Fifty-fifth Year

World News In Brief

Tehran, Iran, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The British-owned Bank of Iran and the Middle East announced today it will close its doors in Iran by July 30, after 63 years of operation, because of Iranian government restrictions.

At the same time it was learned Premier Mohammed Mossadeq's government plans to force the shutdown of British, American and other foreign cultural organizations operating outside Tehran.

The date when the ax will fall on the British council and Anglo-Iranian institute branches at Tabriz and Meshed was not known.

Tokyo, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—Officers of the British 29th independent brigade will receive 13 United States army awards for the part they played in the Imjin river battle last April. It was announced last night. In the same battle, the 1st battalion of the Gloucestershire regiment of Britain won a United States Presidential unit citation.

Hong Kong, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Communist China is rushing to complete a rail line that would give the Reds a sea route to support any intervention in Indo-China, a Hong Kong newspaper reported today. The newspaper said all prisoners in South China between 15 and 35 have been drafted into labor teams for work on the line.

London, Jan. 30.—(AP)—British motorists ordering a new automobile this year may have to wait until 1952 for delivery, car experts estimated today.

This is one result of Britain's new pay-perish economic program outlined yesterday by the chancellor of the exchequer, R. A. Butler. To increase overseas exports, cars for the home market will be trimmed to 60,000 compared with deliveries last year of more than 110,000.

Tokyo, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—Britain's desperate hunt for steel to feed arms and export factories today yielded 109,000 tons from Japan at a cost of about $14,000,000.

Officials representing the entire British steel industry signed the contract at a price almost double the current British scale.

The purchase is only a drop in the bucket of an estimated 1,500,000-ton deficiency in British supplies this year.

Allied Rotation Proposal Agreed To By Communists

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
Munich, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Communist negotiators today agreed to the allied rotating 25,000 troops a month during an armistice and said Chinese would join in administering the demilitarized zone.

The Reds balked, however, at restraints on moving their troops secretly into threatening concentrations during an armistice.

Previously the communists had agreed to rotating only 5,000 United Nations troops. The allies are asking for 75,000 a month.

Yesterday the Reds indicated the Chinese would take no part in civil administration of the northern half of a buffer zone during an armistice. Today they reversed it.

All these actions were taken by staff officers working their way slowly through an 18-page allied draft of a plan for supervising an armistice.

The Reds objected to two security proposals:

1. That both sides refrain from concentrating troops and guns in a manner to threaten the other side.

2. Both sides to report weekly the exact location of all major ground, naval and air units.

In a neighboring tent at Panmunjom, a U.N. spokesman said, a North Korean general showed a civil and sarcastic interest in the allied plan for exchanging prisoners.

A U.N. command communiqué said the staff officers "continued to make progress" on true super vision.

The Reds were "reasonably objective," said Brig.-Gen. William P. Nuckolls. "But it would be incorrect to say any measurable progress was being made."

Nor was any noteworthy progress reported immediately from a second session of staff officers working on details for supervising a truce.

In the sub-committee session on prisoner exchange, North Korean Maj.-Gen. Lee Sang Cho analyzed the U.N. command proposal point by point. He expressed agreement in principle on a number of points but showed no change in attitude on key issues blocking agreement.

Egypt Reported Ready To Join Middle East Command If U.K. Dispute Is Solved

Sen. Russell May Enter U.S. Contest

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Southern Democrats today were reported putting heavy pressure on Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia to enter the party's Presidential race.

At the same time, Senator Burton Maybank (Dem. S.C.) heatedly denied that Russell's backers are out "to stop" Senator Estes Kefauver (Dem. Tenn.), President Truman or any other Democrat. Kefauver is the only avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Truman has given no hint of his Presidential plans. But Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney said yesterday the President has given no hint that he is considering anyone other than himself as his party's aspirant for the Presidency.

"I hope Senator Russell will allow us to nominate him," Maybank told a reporter. "His friends are not limited to southern Democrats."

The activity among southern Democrats recalled the walk-out staged at the 1948 convention—by all 22 Mississippi delegates and half of the 26 Alabama delegates.

Other southerners stayed behind to pile up 263 votes for Russell while President Truman won the nomination with 947½ votes.

Later, southern Democrats nominated J. Strom Thurmond, then governor of South Carolina, as an independent and he polled 39 electoral votes in November. President Truman won with 303 to 189 for Republican Thomas E. Dewey, governor of New York.

Kefauver, former chairman of the Senate crime-busting committee, told a New York press conference yesterday he is "not running against Mr. Truman or anyone else but only on my own views."

"And I have great hopes of winning," the Senator said.

Kefauver said there "are many things that should be done both by the executive department and Congress to clean up corruption."

New Premier Favors Collective Security Based On U. N. Charter.

By ALBURN D. WEST

Cairo, Egypt, Jan. 30.—(AP)—An Egyptian foreign office spokesman indicated today that Egypt would join a Middle East defence command if her current dispute with Britain is solved to this country's satisfaction.

The spokesman said this was the "personal impression" of the new premier, Aly Maher Pasha:

"If the other parts of the Egyptian case are dealt with satisfactorily from the Egyptian viewpoint, Egypt would naturally consider such participation favorably."

"The principle of participation of Egypt in a defensive Middle East pact in the framework of the charter of the United Nations is part of the whole Egyptian case."

"The National Front (government) which is now under formation at the moment will have to decide Egypt's attitude toward this question, as well as toward all other aspects of the Egyptian case."

The new premier met with ambassadors of the four powers which last October proposed that Egypt join the west in a Middle East pact to defend the Suez canal.

Though the western embassies said the envoy's calls were only the courtesy visits usually made on a new government head, they came only a few hours after Maher Pasha told the London News Chronicle in an interview that "I am ready to discuss a Middle East command with the four powers."

The Premier talked first with United States ambassador Jefferson Caffery. Half an hour later he called in the French envoy.

Talks with the British and Turkish ambassadors were also on his schedule.

The original defence offer was turned down by the government of Premier Mustapha Nahas Pasha, who was ousted from office Sunday by King Farouk.

The round of talks came just one day after Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the British House of Commons he believed it possible to agree with Egypt on a settlement which "satisfies the legitimate national aspirations of the Egyptian people, and at the same time does not jeopardize the security of the free world."

Official sources in London said Britain is ready to make concessions to Egyptian nationalist feeling if the Cairo government is willing to co-operate with western defence plans.

Egypt cancelled two treaties with Britain in mid-October, seeking to take sole control of the jointly ruled Sudan and to get British troops out of the Suez canal zone. Bloody battles and riots followed those efforts.

At the time of the treaty cancellation, western observers in Cairo and London believed control of the Sudan was Egypt's chief aim and that the question of Suez defence was being used as a bargaining lever.

Answering Eden, the independent newspaper Al-Ahram asserted today that the "only possible solution" is for Britain to get out of the Suez and let Egypt have the Sudan "because it should now be clear that there will be no real freedom for the 'free world' so long as such unrest and tension prevail in Egypt."

Martial law still was in force but Cairo was quiet after its third night of military curfew. Soldiers patrolled key intersections along streets still piled with debris from fires set during Saturday's riots which cost at least 67 lives.

News Chronicle correspondent Bruce Rothwell in his interview published in London asked Maher Pasha: "Do you have any long range view on collective security in the Middle East?"

The Premier was quoted as replying:

"Yes. Since 1946 I have always pleaded for a regional organization inside the United Nations charter. I accept collective security on that basis. I am ready to discuss the Middle East command with the four powers. The question of a military base for this is the key factor. I am prepared for a full discussion of conditions. The important thing is that it should be on the basis of the United Nations charter."

Rothwell said the Premier also promised to protect all British residents of Egypt and called for a gesture of friendship from Britain.

Moscow, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Izvestia, organ of the Soviet government, asserted today that the United States had forced King Farouk to change Egypt's government, replacing Premier Mustapha Nahas Pasha by Aly Maher Pasha.

The Soviet paper said American ambassador Jefferson Caffery, in an interview with Farouk the day before Nahas Pasha was dismissed, ordered Farouk to appoint Aly Maher Pasha as Premier in his place.

Rift Widens Between Red China, Russia

By EDWARD E. BOMAR

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The State Department took note today of reports that communist China and Russia are drifting apart.

