5TH AND 8TH ARMIES FUSE FORCES AT SALERNO

Contact Established By Patrols After Amazing March Northward By 8th

Canadians Reported Among Reinforcements Thronging onto Beachhead to Support 5th—Allies' Medium and Light Bombers, Fighter Bombers and Fighters Pound Enemy Troop Concentrations and Transport on Smoking, Flaming Battleground.

Allied Headquarters, North Africa, Sept. 17.—(P)—The 5th Army of Lt.-Gen. Mark W. Clark and the British 8th Army fused their fronts with establishment of contact between patrols following an amazing Northward march of nearly 200 miles from the Italian toe by Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's veterans, Allied headquarters announced today.

The British 8th Army, which includes units of the Canadian 1st Division, also made contact with British forces beating up the Italian East coast from Taranto, a communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced. All three of the Allied beachheads on the West, South and East thereby were about to be welded into a single front when the main bodies of troops get together.

The contact between Gen. Montgomery's speeding warriors and Gen. Clark's British and American troops, who for eight days had fought the greatest engagement of the Mediterranean war in order to maintain their West coast foothold, was made somewhere in or near the Southern end of the Salerno bridgehead.

(The Vichy Radio spoke of Canadians among the reinforcements thronging onto the beachhead to support the 5th Army. Earlier this week the German radio had said German troops faced Canadian troops, tanks and armored vehicles on part of the Salerno front, and a London dispatch had indicated that the Canadian 1st Army tank brigade was in action there. None of these reports has yet received official confirmation.)

Linking of the two armies broke the enemy's ring of steel around Gen. Clark's Tommies and doughboys and appeared to have ended the critical period of the battle fought against four or more German armored divisions on the bloodstained beaches.

Announcement of the contact was made by Allied headquarters shortly after a communique had told of Gen. Montgomery's capture of Vallo Della Lucania, 16 miles from Agropoli, at the Southern end of the 27-mile front held by the 5th Army.

Lt.-Gen. Mark Clark's army of British and American soldiers—and which is also believed to include the 1st Canadian Army Tank Brigade—skirmishing in a new force from their beachhead foxholes, meanwhile repulsed three counter-attacks yesterday and "resumed the initiative," the communique said.

Albania, was re-occupied. Allied forces were driven from this town early in the week by a German counter-attack.

The war bulletin said German resistance, now had "weakened considerably" as the enemy forces attempted to limit the expanding Allied bridgehead. The communique said again, as Gen. Clark did yesterday in a congratulatory order of the day to his troops, that the bridgehead "has been firmly established."

During yesterday's action, the announcement said, prisoners were taken and the salients made by previous German attacks were reduced.

In the South, a British 8th Army column which advanced up the East Coast of the Italian toe was reported to have effected a junction with troops sweeping out from captured Taranto on the heel.

Premier's Foreign Policy Stand Boosts Finland Peace Sentiment

Stockholm, Sept. 17.—(P)—Peace sentiment in Finland was given a strong boost today through an announcement by Premier Edvin Linkomies identifying himself as the anonymous spokesman who was quoted as saying September 11 that his country wished to withdraw from the war.

At that time, Linkomies declared Finland regretted being at war with Britain and desired peace with Russia if she could be assured of her pre-1939 independence and territorial status.

The Finns already have made formal peace overtures through Britain and the United States, but there has been no indication of a direct approach to Russia, which has insisted that Finland take the first step.

The Helsinki correspondent of the Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet reported that Linkomies' foreign policy declaration mirrored Finland's prevalent public opinion.

Meanwhile, Germany still was having trouble with another Northern neighbor, Denmark.

Three Soviet Armies Closing In On Krasnograd, Nazi Bastion And Rail Junction On Kharkov Line

London, Sept. 17.—(P)—Three Soviet armies, surging Westward through the Southern Ukraine, are closing in on Krasnograd, Nazi bastion and rail junction in the Kharkov-Dnieperpetrovsk railway from Moscow said today.

Other Red Army columns, having scored four impressive victories yesterday, were plunging forward on many sectors of the 500-mile battlefield, intent on throwing the Germans back across the formidable Dnieper river barrier before the heavy autumn rains render large-scale military operations impossible.

A D.N.B. broadcast from Berlin today admitted that the Russians had lost Novorossisk, the Russian Black Sea naval base in the Caucasus.

The German communique, broadcast by Berlin and recorded by the Associated Press, also conceded once more that the Nazis had evacuated Bryansk, important base on the Central front. Berlin announced three days ago that Bryansk had been evacuated but denied it in a broadcast yesterday. The Russians have made no claims of the city's capture.

A triumphant Moscow communique, heralded by two special orders of the day signed by Premier Joseph Stalin and a salute of 24 salvos from 124 guns in the Russian Capital, recorded gains on four widely separated sectors which apparently doomed the entire system of Nazi defense and communication lines East of the Dnieper. They were:

1.—Capture of the great Black Sea port of Novorossisk, an important naval base and springboard for an assault upon the German-held Crimea.

URGES POST-WAR CONSIDERATION

Toronto, Sept. 17.—(P)—The 15th session of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada ends today after seven days of hard work. Thanksgiving services in observance of the 50th anniversary of formation of the General Synod will be celebrated in all dioceses outside Toronto Sunday, September 26.

Last night stirring appeals for development of wide religious leadership and a campaign for social justice were made by two bishops of the Church.

Rt. Rev. P. Carrington, Bishop of Quebec, opposed relegation to a committee of a report as important as that brought in by the Commission on Reconstruction. He thought

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS AT LABOR PARLEY

Considerable Agenda Still Facing 529 Accredited Delegates to Canadian Congress of Labor Convention.

Montreal, Sept. 17.—(P)—Constitutional amendments occupied yesterday's sessions of the Canadian Congress of Labor's fourth annual convention, which enters its fifth and final day today.

Still before the 529 accredited delegates is a considerable agenda. It includes election of officers, additional proposals for modification of the Congress constitution, reports from various committees involving consideration of many resolutions, and an address by R. J. Thomas, of Detroit, International President of the United Automobile Workers of America.

Longest debate yesterday came on a constitutional change which establishes a new basis for representation to Congress conventions. Passed by a roll call vote of 244-173, the new method limits delegates from any one chartered or affiliated local union to ten. Up to that limit it provides one delegate for the first 100 members or less and one additional delegate for each additional 100 members or major fraction thereof.

The previous representation was based on one delegate for the first 100 members or less and one additional delegate for each additional 100 members or major fraction thereof.

The roll call vote was preceded by a show of hands, after which President A. R. Mosher expressed the chair's doubt as to the result, and a standing vote on which he declared the amendment carried. He then granted demands from the floor of the convention that a roll call be taken.

Another amendment which precipitated lengthy discussion before it was adopted provides that any dispute between two or more affiliated or chartered unions regarding jurisdiction or any other matter may be submitted by either union to the Congress Executive Council, which may decide the course of action to be followed. The decision shall be accepted as final and binding by the unions involved.

ALLIED WAR EFFORT REVIEWED

Concentrated Assaults On German Railway Stations At Modane Are Carried Out By Big Bomber Force

London, Sept. 17.—(P)—A large force of R.A.F. and Canadian bombers swept deep into Southeastern France last night to make a concentrated attack on enemy railway stations at Modane on the French-Italian frontier, it was announced today, and Mosquitos again hit Berlin.

Big, home-based British and Canadian Lancasters, striking directly at enemy efforts to rush reinforcements into the Italian battlefronts, also made a low level attack on the Antheor viaduct near St. Raphael on the French Riviera route.

At Modane, a French frontier town near the opening of the Mont Cenis tunnel, a "heavy and concentrated attack was made" on the freight yards, it was announced.

"First reports indicate both attacks were effective," the communique said.

Four of the night bombers were reported missing and R.C.A.F. headquarters said one of them was Canadian.

Several Halifax squadrons of the Canadian Bomber Group helped the R.A.F. in blasting the French rail centre, headquarters said, while R.C.A.F. Mosquitos and Mustangs aided in intruder work over the Low Countries and France. One Canadian fighter is missing.

In hitting at the Modane area, the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. bombers probably disrupted traffic through one of the few remaining railroad channels through the Alps over which the Germans can funnel reinforcements into Italy.

The big Alpine Cenis tunnel is 50 miles Northwest of Turin on the rail route to Lyon and Paris.

The attacks came immediately after American bombers made one of the heaviest daylight assaults of the war against port installations, docks and airports in the Bay of Biscay area.

U.S. GUNNER AWARDED HIGH DECORATIONS

London, Sept. 17.—(P)—An unusual, simultaneous award of the Distinguished Flying Cross and Oak Leaf Cluster—equivalent to two D.F.C.s—was today to Sgt. Donald W. Crossley, 25 of the United States Army Air Force. The highest scoring United States aerial gunner in European theatre of operations, Crossley shot down eleven German planes in twenty heavy bomber raids. Crossley already held an Air Medal and three Clusters for the raids.

"Great Excitement" Reported In Balkans Over Campaign In Italy

Washington, Sept. 17.—(P)—Isolated by German invasion armies for two years, the ingenious fighting patriots of Yugoslavia have established direct radio contact with the United States. The first messages from the guerrilla-operated station tell of "great excitement" in the Balkans over the Allied drive into neighboring Italy.

Equipment for the radio setup may have been parachuted into the Yugoslav hills by Allied planes, Yugoslav Embassy officials hinted.

The State Department confirmed that the station was being operated by the patriotic forces of Gen. Draza Mihailovich.

One message to the embassy here told how patriots routed German detachments sent to replace Italian police units after the Badoglio armistice.

Mihailovich's forces thrust a wedge into the German units in East Bosnia, not far from the town of Zvornik, the message said. Cut into groups of two, the Germans were pushed toward Drina. When they tried to swim a river to escape, they were "attacked and completely destroyed" on the right bank.

The dispatches are put out by a newly-formed Yugoslav news service—the Democratic Telegraphic Agency. The embassy said the agency probably represents the Democratic Committee formed by a council of guerrilla leaders in August, 1941.

WAR BULLETINS

London.—A Reuters news agency dispatch from Stockholm quoted reports from Switzerland today as saying that negotiations now are proceeding in Palermo, Sicily, for Italy's eventual declaration of war upon Germany and her acceptance as an Allied power.

London.—Yugoslav guerillas have captured the Dalmatian seaport of Split after a two-day battle and another force of patriots now is attacking Ogulin, inland city further North, according to a communique issued here in the name of the Yugoslav Army of Liberation.

New Delhi.—R.A.F. bombers and fighters continued their sweeps over Japanese-occupied Burma yesterday, attacking targets in widely-separated areas and shooting up traffic on the Irrawaddy river, a British air communique said today.

GERMANS TURN TO ITALY FOR LABOR SOURCE

Nazi Authorities Add Former Allies to List of Countries from Which Reich Gathering Slave Labor.

Berne, Sept. 17.—(P)—Nazi authorities have begun requisitioning Italian workmen, adding their former Allies to the long list of countries from which the Reich is gathering slave labor.

Heads of German labor camps have been instructed to prepare to receive "great numbers" of Italian farm workers, a dispatch to Geneva's La Suisse said, adding that it had been "confirmed" that Fritz Sauckel, Nazi High Commissioner for Labor Employment, had been charged with requisitioning Italian peasants.

Berlin Radio Reports Canadian Troops Land At Castellabate To Reinforce British-American Unit

London, Sept. 17.—(P)—The Berlin radio reported today that one of Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's 8th Army motorized divisions had been landed near Salerno Wednesday night to reinforce the British-American 5th Army, and said: "The Canadians, landed near Castellabate."

The German report was not confirmed by any source, but official announcements from Allied headquarters in North Africa have repeatedly mentioned that reinforcements are being poured into the bridgehead.

Nothing was known in London of the Berlin assertion that Canadians had made new landings in Italy. Early this week the Germans said, without confirmation, that their troops had battled Canadian formations in fighting the 5th Army, and London indicated that perhaps the Canadian 1st Army Tank Brigade made up part of the Salerno force.

Other Canadians, from the 1st Division which operated in Sicily, are known to form a part of Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's British 8th Army striking up Italy from its initial landing on the toe.

Another mention of Canadians on the Salerno front came today from the German-controlled Vichy radio. Conceding that the Germans had tried to drive the 5th Army off its beachheads, the radio had this to say:

"If Marshal Kesselring has not yet succeeded in forcing the American troops of Gen. Clark and the British and Canadian reinforcement troops to re-embark, at least his attacks have cut the American line in two, forming two bridgeheads, one at Salerno, the other at Boli."

This claim of splitting the Allied forces was not confirmed.

While Allied airmen marked up another aerial victory over the Japanese—with 48 and probably 59 enemy fighters destroyed out of an attacking force of 60 to 70—strong Allied ground forces were reported converging on the New Guinea base for the kill.

Australian forces moving in from the East have taken Milne Bay Warfage, just outside the airdrome and the town itself. A Western force has occupied Edwards' Plantation, not far from the town, and troops are coming up fast from captured Salamaua.

The brilliant aerial victory came during a raid by heavy bombers with a fighter escort on the Japanese base at Wewak, New Guinea. A communique from Allied headquarters today said they downed 39, probably 49. The fighters accounted for nine definite and one probable.

But bombers wreaked still more damage. In 15 minutes they concentrated 66 tons of bombs on the Wewak and Borm airdromes. Direct hits destroyed 10 grounded bombers and started many fires among numerous other parked aircraft.

Close to 450 Japanese planes have been shot down or destroyed at Wewak in the past six weeks but today's communique said the enemy's air strength in this theatre now is larger than ever" as result of continuous reinforcements.

In the Solomons, escorted bombers from Admiral William F. Halsey's command struck repeatedly at airdromes in the Buin area. More than 200 planes participated in the attacks, which were described as successful.

Bombers also attacked 35 to 40 barges along the New Guinea coast, sinking 15 and destroying or damaging the others. Three Japanese cargo ships were bombed and strafed in Buks Passage. Another ship, a 1,500-ton freighter, received a direct hit with a 500-pound bomb and was left stationary and listing.

Japanese planes ineffectively raided Darwin, Australia, and Oran, New Guinea.

Roosevelt Promises Further Blows To Be Dealt Huns And Japs

U.S. President Predicts Powerful New Thrusts at Foe, Including Fresh Invasions of Hitler's European Stronghold—Makes Bid for Axis Satellites to Get Out of War—Lauds Russia's Sledgehammer Blows.

Washington, Sept. 17.—(P)—President Roosevelt reviewed for the United States Congress today the sweeping Allied war effort on fronts around the world and promised "further blows" against Germany and Japan and the ultimate rocking out of "the war-breeding gangs of militarists."

The President, in a lengthy message, withheld any specific recommendations for congressional action to further the progress of the war or help solidify the peace to follow.

He confined himself largely to analyzing what has been accomplished on the fighting fronts and on the production front and to predicting powerful new thrusts at the foe, including fresh invasions of Hitler's European stronghold.

He made a bid for the Axis satellites to get out of the war, mentioning Rumania, Hungary, Finland and Bulgaria. He said the Allies have reliable information of "definite unrest and a growing desire for peace," among their peoples.

Mr. Roosevelt praised Russia's sledgehammer blows against the Nazis and at the same time gave what appeared to be his answer to some Russian complaints that the Allied operations in the Mediterranean have not drawn off enough German strength from the Russian front.

He said it was certain that the campaign in North Africa, Sicily and Italy, plus the engaging of large numbers of German planes in the skies over Western Europe, "have given important help to the Russian armies along their advancing front from Leningrad to the Black Sea."

"We know, too," he said, "that we are contributing to that advance by making Germany keep many divisions in the Balkans, in Southern France and along the English Channel. I like to think that these words constitute an understatement."

The President gave a four-point summation of the war in telling Congress that "we are still a long, long way from ultimate victory in any major theatre of the war." These were his points:

1. Despite substantial victories in the Mediterranean, "we face a hard, and costly fight up through Italy," and a major task of organizing po-

Strong Allied Forces Converging On New Guinea Bases For The Kill

Allied Headquarters, the Southwest Pacific, Sept. 17.—(P)—Reports from the fighting front indicate Lae is tottering and its fall is imminent.

Other reports said the Nazis were seizing all persons unable to show adequate identification and hustling them off to undisclosed destinations.

Marshall, United States Army Chief of Staff, stood beside President Avila Camacho on a balcony of the National Palace yesterday to review a parade of Mexico's armed forces staged as part of the country's Independence Day celebration. Mexican commando troops appeared for the first time in the military demonstration.

Several members of the House of Representatives Military Committee declared, however, that they had not been convinced by the testimony thus far, including that of Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson, that the inductions are necessary now.

The House group decided at an executive session yesterday to continue its investigation of the matter when Marshall appears on Monday.

Mr. Thomas Chadsey, who has spent the summer at Niagara Falls, Ont., in camp, was in town for a few days on his way to Sherbrooke to visit his grandmother, Mrs. T. Flaherty. Mr. Chadsey is again on the staff of the Pointe Claire School for the scholastic year.

U.S. ARMY CHIEF TO GIVE VIEWS ON DRAFT ISSUE

New Opposition to Early Drafting of U.S. Fathers Appears in House of Representatives.

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—New and vocal opposition to the early drafting of men in the United States who were fathers prior to December 7, 1941, arose in the House of Representatives today while members of the Senate Military Committee generally appeared willing to let Gen. George C. Marshall, United States Army Chief of Staff, have the final say.

Marshall is due to appear before the Committee Monday, and indications mounted that many Senators will not make up their minds on the anti-draft bill, which would postpone the induction of family heads until after January 1, before hearing his views.

Several members of the House of Representatives Military Committee declared, however, that they had not been convinced by the testimony thus far, including that of Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson, that the inductions are necessary now.

The House group decided at an executive session yesterday to continue its investigation of the matter when Marshall appears on Monday.

3.—Capture of strategic Lozovaya, cutting the Kharkov-Crimea railway. Northern land artery for German forces in the Crimea, which placed Russian troops only 35 miles from the Dnieper river bend.

4.—Seizure of Novoskva, Southwest of Nezhin, and 57 miles from the great middle Dnieper German base of Kiev.

The speed with which the Soviet columns were eating up German-held positions East of the Dnieper, encouraged the belief they might reach the river within the next few days, launch a drive against the White Russian frontier, 80 miles West of Novogorod Severki, force a German retreat from the Caucasian bridgehead above captured Novorossisk, and complete the invasion of the citadel of Bryansk.

The Germans fought for Novogorod Severki with bloody tenacity, but the Red Army troops blasted their way across the wide Desna river Southwest of Bryansk and drove the enemy in headlong retreat, the Moscow bulletin reported.

More than 1,500 Nazi dead were counted in this assault, while additional thousands fell before fierce Russian thrusts on other sectors, the communique said.

Novorossisk capitulated to Soviet infantry, sailors and airmen after a five-day battle in which 50,000 Axis troops were reported routed.

The Axis force were smashed upon after fierce street fighting in the heart of the sector.

Seizure of Novoskva put Red Army troops in the sector only 40 miles Southwest of Chernigov, on the road connecting Kiev with Gomel in White Russia. Motorized Russian columns were already reported advancing on both these enemy bases.

In all, a total of more than 225 towns and villages, many regarded as important strategically, were captured by the Russian armies during the day's advance, the Moscow communique asserted.

On the Northern Coast of the Sea of Azov, other Russian units were pounding Westward toward Melitopol, last mainland junction of the railway crossing into the Crimean Peninsula. They staged a 10½-mile advance yesterday in this sector the communique said.

COMMITTEE VISITS ALUMINUM PLANT

St. Joseph d'Alma, Que., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Members of the War Expenditures Committee of the House of Commons today completed a visit to the Aluminum Company of Canada development in this Lake St. John district, and left for Ottawa.

The sixteen committeemen arrived at Arvida Wednesday and have made an extensive examination of properties, preliminary to hearings on aluminum costs and production to be held shortly.

Bidding the group's farewell to company officials, Dr. L. B. Donnelly Lib., Wood Mountain said he believed other plants would require the power from the Aluminum Company projects on the Saguenay River even if aluminum needs are sharply reduced after the war.

BIZET'S OPERA FOUND BY GERMAN MUSICIAN

London, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Berlin Radio said today that the score of Georges Bizet's opera, "Ivan le Terrible," previously believed destroyed by the French composer because he considered it not up to his standards, had been found by a German musical expert, Dr. Ernst Hartmann, in Paris and would be performed for the first time at Dresden. The broadcast was recorded by The Associated Press.

ALASKANS SUPPORT WAR LOAN HEAVILY

Juneau, Alaska, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Alaskan natives are digging deep in their mauls to support the United States Third War Loan drive. The Office of Indian Affairs reported today that native associations already have subscribed nearly $50,000. Many of the purchasers are in small villages which have not been assigned quotas.

Both naval and air support for the fighting British and Americans smashing into the explosive-toned foothills back of the Salerno landing beaches continued to be "excellent," the communique said.

Units were noted as fighting at Algiers in a broadcast heard by The Associated Press in London that Allied fighters now are taking off for the battle of Salerno from a captured airfield not far from the scene. It was not identified.

A major highway junction of Potenza, used by German troops moving into the battle area, was kept under night and day air attack.

Medium and light bombers, fighter-bombers and fighters pounded troop concentrations and transport again on the smoking, flaming battleground. The enemy airfield at Cisterna Litoria was attacked by light bombers last night.

One enemy aircraft was knocked down during the period and two Allied planes were listed as missing.

Gen. Clark declared yesterday that the 5th and 8th armies would meet "in a matter of hours" as his forces went into their first real offensive since the original landings nine days ago.

A state of expectant mystery veiled the operations of the third Allied force in Italy—the British troops who sliced off the heel in the Taranto area and who then struck up to Bari, a logical jumping off place to smash across the Adriatic into the heart of Germany.

The 8th Army was reported officially yesterday to have passed through the coast village of Scapala, some fifty airline miles below the Salerno battleground, and there appeared little to delay its rapid progress.

(The Algiers radio said last night that some detachments already had reached Sapri, just eighteen and one-half miles from Clark's lower anchor.)

The AP Correspondent Daniel de Luce, who reached 5th Army headquarters two days ago after a daring 100-mile trip through no-man's land in advance of the 8th, reported the Germans had thrown few obstructions in the path of Montgomery's veterans.

Gen. Harold Alexander, Commander-in-Chief of Land Operations in Italy, stepped ashore in the Salerno area Wednesday, possibly to be on hand to take personal command of the over-all operations in Italy when the 5th and 8th armies become one unit.

The British-American 5th Army, attached to which is believed to be the 1st Canadian Army Tank Brigade, surged out of the lowland foxholes yesterday at dawn to strike at the Nazi forces, who earlier in the day had forced back the invaders.

By day's end the German Allied forces had won back most, if not all of the territory lost in the German counter-attacks, but first reports arriving from the front were not clear as to the exact depth of the penetration.

On Wednesday, the Northwest African Air Arm, ably abetted by heavy bombers from the Middle East, filled the skies over the pulsing battlefield and dumped upon the enemy the greatest concentration of explosives yet delivered in the Mediterranean theatre.

Even virtually without opposition from the German airforce and completing two days of operations with the loss of four planes, four-engine, medium and light bombers, fighter-bombers and fighters teamed up to deliver a bombardment far greater than that which had been the lot of Pantelleria into subjection.

Simultaneously, the hills echoed with the roar of naval guns offshore hurling a stream of destructive shells upon enemy positions.

Gen. Clark, in a press conference with Allied correspondents, said the Germans had been entrenching themselves on the Salerno beaches for two weeks before the Allied forces landed "but even so we smashed through them to take the initiative."

The amazing two-day, 100-mile trip through enemy territory by which Daniel de Luce and eight British war correspondents, escorted by two British captains, made the first contact between the 8th and 5th armies, was an outstanding and important achievement of the war.

The party, riding in a jeep, a truck and two staff cars, left Montgomery's forces far down the coast.

On several occasions, Italians warned the correspondents of the presence of Germans in the vicinity and the Nazis were successfully avoided.

In the 100 miles the only demolitions the party discovered "were an ammunition dump and a railway bridge the Germans had blown up."

The Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting in Upper Melbourn at the home of Mrs. W. Garrett, with Mrs. Grimston as joint hostess. There were ten members present. The President, Mrs. G. Frank, was in the chair and the meeting opened with the pledge to the flag and the Mary Stewart Collect. The Secretary, Mrs. G. Crack, read the minutes, which were approved as read. Correspondence consisted of letters from the Red Cross, Mr. and Mrs. C. Stevens and Mrs. Annie Smallman, the new Provincial President of the W. I. and a letter from the Organizing Secretary of the Convent Branch of the W.P.T.B. Roll Call was answered by naming a city or town in the province and one of its chief industries. Mrs. R. Kerr gave the Treasurer's report, which showed a balance on hand of thirty-six dollars and eleven cents. Ways and means were discussed on how to raise money for soldiers' Christmas boxes and the sailors' ditty bags. It was decided to hold a rummage and food sale in the lower Melbourn Hall on October 16. A committee consisting of Mrs. J. Fowler, Mrs. R. Kerr, Mrs. L. Driver, Mrs. A. Batchelor, Mrs. M. Waters and Mrs. Grimston was named to look after same. Social evenings are to be held at the home of members beginning with Mrs. G. Crack. The committee recently completed by Mrs. Baker and friend, Mrs. M. Becon, for the Red Cross has been turned in. One member turned in her money for the birthday box. Flowers are to be sent to an aged shut-in. A dainty lunch was served with the hostess, pouring tea at the dining table which was covered with a lovely cloth of white embroidered with a beautiful design in blue. The next meeting is to be held in the Melbourn United Church Hall, on Tuesday, October 5.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fowler were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and family, of Waterloo, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fowler, of Richmond.

Miss Marjorie Moffatt, of Shawinigan Falls, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Booth and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Driver and family were evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Solomon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrington were in Sherbrooke where Mr. Barrington is taking treatments for a sciatica condition.

Mr. Cossette, of Chicoutimi, spent a week-end with his family here.

All those wishing to donate for the rummage and food sale for the raising of funds to provide Christmas boxes for other boys in uniform and for sailors' ditty bags, may leave their donations at the home of Mrs. Guy Frank.

positions before they can be taken advantage of.

2. From Britain, we must be sure that we have assembled the strength to strike not just in one direction, but in many directions—by land and sea and in the air—with overwhelming forces and equipment.

3. The Russian army will have a long way to go to get into Germany itself, despite their magnificent counter-offensive.

4. The Japanese remain firmly established on an enormous front from the Kuriles Islands in the North to the Solomons in the South and Burma and China in the East, and to break through their defensive ring.

"We must hit them and hit them hard, not merely at one point but at many points and we must keep on hitting them."

At the outset of the message, his first major communication to Congress since its summer recess, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The Congress and the American people can rest assured that the landing on Italy is not the only landing we have in mind. That landing was planned at Casablanca.

"At Quebec, the leaders and the military staff of Great Britain and the United States made specific and precise plans to bring to bear further blows of equal or greater importance against Germany and Japan."

"On the 10th of July a carefully prepared expedition landed in Sicily," he said, "in spite of heavy German opposition it cleared the large and heavily-fortified island in 38 days."

"British, Canadian and American losses in killed, wounded and missing in the Sicilian campaign were 31,158, of which the American forces lost 7,448. The casualties among the British and Canadians were approximately 165,000, including 132,000 prisoners."

(Ottawa has announced Canadian casualties in Sicily at 2,300.)

"The unmistakably sincere welcome given to the Allied troops by the Italian people has proved conclusively that this is a country which had lived for a generation under a complete dictatorship—with all propaganda, censorship, and suppression of free speech and discussion—the love of liberty was unconquerable. It has also proved conclusively that this war was not waged by the people of Italy on their own choice. All of Mussolini's propaganda machine could not make them love Hitler or hate us. The less said about the feelings towards Mussolini, the better."

Urges Post-War

the Assembly should be more concerned with matters of the work of the Church in post-war days.

"Are we going back to the hell that existed after the last war?" he asked.

The reconstruction committee recommended Canada's fighting men and women be woven into the life of the community after the war.

Other recommendations had to do with implementing the Atlantic Charter in Canadian life and placing of Canadian chaplains on their return to Canada, rehabilitation of returned men and the challenge to the Church in Northwest Canada through the Alaska highway project and similar enterprises.

YOUTH ON HONEYMOON KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Mobile Equipment Being Obtained
By Sherbrooke Blood Donor Clinic

With the need for more blood donors becoming more and more apparent as each successive clinic is held the officials at Dufferin Avenue headquarters today announced that a member of the staff would go to Montreal today to secure mobile equipment to tour the Eastern Townships. During the past few weeks there has been much talk about this mobile unit which would boost the blood supply from the Sherbrooke bank to a great extent. There are many people in the outlying districts who would willingly make a donation had they the chance to do so, and it is believed that through this large number of country people and villagers will have their first chance of doing their part.

The mobile unit to be received will be complete in every way and the staff which will be operating with the station wagon will be just as efficient as those who are on duty twice a week at the clinic. When the new station wagon arrives announcements will be made with regards to the days and the places to which the unit will travel with all those wishing to make a donation in view of the arrival of the unit well in advance.

More donors are also needed to keep up the supply at the local clinic. The minimum was set at fifty donors per clinic some time ago and for the first few clinics this objective was reached with little difficulty and the staff in attendance was kept busy all through the day. In the last two or three clinics the number has dropped off considerably, however, and yesterday only forty-one donors were present. In order to keep the clinic functioning properly one hundred volunteers must be passed in the two clinics held each week. This is quite a large number for the district since many of those who visit the headquarters find that their blood is unsuitable after the test is made and as many as one hundred and twenty-five might be needed in order to get the required quota. Donations also vary since some people are not able to donate a full pint of blood. When this is the case the quota is not met and more donors are needed to build up the supply.

Attention is being given the possibilities of holding night clinics. Many feel that if this were possible an additional number of donors would be obtained. It was pointed out that many of the employees in the mills and textile plants cannot get the time off to make a donation and should night clinics be held every so often many of these employees would volunteer.

The following are the names of those who assisted in the clinic during the day yesterday: Dr. W. W. Lynch, Dr. S. Marcus, Dr. G. Saine, Dr. P. Beaudry, Dr. G. B. Loomis, Dr. A. Berube, Miss Metivier, Mrs. Burt, Miss MacCallum, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Hunting, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Litz, Mrs. Robertson, Miss Boucher, Mrs. A. Edwards, Mrs. W. S. Varney, Mrs. W. G. Among those who gave donations at the clinic yesterday were: Miss Florence Gernall, Charles Riff, J.

TWO MORE BOYS
SEND WORD FROM JAPANESE CAMP

Word has been received by the parents of two more Sherbrooke boys who were taken prisoners of war at the fall of the Hong Kong garrison. In a letter dated June 17, 1942, to his parents, Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Price, of Prospect Road, Rifleman Arnold Price said that he was in good health and being well looked after. The letter, which was short, gave few other details except that he was at the prison camp with many of the other boys from this district as well as his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Eva Grey also received a letter dated June 6, 1942, from her son, Rifleman Howard Grey, in which he also stated that he was in good health. He said that he had not heard from the family or anyone since he had been taken prisoner and a note of loneliness was expressed in the letter. Both boys said that they were anxious for the time to arrive when they would be able to return home.

This was the first word that either family had heard from their sons since they had been taken prisoners and the dates on the envelopes are a clear indication of a hold-up somewhere in the system of sending and receiving mail from the boys in these camps.

Both Grey and Price were members of the Royal Rifles of Canada.

TWO MEN ARE CONVICTED IN POLICE COURT

Recorder Raoul Gagne disposed of a docket with three cases in Police Court this morning, as a result of overnight police activity.

A local man was assessed five dollars and costs when he was found guilty of begging on the street yesterday. In default of the fine, he was sent to jail for eight days.

Recorder Gagne imposed a fine of fifteen dollars and costs on another local resident, convicted of being drunk and disorderly.

Another person, similarly charged, lost a five-dollar deposit when he failed to appear to face the accusation.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

CHANGES IN LEADERSHIP

Several changes have taken place in the management of the troop and pack at St. Peter's Church since the fall term for Cubbing and Scouting has begun.

With the appointment of R. Benton as District Cubmaster to replace the Rev. S. R. Weaver a vacancy appeared for a leader in the Fifth Pack. This is the largest pack in Sherbrooke and it is being looked after by three leaders. Richard Pearson has been appointed to look after the Cubs and will be assisted by Miss Davies and Miss Symes. The meeting night of the Pack has been changed to Monday and all Cubs are asked to be present at the meetings so that an active programme can be drawn up for the coming winter months.

Eric Sharpe, who for the past year has been acting as leader of the Fifth Sherbrooke Troop, recently enlisted in the navy and the active leadership of the Troop will be taken over by J. W. Blake until another appointment is made. With this change comes the appointment of Acting Assistant Scoutmaster of James Atto and Charles Fontaine will be the Troop Leader. The meetings are held on Friday nights and since they have already begun all boys who are members of the troop or wish to become members should make it a point of attending the meetings in the very near future.

Struck By Car While Walking
On Highway At Little Lake

Married only six days ago and on his wedding trip at Little Lake Magog, 22-year-old Jean Paul Froment, of Montreal, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Archambault, of Sherbrooke, was almost instantly killed last evening on the highway at Little Lake when he was struck by an automobile.

The young man and his wife were walking along the road opposite the School House between the Red Brook bridge and the Manoir du Lac when he was struck by an automobile driven by Philippe Milaire, of Montreal. The auto was travelling in the direction of Sherbrooke and the operator stopped after the accident and rendered assistance.

Mrs. Froment, suffering from shock, recounted today that all she remembered was that while walking arm in arm along the road with her husband she suddenly felt a sudden pull on her arm. Her husband was thrown into the ditch, but she herself was not injured.

Brien's ambulance rushed to the scene and Froment died en route to Sherbrooke. An inquest will be held this afternoon under the presidency of Coroner Leonidas Bachand at No. 1 Police Station.

Local Soldier Pleads Guilty
To Charge Of Breaking, Theft

Judge Dalma Landry in Magistrate's Court this morning reserved sentence until tomorrow in the case of Pte. Eddie Auger, aged twenty-one, of Sherbrooke, stationed at the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, who pleaded guilty to charges of breaking, entering and theft.

The counts against Auger arose in connection with a break-in at Nadeau's Service Station at 212 King Street West on Wednesday night when $200 in cash and ten dollars worth of cigarettes were stolen from the premises.

Sergeant-Detective Pierre Arcand of the Sherbrooke Police Department, who arrested Auger yesterday at the local camp, testified that the cash register, furniture and glass panes of the show case were found smashed when police were notified of the robbery. Apparently in his haste to get away, Detective Arcand said, the marauder cut one of his hands, leaving behind stains of blood.

Following the investigation, Sergeant Arcand decided to go to the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, where he checked the hands of the soldiers and when they came across Auger, his hand was bandaged. Auger was held for questioning, later being placed under arrest.

Other evidence given before the Court showed that the $200 and cigarettes were returned to the operator of the gasoline station. Those assisting Detective Arcand in the investigation were Constable Albert Tanguay and Roland Gabouriau.

POTATO SALES RISE DESPITE
HOME GARDENS

A survey made by the Record of a cross section of farmers in this sector of the Eastern Townships today showed that victory gardens have altered slightly the short-term vegetable marketing picture, but on a twelve month basis — for there will be no new crop for a year — there may be a serious shortage instead of the present surplus.

These were the views of twelve veteran farmers who said that backyard production would barely care for population increase while dehydration might easily gobble up the farm surplus resulting from increased plantings and favorable conditions.

As for vegetables, including potatoes, farmers stated that despite victory gardens, sales were up over last year. Vegetable supplies from the farm, however, showed no substantial increases, while onions were down throughout the Townships. Farmers who planted five acres of onions in past years only grew about half an acre this season. Reason for the drop was that many growers sold their plantings for green onions.

Although the vegetable picture is rosy at the present time, a scarcity is expected by spring. Cabbage will be plentiful, but turnips, due to poor germination at planting time, will be greatly reduced, farmers said.

Carrots and beets would hardly last beyond February based on present prospects, they explained.

Retail sales of potatoes were reduced this season, but supplies, marketed in accordance with demand, were going to other outlets.

Although farmers stressed emphatically that they were not opposed to victory gardening, they pointed out that the full time victory gardener would be better employed at some other war effort.

SPARE COUPON
HAS NO PRESENT
SIGNIFICANCE

The mystery householder card at the back of the new ration book does not mean anything in particular, it was learned today. It is just a spare tire "in the event of."

There was a similar card in the previous book and it was used for the sugar ration. It may have a similar use in the present book, but Board officials insist it has no present significance and that no definite use for it in reference to any particular commodity is known.

Provisions have been for the hold-over of a ration-book to leave his book and card or a sheet from the book with his retailer, according to a new consolidate order covering rationing rules issued by the Prices Board.

Antonin Deslauriers, Secretary of the Local Ration Board, said that the order provides that the book, card or sheet left with the retailer must include the stub signed by the consumer. Every time a sale is made to the consumer, the retailer must detach enough coupons to cover the quantity delivered.

It was learned that this provision applies to cash as well as to charge account customers. It applies to many housewives who deal steadily with the same retailer, in addition to those who order by telephone from one retailer and do not wish to take in ration-books every time they intend to purchase rationed goods.

W. H. LYNCH IS
NEW PRESIDENT OF RAILWAY

Succeeds Late J. P. Wells as President of Mississippi Valley Railway Company.

The annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Railway Company was held here yesterday when W. H. Lynch, K.C., was elected President of the company, replacing the late J. P. Wells, K.C., D.C.L., who had occupied the office for many years. A. B. Nichols and W. S. Trowbridge, both Vice-Presidents of the Boston and Maine Railroad, Boston, Mass., were re-elected Vice-President and Treasurer, respectively, and A. B. Correy, of Beebe, was re-elected Secretary. The Directors in addition to Messrs. Lynch and Nichols are E. S. French, President, Boston and Maine Railroad, Boston, Mass.; H. J. Humphrey, Vice-President, Eastern Lines, Canadian Pacific Railway, Toronto; G. D. Wadsworth, General Manager, Quebec Central Railway, Sherbrooke; E. M. Hopkins, President, Dartmouth University, Hanover, N.H.; George F. Holland, General Manager, Union Twist Drill Co., Rock Island; J. H. Turner, President, Snag Proof Ltd., and Charles Hepburn, General Manager, Standard Granite Quarry Co., Beebe, Que.

The Mississippi Valley Railway is a Canadian corporation, the line, with running rights, extending from Sherbrooke to Newport, Vt., with a branch to Rock Island and St. John's.

It was one of the pioneer railroads of this district, was chartered in 1862 and construction completed in 1870, then it was leased for 999 years to the Connecticut and Passumpsic River Railroad which was correspondingly one of the early lines of the New England States, and had just been completed from White River Junction to the international boundary.

The acquisition of the Mississippi Valley enabling the formation of a through route from the New England States to Sherbrooke. Both roads were later leased by the Boston and Maine Railroad, the Quebec Central Railway sub-leased the Mississippi Valley Railway from Boston and Maine in 1926 in conjunction with a sub-lease by the Canadian Pacific Railway of the line from Newport South to Wells River, Vt.

A resolution of regret in the death of Mr. Wells was also passed, the meeting remarking on the official manner in which he had filled the office of President of the company for so many years.

Prices Of All Domestic Fruits
Are Double Those Of Last Year

According to one Lansdowne Market fruit dealer, the fruit situation is very simple—there just is not any except at comparatively fantastic prices which the average wage-earner cannot pay.

Last winter's severity had a lot to do with it, many peach, plum and pear trees having been blighted. Another reason has been the shortage of labor for picking. Canning naturally will suffer even more since added to the existing difficulties is that of sugar shortage.

Prices for basket fruits have at least doubled. A six-quart basket of peaches this year is costing $1.25, while they did not sell for more than sixty-nine cents last year. Plums are selling for one dollar a basket.

compared to about fifty cents last year, and pears are listed at one dollar a basket, in contrast to about sixty cents in 1942. Apples are selling for $1.75 a basket while last year the price asked was about seventy-five cents. Local apples, a small poor grade, are selling for twenty-five cents for a six-quart basket.

Though the apple crop is not yet in full swing, it seems to be a good one and apple pie will likely be a frequent dessert this fall and winter.

One of the reasons for the orange shortage is that this is the in-between season—the end of the summer California crop and not quite the beginning of the Florida one.

There are some on the market. Pathetic, undergrown ones sell at forty to fifty cents a dozen, while those commonly associated with the name orange sell at sixty-five cents a dozen. Although more are expected on the market, the supply will still be modest, since with increased American earning power and a Canadian fruit ceiling, growers prefer to dispose of them on home soil.

SGT. FRED GUILD
IS OFFICIALLY
REPORTED DEAD

Sgt. Frederick Winslow Guild, aged twenty-four, son of Mrs. F. H. Guild, of North Hatley, previously reported missing on active service, is now presumed dead, according to the R.C.A.F. 682nd casualty list of the war released at Ottawa today. Enlisting as a wireless operator and air gunner in January 1941, Sgt. Guild received his basic training in Canada and was sent Overseas in November of the same year. He had been credited with the destruction of at least four Messerschmitts in raids over enemy-held territory.

The four brothers of Sgt. Guild, the other services are: Pte. Glen G. Guild, with the United States Army Air Force; Gr. Lee P. Guild, a member of the anti-aircraft battery; Spr. Charles C. Guild, with the Canadian Army in England, and Str. Jack Guild, with the R.C.N.V.R.

PREDICTS YEAR OF INTENSE EFFORT

Prime Minister J. C. Smuts, of South Africa, believes that the war must be forced to a conclusion this year by the concentration of all the means in the power of the United Nations if it is not to drag on until the world is completely exhausted and the foundations of civilization endangered.

This means that all countries fighting in the Allied cause must contribute to the prosecution of the war one hundred per cent in an all-out and determined effort.

Surveying four years of war, Smuts believes that the air attacks are already laying in ruins one after another of the great German industrial and munitions centres and with the increasing tempo of bombing most German centres will in another twelve months be in ruins if not non-existent.

If German internal morale broke in 1918 when Germany was intact and had escaped all the ravages of war which she inflicted on her neighbors, today it is a question of how long she will endure devastation worse than the Thirty Years' War.

"The fortress of Europe will disappear physically before this air onslaught by night and day," the Prime Minister declared. The effects on civilian morale would be even more devastating than the physical effects of the blitz. Already a nation-wide wail is going up from Germany that the attacks are more than human nature can bear. Apathy, disillusion and despair are beginning to grip the people who see victory and its conquests going, who saw Mussolini go and who now watch immense forces of the East and West marching towards the fortress of Europe. Faith in the Fuehrer and belief in promises of a new order is going fast.

"But there is something more, something deeper still," Field Marshal Smuts says. "The Germans are not all Nazi monsters, moral perverts or evil worshippers infected with the satanic virus of Hitler. Deep revolt is brewing inside Germany which must be in the end more catastrophic for Hitler and Nazism than even the horror of air raids by night. Of all the vast forces gathering for Hitler's doom not the least will be the fifth column inside Germany, representing revolt in the German soul."

Commenting on Italy's surrender Field Marshal Smuts believes it altered the whole war situation, and more important results are sure to follow. The victories of the Russians in the East and of Britain and the United States in Italy in the South means the last phase of the war is coming and the United Nations are getting to grips with the real enemy in the fortress of Europe. It only remains now to make the best of the opportunity. Concentration on this final phase might see a great change in the war situation this year.

THE ALLIES WILL BENEFIT

AP War Analyst DeWitt MacKenzie believes that one of the finest services Hitler could render the Allies is his revival of the fallen and dishonored Fascist regime under the control of Mussolini.

The United Nations had carried out their aim of smashing Fascism. The collapse of the incompetent and corrupt government exposed the Fascist rule to the world for exactly what it was—a dictatorship of gangsters who not only waged cowardly war on small and helpless countries, and against their grievously-wounded neighbor, but made themselves and their mistresses vastly rich by plundering their own people.

Now along comes the arch gangster of them all and sets up a little puppet government in the name of Fascism. He tries to give it life by announcing that Mussolini himself is the Quisling of this revival—a statement which certainly requires ocular proof before the world will accept it as truth. At this writing the whereabouts of the ex-dictator is a great mystery, and it's even rumored that he's dead.

Why is Hitler thus exhibiting Fascism in its nakedness and so taking the chance of weakening his own dictatorship? There are several reasons, all of them understandable. In the first place he is, of course, playing for time, and so is trying to fool the world for a brief period into the idea that Fascism really isn't dead at all but is still a potent influence and a tower of strength to the Axis.

The all highest is particularly anxious to convey this impression to the Balkans. He is trying frantically to prevent further disaffection among his Balkan satellites, whose allegiance to the Axis has been due in considerable measure to Italian influence. He also wants to reassure his home front that all is still well in the Axis camp.

Time is Hitler's ally right now. Already the autumn rains have begun in Russia, and this may give his desperate armies a respite from the disastrous hammering they are getting from the Red forces. Every passing day lessens the danger of an Allied invasion of Western Europe, because of weather conditions. Each hour that he can hang on enables him to repair broken fences.

FINLAND DESIRES SEPARATE PEACE

By way of Stockholm come reports that the Finnish Government is devoting full attention to the possibilities of a separate peace with Russia as the realization grows that every advance of the Soviet army jeopardizes Finland's chances for the peace terms she wants.

A committee is meeting twice weekly to review the situation with President Risto Ryti, Premier Edwin Linkomies and Foreign Minister Henrik Ramsay although Parliament is in recess until October 1.

There is a growing agreement in Finland that any bargaining with Russia on peace terms must start soon—but there is still hesitancy among Ryti, Linkomies and Ramsay on how to approach the Soviets.

Peace-minded Finnish people were cheered by the Government declaration September 12 that "all eventualities have been taken into consideration." Finland may be able to get along for six months on her own scanty food resources.

A NATIONAL EMERGENCY

The shortage of fuel wood in Canada has become a national emergency and no prospect of any relief is forthcoming from Timber Controller Williamson who believes that the production of pulpwood and other forest products will be further reduced this season.

Attributing the blame to "an overstressed manpower situation" Mr. Williamson believes that the reduction of newsprint output appears inevitable. The burden of reduced production and increased lumber exports has been borne in the Canadian domestic market.

The Timber Controller yesterday told the National Hardwood Lumbermen's Association that as matters now stand it is expected that production of pulpwood in Canada will be less than in 1942 when production was 1,000,000 cords less than consumption, the balance coming out of inventory. The pulpwood supply situation in Canada is such that reduction in newsprint production appears inevitable, and certainly there is no possibility of transferring any large number of men from production of pulpwood to the production of saw timber under existing conditions, Williamson said.

"Again, Canada is experiencing a shortage of wood fuel so serious that it assumes the form of national emergency... only by a determined effort can the situation be improved this year, and here again it is simply impossible, in those sections of the country which depend heavily on wood for heating, to withdraw men from its production to increase the output of lumber. In the same way we cannot take men who are cutting pit props for coal mines away from their present occupation because we are faced with a shortage of coal as well as fuelwood."

Noting that Great Britain has been cut off from the timber production of the Scandinavian and Baltic areas, Williamson said that when his office was established the maintenance of supplies to Britain for war purposes was given priority. Canada, he said, sends Britain twenty-five per cent of her annual lumber production, 70 per cent of her fir plywood output, 35,000 tons of birch veneer logs and the major portion of Sitka spruce lumber used by Britain in aircraft manufacture.

Dealing at length with the labor shortage in woods and mills—the timber controller forecast a "very tight labor situation until the war ends."

"Despite our most stringent efforts to meet labor vacancies in high priority industry, the latest figures show 75,000 vacancies in this class," he said.

Estimated 1943 lumber production in Canada was given as 4,200,000,000 feet, a drop of approximately 17 per cent from 1941 production.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Montreal L'Information
If we are not careful we will get the general impression that after the war almost everybody will live on the Government. Social security is an excellent thing in itself, but we should not imagine that we will not have to work to live. Furthermore we must not, as a Senator remarked recently, lean too heavily on the "professional planners," who have never done anything except tell other people what they should do. All these social security plans will have to be financed with money and governments do not make this. They take it out of the pockets of the taxpayers in the form of loans or taxes, and often both together.

PRESS COMMENTS

CARTOONISTS GRIEVE

Montreal Gazette
—But this over-stuffed pompous and stuffy loud-voiced and badly drawn cartoon was a joy to the hearts of all cartoonists. They liked his vulgar face, his expansive jaw, his outward sloping front and his high boots. Nature had fashioned him to be the caricaturist's meat, and temperament had perfected the job. Full use was being made of him when, to the relief and satisfaction of most people, he was deposed and disappeared. Somewhere he is in durance, which his presence must necessarily make vile, and only the cartoonist laments his passing.

POST-WAR POLICY

St. Catharines Standard
Secretary of State Cordell Hull outlined the United States' interim post-war policy last night, in a carefully-worded radio address in which he said that "international co-operation for the maintenance of peace must be based on the willingness of the co-operating nations to use force, if necessary, to keep the peace."
For peaceful adjustments of disputes he proposed some form of world court.

It was his first formal address in more than a year and represented the most definite approach to post-war problems since the late President White House or state department spokesman. He also revealed the United States to be in consultation with other Allied powers on post-war peace machinery.

Vice-President Henry A. Wallace, speaking in Chicago, not only beat Hull to the punch by twenty-four hours, but proposed a post-war policy of enforced peace in even more specific terms. He endorsed the so-called Ball-Burton-Hatch Hill resolution, pending in the Senate which, among other things, would provide for maintenance of a United Nations military force to suppress any future attempt at aggression.

Hull's formal pronouncement and Wallace's emphatic demand for action apparently will lead President Roosevelt to seek an early expression of Congressional ideals in the form of a Senate or House-Senate resolution. Hull said last night that the administration envisaged "the fullest co-operation between executive and legislative branches of the government."

"The form and functions of the international agencies of the future," Hull said, "the extent to which the existing court of international justice may or may not need to be remodelled, the scope and character of the means for making international action effective in the maintenance of peace, the nature of international economic institutions and arrangements that may be desirable and feasible—all these are among the problems which are receiving attention, and which will need to be determined by agreements among governments, subject of course, to approval by their respective peoples."

"They are being studied intensively by this government and by other governments. They are gradually being made subjects of consultation between and among governments."

Under existing circumstances, gradual extension of consultation on such a subject among governments probably means that they have been discussed in considerable detail between London and Washington and that the discussion now is extending to other major United Nations capitals.

Hull conceded certain conflicts of national interests among even the most friendly nations, but insisted that there are "immense areas of common interest" and that by co-operation within those areas the world can at last evolve a peaceful world. By indirectness, but with unmistakable emphasis, Hull reminded those at home and abroad, who clamor for a second front, that United States forces actually are engaged on three bustling battlefronts: the Russian front, the Mediterranean, the air front over Western Europe and the Western Pacific.

Under attack now by some as a bawler of Soviet Russia, Hull paid special tribute to the heroism of the Red Armies and the Russian people, but he reminded Moscow that: "The Mediterranean operations weakened the German air force available on the Soviet front; just as the Russian resistance, by holding the German armies on the Eastern battle line, prevented Hitler from parrying our thrust toward his Southern flank. Meanwhile, our constant military pressure against Japan had its inevitable effect in deterring Japan from aggression against the Soviet Union."

Then he added that it was "our desire and our settled policy that collaboration and co-operation" between the United States and the Soviet Union should steadily increase during and following the war.

The address of the Secretary of State of the United States was, in effect, a suggestion to the peoples of the United Nations that the time has come to lay the foundations for permanent peace.

USE TOO MANY ADJECTIVES
W. Somerset Maugham in Red Book Magazine

The faults of English writing have always been diffuseness, verbosity, and, in the novelties of my generation, anemia.

The art, as, however, strange as it may seem, we owe largely to an American writer, Henry James. His influence on English fiction was enormous. Henry James never came to grips with life. But if the subtle poison came from America, the healthy antidote has come from there too. The novels of Sinclair Lewis, Willa Cather, Hemingway, Steinbeck and others have brought new life to English fiction.

The verbosity of the English language is due, I believe, to our love of words for their own sake, apart from the message they convey. In the sixteenth century, a great many Latinized words were brought into the language, and since the words were unfamiliar to the reader, the older English words were given, too. So, writers could speak of the stormy and tempestuous sea, or a roomy and ample garment.

I have a notion that this is one cause of the plethora of adjectives that is one of the defects of most English prose.

RED ARMY MYSTERY

Galt Reporter
One of the entrancing mysteries of this war is the Russian Army. No one outside of Soviet Union has seen much of it. When foreign correspondents ask for actual front-line assignments, they are taken to places where they get a view of only insignificant units of the Red Army, and they are not permitted this limited privilege when a battle is raging. They are escorted over the grounds when the fighting is over. Thus it is that outsiders are not in a position to judge the merits of Russia's fighters in action. They can only draw conclusions from the results.

Everyone knows that the Russians were pushed back for hundreds of miles from the frontiers of their own country in the first year of fighting, and since that period, they have been engaged in sanguinary battles in which they have given the Germans back to back, and they have not succeeded in freeing Russian soil of the foe. In fact, they may not be able to liberate occupied Russia this year, although they are showing amazing vigor and achieving marked success in their latest attacks.

Recently the Germans have thrown in tremendous numbers of troops, but the Russian advance has been slowed down. If Hitler's legions can stop the Russian drive on the lines that are now taking the chief weight of Russian assault, it would be a tremendous accomplishment for the Nazi forces and it might constitute the action that would prolong the conflict for another year.

In view of the lack of non-partisan information concerning the Red Army, it is impossible to say whether the recent Russian successes

FARMS PRODUCE AND THE GOVERNMENT TAKES

To the Editor of the Record.
Dear Sir: Your columns are interesting to many and varied readers. Many, too, have noted with interest what Mr. Merrigan says about "Interested" from Foster being misinformed.

Who, today, is not misinformed? No one will deny that Mr. Merrigan has a knowledge of Government regulations, prices and some of the farm needs, but he is losing sight of some facts.

Shouting comes easy to one trained for just that, especially when it affects neither one's pocketbook or earning capacity. Training, as always, takes a lot more back-bone than wishbone.

All boiled down, Mr. Merrigan, we produce and the Government through various means, takes. You experiment and try to prove why fine workers need fourteen soft-collared, high-salaried "bosses."

Farm production today would be much less a problem if the Government would put a lot of their high-salaried men in uniform and train them instead of taking boys out of school to farm.

Yours truly,
AN INTERESTED OLD FARM HAND.

SO THEY SAY

We must preserve the American tradition of freedom to take a chance—to lose your shirt if you want to.—Erie A. Johnston, President U.S. C. of C.

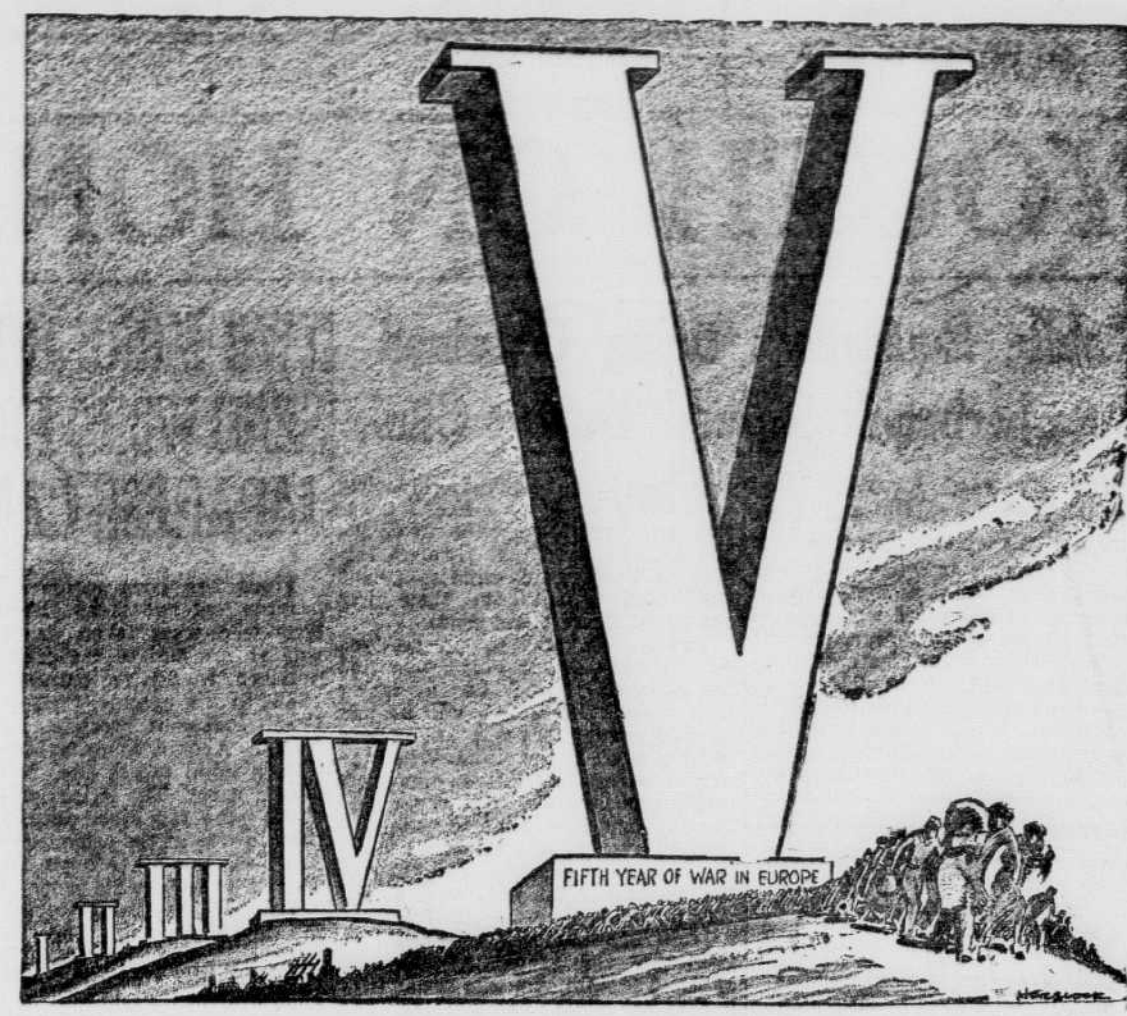

Labor is producing the weapons of war—and now we must call upon labor also to pay for them. We must ask labor to furnish most of the money in the Third War Loan campaign.—U.S. Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

are due to Russian strength or to German weakness. It may be a combination of these factors. We may have given the Germans credit for being much better soldiers than they really are. No doubt the Russian Army has learned a great deal about the smart tricks of warfare. We know that it retreated steadily and in good order until an enormous area of Russia fell into German hands. The Germans never were able to destroy the Russian armies, without which achievement they could not win. It is impossible to occupy a country as large as Russia. Therein is one reason why Russia is practically invincible.

It is not likely that Germany can hope to destroy Russian armies now. They may be able to stalemate them in the present summer campaign, but that would be equivalent to defeat, since Allied armies are shortly going to make a ferocious drive against Germany in the South or West.

If Hitler does not succeed in finishing the Russians by the time that blow is struck, the big opportunity will be gone forever.

MAKE TOP SCORE BY BIDDING SEVEN

Another record was established at the national tournament by John R. Crawford, of Philadelphia, who played in only two events—the world championship Masters pairs and Masters teams-of-four—and won both of them.

Crawford made a nice bid of six diamonds over four spades on the hand shown today, which was played in the Masters pair contest. Howard Schenken, his partner, then knew that, with a two-suiter in his partner's hand, there was an excellent play of seven, which he bid.

With the heart suit breaking, Crawford had to take the club finesse, which held, and seven diamonds was made for a tie for top score. Seven no trump, of course, also could be made.

SHAPELY MODEL HAS FORMULA FOR
LEG CARE IF SUNBURN IS FLAKING

NANCY LEE: Legs need post-summer care.

BY ALICIA HART

Is your suntan at that stage where it is flaking off, spoiling the sheer effect of your hose or making it well nigh impossible to don light stockings? This practice of shapely model Nancy Lee, whose legs are much in demand for glamor shots, will probably solve your problem in a very few treatments.

"After my bath I always give my legs an extra brisk rub with a Turkish towel to remove any roughness, then smooth on a bit of hand lotion, massaging it gently until it has been completely absorbed," she explains.

And Nancy also suggests that you finish off with a bit of talcum, just in case some of the lotion remains on the surface.

Daily practice of this routine should reward you with legs as glamorously smooth as Nancy's.

BOY SCOUTS OF SAWYERVILLE ATTENDED CAMP

First Sawyerville Troop Returns from Successful Eight-Day Camp at West Pond, Where Scoutmaster Godwin Officiated.

Sawyerville, Sept. 17.—The First Sawyerville Troop has returned from a successful eight-day camp at West Pond. Scoutmaster Godwin and Assistant Scoutmaster Waldron report that eighteen proficiency badges were earned during camp period. Acting A.S.M., David Waldron has reached the top rung of the ladder in attaining to the rank of King Scout. Scout Gordon Hunt received his "Rescuers' badge" and B. MacRae and C. Law won "Swimmers' badges. These are steps in the direction of King Scouting.

Total cost of the camp is reported at ninety-seven dollars, with all expenses cleared.

Field Secretary F. Hick, and Provincial Commissioner Allen, of Montreal, visited the camp during the week of August 16th, and found everything in satisfactory condition. The Troop extends most hearty thanks to all its friends in Sawyerville, who helped to make the camp a success, especially L.O.L. 1308, H. E. Hurley and Messrs. William and Gordon Forgrave.

The local headquarters are to be reconstructed this fall. The Troop expects to camp at North Hatley in 1944 at a new camp site. Twenty-three boys and three officers enjoyed the camp period of 1943, in spite of much rain and cold.

A week-end camp will be held at Clear Lake this fall by kindness of E. W. S. Lethbridge, of Cookshire. Scouts Patrol Leader D. Patrick, G. Hunt and A. Silvester received First Aid Kits as prizes. Many other scouts received small tokens for good scouting.

A "Court of Honor" was held after the last scout meeting to plan for the future.

FROM THE PEN OF E. T. WRITERS

MISTER SUNSHINE

We missed you, how we missed you!
And your effulgent ray,
When tripping out of summer
You went some mystic way;
Days never were so many
Beneath a darksome sky;
How could you, Mister Sunshine,
Forsake us then and why?

You left the heavens weeping,
While hearts were drenched by tears,
O'er bloodshed so appalling,
And lands enslaved by fears.
At last from sleep awakened
You peep on earth below,
But there's no balm at present,
Or ardour in your glow.

Comes early Autumn touching
The leaves on many a tree,
Finds grain and sodden garden
Unbeautiful to see;
They need your blazing presence,
In skies of tender blue;
O Mister, Mister Sunshine
We mortals need you too!

HERE ARE SOME TASTY AND HEALTHFUL DESSERTS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Because enriched or whole wheat bread is a good source of protein, especially when combined with some higher grade protein such as eggs or milk, it is particularly important today, with protein scarcity, in the diet of growing school children.

Old-fashioned baked bread pudding isn't the only bread dessert that youngsters favor. Here are two brand-new ones, just right to finish off a light supper and send the small fry happily to bed.

BREAKFAST: Stewed pears, bread-crumble cake, honey or syrup, crisp bacon, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Cream of tomato soup, whole wheat bread, butter, carrot and cabbage slaw, baked prune whip pudding, tea, milk.

DINNER: Lamb stew with veg-tables, parsley potatoes, hot biscuits, butter, sliced tomatoes, fluffy applesauce bread pudding, coffee, milk.

Baked Prune Whip Pudding (Serves 6)

Two cups stewed prunes, drained, ½ cup sugar, grated rind 1 lemon, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ cup prune juice, 3 cups soft enriched white bread crumbs, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, separated.

Put prunes through coarse sieve; combine with sugar, lemon rind and fruit juices. Add bread crumbs, salt and egg yolks, well beaten. Fold in whipped egg whites. Turn into baking dish; bake in slow oven (325° F.) until firm—about 40 minutes. Serve immediately with melted jelly sauce.

Fluffy Bread Pudding (Serves 6)

Four slices enriched white bread, 1½ cups milk, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 envelope plain gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 2 cups applesauce, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 eggs separated, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Remove crusts from bread slices and cut soft centers in small dice (enough to make 2 cups). Scald milk with sugar and salt; add bread and gelatin softened in cold water. Pour mixture onto egg yolks, well beaten; return to heat and cook for 2 minutes. Remove from heat; add applesauce and lemon juice and beat with rotary egg beater to blend mixture. Fold in whipped egg whites. Transfer to pudding mold; sprinkle top with nutmeg and chill in refrigerator until firm. Serve plain or with light cream.

Weekly Letter to Farmers

HENRI-LOUIS LESSARD, Assistant,
Dominion Experimental Station, Lennoxville, Que.

At four to four months and a half the lambs are usually weaned, weighed and classified according to their sex. It is the time then to pick those which are to be reserved for reproduction. Only the lambs of good conformation, of the durable type and fully developed should be kept. The ram lambs not good enough should be castrated. For no reason should a grade or a scrub lamb be kept for breeding purposes. It has been proved many times that the offspring of a purebred ram with grade ewes were heavier, better quality and matured earlier than any common lambs. The fleece was also improved.

The market lamb under seventy-five pounds should not be sold. This year due to a very rainy season the lambs are lighter than usual. It would be profitable to feed these lambs a little quantity of grain in order to give them the proper finish, and get the highest price. A mixture of oats, wheat and a little amount of linseed oil cake meal will be suitable. Later on, or near marketing time, barley should be added to the mixture. If the grain feeding cannot be done, the lambs should be put on a good clover aftermath, although good pasture will produce less rapid gain, it is also quite satisfactory.

September is also the month where the ewes have to be prepared for the breeding season. A high percentage of twins at lambing time depends on many factors. The breeder can help a lot to get such results by flushing the ewe before breeding. At Lennoxville Experimental Station from 25% to 30% more lambs are obtained over surrounding flocks by this method. A good aftermath in the fall followed by silage or roots and clover hay feeding the dry lot would be a good preparation. A month before lambing and until the pasturing season it would be advantageous to feed a meal mixture. Nursing ewes require about the same nutritive requirements as a milking cow.

Let us remember that the fall is the best time to start in sheep production. The purchase of breeding ewes two or three years old, or lamb ewes if the first are hard to get, would be a good investment. The ewes bought should be preferably purebred, of good conformation, food type and sound udders.

First U.S.-made incubator for infants was made in Minneapolis, Minn., on Sept. 8, 1891.

NOTICE to POULTRYMEN

Says Mr. Gold Seal

"I'm with you all the way to VICTORY"

"I've always been proud of Congoleum and Congoleum-by-the-yard which is only natural, seeing I've been their trade mark all these years," says Mr. Gold Seal. "But never prouder than I am now for I know these fine floor coverings are doing a real home-front war job—building morale by always presenting a bright, cheerful front under heavy usage. And believe me, Congoleum's ability to 'take it' counts double these days when replacements are so hard to get. It's value you can count on all the way to the day of Victory."

HOW TO HELP

MR. GOLD SEAL MAKE GOOD

You can get added wear out of your Congoleum floors with very little effort. Brush and mop them regularly and renew the brightness of their surface with an occasional waxing. Make sure too, that the floor underneath is smooth and free from crevices or knobs. If it's a rug, move it every few months to "spread" the traffic. Yes, a little care will pay big dividends.

SERVING THE
UNITED NATIONS
WITH WAR ALCOHOL

"THE RAIN OF DEATH" IS DEADLIER BECAUSE OF WAR ALCOHOL

Here is a load of grief for Hitler... 1000 pound packages of concentrated destruction, made with the help of War Alcohol, and powerful enough to flatten whole city blocks.

Due to its "stabilizing" influence, alcohol is also used in tremendous quantities in the making of smokeless powder and other war materials. It is a basis for ether, widely used in the manufacture of high explosive. It keeps planes ice-free. It keeps trucks and tanks rolling in zero temperatures. It is used in the production of synthetic rubber and plastics. It serves doctors, nurses and field dressing stations as a practical disinfectant. Alcohol is now in Battle Dress 24 hours a day. All of our plants are producing it... to 100% capacity... for the duration.

MOUNT PLEASANT CLUB GIVEN COOGAN TROPHY

Competition For Coogan Trophy Slated For Tomorrow Afternoon

The Coogan Memorial Trophy which since the year 1938 was emblematic of a two-ball mixed foursome championship of the old St. Francis Golf and Tennis Club has been turned over to the new Mount Pleasant Club, according to a report issued by Harry Mariasine, the Golf Captain of the club, who at the same time announced that competition for this trophy will take place at the Mount Pleasant golf links tomorrow afternoon.

The Coogan Trophy which was donated by L. J. Coogan in 1938 was given to the old club in memory of his sister who was an ardent golfer in the Eastern Townships and it is considered to be one of the finest trophies to grace the shelves of the Mount Pleasant Club. This cup was actively competed for during four years by the members of the St. Francis Club and it was when the club was changed over the trophy was withdrawn. Since the new organization was formed the golfing and has not been up to par and this year an attempt has been made to bring it up to the old standard. Mr. Coogan was approached about the trophy and has kindly consented to put it up for competition.

Mr. Mariasine wishes to point out to the members of the club and to those interested in the competition that the trophy is a match is an invitation affair and that any former members of the old St. Francis Club who would like to compete for the trophy are perfectly welcome. Any who wish to register for the tournament are asked to get in touch with the golf captain at the Mount Pleasant Club between seventh and ninth tonight. It is hoped that the field will be large since the trophy well merits a good turn-out.

It was announced that the tournament tomorrow afternoon is scheduled to take place at one-thirty, since a drawing for partners will take place. A lunch will be served to those competing providing they leave their names with Mr. Mariasine tonight because preparations for the lunch would have to be made in advance.

Several rulings go with the up and the principal one is that it is not permitted to leave the club house. The winner of the trophy has the right to have their names inscribed along with the date won but they cannot hold it in their possession. The following have been the winners of the cup since the time that it has been up for competition: 1938—R. Dubergier and O. J. Rose. 1939—W. Ray and H. E. Gibson. 1940—W. Ray and H. MacCallum. 1941—Muriel Ross and H. MacCallum.

FIRST-ROUND PLAY-OFFS ARE RESUMED TODAY

By The Associated Press.

After a day of rest the International League first-round play-offs resume today. Syracuse and Newark meet in an afternoon game at Newark while Toronto battles Montreal at Montreal in a night encounter.

Both Syracuse and Toronto hold leads of two games to nothing in the best-of-seven-game series and are hopeful of cleaning up in four straight.

Southpaw Joe Page, of Newark, and Norman Carter, of Syracuse, are the probable pitchers at Newark while Jim Hopper, of Toronto, and Al Sherer, of Montreal, are slated to face each other in the night game. Sammy de Martino, announcer for the Newark Bears, will be absent from the Newark-Syracuse game. Frank Shaughnessy, President of the League, yesterday barred de Martino from the Ruppert Stadium in Newark for the remainder of the season.

De Martino, Shaughnessy asserted, threw a baseball shirt in the face of Umpire Jim Tobin, during an eight-inning dispute during the second game of the series at Syracuse Wednesday night. Tobin had walked to the Bears' dugout to banish Manager Bill Meyer and Outfielder Frank Silvanic after a dispute over a Syracuse double play. De Martino was in the dugout at the time.

SWEETSBURG

Speaking at the Special Day of Prayer service at Christ Church, Rev. John Peacock said that people should pray to God asking if it be His will, and not the selfish way "Give us victory." Each and everyone must make a supreme effort in the right way and the war will surely be won by the ones who have the most and best weapons, and who know the most clever devices of defeating the enemy. People should not pray selfishly but say, "I trust Thee O God" to do the things that are best for all. The service was very largely attended and opened with the singing of "O Canada" and the national hymn.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and Mrs. T. E. Miller, in Knowlton.

INDUSTRIALISTS TO PLAY AGAIN THIS EVENING

The third game in a best-of-seven series for the Industrial Softball League championships will be played between Notre Dame du Rosaire and the Canadian Silk on the diamond at Dufresne Park at eight o'clock tonight.

These games have proved popular with ball fans in the district and these two teams have been putting on shows that would be hard to beat anywhere. In the first game on Monday night some six hundred people saw the Canadian Silk take a 16-0 win over the Notre Dame men, but on Wednesday night the tables were turned and Notre Dame was successful in taking a surprise 7-6 win from the silkmen.

Both these teams have played close games all season and the white-washing last Monday night was no indication of the calibre of the Notre Dame team. This was certainly proved on Wednesday when one of the closest and fastest games of the season was played before a crowd of over fifteen hundred spectators. No admission is charged at these games and many people are taking advantage of this fact to see a brand of baseball that is even better than the intermediate "A" Baseball league that is operating in this district this year.

Little can be said on the outcome of the game tonight since both teams are evenly matched. The Canadian Silk are slightly favored to take the next game as they are to take the series, but anything can happen as many of their players can tell after the experience of last Wednesday. No matter which team wins the game certainly promises to be one of the best and fall fans are advised to get their early to obtain seats on the grandstand that has been erected.

SPOONER POND

Mrs. Frank Taylor and Mrs. J. F. Noble were hostesses to the members of the Spooner Pond Women's Institute at the regular September meeting, which was held at the home of the former. The President, Mrs. V. R. Beattie, was in the chair and opened the meeting in the usual manner. Minutes of the previous meeting and the financial statement were read and approved. Conveners for the W. I. booth at the "Street Fair" were appointed as follows: Mrs. V. R. Beattie, Mrs. Howard Hills and Mrs. C. J. Hannan. Spooner Pond W. I. is to be hostesses for the W. I. semi-annual County meeting, which will be held on October 2. Conveners in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Howard Hills, Mrs. John Hawker, Jr., and Mrs. Raymond Lampron. Following a discussion on filling "Ditty Bags" for the Navy, it was moved that each member bring an article for the bags to the next meeting. Plans were made to hold a rummage sale in the near future. The Committee in charge will be Mrs. Percy Dyson and Mrs. B. Rodgers. A special feature of the meeting was a twenty-five cent fish pond, which netted a tidy sum of the Treasury. Guests included Mrs. Ethel McBain, of Montreal; Mrs. I. Keys and Miss Ruth Winkle, of Tremholville, and Mrs. McArthur.

National And American League Titles May Be Won On Week-End

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pennants in both the National and American Leagues may be clinched tomorrow and Sunday.

In the case of St. Louis Cardinals this possibility is hardly unexpected, but for the New York Yankees setting the title this week-end would be moving up the date almost a week ahead of what appeared probable just a few days ago.

The Yankees have upset the calculations of the Figure Filberts by winning nine consecutive games, their longest string of victories since they put together 11 in a row in July, 1942, and now they have a chance to tie down the American League pennant mathematically in a three-game series opening tonight with Washington Senators.

Yesterday the Yanks polished off Philadelphia Athletics 5-1 with a four-run seventh inning rally climaxed by Charlie Keller's 28th home run and second in two days with a mate aboard. It was the last meeting of the year for the two clubs and gave the Yanks 16 out of 22 games with the A's this season.

St. Louis Cardinals, who clipped Chicago Cubs 7-5 yesterday night, might eliminate the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers tonight, but will have to wait at least until tomorrow before freeing out Cincinnati Reds.

Here are the standings in both leagues:

	National	W.	L.	GB.	TP.
St. Louis	91	44	—	19
Brooklyn	75	61	16½	17
Cincinnati	74	61	17	19
	American
New York	88	49	—	17
Washington	77	62	15	18

In the other games yesterday the Phillies and Boston Braves divided a doubleheader. Two homers by Coaker Triplett and one by Roan Northey helped the Phils to a 9-2 conquest in the opener, but Al Javery pitched a one-hit 8-0 triumph in the nightcap with Chet Ross collecting a three-run homer.
