Saint-Laurent passes the 100,000-resident mark!

This summer is a particularly special one for the Borough, which now officially boasts 100,000 residents! Saint-Laurent Day, which annually takes place at Parc Gohier, was a perfect opportunity to celebrate this event.

«Crossing the 100,000-resident mark is significant, because it makes us become aware of what a long way we have come since the days of the little village with its several hundred inhabitants, to the modern city that we live in today. While being delighted at Saint-Laurent's outstanding development, especially during the past quarter of a century, we will continue to progress by advancing wonderful ideas to build an active, attractive, responsible and innovative community,» stated Saint-Laurent Mayor, Alan DeSousa.

The Biblioth que du Bois  marks its first anniversary

Francesco Miele, City Councillor for C te-de-Liesse district, Laurent, mascot, Aref Salem, City Councillor for Norman-McLaren district, Patrick Igual, Director, Culture, Sports, Loisirs et D veloppement social, Andr e Tremblay, Head of division, Biblioth que et Culture, Maurice Cohen, City Councillor for C te-de-Liesse district, Dominique Gazo, Head of section, Biblioth que du Vieux-Saint-Laurent, Pierre Wilson, Director-Curator, Mus e des ma tres et artisans du Qu bec, and Abir Ossman, Head of section, Biblioth que du Bois .

Citizens gathered in force around the big tops on Sunday, July 6 for the annual used book sale, organized for the first time at the Biblioth que du Bois . Visitors were able to purchase inexpensive books in good condition, culled from the collections of both Saint-Laurent libraries.

The event was held in conjunction with the festivities surrounding the Biblioth que du Bois 's first anniversary. Various activities for the entire family were presented, including an eco-creation workshop, makeup sessions for children, a concert by singer-songwriter Catherine Planet, and the distribution of cotton candy!

"The rate of frequentation of Biblioth que du Bois  one year after its opening and the fact that the project has drawn rave reviews and distinctions show how it has appealed to everyone, and we couldn't be more pleased," said Saint-Laurent Mayor, Alan DeSousa. "Congratulations on a very successful first year of operation!"

In one year, the Biblioth que du Bois  drew no fewer than 412,000 visitors, and some 543,000 documents were borrowed. Hundreds of activities were also presented during the course of the year, both on site and outside the library, much to the delight of participants of all ages.

Message from the Mayor

Dear Saint-Laurent residents:

The past few months have been very colourful! Bubbling with excitement, the Summer Celebrations brought us an entertaining, amusing change from our daily routine and a chance to enjoy our borough's many parks and facilities. I would like to congratulate the team in our Culture, Sports, Loisirs et Développement social department for all their hard work and dedication in making these festivities so successful.

This past summer was also filled with good news! The Bibliothèque du Boisé celebrated its first anniversary on July 6. Already, there is no doubt that this library is one big success story.

Also this summer, Saint-Laurent crossed the 100,000-resident mark. I'm so pleased that our population is growing from year to year, as it is proof that our teams' hard work, our facilities and our programs are meeting residents' expectations. My colleagues on Council and I will continue to listen to our residents and satisfy their needs.

Saint-Laurent residents are in fact invited to come and share their ideas on September 30 at a Residents' Café at the Centre des loisirs, on the theme of What is the future Saint-Laurent of your dreams? It will be an excellent opportunity to exchange views and discuss concerns. You will find more information about this event on page 6.

The coming months promise to be filled with as many activities as the summer season, with the launch of the Cultural Season, which took place within the Journée de la culture at Bibliothèque du Boisé on September 26. Again this year, lots of concerts, plays and surprises in store...

Happy reading!

Members of the Saint-Laurent Urban Security Patrol in the company of Saint-Laurent Council members: Francesco Miele, City Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, Maurice Cohen, Borough Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, Alan DeSousa, Mayor of Saint-Laurent, and Aref Salem, City Councillor for Norman-McLaren district.

Urban Security Patrol is always at the forefront

In recent months, the Urban Security Patrol pursued its initiatives to remain an essential service with respect to ensuring residents' well-being.

Automatic external defibrillators

In order to assist individuals in distress while waiting for an ambulance to arrive, each patrol team is now equipped with automatic external defibrillators (EAD). Already qualified to provide assistance and first aid for citizens, the personnel working in Urban Security have also received training on how to safely use the AED. This device is used to restore the heart rhythm of a victim who is in cardiac arrest. This type of equipment is also available at select municipal buildings frequented by residents.

Involvement with youth

For the second consecutive year, the Urban Security Patrol organized two networking activities in the community.

The patrol again integrated with the programs of several Borough summer camps in order to explain its role to young participants. Among other things, patrol members displayed their vehicles and a few of their work tools, such as emergency traffic signage and the first aid kit.