The department's official bulletin in a review of happenings behind the Iron Curtain during 1951 led off with this comment on China:

"In China, one of the countries where food production has fallen in spite of so-called 'land reform', mass executions, and the liquidation of landlords, year-end reports describe a growing coolness between Peking and Moscow."

The department did not enlarge on the point but said that in general "1951 proved to be an unhappy year behind the Iron Curtain."

"Month after month, and in country after country, the story has been the same," the summary said. "It is one of increasing dissatisfaction, unsuccessful repression, new purges, mass deportations, and other forms of communist frightfulness in the now familiar Soviet pattern."

In the free world, by contrast, 1951 has been a year of rising strength, rising hope, and rising production, combining to build new bulwarks against Soviet aggression and promote the cause of peace."

The country-by-country survey of developments in the Soviet bloc included a report that more than 15,000 private industrial, trade and handicraft enterprises in the Soviet zone of Germany went out of business during the last 12 months.

"Troubles also mounted in the Soviet Union itself. These reports, together with a rising tide of escapes and escape attempts as thousands of refugees left or tried to leave Russian territory, contributed additional detail to the story of Soviet troubles and human courage in resisting oppression."

NEW SETTLERS

Canberra, Australia, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—Immigration minister Harold Holt said today 63,000 British immigrants will be among the 150,000 new settlers Australia expects this year.

But, he told a citizenship convention here: "If there are people in Australia who are prepared to nominate British migrants and to provide accommodation, the only limit is that imposed by the amount of shipping to bring them all."

Holt, addressing a citizenship convention, said the immigration plan called for 25,000 assisted Dutch migrants, 15,000 to 20,000 assisted Italian migrants, 12,000 to 35,000 non-British migrants paying their own way.

Fire Takes Seven Lives

Valleyfield, Que., Jan. 30.—(CP)—Mrs. Olivia Tetrault and six of her eight children perished today when flames gutted their one-storey frame house and restaurant in the nearby community of St. Timothee.

The father and two other children escaped. St. Timothee is about four miles east of here and 30 miles west of Montreal.

Dead are Mrs. Tetrault, 30; daughters, Nicole, 8, and Lise, 6; and sons, Paul, 5, Guy, 4, Jacques, 3, and Robert, 2.

The Tetrault's 10-month-old daughter, Marie, was taken to hospital, with severe burns. Pierre Tetrault and a nine-year-old son, Pierre, escaped uninjured.

The house and restaurant were on the outskirts of St. Timothee, which is without a fire department. Flames broke out about 5 a.m. and were reported by police to have come from the heating system.

Elizabeth, Philip Leave Tomorrow For Australia

London, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—The two babies of the Royal family — Prince Charles and Princess Anne — today spent the last full day with their parents for the next six months.

Tomorrow at noon Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh leave by air on a Royal tour that will take them halfway across the world to pay the King's respects to 17,000,000 of his subjects.

The Prince and Duke find their constantly increasing public duties keep them away from their children more than they like. It is barely two months since they returned from a strenuous tour of Canada.

On the coming visit to Australia and New Zealand they will deputize for the King, who is unable to go because of ill health.

Today the young couple gave all their spare time to playing and talking with Prince Charles, 3, and Princess Anne, 17 months.

Tomorrow the children will go along to London airport with the rest of the Royal family to wave goodbye. A big crowd is expected at the airport, where the Royal couple will board the 40-seater converted Canadair North Star for the first stage of their trip to Nairobi, Kenya.

After a week's vacation in Kenya they board the 15,000-ton liner Gothic at Mombasa for Ceylon, then Australia and New Zealand.

While they are away the ring of the telephone will be eagerly awaited by Prince Charles and Princess Anne in London. For the Princess has had a special radio-telephone fitted in her cabin so that she can phone the children whenever she likes.

It is 24 years since Australia last had a formal Royal visit. The King and Queen made the trip in 1927 when they were Duke and Duchess of York.

Hanoi, Indo-China, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—Communist-led Vietnamese rebels in Tonkin have pounded the French Hoabinh garrison, about 335 miles southwest of Hanoi, with artillery and mortar fire for the last 24 hours, the French army said today.

The French air force bombed the rebel positions and French troops are maintaining intense patrol activity in the area.

The army also reported a violent clash with rebels between Phulungthung, 27 miles northeast of Hanoi, and Lucnam, 15 miles farther east. French guns and planes broke up the Vietminh attack.

International High-Grade Ring Active

Montreal, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The Herald said in a newspaper story today that high-grade gold carried from Canada into United States has produced a huge intercontinental theft ring, with European diamonds as exchange.

The story said U.S. treasury officers and Quebec Provincial Police are searching for the smugglers.

It added:

"The multi-million dollar racket, born out of constant thefts from Ontario and Quebec gold mines, was known to have been organized to a fine point where high-grade gold was no longer smuggled as is but sneaked to Europe via the United States to buy diamonds. The diamonds, in turn, are smuggled into the United States direct from Europe or via Canada with the money from their sale being returned to the ring of thieves in Montreal."

"Somewhere in Montreal, it was learned, are caches—some of them in safety deposit boxes—where high-grade gold, diamonds and cash make brief stop-overs during the theft ring's operations."

The Herald story said that on Jan. 19 a man identified as Israel Sussman, 39, was seized at Grand Central Station in New York on arrival from Montreal by train and four gold bars, worth a total of $20,000, were taken from him.

This, said the paper, followed by nine days the arrest of three persons in New York and the confiscation of $90,000 worth of gold and $45,000 in cash. The prisoners were identified as Jack and Eva Joseph and Frank Joseph, all of New York.

Assistant District Attorney Louis Kaplan was quoted as saying in New York that the gold bars seized appeared to be from the same mould and that the gold currently being watched for is believed to come from the Val d'Or, Que., and Timmins, Ont., mines.

Triplets Born At Thetford Mines

Thetford Mines, Jan. 30.—Triplets were born in this mining town on Sunday to Mrs. Emilienne Bourque, 21-year-old resident, whose husband is employed in the King mines. The children are all boys.

According to authorities at St. Joseph's Hospital, all babies and mother are doing well, in spite of the fact that the infants are premature and must be kept in an incubator for some time. They weigh respectively 3 pounds, 9 ounces, 4 pounds 3, and 4 pounds 12. Mr. and Mrs. Bourque also have another son, who is 9 months old.

Dr. C. Mercier delivered the babies, and although the young couple had hoped for a girl they are now more than happy with their three infant sons.

London, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill said today Britain has no "formal commitment" to join with the United States in any punitive action against China if a Korean truce is broken.

Further Austerity Awaits Britons; New Proposals Considered Just A Start

London, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—Judging from their editorial columns today most British newspapers appeared to have swallowed bravely—but not without flinching—the medicine Chancellor of the Exchequer R. A. Butler prescribed last night to cure Britain's economic ills.

Most predicted gloomily that Butler will probably give Britons another big dose of austerity in his budget in March.

The Times said economies Butler announced were in themselves not a sufficient remedy to get the financially-ailing country back on her feet.

"This is an unfinished story. It conspicuously leaves vital work for the budget to do."

The Liberal Manchester Guardian said "if disaster is to be averted, the budget will be our last chance."

The Daily Herald, organ of the Labor opposition, said "in employing extensive controls, he (Butler) follows not merely Labor's policy, but its methods."

"But the government must be strongly challenged on its new health service charges."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express urged Butler not to rest on his "chilly laurels," because he has "staved off bankruptcy by policies of repression."

"We should restore freedom as well as soundness—including the freedom of pound sterling."

London, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's government announced a program yesterday to cut down on Britain's food, tobacco, socialized medicine and many other things in a stern bid to stave off national bankruptcy.

R. A. Butler, chancellor of the exchequer, said western defences against communism would be endangered by failure of the big new campaign to "live within our means."

Butler announced in the House of Commons a cut of £150,000,000 a year in British buying in the United States and elsewhere abroad. A country already beset with shortages will have less of many things—meat, fish, automobiles, clothing, furniture, toys.

In a move intended to channel necessary manpower into defence projects, it was decided that non-essential industries will be forced to hire all labor through government employment agencies.

For the first time there will be small charges for medical prescriptions, dental treatment, wigs, hearing aids, surgical belts and hospital care formerly supplied patients without charge under the tax-supported national health service.

"Our life blood is draining away and we've got to stop it," Butler said in a talk over the BBC last night.

Parliament will vote on the plan today. Success will put the pound back on its feet by the end of 1952, Butler said.

