QUEBEC JOTTINGS.

Mining for Crystal Rock—Mr. Mercier Visits the Schools—An Important Judgment
—Evidence at the Inquest.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
QUEBEC, Jan. 21.—An important deputation from Kamouraska interviewed the Government yesterday in order to obtain aid for the opening of a mine of crystal rock of immense wealth. The Government did not give a final answer, but said that some aid would be given to the scheme if the municipality of Kamouraska did something for the advance of the enterprise.

The inquest on the bodies of the victims of the late intercolonial accident was continued to-day. Mr.
Light C. E., the only witness examined to-day continued his evidence, and being asked if he was not influenced in his opinion, and if he had not been asked by the Local Government to report on the accident, said he had not,
and that his opinion as to the cause of the accident was personal to himself.

He visited the scene with experts after the accident, but formed his own independent opinion, which he expressed frankly and fearlessly and honestly to the best of his ability. He said the accident occurred in the most dangerous, as far as its alignment goes, between Levis and St. John. Probably if
Mr. Peterson, chief engineer of the C.
P. R., were called to give evidence he would be personal to himself, he favors curves. Questioned as to Mr. Peterson's opinion, Mr. Light said he did not know if Mr. Peterson was in charge of the whole C. P. R. line.

Witness' opinion as to the probable cause of the accident was based on the imperfections of the alignment, which he considered the principal cause of the accident. The accident would have been possible from other causes, such as the breaking of rails, wearing of axles, etc., but an alignment such as that at St. Joseph is the very place where a casualty would occur, did not know if there were more accidents, there than elsewhere on the line, as he kept a record of the accidents.

and dismissing the action of the Nuns against Madame Renaud.

ITALIAN AFFAIRS.
Governmental Treaties—Rings, Relating
Both to Marriage and Commerce.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
ROME, Jan. 21.—Premier Crispi has transmitted to the Chamber of Deputies an agreement which the Government of Italy has entered into with that of Egypt, prolonging the power of the international tribunals for five years.

The announcement is made that the daughter of Signor Crispi has been engaged to Signor Colla, a nephew of Cardinal Macchi.

Signor Crispi has asked the Chambers to ratify the treaty of friendship and extradition with Bolivia and the treaty of commerce and navigation with Mexico and to pass a bill which will authorize Italy to adhere to the treaty of friendship and commerce with Morocco and the German treaty, and to prolong until July, 1891, the treaty of commerce and navigation between Italy and Roumania.

WEBER'S DOUBLE WRONG.
Paul Polliss, He Alleges, Stole His Wife and Furniture.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Paul Polliss, of Newport, Long Island, was arraigned before Justice Kavanagh at Long Island
City yesterday, charged with grand larceny.
The complaint was made by Theodor
W. Weber, who alleged that on Jan. 9 Polliss visited his house and removed therefrom all the household effects. The justice held Polliss in the sum of $500.

A scene was caused when Mrs. Weber jumped up in court and offered herself as a bondsman for Polliss. The judge refused to accept her. Mrs. Weber's desire to assist Polliss was explained by Mr. Weber, who said that when Polliss took the furniture he also stole Mrs.
Weber, and that she had remained away from home ever since.

A Plebiscite and Compensation.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
KINGSTON, Jan. 21.—In speaking at a temperance meeting last night Rev. Mr.
Carson of Sydenham-street Wesleyan Church said he was a prohibitionist to the core, but he would not set about the work of getting prohibition in the right way. He was not in favor of asking Parliament for prohibition, for the Parliament could only do what the people had told them to do—nothing more.

The people had instructed Parliament on that question. What should be asked for is that a plebiscite be taken on the question, and if that were done he had no fear as to the result. Then he went on to argue that when the people had declared for the suppression of the traffic it would be only fair to compensate the manufacturers as the slave-owners were compensated.

IRISH SUFFERING.

The Works Undertaken by Government Insufficient.

O'SHEA TO JUSTIN MCCARTHY

An Epistle That Borders on the Abusive—Still It May be the Expression of Honest Indignation.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
LONDON, Jan. 21.—It has transpired that on Dec. 9, Capt. O'Shea addressed a communication to Mr. Justin McCarthy, the leader of the anti-Parnellite wing of the Irish party, demanding that he apologize for having hinted at the Leinster Hall meeting that a different colour might have been given Mr. Parnell's conduct with regard to Mrs. O'Shea had Capt. O'Shea been vigorously cross-examined during the divorce proceedings.
In response to this demand Mr. Mc-Carthy is represented to have written several shuffling and evasive letters.
Finally on Jan. 15 Capt. O'Shea addressed a peremptory note to Mr. Mc-Carthy denouncing what he stigmatized as contemptible quibbling and saying:
"However funny must always appear as a leader of men, ill-constructed dummy that you are, the start starting from every seam, I acknowledge that you possess two qualifications for your present post: meanness and audacity."

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—The Freeman's Journal says that it regrets that the Irish party in Parliament for the first time in years is disunited on the re-assembling of parliament. The conferences, according to this journal, have not tended to advance the questions in dispute further towards a solution. Wm.
A. Brahm, M. P. for West Limerick, and Jno. Crowe, of Limerick, visited Jno. Daly the dynamiter in his prison yesterday, they say Daly is suffering from severe attack of sciatica and rheumatism. Daly's fingers are not sensible to feeling.

Spits of liberal efforts of the Government to relieve the distress from which many thousands are suffering in Ireland, the railroad and other relief works commenced, have proved inefficient to meet the wants of the sufferers, especially in the poverty stricken districts of Mayo. Chief Secretary Balfour appears to be doing a great deal, but more will be required to make any marked improvement in the condition of the suffering poor of Ireland.

Shields, A. C. White, and S. Dilworth;

A Fatal Spree.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
TORONTO, Jan. 21.—Mary Farrell, a dissolvent woman, was brought before the Magistrate yesterday on a charge of drunkenness, when John Ryan of 98 Bond-street, told a sad story of debauchery with a tragic ending. He stated that on Tuesday last week Mrs. Farrell called at his house, where a man named Conroy and his wife had rooms, and from that time until Sunday the two women remained on a spree. Mr. Ryan spoke favorably of Mrs. Conroy, saying that she was an honest, hard-working woman, but that she had been led away by Mrs. Farrell, who, whenever able to walk went out for whiskey, which was consumed by the man. On Sunday Mrs. Conroy's condition was such that Mr. Ryan had her removed to the hospital, where she died the same night.
On Monday Mrs. Farrell was arrested, and to-day she will be tried on a charge of drunkenness. An investigation will be made as to the cause of Mrs. Conroy's death.

A Bold Connecticut Burglar.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
DANBURY, Conn., Jan. 21.—As Miss Jennie Gilbert was sitting alone in her room in the upper portion of her residence on Grand View-avenue yesterday afternoon she was suddenly seized from behind by a masked man, who bound and gagged her. He proceeded to ransack the house, securing $150 worth of money and valuables. Then he left, locking Miss Gilbert in. She managed to reach the front door, which she opened until she attracted attention. There is no clue to the assailant.

The Chilean Revolution Increasing.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
LONDON, Jan. 21.—Advices from Buenos Ayres represent that dissension has made its appearance among the Chilean troops and that the evil is rapidly spreading throughout the army. It is certain that a number of Government troops have deserted their colors and have passed over to the revolutionary forces, taking with them their arms and baggage. In consequence the revolutionists are greatly encouraged and are now making ready to take vigorous action.

OTTAWA GOSSIP.

A Protest Against Electric Street Railways
—Reverts to Be Enforced—Victory Against the Interests of Labor.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—The Government has served a protest on the city against the laying of the track of the electric street railway along Wellington-street in front of the Parliament buildings, on the ground that this portion of the street is maintained by the Government.

The Government to-day served notice on the city that the rents due on ordinary lands occupied as the site of By Ward Market and elsewhere must be at once settled or a distr. lev. will be put at once on city property.

Mr. E. B. Eddy the well-known manufacturer, of Hull, was victorious over the Knights of Labor in a bitter fight for the aldermanic seat for No. 3 Ward yesterday by 70 majority.

Messrs. C. W. Young, John McInyre, Wm. Hedge, C. W. Brown, and Dr.
Bergin, M. P. of Cornwall, called on Mr.
John McDonald to-day to ask for an appropriation to build dams on the northeast of the St. Lawrence, at the head and foot of Shelk's Island. They contend that some of the best interests of navigation on the St. Lawrence, as well as in the interests of the town of Cornwall.

MARRIED FATHER AND SON.
Father Mixed Matrimonial Experience of an Ontario Young Woman.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
SYRACUSE, Jan. 20.—A curiously complicated case is in the courts at Oneida.
Some eleven years ago Miss Henrietta Hines was a charming young woman at Constantia, of whom half the young swains of the town were enamored, and even middle aged men were smitten.

Among her many admirers was William G. Mordoch, a farmer, who, besides being old enough to be her father, was the father of a young man who was old enough to be her husband. Both father and son fell deeply in love with her. The young woman hesitated some time before deciding which to accept, but youth finally triumphed and she married the son.

That did not, however, prevent the father from continuing his attentions.
They soon became more marked. This state of affairs finally developed into a young bridegroom, and when a business trip took him South, he decided to stay away until sent for to come back. His wife evidently did not care whether he returned or not and accepted her father-in-law's attentions until hearing a report of the death of her husband in the South, she married him.

