HANSEN HELD TO KING'S BENCH FOR MURDER

Judge Choquet Finish[illegible]quete Into the Case [illegible] Morning.

THE COURT ROOM WA. CROWDED TO THE DOORS

Every Expectation That Trial Will be One of Shortest on Record.

Judge F. X. Choquet, at 11.25 this morning formally committed Thorvald Hansen to the Court of King's Bench for trial on the charge of having wilfully murdered Eric Marrotte on last Saturday night.

The Hansen case will long be noted for the rapidity with which it has been conducted in its preliminary features. The murder was committed on Saturday night, the prisoner surrendered himself Sunday morning, the inquest was held on Monday, the prisoner was arraigned on Tuesday, and committed for trial on Wednesday.

The enquete which resulted in his committal was opened at 10.15 this morning. There appeared to be a universal desire on the part of every one in and around the court to obtain a glimpse of the prisoner, and the enquete room was crowded to its fullest capacity when he appeared. He looked much the same as he has since the inquest, with his head down, while sitting and plucking constantly at his cap. The shirt he is wearing at present is the one given him by Chief of Police Harrison, of Westmount, the one with the blood stains on it being preserved as an exhibit.

By the time the hearing was ready to begin the room was completely filled, a large number climbing up on one of the tables so as to obtain a good view of the prisoner at the other.

The enquete was opened by Detective Carpentier producing the articles found on the person of the prisoner when he was searched. These comprised a black leather purse, with 12 cents—2 nickels and 2 coppers in it—a string of red beads, a brass chain, two boxes of matches, of Bryant and May make, and last and most interesting of all, a small photograph, about 2 1-2 by 2 inches, of a girl with black wavy hair. This attracted a great deal of attention, and was much commented on.

Detective Carpentier said the prisoner had made two confessions, one to himself, and the other to Mr. Harrison, both of which were produced, but not read. This witness was followed by Cecil George Murray Marrotte, brother of the deceased, who gave the same testimony as that at the inquest. The prisoner was then taken back to the cells, where he remained till 11.15, when he was brought forth again, when in formal terms His Honor made out the charge and committed the prisoner, who throughout maintained the same impassive attitude and stony silence, was led out to the prison van, and taken back to the jail.

As in all probability this will be the last time he will appear in public before his trial, there was a great crowd to see him. It is doubtful, in fact, whether more than a few out of perhaps a hundred, had any pity for the prisoner, who had committed such an atrocious and unprovoked crime.

It is said by Police Court officials that all things considered the case of Hansen will be one of the most rapidly dealt with of any case of the nature ever known in Montreal. In fact, if Hansen had desired a speedy trial he could not have chosen a more opportune time. Owing to the number of other cases to be dealt with he will not come up before November 23, but his trial, under the circumstances, cannot last long.

DIDN'T WANT THE BIBLE

London, Oct. 29.—In the hearing to-day of the claims against the Duke of Manchester, it came out that in order to secure £200 ($1,000) cash the Duke was obliged to take a Bible which the money lenders valued at £75 ($375). For the cash and the Bible the Duke gave a promissory note for £450 ($2,250).

As the Duke said he did not immediately require the Bible, it was left behind and never claimed. Those who are trying to settle the Duke's [illegible] ing for it and the [illegible] the Bankruptcy Court reduced [illegible] by £40 ($200).

WON BY CANADIANS

The fifteenth annual Imperial competition in upright [illegible] which is open to all the British schools in the world, took place in the [illegible] and the work submitted has been examined and returned to the pupils. Three prizes in money were taken by Canadian pupils, two of whom reside in the Point. The highest prize taken was by Miss Florence M. Kneeland, in the Senior School, of 286 Charlevoix Street. It was five shillings and a certificate of honor. The other prizes were won by Harold R. Perrigard, Congregation Street, of Riverside School, two shillings, and W. Allen, at Lansdowne School, two shillings, with certificates of honor also.

FUNERAL OF MR. A. PILON

The funeral of the late Mr. Alphonse Pilon took place from his late residence, 293 Seigneurs Street, to St. Joseph's Church, at half-past eight o'clock this morning, and was largely attended, among those present being members of Stanley Lodge, No. 5, A.O.U.W., and Lafayette Lodge, No. 15, I.O.O.F., of which the deceased was a member. The Grand Lodge of Quebec and Maritime Provinces, A.O.U.W., was represented by Grand Master Workman D. McCormack, K.C.; Grand Recorder A. T. Patterson, and executive committeeman R. [illegible] and others present included Messrs. J. T. Courtenay, P.M.W.; T. C. Fleming, P.M.W., and L. Harris, of Montreal Lodge, No. 1; J. A. Acheson, P.M.W., of Metropolitan Lodge, No. 4; J. Hersey, Prince George Lodge, No. 9; Ald. Rably, of Clarence Lodge, No. 16; Jas. Brown, P.M.W.; Jas. Smith, P.M.W.; Louis Lassier, P.M.W.; Robert Bennett, P.M.W.; Edward Cavanagh, W. J. McClurg and J. W. Spaulding, Stanley Lodge. At St. Joseph's Church Bourduas' requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Belair, assisted by Rev. N. Dubuc as deacon, and Rev. J. Decarie as sub-deacon. The choir was under the direction of Mr. Ratto, and Mr. Dufour presided at the organ.

DAME RUMOR'S WORDS

Rumor has been busy with the names of possible successors to Hon. H. T. Duffy, should that gentleman decide to resign his seat in the Cabinet if an opening on the judicial bench presents itself. Mr. W. A. Weir, member for Argenteuil, is naturally looked on as a strong candidate for the position, should it go to a representative of the Montreal district. In the latter case, the friends of Hon. Dr. Guerin would no doubt, urge him to seek a portfolio. If an Eastern Townships man be selected, it might be either the member for Stanstead or for Richmond, or Hon. J. C. McCorkill might be asked to seek a seat in the Legislature and accept a portfolio.

But all this is rumor only. It is quite within the possibilities that Mr. Duffy will stay where he is.

Though Mr. J. A. C. Madore, K.C., M.P. for Hochelaga has not as yet been officially appointed a judge rumor has it that he will be in a few days. Already there is talk of his probable successor as representative for Hochelaga. Among those most prominently mentioned is Jerome L. Decarie, the talented young lawyer, who was Mr. Monk's adversary in Jacques Cartier last November, another is Arthur Geoffrion, also an advocate, who recently defended Laplame, the murderer of Mrs. Louis Lefebvre. There is even mention of Ald. Jacques.

Mr. J. A. Drouin, in speaking with a Herald representative this morning, stated that he was an aspirant for the candidature in St. James division to succeed Mr. Justice Desmarais as member in the Federal Parliament. He said, "I am indeed a candidate and expect to be chosen by the convention."

THREATENS TO SMASH THINGS

German Emperor Reported to Have Made This Threat.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The German press is discussing in lively fashion the following utterances attributed to Emperor William:

"If no commercial treaties are negotiated I shall smash everything to pieces."

In an address at a recent meeting of the Fleet Society, in Hanover, Captain Von Weltheim, of the German Navy, is reported to have said:

"Germany's interests in the five republics of Central America, in view of American competition, [illegible] when we have a fleet strong enough to say to the Americans, 'Hands off.'"

This declaration was received with stormy applause. The papers generally ignore it, and the Freisinnige Zeitung observes:

"There is a species of political mischief making which while not punishable under the Penal Code, is none the less calculated to cause apprehension."

The Naval Department will introduce on the new German battleships 28-centimetre rapid-firing guns, the largest heretofore being 24-centimetre.

IS TO BE DISMISSED.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Assistant Gold Commissioner Bell, of the Yukon, who was suspended some time ago for irregularities in his office, is to be dismissed. Bell was a lawyer in Quebec before going to the Yukon.

SMALLPOX IN QUEBEC

Quebec, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Concerning the smallpox outbreak here the situation is, to say the least, remarkable. On Sunday four cases were discovered. To-day the Health Department admits the presence of 18, while street gossip places it as high as 30. It is practically certain that suspected cases are under the eye of the Department, and may be reported at any time. Fortunately the disease is of a very mild type. No deaths have occurred, nor are any likely according to the present condition of the various patients.

The outbreak has been traced to the Christian Brothers' school, on St. John Street, opposite St. Jean Baptiste Church, where fully 1,000 pupils attend. Every case reported has come from there, though how it was introduced is so far a mystery. Dr. Catellier, the medical health officer, was seen last night and asked why he did not close the school immediately. He stated that he had not the power. The City Council or the Commissioners could do so, but their authority has not been given. The classes are still going on, and the school has not even been disinfected.

The local papers are demanding that the schools be closed immediately and some effort made to stamp out the plague. Dr. Catellier says that owing to the mildness of the disease it is far more likely to spread than if it was of a virulent type, as less care is taken. There are cases of children with the disease running about the streets playing as usual, while fathers of families where the disease had declared itself had been attending to business daily. A strict quarantine is to be enforced from henceforth.

Large numbers of the citizens are being vaccinated, and the physicians are run off their feet. The outbreak is entirely confined to that part of the city between St. Augustine Street and the St. Foye Tollgate.

THE DISEASE IN ST. JOHN.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The Board of Health is now in session considering the smallpox situation, and what shall be done with Rev. John de Soyres, Anglican minister, who has broken the quarantine restrictions. Rev. Mr. de Soyres was anxious to be appointed chaplain at the Quarantine Hospital, but the Board declined to create such an office. They, however, gave him written instructions under which they would allow him to visit at any of the quarantined houses. Mr. de Soyres at once went to the Deboo home, where Miss Deboo was dying with the disease. He remained with her until the end came and then left the house, and going to the General Public Hospital, passed the quarantine guards and demanded of the house surgeon a permission to live in the epidemic buildings, which the Board of Health had refused him. Of course the doctor refused and then going to the epidemic hospital, Mr. de Soyres demanded permission and was ordered away. He spent the night in the Deboo house, and will likely be quarantined there for the next two or three weeks. There are no new cases to-day, and the authorities are doing everything possible, but do not anticipate any difficulty in getting ahead of the disease.

MR. CORDASK TELLS STORY OF ITALIAN LABORERS

He Says He Never Resisted Fine and Has Now Taken Out License.

THE NUMBER OF ITALIANS SUPPLIED C.P.R. AND G.T.R.

Says They Are Good Class and There is Vigilant Control Over Immigration.

Mr. Anthony Cordask, who was fined by Recorder Weir the other day for conducting a business without a license, told the story of his operations to a Herald representative to-day.

"I did not at first," said he, "understand that it was incumbent upon me to pay license, conducting as I did my operations in my own home; and while I contested the case with the help of my counsel and lawyers, I only desired to ascertain the legal position in such cases, and willingly bowed to the decision of the court.

"I may say that I had a further object. I wanted to know who the informants were—who were the persons who had given information against me? Who sent the plain clothes policeman to my house?

"This I discovered and I was quite satisfied. I don't want to publish any names, but don't you think that it was rather humorous that the real ground upon which the conviction was made was the fact that I had a moderately-sized desk in one of my sitting rooms at 41 St. James Street. It was not a large desk as was said in court."

"This must be very interesting to you, Mr. Cordask, but I am sure the Canadian public would be very much interested in the extent of your labor operations. You must be the greatest philanthropist that your countrymen can meet, for I understand you can find them employment anywhere?"

"Oh, I am a philanthropist in a way, but I never pretend to be so. It is business, pure and simple, and I don't begrudge the city the hundred dollars that I have paid. The fine was twenty dollars, the expenses twenty-five or more, and the license which I have taken out, fifty.

SUPPLIES MANY ROADS.

"And who gave the information that brought the authorities upon you?"

"People who wanted to compete with me who were jealous of me. Bah! Tell them that Cordask will find labor as long as Canada wants it, independent of them. I supply the Canadian Pacific, I supply the Grand Trunk, I supply the Algoma Central. I have passes over all the railways to see where [illegible] most required, to see where it can be placed to the best advantage.

"I have placed more than 5,000 Canadians in the position of earning their living this year. That is what I call philanthropy, and they are not competing with Canadians and Englishmen, because I send them where Englishmen do not care to go.

"There is a statement [illegible] signed, as [illegible] published [illegible] that up to the 1st September, 1901, Mr. Cordask has handled on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company 1,569 men and upwards of 80 foremen.

"Then you, in addition, supply the Grand Trunk and private contractors?"

"Yes, I have just sent off fifty men over the Grand Trunk this morning to be employed on their system. It was at the request of the general superintendent, Mr. F. H. McGuigan."

"With how many Italian laborers have you supplied the Grand Trunk since the present year began?"

"Just under a thousand."

"And the Algoma Central?"

"Well, several hundreds."

"But look at this letter signed Munskin & Wilson, Train Street, Winnipeg. They want two thousand men at wages ranging from two to two and a half dollars, with higher rates for men who can be foremen. I don't know what work they are required for, but I know they must be important."

"I know that this labor question is of interest to Canada, and I am simply telling you the truth."

"I had reason to believe," observed The Herald interviewer, "during a recent trip to the North-West, that the people did not desire the settlement there in large numbers of people who did not assimilate with the rest of the inhabitants. Do you think that your Italian countrymen assimilate?"

"Why, of course they do. You have heard of the [illegible] daughters of Italy. We bring them to Canada. We are willing to see them married to Englishmen. I myself married a Protestant. I need not tell you she was of English descent."

"I think that so long as the great Canadian West remains unoccupied there need be no objection to Italian labor."

"You would be surprised at the number of persons who can trace their descent to great Italian families who [illegible] names venerated for centuries in the Campagna—names who have given even princes to Italy."

"And the mountains?"

"Oh, no, we take very good care of that. We don't encourage people from those regions."

"Then Italy has to bear her own burdens in that respect?"

"Yes; Italy must bear her own burdens. We may settle here people who are poor, but we never, if we know it, bring the worthless. The fact is that our people love free institutions, and they recognize that in Canada they can find freedom and fair play."

BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED.

Quebec, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The barn of Jean Baptiste Idais, farmer on the St. Foye Road, three miles from the city, was burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. There was a large quantity of hay in the barn, also several vehicles and seven pigs, all of which were consumed. The blaze was caused by the farmer's seven-year-old son, who was playing with matches. There was no insurance.

HARVEST FESTIVAL.

The annual harvest thanksgiving of the Richmond Square Mission was held on Sunday last. The mission was decorated with grain, wheat, fruit, vegetables and plants, and was a success. There was a large congregation. The service was conducted by Mr. E. T. Cook, assisted by Mr. George Hague and a student from the Diocesan College. The musical portion of the service was conducted by Miss Jessie Baker, the organist.

THE SIEGE OF QUEBEC

The great work on "The Siege of Quebec," on which Mr. Doughty has been engaged for three or four years, is nearing completion, and will be published in a few weeks. It will consist of six volumes, embellished with a wealth of illustrations, engravings and maps. The author has not only gone exhaustively into the subject, so far as records extant in Quebec are concerned, but he has been extremely fortunate in discovering hitherto unknown sources of information in Great Britain and the Continent. As a result the work will contain much matter bearing on the siege that has never before seen the light of day. The book will be looked forward to eagerly by all historians, bibliographers and collectors of Canadiana.

MME. CALVE VERY ANGRY

Nashville, Nov. 1.—Mme. Calve, the famous opera singer of the Maurice Grau Company, enraged at the frost she received at Louisville, refused to appear in "Carmen" when the grand opera company played to a $15,000 house. At the Louisville reception she failed to receive an encore. She did not like the zero treatment, and declared she would not sing in Nashville, Memphis or Atlanta according to a story from the inner circle. Manager Grau declared Calve was ill. The company forfeited $2,000.

RUTLAND CONSOLIDATION.

The agreement making the consolidation of the Ogdensburg & Lake Champlain and the Rutland Railway Companies binding was filed with the Secretary of State of New York yesterday. The capital stock is $8,766,000, consisting of shares of $100 each. Of this amount, the sum of $8,577,000 to be preferred stock. The directors are: S. R. Callaway, George Bird, and E. V. W. Rossiter, of New York city; Percival W. Clement, Wallace C. Clement, of Rutland; George Ball and Edgar Harding, of Boston; John W. Stewart, of Middlebury, Vt.; and W. Seward Webb, of Shelburne, Vt. The officers of the company are:—President, Percival W. Clement; vice-president, Henry G. Smith; secretary-treasurer, O. F. Harrison, all of Rutland.

President Clement, of the Rutland, who was in the city yesterday declared in an interview that his company was not interested in the Royal Albert Bridge project, or in the development of the South Shore Railway. He intimated that these were strictly business matters in which Mr. H. A. Hodge and some of his friends were interested, and had no connection with the Rutland Railway Company.

UNITED STATES ARE RIPE FOR FAIRER TRADE

Conventions Are Being Called to Arrange for Demand on Congress.

THE PLAN OF MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM TARIFFS

President Roosevelt Looked to to Lead in Asking for the Change in Policy.

Buffalo, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—A large proportion of the manufacturers, strongly supported by commercial organizations of all sections, have called national conventions at three points, the object being to arrange for the furnishing of proof to Congress that the voice of the people is assuredly for a policy of fairer trade. A general understanding of the necessity for a policy of fairer trade has followed sharply upon the increase of danger to the export trade through reprisals.

The nation as a whole is believed to be ripe for a demand upon Congress to adopt a policy of fairer trade and it may be assumed that the commercial organizations and the manufacturers of iron and steel will see to it that such demand upon Congress will be made.

THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

The attitude of President Roosevelt is declared. He is prepared to lead the people in their demand for fairer trade, and all his Cabinet Ministers will probably support him. The members of the House of Representatives are invariably with the people. The Senate knows that the adoption of a policy of fairer trade means the dismissal of the Dingley tariff policy, but is falling into line in this movement for fairer trade.

It begins to look now as though the Government is practically in a position to inaugurate and control a policy of maximum and minimum tariffs. By this plan Congress would prepare a list of manufactures and produce of this country which are successfully marketed abroad or do not require protection. To this list a minimum tariff would be set and the President would be empowered to make it effective with countries that would make equally valuable concessions in the admission of American manufactures and products. It is claimed that a maximum and a minimum tariff would be more elastic than would reciprocity treaties.

No doubt closer trade relations between the United States and Canada will follow the adoption of a policy of fairer trade.

NORTHWEST JUDGESHIPS

Mr. Justice McGuire Will be Chief and Judge Prendergast Gets Vacancy.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—There was a meeting of the Cabinet yesterday afternoon, the first that has been held since the Premier returned from the Royal tour.

Among other matters discussed was that of the vacant Chief Justiceship of the North-west Territories, which several eastern barristers have been looking after for some time past. It is understood that Mr. Justice McGuire will be promoted to the Chief Justiceship, with headquarters at Calgary. Mr. Justice Scott, who is now at Calgary, will be removed to the new judicial district, to be known as Northern Alberta, at Edmonton. Judge Prendergast, of Provencher, Manitoba, will be appointed to the vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench of the Territories, taking the place of the late Mr. Justice Rouleau, and will have his headquarters at Prince Albert.

This arrangement, if carried out, will be satisfactory to the West. It will leave a county court judgeship vacant in Manitoba.

Hon. Thomas Horace McGuire is the son of the late James B. McGuire, and was born at Kingston, April 21, 1849, educated at the Collegiate Institute and Queen's University. After studying law with the late James O'Reilly, K.C., and being called to the Bar in 1873, he practised in partnership with that gentleman. A brilliant lawyer, he made rapid strides, being created a Q.C. in 1883 and appointed a puisne judge of the court in which he is now to be Chief Justice in 1887. While a resident of his native town he was an alderman, president of the Mechanics' Institute, of the Catholic Literary Association, of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and of the St. Patrick's Society, holding the latter office for ten years. For two years he edited the Canadian Freeman and was editor of the Daily News for several years. On the creation of the Yukon District, Mr. Justice McGuire was sent up to administer justice, remaining until Mr. Justice Dugas was appointed a puisne judge of the N.W.T. Supreme Court for that district.

