BRITISH GAIN ANOTHER STEP NEARER BAPAUME-PERONNE ROAD IN YESTERDAY'S OPERATIONS

French Also Report Appreciable Gain North-East Of Morval South Of British Position—Berlin Claims Rumania Over-Run By Teuton Forces—Russians Repulse German Attacks

The Dobrudja region of Rumania apparently is being overrun by the forces of the Teutonic allies.

Constanza, Rumania's chief seaport and fortress on the Black Sea, already has fallen into the hands of the troops of the right wing of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army, while the left wing is nearing the town of Tchernavod, where the Danube is spanned by the bridge of the railroad running from Constanza to Bucharest. Near the centre of their front, which extends across Dobrudja from the sea to the Danube, the invaders have cut the railroad near Murfatlar and pushed their troops "far beyond" the railway line, according to Berlin.

Before the rapid advance of the Germans, Bulgarians and Turks—rapid despite heavy rains and soggy ground—the Russians and Rumanians are in retreat along the entire front, but according to Petrograd are offering stubborn resistance.

Aside from the operations in Dobrudja, another British smash at the German line in the Somme region of France, which netted them more than a thousand yards of trenches east of Gueudecourt and Les Boeufs and carried their front a step nearer the Bapaume-Peronne road, is the most notable incident of the fighting on any of the fronts. A gain, described by Paris as "appreciable" is also recorded for the French north-east of Morval, which lies just to the south of the region where the British and Germans were in contact.

Berlin in touching upon the fighting against the British and French Sunday between Le Sars and Rancourt, says the attacks of the Entente Allies were sanguinarily repulsed. It is admitted in the German official communication that the Germans withdrew Sunday night from the north of Chaules, south of the Somme, to a prepared position lying east of the northern part of the Chaunes wood.

On the Transylvania front stubborn fighting is still in progress between the Teutonic allies and the Rumanians for the mountain passes and the territory inside Rumania which has been captured by the Austro-Germans.

The Russians having been cleared from the Narayuvka river region of Galicia, the Austro-Germans have hurled a violent attack against other forces of Emperor Nicholas north of Brody, near the Volhynia-Galicia border. The attack was repulsed, according to Petrograd.

At the bend of the Cerna river in Serbia Berlin says the Germans and Bulgarians, fighting side by side, have halted the offensive of the Serbs, who are now on the defensive. Bad weather is still hampering full operations on the Macedonian front.

The Italians have again begun a lively bombardment of Austrian positions on the Carso plateau, north-west of Trieste, probably presaging shortly another attempt to press forward toward Austria's chief seaport on the Adriatic.

Ten steamers and two sailing vessels—all of them neutrals—are reported to have been sunk, but whether by submarines or mines is not stated. Five of the steamers were Norwegian, two Greek, two Danish and one Dutch. They aggregated 12,474 tons gross. The sailing craft were a Danish schooner and a Swedish bark. The British steamer Calotia, of 4,306 tons, is believed to have been sunk.

Viscount Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, while declaring in a speech that the Entente Allies were favorable to efforts by neutral countries to bring about a combination to prevent future wars, reiterated that they were not prepared to discuss peace terms. "We know that if mankind has any birthright," said Viscount Grey, "it is that of peace and liberty, and it is for that that we are fighting. When we are asked how long the struggle is to continue, we can only reply that it must continue until these things are secured."

CHANGE IN BRITISH CABINET.

London, Oct. 24—An official announcement is expected at an early date, according to the morning papers, of the appointment of Arthur Henderson to the new post of Minister of Pensions.

Mr. Henderson, who is the Labor Leader in the House of Commons, is already a member of the cabinet, but without portfolio, and is acting in general as Labor adviser to the government.

GERMANY'S NEW SUBMARINES.

Geneva, Oct. 23, via Paris—Prince Von Buelow, former German Imperial Chancellor, recently informed a neutral newspaper man that since the beginning of the war Germany had constructed 235 submarines, says a despatch from Constance. The German naval authorities, the Prince is reported to have added, are paying more attention to submarines than to battleships, and Austria-Hungary is doing likewise.

DUTCH ANGRY AGAINST ZEPPELINS.

Amsterdam, Oct. 23, via London—Dutch newspapers are indignant over the report by the Handelsblad that on Sunday a Zeppelin dropped a bomb near Gorku (Gorinchem), 23 miles south-east of Rotterdam.

The Nieuws Van Den Dag says: "If German airship commanders had not displayed supreme contempt for the protests of the Dutch government, this deplorable incident, which only by accident lacked serious results, would not have occurred."

so inspiring in this hour of devotion and sacrifice. I bid God-speed in the manifold works of beneficence in which they are now engaged and I pray them to aid till more in every field of national service for which they may feel themselves fitted.

"Let us never forget the solemn truth that the nation is not constituted of the living alone. There are those as well who have passed away and those yet to be born. So this great responsibility comes to us as heirs of the past and trustees of the future. But with that responsibility there has come something greater still, the opportunity of proving ourselves worthy of it, and I pray that this may not be lost.

DOMINION PREMIER'S STIRRING APPEAL FOR NATIONAL SERVICE

SIR ROBERT BORDEN URGES ALL CLASSES OF THE COUNTRY TO BEND ENERGIES TOWARDS WIN-NING OF THE WAR ASKS MEN TO COME FORWARD.

Ottawa, Oct. 23—Sir Robert Borden tonight issued the following appeal on behalf of national service.

To the people of Canada:
"The world-wide struggle in which our Empire is fighting for its rights, its liberties and its very existence has continued for more than two years. Every effort that could honorably be made on our part to avert war was put forth with the deepest earnestness and sincerity. There was no escape from the contest save in dishonor and ultimate disaster. The wonderful extent and thoroughness of the enemy's long and careful preparation was imperfectly understood at first, and the magnitude of the struggle has surpassed all anticipation. Great Britain's first expeditionary force has been increased more than twenty fold and that of Canada more than twelve fold. The climax of the war is rapidly approaching. The last hundred thousand men that Canada will place in the fighting line may be the deciding factor in a struggle the issue in which will determine the destiny of this Dominion and of our Empire, and of the whole world.

Remember Our Fallen.
"The most eloquent tribute would fail to do fitting honor to the youth of Canada who have already rallied so splendidly to the colors and whose heroic valor and glorious achievements have crowned this Dominion with imperishable distinction before the world. Remembering the sacrifice by which that distinction was won, we recall with solemn pride the undying memory of those who have fallen.

