to have taken a note from the mobs in organizing and demanding protection money and that sort of thing. It's vicious."

Was Jimmy ever in trouble with the police?
"No, the Cagney boys never got a chance to," he said. "We were always working too hard at some job. Besides, we had a mother who kept drumming into us the idea of education, education."

Ayer's Cliff WMS Entertained By Mrs. R. Merrill

AYER'S CLIFF — The November meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ray Merrill with a good attendance. Mrs. MacVicar presided and welcomed Mrs. Seaton.

Mrs. Johnston presented the financial report making a special appeal for more faithful use of the mite boxes. Missionary Monthly subscriptions were received and more hoped for.

Mrs. Merrill reported for Community Friendship, and recorded all calls made during the month. She also announced the "Upper Room" subscriptions were due.

The nominating committee for the new slate of officers for 1958 will be Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Rexford.

Mrs. F. A. Johnston will entertain the Christmas meeting. Mrs. Rexford reported 23 associate members at present.

The program taken from the book "This is Japan", took the form of a conversation between Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Berwick. They told of the wonderful way Christian laymen in the country are winning others to Christ, especially one named Tanaka San. Christians are in the minority but their efforts are worthy examples of discipleship.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Merrill served tea assisted by Mrs. Wallace and a social time was enjoyed.

Adventists Hold Week Of Prayer

A special "week of prayer" is to be observed from Saturday, November 16, through Saturday, November 23, by the Seventh-day Adventist churches of the Townships. They take their cue from their Washington, D. C., headquarters which has passed this recommendation of their recent "Fall Council" on to the world membership.

Special readings will be read in the churches on Sabbaths and in the homes of members, where groups will gather each night. This will be followed by seasons of prayer, and testimony. World conditions will be made a particular matter of prayer, and testimony. World conditions will be made a particular matter of prayer. Basically, the main purpose of this week is the reconsecration of the church.

Held now for more than 70 years, these events never fail to bring spiritual refreshing. The final Sabbath marks the taking of a "sacrifice offering" dedicated to the church's world mission programme.

Bishop's Expansion Drive Underway

Bishop's Expansion — Shown above is the architects' sketch of the proposed library and academic building to be erected at Bishop's University.

Bishop's University, one of Canada's oldest and most highly respected seats of higher learning, is in the midst of an expansion program. A current appeal is being made to the public for $3,085,000 to finance the development.

The funds are being sought from many different circles, corporations and business firms, graduates and friends of the University. These will be used, not only for the expansion of existing physical facilities, but to provide for increased salaries for present and additional faculty members. New faculty will be needed to instruct the increasing numbers in existing courses, and also to develop new branches, such as Business Administration, which will be introduced next year as an undergraduate degree.

The campaign was announced by John H. Molson, president of the University's governing board, and John Bassett, Chancellor of the University and honorary co-chairman of the drive.

General chairman of the Expansion Fund is Percy M. Fox of Montreal, president of the St. Lawrence Corporation Ltd. O.B. Thornton, president of the Montreal Trust Company is general vice-chairman, while other leaders of the fund include Jack Pembroke, treasurer, W.H. Campbell, administrative chairman, and R.S. White, public information chairman.

Its pleasant campus spreading back from the shores of the Massawippi and St. Francis Rivers, Bishop's was established in 1843, and has been the heart of education in the Eastern Townships since that time. However the Bishop's University Expansion Fund is being conducted from coast to coast in Canada, and in key centres in several other countries, where former students are located.

Though it includes the faculties of pure science, and at one time had a pre-medical school, Bishop's has always stressed its heritage as a small liberal arts college. The "50% expansion" which is necessary will not cause it to lose its distinctive characteristics, and the environment in which its students are prepared for positions of responsibility and leadership. As a result of this program, Bishop's will be in strengthened position to assure a quality education to future generations of talented young men and women.

Specific projects of the Expansion Fund, and their costs based on architects and engineer's estimates are:

Three men detained in connection with the robbery of some $1,100 in cash and 150 cartons of cigarettes from a Stafford Sales Reg'd station wagon Monday afternoon were remanded without bail for trial at a later date after they pleaded not guilty before Judge Edouard Boisvert in Magistrate's Court yesterday.

Rejean Charlebois, alias Leo Champagne, Andre Bastache, and Jules Naud, all from Montreal, underwent their preliminary hearing on the charges after Sherbrooke Police working jointly with the Provincial Police captured the men a few hours after the theft.

National Ballet

History Of Group Told Women's Club

"National Ballet of Canada is more excited by government recognition than by anything else," Miss Kay Ambrose, Art Adviser and here to make advance arrangements for its appearance in Sherbrooke, told the Canadian Women's Club of the Eastern Townships at their regular meeting last evening. Miss Ambrose had been snatched up as she stepped off the train, and carried off to the Canadian Club to pinch-hit for Grant MacEwan, who was fog-bound in Calgary.

In an impromptu address, she outlined briefly the history of National Ballet of Canada, stating that it was organized in 1951 when David Adams, now the principal dancer, and his wife, Lois Smith, the principal ballerina, insisting that Canadian dancers were just as good as American dancers, attracted the attention of Madame de Valois, who persuaded Miss Celia Franca to come to Canada to help organize Canadian dancers into a company. Madame de Valois had herself been decorated by the queen, who had bestowed on her the title "Dame" for her work in the Sadler Well's Ballet Company.

Celia Franca came to Toronto and from there arranged tours to audition dancers all across Canada and thus the National Ballet of Canada was formed to provide opportunity for the obviously abundant supply of Canadian theatrical talent.

At first it played a few scattered engagements in Canada but these soon brought increasing demands from a growing public and a quick recognition was bestowed on it by American audiences. Two out of every three press critics say it is the best company on the American Continent. On tour to Washington, D.C., in 1955 and 1956 it played in Carter-Barron amphitheatre which seats 4000 people and Jay Carmody, considered the best critic in U.S.A., called it his favourite ballet company.

Miss Ambrose said a great factor in its popularity is the good manners of the boys and girls, and the fact they appear in good costumes which are always scrupulously clean.

Going back to the beginning of ballet itself Miss Ambrose told her audience that what might be considered the first ballet was an entertainment provided for the wedding feast in 1489 of Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand, of Columbus fame. Spreading from Spain to Italy and France the ballet form of entertainment was soon introduced via France to Russia where it was subsidized by the Czar but still retained French names for all the movements; so to study ballet one must study French.

Thus a direct descendant, as it were, of Russian Ballet our Canadian National Ballet Company from a beginning of 35 now going 75 persons strong hopes to find a permanent home and, instead of just summer school in Toronto, hopes to establish a year round school for the education of Canadian dancers.