Hon. David Lynch Scott was born in Brampton, Ont., August 21, 1845, and called to the Ontario Bar in 1870, practising in Orangeville. In 1882 he removed to Regina and began practice there, becoming legal adviser to the N.W.T. Government and Crown Prosecutor for West Assiniboia. He was one of the Crown counsel at the Riel trial. In September, 1894, he was elevated to the Bench for the Calgary District. Both in Orangeville and Regina he was prominent in municipal affairs, and was mayor for a term in both places. He also saw considerabel military service, went through the Fenian invasion as a private in the 36th Peel Battalion, and rose to the command of the battalion. In 1885 he organized a volunteer company at Regina for home defence.

Hon. James Emile Pierre Prendergast, who is to be the new judge, was born in Quebec, of Irish and French parents, March 22, 1858. He was educated at Laval, called to the Bar in 1881, and removed to Manitoba in 1882, practising law there. He sat in the Manitoba Legislature from 1885 to 1896, and was Provincial Secretary in the Greenway Government from January, 1888, to Aug., 1889, when he resigned owing to differences of opinion on the school question. He was a member of the Catholic section of the Board of Education from 1884 to 1890, president of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, mayor of St. Boniface from 1893 to 1896, and a member of the Council of Manitoba University since 1885. In 1897 he was appointed County Court judge for the northern division of the Eastern Judicial District of Manitoba.

Hon. David Mills Says That Neutrality Must be Maintained.

AN IMPORTANT ARTICLE IN THE EMPIRE REVIEW

Believes Britain Should Insist on a Return in Alaska for Any Concessions.

London, Oct. 30.—Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice and Attorney-General for Canada, has an important article in the November number of the Empire Review. In it the Monroe doctrine and the inter-oceanic canal conditions under which the Monroe doctrine was proclaimed and the Clayton-Bulwer treaty negotiated, are described in detail. The conclusions are drawn that the United States Government is assuming sovereignty over both North and South America, that it is striving to restrict the commerce of other states for its own advantage, that Canada will never be content to submit to any other rule than that of perfect equality respecting the canal, and that her interests must not be sacrificed by the United Kingdom for any consideration.

Mr. Mills contends that the neutrality of the canal must be guaranteed as provided for by the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and that the United Kingdom must not yield to the demands of what he describes as an ambitious and not over-scrupulous state to erect fortifications upon the borders of a waterway and to take possession of it.

SHOULD GET A QUID PRO QUO.

Reference is made to the fact that the United States has taken possession of Dyea and Skagway and refused to submit the matter to arbitration. Mr. Mills does not say so, but he clearly thinks that the Foreign Office ought to obtain a quid pro quo in Alaska, on the Canadian frontier, for the abrogation or revision of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

It has been supposed that when the main controversy was settled, the United States would return the favor and deal generously with the Dominion respecting the Alaska frontier and other matters.

M'ARTHUR TO BUILD A LARGER FACTORY

The Wallpaper Plant Burned on Monday to be Replaced at Once.

At a meeting of the directors of the Colin McArthur & Co. wall paper concern this morning the question of rebuilding was discussed. It was decided that the work of reconstruction be at once commenced on the site of the building gutted by fire on Monday night. The new manufactory will be larger and more up-to-date than the old, as the firm have determined to install the very latest machinery used in their business.

The work of removing the old machinery will be commenced at once. That portion of the building containing the huge printing press and print rollers did not suffer such great damage from the fire as the rest of the building. Consequently it is hoped that the machinery will not be seriously injured. The sample rooms and warehouse adjoining the factory contained a heavy stock of goods ready for shipment. The fire did not reach these. Having decided to rebuild at once, the company hope to be ready for business early in January, and that they will be able to fill all orders on time.

The damage done by fire and water is now estimated to be about $60,000. The stock, machinery and printing rolls of Messrs. McArthur & Co. were insured for $97,500. The insurance is divided among seventeen companies, of which the Royal carries $9,000, the Union $8,000, and the National of Ireland, Northern, Phoenix of London, and Scottish Union and National carry about $7,000.

KING CONFERRED ORDERS

London, Oct. 30.—King Edward yesterday personally conferred the insignia of various orders on 250 or 300 officers and others recently decorated. The investiture, which was held in St. James Palace, was attended by all the state ceremonial for which the King is such a stickler. The two eldest sons of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, Prince Edward and Prince Albert, dressed in sailor suits, were interested spectators. An incident which evoked some comment was the presence of Sir Francis Laking, the King's physician, at St. James Palace. Sir Francis left the palace and drove to his home, opposite Marlborough House, just before His Majesty returned there. King Edward disappointed the crowds by driving from his residence to the palace and back in an entirely closed carriage.

THE UNION OUT-VOTED

Government Asked to Annul Incorporation of Society.

AT LAST NIGHT'S PUBLIC MEETING MAJORITY OPPOSED THE UNION.

At the public meeting of barbers in St. Cunegonde, there were 35 people present, only 12 of whom were members of the union. The opponents of the union were present in force, coming from the east end of Ontario Street, and succeeded, by a vote of 23 to 12, in passing a resolution requesting the Quebec Government to annul the Act incorporating the Barbers' Society.

The principal speaker for the opposition upheld the license law, claiming that it was necessary that barbers should be compelled to pass an examination and take out a certificate at a cost of $2. But he did not believe in paying $2 a year to the society.

To this Mr. J. T. Fontaine replied that he wanted an effect without a cause; that if it wasn't for the Barbers' Association there would be no license law, nor any of those regulations which were admitted to be beneficial. Mr. Fontaine presented statistics showing that the barbers of Quebec Province were making $50 to $70 per annum more to-day than they were in 1899, and that this result was due to the operations of the society. The union, by requiring would-be barbers to serve a three years apprenticeship, had limited the number of barbers, and by requiring a proper examination had driven many of the poor barbers out of the trade. The consequence was there was a great demand for first class barbers, and wages were better than they were before. In 1899, when he visited St. Hyacinthe to organize a local union, every shop had one or more apprentices; to-day there was only one barber's apprentice in the town.

The union officials were somewhat amused over the result of the meeting, but thought the association would stand the shock.

At the meeting of the Board of Examiners, candidates for licenses were present from Quebec, St. Hyacinthe, Three Rivers, and other places. These signed the petition to the Legislature asking for amendments to the barbers' charter, and signified their intention of working for the society.

Another meeting will be called next week, when all barbers will be notified by circular, and the press will be invited to attend. The union officials say that the operations of the organization will bear investigation, and will be endorsed by intelligent barbers and the public generally. Their opponents, they claim, are certain bosses of 5 cent shops, who wish to avoid the expense which conformity to the sanitary regulations of the society entails.

HOPE TO SETTLE IT.

The moulders employed by Moody & Sons, of Terrebonne, manufacturers of agricultural implements, have gone on strike as a protest against a change of foremen. The moulders are organized, and the regulations of their union does not permit them to strike, with a guarantee of support on such grounds, so efforts will at once be made to effect a settlement. Messrs. Moody have always conformed to the rules of the union and treated their men in a fair manner. Mr. A. R. Mitchell, general representative of the moulders for Eastern Canada, has left for the scene of the difficulty.

A HOME HIT.

A special meeting of Plessis Assembly, K. of L., was held last evening. Several new members were admitted. The president, in the course of an address on the union label, told a good story on one of the labor unions of the city. Recently this union requested a certain employer to employ only union men. The employer had been a union man himself, and evidently knew something of union principles. Calling his men together he asked them how many union men they employed. Of course they answered they did not employ any men at all. "Oh, yes you do," said the boss; "in fact, you being the consumers employ almost all the workingmen."

He then proceeded to find out. He took off the hats of every one and failed to find a union label. He examined their shoes and clothing with like result. Then he said: "Boys, I am sorry to see union labor unpopular amongst men calling themselves union men. If you yourselves will not employ organized labor, you can hardly expect me to do so."

MAY VISIT MONTREAL.

Mr. H. Gaylord Wilshire, the millionaire socialist, and Father Thomas McGrady, the well known socialist lecturer and writer, will tour Canada in the interest of the cause during the winter. The Socialist League are trying to make arrangements to have them visit Montreal.

CITY'S LABOR MARKET.

The city employment bureaus report that the labor market at present is much better than it was this time last year. With the exception of the printers, all the skilled trades are exceedingly active. A large number of laborers are wanted to leave the city, but though fair wages are offered they cannot be obtained. There is, of course, the usual floating population, looking for work where it knows it can't find it.

CARPENTERS' LABEL.

The Carpenters' and Joiners' Union held their regular meeting last evening. The attendance was large, and many new candidates were enrolled. The carpenters are now discussing a proposition to adopt a union label to denote their work. The International heretofore has never issued a label, but the General Executive Board have just had a design copyrighted at Washington and are printing a supply. As soon as possible the label will be copyrighted at Ottawa, and it will probably be adopted here. After the transaction of routine business, an open meeting for organization purposes was held, Messrs. J. Cloude, N. Arcand, L. Lafleur and others delivering addresses.

MEETINGS THIS EVENING.

Boot and Shoe Lasters' Union, St. Joseph's Hall.
Heavy Carters' Union, 134 Chatham Street.
Brotherhood of Shoe Makers, 1796 St. Catherine Street.
Merchant Clerks' Union, 122 St. Denis St.

Clocks for Wedding Gifts!

One can scarcely have too many clocks in the house. Each room should have one suited in style and design to the room's furnishings.

The Drawing Room Clock should be in a French gilt case of fancy design, striking the hours on a mellow gong. We have them from $15 to $100.

The Library Clocks are in Chippendale or plain wood cases, also striking the hours. These can be had from $6 to $50.

The Dining Room Clock is usually in a dark colored wood or marble case; or the cheaper grades in enamelled iron. The prices range from $6 to $40.

Each Bedroom should have its own timepiece, in French gilt, some with alarm, some with strike. The French movements are superior. From $7.50 to $50.

Besides these we keep a varied assortment of the cheaper grades, from the $1.00 Nickle Clock to the better grades of American movements at $5.00.

Dr. Stevenson, of South Durham, has moved to Danville.

Mr. Paul Tourigny, of Victoriaville, has been named a director of the Richmond, Drummond & Yamaska Fire Insurance Co.

The contract for the unloading of coal for the Grand Trunk has been given to Mr. C. O. Roberge. Over 600 carloads have already arrived.

HALIFAX GARRISON

Rumor That the Regiment is to be Sent Abroad.

MAJOR-GENERAL'S INSPECTION ON SATURDAY AWAITED WITH ANXIETY.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The Royal Canadian Regiment is to be inspected on Saturday by Major-General O'Grady Haly, and officers and men are awaiting the inspection with some anxiety, as there is a rumor in the air to the effect that the regiment is to be ordered to another station, perhaps Bermuda or South Africa. The rumor could not be traced to a definite source this morning, but there is a feeling among both officers and men that there is something on the tapis, and they are in hopes that the Major-General will give them definite information when he comes. The regiment was route-marching yesterday, and presented a fine appearance. They will route-march twice a week from now until inspection.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

London, Oct. 30.At the Old Bailey yesterday, Martial Faugeron, a Frenchman who was committed for trial September 11, on the charge of murdering Herman Jung, an old jeweller of Clerkenwell, about ten days previously, testifying in his own behalf, repeated his statement that Jung had promised him a fortune if he would stab Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, with a knife, and make him suffer greatly before he died, as a lesson for the suffering he caused by the South African war. The jury found him guilty, and he was sentenced to death.

FRENCH LECTURER COMING.

Among the lecturers who will visit Montreal during the coming season is Mr Hugues Le Roux, an eminent French writer, who has been invited to lecture in Harvard University. He is expected to arrive in New York on February 9. During his stay in America he will deliver addresses at McGill and Laval Universities in this city.

THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The opening feature of the November Canadian Magazine is a profusely illustrated account of the Duke's tour across the continent. Nor is this account an ordinary one. It is entirely different from anything which has appeared in any of the newspapers and is full of historical references and quaint imaginings. The illustrations are reproductions of photographs of the chief events connected with the Royal reception at Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. The reproductions are perfectly done.

NEWS NOTES

QUEBEC.

A miner named Arthur Roche had his leg broken while working in the mines at Beauce.

Adolphe Robitaille, the stage manager in Jacques Cartier Hall, Quebec, had his arm broken by stepping into an open trap.

Rev. Mr. Almonte, Protestant chaplain to the First Canadian Contingent, was entertained to dinner at the Garrison Club, Quebec, Monday evening.

A strange disease has broken out among children of Levis and Pintendre, supposed to have been first communicated by cattle. Large blotches break out on the legs and arms. Local medical men are enquiring into the matter.

A wayward young girl of Quebec named Alice Dubuc was arrested through the complaint of her mother. She was taken from a house of ill-fame, and had a loaded bull-dog revolver in her possession. Alice had previously made wild threats towards anyone attempting to arrest her. She is only 14 years old, and had before frequently been taken into custody.

ONTARIO.

Mr. John Clyde White, of Windsor, has been awarded a bronze medal by the Royal Canadian Humane Association, for rescuing from drowning four persons.

Alfred Mackenzie, for eighteen years bookkeeper for Henry A. Taylor, draper, of King Street, Toronto, is missing, and some slight shortages have been found in his accounts.

At its regular meeting Monday night the Toronto City Council decided to enter suit against the Toronto Electric Light Company, and the Toronto Incandescent Light Company, and to ask for the cancellation of their contracts with the city, on the ground that the two companies have violated their agreements by amalgamating.

MANITOBA AND NORTH-WEST.

John Palk, who pleaded guilty to stealing registered mail matter from the Winnipeg post-office, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Bain to three years in the penitentiary.

Twice foiled in attempts to end his life, Robert Nichol, of Winnipeg, a young clerk, was successful in the third attempt yesterday afternoon, when he cut his throat with a razor. Nichol was despondent over a love reverse, and about a week ago attempted his life with a razor. Later, when Nichol was taken to the General Hospital, he jumped from a second storey window and was badly hurt.

One of the worst prairie fires of recent years started shortly after noon Monday near the Canadian Pacific track between Bergen and Rosser, about eight miles from Winnipeg. At the time there was a strong wind blowing, which drove the rapidly spreading flames in front of it at a terrific rate, and it is estimated that a tract of land five miles wide and twenty miles in length has been converted into a charred waste. A later report says the fire was still making headway.

MARITIME.

Samuel Landry, while driving down the hill towards Memramcook Station of the I.C.R., was struck and killed by the C.P.R. train from Halifax. He was badly cut up, and the waggon was smashed, but the horse escaped without a scratch.

Alex. McNeil, a fourteen-year-old boy, accidentally shot a young girl named Mary Curry with a revolver at Glace Bay. The bullet entered the girl's cheek, and lodged in the back part of the jaw. It is the old story, "Didn't know it was loaded."

Jos. Archibald, aged fourteen years, son of Howard Archibald, of Denver, Guysboro Co., N.S., was found lying dead in a small brook near his home with his head shot off from his shoulders. The lad had gone to look after some snares and traps, taking with him a shot gun, and it is supposed the accident was caused by the discharge of the gun while crossing the brook.

AMERICAN.

By the explosion of a Colt's automatic gun at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, on Monday, Capt. Chas. T. Mencher and five men of the 28th Battery were wounded, three severely.

Justice McLean, in the Supreme Court at New York yesterday, granted a certificate of reasonable doubt in the John Most anarchist case, in order to stay his sentence of twelve months' imprisonment.

Bourke Cochran was severely injured yesterday by being thrown from his horse while riding about his place at Sands Point. The attending physicians say Mr. Cochran suffered a severe concussion of the brain, but they have found no fracture of the skull.

Henry McDonald Sedley, of New York, the Sheffield scientific school freshman, accused of causing the death of Edward Corrigan, of Williamantic, Yale, law school student, was charged with manslaughter in New Haven city court yesterday. The hearing was postponed, and he was held in bonds of $2,000, which were furnished.

Dr. S. T. Lowther, of Newmartinsville, near Wheeling, Va., returning home, in company with his wife and daughter-in-law, met Friend Cox, an oil contractor, Joe Yaeger, and Clifford Anderson. A shooting melee followed, both sides participating. Cox was shot through the head and killed instantly. Dr. Lowther was seriously wounded, and Mrs. Lowther was shot through the right lung. Both may die.

FOREIGN.

A despatch from Geneva says that the number of Alpine accidents this year has reached a total of 119, more than double those of last year.

PROBLEM IS NO NEARER SOLUTION

Fire and Road Committee Take up Question of Conduits.

The discussion of the proposed conduit system by the Fire and Road Committees yesterday afternoon apparently did not result in bringing the problem very much nearer solution, except inasmuch as it was the means of bringing to light a few more of the difficulties in the way, and thus discovering still other worlds for the ambitious chairman of the Road Committee to conquer.

The officials of the various companies concerned, who were present, stated that they were not empowered to act for their respective corporations. They were accordingly very chary in their statements as to what the companies with which they were connected would, or would not, do.

One thing, however, was made pretty plain by the discussion, and that was, that even if conduits are built, they will not cause the poles to disappear entirely from the streets. For while the companies' representatives were practically unanimous in the opinion that under proper conditions a common conduit would be a good thing for carrying their wires through the streets they were almost equally unanimous in declaring that the expense of underground distribution to the individual houses, as is done in New York city, would be practically prohibitive. So that while the number of unsightly poles may be greatly diminished by the use of a conduit, they cannot be entirely banished.

PLAN OF CONDUITS.

The outcome of the meeting was that it was decided, upon motion of Ald. Ames, that the city surveyor be desired to prepare for the next meeting a plan for an underground conduit system for the West Ward, after consulting the various managers of the companies interested as to their several needs, showing also how many poles should still be required.

Ald. Ames also moved the following, which was carried:

"That all the companies which have been duly notified be requested to inform the committee whether they would be willing to pay for rental and all other charges, 7½ per cent. on their proportion of the cost, assuming that the conduits be constructed according to their satisfaction, and of the size desired."

Those present at the meeting were: Ald. Martineau, Hart, Lamarche, Ames, Wilson, Gallery, Lesperance, Turner, Ouimet, Bumbray, Wilson, Robillard; W. McLea Walbank, representing the Lachine Rapids Hydraulic & Land Co. and Standard Light, Heat & Power Co.; P. G. Gossler, Royal Electric and Imperial Electric Light Companies; A. S. Hamelin, Merchants Telephone Company; W. R. Douglas, Shawinigan Water & Power Company, and W. W. Moore, Montreal Gas Company.

THE DISCUSSION.

Ald. Martineau, who was in the chair, opened the discussion by asking the representatives of the electrical companies present if they thought their firms would be willing to put their wires into a common conduit built and operated by the city. The unanimous response was that they saw no objections to a common conduit under proper regulation.

Ald. Martineau asked the representatives of the companies to give an idea of the manner in which they thought a common conduit should be operated.

Messrs. Gossler and Walbank were of the same opinion that there should be common supervision over the conduits. It would be necessary for the city to have an operating staff on hand at all times, and the companies would have to make application to this staff whenever it was necessary to go into the conduits.

It should be so guarded that one company could not interfere with the property of another. Manholes would have to be placed at every street corner, and the system should be properly ventilated and drained, and the companies should have access to them at all times.

DIVISION OF COST.

The question of the equitable division of the cost and maintenance of the conduit between the different companies using it then came up, but no satisfactory basis could be agreed upon.

It was pointed out that in building the conduits allowance would have to be made for future expansion, and the question was how to divide up the extra cost. It was proposed that before building a conduit on a certain street, each company should be asked to state how many ducts it would require immediately, and, how many in so many years hence. Ald. Ames and Mr. Gossler thought there would have to be two rates, one for used and one for unused ducts.

So the difficulties seemed to multiply, till finally Ald. Ames suggested that they get at the probable cost, by having the engineer, with the assistance of the companies, prepare an estimate of the probable cost of the system in a single ward, and on this they might base a rate of rental, per mile or otherwise. This rate might then be made the basis of a proposition to the companies. The suggestion was adopted—as was also the other motion mentioned above as to whether the companies would be willing to pay 7½ per cent. on the city's investment.