"In the history of every people there may come such a challenge to the spirit of its citizens as must be answered in service and devotion if the nation is to have an abiding place in the future. The events of this war bring that challenge today to the manhood of Canada.

Canada Has 370,000 Soldiers.
"Since the war began more than three hundred and seventy thousand men have enlisted in this Dominion. Two hundred and fifty-eight thousand have gone overseas and more than one hundred thousand are now in the battle line. During the first ten months of the present year, the number sent forward will aggregate one hundred and forty-one thousand. From first January to April fifteenth of this year the enlistments were at the rate of nearly one thousand per day. Up to the present our forces have been enlisted and organized more rapidly than facilities of transportation and accommodation in Great Britain could be provided. During the past four months the number of enlistments has greatly decreased and having regard to future needs the time has come for this appeal.

A Mightier Effort Needed.
"Notwithstanding the success of the Allied forces in various theatres during the past summer, there is reason to know that the enemy is still strong and determined. A mightier effort than may be imagined is necessary to secure a conclusive victory. This great war must have so decisive a result that lasting peace can be secured. We are fighting not for a truce but for victory.

"In all mechanical appliances which have played so great a part in this war the Allied nations have almost if not quite overtaken the enemy's standard of preparation. Therefore, the result will depend upon the organization of the man power of the Allied nations. Canada must be strong and resolute in that great endeavor.

Full Powers of Nation.
"Our strength can be most effectively thrown into this conflict by utilizing, in all our national activities for sustaining the agricultural, industrial and commercial stability of Canada, those who through age or by reason of physical condition are not available for service at the front; to the end that we may place in the battle line the greatest possible proportion of those fit for military service. With this view the government has asked the director-general and the directors of the national service to undertake duties of the highest importance and urgency. It is imperative that the men and women of Canada, individually and through their various organizations shall serve the nation in those capacities in which their services may be the most valuable. Thus, it is the urgent duty of the Canadian people to join with the government in organizing the full power of the nation in terms of human energy.

Men of Military Age.
"Under the responsibilities with which I am invested and in the name of the State which we are all bound to serve, it is my duty to appeal and I do now appeal most earnestly to the people of Canada that they assist and co-operate with the government and the directors of national service in the endeavor for this purpose. To the men of military age I make the appeal that they place themselves at the service of the State for military duty. To all others I may appeal that they place themselves freely at the disposition of their country for such service as they are deemed best fitted to perform.

"And to the women of Canada whose spirit has been so splendid and with our allies, and after the war, I trust, the memory of the suffering we have undergone together, the memory of the joint courage which is carrying us through will be a perpetual bond of alliance and sympathy between our governments and our peoples."

NO PEACE DISCUSSIONS SOUGHT BY THE ALLIES SAYS VISCOUNT GREY

Passing to the position of the neutral countries, Viscount Grey said in answer to a question as to what they could do:

"I believe the best work neutrals can do for the moment is to try to prevent a war like this from happening again. If the nations had been united in such an agreement and prompt resolution to insist in 1914 that the dispute must be referred to a conference or The Hague, that the Belgian treaty must be observed, there would have been no war."

"Nations fighting for their existence, with daily increasing prospects of seeing victory brought nearer, still knowing that if they stop short of victory they stop short of everything for which they are struggling, cannot be expected to spend much time thinking about what might happen after victory is secured. But the neutrals can do it. I observe that not only President Wilson, but Mr. Hughes is supporting a league started, not with the object of interfering with the belligerents in this war, but which will do its part in making peace secure in the future."

"It is a work of neutral countries to which we should all look with favor and hope. Only we must bear this in mind, if the nations after the war are able to do something effective by binding themselves with the common object of preserving peace, they must be prepared to undertake not more than they are able to uphold by force, and to see, when the time of crisis comes, that it is upheld by force."

"The question we must ask them is this: 'Will you play up when the time comes?' It is not merely the sign manual of presidents and sovereigns that is really to make that worth while; it must also have behind it parliaments and national sentiments."

"Supposing the conditions of 1914 occur again and there is such a league in existence. Everything will depend on whether national sentiment behind it is so permeated by the lessons of this war as to compel each nation as a matter of vital interest, to keep peace other than by force."

The Foreign Secretary insisted upon the necessity after the war of arriving at some agreement with respect to the laws of war, arguing that the mere indiscriminate employment of all the resources on science is the prospect which threatens civilization and the existence of the race itself. He characterized "the employment of poisonous gas and other horrors by Germany" as having "let loose on the world more terrible anarchy than any individual anarchist," and referred especially to the "organized attempt" to exterminate the Christians in Turkey since Turkey became a vassal of Germany. Such horrors he declared were only possible with Germany's toleration. Perhaps, he said, some day a neutral nation which knows the full story will publish it to the world.

He contended that this matter of keeping the horrors of war within bounds was a question in which the whole human race is interested, and as all nations should recognize their responsibility for preventing outbreaks of war, so, they should insure, in event of its outbreak, that it should be conducted by rules at least as human as those our ancestors observed, which Germany today had disregarded and thrown to the winds.

Of the necessity "of freeing the world from the oppression of Prussian militarism," he said: "We know that if mankind has any birthright it is that of peace and liberty, and it is for that we are fighting. When we are asked how long the struggle is to continue we can only reply that it must continue until these things are secured."

London, Oct. 24—Viscount Grey's speech, says the Daily News, is the most important utterance that has been delivered by any statesman of the belligerent nations since the war began.

"The most significant passage," says the Daily Mail, "is that in which he responded to the appeal which President Wilson made in his speech to the League of Peace. The world, engulfed in war, has not yet fully realized the momentous character of President Wilson's declaration. The future, we believe, will find it one of the great utterances of history, not merely because it announced to the world America's departure from her historic attitude of isolation."

"More important was the offer it contained that in sacrificing that attitude America should come into the field, not as a challenger, not as a disturber of the peace, but as a definitely pacific force. President Wilson's proposal was that America should back with all her potentialities a scheme for enforcing peace in the world. He recognized that the only guarantee of good faith is force, and he proposed that force be henceforth diverted from competitive channels to the common purpose of protecting all nations against aggression."

"To that proposal Viscount Grey gives emphatic welcome. We believe Viscount Grey's invitation will be heard with satisfaction in every neutral country, and that we have seen the beginning of a movement which one day will hold the world in fee."

Laurier's Navy.
A Liberal member, on 16th March, 1915, said in the House. "The Conservative Dreadnought policy would have been absolutely futile during the present war, since the vessels would not have been in commission at all, whereas if the Laurier policy had been adopted Canada would have today been in the same position as Australia."