Also during this period, a team of two bicycle patrols toured Saint-Laurent territory while focusing on bicycle lanes and major public events held in the parks. For instance, on July 14, it accompanied a group of teens from C-Vert during an activity organized for them to discover the Saint-Laurent in motion project as well as historical and ecological attractions throughout the borough.

Two patrol members, lieutenant Nicolas Nogarolle and patroller Matthieu Schambier presenting their mission to the young participants at a Saint-Laurent summer camp.

Number to remember: 514 855-5700
 In addition to ensuring compliance with the different bylaws in effect and playing an intervention role during situations involving emergency measures, members of the patrol also have the knowledge to intervene when it comes to vehicular and pedestrian traffic. Residents can contact the patrol at all times by calling 514 855-5700.

International Day of Peace

MONDAY,
SEPTEMBER

The right of peoples to peace is the theme selected by the United Nations to underscore the International Day of Peace.

On Monday, September 22, from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m., Saint-Laurent will celebrate the event in Parc Beaudet.

Both the young and the young-at-heart are invited to come out and celebrate peace, to take in the sounds of a children's choir, and to write their message for peace. In case of rain, the event will be held under a tent.

It has been more than a decade since Saint-Laurent first started celebrating this tradition by inviting all citizens to come out and rejoice in the peaceful cohabitation enjoyed by the members of the many different cultural communities that make up its population.

A public piano available to all aficionados!

For the entire summer, Saint-Laurent residents have been welcome to play the outdoor piano and enjoy the performances of other accomplished or fledgling pianists in various districts throughout the borough.

Introduced for the Summer Celebrations, the initiative was made possible thanks to the collaboration of VertCité. Enhanced by the visual artist Omen, the piano provides a wonderful opportunity for anyone and everyone to express their musical creativity during the entire summer.

The piano is mobile: it was set up at the Grand-Place de Bois-Franc from July 1 to the 31, and at Parc Beaudet from August 2 to the 31. It will be at the cégep de Saint-Laurent from September 2 to the 30.

Pianist, Alejandra Cifuentes Diaz surrounded by Marc-André Roy, a director of the Association des propriétaires de Bois-Franc, Guy Déziel, the director of VertCité, Frédérique Steenackers, the project manager with Communications and Events for the Association des propriétaires de Bois-Franc, and Francesco Miele, City Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district.

A magical morning at the Bibliothèque du Boisé

An extraordinary book launch took place at the Bibliothèque du Boisé on June 18. Entitled La bibliothèque magique the book was conjured up by the imaginations of a 3rd grade class at École Jean-Grou with the Commission scolaire Marguerite-Bourgeoys, and was illustrated by Caroline Merola. To the immense pleasure of the children and parents in attendance, the literary work was unveiled at a presentation put together by the employees of Saint-Laurent's libraries.

"The idea of bringing together culture and education, two components that complete each other perfectly, makes it possible to involve the students in a creation project from start to finish. This book is likely to serve as a wonderful source of inspiration for them. It is an excellent way to introduce students to literary creation, to instil a love of books, and to encourage the fun of reading," declared Saint-Laurent Mayor, Alan DeSousa.

The Bibliothèque magique is available throughout the entire Montréal libraries network.

The following students participated in this project: Amir Abbas, Maria Adimi, Ahmed Bahwach, Laura Isabel Bascope Butron, Juliana Chaya, Daniel Eleazar Elias Segovia, Christelle Kandalajt, Niharika Koul, Ahmad Najjar, Joseph Nasri, Omar Qadri, Hassan Rammal, Assa Sanoh, Youssef Sbaita, Ziad Shiekh, Harrendiran Theivendran, Sara Touhami, Viviane Vo and Jolie William.

Maurice Cohen, Borough Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, surrounded by Caroline Merola, illustrator, Louise-France Beaulieu, community librarian, Ghislaine Vandal, associate director, Culture, Sports, Loisirs et Développement social, Diane Lamarche-Venne, president of the Commission scolaire Marguerite-Bourgeoys, the Grade 3 class from École primaire Jean-Grou, Michelle Girard, librarian, and Sylvie Rabbat, teacher.

The students took turns each reading a sentence from their book.

Laurent presented the book to the students.

Illustrator Caroline Merola was on hand to autograph the books.

One child, one tree: Saint-Laurent celebrates its newborn residents

In a festive atmosphere on June 7, Saint-Laurent proceeded to unveil the trees planted under the One child, one tree program. Close to 30 Saint-Laurent newborns were each awarded a tree.

Back for its fourth edition, the tree-planting project took place in Parc Marcel-Laurin. Each child received a personalized certificate pinpointing the precise location and variety of his or her tree.