A few days ago the first husband appeared at the wife's home, and upon learning the state of affairs immediately resigned his position and came to New York and collaborate with him in the Edison Phonograph Company, and secretly agreed with Lippincott that Gilliland was to receive in addition $250, 000 stock in the new phonograph company he was to form. This additional $250,000 Edison claims he should have received. Gilliland in his answer denies that he was ever a confidential
agent for Edison or employed by
him in any capacity. He says that he has been an inventor in electrical and
other fields, and in 1884 was general
superintendent of mechanical department of American Bell Telephone Company in Boston. In that year Edison called on him in Boston, and induced
him to resign his position and come to
New York and collaborate with him in matters of invention. At that time stock
in the Edison Electric Light Company
was selling below par and was paying no
dividend. Stocks in other companies formed by Edison were valueless and unsalable. Edison himself was financially embarrassed, his laboratory at Menlo Park being closed and his property there having been sold out by the sheriff. When he came to New York
he secured a partnership agreement
was made, but they mutually agreed to
share equitably in the profits of any inventions they might make. The only two inventions they produced that
brought any profit were the railway telegraph and the phonograph, and these
were suggested, and the main developed, so he claims, by Gilliland.

AND NOW IT IS THE MOSELEMS.
Russia's Tyrant Persecutes Finn, Jew, Orthodox and Mahometan Alike.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
MOSCOW, Jan. 21.—There is a deep-felt agitation among the Mahometans of the Czar's dominions in connection with what they class as being an unwarranted interference with the Koran. Some time ago, it appears, Councillor Smirnov, of the Official Press Censorship Bureau, issued an order which called for the expunging of thirteen verses from the Koran or sacred book used by the Moslems within the Russian Empire. Soon after the order was issued there was much excitement created by the manner in which the agitation is gradually spreading through Central Asia and the Moslem preachers are now energetically denouncing the action of Russia in this matter. The Emir of Bokhara and the Khan of Khiva, it is announced, will send delegations to the Czar asking him to remove to the Koran the thirteen verses which have been expunged.

Mystery of a Marriage.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—A marriage ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Rodgers, of Elizabeth, N.J., on Friday night that has excited considerable gossip. Justice Rodgers says that he is pledged to secrecy and refuses to give the names of the contracting parties. He will be compelled under the law to make a return to the City Clerk.

It appears that two well dressed young men and a young woman drove up to his office 6 o'clock in the evening and requested that he should perform the marriage ceremony. One of the young men had his hand wrapped in a bandage through which the blood from a wound appeared. The bride was nervous and reluctantly made the necessary responses.
After the ceremony the three took a train for Newark.

Killed on the Track.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
STRATFORD, Ont., Jan. 21.—The hor-ribly mangled remains of an apparently middle-aged man were discovered on the rails about three miles south of Palmerston on the Palmerston and Kincairdine division of the W. G. & B. Railway shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.
From the appearance of the body it would seem that the person killed was either a German or a person of German descent. Word was telegraphed to Palmerston for some one to look after the body. It is supposed that the man was struck by the midnight train, as the body was cold and covered with sleet when found. The remains presented a sickening sight, the entrails being spread for several feet along the track. The remains of the body was horribly mutilated and jammed into almost a solid mass. So far the name of the unfortunate has not been discovered.

A School Inspector Honored.
BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
LONDON, Ont., Jan. 21.—J. Deareness, Public School Inspector for East Middlesex, has done much to bring London forward in a scientific sense. Within a short period he has discovered no fewer than 23 new species of North American fungi which he gathered in this city and vicinity and forwarded to the American scientific specialist, J. B. Ellis and B. M.
Everhart, for analysis. In honor of this contributor one of the specimens has been named Colonectria Dearenessii.

A Test For Air Results In a Blow-Up
—The Survivors Unconscious
When Rescued.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
MARRSA, Ill., Jan. 21.—This morning about 11 o'clock a terrific explosion occurred in the O.K. coal mine, one mile south of here. There were 25 men engaged at the time. Six miners were seriously injured and one is believed to be fatally hurt. The mine was filled with fire-damp and the explosion occurred while a test for air was being made. Nearly all the men were unconscious when they were brought to the surface but revived in a few minutes. The names of those seriously injured are, Wm. Danko, Richard Barnwell, Wm. Straker, John Forcher, Wm. Harris, Wm. Dodson and John Cooper.

A "SOUND" CASE.
In Which The Phonograph Acts a Prominent Figure.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Answers were filed yesterday by Ezra T. Gilliland and John C. Tomlinson in the suit brought against them in the United States Circuit Court by Thos. Edison in May 1889. Edison alleged that Gilliland and Tomlinson, the former while acting as his confidential agent and the latter as his attorney, practically swindled him out of $250,000.
He asserted that as his representatives they stole to Jesse H. Lippincott his stock in the Edison Phonograph Company optensively for $500,000, but that in fact they secretly agreed with Lippincott that Gilliland was to receive in addition $250,
000 stock in the new phonograph company he was to form. This additional $250,000 Edison claims he should have received. Gilliland in his answer denies that he was ever a confidential
agent for Edison or employed by
him in any capacity. He says that he has been an inventor in electrical and
other fields, and in 1884 was general
superintendent of mechanical department of American Bell Telephone Company in Boston. In that year Edison
called on him in Boston, and induced
him to resign his position and come to
New York and collaborate with him in
matters of invention. At that time stock
in the Edison Electric Light Company
was selling below par and was paying no
dividend. Stocks in other companies
formed by Edison were valueless and
unsalable. Edison himself was financially embarrassed, his laboratory at Menlo Park being closed and his property there having been sold out by the sheriff. When he came to New York
he secured a partnership agreement
was made, but they mutually agreed to
share equitably in the profits of any inventions they might make. The only
two inventions they produced that
brought any profit were the railway telegraph and the phonograph, and these
were suggested, and the main developed, so he claims, by Gilliland.

ett while coming down a hill with team

bone, and otherwise injuring his face in a very bad shape.

ly kicked in the face to-day by one of his horses, his injuries are serious.

living two miles west of here, while feeding a cutting box this morning, had his right hand taken off.

NEXT OF KIN ACCUSE A PRIEST.
Rev. D. D. Walker, S. J., Defendant in a Will Case.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Suits has been brought by W. T. Fox of No. 245 Broad way on behalf of Mrs. Mary Lavelle of this city and Mrs. Eliza Ponds of New Orleans, La., against Rev. David D.
Walker, S. J., pastor of St. Laurence's Church, on the ground that he unduly influenced her to leave and the property of her husband and a daughter, who was a lunatic. She also had another daughter who died previously.

It is alleged that Father Walker called on Mrs. Owens in her last illness, and by his influence induced her to will her property disadvantageously to the next of kin. He is also charged with having taken the keys of a bureau drawer and pulled out the contents, when Mrs. Owens was dying, until he came to a bag of money, when he said: "I have found it at last." It contained only $50. Then he is alleged to have gone to the old woman and told her how little he found, whereupon she told him there was plenty in a box hidden away, in which he afterward found $500. She is said to have made the following provisions in the will: $1000 for masses, $1000 for Sisters of Charity at St. Laurence's Church, $1000 for beds in St. Francis Hospital, and $500 to be expended in erecting a new church.

JEALOUSY AND ARSENIC.
Miss Zoldey Charged With Poisoning
Her Supposed Rival.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE.
RICHMOND, Wis., Jan. 21.—
Pretty Rose Zoldey is in jail here, charged with having caused the death of one woman by poisoning, with a possibility that responsibility for another death may be charged against her.

She came here from Poland about three years ago and found employment in a millinery establishment. She was pleasant and companionable and her pretty face attracted many male admirers, but none made any impression on the young woman. She attended to her work, and her conduct at all times was beyond criticism. About a year ago she became a member of the household of Dr. G. R. Mitchell. Mrs.
Mitchell died last March. The doctor was almost prostrated with grief, and during the first months of his bereavement Ross managed the household. She was a bright, conscientious girl, and when finally she was settled permanently as housekeeper of the doctor's home the fact provoked little comment. It is believed now that she became infatuated with the doctor, though the feeling was not reciprocated, even if it was noticed,
which is doubted.

Miss Ella Malley, the young woman who died under suspicious circumstances ten days ago, was handsome, educated and an excellent singer. A concert was to have been given here in which both Miss Malley and Dr. Mitchell were to appear, and rehearsals were held at Miss Malley's home. This is supposed to have aroused Miss Zoldey's jealousy. About ten days ago Miss Zoldey invited a few young lady friends, including Miss Malley, to spend the evening. During the evening Miss Zoldey complained of feeling sick and retired to her room. Miss Malley, at her request, accompanied her. What passed between the two young women is not known, but it is said that Miss Malley was taken candy. On her way home she was given candy and before morning she died in great agony.

The symptoms of poisoning were so strong that the stomach was sent to Chicago for analysis. Suspicion began to point to Miss Zoldey, but she stood it all with wonderful equanimity and was as dignified and kind as the witnesses and averted glances of her former friends. She even attended the funeral with every appearance of grief over a dear friend's death and apparently did not see the hundreds of curious glances directed at her. She started forward to take a last view of the body, and as her eyes fell upon the upturned face she tottered and would have fallen if she had not been caught by bystanders.