The Laurier policy had been adopted when Sir Wilfrid Laurier passed his Naval Bill of 1910; then it rested with him to put the project into execution and forthwith build the ships.

To make matters clear, a few historical facts during the past seven years, perhaps now forgotten by most people, may be related. About the year 1907, the question of the Overseas Dominions of His Majesty taking part in Imperial naval defence was mooted, also the form such defence should take.

With that end in view, delegates from Australia, New Zealand, Canada and South Africa and other Colonies were invited to meet the British Admiralty in London in 1909. All these delegates were present, those from Canada being the then Liberal Ministers of Marine and Militia.

On the question being put, the Admiralty said that the best form of assistance to Imperial defence that the Dominions might adopt would be a battleship unit from each. This to consist of one battle-cruiser of the "Indomitable" class, three cruisers of the "Bristol" class, six destroyers of the "River" class, and three submarines with the necessary auxiliary vessels.

South Africa was not then in a position to act. Australia and New Zealand at once resolved each to supply such a unit. The Canadian delegates, no doubt instructed by their leader at home, began to hesitate and dicker as to the cost of the Unit and its maintenance.

With Canada it was not a matter of cost, for if the Australians could each furnish such a battleship unit Canada could easily supply two, one for each Ocean. The Admiralty understood the position, so proposed that if the capital ship was too costly, another small cruiser might be substituted.

To this the Canadian delegates joyfully agreed, and the conference broke up. The construction of the Australasian units was at once provided for, they being built in Britain as quickly as possible.

The Canadians returned and reported to their chief, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who at the coming session of 1909-10, framed and introduced his naval Bill providing, among other things, for the construction of this Unit of small cruisers. The Chief of the Opposition, Mr. R. L. Borden, did not oppose the bill but offered an amendment asking for three battleships or to pay their cost to the British Government, well knowing that the Royal Navy needed capital ships for the firing line.

That amendment was hooted down by the Liberals and the Bill passed, receiving the Royal assent on the 4th May, 1910. So far, so good.

Tenders were advertised for the construction of the Unit in Britain or Canada, on the 8th July of that year, two months being thus lost. After much correspondence and delay, arising from the request that the plans and specifications of these vessels be sent to Ottawa, which the British Government for obvious reasons, refused to do, the tenders arrived at Ottawa on the 1st May, 1911, some nine months being thus lost. But, instead of calling a meeting of the Governor-General-in-Council to award the contract, which could have been done in an hour seeing there were only two tenders, the tenders were pigeon-holed.

Thus Sir Wilfrid Laurier's personal principles of no assistance in Imperial defence were carried out because such assistance and his separatist doctrine are of course antagonistic.

On the 21st September he was fired out of office. At the ensuing session of Parliament, Mr. R. L. Borden, on the 12th December, 1912, brought in the Naval Aid Bill to supply three battle ships, the best that money and science could produce, and requested a vote of $35,000,000 for that purpose. This bill, after five months of virulent opposition by Sir Wilfrid and his party, who persisted that there was no emergency or danger of a European war, was passed by the House of Commons on 15th May, 1913.

Sir Wilfrid then brought all his influence to bear in the Senate, going to the length of personally appearing on the floor of the Senate Chamber when the late Sir George Ross made his speech against the bill, in order to see that his orders were carried out without any defection from his majority in that Chamber. So on the 30th May, 1913, the bill was killed, and Sir Wilfrid's separatist principles were upheld to the eternal disgrace of Canada and the detriment of the Empire.

On analysing the dates, it is apparent that Sir Wilfrid never had the slightest intention of laying a single keel of that unit anywhere. It takes about 15 months to construct and put in commission vessels of that class of 5,000 ton cruisers; had the contracts been awarded, say on 1st June, 1911, as could easily have been done, and construction at once commenced in Britain, they would have been in commission in the fall of 1912; for no government would have dared to cancel such a contract. Again, if Sir Wilfrid, with his majority in the Senate, had allowed the Naval Aid Bill to become law, the three battleships would have been now in the firing line along with the "Queen Elizabeth," which was launched in 1913. The "Australia" and "New Zealand" were launched in 1911, and in commission in 1913. The "New Zealand" visited Vancouver in 1913, returning to England after calling at Halifax, a lonesome ship with no Canadian "Bristols" to welcome her. Canadians felt the disgrace; hence the small enthusiasm evinced on her arrival.

The action of the Senate caused rejoicing in Germany; the Hamburger Nachrichten said:—"Whatever may be decided on later, the decision of the Canadian Senate means at any rate a heavy moral and material loss for the defence of the Empire, for Mr. Borden's promise has been foolishly counted on. His offer made an enormous impression on the whole world. This impression will not only be destroyed but people will everywhere obtain the conviction that England cannot depend on such help from her Colonies." Mr. R. B. Bennett stated that, when en voyage to England in the "Imperator" in 1913, he heard some German officers, who were his fellow passengers, rejoice and become exceedingly glad when they heard that the Senate had killed the Naval Aid Bill.

Germany has endeavored in recent despatches to show that she is defeating all attempts to break through her lines, and repulsing the most overwhelming forces the allies can bring against her. One recent despatch declared that the British troops came up in dense masses and were cut down in battalions. This may do for German readers who are accustomed to German mass attacks, but it is utterly incorrect as applying to the open order attack of British regiments. German troops have not had the drill or the morale to attack in open order, hence they have been herded to slaughter at Verdun and

LIEUTENANT PERCY ABERDEEN ROSS.
The commemorative services held on Sunday last in Chalmers Church, over the death of Lieutenant Percy Ross on the battlefield, had an impressive effect on the large audience present never likely to be forgotten by those present. That brave young man had recovered some months ago from wounds received in one of the trenches, and had entered at the military school to prepare for his lieutenancy, which he eventually attained before being sent to the trenches once more. There, one in presence of two of his comrades who were severely wounded, he was instantly killed. And the lesson of his army experiences is with every brave Canadian joining the ranks of those fighting for their country. With Lieutenant Ross it was the urgency of duty that sent him to enter as a private, as it has many others, and kept him courageously climbing from step to step in his battalion. As speakers at the memorial services told the audience; he had been ever active in his duties as a young citizen among those younger than, and of an age with, himself. He was but twenty-three when he was stricken down; and yet he had earned full recognition from his Quebec contemporaries, and his comrades in arms, and his superior officers, that he was one who never turned his back upon his duty. The firm of which he was a partner, the congregation he was a member of; the Y. M. C. A. Association; his Company of Scouts; and the highly respectable family to which he belonged, in fact all who knew Percy Ross, cannot but have the highest respect for the part he has played in life as a youthful citizen of old Quebec. When the organist of Chalmers Church played the "Dead March in Saul" over his memory on the evening of Sunday last, there was no hiding of the emotion visible in every face.