Britain's drive is the central factor in an effort by the Commonwealth countries within the sterling bloc to make the pound pay its own way by the end of the year. The Commonwealth partners have promised to cut trade losses with the outside world and step up production of both raw and finished materials.

Highlights of Britain's new austerity plan:

1. The new cut in imports and a previous cut of £350,000,000 announced Nov. 7 will reduce luxury items in diet such as canned hams, meat and fish, canned fruits and vegetables, some fresh fruit and cakes. Consumers will get less clothing, furniture, carpets, toys.

2. To stimulate exports, the home market will get only 60,000 automobiles and 60,000 commercial vehicles, compared with 110,000 last year.

3. Sharper restrictions are placed on instalment buying of radio and television sets, electrical appliances and motorcycles.

4. The foreign spending allowance of British tourists is cut from £50 to £25.

5. Charges for medical prescriptions and fees for such things as surgical belts, hearing aids and wigs are expected to bring in about £7,500,000. This year's budget provided £398,000,000 to run the health service.

6. The number of government employees—who totalled 1,459,770 or 6.5 per cent of the countries civilian labor force in 1951—will be reduced by 10,000 in six months. Spending on public relations is to be cut by about £1,200,000 annually.

7. A sharp limit will be placed on the use of steel in building.

The goal of the whole effort is to halt runaway drainage of the gold and dollar reserves of the sterling area, for which Britain is the banker.

The reserves sank more than $1,500,000,000 in the last half of 1951. They now stand at $2,335,000,000.

"We have become the largest debtor country in the world, whereas for generations we had been the largest creditor," Butler said.

"We must pay our own way. This is the vital question and there can be only one answer—we must succeed."

London, Jan. 30.—(Reuters)—The Conservative government's sweeping economy cuts announced yesterday will push Aneurin Bevan nearer the leadership of the opposition Labor party, Labor politicians predicted today.

New followers, fearing collapse of the welfare state, are likely to rally around him the two-day House of Commons debate on the cuts.

Even trade union Members of Parliament, hostile to the left-wing Bevan group, were convinced today that the Welsh rebel will gain influence.

They said the trend became obvious at a meeting of Labor legislators last night, when Bevan insisted that they must oppose the government's proposals to make charges in the national health service—hitherto virtually free. The service is his creation, started when he was minister of health.

Moderate party leaders, including former Prime Minister Clement Attlee, and Hugh Gaittelle, former chancellor of the exchequer, called for caution. They admitted that if they were still in power they would have been forced to make economies just as harsh.

Result of the meeting is that the Labor opposition will attempt to censure the government for breaking election pledges and for attacking the social services.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Military observers here said last night Canada has no plans to send more troops to Korea and this already has been indicated by Defence Minister Claxton.

At Vancouver on his return from Japan, Lt.-Gen. Guy Simonds, chief of the Canadian general staff, said yesterday he had requests for more troops from the "usual sources" but had given these requests no encouragement.

It is believed here Gen. Simonds was referring to suggestions he may have heard from field commanders in the Far East that more Canadian troops would not be unwelcome. It was recalled that Defence Minister Claxton on his recent trip to Korea got such a suggestion from Gen. James Van Fleet, the United Nations commander in Korea.

US Admiral McCormick Is

North Atlantic Commander

Washington, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Admiral Lynde B. McCormick, commander of the United States Atlantic fleet, today was named supreme allied naval commander of the North Atlantic.

As the first boss of a peacetime international fleet, the 56-year-old navy veteran will direct the sea activities of all countries in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The appointment was announced simultaneously in Washington and London.

McCormick's operations will extend up to but will not include the coastal areas of the British Isles. As his first move after receiving the appointment, McCormick announced the selection of Vice-Admiral Sir William Andrewes of Britain, now commander-in-chief of the British-American West Indian station, as his deputy.

McCormick served with the British fleet in the first world war and took part in some of the conferences with Britain during the second world war.

The way was cleared for the appointment of an American as

JACOBY ON CANASTA

RULE BOOK CAN SETTLE PROBLEMS
By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"Please settle this argument," requests a Canadian reader. "Both sides needed 120 points to meld. The opponents had melded, but our side had not. The player at my right took the discard pile and discarded a seven."

"By this time my hand consisted of five sevens, five fours, and a deuce. I put down my entire hand, claiming that I could meld out concealed with the meld of five fours together with a mixed canasta of sevens."

"The opponents said I did not have my count of 120 points since the whole meld counted only 70 points, I replied that the count was waived when a player melded out concealed.

"The rest of the argument was just repetition. Nobody would budge an inch. Who was right?"

The opponents were right. You are not allowed to pick up the discard pile for the initial meld unless you can produce the minimum count.

The fact that no minimum count is needed for a concealed meld-out has no bearing on the matter. You can't meld out unless you meld, and you can't meld with the aid of the discard pile unless you can produce the minimum count.

The situation would be different if your partner had already melded. In that case you would not need a minimum count. Then you would be entitled to pick up the discarded seven and meld out with a concealed hand.

The situation would be different, likewise, if you draw from the stock and happened to draw a seven (or a five). You would then meld out your entire hand, and there would be no need to show a minimum count.

The only thing you can't do in this situation is to take the discard pile with less than the required count.

Q—I drew a king from the stock pile and wanted to add it to my closed canasta of kings. The opponents said I couldn't add to a closed canasta—even from my hand. Was this correct?

A—No. The official laws of the game permit you to add to a closed canasta. Some people prefer to follow their own rule in this situation. Nothing can be done about "house" rules.

All the rules of Canasta, plus Samba section, too. It's Jacoby's special booklet, THE NEW LAWS OF CANASTA. Send 15 cents with your name and address to Oswald Jacoby, Box 438, Times Sq. Sta., New York 18, N. Y.

HOLLYWOOD GOES TO THE DOGS AS STARS ADOPT 'POODLE EYES'

Hollywood—Exclusively Yours: Woofs! Now it's poodle eyes for dolls with poodle haircuts!

Hollywood belles are lining their eyes after the natural eye-rings of poodles and spaniels, by golly, and I suppose it'll spread like wildfire across the nation.

But poodle eyes, according to Bud Westmore, makeup overlord at U.I. aren't even kissing kin to the doe eyes fad that fizzled a few years back.

"That was grotesque and theatrical and it didn't attract men," Bud said. "Poodle eyes keep the attention on the eyes, the mirrors of the soul, and keep the poodle haircut from being the point of interest."

It's done with a brush, in light brown. The bottom line starts half way under the eyes, extends a quarter of an inch beyond the corner of the eye and is met by the top line which begins just above the lash line on the eyelids.

Current poodle-eyed shebas in Hollywood: Shelley Winters; Yvonne de Carlo, Ann Blyth, Faith Domergue and Piper Laurie. Lasse, come home!

Liz Taylor, who has been collecting $1500 a week from MGM, wants her Saturday paycheck to read $5000 if she signs a new contract. Her old contract expires in six months.

Nicky Arnstein, ex-husband of the late Fanny Brice, is on the verge of selling some of his racket experiences to TV's "Racket Squad."

It's very confidential but Gloria Swanson's agent has been consulting with Producer Z. Wayne Griffin on a deal that will bring Gloria back to Hollywood to star in "The Iron Butterfly."

Will Spike Jones' World War II musical block buster, "Der Fuehrer's Face," have a sequel lampooning Stalin?

The song's already written under the title of "Uncle Joe," Spike told me, but he's keeping it on the shelf "until there's something more definite." The way he put it: "We're trying to get a true in Korea. The time just isn't ripe. But I'm ready."

Direct Budd Boetticher is asking his U.I. bosses to buy "Red Reef," a story about Communist infiltration into Hawaii, as his next film. It's by Charles Lang, who's married to former film star Helen Parrish.

The Philip Dorris made headlines in Munich when an MP threatened to lock them up as suspected spies. They'd left their passports in a hotel safe.

Laraine Day's book, "Day With the Giants," will be on the bookstands in mid-April. All about what it's like to be married to a baseball team. . . Fred Astaire's mulling the idea of a western dance? . . . Frankie Laine's throat trouble cost him $35,000 in bookings during his six-week layoff. . . Bill Henry's back in town to resume his film career, putting an end to those "nervous breakdown" rumors.

