SEALING STEAMER GREENLAND SUNK.

Fierce Gale Batte[illegible] Against Ice Flo

St. Chas. Seminary 5Jan08

CREW OF 183 HAD A HARD TIME—WERE ABOUT TO TAKE THE ICE WHEN RESCUED.

St. John's, Nfld., April 1.—The sealing steamer, Greenland, which became disabled on the sealing grounds early last week, has sunk. All the members of the crew were rescued by the steamers Newfoundland and Erik. The news of the loss of the Greenland was brought here Saturday by the sealing steamer Algerine, which put in here from the sealing grounds with a broken rudder. The Algerine reported that the Greenland sank soon after being abandoned by her crew.

On Monday an attempt was made to give the vessel steerage way in a sheet of open water, but the sails were blown away, and the craft again became helpless. The gale dashed the broken propeller and shaft against the hull and forced open the stern, through which the water made its way to the hold.

On Tuesday more ice was encountered, and it was decided to abandon the Greenland and go on the ice floes. The boats which had escaped damage were provisioned and the crew were able to leave the vessel when the sealing steamer Newfoundland was sighted. The Newfoundland bore down upon the sinking steamer and took off the men.

The Newfoundland Government, on Thursday, chartered the steamer Portia to search for the Greenland, which was believed to be in great danger. Saturday the Portia started out with a week's supply of coal and provisions. No word has yet been received from her.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR SHERBROOKE.

Attleboro, Mass., Concern To Locate Here.

BY-LAW PROVIDING FOR SOME ASSISTANCE WILL BE SUBMITTED TO RATEPAYERS.

Sherbrooke will, in all probability, have a new industry in the near future. Messrs. McRae and Keeler, of Attleboro, Mass., who carry on a large manufacturing jewellery establishment, have decided to locate in Sherbrooke, that is, provided the proposition is ratified by the ratepayers.

Negotiations have been going on for some time.

On Saturday representatives of the above named firm met representatives of the City Council and Board of trade, when the company's proposition was considered, that is that the company agree to employ 65 hands the first year, and pay out $25,000 during the first and second year, while the pay roll in the third year will be $40,000, with an increase during the next two years.

In return the Council will give certain consideration in the matter of exemption of taxes, etc., and also secure a site, the whole not being expected to exceed $6,500.

After discussing the matter the representatives agreed to carry out the above proposition. The matter will no doubt be ratified by the Council to-morrow evening and it will then be submitted to the ratepayers for final ratification.

This concern is highly spoken of, and from enquiries made they will be a valuable acquisition to the industries of Sherbrooke.

PRES. ROOSEVELT DEFIES HIS CRITICS.

Is Not Responsible For Present Situation.

TENDENCY TO BLAME HIM FOR FINANCIAL CRISIS IN COUNTRY.

Washington, April 1—"Point to one word of mine, or one act, legislative or administrative of the national Government to which the responsibility for the present situation can be attached directly or indirectly," is a challenge with which the President has greeted more than one of the men who have come to him recently with a plea that he restore public confidence. This point the President has strongly emphasized and none of his callers has been able to give him the slightest proof that he or any of his acts can be blamed for the present business anxiety.

Two years ago the railroads were arrayed in a solid and clamorous opposition to the passage of the rate bill. To the railroad presidents who came to see him at that time Mr. Roosevelt said frankly: "You are committing an act of folly." He expressed his belief that the best possible thing for the honest railroad men as well as for the honest investors was the extension and perfection of the system to be inaugurated by the rate law. To the bankers and railway presidents who have seen him recently he has repeated this and reiterated his intention of strengthening if possible the law at the next session of Congress so as to make it even more effective than it is today.

DEATH OF REV. W. PYKE.

Ottawa, April 1—Rev. William Pyke, superannuated Methodist minister, died here Wednesday, at the age of sixty-seven years. The deceased joined the Primitive Methodist Church. He was for five years in evangelistic work. A wife and one child survive. The body will be taken to Brampton for interment.

MR. FOWLER, M.P., IS DEFIANT.

Montreal Paper For Libel.

SAYS HE WILL BACK UP ALL OF HIS ASSERTIONS.

St. John, N.B., April 1.—George W. Fowler, M.P., passed through St. John on Saturday on his way to Montreal and Ottawa. He spoke of the political scandal with aggressive confidence, saying that he was ready for anything that might come, and could back up all of his assertions. Mr. Fowler said that when he reached Montreal he would begin suit against the Montreal Star for libel on account of an article concerning him which appeared in that journal a few days ago. He added that he had heard nothing yet of any suit against the Fredericton Gleaner or its editor.

Mr. Geo. W. Fowler, M.P., passed through Montreal Saturday, en route for Ottawa.

ANXIETY IN OTTAWA.

Ottawa, April 1.—Much speculation and no little anxiety prevails here as to the course events will take next Wednesday, when Mr. Bourassa proposes his resolution that Mr. Fowler must formulate or withdraw his "women, wine and graft" charges. It is certain that Mr. Bourassa will adhere to his part of the programme, and it may be that Mr. Fowler will sit tight and wait developments in the House.