Representatives of the Royal and Lachine companies verbally intimated that they were willing to extend the delay in locating their conduits until the plan above mentioned is prepared and the discussion resumed.

ET IS BLOCKED

Th Montreal Street Railway Company has informed the Fire Department that, owing to the construction of its line on Beaver Hall Hill, it has been forced to block Latour Street. The brigade will consequently not be in a position to cross that thoroughfare at this point for several days. Secretary d'Amour warned the firemen in the district this morning.

ST. GABRIEL'S ELECTORS.

The electors of St. Gabriel's Ward will hold a meeting in the basement of St. Gabriel's Church, Point St. Charles, tomorrow night to discuss the forthcoming aldermanic elections. Candidates to oppose the present members will be chosen. It is expected that the candidacy will be offerred to Mr. Andrew Dunn, superintendent of the Consumers' Cordage Company.

ANNEXATION OF CRETE.

London, Oct. 30.—A despatch to the Times from Constantinople says that the Turkish ambassador at St. Petersburg has informed the Sultan of Turkey that the annexation of the Island of Crete to Greece is imminent and inevitable.

THE WORST APPLE YEAR EVER KNOWN

The Crop is Short All Over the World—No Apples for Europe.

"This is the worst apple year ever known," said a prominent apple buyer this morning. "The crop is short all over the world. There are no apples on the European continent, for in both Sweden and Germany the crop is a failure. There are only two places in the world where there is a good crop, and those are California and Nova Scotia. The California apples don't count for much, but those of Nova Scotia are of a particularly fine quality, though even there the crop is only about three-quarters of last year's.

"As far as Ontario is concerned," he added, "I don't suppose there are more than 100,000 barrels stored in the whole province, and one firm alone usually has that many."

Further enquiry elicits the fact that the Ontario crop amounts to only about 15 per cent. of the average, and the quality of these is only fair. A lot of them should never have been put into barrels at all, but as the buyers purchased the crop by the orchard, and about 40 per cent. of what there were on the trees were blown down by wind storms, the shippers have tried to make the best of a bad business.

NOVA SCOTIA APPLES.

This year the Nova Scotia apples are being shipped in large quantities to Glasgow and Liverpool, via Montreal, a thing rarely known before. But the shortage in the west has compelled the Ontario and Montreal buyers to go into Nova Scotia for their supply, and already over 10,000 barrels from there have been shipped this way.

Apples are selling here now at from $4 to $5 a barrel, which last year would not have brought more than $2 or $3, and the price is practically prohibitive to the great majority of consumers.

THE ENGLISH MARKET.

So far the English market does not appear to respond to the high prices on this side of the water, and one dealer stated to-day that he did not believe that anybody was making money out of shipping apples. The English market, he stated, was very erratic. He himself had shipped 2,000 barrels about two weeks ago, 1,000 to one market and 1,000 to another. When they were sold, one lot netted him back $2 per barrel and the other $3.25, which meant a positive loss, as here they were worth $4 or $5.

A New York despatch states: The apple famine which dealers have predicted for several months is now said to be an assured fact, says the Tribune. Ever since the unfavorable apple weather in the spring buyers and growers have anticipated a short crop, and now local dealers announce that the situation is even worse than anticipated. One dealer is quoted as estimating the crop at 23,000,000 barrels, as against 48,000,000 barrels last year and 70,000,000 the year previous.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS

The missionary convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance continued its meetings to-day in the Y.M.C.A. hall. This morning a good-sized audience was present to hear the Bible reading given by Rev. Henry Wilson, D.D., of New York.

Dr. Wilson spoke on holiness, taking as his texts the words in II. Peter, 1, 4, "Partakers of the divine nature," and those in Hebrew, 12, 10, "Partakers of His holiness." In the course of his remarks he compared the holiness of Simon the Pharisee and Christ. The holiness of Simon was as straight as a rod and as cold as an iceberg, while the holiness of Christ was warm and magnetic, and when the poor, sinful woman came in His very holiness drew her to Him.

Later on, speaking of the mistaken idea which many professing Christians had of Christianity and holiness, Dr. Wilson quoted the retort of George Fox, the Quaker, when asked what the ministers were doing. He said: "They are fighting like devils, for the glory of God."

To-night there will be a missionary meeting, at which Rev. P. W. Philpott, of Hamilton, Ont., will preside, and addresses will be delivered by Rev. W. A. Cramer, Congo, Africa, and Rev. W. F. Menninger, Chicago.

To-morrow morning, at 9.30, in the Y.M.C.A., Rev. P. W. Philpott will conduct a Bible reading. At the afternoon meeting, which commences at 3.30, Rev. Dr. Wilson will preside, and addresses will be given by Rev. P. W. Philpott, Rev. W. A. Cramer, and Rev. R. A. Jaffray, of China. In the evening Rev. W. F. Menninger will preside, and addresses will be given by Miss May Agnew, of New York, Mrs. R. A. Jaffray, and Rev. M. B. Fuller, of India. At both afternoon and evening meetings Rev. Henry Kenning, of Hopeville, Ont., will sing appropriate solos.

POLICE COURT CASES

In the Police Court this morning there were three new cases. John Moore, 37 years of age, living at Cote St. Antoine, was accused of stealing a gold watch valued at $40 from Isaac Levy, a Hebrew, living at 514 St. Paul Street. The prisoner pleaded not guilty, and was remanded to to-morrow for enquete.

Moise Gervais, 45, on a charge of theft, pleaded not guilty, and was remanded to November 6 for trial in the Court of Special Sessions.

Matthew Davidson will be sentenced tomorrow for his share in the robbery of the house of Mr. E. W. H. Philipps, at 620 St. Joseph Street, Lachine. This burglary was committed in the early morning of September 27, an entrance being effected through a cellar window, and the pantry thus reached. Davidson was arrested next day, he having offered for sale half a dozen knives, a cruet-stand, and the cover of a large silver bowl. Davidson came up for sentence last Thursday, but was remanded for a week, it being hoped that he could be induced to confess the whereabouts of the unrecovered silverware, on it being promised that his sentence would be correspondingly lightened. This he has steadily refused to do, and in spite of all efforts remains obdurate in his determination not to go back on his associates. From certain information privately received by Chief S. H. Carpenter, a raid was ordered yesterday afternoon, a search warrant being obtained, to examine the premises of 10 St. David's Lane, occupied by Thomas Boucher, 25 years of age, a stableman, and his mother. Detectives Brophy and Gallagher went over the house and found in a corner half a dozen knives, which were later identified by Mr. Phillips as his property. Suspicion was first directed to Mr. Boucher on it being known that he had been a chum of Davidson. When arraigned this morning he pleaded not guilty, and stated that he had never known of the presence of the knives in his house. He was remanded to November 5 for trial.

Allison, Murray and O'Neill, the Lake Superior firemen, who were accused of assault on T. Kavanagh, came up for enquete this morning, but were remanded.

An enquete was also opened by Judge F. X. Choquet in the case of Adolph Beussier, the horse trader, who is accused of having obtained $70 under false pretences.

LABFLLE SETTLERS MAKE COMPLAINTS

They Say Lumber Agents Are Cutting Down Their Timber.

Mr. C. B. Major, M.L.A. for the county of Ottawa, has received several written complaints from settlers in the Labelle region stating that agents of the McLaren Lumber Company were cutting timber on their land. It is, as it were, the reopening of an old sore, the long-standing and never-ending trouble between the lumber merchants and the settlers. The letters, which bear the names of Messrs. Dutere, Aubry, Raymond, Chouinard, Brousseau and Maille, state that the settlers complaining have been in possession of their lots of land for three, four or five years, and have fulfilled all the requirements of settlement. Notwithstanding this, the letters aver, agents of the McLaren Lumber Company arrived a few days ago, and began cutting down the timber that stood on their lots.

The settlers ask: "What purpose do our location tickets serve if strangers are to be masters on our property?

"What advantage can the Government derive from advocating and aiding colonization if the lumber merchant is allowed to molest and drive the settlers out?"

Mr. Major, in an interview, yesterday, stated that on receipt of the letter he had proceeded to the Labelle region and had inspected the lots regarding which complaints were being made.

"I found the complaints well founded," he said. "The settlers are brave people. They have done important work in clearing the land, and deserve encouragement. The invasion of the lumber merchant on their premises, however, irritates them, discourages them."

Mr. Major said he had instructions from Messrs. Aubry, Raymond and Brosseau to take action against the McLaren Lumber Company. A similar action, it may be recalled, was entered some years ago by Father Paradis against the Gilmour Lumber Company, as a result of similar difficulties in the Gatineau district. Mr. A. Rochon, at present Mr. Justice Rochon, had charge of the plaintiff's case, and won it in all courts up to the Privy Council. Mr. Major said it was unfortunate that the Department of Colonization invited settlers to take up land, but when they did they were left at the mercy of the lumber merchants.

STILL REDUCING THE BOER FORCES

Kitchener Reports Recent Captures—A Letter From Gen. De Wet.

London, Oct. 30.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Pretoria dated Tuesday, October 29, says Colonel Byng surprised a Boer commando October 25, and captured twenty-two prisoners, including Field Cornets Spanneberg and Onisthuisen.

Colonel Fortesque, the despatch adds, had a day-long running fight with Muller's Boer commando on October 27 northwards of Balmoral. He killed four Boers and captured 54 prisoners, 36 waggons and much stock.

A LETTER FROM DE WET.

London, Oct. 30.—The Geneva correspondent of the Daily Mail says that a wealthy Swiss lady at Lancy lately received a letter from General Dewet, written at Modderfontein on August 18. The lady lived for many years in the Transvaal, and knew the Boer general intimately. In the course of the letter General Dewet says:

"God only knows when the war will end. I and my commando are determined to fight to the last. I see by the papers you sent me that both sides accuse each other of cruelty to prisoners. Don't believe these newspaper reports; they are false.

"Both sides treat their prisoners with as much consideration as possible under the circumstances.

"We have all we require to satisfy our simple wants, as we have captured enough stores to last us a long time. It is only our horses that suffer during our long marches of ten and twelve hours.

"God has chosen me to lead my brothers, and I shall fulfil my trust to the last."

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH.

London, Oct. 30.—Speaking at Cupar, Scotland, yesterday Colonial Secretary Chamberlain said he believed the war in South Africa would have been over long ago but for the action of misguided people in Great Britain, who had led the Boers to believe that if they were only persistent in their resistance the English people would grow tired of the struggle, and would give them what they asked. Mr. Chamberlain added that great as were the sacrifices which the British had been called upon to make and great as still might be the sacrifices demanded of them they would not abate one jot of their resolution until there was no doubt of the future of South Africa.

A RED CROSS COMPLAINT.

The Hague, Oct. 30.—The report of the Dutch Red Cross Society, just published, deals bitterly with the capture of the Dutch ambulance corps near Pretoria, July 5, 1900. It declares the British knew before the ambulance left Pretoria, that it carried private letters from Boer families to men in the field, and that they did not protest, but allowed the ambulance to start, captured it outside the town and used the letters as a pretext for deporting the doctors and nurses, who are still in captivity on the Island of Ceylon. The Red Cross committee subsequently persistently appealed to Lord Kitchener to redeem his promise to Mrs. Botha and allow the doctors and medicines to pass through the British lines for the benefit of the Boers, but no response was made to the representations.

C. P. R. OFFICIALS.

Mr. A. R. Creelman, general solicitor for the Canadian Pacific, leaves for Toronto and Buffalo to-night. Mr. William Stitt, assistant general passenger agent of the Western division at Winnipeg, and Mr. A. J. Heath, district passenger agent of St. John, N.B., are in the city.

HEARING COMPLAINTS.

The Board of Assessors are now holding night sessions to hear complaints from those who claim to have been over-assessed.

MOSTLY OCCUPIED WITH APOLOGIES

Beyond the intimation that the Harbor Commissioners had sold two derricks at $160 each which had originally cost $240, there was practically no business at today's Harbor Board meeting.

It was considered that as the board had had some good use out of these appliances they had struck a good bargain. They have still six to dispose of, and they mean to keep four on hand.

Letters of regret for inability to attend the harbor inspection excursion on Saturday were received from the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Paterson, Hon. Mr. Scott, Hon. Mr. Mulock, Hon. Dr. Borden, Hon. Mr. Bernier, Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, Senator Sullivan, Lord Strathcona, Dr. Roddick, Hon. Mr. Tarte, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, Mr. D. A. Watt, Mr. Bulmer, ex-president of the Board of Trade.

His Worship the Mayor did not send an apology, but explained at to-day's meeting that his absence was due to the fact that he had contracted a bad cold and went on Saturday to Ste. Agathe, thinking he would find relief in the mountains.

The secretary to the captain of H.M.S. Crescent wrote to the commissioners asking for information as to the result of the enquiry which had been held into the grounding of the Indefatigable on her way from Quebec to Montreal.

Mr. Seath, the secretary to the board, states that an investigation had been held, but that he had not yet been informed as to the result, but hoped to be able to communicate it in due course. He had written to the Department of Marine and Fisheries asking them the result of this and other cases which had been investigated during the season, but regarding which the Harbor Board had obtained no information.

W. ROBB,
City Treasurer.

City Treasurer's Office,
City Hall,
Montreal, 29th October, 1901.

WILL VISIT HIS PARENTS

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy leaves Montreal to-night for the West. He will be away from this city ten days or a fortnight, and during his absence will visit his father and mother in Milwaukee. This will be the first opportunity the parents of the distinguished railroad man will have had of seeing their son since he was honored by the title of knight bachelor.

TO SETTLE WATER RATES

City Treasurer Robb announced that his men were to-day shutting off the water in St. Antoine north from houses in which the tenants had failed to pay their bills. All the other wards will follow in succession. There are now about $100,000 in arrears of water rates outstanding, and the rush to settle has now set in. Most of the amounts, individually, are small.

THE MONTICELLO DISASTER.

Halifax, October 30.—Captain Bloomfield Douglas has rendered his report on the loss of the steamer City of Monticello, near Yarmouth last November. The owners, Captain (who was drowned) and crew, are exonerated from all blame, but it is recommended that no double side-wheel steamers be allowed to carry on passenger business in the Bay of Fundy.

TREE-PLANTING IN THE CANADIAN PRAIRIES.

The question of the afforestization of sections of the prairie lands is engaging a good deal of attention in Manitoba. Indeed it has gone so far that a scheme with this end in view has assumed a definite and practical shape. It is realized that even if only one-twentieth of the prairie country of Western Canada could be planted with trees the resultant benefits would far more than repay the cost. As a matter of fact the timber alone would, in the course of thirty or forty years, recoup the expenditure involved in afforestization. But the advantages more particularly looked for is the storing up of moisture in the soil and the more equable distribution of summer rainfall and air moisture, which generally prevails when the country is wooded. Those who have studied forestry as a science declare that by the growth of trees moisture is stored up in the soil and part of it held until the summer is far advanced, and is given out when the air is most in need of it. Moreover, by cooling the air and acting as centres of precipitation, trees aid in the starting of rainfall. Thus a forest becomes a great water consumer. Reckless and wholesale destruction of forests in different parts of the world has resulted in the disappearance of the moisture that they held in reserve, sloughs and ponds have been drained, and the quantity of water in the soil and subsoil has been greatly lessened. Mr. Wilson, the Secretary of Agriculture in the United States, pointed out in a recent Government bulletin that the arid area of the Western States is increasing, and he attributes the fact largely to the destruction of forests at the sources of the streams. Mr. Geoffrey Pinchot, chief of the forest bureau in Washington, agrees with him and holds the same cause to be in a measure responsible for the hot spells in the middle Western States.

Tree culture on the plains is not unattended with difficulty, but the forestry branch of the Dominion Government is grappling with it in a praiseworthy manner. The scheme is on the co-operative plan. The Government supplies the seeds and cuttings, supervises the preparation of the soil, selects the varieties of trees best adapted to the locality, plants the trees and tends them afterwards. The Department has one expert in Manitoba and another in the Northwest Territories. These officials examine the farms of applicants, give instructions as to the kinds of trees most suitable for the farms in question, and see that the ground has been put in a fit state to receive the seeds, cuttings or seedling trees. When this has been done to the satisfaction of the officials and an agreement is signed by the applicant, the plant material necessary for a shelter belt or whatever else is desired is furnished by the Department. It is stated on the best authority that there is scarcely any part of Western Canada where forest trees of some variety or other cannot be grown successfully. There is every reason to believe that with the system of instruction and supervision which this new branch of the Department of the Interior is prepared to give the result of the movement, should it receive the support of the country, will be that the bare prairies will, in the course of a few years, be transformed to a very large extent into varied and beautiful landscapes by the presence of trees. In a prettily illustrated pamphlet, which has been issued by the Department of the Interior at Ottawa, some particulars are given of this work as well as of the other questions which engaged the attention of the Canadian Forestry Association at their meeting which was held in the Railway Committee room of the House of Commons in March last.

THE PHILIPPINE SITUATION GLOOMY.

If the situation in South Africa is by no means bright it is equally clear, from recent advices received in Washington, that conditions in the Philippine Islands are far from satisfactory. It was thought by many people, who had followed developments closely, that with the apparent collapse of resistance at the beginning of the present year, the work of pacification and the establishment of civil government would proceed with rapid strides. Important improvements seemed fairly in progress and the early possibility of largely reducing the military force was hopefully considered. But the outbreak in Samar and new signs of unrest throughout a large part of Luzon have painfully changed the outlook. There is now the certainty that thousands of fresh troops must be sent out, and that before a lasting peace can be assured Samar must be reduced—a task to which Spain was unequal during the three centuries of her dominance in the islands.

The natives in the coast towns of this island are comparatively few, but in the almost inaccessible interior, in the fastnesses of the rugged mountain ranges, and in the well-nigh impenetrable forests, their number is said to approximate a quarter of a million. To conquer and bring them into subjection under such circumstances may be a work of years—and may, indeed, prove a task that can never be accomplished. Other islands of the archipelago present similar problems and Luzon itself may become the scene of a native rising. "The authorities," says a despatch that has come to hand, "are being made acquainted almost daily with the treacherous character of the inhabitants." Whether the new overlords of the islands have taken the right way to win the friendship and confidence of the natives is an open question, but it seems tolerably clear that the United States has not yet paid the full price in blood and treasure for its distant possessions.

THE INTER-OCEANIC CANAL.

It is said that the difficulties in the way of the proposed inter-oceanic canal, either by way of Nicaragua or Panama, are clearing away. According to the latest reports the draft of a Canal Treaty between Great Britain and the United States to supersede the Clayton-Bulwer document has been practically agreed upon by Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefote. The new treaty, it is stated, provides that whatever canal may be built shall be neutral; and that its neutrality shall be guaranteed by the United States. It further gives to the United States alone the right to build such fortifications and defences as may be necessary to maintain its neutrality. This news comes, of course, from Washington, and the views of the British Government on the subject are not expressed, but should a treaty containing such provisions be adopted it would, as a matter of course, supersede the Clayton-Bulwer agreement. Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefote have—so the story goes—endeavored to meet the objections of the Senators to the treaty, which was rejected last year, and they have succeeded so far, according to Washington correspondents, that Senator Morgan, of Alabama, and Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, are willing to vote for the new agreement, because it puts the canal in the control of the United States, and makes no provision for the participation of any other power in ensuring its neutrality.

That Great Britain should agree to so large a concession will be proof of its desire to ensure the continued friendship of the Republic. The contention of the United States Senators has been that no European power should have any voice in the affairs of the Central American Republics. An American canal under American control was what they asked for, but the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty stood in the way. The United States' contention for exclusiveness is extremely illogical these days, when the great nations of the world are assuming responsibilities and guarantees all over the world. The Republic itself was eager enough to take a part in arranging terms of settlement in the Far East, but European powers, whose commerce will be vitally affected by the waterway, should it be constructed, are to have no voice in the control of Central American affairs, in which the United States has no more concern than France has over Spain.