This incident is now recalled as one of great significance. The examination of Miss Malley's stomach revealed traces of arsenic, and District Attorney Burnham caused Miss Zoldey's arrest. The accused woman is in a very nervous state, and any mention of the alleged crime brings tears to her eyes.

THE SECOND DAY'S MEET AT THE PARK.

A Large Attendance, Good Track and Excellent Races at the Point Yesterday Afternoon.

The second day of the midwinter meet at the Montreal Driving Park was more successful in a financial point of view though it cannot be rightly stated that the races were so well carried out. This fault did not lay in any way with the management of the course, but was due to the difficulty encountered in the horses scoring very slowly. To commence with, the first heat was not started until after 3 o'clock, owing to the fact that in the first heat of the 2-40 class one of the horses split a shoe while trying to score and there was a similar occurrence in the first heat of the free for all. In consequence of all this delay darkness came on before the afternoon's program could be completed, and the unfinished race of the free for all, pacers and trotters will be concluded to-day. The attendance at the Park was very large and the betting men distinguished themselves during the afternoon. Some curious bets, which to the knowing one showed there were "ringers" in it, were made, and the "long green" was passed from one another in style which might convince a veridant that a dozen banks had suddenly opened its vaults on the course. Gambling is not a new comer on a race track and of course plenty of it was carried on, but those who had no desire to "back" against the strong end were at liberty to stay away. A horse race is not a horse race where there is not some excitement over the gaming table and dice and wheel kept up its own share of the merriment yesterday. The races what there were of them, were really good. Every bet was trotted in grand style and nobody could be displeased with what they witnessed. In the 2-40 class trot Farmer Boy had things his own way for the three heats, but second and third places was a toss up between Berthier Boy and Billy Ross.

In the free-for-all it seemed as though Sorrel George had it, and won the first heat nicely, with Mason B. second and Lady Sheridan third. Stanley P. was distanced and Mollie Clarke fell on the half as also distanced, but the judges allowed her to start in the next heat in consequence of the accident. In the second heat Mason B. crowded Sorrel George on the first turn and got a good lead, but was passed by Lady Sheridan afterwards and then again by Sorrel George, Lady Sheridan won and Sorrel George was second, but the driver of the latter lodged a protest against Mason B., and this little animal was sent to the stable for fouling. Following is the summary: 2-40 Class. Purses $150.

L. Larin's Farmer Boy..... 1 1 1 D. Donnelly's Billy Ross..... 2 2 2 H. Gibean's Berthier Boy..... 3 3 3 Time 2:41, 51, 47.

Free for all. Purses $30. T. Kennedy's Sorrel George..... 1 2 John Swan's Lady Sheridan..... 2 1 F. McNeill's Mollie Clarke..... 3 3 J. Kelly's Mason B..... 2 - N. D. Allan's Stanley P..... 1 1

Though the judges decided that Mollie Clarke should start in the second heat, the animal was badly hurt in the fall in the first round and did not again come out. This race will be finished to-day. The butcher and hotel keeper's race was not started. Besides the unfinished free for all, the following is to-day's program: 2-35 Class—Purses $175. H. J. McNally, Montreal, g. m. Alice, M. D. Allan, Greenfield, Mass, b. g. Tom T. Flynn, Prescott, Ont., b. m. Brooklyn Housemaid. A. D. Maloney, Montreal, g. Col. Stoner, C. Essery, Chateaufort, P.E.I., b. m. Black Bird. J. W. Church, Gannaque, br. g. Harry Parker. A. Wood, Lewiston, Me., g. Dr. Smith.

A Match Race. During the races yesterday, several horsemen became heated over the respective ability of different horses with the result that a match was made for $200 between Gibean's Berthier Boy and J. Meunier's City Ben, to be trotted on Monday next.

SNOWSHOEING.

Fixtures of the Argyle Snowshoe Club Tramp to St. Johns.

To-morrow evening the veterans of the Argyle Snowshoe Club will tramp out with the younger members to the Athletic Club House, where the usual good time will be spent. On the following day (Saturday) the club will tramp to St. Johns, and request to be joined by members of sister clubs. The start will be made from the Oddfellows' Hall, Wellington-street, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and well nobody knows when they will reach home. The open and club steeplechase of the club will be held on Jan. 31 to Lachine.

The Crescents.

The regular weekly tramp of the Crescent Snowshoe Club will be held this evening, starting from McGill College gates at 8:15 o'clock.

M. G. A. S. S. Club.

The final arrangements have been completed for the ladies' night on Friday. Judging from the sale of tickets this promises to be the most successful "At Home" ever held by the club and they expect to test the holding capacity of the Athletic Club House.

Montreal Veterans' Night.

Last night was the veteran night of the old Tuque Blue Snowshoe Club and the members, who are not in the habit of turning out of late, showed their enthusiasm in the sport and interest in the club by mustering strong and going over the mountain with the younger members. The start was made from the gymnasium at 8 o'clock, when fully 100 "blanket boys" had their shoes strapped on and proceeded to take in the lengthy tramp. The clubhouse at Cote des Neiges was reached in due time, the first there being the leader, Mr. Angus Grant, and immediately all hands set about enjoying themselves, which they did in genuine snowshoers' style. A large number also went out in sleighs and the muster was the largest of the year. The city was again reached about 11 o'clock.

Lo Canadian.

The regular weekly tramp of Lo Canadian Snowshoe Club took place last night, to Sault aux Recollets. The start was made at 8 o'clock from the Club Hall Notre Dame-street west, when about forty members toed the scratch and were led off by their president. At Pelloquin they passed an enjoyable evening, and then started for home about 11 o'clock.

St. George At Home.

Tickets for the St. George "At Home" on Saturday afternoon have been secured very rapidly and the affair gives promise of being one of the most successful ever held by the club.

Montreal Tramp on Saturday.

On Saturday afternoon the Montreal Snowshoe Club will tramp from the Cote St. Antoine Club House at the conclusion of the skating races, going over the little mountain to the Athletic Club House where they will spend the evening.

THE TURTLE.

Record of the Wonder Who Has Beaten Everything on the Turf.

The most talked-about horse in the world to-day is the Australian wonder, Carbine, whose recent victory in the cup, carrying 145 pounds, set all tongues awagging. Carbine's record is an unrivaled one. He has beaten every race horse of any note on the Australian turf, and the horses which have finished in front of him in the races which he failed to win were Sedition, Ensign, Lochiel, Abercorn, Dreadnought, Bravo, Melos and Sinecure. When it is added that since he was a 3-year-old he has not only won all the principal weight-for-age races for many of which he carried penalties, but has also started in five great handicaps—the Newmarket 8 stone 12 pounds Australian Cup, 8 stone 6 pounds; Sydney Cup twice, 9 stone and 9 stone 8 pounds, and Melbourne Cup, 10 stone 5 pounds, and that his lowest weight in any of these races was 8 stone 6 pounds (which he carried into second place in the Australia Cup of 1889, when Lochiel won), enough has been said to show that Carbine is a race horse whose performances, in point of merit and of consistency, have certainly never been surpassed or even equaled in the history of the world in Australia. His record is now as follows:

Races run..... 36 Wins..... 27 Second..... 3 Third..... 3 Unplaced..... 1

As a 2-year-old—Christchurch (N. Z.) Hopeful Stakes, Canterbury Middle-park Stakes, Dunedin Champagne Stakes, Canterbury Champagne Stakes, Canterbury Challenge Stakes.

As a 3-year-old—V. R. C. Flying Stakes, Foad Stakes, Champion Stakes, All-aged Stakes, and Loch Plate, A. J. C. Sydney Cup, All-aged Stakes, Cumberland Stakes, A. J. C. Plate.

As a 4-year-old—V. R. C. Flying Stakes (spring meeting), Essenden Stakes, All-aged Stakes, and Loch Plate, A. J. C. Autumn Stakes and Sydney Cup, A. J. C. All-aged Stakes, Cumberland Stakes, and A. J. C. Plate.

As a five-year-old—A. J. C. Spring Stakes, Craven Plate, V. R. C. Melbourne Stakes and Melbourne Cup.

As a three-year-old—For the V. R. C. Derby, Australian Cup, A. J. C. Autumn Stakes.

As a four-year-old—V. A. T. C. Caulfield Stakes, Melbourne Cup.

As a three-year-old—For the V. R. C. Newmarket Handicap.

As a four-year-old—Melbourne Stakes, Champion Stakes.

Once only out of 36 races, this was as a four-year-old in the V. R. C. Canterbury Plate at the Melbourne Cup meeting a year ago.

Clifton Will Close Up. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD. CLIFTON, Jan. 21.—The races which were to be run here to-day had to be postponed. Two indictments have recently been found against the race track managers for keeping a disorderly house but the bookmakers have never been disturbed. They were warned to-day, however, that the sheriff was about to make wholesale arrests, and it was decided after consultation with the track managers to postpone the races for the day. It is understood that unless the matter can be adjusted, which now seems doubtful, the Clifton association will discontinue racing altogether. In that event there will be racing every day at Guttenberg instead of on every second day as at present.

CRICKET.

Death of a Well-known Professional Cricketer.