Pity The Poor Studio
A Fan-Magazine editor who asked a top star for permission to do a photographic layout on her home was told:

"If you pay the bill for disconnecting my three TV sets and hiding them. The studio doesn't want any TV sets to be shown in pictures of my home."

Burt Lancaster and Director Stuart Heisler are discussing plans for a movie to be filmed in Jamaica. He just finished one there with Linda Darnell.

Producer Sol Lesser's description of the girl he wants to find for "Cave Girl," story of a prehistoric glamazon:

"An athletic beauty who can swim like a fish, run like a deer, fight like a tiger, climb like a monkey and hug like a bear."

Acting, obviously, will be incidental.

Writer John Lucas says he met an Eskimo character at a party— an Eskimo tycoon. The guy runs a big chain of parka lots in Alaska.

If you're seeing the old Carole Landis-John, Hubbard movie, "Turnabout," on your TV set, no, the actress who plays a bit role as the maid, she's Yolande Donlan, the American girl who went to London and became a big star after finishing "Mr. Drake's Duck" for Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Church Holds Annual Meeting

Maple Grove, Jan. 30. — The annual vestry meeting of Holy Trinity Church was held at the Parish Hall, recently with a fair attendance.

Magog Kiwanians Urged To Help Build Up Community, Character

Magog, Jan. 30. — Roland Dion, local merchant and president of Magog's Junior Chamber of Commerce, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening.

He described the Magog Kiwanis Club as a credit to the city and complimented the members for their work with the underprivileged children in the community.

Pointing out that the various service clubs represent a large percentage of the citizens, he said that the combined efforts of the members can help to build the community and mould the city's moral character.

They can guide the public in voting, both for municipal and government representatives, can lead them spiritually and help them in city promotion, in maintaining and erecting municipal buildings, schools and hospitals.

He deplored the fact, however, that the various public groups have not as yet bound their efforts close enough together. "There is as yet no desire for perfection in Magog," he stated, adding, however, that the Junior Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to start this movement.

"There is lack of push," he said, "and not enough competitive functions. The people of this city need to get away from their selfish attitude."

He urged greater co-operation between merchants, industries, organizations, service clubs and individuals working together for a closer knit city.

To build trade in a community it does not take ingenious people, he pointed out, but wide awake ones, ambitious, aggressive business men with the foresight for proper promotion.

Mr. Dion also explained the activities and aims of the Chamber of Commerce in the development of the city and mentioned Magog as a prospective tourist centre.

Unfortunately, he said, the community's natural gifts have been wasted up to now. The city is not doing for having "imbeciles" as city directors. They're only good for complaining and unwarranted movements.

Mr. Dion was thanked by Charles Messara, treasurer of the club.

President Maurice Levesque was in the chair for the meeting and also added his personal thanks to Mr. Dion. It was announced that the Kiwanians have been invited to attend the Magog Lions Club meeting at the Chateau du Lac Hotel on Wednesday, February 13.

Kiwanian Messara, because of the pressure of business, asked to be relieved of his position as treasurer. He was replaced by Paul Lariviere.

35 Horses Are Burned Near Granby

Granby, Que., Jan. 30. — Thirty-five horses were burned to death last night in a fire that levelled the barn of Omer Desland near this Eastern Township centre.

Trojan Cow (It Was Made Of Wood) Used In Farm Forum Demonstration

By GLEN BROWN
Known to the dairy farmer as the wooden cow was the guest of honor at the mid-season rally of the district of Brome Farm Forums held here.

Complete with udder, colored arteries, modern milking equipment and accompanied by an extension dairy expert from Vermont state, Susie did everything that a normal cow can do, and a couple of things more.

Dick Dodge, veteran of 20 years' service in the dairy department of the state of Vermont, attended Susie and worked up a comical and also instructive skit based on good milking methods, and the evils of mastitis in regards the average farmer's herd.

First he had Doc Durrell give him pointers on the cause and effect of this bovine disease. The veterinary described in detail just how the cow produces milk down to the point of where the cow releases a hormone from the head to expedite the flow of milk at milking time. The Doctor went on to point out that the greater the production the more high strung that particular animal is, and the more easily contagion can creep in if the animal is off balance from normal surroundings.

Then Don Hastings from Sutton depicted the creamery super who has caught the sign of the theoretical disease in the cow's milk. He also emphasized the harm that one batch of milk can do to a day's production.

Next in line was W. J. MacDougall from Lennoxville who supplied facts and figures from the Experimental Farm point of view. Then Mr. Young, of Mansonville, presented all the points of new modern machinery from the portable unit with the milk cup, rinsing pail, disinfecting rail, and paper towels, to the latest in test cups. Following this, Mr. Dodge, with Bob Miller as his assistant, showed the audience of some 200 how to ruin a herd by doing all the "must not do's" to poor Susie. It must have been a trying evening for even a wooden cow.

Forum members crowded the Knowlton High School gym for the demonstration that turned out to be the best thing they have seen here in the history of that organization.

Some of those who attended were James Davidson, Quebec secretary of Farm Forums, Keith Bradley, local spark plug of Farm Forum work, Stan Hardacker, agriculture teacher for K.H.S., Claude Whiteher, Brome chairman, and his vice-chairman, Grayson Cousens, Mr. Rouleau feed co-op from Waterloo, Gordon and Fred Shufelt, Marg Hardacker, Brome secretary. All in all it was a big night for the farmers and a few more meetings like that would certainly help any Farm Forum district.

Lou Pieri Resigns As Governor Of League

Providence, R.I., Jan. 30.—(P)—Lou Pieri, owner of Providence Reds, announced last night that he has resigned as a member of the Board of Governors of the American Hockey League and as president of the club.

Pieri said he quit because the Governors rejected his protest of a decision made by League President Maurice Podoloff in the "two-puck" incident which cost Providence a 4-3 decision in Buffalo Jan. 3.

The Governors, sitting in an appeal court in Hershey, Pa., yesterday, upheld Podoloff 4 to 1.

Pieri, who has operated the Providence team since the 1938-1939 season, said that Richard F. Canning, Providence lawyer and secretary of the R. I. Auditorium, Inc., would serve as the club's official representative in league matters.

The protest hinged on a goal scored by Ray Powell of the Reds during the second period of the Buffalo game. Referee Walton Russell disallowed the tally because there were two pucks on the ice at the time.

East Angus Man Injured

Esdras Groleau, 34, of East Angus, is in a critical condition in the Montreal Neurological Hospital today suffering from injuries received when he was hit on the head by a flying piece of steel yesterday.

The victim was repairing a tire in Hamel's Garage in East Angus and it is believed that a piece of steel he was using sprung from the tire and struck him on the head. He was brought to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital here by Monette's Ambulance. He was suffering from a fractured skull.

Last night the victim was transferred to the Montreal Hospital and his condition is very critical.

Joseph Leblanc, 77, of Sherbrooke, suffered a stroke on the street yesterday and was taken by Monette's Ambulance to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital. He was semi-conscious and partially paralyzed. His condition is serious.

FINDS SCORING EYE

Max Bentley, the Dipsy-Doodle Dandy of the Toronto Maple Leafs, found his scoring eye recently and as a result has flashed light seven times in his last five games. Oddly enough, four of these seven goals were scored against the Boston Bruins. Max tallied twice against the Bruins on December 22, did the same thing the following night, and again on December 29 he scored a brace against the Beantowners. He scored once against the New York Rangers on December 30.

PLAYING GREAT HOCKEY

Dave Creighton, 21-year-old center of the Boston Bruins, has been playing great hockey for the Beantowners since Coach Lynn Patrick brought him up from Hershey at the end of November. Creighton is currently centering a line with Johnny Peterson on right wing and rookie Jack McIntyre on left wing which is the Bruins Number One unit at the moment. Dave picked up 18 points in 17 straight games up to the morning of January 13.

SEVERAL KINDS OF HEART DISEASE MAY BE TREATED BY SURGERY

There are several kinds of heart disease for which in the past little could be done, but which now can be treated effectively in many instances by the use of delicate heart surgery.

Even with the progress in this field of recent years, the end has not yet been reached since investigators are still finding new methods by which they can extend the benefits of heart surgery to more and more people.

One of the most important developments of heart surgery has been that used in the treatment of so-called "blue babies," or infants born with congenital heart disease. The bluish color of the skin which gives the common name is caused by lack of oxygen attached to the hemoglobin or coloring matter of the blood.