THE CAVALRY CAMP LOCATION.

Where Will "She Be" Is Still The Query.

RICHMOND, SHERBROOKE, GRANBY AND FARNHAM STILL CLAIM IT — MAGOG ENTERS THE LISTS.

The Cavalry Camp question is again receiving considerable discussion through the Townships.

An item in the official "orders" announces that the camp will be held at Richmond. It is known, however, that no lease of land has been made there, though Government engineers have looked over a prospective site. The Richmond militia is not anxious for a home site and Richmond town has taken no official action in support of the idea.

In the meantime, Granby has not yet given up hope. A Granby officer was heard to declare, a few days ago, "You will hear something drop in the vicinity of Granby shortly," meaning evidently, the Cavalry Camp.

Farnham, is, also, still figuring on seeing the soldiers.

Sherbrooke continues to the fore as the probable place for the summer training camp. It is by several thousand dollars the most economical, and the brigade officers generally favor the Sherbrooke site.

In the meantime, a new "site" has loomed up on the horizon. It is in the vicinity of Magog and overlooking the beautiful Lake Memphremagog.

The Magog Enterprise remarks:

"We are glad to be able to state that there is a possibility of the Cavalry Camp for the Third Brigade coming to Magog this year.

"We understand that the announcement that Richmond had been selected for the Camp was premature and altogether in error.

"There are two or three things that are against Richmond, it is said.

"However, the military authorities have been interested in the advantages that Magog possesses for this important event, and if the proposed land can be procured at the price that the Department of Militia and Defence have set aside for this purpose there is no doubt that we shall have the Camp this year.

"The annual military camp would bring a lot of money into the vicinity, a conservative estimate placing it at $50,000, and should the site prove satisfactory, as we believe it would, the place would be bought by the Government to be used as a permanent camp ground. For this year, the land would be rented only, and it would include several farms, all on the bank of Memphremagog Lake.

"The location would furnish the best of water for man and beast, and the supply of meat, forage, etc., that would be required, will be immense.

"The matter at present rests at the point of securing the required land, and we are assured by those who know that should this be carried through the camp will be held here.

"Let all interested citizens do all in their power to accomplish this."

ICE MOVES DOWN IN ST. FRANCIS.

It Broke Up Early Sunday Morning.

JAM DOWN STREAM CAUSED HIGH WATER FOR A TIME.

The ice in the St. Francis River, in the vicinity of Sherbrooke, broke up and went down stream yesterday morning.

The water rose rapidly during the forenoon owing to a jam down the river. At one time it looked as if a flood was in prospect. The banks overflowed in some places and water invaded the north end of Windsor street, East Sherbrooke. The fence around the new coal pocket of J. S. Mitchell & Co., was battered down and the approaches flooded. As night came, however, the water receded considerably.

A slight jam occurred at the St. Francis River bridge. A heavy piece of ice was forced up against the centre support of the bridge and even extended to the flooring of the bridge sidewalk displacing it somewhat. At about 7 a.m., however, the ice began to move down stream. The ice was thick and solid.

There appears to be little likelihood of a flood this spring. There is a good deal of snow in the woods and a heavy rain which would convert it suddenly to water might result in very high water. If the present moderate weather conditions continue, however, the banks of the St. Francis will likely hold the stream this spring.

RICHMOND IS THREATENED.

Richmond, April 1.—(Special.) — Richmond is to-day prepared for a rush of water through the lower town. Goods and household furniture, in the buildings threatened by the spring freshet, have been placed as high as possible. The ice shoved a couple of times yesterday, and water rose rapidly. It invaded the cellars on Front street, but did not reach the Main street.

The cold weather has evidently stayed the advance of the flood, and the water is not rising to-day.

The ice still seems pretty firm, and boats may yet be seen on Main street this year.

HIGH WATER AT WINDSOR MILLS.

Windsor Mills, April 1.—(Special.) — Water is very high here to-day owing to a jam about midway between here and Richmond. The water has backed up so as to interfere with the operation of the St. Francis Mill, which is consequently closed to-day. The river has overflowed the banks at some points below here.

KING ALFONSO AND KING EDWARD TO MEET.

Spaniards Pleased With Relations With Great Britain.

KING EDWARD WILL LEAVE BIARRITZ FOR TOULON, APRIL 5.

Madrid, April 1.—The approaching meeting of King Alfonso and King Edward at Cartagena is creating much comment, the close understanding between Spain and Great Britain being the subject of general rejoicing. Although it is officially announced that the meeting will be of a political character, speculation is rife relative to its influence on the political situation. Every Spanish warship available will proceed to Cartagena to meet the British squadron of seventeen vessels, and a gala banquet for the officers of both nations has been arranged to take place on board the Spanish battleship Numancia. Dowager Queen Christina, Premier Maura and the foreign and marine ministers will accompany King Alfonso to Cartagena.

Biarritz, April 1. — King Edward will leave here April 5 for Toulon, and he will leave that port the next day on board the royal yacht for Cartagena, where he will meet King Alfonso.

CLEMENCEAU'S VISIT.

Paris, April 1. — Foreign Minister Pichon and Premier Clemenceau conferred lengthily Saturday morning on the subject of Morocco.

The Premier has definitely postponed his visit to Spain owing to the pressure of ministerial affairs, as officially announced. But it is suggested in several quarters that the visit was postponed because too great significance was likely to be attached to his journey if it occurred at the same time as the meeting of King Edward and King Alfonso at Cartagena.

ROBBED OF BIG SUM.

WINNIPEGGER LOSES $75,000 IN CHEQUES AND SECURITIES.

Winnipeg, April 1.—Mr. C. Fisher, head of the Winnipeg real estate firm of Fisher, Hamilton & Co., on Thursday night last was robbed of $75,000 worth of cheques and securities, which he had in a grip, while returning from a business trip to British Columbia.

TWO FREIGHTS COLLIDE.

SIX MEN REPORTED KILLED ON MISSOURI, KANSAS AND TEXAS RAILWAY.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 1.—(Special)—Six men are reported killed in a collision between two freight trains on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway, six miles south of here to-day. Aid has been sent from this city.

VESSEL CRASHED ONTO LEDGES IN DENSE FOG.

Norwegian Barque, City of Agra, Total Loss.

CREW ESCAPED, GUIDED BY LIGHT HOUSE KEEPER WHO GUIDED THEM TO PLACE TO LAND.

Halifax, April 1.—(Special.) — A special wireless telegram from Cape Sable to the Chronicle states that in the dense fog the Norwegian barque City of Agra, crashed on the southwest ledges at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and is a total loss.

Captain Hainre and his thirteen men reached shore about six hours later. The barque was bound from New York to Bridgewater, N. S., to load for Buenos Ayres.

A heavy sea was running when the vessel struck and two hours later the vessel listed.

The crew hurriedly took to two boats but owing to dense fog and heavy sea they had a perilous time reaching shore, until Light Keeper Cunningham guided them to a place where they could make a landing. But for Mr. Cunningham all might have perished and the men are now staying at light house. Nothing was saved from the vessel.

THE HITCHCOCK WILL CASE.

DETAILS OF INTERESTING JUDGMENT RENDERED BY JUDGE HUTCHINSON.

Mr. Justice Hutchinson rendered several judgments in the Superior Court Saturday morning.

DAME HENRIETTA RAMSEY VS. HOLLIS J. HITCHCOCK ET AL. — The plaintiff is the widow of the late Sanford C. Hitchcock, who died in Malden, Mass., where they had resided for some time, and she seeks to recover as guardian of their minor child, Etta Hitchcock, the sum of $2000 under the will of the late Paul Hitchcock, of the village of Stanstead. It appears that in 1885 the late Paul Hitchcock made his will whereby he bequeathed to his son the sum of $2,000, revenue from which was to be given by the trustees towards his support and maintenance. It was also stipulated in the will that should the said Sanford Hitchcock die without heirs that the said sum should revert to the residuary legatees. The late Sanford Hitchcock died intestate on the 10th July, 1905, leaving as his only heir and legal representative the said minor child, Etta Hitchcock. The defendants did not plead to the action, but referred themselves to justice, and added that there was an uncertainty as to whom the money should be paid as there were other parties claiming payments. Hollis J. Hitchcock, Gilbert Hitchcock and Dame Ada F. Hitchcock intervened, and say that they are the legal heirs of the late Paul Hitchcock and that the other legal heir is the minor child of the said late Sanford Hitchcock, and that they should be entitled to $500 each.

In reviewing the case the Court said that the clause in the will of the said Paul Hitchcock, which refers to the matters in question in this case, reads as follows: "I do hereby give and put in the care and in trust of the executors of my present will the sum of $2000 of Eastern Townships Bank stock for the benefit and maintenance of my son, Sanford C. Hitchcock, actually residing in the United States of America, the revenue thereof to be paid to him yearly, or semi-annually, as the said trustees shall see fit according to the wants and necessities of the said Sanford C. Hitchcock, who has already received out of my estate the sum of $1525 said currency, and at his death if there is no heir or heirs left by him, and in that case the said sum placed in trust as aforesaid shall revert and and return to the said residuary legatees hereinafter mentioned in full and absolute property." The real point in controversy is whether the testator has given a direct bequest of $2000 to his son, Sanford C. Hitchcock, or whether he has only given the usufruct or revenue of the said $2000 to his said son. According to the provisions of the will, the two thousand dollars are given for the benefit as well as for the maintenance of the said Sanford Hitchcock. While the testator stipulated the means whereby the son was to receive the revenue of the said two thousand dollarslars, while at his death the money was to go to his heirs, and if he had not heirs to the residuary legatees. If the testator had not meant that the money was to go to the heirs of his son, there would have been no necessity for the latter part of the clause quoted above, whereby he provided for the ultimate ownership of the money. After the death of the said testator, the said two thousand dollars was legally vested in the said Sanford C. Hitchcock. The executors, while they controlled the said sum, could not be the owners but only the administrators, and it was only in the event of the said Sanford C. Hitchcock having no heirs that the money was to revert to the residuary legatees. At the death of the said SanfordC. Hitchcock the said two thousand dollars was his property, and having died intestate, the money went to his minor child. The defendants having not pleaded to his action, but have declared that there is an uncertainty as to whom the said money should be paid, and have expressed their willingness to submit to the order of the Court, as to whom the money should be paid, the Court therefore condemns the said defendants to pay to the said plaintiff in her said quality the sum of two thousand dollars with interest from the 10th of July, 1905. The Court held that the intervention of the said intervenants was not well founded and they failed to prove the allegations of their declaration, and therefore dismissed the intervention with costs against the intervenants.

DAILY NEWS SPECIALS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE EASTERN TOWNSHIPS

SAW MILL ACCIDENT.

Ayer's Cliff, April 1.—(Special.) — Mr. Gay Libby met with a painful accident a few days ago while working in the saw mill. In some way he had his right hand drawn into the saw, jamming and cutting it badly. Dr. Brown was called and dressed the wounds. At present he is doing as well as can be expected.

HIGH WATER AT ABERCORN.

Sutton, April 1.—(Special.) — The water was so high at Abercorn on Thursday that for a short time all traffic was cut off from the village to the C.P.R. station. Passengers were obliged to go to Richford, Vt., three miles distant, to take a train. The high water was caused by the ice damming up the river near the bridge.

ANOTHER BIG FIRE AT MARIEVILLE.

Waterloo, April 1.—(Special)— The Roman Catholic Church at Marieville was burned to the ground at 5 a.m., on Thursday. The College was burned just three weeks ago, and a portion of the books saved were taken to the Church, which was also destroyed. The loss is about $75,000. The cause of the fire is unknown. Insurance is about one-third value of the property.

SURVEYING FOR NEW LINE THROUGH MEGANTIC COUNTY.

Inverness, April 1.—(Special.) —The railroad surveyors returned to Halifax to see if a track could not be found between the village and the lake. A practical track was found as far as the land was concerned, but it was found that fifty-eight houses would have to be moved, and that is considered out of the question. Besides it would make the road a mile and a half longer and it would practically spoil the lake shore front for the village. It was decided to run the line on the opposite side of the lake, giving the Bernierville people their station at the head of the lake. The surveyors then went back over the line through Wolfstown, straightening it and making as many improvements as the nature of that hilly township would permit. On Tuesday they again pass through Inverness on their return to take up the survey at Lysander, from where they left it to return to Halifax. They are now surveying the route from Lysnider to Lyster preparatory to running the line from Lysander to the Bridge.

CANADA HAS BIG END OF ARGUMENT, OF COURSE.

Inverness, April 1.—(Special.) —The Academy was closed for the Easter holidays by a very fine entertainment given by the scholars. Mr. Lambly, Secretary of the Board, was invited to take the chair, and Miss Neslon, Principal, presided at the organ. Sixty scholars were present and gave a very entertaining programme of songs, recitations and a debate.

The question was, Resolved, "That Canada is a better country than the United States." The affirmative was upheld by Miss Flossie Mooney and Master Murray Sutherland, and the negative by Master Samuel Cromie and Master Grover Duff. The addresses were replete with arguments and would do credit to much older and more experienced debaters. The question was decided by the number of points made by each side, and the chairman and Miss McKenzie and Miss McVety were appointed to keep count. At the close of a very interesting debate it was found that the negative had made 48 points, and the affirmative 52, so the decision went to the affirmative.

THE CONVENTION OF THE CANADA PAPER COMPANY STAFF AT WINDSOR MILLS.

Windsor Mills, April 1.—(Special.)—The dinner given on Friday night in connection with the convention of the Canada Paper Co.'s staff, was a most successful and enjoyable function.

About fifty gentlemen representing the different departments, sales, office and manufacturing, sat down to enjoy the good things provided. Mr. F. J. Campbell, general manager, occupied the chair and made a most efficient toastmaster.

The first toast was "The King," which was responded to by a hearty rendering of the National Anthem. It was followed by a song from Mr. Hawker.

The chairman then gave the next toast, "The Dominion of Canada." Mr. Petts responded to this in a speech on the prosperity and advancement in every direction since he first reached the shores of Canada, twenty-five years ago. Winnipeg, as he remebered it in in those days was represented by hundreds of tents dotted around over the prairie, and all along the way from Montreal were box cars and shacks, which have all developed since into large and prosperous cities and towns. The natural resources of our country, mineral lands, vast forests and water powers, the finest in the world, all conduce to making Canada the greatest country in the world, not in our time perhaps, but our children and children's children will see it and glory in being citizens of the Dominion of Canada, the brightest jewel of the Empire.

Mr. Cauldwell gave the toast of "The Canada Paper Company" in a few brief words and coupled with it the name of His Worship the Mayor of Windsor Mills and General Manager of the Company, Mr. Campbell.

In reply to the toast Mr. Campbell said: "The Canada Paper Company, as it stands to-day, is represented by yourselves and depends on the spirit of intelligence and energy my lieutenants display and the earnestness in which the members of the staff follow each their particular work. Every man has his department to look after, zealousness and good work in each conduces to the welfare of the whole. The traveller on the road engaged in obtaining orders realizes his great responsibility and thinks that his is the most important part, while the man that makes the paper has the same idea. The company itself is the second oldest paper making concern at present in the country, and stands in the eyes of the trade as the premier company; the excellence of its products keeping it in the first place. It is a good thing for the members of the selling staff to become more familiar with the difficulties of the manufacturing end of the business and also for those at the manufacturing end to know something of the problems confronting the travellers. Nothing repays better than the efforts for excellence put forth by every department of the business."

Mr. Donovan said that this big concern of ours consists of two sections, the selling and manufacturing. The selling end think themselves the most important, but realized also that the manufacturing end is of great importance as well, and he had great pleasure in proposing the toast of "The Manufacturing End of the Establishment."

This was replied to by Mr. Pottle, representing the St. Francis Mill; Mr. Aitken, the Windsor Mill, and Mr. Conners, the Springvale Mill.

Toast to the "Selling End of the Business" was proposed by Mr. Thierry, responded by Mr. Hay, Mr. Latter and Mr. Taylor.

Toast to "Imported Friends" from the other side of the line and also from across the Atlantic, proposed by Mr. Campbell and was replied to briefly by Mr. Brown and Mr. Moe.

Mr. Campbell then proposed the toast to the "Brotherhood of Paper Makers" and expressed his appreciation of the amicable relations with the Brotherhood which had always existed.

Mr. Lockwood, representing the local lodge, replied.

In proposing a toast to the worthy chairman, Mr. Petts remarked that gatherings like this were of great benefit to all branches and departments of the establishment, as they helped to promote a better feeling amongst us, and wished that meetings were held oftener.

Mr. Campbell replied in a few well chosen words of thanks.

This closed the toast list, and the balance of the evening was passed in music and conversation.

FORBIDS FAITHFUL TO ATTEND THEATRE.

Montreal Archbishop Condemns "La Rafale."

NEWSPAPERS WHICH ADVERTISED PLAY OF FRENCH DRAMATIC SCHOOL ARE ALSO WARNED.

Montreal, April 1.—Actuated by the advertising during Holy Week of "La Rafale," an intensely dramatic play of the French modern school, Archbishop Bruchesi yesterday caused a pastoral letter to be read in several of the churches, forbidding the faithful to attend the Theatre des Nouveautes in the future. The play is to be represented for the second time in Montreal at the Nouveautes to-night, with Mlle. Rose Syma, the recently arrived Parisian artiste, in the leading female role. In strong terms, Archbishop Bruchesi condemned the production, which he characterized as "an display of low sensuality and as the apology of suicide." He declared that the clergy were not opposed to art, literature and to progress rightly conceived, but that it had declared war on all amusements which might occasion crime or sin.

FAIL TO CONVICT BOY LEMON THROWER.

St. Albans, Vt., April 1.— The City Court jury disagreed in the case of the State vs. Bert Rich, who was charged with assaulting actors at Waugh's Opera House by throwing lemons on to the stage. Four other boys and Manager Linn of the Opera House, arrested on assault charges, were released.

INQUEST OPENED AT KNOWLTON

On Body of Child Found Near Railway Track.

ADJOURNED UNTIL TO-MORROW DR. HARRIS INSTRUCTED TO HOLD POST MORTEM.

Knowlton, April 1:—(Special.) — The inquest on the body of the newly born male infant found on a snow bank beside the railway track about one-quarter of a mile from this station on Friday was opened by D. Fuller, acting as coroner owing to the illness of Coroner Cutter.

High Constable Boisvert was instructed to summon a jury. He was sworn as follows: Robert McElroy, Louis L. Ledoux, Henry Mizener, Martin Hunt, Paul Gingras, L. E. Smith, Albert Gingras, George Robb, J. H. Tibbitts, George Wilson and H. Rubbee. After viewing the body and the spot where it was found the jury adjourned until April 2nd at 10 o'clock. Dr. Harris was instructed to hold a post mortem.

The body weighs between 9 and 10 pounds, and it is believed that the infant was thrown from a passing train.

The child was first discovered by Mr. James Gelens and Almond Stanhope, who were walking along the track when they came across the body of the child lying in a snow bank.

Doctor Says

Some time ago we showed the formula of Kimo Tablets to a doctor of many years experience.

The other day he wrote us a letter. Doctor-like, he doesn't wish his name published, but says we may publish the letter. Here it is:

Messrs. B. N. Robinson & Co., Coaticook.

Gentlemen,—I have carefully examined the formula of your Kimo Tablets. They contain the active principles of the best known remedies for rheumatism. The Japanese solvent is something new. I have never seen it in the formula of any other remedy. I was so impressed with the combination that I decided to use the tablets myself, as I had a bad attack of rheumatism. I must admit that the one box you gave me did me more good than any other remedy I have ever used. The Japanese solvent, with the other ingredients, makes a really effective combination.

M.D.

As the doctor says, it is the Japanese solvent which makes Kimo Tablets so effective.

This solvent dissolves the granules which settles around the joints and muscles and cause the disease.

If you suffer from rheumatism, remember relief is possible.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT NOTICE.

To the citizens of Sherbrooke:

Owing to the long, severe winter, garbage and other refuse matter has been allowed to accumulate in more or less quantities.

While the sanitary by-laws are explicit and imperative and will be rigidly enforced, at the same time the hearty co-operation on the part of all landowners and householders is more desirable. Therefore all proprietors or occupants are hereby required to carefully clean up their respective yards, outbuildings and cellars at once, before the snow and ice entirely disappear.

All matters of a combustible nature must be deposited at the Incinerator for destruction by fire. Non-combustible material must be kept separate and taken to the dump at No. 3 Fire Station on King street. Any carter or other person found dumping refuse matter of any kind whatsoever, at any other place, and particularly on or alongside any highway in the city, will be prosecuted as the law directs.

By order of the Board of Health.
30th March, 1907.

EASTER SUNDAY.

"'Tis the spring of souls to-day,
Christ has burst his prison,
And from three days' sleep in death,
As a sun, hath risen.
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark is flying
From his light, to whom we give,
Laud and praise undying."

Easter is one of the greatest festivals of the Christian year, and from the earliest times has been celebrated with joy and gladness.

It comes appropriately in the early spring, when nature herself is teaching the story of the Resurrection; when the frozen earth relaxes and the bare branches of the trees hide the buds which will soon burst open; when after the long winter a new springtime visits the earth. The great festival was observed in the city churches with joyful services, triumphant music, and beautiful decorations, while from every pulpit the story of the Resurrection with its comfort and hope was told once more.

Large congregations were in evidence.

The 11 o'clock service at St. Peter's Church began with the processional hymn, "Christ, the Lord, is risen today," and in place of the Venite, "Christ, our Passover," was sung by the large choir, the proper Psalms being also sung. Westbury's Te Deum, and the anthem, "Jesus Christ is Risen," were finely rendered. The Jubilate was sung to an Anglican chant, and ringing Easter hymns completed the musical portion of the service. At all three celebrations of the day, the Rector was assisted by Rev. Dr. Parrock, of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, who preached from the text, "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain," 1st Corinthians, 15, 14. In the evening, the Rector preached a sermon appropriate to the day, and the anthem of the morning, "Jesus Christ is Risen," was repeated.

At St. Michael's Cathedral Pontifical high mass was celebrated at 10 a.m., preceded by the usual low masses. The Bishop who wore robes of white and gold, with mitre and crozier, was assisted by Mgr. Tanguay, the Abbes F. V. Charest and A. Mattais as deacon, and sub-deacon of honor, and the Abbes Lemay and Biron, as deacon and sub-deacon of office. The Abbe Chartier acted as master of ceremonies. An eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. Father Roy, parish priest, on the "Proofs of the Resurrection." The music, under the leadership of Prof. O. Cartier and Mr. L. E. Codere, organist, was very fine, Darchambeau's mass (harmonized, in three parts), was rendered, the solos being taken by J. Tetu, Robt. Bachand, Stanislas Lamoureux and Arsene Begin. At the offertory, Regina Coeli (T. Dubois), was given.

At all the other churches of the city the usual elaborate Easter services took place, with special musical programmes appropriate to the day.

Sherbrooke.

The Richmond Guardian remarks: The location of the Cavalry Camp has not yet been settled, Sherbrooke, which was the favored location at first, is a difficulty with the Government in connection with the camp held there last summer; that the military authorities sought for a site elsewhere, Richmond was recommended, but the decision was not arrived at, and now the City Council are moving in the matter. Our ambitious metropolis wants the earth, and generally succeeds in getting it by slices."

Mrs. G. Gelinas and her daughter, Mrs. Arcade Gelinas, and her son from Louis du Mile End, Montreal, are visiting at Mr Edmond Gauthier's for Easter holiday.

THAW A MATCH FOR JEROME.

District Attorney Could Not Rattle Him.

DIRECTLY QUESTIONED BY COMMISSION AND THEN CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. JEROME.

New York, April 1—The plans of the Thaw lunacy commission to complete its work and to submit a report to Justice Fitzgerald on Monday morning as to the present mental condition of the slayer of Stanford White, were upset late Saturday by an appeal by District Attorney Jerome to be allowed to produce more witnesses before the commission reaches a decision. After an all day session the commission adjourned until next Tuesday morning, when it will hear experts called by the district attorney. Chairman McClure served notice, however, that the witnesses must confine themselves to the facts and opinions which deal with the present condition of Thaw, and must not go into details of his past or future.