The death of Joseph Hunter, the well-known professional cricketer, is announced. Deceased, who died at the Whose Sheaf Hotel, Rotherham, was only 34 years of age, having been born at Scarborough, Oct. 21, 1857. He first played for Yorkshire in 1881, and developed into one of the best wicket-keepers of the day. He displaced George Pinder in the county eleven, and held the position of wicket-keeper until 1888, when his hands went bad, and he could not play so frequently. He formed one of the English team that visited Australia in 1884, under the captaincy of A. Shaw, and performed well, but his best season was during the year of 1882, when he was responsible for the dismissal of no fewer than 50 batsmen in the course of his county engagements.

ATHLETICS.

The Expense Question Brought Up at a Joint Meeting.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The committee appointed by the Amateur Athletic Union and the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen met in the Astor House yesterday to discuss the question of the paying of athletes' expenses. Those present were William B. Curtis, New York Athletic Club; C. F. Matthewson, Berkeley Athletic Club; Julius Hadden, New York Turn Verein; C. G. Petersen, Charles Catlin and H. W. Garfield. The scheme of fixing a limit on the value of prizes given in competitions, as well as the expense question, were discussed for over two hours. After the meeting the delegates refused to say whether they had agreed on any rule or not, saying that they had pledged themselves to secrecy. It is not likely that the result of the meeting will be known until after the conference between the A.A.U. and L.A.W. committees.

McLean Will Row Teemer after the Race With Stanbury.

MELBOURNE, Jan. 21.—McLean has expressed his willingness to row Teemer for any sum over the Parramatta course, after the match with Stanbury in April, the details of which have been almost arranged.

WRESTLING.

R. N. Harrison, of Toronto, Replies to Hugh Leonard.

R. N. Harrison, the Toronto wrestler, writes to The Buffalo Courier as follows about the proposed match with Hugh Leonard: "I am a Græco-Roman wrestler and would not care to try conclusions with Leonard catch-as-catch-can style. I will gladly meet him Græco-Roman style, and if he will send articles of agreement for such a match I will close with him immediately, the date to be any time after Jan. 28, and the place Buffalo, if Leonard desires."

BOWLING.

The Second Match in the Junior Series Played.

QUOITS.

The Match for the Championship of Great Britain.

The match for £100 and the championship of Great Britain between G. Graham, London, and T. Sneddon, Dunfermline, was played at Dunfermline, Fifeshire, Jan. 3. The game of 61 shots at 18 yards was played, the result being, Graham 61, Sneddon 59. In the match at 21 yards Graham won the toss and opened the scoring with two points at the first end. Sneddon counted one at the second end and Graham followed with a break of four. The Scotsman counted four at the next two ends, and having conceded a single to Graham put on another double. At half time the game stood, Graham 31, Sneddon 30. The last named cut in with a single at the 73rd end, and finished the game by putting on a pair at each of the next two ends, the final score being, Sneddon 61, Graham 59. This leaves the Scotsman with a majority of 20 on the two days' play.

LACROSSE.

Probable Visit of a Team from Toronto University to England.

For the past two months there has been a quiet movement among the arts and medical undergraduates of Toronto University who are interested in lacrosse towards sending a university team to England this coming summer. The enthusiasts have kept the scheme especially quiet, as they do not wish to give the matter to the public until some more definite arrangements had been made. In December last a meeting of the student lacrosseists was held, when a university lacrosse club was formed and a resolution was passed to take steps towards consummating an English tour. Since then the students have written to secretaries of various clubs in England and expect to receive answers shortly. On Saturday a well attended meeting was held with Mr. E. Henry in the chair. Dr. E. P. Gordon outlined what the English tour if successful would be, and it was decided to visit the old country, if possible, in December next. The scheme is an excellent one and variety has among its students splendid material for a representative team. Among the crack players are Henry, Johnson, the two Doanans, Gilmore, C. Cross and I. White.

SKATING.

The Blades Used by the Champion Joe Donoghue in Racing.

Donoghue, the skater, uses skates of Norwegian make. The boot upper is of kid, with a thin sole, but nearly the whole of the fore part is covered with a nickel-plate, as is the heel, the plates being riveted to the leather; from sole and heel extend two pillar-like supports which carry a long nickel tube, like a big cigar, and into this tube is set the blade. The blade is quite flat on the ice, and is only 1-10 inch thick. The blade of an Acme skate, to give a standard for easy comparison, is 7-32 inch broad. It is 18 inches long, and extends as far behind the heel as it does in front of the toe. This long blade Donoghue has always worn.

Lachine Skating Club.

A grand masquerade will take place at the Lachine Skating Club's rink at Lachine next Saturday. The club is famous for its successful masquerades, and it is expected that this occasion will not be an exception to the rule.

HOCKEY.

Two of the Insurance League Teams Play a Draw.

A hockey match was played last night on the Dominion Rink between the Phoenix and North British and Mercantile Company teams. This was the fifth match in the Insurance League series. Each side succeeded in scoring two games and at the end of time a draw was declared. The next match takes place on Monday evening.

Challenges to Fitzsimmons.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Bob Fitzsimmons, the big little Australian, since his defeat of the popular Nonpareil, has been showered with challenges from all over the country. The latest came yesterday to The Police Gazette from Chas. J. Burns, of Stafford Springs, Conn., who asks Richard K. Fox to back him against Fitzsimmons. Burns is six feet two inches tall, weighs but 164 pounds, and is 25 years old. E. J. Malville called at The Police Gazette office yesterday and stated he had matched Tom Green and Tom Allen to fight with 2-ounce gloves within two not, saying that they had pledged themselves to secrecy. It is not likely that the result of the meeting will be known until after the conference between the A.A.U. and L.A.W. committees.

The Winner of the Handicap.

C. Harper, who won the Sheffield handicap, is a native of Bulwer, near Nottingham. He is 21 years of age, stands 5 feet 9 inches, weighs 11 stone 12 pounds, and was trained at Loughborough cricket ground by Fred Bromley of Sheffield, the trainer of George Littlewood when the latter accomplished the world record of 623 miles in six days at Madison-square Gardens, New York. It is almost three years since Harper won a 220 handicap at Nottingham, and since then he has been continually "stood" with the hopes of obtaining Sheffield honors.

THE KING.

Has Sullivan Signed Articles to Meet Slavin or Not.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 21.—There is good reason for supposing that John L. Sullivan has signed some sort of an agreement to fight Frank Slavin, the Australian heavy-weight, but just what that agreement is no one in Chicago seems to know. Sullivan left the city early this morning for Grand Rapids, Mich., where he appears to-night with his theatrical company.

Phillip Lynch and James Wakeley, of New York, arrived in this city on Friday night, direct from the Fitzsimmons-Dempsey fight at New Orleans. They were Sullivan's backers at the time he fought Kilrain and now want Sullivan to fight Slavin, being confident of an easy victory. Lynch and Wakeley went at once to the Palmer House, where they were Sullivan's backers at the time he fought Kilrain and now want Sullivan to fight Slavin, being confident of an easy victory. Lynch and Wakeley went at once to the Palmer House, where they were Sullivan's backers at the time he fought Kilrain and now want Sullivan to fight Slavin, being confident of an easy victory.

Where the fight is to come and what the stakes are to be, only Sullivan, Lynch and Wakeley know. The two latter were very anxious to get a match on, and it is known they held out financial inducements to Sullivan which would make it worth while for him to train and fight Slavin. The understanding here is that if John should thrash his new rival he would be guaranteed at least $30,000 in cold cash.

Sullivan has said that if he couldn't whip Slavin he would commit suicide at the ring side, and appeared to be considerably nettled when Lynch and Wakeley told him the feeling prevailed in many quarters that he is afraid to meet the Australian.

Harrison Admits It.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The report that Sullivan may fight Slavin is in a measure confirmed by a statement made by Duncan Harrison at the Palmer House this morning to the effect that Sullivan had knocked the Australian out in the head. Thompson, the rich Australian bookmaker, is the man who will put up the money to back Slavin, it is said, and it is stated that he will furnish any amount.

Sullivan Denies It.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 21.—John L. Sullivan denies that he has signed an agreement to fight Slavin or any other man. He says it is all a rumor started in the fertile imaginations of the Chicago sportsmen.

Reagan and McMillan.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Johnny Reagan, the welter-weight champion, called at The Police Gazette office yesterday, to answer the challenge of Billy McMillan, the Washington middle-weight, who sent a dispatch to Richard K. Fox on Saturday last, offering to meet Reagan in a finish contest. Reagan says: "I will meet McMillan in a finish contest for from $1000 to $2500 a side and a purse hung up by any responsible club." Billy Reid has put up $500 forfeit with The Police Gazette to bind the match, and Reagan will sign articles as soon as McMillan covers his money. Reagan goes to Boston Feb. 4 for the McCoy-McGee match to try and get on a match with the winner.

Slavin's Farewell.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Geo. W. Atkinson, of Sporting Life, telegraphed Richard K. Fox from London yesterday that Frank P. Slavin, the Australian champion, will be given a farewell exhibition in London early in February, after which he will sail for New York, bringing with him The Police Gazette championship belt.

MISCELLANEOUS.

An Important Decision of an English Court of Interest to Betting Men.