Miss Ambrose was introduced by Mrs. E. T. Webster and thanked by Mrs. P. Beaudry. Seated at the head table were: Mrs. G. B. Loomis, Miss C. Aitkenhead, Mrs. Lewis Rosenbloom, Mrs. P. Beaudry, Mrs. J. Pick, Miss Kay Ambrose, Mrs. E. T. Webster, Mrs. J. A. York and Mrs. F. Steben.

GATT Needs Review

The closing of the Guelph Plywood plant at Scotstown is but another grim reminder of the difficulties being placed upon Canadian industry generally by the rather one-sided observance by this country to the letter and spirit of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade — better known as GATT.

Under GATT the various nations of the world pledged themselves to take certain specific steps to free the channels of world trade, the idea being that any concessions granted should be on a reciprocal basis.

Unfortunately, however, while the Canadian Government moved to implement its obligations fully, the majority of the signatories to the agreement counteracted any tariff privileges which might have been granted by imposing quotas and other restrictions to prevent the free flow of goods that might have competed with their domestic industry.

The result has been that this country has been subjected to an inflow of manufactured goods without receiving any corresponding favors from other nations.

Living On The Other Fellow

"There are not ten good accounts in this town", said a service station owner in a small community disgustedly as he looked over his books.

When a customer entered a small iron foundry to pay his bill within 24 hours the proprietor was ready for battle. He expected a complaint. "It's certainly unusual these days," the foundryman commented as he marked the bill 'paid'.

A young doctor who had set up practice in a town not far from the Townships found he had $8,000 in bad debts on his books after only a few years. They were 'bad' in the sense that they had been owing for a long time. "The worst part of it is that most of these people have money. I've pulled some through bad illnesses. They seemed grateful enough at the time."

Very often a slender purse is not the explanation of slowness or complete failure to pay bills. Those tendering goods or services do not need to be told how much it adds to their costs nor how exasperating it can be. Good value given should merit prompt value in return.

Time was when debtors could be, and frequently were, thrown into prison. This may have been too drastic though some severe souls — and some not so very severe — must feel in their warmer moments that prison would be too mild.

The prevailing leniency is certainly more charitable but in many cases it's a little too charitable. It allows too many people to make a practice of living on the other fellow. There is the collection agency, yes, and ultimately the law but recourse to either has its disadvantages.

Perhaps it's about time professional and business men in general should waive some of their natural reluctance and tighten up on granting credit to those who consistently abuse it.

A German Tribute

Canadian travellers have been paid a tribute that should make them purr — and scramble while they purr. Dr. Arno Staks, managing director of the German Central Tourist Association, says Canadians are unique — not just out of the ordinary but unique — in their desire to explore off-beat localities while touring. In Germany, he says, they make for small villages and farms and enjoy swapping talk in German pubs.

If this kind of commendation reduces Canadians' desire to visit the fabled Rhineland, the Black Forest district and the other beauty spots of Germany it will be "go in plain agin' hum-an nature."

It not only makes a fellow feel like purring it makes him want to return a compliment.

There are few countries where a traveller, trying to get off the beaten path, is treated better than in that of our former enemies. One meets plain courtesy in the cities — a man will frequently go out of his way in response to a question — but among the simple folk of the countryside there is not only courtesy but friendly interest and a sturdy, dignified hospitality to which intrusion is a stranger.

This And That

Now that the two leading scandal magazines in the United States have decided to clean up their material, watch their circulations drop.

President Eisenhower's invitation to Democratic leader Adlai Stevenson to become his adviser on foreign policy caused quite a stir. In France, however, it is common for yesterday's Premier to become today's foreign minister, or vice versa.

The weatherman is probably holding off his bad weather until November 30 — Grey Cup day.

BETTER TELL HIM THE CONDITION IS GOING TO GET WORSE?

Dr. Oswald J. Smith

A Canadian 'Billy Graham'

REV. DR. OSWALD J. SMITH

By BRIAN BELL

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—A thin, white-haired Canadian is drawing crowds of more than 20,000 preaching evangelism in South America.

Rev. Dr. Oswald J. Smith, 67-year-old pastor of the interdenominational Peoples' Church of Toronto, is on a 3½-month tour. In two weeks here he preached to crowds averaging 15,000 nightly. Three times he drew more than 20,000 to the Luna Park indoor fight arena.

Dr. Smith said he has met with equally enthusiastic responses in Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo and Curitiba, Brazil, and Montevideo, Uruguay. Here in Argentina, Dr. Smith said he has been amazed at the large turnouts for his meetings.

"I think there's a real hunger in their hearts for an evangelical church, for a type of religion they're not getting now," Dr. Smith said.

"I think we're getting a lot of people who are not linked up with any church or are only nominal Catholics."

Dr. Smith, like Billy Graham with whom he has toured abroad, calls for "decisions for Christ." He said more than 1,000 came forward during these appeals in 10 days here. Names of these people are given to local churches and follow-up calls are made on them for months.

The evangelist said his crowds have been almost evenly divided between women and men and that 45 per cent of his audiences have been under 30.

"The young people of South America are feeling a need for God," he said.

Dr. Smith was invited by the evangelical churches of South America to make this tour. All expenses have been borne by the churches and he takes up no collection at his rallies. Some 300 Protestant Buenos Aires churches endorsed Dr. Smith's engagement here.

Backed by a choir of 280 here,

Dr. Smith spoke in English. By his side stood an interpreter who translated his sermon sentences into Spanish.

This is the same system Dr. Smith has used in touring 56 countries in some 50 years of evangelism. They include France, India, Russia, Germany, South Africa and Indochina. This is his first visit to South America.

"The greatest response I ever received was speaking to the Russian people between the two wars," said Dr. Smith. "They are naturally the most religious people in the world and welcomed my messages. I was well received in South Africa too and equally well greeted here."

Dr. Smith said he has been given the utmost in co-operation by city and national officials where he has spoken.

"The police shake my hand after each meeting here," he said.

Dr. Smith will be in Asuncion, Paraguay, until Nov. 17, in Santiago from Nov. 19 to Dec. 1 and Lima from Dec. 3 to Dec. 8.

HINT FOR TRUSTEES?

JACOBY On Bridge

SKILL NEEDED FOR BIG SLAM

North's bidding was entirely too enthusiastic. He should have contented himself with a small slam.

West opened the king of spades, and when South looked at the dummy, he noted immediately that the entire play of seven was to find the queen of clubs and use one of his clubs to discard dummy's low diamond.

A peek would have made the hand automatically, but without a peek South had to decide on the play to give the maximum chance for success, and the one he worked out fulfilled all conditions.

South started by ruffing the opening spade lead. A trump to dummy pulled both opposition trumps and the ace of spades was led. South letting a diamond go from his hand. The last spade was ruffed and now South played three rounds of trumps. He discarded another diamond and East and West let go two spades and a diamond each.