Thaw was under direct examination by the commissioners for more than three hours Saturday, and then for forty-five minutes he was under cross-examination by District Attorney Jerome. This cross-examination was allowed by the commission only after a vehement protest by the prosecuting officer that he had not been allowed sufficient latitude in the enquiry. Seizing his first opportunity of interrogating the defendant, Mr. Jerome attempted to go into Thaw's past life, but objections to this line of questioning by Thaw's counsel were sustained by the commission which held the district attorney to the direct issue before it—whether Thaw is capable of understanding the character of the proceedings against him and of rationally advising his counsel.

Thaw's attorneys expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with the final stages of their client's examination. Altogether he was on the stand about six hours, counting Thursday's session of the commission. Mr. Jerome's cross-examination the attorneys declared, did not shake Thaw in the least. Mr. Jerome declined to discuss the hearings in any way whatever. He seemed much disappointed, however, over the ruling which shut out Dr. Hamilton's testimony, the physician having already gone on record as saying that Thaw is a paranoic with but slight chance of recovery.

MET A HORRIBLE DEATH.

HALIFAX SHIP WORKER'S HEAD CUT OFF BY WIRE ROPE.

Halifax, N. S., April 1. — George Austin, of Halifax, met with a horrible death on board the steamer Askehall, at the Furness wharf yesterday morning. The steamer was discharging cargo, work having begun at midnight after the Sunday rest. Austin put his hand on the wire runner of the steam winch, and, in some way, became entangled in the machinery. He was instantly dropped in and his head completely severed by the wire rope. A few minutes before, Austin had been heard to say, as he stood on the wharf, that he was sick and would go home, but he changed his mind and went to work. It was the very first lift of the night that killed the poor fellow. Austin was single and about 20 years old.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE PRAISE PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

A Marvellous and Triumphant Record of Victory Over Disease.

No medicine has ever effected as large a number of wonderful and almost marvellous cures as Psychine. It has had one continuous record of victories over diseases of the throat, chest, lungs and stomach. Where doctors have pronounced cases incurable from consumption and other wasting diseases Psychine steps in and rescues numberless people even from the very verge of the grave. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Chills, Night Sweats, La Grippe, Pneumonia, and other like troubles, all of which are forerunners of Consumption, yield quickly to the curative powers of Psychine.

Mrs. Campbell, one of the many cured, makes the following statement:

I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery with Psychine. In April, 1902, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased, my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, Port Elgin Presbyterian Church, recommended Dr. Slocum's Psychine to me, when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased.

Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health and to-day I never felt better in my life. Psychine has been a godsend to me. MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL,
Cottonwood, N.W.T.

PSYCHINE never disappoints.
PSYCHINE has no substitute.
There is no other medicine "Just as good."

THE ROGUE'S STRATAGEM.
(From the London Globe.)

A queer comedy of cheating is now causing much amusement in Paris. A laborer named Bedasne, living at Ymonville, in the Eure et Loir, went to Melum with two pounds in his pocket. Having spent this for liquor, he conceived the idea of getting on to Paris for nothing. Finding an empty third-class compartment, he fastened a flannel belt round his neck, stuffed a handkerchief into his mouth, pitched his empty purse on the opposite seat, and, lying down, first had a sleep and then when Paris was reached, refused to give any sign of life till the alarmed station staff poured a cordial into his mouth. Then he was taken to a hospital where he told a story of being attacked by three men, but police questions becoming too difficult, he at last related his stratagem and was haled from his sick bed to prison.

Messrs. In a few days a presentation is expected to be made to the members, who by their strenuous work and skilful mastery of the game, have brought the much coveted trophy back to the East.

The annual meeting of the patrons of the creamery took place last week. Mr. Chas. Vosburg read the reports of last year's business, which showed: From March 1st, 1906, to March 1st, 1907, number of lbs. of milk received, 1,750,211; number lbs. butter made, 76,518; amount received for butter, $16,977.62; paid to patrons, $14,800.46; paid for making butter, $2,051.96; other expenses, such as Secretary-Treasurer's salary, telephone, envelopes, Government inspector, etc., $125.70; milk average per lb. of butter, 22.87; average price to patrons per 100 lbs. of milk, 84½c. The appointment of the Secretary-Treasurer is left with the proprietor, and it is quite probable that Mr. Collins will be engaged. Mr. S. B. Derick was re-engaged for the hauling of the butter to the station, at the same price as last year, 3½c. per box. J. Abery, H. Derick, Frank Vosburg and M. McCallum were appointed a committee. Mr. Chas. Vosburg was appointed Auditor at a salary not exceeding $1.50 per year. Discussion ensued as to how the butter would be sold. The factory suffered a loss last year through the failure of a concern in Montreal. Nothing was definitely decided regarding this matter, but adequate precautions will be taken as to the disposal of the butter.

IN THE LAST WALTZ

By BEATRICE STURGES

Copyright, 1906, by Ruby Douglas

Even a careless glance around the room showed that it was the last. The throng of dancers was thinning out, flowers were drooping, scraps of confetti strewed the floor, frills and flounces were looking a bit bedraggled, and a subtle somnolence marked the languid movements of the dancers, who were now circling the floor to the throbbing strains of the old but ever-loved "Blue Danube."

In one corner of the room stood a girl with pink cheeks and hazel eyes. Around her were four young men all claiming the same dance. Laughingly she held up her card, which showed a blank line opposite that number.

"Yes, I know," said one in reply to this, "you wouldn't let me write my name, but you promised just the same."

"Exactly," said another.

"Same here," ejaculated the fourth.

"Well, I'll tell you," said the girl in a confidential manner that made each man think she meant him especially.

"Yes?" they asked in concert.

"Let's all sit it out together."

"No," argued the man who thought he had the inside track; "let's take turns. I'll begin." And he started to suit the action to his word.

"No, you don't," objected the others, holding him forcibly. "We'd never see her again."

"My private opinion is that she gave it to somebody who hasn't shown up and she's really waiting for him," laughed one.

Some of the color left the pink cheeks. Could they have guessed how near the truth his jesting remark came? Why had she not slipped away before this last waltz, which she had purposely withheld all the evening? As a matter of fact, she had promised it two weeks ago, but much had happened in those two weeks, and now—well, no one should laugh at her or say she was breaking her heart for a man who didn't care for her. If she only could get through this waltz safely she thought she would have courage enough for anything else.

"The idea!" she exclaimed with a little laugh, shifting her big bunch of pink roses to her left arm; "I'll dance it with all of you. I love the 'Blue Danube' and I never miss it."

She stood ready and the first of the four was just about to swing her off into the throng when a tall young man with a clean cut jaw and steady blue eyes somehow stepped out of the crowd, disengaged his arm with a quiet "This is my dance," and swept the girl away before any of the rest of them could say a word.

"THIS IS MY DANCE."

"How could you?" she protested. "I didn't want to dance."

"You looked ready to start," he retorted. "Besides, didn't you promise me two weeks ago?"

"Yes, but"—

"Then don't spoil it now. It's the same old tune, Marian, that we've danced to so often. The same old throb and the same old thrill, and I suppose it will always bring the same old ache. It will always make me think of you." He held her hand closer.

She flushed painfully. "Please don't," she whispered. "It isn't fair, Fred, and you know you don't mean it."

"Don't mean it? You ought to know that I have meant every word I have ever said to you."

She gave a bitter little laugh and looked over his shoulder with unseeing eyes. "I wonder then if you could explain to me just what you meant that night, two weeks ago, when you too made a promise, a promise that seemed to me a little more important than a waltz. Not only a promise, but an offer that seemed to me then very sincere and beautiful, and which I accepted, but I haven't seen you since and I heard yesterday that you were going away. Why did you come for this dance in this way tonight? Did you want to make a spectacle of me before them all?"

He looked at her in amazement and almost ran into another couple. "But I went to see you the next day and you were not at home, nor the next, nor the next, and you did not answer my note. What was I to think? Only that it was a pleasant evening's flirtation for you. Then unexpectedly I had this opportunity to go west to work with my uncle and it was too good to refuse, especially when there was nothing to keep me here. So I have bought my ticket and am going tomorrow. I did not mean to come to this affair tonight, but when I thought of this waltz I was determined to have it, so I came to say goodby."

"Oh, it is cruel to tell me this now," she exclaimed. "I saw you go driving past our house with some girl I didn't know, so naturally I went out myself for the afternoon."

"It was a friend of Sister Clara's I was taking to the station," he interrupted.

"Then the next two days I had to go see Aunt Julia, who was ill. Nobody told me that you came; I wasn't going to ask, and I never got any note."

"I put it in the box on the big elm in your front yard myself."

"We haven't used that box in years," she answered. "You couldn't very well expect me to write and ask you if you had written to me, could you?"

"Well, could you expect me to write again to you and ask you if you were going to write to me?" he retorted.

"What was in the note?" she asked, by way of reply.

He looked down on the wavy brown hair, caught a glimpse of the pink cheeks and the white neck rising from a soft pink gown.

"The same thing I told you before, Marian, the same thing this music tells you, the same thing your own heart tells you—I love you."

The whole room seemed to sway with the rhythm of the music then, the odor of her crushed roses filled the air, the painful tension of the past two weeks was gone, a delicious sweetness seemed to settle on her heart. She felt his eyes upon her, though she had not raised hers.

"Look up, dear," he said; "look up if you love me."

The hazel eyes were raised to his.

"Sweetheart," she whispered through her quivering lips.

And the waltz was over.

* * * * * * * *

They walked home slowly under a full moon. One of her pink roses had found its way to his coat and her hand was clasped in his.

Under the shadow of the big trees of her yard she paused.

"About going west"— she began tentatively.

"I must, right away," he answered, "but I'm coming to see you first. Mind you're at home tomorrow."

"But your ticket?"

"I'll change it for next week if you'll go with me."

She hesitated. "Make it two weeks and I will," she replied.

"Done!" And he kissed her to seal the promise.

"Dear," she whispered, "wasn't it a lovely waltz?"