GOOD EXAMPLE.
The local English apologist of the Grit grafters says editorially:—"Saskatchewan, under a Liberal Government, which controls the administration of the law, is sending Liberal legislators to jail for bribery and hoodluming. It is a good thing for a party to put its own members in prison before tackling the corruption of the other fellows."

"Saskatchewan has also set an example which the Dominion should accept as the evidence of what can be accomplished when men of character and determination grapple with the evil of political grafting. E. H. Devline, a member of the Legislature found guilty of defrauding the province on ten different counts, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for terms aggregating twenty years. What Saskatchewan has done Ottawa and the other provinces can and should do. No reason exists why the public grafter should escape the gate that threatens the wrongdoer in other walks of life. A few applications of the Saskatchewan treatment would have a most wholesome influence."

The Grit organ is evidently barking up the right tree for once and we hope that it will follow some of its own advice in future though that is hardly likely if we take into consideration its past record for defending and landing some of the biggest political crooks in the country. Certainly when the Laurier government was in power there was no rakeoff or robbery so glaring that its local apologist would not condone it.

As for Saskatchewan, the grafters who have been caught there flagrant delicto deserve to be sent to prison. That they are punished as they merit is not likely to be a source of wonder to anyone but persons afflicted with the peculiar mentality of local Liberal organs. However, their idea that the Saskatchewan treatment might be followed in this province is an excellent one. Such treatment certainly furnishes a most glaring contrast to that meted out by the Quebec Legislature to Messrs. Mousseau, Berard and Bergevin, the self-convinced grafters whom the Liberals did their utmost to shield.

Germany has endeavored in recent despatches to show that she is defeating all attempts to break through her lines, and repulsing the most overwhelming forces the allies can bring against her. One recent despatch declared that the British troops came up in dense masses and were cut down in battalions. This may do for German readers who are accustomed to German mass attacks, but it is utterly incorrect as applying to the open order attack of British regiments. German troops have not had the drill or the morale to attack in open order, hence they have been herded to slaughter at Verdun and

M. BECKMAN AND STRONG CAST SCORE IN "CATHERINE" STRONG DRAMA.

Before a large and fashionable audience the Troupe of French players of the Francais Theatre, New York, supported by M. Edgar Beckman, appeared in the opening performance of "Catherine" at the Auditorium Theatre last night.

The drama, which is the work of Henri Lavdan, gave the principals in the cast ample opportunities of displaying their ability and they certainly distinguished themselves, for the audience was in parts wrought up to a high tension.

Mlle. Y. Mirval appeared in the role of "Catherine," a school teacher, who is the only support of the family. M. Paul Cerny as Georges Mantel, Baron Frouard's private secretary, is Catherine's first suitor and after a short courtship proposes to Catherine who agrees to marry him.

Later developments in the stirring drama go to show that Catherine was probably hasty in accepting Georges Mantel, for the charming school mistress has an exciting opportunity of rising to higher society through a proposal of marriage by the "Duc de Coutras." Although madly in love with her, Georges Mantel, on learning of the Duke's proposal to Catherine, immediately releases her from her promise to marry him and at the same time begged of the fair Catherine to come to him whenever she was in need of a friend. This she agreed to do.

Not many months after her marriage with the Duke Catherine's jealousy was aroused when she found her husband with another woman, Helene. True to her promise, she sought the aid of her first lover, Georges Mantel whose cool judgment resulted in the Duke's innocence being proved and the quarrel of the newly wedded couple being patched up to the entire satisfaction of all and the delight of the audience. M. Beckman as the Duke and those in the other leading parts received the applause of an enthusiastic audience.

The cast follows: Mantel... Paul Carney. Vallon... M. Lomon. Le Baron Frouard... R. Tournier. Paul... Rossette. Frederic... Chotin. Lucas... Cassin. Un Domestique... Matot. Catherine... Mlle Y. Mirval. La Duchesse... Jenny Diska. Helene... Dione. Blanche... Paulette Noizeux. La Baronne... Adrienne Dagairy. Madeleine... Jeanne Rolle. Louise... Georgette.

Musical Programme. March—Liberty... Daley. Extra—Manon... Massenet. Extra—Melodie... Triml. Sortie—Salute... Doble.

EDMUND SANBORN, Orchestra Director. "Catherine" will be presented again this afternoon and evening. Wednesday and Thursday with matinee Thursday "Le Maitre de Forges" will hold the boards.

Mr. J. H. Paquet Lessee and Manager of the Auditorium Theatre announces that "Sua Homme" with M. Edgar Beckman in the title role will be presented as scheduled. Mr. Paquet is to be congratulated on his success in bringing such a capable company of French players as the present one to Quebec. There is every reason to expect large attendances for every performance judging by the reception accorded the artists last evening.

NEW TEMPERANCE SOCIETY FORMED

FAIRLY ATTENDED MEETING STARTS NEW ORGANIZATION TO HELP PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN.

A meeting of English-speaking people was held in Morrin College Hall for the purpose of forming a Temperance Organization.

There was a fair attendance, and amongst those present were the Rev. A. R. Beverley, Rev. A. R. Kelly, Rev. C. R. Eardley Wilmot, Rev. Dr. Love, Rev. S. T. Martin, Rev. T. P. Perry, Sir Francois Lemieux, Messrs H. Young, W. J. B. Fraser, A. E. Pfeiffer, W. H. Wiggas, Capt. Murray, Mr. G. B. Ramsay, Mr. R. R. Werry, Mrs. G. G. Geggie, etc.

The Rev. A. R. Kelley, acted as Chairman and Mr. R. L. Werry, acted as Secretary to the meeting.

Mr. G. B. Ramsay explained the reasons for calling the meeting. The Rev. S. T. Martin addressed the meeting in which he dwelt principally with the amount of money spent on drink in England during the period of the campaign 300 million dollars had been spent on drink in that country. He added that his congregation was entirely in sympathy with the movement of prohibition.

Sir Francois Lemieux also delivered a short address, and said he readily acceded to the invitation to be present.