The United States Government is, it is reported, looking forward to the early ratification of the new agreement, after which the Americans will proceed to work out the canal problem according to their own liking. As to whether it is the Nicaragua or the Panama scheme that will be proceeded with there is no means of learning, because nothing is settled. According to the latest reports the offer of M. Huton, of the Panama Canal Company is likely to be considered. M. Huton is in Washington consulting with Admiral Walker, of the Canal Commission, and it is expected that he will set forth the terms on which the French company will surrender its rights. These terms are to be communicated to Congress as part of the report of the Commission. There can be no doubt, however, that general sentiment is in favor of the Nicaragua route, and this is understood to be shared by Admiral Walker's Commission.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

THE COMING "STREET" MEETING.

Editor Herald:

Sir,—Will you allow me through your valuable columns to suggest to shareholders of the Montreal Street Railway that they withhold the proxies for the next annual meeting which takes place Nov. 6th. This meeting will be an important one. Rumors have been circulated through the street that the increased expenditure on the item of coal alone have reached the sum of $75,000, and that as a consequence the operating expenses had increased proportionately. As a shareholder I have investigated the coal question and find this statement greatly exaggerated and misleading. This may have all been done by interested parties to depress the stock, with a view of amalgamation with the Light, Heat & Power Co. I therefore would warn bona fide shareholders to retain their voting powers and cancel any proxies they may have sent on this on previous occasions. Yours, etc.,

SHAREHOLDER.

IN ST. JAMES DIVISION

A convention to nominate a Liberal candidate in St. James Division to replace Judge Desmarais was held last night in the Theatre de la Duchesse, 1252 St. Catherine Street. About 350 delegates were present, Mr. J. A. C. Madore, M.P., presiding. As it developed that differences of opinion existed as to the method in which the convention had been called, it was finally decided, on the suggestion of Hon. J. I. Tarte, that harmony and justice would best be served by the adjournment of the convention and the submission of the list of delegates to the various candidates for amendment. The candidates mentioned last night were Messrs. J. A. Drouin, H. Gervais, D. A. Lafortune, Ald. Joseph Brunet, and Felix Sauvegeau.

LA PHARMACIE LABORIEUSE.

An important meeting of La Pharmacie Laborieuse will be held to-morrow evening at the corner of St. Denis and Dorchester Streets. The election of officers will be the principal business transacted.

THE MONTREAL HERALD'S PORTRAIT GALLERY

MR. D. W. CAMPBELL.

Mr. David W. Campbell, general manager of the Elder-Dempster Steamship Line, has been drawing the attention of the Government to a very real danger to the success of the St. Lawrence route, due to the exorbitant insurance rates which are charged on hulls and cargoes by that route. Mr. Campbell is a native Montrealer, and has been engaged in the shipping trade since he left the High School. In 1875 he began as clerk in the office of Thompson, Murray & Co., who were agents for the Canada Shipping Company, afterwards perhaps better known as the Beaver Line. Twenty years later Mr. Campbell had proved his ability by being appointed general manager of the company. When the Elder-Dempster Line required a general manager they found one in Mr. Campbell, and the position that company has acquired is in no small measure due to him. Mr. Campbell is a general favorite in commercial and social circles.

THE FRENCH PRESS

Le Journal has a correspondent in Ottawa who sees in the near future the rending of the political ties which bind the French-Canadians and the Irish Catholics of the Capital. While protesting of the good faith of the former, the correspondent charges the latter with perfidy akin to treason, and prophesies a political alliance of the French-Canadians with the Protestants, leaving the Irish Catholics to fight their own battles.

"Up to quite lately," the correspondent says, "the French-Canadians have given their sympathy to the Irish Catholics, but this alliance does not work at all. We might as well tie together a dog and a cat.

"The sons of the Green Isle take all the patronage, while the French-Canadians are obliged to fight for the little they receive. The perfidy of our allies is to be seen whenever an election takes place.

"While they have always elected two or three of their own nationality in the Lower Town, thanks to our generosity they have never voted for one of our candidates. At the municipal election of January last, a totally illiterate German came out against three French-Canadians, and out of 150 Irish Catholic votes polled, 141 voted for the German.

"Thanks to our assistance, the Irish Catholics have always had their member in the Legislature, except at the last election, when they were the victims of their own perfidy. Now the French-Canadians, in the face of all this, have decided to look for new allies, and in future will," so it is said, "unite with Conservative or Liberal Protestants, leaving the Irish Catholics to fight it out among themselves.

"It is also said that the French-Canadians are ready to follow Mr. Whitney, if he will promise to give them what is their due."

G.T.R. WINTER SERVICE

The Grand Trunk winter train service, which comes into effect on Sunday, November 3rd, will contain many changes which have been made with a view of meeting the conveniences of the public as well as adjusting the schedule for the winter service. There are some very important changes in through express trains made necessary by the closing of the Pan-American Exposition, and while most of the schedules of the through fast trains will remain as before, the public will do well to consult time-tables for important changes that will be put in effect.

THROUGH SERVICE.

The changes in through service are important to the travelling public, and those in effect next Sunday are given briefly as follows:—The through westbound service from Montreal for Toronto, Hamilton, London, Detroit and Chicago is practically the same as before, the International Limited leaving Montreal at 9.00 in the morning, arriving Toronto 4.50 p.m., arriving Detroit, 9.40 p.m., and Chicago, 7.20 a.m. next morning, same as at present. This train has the reputation of being one of the fastest and finest through express trains in the world, and the heavy traffic that has been carried by it during the past summer months is good evidence of this fact. The fast night train from Montreal will leave same as before, at 10.30 p.m. daily, with through sleeping cars for Toronto, Hamilton, London and Chicago, and will make connection at Toronto with the "Black Diamond Express" leaving Toronto at 9.00 a.m. for Buffalo, arriving there at 11.55 a.m. daily.

EASTBOUND.

Passengers eastbound will have an exceptionally good service from Toronto in the eastbound International Limited, leaving Toronto at 9.00 a.m. daily, arriving at Montreal 6 p.m. In addition to the regular stops this train will make during week-days, it will stop at Vaudreuil on Sundays. The train leaving Toronto 8.00 a.m. daily, except Sunday, will arrive at Montreal at 6.55 p.m., instead of 6.30 p.m. The train now leaving Toronto at 9.30 p.m. daily, except Sunday, arriving Montreal 7.00 a.m. daily, except Monday, will be cancelled. Train now leaving Toronto 10.30 p.m. daily, arriving Montreal 7.30 a.m., will leave at 10.00 p.m. daily, and arrive at Montreal same time as at present.

Passengers from Detroit for the east will leave Detroit at 2.00 p.m. daily, and will have through sleeping cars, Detroit to Montreal, arriving Montreal at 7.30 a.m. daily.

The two new trains that have been running during the past summer between Chicago and New York, via Niagara Falls and Buffalo, will be continued; the Detroit and New York express now leaving Chicago 11.32 a.m. will leave at 11.00 a.m. daily, reaching New York same time as at present; the westbound train will run on the same schedule as at present. These trains connect at Chicago with the limited trains of all the leading railways from and to St. Paul, Kansas City, Denver and Pacific Coast points.

The train leaving Montreal at present at 8.00 a.m. daily, except Sunday, for Portland will arrive at Portland at 6.30 p.m.

LOCAL SERVICE.

The trains leaving Vaudreuil 10.30 a.m., Sundays only, arriving at Brockville at 1.30 p.m., and leaving Brockville 2.15 p.m., Sundays only, arriving at Vaudreuil 5.15 p.m., will be cancelled. The train now leaving Vaudreuil 5.15 p.m., Sundays only, arriving at Montreal at 6.00 p.m., will leave Vaudreuil at 5.30 p.m. Sundays only, and arrive Montreal 6.30 p.m.

In addition to the foregoing changes there are numerous changes on other divisions of this great system, which, however, do not affect the eastern traveller.

DIED OF BROKEN HEART.

Denver, Nov. 1.—Andrew Darius Huff died of a broken heart. For twenty years Mr. Huff worked devising a revolving turret for ships of war with the hope that fame and fortune would be his. His health failed from the moment that his lawyers told him that the Government would not recognize his claim for $500,000 for the invention, which he asserted it had adopted on all its modern fighting ships, but without recognition or recompense for him.

ARRANGING FOR CONVENTION

Manufacturers' Association Certain the Big Gathering Will be a Success.

ROBERT MUNRO NAMED FOR PRESIDENT IN PLACE OF WILLIAM McMASTERS.

Another step was taken yesterday in the preparations for the big gathering of Canadian Manufacturers which is to meet here next month. A meeting of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was held in the Board of Trade rooms.

Mr. William McMaster, to whom the nomination for the presidency of the Canadian Association was tendered at the last meeting of the branch, has found it impossible for him to accept the honor. It became necessary to make another choice, and Mr. Robert Munro was placed in nomination by Mr. George E. Drummond and Mr. C. C. Ballantyne.

Mr. J. J. McGill was nominated as the Quebec vice-president and Mr. Ritchie, of Quebec; Mr. S. T. Willett, of Chambly, and Mr. E. Guillet, of Marieville, were named as the Province of Quebec members on the Executive.

The gathering on November 5-6, according to reports from many preparatory sources, promises to be a thorough success. The banquet committee stated arrangements were completed for the dinner, the speeches and the music. The secretary, Mr. W. Roach, reported a larger sale of banquet tickets, and urged anyone who intended to be present to lose no time in securing one.

It was decided to invite all the manufacturers in the province, who are not now members of the association, to attend the convention and become familiar with the objects and work of the association.

THE SCHLEY CASE

Cross-examination of the Admiral a Lengthy Affair.

HE RETAINS HIS COMPOSURE UNDER THE SEARCHING QUESTIONS OF JUDGE-ADVOCATE LEMLY.

Washington, October 30.—The cross-examination of Admiral Schley was continued throughout the session of the Court of Enquiry yesterday. The progress made was exceedingly slow. Practically the whole day was consumed in questioning the Admiral about the cruise from Cienfuegos to Santiago and the motives and influences that governed him in turning back after his squadron had arrived in the vicinity of the latter port. This latter branch of the cross-examination had not been concluded when the court adjourned.

The blockade at Santiago, the reconnaissance of May 31, and the battle of July 3, still remain to be covered. It is hardly probable that the judge advocate can conclude before adjournment to-day. After he finishes quite a number of questions prepared by the members of the court will be submitted.

The judge-advocate, in concluding the cross-examination, used a carefully prepared typewritten list of questions. They called for comparison of statements Admiral Schley has made, either in his direct testimony, in his communication to the Senate or in his despatch to Admiral Sampson, to the Navy Department, with the testimony of witnesses who have preceded him, and the logs and signal books of the other vessels of the fleet.

The questions were not asked in chronological order, but jumped from one subject to another, and from one stage of the campaign to another. Throughout the strain to which the witness naturally was subjected, while under examination, the admiral retained his customary composure. Only once or twice did he display impatience or weariness. At one point, when asked a question, he replied that he had been asked the same question yesterday, at the same time telling what his reply had been then. On another occasion, when he was being searchingly interrogated as to his distance from shore at Cienfuegos, and as to whether the distances were a matter of record, he replied rather tartly: "Oh, no, I did not know they would ever become a matter of such great importance, or should have plotted them and made a memorandum as I should of many other things."

The main points to which the cross-examination were directed was the ability of the ships to coal off Cienfuegos and the reasons for what is known as the "retrograde movement." The latter point was dwelt upon with much emphasis and detail and had not been disposed of fully when the court adjourned.

MONTGOMERY COTTON CO.

Quebec, Oct. 30.—The annual meeting of the Montmorency Cotton Company was held here Monday. Owing to the many drawbacks met with during the year, including a big strike, the scarcity of labor, and the contractors' delay in installing new machinery, the statement presented did not show as good a result as the one last year, but it was nevertheless satisfactory.

NEW ELEMENTS IN CIVIC POLITICS

Business Men's League Wants Better Streets or Officials Put in Jail.

A new factor in the civic elections declared itself yesterday. This is the Business Men's League, which was organized for the purpose of inducing strangers, tourists and conventions to come to this city. Several months ago the League concluded that it was no use to bring strangers to Montreal unless Montreal was scrubbed, repaired and made generally presentable. Yesterday the league decided that the first thing to be cleaned and repaired was the City Council. If this were done other improvements would follow naturally. Therefore it decided to join in the campaign.

The good men now in the Council were heartily approved of, and it was decided there should be more like them. The vote on the lighting contract will be the guide for the support of or opposition to aldermen now in the Council, and new men offering will be catechised as to their intentions and reasons for coming out.

TO INTERVIEW CANDIDATES.

Mr. Henry Miles was chairman of the meeting, and he said when it became known who the candidates were in the various wards the league might approach them by deputation or otherwise, and see if they would pledge themselves to the improvements of the streets and squares, which were in a very bad condition. It was painful to think of the condition of the streets of Montreal to-day.

Mr. Walter Paul said if more were done in the way of permanent paving, and seeing that the sidewalks would not need to be tinkered and tampered with so many times in the year, we should have our streets in something like good condition.

HORRIBLE STREETS.

Mr. George Hague said there had been abominable stupidity and criminal waste in sidewalk and street repairs. In laying itself out for strangers to come here, and for conventions to come here, the league was only inviting them to come and see the nakedness of the land. Who could help being struck with the abominable telegraph poles that were all over the city. We were in a backwoods condition. It made one ashamed to think such things were permitted at all. It was a long way round to get things put right, but one way undoubtedly was to get a set of men in the City Council who would do their duty.

Mr. J. C. Holden thought the laying of wooden sidewalks was a great waste of money.

GAOL OR IMPROVEMENT.

Hon. G. W. Stephens said he was ashamed of his city's appearance. The league should get good men into the City Council, and then get a good system of city government. Until the executive was separated from the administrative, and the former performed by a paid body of commissioners, this scrambling and throwing away of money would continue. There was more money thrown away in a year than would make the city look beautiful. One of the most marvellous freaks of engineering was being performed here every day. The sight could be witnessed of macadamizing the asphalt and macadamizing wooden blocks. A city that had got down to macadamizing its wooden blocks had better bestir itself or get out of business. A hundred thousand things were being done in this city by which money was actually being thrown away. Those fellows who were stealing from the public treasury could only be fought by fire, and until some of them were gaoled or otherwise punished the thing would still go on, for they did it with impunity.

MORE GOOD MEN WANTED.

In answer to Mr. Walter Paul, Mr. Stephens said what was needed was to put enough men in the Council to control it. Some good men were already there; keep them in the Council, encourage them, thank them for what they were doing. When there were enough good men in the Council to control it, then go to the Legislature and get authority for a board of control.

Mr. Fred. W. Evans charged the condition of the streets to the apathy of the public.

RESOLVED TO WORK.

On the motion of Hon. G. W. Stephens, seconded by Mr. Walter Paul, it was unanimously decided to recommend to the executive that a committee be appointed for the purpose of preparing a list of municipal reforms which the league will support, and also to suggest the best means of securing good municipal representatives.

The following was moved by Mr. Alex. McFee, seconded by Mr. George Hague, and agreed to: "That the league desires to put on record its high appreciation of the efforts of the reform aldermen, and to sincerely thank them for their work in the best interests of the city; and earnestly trusts they will allow themselves to be put in nomination again."

A copy of this resolution will be sent to each alderman who voted on the reform side in the division on the electric light contract.

The discussion of weekly single fare excursions to this city on railways and steamboat lines was left over for discussion.

The chairman reported an active membership of 315 and cash in the bank to the amount of $1,111. Since the league came into existence $524 had been spent. There was not the hotel accommodation here for large conventions. He suggested that the league should for the present confine its attention to obtaining small ones.

OFFER FREE VAUDEVILLE.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Officials of the Allis-Chalmers Company have hit upon a new plan for preventing defection of employes. Vaudeville shows are provided for the entertainment of the men who have been secured to take the places of the strikers. The new men have been compelled to live in the plant, and the lack of amusement had resulted in much discontent and many desertions. The company hit upon the scheme for furnishing entertainment for its employes.

Striped Silks—In High Favor For Ladies' Blouses

The beautiful shades of color, and the rich effects produced by the various styles of stripes, have won well-deserved popularity for these lines that we select for special mention. They make up into exceedingly handsome garments: a source of satisfaction to the wearer, and an object for favorable comment of beholders. Usually these qualities bear higher price marks than we have put upon them:—

AT 45C—Fancy Striped Silks, in royal, old rose, lilac, rose pink, black and white, 45c yard.

AT 59C—Fancy Striped Silks, with raised cord at intervals that adds materially to the beauty of the pattern. Colors are sky, rose pink, buttercup, cornflower blue and grey. 59c yard.

AT 69C—Fancy Silks, open-work Lace stripes, in cardinal, Nile, Tuscan, turquoise, mauve, rose pink, royal, grey and mulberry. 69c yard.

Corsets—The Assortment Includes all Latest Styles in the Approved Makes

All makes of Corsets may look alike in illustrations, but the differences in reality, not visible to the eye, make a vast difference in their form-fitting qualities. The establishment that deals exclusively in one make is handicapped in its efforts to fit all types of figures correctly and comfortably. Our stocks represent the best values of the leading manufacturers. All the latest models are here. Prices the lowest that can be named without slighting qualities, ranging from 50c up.

P. N. Corsets, long waist, also the straight front.

B. & I. Corsets are patent bias filled. This gives added strength at the waists. Corsets cannot get out of shape or break.

E. T. Corsets, in straight front and short waist styles; also the famed "Watchspring," a model adapted for stout figures.

R. & G. Corsets, straight front, and long and short waists.

P. N. Corsets, straight front, long and short waists, also "Ribbon Girdle" styles. The regular long and short waist models, too.

Elite Corsets, straight front, short and long waists. Regular Corset in the short waist style, also.

Crompton Corsets, short and long waist, long waist with short hips, "Cadet" (empire style), "Magnetic," also the favorite "Yatisi" for stout figures, and the straight front, erect form model.

Ferris' Good Sense Waists, straight front and long waist styles for ladies, also suitable models for misses and children.

A special make of Waists, adapted to Babies' needs.

Also, a large assortment of Corset Shields (prevents Corsets from breaking at the waist line), Blouse Extenders, Dress Improvers, Dress Forms and Ladies' Shoulder Braces (give the straight front effect).

Corset Steels, including the P. N. make, with cork protector.

ALD. JACQUES MERELY VINDICTIVE

Fails to Make Much Out of His Charges Against Assessor Hamilton.

Assessor Hamilton's case came up before the Finance Committee yesterday afternoon, and the result of the investigation, while it did not redound to his advantage, disclosed no very heinous offence. Ald. Jacques, who was practically his accuser, was present to conduct the prosecution, but, as the committee would permit no leading questions, he failed to adduce anything other than a few facts, which may, or may not, be construed to Mr. Hamilton's discredit.

The chief difficulty with Mr. Hamilton seemed to be that he possesses a very short memory—one that does not carry him back farther than last Wednesday. Mr. John Donahue told how he had been given $1 by Mr. Hamilton, and Mr. Lynch also asserted that he had been given $2 in similar manner. Neither of these gentlemen, strangely enough, knew why the money was offered; they did not, in any event, accept it as a bribe. That much they asserted positively. They did not accept it, either, to keep quiet, because they immediately hied themselves to Ald. Jacques, whose glee at the discovery was ecstatic. But Ald. Jacques, though he had every confidence in his informants, put a statement in writing for Mr. Donahue—a man who can neither read nor write.

An additional fact in Mr. Hamilton's favor is that he still maintains that his original assessment of the properties in question was not excessive, a fact which would appear to be borne out by Mr. Donahue's assertion that he would not sell his property at the assessed figure.

NOT TO SILENCE HIM.

After Mr. Donahue had explained the circumstances attending the giving of the dollar, Ald. Sadler asked: "Did you think that Mr. Hamilton, in giving you that dollar, meant you to go away and say nothing more about it."

"He didn't say that," answered Mr. Donahue.

"You didn't feel badly that he had given you a dollar?"

"No. I merely thought he wanted to reduce my taxes for me."

"Didn't you think he was very generous?" asked Ald. Ekers.

"I thought he was kind."

"Didn't you think he was insulting you?" queried Ald. Sadler.

"Not at all."

"What is the value of Mr. Donahue's property?" asked Ald. Smith.