The next three plays were: ace of clubs, which declarer trumped in dummy. Now dummy's last trump was led and East was squeezed. He held the guard for the king of diamonds, since his only hope was that South did not hold another club. This meant that he had to let the queen of clubs go and South made the grand slam.

The whole play had been perfect technique. Not only did South's method of attack insure success if the queen of clubs was held by the player with short clubs, but it gave an extra chance for a mistake. If West held the queen of clubs, he might have covered the jack with the queen. Finally it gave the extra winning chance. East held both the queen of clubs and king of diamonds and ran into the squeeze.

BRITISH TOYS

LONDON (CP)—Sales of toys in Britain this year are likely to reach £27,000,000, says Sidney Powell, chairman of the British Toy Manufacturers Association. About 90 per cent of the toys are British-made, he added.

STILL BUSY

NEW ROSS, N.S. (CP)—Mrs. Mary Jollimore, who celebrated her 96th birthday here, said she was still busy each day sewing and making fancy articles.

Matter of FACT

In breadmaking, when the yeast in the dough works upon the starch in the flour, carbon dioxide gas and alcohol is produced. The gas collects in bubbles in the dough, making it swell or "rise." When the bread is baked, the heat expands the gas, making the bread rise still more. The heat finally drives off the carbon dioxide as well as the alcohol, making a light, porous bread.

UNIVERSITY BILL

Hon. Johnny Bourque is scheduled to present a bill pertaining to the University of Sherbrooke. The contents have not been made public.

Following the speech from the Throne, all the deputies reconvened in the Legislative Assembly chamber and the four new members, elected in by-elections since the closing of the last Parliament, were formally introduced to the members of the house.

Dr. Fortin was escorted into the chambers by Premier Duplessis and Hon. J. D. Babin, Minister of Colonisation. Premier Duplessis then stated to the Speaker, Hon. Maurice Tellier, that Dr. Fortin desired to take his seat in the house. He was given a desk thumping ovation and walked ed sprightly to his seat. The same procedure was repeated for Claude Gosselin, with Premier Duplessis and Hon. Johnny Bourque, presenting him to the House.

Mr. Gosselin was accompanied to the session by his wife and two brothers, Luc and Dr. Jules Gosselin and their wives. Alden Rousseau, former mayor of East Angus and his daughter, Mrs. Gosselin.

Also attending the opening were Judge Redmond Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Charest, and Mr. and Mrs. Francois Thibault. Mrs. Bourque was also in attendance. Senator Jacob Nicol, veteran legislative councillor, was also there.

Both Premier Maurice Duplessis and Opposition Leader Georges Lapalme paid tribute to Dr. Fabien Gagnon, former Liberal representative for Compton, who died in the last year. Premier Duplessis said Dr. Gagnon had played an important role in cancer research during his medical career and reiterated the government's sympathy to his family.

Mr. Peever joined the CPR in 1913 at Renfrew, Ont., and also served at North Bay, Ont., before his appointment in Winnipeg as general tie agent, western lines in 1942. In 1943 he moved to Montreal. Mr. Fenwick joined the CPR in 1931 at Calgary and in 1943 he became general tie agent, western lines at Winnipeg. In 1952 he moved to Montreal.

Mr. Lapalme also paid tribute to the deceased member and said his work had had an international repercussion.

2. Improvements of the warning system for any possible enemy attack.
3. Development of an active missile defence against missiles.

6,000 Papermen Strike In B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Some 6,000 pulp and paper workers in British Columbia went on strike at 8 a.m. today over a wage dispute.

Dr. D. R. Blair, manager of the Pulp and Paper Industrial Relations Bureau, said earlier Wednesday the companies are ready to renew talks on a conciliation board report which recommended a 7½ per cent wage increase. The unions, which demanded 12½ per cent, rejected this offer and another suggestion of 8½ per cent made by the union's conciliation board member in a minority report.

Disguised Spies

King Hussein Hits Back At Egypt, Syria

AMMAN, Jordan (Reuters) — King Hussein says the defence treaty Jordan signed with Egypt and Syria last February providing for subsidy payments to bolster the Jordanian economy "is not worth the paper it is written on."

The king delivered scathing indictment of the rulers of Egypt and Syria at a press conference Wednesday night on the eve of his 22nd birthday. He said they are "tools of international communism" whose attempts to overthrow him only served to unite the Jordan people.

Egyptian and Syrian newspapers and radios have recently stepped up their drumfire criticism of British-created Jordan.

Hussein claimed his enemies have tried to oust him from his throne since last April. They tried everything, including lies, rumors and money to foment trouble, he added. But all this did was to unite the people behind the government.

The king said: "Neither the Egyptian nor the Syrian people are Communists."

SOME "TOOLS"

"But, unfortunately, there are some opportunists who have taken control and they are definitely tools of international communism and I doubt if they will last a long time."

The object of the propaganda campaign against Jordan, he added, is "to spread Communist authority in this part of the world."

Hussein claimed it is clear that Egypt and Syria does not intend to supply Jordan financial aid to replace the annual subsidy formerly received from Britain. The money is used primarily to support the Arab Legion.

But the king said that so far Jordan has no definite plan to sever diplomatic relations with Egypt and Syria. He outlined his country's course as one of positive neutrality. This means no participation in any form of military agreements or pacts.

Weekly Replies To Criticism

MONTREAL — A spokesman for the Montreal weekly Allo Police took issue Wednesday with Senator Cyrille Vaillancourt who, in a Senate speech Tuesday, described the newspaper as the "greatest piece of filth in Canada."

Robert Poulin, president of the Merlin Publishing Co., Ltd., which publishes the French-language tabloid, said: "Any serious and unprejudiced person who knows the paper will admit that it only reports court proceedings and police actions on major crimes in the same manner as any other newspaper . . ."

do, pickle them?"

"Put them in a museum," a reporter suggested.

WOULD SINK THEM
"No, room," Khrushchev replied. "Let's sink them all if you do."

Khrushchev said Zhukov, recently ousted from the defence ministry and from high party posts, is in Moscow "on a leave he fully deserves."

"Zhukov did not turn out well as a political figure but as a military figure he was a remarkable man and we will always give him credit for it . . ."

Khrushchev at one point implied that British foreign policy is dictated by the United States and was asked by a British correspondent if he meant to suggest that "Britain is a satellite of the United States?"

"Does anyone doubt it?" Khrushchev asked. "Who visits whom? Does Macmillan visit Eisenhower or Eisenhower visit Macmillan?"

When the correspondent appeared offended, Khrushchev added that "We like the British people . . . (who) are wise, strong, capable and tenacious. If I say anything offensive to your nation I apologize and am ready to take it back."

