Order Violence Stop Where Negroes Try School Attendance

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A Tennessee federal judge has moved to prevent further violence at a high school in Clinton, Tenn., where 12 Negro pupils are attempting to attend classes with 800 whites.

Judge Robert L. Raylor issued a temporary order restraining John Kasper, Washington segregationist, and five Clinton residents from obstructing his order that the school admit Negroes. The order was in compliance with the United States Supreme Court ruling that racial segregation is unconstitutional in public schools.

World News In Brief

WINDHOEK, Southwest Africa — (Reuters) — The high court here Wednesday jailed for 10 years an African tribesman who tried to saw the head off a fellow farm worker with whom he had been quarrelling. Elias Tjimukenda, 40, used a handsaw on Johannes Levi, causing a wound in his neck six inches long and three inches deep. He also hit Levi over the head with the saw, which penetrated the brain half an inch and killed him.

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A tiny magnet that can be swallowed like a pill is being used by psychologists at California University to study stomach disorders. Every movement made by the magnet in response to stomach activity is recorded electronically. Researchers hope the new technique will lead to a better understanding of ulcers and disorders induced by psychological stress.

NICE, France — (AP) — Wind-whipped forest fires skirted dozens of isolated villages just north of the French Riviera today. Serious fires again were reported around the perfume producing city of Grasse where three gendarmes were killed fighting another blaze last Friday.

LONDON — (Reuters) — British aircraft industry's exports earned nearly as much in the first seven months of this year as in the whole of 1955. The Society of British Aircraft Constructors announced Wednesday. The society's director, Edward Bowyer, told a press conference that British aircraft, engines and other aviation equipment earned more than £65,000,000 in the first seven months of 1955. Last year's figure for twelve months was £66,000,000.

VIENNA — (AP) — Prague radio today broadcast a Czechoslovak Communist government decree empowering all town authorities to mobilize factory workers, civil servants and private persons to bring in harvest crops which are threatened by bad weather.

SYDNEY, Australia — (AP) Douglas M. Moffat, United States ambassador to Australia, died suddenly today at the age of 74. A New York corporation lawyer, he was appointed to the diplomatic post by President Eisenhower last February.

PARIS — (Reuters) — The government-owned French Coal Corporation Wednesday announced the discovery of an estimated 250,000,000-ton deposit near the Swiss border, the largest found since nationalization of the mines in 1945. If shafts are sunk, production can begin in about five years and ensure employment for 5,000 coal workers until the end of the century.

SINGAPORE — (CP) — A Singapore district court was told Wednesday that two women who lived in the same house did not speak to each other for 10 years until last March 24. Then, when they exchanged their first words, they fought — and Guay Poey, 35, wounded Tan Hing, 44, with an ax.

He prohibited the six from doing anything which would tend to interfere with peaceful integration until a hearing at which they must show cause why they shouldn't be enjoined permanently.

The judge acted after Sheriff Joe Owen took 11 Negroes out of newly integrated Clinton high an hour before dismissal time Wednesday to protect them from what he described as a "milling mob around the school."

The crowd gathered after three unrelated flare-ups between whites and Negroes which police said stemmed from mixing the races in the previously all-white school.

At Birmingham, Ala., a federal judge acted Wednesday in the case of Mrs. Autherine Lucy Foster, who was driven from the campus of the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa by an angry mob Feb. 6. She was suspended for her own safety and later "permanently expelled."

Judge H. Hobart Grooms refused to order the college to readmit Mrs. Foster for the fall term, but left the door open for further legal action on her part.

In Norfolk, Va., Wednesday, the city golf course was opened to unrestricted use by Negroes by order of federal Judge Walter E. Hoffman. He granted a temporary injunction requested by three Negroes who contended that their exclusion from the course six days a week was a "clear, undeniable violation" of their rights. The judge indicated that he will make the injunction permanent Sept. 29.

The Louisiana legislature began a special 12-day session today with athletic segregation expected to be one of the major issues. Sugar Bowl officials said a recent state law barring white athletes from playing teams with Negroes has made it difficult to arrange television and radio broadcasts of its 1957 game. But segregation leaders said they will oppose any move to change the law.

French Troops Go To Cyprus

Island Is Anglo-French Jumpoff Base In Suez Crisis

LONDON — (AP) — French troops were reported en route to Cyprus today to strengthen that rebellious British Mediterranean island as a possible Anglo-French jump-off base in the Suez crisis.

The announcement that Britain had consented to French use of her island base only 250 miles from the Suez Canal was made as the Egyptian press, apparently with official sanction, whipped up charges that an alleged British spy ring had plotted a coup against President Nasser.

Cairo authorities said two more Britons—seven in all—were named as members Wednesday by James Swinburn, alleged ring-leader of the plot. Egyptian newspapers say Swinburn confessed that the group planned to stir up a revolt like that which overthrew Premier Mohammed Mosaddegh of Iran in 1953.

The new storm clouds blew up even as Nasser set a date and place—next Monday in Cairo—for his meeting with the five-power Suez committee formed in London. Headed by Australia's Prime Minister Menzies, the committee is to present the American-sponsored plan for international control of the canal which is the 22 countries which attended a London conference endorsed.

Nasser seized the canal July 26, and Britain and France have been preparing ever since to take military action in case a peaceful compromise cannot be worked out, or their citizens in Egypt are endangered by some incident.

The announcement in London and Paris that Cyprus would become a joint military base in the crisis was made as Britain faced a new fight with EOKA, the bomb-and-gun underground which seeks to unite the island with Greece.

EOKA called off an 11-day truce this week and declared that there will be no peace until British authorities resume negotiations with the exiled Cypriot Greek Orthodox prelate, Archbishop Makarios. Two more British servicemen were injured by EOKA attacks Wednesday. The British authorities in turn put the Greek Orthodox bishop of Kitium, acting successor to Makarios, under house arrest.

Although the landing of French troops promises to complicate the already troubled situation on Cyprus, it appears that Britain welcomed the French request because it emphasized London's argument that the island is essential to the North Atlantic alliance's defence position in the eastern Mediterranean.

The French steamships Aulne and Brest sailed from Marseille Monday for secret destinations with military equipment, and the aircraft carrier Aromanches sailed the same day on what were described as manoeuvres.

Unconfirmed reports circulated today that Britain and France plan to set up a combined Mediterranean command headquarters on Cyprus.

As the Menzies committee prepares to leave London Sunday for Cairo, the Soviet Union appears to be the only non-Arab power still urging Nasser not to compromise.

Egypt's other major supporter at the London conference, V. K. Krishna Menon of India, talked with Nasser for two hours Wednesday after telling reporters India is seeking "some peaceful solution satisfactory to the parties concerned."

Behind-the-scenes manoeuvring for a peaceful settlement also was reported from Saudi Arabia, an Egyptian ally but a partner of the United States in oil.

Soviet ambassador E. D. Kisselov said in Cairo, however, that Russia still believed a solution should be based on "the sovereign rights of Egypt as owner and operator of the canal."

No Western government has diplomatic relations with the East German regime, established in 1949 under the Soviet occupation.