An important decision regarding betting was delivered in the Blackburn near Manchester—County Court last month. On Saturday, Nov. 29, the plaintiff was in an inn, and a man named Robinson came in. The plaintiff asked him how the Rovers and Everton, who were playing in the town, had gone on, and he replied, "Rovers 3, Everton 1." At half time, the plaintiff had a good thing, and he bet Robinson 2s. to 11s. 6d. that the Rovers would win, besides making bets with other people present. To the defendant, Walsh, the stakes were handed, but before he had had possession of the stakes long, plaintiff was told that a telephone message had been received by Robinson before the bet was made, and that instead of the half time score standing at—Rovers 3, Everton 1—the reverse was the case. The plaintiff immediately cried that his bets were off, but the defendant paid the money to Robinson. The defence was that the transaction was an illegal one from beginning to end. The judge nonsuited the plaintiff.

BILLIARDS.

The Trouble Regarding the Rules of the English Game.

Once more the billiard championship has become a burning question and seems at length to be approaching settlement.

As one of the original founders of the original founders of the rules under which the championship has been decided since 1870, we very naturally wish to give our views on the change that is evidently about to take place in the regulations for that contest. It is a well-known fact that the championship table was invented to prevent the too great preponderance of the spot stroke, the pockets being narrowed to three inches, and the spot placed half an inch nearer the top cushion than on ordinary tables. Although, of course, this arrangement led against W. Cook, then a youngster, who had just succeeded in making even a larger spot break than John Roberts, sen., whose record break then was only 340 (194 spots), it is perfectly untrue to say that the committee who framed the championship rules simply framed them to save the elder Roberts from defeat at the hands of a rising younger rival. The table for the championship was so arranged because apparently the public object was to have a 300 break compiled by the spot stroke alone. But the result was not quite what had been anticipated. Big breaks are still appreciated, and the public will not stick to see a 300 break composed almost entirely of spot strokes. They have persistently ignored the championship table, and therefore it is quite time the arrangement ceased to exist. When the championship committee of 1870 framed the rules, it was expected that everyone would be able in time to make hundreds by means of the spot, but it is now found that after all there only about ten players who, even with the spot, can beat the champion playing spot-barred, and that a championship table to even the very best amateur is a piece of furniture which reduces a player to a very small compass. If the leading professionals do not want the championship table it should at once disappear, for the spot-barred game has evidently greater attractions for the public than the spot in play. Why not return to the old tables, pockets 3 1/2 in. and a spot 1 1/2 in. from the top cushion? There is no earthly reason why both games should not have their championships. Association and Rugby football is exactly a parallel case. The country, county and club championships of both styles of football are played for every year, and there is never any jealousy or rivalry between the Association and Rugby representatives. Why cannot Roberts and Peal arrive at an equally happy modus vivendi? Each has his own particular game far and away in front of his opponents, and there need be no claim by either to step in front and wish to disparage the play of his rival. We are sure some method of this description is the only way out of the difficulty, and, therefore, we shall be glad to see that on Wednesday afternoon, an informal gathering of the Billiard Association of Great Britain and Ireland took place for the purpose of discussing the future of the billiard championship. The special general meeting originally called by the secretary, at the request of W. J. Peal, was not strictly legal, as the requisition was not signed by the requisite number of members with the required signatures the meeting was open to anyone taking an interest in the game, and a large muster of billiard enthusiasts took advantage of the opportunity to air their views, although, of course, nothing was really settled in respect to the question. The meeting was opened by the secretary in hand, in which Messrs. Peal, H. B. Smith, Collins-Orme, J. Roberts, jr., W. J. Innes Christie and Remington Wilson took the chief part. Ultimately several sensible propositions were put forward for future consideration, and a general meeting of the Billiard Association is to be convened for the purpose of settling the vexed question.

General Sporting Gossip.

A match is being arranged for next week between the Toronto and Montreal Curling Clubs.

Harry Gent, the famous English fisher and conqueror of Harry Hutchinsons, is serious.

The banquet to Dr. E. P. Gordon of the Toronto has been postponed and will take place at Webb's to-night.

An offer of 2000 guineas has been made for Mersey, the dam of Carbine, who won the rich Melbourne cup. Mersey, who has a foot at foot, is sixteen years old.

The National League of American Wheelmen will meet at Washington Feb. 16, and an election of officers will take place.

William Boyd of Newcastle and David Kernahan, also of Newcastle, rowed on the Tyne for £50, Kernahan staking £30 and Boyd £20. Boyd won somewhat easily by two clear lengths.

The Governor-General in acknowledging the receipt of the invitation to the Tuque Blues' annual dinner to be given on Feb. 14, has replied that he has an engagement which will keep him in Ottawa until after that date, but if possible he will attend.

Gus Lambert is training hard for his fight with Peter Mahar, the Irish champion. Frank Hall gives a six-day race at the Olympia during the last week in March. Sir John Astley will give a championship cup. Hall offered to bet $5000 he can produce an American pedestrian to beat Rowell.

Probably the queerest pair of magistrates in the baseball business are President Horn and Vice President Lazarus of the Columbus club. They are its owners and have some $40,000 invested in it, yet they seldom attend meetings of the association, and neither of them sees one-third of the games played on the home grounds.

Lucky Baldwin has 24 horses for this year's campaign, 14 of which are 2-year-olds. Those above that are Los Angeles, Honduras, Santiago, Clio and Costa Rica, 4-year-olds, and Esperanza, Cleopatra, Santa Anna, San Gabriel and San Joaquin, 3-year-olds. Of the 2-year-olds none are by Gano, four by Rutherford and one by Crimmet. Jan Augustine, by Gano, Sister Anna, Volante's dam, is reported to be a good one.

F. D. Cadmus of the Corinthian A.C. ran a beautiful race in the 880 yard novice run at the Forty-seventh regiment games. Both in his trial heat and the final heat Cadmus used excellent judgment in getting through his heat and showed little of speed. He finished strong and with a little to spare in 2m. 13s. Cadmus also won the half mile

CLAIM FOR DAVIS' MILLIONS.

A Saginaw Man Expects to Get All of the Money

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE. BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 20.—Eugene Davis of East Saginaw, Mich., arrived here to-day. He claims to be the only legitimate son of the late A. J. Davis, who died here nearly a year ago worth $15,000,000.

Mrs. A. J. Davis, Eugene's mother, keeps a saloon at East Saginaw. She claims she was married to the Montana millionaire a half-century ago in Maine. About 1850 they moved to Iowa, and a few years after Mr. Davis deserted her. She went to East Saginaw with her son. Eugene Davis declares he will do up all other heirs. He is about 40 years old, bald-headed, with sandy hair and a florid complexion. He was convicted on the train, and his fellow-passengers reported that no reason from St. Paul to Butte was left unpatronized. He became broke and tried to negotiate a loan from the conductor on his future expectations, but was unsuccessful. He came to attend the hearing for the probate of the alleged will in February, and he says his scheme is to trust to the present contestants for the will to break it, and then he proposes to come in and knock out all other contestants.

West Ward. To the Editor of The Herald:—I note in your to-day's issue an opinion from two insurance men who seem much concerned over the probable defeat of Col. Stevenson and they appear to imagine in that case it would be very deplorable to insurance interests. As an elector in the ward I think it rather presumptuous if true that the insurance companies would "combine" to secure Ald. Stevenson's re-election, when we bear in mind that this same "combine" have during the colonel's occupancy of the chairmanship of the Fire Committee raised the rate of premiums from 20 to 40 per cent., and if the Fire Brigade has now been thrown into such a high state of efficiency why do they not reduce the premiums to the old rates of five or six years ago? I can remember when the rates were increased that it was then all charged to the bad state of the Fire Brigade, and this same "combine" charged Ald. Stevenson with being the chief cause by his big-headedness, stubbornness and not disposed to do anything to put the Brigade in proper shape and in consequence raised the premiums and threw the blame on the Fire Committee. Now if Ald. Stevenson's chairmanship has been such a success why not reduce the rate of premiums to the old standard and then the electors might be inclined to look over some of the "combine's" comings in other matters. I think the merchants of the ward have no reason to consider favorably the opinions of this "combine" but rather the reverse, and I trust the electors will resent this unwarranted interference in the election of a man who is the "combine" of this character to try and thwart the choice of the people.

TRYING TO PURIFY THE TOWN.

Dance-Houses at Covington, Neb., Burned to the Ground.

BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Jan. 20.—Wholesale incendiarism was attempted last night in the Nebraska town of Covington, which is on the opposite bank of the Missouri River. At midnight a respectable house known as the Allen was in flames and burned down. Two hours later the Sioux City Fire Department was called upon to help save three other dance-houses, and later still another was fired. Within the first six hours had been drilled through the siding and keroseene and tar smeared around. Four other buildings were found this morning where the same incendiary preparations had been made. A man named Bob Sutter was arrested this evening for complicity in the plot.

South Sioux City and Covington have just voted to incorporate as one town and there has been trouble between them. This is believed to have had something to do with the firing. Twenty special policemen are guarding Covington to-night.

Lost. Lost—On Saturday, between Victoria-street, St. Catherine-street, Beaver Hall Hill and St. James-street, a bunch of keys. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at Nordheimer's, 213 St. James-street.

A Girl's Revenge. BY OUR SPECIAL SERVICE. LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 21.—Daniel Frazier and wife and Peter White and wife, all respectable colored people, were poisoned yesterday by drinking coffee containing arsenic. Frazier died and his wife and White are in a precarious condition. Lillie White, the 17-year-old daughter of Peter White, was arrested. She confessed that she put the poison in the coffee. She was severely reprimanded by her father Sunday night and was in an ugly mood yesterday. Peter White had been coachman for years for Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, mother of General John Morgan, the Confederate leader.