"$4,100," answered Ald. Laporte.

"Do you think, Mr. Donahue, that your property is over-valued?" asked Ald. Ekers.

"I would not sell it for that price," asserted Mr. Donahue, positively.

"Who asked you to make your declaration?"

"Myself."

"You asked yourself?" persisted Ald. Ekers, laughingly. "Did no one ask you?"

"Ald. Jacques," said Mr. Donahue. "I told him about it and he wrote it down."

"Did he state what he wanted it for?"

"No."

MR. HAMILTON'S STORY.

Mr. Hamilton said that the papers had made it appear that there were 700 objectors to the assessment in St. Gabriel ward, whereas, in reality the number only reached 160. Mr. Donahue was among that number. "I told him," said Mr Hamilton, "that if he went before the board he might get a reduction. He replied that he did not want to go before the board. He was told then the way to do was to withdraw his name, which he did. Then he turned to me and said, 'Can't you pay half,' and I gave him the money."

"Didn't you know that was very irregular?" said Ald. Smith. "It looks as though you paid that money out to silence him. Donahue signed the withdrawal and then you paid him."

"Did you," asked Ald. Lapointe, "mention money to Donahue before he had signed the withdrawal?"

"No. I did not," answered Mr. Hamilton. The question of the money came up afterwards."

"Was there any one about?"

"It was right in the open office, before the entire staff."

"What was your object?" asked Ald. Laporte.

"He said he was a poor man and couldn't pay."

"Don't you think," suggested Ald. Sadler, "that you were very easy when the man has over $4,000 worth of property?"

"I gave the money so that the city would not lose the tax," said Mr. Hamilton. "I am satisfied that the property was not over-valued, and the city has lost a lot of money through reductions."

THE LYNCH EPISODE.

"Did you say that you had paid money in a similar way to others?" asked Ald. Sadler.

"I have no recollection of paying anyone else," said Mr. Hamilton.

"Think now," said Ald. Ekers. "Carry your mind back, to last Wednesday. Did you not give him $2 on that day?"

"Mr. Lynch was at the office on Wednesday," answered Mr. Hamilton. "If he will declare that I gave him $2 I will admit it. There were a great many at the counter at the time—I was very busy—and I may have done so. I am under the impression that I did give $2 to some one, but to who it was I cannot say."

Mr. Lynch then told about receiving the money.

"What did you think the money was for?" asked Ald. Faucher.

"I did not think at all," answered Mr. Lynch. "I saw the money on the counter before me, and I took it—I always take money when I can get it." (Laughter.) It may have been, however, that the money was intended either as a bribe or to keep me quiet."

"But you did not keep quiet?" suggested Ald. Sadler.

"I did until after the tax was paid."

"It seems to me," said Ald. Smith, "that it is just as bad to accept a bribe as to give one."

Mr. Lynch said he did not want to be bribed; he had always paid his taxes. All he wanted was a proper reduction.

The evidence was now concluded.

Mr. Donahue wanted to know what he would do with the money he had got. Ald. Smith told him that was a matter for his conscience.

The committee reserves its decision.

ABATTOIR QUESTION.

The committee accepted suggestions from the sub-committee on the abattoir question, and forwarded these to the city attorneys for their opinion. The suggestions are as follows:

"If the company will remove the Western Abattoir from St. Henri to a site at Point St. Charles (location and plans subject to the approval of fthe City Council) and erect and maintain cattle markets there sufficient for the requirements of the trade for the next fifteen years, giving the civic officials every facility and protection in the collection of market fees therein, and allowing the meat inspectors free access at all times for the performance of their duties, the city will, in addition to the meat inspectors' salaries, pay to the company an annual sum of five thousand dollars.

"In the event, however, of the company building on Government land, it must be understood that in the event of the said Government resuming possession of the land, a guarantee must be obtained by the company for the reimbursement of the city's outlay on buildings.

"The city will hand over to the company the insurance fund of $27,000 as the new building progresses—but it is to be distinctly understood that the company will pay assessments, business tax and water on all their premises at the regular rates paid by all other concerns."

Kills Germs.

That's precisely what Vapo-Cresolene does. You light the vaporizer, the vapor of Cresolene is given off. Not a disease germ can live in this vapor, yet it can't possibly harm even the youngest child. Just naturally breathe-in the vapor; it destroys the germs of la grippe, hay fever, influenza, and whooping-cough. It's the common sense treatment for all troubles of the throat and bronchial tubes. 26

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

AT THE HOUSE OF INDUSTRY

Regular Quarterly Meeting Held Last Night.

REPORTS SUBMITTED TO THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT A FINANCIAL DEFICIT.

The board of management of the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge held its regular quarterly meeting last night. Reports submitted showed that during the quarter there were 117 inmates in the Old People's Home, and 41 in the Moore Home, while in the Refuge there were 30 permanent inmates; 5,005 night lodgings had been given and 13,978 meals distributed.

The finances of the Home are not in a very satisfactory condition, there being an adverse balance at the end of the quarter of over $5,000. Messrs. Chas. Byrd, J. C. Holden and John Patterson were appointed a committee to bring before the public the claims of this deserving charity.

The report referred in terms of sympathy to the death of Mr. Andrew Allan and Mr. Hector Mackenzie, both of whom were for many years governors of the House. The report went on to say:

"Since the last meeting the Old People's Home has been supplied with the electric light through the generosity of Mr. G. B. Burland, while Mr. James Moore has rendered a similar service to the Moore Home. Mr. G. B. Burland has shown his further interest in the institution by erecting at his own cost additional buildings on the Molson Farm, which was so generously presented to the homes several years ago by the late Mr. William Molson."

On motion of the treasurer, Mr. James Wilson, seconded by Mr. J. C. Holden, the following ladies and gentlemen were unanimously elected life governors of the House and of the Homes at Longue Pointe: Mrs. Peter Redpath, Chiselhurst, Eng.; Mrs. Hector Mackenzie, Mrs. E. H. King, Miss M. A. Wurtele, Mrs. R. G. Reid, Mrs. John Hope, Mr. Hugh A. Allan, Mr. A. L. Jones, head of the firm of Messrs. Elder, Dempster & Co., of Liverpool.

The governors present at the meeting were: Messrs. Chas. Alexander, Henry Birks, Chas. Byrd, Samuel Finley, A. F. Gault, George Hague, J. C. Holden, James Moore, John Patterson, J. W. Percival, Jos. Richards and James Wilson.

SUSPECT BAND OF THUGS

A well organized band of thugs appear to exist, and flourish in this city. It was only on Tuesday of last week that one assault was made by three men, and yesterday morning Wm. Gillman, of Bransdon Lane, was violently beaten by two men, who stole two books and $3 in money, as well as his watch and chain. The police have been notified.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.

In the Court of Special Sessions yesterday several cases were heard, but no sentences passed. James Latter was found guilty of stealing a watch and pair of boots to the value of $40, and will be sentenced November 5. The case against Napoleon Lachance, horse dealer, for obtaining $100 under false pretences was dismissed.

William Lampman was found guilty of highway robbery, and will be sentenced October 31.

Joseph Delchippa, for assault, will be tried in the Court of Special Sessions on November 28.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION

First Meeting Held at Welcome Hall Last Night.

ATTENDANCE WAS LARGE AND MUCH INTEREST WAS MANIFESTED BY THE AUDIENCE.

An earnest and interested audience thronged Welcome Hall, St. Antoine Street, last night, when the missionary convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance began its sessions. Rev. Mr. R. A. Jaffray, of South China, presided, and with him on the platform were the Rev. Mr. W. F. Meminger, Chicago; Rev. Henry Wilson, D. D., New York and Rev. Mr. M. B. Fuller, of India. The attendance was large, and a great deal of interest and earnestness was manifested by the audience. After a brief service of hymns, led by Mr. L. D. Fraser, a short address was made by Rev. Mr. Jaffray, in which he exhorted those present to avail themselves of the spiritual advantages offered by the convention, which should do a great deal of good. The Rev. Mr. Fuller, Rev. Mr. Meminger, a delegate from near the Gulf of Mexico, Rev. Henry Wilson and Miss May Agnew made short and earnest addresses. The singing of a hymn brought the meeting to a close.

The meetings were continued this morning at the Y.M.C.A. hall. This afternoon and evening's programme is: 3.30 p.m., meeting, conducted by Rev. W. F. Meminger, of Chicago; field superintendent of the Alliance. Addresses by Rev. M. B. Fuller, of India, and Rev. Dr. Wilson; 8 o'clock p.m., meeting, led by Rev. P. H. Philpott, Hamilton, Ont., superintendent of Alliance work in Canada. Addresses by Rev. W. A. Cramer, of Congo, Africa, and Rev. W. F. Meminger.

MR. CUMMING WILL SPEAK

The secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, has received a letter from Mr. James Cumming, the recently returned Canadian Trade Commissioner to South Africa, in which he accepts the invitation to be present at the annual meeting here next week. Mr. Cumming was sent out by the Canadian Government to investigate the opportunities for trade in South Africa, and has made a five months' tour of the leading business centres of that country. He will deliver an address at the open meeting of the association on Tuesday evening, November 5th, and it should be full of practical information for the manufacturers as to means to be taken to push their trade in that country.

TO BE GENERAL MANAGER

Consequent upon the death of Mr. W. G. Wilkins, late fire manager of the Union Assurance Society of London, rumor has been rife as to the possible outcome, and amalgamation with another staunch London fire office has been mooted. The Canadian management is now authorized to announce the appointment of Mr. Joseph Powell, presently London manager of the London & Lancashire Fire Insurance Company, and to give an authoritative denial to all such rumors as mentioned. No amalgamation is pending or contemplated. The Union established A.D. 1714, is one of the oldest English fire offices, and has large interests in Canada.

ON "JEAN VAL JEAN"

"Jean Val Jean" was the subject of a lecture by the Rev. Dr. S. Cleaver, of Sherbrooke Street Methodist Church, Toronto, in the Assembly Hall of the St. James Methodist Church last night. The lecture proved most interesting and was listened to with enjoyment by a large audience. The life story of the hero in "Les Miserables" was told in the simple and convincing language of one thoroughly at home in his subject. Besides a thorough knowledge of his subject, Dr. Cleaver is endowed with the gift of fluent speech and his treatment of the narrative was intensely interesting.

WOMEN'S CLUB PAPERS.

Next Monday the Art and Literature Department of the Woman's Club meet. This department is taking up "Present day tendencies." The subject for Monday will be The Revival of the Historic Spirit. Realism, and papers will be read by Mrs. James Reid. Mrs. F. H. Waycott will speak on "Do these publications represent a phase of the new historic spirit?"

WESTMOUNT W.C.T.U. BAAAR.

The members of the Westmount W.C.T.U. will give a bazaar in Victoria Hall, Westmount, on November 7th. Besides fancy articles, there will be home-made cake and candy for sale.

The tea room is to be made especially attractive. Among the ladies interested are Mrs. Jaques, Mrs. W. Sclater, Mrs. A. Macdonald, Mrs. Eaves, Mrs. Elliott, Miss Macdonald.

INDUSTRIAL ROOMS SALE.

The ladies of the Industrial Rooms, contrary to their usual custom, will not give a bazaar in Windsor Hall this year. Instead they will hold a sale of work done by those employed by the Rooms, on November 15th and 16th, in their own beautiful house on Metcalfe Street.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY ENTERTAINS.

The International Day entertainment given last night in Conservatory Hall, 2269 St. Catherine Street, by the Montreal and Westmount branches of the Sunshine Society, was thoroughly enjoyable and successful. Before the programme was begun the hall was filled with members and friends, who remained until the close The decorations were in yellow and white, Sunshine colors, white and yellow chrysanthemums were on the tables and the ladies of the Montreal branch who assisted, wore white and yellow. The committee wore badges of the same colors, and many of those present wore the society's pin. Lord Strathcona gave his patronage to the entertainment, and Judge Archibald occupied the chair. The objects of the Sunshine Society must be well known. It is not a charity, but an interchange of kindly greetings and for the passing on of good cheer. The chairman spoke most sympathetically of the work, giving a sketch of its aims and objects, and the happiness that such work brought to the world. Judge Archibald emphasized the fact of its being a friendly society not a charity.

A good programme followed. Mr. Walter Morris gave a flute solo, Miss Sadie Dowling sang charmingly, accompanied by Mrs. Coates; Mr. W. Montignani was very humorous in his two selections and encore. Miss Blackie gave a violin solo. Miss St. Jacques a piano solo, and Miss Beaman recited. Mr. J. C. Barlow received a well deserved encore for his song. Mr. J. R. Lanskail amused and puzzled the audience with magic and mystery. At the close of the programme votes of thanks to the ladies who got up the entertainment, to the chairman, to those who took part and to the press were passed. A very pleasant hour was then spent in social intercourse. Refreshments were served and most of those present tested the delicious home-made candy which was sold by attractive young saleswomen. The presidents of the branches, Mrs. J. A. Hutchinson and Mrs. Hugh M. Boyd, were present. The other ladies who ably assisted were Mrs. W. Sclater, Miss Macfarlane, Mrs. Webber, the Misses Crumpton, Miss Brodie, Miss Boyd, Miss Grace Brown, Miss Hart, Miss Hickson, Miss Macdonald, Mrs. Allan Macdonald, Mrs. Baker, Miss Leonard, Miss MacIntyre, Miss Westgate, Miss Jacques, Miss Sullivan, Miss McLaegthen, Miss Lee. Two little girls in white and yellow who sold candy were Miss Edith Boyd and Miss Marjorie W. Goldie.

The Battles of Life

Demand Nerve Force, Energy, Vitality--The Weaklings go to Wall —Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a True Fountain of Health.

What use has the world for men and women who have not courage enough to face the battles of life? Every day men are failing and women are growing discouraged and despondent because they lack the nerve force which is absolutely necessary to health and strength, and which supplies energy and ambition to body and mind. It is not too much to attribute nine-tenths of the suffering of humanity to waning nerve power, the vital principle of life itself.

Is it any wonder that the heart's action grows weak and irregular, the digestion poor, the liver and kidneys sluggish and inactive, when the vital force stored up in the nerves is consumed or wasted by disease, worry or over-exertion of the mental and physical powers? We are living too far from nature's rules, burning the candle at both ends and wasting nerve force without thought of how it is to be replenished. The effects are carelessly overlooked until prostration, nervous collapse or insanity overcomes us and renders restoration next to impossible.

In his immense practice in the United States, the very home of nervous disease, Dr. A. W. Chase studied the cause of these ailments which are slowly sapping millions of young men and women of the vital spark of life and energy. The result of his tireless investigation and experiment was the giving to the world of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the most marvellous nerve restorative that man has ever known.

There is no use of talking about old methods of treatment being as good as this new system of Dr. Chase. Facts prove beyond a shadow of a doubt the surprising upbuilding effect of this great food cure. By making note of your weight from time to time while taking it, you can observe the gradual upbuilding influence of this treatment. The color returns to the cheek, the energy and ambition to body and mind, you have now hope, new confidence, and a new determination to succeed in life's battles. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

PERFECT CURE FOR BRONCHITIS. —This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomizers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhozone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhozone is inhaled at the mouth, and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. BURPEE-HANSARD.

St. John, N.B., October 30.—(Special.)—At St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church this afternoon Miss Nan Burpee, youngest daughter of the late Hon. Isaac Burpee, formerly Minister of Customs, was united in marriage to Mr. Hazen H. Hansard, of the Law Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and chrysanthemums, and was filled with a large and fashionable audience. Messrs. Peter Clinch, Fred. H. Tippet, E. F. Jones, and Dr. T. Dyson Walter were the ushers. The bride was escorted by her uncle, Mr. E. R. Burpee, of Bangor, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Gerald G. Ruel, of Ottawa. The bride was attended by Miss L. C. Burpee, of Bangor, maid of honor, and little Miss Carruthers, her niece. The pages were her nephews, Mastres G. E. Stuart McLeod and Eric Carruthers. The bride's gown was of white satin, with orange blossoms and bridal veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Miss Burpee's dress was of pastel blue cloth with mink trimmings, and guipure lace, twine color, a black velvet picture hat and black ostrich feathers. As the bridal party moved up the aisle the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." Rev. D. J. Fraser performed the ceremony. The choir sang the marriage anthem, "Perfect Love," and as the bridal party left the church the wedding march pealed out. At the residence of the bride's mother, Mount Pleasant, a reception was held. The bride and groom will leave on this evening's train for Boston and New York, and will go from there to Ottawa. Among the guests were many relatives from outside places and the wedding gifts were magnificent.

BLACK AND WHITE PETTICOATS.

The very stylish combination of black and white, is in striking evidence in fashionable petticoats. A Parisian creation, really lovely enough "to wear on top," displayed in one of the shops, is made of white taffeta silk. Around the edge is a frou frou of accordion-pleated white chiffon ruffles of black hang gracefully. The lower ruffle is beautified by intricate stitching in black Cluny lace with insettings of small medallions of white silk. A broad band of the lace encircles the skirt at the top of the ruffle.

CHAPTER XIX.—Continued.

Once or twice his reverence woke, to thrust his head out of the window and ask where we were. Wherever we were when he did so, 'twas certain never to be far enough for his fancy, and he condemned the driver for a snail until the whip cracked wickedly, and the horses labored more strenuously than ever, so that our vehicle swung upon its springs till it might well seem we were upon a ship at sea.

For me he had but the one comment —"I wonder what's for dejeuner." He said it each time solemnly as it were his matins, and then slid into his swinish sleep again.

The night seemed interminable, but by and by the day broke. I watched it with eagerness as it gradually paled the east, and broke up the black bulk of the surrounding land into fields, orchards, gardens, woods. And the birds awoke—God bless the little birds!—they woke, and started twittering and singing in the haze, surely the sweetest and least sinless of created things, the tiny angels of the woods, from whom, walking in summer fields in the mornings of my age as of my youth, I have borrowed hope and cheer.

Finally we came, at the hour of 11, upon the place appointed for our dejeuner. It was a small inn on the banks of the only rivulet I had seen in all the journey. I forget its name, but I remember there was a patch of heather on the side of it, and that I wished ardently the season had been autumn, that I might have looked upon the purple bells.

"'Tis a long lane that has no tavern," said his reverence, and oozed out of his side of the coach with groanings. The innkeeper ran forth, louted and kissed his hand.

"Jour, m'sieu, jour!" said Father Hamilton, hurriedly. "And now, what have you here that is worth while?"

The innkeeper respectfully intimated that the church of Saint-Jean-en-Greve was generally considered worth notice. Its vestments, relics and windows were of merit, and the view from the tower—

"Morte de ma vie!" cried the priest angrily, "do I look like a traveller who trots up belfrys in strange villages at the hour of dejeuner? A plague on Saint-Jean-en-Greve! I said nothing at all of churches; I spoke of dejeuner, my good fellow. What's for dejeuner?"

The innkeeper recounted a series of dishes. Father Hamilton hummed and hawed, reflected, condemned, approved, all with an eagerness beyond description. And when the meal was being dished up, he went frantically to the kitchen and lifted pot-lids, and swung a salad for himself, and confounding the ordinary wine for the vilest piquette, ordered a special variety from the cellar. It was a spectacle of gourmandize not without its humor; I was so vastly engaged in watching him that I scarce glanced at the men who had travelled on the outside of the coach since morning.

What was my amazement, when I did so, to see that the servant or valet (as he turned out to be) was no other than the Swiss, Bernard, who had been in the service of Miss Walkinshaw no later than yesterday morning!

I commented on the fact to Father Hamilton when we sat down to eat.

"Why, yes," he said, gobbling at his viVours with a voracity I learned not to wonder at later when I knew him more. "The same man. A good man, too, or I'm a Turk. I've envied Miss Walkinshaw this lusty, trusty, secret rogue for a good twelvemonth, and just on the eve of my leaving Dunkerque, by a very providence, the fellow gets drunk, and finds himself dismissed. He came to me with a flush and a hiccough last night to ask a recommendation, and overlooking the peccadillo that is not of a nature confined to servants, Master Greig, let me tell thee, I gave him a place in my entourage. Madame will not like it, but no matter, she'll have time to forget it ere I see her again."

