GENERAL PETAIN'S TROOPS ATTACKED AGAIN YESTERDAY ALL ALONG THE LINE, CAPTURING IMPORTANT GERMAN POSITIONS AND THOUSANDS OF PRISONERS—LAON RAILWAY JUNCTION NOW IN SIGHT—NUMBER OF PRISONERS SINCE TUESDAY EXCEEDS 12,000—BRITISH AND FRENCH REPULSE ATTACK IN YPRES SECTOR—GERMANS STILL RETIRING IN NORTHERN RUSSIA.

The French forces in the Aisne region continued to develop their success of Tuesday, when they made an advance over a front of about six miles, capturing important German positions and thousands of prisoners.

Following up minor successes Wednesday, the French again attacked Thursday along the entire line, forcing the Germans to abandon Monkey Mountain, east of Vauxaillon, the village and forest of Pinon, the village of Pargny-Filain, on the extreme east of the line and numerous fortified farms and other points of vantage.

The latest drive of the French brings General Petain's army within sight of the important railway junction of Laon, the objective sought for, which now is a scant eight miles distant. Large quantities of war stores were abandoned by the enemy in their retreat and additional guns and prisoners were captured. The number of prisoners taken since the drive began, now exceeds 12,000 men, more than 200 of whom are officers. Two thousand of the prisoners were bagged Thursday.

An indication of the rapidity with which the drive has been carried out is the total number of guns the Germans were forced to leave behind them. These aggregate 120 among them several howitzers, not to mention several hundred small calibre pieces, like minnenwerfer and machine guns.

On the 25-mile front running from Monte Rombon on the Bainsizza plateau, the battle between the Austro-German forces and the Italians apparently is growing in intensity, with the Austro-Germans the aggressors but with the Italians stubbornly resisting everywhere.

Although the German War Office asserts that gains have been made at various points along the line, the Italian official communication does not concede any losses except on the east bank of the Isonzo south of Monte Rombon. To the contrary this communication asserts that on the Bainsizza plateau, where the Germans had announced successes, and on the west slope of Monte San Gabriele, enemy attacks were repulsed and that the Italians even took several hundred prisoners.

Not alone does the German War Office assert that the Italian line, barring the way to the valley of the Flitsch Basin and to Tolmino was overrun and that positions also were captured on the Bainsizza plateau, but that large quantities of booty were taken by the Austro-Germans and that more than 10,000 prisoners fell into their hands, including divisional and brigade staffs.

While the operations on the Ypres sector of the front in Flanders continue to be carried out mainly by the artillery with the British and French guns hurling the greater weight of metal, the Germans have launched another strong counter-attack south of the Houtholst forest where the British and French armies have joined hands.

Again this attack met with repulse.

In intensive air fighting Wednesday night the French airmen shot down or forced to land in a damaged condition twenty-five German planes.

The retirement of the Germans on the northern Russian front continue. The enemy is now as far back as the Rodenpois-Turkain line, approaching the Dvina river region. Behind them the Germans are destroying everything on the fifteen mile front over which they are retreating.

On the Gulf of Riga, the Germans have attempted a further landing on the Werder peninsula in order to harass the Russian right wing, but were stopped by the Russian fire. Possibly in view of the operations of German naval units at the head of the Gulf of Finland the civil population is evacuating Kronstadt, the great Russian fortress and naval base near Petrograd.

BRITISH STATEMENT.

London, Oct. 25.—Field Marshal Haig's official report of the operations in Flanders today reads:

"Following on the activity of his artillery already reported, the enemy delivered another strong counter-attack yesterday evening south of Houtholst forest. His troops were again completely repulsed.

"Successful raids were made yesterday afternoon and early in the night by Gloucester, Worcester and Berkshire troops against the enemy's positions between Roex and Gavrelle. Many Germans were killed and enemy dugouts destroyed. We captured a machine gun."

FRENCH STATEMENT.

Paris, Oct. 25.—The French forces on the Aisne today continued their successful advance capturing several important villages as well as two thousand additional prisoners. Since the beginning of the present operations, says the announcement made tonight by the War Office, more than 12,000 Germans have been captured, as well as 120 big guns and many guns of smaller calibre.

DARK PROSPECTS FOR GERMAN PEOPLE

FACING A GENERAL SHORT-AGE OF SUPPLIES FOR COMING WINTER.

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—Some of the prospects which the German people are called upon to face the coming winter are officially announced in today's German newspapers as follows:—There is only enough shoe leather for the use of miners, fishermen, canal workers and a few allied trades. The manufacturer of leather footwear for the rest of the population will soon be suspended. They will have to get along with wooden soles and cloth uppers.

"There is a big shortage in vegetable and no hope of any material improvement in the fresh vegetable supply. The turnip must again be one of the mainstays of German diet this winter, although to a less degree than last year.

"The fuel problem has not been solved, despite all the efforts made for its solution, and the city populations may expect to notice the results of this fact keenly from time to time. The coal commissioner prophesies that the pinch will be felt here and there within the next few days.

"The railway administration of Saxony announced that railway travel will not be allowed without special permission. Soldiers in the home camps are limited in their week-end furloughs and Saturday and Sunday trips of mothers and sweethearts to see the boys in camp are stopped in order to cut down railway travel. The Prussian railways will probably follow suit.

"Finally, after the fashion plates for winter are out, the government has decreed the women's skirts must be made with a reduced amount of material, which will necessitate their being made both shorter and lighter."

GERMANY MUST RECKON WITH JAPAN TOO

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—Captain von Salzmann, military critic and far eastern expert of the Vossische Zeitung, warns his readers that they no longer have the right to count upon a future war between Japan and the United States, which has become a fixed idea with the average German and a definite element in the government's political calculations. This element, the captain writes, must be eliminated for a long time, at least, and Germany instead must count upon Japan to enter into the Paris economy agreement and participate in an anti-German post-bellum business war.

HEAVY FIGHTING ON ITALIAN FRONT

AUSTRO-GERMAN DRIVE IS NOW GOING ON IN FULL SWING.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The great Austro-German drive against the Italian front now in full swing, was fully expected by General Cadorna. For several weeks past, General Cadorna has been placing his army in readiness and selecting with great care proper defensive positions for the Italian troops. Official telegrams received here today declare that in addition to the heavy reinforcements which the Austrians have received from troops withdrawn from the Russia front, many German divisions have appeared on the long line from Tolmino to the Carso, so that there are now twenty full divisions with a great amount of artillery in the German trenches.

Italian headquarters recognize in this great enemy force a confirmation of the reports that have been leaking out from Germany and Austria for the conclusion reached by the German General Staff that the real issue of the war is to be fought out on the Isonzo and Tyrol fronts. It was also learned that the German General Staff has freely conceded the high strategy and military ability shown by the Italian commander-in-chief, General Cadorna in his choice of positions.

Many days of extremely bad weather which finally gave way to cold and clear, made possible the beginning of the Austro-German offensive. This was necessary, according to information received by Italian officials here, to encourage the suffering and starving population in the interior of Austria, which is thoroughly tired of the war, and dispirited by the long defensive campaign of the Austrians.

Today's reports state that in this drive German troops for the first time have appeared on the Italian front and a German airplane, part of much German war material gathered on the Balzizza plateau, was brought down yesterday within the Italian lines.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Announcement was made today by the Hon. W. J. Hanna, Food Controller, that manufacturers of package cereals affected by the Order-in-Council of October 19th, who desire licenses for the sale of such products, should make written application at once to the office of the Food Controller. Each application should contain a full statement of the reasons advanced in support of such application.

LABOR CANDIDATES WILL NOT ENTER

Sydney, N.S., Oct. 25.—Labor candidates will not be entered for the constituency of Cape Breton South, and Richmond, in the next Federal election. This announcement was made today by James B. MacLachlan, secretary-treasurer of the A. M. W. of Nova Scotia. He intimated, however, that when the time for the Provincial elections came around Labor men would be in the field. The delegates spent the entire morning session with a discussion of the wage scale, probably the most vital question that will be taken up at the convention.

The miners at Joggins Mines are to become associated with the American Mine Workers.

Just before the morning session closed, the A. M. W. voted $100 for the British Red Cross, as their contribution to the "Our Day" fund.