In blue babies the deficiency of oxygen is the result of a malformed heart or of the large blood vessels near it. Such defective structures permit the blood from the veins which contain only a little oxygen to mix with the blood from the arteries.

Malformations Vary
There are several kinds of malformations of the heart which will permit this mixing of oxygen-containing and non-oxygen-containing blood. The various kinds are too numerous and too complicated to describe in detail.

They carry such technical names as coarctation of the aorta, tetralogy of Fallot and pulmonary stenosis with intact ventricular septum. But it does make a difference to the patient because some kinds can now be successfully treated by surgery and others cannot.

In one of these conditions the United Church Annual Meeting At Cowansville

Cowansville, Jan. 30. — The annual meeting of the Emmanuel United Church, Cowansville-Dunham Pastoral Charge, was held this evening in the church parlors with the usual interested group in attendance to deliver reports from the various church organizations, and to elect officers for the current year. The meeting was under the direction of Rev. Gerald J. Fee, minister of the charge, and Mr. Douglas Smith acted as secretary of the meeting.

After opening the meeting with a short devotional, the chairman called for reports from all the church societies, and boards. As in past years, it was noticeable that the ladies of the church, through their fund raising activities, are the main stay of the Board of Stewards whose annual budget in balanced principally through their interest, and efforts in the affairs of the church.

Mr. W. D. Smith's report for the Board of Trustees, a board entrusted with the maintenance of the church properties, showed a number of improvements made to the parsonage such as decorating, new electric wiring, new furnace, and new furniture installed. This report was well received. In reporting for the Board of Stewards, Mr. L. S. Henderson stated that all accounts had been paid, all quotas met, and a substantial bank balance carried forward. It was particularly noted in this report that the pledge to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the church had not only been met, but had been comfortable over subscribed.

The replacement of retiring officers was met by the re-election of Messrs. W. D. Smith, Guy Cousens and Murray Mason to the Board of Elders, and Messrs. W. D. Smith, H. A. Drennan, L. S. Henderson, R. F. Stockwell and Clarence Hamilton to the Board of Stewards. However the resignation of Mr. L. Cousens from the Board of Stewards was accepted with regret and he was replaced by Mr. Arne Greyhorn.

After having given 14 years of service as treasurer of the church, Mr. L. S. Henderson announced his retirement, which he stated was at his own request. He further stated that Mr. Clarence Hamilton had been appointed to replace him and asked the ladies, in particular, to show Mr. Hamilton the same kind consideration as he had received from them in the past as their continued help and interest greatly reduces the work of the treasurer.

After having expressed considerable optimism concerning the work of the church, Mr. Fee adjourned the meeting.

INVERNESS

Messrs. Raymond Leith, of Dublin Range, and Claude Sevelang, Millville, motored to Ayer's Cliff. The former was an overnight guest at the home of his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henderson, in Ayer's Cliff.

Mr. Fred Landry motored to Quebec and was accompanied by his wife from the Hotel Dieu Hospital.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Little were their son, Tommy Little, and Freddie Abrahams, of Henderson Vale, and Mr. Albert Little and Mrs. Joseph Wright from here.

Mrs. William Lowery was an evening guest of Mrs. D. A. Appleton.

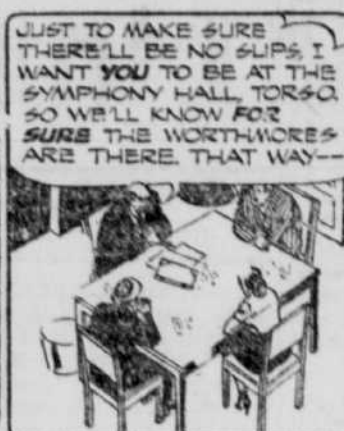

The Anglican services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cruickshank, by the Rev. J. A. Secord.

Rev. J. E. Johnston is holding his services in his home every Sunday.

Mr. Norman Currier spent an evening visiting Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Secord and son at the parsonage.

Mr. James Appleton, of Millville, went to Quebec to visit his brother, Mr. D. A. Appleton, in the Jeffery Hale Hospital. All are pleased here that he is improving in health.

MARRIAGES

GOULET — GREENLAND

The marriage of Mary Ann Bernadette, daughter of Major and Mrs. L. W. Greenland, of Sherbrooke, and Mr. Joseph George Goulet, of Island Pond, Vt., took place on Saturday morning, January 26, at nine o'clock, in St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father J. R. Moisan officiating. The wedding music was played by Mrs. M. C. Shea, who accompanied Mr. Marcel Dufresne, soloist, who sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and "Ave Verum." Baby mums and tulips were used to decorate.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length frock of blue lace over tulle, a fingertip-length veil, which was held by a Juliet cap trimmed with white hydrangeas and red roses, and matching accessories and she carried a spray bouquet of red roses and white hydrangeas.

Mr. Paul Goulet was best man for his bride. Mrs. Greenland, mother of the bride, was in an afternoon dress of aqua French crepe with which she wore a black hat and accessories and a corsage of red roses. The reception was held in the Mayfair room of the New Sherbrooke, where the bride's table was decorated with white and yellow mums and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

For the wedding trip to Montreal, Pontiac, and Detroit, Mich., the bride wore a bottle green velvet dress under a short muskrat coat, and a matching velvet hat trimmed with pink roses. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dion, of Coaticook; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moffatt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Palmer, Mrs. Roger Dumain, Mrs. Leonard Dumain, Mrs. Nellie Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Goulet, Mrs. William Goulet, Mr. Charles Goulet, Mr. Yvel Cargill, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moultroupe, Island Pond, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. S. money was collected and plans were made for the sending of this box of hospital supplies to India. The topic, which consisted of a very interesting article regarding Indian statistics, was read by the president. The meeting was closed by the repeating of the Mizpah benediction in unison. Refreshments were served in the dining-room, the hostess being assisted by Miss Leaman and Mrs. K. Mills.

Saint Andrew's Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Frontenac Street, on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Arthur Jones and Mrs. Harold Gilbert were hostesses. DOROTHY DIX

Midnight Movies

This Entertainment Out Of Question For 13-Year-Old

By DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I would like to know as to whether, or not you think the midnight shows are all right for 13-year-olds to attend. My 13-year-old daughter has friends her age constantly calling and wanting her to go to the midnight show. She thinks we are old-fashioned because we do not approve of girls this age being up at that time of night, especially at a show. Early shows, ice-skating and a party now and then are all right, as we realize children of this age are restless, but the midnight show problem we are against.

MRS. R. M.

ANSWER: You have my whole-hearted concurrence with your attitude. Thirteen-year-olds are much too young to be permitted such late hours as are involved in attendance at a midnight show. Your fairness in allowing your daughter the privileges she does enjoy should convince her that you aren't just trying to deprive her of pleasure. The trouble, of course, stems from the friends whose parents are so indifferent to their youngsters' welfare that they exercise no control whatever over late dates, or too frequent outings. As a consequence, the parent who does show concern over a child's recreation is branded with the epithet of "old fashioned," than which there seems to be no worse accusation, in modern terms.

Stick to your guns, Mrs. R. M. You're doing a fine job striking a balance between overstrictness and laxity. Try to get more parents on your side.

TAKE IT AS A JOKE!

DEAR MISS DIX: My daughter and her father took a cab down town this morning. My husband gets out first as his place of business is nearer our home. When he came home he said, "I went downtown with Mabel this morning and she paid the fare." To which my daughter replied, "I wouldn't be so proud of that, it makes you a gigolo."

Now, she earns almost as much as her father and could pay a cab fare without any comment. After all, for 22 years before she earned her own salary, her father supported her.

SARAH L.

ANSWER: Have you considered the possibility that your daughter's remark may have been spoken in jest? It doesn't sound seriously intended to me. Of course she should be willing—in fact eager—to spend this small amount of money on her father, and I hope you are misjudging her generosity by assuming that she isn't. Most wage-earning youngsters take considerable pride in being able to do something for mom and dad; I'm sure your daughter is no exception.

DEAR MISS DIX: If a woman marries after she's 30, what do you think of her raising a family that late in life?

ROSETTA

ANSWER: Thirty really isn't as late in life as you intimate. Many, many women begin and raise very successful and happy families in their thirties. While it is nice to have an earlier start, largely for psychological reasons, to be past 30 should not be considered an insuperable barrier to family life. A physician can give sound advice on a woman's physical fitness for the undertaking, and she should then surrender all qualms.