I felt a mild satisfaction to have the Swiss with us just because I had heard him called "Bernard" so often by his late employer.

We rested for some hours after dejeuner, seated under a tree by the brink of the rivulet, and in the good humor of a man satisfied in nature, the priest condescended to let me into some of his plans.

That night we put up at Bon Accueil, in a town whose name escapes my recollection.

He had gone to bed; through the wall from his chamber came the noise of his sleep, while I was at the writing of my first letter to Miss Walkinshaw, making the same as free and almost affectionate as I had been her lover, for as I know it now, I was but seeking in her for the face of the love of the first woman and the last my heart was given to.

I had scarcely concluded when the Swiss came knocking softly to my door, and handed me a letter from the very woman whose name was still in wet ink upon my folded page. I tore it open eagerly, to find a score of pleasant remembrances. She had learned the night before that the priest was to set out in the morning. "I have kept my word," she went on. "Your best friend is Bernard, so I let you have him, and let us exchange our billets through him. It will be the most discreet method. And I am, with every consideration, Ye Ken Wha."

CHAPTER XX.

The occasion for this precaution in our correspondence was beyond my comprehension; nevertheless I was too proud to have the patronage of so fine a woman to cavil at what system she should devise for its discreet conduct, and the Swiss that night got my first letter to frank and dispaatch. He got one next evening also, and the evening after that; in short, I made a diurnal of each stage in our journey and Bernard was my postman—so to name it—on every occasion that I forwarded the same to Miss Walkinshaw. He assures me that he was in circumstances to secure the more prompt forwardation of my epistles than if I trusted in the common runner, and it was a proof of this that when we got, after some days, into Versailles, he should bring to me a letter from the lady herself informing me how much of pleasure she had got from the receipts of the first communication I had sent her.

We were going toward the Place d'Armes; he had, as was customary, his arm through mine, leaning on me more than was comfortable, for he was the poorest judge imaginable of his own corpulence. Of a sudden I felt him jolt, as if he had been startled, and then he gripped my arm with a nervous grasp. All that was to account for his perturbation was that among the few pedestrians passing us on the road was one in a uniform, who cast a rapid glance at us. It was not wonderful that he should do so, for indeed we were a singularly ill-assorted pair, but there was a recognition of the priest in the glance the man in the uniform threw at him in passing. Nothing was said; the man went on his way, and we on ours, but, looking at Father Hamilton, I saw his face had lost its color, and grown blotched in patches. His hand trembled; for the rest of the walk he was silent, and he could not too soon hurry us back to the Cerf d'Or.

SPORTING COMMENT

The New Westminsters and the Vancouver Y.M.C.A.s have decided evidently that the pen is mightier than the lacrosse stick, for they are hammering away at one another with right good will, and show no sign of tiring. Of course this method of playing the game has its advantages. You can soak the other fellow good and hard and not stand in any danger of having alterations made in your facial expression; you can score at will and never lose, for the game is never over; ou can stay the limit without any preliminary training and without a rub-down after; you can patronize the Bums' Palace round the corner and yet keep your wind ;in fact, it rather improves the flow of hot air.

But it is not the way to play lacrosse. Yet here a month almost after these two teams meet they are keeping it up. That style of business is as much on the pork as the showing the Ys made against the world's champions.

The Canadian Rugby unions are not the only ones that have troubles of their own. The Yale authorities are seriously considering cutting out Columbia the remainder of the season because there is strong suspicion that that team played "ringers" last Saturday. Of course the Columbia authorities quote George Foster and use up all their available lung power in the shout, "These hands are clean." But the suspicion remains, and that there is some ground for it is seen in the fact that as soon as the howl from New Haven was heard the Columbia Athletic Committee called on two men of their team, Lancon and Kindgen, for a private confidence. Both these men have played on athletic club teams, and why they are now at Columbia is what is bothering the New York dons. However, so far the investigation has not besmirched their reputations.

If what the Toronto Globe says is true, the O.R.F.U. is in a nice state of uncleanliness. It says :—

> "Now that the 'Wickey' Wilson affair has been settled and the O.R.F.U. has again vested him with the cloak of amateurism, there is no harm in letting in a little light behind the curtains that screen the Granites from the public gaze when they are in a contemplative mood. Had not the executive committee of the O.R.F.U. at Thursday's meeting granted Wilson's petition and again placed him in amateur standing, the Granites had intended playing him Saturday against the Argonauts and bringing O.R.F.U. affairs to a focus. In such a case it was expected that the Argonauts would default when they found Wilson on the field. Granites would not have relented, and the Argonauts would have been forced to pay back to the audience their entrance money. Ensue, confusion, disruption, etc."

An old prize fighter died in Boston the other day, and the preacher who officiated at the funeral said of him:—

He died a Christian man. His hand never struck an unfair blow, and he might have said, as many do, that he had always been square and honest with his fellow-men, that he had never done anyone a wrong, and now, that he was about to die, it would therefore be well with him; but he did not depend upon that. He did not say, as he might have said truthfully, that he was better than most of the class with which he was associated, that he did not destroy his manhood with intoxicants, that he spoke against the saloon, worked against it and voted against it, and that he always gave his earnings to his family.

MISCELLANEOUS

DRUGGISTS' RIFLEMEN.

The Montreal Chemists and Druggists' Rifle Association has just finished up the annual Government practice with fairly satisfactory results. The majority of the members have never used the rifle before, and will require some coaching, but the object of the club is to make good shots out of men who, otherwise, would never have taken up rifle shooting.

The highest scores were made by H. A. Gourlay, Major H. H. Lyman, R. C. Simpson, Mr. Dagg, and R. H. D. Benn, the latter a green shot, but coached by H. A. Gourlay, a veteran, made a remarkably good score.

The last competition on the card, seven shots at 200 yards in one minute, was the most exciting; about 80 per cent. of the shots reached the targets, but much more accurate work would have been done if the firing had been done more slowly, as many emptied their magazines in thirty to forty seconds.

The members are well satisfied with the results of the practice, and are anxious to find a suitable indoor location for a Morris tube range for the winter.

GRAND AMERICAN HANDICAP.

New York, Oct. 29.—Eastern trap shooters will have to travel west next March to compete in the Grand American handicap, the leading shooting tournament of the world. A meeting was held yesterday afternoon and Kansas City was awarded the event, which will be held at Blue River Park, in that city, the week of March 31.

The Grand American handicap at targets will be held at Interstate Park the week of May 5.

MONTREAL QUOITING CLUB.

The regular monthly meeting of the Montreal Quoiting Club will be held Friday evening, November 1, in the club room, St. James Street. Every member is requested to be present to make arrangements for the annual fall games.

PASTIME EUCHRE LEAGUE.

The euchre season was opened on Monday night by two games being played. The Star Club defeated Tooke Bros.' Club by the very closest kind of a margin, the score being 50 games to 49. This was a surprise to everyone, as it was expected that the Star would double the score, as Tooke's team is a young and very green one, this being the first match that it has ever played. The Mystics also defeated the Prince of Wales team at Standard Hall.

DONNELLY AND COWEN ARE OUT

Brits Are Making a Big Effort for Saturday's Match Against Brockville.

Britannias see a championship almost in their grasp, and so no effort is being spared to put a winning team in the field against Brockville on Saturday. Tom Donnelly will be on the team again, probably at centre scrimmage. Then Eddie Cowen was out this morning for the first time. Cowen is certainly one of the finest outside wings in the business. But the question is one of condition. He was a bit short this morning, but if in shape for Saturday will show McLaren a couple of things about the game as seen from outside wing.

The match on Saturday is so important that every man should be out. Yet there were three seniors on the list of missing to-day. That'll never do.

Taking it altogether, the match will be one of the best, if not the best, that Montreal will have this year, and it should be well patronized.

According to reports from Brockville, the team are hard at work preparing for Saturday, and will bring their strongest team down. They have telegraphed for two hundred seats to be reserved for their supporters, as they intend running an excursion.

MORLEY WALTERS PLAYING

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The Ottawa football team expect to have a decidedly hard match when they play the Argonauts in Toronto on Saturday. From all indications the Argos are pretty strong just now, and capable of putting up a good game. The Ottawas are not going to run any chances. They started in to practise again yesterday, and will have turn-outs every day until Friday. By that time it is calculated the players will all be in good trim. Morley Walters was on hand with the Ottawas yesterday.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE HIM?

CAPT. RITCHIE HURT

Brockville, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The football boys are practising hard for their match with the Britannias at Montreal on Saturday next. This afternoon while at practice, F. I. Ritchie, captain of the team and inside wing, had his wrist very badly hurt, some of the ligaments being torn. It is doubtful if he will be able to play. He is one of the very best men on the team, and his loss from the team on Saturday would be a serious one. Otherwise the boys are in the pink of condition for the game, which all realize will be a hot one.

An excursion rate of $2.60 for the round trip has been secured over the Grand Trunk, and a very large number will accompany the boys to the metropolis to cheer them on to victory.

TORONTO JUNIORS PROTEST.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—A protest has been lodged by Toronto II. against the junior Tigers of Hamilton, as a result of their defeat in Hamilton last Saturday. Over age, violation of residence rule and other things are alleged.

WANT SUDDEN DEATH GAME.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Peterboro objects to the O.R.F.U. decision that the final for the intermediate championship between Peterboro and London shall be home and home games, and has asked that the union order the two teams to play a sudden death game in Peterboro. London, it is thought, will refuse to play a sudden death game in Peterboro, and the two teams, if they come together at all, may play off in Toronto. The executive will meet on Thursday to decide the matter.

PUNTS.

There were some surprises in the Canadian football games Saturday, the victories of Brockville and Varsity over Ottawa College and Queen's causing the studious followers of the pastime a rude shock.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

A. W. Ballantyne thinks the Q.R.F.U. teams are nearly as good as the O.R.F.U. teams. Well, well, well!

McCreadie will not likely figure on the Ottawa College team again this season.

Nearly every team that has played in Brockville used "that hill" as an excuse for their defeat, but an examination of the record of games scored will show that far more goals in lacrosse and points in football have been scored at the upper end. Saturday's game was no exception. In the first half Ottawa College, playing down, did not score, while Brockville, playing up, scored seven. In the second half College made its only score, playing up "the hill."—Brockville Recorder.

In spite of having two losses registered against them so far, the Ottawa University footballers are not by any means out of the running for the championship of the Quebec Rugby Union. If the Britannias defeat the Brockvilles and Varsity defeats the Britannias, that will give each of the teams two losses and make them a tie. The Collegians expect to defeat the Montreal fifteen in the match here Saturday.—Ottawa Journal.

After a football game at McKinney, Texas, ten players were sent to the hospital and the other twelve were taken to jail. It was the best game that has been played this season.

The Britannias say that if their ground was as good as the M.A.A.A., they would be out every morning.

Harry Christmas, the Britannias' manager, is working very hard to put out a winning team Saturday.

Lightborne, the Britannia heavy wing man, lives in Longueuil, and has to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning to get over here to practice. It is up to the Brits to go over to Longueuil some morning and give Lightborn a chance to get a good sleep.

Although Johnson, Bowie and Anderson do not live in Longueuil, they were not out to practice this morning.

Donnelly was in the scrim this morning and is doing good work.

The Montreal teams practise to-morrow morning, and the intermediates are requested to get out and give the seniors a practice.

Britannias practice to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Crystal Rink.

YACHTING

RACING MEASUREMENT.

Bristol, R.I., Oct. 28.—One of the questions cropping out of the recent cup races off Sandy Hook, in which the public appear to be interested, is the time allowance system by which one yacht, though crossing the finish line first, is beaten by her competitor, because, according to the racing rules, the boat having the greatest racing measurement must concede time to the craft having less measurement.

The fact of Shamrock II. finishing two seconds ahead of Columbia in the deciding race for the cup, and then losing on time allowance, has caused some discussion about the matter in this section, with various suggestions advanced that the boats next sailing in cup contests be subject to restriction of sail area as well as water-line, and then sail boat for boat without time allowance to either, and the first one of the contestants to cross the finish line to be hailed the winner.

Expert yachtsmen object to this.

Y.M.C.A. TRAMPERS

At the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Snowshoe Club, the following officers were elected: President, Geo. E. Winter; vice-president, R. H. Macdonald; secretary-treasurer, J. Chase-Walker; captain, A. E. Smaill; first lieutenant, R. Dawson; second lieutenant, H. Murray; chairman entertainment committee, N. Martin; chairman social committee, E. Greenwood. After considerable discussion it was decided to hold the weekly tramps on Friday nights as heretofore.

The officers' annual reports were submitted and showed the club to be in a first class condition, both as to finances and membership. Ten tramps were held with an average attendance of 24.

MAT AND RING

DONOVAN PUT DOWN.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 30.—Al. Neil, of San Francisco, was given a decision over Mike Donovan, of Rochester, N.Y., at the end of a fifteen-round glove contest before the Reliance Club last night. Donovan made a good showing, but was evidently outclassed.

HAS 36 NEW MEMBERS

The M.A.A.A. is in luck these days. Not content with the large membership they already have, they are taking in more day by day. So far this month Secretary Herb Brown has received thirty-six duly filled applications, which will come up at next week's meeting. That's more than one member a day, which is very good work. Keep it up.

AQUATICS

SCHOLES GOES TO HENLEY.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Last evening a gathering of the friends of Lou Scholes, holder of the intermediate sculling championship of Canada and the United States, and one of the champion double sculls of Canada, presented him with a diamond ring and an address. It was announced during the evening that he will proceed to Henley to contest for the diamond sculls.

The Intercolonial Railway having in view the comfort of its patrons, has arranged that the sleeping car which is attached to the train leaving here at 11.45 p.m., and which arrives at Levis at 6.45 the following morning, will be detached and left on the siding at Levis until 8 a.m., so that passengers can enjoy a good night's rest and not be obliged to leave the car at an early hour in the morning. This car is placed in position at Bonaventure Station at 9 p.m., and passengers can go aboard any time after that hour.—Adv.

INDUCEMENTS WANTED

If inducements were offered Newfoundland, Rev. J. L. Slattery thinks Canada and the ancient colony would soon be united. The French shore question is a barrier, and a difficult question to settle, but it is not as important to the people of the island as the county system that has been adopted by the French Government. By it the French are enabled to undersell the inhabitants of the island in any market in the world, and in this way the people are deprived of the possibility of a great industry. If the difficulty could be settled, the prospects of the island would be much brighter. The new works at Sydney have proved a great boon to Cape Breton, Father Slattery said, but they have affected Newfoundland oppositely, especially in the way of population, which is decreasing in the island as the men avail themselves of the opportunities presented in Cape Breton.

A Big Quarter's Worth is always found in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, the best household liniment known. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sick-stomach, in fact is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. Mothers find it the safest thing to rub on their children for sore throat, cold on the chest, sprains and bruises. Never be without Polson's Nerviline. It will cure the pains and aches of the entire family and relieve a vast amount of suffering every year.

THE TURF

HIGGINS WANTS HIS MONEY BACK

The String of Racers Was run at a Loss and now One man Won't Pay.

New York, Oct. 29.—In the City Court on November 4 there will be tried a suit which is based entirely upon a debt of honor which will be of great interest to horsemen throughout the land. The defendant in the case is John H. Carr, while the plaintiff is Dennis Higgins, of Prescott, Ont. Both are known throughout the racing world.

In the petition Higgins states that Carr, James L. Holland, a horseman, of Albany, N.Y., and himself entered into a compact in 1893, whereby the horses Blue Garter and Major General were to be raced by them.

The agreement, according to Higgins, was that the horses were to be added to Higgins' string and that each was to pay one-third of the expenses. Higgins says he handled the horses from 1893 until 1896 on many tracks, and that at the end of that time the expenses of handling them had exceeded the winnings by $3,600.

Higgins says that the contract between the three was oral, and that when he presented his bill to Holland it was paid promptly. He says that Carr refused to pay and denied being a party to the arrangement.

Several well known sporting men who are supposed to have knowledge of the agreement existing between the three have been summoned as witnesses in the case. Among them are Holland, one of the alleged partners in the triumvirate; Solomon Liethenstein, a bookmaker, and William M. Barrick, who owns a large stable. A number of others also are on the list and will probably be summoned as soon as they can be located. The persons named were subpoenaed at Morris Park last Saturday.

Frank R. Tierney, of 100 Broadway, the attorney in the case, said yesterday that it was one of the few in which lawyers attempt to prove that an oral contract was binding, but the asserted evidence showed the horses were run alternately under the names of the three men during the time they were under the control of Mr. Higgins.

WHITNEY'S CAMBRIDGESHIRE

London, Oct. 30.—William C. Whitney's Water Shed (J. Reiff) won the Cambridgeshire Stakes at the Newmarket Houghton meeting to-day.

The Cambridgeshire Stakes is a handicap of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for three-year-olds and up; distance, one mile and 237 yards. There were 134 subscribers.

Lord Wolverton's bay colt Osboch was second, and G. Wood's brown colt Lascaris third. Twenty-three horses ran.

TERTIMIN BROUGHT $7,000.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 30.—The three-year-old bay colt Tertimin, pacer, has been sold by the Flemings to W. P. Stein, of West Virginia, for $7,000, the highest price ever paid for an Indiana bred colt.

He is by Jersey Wilkes, dam by Abdallah Woodford. He went in 2.24¼ as a two-year-old. This year he has paced a mile privately in 2.08 and a half in 1.00¾.

POOR AT AQUEDUCT.

New York, Oct. 29.—Three favorites, two second choices and one outsider earned brackets at Aqueduct to-day, in one of the poorest day's sport of the season. The winning first choices were Bijou at 5 to 2, Glennellie at 9 to 10, and G. Whittier at 3 to 5. Each won with plenty to spare.

First race, selling, 6 furlongs—The Rogue won, Lump o' Lee second, Cherries third; time, 1.15.

Second race, selling 1 mile and 70 yards—Fatalist won, The Amazon second, Althea third; time, 1.46 2-5.

Third race, selling, 5 furlongs—Bijou won, Tanagra second, Wild Bess third; time, 1.01 1-5.

Fourth race, selling, 6 furlongs—Glennellie won, Jack McGinn second, Kingstalls third; time, 1.15.

Fifth race, 5½ furlongs—Icewater won, Bessie McCarthy second, Dewey third; time, 1.08 4-5.

Sixth race, 1 mile and 70 yards—G. Whittier won, Fact second, Rot third; time, 1.47.

FARMER'S TRACK READY.

Louisville, Oct. 29.—More than one hundred horses have arrived at the Douglas track preparatory to the coming running meeting. They came from Newport, the Canadian circuit and various points throughout the States.

Among the horsemen now here are Ed. Moore & Co., with 15 head; A. Brown & Co., with 8; R. F. Meyers, with 12; George Hendrie, of Detroit, with 10; John Wallace, with 4, and M. Long, with 8.

IN THE NECK FOR THEM.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 29.—Thoroughbred breeders, owners and trainers of Blue Grass and Central Kentucky met here to-day to take action on the moving of the ⅜ pole at the Kentucky Association track last Thursday, in order to "speed-up" a yearling that Clarence H. Mackay, of New York, was negotiating for. The committee met at once and hearing of testimony is in progress. They will finish about Saturday. It is unique in turf history, and is attracting widespread attention.

RACE TIPS TRADE MARKED.

New York, Oct. 29.—Questions as to whether there is any property in racing tips, and whether a court of equity will interfere to protect the business of selling such tips, were raised before Justice Clarke, of the Supreme Court, yesterday, on a motion of the Maxim & Gay Company, to enjoin a number of people from selling plaintiff's tips. The defendants include Edward McGioin, who sells newspapers at different eastern tracks; John McGrath, who has track restaurant privileges; Jack Sheehan, who sells "Jack's" tips, and a number of other defendants. Besides a permanent injunction, $500 damages is asked.

It was alleged that employes of the defendants, with the knowledge and connivance of their employers, had been getting Maxim & Gay's tips each day and had been selling them for small sums. The defendants declared that they had no knowledge of their employes handling the plaintiff's tips. Council for Maxim & Gay said that the company had trade mark rights in the use of its name which the courts should protect.