ALBERTA MINISTERS DENY RUMORS

Edmonton, Alb., Oct. 25.—Premier Stewart this afternoon denied the rumor, started in Calgary, that Hon. C. W. Cross would shortly retire as Attorney-General and that there would be other changes, bringing in A. G. McKay as Provincial Secretary. "I have not heard of it," said the Premier, "and I do not anticipate any changes."

Attorney-General Cross said: "I know nothing about any such action. It is nonsense."

PROHIBIT BEEF HERE NEXT SPRING

SUCH IS PREDICTION OF CHIEF ADVISER TO CONTROLLER HANNA.

Calgary, Alb., Oct. 25.—Dr. J. W. Robertson, chief adviser to Food Controller Hanna, speaking in the Central Methodist Church last night, predicted that by next spring the consumption of beef would be prohibited. He also promised to use his influence to secure the prohibition of the manufacture of icecream, although at the same time he predicted that to abolish ice cream would increase the price of milk. He gave as a reason why the killing of young animals was not forbidden that it takes two years for them to grow and will not affect the quantity of meat now, and added that if dairymen were forbidden to sell young beef cattle they would kill them on the quiet and bury them. Dr. Robertson also repeated his declaration that as a food producer, there was less waste in turning barley into beer than in feeding it to animals to produce milk, pork and beef.

CO-OPERATION A GREAT HELP

CONTINUOUS SCRUTINY OF YOUNG MEN IN CANADA AND UNITED STATES.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Co-operation between the Governments of Canada and the United States is expected to have an interesting influence in settling a number of problems, both economic and military. Ottawa and Washington are finding much mutual benefit in working together.

The operation of the draft law in the United States is simplified by the fact that Canada has put one in operation also, and so, in turn, Canada will reap the benefit of the draft law's operation in the United States. A continual scrutiny of the young men of military age will be carried on in both countries and there will be no possibility of evading the draft law in either one.

TORONTO LIBERALS OBJECT TO STATEMENT

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Some prominent local Liberals are taking objection to the announcement made last night that the Toronto Liberals would contest Toronto seats in which Union government candidates appear. This announcement was made after a meeting of the executive committee of the Toronto Reform Association in the offices of C. W. Kerr, the president. Edward Fielding, for many years a strong Liberal, now a Unionist, said Mr. Kerr had no right to make such a statement for Toronto Liberals.

ADJUST PAY FOR MINISTER OF MILITIA

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Adjustment of pay is likely to be made by the military authorities at Ottawa, in the case of returned soldiers, who become instructors to the "draftees." Toronto military officials have taken the matter to Ottawa this week. In addition to pay it is likely that these returned instructors will get separation allowances for their wives, as well as an extra allowance equivalent to "patriotic fund." It is not likely that their pensions will be interfered with. Some thousands of returned men will be needed for this duty.

UNIONIST CANDIDATE FOR EAST ALGOMA

Sudbury, Ont., Oct. 25.—At the Union convention at Massey this afternoon, attended by one hundred and fifty Conservatives and Liberals from every section of the riding, George B. Nicholson, of Chapleau, was unanimously chosen as the Unionist candidate for East Algoma. No other name was submitted to the convention. His nomination was moved by D. O. Payette, of Chapleau, a life-long French-Canadian Liberal, and seconded by Dr. Brooks, of Blind River, and also J. D. McAdam, of Chapleau, representing organized labor.

MILITARISM MUST BE SWEEPED AWAY

THE ONLY WAY TO ARISE TO A NEW AND BETTER WORLD

Sheffield, England, Oct. 25.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—In the course of his speech here yesterday, General Smuts, South Africa, said: "We want to arise from carnage and slaughter to a new and better world. We want to see more justice in this country; less poverty, less luxury. We want to see better standards of living, more economic freedom and security for all workers in a world where there will be no idlers, rich or poor. To gain this end militarism must be swept away from the face of the earth. I hope we never sheathe the sword, never make peace until we know there is no longer a threat of militarism. As the principle achievement of the war there should be established permanent machinery for securing peace. After the war we want to see arbitration that will prevent future wars. We want a league of nations with a force behind, ensuring that there will be no future threat. Peace would be suicide to western civilization if this catalyst is to be repeated. What is a good peace? I would like to see a peace settling the vital issues that have been raised. The Pope would express no judgment on the conduct of nations or the cause which led to the war. I cannot agree. We cannot make peace until the German war machine becomes a scrap of paper. Germany must learn the lesson that war does not pay, that the wages of sin is death. Germany must not retain an inch of her war map at the end of the war. Let our motto be 'no spoilation to the spoiler, no peace until Germany is prepared to vacate the countries she has invaded.'"

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Mr. Blackburn, a soft drink merchant of Hull, admitted this morning in the Superior Court, that he asked $8,500 of three hotelmen last February as the price of his influence in helping them to obtain their licenses. If they did not get their licenses, he was to return the money. If they did, he was to keep it. This admission was made by Blackburn in the course of the judicial enquiry into rumors of bribery and corruption involving certain hotelmen, which is being held before Judge J. M. McDougall.

The case of the Montreal Stock Yards Company, vs. Canadian Northern Quebec Railway Company, and the City of Montreal, was then heard. SEVENTEEN HUNDRED DELEGATES WERE PRESENT AT THE MEETING.

Dublin, Oct. 25.—The Sinn Fein conference opened today under the presidency of Arthur Griffiths, founder of the organization. There were seventeen hundred delegates present, including many young priests. The secretary reported that more than one thousand clubs had been organized with a membership of a quarter of a million. In his opening address, Mr. Griffith said that the Sinn Fein movement began to spread from the moment John Redmond in the House of Commons in 1914 claimed that England's war was Ireland's war. But the movement would not have obtained the hold it had, except for the martyrdom of the sixteen men executed after the Easter rising. He denied that the Sinn Fein movement was supported by German gold. It was carried on, he said, by thousands of persons working without fee. They had got all the gold and service they needed from the Irish.

U.S. SHIPS FOR THE ITALIANS

THE SHIPPING BOARD WILL CHARTER TWENTY-FIVE STEEL VESSELS.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The Shipping Board agreed today to charter to the Italian government 25 American commandeered steel ships of an aggregate of 100,000 deadweight tons, to relieve Italy's shortage of shipping to transport vitally needed supplies. This action was announced late today by Chairman Hurley, of the Board. Great Britain has been supplying France and Italy with shipping to meet its emergency needs but cannot continue to do so in view of increasing British shipping requirements. Italy has strongly represented its great need and she gets five more ships than were allotted to the French government a few days ago. Part of the ships chartered will be old and part new and some may be taken from those on the way from the Great Lakes to the ocean. They will be used between the United States and Italian ports.

HOOVER POINTS OUT HOW THE SUBMARINE CAN BE CONQUERED

Rests With Canada And The United States To Feed The Allies.

THE GREATEST NEEDS.

Ships Not To Go Farther Afield
Than The American Atlantic
Seaboard.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In a statement tonight reviewing the world food situation, food administrator Hoover said the fight against the submarine would be won if the United States and Canada could stimulate production and effect economies so as to feed the Allies from this Continent without sending a ship farther afield than the American Atlantic seaboard. Ships, wheat and hogs are the great needs emphasized by Mr. Hoover. He said deepest concern had been caused by the fact that despite high prices, this country's pork consumption had increased during the war until production has been outstripped; a situation that must be changed.

Increase Hog Production.
"If we discontinue exports," Mr. Hoover added, "we will move the German line from France to the Atlantic seaboard. Pork products have an influence in this present world situation wider than one would ordinarily attribute to them. The human body must have a certain amount of fat; we must increase production of hogs if we are to answer the world's craving."

"The production of fats is today a critical necessity for the preservation of these people (the Allies), and the maintenance of their constancy in the war. Every pound of fat is as sure of service as every bullet, and every hog is of greater value to the winning of this war than a shell."

Meet Wheat Deficit.
As to wheat, the administrator said the Allies deficiency of production is 196,000,000 bushels, with imports of 577,700,000 bushels required to maintain normal consumption. He estimated the aggregate American, Canadian, Australian, Indian and Argentine export surplus at 770,000,000 bushels, but pointed out that lack of shipping made it necessary for this country and Canada to bear the burden of meeting the Allies deficit.