FINANCIAL.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 21, 1891. The feeling in local stocks to-day was firm, with a decided upward movement from the decline of the last few days.

Table with columns: Bank Name, Shares, Price. Includes Bank of Montreal, Commercial Cable, Montreal Telegraph, etc.

Money. The market held firm though not much business was transacted. Call loans on good collateral was about 6, and discount for commercial paper was from 6 1/2 to 7.

Exchange. The market in sterling showed no change; business was dull. The following shows to-day's rates in detail as compiled for The Herald by J. R. Meeker, broker and banker, 13 St. Sacrament-street:

Table with columns: Bank Name, Shares, Price. Includes Sterling 60 days sight, 60 days, 90 days, etc.

New York Stocks. SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. New York, Jan. 21.—Money closed at 2 per cent, the lowest rate of the day; highest 3 per cent. Exchange closed steady; posted rates 45 1/2 @ 48; actual rates 45 1/2 @ 48 1/2 for 60-day bills and 48 1/2 @ 48 1/2 for demand.

There were sales of only 51,000 shares in the Stock Exchange this morning and most of this small amount was Union Pacific, St. Paul and Louisville and Nashville, which were all fractional lower, and in New York and New England, Northern Pacific and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, which were fractionally higher, so that altogether there was hardly any movement in this market at all. The early London prices were lower than the closing figures here, but there was a selling for London account and on the whole the market, considering the extreme dullness, was fairly steady. The little firmness shown was due to the growing belief that the prospects for unlimited free coinage are dead. At noon prices were irregularly changed. There was no improvement in the market after 12 o'clock. The same apathy which characterized the morning dealings prevailed. The market seemed to sink of its own weight and give no immediate evidence of a revival. There were no news current and dealings were confined to boardroom traders who operated for fractional profits. The only speculative stock that attracted any attention was Chicago Gas. At one time it advanced 1 per cent, to 47, on the belief that the company had arranged for a compromise with the city of Chicago, by which the latter should receive 10 per cent of the Gas Co's gross earnings and in the process the Gas, $1.50 per 1000 feet, should be maintained. This is conceded to be the basis of settlement as soon as the Trust is re-organized. The closing prices were generally 1/3 to 3/4 cent lower. Total sales were 110,995 shares.

Messrs. MacDougall Bros., stock brokers, 69 St. Francis Xavier-street, report the New York market as follows: New York, Jan. 19, 1891.

Table with columns: Commodity, Price. Includes Cotton Oil, Flour, Wheat, etc.

There was no new feature to note in this market. There was a fair amount passing to local jobbers and with renewed firmness in the British markets enquiry has sprung up for export but we heard of no sales. Our quotations are: Spring patent 5.10 @ 5.30; Winter Wheat patent 5.00 @ 5.20; Straight Roller 4.55 @ 4.75; Extra 4.25 @ 4.50; Superfine 3.80 @ 4.20; Fine 3.30 @ 3.55; City Strong Bakers 5.00 @ 5.10; Strong Bakers 4.90 @ 5.00; Medium Bakers 4.50 @ 4.70; Ontario bags-extra 2.05 @ 2.20; Fine bags 1.50 @ 1.60; Manitoba bakers 4.90 @ 5.00.

The demand in jobbing lots has been fair at unaltered prices. Standard, bris. 4.95 @ 5.00; " bags 2.30 @ 2.40; Granulated, bris. 5.00 @ 5.00; " bags 2.50 @ 2.60; Rolled Oats, bags 2.50 @ 2.55.

The spiritless aspect of the market continues, and even with the small receipts ruling stocks are accumulating. Prices, in sympathy with other markets, are firmly held. No. 2 hard wheat 96 @ 98; White winter wheat per bu. $1.00 @ 1.02; Red winter wheat per bu. $1.00 @ 1.02; No. 1 frosted 78 @ 80; No. 2 " 78 @ 80; Oats, Ontario, per 34 lbs. 47 @ 48; Oats, Manitoba, per 34 lbs. 44 @ 45; Peas, per 60 lbs. 73 @ 75; Corn, per bush. 70 @ 72; Rye, per bush (milling) 50 @ 52; Barley, feed, 50 @ 52; Buckwheat, per bush. 47 @ 49; Rye, per bush. 60 @ 62; Medium beans per 60 lbs. 1.80 @ 1.90; " Eastern per 60 lbs. 1.50 @ 1.70.

Wheat—Options were fairly active to-day at irregular prices, but the undertone was firm and after a further increase the market closed strong and slightly higher. Spot lots closed firm. Spot sales of No. 2 red winter, 1.06 1/2 @ 1.06 3/4; No. 2 red winter, Jan. 1.05 1/2 @ 1.05 3/4; do March, 1.05 1/2 @ 1.05 3/4.

Corn—Options were fairly active and closed slightly higher. Spot lots closed firm; spot sales of No. 2 mixed at 61 1/2 @ 62; No. 2 mixed, Jan. 60 1/2 @ 61; do May 51 1/2 @ 52; No. 2 mixed, Jan. 51 1/2 @ 52; do May 51 1/2 @ 52.

OUR REVIEW OF TRADE.

A BETTER FEELING IN SOME BRANCHES.

Money Matter and The Silver Bill—The Elections—Sir in The Provision Market—The Holiday Dullness Dispersed.

The week ending Wednesday evening was not characterized by any great amount of trading, the totals sales amounting to 3991 shares, against 5629 the week previous. The week opened fairly firm in bank stocks, but the upward turn soon experienced a decline and in most instances a decline commenced. Bank of Montreal, which started with sales at 225, each day receded, till 222 was reached, to-day a reaction set in, and shares changed hands at 222 1/2, 223, 224, 225 and 225 1/2, thus bringing it to a fraction of highest point this year.

The course of silver legislation in the United States is thought by many to be a cloud of evil omens hanging over the course of the year's trade, and the passage of free coinage by the U. S. Senate is alleged to be the reason why, with money cheap as ever it has been, the trading and speculative prices do not rise to the ordinary level. There is no doubt a wide spread dread, among the great capitalists of what may be the result of the experiment, but we who are outsiders as it were, and cannot be covered by United States legislation, have no need for any great alarm. There are not wanting students of economics who strenuously uphold the dual metallic base, as the only one of sufficient elasticity to suit the extended demands of modern commerce, and their arguments in favor of their pet theory, and their deductions therefrom, are entitled to some consideration. But the question now is one mainly of voting power, and, unfortunately, lower consideration than statesmanship sound financing or patriotism will have the preponderating weight. While one side falls back on the old axiom: vox populi vox dei, the other have at all events the opportunity to be composed of fools, and that their opinion on intricate matters of finance is worthless. Any way we in Canada have the role of onlookers, and if not quite in the position of disinterested spectators, are at least not participants in the profits by the experiences or errors of our neighbors without being materially affected by their consequences. There can be little doubt, however, that the upstart speculators, who have been profiting by the experiences or errors of our neighbors without being materially affected by their consequences. AMERICAN MARKETS. Chicago Grain and Provisions. Messrs. Baldwin & Farnum telegraph Ottawa Bros. to-day over direct private wire from Chicago as follows: Chicago, Jan. 21.—Wheat—From opening our market showed a disposition to advance which was, for a while, checked by considerable selling by parties who bought yesterday at lower prices, and by Partridge. The latter has been apparently a good seller all day and as the market gained strength, smaller shorts covered freely, and the bulls who believe in higher prices were fair buyers. Our market closed above yesterday, and shows an advance above lowest price of 2 1/2 cents. The public are not doing much in this market, but if this strength lasts much longer, it will attract outside buying and materially help to force an advance. Bradstreet's estimate is that the amount of the Rockies decreased during last week $49,000. West of the Rockies 730,000 with a fair export demand at New York and higher Liverpool cables. These were the influences that helped our market to-day. The report regarding damage in California, and on the Continent, are so conflicting, they cut but little figure. Exports—Flour 20,000 wheat 33,000. Receipts 230,000; shipments 200,000.

Cash was about 1/2 higher, but may show an advance of only about 1/4 above top price yesterday. The market has been firm, but with buying demand well supplied. Bradstreet's makes decrease of 305,000 on who have made their names known far and wide, and financial and commercial ability, could be induced to attend a little more to civic duties, it would be of infinite benefit to the city. There are, in so great a community, so many questions of high importance to the civic welfare that would be greatly benefited by the attention of broad minds, of quick decision and of noble daring, that would risk unpopularity if necessary to carry out the best interests of the community. We are practically decided upon, but there are many points which would be better by the advice of experienced shippers, merchants or exporters, and which are a rank of being misled by advisers who are less than honest. We have learned in the workshop, or at the retail counter, or in an office. There are the two extremes of lavish generosity and cheeseparing economy to be commended, and it is to be regretted that so many whose assistance would be of the greatest possible benefit cannot be persuaded to give their fellow-citizens the benefit of their well-earned leisure and hard-earned experience.

There is still a good demand and the supply is falling away. Prices remain firm and steady. Chickens are coming in for more request. Turkeys are from 11c to 12c for choices, 10c to 11c for seconds. Chickens 7c to 8c. Ducks 9c to 10c. Geese 6 1/2c to 7c. Partridge 50c to 55c per brace. Hares 25c to 30c per pair. Squirrels 20c per pair.