Sir Francois gave an interesting account of the work of the Anti-Alcoholic League and of its development since 1907, when it was formed on a practical basis. He believed that Sir Lomer Gouin would not fail to take advantage of the present opportunity to link up this province with the other provinces of the Dominion. Sir Francois also mentioned that since the towns of Rimouski and Theford Mines had adopted prohibition, the savings of the workmen had increased 300 per cent., and that greater public order was now maintained in these places.

The Reverends T. P. Perry, A. R. Beverley, and Mr. Wiggas, promised their support to the movement.

Mr. Werry, sec. of Anti-Alcoholic League of the Province of Quebec in reply to a number of questions asked as to what had been done in other places, explained the situation in Montreal, and told what was being done, mentioning some of the difficulties in the way of further legislation in the direction of prohibition.

Mr. Herman Young said he was a total abstainer, but was in favor of compensation being granted to those at present engaged in the liquor traffic in the event of prohibition being introduced into the province.

On the motion of Mr. G. B. Ramsay, seconded by Rev. T. P. Perry it was decided to form a temperance society of English-speaking people to be known as the Quebec Temperance Union, the object of which was to bring about by legislation the abolition of the liquor traffic.

The clergymen of the different Churches were appointed a nomenclature committee to submit names of two members of their respective congregations to act as officers of the Union.

PRO BELGICA. To Editor of The Chronicle. Dear Sir,—May I bring to the notice of your readers, a small but interesting paper published "For the Relief of Belgians in Distress," at 397 Viger avenue, Montreal. It is entitled "Pro Belgica," and comes to one dollar a year. According to a recent edition of this, Belgium's need was never greater than it is today—between seven and nine million people to be saved from starvation during the coming year. The sum of $2.50 will keep a Belgian family for a month—surely many of us can do that. All subscriptions may be sent to the Belgian Relief Fund, 59 St. Peter street, Montreal, and are regularly acknowledged in "Pro Belgica." I am writing this, as a copy recently came into my hands, and I feel that there are many in Quebec who may be glad, as I was myself, to hear of it. Yours truly, A QUEBEC READER.

FRANKIE BOGASH
WON MATCH RACE

FREDDIE WELSH SHOULD DRAW PACKED HOUSE WHEN HE BOXES HERE ON FRIDAY

World's Lightweight Champion Will Find "Red" Allen No Mean Opponent as the Brooklyn Boy Has Shown Great Stuff in Past Bouts—Welsh is Touring Canada Giving Exhibitions for Red Cross Benefits.

The fact that Freddie Welsh, the world's champion, will box in this city for Red Cross funds benefit, has caused quite a furore in local sporting circles.

Welsh's ability is unquestioned. He has met every lightweight boxer of note in the world, in his class, and none have ever been able to floor him. The nearest he ever came to a knockout was when Wolgast downed him with a foul blow. Wolgast claimed, to this day, that the blow was not foul, but that Welsh bluffed it to save his title, and that Otto Floto, the referee believed the champion. Floto, who is a Denver sporting writer, stated positively that Welsh had been struck low and that further, he was of the opinion that the blows were intentional. It is, therefore, pretty safe to say that Welsh has never been made groggy in all his career, though American reports have it that Ever Hammer had the Welshman well in hand at one stage of his encounter with him.

On Friday evening, Welsh will be opposed to a boxer whom he has never met before, in "Red" Allen. Allen has a style which is not altogether his own, but which may be said to be somewhat out of the ordinary methods of boxing. He will be watched very closely by the champion in the opening round and if Welsh fathoms his mode of attack, then it will be a cinch for him to skip through the route without getting into trouble. It is up to "Red" to uncock something new and if he can keep the champion guessing for a while his big chance may come.

Not even the most enthusiastic supporter of "Red" Allen believes that he will knock out Freddie Welsh in a short fight, but amongst them there is always the hope that "Red" will somehow gain fame by putting it over the slippery scrapper from the other side.

Allen is training hard this week for the affair, and his big ambition is to make the title-holder go at top speed all the way.

The contest is only an exhibition match, it is true, and hundreds will be attracted only to see the champion in action, yet hundreds will be there expecting something to happen—just as the crowd went to see the bridge go up—they also expected something to happen—and it did happen when most of them had gone home. Welsh's manager will be along here, with him, and they are pleased with the opportunity of visiting Quebec.

The promoters of the Irish-Canadian Club are taking a big chance in bringing Welsh here for this bout, but they know the public wants to see the real top-notchers in Quebec. A championship bout would cost something like $25,000 to stage, and if Allen-Welsh was advertised as a bout for the world's title, Quebec would be the cynosure of all eyes in the sporting world. This is not advertised as being for the world's championship—but who knows that a new world's champion may not be created. Allen is no sparing partner of Welsh's, and if "Red" can do it—he'll certainly try hard to score a knockout.

There has been a very brisk demand for ringside tickets, and those wishing the $9.00 seats had better get after them immediately. The plan is on view at the Quebec Skate Company, St. John street.

FRANKIE BOGASH WAS A WINNER

GAME LITTLE MARE BEAT BABA YAGA—MARCONI IS TOO FAST FOR HARVEY M.

An exciting afternoon's sport was offered by the Quebec Driving Club yesterday and though not more than five hundred people attended, the enthusiasm was at a high pitch. Three events were down on the card and all were hotly contested.

Much interest centered in this race between Frankie Bogash, the game little Quebec mare and Baba Yaga, the Montreal mare and the former's clean-cut, hard-earned victory proved very popular.

Alderman Ulderice Gauvin's bay gelding, Milan, was a handy winner in a field of five in the special trot, and Mr. Gauvin must be congratulated for his great work during the past season which was a most successful one for him. He drove the horse himself and his handling was perfect.

In the five-mile event, a match race between Marconi, brown gelding owned by Michaud of Montreal, and Harvey M., Mr. O. Cloutier's fine roan gelding, the Montreal horse had too much speed for the Quebec entry and was never really in danger. Harvey M. stuck gamely all the way, but Marconi showed wonderful bursts of speed when necessary and finished comparatively fresh while the veteran was fairly spent with the hard pace on a heavy track.

The match between Frankie Bogash and Baba Yaga was the most exciting of the afternoon. In the first heat, Baba Yaga took the pole from Frankie and shot ahead maintaining the lead until the end, though Frankie Bogash's driving finish almost carried it under the wire ahead. The second heat was most exciting. Frankie forced the pace all the way but the other came up and both went neck and neck until entering the home stretch the Quebec mare forced the Montrealer to break and Landry's entry flashed in amidst a big outburst of applause. The next heat was Frankie Bogash's from wire to wire though she was pushed to the limit. The race was over with the fourth heat as the Quebec mare again showed her gameness and despite the desperate efforts of Baba Yaga's driver, she could not nose out Frankie Bogash whose victory was well-merited.