It was urged in opposition that equity would not protect the name of a business which was against public policy. The court gave until Friday to submit briefs.

LORD STRATHCONA'S SHERBROOKE GIFT

High Commisioner Presents Town With Site for City Hall and Court House.

Mr. E. W. Smith, the city agent of the Grand Trunk at Sherbrooke who was in the city yesterday brings the news that Lord Strathcona has just made a gift of a fine site in the centre of the town of Sherbrooke, for the purposes of a city hall and court house. The site is at present rented by the Grand Trunk as their city office, but the railway company is required to find new offices in May next in order that the city authorities may begin to build.

The site is understood to be worth about $20,000, and it is understood that the city fathers will consult with the Provincial Government authorities as to the character of the structure which is to be built to serve the double purpose of City Hall and Court House, the latter being of course a Government building.

Lord Strathcona's handsome gift is thoroughly appreciated by the town. His Lordship's period of stay in Montreal is fast drawing to a close. He gives his farewell reception to-morrow evening and will leave on Friday evening for New York whence he will sail on Saturday next for London, accompanied by Lady Strathcona.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion With Hypophosphites

CURES CHRONIC LUNG AFFECTIONS

The strongest proof of the value of Angier's Petroleum Emulsion in the treatment of Chronic Lung Affections and Consumption is the fact that it is prescribed extensively by eminent lung specialists, and is used in large consumption hospitals. It restores appetite, improves digestion, assimilation and nutrition. Helps increase the weight, and a greater vitality and power of resisting disease is secured. It soothes and heals the pulmonary mucous membrane, and enables the lungs to repel disease germs and to withstand the harmful influence of adverse climatic conditions. Unlike cod-liver oil it is pleasant to take and agrees with the most delicate stomach. It has great power to relieve coughs, night sweats and diarrhœa.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.—We take this occasion of recording another personal experience with Angier's Petroleum Emulsion which you may be interested in. Same was prescribed by our editor, Dr. Fisher, for one of the Century's staff last spring with unusually satisfactory results. The patient had taken a deep cold which settled upon the lungs, and there was already pronounced dulness in one lung when the Emulsion was prescribed. Within a few weeks the incipient trouble was all over through a strict adherence to Angier's.—Medical Century Pub. Co., New York.

CAUTION:—ANGIER'S is the original Petroleum Emulsion and is made with a special oil obtained from particular wells and carefully purified by our own process. Imitations made with ordinary petroleum cannot have the same effect, and besides being useless, many of them are dangerous for internal use. ANGIER'S Petroleum Emulsion costs a trifle more than imitations, but it is vastly superior and worth many times the price asked for it. It is for sale at all druggists. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle.

Send us your name and address and we will send you a valuable little book entitled, "About Your Throat and Lungs."

POWER, COAL AND STEEL THE FEATURES

Montreal Cotton Also Drops in Sympathy With Dominion.

Business was pretty well distributed around the local list to-day and while the market showed a couple of weak spots the general tone was firm.

Montreal Cotton broke to 110 which is virtually a decline of 5 points. There is said to be no significance in the move further than the belief that the decline is purely in sympathy with the drop in Dominion. Four of the directors of the Montreal Co., Messrs. A. F. Gault, S. Finley, S. H. Ewing and Jacques Grenier, are also directors of the Dominion Cotton Co., and it is possibly this close connection between the two that has tempted the little liquidation that forced the price down.

$ $ $

The Coal and Steel issues were again to the front, Steel common selling in Boston at 30 and here at 29 to 29¾. Coal common sold here at 47½ to 48, while Steel preferred sold up to 82 and then off to 81½, the feeling in all three being slightly easier towards the close.

Something of a movement has sprung up in Power and the fact that it sold up to 98 has led to the belief that an effort may be made to put it higher.

$ $ $

Speaking of Power this morning, Mr. Rodolphe Forget spoke in the most optimistic terms of the prospects. "The business being done by the company is more than up to our expectations," said Mr. Forget. "The gas output has been running fully 250,000 feet a day over and above last year and some days has shown an increase of 540,000 feet. On the other hand the Royal Electric is making equally good progress and has been showing an increase of 600 lights a week. The earnings are excellent and present gross figures show at the rate of $2,000,000 a year."

The directors of the company left at 12.30 to-day to inspect the works at Chambly.

$ $ $

Regarding the possibility of a deal between the Dominion Iron and Steel and the Dominion Coal Co. a director of the latter concern has said:—"I don't believe that the Dominion Iron and Steel Company will lease the Dominion Coal property on a 6 per cent. guarantee, although its option has a year yet to run. So long as the Steel Company can get its supply of coal and is protected in the future as to its fuel supply, there is no need of leasing the company.

"Reports as to the readjustment of the capitalization of the company have considerable basis. This matter has received attention from the Canadian interests in the company, and when the time is opportune the matter will be taken up. We can save about $140,000 per annum through the readjustment of capital."

$ $ $

The figures on Dominion Coal published in these columns have attracted some attention, and the Boston Herald observes:—"The floating debt is $1,800,000. If net earnings are $1,500,000 this year and charges $407,000, there will remain, if it has not been otherwise, which it possibly has been, nearly $1,100,000 to apply to the cancellation of the $1,800,000 floating debt. Now, since $650,000 of that debt "takes care of itself," the floating debt is already paid in anticipation, if not in fact, and the director's prophecy of firmly established dividends before the close of 1902, say within a year, is a readily demonstrated probability. It could have been wished that the gentleman had illumined the matter of the automatic debt paying arrangement so as to show what it costs the coal company to pay debt that way."

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quoted Grand Trunk first at 97¾, second at 84¼, third at 33¼; Canadian Pacific at 113, and Anaconda at £7¼.

Montreal Street Railway earnings on Monday were $5,440.78, an increase of $213.50 and yesterday, $5,233.15, an increase of $426.35.

Mr. C. D. Monk's messages said:—London market firm, Coppers and Steels strong. Reported opposition Steel combine not treated seriously. 2,600,000 gold engaged for export Thursday. Buying of Jersey Central on talk of increased dividend. Michigan Central advanced on reported large earnings and scarcity of stock. Atchison officials sanguine continued large earnings. Material reduction in demand for stocks in loan crowd. N. P. conference proceeding. No settlement yet in sight. Believed underwriting syndicate supporting Steel pfd. at 90. Nothing will be done on Junion Vanderbilt before arrival W. K. Vanderbilt. Exports Iron and Steel for September fallen off considerably. If any very large amounts are engaged to-day for shipment the market will sell off as the traders will attack it believing that stop orders will be caught. On any pronounced weakness we think purchases will show profits before the close.

The sub-treasury has gained $661,000 from banks since Friday.

Ont. and Western September net increase, $20,043.

Ontario and Western surplus, three months increase, $73,847.

After pressure is off Illinois Central, owing to sale of stock against Right, we think it will advance several points.

There has been progress toward settlement of N. P. case, and it is possible that some official statement may be made sooner than expected. Some points are understood to have been determined while others are under discussion to-day. W think it can be expected that any settlement that is made will be of permanent character, resting upon ownership basis.

London, 3.30 p.m., market for Americans steady, business is almost wholly lacking.

Predictions of Tammany defeat in municipal elections were very confident and accounted for severe break in Metropolitan and weakness in B.R.T. Selling in Metropolitan particularly good. B.R.T. supported by insiders. London Americans stronger at the close.

$ $ $

Robert Meredith & Co. received the following over their private wire from Zimmerman & Forshay, New York:

The London market is quiet, but steady with a better feeling throughout, on anticipation of our gold arrival. Gold to the amount of $2,600,000 has been engaged for Thursday's steamer, and further shipments are awaited.

The market was strong in early dealings, although business was not on an extensive scale. The beginning of gold exports was without speculative influence, as traders choose to look solidly at the relaxing effect. St. Paul opened strong, and Union Pacific and So. Pacific each rose one per cent.

The Coalers continued strong on the prosperous condition of the industry. Missouri Pacific gained one per cent. on what was regarded as buying the reorganized pool.

CONTROL OF STOCK

Toronto Ry. Has Been Taken From Montreal Hands.

THE BIG BUYERS IN THE MONTREAL MARKET HAVE BEEN TORONTO PEOPLE.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—Parties supposed to be well informed, are expecting some important developments in connection with the Toronto Railway and predict an interesting announcement regarding the property in the near future. At intervals, for some time past, the stock has been very strong on the Toronto and Montreal markets, acting as if some powerful interests were steadily absorbing it, picking it up on every recession. Insiders have been tipping the issue for a much higher level and have encouraged their friends to buy, confidently assuring them that the property had a very bright future, and would easily go to 125 very soon. One of these reports is that control of the company has passed from Montreal and is now in the strong hands of certain Toronto capitalists. It is certain Torontonians have been persistent buyers of the stock on a heavy scale, and it is claimed that Montrealers have been the sellers, liquidating in such quantities as to enable Toronto parties to accumulate a majority interest. Mr. Keating, manager of the company, stated to-day that changes had taken place recently in the personnel of the shareholders of the company. He believed some of the heavy shareholders in Montreal had unloaded a large percentage of their stock, but whether it was acquired altogether by local people, he was not prepared to say. As to any proposed extensions, he had heard nothing, and he did not know of any new negotiations other than those which had been pending for some time in regard to the acquirement of the Metropolitan line, and the right to bring freight into the city. It is well known that this time last month Montrealers held the majority interest, but since then they have been selling heavily to parties who purchased in the names of brokers. Just who the principal buyers were is difficult to say, but that they are Torontonians is assured by a statement from Mr. Pellatt, the well-known broker, who says that two-thirds of the stock is now held in this city.

A FEATURE OF WHEAT SITUATION

Domestic Absorption is Unusually Large—Prices Ruling To-day.

McIntyre & Marshall's grain letter said: "Domestic absorption shows that home requirements are unusually large. This is very natural with most articles of consumption dear and wheat cheap. The crop furnished fully 100,000,000 bushels more to enter commercial channels and yet nearly a third of a year, and the months of greatest movement have enlarged the visible but 10,000,000 since July 1st, against 12,500,000 in same time last year. The greater export business has been one of the factors to this end, but we believe domestic demands have been fully as influential. Exports in past four months are about 40,000,000 larger than in same months a year ago."

CATTLE MARKETS

The market for fresh killed abattoir dressed hogs was steady and a fair jobbing trade was done at $8.50 to $9 per 100 lbs.

Cattle Markets.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Receipts were 57 loads, including 800 cattle, 159 sheep, 500 hogs, 20 calves and 143 horses. Export cattle continue weak, there being but a poor demand for them.

Export cattle—There was practically no demand and the offerings were unusually poor in quality. Prices remain at last week's figures, only the very choicest being able to bring $4.50 per cwt. Medium grades bring $3 to $4 per cwt., and cows $2.50 to $3 per cwt.

Butchers' cattle was a little better for picked lots, which brought from $4.25 to $4.40 per cwt. There were, however, very few good enough to command such prices, the majority of the offerings being common to fair and selling at $2.50 to $3.50 per cwt.

Feeding cattle were in good demand, there being now some call for them from farmers. Short keep animals sell at an advance of about 25c per cwt., bringing now from $4 to $4.25. Other grades are steady and sell well.

Stockers were in fair demand but the quality of the offerings is poor. Prices were unchanged at $3.75 to $4 per cwt. for heavy animals, and from $1.75 to $3.25 for off-colors and bulls.

Milch cows — Good milkers were wanting to-day. Prices were from $25 to $35.

Sheep were steady at $3 to $3.25 per cwt. for export ewes. Everything was cleaned up. Lambs were a shade easier, selling at $3 to $3.35 per cwt. Everything was sold.

Hogs were unchanged at $6 for choice and $5.75 for lights. The run was light, only 500 offering.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

GRAIN.—There is still a very strong tone to the market for oats. Other lines are quiet and there is comparatively little doing in Manitoba wheat in an export way. Peas, 80c to 80½c afloat; No. 2 white oats, 44¾c ex store; No. 3, 44c; rejected, 43¼c; rye, 56c afloat; barley, No. 2, 53¼c; No. 3, 52½c.

FLOUR.—A good trade continues to be done in flour, there being a good demand from local and country buyers; consequently the market is fairly active and firm. Spring wheat patents, $4.10; winter wheat patents, $3.75 to $3.90; straight rollers, $3.40 to $3.50; strong bakers, $3.60 to $3.80; and straight rollers, in bags, $1.65 to $1.75.

MEAL.—The demand for rolled oats was fair and prices are unchanged at $4.45 to $4.50 per barrel, and at $2.20 per bag.

FEED.—There was no change in feed, for which the demand is steady. Ontario bran, $17 to $17.50; shorts, $19 to $20 per ton in bulk; Manitoba bran, $17, and shorts, $19 per ton, including bags. Moullie, $20 to $25 per ton, as to quality.

HAY.—In baled hay an active trade continues to be done and prices are fully maintained. We quote: No. 1 hay at $9.50 to $10; No. 2 at $8.50 to $9; clover mixed at $7.50 to $8; and clover, $7 to $7.25, per ton, in car lots.

CHEESE.—There does not appear to be any radical change in the aspect of the cheese market, and prices continue on pretty much the same level. The situation appears to afford moderate encouragement and the statistical situation looks somewhat more bullish than some time ago. Ontario white Septembers, 9½c to 9¼c; Townships Septembers, 8⅞c to 9c; Quebec Septembers, 8⅝c to 8¾c; undergrades, 8c to 8½c.

BUTTER.—The market shows a moderate amount of activity, and prices are about the same, the feeling showing a little less strength than some time ago. Finest creamery, 22c to 22½c; fine fall creamery, 20c to 21c; held creamery, 18½c to 19½c; western dairy, 15½c to 16c; Manitoba dairy, 14c to 15c.

EGGS.—There is a good demand with the tone still very firm. Strictly fresh stock, 20c to 22c; selected cold storage, 17c to 19c; straight arrivals, 17c to 18c; Montreal limed, 16c; western limed, 14c to 14½c; and seconds, 12c to 13c per dozen.

MAPLE PRODUCT.—Business was quiet and prices are unchanged. Syrup, 50c to 60c per tin of wine gallon and 75c to 80c per tin imperial gallon; in wood, 6½c to 7c per lb.; sugar, 8c to 9c, and inferior, 7c to 7½c.

HONEY.—A fair trade was done and prices rule steady. Sales of white clover comb in large sections were made at 10c to 10½c, and in small at 9½c; strained at 8c to 9c per lb. Buckwheat honey in comb at 7½c to 8c, and extracted at 6½c to 7c.

BEANS.—There was no change in beans, for which the demand is rather quiet at present. Car lots primes quoted $1.40 to $1.45; and in a jobbing way, $1.55 to $1.60.

ASHES.—The market for ashes was dull and prices show no change. We quote: Firsts, $4.25; seconds, $3.85; and pearls, $6.75 to $7.25 per 100 lbs.

A NEW FIRM.

Under the firm name of Ross & Holgate, a co-partnership as consulting and supervising engineers has been formed between Messrs. Robt. A. Ross and Henry Holgate, who will carry on business at 17 St. John Street, Montreal and McKinnon building, Toronto. Both members of the firm have had long experience in important engineering enterprises, and have secured the confidence of a large clientele.

TENDENCY OF CATARRH IS TO SPREAD.—Just a slight matter at first, and, because slight, neglected; but the seed sown brings forth a dangerous harvest, Consumption, which is the harvest of death. Better spend a few moments each day inhaling Catarrhozone, an aromatic antiseptic that relieves at once, clears the nasal passages, and restores lost sense of taste and smell. The immediate effect of Catarrhozone is magical, so prompt and efficient. Cure is certain and permanent if you use Catarrhozone. Price $1. Small sizes, 25c, at Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

GRAIN UP WEST

Toronto, Oct. 30.—Wheat—The market was easier to-day, and local buyers were only bidding 65c on the side lines of the railways and 65½c on the main lines, with holders asking ½c to 1c more. Goose wheat is easier at 61c to 62c for No. 1 east and 60c to 61c middle freights. Spring wheat is easier at 66½c to 67c for No. 1 east. Manitoba wheat is steady at 82c for No. 1 hard, 79c for No. 1 northern and 78c for No. 2 northern grinding in transit and 2c less for local delivery Toronto and west.

Flour is easier in sympathy with wheat and on dull cablegrams. Local exporters are quoting 90 per cent. patents at $2.65 in their bags, middle freights, and holders are asking 5c more. Choice brands are held 15c to 20c higher than the prices quoted. Manitoba flour is steady at $4 for Hungarian patents and $3.70 for strong bakers in car lots, bags included, Toronto.

Millfeed—There is a fair demand and the market is steady at $15.50 to $16 for shorts and $13 for bran in car lots west. Manitoba millfeed is steady at $19 for cars of shorts and $17 for bran Toronto freights.

Barley—The market is easier for No. 3 extra on a low freight to New York, and it is now only quoted at 46c; No. 1 is quoted at 53c east. The quotations middle freights are No. 1, 52c; No. 2, 48c; No. 3 extra, 46c, and No. 3, 44c.

Buckwheat is steady at 50c east, and 49c middle freights.

Rye is in moderate demand and steady at 50c east and 49c middle freights.

Corn is steady at 55c for Canada mixed and 55½c for yellow, and new is quoted at 47c to 47½c west; American No. 3 yellow is quoted at 64½c in car lots Toronto.

Oats are in active demand and firmer at 38c for No. 2 white east, 36½c to 37c on a low freight to New York, 36½c middle freights and 36½c north and west.

Oatmeal is steady at $4.25 for cars of bags and $4.40 for barrels on the track Toronto, and 25c more for broken lots.

Peas are steady at 73c east, 72½c middle freights and 77½c north and west.

PRODUCE IN ENGLAND

Writing on cheese and butter in Liverpool, Hodgson Bros.' circular says:—"Cheese.—The market exhibits no new feature, the demand rules moderate, and is chiefly confined to latest makes—summer goods, offering freely at easier prices, being difficult to move. We quote:—Finest Canadian fall makes, colored, 46s to 46s 6d; white, 45s to 46s; finest colored States, 45s to 45s 6d; white, 45s. Summer cheese, ripe and ready, 38s to 43s; skims and half-meats, dull and neglected, nominally 20s to 30s per cwt.

"Butter.—Fancy qualities of Canadian have advanced owing to further rise in Danish, and demand has improved. Lower qualities a slow sale. We quote fancy Canadian fresh-made creamery, in boxes, 103s to 108s; second quality creamery, 90s to 96s; finest States (nominally) 92s to 98s; process creamery, 78s to 88s, as in quality. Finest ladles and imitation creamery, 70s to 80s; finest Danish, 118s to 133s; Siberian and Russian, 84s to 98s; Irish creamery, 112s to 120s per cwt."

THE CHEESE BOARDS

Ingersoll, Ont., Oct. 29.—At the cheese market held here to-day, 800 colored were offered at 8½c bid, but no sales were made.

New York, Oct. 29.—Quiet; receipts, 13,877; state, full cream, small, colored, fancy, 10¼c to 10⅜c; do. choice, 9¾c to 10c; do. small, white, fancy, 10¼c; do. choice, 9¾c to 10c; do. good to prime, 9¼c to 9½c; do. common to fair, 7c to 9c; do. large, colored and white, fancy.

CORNWALL CANAL LIGHTS.

As stated in a despatch the other day, the Cornwall Canal by night is now a blaze of light from the town of Cornwall to Dickenson's Landing, a distance of eleven miles, and like the Soulanges Canal, this waterway can now be navigated with the same degree of speed and safety as at midday. Mr. M. P. Davis, of Ottawa, broke ground a year ago, but severe weather setting in, real work was not started until March, the contract having been carried out within that time. The power house and all the electrical appliances are now complete, and the Government engineers pronounce the lighting a splendid success. Messrs. T. Pringle & Son, of this city, were the engineers for the entire installation, and while Mr. F. H. Leonard, jr., E.E., had charge of the electrical department, Mr. Wm. I. Bishop directed the hydraulic and construction departments. There are 250 alternating enclosed arc lamps, the lights being 400 feet apart. The lighting and power lines are supported by the same poles, which are spaced about 100 feet apart, every fourth pole supporting the lamp on the series system. The locks are provided with from six to thirteen lights, and motors are provided for handling the sluice gates and for opening and closing the lock gates, as well as for the control of the weir gates, by which the levels of the different sections of the canal are regulated. The power house is located at Mille Roches, about midway between Cornwall and Dickenson's Landing.