DEAR MISS DIX: When you love someone dearly yet do not like things about him, do you think that could cause mental confusion?

MISS A

ANSWER: It could, especially if one confuses easily. Ordinarily we don't seek absolute perfection in loved ones, but can accept minor faults and frailties with indulgent mind. If such faults exist in your beloved, and you find yourself resenting them too deeply, you have cause for concern.

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a good singer and love to sing with our church choir. When I mention this to my husband he seems to get angry with me. He says he likes to hear me sing but doesn't approve of my helping out in the choir. Is this jealousy or is he plain stubborn?

BLANCHE

ANSWER: Surely there can be no greater show of appreciation for a fine voice than to raise it in the honor and glory of God! Since he gave you this gift, it is only fitting that it should be used occasionally in His house. Your husband is most unreasonable in not accepting this premise.

Perhaps he is jealous of your fellow choristers, particularly if they are men. Perhaps he is a possessive person who doesn't like to share his belongings. Most men would be proud of a wife who could sing, and who shared her talent with others. Your minister might be able to persuade him to change his mind.

Annual Meeting Of C. C. Vestry At Clapham

Clapham, Jan. 30. — The annual vestry meeting of Christ Church was held in the church recently with the rector, R. A. V. McLaren, in the chair and Miss A. P. Johnson acting as Vestry Clerk.

The meeting was opened with prayers by the Rector. The minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted. Mr. J. Canning, the People's Warden, presented the general, special and budget accounts. Rev. McLaren offered to try and decrease the budget account, as there are only 21 families belonging to the church here. However it was decided to try and raise it this year. Mr. W. Christie presented the Stipend, Building up-keep and Cemetery accounts which were paid into Stipend account, $1,512.12; building up-keep account, $165.25; cemetery account, receipts for year $527.05.

Rev. McLaren read the Sunday School and Ladies' Guild reports. Ladies Guild for 1951, $749.13—balance $545.72. Mr. K. Kelso moved that all financial statements be accepted as read and Mr. H. Little seconded it.

All officers were re-elected, namely Mr. A. W. Christie, Rector's Warden; Mr. J. Canning, People's Warden; Mrs. K. Kelso, Sexton; Mr. H. Little, caretaker of Cemetery; Cemetery committee, Rector, Wardens, Messrs. G. T. Little, C. O. Ward, H. Marshall and W. Porter. Mr. Christie asked for any suggestions for improvement of the cemetery as there was a substantial balance on hand. The Vestry suggested the improvement of grass and the possibility of an asphalt road.

Rev. McLaren tendered a special vote of thanks to the Wardens, the Organist, Mrs. H. Little, and the Ladies' Guild for their excellent work during the past year. It was moved by Mr. H. Little and seconded by Mr. J. Canning that a vote of thanks be extended to the Rev. A. V. and Mrs. McLaren, Organist, Auditors, S.S. Teachers, Sexton, Ladies' Guild, Sidesmen and Cemetery committee.

Benediction was pronounced by the Rector, bringing the meeting to a close.

Friendly Evening Club Meets At Milby

Milby, Jan. 30. — The January meeting of the Friendly Evening Club took place at the home of Dora Allcorn, Milby, with Caroline Dier and Anna Tang as hostesses.

Thoughts for the New Year on the meaning of the club's slogan, Friendship, Companionship and Informality, were read by the chairman and enthusiastically discussed by the members. It was decided that using only Christian names had already brought members closer together.

Membership is increasing and the club welcomed a new member, Jean Sutor, of Milby, also a visitor, Mrs. E. Harrison, of Huntingville.

Last month's project, looking after the entertainment of the Christmas tree at Milby was well carried out. Two sunshine boxes were sent out to sick children of the community. Kay Allen was appointed to look after sick and shut-ins.

Next month's project was decided and discussed. The meeting will be held at the home of Helen Lowry, of Milby.

A hilarious game of smelling and tasting was then played. Thirty different household powders, spices, etc., all used for cooking or cleaning or other uses, were put on cards, to be identified by taste or smell. Some terrific expressions of faces were witnessed when the contestants tasted soap powder, ammonia, aspirin, etc. The first prize was won by Ethel Smythe, with Olive Nutbrown winning second.

A lively sing-song was then enjoyed by all with a belated exchange of Christmas presents, carried over from the Church meeting, which a heavy snowstorm prevented the club from having.

Delicious refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake were served by the hostesses bringing another pleasant evening to a close promptly at 10.30, the agreed early hour.

GOULD STATION

Pte. Sydney Rodgers, of Camp Borden, Ont., spent the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Rodgers.

First Canadian Baby Gets Floral Welcome

Stamford, Rutland. — When a Canadian baby was born in the local hospital, town officials made such a fuss the father hardly had a look-in.

Attendants brought boxes of flowers, with Stamford's compliments, and the mayor himself paid a visit on mother and child.

Wing Cmdr. T. H. Spear, chief administrative officer of the R.C.A.F. base at nearby North Luffenham, was the proud father—but said there were so many flowers around he didn't send any himself.

The baby, which weighed slightly over seven pounds on arrival Dec. 9, is the first born here to personnel of the R.C.A.F.'s No. 1 fighter wing stationed at North Luffenham. There now are more than 500 airmen at the station, most of them with families.

Mother of the first Canadian baby is the former Joyce Constance of Toronto. There are two other children, Joanne 5, and Judith, two and a half.

Gum Wrapper Ring

BY IDA M. PARDUE

A SHINY play ring can be made with a tinfoil gum wrapper.

All you will need is a pair of scissors—with some colored polish for adding gems to the ring band.

Take the stick of gum out of the tinfoil. Crease the same folds as ready in the foil wrapper, and then fold the foil in half once the long way.

With scissors, snip a V in one end of the folded foil.

Open the folds at the other end enough so the pointed tip can be slipped inside. Now try the band on a finger, for size. If it is too large, pull the ring apart and cut a piece off the straight end.

When the band is the size you want it, press the spot where the ends meet with your fingers. If you have trouble getting it to hold, seal the seam with a bit of Scotch tape.

Now add some jewels with colored nail polish. You can dab on a large red ruby, or stud the band all the way around with small stones.

Commonwealth Aid Seen In British Migration

Toronto. — James Meldrum says the British Commonwealth would be stronger if much of the United Kingdom's 50,000,000 population would migrate to other Commonwealth countries. He is in Canada to "sound out the reaction to such a plan."

Mr. Meldrum is assistant vice-chairman of the Migration Council, a voluntary group established about two years ago. The council, he said here, is trying to inspire migration which would "relieve the over-crowded condition in Britain, develop the sparsely-populated Commonwealth countries and strengthen the group as a whole."

Mr. Meldrum, who gave up a diplomatic career to join the Council, is visiting major centres in Canada, talking with leading bank, university, industrial and government officials.

"In the utilization of Commonwealth industry and population," he said, "is a serious problem in peace and wartime."

A council booklet says the material and agricultural resources and the industrial potential of the Commonwealth far exceed those of either the United States or Russia. However, the booklet adds, "it fails to be the most powerful because while on small part of it is overcrowded and industrialized, the vastness of the rest is thinly peopled and pathetically underdeveloped."

The work of the council is still in the talking stage.

The council includes influential men representative of man, political and industrial forces in Britain. Air Commodore Sir Frank Whittle, inventor of the jet engine, is chairman. Lord Beaverbrook, Canadian-born newspaper publisher, is an honorary vice-president.

Mr. Meldrum, veteran of diplomatic corps service in South Africa and India, joined the M.C. because "it expressed what should be done for the Commonwealth better than any political party."

He noted that the six European-settled Commonwealth countries, with an area of 7,572,000 square miles, are populated by 74,000,000 persons, with about 50,000,000 of them located on the 94,000 square miles of the United Kingdom.

In time of war, the concentration of people and industry in this most vulnerable corner could be

Edmonton Actress Of Stage, Films Now British Star

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London. — The New Year has a problem for dark-haired, Edmonton-born Dianne Foster, 23-year-old wife of Toronto's Andrew Allan, drama supervisor for the CBC.

Dianne, who's been married for just six months—and says "I've never been happier in my life"—faces the prospect of having to stay in London while husband Andrew returns to Canada for radio commitments.