“This event is a celebration for Saint-Laurent. It gives us great pleasure to host these families and celebrate new births with a wonderful symbol of life: the tree. In Saint-Laurent, we are focused on turning our territory green and on implementing environmental standards that are in line with our Local Plan for Sustainable Development,” explained Saint-Laurent Mayor, Alan DeSousa.

Honourable Stéphane Dion, MP for Saint-Laurent–Cartierville, Alan DeSousa, Mayor of Saint-Laurent, Francesco Miele, City Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, Aref Salem, City Councillor for Norman-McLaren district, and Maurice Cohen, Borough Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, surrounded by the families that registered to the One child, one tree program.

Citizens who wish to register a child born or adopted in 2014 for the One child, one tree program may do so through the Borough of Saint-Laurent’s Citizens’ Office by sending an email to: saint-laurent@ville.montreal.qc.ca

BIODIVERSITY IN SAINT-LAURENT

Developing our natural spaces: A teamwork effort

Francesco Miele, City Councillor for Côte-de-Liesse district, is joined by two representatives of VertCité, Project Manager Simon Broquet and General Manager Guy Deziel, as well as RBC’s Anne No Delaide, Vice-President, Financial and Commercial Services – Western Montréal Region, and Accounts Manager Carmelina Pietromonaco, in addition to employees from both RBC and Saint-Laurent’s Division de l’environnement et de la protection du territoire.

In order to step up efforts to develop the natural site of Parc Philippe-Laheurte, Saint-Laurent and Éco-quartier jointly organized clean-up operations, which were held on August 1, with the participation of some fifteen RBC employees from the Royal Bank of Canada branch located on Boulevard de la Côte-Vertu.

A total of approximately 720 litres of non-recyclable waste and 100 litres of recyclables were collected.

An island of nature in the heart of the City

The natural site of Parc Philippe-Laheurte truly distinguishes itself, as it offers a living environment that is suitable for both plant and animal diversity. A wooded area with a water retention pond, this natural site is home to a number of species, such as green frogs and American toads. The site is also annually visited by over 40 bird species. Specimens of great blue herons, swallows and ducks are some of the visitors that have been observed there.

Centre des loisirs, 1375, rue Grenet, Room 136

What is a Café citoyen? It is a perfect opportunity for discussion and dialogue in an interactive and friendly setting.

The evening is being held as part of the development of the 2nd Action Plan for Social Development that Saint-Laurent is preparing with a view to improving the quality of life for its citizens.

Those interested in attending or in receiving more information are asked to communicate with Michèle Kaugbough, social development research officer by email at: michelepatricia.kaugbough@ville.montreal.qc.ca or by calling 514 855-6110, extension 4787.

Art adds beauty to the borough!

The Décarie and Beaudet intersection is about to undergo a colourful overhaul! The revered OMEN, armed with a paintbrush in one hand and a can of spray paint in the other, will produce an artistic mural around Parc Beaudet that is based on the theme of harmony.

This artistic mural will not only embellish the neighbourhood, but will also help to halt the amount of graffiti appearing on the wall.

This is the first initiative in Saint-Laurent by MU, a charitable organization whose mission is to transform public spaces in Montréal by creating murals that are anchored in the communities. MU also stands out for its cultural mediation component. In Saint-Laurent, mural art workshops were offered this summer to teens who frequent the Centre des loisirs. They created their own collaborative masterpiece at their offices.

Défi Santé
5-30 Équilibre

Résultat du tirage Défi 5-30

Les citoyens de Saint-Laurent qui s'étaient inscrits ce printemps au Défi 5-30 Équilibre étaient admissibles au tirage de cinq chèques-cadeaux d'une valeur de 200 $ applicables aux frais d'inscription pour les activités de sports et de loisirs offertes par l'arrondissement.

Toutes nos félicitations aux heureux gagnants!

David Émile, Marine Gasparyan, Dorian Katro, Sylvie Lamarre et Sovann Van!

Rappelons que le Défi 5-30 Équilibre a pour but d'encourager l'adoption de saines habitudes de vie, notamment en mangeant mieux et en bougeant plus. Le Défi sera de retour en 2015! Pour de plus amples renseignements, visitez le www.defisante.ca.

Défi 5-30 draw results

Citizens of Saint-Laurent who registered for the Défi 5-30 Équilibre back in the spring were entered in a draw for five gift cards valued at $200, redeemable for sports and recreational activities offered by the Borough.

Congratulations to the lucky winners!

David Émile, Marine Gasparyan, Dorian Katro, Sylvie Lamarre and Sovann Van!

The objective of the Défi 5-30 Équilibre is to encourage people to adopt healthy lifestyle habits, namely by eating better and moving more. The Challenge will be back in 2015! For more information visit www.defisante.ca.