IN FAVOR OF CANADA.

Mr. Herbert Gibson, chief traffic superintendent of the Manchester ship canal, who has been making a business trip through Canada and the United States, has arrived home and his report to the directors of the ship canal is of a flattering nature for the Dominion. Mr. Gibson reports that he has made arrangements for several new lines of steamers to Manchester, and that next season will most probably see a large increase in the imports of Canadian produce by the ship canal. Messrs. Furness, Withy & Co. have been providing an excellent service between Montreal and Manchester, comprising such large boats as the Manchester Commerce, Manchester City, Manchester Corporation, Manchester Trader and Manchester Shipper.

LAKE SAILORS' DEMANDS.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—As the result of the failure of the Lake Carriers' Association to advance the wages of sailors for the fall season, in accordance with the usual custom, the members of the Cleveland branch of the International Seamen's Union have held a meeting and formulated demands for an immediate advance. The sailors ask $1.75 per day for steamboats and $2 for sailing vessels. It is said that similar action will be taken by union sailors at other lake ports, and that if the advance is not granted a general strike may result.

DEPTH OF WATER.

The depth of the water in the channel at Montreal at noon yesterday was 26 feet 8 inches; at Sorel at 9 o'clock this morning, 26 feet 9 inches.

VESSEL OVERDUE.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 29.—The schooner John Cabot left Rose Blanche, Nfld., on October 21, for North Sydney, and has not yet reached her destination. It is feared that she has foundered. Rev. Dr. Oregan was a passenger on the vessel.

LIGHT CHANGED.

Port Colborne, Ont., Oct. 29.—The inner range light at the entrance of the Welland Canal at Port Colborne has been moved from the east to the west pier in order that vessels entering the canal on the range bay clear the outer or eastern end of the breakwater.

SHORT OF COAL.

Halifax, Oct. 29.—Steamer Pisa, Hamburg for New York, put in here this afternoon, short of coal. She has 354 passengers and a big cargo.

GENERAL NOTES.

The Thomson Line steamship Cumeria sailed from Portland yesterday.

The Thomson Line steamship Nordfarer arrived at Portland yesterday.

The Thomson Line steamship Devona sailed from Newcastle for Montreal on Sunday.

The Thomas Line steamship Cervona, Captain Stooke, from Montreal, landed her live stock all well.

The Allan Line steamship Sardinian from Glasgow passed Martin River inwards at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company is having built at the Bertram shops, Toronto, a twin-screw steamer for service on Lake Okanagan, B.C. The boat will be shipped west in sections, and put together at its destination.

Mr. U. F. Boucher, inspector of buoys, has issued the following notice to pilots: The red and black buoys of the St. Ours route, Contrecoeur channel, have been placed 500 feet above their position, owing to the dredging at that point. The red buoy of Point aux Trembles, which was placed 400 feet below its usual position, has been replaced.

MILNER ADVICES OPENING COLONIES

Says England Should Show Itself Master in the New House.

London, Oct. 30.—Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, speaking yesterday in Cupar, Scotland, repeated the arguments that he frequently used in justification of the Government's South African policy. He defended himself from the accusation that he was responsible for the war by declaring that again and again Great Britain had been on the eve of a struggle with the Boers not over the question of franchises, but on the issue whether Briton or Boer should be predominant in South Africa.

BURNING ITSELF OUT.

Durban, Oct. 29.—The Imperial authorities have reached the conclusion that the early reopening of the Transvaal and Orange River colonies is advisable, so that the normal industrial and agricultural life of the colonies may be resumed.

In the course of a speech yesterday afternoon Lord Milner, of Cape Town, said it was useless to wait until the war was over in a formal sense. It might never be over, he declared, but it was burning itself out, and in time "we ought to show ourselves masters in the house we have taken by rebuilding it, and beginning to live in it."

FIGHT AT VAAL RIVER.

Frankfort, Orange River Colony, Oct. 28.—Major Damant moved south-east of Frankfort with mounted infantry, guns, and pom-poms, and engaged Commandants Roos and Meyer at Blaauwkrantz. He shelled the Boers and drove them out of some kraals situated on ridges. The enemy retired to Roodeval, where they occupied a strong position in kraals on a semi-circle of hills.

The 30th Yeomanry, under cover of some fifteen-pounders and a pom-pom, captured a position on the right, and poured several volleys into the enemy as they retreated from their other positions. Damant's Horse, supported by a Maxim, worked to the left. We captured Theron, adjutant to Roos, as he was returning to camp, and also another Boer, a number of horses, and four waggons. We had no casualties, but the Boers lost heavily.

PRISONERS WELL TREATED.

Colombo, Oct. 29.—In all 5,125 Boer prisoners have been received in Ceylon. They are well treated, and the mortality is light. The number offering to serve the King is increasing.

BOERS ATTACK BLOCK HOUSE.

Kroonstad, Oct. 29.—A force of Boers recently attacked the block houses near Rhenoster River, occupied by the Oxfordshire Light Infantry, and kept up a regular fire from dusk to dawn, when they retired. Subsequently two Boers were captured by a scouting party.

ITALA'S DEFENCE.

Nkandhla, Oct. 29.—The British residents of Zululand propose to erect a monument at Itala to commemorate the bravery of our troops at that place.

DOCK LABORERS' SYMPATHY.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—The delegation of Dutch 'longshore men which is visiting Hamburg for the purpose of getting the co-operation of the German 'longshoremen in boycotting English ships as a protest against the Boer war has met with the warmest reception there. The 'longshoremen of Hamburg have decided to co-operate to a man in the movement. The newspapers here, however, believe that the plan is impracticable.

MRS. JULIA GRANT ILL.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Mrs. Julia Dent Grant, widow of General U. S. Grant, is ill at her home here. She has been confined to her house since her return from Canada about ten days ago. At present her illness is not regarded as critical. It began with a cold, and the developments have been such as to alarm her friends. To-day she is thought to be a little better.

HEAPS OF DEAD LEFT AFTER FIGHT

The Race War in Louisiana Was Most Bloody Ever Known.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—A special to the Picayune from Balltown, La., says that the race war between the blacks and whites which started at a negro camp meeting at Duncan's Chapel, on Sunday, forms a story of bloodshed unequalled in the history of the Pearl River Valley. One white man is dead and another is now dying with a bullet hole through his stomach, and a third white man badly wounded.

Nine negroes were killed in the bloody affray—five men, three women and one small child.

No one is able to estimate the number of wounded negroes who escaped the carnage behind the church. They scattered in all directions. Some are known to have been shot, but they have not been found.

The conflict raged for half an hour. Those at a distance say the firing sounded like a battle between troops.

To the camp meeting negroes had come from two hundred miles up and down the valley. One day previous to the camp meeting, when the negro, Bill Morris, had been burned at the stake near Balltown, for an assault on Mrs. J. J. Ball, public feeling was at a high pitch. Under those conditions the negroes gathered at Live Oak. There was trouble over a license, and Crear Lott's tent became the centre of contention.

Some trouble occurred Saturday evening, but there was no bloodshed. It came up again Sunday afternoon, when Constable Book and a posse rode up to Lott's tent with a warrant. Lott came out and is reported to have shouted an oath: "One nigger has been burned, but a white man will be the next."

Wade Walker, one of the posse, was struck over the head with a Winchester, and then the slaughter began. Lott retired into the tent, shooting, and Joe Seals, another white man, received his death wound. A torrent of lead was sent whizzing through the tent and through the church, while the negroes fled.

Preacher Connelly was shot while standing in his yard. His daughter fell just inside the house and Lott's old mother-in-law, his two daughters and his little boy fell in a heap inside the shelter. When Crear Lott again appeared in the doorway, twenty rifle balls went crashing through him. Parker and Beverly, both blacks, fell at the same time. Joseph Seals and Charles Elliott and Edward Thompson, the wounded whites, were carried away. Seals died yesterday, and Elliott is dying.

Yesterday afternoon the nine negroes who were left in a heap where they had died were piled into three unmarked graves, dug near the charred remains of Lott's tent-house.

The Picayune correspondent left the scene of the battle this afternoon and all was quiet. The negroes are cowed, and the whites believe there will be no further trouble.

GOES HOME FOR BURIAL

Havana, Oct. 30.—The remains of the Spanish vice admiral, Villamil, commander of the Spanish torpedo flotilla, who was killed at the battle of Santiago, were transferred yesterday to the steamer Montserrat, to be taken to Spain. The ceremony was in charge of chairman of the port, Young, representing the United States navy.

Vice-Admiral Villamil was wounded on board the Pluton, and was taken ashore by Spanish sailors, dying shortly after. His body was left in a sitting position in a chair in a cave about four miles west of the entrance to Santiago harbor, and it remained there about eight months before it was discovered, when it was transferred to the Santiago arsenal.

A FAST ATLANTIC LINE

London, Oct. 30.—Referring to the new "Ocean Rapid Transit Company," which is to operate steamers on the Atlantic, a telegram from Cork to the Times says that if the Imperial Government will grant a subsidy to the line for carrying the mails, the vessels will be built in England and carry the British flag. If no subsidy is granted the vessels will be built in the United States and carry the American flag.

PUTS THE BLAME ON DEAD COMRADE

Burglar Rice, Now on Trial for Murder, Adopts a Forlorn Defence.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—Fred Lee Rice, the only survivor of the Aurora bank burglars, was put on trial yesterday, charged with the murder of Constable Boyd on June 4. Judge Falconbridge wore the scarlet gown and drop hood of the justices of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, the use of which the judges have decided to revive.

The prisoner made his appearance in the dock heavily manacled. His whole appearance was neat and dapper, and he seemed in much better physical condition than at the time of his trial last June. He pleaded not guilty.

The jury was then selected. Mr. Robinette, counsel for the defence, exercised great care in this stage of the proceedings, objecting frequently, and, in fact, using eighteen of the twenty challenges allowed him. It was remarked that he challenged a considerable number of farmers. Mr. Guthrie directed eight men to stand aside.

Mr. Guthrie then proceeded to open the case for the Crown. After enlarging upon the heinousness of the offence, he reviewed the story of the tragedy, laying stress upon the fact that Rice sat in the hack directly opposite Boyd, the murdered man, that Rutledge sat opposite Constable Stewart, and that Jones was in the middle with both hands handcuffed.

Proceeding, Mr. Guthrie stated that certain discrepancies might be developed in the stories of the Crown witnesses as to events after the men had left the hack. He pointed out, however, that when the hack was quitted the murder had been committed, and that subsequent events were comparatively unimportant.

SHOOTING WAS DELIBERATE.

Constable Stewart took the stand and swore that he saw Rice point the pistol at Boyd, that he saw it discharged and saw blood run from Boyd's head. The shooting, he swore, was done after Rutledge had ordered Rice to "Give it to him." Although he did not say so explicitly, the inference was that Rice used his left hand. He then told of Rice turning his revolver on him and of his surrender.

Mr. Robinette, in his cross-examination, indicated that the defence will be that Jones fired the fatal shot, some of his questions turning on the formation of the links of the handcuffs. He also, by some questions, showed that he will probably raise the legal point that Rice cannot be tried until he has served his sentence. Part of his defence will be that Rice was altogether ignorant of the plot.

Mr. Guthrie, in re-examination, brought out that Rice had expressed no dissent from Stewart's story when Rutledge and Jones were still alive, intimating that the defence is endeavoring to saddle the crime on the dead men.

The court rose for luncheon at 12.45 o'clock.

EYE-WITNESSES EXAMINED.

At the afternoon sitting of the Assize Court the trial of Rice was continued. Following the evidence of Constable Stewart, the Crown Prosecutor presented the evidence of a number of eye-witnesses of the affray, and the peculiarity of this evidence was that none of the witnesses agreed in every detail with any other witness.

Thomas Crittenden, jr., a druggist, at the north-east corner of Gerrard and Sumach Streets, swore to having seen a hat thrown out of the hack from the north side. He picked it up, walked to the south side, and looked in. Rutledge, the man closest to him, then had a revolver. Rice sat on the opposite side, and had his left hand across the carriage door. As he was looking in the carriage door opened suddenly and Rice came out, followed by Jones and Rutledge.

The men were only a short distance from the hack when shots came from the vehicle, and Rice and Rutledge turned and fired back into the hack. Rice fired three or four, and Rutledge three shots. The three men then made for the car, although Jones, who was in the centre, had to be dragged along.

In cross-examination, Mr. Robinette got the witness to decline to swear that he saw a revolver in Rice's hand.

OTHER WITNESSES.

Robert Highley, the driver of the hack, gave evidence, which in some respects differed from that of Motorman Kohlmeyer, Motorman Robert Wilson, Conductor Robert Ennis, Thomas Malone and Thomas Greer, all of whom testified upon the question as to the number of shots that had been heard while the prisoners were still inside the hack, and also regarding the prisoners who held revolvers. As none of the witnesses know the prisoners by name at the time of the murder, the evidence was very involved, and was filled with discrepancies. The credit of the disarming of the prisoners was claimed by several witnesses, and the excitement that must have prevailed during the affray was shown in the evidence given.

Guards Richard Dodds and James Spanton, of the gaol, testified to aiding Constable Stewart in his fight against the prisoners, and swore that the revolver which they took from Rutledge was later claimed by Stewart as his own, this going to show that Stewart had been disarmed by Rutledge while the men were still in the hack.

WILD WEST HORSES KILLED

Charlotte, N.C., Oct. 30.—One hundred and ten of the ring horses of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show were crushed to death in a railroad wreck near Lexington yesterday. Among the horses killed was "Old Pap," Col. Cody's favorite saddle-horse. The mules of the Deadwood coach were also killed. Col. Cody spent the day at the scene of the wreck. He says his loss is $60,000.

HANBURY WILL NOT GIVE WAY

In Spite of United Pressure From Scotch Farmers Canadian Cattle Stay Out.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—When Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, was in Great Britain last summer he made strong representations to the president of the Board of Agriculture in regard to the importation of store cattle from Canada, asking that in this matter Canada be treated in the same way as Ireland, as an integral part of the British Empire and not as a foreign country. He also addressed a number of meetings of farmers and others interested in this trade, and since his return the agitation has been kept up in the Old Land. The Scotch farmers want Canadian cattle and have exerted every influence to have the present law of restriction repealed, but without success. The British stock breeders demand protection against Canada, although they are more than willing to welcome Canadian buyers of pure-bred stock who pay big prices for the best animals. That the policy of protection will be continued as long as the Right Hon. R. W. Hanbury is president of the Board of Agriculture is shown by the following, from the Edinburgh Evening Despatch, of October 9:—

"The Right Hon. R. W. Hanbury, M.P., president of the Board of Agriculture, was in Edinburgh to-day. In the forenoon he received, in the City Chambers, a deputation representing all parts of Scotland, in favor of the removal of the restrictions on the importation of Canadian cattle. Mr. Hanbury, on this occasion, was accompanied by Sir Jacob Wilson. The deputation, which was a very large one, included Bailie Brechin, Glasgow; Mr. W. Smith, Balzeordie, Brechin; Mr. W. F. Bell, Luthrie Bank; Mr. A. Hutcheson, Beechwood, Perth; Mr. Nathaniel Dunlop, Clyde Trust; Mr. Henry D. McCrombie and Mr. Milton, of Kemnay. The case for the deputation was stated by Mr. Bailie Brechin, who commented upon the careful examination made of all Canadian store cattle landed in Glasgow, and upon the fact that they had not had a single case of pleuro. They thought the time had now arrived when these restrictions should be removed, for if the farmer were to be remunerated for his trouble, outlay and care, it was to be from the feeding of Canadian cattle. Free trade should be allowed in cattle as in many other things.

"Mr. William Smith said that all they asked was the right possessed by every tradesman in Scotland save themselves—the right to buy their raw material cheapest and best. If, he said, the three great industries of Edinburgh were compelled to buy their raw material in the United Kingdom alone, the breweries would soon be out of existence, Scottish whiskey would be made in Germany, and the flour industry would be practically annihilated. Canadian cattle, he claimed, were the soundest and healthiest that passed through the farmers' hands. Mr. W. F. Bell claimed that if disease once existed in Canada there had been no trace of it for years. Mr. A. Hutcheson, Mr. N. Dunlop, Mr. McCrombie and Mr. John Mitchell, Nowburgh, also spoke in support of the plea of the deputation, all eager to show that Canadian store cattle were absolutely free from disease.

"Mr. Hanbury, in replying to the deputation, pointed out that this matter was provided for by an act of Parliament passed so recently as 1896, and he believed there would be a distinct majority in the House of Commons who would make it impossible for any Government to pass a measure repealing that act. He pointed out that it applied to live animals from all over the world, and Canada was on exactly the same footing as any other country. Any alteration, therefore, must affect every other country that could supply them with store cattle. Then there was the perfectly insuperable difficulty that they could not reverse their treaties at a moment's notice. He thought he was taking what, in the end, was the best course for farmers, and certainly for the consumer at large, when he said that, so far as he was concerned, his mind was very clearly made up. He did not think there was any possibility of his yielding to this demand as long as he was Minister of Agriculture. He hoped that by thus speaking out strongly he would bring home to their minds, and the minds of breeders, that so far as he and this Government were concerned, and so far as all Governments were concerned, the policy of 1896 was the established policy of the country.

"As he closed he was greeted with cries of 'Rubbish,' and 'Have another election.'"

GILL'S LIGHT SENTENCE

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 30.—Sapper Gill, of the Royal Engineers, who a couple of weeks ago shot Gunner Chinnick, of the R.G.A., while shooting at Gunner Mahoney, of the same regiment, was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter, and was sentenced by Judge Drake to fifteen years in the penitentiary. He is only 21 years of age. A verdict of murder and capital punishment was looked for. Gill had a grudge against Mahoney and fired at him as he sat at a card table with his back to the murderer. Some one shouted to Mahoney to "duck," which he did just in time, with the result that Chinnick received the bullet in the mouth. Technically his death was only manslaughter, as Gill had no intention of killing him, and on this plea he escaped the gallows.

The Cause of Nervous Headache.

This most distressing and common malady doubtless has its origin in some unbalanced condition of the nervous system. Probably the simplest, safest and most efficient remedy is Polson's Nerviline. Twenty drops in sweetened water gives immediate relief, and this treatment should be supplemented by bathing the region of pain with Nerviline. To say it acts quickly fails to express the result. Sold everywhere in large 25c bottles.

FARQUHARSON NOMINATED

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Oct. 30.—Premier Farquharson yesterday received the unanimous nomination of the convention of the Liberal party in West Queen's, called to select a candidate for the seat made vacant by the elevation of Sir Louis Davies to the Supreme Court bench. A strong resolution was passed in favor of the choice of the convention being given the portfolio of Marine and Fisheries, formerly held by Sir Louis Davies.

THE STONE CASE.

London, Oct. 30.—It is officially stated that the United States legation in Constantinople has opened direct connection with Miss Stone's captors, says a despatch from Sofia to the Daily Telegraph.

United States Consul-General Dickinson has left Sofia for Samakov, in order to be able to more closely superintend the measures being taken for the release of Miss Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka.

MUST STAND HIS TRIAL.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 30.—Adam Harley, who is charged with embezzling $6,000 from the Bank of British North America, was taken back to Fredericton last night for trial.

STOLE FROM THE CHURCH.

While the choir boys were practising in St. George's Church last night a clever sneak thief stole three coats. The detectives have been notified, and are working on the case.

A SOUR STOMACH

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour Temper.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Johnson wisely said,

"the pleasure of living depends upon the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying creating gases which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues" but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestives like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are peptones, diastase and Hydrochloric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22 when I graduated from school with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.