Bolz also told Parliament that henceforth East Germany will demand to be present at all diplomatic conferences that deal with problems in which Germans are interested.

He said that otherwise the results cannot be considered binding on the German people.

Dutch Oil Find Could Cut Crisis

THE HAGUE — (Reuters) — Dutch oil experts estimated Wednesday that new oil finds in the western part of Holland would greatly reduce the threat to supplies from a possible closing of the Suez Canal.

A spokesman of The Netherlands Petroleum Company, in which Shell and Standard Oil have a joint interest, said that with new concessions in prospect the company would be able to continue to supply "at least" 20 to 25 per cent of total Dutch needs for at least 20 years.

The spokesman said that, on the basis of recent oil strikes in western Holland, particularly in IJsselmonde, near Rotterdam, and in The Hague, it was certain that it would be possible to continue to cover national needs, estimated at 4,400,000 metric tons a year.

East German Recognition To Avert War

BERLIN. — (AP) — Communist East Germany appealed Wednesday for Western diplomatic recognition, claiming this would help avert civil war in Germany.

Foreign Minister Lothar Bolz made the declaration in a speech to the East German Parliament. Bolz accused West Germany's government of planning a "local war" to seize control of all Germany.

No Western government has diplomatic relations with the East German regime, established in 1949 under the Soviet occupation.

Bolz also told Parliament that henceforth East Germany will demand to be present at all diplomatic conferences that deal with problems in which Germans are interested.

He said that otherwise the results cannot be considered binding on the German people.

Hypnotist In Case Of Widows

EASTBOURNE, England — (AP) — Scotland Yard's investigation of the deaths of rich old widows in Eastbourne was broadened today to include a session with a 68-year-old hypnotist.

Detectives talked with Meynell Bloomfield, who describes himself as a specialist in auto-suggestion, about patients he has treated in this south coast resort town during the last 30 years.

There was no indication of what Bloomfield told the Yard about his patients, but he threw in a demonstration which, he told reporters, included the hypnotizing of a police sergeant.

Yard men for a month have been moving quietly, talking with people in an attempt to track down rumors that a friend may be at large preying on rich elderly widows.

After examining more than 200 wills, they have narrowed the investigation to a dozen which are said to have shown suspicious similarities. All were of elderly women who died between 1934 and 1955.

Superintendent Herbert Hanam, in charge of the Scotland Yard inquiry, indicated this morning that he will decide within the next 48 hours whether the clues uncovered so far justify the exhumation of bodies.

Red Crops Damaged By Rain

MOSCOW. — (Reuters) — Rain threatens to rob the Soviet Union of what would otherwise have been a bumper harvest this year. Soviet newspapers are urging farmers to gather in the crop with "the intensity of a military operation."

Heavy losses as a result of persistent, drenching rain are certain in Siberia and unless the Siberian harvest is gathered in soon a new threat of frost will arise. The frost normally starts in Siberia and in some other parts of the Russian federation early in September.

Reports from the harvest areas Wednesday showed bumper crops almost everywhere in the Soviet Union except in the Ukraine, which traditionally was Russia's "breadbasket." But official figures show that by last Saturday only 57 per cent of the total harvest had been gathered and threshed.

Short Holiday For Eden During Menzies Mission

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Eden today left London for a short holiday at his private country cottage in Wiltshire.

This indicated that the government intends to bide time in the Suez crisis until the Menzies mission sees President Nasser in Egypt Monday.

The five-man delegation headed by Australia's Prime Minister Menzies is leaving for Cairo Sunday to put personally before the Arab ruler majority proposals adopted at the recent London Suez conference for internationalizing the canal.

Howe Says Yes To Red Invitation

ST. ANDREWS, N.B. — (AP) — An invitation for Trade Minister Howe to visit Russia featured the first day's stay in New Brunswick by the Soviet's touring fisheries officials.

Mr. Howe accepted conditionally.

"It is my wish to go but I will have to consult with my colleagues," he said.

The trade minister added he could not make the trip until after the next federal election. This is expected next year and possibly in June.

He would be the third federal cabinet minister to visit Russia. The others were Fisheries Minister Sinclair last year and External Affairs Minister Pearson this year.

The Russian fisheries minister, A. A. Ishkov, after arriving by plane from Nova Scotia, extended the invitation verbally at Mr. Howe's summer home here.

He was accompanied by Dimitri Chuvahin, Russian ambassador to Canada; Igor Semenov, deputy minister of fisheries for the U.S.S.R.; Mr. Sinclair and the latter's executive assistant, Alastair Fraser.

Earlier, the visitors toured a lobster plant, the Deer Island live-lobster pound — reputed the world's largest — and the fisheries biological station here. They became so intrigued they decided to take 600 pounds of live lobsters back to their country, where the delicacy is generally unknown.

Plane Crashed Near Alaskan Peninsula; No Names Released

KODIAK, Alaska — (AP) — Only seven persons are known to have survived the flaming crash of a Canadian Pacific Airlines plane on remote Unimak Island on the tip of the Alaskan peninsula Wednesday night, the United States Navy said today. There were 22 aboard the plane.

The search and rescue unit at Kodiak naval station said there were nine known dead and six persons unaccounted for. Several of the survivors were reported to have suffered serious injuries.

The names of those aboard the craft, bound for Tokyo from Vancouver, were not known here.

Cmdr. W. W. Clark, executive officer at the naval station, said the DC-6B, seven hours out of Vancouver, went down at 9:58 p.m. Kodiak time.

The pilot, Clark said, radioed Cold Bay, Alaska, just before the crash that his ship was on fire. He did not give the cause.

Clark said the airliner smashed to the ground near the shore of Unimak Island.

Two amphibian planes, one from here and one from Adak, and two ships were searching this morning for the persons still missing. The hunt was being hampered by extremely bad weather common to this area.

Each of the search planes carried a doctor and medical supplies.

CP Airlines maintains a refuelling station at Cold Bay, 45 miles to the northwest of Unimak Island, which is separated from the Alaska peninsula by a thin strip of water.

At least four of the survivors were injured to such an extent that they could not be moved without a doctor's aid. They were to be flown to Elmendorf air force base at Anchorage.

CPA officials in Vancouver this morning said they had not yet decided whether a plane would be sent from Vancouver to the crash site, since the U.S. air force has emergency facilities nearby.

Cold Bay is 1,710 miles and seven hours' flying time from Vancouver. The DC-6B, a four-engine plane, can carry 52 passengers and a crew of eight.

CPA said that up to last June 30 it had logged 604,427,912 passenger-miles since its last mishap — May 12, 1953, when a Canso flying boat crashed in Prince Rupert Harbor, killing one passenger and a stewardess.

Labor Renews Try To Chase Racketeers From U.S. Movement

FOREST PARK, Pa. — (AP) — Organized labor appears to be embarked on a new attempt to chase racketeers out of the labor movement in the United States.

On the heels of action against three unions charged with welfare fund irregularities, the AFL-CIO executive council Wednesday ordered its 140 unions in effect to quit chartering locals to hoodlums who try to extort money from employees by threatening violence.