Shipping Problem.
"The problem is thus simply one of ships. If ample shipping existed, there would be no need for saving or increasing production of wheat on the part of the American people. But if we can produce economies and stimulate production in the United States and Canada, it will enable us to feed the Allies absolutely from this continent and thus enable them to live without sending a ship farther afield than our Atlantic seaboard, we can resist the submarine indefinitely."

Placing the United States wheat export surplus from this year's crop at 80,000,000 bushels and Canada's at 150,000,000, Mr. Hoover urged domestic economies to increase this country's surplus to 150,000,000.

"This we could do," he said, "if our people would eat one pound less of flour per week and one pound of corn meal instead."

War of Endurance.
"The question of who wins this war is who can endure the longest, and the problem of endurance, in a large degree, is a problem of food supply and ships to carry it. The farmer who works overtime and the consumer who economizes are fighting the submarine with a positive and sure weapon."

If peace should come, Mr. Hoover continued, large numbers of ships would be released and European wheat production increased. If climatic conditions next year are right, he estimated a wheat crop in this country of one billion bushels. For this the food control law guarantees a minimum price of $2.00 per bushel. "If war continues this wheat will be vitally necessary," Mr. Hoover said, "but if the war should come to an end, there will be no foreign for at least 400,000,000 bushels. The government must then take over the wheat and probably find a market for it at a very great loss. I should anticipate that the Government may lose from $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 on this wheat guaranty if peace arrives before the 1918 harvest is marketed."

Guarantee to Farmers.
Mr. Hoover expressed the opinion that the fixed guarantee was unnecessary and that a reasonable profit guaranteed to the farmers have been sufficient to stimulate production.

"However," the guaranty has been fixed," he added. "It is an insurance against the submarine an estimate of what it may cost, we must leave to the future."

Turning to the meat situation, the administrator said pork products were more vitally needed by the Allies than beef. "In the matter of beef," he said, the Allies can support themselves without any consequential expansion of imports from the United States."

Keep-a-Pig Movement.
In view of the European situation and the American shortage in hogs he pointed out that there would be a high average price for pork products, and, therefore, it would be to the vital advantage of every farmer to raise hogs, adding: "We need a keep-a-pig movement in this country."

By preventing undue increases in forage prices, Mr. Hoover promised that the food administration would co-operate in measures to stimulate live-stock production. He also said further production of sheep, both for meat and particularly for wool, extensively used in uniforms, is needed. "Our American farmers," he added, "would be wise to realize that for a considerable period after the war there will be a very poor export market for American bread grains, whereas there will be a wide demand for animal products."

OBJECTS TO BORDEN NAMING MEMBERS

ONTARIO WILL NOT PERMIT
IT, SAYS EVENING TELE-GRAM EDITORIAL.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—"Ontario will not permit Sir Robert Borden to appoint M.P.'s for this province" says a heading on an editorial in the Evening Telegram today. The editorial goes on to say:

"An appeal for unity in the constituencies of Ontario is sent out from Ottawa."

"A suggestion of autocracy is written in the decree of the Union Government to the constituencies of Ontario."

"Military Voters Act or not Military Voters Act, it is not the duty of Sir Robert Borden, or Hon. Wesley Rowell, to designate the men who are to represent the protectionists, conscriptionists, anti-Laurier convictions of the people of Ontario in the next House of Commons."

"Union government will be saved much trouble if the leader and strategists of that government realize here and now that Ontario members of parliament are to be chosen either by the acclamation or the votes of the free people of this province. The friends of conscription, public ownership, public rights, progress and the foes of Laurierism in Ontario will not permit their members of parliament to be appointed by Sir Robert Borden in consultation with the saw-off artists of the two old party machines at Ottawa."

U.S. GERMAN BUYS LIBERTY BONDS

HE AND HIS FRIENDS BECAME VERY PATRIOTIC AFTER HIS ARREST.

Manilla, Iowa, Oct. 25.—John Brus, a wealthy resident of Aspinwall, who was arrested yesterday because of his refusal to permit the use of an assembly hall, owned by him for a Liberty loan campaign, today is pleading with his German friends to buy Liberty bonds. Aspinwall is chiefly populated by Germans.

After Brus was released pending good behavior, he was told that if Iowa township, in which he resides, bought $25,000 worth of bonds, citizens would attempt to hand the charges against him dropped. Brus then purchased $800 worth of bonds and immediately began a selling campaign among his German friends.

The Stars and Stripes are floating over homes and business houses in Aspinwall today for the first time in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. State agents began a drive against pro-Germanism. Wealthy Germans who do not subscribe to the loan will be taken before the federal commissioner at Council Bluffs, according to Mayor Roscoe Saunders, of Manilla, who is heading the bond campaign in the district.

Miss Stella Nordloh, a teacher in Vermont township, Ind., has four sets of twins among her pupils. They are: Eddie and Emma Wetzel, Warren and William Morehead, Magdalene and Matilda Meyers and Ernest and Edward Dell.

English & Scotch Woollen Co.

Will Not Raise Their Price

War has played havoc with prices in the great woollen industries of Great Britain. Many Clothiers and Tailors in Canada are unable to give their customers clothes at regular prices. Despite these facts the English & Scotch Woollen Co., however, will stick to the old price.

We foresaw the steady advance in price of British woollens. Many months ago we placed some of the best Old Country mills under contract. Owing to the contracts we were fortunate enough to make, we are able to supply our customers all over the Dominion under present conditions without adding a dollar to our standard price of $15 for a Made-to-Measure Suit or Overcoat. Owing to our splendid position financially and the arrangements we have with Old Country mills, we can give our customers the same quality of Suit or Overcoat Made-to-Measure at $15 that we have always given—the clothes that made the English & Scotch Woollen Co. the fastest growing tailoring organization in the Dominion. Men will receive the same good tailoring, the same honest linings and trimmings, and the most modern designing and style at $15, the same old price.

We could easily have taken advantage of war conditions that exist to ask a higher price for our clothes, and thus make profit out of the buying public, but we prefer to stand by our customers and stick to the old price as long as we can.

We believe that in selling our customers their clothes at the same price, $15, notwithstanding the price British woollens are selling for everywhere today, we are rendering them a service that they will appreciate. Clothiers and tailors all over Canada are raising their prices. Some of our Branch Managers thought perhaps we also should do so. After considering, however, they all agreed with the executive that maintaining our price is the most patriotic policy we could follow.

If, however, it ever comes to a question where we must raise our price or reduce our standard of value, we shall most certainly advance the price. In the meantime, we are giving the greatest tailoring value in the Dominion, without question. Customers who wear our clothes will find every detail right up to the usual standard at the same old price. You are invited to come and see the new Fall and Winter material and satisfy yourself that our tailoring proposition stands without equal in the Dominion.

QUEBEC, OCTOBER 26, 1917

WAR BONDS AND OTHER BONDS.