There is again a little lull in export, not that the demand is lessened but orders can now wait a day or two before despatch for next steamer. Cables and advices came firm and it is evident that there will be a considerable draw on stocks here should weather keep cold. To-day's cable, however, reports a thaw in England and a sudden change in that proverbially fickle climate may work great changes in a short space of time. There has been a good movement of ungraded packages at which dealers are well satisfied as of higher class stocks are very scarce. We quote: Old butter 7 to 10; Ordinary Western 13 to 14; Fine Western 15 to 17; Ordinary Townships 15 to 16; Fine Townships 18 to 21; Summer creamery 19 to 22; Finest full creamery 22 to 24.

The higher range of prices in England and the reports of shortening stocks keep up the firmness of our market. There has been a fair movement and prospects remain unclouded. Fancy fall makes 10 to 10 1/2; Good 9 1/2 to 10; Medium 9 to 9 1/2; Public cable to-day 50s 6d.

There is a fair, steady demand for high class and fancy makes at outside prices and holders look forward with great confidence to having plenty of warehouse room by the time new makes commence to arrive. The proverbial slip/twixt cup and lip may happen between the cheese merchant and his prospective bank balancer, but before that time it is not to justify any foreboding, and everything inspire confidence. Private cables and advices all tend to give confidence, while all stock calculations place the amount in hand at less than usual at this season.

The demand has been smaller during the week, which is no doubt chiefly attributable to the high range of prices. Stocks in the city are, however, brought down within such reasonable compass that holders can afford to keep firm, and the probabilities are that every dozen or so will be able to get their money to western lots are already coming into northern cities in the States, but the competition is as yet too keen and prices too high to have much effect on holders in this city.

Following are receipts of produce this week compared with last: Wheat 6476 (414); Corn 8438 (318); Oats 3691 (391); Rye 1814 (158); Flour 1623 (282); Butter 767 (76); Lard 60 (60); Tallow 60 (60); Hides 394 (41); Raw hides 27 (27); Petroleum bris. 50 (50); " tanks 8 (8).

While one of the most important of the city trades that of the grocer is a general way from the wholesale to the retail, and great changes in market values, and pursues the even tenor of its way from week to week with little variation. The trade generally is reported in good condition and as proof wholesalers are satisfied with the return, and do not seem to worry themselves as dry-croakers are obliged to do, over the eventuality of the future. Credit has been brought within such reasonable limits as to give confidence, and the coming of trade and retailers while learning how to conduct their own business on a satisfactory cash basis. The old-fashioned corner grocer that kept his books on the likelihood of a large, unbalanced account at big prices, is being rapidly superseded by the smart, pushing tradesman who serves you well and quickly with whatever you want. The grocer where neighbourhood gossip is a matter of course, is being replaced on the head of a flour barrel is getting into the background as unsuitable to city ways and the big wholesalers are glad of it. All round things are getting into a good sound shape and the city is beginning to feel the Dominion that can show a satisfactory set of books as a good wholesale grocer. In all the staple lines prices are unaltered, but as we showed last week, in speaking of sugar, the advance in raw sugar has forced up both granulated and yellows. Molasses and syrups are unaltered.

There is a stir among the fish dealers and rubbing of hands and mutual congratulations as they find their harvest, the Lenten season, approaching. It certainly is more of a treat for Johnny's fishermen than it is for Johnny himself, and there is no gripe around this year such large quantities. The local demand has put the bishops in a generous and generous mood, and the local demand has put the bishops in a generous and generous mood, and the local demand has put the bishops in a generous and generous mood.

The winter demand for fruit which used to be a very small matter in days gone by has under the fostering of fast trains and heated cars risen up to a surprising volume. The fruit trade of this city to-day has an amount of capital invested in it, and employs a number of hands that would fairly astound the enquiring citizen who has given no heed to the outside evidence of its growth.

The trade this week is reported better than the two previous ones, and collections are easy and quite up to expectations and if the volume of trade is comparatively small, that is just down to the season. There is nothing to note at present. Oranges are coming in freely and under more favorable weather conditions than in the past. Lemons have been landed at New York and such portions as were purchased for local requirements have been forwarded here in splendid condition. Cranberries have lost some of their luster, but the quality is good in those company they take such delight being rather scarcer in the neighborhood. It applies there is no change, with all the scare of short crops it looks as though they should yet manage to pull through the season without an absolute failure.

others consider business very slow, with very little prospect of improvement. Remittances are ditto, slightly better than at this time last year, but still far below the mark, thus necessitating re-negotiations on an uncomfortably large scale.

Leather. It was only to be expected that the firmness which characterised the hide market should have had its effect upon the leather trade. The prices are as a result tending upward.

Hides. Since last week the feature known as "stiffening" has been making itself prominent. A circumstance which has puzzled some men engaged in this business is that the supply of cattle in the prairie regions of the United States has very largely outstripped the demand of the beef consumers and that, notwithstanding the plethora of hides which is the necessary consequence, the market shows no signs of being affected thereby.

Boots and Shoes. Manufacturers have nothing to complain about as to the supply of orders. In fact they are being kept busier than they were last January. The only drawback is that remittances are poor, and overdue accounts are numerous.

Iron and Hardware. There is nothing new to record in this market. Advances from Great Britain indicate that prices are stationary, and here there has been no change in quotations. Tin and copper are unchanged, and the general outlook is regarded with expectancy, a large element of hope entering into the calculations of manufacturers.

Drugs, Etc. Dulness prevails at present, particularly with regard to orders coming from the lower provinces. The slackness in the lumber business is making itself felt. Customers' orders are not satisfactory met, and the large number of failures which have recently occurred exercise a discouraging influence on the market.

Jewelry and Fancy Goods. The holiday feeling laces a little longer in these trades than in articles of most every day consumption, but it is gradually wearing away and dealers report a better demand. There is a fair city trade going and collections are considered very fair with here and there a renewal required to help over the generally heavy time that is passing away.

THE MAYORALTY. Hon. James McShane vs. Mayor Jacques Greener.

An Eye-Opener for Consumers and Others on Imported Cigars. As it is well known to all tobacco dealers that the Vuelta Abajo district is conceded to be the finest on the island of Cuba, and that no tobacco is equal in quality or commands as high a price on the market, we wish to inform the consumers of imported Havana cigars that seven-eighths of the imported cigars brought into this country are not of Vuelta Abajo tobacco.

KILLED IN A BAR-ROOM FIGHT.

A Young Montrealer Done to Death in an Ontario-street Saloon.

THE SUPPOSED MURDERER ARRESTED

Story as Told to The Herald by the Bartender—The Principals Had Just Returned From Burying a Deceased Comrade.

As the result of a quarrel which occurred in a saloon on Ontario-street yesterday afternoon, at half past one o'clock, a young man lies cold and stiff in death, awaiting the coroner's inquest this morning, which may tend to the discovery of the real cause of his untimely death, but which cannot exert, of course, any influence over the fate which, in the "great beyond," will be his.

A young man named Lepine, who resided on Ontario-street, died a few days ago, and his remains were borne to the Catholic cemetery at Cote des Neiges yesterday morning. A large number of his friends and former acquaintances attended the funeral. On their return a number of them went into the saloon of Mr. Charles Lafleur, Ontario-street. Among them were Henri Gauthier and Antoine Spearson, the latter of whom has been residing at 608 Sangnet-street. Both were comrades of the man who had just been interred. Several rounds of drink were called for and consumed, but neither of the two young men appeared to be intoxicated. Gauthier was of an irritable, quarrelsome disposition, and he indulged in remarks which seemed to annoy many of those who were listening to him, particularly Spearson. A noisy discussion ensued, in which all the individuals present took a more or less vigorous part. Gauthier, whose temper had been very much ruffled by an observation that had been made by Spearson and which he evidently considered to have been addressed especially to him, drew himself up to his full height and asked Gauthier whether he meant to insult him. The latter responded that he might take the remark in any sense he pleased. Blows were at once exchanged between the two men.

Gauthier was seen to fall. He did not rise but his friends lifted him up and as he pressed his hands to his temples it was thought that he had received some injury to his head as a result of the fall. The bar-tender produced a towel, which was applied to his head. He staggered afterwards and would have fallen again had not those who surrounded him propped him up. "Are you hurt?" asked one of the bystanders. The young man made no reply, but his eyes had been closed. He was carried to a room leading from the bar, and laid upon a sofa. He uttered no sound, and made no motion; and the belief was that he had been merely stunned, and was, in fact, overcome by the drinks of which he had just partaken. A move was made towards the bar, and the erstwhile mourners resumed their consolatory potations. One person, an intimate friend of Gauthier's, remained with him. He gasped his name, called him by his name, asked him whether he was really hurt, and then, alarmed at the rigidity of the body of his comrade, ran out to the bar-man and requested him to call a doctor. He was seen to be at once despatched to the residence of a physician, and in about eight minutes afterwards the doctor made his appearance. He approached the motionless form on the sofa and with a quick glance he reflected on the Gauthier's pulse. An expression of grave concern came over his features, and opening the young man's vest he placed his hand over the left breast. "Why?" he said, looking around at those who had by this time crowded into the little room, "the man is dead!" Consternation was depicted upon every face. "Good God, is it possible?" cried one of the men, rushing up to the doctor and staring at him almost fiercely. "Yes, it is," replied the doctor. "What have you done to him?" Explanations, denials, contradictions, followed, none of which seemed to satisfy the physician. One of the onlookers stated that the dead man had suffered from years of heart disease and another asserted that cancer in the stomach was the malady with which he had been afflicted.