Seated at the head table were Mr. Stew, Jim Strickland and Mr. Hart.

Suspects In Ontario Theft Detained Here

A man and a woman are being held by Montreal police today in connection with a $200,000 theft last May of vacation-pay stamps from the E.G.M. Cape and Company offices in Sprague, Ont.

The suspects were arrested by Sherbrooke municipal Police and Provincial Police at the request of Montreal detectives.

The man was one of those arrested in connection with the robbery last Monday of $1,100 in silver and 150 cartons of cigarettes from a Stafford Sales Reg'd station wagon outside the sports Club on Fraser St., say police.

Three men pleaded not guilty to charges of theft in magistrates Court here yesterday morning in connection with the Sports Club robbery.

The woman was arrested Tuesday in Sherbrooke.

Prisoner-Of-War Experiences Told Y's Men's Club

Sid Hart, who served with the RAF in World War II, told of his experience as a prisoner of war and displayed souvenirs he brought back as he appeared as guest speaker of the Y's Men's Club in the Magog Hotel last night.

Mr. Hart told of spending 14 days in solitary confinement and recounted the difficulties and tortures prisoners underwent in concentration camps. He illustrated the talk with captured German war equipment.

He was introduced by Ken Stew, president, and thanked by Cliff Bishop.

Cliff Lamb appealed to the members to turn in the proceeds of the Turkey Raffle tickets they have sold. The raffle will be held Dec. 12.

Seated at the head table were Mr. Stew, Jim Strickland and Mr. Hart.

Stanstead's Grand Old Lady

MISS JESSIE COLBY, O.B.E.

STANSTEAD — Miss Jessie Colby, O.B.E., Stanstead's oldest and most gracious lady observed her 96th birthday anniversary on Monday, November 11th. Although no celebration was planned Miss Colby was at home to 42 guests in the afternoon.

Wearing a black velvet frock, with a matching cape lined with old rose satin, a corsage of pink tea roses the gift of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Amaron of Adamston, Ont., and a white gold brooch set with an onyx the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John Colby, Miss Colby received her guests in her spacious living room.

On a table nearby were the anniversary cakes, made by, and the gift of Mrs. Elsie Hoops, companion to Miss Colby. One cake in three tiers, was decorated in white and topped with a white orchid surrounded by white tulle, the second cake, decorated in white, with red and green trim, was topped with white roses and an angel.

The guests were received at the door by Miss Mary Flint, who wore a frock of soft blue crystalite, encrusted with silver, a matching blue feather hat and a corsage of white baby mums.

The cakes were cut and passed by Mrs. Hoops, who was in a frock of brown and rose antique brocade satin with which she wore a winning corsage.

Afternoon tea was served from a table covered with an ecru linen, lace and embroidered cloth and arranged with a vase of yellow roses, the gift to Miss Colby from her staff, old rose candles in brass candelabra and colorful angels. Mrs. Grace Taylor, wearing a frock of winter white corded silk, a red velvet hat and a red carnation corsage, presided at the silver tea service.

During the day Miss Colby was delighted to receive numerous greeting cards as well as telegrams of congratulations from relatives and friends in Boston, Mass., Winnipeg, Man., and Montreal.

Beautiful bouquets of flowers were received from Miss Helen Norton, Ayer's Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Foster, Derby Line, Stratton's Greenhouse, Stanstead, her staff and Mrs. William Ferguson of Saskatoon, Sask., as well as a plant from Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colby. She also received several gifts of candy and personal articles.

Many of the gifts brought recollections of her younger days, among which were the flowers of Mr. Ferguson, a former Stanstead College boy, who was a Sunday school student of Miss Colby.

Miss Colby also received a letter from W. K. Molson, principal of Stanstead College, conveying the best wishes of the staff, the boys and the girls, and noted that at dinner that day all had given three hearty cheers for Stanstead's celebrated lady.

The preceding day, Sunday, Miss Colby entertained her nephews, Mr. Charles C. Colby, Mr. John Colby and Mrs. Colby, all of Montreal, making her celebration complete.

Miss Colby wears her 96 years youthfully. She enjoys the drives in her beloved Eastern Townships, the visits of her friends from near and far and carries on a large correspondence with friends, writing as many as five and six letters a day.

Her many friends join in wishing her many more of these happy occasions.

Mrs. S. Parker Again Heads

Officers re-elected are: Honorary president, Mrs. Doris Hunting; president, Mrs. S. Parker; vice president, Mrs. M. McHarg; treasurer, Mrs. J. McCubbin and secretary, Mrs. J. Wells.

It was announced that the dressed dolls and mittens made by the group and by St. George's Mother's Auxiliary, will be on display in the Southern Canada Power Co., window on Queen St., December 6 to 13th. They will be later distributed to needy families by the Boy Scouts at Christmas time.

New Handbag Fabrics Deserve Kind Treatment

Not so many years ago a plastic handbag was merely a substitute for a leather one. Fashionably speaking, it was a social outcast although it was a good imitation of a leather bag and cost much less.

Today the picture has changed. Handbag designers discovered they could do things with plastic-coated fabrics they couldn't do with leather. A variety of textures, lovely colors, plus the economy of coated fabrics opened up a whole field of handbag styling.

Now many of the most interesting bags on the market owe their beauty to the plastics industry. They're well styled and well made and every bit as fashionable as the more expensive ones.

And with this new prestige, plastic handbags at last are receiving the care they deserve. Back in the days when they were considered merely "imitation leather" they were treated just about as gently as a laundry bag. They were over-stuffed, yanked open, jammed shut, carelessly dropped under restaurant chairs, and no one expected them to last more than a season. And probably they didn't.

This fall's handbags are being made with long service in mind. Elegant tall and slender models and tweedy sporty bags are on the market in a scuff-resistant fabric called "Fibrilite". For winter use, the "Fibrilite" has been designed to resist cold-weather cracking. But handbag manufacturers admit that even the best bag in the world might crack in extreme frost and suggest opening it gently on below-zero mornings. Even the warmth of the hand on the flap is ample insurance.

Whether you pay a high price for a handbag or not, it doesn't do to over-fill it. With bulging sides and straining fastenings, it is bound to show wear and tear. Clean it out occasionally!

Nothing ages a handbag faster than scratches and dirty smudges. Fortunately, plastic-coated fabrics don't scuff and when the purse becomes soiled it can be washed away with simply soap and water. Make sure your handbag complements your fall ensemble by giving it the care it deserves.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Shortt, of Fremont, Ohio, announce the engagement of their elder daughter, Betsy Ann, of Peterborough, Ont., to Mr. Kenneth Gynane, youngest son of Mrs. Alice Gynane and the late Mr. John Gynane, of Peterborough. The wedding has been arranged to take place in St. James United Church, Peterborough, Ont., on November 30th.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

IF you are about ready to leave your house to keep an appointment when an unexpected guest arrives, explain the situation immediately. It isn't rude to tell a drop-in caller that you have an appointment to keep. But it is rude to keep the person with whom you have the appointment waiting while you entertain an unexpected guest.