It directed all unions to avoid indiscriminate issuing of charters which could be used to "shake down" employers and give "a black eye to the labor movement."

The federation's action closely coincided with the FBI's arrest in New York of John Dioguardi, alias Johnny Dio, who has for years operated on the racketeer fringe of the labor movement.

Dio, arrested on charges of conspiracy in the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel, had succeeded for years in operating non-existent or "paper locals" of various labor unions, New York police officials said.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, said he feels sure that the new AFL-CIO rules requiring newly chartered locals to have legitimate cores of workers will help clean underworld influences from labor organizations.

Falls Area Roped Off At Niagara

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. — (AP) — A 200-foot section of path along the cliff above the gorge at Whirlpool State Park was roped off Wednesday as a result of a state geologist's report that it may be in danger of a rockfall.

A. M. Anderson, executive secretary and chief engineer of the Niagara Frontier Parks Commission, ordered the area roped off on the recommendation of John G. Broughton of Albany, state geologist who examined the area.

Broughton said there is a weakened rock condition in a section of the cliff between the path which leads to a ledge where tourists view the rapids and whirlpool and the bottom of the gorge. The area is about two miles below the falls.

A major rockfall occurred June 7, when tons of rock virtually destroyed the Schoellkopf power plant. It was the fifth major rockfall in the area since 1931. The most spectacular was in July, 1954, when Prospect Point, a popular tourist spot at the American Falls.

Jailbreak Results In Two Deaths, 13 Hurt

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Officials at nearby Kilby prison today considered filing manslaughter charges against two convicts who escaped Wednesday in a dump truck carrying 28 other prisoners.

After a wild chase, with a guard shooting at the tires from a pursuing truck, the truckload of "maximum security" convicts overturned. Two of the passengers were killed and 13 injured.

Guards rounded up the group without trouble and returned them to the state prison just outside Montgomery.

Frank Lee, deputy prison director, said officials believe only two convicts were responsible for the bold bid for freedom. They held the truck driver at knife-point in the brief dash.

"We don't feel this was a concentrated move to make a break," Lee said. "The rest of the men on the truck were sort of victims of circumstances."

"We intend to prosecute whoever's guilty of killing" the two who died in the wreck, Lee said. Lee identified the two who commandeered the truck as Roy Eugene Pruitt, 24, serving five

Not Nice At All!

If there was something lacking in the translation from French to English, then we apologize to Judge Armand Cloutier, of Montreal.

But, if reported and translated correctly, the understatement of the week must belong to the good judge.

Judge Cloutier was addressing Emile Lacoste, who pleaded guilty to a charge of public mischief arising out of an attempt to bury his car near Granby. Object was to have the car disappear so that Lacoste, who was having payment trouble, could collect the insurance and solve his financial woes. Unfortunately, a sharp-eyed farmer caught Lacoste in the act.

Nobody could blame Judge Cloutier for a mild case of confusion in this case. After all, it isn't every day that he tries a man charged with burying a car.

To the accused, the judge is quoted as saying:

"You must realize this wasn't a very nice thing to do..."

Fine Police Work

There's a lot more to the business of law enforcement than patrolling a beat and answering calls for assistance.

There have been two very fine examples of good police work in action in recent weeks. Both are a credit to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the United States and point up the necessity of having the best in equipment and men to protect honest citizens from the law-breakers.

The first involved the gruesome kidnapping of a month-old baby boy. It is said that FBI men examined more than two million samples of handwriting before they trapped the culprit from a writing idiosyncrasy that appeared in the ransom note.

The second was the terrible acid-attack on a New York labor writer, which blinded him for life. The perpetrator of this deed has since been cut down by gangland bullets because he was careless enough to let some of the acid spill onto himself, thus marking himself beyond repair.

But those behind this grim crime have now been captured and will answer for it.

Such rapid solution of these cases must give the American people renewed confidence in the ability of their law enforcement officers.

Moments Of Irony

Our daily life certainly has its moments of humorous irony.

Some people may question the humor in having a wisdom tooth extracted, but in this particular case some may be found who will join us at least in a wry grin.

You've all heard of L'Egare. That's the name of the raft that carried three French-born Canadians across the Atlantic Ocean not long ago. Its movements, when it could be located, were followed with great interest — so much interest in fact that the story of the trip already has been sold for something like $20,000.

Those who have read the necessarily brief accounts of the trip are probably quite prepared to accept as gospel the stories of hardships encountered by the trio. The skipper, Henri Beaudout, had to be removed from the raft because of exhaustion and rejoined his mates as the raft neared its destination.

This is heady and heroic stuff. Mr. Beaudout could be excused if he anticipated a warm and sympathetic greeting from Mrs. Beaudout upon his return to Montreal.

This, however, was not the case. For it seems that Mrs. Beaudout isn't quite as hardy as is Mr. Beaudout and company.

Mr. Beaudout returned to Montreal to his wife, who was lying ill in hospital. Her malady? The after-effects of having a wisdom tooth extracted.

This And That...

Difference between the boss and employees is that the boss only watches the clock during coffee breaks.

In the good old days before medical science advanced with such great strides, there was probably a good deal less worry about the whys and wherefores of such things as heart attacks. Coincidentally, there were considerably less heart attacks.

One can't help but wonder whether all the worry generated by the wealth of advice to "those who have reached middle-age" merely means that many will be exchanging a heart attack for an ulcer.

It wasn't long ago that economists were hammering on the theory that Canadians must be optimistic — that optimism was the sure cure-all. So most Canadians have been just that. They've gone ahead and bought everything from houses to cars to TV sets and washing machines on credit, optimistically certain that the future will take care of itself. Now the powers-that-be are telling us that this optimism must be curbed. It may be clear to the economists, but for the average guy this can get pretty confusing — and not at all amusing.

Hear tell of a man who gave his daughter a tool kit for a wedding present. It's something that probably won't catch on, but what more useful gift for the housewife of today, faced as she is with the problem of keeping so many appliances in good running order?

A decade or so can certainly bring a lot of changes. It wasn't very long ago that we were keeping German airmen penned up in prisoner-of-war camps. Now, a mere 11 years later, we're considering a plan to train a new crop at our Air Force bases. Certainly nothing can reverse friendships and enmities faster than war, whether it be hot or cold war.

Hard Work Does It

(FT. Wm. Times-Journal)

It is reported that officers of the Federal Bureau of Investigations painstakingly examined thousands upon thousands of specimens of handwritings of previously convicted criminals, matching them with the handwriting on the ransom note sent to the Long Island parents of a kidnapped baby. Finally they were rewarded. The writing was similar to that of a man who had been involved in a bootlegging charge a year ago.

This illustrates the fact that good police work is so often a matter of everlasting investigation, rather than shrewd and brilliant deduction.

NO FORESIGHT

Promoters were refused a $1,000 loan in 1827 by bankers to start a town at Chicago, on the grounds it would never develop.

RUN SHEEP RUN

When twilight falls on nights in spring,
When the air with merry voices ring,
You often hear that old old call...
Run Sheep Run!

Down the hills, over the plains,
Under sunny skies or falling rains,
Children will still shout that long long call
Run Sheep Run!

And all thru' the years, children will play,
Whether rich or poor, they'll be happy and gay
This old refrain will be uttered by all...
Run Sheep Run!

NO-TRUMP PLAY IS ILLUSIVE

Put yourself in the East seat in order to defend against three no-trump in today's hand. The correct defensive play may surprise you.

South wins the opening lead with the king of hearts and leads the jack of diamonds. West, your partner, plays low, and dummy likewise plays low. This permits you to win the second trick with the queen of diamonds. What do you return?

If you return your partner's suit, you will get nowhere. Your best chance is to switch to clubs.

The average player would return the queen of clubs, and this would allow South to make his contract. Dummy wins with the king of clubs, and the defenders can later get the ace of diamonds and two club tricks. South's ten of clubs is good enough to win the fourth round of that suit.

East can defeat the contract by returning his low club instead of one of the honors. East should realize that his partner has the ace of diamonds. This will give West a chance to lead through the king of clubs later on.

When East returns his lowest club, declarer can win the trick in either hand and force out the ace of diamonds. West now leads another club through dummy's king, and East is ready to take

WRONG-WAY HAZARDS

(Windsor Star)
Dual highways allow drunk drivers to create a new form of highway hazard. That is, by driving the wrong way on them.

Recently there was a bad accident east of Toronto, with fatal results, because an automobile careened the wrong way on one lane. A similar occurrence, on the newly opened section of Highway 401 east from Windsor, resulted in a driver pleading guilty to drunk driving. Rather miraculously; no accident resulted.

This illustrates what alcohol can do to a driver. If a man doesn't know he is driving the wrong direction on a dual highway, it is easy to imagine the menace he is.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY BELONGS TO CANADA

Bygone Days

THIRTY YEARS AGO
From the Record of Mon., Aug. 30th., 1926.

British political circles are not looking with too much hope at the current campaign in the United States for a change in the war debt policy which would result in a further reduction or even a cancellation of the liabilities.

Among those taking part in a play presented at Scotstown were: Miss Agnes MacLeod, George LeBlanc, Leslie Scot, Miss Marion Watson, Mrs. D. J. Graham, Curtis Jennings, Carroll Taylor, Laurence Farley, Hawley Parsons, and Miss Hilda Stewart.

The first snowfall of the season was reported from some points in the district, a comparatively heavy fall being registered for four or five minutes.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record of Fri., Aug. 30th., 1946.

At the Paris Peace Conference yesterday, Russia accused the U.S. and Britain of influencing the Greek ballot in next Sunday's Greek election. Charging that the little Balkan country is paving the way to the return of exiled King George II "with a reign of terror", Russia Foreign Minister Molotov declared, "We know that British troops are there and that American warships are on the way."

An uneasy peace continued today on the strike front in Hamilton. Some 240 striking war veterans held a parade before the gates of the picketed Steel Company of Canada, the only plant that has remained in operation, out of Hamilton's three basic steel plants, since the beginning of the present wages-hour dispute.

In spite of very unfavorable weather a total of 9,656 persons paid admission to the Sherbrooke Fair grounds yesterday. This compared with 14,094 on the corresponding day last year. The 1946 event comes to an end tonight.

Are Our Standards Deteriorating?

(Editorial In The Financial Post)

Canadians may with good reason ask themselves if their political morals are deteriorating. It has generally been assumed that Canadian politics, if not exciting by American or European standard, are at any rate reasonably free from the grosser vices of bribery, corruption and graft. Is this complacent opinion challenged by recent events?

There is the case of the British Columbia minister, Robert Sommers, accused of accepting bribes for awarding valuable timber concessions to certain interests. He resigned his portfolio after this charge was made and has sued his accuser for libel. But his political chief, Premier Bennett, has called a snap election before the probity of Mr. Sommers can be examined by the courts. The moral issues involved are discussed on another page by Bruce Hutchison.

There was an argument about highways in Ontario that did not end in a way wholly satisfactory to the public sense of justice. There was a decent public declaration by two distinguished clerics in Quebec that politics in that province are not conducted on a high level of honesty. There was a row in Alberta that involved the integrity of members of the Legislature.

There is no need to be an alarmist about these signs and portents. They do not point to the imminent death of Canadian democracy. Nevertheless they are disturbing. Smugness about our conduct is unwise.

Kitchen Shower For Bride-Elect At Rock Island
ROCK ISLAND — Miss Mavis Johnston, of Magog, an August bride-to-be, was guest of honor at a kitchen shower, given at the home of Mrs. Ann Reed in Rock Island.
On the arrival of Miss Johnston, who was greeted by Mrs. Bernard Dewey and presented with a corsage of yellow gladioli, she was escorted to a special chair. Seasonal flowers were used to decorate the home. The gifts were placed in a basket decorated in yellow and green; the bride elect was assisted in unwrapping these by Mrs. Herbert Chamberlain, her future mother-in-law. After all had been admired, Miss Johnston expressed words of appreciation.
Refreshments were served from the lace covered table, which was centered with the decorated bride's cake, flanked by tapers in crystal holders.
Guessing games were played and prizes awarded to Miss Johnston, Mrs. Keith Armstrong, Mrs. Herbert Chamberlain, Misses Betty and Shirley Chamberlain.
JOLLY TWELVE CLUB
The Jolly Twelve Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Edward Simpson in West Park for the August party. Two members, Mrs. William Comstock and Mrs. Patrick Gilmartin were absent and were represented by Mrs. Reginald Martin and Mrs. Stewart Smith.
The president, Mrs. William Higgins, presided for the brief business meeting, when it was agreed that each member would cook something and take it to the home of Mrs. William Comstock for the following 12 days, until Mrs. Comstock's kitchen is repaired, following the disaster of several weeks ago.
Games were played and the winners awarded prizes. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

BISHOPTON—
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Joyce were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reif, of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Estelle Chamberlain, of Rock Island, who is spending part of her vacation with her parents. Visitors at the same home included Mrs. Martha Williams, St. Johnsbury, Vt., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shirley, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Joyce, Mr. Rupert Joyce and Mr. Stanley Bishop, of East Annapolis.

Women's Groups

DIOCESAN COUNCIL CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

A meeting of the Diocesan Council of the Catholic Women's League of Canada was held on Sunday afternoon in the Canon Fiset Memorial Library with Mrs. E. J. Wolfe, president, in the chair.

The meeting opened with the usual prayers with special thought for repose of souls of Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. M. Lachance, Mr. P. Maloney, Mr. F. O. Beatty, Mr. E. Kelly and Mr. E. Gormley.

The main business before the meeting was the finalizing of plans for the forthcoming Provincial Convention to be held in Drummondville, Friday and Saturday, September 14th and 15th with the members of St. Therese Subdivision of Drummondville

Marriages

WASHBURN-KNAPP

NORTH HATLEY.—The marriage of Violet Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Knapp of North Hatley, Que., to Mr. Vernon Winfield Washburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Washburn of Ayer's Cliff, Que., took place on Saturday, August 25, in St. Barnabas Church, the Rev. James Fisk officiating. The wedding music which included Ave Maria and O Promise Me was played by Mrs. Richard Sprigings. Assorted flowers and pastel gladioli were used to decorate the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length strapless gown of Chantilly lace and net over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a long sleeve jacket. Trimming the full skirt and bodice were seed pearls and sequins. Her fingertip veil which was outlined with rhinestones was held in place with a pill-box hat also adorned with seed pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of mauve orchids and white shattered carnations.

Mrs. S. A. Ward, as matron of honor for her sister, wore a floor-length strapless gown of orchid nylon net over taffeta, fashioned with matching bolero. Her small veil was held by a wreath of summer flowers and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Miss Arlene Knapp, sister of the bride, acting as bridesmaid, wore a yellow gown styled on lines similar to that of the matron of honor and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of mauve gladioli.

Miss Linda Knapp, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length gown of pale green nylon trimmed with rhinestones. Her small veil was held with a wreath of summer flowers and she carried a floral bouquet of white gladioli.

Mr. Robert Oxford of Sherbrooke, acted as best man for Mr. Washburn, and the ushers as hostesses. Mrs. Wolfe stressed the importance of members doing their utmost to attend these conventions on all levels, stating that they are a source of information for all, and if each one attending would take notes, comparisons of great value could be made thereafter. This, in turn, would stimulate greater interest in League work and overcome the erroneous impression that Conventions are for members of the Executive only.

Members wishing to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Wolfe as soon as possible so she may advise the hostess subdivision accordingly.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the Sherbrooke members.

Mrs. P. Smith and Miss H. Goggin of Richmond, Mrs. G. Pott, of Magog and Mrs. E. Clark and Miss M. McCormick of East Angus were the out of town members attending this meeting.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Washburn will take up residence on Laurier Ave., Sherbrooke.

PEARSON-TEARE

BEDFORD.—The marriage of Jocelyn Louise, daughter of Mrs. Ross McKean Preston and of the late Norman A. Teare, of Bedford, to Mr. John Bruce Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Pearson of Westmount, took place on Saturday afternoon, August 25, at half-past three o'clock in St. James Anglican Church, Bedford, the Rev. W. J. White officiating. Mr. Alex MacArthur played the wedding music. White gladioli were used as decorations in the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her step-father, Mr. Ross McKean Preston, was in a gown of white embroidered organza, with a fitted bodice and a full tiered skirt falling into a train. Her fingertip length veil of tulle illusion was held by a tiny lace cap and she carried a bouquet of white single chrysanthemums and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a brooch of sapphires and pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Katherine A. Teare, as maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. D. K. Sherry of Windsor Mills, Miss Nancy Pearson, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Edgar Knight and Miss Penrose Woolcombe, as attendants were in frocks of Dior blue organza over taffeta, with bodices having an organza bow at the back, and white single chrysanthemums and white single chrysanthemums and carried bouquets of matching flowers.

Mr. Donald Ross acted as best man for Mr. Pearson and the ushers were Mr. David G. Dorion, Mr. John Teare, brother of the bride, Mr. Lyle Gilmore and Mr. Richard Maier of Toronto. Mrs. Preston, mother of the bride, wore a gown of sea-green tulle organza with insertions of lace, a hat of iridescent feathers and a corsage bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Pearson, mother of the bridegroom, was in a frock of cinnamon brown silk organza and wore a hat of blue and brown petals and a corsage of blue feathered carnations.

The reception was held at Windyridge, the residence of the bride's parents.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Pearson left by motor for New England, the bride travelling in an ensemble of dusty blue and wearing a brown velvet hat, brown accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias. They will reside in London, Ont.

Among the out-of-town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. T. Q. Fulton and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fulton, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. Henry Teare, Southampton, England; Mrs. Charles Pearson, Annisquam, Mass.; Miss Barbara Pearson, of Lynnfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Woodworth, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Maier, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Molloy, of Buffalo, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner and Col. John Franklin, of Ottawa; Mrs. S. Bunge, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lalonde, Miss Linda Lalonde and Miss Irene Lalonde, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond Giles, Mrs. Charles Munroe, Mr. Newton Candee, Mr. and Mrs. W. Milligan, Miss Anne Milligan, Miss Joyce Milligan, Dr. and Mrs. Ian Gourley and Mrs. G. S. Lloyd, of Cornwall, Ont.

Homemaking

When moving large household objects, be sure to hold or push them in a way which allows you to see where you're going.

Baked potatoes won't become soggy if pricked with a fork at the end of the baking time.

To save time, store coffee supplies at or near the range with a measuring spoon in the can. Keep coffee maker near the sink.

To glaze buns, brush with milk or slightly beaten egg white and sprinkle with sugar a minute before taking them from the oven. During that extra minute in the oven, the buns will develop an attractive glaze.

Hold Mixed Fashion Show At Cabana Motel Tonight

MAGOG—(Special)—Five local firms will stage a fashion preview of 1956-57 styles for men and women at the Cabana Motel tonight, starting at 9 p.m. The event, which is being conducted in aid of the Mount Orford Ski Patrol, will feature a complete range of clothing for men and women from Paul Henri's men's wear store and Chez Jeanne Enrg. ladies' shop, as well as jewellery from Leon E. Vaillancourt, hats from Salon l'Elegante, and furs from LaFlamme Furs. All lines shown will be fashion leaders from the more famous clothing manufacturers and complete commentaries will be given in both French and English. Special musical accompaniment has been arranged by the management of the Cabana Motel.

The task of organizing the sale of tickets, and arranging publicity for the mixed fashion showing was that of the benefiting group, the Mount Orford Ski Patrol, and the founders of the 12-man patrol, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whittier, headed these important phases of organization. Mrs. Whittier said she expects the patrol to increase its number by five this coming winter, to make a total of 17 patrolers.

SIDE GLANCES By Galbraith

"Now that's what I call a job of parking—you're within walking distance of the curb!"

Highway Paved At Cherry River

CHERRY RIVER—The main highway through Cherry River has been hard surfaced from the Worthington Chase property to the Harry Whittier farm. This badly needed improvement has been requested for some years by the citizens of this community, and promises to cut down considerably the dust caused by vehicles passing through the village.

See Record Enrolment At Magog

MAGOG—Magog school boards expect a record enrolment this coming week, when this city's nine schools will open their doors to start the 1956-57 term. Yearly, for the past ten years, the number of children enrolling in local schools has increased, to make additional facilities necessary.

In 1946, Magog had five schools. In 1948 the new Princess Elizabeth High School was built, and the former high school was purchased by the Catholic School Board, to be turned into a day-time grade school and a school for adults in the evenings.

In 1950, the formation of the new St. Jean Bosco parish saw one more school spring up in Magog and the second one in that parish was built four years ago.

Two years ago a school was constructed in the part of Magog known as Michigan, and with the expected enrolment school board officials throughout the city predict need for more accommodation in the near future.

Magog Clamps Down On Trucks; Meters Operating

MAGOG—(Special)—A municipal by-law was adopted at a recent meeting of the local city council, cancelling the previous one governing the city's traffic regulations.

The new by-law forbids large trucks and other delivery vehicles to obstruct traffic during the day while delivering. The new by-law states that all such deliveries be made either in the early morning, or late evening.

The recently erected parking meters, placed along Magog's main business streets are now in operation and violators are being fined.

The municipal council's decision to place meters in the city was followed by strong protests from local merchants, who claimed that the meters would be harmful, in as much as they would discourage outsiders from coming to Magog to do their shopping. The council argued that this would not be the case, and asked the merchants to tolerate the meters for at least one year before a decision to abolish them was considered.

FORMER CHIEF DIES

MAGOG — One of Magog's oldest citizens, J. I. Demers, of 175 Victoria Street, died here last Sunday morning in his eighty-seventh year. Mr. Demers, who had been retired for a number of years, was long time chief of police and fire in this city.

Three Village Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. E. Clogston are motoring back to their home in Florida, after visiting Mrs. Clogston's son, Mr. Donald Prangle and Mrs. Prangle, in Stanstead, and other relatives and friends in the Townships.

Friends of Miss Martha Aldrich, R.N., will be interested to learn she has left for Newfoundland, where she will be on the staff of St. Anthony Hospital, operated by the International Grenfell Association. Before leaving, Miss Aldrich spent a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Aldrich in South Barnston. Miss Ardy's Aldrich of Sherbrooke was also a visitor at the same home.

Among those from out of town attending the funeral of Mr. Leslie Comstock were Miss Edna Beerworth, of Sherbrooke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Little, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Little, all of North Hatley, Mr. William Webb of Waterville and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rever of Ayer's Cliff.

Mrs. Mary Kimpton has returned to the Hetherington Rest Home in Stanstead after spending ten days at the home of Mrs. Harry Davies in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and three children have returned to their native home in Sevenoaks, Kent, England, after being in Stanstead for the past seven years. Mr. Smith being employed in the Union Twist Drill Company in Rock Island. On his departure from the plant, co-workers presented him with a gift of money and the best wishes for the future in his homeland.

YOUNG COMPETITORS are encouraged every year to enter Brome Fair competition. This year's fair held Saturday through Tuesday, promises to bring out many youngsters, both as competitors and visitors. Townships' Biggest Exhibition Will Mark 100th Anniversary

BROME — The last and largest county fair of the Eastern Townships opens its gates at Brome this Saturday for the 100th anniversary of the Brome County Agricultural Society exhibition. Through the first century of its existence, Brome Fair has proved over and over again to be the biggest county fair of the Eastern Townships, with competitors and visitors alike coming from all over Quebec to join in on the big Labor Day weekend celebrations. Because it has fallen on Labor Day for a good many years and because it is the last County Fair of the district are two good reasons why Brome is the most popular summer exhibition. But, all due credit must be given to hard-working directors and organizers who have worked since the first fair in 1856 to bring something a little different to each annual event. And the good old fair spirit is never lacking at Brome, with record-breaking attendance every year the annual reward.

According to George McClay, fair secretary for the past 17 years, this year's fair will lack nothing in the way of entertainment or competition. Entries have streamed in from all parts of the county for several weeks and one of the largest stock shows in the fair history is scheduled.

An outstanding feature of this year's fair will be a horse pulling contest to be held all day Tuesday in front of the grandstand. Three classes, including a free-for-all with classes open to anyone in the United States and Canada will be on the program with $500 being offered in prize money.

Marcus Blackwood, who heads the contest committee, has reported that many teams from Ontario, Quebec and Vermont have already entered the event.

Huge stock parades are planned for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday afternoons while the Brome County Calf Club will be on hand to lead the group.

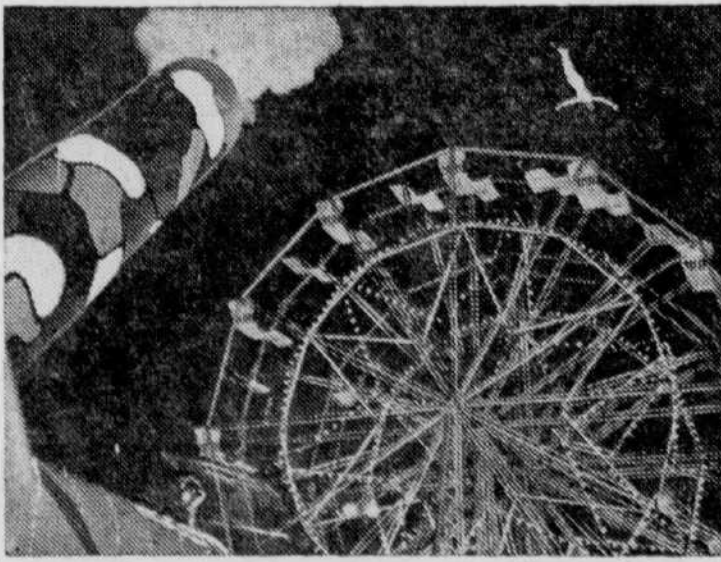

Entertainment-wise, the fair will have many other attractions. Green's Midway, filled with many new rides and booths, will be on hand for the entire four days. The Knowlton High School Band, which has attended the fair ever since the band's organization, will entertain the crowd each day and horse races will be run off Saturday, Sunday and Monday afternoons.

The Gus Sun Vaudeville Agency will present the evening grandstand show each night with several acts being shown during afternoon proceedings.

Highlighting this year's show are the Television Stars of 1956, featuring 10 different acts, including Wilno the Human Cannonball, Capt. Eddy and His Comedy Car, Emmanuel and Beatrice and their wire walking act, Pierre Berjot and his harmonica, Josephine and her pet dogs, Jargo the clown, Brownie and his trick roping, Myrna's acrobatic act and the Brownie Silverlake Trio.

GRANDSTAND ACT — The Brownie Silverlake Trio, a faetured act on many television circus shows will be presented with their Roman Ring Circus in the grandstand show at Brome Fair this weekend. Their act will be presented along with several others in the Television Stars of 1956.

ON BROME STAGE — Appearing with the Television Stars of 1956, on the grandstand show of the Brome County Fair this weekend will be Wilno the Great, the world's most sensational human cannonball act. Billed as one of the most amazing acts in the show world today, the act will appear in all shows of Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Hillside Sheep To Show Again At Brome

Mizener Entries Grabbed 14 Firsts Last Year

FOSTER — Hillside Dairy Farm, overlooking nearby Brome Lake is not only famous for raising Jerseys as the name suggests, but also for raising sheep.

The picturesque farm, a few miles from Foster, is owned by B. R. Mizener and Son, who have been raising sheep for the past 50 years. It was 25 years ago that they first showed at Brome Fair and from that time they have always returned home with a big share of the prizes.

Lately, Mr. Mizener turned the sheep-raising end of the 200-acre farm over to his son, Art, who now cares for the 44 Shropshires and Hampshires.

At Brome Fair in 1955, the Mizener entries took 14 firsts and one second. This was due in part, according to Art, to the small competition in Brome County. But with sheep-raising now growing more popular in the district, they expected to have more competition this year.

Not only are Hillside sheep shown at Brome Fair but also entered annually at Waterloo. Competition there is much improved and in spite of this, the Mizeners managed to come home this year with all prizes in both sheep classes.

At the Sherbrooke Winter Fair, where competition is much stiffer, Hillside Farm sheep have taken many prizes and although Art claimed they fared "about average" there have been long lists of firsts and seconds brought back to Foster.

The younger Mizener started raising lambs a few years ago as a school boy hobby. Today, however after advancing considerably to take over the flock, he raises them for wool, which is sold to the Lennoxville Cooperative Wool Growers and for market at the Sherbrooke Winter Fair auction.

Most of the sheep have been bred and raised by the Mizeners but some have come from Ontario breeders. They keep both grade and purebred animals with the grades providing the best market lambs. Most of the animals are fine wool sheep and top quality choice fleeces made up a great part of this spring's shearing.

Art hopes to have an entry in every class at Brome this weekend, and may very well duplicate last year's victories. Along with several top-rated ewes will go some rams, including the farm's champion aged ram that placed first in last year's competition.

The Mizeners also have 23 four-month-old lambs out of which will be chosen a good representative for the younger classes.

Knowlton Housewife Perennial Winner At Brome Fair

Mrs. Norman Sanborn's Specialty Is Sugar Muffins

KNOWLTON — Attractive Mrs. Norman Sanborn is not one to readily admit being a top cooker of the county. In fact, even though she has taken most of the firsts for two years at Brome Fair, she demurely attributed her success to "just one who's lucky."

Mrs. Sanborn, who is the mother of five children, lives with her husband and family on their 200 acre Broadview Farm, a few miles from Knowlton. The former Antoinette Lapiere of Granby, she has been a resident here since 1932.

Barely resembling the mother of two married daughters, Mrs. Sanborn's youthful exuberance and keen wit shows clearly why she's a popular member of the fair cooking committee as well as an ardent exhibitor.

About 15 years ago, Mrs. Sanborn began exhibiting at the fair, but with a growing family, she soon found it too much work. It wasn't until two years ago, when the youngest child was well out of the baby stage, that she started again.

She says she just enters for the fun of it, and with competition as stiff as it is, "I was surprised to get anything."

Specialty with the Sanborn family is mother's sugar muffins. These are as popular at the fair as they are at home, for she has always come back with first prize. Other favorites are her white cake and tea biscuits, not always the easiest to make.

Last year's cooking prizes included six firsts and five seconds and even at that Mrs. Sanborn didn't enter every class. However besides the baking, she also enters canning and jam, with which she does equally as well.

As far as the family is concerned, Mrs. Sanborn is just about tops. She doesn't know to what she should attribute her cooking success but feels cooking for 24 years for a large family might have helped.

"I always try to please them, but my family never finds fault with my cooking. They aren't very fussy anyway," she said.

After exhibiting the cooking at the fair, Mrs. Sanborn confessed she never had any trouble getting rid of it. "Some I give away, a little I sell, and often I bring a lot home."

The Sanborns are fairly content with letting mother be the prize-getter of the family, although for 10 years, they took honors with their saddle horse.

Last year there was no one at home to ride the horse, so it went unentered. Now, however, with married daughters, Nancy and Lillian, living nearer Knowlton and young Norma at home to ride, they have no excuse for not taking it to the fair.

But, regardless of who decides to show the horse, with all she has to do these days for her part of the exhibit, Mrs. Sanborn knows for sure she's one who won't be riding.

MYSTIC—

Mr. Warren Watson and son Ross, motored to Fitch Bay, where the latter remained to spend ten days at the Mission Camp at Lake Lovering.

Miss Frances McQuat, of Lachute, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. P.

Soule, Mr. and Mrs. Bernes Bockus and son, of Halifax, Conn., are presently guests at the Soule home.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sellie, of Montreal, spent the weekend at the Walbridge home. Mrs. Walbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Near and family were recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns at Island Brook.

Mrs. D. Kennedy and Mrs. J. Hall, of St. Albans, Vt., were guests of Miss Edith Bockus.

Miss Shirley Soule, while visiting friends in Lachute, also attended the Ottawa Fair.

The flowers placed in Christ's Church were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Goodin given by their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Groom, accompanied by their guest, Mrs. Davidson, motored to St. Johnsbury, Vt., and visited Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Groom.

Mrs. N. G. Bennett and children, David and Bruce, have returned home from Escuminac.

Mr. Eric Purdie, of Pointe Claire, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bennett. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Purdy and children, who had been staying at the Bennett home.

Messrs. Ronald and Calvin Chapman have gone to Ontario to work in the tobacco harvest. The Ladies' Guild met at the home of Mrs. Shirley Bennett.

As far as the family is concerned, Mrs. Sanborn is just about tops. She doesn't know to what she should attribute her cooking success but feels cooking for 24 years for a large family might have helped.

Specialty with the Sanborn family is mother's sugar muffins. These are as popular at the fair as they are at home, for she has always come back with first prize. Other favorites are her white cake and tea biscuits, not always the easiest to make.

Last year's cooking prizes included six firsts and five seconds and even at that Mrs. Sanborn didn't enter every class. However besides the baking, she also enters canning and jam, with which she does equally as well.

Argos Blow Big One To Tiger-Cats; Drop Humiliating 18-0 Decision; Gerry Doucette Hurt In First Quarter

TORONTO — (CP) — Toronto Argonauts, with some of the biggest names in Canadian football, are in deep trouble.

They ran into grief Wednesday night as they dropped a humiliating 18-0 decision to Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the Big Four football opener here.

That was bad for a team expected to be a powerful threat this season. But even worse was an injury to second-string quarterback Gerry Doucette.

Doucette, counted on by Argos to keep them going during the convalescence of ace Tom Dublinski, hurt his left shoulder in the first quarter. Doucette, who performed notably against Montreal Alouettes last Saturday, appeared briefly in the second quarter but gave way to third-stringer John Stephans of Holy Cross.

It was not known how serious Doucette's injury was; nor how long he will be unable to quarterback.

Stephans and the entire Argonauts team were inept against the fired-up Ticats, who showed a tremendous improvement after their 29-21 setback by Ottawa Rough Riders last Wednesday.

A crowd of 23,801, largest here since Argos' 1952 Grey Cup winning season, sat through a drenching rain to watch the hard-charging Ticats dominate play. The customers didn't see much of the highly-publicized Ronnie Knox but they got a good look at quarterback Nobby Warkowski, Toronto castoff who led the Hamilton offence.

Warkowski, threatened with unemployment when the 21-year-old Knox signed with Ticats about two weeks ago, was great. He completed 10 of 18 pass attempts and moved Ticats 72 yards in eight plays. From the kick-off finishing with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Ron Howell.

This gave Tiger-Cats a 7-0 lead. They added two singles and their second touchdown in the second quarter for a 16-0 lead.

Howard Schnellenberger, all-American end from the University of Kentucky, scored the second touchdown when he fell on Pete Neumann's fumble after Neumann raced into the end zone with a blocked kick.

The win moved Hamilton into a first-place tie with Alouettes and Rough Riders, who have played one game less than Ticats. Argonauts are in last place with two straight defeats.

Two Hundred Golfers To Compete In St. Johnsbury Country Club Field Day; Professionals To Play On Monday

One of Vermont's most colorful sports events of the late summer season, the 6th Annual International Golf Tournament, will be held over the Labor Day week-end at the St. Johnsbury Country Club.

A field of 200 golfers, including several outstanding amateurs and professionals from Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine and the Province of Quebec, will take part in the three-day affair which starts Saturday.

The amateurs will be competing for awards valued at more than $1,000. These include complete sets of irons, sets of woods, a television set, golf carts and bags, golf shoes, and many other trophies.

Competition among the amateurs will be divided into three classes, A, B and C. Ten awards in each division will be made to pitchers aren't going to give my boy any the best of it. He'll be walked a lot unless he goes for bad pitches. And then he's likely to strike out often.

"But if I was he, I wouldn't be too disappointed if I didn't reach Ruth's record. After all he's young. I never had a man who led the league in all divisions. I would gain if he did."

Mantle currently is leading the American League in batting average, .367 and runs batted in, 117, as well as homers. Only three players have won the triple crown since they started keeping R.B.I. records in 1920.

Stengel believes it'll be easier for Mickey to win the batting title than to catch Ruth's record.

"You don't have to swing too hard if you just figure on getting hits," he said. "And from now on you can be sure the

Grey Goose Wins Dow Award Sweeping "D" Pace; Fabi's Allie Truax Other Double Winner; Quinella Pays $143.60

The Grey Goose, a aged grey mare owned by Gordon Cameron of Malartic, Que., emerged with the Dow Award yesterday afternoon when she paced home ahead of the field in both halves of the "D" Pace.

Coupled with Bud in the third class they paid the top quinella of the afternoon, $143.60. The daily double of Bud A Spender and Allie Truax, both favorites in their respective classes, paid only $7.90.

The fastest time of the afternoon was registered in the eighth race when Art Casey teamed home his Herbie Direct in 2:12.4/5 to win the second half of the "C" Pace.

Calgary Stamps Protest Monday's Loss On Last Minute Play; Pictures Show Blue Bombers With Extra Man

WINNIPEG — (CP) — Calgary Stampeders are protesting their 16-13 loss to Winnipeg Blue Bombers here Monday night in a Western Interprovincial Football Union game as a result of the final minute of play — one that is shaping up as the weirdest minute in the history of the league.

Mrs. Zaharias has been fed intravenously since last Saturday at John Sealy Hospital, where she has been undergoing treatment for cancer. Although weak and tired from her long battle against cancer, the Babe was cheerful as she greeted relatives at the hospital Wednesday.

Dr. G. A. W. Currie, in an official bulletin from the hospital Wednesday, said "Mrs. Zaharias has had no additional trouble and is entirely comfortable."

Phil Rizzuto Gets Offer From St. Louis Cards

HILLSIDE, N. J. (AP) — Phil Rizzuto said Wednesday he has declined an "attractive" offer to play for St. Louis Cardinals for the remainder of the season.

The former Yankee shortstop said Frank Lane, general manager of the Cards, called him Tuesday night and promised to have him in every game for the remainder of 1956. The Cards have 29 games left.

Blasts Homer As Bums Move Within A Game Of Milwaukee; Yankees Win; White Sox And Red Sox Post Victories

Brooklyn Dodgers moved within a game of the first-place Milwaukee Braves and Mickey Mantle went four games up on Babe Ruth's 1927 home run pace as he hit No. 46 to furnish the high spots in the major league games played Wednesday afternoon.

With Roy Campanella slamming across five runs, three on his 16th homer, the Dodgers defeated the Chicago Cubs 11-4. Campanella doubled across two runs in the Brooks' five-run first inning which hung the defeat on rookie Don Kaker, first of four Chicago hurlers.

In the fifth with the Dodgers leading 5-3, two on and two out, the Brooklyn catcher settled the issue with his homer. The blow came off former teammate Jim Hughes.

Duke Snider bolstered his National League home run lead by hitting No. 37 in the seventh for the Dodgers. Two of the 11 Chicago hits off Don Erskine were Don Hoak's three-run homer and Gene Baker's solo blast out of the field.

Mantle almost became a goat in the Yankees 7-6 decision over the Kansas City Athletics. He muffed a fly ball with the bases full in the first inning which went for a two-base error and cleared the bases to send the As off to a 4-0 lead before they even got a hit.

Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox, battling for third place in the American League, also came through with victories in the only other day games.

The White Sox defeated Washington, 9-7, despite a six-run rally by the Senators in the ninth. The Red Sox downed Detroit, 4-2, with Dick Gernert batting in three runs and Ike Delock shutting off a late Tiger threat to preserve Tom Brewer's 17th victory.

Jim Wilson, who had lost eight straight, had a three-hitter going into the last inning. Then the Senators rallied for six hits and had the potential tying run at the plate when Ellis Kinder put down the uprising.

Nellie Fox, Minnie Minoos and Walt Dropo led the White Sox's 14-hit attack. Fox got four and Minoos and Dropo three each.

Scheduled for night games in the National League were the Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates, New York at Cincinnati and Philadelphia at St. Louis. The lone American League night contest sent the Indians against the Orioles at Baltimore.

Montreal Royals aren't likely to win the International League pennant but they should come up with one of the circuit's two 20-game winners in 25-year-old Fred Kipp.

Kipp, a southpaw whom the Brooklyn Dodgers declined to bring up to the majors since the Royals will be in the playoffs, chalked up his 19th victory against seven defeats Wednesday night as Montreal defeated the league-leading Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3.

The victory slashed a full game off the Leafs' lead, leaving the Royals 4 1/2 games back in fourth place. Miami's Marlins took advantage of Kipp's fine hurling to move within three games of the Leafs as they turned back Richmond Virginians 7-2.

Third-place Rochester Red Wings, now trailing by 3 1/2, also closed in on the Leafs. They split shutouts with Buffalo. The Bisons won the first game 5-0 and the Wings the nightcap 2-0. Columbus downed Havana 5-2 in the other league game.

Mrs. B. N. Holtham Wins Field Day At Country Club

Mrs. B. Holtham walked off with the honors in the ladies field day sponsored by the lady members of Sherbrooke Country Club. The event is a closed fixture and is staged annually.

Mrs. Holtham won the driving competition and then took the top spot in the approaching and putting. Mrs. J. Carter was runner-up in the driving while Mrs. P. Robins was runner-up in the approaching and putting competition.

In class "B" Mrs. L. St. Onge led the field for the driving while Mrs. C. Pyke was second. In the approaching and putting Mrs. R. Marois was the winner while Mrs. C. Pyke copped the runner-up spot.

Miss Margaret Skinner made a clean sweep in the Junior section winning the driving while Miss S. Pearson took the runner up spot.

The physician described Boudreau's condition as good, but said he would not be able to go to Wednesday's game between Athletics and Yankees at Yankee Stadium.