A correspondent recently asked the New York Times why owners of railway bonds should buy Liberty bonds, and was himself asked by the editor of that paper, in reply, what railway bonds would be worth if Kaiserism should not be crushed, or perhaps might even prevail. Americans, added the Times, revolted against being a colony of England, and it is unnecessary to ask how they would like to be a colony of Germany. Answering his own question, the editor remarked that they would like it as much as Alsace-Lorraine, where Germany is hated after a generation's experience of Kultur. American newspapers and American public men of every shade of political opinion scout the idea that owners of securities owe so little to the Government for its care of their interests that subscriptions to the Liberty Loan may be withheld, just as votes in ordinary election times. Similar questions to that asked the newspaper man by the American holder of railway bonds have not infrequently been heard in Canada, while subscriptions were being invited to the bonds of the three War Loans already floated in this country. It is perfectly true that each of those issues was a very pronounced success, and was in fact largely over-subscribed, not only because there were sufficient men of undoubted loyalty, financial intelligence and a high sense of patriotism to see their duty and to do it as they saw it, but because it was to their own immediate financial advantage to seize the opportunity which the issue of these bonds afforded them, of one of the best and safest investments ever offered in any country at any time. These are not ordinary times, and the bonds of the new Victory Loan to be officially announced from Ottawa in a few days are not ordinary bonds, which anybody is free to take or to refuse, for investment reasons solely. What would the bonds of Canadian railways, steamboat companies or industrial concerns be worth if the Allies should be defeated? Only the remoteness of Germany from Canada, with the ocean between them, allows a person of intelligence to imagine that it is so impossible for Germany ever to impose its will upon this country, that our War Bonds could be safely neglected. But the freedom of the seas is an issue in this war, and the German notion of the freedom of the seas is not compatible with Canadian interests or, with Canadian self respect. Canadians owe much, and have a duty to perform, not only to themselves, but also to their country, to the Empire to which they belong, which has handed down to them from former generations the liberty which they now enjoy, and to those who are to come after them. And Canada expects every man to do his duty. Any Canadian who puts politics or profits above this Victory Loan will sadly fail in duty. He will not even give a share of his fortune for the protection of that liberty which alone made his fortune possible or protects him in the possession of it. As a matter of fact, the offer of the loan is not a passing of the contribution box for a gift. Rather it is the passing of a plate from which gifts may be taken by those who have either the public spirit or the intelligence to take that view of it. The Victory Loan is a preserver of fortunes threatened by the unsettlement of the war. Profit is not the leading consideration for taking Victory bonds. The leading financial reason is security. But there is good assurance of profit, too. Both because of the low rate at which they are to be issued and also because of the high rate of interest to be paid thereon, as compared with the four per cent paid upon the Liberty Loan, or upon any other Government bond of such exceptional security and value, there can be no possible doubt whatever of a substantial advance in their value prior to the date of maturity. This loan is really an altar of refuge for our savings, as well as a rock around which the forces of civilization and the industrial prosperity of Canada are rallying, for upon the success of this loan will largely no doubt depend the amount of new financing which Canada can undertake for the placing of further Imperial war orders in this country. There is no reason to evade the strictest examination of the worth of what is offered along with a high rate of interest, but it would be cause for sincere regret that anybody could take a purely financial view of the opportunity to safeguard personal and national fortunes, along with the best hope of peace and prosperity. If this loan and similar ones issued for the same purpose should not be taken as they ought to be taken the fight for civilization would suddenly be made harder than had been expected. Let us all remember that it is not only the subscriptions of millions or of large fractions thereof that count. On the contrary it is hoped and expected that in the distribution of this loan there will be many thousands of comparatively small investors, for whose benefit the bonds are issued in denominations of fifty of a hundred, of five hundred and of a thousand dollars respectively, in order that every Canadian may have his or her part in the financing of the war, and in the profits of the very attractive bonds to be issued in connection therewith.

BERNSTORFF'S ACTIVITIES.

Never before, perhaps, has such a wholesale system of treachery and abuse of diplomatic courtesy and correspondence been disclosed as that which has come to light from time to time during the last year, on the part of Count von Bernstorff, fresh evidences of which are constantly being discovered. The last rich haul made in this connection by members of the American Secret Service includes the discovery of the late ambassador's secret representative in the United States, Baron Recklinghausen, and of all his records and papers. The value of these latter may be guessed from the fact that they contain a complete record of German plotting in the Irish rebellion, besides plans for a new revolt and indications of the source of a great fund of German propaganda money. Recent arrests in connection with the disclosures so made include not only that of Baron Recklinghausen, but also of General Llam Mellows, one of the leaders of the Dublin revolt of 1916, and of Dr. Patrick MacCarton, another Sinn Féin leader, who was taken on board the liner Maunee at Halifax, where he was concealed under the guise of a steward. It is difficult indeed to set any limits which German villainy will not pass. In retaliation, it may be supposed, for the gallantry of the Irish troops in the campaign for Right, Liberty and Justice against Hun aggressiveness and oppression, the German leaders appear to have taken a devilish pleasure in plotting against the possibility of peace and prosperity in Ireland by stirring up revolts at the very moment when the truest patriots of that country are laboring for the success of an agreement upon that Home Rule which has been the dream of the Irish people for centuries. The heartlessness of this conduct is only equalled by the treachery to the Government of the United States which was carried on secretly by Bernstorff and his tools for several years at Washington and elsewhere, while enjoying the hospitality and special privileges extended by the Government to him as the supposed friendly Representative of a neutral power. International perfidy could scarcely farther go. His plottings against countries which were at the time friendly to the United States and are now its Allies are as well known as his treachery to the American people, and it is his unworthy carcass should ever happen to come into possession of the Government of the United States, it would doubtless not take long to decide that his position as Minister to the United States from Germany could not protect him from the consequences of personal misconduct of a character to rank with treachery and abuse of all hospitality and international comity.

RAIDING THE RIVERS.

The Germans, before evacuating those portions of France from which they were compelled to retreat, made a systematic raid on the fish of the canals and rivers. It shows clearly the value attached by them to fresh water fish. Whilst this latest barbarity might be explained in part by the critical food situation of the Germans, there is evidence that this is not the sole motive. The task of leaving the French rivers and canals fishless is being pursued with the same systematic thoroughness and attention to detail which characterized the efforts of the Germans preceding their retreat last March to leave behind them a desolate wilderness, in which the French might not find either a mouthful of food or an ounce of material that would be of service to them. The discovery that the numerous rivers and canals of the district evacuated by the Germans had suffered the same fate as the ground, was only made when the French recently undertook the task of rendering these waterways navigable after the German destruction of bridges, locks, embankments, and barges. The necessity of draining dry many of the canals and portions of river beds rendered unusable by the Germans has brought to light numerous fish traps, seines, barriers, and other appliances used by the Germans in order to catch absolutely every fish. Frequently the canals and rivers were divided up into sections, with barriers across each end in order to render impossible the escape of a single fish. Evidence has also been found of the use of explosive for stunning the fish and bringing them to the surface, where they were raked in with hand-nets. Before the German invasion the canals, rivers, and waterways had been brought to a high state of fish productivity by stocking and preservation. The Germans having evidently aimed at securing for their immediate use all the fish food available, and at the same time rendering it certain that it would be some time before the waters would recover. To some extent Canadians can take a leaf out of the German book in this connection. None of us want to see all the fish supply of any of our waters destroyed, but we may learn from the foe the very great value of fresh fish as an article of diet, especially in these days of the high cost of living. And no country offers a greater choice of excellent varieties of fish to its people than does Canada.

PRESS COMMENT.

An enabling act, for carrying out the provisions of the treaty between the United States and Canada affecting migratory birds, introduced in the Senate, was favorably reported from committee. Even since the treaty was ratified, the United States has been in honor bound to provide a means to enable it to carry out its agreements with the Dominion. Since war has been declared such action becomes doubly a duty. Heretofore Canada was merely our neighbor and friend. Now she is our ally, and in a sense our partner. No step helpful to Canada should be omitted by the United States. In helping Canada we help ourselves. Quite apart from the important question of the conservation of life and the holding level—so far as practicable, in the face of civilized man—the balance of nature, it is more than ever the duty of the United States and of Canada in these strenuous times to protect the migratory birds which for a part of each year sojourn in both countries. With world crops as short as they seem to be, and with all hands striving so far as possible to increase the productions of the soil—the food supply—it is the duty of the United States to use every possible means to protect its birds. We have been told that the annual damage to crops by insects is estimated at $800,000,000, and we know very well that in the insectivorous birds we have many millions of unpaid insect destroyers that are working for us three hundred and sixty-five days out of each year, performing services the value of which is incalculable. Without this help from the birds the soil would no longer produce crops and man could not live on this continent.—Forest and Stream.

Who knows but that among the most enduring of the great war will be the permanent use of many of the makeshifts which have been forced by necessity? The other day, quite a number of persons were surprised at reading of the serving of whale meat steaks in fashionable San Francisco hotels and of shark meat at a rather elaborate course dinner given down South. The use of fish skins for tanning into leather seems to have progressed far enough to indicate that a permanent industrial use of the article will be found. In the textiles, the use of nettle and other hitherto unused fibres has been made not only in Germany, but in Denmark and Great Britain, and the results are so gratifying that the continuance of them is assured on a very large scale. The German chemists have been especially industrious, in their elaborate, plodding way, to overcome the lack of needed materials resulting from the blockade. In making nitrates directly from the air they claim the discovery of a new process which produces a result about 80 per cent. higher than hitherto, and novel products have been obtained from lignite. Mineral oils have been got from coal under treatment with liquid sulphuric acid, and an oil suitable for illumination like kerosene has been made from naphthalene. Substitutes are also said to have been discovered for copper, brass, and bronze, and new processes invented for extracting metals from the least kind of ores. Woodpulp, too, has been applied successfully to many uses never before dreamed of.—New York Times.