Though the track was extremely heavy and the bad weather had prevented owners from exercising their horses properly, the time of the event was fairly good.

The result follow:

Milan, b.g., U. Gauvin, (Gauvin) 1 1 1

Battling Levinsky, the clever Hebrew heavyweight, and Jack Dillon, the light-heavyweight champion, are going to fight again. They have been matched to meet in a 12-round bout to a decision at the next boxing show of the Armory A. A. of Boston, on Tuesday night.

Joe Montminy will likely referee the Welsh-Allen bout here on Friday.

BILL O'HARA, OF TORONTO, GETS MILITARY CROSS—HE WAS BOMB THROWER.

New York, Oct. 23.—The Associated Press sends out the following under a Boston date: "Bill O'Hara, once a star leftfielder of the Toronto International League team, and a former scout for the New York National League Club, has been recommended the Military Cross in recognition of his bravery and skill in hurling bombs for the British army on the Somme battle front, according to advices received here today.

"When O'Hara played in the International League he was noted for his strong and accurate throwing. Baseball men here say it was a common occurrence for him to head off a too daring base runner at the plate by a long quick throw from the outfield. O'Hara, a lieutenant in a Canadian regiment at the front, is now hurling deadly bombs instead of baseballs. According to word from Toronto, the practise he had in baseball has stood him in good stead while heading a bombing squad."

Sporting Notes

The Emmet Baseball Club dance which was to have been held on the 8th November has been changed to October 31st, when a euchre and dance will be held in the Emmet Club Rooms.

Whether the championship of the Quebec and District baseball league will be played off next Sunday will be decided at tonight's meeting of the league.

Sporting Editor, Chronicle:
I was an interested spectator of last Sunday's ball-game and allow me to congratulate the clubs for the magnificent game which they put up on such muddy grounds. Could not some means be devised whereby the water could be taken off the field before a game as they do in the big leagues by the use of kerosene oil which is set afire? I presume the local league officials are already cognizant of the methods which are employed in the National and American leagues to take off the water but am merely suggesting this in case they may not have thought of trying it out. I am told that in Lewis the ground is much better and the water disappears more readily, if that is the case it would not seem a bad idea to play the game there as the weather is so unsettled now one never knows when its going to rain or not and a rainy Friday and Saturday means a muddy field on Sunday which, it would appear, would not be the case in Lewis.

I think Quebec fans would not mind the journey to Lewis if more satisfaction was to be derived. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am

Should the same team meet again, Laval will have numerous backers this time as the Students will enter the next game with much more confidence. The Indians showed that their infield is panicky and liable to blow up and the Laval batsmen will play accordingly.

The Indians on the other hand were getting to Crevier towards the close of the game and may be stronger with the stick this time.

KILBANE AFTER WELSH.
Cleveland Boxer Anxious to Become A Double Champion.

"Johnny" Kilbane, featherweight king is nursing an ambition to box Freddie Welsh for the lightweight crown, and the Clevelander has his manager mapping out a campaign to force the Briton to box him. Generally when a fighter attains the championship, he is satisfied with himself. There is usually nothing more to fight for. Freddie Welsh felt the effect of becoming champion. He never yearned to fight for the welterweight title. He was perfectly satisfied with what he had done, and his later fighting was just a trick of "going through the motions." He just went in to defend his title and didn't exert himself so much as

Growing ROSE QUESNEL

Native Canadian Tobacco

Planting Canadian Tobacco.

Molson, the pioneer of steam navigation in Canada, would marvel at the modern trans-oceanic Steamship in the same degree that the pioneer tobacco planter would be astonished over the present methods used by up-to-date tobacco growers in certain districts of the Province of Quebec. The selection of seed, the preparation and sterilization of the seed-bed to kill out weed seeds, rotation of the crops, etc., are so many operations which the scientific tobacco planter has to attend to, even before the tobacco plant leaves the hot-bed.

Early in June, the plants are ready to be transferred to the field. A special machine, shown above, operated by two men, seated low down, makes holes in each hillock, places therein the delicate plants, presses earth gently round the roots, waters them and banks earth around them better and quicker than if done by human hands.

The young plant, planted in sterilized soil, consisting of the most unctuous native earth, enriched with hard-wood ashes and other fertilizers, is now ready for its second growth and development. All planters in the Province do not follow this scientific system of culture, but those who do are well repaid for their trouble, as most of their output is bought by us at a premium and goes in the manufacture of

Gauthier vs. Gervais, and Berube, T.S.—Same judgment as above.
Turcotte vs. Vallerand. Seeing the evidence, judgment against defendant for $390.00, with interest and costs.

By Hon. Justice Malouin:
Boulangier vs. Breton. Plaintiff alleges in his declaration that in May last, defendant bought from him a mare for $130.00, payable in June last; plaintiff delivered said mare to the defendant, the latter returned said mare to plaintiff a few days afterwards, notwithstanding the plaintiff's refusal to take back the animal, plaintiff in his conclusions asked defendant be condemned to retake the mare and pay to plaintiff the board of the animal, the whole with costs. A general denial filed by the defendant to the action. The sale is maintained as also the plaintiff's action, and defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $8.50 for the board of the mare, with costs.

By Hon. Justice Dorion:
Leclerc vs. Lavolette. Action for $508.41, balance remaining due to the plaintiff on the price of sale to defendant of wood delivered to him in 1915 and 1916, at St. Joachim, with, more-over $38.47, for freight paid by plaintiff for defendant, forming a total of $543.28, defendant pleaded that he had not received all the wood mentioned in the plaintiff's account and alleged that plaintiff has accepted a promissory note by himself for $361.50 in settlement of all accounts, a confession of judgment was filed for this latter amount by defendant, but was refused by plaintiff; the action maintained, and the defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $543.28, with interest and costs.

Dery vs. Julien. Plaintiff claims $350.00 damages from defendant for malicious slander. The Court maintains the action for $8.00 damages.

Giffard vs. Dennis. Action for $150 damages, caused by defendant to the plaintiff because said defendant took possession of certain moveable effects belonging to him and sold them to his profit; defendant pleaded that the goods in question were not the plaintiff's property and that at any rate, they were sold with the plaintiff's consent to pay the rent guaranteed by the goods. The plaintiff's action is dismissed with costs.

By the Prothonotary:
Eaves Brothers vs. Roy. Judgment against defendant for $150.89, interest and costs.

Garneau vs. Tessier. Defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $125, interest and costs.

ENTENTE CORDIALE.

Vice-President of Canadian Manufacturers' Association Pleased With Quebec Hospitality.

Toronto, October 22 — Mr. S. R. Parsons, vice-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, who recently visited the Province of Quebec on the "Entente Cordiale" tour, paid a tribute to the French-Canadians tonight at a recruiting speech here. "They overwhelmed us with kindness and kindness unbounded," he declared. "I believe if Premier Borden were to deliver a dozen recruiting addresses in Quebec, there would be good results," he said. "The Prime Minister is a busy man," he observed, "and the members of his cabinet likewise."

"You may not agree that the French-Canadians have done what they should, but it's not altogether fair that they should be so severely and generally criticized. Let's be fair to them, anyway. If you have criticism, let it be fair and constructive criticism, not just condemning without giving reason."

Mr. Parsons said he went to Quebec as "a plain business man" in the interests of matters of trade as well as social and national interests. He understood much better than before the viewpoint of the French-Canadian, Quebec had not as many unmarried men as Ontario. Her men married young and became fathers of large families. The census showed that there were not nearly so many young men living in the towns and cities as in Ontario. There were only four urban centres in the province, Montreal, Three Rivers, Sherbrooke and Quebec, and it must be remembered that, till July last, from all Canada only six and a half per cent. of the total number of soldiers enlisted had been from the farming and ranching interests.

But the thing that had most impressed him was the sentiment among the French-Canadians that France had "left them" after the conquest. All who then could returned to France, and the remainder—some 60,000 only—had become rooted to the soil, owing no allegiance to Old France, speaking the French tongue, but loyal to the British Empire.

With this sentiment to start on Bourassa had expected a tremendous influence. His paper was the paper that all read, and the seed he had sown was now bearing fruit. While the bishops and higher clergy of the Roman Catholic faith were sympathetic with recruiting, the rank and file of the parish priests followed the teaching of Bourassa and the people followed the priests.

Mr. Parsons paid tribute to the recruiting speeches recently made by Senator Beaubien, of Montreal, and said they were meeting a response which indicated that better results were coming.

"I am not going into the bi-lingual school controversy," said Mr.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and activity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatism twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

Parsons. "That is now before the Privy Council. But I want to tell of a seminary we visited at Sherbrooke, where the French language is used in teaching in the morning and the English language in the afternoon, so that it is a bi-lingual school. At the close of the proceedings, the boys sang 'God Save the King,' and what struck me was that they sang the whole three verses and knew them better than we from the province of Ontario did." (Cheers.)

Women are also being employed for cleaning the electrical switch-pillars in the streets. The Glasgow Tramways Department in addition employs 100 women as HEADACHES Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best Doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most other cases, knowing the cause, does not know what will remove it, so as to give the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headache, no matter what their nature, take anti-kamina tablets, and the results will be satisfactory in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all druggists in any quantity, 10c worth, 50c worth or more. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SICK-HEADACHES Sick-headache, the most miserable of all ailments, loses its terrors when A-K Tablets are taken. When you feel an attack coming on take two tablets, and in many cases, the attack will be warded off. During an attack take one A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow can be obtained in no other way. Genuine A-K Tablets bear the M monogram. At all druggists.

Columbia, and is in progress at St. Helens and at half a dozen yards in close proximity to the big saw mills along the waterfront at Portland. Auxiliary power ships are the favorite type of boat. The vessels are to be equipped with sails and oil burners. Oregon has one-fifth of the standing timber of the United States, which fact should give ship builders an advantage that will insure a large employment of labor for many years. It is thought that the development of the auxiliary power craft will always make the wooden ship a competitor for certain lines of business.

Stomach Medicines Are Dangerous DOCTORS NOW ADVISE MAGNESIA. Just how dangerous it is to indiscriminately dose the stomach with drugs and medicines is often not realized until too late. It seems so simple to swallow a dose of some special mixture or take tablets of soda, pepsin, bismuth, etc. after meals, and the folly of this drugging is not apparent until, perhaps years afterward, when it is found that gastric ulcers have almost eaten their way through the stomach walls. Regrets are then unavailing; it is in the early stages when indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulence, etc., indicates excessive acidity of the stomach and fermentation of food contents that precaution should be taken. Drugs and medicines are unsuitable and often dangerous—they have little or no influence upon the harmful acid, and that is why doctors are discarding them and advising sufferers from indigestion and stomach trouble to get rid of the dangerous acid and keep the food contents bland and sweet by taking a little pure bisulphate of magnesia instead. Bisulphate of Magnesia is an absolutely pure anti-acid which can be readily obtained from any drug store. It is absolutely harmless, is practically tasteless and a teaspoonful taken in a little warm or cold water after meals, will usually be found quite sufficient to instantly neutralize excessive acidity of the stomach and prevent all possibility of the food fermenting.

New York, Oct. 23—Development over the week-end were deemed sufficiently favorable by the speculative element to bring about further appreciable advances in today's active market, with new high records for United States Steel and other favorites which have contributed so extensively to the almost steady rise of the past few weeks.
Last Saturday's bank statement which showed a liberal expansion of local cash holdings and a corresponding contraction of loans the greater monetary ease reported from principal reserve centres, material tonnage gains by leading railway systems, and unabated demand for products and commodities helped to accelerate today's upward movement.
Steel's rise of 2 5/8 points to the new record of 121 3/4, at which it passed the bid, stock for the first time in the company's history, was again attended by an enormous turnover, no less than 330,000 shares changing hands out of a total of 1,270,000. Profit-taking served to give Steel and other leaders in the industrial division a moderate setback towards the close, but this was counter balanced by greater strength in high grade rails.
Other new maximums included the sugar group, notably Cuban American at 213 and American Beet at 102 1/2, while Cuba Cane duplicated its best record and American Sugar rose 3 points to 120 1/2, its highest price of recent years. Central Leather at 93 1/4, American Hide and Leather Pfd. at 79 1/4, and Utah Copper at 100 1/2, comprised issues that were elevated to unprecedented quotations.
Bethlehem Steel attracted attention by its unusual activity, about 1800 shares being traded in up to 585, an advance of 35 points. Coppers, particularly Anaconda, Utah and Inspiration, helped to swell the huge total, with Republic Iron and Steel, Crucible Steel, Marine's, fertilizers and petroleum, and Texas Company gaining over five points.
No material alteration was shown by foreign exchange markets, aside from a slight hardening on rates on Berlin.
Bonds were mainly steady on lighter dealings. Total sales, par value, $5,240,000.