Dianne, a dark-eyed, five-foot-two Canadian, came to London in July, 1950, on holiday after two years in radio in Toronto. As with many another Canadian entertainer, the holiday soon turned into a business proposition. Now Dianne has a five-year contract with a British film company and has just finished her second stage appearance.

Her first dramatic role in London started last February in "The Hollow," a thriller, "The Hollow." She played Veronica Gray, a middle-aged blonde actress and one of the principal suspects in a murder case.

For this, Dianne went blonde and "looked such a mess," she crept out daily in a huge fur cap that obscured her hair from view.

Her next part was dark-haired Bianca in Orson Welles' "Othello" at St. James's Theatre, which came off just before Christmas. This was the greatest thrill of Dianne's career in London. One of her aims in coming here was to study voice control, and she says it's a lesson in itself to listen to Welles.

She got the part of Bianca after appearing with Welles on Radio Luxembourg in "The Lives of Harry Lime," the character from "The Third Man" film.

Dianne has also made one film "Quiet Woman," starring Derek Bond and Jane Hylton. Now she is at work on "Lost Hours" with Jean Kent and Montreal's Mark Stevens, playing the part of a loose-living red-head while Jean, who generally takes this type of part, wears the halo.

Dianne is already committed for a third film. This means she will be unable to return to Canada with her husband when his six months' leave from the CBC ends in March. At present Allan is working with the BBC as a temporary producer in the features department.

Books Are Fun TV Puppet Show Tells Children

By ADELAIDE KERR
New York. — Television teamed with puppetry "can be a terrific educational medium," said Bill Baird, one of the most famous producers of puppet shows in the United States.

Baird and his wife have brought their ideas to life in a children's puppet show with an educational slant, emphasizing the delights to be found in books. It's a Saturday morning offering on Columbia networks.

"We feel our puppets should be used for education," Baird said. "The program begins and ends with a book. One character is getting word conscious now and studying the dictionary."

As each program begins, Flannel Mouse, with the big ears, opens a huge book and reads to Charlemagne, the lion with the flowing mane. As he reads, the listener drifts into the land of beyond, where lives the lovable wizard, who always uses his magic for good. He meets J.P., the boy who believes in gnomes and elves; Heathcliff, his horse pal, and various other characters.

As the program ends, Flannel Mouse regrettably closes the book until the next week; but he points out to Charlemagne that the library is full of other enchanting books, well worth a look between times.

There are other instructional ideas woven into the story, says Baird. "For instance, when the wizard needs a boat, he doesn't just say 'abracadabra, and presto!' It's there. His elves have to build the boat; and the wizard explains to J.P. 'Magic is like anything else—you have to work at it.'"

The Bairds, whose puppetry has charmed Broadway audiences and Chicago World's Fair crowds, are no novices at using their medium for instructional purposes. They have produced several instructional movies for big industries.

In the Whistling Wizard, their plans are further developed to include showing how mountains and rivers are created, why there are ocean currents and different colored waters in the sea; and interesting facts about fish, sea horses and crabs.

Although the program is only a few weeks old, its aim of provoking intellectual activity in children already has born fruit. The Baird's fan mail is full of such questions as: "Why did the boat sink?" "How would the wizard breathe under water?" "Why does a horseshoe magnet repel instead of attract?"

When the children visit backstage after a show they treat the puppets as though they were living characters with no dependency on their operators.

PAUL DUCHESNE STARS AS LOCALS DROP TILT TO WATERLOO

Turns In Outstanding Performance As Maroons Hold Big Edge In Tilt; Visitors Display Too Much Power

Perhaps the sub-zero weather had a lot to do with the display that Ab Norris' Maroons put on last night at the local arena when they downed the Sherbrooke Intermediates 4-2 in one of the fastest and best passing games since on local freeze for quite some time.

The win enabled the Maroons to remain on the heels of the pace-setting Tigers of Victoriaville who had a field-day at the expense of the retiring Richmond Phantoms when they registered 15-4 in a one-sided affair. It was Phantoms' farewell appearance in Eugene Lalonde's circuit and from the looks of things it may be just as well.

The Maroons' passing plays were just too much for the local crew and if it hadn't been for the work of Paul Duchesne in the nets the score would have been more than doubled. Duchesne was forced to extend himself from the opening whistle but the little netminder turned in one of his best performances. At times he seemed to be standing by himself as his mates were unable to fathom the Waterloo passing plays.

Time after time he was called upon to stop two and three in a row but in the final frame he had five and six to contend with. Despite all of the big edge the Maroons had they could only get four goals by him.

In the opening frame they blasted a total of fourteen shots at the local net custodian compared to four at Belanger. The middle frame saw the pressure drop a little to thirteen with five on the Waterloo goalie but in the final stanza the Maroons just tossed an avalanche of rubber at Duchesne as they fired a grand total of nineteen with Belanger only being called upon to handle five.

Guy Dussault put the locals out in front in the opening frame when he accepted a long pass from Ginguets. The pass was partially blocked by Coquette but when the disc rolled by him the local winger picked it up and went in to beat Belanger with a high raising shot to the right side of the meshings.

In the middle session the Maroons commenced to apply a little more pressure as the boys were skating wide open and their plays were clicking in fine style. Frank Morneau snared a loose disc in centre ice and breaking in on Jacques Dussault, whom he almost faked out of the rink, he swerved around him to pull the trigger from close range.

This goal seemed to give extra pep to the Maroons, although they didn't need any more, and from then on it was a real wide open affair. Fausse came up with another nice play to break the deadlock and tally what proved to be

Windsor Ends Season In First Place; Miss Watt Wins Scoring Leadership

Windsor Rockettes last night defeated the Radar team, 36-24, to take first place in the final game of the Ladies' E.T. Basketball League, played at the Y.W.C.A.

Hilary Watt, Windsor center player, racked up 17 points to win the League's scoring championship in handy fashion. Miss Watt went into the game leading Radar's May Fontaine by six points. Before she was banished in the third quarter, after five fouls, Miss Fontaine scored six to lead the R.C.A.F. crew in the game.

Other scorers for Windsor were Denise Allard 8, Jean Westgate 5, Carmen Allard 4, Jean Raymond and Barbara Ross with one each. Windsor finished in first with a 5-3 record, Bishop's in second with 4-4 and Radar in third with 3-5.

A special meeting of the League is being held at the Y.W.C.A. at eight o'clock tonight and representatives of all three teams are asked to be on hand for discussion of the playoffs.

All three teams are to play in the post season games to determine the Townships' representative in the Provincial playdowns.

Jersey Joe To Confer About Proposed Bout

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—(P)—Jersey Joe Walcott's manager said last night he and the heavyweight champion will confer with "an actor's agent" in Washington today about a $250,000 offer to defend his title against Harry (Kid) Matthews.

Felix Bocchichio, Walcott's manager, made the statement as he and the champion stopped here en route to a personal appearance engagement at Lewiston, Pa., last night.

"If the others about the Matthews fight live up to promises I'll go west," Bocchichio said.

Bocchichio told reporters the offer was made by an actress and would carry additional fees for television rights for the match. Matthews, a west coast boxer, is rated as one of the top light-heavyweight title contenders.

However, his manager Jack Hurley, has said Matthews is willing to campaign as a heavy-weight.

B.C.S. Ekes Out 4-1 Win Over East Angus

Bishop's College School juveniles chalked up another victory last night when they downed an East Angus aggregation 4-1 in a wide open tilt played in Lennoxville.

The game was very fast and only a total of five penalties were handed out, with four coming in the final frame. The visitors were the first to tally as Martel finished off a play with Reid but Rankin tallied his first marker of the evening to even the count.

The middle session saw Bishop's move to the fore as Bradley Mitchell broke the tie when he and Meagher got away on a passing play just forty seconds after the start of the frame. Rankin then gave the School the insurance tally when he scored unassisted.

Meagher came up with another quick goal in the opening seconds of the final period when he pulled the trigger to finish off a passing play with Porter. Ponton drew three penalties for Angus in this frame while Porter was given the lone Bishop's penalty.

Hershey Bears Extend Lead With 2-1 Victory

Hershey Bears moved further ahead in the American Hockey League's eastern division Tuesday night, downing St. Louis Flyers 2-1.

Hershey now has 55 points and the second-place Providence Reds 47.

In the only other game played, Cincinnati Mohawks blanked Buffalo Bisons 4-0 to take over third place in the league's western section.