DISFIGURED 4 YEARS!

Such was the misfortune of Mr. A. B. Wheeler, of Paradise Hill, Sask. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "For four years I was a shocking sight—my face was simply covered with pimples and blackheads. Nothing I tried—although I used numerous remedies and blood medicines—had any effect. Finally I heard of Zam-Buk and gave it a trial. By the time I finished the first box I realized I had found a cure. I continued using Zam-Buk until the pimples and blackheads had entirely disappeared and my skin is now perfectly clear and smooth."

Zam-Buk gives just as satisfactory results in cases of eczema, scalp sores, ringworm, ulcers, boils, blood-poisoning and piles and is the best "first-aid" in cases of cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

Sir Edward Deschamps Chamier, retiring Chief Justice of India, is in the city, registered at the Chateau, accompanied by Lady Chamier.

The distinguished visitor was a Judge in India for sixteen years and Chief Justice for four years, during which time he had a population of sixty million people under his jurisdiction.

LEON ROTHIER
ARRIVES IN CITY

GREAT FRENCH SINGER, WHO GIVES RECITAL TONIGHT, VISITS QUEBEC.

Leon Rothier, one of the most notable singers of the Metropolitan Opera Co., arrived in the city yesterday and visited many points of interest, including the new Quebec Bridge.

Mr. Rothier, who will give a concert at the Auditorium this evening, was favourably impressed with the city and surroundings and expressed himself as greatly pleased with his visit here. The great singer has already served in the trenches in the French Army and is appearing in America by the special permission of the French Government.

The celebrated artist, though singing in America, thinks only of his beloved country, France, and half of his earnings are sent across the ocean to aid his fellow-countrymen to win the great fight.

Mr. Rothier has prepared a magnificent programme for this evening's recital. He will sing arias from operas and a cycle of songs from the 17th century to the present day.

Miss Lina Cien, the great French pianist will appear in conjunction with Mr. Rothier's recital this evening.

Ernest and Percy Gale, and one sister, Mrs. Paul Mackey.

Her sorrowing relatives will have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement.

TRIBUTE TO OUR DEAD CONFRERES

PAID BY MR. D. POTVIN TO LATE MESSRS. OSBORNE AND HENCHEY.

Mr. Potvin, who writes in L'Evenement over the non-deplumage "Graindesel," pays the following feeling tribute to his lamented confreres of the Chronicle, the late William Pike Osborne and Clement Henchey.

"The cold, damp earth has closed over two of our confreres in journalism, lamented victims of a sad autumnal drama. May I be permitted to utter a fond adieu before the coming of the wintry sky to cast its shadows upon their tombs? They are 'our dead,' they belong to us of the humble but busy stirring class known as journalists.... Our dead! Alas! And who has not his own?"

"But let us confess at once. In these times when our soldiers occupy the centre of the world's stage that we almost find ourselves out of place when mourning for others than the victims of war.... But it is not yet time to bury the dead of this war. Until vengeance will have been obtained they will refuse to take the peace of the tomb. When we wake them, their uplifted arms pierce the soil and they demand vengeance...."

"But we must, nevertheless, pause an instant before the passing of the biers upon which repose those with whom we conversed with yesterday; those who though not yet upon the battlefield, have been swept away by the turbulent tide of untoward events. And this figure of speech is, alas! a reality. The treacherous and deceptive waves of Lake St. Joseph carried them down that sad and gloomy autumn evening into their sea-green depths. And we cannot allow those whom we have known so well to pass away thus without a parting tear."

"And since we must always come back to the pathetic drama of those who have died for their country, let us recall two facts."

"William Pike Osborne, this tall fine fellow of rather timid manner, this dark-eyed dreamer, intelligent, educated, fond of a laugh yet seldom laughing, this pleasantly peaceful type of an Englishman of the North, arrived among us on his return from the South African War. He was now awaiting the call of his class to cross the ocean again to the assistance of his country, and he would have gone with that cool courage of the 'Tommy' always so disconcerting to the enemy, notwithstanding their three years' experience of it. And Flanders is there to prove it."

"Clement Henchey, on the threshold of his twenty-seven years had barely seen opening before him the golden doors of a happy life, the affection of his family, and especially and above all of a mother to whom his daily return was a ray of happiness. Death, sudden, sorrowful and tragic has torn him away from his holy love. Soon, amid the tearful resignation of his mother he, too, would have left for the battle front in response to the call of his class. He did not hesitate. But Fate stole him from the heroism of the War and from the glory of our Canadian Army."

"On these two newly closed graves the French journalists of Quebec, deposit a prayer, together with their tears."

NAVAL PIERROTS
A GREAT SUCCESS

LARGE AUDIENCE PLEASSED WITH ENTERTAINMENT IN CATHEDRAL HALL.

The Concert given last night in the Cathedral Hall, by the "Naval Pierrots," in aid of the Xmas Fund of H.M.S. ships at Halifax, was undoubtedly a splendid success.

The large audience present showed their appreciation of the entertainment by the hearty applause and numerous demands for encores. From the commencement to the close of the concert there was not a dull moment and the audience departed well satisfied with the evening's programme.

All the artistes acquitted themselves well, and gave a delightful display of the sailors' aptitude for entertaining, and in every way upheld the enviable reputation the boys of the Royal Navy have justly earned in every clime as entertainers, and it is to be hoped that the citizens of Quebec will be afforded another opportunity of being entertained by the "Naval Pierrots."

The programme was as follows:

- Part I.
1. Opening Chorus..... Tennessee
2. Song, The Sunshine of Your Smile
3. Song..... Lundy Loo
4. Impersonations..... Selected
5. Quartette..... Sweet and Low

ST. PATRICK'S TO MEET
ALL-STAR JUNIOR TEAM
AT SILLERY SUNDAY

Baseball Game to Be Played for Red Cross Fund Benefit —
Large Crowd Should Attend if Weather is Fine—Metivier
Will Pitch for the Juniors Who Will Have a Good Line
Up—Frezell Will Most Likely Pitch for St. Pat's.

The St. Patrick's team, champions of the Quebec City League, will meet an All-Star aggregation of ballplayers picked from the Junior League, in a Red Cross benefit game to be played on the Sillery grounds, Sunday afternoon, if the weather is fine.

Mr. C. T. Phillips, president of the Junior League, has worked hard to arrange this game and despite the lateness of the season it is to be hoped that the fans will attend in large numbers and generously contribute to the fund.

The St. Patrick's team, though not at full strength, will have a good line-up and Manager Newton states that the boys will do their best to trim the Junior Leaguers, who have a fine line of young players.

Metivier, of the Stadacona team, will twirl for the Juniors, and the winning pitcher of the champion junior outfit is expected to hold the sluggers of the St. Pat's team down in fine shape.

"Billy" Frezell will likely pitch for St. Patrick's.

The umpires are Messrs. Harry Ledden and A. Boissonault.

HARVARD DROPS
BASEBALL AND HOCKEY

NO REGULAR REPRESENTATIVE TEAMS WILL BE FORMED.

Boston, Oct. 25.—Graduate Treas. F. W. Moore, of Harvard, announces that there will be no "Varsity" hockey seven representing Harvard on the ice this Winter in a formal way. A similar decree exists in regard to baseball in the Spring, unless there is a change in the war situation.

Freshmen squads will be formed on the usual basis, however, and plans are on being made for the 1921 hockey and baseball teams. No schedules have been arranged yet, but the athletic office will get busy on that part of the work in due time.

Hockey and baseball will be encouraged at Harvard, in spite of the fact that "Varsity" teams in these sports are out of the question.

More than the usual number of rinks will be built on the Charles River and the Stadium, for a number of teams will be formed from the companies and battalions of the Harvard Regiment.

It is planned to have the baseball teams made up of battalion members to take the place of the "Varsity."

Hugh Duffy will be in charge of the baseball men, and shortly after Christmas holidays will call the battery candidates from the class of 1921 for work in the cage. Upper class players will also have the opportunity of coming out then for practice.

Sporting Notes

Boston papers are practically unanimous in declaring Billy Joh's decision in awarding the bout to "Bill" Brennan over "Battling" Levinsky on Tuesday night, was perfectly correct.

The Boston Globe says: "Bill" Brennan, a County of Mayo heavyweight, defeated Battling Levinsky in their 12-round bout at the Armory A. A. last night. The largest crowd of fans that has gathered at the Club this season watched the mill, which was equal to that the same pair provided at the club a few weeks ago.

Some of the fans figured that Levinsky was entitled to a draw, but nine-tenths of the crowd agreed with the decision of the referee.

Both of the heavies were in great shape and they boxed at a fast pace all the way. Brennan surprised the fans with the way he used his left. He practically won the battle with that hand. He tried to get over a knockout punch with his great right, but the Battler watched that hand too closely.

The 8th R. R. boys are enjoying games every day. The game yesterday was a good one, and attracted much interest.

The attendance was very good—getting larger every match. The officers were also in attendance. Therefore the players thank them very much for helping the boys out. Lt. Ross, Lt. Finley, and Lt. Blanchet were present. Another interesting game will be played this afternoon between the officers vs. Sergeants, of the 8th R. R.

The sporting fans will deeply sympathize with Johnny Carbray, the well-known hockey manager, in the death of his father.

The Boston Posts says: Such rounds as were not the victor's were so even or close to even as to give the clever Levinsky no chance to call for a recount on the decision as it was given.

The largest gathering of the season was present at the Armory to enjoy a bout that was entirely up to expectations, even though the wide margin by which Brennan won in a way made the affair one-sided.

At that, the boxing was very fast, Levinsky being himself, but unable to cope with the splendid work of the Chicago man, who fully satisfied the critics of the two men that in their previous meeting there was plenty of ground for the opinion Brennan had in on his opponent.

"Steve" Newton is organizing his Club to meet the Junior All-Star baseball team in Sillery on Sunday.

"Rick" Loisel, a former catcher of St. Patrick's, is in the city again.

There always has been an argument about Fitz's age, and there always has been doubt that he himself knew what it was. Some years ago, however, a friend of the fighter, while abroad, examined a lot of parish records in Cornwall, and from these deduced that the former champion was born in 1862. If this is the case, he was 35 years old when he won the championship, and was 35 years old when he died. Corbett was only 26 years old when he won the title, and Jeffries was but 24 at the time that he became champ. on Fitzsimmons, as a fighter, was the world's wonder in the way in which he could give away weight, and in his ability to fight and to win at a period of life at which the average boxer has been forced to retire, because of the creeping on of age, with the word used in the athletic sense.

We received a letter handing out a severe "knock" to "two-cent" sports who spend their time criticising ladies on St. John Street. As no name is signed to the letter, we regret we cannot publish it.

BILLIARDS.

De Oro Has Good Start.
New York, Oct. 25.—Alfred De Oro of Cuba, world's champion at three-cushion billiards, defeated John Daly, of New York, 80 to 43, here yesterday, in the first of a three-nights' match.

Play lasted 78 innings. De Oro made a high run of 6, and also three runs of 5, while Daly's best inning was a 4.

8TH R.R. BOYS
PLAY FOOTBALL

MARRIED MEN PLAYED DRAW GAME WITH THE BACHELORS.

Another very interesting football game was played on the Esplanade yesterday afternoon between the married men. Single men of the 8th R.R. The singles won the toss and started the ball towards the married men's quarters and some lively scenes were witnessed but the stonewall defence was on to their job again. The game was fast and exciting and the married men were put to the test of showing the singles that they were right there with the goods. The married men's forwards broke away and some good combination play on the right wing enabled them to draw first blood for Jones sent in a long drive about 12 yards out, the goaler saving, only could not hang on to the ball, thus giving the married men their first goal. The muddy field spoilt a lot of fine play as the singles could not keep their feet but it was rather their own fault as after 20 minutes play they were a little weak in the knees. "Charlie" Chaplin amused the crowd as usual he was like a piece of elastic doing all sorts of stunts, sometime falling on the ground and coming up between an opponent's legs, he played a fine defence game all the same. Before half time was called the singles scored, Nelson doing the trick by sending a simple shot in, beating F. Lord, who was shivering with the cold as he had no work to do in this half. The score at half time was 1 to 1.

The second half started with more speed and more excitement, the ball was swung from end to end and each striving hard to get the lead. The singles would have done much better if they would play the ball more instead of taking the men. Peney was gifted with this style of play therefore losing lots of chances in giving his side the lead. "Black" Bill was a picture on the field with his uniform covered with mud and was very fond of standing off side looking for flosky balls coming his way which after a time he was rewarded one, and again beating Lord, who had no chance, as he was so close in. In this stage the game was very fast and the married men went to the top speed and tried hard to even up. The crowd evidently did not sympathize with the married men as they were saying they are all in, but the married men showed them that was not the case for again and again they battered around the singles goal and but for the fine work of J. Baker at back would have broken through time and again. Some good runs were made by M. Whelan, only spoilt by being too selfish.

At last, with 5 minutes to play the married men were awarded a penalty. Jordan beating Andrews with a fast drive to the corner of the net. Soon after time was called with the score: Married Men, 2; Singles, 2. Lt. Smith refereed the game very satisfactorily.

EBBETS IS GENEROUS.

To Pay Half Salaries to Players on Military Service.

Brooklyn, Oct. 25.—Charles H. Ebbets, president of Brooklyn National League club, may be possessed of faults somewhat detrimental to one who never caters to public patronage, but he can never be accused of lack of patriotism either to his country or organized baseball. Ebbets now proposes to reward the loyalty of those players on his roster who are called to the colors, either of their own volition or through the draft. He has announced that all of his players who join the army or navy, will receive fifty per cent salary during their term of service. This on his part entails no mean contribution when it is considered the Brooklyn club was hit harder by the war draft than any other of the big leagues.

OF COURSE THEY WOULD.

Election time was drawing near and an enthusiastic politician was addressing his constituents in a frenzied speech. Not a few of his assertions, reduced to cold thought, were diametrically opposed to one another, but each proposal was received with applause. A judge turned to his companion and said: "This reminds me of the Irish leader who was cheering his men on to battle. 'Min,' said he, 'ye are on the verge of battle, an' I want to ask ye before ye start, will yez fight or will yez run?'"

"We will," came a chorus of eager replies.
"Which will ye do?" says he.
"We will not," say they.
"Aha, thank ye, me min," says he. "I thought ye would."—Exchange.

GREAT INCREASE IN STORED TURKEY

U. S. PREDICTIONS OF HIGH THANKSGIVING PRICES MADE HOLDINGS ABOVE NORMAL.

Boston, Mass.—Coincident with reports from Chicago markets that Thanksgiving turkeys will "cost" 60 cents a pound wholesale, the United States Bureau of Markets, in a detailed statement of cold storage holding of commodities throughout the country on Oct. 1 shows that the section of the country in which Chicago is located has increased its turkey holdings 833.5 per cent since Oct. 1, 1916. The total stock in that section, the North Central (east), amounted to 713,334 pounds, as compared with the 18,112 pounds on hand at this time last year. In making a comparison of stocks this year and in 1916, the bureau takes the same storages which report at both dates, but in compiling the total, the entire number of warehouses reporting this year, some for the first time, is given. What seems to be a systematic campaign to make the public believe that high prices may be expected during the holiday season has already started. Continued reports that the stocks are being depleted by shipments to the soldiers, call forth a reply from those in touch with the situation, who say that the average consumption of turkey will be no larger this year than last.

In fact, they point out, the soldiers will not eat any more turkey because they are clad in the United States uniform. The systematic purchasing of huge stocks for the thousands of soldiers it is said, should have a stabilizing effect on the market, because the future demand can be relied upon, whereas, these same men, as so many householders, would purchase in varied and uncertain quantities keeping the market upset. That the enormous stores of poultry can easily supply all of the demands made on it this year is shown in the total turkey holdings amounting to 1,825,042 pounds, which is 517 per cent greater than on Oct. 1, 1916.

Second to the North Central (east) come the Western (north) states with an increase of 163.5 per cent, amounting to a total on hand this year of 104,155 pounds. A close third is the North Central (west) states which increased their holdings 140.6 per cent, and reported stocks amounting to 268,327 pounds. The 17 warehouses reporting from New England announced a 120.5 per cent increase, amounting to a total of 137,867 pounds.

In the records of increasing poultry stocks the northwestern states lead. In addition to their turkey record, these states increased the total stock of frozen poultry by 189.3 per cent, amounting to 574,036 pounds. Stocks of roasters increased 609.2 per cent in the northwestern region, amounting to 33,520 pounds, and fowls increased 91.4 per cent to 104,226 pounds.

The largest portion of the holdings are found in the North Central (east) where the total frozen poultry stocks amounted to 14,837,189 pounds, an increase of 225.2 per cent. The Middle Atlantic states are a close second with 12,744,288 pounds, although the increase is only 25.9 per cent. The Middle Atlantic region leads in the broiler stocks, however, with an increase of 244.7 per cent although the North Central (west) states lead in numbers with 528,997 pounds on hand the first of this month.

All poultry not included in any of these classes is "miscellaneous" and stocks of this class increased 65.9 per cent to 26,563,873 pounds.

As in all commodities the unusual conditions of the past year have been reflected in the poultry market. Since last fall when the retail prices reached the 45 and 50 cents a pound predicted for this year, the demand for poultry has been falling off steadily, say dealers, who add that government orders are taking care of the enormous stocks thus accumulated.

Partly through an absolute inability to buy the expensive birds and partly through the "boyce" instituted by housewives and civic organizations, the average consumer decreased his consumption of poultry last winter. This spring and early summer, however, when the farmers decided to stop raising chickens for eggs and to be rid of all extra stock, the warehouses started accumulating when usually a decrease is noted. In normal times, the warehouses in the summer are almost bare of chickens, although in September the stocks begin to arrive.

The Company is authorized to act as Trustee and Executor under Wills, Assignee, Etc., to give Bonds in connection with Judicial Proceedings, and to accept any Financial Agency.

As the law of the Province of Quebec does not require Executors to give security for their administration, nor does it oblige them to render accounts to the Courts, the nomination of rather than an individual, as Executor, affords the greatest possible security to Testators. The Company does not die. Its changes are reasonable and its appointment is the best guarantee a Testator can have that his Estate will be honestly and economically managed.

The Company will act as Agent and Attorney for Executors already acting, will manage Estates, and will receive free of charge, for safekeeping, Sealed Wills in which it is named as Executor.

The Company is also prepared to receive securities for safekeeping, collection of coupons, etc.

Shipping News

SHIPPING PHASES
ARE MADE CLEAR

U. S. DISPERSES APPREHEN-SION THAT NEUTRAL
CAPTURE THE COASTWISE
TRADE.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 25.—All apprehension that neutral shipping would be allowed to capture American coastwise or South American trade has been set at rest by United States chartering committee. Latest rulings show that neutral ships will be permitted to trade only in certain services on approval of every charter and every voyage. No advance in present charter rates will be permitted. A ship may sail on the Pacific for one or two voyages, but it will have no opportunity to establish a regular service as it may be transferred to the Atlantic at any time.
American ship charters are passed upon according to individual merits.
There is no general ruling. A ship-owner presents his new charter for the committee's approval and if the terms are in its opinion, fair, license is granted. Shipowner is then entitled to government requisition rates and all above this rate goes to account of the Government. This is the system in vogue in England.
Terms of compensation for ship handling have not been completed as each ship will be considered separately.

Practically all steamers of International Mercantile Marine have been engaged in service in war zones, and are not likely to be disturbed. Big passenger ships of American line will be paid about $10 a deadweight ton by the Government under new rates. As these ships are all loaded and handled by the company, and at its piers and docks, the company expects a percentage commission on all cargoes and passengers handled. Brokers have been paid commission ranging from 1 per cent to 7 1-2 per cent and it is expected that the Government will allow not less than 5 per cent commission for ship handling. For this alone, shipowners would receive at a 5 per cent rate, upward of $25,000 on a 10,000-ton cargo ship for a few days' work, in addition to government hire. This would be practically all profit.

Government charter terms require owners to supply crews on a cargo boat basis, that is, a ship will be equipped with officers and men to navigate ship, but will not provide cooks and stewards and passengers without additional payment. Another problem that has to be cleared is maintenance of big organizations. Tramp steamers have no regular service but change from one route to another according to seasons and cargoes. Liners, however, have regular services, which necessitate upkeep of many offices and agencies.
These will have to be kept together for normal trade. It is not yet decided whether such companies as International Mercantile Marine Company, Atlantic, Gulf & West Indies,
United Fruit Company and W. R.
Grace & Co., will have additional payments to support these organizations.

Most companies have received tel-egrammatic, naming certain ships for specified voyages. These are to be operated on present charter basis.
Profits in excess of government requisition rates will go to the Government. This indicates that there is no immediate intention of reduction of either charter or berth rates on cargoes. Not all vessels so commandeered will be used for war zones.

WAR CHANGING TRADE
ROUTES IN PACIFIC.
San Francisco, Cal. Oct. 25.—
Changes in the trade routes of the Pacific in such a way that the United States will not, after the war, receive so many of its imports from the Orient by way of Europe, are indicated by figures specially compiled by the Foreign Trade Department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and by statements of experts on foreign trade conditions.
The foreign trade of China, for example, has so shifted that much of its trade that went by way of Europe to the Atlantic Coast of the United States now comes to the Pacific Coast. China's trade with Europe has increased since the war began to the extent of $80,212 while with the United States and Canada it has increased within the same time $50, 587,025, and with Japan $103,294,840.
The percentage increase of China's trade with the United States and Canada in 1916 over 1914 is 91 per cent. Japan's foreign commerce for 1914 was $295,550,730 and in 1916

of over 90 per cent.

BATTLE HYMN OF
THE REPUBLIC.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning
of His terrible swiftsword,
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps.
His day is marching on.

I have read a fiery gospel writ in burnished rows of steel:
"As ye deal with my contemners, so with you my grace shall deal;
Let the hero, born of woman, crush
the serpent with his heel, Since God is marching on."

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sitting out the hearts of men
before His judgment seat;
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer him;
be jubilant, my feet.
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that trans-
figures you and me:
As He died to make men holy, let us
die to make them free, While God is marching on.
—Julia Ward Howe.

Ringworm on Child's Head

Caused Great Distress and Spread to Neck and Ears—Cure Was Speedily Effectuated When Right Treatment Was Recommended.

Grand Bend, Ont., Oct. 25.—There is no disease of the skin more obstinate than ringworm, and the mother who writes this letter does so fully realizing what it will mean to other anxious mothers to know about Dr.
Chase's Ointment.

This remarkable cure was brought about two years ago, and as there has been no return of the distressing disease there can be no doubt that the cure is permanent.

Mrs. D. Stebbins, Grand Bend, Ont., writes: "I am going to tell you of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment. My little girl had sores come out on her head which looked like ringworms. They were spreading fast, and I tried home treatment, but nothing helped her. I took her to the doctor, and he opened some of the sores, which were as big as the yoke of an egg. The salve he gave me to put on was very severe, and the poor child would cry for an hour or more after an application. For six weeks it continued to spread all over her head, and came down to her neck and ears. She suffered terribly. At last some kind ladies told me about Dr.
Chase's Ointment, so I got a box, and the first time I put it on she was relieved of pain, and the second time the swelling was all gone. Before we had finished the first box the sores were nearly all gone. I have told all the people around here about your Ointment, and I cannot praise it too much. It is now two years since my little girl was troubled in this way, and it never came back, so you can see she is completely cured. You are at liberty to use this statement for the benefit of others who may be suffering in a similar manner."

Joseph Brenner, J.P., endorses this statement as follows: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mrs. D. Stebbins of Grand Bend, Ont., and believe her statement with reference to Dr. Chase's Ointment to be true and correct."

Closing Letters By the Can. Press

(By Canadian Press.)
New York, Oct. 25—For the further drastic liquidation of rails, which again unsettled the stock market today, the explanation most commonly accepted, was that the movement bore direct relation to enforced selling incident to the seizure of German holdings in this country.

This theory was strengthened by the fact that the stocks that suffered greatest losses, included those in favor of German investors. Canadian Pacific, an erstwhile favorite on the Berlin exchange, was the weakest stock, falling 5 1-8 points to 143 3-4, with practically no recovery.

United Pacific made a new minimum for several years at an extreme setback of over 2 points to 116 7-8. Other high grade rails which figured in the international markets prior to the war, yielded 1 to 3 points, inactive and minor issues recording similar losses.

The weakness of transportation was the more striking because of the better tendencies manifested elsewhere. Shippings were the strongest features of the early session at gains of 1 to 2 points. Steel's and allied industrials were then 1 to 2 1-2 points higher and numerous specialties advanced substantially.

In every noteworthy instance, however, gains gave way to losses under the increasing depression shown by rails.

Reversals were accomplished on nominal operations, trading at no period being more than moderately active. Little support was forthcoming at any time, the list closing with a weak undertone. Sales amounted to 635,000 shares.

The strength of Liberty bonds at 99.80 to 99.94 was the only feature of the heavy bond market. Sales, (par value) aggregated $7,700,000.

United States bonds, old issues unchanged on call, coupon 4's losing 1-4 per cent on sales.

Closing Letters By Local Brokers

(By Breen & Gourdeau.)

New York, Oct. 25—The buying side was favored at the opening of the stock exchange session today, with the result that the initial prices, generally speaking, were at an improved level from the close of yesterday. The shipping shares featured in these transactions. A few of the prominent exceptions in this advance were Union Pacific and Consolidated Gas, both of which suffered over-night losses of about a half point. The market became reactionary during the first hour, however, and continued so for sometime thereafter, although with a broadening tendency indicated. Around midday, Canadian Pacific developed pronounced weakness, the persistent selling of which tended to unsettle the general list. Bear pressure was generally credited for the selling of Canadian Pacific, interests prominently identified with the drastic selling movement in recent declines being responsible for today's heavy offerings. In the final hour, such stocks as figured largely in the strength early in the day, for example, the shipping shares, suffered severe losses in the downward course of prices.

Briefly, the market displays absolutely no change of conditions, it is a very professional affair, and our opinion as to trading policy is unchanged, while the present confused state of sentiment prevails.

Sales, stocks, 669,800; Bonds, $7,635,000.

(By Bruneau & Dupuis.)

New York, Oct. 25—The market today has not presented any features different from those to which we have become accustomed after all those weary weeks of liquidation but it is well to bear in mind that the range of prices is very low, so low that it is inducing large buying of odd lots and also purchases of greater proportions. We also believe that the reduction of brokers loans have been unusually large in the first three weeks of October and that the market is in a stronger technical position than it has been for two years.

Of course this does not mean that the market is going up right away but it would seem to indicate that the great decline is over for the time any way. We feel inclined to advise the purchase of stocks on weak spots from now on rather than sales on rallies as we have been recommending.

Total Sales, Stocks, 669,800.

Will Class One Provide The One Hundred Thousand Men?

It will be greatly to the advantage of Canada if the entire quota of 100,000 men to be raised under the Military Service Act can be secured from the first class; that is, from the men between the ages of 20 and 34 who were unmarried or widowers without children on July 6th, 1917.

This is almost self-evident for the following reasons:

it is admitted that, between the ages of 20 and 34, the average man is at the height of his physical strength and is most adaptable to the change of conditions from civilian life;

the military Service of unmarried men and widowers without children would occasion less distress than that of most others, since they are largely without dependents. Also, it would entail less financial burden for Canada, through separation allowances, etc.

Authorities estimate that, after all proper exemptions have been allowed, Canada should be able to produce from the first class 100,000 men fit for service, so the drain upon the man power of the country will not be severe.

Members of Class One will be well advised to present themselves for examination immediately to the Medical Board in their district. Upon examination as to their physical fitness, they will be placed in one of the following categories:

- Category A—if fit for service in overseas fighting units.
- Category B—if fit for service overseas in Army Medical Corps, Forestry Battalion, etc.
- Category C—if fit for service in Canada only.
- Category E—if unfit for military service of any nature.

If not placed in Category A, the applicant will know that he is not liable for immediate service, but will go to the Post Office and send in a claim for exemption with his Medical Certificate attached, when he will receive in due course a certificate of exemption until those in his medical category are summoned for service.

Where a man, who is placed in category A, feels that exemption should be allowed, an application form can be secured from the postmaster. This form, when filled in, will be forwarded by the postmaster to the registrar of the district, and the applicant will be informed by mail as to the time and place for the consideration of his application by the Exemption Board.

BIG PHOTO-PLAY AT THE AUDITORIUM NEXT WEEK

"MISS NOBODY", A GOLD ROOSTER FEATURE WITH GLADYS HULETTE WILL BE PRESENTED IN QUEBEC, AT THE AUDITORIUM, MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

Mr. J. H. Paquet, of the Auditorium Theatre, announces that he will present Gladys Hulette in her latest Pathe Gold Rooster play, "Miss Nobody," on Monday next.

The picture was produced under the direction of William Parke, the famous theatrical and motion picture manager. The splendid cast he has gathered to support Miss Hulette in this picture includes A. G. Andrews, the well-known English character actor, who scored success in New York as Hobson in the play "Hobson's Choice," Cesare Gravina, one of the best actors on the screen, Joyce Fair, herself a Broadway star, J. H. Gilmour and William Parke, Jr.

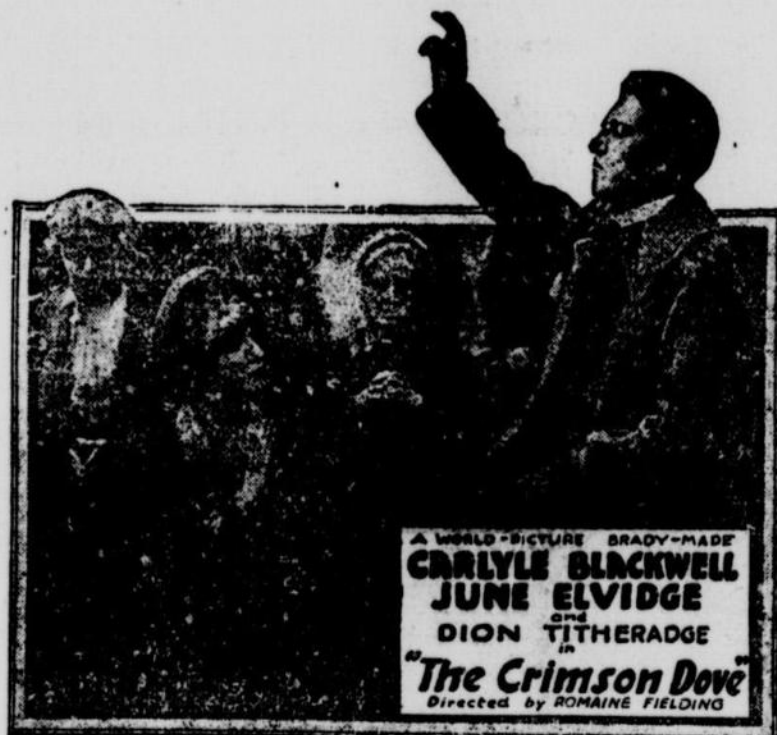

The story tells of a little girl who didn't know who her parents were, and who thought she was just "Miss Nobody." How she finds out that she is somebody with a capital "S" makes a delightful photoplay.

Doctors said chances were small because of Severe Stomach Trouble,

Mr. Corby, Harrison P.O., Ont., says:—"Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things she got no better. They have been worth their weight in gold to us. I don't think there is any medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets."

A CURE FOR PESSIMISM.

Sir George Perley, Acting High Commissioner for Canada, in the course of some remarks at the exhibition of work by disabled service men at Sotheby's recently, recommended anyone who was inclined to be pessimistic to visit the hospitals for wounded soldiers and sailors, for there they would soon recover their cheerfulness. One Canadian, who had lost both his eyes in the war, he said after being trained at St. Dunstan's, went back to Canada, married, and obtained a first-class job in Toronto.—London Morning Post.