New York, Oct. 23—After a rest over Sunday the market this morning started in with renewed vigor, trading in the first hour was extremely active at advancing prices. Then came an hour or so of relatively dull trading and stationary prices, followed by a reaction in the last hour and a half, this merely seems to be a case of pace being a little too fast to be maintained and an opportunity for profit taking for the traders.
There was no special news during the day to appreciably effect prices. The railway issues have done especially well today helped no doubt by the announcement that the interstate commerce commission would reopen the question of Transcontinental rates. The railroads have had so much to contend with that any favorable straw is helpful.
We are now within about two weeks of election and the market is apt to be subject to these sharp swings in one direction or another as confident political forecasts are made. Total Sales, stocks 1,421,710; Bonds $5,245,500.

Chicago Oct. 23—Wheat—New high levels were again reached this morning and, despite profit-taking on a heavy scale, the advance was well maintained. Rosario and Buenos Ayres scored sensational advances, due to further loss in crop prospects. The only prospect of a sharp decline is the possibility of some new political complication abroad.
Corn—Although from certain shipping interests. The present large the corn market and that exporters were reselling the futures made new high levels. Present prices are attracting a large volume of speculative selling and are likely also to result in a heavier run from the country.
Oats—Strong, being in good demand, both from speculative and shipping interests. The present large stocks and the prospect for further accumulation makes a heavy load for Montreal, Oct. 23—The market opened with the paper stocks in good demand. Wayagamac advanced two and one half points closing fractionally lower. Riordon had an advance of 5 points. Spanish River on active trading sold up to 18 3/4 and the preferred advance to 9 1-2 points. Laurentide was firm but with little activity. Cement was dull during the morning session but towards the close became more active and strong. Steel stocks were rather neglected, Dominion Steel and Scotia being practically unchanged. In the unlisted department there was some demand for Tram Power at 40. In War Loan dealings were heavy the old selling freely at 99 1-2 and the new sold at 99. Wayagamac Bonds were also strong at 90.

(By L. G. Beaubien & Co)
There is not much to be said in regards today's trading, excepting that of another session of sensational activities in the paper stocks of which Spanish River Pfd. was the most remarkable feature (with a gain of nearly 10 points for the day, it steadily rose from the opening of 48 1-2 to 59 on very limited trading, and showed signs of great scarcity, while the common stock was the most active stock among the paper group today, it also scored an excellent advance of 2 7-8 points to 18 7-8 compared with 16 very strong, after Paper was also very strong, after opening at 103 1-2 it closed at 107 1-2 which is a rise of three points for the day. Wayagamac continued going up, today it advanced its new high record to 94 1-2 against opening at 92 this morning, the high record touched today is exactly 20 points higher than the opening of last Monday, which in our opinion is a fairly good advance without a reaction. Laurentide Pulp was the only paper stock which did not respond to the rise.
In the steel stocks there was nothing startling. Dominion Steel held very strong around 67, and Steel Co. of Canada closed 64 1-2. Nova Scotia was strong all day around 138 to 139 which is a very attractive price for a man willing to take profits and wait. Civic was weaker and closed at 80 1-2, there is a lot of this stock for sale, it is a good investment but for a very poor actor for speculation purposes. The rest of the market closed strong with war loan issues at 99. In the unlisted department Tram Power sold as high as 40 1-2 being an advance of 1 1-4 on very active dealings.
Higher prices are promised for the paper stocks, especially the small priced issues that have not yet had their full share of the rise such as Spanish River.

the bull to carry around these levels.
New York—The action of the stock market today suggested practically no change of character to that which it has shown the past several days. Price changes were confined to moderately proportioned trading limits and such dealings as were contracted were mostly for a quick trading position in which small profits were the general rule.
The opening level was at an advance of Saturday's closing prices and was further improved by mid-day. This buying lacked the needed aggressiveness to continue the upward tendency, however, and after a brief period of dullness profit-taking on a small scale set in, causing a quick recessions in prices. Thereafter, fluctuations pursued a generally narrow course with no definite tendency either way. The market is still displaying the influence of political uncertainty, and this, no doubt, will remain a factor pending a clearer outlook of that question. The position of the market is considered wholly satisfactory.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE VICTORIA THEATRE

DUSIN FARNUM SCORED GREAT SUCCESS YESTERDAY. WILL BE SHOWN FOR LAST TIME TODAY.

Never has Dustin Farnum had such a role as in the latest Paramount production "The Parson of Panamint." His vast experience as a screen and stage star gives him a knowledge of histrionic values and this very popular story by Peter B. Kyne has given him a play that is superlative. The strength of this story seizes the imagination of the spectator with the opening flash and this powerful grip is never relaxed until the thrill of the last scene is but a memory.

All Quebec Theatre goers should avail themselves of this opportunity to see this wonderful production which has been brought to Quebec at a very great expense. In order to give everyone a chance to see it the management have booked this film for two days more, and will give a matinee performance daily at 2:15 p.m.

BRITISH TAKE OVER 1,000 YARDS OF TRENCHES.

London, Oct. 23—11.30 p.m.—More than a thousand yards of German trenches in the region of Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs were taken by the British in fighting north of the Somme river in France this afternoon, according to the official communication issued tonight. In the region of Grandecourt, the British artillery stopped a German plan for an attack. The communication says: "This afternoon in the course of operations by the right wing of our front south of the Ancre, we advanced our line east of Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs and captured over a thousand yards of enemy trenches. "During the day our front in the neighborhood of Le Sars was heavily shelled. South of Grandecourt this afternoon the enemy massed for an attack, but was stopped by our artillery. Sixty-six further prisoners are reported as a result of the fighting at the Schwaben redoubt and Le Sars, in addition to the total given yesterday. "Last night two German raids were attempted against our trenches in the neighborhood of Gommecourt. One was stopped by our fire and the enemy suffered heavy casualties. The second penetrated our outpost lines, but was promptly driven back by our counter attack. "Yesterday our aeroplanes bombed two railway stations behind the enemy's lines, hitting a train in motion and doing much damage to buildings and rolling stock. "Seven enemy machines were brought down and many others were forced to land in a damaged condition. Eight of our machines have not returned."