Creole Beef Stew

The nippy, busy days of autumn accent the importance of sustaining and nutritious supper main dishes. Smart homemakers realize that an ideal way to make sure the family gets all the nutrients it needs for energy to carry on in school and at the office is to tote them up in a steaming savory stew.

Reinforcing the protein of meat with vital vitamins and minerals provided by fresh vegetables, the salubrious stew is really a balanced meal in itself.

2 pounds beef stew meat, 1/2 cup flour, 3 1/2 tps. salt, 1/2 tsp. ground black pepper, 2 tbsps. shortening or suet, 1 cup water, 1 cup sliced onion rings, 1 cup sliced fresh corn, 1 cup fresh corn, 2 cups diced fresh tomatoes, 1 cup diced potatoes. Cut beef into 1-inch cubes. Mix flour with salt and pepper and sprinkle over meat. Mix to coat well with the flour mixture. Brown in shortening or suet. Add hot water. Cover and simmer 2 hours or until meat is tender. Add vegetables about 30 minutes before cooking time is up. Serve hot. Yield: 6 servings.

Marriages

MCLEOD — WALDRON

SCOTSTOWN — The marriage of Miss Kathleen Edwina Waldron, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Waldron, to Mr. Duncan Lewis McLeod, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. McLeod, of Milan, took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Murray with Rev. Iver D. MacIver officiating.

The bride wore a floor length gown of turquoise velvet, fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed with self covered buttons and three quarter length sleeves, the waist accented with a matching cummerbund. She wore a head-dress of turquoise velvet leaves and carried a matching velvet muff with a spray of pink rose buds.

Mrs. Albert Murray, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, chose a street length sheath dress of mauve-pink brocade, with a toning velvet hat and a maroon orchid corsage.

Mr. Albert W. Murray acted as best man for his brother-in-law. The bride's mother, Mrs. Waldron was in a street length dress of navy crepe with matching satin trim.

Mrs. McLeod, the groom's mother, was attired in an afternoon dress of printed crepe. Following the ceremony, lunch was served to the guests who included the parents of the bride and groom, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, of Estend, Sask., and Messrs. Earle and Stanley Murray.

Later Mr. and Mrs. McLeod left for a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass., and Barrie, Ont., the bride wearing a dressmaker suit of grey-blue worsted, the jacket having a bloused back. She wore a pink velvet hat and black accessories.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod will make their home in Milan.

Stratford Atmosphere Brought To Calgary

CALGARY (CP) — An afternoon with Marigold Charlesworth and Jean Roberts transports you from bustling Calgary to quiet old Stratford Upon Avon, England.

Marigold is an actress, formerly with the Stratford company, and Jean was stage manager and later assistant stage director at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre.

They came to Calgary with the idea of establishing a permanent theatre company here, rather than begin their efforts in Eastern Canada which they found already had many striving theatre groups.

Marigold said she "always wanted to be an actress." When she was five years old, she was taken to a performance of Peter Pan where she embarrassed her elders by loudly demanding "Why didn't they ask me to be in it?"

She studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts and when she graduated joined an infant company started by one of her contemporaries. She wrote regularly to Stratford and in 1932 obtained an audition. She found herself a member of the Stratford theatre for Coronation year when she played Nerissa in the Merchant of Venice.

Jean Roberts, from Perth, had no idea as a youngster that she would work in a theatre. "I went to the theatre regularly, of course," she says. "Everyone in Perth did. But it seemed a world apart. My parents intended that I should be a teacher and when, after dabbling in dramatics at university, I announced that I wanted to work in the theatre, they were aghast."

Her first job was that of scenic assistant — "with no pay." She went to London seeking her fortune, which she didn't find, but she wrote to Stratford for a job at the right time.

She went there as an assistant stage manager, later became stage manager and finally assistant stage director.

"A stage manager," she explains, "works on particular plays but a stage director is responsible for the whole stage management."

American Fad For Dieting Offers Enigma To Reader

A foreign-born reader of this column is more than a little bit puzzled by the American woman's preoccupation with dieting.

She says "One thing I can't understand about American women is why they seem to spend their lives trying to lose a few pounds."

"In a land of plenty they enjoy food less than any women I have ever known anywhere. All through a meal they are either saying 'No, thank you,' or they are counting calories and feeling guilty about not having the strength of character to refuse a rich sauce or a slice of pie."

"I've asked some of them why they continually diet, and they claim they feel better when they do. But I doubt that. Because the thinnest ones also seem to be most nervous."

"I often run into an acquaintance who tells me proudly, 'I've lost 15 pounds,' as though it were some wonderful accomplishment."

THE WORSE FOR IT

"Why do they think it is so wonderful? They really don't even have to tell you they've lost weight. You can usually tell it at a glance — from the deepened lines in their faces and from their crepey throats and flabby arms."

"For the life of me I can't understand why a middle-aged woman thinks she will make her life over if she can just manage to lose a few pounds."

"She's the same person, the same age, with the same problems. What great change is it going to make in her life if by starving herself she can get into a size 14 instead of a size 16?"

"I'm not just quibbling. I really can't understand what's behind all this reducing. Can you explain it to me?"

Nope. And I'm sorry I read your letter. It made me hungry. And if I can just stick with this new diet — I think I'll be able to lose 10 pounds.

Do most of your outlets look like this instead of single plugs for each? Do your fuses blow out frequently when many appliances are on?

Do your appliances heat up too slowly? Do you have too few outlets and switches?

Do you have to disconnect one appliance to plug in another? Do your lights dim when you turn on a heater, fan, or other appliance?

Poor wiring is the cause of most electrical troubles in the home. So if you cannot answer "NO" to all the questions above, do send for your electrical contractor to examine your wiring system or call for the guidance and help of a Southern Canada Power representative.

Boundary Communities Hold Joint Observance Of Remembrance Day

ROCK ISLAND — The annual Remembrance Day week-end observance took place at the Boundary, commencing on Saturday evening, when more than 100 veterans from both sides of the Border assembled at Stanstead South church hall. There a family style turkey dinner was served by members of the Auxiliary of the Stanstead Frontier Branch of the Canadian Legion.

Captain H. R. Stewart, of Ottawa, Dominion honorary treasurer of the Canadian Legion, the guest speaker, brought greetings from David Burgess, Dominion president of the Legion. "All is well with the Legion," Capt. Stewart said. "The membership stands at approximately 220,000, spread among some 2,200 branches in Canada."

Captain Stewart was introduced by Heron Hudson, who was on active service with him in the first World War. He was thanked by Comrade Struthers.

Seated at the head table with the guest speaker, were: E. J. Struthers; Bryon Herrick, Commander of Foster Cosby Post of the American Legion, Derby Line; Hubert Pepin, president of Stanstead Frontier branch; Delmar White, of the Ayer's Cliff Legion, District Commander for St. Francis; H. H. Hudson and Rev. A. L. Salt. Other distinguished guests included Rev. T. W. Tyson and Rev. Frank Stanton, also Ralph Corcoran, of Derby.

The program opened with singing of O Canada, Comrade Pepin acting as emcee. Mr. Stanton, branch chaplain, offered Grace. A toast was proposed to the Queen and the United States President. Remarks and greetings were given by Delmar White and Mr. Herrick.

DENNIS THE MENACE

By Hank Ketcham

"WE'RE NOT WATCHIN' A COWBOY MOVIE! WE'RE WATCHIN' A ADULT WESTERN!"

Comrade O. J. LePoidevin, chairman of the poppy campaign, gave an uncompleted report, noting the sales to have been excellent in this area.

Comrade J. A. Bacon, officer for veterans' relief, gave a report on the action taken during the past year for veterans' benefits. The money derived from the sale of poppies is used for two purposes, aiding the disabled veterans who made the poppies and giving relief to local veterans and their families.

Mr. Pepin welcomed a young serviceman, Donald Loiselle, who was home on furlough from Egypt. Comrade Howard Wells spoke on the Legion Home project in this area, and the action taken to date on this project.

Comrade Heald, on behalf of the Stanstead Frontier branch and visiting comrades voiced appreciation to the women who had been responsible for the banquet.

Sunday morning, Comrades of Stanstead Frontier branch, Foster Cosby Post and Auxiliary members attended a commemoration Mass at St. Edward's Church in Derby Line. Father A. Fortin, parish priest spoke of the suffering, physically and morally, during past wars, and said we should pray that a third World War will not bring more suffering than has ever been experienced.

The Mass commenced with the choir singing the "Star Spangled Banner" and concluded with "God Save the Queen."

In the afternoon a parade took place from Stanstead College to the Haskell Opera House, where the annual service of Remembrance was held.

The parade was headed by Comrade Steve Bronson, Chief of Police in Rock Island, followed by the color party and guards of the American and Canadian Legion. Then came the War Veterans, the Legion Auxiliary color party and Auxiliary members. Following were the color party and Stanstead College cadets, the Rock Island Girl Guide color party, Rock Island and Stanstead Girl Guides and Brownies, Boy Scouts and Brownies, each with their color party.

Clergy participating at the Opera House were Rev. Frank Stanton, Beebe United Church; Rev. T. W. Tyson, Rock Island United Church; Mr. Everett Knight, Derby Line Universalist Church; Rev. A. L. Salt, Stanstead Anglican Church; Rev. A. McKinley Rose, Stanstead United Church.

Captain Stewart was the special speaker. "Our two countries," he said, "have given to the world an example of how to live side by side in harmony and friendliness. The mountains, lakes, rivers, and prairies which divide us bring strength and well-being to us both. We are determined to guard well our cherished birthrights and make certain nothing shall allow us to be drawn apart."

He spoke in the Remembrance theme of those who died at sea, on land and in the air for the cause of freedom, of their fine courage and splendid daring, of fortitude and conduct far beyond the call of duty.

"We on both sides of the Border have inherited all the ancient rights our fathers cherished and after two World Wars and Korea, have remained peoples unconquered and unafraid," he concluded.

The Canadian roll call was read by Comrade Pepin and the American by Dalton Downing, chaplain of Foster Cosby Post. The Last Post and Reveille was sounded by a young student of Stanstead College. The Stanstead College choir, with Mrs. A. P. Gordon at the piano, led in the singing of hymns.

Graves in Derby Line cemetery, the Soldier's Memorial at Dufferin Heights, graves in Crystal Lake, Mount St. Mary's, Beebe and Marlinton cemeteries, and the Memorial Gates at Stanstead College were decorated by members of the Legion. The Stanstead Chapter of the I.O.O.F. placed a wreath at the Dufferin Heights Memorial, the Baxter Park Memorial and, with the Stanstead College cadets, at the College gates.

Curiosity is second nature to the toddler. But curiosity can often lead a little explorer into trouble if his surroundings aren't safety-proofed. A few precautionary reminders:

Cupboards are intriguing. Make sure reachable cupboards do not contain harmful objects or poisonous cleaning agents.

Dangling electric cords are fun to yank. Keep 'em out of reach.

Fire is fascinating. Lighters and matches should be kept off coffee or end tables.

Alouettes Outrush Rough Riders 24-15 To Slide Into Big Four Final

Statistics Favor Eskimos To Win Over Winnipeg In Western Final

EDMONTON (CP)—If statistics mean anything, the defending Canadian champion Edmonton Eskimos should be able to roll over Winnipeg Blue Bombers and capture the Western Interprovincial Football Union championship. The finals open Saturday.

The Eskimos downed Winnipeg three of the four times the two clubs met in the regular schedule this season. Winnipeg's lone victory was by a mere one-point margin.

The best-of-three finals open in Winnipeg Saturday night. The second game is scheduled for Edmonton, Nov. 20, with the third game, if necessary, also at Edmonton, Nov. 23.

The second-place Bombers won the right to meet Edmonton, first-place finishers in the league for the last five years, by trouncing Calgary Stampeders 28-16 in the two-game, total-point semi-finals.

FIFTH MEETING

This will be the fifth time Winnipeg and Edmonton have met for the WIFU championship since 1950, the Bombers winning twice.

Besides beating Winnipeg three times since 1950, Eskimos defeated Saskatchewan Roughriders in the 1956 finals. They lost to the Riders in the 1951 finals.

Winnipeg chalked up a total of 12 victories and four defeats in the 16-game regular schedule this year, compared with only two losses by the Eskimos.

This season's statistics strongly favor the Eskimos, who accounted for eight of the 14 team records broken this year.

Eskimos defeated the Bombers 21-14 at Winnipeg in their opening encounter this season and trounced the Bombers in Edmonton 41-8. Bombers came back in the third game between the two clubs in Winnipeg, gaining a 28-27 win. But in the final encounter of the regular schedule, Eskimos won 41-0.

Ted Lindsay Claims Red Wings Were Forced To Withdraw Due To Pressure From Outside; Knew About Law-Suit

NEW YORK (CP)—Hockey star Ted Lindsay said Wednesday his former Detroit Red Wings teammates bowed to "outside pressures" in bolting the National Hockey League Players Association.

Lindsay, president of the association, released a statement through the law firm of Lewis and Mound, in connection with the withdrawal of the Red Wings players from the association Tuesday.

"It is obvious that the Detroit players are not free agents, but are being compelled to do and say things," said Lindsay, who was in New York with Chicago Black Hawks for a game against New York Rangers. Lindsay was traded by Detroit to Chicago last summer.

Lindsay didn't spell out just what he meant by "outside pressures" but association lawyer Milton Mound said NHL owners are putting the players under "extremely heavy" pressure because of the union-like organization.

The Red Wings players Wednesday took unanimous action in backing out of the association and accused Lindsay and the association of a "complete lack of good faith."

In a statement issued by Wing captain Red Kelly and a lawyer, the Wings also repudiated the association's $3,000,000 anti-trust lawsuit against the league and club owners.

WINGS IN ON SUIT

Lindsay's statement countered: "The Detroit players said they were not consulted about the bringing of the anti-trust suit. The truth is that the last meeting of our board of directors was held in Montreal Oct. 4 and that meeting was attended by four of the Detroit players—Alex Delvecchio, Gordie Howe, Red Kelly and Marcel Pronovost."

"The complaint in the lawsuit was circulated and discussed and it was unanimously agreed that the suit would be filed by Oct. 10 unless any director, after consulting with his team, reported they were opposed to it. "To make doubly sure, every director, including the representative of the Detroit team, was contacted again Oct. 10 by telephone and confirmed his approval before the lawsuit was filed."

Eddie Machen Pounds Out 10th Round TKO Over Tommy Hurricane Jackson; Wants Chance At Patterson's Crown

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A title fight, low blows and possibilities of retirement formed boxing topics today after undefeated heavyweight Eddie Machen slammed and battered Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson into surrender.

The 195-pound Machen, a 25-year-old brawler from Redding, Calif., wants the championship bout with Floyd Patterson. He has an added talking point since his televised fight with Jackson Wednesday night goes into the record as a 10th-round technical knockout, the same as Patterson scored over Hurricane July 29.

Jackson and manager Lippe Briard declared Eddie hit several low blows in taking his 24th straight victory. Machen said he didn't hit below the belt knowingly. Referee Frankie Carter assessed no penalties for low punches.

Jack Jackson's right eye puffed closed at the end of the 10th.

Briard called Carter over to view the damage and Frankie stopped it. The fight was scheduled for 12 rounds.

WANTED IT STOPPED

"I recommended that the fight be stopped," said Briard. Asked if he would have Jackson retire after the two consecutive batterings by Patterson and Machen, Lippe replied: "He'll have to take a long rest. Retirement is up to him."

The Hurricane, who weighed his heaviest at 201 for this one had little to say afterwards. Asked what he thought Machen could do against Patterson he said only: "It'd be a good fight. Who'd win? I dunno."

Jackson went down for a five count in the first round when he took a left and a right to the head. But from then on he remained upright although staggered repeatedly and wincing visibly under Machen's body attack.

Beta Sigma Phi Girls Have Been Selling Football Programs And Do Good Job, Says Charlotte Prince

TORONTO (CP)—That trimly-assembled cutie who sold you a football program Saturday was a sweetheart of Beta Sigma Phi.

In Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto and Montreal, chapters of the international sorority of business and professional girls and housewives have been supplying program sellers at the pro games.

Charlotte Prince, the sorority's head Toronto official, figures the proceeds for charity from this source in Toronto will amount to about $1,500. She estimates the chapters in the other cities will earn about the same amount.

The group's charitable work includes the fields of cancer, multiple sclerosis, community centres, scholarships, bursaries and awards.

The girls themselves are not paid for selling the programs. The money is paid to the sorority.

AT ARGOS' GAMES

In Toronto, for instance, between 40 and 50 girls from the city's 13 chapters work at Argos' games. For the Nov. 30 Grey Cup game, there will also be a number from Montreal and the West.

The sorority girls were tried in Toronto for the first time this year but have been on the job in Montreal and Edmonton for years.

"They do a better job than boys," says Ernie Whelpton, who has the program concession in five cities. "They show up in the worst weather, and, boy, do the fans like their smiles."

What makes the job even nicer for them is the fact they like football. They are finished by the end of the first quarter which gives them a chance to look around for an empty seat in the stands to watch the remainder of the game.

In some cities the girls wear sorority blazers so that fans buying the programs can see they are Beta Sigma Phi members. The Toronto group hasn't bought them yet because its members have been at it only this season, but they do wear a ribbon in the sorority's black and gold colors and with the sorority's name on it.

Diefenbakers To Attend Grey Cup

TORONTO (CP)—The Grey Cup dinner Nov. 29 will have an extra glitter when Prime Minister Diefenbaker takes the platform as a guest.

Participation of the prime minister and his wife in the Grey Cup festivities was announced by the dinner committee Wednesday.

The Diefenbakers are in for a busy time. Marking the first time the active head of government has taken part in the classic since the trophy was first put up for competition in 1909, the prime minister will speak at the eighth annual cup dinner.

The same night he and his wife are scheduled to attend the Miss Grey Cup beauty contest where Mrs. Diefenbaker will crown the winner. On Saturday the prime minister will make the kickoff at the game.

Surprise Move By Coach Walker Pays Off; Running Attack Was Big Factor; Meet Ticats Saturday

OTTAWA — (CP)—The running attack that Montreal coach Doug Walker boasted about during the regular Big Four football schedule finally bloomed Wednesday night as the Alouettes defeated Ottawa Rough Riders 24-15 in the league semi-final playoff.

The irony of it all was that the Montreal runners, never quite free of injuries during the season, were all physically sound against a usually strong Ottawa line that was crippled by injuries and influenza.

The victory, before 14,950 spectators, carried Montreal into the two-game final against Hamilton Tiger-Cats, who got the bye into the total-points series by finishing first in the standings. Ottawa was second and Alouettes third.

The final opens Saturday at Montreal with the second game scheduled for Hamilton Nov. 23.

ABBRUZI STARS

The Alouettes' ground attack spearheaded by Pat Abbruzzi. Joel Wells and Avatus Stone, gained a total of 391 yards. It included runs of 20 yards or more by Wells and Hal Patterson, a couple of 40-yard thrusts by Abbruzzi and steady nine- and 10-yarders by Stone.

The Alouettes' ball-lugging figured prominently in all three Montreal touchdowns, scored on running plays from inside the Ottawa five by Stone, Wells and Abbruzzi.

The Rough Riders line was crippled by injuries that kept its anchor men tackles Kaye Vaughan and Milt Graham eating their hearts out on the bench. They appeared in a very few plays and Graham's under-study, homebrew Gilles Archambault, played with the flu and a temperature of 102 degrees.

Montreal went on a 61-yard touchdown march after taking the opening kickoff and never were headed, although Riders, fighting desperately in the last three minutes, came within a touchdown of overtaking Montreal.

HAUNTS FORMER MATES

Montreal's first touchdown was by Stone, an Ottawa castoff who was picked up by Montreal and, as is often the case, came back to haunt his old teammates with a terrific all-around performance.

Bill Bewley converted and Stone made it 8-0 at the end of the quarter on a single. Bobby Simpson being rouged on a long punt.

Ottawa narrowed the gap slightly to 8-1 at half time as Ron Quillian's long punt on Bewley conceded the single.

Quillian, a late cut from Green Bay Packers, and Bobby Judd were the main Ottawa ball carriers, chalking up a total of 305 yards on the ground. But fumbles hurt the Riders on at least four occasions when they came within scoring distance of the Montreal goal line.

Alouettes went ahead 20-8 in third quarter on touchdowns by Wells and Abbruzzi. Wells' TD capped a 40-yard march after a short Ottawa punt, and Abbruzzi's four-yard TD run came

"The Rocket" Will Be Lost For Month; Suffers Bad Cut To Right Heel When He Fell Over Reaume

TORONTO (CP)—Colorful Maurice (Rocket) Richard may have missed his chance of winning the National Hockey League scoring crown this season—a feat he has never accomplished—through an injury Wednesday night.

The 35-year-old Montreal Canadian right winger slashed the Achilles tendon in his right leg as Leaf defence man Marc Reaume fell over him in the second period.

Toronto team doctor Jim Murray said Richard "received a nasty cut on the Achilles heel, just above the right heel." He estimated the Rocket would miss at least a month of league action, possibly longer.

Before the game—won 4-2 by the Canadiens—Richard headed the scorers with 11 goals and 12 assists. But during Wednesday night's match his younger brother, Henri, moved into a tie with an assist. Both have 23 points.

The Rocket, 15 to 20 stitches closing the gash, returned home with the Canadiens. Today he was to have x-rays and visit the club doctor, probably to have a cast put over the wound.

Canadiens Extend NHL Lead With 4-2 Win Over Leafs But Lose The Rocket And Marshall; Hawks-Rangers Tie

Montreal Canadiens fattened their lead in the National Hockey League Wednesday night but now face the bleak prospect of a month without maestro Maurice Richard.

The Canadiens collected two points with a 4-2 victory over the Maple Leafs in Toronto, while New York Rangers and Chicago Black Hawks tied 2-2 in New York.

The draw left New York four points ahead of third-place Chicago and three behind Montreal.

The Canadiens paid dearly for their fourth straight victory.

The Rocket will probably be out of action for at least a month. He cut the achilles tendon just above his right heel in a fall early in the second period.

Don Marshall also was injured.

SPRAINS ANKLE

Dr. Jim Murray, Toronto team doctor, said Marshall's ankle was probably sprained when the Montreal winger was checked against the end boards by George Armstrong later in the period.

Marshall had scored the first goal of the game in the first period. Jean Beliveau made it 2-0 for Montreal early in the second period, and then Toronto got its first goal by Dick Duff.

The Canadiens increased their lead with two goals in the third. Andre Pronovost and Marcel Bonin scoring, before Toronto came back with another goal by Frank Mahovlich just before the period ended.

The work of Montreal goalie Jacques Plante robbed the Leafs of several goals.

FIGHT FOR TIE

At New York, a low, hard shot by former Ranger Ron Murphy, at 4:20 of the third period, gave Chicago a draw with the Rangers. The Hawks had been trailing 1-2 since the middle of the second period, when Camille Henry put New York into the lead with his ninth goal of the season.

Both teams ended the first period with a goal apiece. The first was scored by Rangers' Dean Prentice less than two minutes after the game started. The Hawks got their goal five minutes later when Eric Nesterko whacked home a short drive.

With two minutes left in the game Creighton and Ed Litzenberger swapped punches and touched off a melee in which 10 players from each bench participated.

Chicago has a chance to close the gap behind New York tonight in a game with fourth-place Boston Bruins. No other games are scheduled.

To Play In Old-Timers' Game

BERNIE VINET

PAUL DUCHESNE

NILS TREMBLAY

GUY LABRIE

Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, will be guest speaker at the Old Timers' banquet on Saturday evening, Nov. 23, the day preceding the Old Timers' game of the former St. Francis team, game organizers announced yesterday.

Several ex-players, who will play in the game and 75 guests will attend the banquet. Proceeds from the game will be used to encourage minor sports.

This will be Mr. Campbell's first visit to Sherbrooke as a guest speaker. He has held the National League presidency 10 years, succeeding Mervyn "Red" Dutton prior to the 1946-47 season.

Important innovations in hockey have been made since Mr. Campbell took over the presidency. For example, referees' signals to inform the public about a player's infraction; widening of the nets; widening of the face-off circles; the immediate return to the game of a penalized player after the opposing team has scored, and this season the addition of a red circle near the penalty box.

Mr. Campbell is a lawyer by profession and possesses a wide knowledge of hockey organization in Canada and the United States. He has occupied the

Head Lineman's Gallop In Game Has Vanished

TORONTO (CP) — Big Four football fans have scarcely noticed the disappearance of an old-time thrill.

They no longer see the head linesman and the two yardsticks league presidency during some of the hottest controversies in hockey.

Other items with regards to the Old Timers' game includes an announcement by Sam Pollock, manager of the Junior Canadiens, that he will supply 24 pairs of hockey pants for the game.

men scampering across the field with the yardsticks for a measure, players and officials gaily skipping the scythelike sweep of the 10-yard chain.

This year, after a trial in 1956, the league decided that the head linesman makes the measure with a pocket roll-up steel tape like a carpenter.

Referee-in-chief Cece McFadden says the tapeline method speeds up the game. He grants that the fans haven't the same clinical closeup they had with the old system, still used by other leagues in Canada and by U.S. pros. A number of U.S. college conferences use the tape, an idea of Moose Krause of Notre Dame.

Hee Crighton, referee-in-chief of the intercollegiate league, is nostalgic. "It steals a favorite thrill from the fans," he laments.

Boxers Enter Elimination Tournament

NEW YORK (AP)—The six welterweight boxers named to fight in a tournament to find a new champion all have agreed to enter the eliminations.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission and also head of the world championship committee, announced the final acceptance Tuesday.

Virgil Atkins of St. Louis and Vince Martinez of Paterson, N.J., were the last to send confirming wires to Helfand. Isaac Logart of Cuba, Gaspar Ortega of Mexico, Gil Turner of Philadelphia and George Barnes of Australia agreed earlier.

"I am urging promoters to arrange matches among these six men immediately," said Helfand.