The police at No. 4 Station were communicated with and Spearson was placed under arrest. He protested his innocence of any desire to inflict injury upon his friend, and manifested deep regret at the fatal result of the quarrel in which he had taken part. The body of the deceased was removed and a post-mortem will be held upon it this morning by Coroner Jones. A Herald reporter went to Lafleur's saloon and interviewed the bar-tender yesterday evening.

"This is how it happened," he said. "A number of the people who had attended the funeral of Lepine, came in here for a drink on their way home. None of them were under the influence of liquor. A little by-play was indulged in and all appeared to be in good humor. Gauthier shortly afterwards grew quarrelsome, and was evidently vexed at some remark passed by Spearson. They came to blows and Gauthier fell. I did not see where Spearson struck him. When he was raised up he put his hands to his head, and thinking he had been hurt there, I got a towel and put it around what I thought was the injured part. He was placed on the lounge in the room next to the bar. It seemed but a few minutes after that I heard of somebody saying that Gauthier was dead."

AMUSEMENTS OF THE DAY.

The Agnes Thomson Concert Company at the Windsor. The announcement that Canada's prima donna soprano would make her Montreal debut attracted a large audience to the Windsor Hall last night, and the enthusiasm with which the fair young singer was received must have been pleasing in the extreme to those who undertook to bring her here.

Mrs. Agnes Thomson personally, has already been spoken of in these columns so that it now remains to write of her talent as a singer. It is not only the voice of a songstress which charms the listener and is thus never more fully exemplified than last evening when Mrs. Thomson sang in response to a most enthusiastic encore, "Home Sweet Home." Singing stars have pleased a Montreal audience many, many times, but to those who sat amid profound silence and listened to the grand old song last night it seemed indeed, as though it had never been properly sung before. It may be urged that this feeling often happens in the case of a new singer, but last evening was certainly an exception. As a singer, however, Mrs. Thomson must be chiefly superior of as to her rendition of Donizetti's "Requena Vel Silenzii." In it her legato passages were flowing and velvety. The notes of her trills (in which she sang in English) had the delight of the audience; they were distinct in the attack, notwithstanding their rapid flight and at the same time the general effect of the execution was quite conservative. It is a beautiful voice with a high range of extension, of correct method, good enunciation, perfect phrasing and an art of expression magnetic in its operation. In the duo "Repeat again," with Mr. Montross Graham, she even called her first effort, and in the "Anglo Serenade" with solo obligato, her singing was pure and beautiful in the extreme. Falling into line with other singers Mrs. Thomson chose as her encore numbers several popular selections, among them being "Comin' thro' the Rye." No sooner had the audience recognized the song than a storm of applause broke out which for a few moments interrupted the singer, but she carried it splendidly through and proved that though she sang in English she could sing a Scotch song to perfection.

Miss Maude Burdette, the contralto of the company, is a good singer but nevertheless quite open to criticism. Her voice is wonderfully well under control and she sang with expression but at the same time lacks that life and energy necessary to make a success of Gonnod's "Le Parlate d'Amor" from Faust. She was far better in "Summer Night" and again exhibited her talent in her duet with Mr. J. M. Kelly, "Dove of the Summer Night" which was the first number on the program. Of Mr. Muddle it is rather hard to speak at length chiefly because he was not heard to good advantage in the singing part which he had an evidently better fitted than for solo work. In the latter he seems somewhat nervous, but no one will question the assertion that he has a fine tenor voice which will do credit to any organization to which he may belong.

Unqualified praise is due to Mr. Montross Graham. Better baritone has been heard in Montreal, but it is many a day since the well-known "Toreador" was sung with such attack and force as that of Mr. Graham. He sang simply to exhibit a well trained voice but to sing a song in such a manner that enthusiasm should be aroused and the people should be made aware that a man of his caliber is not to be trifled with. Little boy who is able to thrill his audience and to command unstinted applause. Mr. Graham was also very good in his "singing lesson" duet with Mrs. Thomson and which took the place of the number on the program. The humorist, Mr. H. M. Boddy, is a young man who has yet to make himself known but who has the ability to entertain and amuse to a high degree. His selections last night were very good; his "Clemence" duet being equal to anything of the kind heard in this city for some time. He fully deserved the double encore which he received.

Now as to the musicians of the company, Miss Minnie Martin, the accompanist, is a painstaking artist and one who shows great ability. It is not often that a pianiste receives much praise, but in this case Miss Martin deserves a special word. Mr. Ernest Lavigne, of this city, played some of the accompaniments, but he is too well known to need comment. Mr. Franz Wagner, the cellist is every inch a musician. Without going into details it is hard to describe his playing. He has an unflinching technique united with a truly musical style which makes him at once with the best virtuosos.

The concert was a success and Mrs. Thomson will be warmly welcomed back to Montreal. The Ontario Amateur Dramatic Club will present "The Old Homestead," at the Grand Trunk Literary Institute, Sebastopol-street Point St. Charles. The play is a combination of humorous and pathetic pictures of New England life, interspersed with new songs, which will be rendered by such well-known vocalists as Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Miss Herbert, the Dougherty Brothers and others. The part of "Tot," the little crossing sweeper will be taken by Miss Alice Wagner. Mr. Wagner's talented young daughter, whose charming recitations have entertained so many at various charitable entertainments, and everything in the way of scenery, etc., has been done to make this performance a success.

The Theatres. Dixey is having a big run at the Academy this week, the audience last night being one of the best of the season. At the Royal "Vesper Bell" is drawing good houses. The bill will be changed to-morrow night when "Old Oaken Buckle" will be produced. Next Week's Attractions. Cleveland's well-known combination of minstrel is announced for the Academy. The performance will be a change and will doubtless draw large audiences. "Irish Luck" will hold the boards at the Theatre Royal. The play is a new one and is highly spoken of.

Torrance, and Resolved: "That the thanks of the Society are due and are hereby tendered to the President and Vice-President and members of the Executive Committee for their services during the past year, and that the following be elected for the following one: President—Chas. Counting Chickens. Before They Are Hatched in the Municipal. Although the battle for civic honors may be said to have only just begun in earnest, there are not wanting those who pretend to be in a position to estimate with tolerable accuracy the results of the different polls. An evening contemporary, whose very advocacy always means defeat for its favored candidate, speaks oracularly of the number of votes which will be cast in each ward for the respective candidates for the mayoralty. In such a ward, it tells its readers so many votes will be given for McShane and so many for Grazier, and without any indications are but chumily concealed preferences motivated by narrow bigotry in regard to subjects which really have nothing at all to do with the merits of the real issue.

The fact is that those who are qualified to express an opinion worthy of consideration are unanimous in asserting that the majority of the votes will be recorded in favor of the Hon. James McShane. As to his success in the English-speaking wards no one entertains the slightest doubt—so far as the conversations which a Herald reporter has had with prominent citizens in each can be held to be a trustworthy method of gauging public opinion. And as to the French-Canadian sentiment among the French-Canadian fellow-citizens of Mr. McShane the following extract from an editorial in yesterday's Minerve shows in which direction it lies: "We should have been glad to see elected an untried and untried mayorality term the man who has for 28 years devoted a large portion of his energy and administrative ability. Not only has this pleasure been withheld from us, but it seems that he has been pushed forward by a certain section for the sole purpose of inflicting upon him an unmerited humiliation. Those have acted very cruelly towards Mr. Grenier who took him from his sick bed and threw him against his will without any previous consultation, and without any chance of success into a desperate struggle. It would be a veritable miracle if Mr. McShane, fortified as he is, with an uncontested personal popularity, with national sympathies dictated by legitimate aspirations, would not succeed in securing his election by a majority of hundreds."

Mr. Latimer, who is in the field in St. Louis Ward, has been a total abstainer since childhood, but has no fanatical prejudices on the score of temperance. One-third of the voters of the ward are English speaking and he thinks that they should be represented in the council as the French in St. Gabriel and the Irish in St. Lawrence Wards are. He believes that existing laws should be respected and enforced and favors the restoration of facilities for the immediate indulgence in the improvement of streets and parks and an elevated railway for quick transit, that working men may readily reach their work, as well as all other things that will advance the city morally, socially or financially.

THE S. P. OF V. AND C. Called Upon to Defend Itself Before Judge Dugas. The Society for the Protection of Women and Children were the defendants in a case brought before Judge Dugas yesterday. A 17-year-old girl is the cause thereof. She had left her home in Griffintown, her reasons for this action being thus told by herself: There are nine members of her family, and they all live in one room. Her elder brother and father were in the habit of taking liquor, and when in this state, ill-treated her continually. A few months ago they had given her a dreadful beating because she would not go and buy liquor for them, and a few days later they again beat her unmercifully because she refused to go and buy drink money for them. She ran away, and a neighbor took charge of her. Her father succeeded in finding her, and compelled her to return to what is by courtesy called her "home," but she was again subjected to cruel treatment. She succeeded in escaping for a second time, and was taken care of by some friends in the upper part of the city. She communicated with Mr. Marshall, of the Society named, and while in the midst of her recital her father entered the room and commanded her to go home, but Mr. Marshall refused to let the girl go with him. Judge Dugas decided that as the girl was over 16 she was competent to choose her own path in life.
