POST OFFICE NOTICE.

THE MAILS FOR ENGLAND VIA THE UNITED STATES, WILL, UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE, BE CLOSED AT MONTREAL, POST OFFICE, EVERY MONDAY AFTERNOON, AT THREE O'CLOCK. NEWS PAPERS must be posted before 12 o'clock.

General Post Office, Montreal, 7th June, 1850.

THE MONTREAL HERALD.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 3, 1850.

THE FORBES.—It will be seen by our Toronto Correspondent that Mr. Hinks stated, on the vote relative to their support being taken, that the troop would be disbanded as soon as possible consistently with the engagements to the men. This is so far right, but it would have been wiser, and better for the Government as well as the men, that as they are thus admitted to be a useless expense to the Country, the Forts had been disbanded at once, and fair and reasonable compensation made to the men for the curtailment of their engagement.

TRIAL OF FIRE ENGINES.—We mentioned yesterday that a notarial protest, on the part of Messrs. Alex. Bertram, and John Short, acting for Capt. Hammond of the "Montreal Engine," against the decision of the judges in favour of the "Union" or "New Engine," had been handed to us for publication. We give the grounds of the protest:—

Because "according to the rules for the trial of fire engines, it is amongst other stipulations, written, stated and agreed upon, that 'the engine moving was to be lightest to be declared the winner.' And it is further stated that 'the Committee of arrangements shall see that all the above regulations (the regulations of the contest and trial) are observed and complied with.' And whereas it has been proved and ascertained beyond all doubt that the 'Montreal' did, on trial, show water higher than the 'Union' or 'New Engine.' And whereas it is also stated in the Rules and Regulations, that 'in the event of one of the engines running down so as to draw air, the judge stationed at said engine to give the signal for halting; and whereas the judge stationed at the 'Montreal Engine' did, upon said engine's trial, give the signal to halt, and caused said engine to be stopped from work, and caused it to draw air, and therefore winning the contest.

Wherefore we the said Notaries, &c., in as much as we believe that the 'Montreal' was stopped by the judge in the flooding trial, as if drawing air, &c., do hereby protest, &c., &c.

NON NOTRUM LANTIS COPONERE LITIS.—It is not for us to decide the points in issue. So highly do we esteem the public spirit of our gallant 'old Brigade,' and so deeply do we appreciate the sacrifices continually made by them in protecting the lives and properties of their fellow-citizens, that we should have wished, were it possible, both parties had gained the prize on Wednesday evening. If, however, our friends are determined to have the matter in issue decided, beyond the possibility of cavil or dispute, we should recommend them to refer the questions to the decision of Messrs. Forbes and Fleet, of the Gazette and Transcript. The scholarly and able, and thorough acquaintance with the mysterious arcana of nature, lately displayed by these literary Socrates, and 'old floodings.' It might, however, be well to explain to them that although both are 'Engines,' Fire Engines, and Steam Engines are not precisely identical, as is fact and fact is fact, although alike in name, materially differ in their nature and uses.

BARON LAW.—In justice to Mr. Henderson we publish the letter explaining the circumstances attending the late seizure of his bread, by the Sub-Inspector of Police. In doing so, we must be permitted to say that, so far as our observation enables us to judge, the existing law is practically of little benefit to the public, while it may be enforced as to draw injustice to the baker. We would suggest that the Bread Inspector should be a sworn officer, practically acquainted with the baking business, so that he may be competent to judge when he has ground to do or fraud; and when the lightness in weight arises from the bread being 'accidentally burnt or over-baked.' He ought also to be bound to state the exact weight of all bread seized by him, so that the customers of the party may form their own opinions as to whether the light-weight arises from accident or design.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE RAVELS.—To-night will be the last performance of the Ravels in this city, and the bill of fare being one of a very attractive nature, we expect to see the house crowded.—The box office will be open during the day, when seats may be secured.

GRAND OLD ENTERTAINMENT.—This is an entertainment under the management of Mr. E. T. Nichols, who visited this place a short time since with a portion of the same exhibition. He has since, as his advertisement says, "a great variety of innocent and amusing performances from the American Museum, New York," which we shall speak of more fully after we have witnessed the exhibition. This entertainment has just returned from Quebec, where it has been drawing crowded houses.

The Learned Dogs, at 184, Notre Dame Street, are doing a good business.

Mlle. Borghe's Concert at Monklands, last night, was well attended, and the whole performance gave great satisfaction.

NEWS BY THE CANADA.—We are indebted to Mr. Doane, agent for the Burlington and Rutland Railroad, for Boston papers of Thursday, containing the news by the Royal Mail Steamers Canada, which will be found in another column.

NEW WORKS.

The GAZETTE MAGAZINE, N. W. Kelly, New Glasgow.

The above is the title of a new little work, published by the proprietor of the Gazette; it contains a good deal of literary matter and light reading. Messrs. R. & A. Miller are the agents for this city. Persons wishing to encourage Mr. Kelly in the first attempt to sustain a literary paper in Canada, may do so by placing their names on the subscription list, which may be found at the Messrs. Miller's store. The work is issued monthly—price 25¢ each copy.

Civil Government, was but the entering of the wedge—the beginning of the system, which had been openly avowed by influential members of the Legislature, and which they were now to carry into military establishments. If it were to become the rule, it is openly stated, and then it would be time for the people of the Province to consider whether or not they would wish to see their country divided into two distinct and separate States.

The reply to this, that an armed force is sometimes necessary for the maintenance of the peace, it is cheaper to pay for the mere removal of the troops than to maintain them. Mr. Wm. Boulton accepted this sound doctrine; but when he applied it, and asked how it was when armed aid could be had for the mere expense of removing the troops, he was answered that 29,000 for the Forts. Eventually the vote was allowed to pass on the understanding that Ministers would bring down, when the Committee reported to the House, the correspondence, in consequence of which they had found themselves obliged to pay the money. I may mention here that the English business for another week. I read and was struck by the following passage in the Forts, which does not, however, appear to contain anything very new or interesting. I understand there is a supplementary return, which is not yet printed; perhaps it may be more important.

THE LIBRARY GAZETTE: Lovell & Gibson, Montreal.

This monthly repository of tales, sketches, poetry, music, &c., is always welcome, and we hope its subscription list tells the appreciation in which it is held by the community. The Literary Gazette has been in existence for twelve years, a certain index of its popularity and good management, which we are certain was never more so than at the present time. The August number contains a great variety of excellent reading matter, both original and selected. The subscription is only 15¢ per annum.

THE ELECTRIC MAGAZINE: New York. R. W. Lay, Notre Dame Street.

We have just received the August number of this always instructive and amusing periodical. The table of contents, beyond which we have not yet been able to look, indicates an admirable selection of articles from the leading British Reviews and Magazines. It is adorned with a mezzotint engraving of the late Lord Jeffrey, who, we think, a very happy likeness and taken at a time of life beyond the recollections of the present generation.

BRITISH-AMERICAN MEDICAL AND PHYSICAL JOURNAL. Edited by Archd. Hall, Esq., M.D., L.D., R.C.S.E., W. S. Sill & Co.

This work for August is before us, and as usual contains a great deal of valuable matter to the profession, and the general reader.