At Cincinnati, goalie Emile (The Cat) Francis scored his fourth shutout of the season.

Leftwinger Nick Mickowski, farmed out by New York Rangers, wheeled and sank a backhandler to score the Mohawks' first counter at 5:15 of the first period and defender Ivan Irwin made it 2-0 at 13:02 when he clocked on a 50-foot screen shot.

Fred Brown and Ed Harrison scored the other Cincinnati goals in the third period.

At Hershey, Sam Bettio scored midway in the first period to give the Bears an early lead.

Bert Keeler's Sherbrooke entry came through with a 5-3 win over Cliff Allen and his Windsor foursome while A. Booth of Drummondville downed Earl Rice's home squad 6-4 and Gerry McManamy and his Lennoxville rink eked out an 8-6 victory over C. Hamel's Windsor quartet.

Bill Ezinicki Exodus Fails To Hamper Bruins' Scoring Punch As They Dump League-Leading Wings

Boston Bruins may have sold off Bashing Bill Ezinicki, but the return of the hard-hitting forward to Toronto doesn't seem to have cramped the beanthrowers' scoring punch.

Last night, the Bruins gave a sparse Boston crowd of 5,339 something to cheer about as they came through with a convincing 3-1 National Hockey League victory over the first-place Detroit Red Wings. It was Boston's first win over the league leaders this season and moved them into a fourth place deadlock with the New York Rangers.

Ezzie's exodus may have added spirit to the Bruins camp as well as money to the front office.

Larry Patriarca led all the way in earning their 3-1 victory. They tallied once in the first period and added their other two goals in the middle session while Red Kelly spoiled Jim Henry's shutout during the second minute of the final stanza.

Dave Creighton opened the Bruins' scoring in the fourth minute of play while Detroit's Gordie Howe rested in the penalty box.

Boston pulled into a 2-0 lead on Red Sullivan's second-period marker. Johnny Peirson gave them their final goal while his side was a man short. He made a rink-length dash after intercepting a Red Wing pass near the Boston net.

The Bruins looked powerful in every department. They out-shot the Detroit crew 40-22 over the three periods of play.

No games are scheduled tonight, but New York plays in Montreal tomorrow while Boston goes to Chicago.

Hope said he and Bing Crosby will take on any two British entertainers at golf for any side bet they want.

"And they can have Lloyd's of London on their side," he said. He and, to a lesser extent, Crosby were targets last week of criticism from some British columnists for their clowning on the golf course.

We Are Ready To Meet Anyone, Says Bob Hope

Hollywood, Jan. 30.—(P)—Bob Hope, a little annoyed about British comments on his golf game in the British Amateur last year, said yesterday he will enter the event again this summer and tossed a challenge in the bargain.

Hope said he and Bing Crosby will take on any two British entertainers at golf for any side bet they want.

"And they can have Lloyd's of London on their side," he said. He and, to a lesser extent, Crosby were targets last week of criticism from some British columnists for their clowning on the golf course.

Nationales Beat Leading Canadiens In Close Tilt

Montreal, Jan. 30.—A third-period goal by Charlie Lamirande last night gave Montreal Nationale a 4-3 decision over a Quebec Junior Amateur Hockey Association fixture here.

Canadiens took a 3-0 lead in the first period but Nationales came back to score three times in the second to set the stage for Lamirande's game-winning tally in the third.

Lamirande also got a second-period goal, the others being credited to Phil Goyette and Henri Richard. Dave McCready scored two for Canadiens and Les Lilley got the other.

Five Prizes Of $10 To Be Drawn Tomorrow Night When Braves Will Pay Their Final Visit Of Season

Five Prizes of $10 each will be drawn tomorrow evening at the local arena when Valleyfield Braves will be paying their final visit of the season to Sherbrooke.

The executive of the local club announced at the same time that "Ladies' Night" and "Kiddies' Night" will be combined at the same time and all will be admitted for the sum of twenty-five cents.

The sum for tomorrow's drawing will be donated by Webster Motors and Lucien Dugre and Bruno Gaudet, chairman of the Special Committee, decided to raise the sum to $10 for the lucky winners.

This evening the Saints travel to Valleyfield for their final appearance while tomorrow the teams will get together on the local freeze to finish activities for the season.

In the four games played in Valleyfield the Saints have yet to win a game as on each occasion the Braves always emerged on the winning end. In Sherbrooke the Saints fared much better having two wins against a loss and a 1-1 stalemate in the opening tilt of the season.

The locals will be out after their first win and after getting shutout twice over the week-end the boys will be out to make up for the setback at the expense of the Braves. Coach Dugre had his squad out yesterday and put them through a hard workout for their series with Toe Blake's aggregation.

The locals hold a slim one-point lead over the ever-pressing Cats of Shawinigan and Penniston's crew has a game in hand and with a tough week-end coming up the Saints must try for a win in this series if they wish to maintain their advantage.

In the other tilts Chicoutimi plays in Ottawa while Shawinigan moves down to Quebec to tackle the Aces to complete the evening bill.

Bishop's College Hockey Squad Drops 5-3 Verdict To Loyola; Meets McGill At Montreal Saturday

Bishop's University lost their first game of the season Saturday night in Montreal when they bowed to Loyola College 5-3. In spite of this defeat Bishop's are still in first place with a three point lead over second place Quebecs who tied 5-5 with R.M.C. last Thursday night.

Early in the first period Conolly shot Loyola into the lead when he deflected McMullan's drive into the net, but Al Meskin tied it up a few minutes later on a pass from Parker. Just before the period ended however, Gillis shot the Irish into a 2-1 lead on a beautiful backhand shot from thirty feet out.

The second stanza showed Bill Osborns crew at their best. Gillis scored his second goal of the evening to make the score 3-1. Parker who was tied up all night, got his first penalty of the season and while he was in the sin-bin Gene Gagnon made it 4-1 on a pass from Rousseau.

In the third period the Lennoxville boys outshot and outplayed Loyola but they didn't have enough left to tie it up. McArthur combining with Parker and Meak in beat Gelin on a close in shot. Bishop's kept pressing and at the 17 minute mark Scowen took a pass from Cooke and his blue line shot wound up in the rigging. Dingle of Loyola ended the scoring when he drove one past Lawrence from the faceoff with less than a minute to play.

Ralph Cooke having recovered from an early season injury was playing his first game of the season. He combined with Don Lawrence and Curphey to form a very effective second line. Rookies Boland and Johnson were used sparingly but showed plenty of fight and drive when they were on the ice. They have come along very well under Hee Shield's coaching and with a little more experience should do well in inter-collegiate play.

In the third period Bishop's missed a golden opportunity when Cooke raced in alone on Gelin as only to have his shot hit the goal post.

Reed Scowen, who was on for 55 minutes, Paul Reaper and Don Devereaux played standout games on defence for the purple and white, while John Lawrence handled the goalie chores in his usual capable way.

Both teams were hampered by sloppy ice conditions and in the final frame passing was almost impossible.

Next week-end the Bishop's squad travels again to Montreal, where they will meet McGill at the Loyola rink. In the first game of the season Bishop's downed the Indians by a 5-3 score and will be out to beat them again Saturday night.

Highlights of this week's official standing of scorers in the E.T. Intermediate "A" Hockey League are the jump from second to first place of Proteau over Alain, also of the Victoriaville Tigers, and the appearance for the first time of Richmond's Austin Cook in the first ten spots.

Proteau leads Alain by two points but has played one more game than his team mate. Cook with 22 points for 13 games is tied for ninth place but doesn't seem slated to go much higher as Richmond has dropped out of the League, as of last night, and the players are barred from joining any other club in the circuit.

Roby of Sherbrooke, has the dubious honor of being the most penalized player in the League with a total of 62 minutes spent off the ice for violations of the rules. Following him along the penalty trail are playing-coach Eddy Vigneau, of Victoriaville, with 52 minutes, George Spenard of Windsor with 48 minutes, Magog's Martel with 47 minutes, Rheel Moore, of Waterloo, 46 minutes, and Haworth, of Drummondville, 37 minutes.

George Spenard, under suspension until tomorrow, has received both a match misconduct and match penalty and match misconducts are also chalked up against Pepin, of Drummondville, and Alain, of Victoriaville.

The ten leading positions, released by statistician "Chick" Whately and including last Sunday's games, are as follows:
