PRESIDENT WILSON CHANGES ATTITUDE TOWARD HUERTA

Will Welcome a Reopening of Negotiations with Federals or Constitutionalists with a View of Restoring Peace

Washington, March 19—The United States government will welcome a re-opening of negotiations with the Huerta government or the Constitutionalists and will be glad to consider any proposal that will tend to draw the various factions together into a plan for the restoration of peace in Mexico.

This is the attitude of President Wilson, as it was revealed today after reports reached here saying Senor Portillo Y Rojas, Minister for Foreign Affairs in the Huerta Cabinet, had gone to meet John Lind, Mr. Wilson's personal representative, to seek a resumption of the peace parleys. Senor Rojas has been mentioned as the man who would succeed Huerta, if he retired, and the object of the visit to Mr. Lind, it has been reported, was to acquaint the President's envoy with his personality. Incidentally, the President, in talking with callers today, while remarking that he had no official report of any new parleys, spoke in complimentary terms of the Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs as a man of high character.

What He Emphasizes.

What the President emphasizes in his formal discussions on the Mexican situation is that he, as President of the United States, has never sought to approve or disapprove of individuals who may aspire to the Presidency of Mexico, and that he has no list of men whom he holds under so-called ban because of alleged complicity in the assassination of Madero. His refusal to recognize Huerta, it may be stated on the highest authority, was not based on any personal antagonism to Huerta, but on the ground that the Constitutionalists would never be reconciled to the man who had overthrown Madero and Suarez, and that governments set up by arbitrary force and not reflecting the popular will should not be dealt with by the United States.

Drawing Factions Together.

Likewise, in the consideration of individuals who might seek the recognition by the United States, the principle President Wilson has been working on is that recognition extended to any one set up in the Presidency without some popular expression or without the endorsement of all factions could not lead to peace. In considering peace proposals from the Huerta government, the United States, it is known now, will do all that it can to forward a peaceful settlement, but the conviction is as strong with the President today as it was when he sent his instructions to John Lind last summer, that peace in Mexico in the last analysis is dependent upon terms that will be acceptable alike to the Constitutionalists and the Huerta administration. He recognizes that the value of all proposals depends upon how far such plans seek to draw the Mexican factions together in common agreement upon a provisional president who can convoke elections, or rehabilitate the government machinery in a way that would be endorsed by the Mexican populace generally.

Commission Suggested.

One of the suggestions made to President Wilson lately contemplates the sending of a commission of Americans of prominence to investigate conditions in Mexico. Unofficial reports have had it that both Caranza and Huerta would receive such a commission. President Wilson is carefully considering the suggestion, said to have been made originally by Oscar S. Straus, former ambassador to Turkey, and prominent in the cause of the world peace. The President, it is known, would be glad to send such a commission, if it could assist the Mexican factions in arriving at an agreement, but it is believed he feels that actual peace proposals must necessarily originate with the Mexican factions, and that unless the commission were invited to go to Mexico, its errand would fe fruitless, mediation of the same sort having previously been rejected by both Mexican factions.

LOCKWELL SAYS HE WANTS AN INQUIRY

DOES NOT FEAR THE RESULT —CALLS CANNON'S CHARGES BIG BLUFF.

That a civic inquiry will be instituted into the charges made against Ald. Lockwell by Ald. Cannon, and the counter charges made by Ald. Lockwell now seems a certainity.

At all events Ald. Lockwell informed the Chronicle last night that he will insist at the meeting of the City Council on an inquiry being instituted

Ald. Lockwell said that the last charges which were made by Ald. Cannon were bigger bluffs than the Boivin affair. He said that he had already openly declared that during the past three years the Fire Department had given out contracts for more than two hundred thousand dollars, and he defied any contractor or anyone else to come and show that a single cent of the money had not been properly applied.

He reiterated that he would insist on an inquiry, and that he did not fear the result.

PROTESTANT AND CATHOLIC QUARREL

BIRTHPLACE OF ST. PATRICK STARTS DISPUTE BETWEEN VICAR AND PRIEST

Kingston, Ont., March 19—"Historical falsehoods, is the characterization by Rev. Father McNeill, of St. Mary's Cathedral staff, of the pulpit utterances by Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald, vicar of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Kingston, with regard to the birth place of St. Patrick. The latter retorts by calling the Reverend Father's remarks "puerile utterances" and he challenges the priest to a public discussion of Roman Catholic doctrine.

C.N.R. WANTS BOND GUARANTEE FOR FIFTY MILLIONS

Such Is Amount Said to Be Required to Put Railway on Its Feet Again.

G. T. P. ASKS MONEY, TOO

Fifteen Millions Is Reported to Be Extent of Aid Which They Require.

Ottawa, March 19—That the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is after Government financial aid, presumably in the form of a bond guarantee and to the amount of fifteen millions, is the statement made here tonight on high authority. It is not believed that there has been a direct application placed with the Government for this amount, but tentative overtures have been made which are the prelude to an application. Last year, it will be remembered the G. T. P. got a large loan when the Canadian Northern secured a subsidy.

Canadian Northern Case.

It may be stated as accurate that the Canadian Northern is out for a bond guarantee as near fifty millions as it can secure. It may have to take less and be content but the opinion of these around the House best informed on the situation is that an amount between forty and fifty millions is required to put the MacKenzie and Mann railway upon its feet. This is the proposition now before the Government.

The Dominion Government is taking steps to learn the opinion of the various provinces on the question of further aid and to examine to what extent they are financially interested in it. The fact that nearly every province has granted aid in subsidies, loans or guaranteeing of bonds, complicates the situation considerably in being dealt with here.

Intercolonial Also

The Government is also decidedly anxious that, if at all possible, its own railway, the Intercolonial, shall obtain some benefit out of the readjustment of tre Canadian Railway situation and it is generally believed that, as far as the G. N. R. is concerned, there will be an arrangement arrived at providing for certain interchange of business between the two lines.

MORNING BLAZE ON VALIER STREET

BREAKS OUT IN GROCERY STORE OF MESSRS. HAMEL AND BEDARD.

Just as the Chronicle was going to press this morning a fire broke out in the basement of the grocery store of Messrs. Hamel and Bedard, 728 St. Valier street, and spread with tremendous rapidity, quickly gaining such headway that it communicated with the adjoining building which is occupied by Misses Bernier and Ouellet, milliners.

An alarm from box 92 summoned one section of the brigade and this was quickly followed by another call as it was seen that the blaze would be a serious one.

The families residing over the store of Messrs. Hamel and Bedard succeeded in escaping without injury, but all their household goods will be destroyed.

At the time of writing the blaze is raging with increasing fury, and gives every menace of extending its ravages despite the efforts of the firemen to combat it and prevent its spread.

The damage so far is heavy.

DORCHESTER CO.'S PLANT INADEQUATE FOR CITY LIGHTING

Expert's Report Suggests Necessary Changes to Comply With Contract Requirements

NEED LARGER STATION

City Council Calls on Company to Conform With the Report by July 1.

That the present equipment of the Dorchester Electric Company, which has the contract for the City lighting, is inadequate to assure the lighting service of the City as well as that of its other customers, was brought out at the meeting of the Civic Road Committee at the City Hall last night in the report of Mr. L. A. Herdt, expert electrical engineer, who was employed by the City last Autumn to make a complete inspection of the Dorchester Company's plant and general equipment and to report to the City.

Last Autumn when there were many complaints relative to the lighting of the City, the Council resolved to have a thorough inspection made of the system and Mr. Herdt, was employed to carry out the work. Besides showing the deficiences which exist Mr. Herdt also pointed out how it could be ameliorated, and Mayor Drouin submitted a resolution which was afterwards passed on motion of Ald. Gibsone, by which the company is instructed to carry out the necessary improvements and to conform to the conditions of the contract with the City by the 1st of July, next.

The following is a summary of Mr. Herdt's report:

"The present installation of the Dorchester Electric Company is insufficient to assure the electric service for the City of Quebec as well as that of the other customers.

"In the contract passed between the City of Quebec and the Dorchester Electric Company, the company undertook to maintain a reserve power of 1800 h.p., (clause 50 of the contract.) The present installation consists of two steam unities of 1,000 horse power each. These with a reserve installation of 1,800 horse power would evidently be sufficient to assure the electrical service which is now required. But this reserve does not exist. It is most necessary to exact that the company, in order to assure the continuation of the electric service, increase the capacity of its present plant by the following:

"1—A third unity of not less than 750 k. w. or 1,000 h. p.

"2—Not less than two boilers of 250 h. p. each.

"3—Pump, condenser, etc., for this additional unity.

"4—Two transformers of 4 amperes for arc ligh service of 50 lamps.

"5—If lamps of 100 and 80 watts are exacted for the ornamental lights in the streets, four other current regulators of 20 K. V. A. are necessary with the present regulators to operate the arc lamps of the city.

"Moreover, one or two reserve regulators should be installed.

"6—If lamps of 100 and 80 watts (of 6.6 amperes are installed in place of the lights of 4 ampere lamps, the 12 regulators at present installed but modified for current of 6.6 amperes may assure the service.

"This increase of capacity of the central station will necessitate the enlargement of the present building.

"It is evident that if the different electrical services of the city are increased, it will be necessary to proportionately increase the equipment of the central station.

"L. A. HERDT."

Quebec, March 17th, 1914.

The committee then passed the following resolution on motion of Ald. Gibsone:

"That a copy of Mr. L. A. Herdt's report dated February 7th, 1914, be sent to the Dorcrester Electric Company, with instructions to the said company to conform to the said report from now until the 1st of July next and from now until that date to carry out the works and ameliorations mentioned in the said report, in order to be in a position to fulfil the obligations of their contract with the City dated January 28th, 1912.

"That in future, the City will pay for each ornamental lighting cluster the sum of $33.64 a year, instead of $43.50 as mentioned in the contract, in view of the fact that the city furnished lamps of 61.2 watts and 80 watts instead of 80 watts and 100 watts, as exacted in the contract, and this for such time as the said company will not have conformed to this clause of their contract; the City reserves all recourse that it may have against the said company for the surplus which by this fact it has paid since the beginning of the contract and that copies be sent to the Dorchester Electric Company and to the company in guaranty.

"After the report had been read Ald. Lockwell, who was present, although not a member of the Road Committee, complimented the Mayor on having had the inspection made. He said that all that he had sought for the past two years was a report such as this. He had absolutely nothing against the Dorchester Company, its directors or its shareholders, and his sole object was to see that the taxpayers received what they paid for.

EYE WITNESSES OF ARNOLD MURDER TELL THEIR STORY

Plum Coulee Man Recites Graphic Tale of the Shooting of Bank Manager.

MURDERER WORE MASK

Banker Caught Hold of Robber From Behind When He Ran After Him.

Morden, Man., March 19—Evidence was given by eyewitnesses of sections of the Plum Coulee tragedy, who were placed on the witness stand today by the Crown Prosecutor, W. H. Hastings, in the case against John Krafchenko, charged with the murder of H. M. Arnold, and with the robbery of the Bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee.

After disposing of the photographer and surveyor, who respectively identified photographs and plans bearing on the Plum Coulee affair, the Crown celled John Weibe, of Plum Coulee, a Mennonite.

According to his evidence, Weibe had been on the point of entering the bank at the time of the crime, and through the doorway had seen the back of a man who was facing Arnold. He could see Arnold, with two hands above his head. Arnold said something which Weibe did not understand, but interpreted to mean that he was not wanted in the bank, and accordingly went down the street. He had proceeded but a few yards when he turned and saw a man wearing a dark overcoat, dash out of the bank and walk very quickly around the corner, followed instantly by the bank manager. When the fugitive fled around the corner Weibe noticed something like a revolver in his left hand. Witness turned toward the bank again and heard a shot. He crossed the road and saw Arnold lying on an ash pile. The other man stepped over Arnold's prostrate form and stooped to gather up some money he had dropped in his flight. He then turned and ran to the automobile which awaited him about a block away.

J. D. Suffield, counsel for Krafchenko, cross-examined Weibe, but both cross-examination and the preceding examination by Mr. Hastings were much delayed by the Court interpreter being unfamiliar with the peculiar dialect Weibe used. Another interpreter was called in, and experienced the same difficulty and finally Dr. McTavish, a witness who will later appear, was sworn in as interpreter. His residence in Plum Coulee had familiarized him with dialects such as Weibe's.

Picked Up Money.

Weibe's cross-examination concluded, Cornelius Thiesen was called. Thiesen had seen the bank manager chase the man in the dark overcoat, who came out of the bank, had seen the manager suddenly fall and then heard a crack, which he believes was the firing of a shot. The man in black, he said, had turned back and from around the prostrate body of the stricken banker had gathered up paper money which was scattered on the ground, resting one hand on Arnold.

The manager had called "help" once. The man had then run down the lane and he had seen that his face was "masked.". Asked why he said "masked" the witness stated that he was "masked from below up to his nose." Asked as to the material the mask was made of witness said "it looked hairy." Referring back witness said the banker caught hold of the man from behind, putting his arms around the man's body. At this time he did not see if Arnold or the man had anything in their hands. "He did not notice quickly enough."

The court then adjourned.

WANT WATERWAYS FROM LAKES TO THE OCEAN.

Guelph, Ont., March 19—A monster delegation will wait on the Dominion Government on Thursday, the 26th instant, from the Great Waterways Union and the Hydro-Electric Radial Railway Union, to urge upon the government these three important projects, a waterway for ocean-going vessels via the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes to Port Arthur and Fort William increased power for the Hydro-Electric Power Commission in the Niagara District; and a subsidy of $6,4400 a mile from the Federal Government to assist in building Hydro-Electric railways.

The usual railway subsidy is to be demanded for Hydro-Electric railways to be built by the power commission.

MUCH TO INDICATE THE ULSTER CRISIS HAS BEEN REACHED

Government Is Said To Be Preparing For The Military Occupation of That Province---Carson Not Arrested

London, March 20—Grave events are impending in Ulster, according to the Unionist newspapers, and a rumor is current that the government is preparing for the military occupation of the province. There are various indications that a crisis has been reached.

Vote of Censure.

The vote of censure on the British government, which was moved in the House of Commons yesterday, by Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition was rejected 345 to 252. Arthur J. Balfour, summoned by Mr. Bonar Law, made a hurried return from the Riviera and arrived in London in time to participate in the division.

Carson Off to Belfast.

There were reports also of the threatened arrest of Sir Edward Carson and other leaders of the Ulster Unionists, but it was officially declared that there was no truth in the statement that warrants has been signed for such arrests. Sir Edward Carson, however, made a dramatic exit from the House before the debate was concluded, to catch a train for Belfast.

Cannot Hold Ulstermen.

Austen Chamberlain declared last night that Sir Edward had been called away in response to sudden developments in Ireland. Other Unionists asserted that the Ulstermen can no longer be restrained from an outbreak and that Sir Edward's mission is to endeavor to hold them in check.

Blood May be Spilt.

The Daily Telegraph's lobbyist says:

"Unless all omens are false, blood will be spilt in Ulster before the House of Commons sees Sir Edward Carson again."

The Marquis of Londonderry and other prominent Ulsterites are now on their way to Belfast, and their action is regarded as a challenge to the government, if as asserted, any intention exists to issue warrants for their arrests.

The view of both Liberal and Unionist morning papers is that after yesterday's debate all chances of settlement by consent are ended and the Home Rule Bill will be passed in its original entirety.

It is said that the government has assured the Nationalist leaders that Mr. Bonar Law's referendum offer will not be accepted.

STEAMER IS SUNK BY TORPEDO BOAT; FIFTY ARE DROWNED

VICTIMS IN ITALIAN DISASTER INCLUDED MANY WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Venice, March 19—A torpedo boat today cut down a small passenger steamer which plies between Venice and Lido, a chain of sandy islands separating the Lagoon of Venice from the Adriatic, and fifty persons were drowned. The sharp nose of the torpedo boat went through the stern of the steamer, which sank almost immediately. The victims included many women and children.

Fifteen persons who were on deck at the time were saved by the crew of the torpedo boat. The others were caught in the cabin and were carried down with the wreck. The Italian sailors dived many times in an effort to rescue those who sank with the steamer, but without avail.

Intense excitement prevails here, not only because of the extent of the disaster, but because the names of the victims are not yet known.

"Publicity," said the Oracle, "is the keynote of business. It's the real spring that opens the cash register. You can't get along in any line without advertising. If you try to, you'll be like a fellow I know who tried to take up the collection in church without a basket so well padded that the money wouldn't make a noise even if you shook it. He had to shake the basket altogether finally—the pastor was starving. You see he was so quiet about it, the people didn't notice him—he had to advertise. Well, au revoir. Going to be softer today."

We know how much advertisment is needed—and we know that even our

CIGARETTT-SMOKING.

The Government has appointed a commission to study the question of cigarette-smoking. While it is, we are sure, animated by the best motives in so doing, we doubt very much whether the commission will be responsible for any great changes. To enforce the laws which already exist would be more to the point.

We have no intention of defending the cigarette fiend who is as odious as all others whose appetites are immoderate. But why should there be a discrimination against the cigarette-smoker particularly? Why propose to eradicate a certain form or manifestation of an alleged vice rather than the root of the vice itself? Why attack cigarette-smoking rather than smoking generally? The man who drinks one sort of intoxicant is equally as culpable as the man who drinks another.

One man desires to smoke and he smokes a cigar because he does not like a pipe or a cigarette. Another man will be contented only with a pipe. Another man will have nothing but cigarettes. A fourth will smoke all three. There are refined, virtuous, energetic and intelligent men who smoke cigarettes and there are depraved, sluggish and brutalized men who smoke only cigars. Likewise there are men of the strictest integrity who smoke cigars, and undiluted villains who are addicted to cigarettes, while all sorts and conditions of men suck at a pipe.

The same phenomenon is presented in the case of non-smokers. There are sincere, upright Christian men who do not smoke, and there is a multitude of men who, while they have no relish for smoking, are given to habits of sensuality and vice.

There is no reason to cast opprobrium upon the cigarette-smoker merely because he is a cigarette-smoker. Cigarette smoking does not necessarily conduce to an inordinate and insatiable appetite for that form of smoking. Innate mental instability probably accounts for the cigarette fiend just as it does for the religious maniac or the kleptomaniac.

There are, perhaps, more deaths from over-eating than almost any other cause. The same man who reviles the abstemious cigarette-smoker, perhaps habitually bolts his food with the avidity and rapacity of a wild beast. Perhaps he chews gum. Will the Government appoint a commission to inquire whether the endless jaw-wagging and facial contortion incidental to this form of exercise have any tendency to be productive of imbecility or derange anyone's gastronomical gear?

TAXATION EXEMPTION.

It may be interesting to point out that the value of unassessed or untaxed property in this city, according to the returns for 1912-1913, amounts to nearly $13,000,000, against $55,265,124 which pays taxes. It is probably that in reality these unassessed properties are estimated at far below their real value and they apparently do not include exemptions granted to new industries, etc. What they do include is property owned by religious institutions, and by the Federal and Local Governments.

Naturally, where the population is so largely composed of Catholics, the Catholic institutions which are exempt are in the majority, their total value being put at $6,722,960. Of this more than half, $3,618,400 to be exact, is in Palace Ward where the following are the principal items: Seminary and Laval University, $3,000,000; Hotel Dieu and dependencies, $200,000; Basilica, $150,000; Hotel Dieu, new building, $120,000; St. Patrick's, $75,000; Mercy Hospital, $50,000.

Considerable items in other wards are: Ursuline Convent, $300,000; St. Patrick's Cemetery, $100,000; Franciscan Missionary Sisters, $99,000; Good Shepherd Convent, $232,800; Merici Convent, $160,000; St. Jean Baptiste Church, $140,000; Sisters of Charity, $232,000; Sisters of Nazareth, $100,000; Patronage and Chapel, $80,000; Notre Dame Convent and dependencies, $100,000; St. Roch's Church, $200,000; Good Shepherd (St. Roch), $125,000; St. Sauveur Church, $105,000.

Protestant institutions are responsible for a total of $772,000. This includes the Jeffery Hale and dependencies, $215,000; St. Matthew's Church and Cemetery, $135,000; Chalmer's Church, $28,800; English Cathedral, $80,000; Methodist Church, $50,000; Salvation Army, $20,000; W. C. A., $29,000; Boys' High School, $20,000; Ladies' Protestant Home, $32,000; Female Orphan Asylum, $16,000; Victoria School, $36,000.

Federal Government property is put at $2,814,100. Among the items are: $504,500 for the National Battlefields property; King's wharf and stores, $100,000; Examining Warehouse, $80,000; Post Office, $100,000; Post Office (St. Roch), $75,000; Citadel and Dependencies, $1,00,000; Custom House, $275,000; Officers Quarters, $40,000; Laboratory and Grounds, $32,000; Observatory and Towers, $60,000; Dominion Arsenal, $300,000; Drill Hall and Riding School, $180,000.

The Provincial Government is responsible for property valued at $2,662,000. This is made up as follows: Parliament Buildings, $1,500,000; Court House, $500,000; Jail, etc., $300,000; School of Arts, $12,000; Technical School, $350,000.

The above figures will give an idea of the amount of unassessed property in Quebec and of the extra burden which the tax-payers are carrying.

CANNOT DENY THESE THINGS.

The Liberal organs are trying to discredit the report made on the N. T. R. by Messrs. Lynch-Staunton and Gutelius and are denying everything. But there are cartain things which cannot be denied.

It cannot be denied that Sir Wilfrid represented to parliament that the cost to the country of this railway would be only twelve or thirteen million dollars. Here are his words—July 30, 1903: "The whole of the liability which is incurred by the Government for the building of that section from Moncton to Winnipeg is simply seven years of interest. The sum total of the money to be paid by the Government for the construction of that line of railway from Moncton to the Pacific Ocean, will be in the neighborhood of twelve or thirteen million dollars, and not a cent more. Now, sir, what is thirteen millions in the year 1903? It is about the surplus of our revenue over the expenditure. The surplus for this year will pay for the construction of this road."

It cannot be denied that the Hon. A. G. Blair, minister of railways, who had been Premier of New Brunswick in the course of the same debate, emphatically condemned the whole scheme, and particularly the duplication of the Intercolonial Railway, the difference with his chief leading to his resignation from the cabinet. Referring to Sir Wilfrid's speech, he said: "He did not tell us the need of jumping headlong into a scheme of this kind. He did not tell us that he had summoned to his assistance the wisest counsel the country afforded: he did not tell us he had sought the assistance of experts in order to know what were the traffic conditions which would make their railway justifiable. * * * I cannot help feeling that it is a condition of sentimental exaltation that has inspired the hurry and haste with which this measure is pressed forward. I cannot help feeling that it is rather a condition of hysteria than of calm reason and judgment. * * * My quarrel with the government, so far as the portion of the undertaking is concerned (the Quebec-Moncton line), rests almost entirely upon the consideration that they are plunging headlong into this thing in a most unwise, injudicious and unbusinesslike way, when, by a little pause, we might be put in possession of facts which would justify us in proceeding. * * * I venture the opinion that there is no new railway which can be laid out in the province of New Brunswick which can reach St. John under as favorable conditions as the Intercolonial."

It cannot be denied that the Hon. Mr. Fielding, on a later occasion, placed the cost of the railway at $61,415,000.

It cannot be denied that Mr. Hays, as President of the Grand Trunk Railway, looking forward to the time when his company would have to pay interest on the cost of the Transcontinental, repeatedly brought to the notice of the Government the extravagant and wasteful manner in which it was being constructed, and that, beyond formal acknowledgment and delay, no heed was paid to his remonstrances.

It cannot be denied that on June 25, 1909, Mr. Hugh D. Lumsden, Chief Engineer of the Transcontinental, resigned because he could not certify to progress estimates, and because he had lost confidence in the engineering staff.

It cannot be denied that if the example of other railways had been followed, of building lightly at first, and gradually making permanent improvements afterwards, and if the contracts had been let to the men who were going to do the work, there might have been a saving in the building of the Transcontinental between Winnipeg and Quebec of about $41,000,000.

It cannot be denied that if the utterly useless railway between Quebec and Moncton had not been constructed, there might have been a saving of $35,000,000.

It cannot be denied that the entire cost of the Transcontinental Railway, at the point where the Grand Trunk people will begin paying rent, will be not far from $234,651,521.

AN UNSATISFACTORY WAY OF ANSWERING A LIBEL.

The shooting of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Paris Figaro, by the wife of the French Minister of Finance, Joseph Caillaux, will not tend to clear the name of the statesman who has been made the subject of the Figaro's articles. Such a reply to specific charges seems to the calmer Anglo-Saxon mind almost a confession of guilt. Though French judicial processes differ from our own, and though our own do not always further the ends of real justice, yet a much safer and more satisfactory defense can be made to libel in the courts than by personal violence. The latter proves nothing, except that the person assailed has been very much hurt, and as the truth often hurts more than a lie, the inference nearly always is that the man who attempts to right his own wrongs has been touched on the "raw." The influence and power wielded by the editor of Figaro must be very great when its publication cause a tragedy of this sort, which is bound to stir and excite French political and government circles profoundly. After the French fashion, everything relevant or irrelevant will be brought into public view in the sweeping police and judicial investigations that follow criminal occurrences, and we shall get a closer insight into French newspaper methods and political conditions. Whether the murder of the Figaro's editor makes other French editors more cautious or not in what they say about public men, it will tend to make public men a little more careful to avoid furnishing occasion for criticism.

PRESS COMMENT.

Although a section of the workers in the United Kingdom are said to resent the compulsory contribution required by the National Insurance Act it is evident that the act has brought vast benefit in its train. According to an official report just issued covering the first year of its operation close on $65,000,000 was paid out in the British Isles in sick and maternity benefits. The number of insured persons is given at 13,739,000, of whom 10,846,700 are in England, 1,492,900 in Scotland, 720,000 in Wales and 700,700 in Ireland. The proportionately small figure in Ireland indicates both its relative lack of industries and the effect of the legislation that is making Ireland a country of small landholders. More than $51,000,000 of the total sum expended was accounted for in England alone. Approved societies, entrusted with the administration of the scheme, received for sick benefits $24,513,000 and for maternity benefits $5,067,000. Deposit contributors for both benefits combined received $77,000, while the insurance committee drew for medical and sanitarium benefits $21,818,380. Exclusive of balances in the hands of societies and committees a fund of about $82,000,000 has been accumulated for future benefits and reserves. This, it will be conceded, is an excellent showing on the bare facts and what it represents in the alleviation of individual cases of sickness and accident can hardly be estimated.—Toronto World.

Canadians are about as green a lot of nation-builders as any in the world, and the chief nattional vice is incompetence. For every ten Canadians who succeed, about ninety fail. Occasionally a man blunders into the millionaire class, but are there six millionaires in Canada who won their wealth fairly and honestly as a result of their own genius and without luck? We are building up a great country, but the incidental waste is tremendous. When we want to build a new railway, we appoint a lot of politicians to do the job. Then, when it is done, or nearly done, we appoint some more politicians to investigate the work and estimate how much was wasted. Every session of the Federal Parliament sees half a dozen investigations, and many serious charges of incompetence. The conservation commission says that much of our crown domain, forests and water powers particularly, is being wasted. Perhaps some day there will be an investigating committee to look into the expenditures of the conservation commission itself. A new Welland Canal is to be built at a cost of fifty millions. Anyone who desires to be on the committee to investigate these expenditures five years hence should get in his application early.—Canadian Courier.

Take the name Campbell, for instance, famous in song and in history—it is really unsettling to know that it means "wry-mouth," and was originally a nickname. And so with another equally well-known name, Cameron. It has a fine sound, but the troublesome student explains that it means "crooked nose." The first Cameron may have deserved such a description, and he may have obtained or earned his right to it in an honorable manner, or even in a heroic encounter. It is strange to reflect that many a man is going about today bearing without abuse the grand old name of Cameron, because centuries ago some ruffian smote some worthy gentleman on the nose and altered its natural shape.—London News and Leader.

What one Liberal, frank enough to speak his mind, thinks of the National Transcontinental Railway scandal may be judged from two excerpts from the Winnipeg Tribune. The Tribune is owned and edited by R. L. Richardson, who was the Liberal candidate in the Macdonald by-election. The paper, once fairly Independent, has of late been rabidly partizan in its attitude. Yet consider these two paragraphs: "The Liberal war-cry in 1906 was, 'Let Laurier finish his work.' The people's wail today is 'He didn't do a thing to us.'"

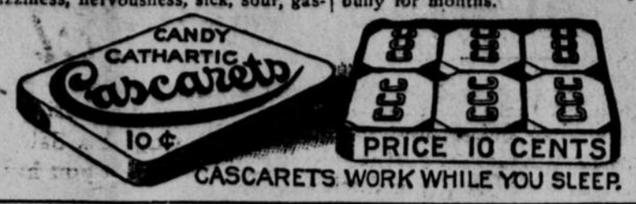

"In connection with the slogan, 'Let Laurier finish his work,' it is admitted in candor that he has not only finished his work,' but that he has finished himself, his associates and his party—in fact, he has made a devil of a fine finish all round. It might perhaps be more accurate to say that Sir Wilfrid has made a big killen."

"Laurier has finished himself, his associates and his party" and, as The Evening Province and Standard declared, he and his associates should immediately recognize the fact and retire from public life. There might be, in that event, some chance of the Liberal party in Canada regaining eventually the prestige it has lost.—Regina Province.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Press Gallery in the New Parliament

Thirty years ago when the interior arrangements in the new Legislative Assembly Chamber were being made, it was found that the contractor had limited the accommodation for the press to a single row of seats, sufficient for only eight reporters. The necessity of further accommodation for the Fourth Estate was represented to the Government, by the President of the Press Gallery, Mr. E. T. D. Chambers. The Premier, Hon. Dr. Ross, drew the attention of the Public Works Department to the matter and referred the President of the Press Gallery to Hon. W. W. Lynch, whom he requested to arrange for the accommodation required. The Hon. Commissioner of Crown Lands was good enough to accept all the suggestions made by Mr. Chambers on behalf of the Press Gallery. A second row of seats for representation of daily papers was erected and a space to be furnished for other members of the Gallery. Subsequently, a number of members of the City Press visited the Chamber and expressed their entire approval of the arrangements.

The Gaspe Election

The following is a copy of a despatch received from the Hon. Mr. Flynn at Gaspe: "Have had splendid meetings everywhere. Mr. Le Boutillier made a most remarkable speech in my favor. Mr. Charles Langelier has made the deposit of $200 for Major Sious. The county will protest by a crushing majority.

A Single Application Banishes Hair From Face

(Beauty Topics)

Here is a way to remove obnoxious hairy growths while you are preparing your toilette for the evening: Mix into a stiff paste enough powdered delatone and water to cover the hairs not wanted. Apply, and in about 2 minutes rub off and every trace of hair comes with it. Washing the skin to remove the surplus delatone leaves it soft, clear and free from blemish. To insure success, be certain that you get real delatone.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO TODAY

Quebec, 20th March, 1814

We have been favored with Boston papers by which it appears that the two American peace envoys have sailed for Gottenburg with their secretaries. These added to the two other envoys who had preceded them with their secretaries will form a goodly of negotiators. It is said that with many Councillors there is safety. We know not how far the term safety will apply in the present instance. Were it changed to chicanery it would, we conceive, be somewhat more appropriate.

Kingston the Great Objective

We have read the correspondence of last fall between the American Secretary of State, and General Wilkinson, respecting their war operations, as laid before congress, containing their deep laid projects against Kingston and Montreal. The conclusion to be drawn from the whole is that the Mountain labored long, and at last, brought forth less than a mouse. It was also in contemplation to have retaken Michilimakimac, but the plea of the season being too far advanced rendered the attempt abortive. It seems to be the opinion of these gentlemen that any excuse is better than none Napoleon blamed the elements for his non-success in Russia. The Americans are attempting to do the same thing with their non-success in Canada.

U. S. TUG POTOMAC IN GOOD CONDITION

Curling, Nfld., March 19—Six men sent by Consular Agent Gould, boarded the abandoned United States naval tug Potomac today after a trip of one hundred miles over land and sea ice. The Potomac was found five miles south of Point Riche at the mouth of the Straits of Belle Isle, still frozen in the ice. Her hull is apparently in perfect condition and there was very little water in the hold. Another party with pumps and dynamite is on the way to the tug and an effort will be mad to break up the ice and get her to a safe anchorage. She has about 12 tons of coal and a ton of provisions on board.

An easterly gale was blowing today and there were prospects that she would be blown out into the Gulf again.

IMPORTANT CASE DRAWING TO CLOSE

ACTION OF UNDERWRITERS AGAINST THE Q. R., L. & C. Co. WILL SOON CONCLUDE

In case of certain Fire Underwriters against the Q. R., L. & P. Co., which has been going on for some days, the evidence for the plaintiffs was concluded yesterday.

The action is for the sum of $25,000 loss caused by the burning of the Quebec Hunt Club building on St. Foy Road. That sum named was paid to Mr. G. A. Vandry, the owner of the property by the insurance company, who had risks covering it. They now seek to recover the amount from the Q. R., L. & P. Co., claiming that it was their wires, which they say were improperly installed, started the fire.

Yesterday some half dozen witnesses for the defendants were examined. Their evidence went to show that the limbs of some trees, which were blown down by a severe storm raging at the time, fell on the electric wires, causing them to come in contact, giving rise to the fire.

At the conclusion of this evidence, the court adjourned until Monday morning.

Hon. Justice Dorion is presiding at the trial. Hon. L. A. Taschereau and Mr. L. A. Cannon, K.C. appear for the plaintiffs, and Mr. G. G. Stuart, K.C., for the defendants.

CHICAGO REPORTER MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

Chicago, March 19—John L. Lawson, a reporter for the Chicago Tribune, and one of the best known newspapermen in the middle west, met a tragic death this afternoon when he fell down an elevator shaft in the Chicago Press Club building.

It is believed that he opened the door of the elevator shaft used for freight, mistaking it for the door of the lavatory adjoining, and stepped in before realizing his mistake.

Among editors and reporters, Mr. Lawson generally was considered "the best reporter in Chicago."

For years his stories have been held up as models of newspaper writing. He was born on Prince Edward Island Canada.

Boston, March 19—Captain George W. Eldridge, of Vineyard Haven, author, chart maker and navigator, died suddenly here today. He was widely known by seafaring men, having designed the first simplified charts for fishing boats and other small craft.

IRELAND'S STRUGGLE FOR A PARLIAMENT

FIRST IRISH PARLIAMENT WAS IN 1295, AND LASTED FOR 200 YEARS.

Since Ireland's last Parliament was held in the year 1800, only the very oldest of our readers will recall it with any distinctness, and some facts concerning this Parliament, its predecessors and other events that led up to the present Home Rule Bill should be timely. The first Irish Parliament of which there is any record was held in the reign of Edward I., in 1295 This was really the Parliament of the English people who lived in Ireland and was called the "Parliament of the Pale," because of the limited area about Dublin in which the English jurisdiction was acknowledged. All the rest of Ireland was governed by princes. This Parliament has a history of 200 years, in which time its scope steadily increased. The Irish Parliament was allowed to make all its own laws, and no interference on the part of England was tolerated. However, the King of England was acknowledged as the King of Ireland, and it was his prerogative to disallow either English or Irish Acts when he saw fit.

The Poyning Act.

It was Sir Edward Poyning, the Lord Deputy, who first sought to bring the Irish Parliament under the authority of the English Parliament. Poyning was able to get the Irish Parliament to pass the necessary Act in which the laws enacted in England were acknowledged to be binding in Ireland, that the English Privy Council should have the right to first pass upon all bills introduced into the Irish Parliament, and that the Irish Parliament should not meet without the King's consent. How Poyning managed to get this bill passed we need not enquire. It is enough to say that it was repugnant to the great mass of Irishmen. It was never accepted by them nor by succeeding Irish Parliaments, and until the reign of George I. there was friction between the two Parliaments. In this reign the English Parliament boldly claimed the right to make laws for Ireland. It happened, however, that the attention of England was about that time engaged in matters of more moment, in the American Revolution and in European wars, and the agitation of Ireland against the so-called "Mandatory Act," succeeded. The English Parliament repealed the obnoxious bill.

The Irish Volunteers.

Credit for the agitation that brought about the repeal of the bill must go to the Irish Volunteers, an organization that in many respects resemble the present organization of the men of Ulster. However, the volunteers were not recruited for the primary purpose of defying England. They were brought in to existence because the government of Ireland was incapable of defending the country against the attacks of Paul Jones and other Yankee freebooters. Therefore the people took the law into their own hands and formed little companies of volunteers, armed and ready to repulse any atacks of Americans or French. These volunteers wer exclusively Protestants. Roman Catholics were not allowed to go armed but they were drilled, nevertheless, and formed the neucleus of a powerful army, if only they could be provided with weapons. When the trouble with the United States was over the volunteers numbered about 100,000 There being no more fighting to do, the volunteers threw themselves eagerly into politics.

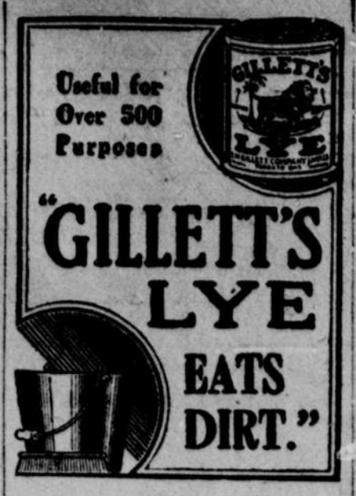

Liberty Won Anew.

Before they laid down their arms, however, they made a demonstration of strength that seriously alarmed England, and when some 240 of them met in the famous Dungannon Convention and demanded the restoration of their Parliament, offering open rebellion as an alternate, England capitulated and Ireland was given her Parliament once more. This was in 1782, but England had yielded with a bad grace and on the first favorable opportunity undertook anew the conquest of Ireland. Of this page in her history it is well not to speak. In eighteen years a hatred of England was bred in Ireland that has not yet died out. The volunteers had disbanded, and there was an easy road for the merciless plunderers. The final coup was achieved by Lord Castlereagh, who followed Poyning's methods, and by the lavish expenditure of money and titles secured a majority in the Irish Parliament. In 1800 the Act of Legislative Union was passed and the two countries entered into the bond that Redmond now desires to sever. The Irish Rebellion followed, and for five years the Habeas Corpus Act was suspended.

Ireland's Great Leaders.

However, Ireland, was never left without leaders in her struggle for an independent Parliament. After the youthful Emmett there arose Daniel O'Connell, the great liberator. In 1829 he had secured the emancipation of the Roman Catholics in Irelnad, and was pressing on boldly to his goal, which was the restoration of the Irish Parliament. But dissentions arose, and he died abroad of a broken heart. The next leader was Isaac Butt, a brilliant lawyer, who had defended the Fenians in 1867. In the British parliament he introduced upon every opportunity a resolution approving of an Irish Parliament, but invariably it was defeated. Parnell came forward about this time, and tried another method. He resorted to obstruction, and soon had a band of followers who were resolved that if the English Parliament would not permit the Irish people to transact their own business they would not permit it to transact any other business. In 1877 Parnell became the leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party, and in 1886, he had won over Gladstone to introduce the first Home Rule Bill. The Liberal Government fell by it. Again, in 1893, another bill was introduced, but was defeated by the Lords, and Gladstone resigned the Premiership. The next Home Rule Bill was Campbell-Bannerman's, in 1905. The present measure was introduced in April 1912.

SEES ADVANTAGES IN PYGMIES' LIFE

WOMAN WHO LIVED AMONG THEM FREE FROM THE TYRANNY OF FASHION.

London, March 19—Probably few people would entertain the idea of spending their honeymoon in the heart of African pygmy land, yet, judging from the remarks made by Mrs. Powell Cotton in the course of a lecture at the Halcyon Club the other evening, the place had its advantages. She spoke from personal experience, as she journeyed to Africa to marry her husband, and spent the first fourteen months of her married life in and near the Ituri forest.

The life at least is simple. The housewife is freed from the domestic worries which prevail in civilized countries, and is totally independent of the tyranny of fashion. A uniform case holds sufficient outfit to last for more than a year, a small tent illuminated with a single candle serves as a dwelling, which is shared with enormous rats and powerful mosquitoes.

Mrs. Cotton described the pygmies as mighty hunters, vindictive enemies, and steadfast friends. Conditions are simple and clothes at a discount. A string of beads and a circlet or two of iron are regarded as the height of sartorial opulence in the case of a baby, and even in later life ideas on dress never go much beyond an apron of barkcloth with a bunch of leaves by way of ornament.

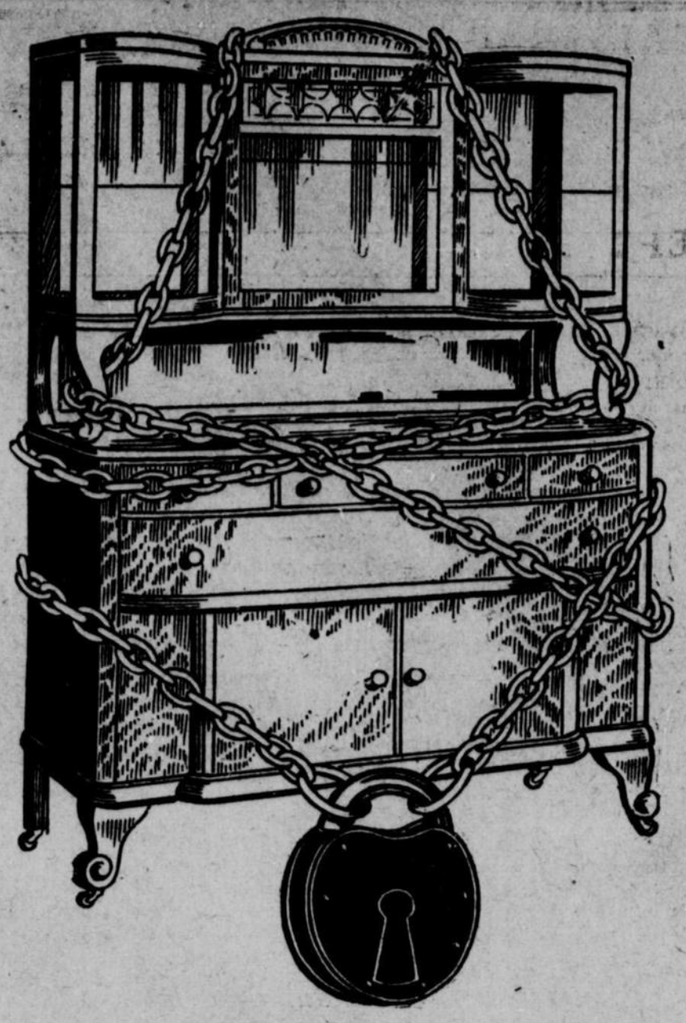

The birth of a girl is received with resignation; that of a boy with favor, but it is satisfactory to learn that in later life girls are looked on as of some value. It takes a prospective bridegroom quite a long time to collect the five hoes, five sickles, three spears, thirty arrows and twenty neckbands which are considered a good price for a wife. The process is rather simpler if he should happen to have a sister, in which case he merely exchanges her for a bride.

All pygmies begin life in a primitive shelter shaped like a beehive, four feet high, built of pliant saplings driven into the soil and thatched with leaves. After a time, however, they are placed by themselves in a hut about the size of a dog kennel. In childhood they are singularly free from the restriction simplied by the words "don't" and "mustn't," and as they grow older their favorite recreation is dancing.

The tango is not to be compared with the dance of the Huri pgymies, which the lecturer prophesied might shortly find its way to London ballrooms.

DUKE OF CONNANGHT BUSY IN TORONTO

Toronto, March 19—The Duke of Connaught spent a few very busy hours in Toronto today and returned to Ottawa tonight. In his brief visit he was entertained at breakfast at the York Club; visited the Club of the Provincial Offices of the Boy Scouts in his capacity as chief scout of the Dominion; officially opened the Royal Ontario Museum, and inaugurated the Howard Memorial Gateway in High Park, tre gateway being the gift of the Daughters of the Empire. The chief event of the day in connection with the Governor-General's visit was the opening of the Royal Ontario Museum of Archaeology. Sir Edmund Walker, chairman of the Board of Trustees, read the official address to His Hihness and President Falconer of the University of Toronto, spoke briefly. The Duke, in his reply stated in connection with references made to the Duchess of Connaught that he hoped the next time he came to Toronto the Duchess would be able to come with him.

PAYS PENALTY FOR BREAKING CONTRACT

FORMER LINE SUPERINTENDENT OF DORCHESTER ELECTRIC IS FINED $20

The Recorder's Court was occupied yesterday hearing a case that is of considerable interest to employers and employees. Mr. Sam Wissell, a former line superintendent in the employ of the Dorchester Electric Company was the defendant, and the Company the prosecutors. It appears that the defendant left the employ of the company in June last, before the expiration of his contract, and without the consent of the company or giving due notice. To protect the interests of the company from any future breaking of contracts by the employees, the manager, Mr. W. T. Wilson, took action against the former line superintendent, who was adjudged guilty, was severely reprimanded and condemned to suffer the maximum penalty, a fine of $20 and costs, or two months' imprisonment. Mr. Sam Wissel promptly paid the fine.

Mr. Arthur Fitzpatrick, advocate, conducted the case for the prosecution.

GETS FIVE YEARS IN REFORMATORY

A boy aged 13 years, son of a city milkman, who resides on Charest St., was condemned to serve five years in the Provincial Reformatory by Judge Langelier in the Police Court yesterday. The youth was handed over to the court as an incorrigible. He used to call to his father's customers and collect what money was due for milk, and then start off to spend the same with companions.

DEATH OF MR. E. B. TEMPLE.

In our obituary column will be found a notice of the death of Mr. Edmond B. Temple, for many years a resident of Toronto, but the earlier part of whose life was spent in the city of Quebec, where he was born over seventy-five years ago. Mr. Temple belonged to a family well-known in our old town, his father, the late Major Temple, having been an officer in H. M. 15th Regiment, who, after many years service in various parts of the world, retired from the army and passed the remainder of his days in Quebec.

Major Temple married a daughter of the late Hon. Jonathan Sewell, Chief Justice of Lower Canada, and the family occupied a prominent position in the social life of the Ancient Capital.

Mr. Temple's death removes another link between the Quebec of former days, and the city of the present time.

The other acts are also very interesting and those who patronize the amateur night are sure to enjoy their evening this week for the comical part of the program is the best that has been booked yet.

THOUGHT HE HAD MISSING GUNMAN

VALCARTIER STATION AGENT IMAGINES HIMSELF SPENDING $1,000

On Wednesday last a lone and tired pedestrian was seen to approach from the north and walk along the Quebec and Lake St. John Railway in the direction of the city. The Valcartier station agent, who had read the account of the recent murder of a policeman in Montreal by a quartette of bandits, and later read of the reward offered for the arrest of each of the two remaining gunmen at large, Focault and Bourret, had his attention called to the pedestrian, and immediately came to the conclusion that the tired traveler was one of the fugitives, and began to dream dreams and see visions of a handsome reward.

He became interested in the man, and as he approached within closer range, he felt sure that he recognized in the man one of the gunmen, and no doubt, Bourret, who was making for his former home, and friends at Charlesbourg. The station master commenced to see visions of the $1,000 reward that would make him rich and he determined to entertain the traveler until he could secure his arrest and succeeded in detaining the man. His next more was to notify the Quebec Police authoritie sof his suspicions with the result that Sergeant Buteau and Constable Boucher of the Provincial Police were despatched in haste to Valcartier and arrived there in time to capture the suspect and brought him to the city.

Yesterday morning the supposed gunman was conveyed from the Provincial Police guard room situated in the Parliament Buildings, to the Police Court for examination. The man as he was conducted before Judge Langelier to give an account of himself wore a puzzled expression of countenance. One glance was sufficient for the Court officials to observe that the prisoner bore no resemblance to Bourret. He was asked his name, and in clear Anglo-Saxon pronunciation answered that his name was Stuart, and earned his living as a laborer. Being asked where he was born, he said England, and was a resident of Canada for the past 14 years and when held up by the police at Valcartier, was walking to the city in search of employment, and expected to find work as a laborer on the Transcontinental Railway construction.

The mistake made by the Valcartier station agent and later by the Provincial Police, for arresting the man for Bourret, was very apparent and the court officials could not suppress their amused feelings. The prisoner in the meantime was in no way concerned, but finally his face brightened and turning to one of the court clerks said "I think they take me for one of the Montreal murderers." He was given his freedom and sauntered out of court to look for work, and when the tension subsided everyone laughed at the mistake made by the police in bringing the man to the city, after they had seen and conversed with him.

SNOWSHOERS HONOR VICE-PRESIDENT

POPULAR OFFICIAL IS RECIPIENT OF PRESENTATION—SUGARING PARTY SOON.

Last nights' meting of the Quebec Snow Shoe Club was marked by some very interesting features. The Vice-President having decided to change from the ranks of single blessedness to those of the doubly blessed, his fellow members took the opportunity of expressing their esteem for him, and they expressed this feeling in many and varied ways.

In the several congratulatory addresses made by the President and members, the history of the Vice-President's connection with the Club was rehearsed, and there were discussed such kindred subjects as the St. Patrick's procession, snowshoe races, the shoe strike, the automatic telephone, etc., etc.

In spite of the cold weather, several showers then fell from a clear sky. For some minutes it literally rained tins,—big tins and little ones, interspersed with cans, pans, jugs and mugs. So complete was the outfit, that the worthy officer was dubbed "the guy that put the kit in kitchen and the pan in pantry."

A downfall of rice was followed by a sprinkle of flour and a hail of salt, all of which were received without an umbrella.

On behalf of the Club, the President then presented a silver Queen Anne tea and coffee set to the Vice-President. The latter was quite taken by surprise, but thanked the members in a very neat speach.

The rafters echoed the fact that he was a "jolly good fellow," and he was bounced up to see where the noise came from.

The enjoyment of a specially inscribed wedding cake closed a very jolly evening.

The Club will hold another meeting next Thursday, when the question of a sugaring party will be discussed.

Three or four funny men paraded St. John street, while a few juveniles held forth in the more retired suburban streets.

MINISTER ASSAILS THE UNITARIANS.

Pittsburg, March 19—Rev. John McNeill, of Toronto, Ont., in his address today before the Greater Pittsburg Bible Conference, assailed the Unitarian faith in strong terms. Speaking on the "character of Peter," and after describing the story of Christ's walking on the sea of Galilee and the group of disciples in the ship which greeted him, the Rev. McNeill said:

"There were no poor, dyspeptic, anaemic Unitarians left in the bunch. That's the cure for Unitarians, let them go out on the sea on a stormy night. There were no Unitarians there—they were Trinitarians."

Darwin Out of Date.

Rebukes were hurled at the Darwinian theory again today by the Rev Dr. Campbell Morgan, of London.

"The man who believes in Darwin out of date," declared Dr. Morgan, "Darwin is dead. There is no scientist today standing on the same ground as Darwin stood in his theory of evolution."

Rev. Dr. Frank N. Palmer, of Winona Lake, Ind., Rev. Mel Trotter, and Rev. George R. Stuart, of Knoxville, Tenn., were other speakers today.

GREECE RESOLVED ON STRONG NAVY

TORONTO WIN AGAIN; THE STANLEY CUP WILL REMAIN EAST

Victorias Had Quite as Much of the Play as Their Opponents Last Night.

ROUGH PLAY A FEATURE

Man With the Puck Was Generally Sent Sprawling Before He Could Shoot.

Toronto, March 19—Torontos won the Stanley Cup from Victorias. The final contest at the Arena tonight resulted in a score of 2 to 1 in the local team's favor. It was something of a slugging match, and rough play was the rule from start to finish. This, the third meeting of Torontos and Victorias in the Stanley Cup series in Toronto, was under the N. H. A. rules, with the western penalty system.

Both teams used crude methods to break up their opponents attacks and the man with the puck was generally sent sprawling before he had a chance to shoot. While the rough play was evenly divided, Poulin stirred up most of the trouble. Right from the start, he hooked, tripped and slashed. Torontos did not take kindly to his rough play and retaliated. Before the game was over the players on both teams, with the exception of the goal tenders, let hockey go and contented themselves with waiting a chance ot give and take with an opponent.

Victoria Played Better

Victoria played much better tonight than they did in their former games, and had easily as much of the play as Torontos. Their entire forward line, with the exception of Poulin, displayed more speed and better judgment in handling the puck when close in on the nets, and Holmes was given plenty to do. As in the other games, his work was good throughout, but he did not overshadow Lindsay, who played his best game of the series.

The Victoria forwards checked back well and this with the rough work close in on the goal prevented the light Toronto attack from shooting as much as usual. Foyston and Wilson were tireless workers, but had little chance against the heavy work of the husky Victoria defence. Davidson, who was unable to play on Tuesday on account of illness, replaced Wilson several times tonight, and when he was not roughing it with his opponents did some good work.

Family Fight Starts

After play had been in progress about 15 minutes in the third period, Davidson and Genge, who are cousins started a fight in the south-west corner of the rink. Sticks were dropped and the two husky players went at it with their fists. No damage was done on either side, but before the disturbance was quelled, every player on both teams and some of the substitutes had a hand in it. Cameron gave Poulin a nasty crack on the head near the end of the game, when he swung his stick after being relieved of the puck. The visitors had been doing this throughout the entire game, so he received his own medicine. McGiffin was only on for a few minutes, but the short while he was on was filled with thrills. Genge tried to get McGiffin without any damage resulting

TO-MORROW NIGHT'S WRESTLING BOUT

John Paul Abs and Raoul de Rouen should provide the style of bout the fans like to see on Saturday night at the Auditorium. The two giant grapplers both prefer the rough-house variety of bout, with very little barred, and this is the style which will likely prevail.

The bout is more or less of a "grudge" affair. De Rouen refused to give Abs a chance at the French title last year, and the big German still feels sore about it. While Abbs is not a world's champion and probably has no chance of ever getting in line for the title, he is a clever grappler and can put up a lively argument.

The big fellows will grapple at the catch-as-catch-can style, with the strangle hold barred.

MECHANIC SUPPLY AND MERGER WIN

TERREAU & RACINE MEN MAKE GOOD SHOW—CANADIAN NORTHERN ALSO.

The sudden change in the weather conditions yesterday provided a fine sheet of ice at the Quebec Skating Rink last night for the two hockey exhibitions, the winning teams being the Mechanics Supply Company and the Q. R. L. H. & P. Company.

One of the teams, the P. T. Legare seven, did not figure in the macth against the Mechanics, as was scheduled, a team from the firm of Terreau & Racine filling in their place. When it is considered that the Supply men only won out by a score of 2 to 1, it may be imagined that the scare the Terreau, or terror, boys threw into the ehemies camp was a genuine one.

L. Moore and E. Wiggs scored for the winners and Roy netted the only goal registered for the Terreau & Racine septette.

The Q. R. L. & P. aggregation had as their opponents a team selected from the Canadian Northern Railway, whom they defeated by a score of 3 to 1.

Despite the fact that the Mackenzie & Mann representatives were minus a few of their star artists, who are said to be scouting along the line of the C. N. Q. for the Montreal gunmen, or lobbying at Ottawa, they made a very careditable showing against the Merger speed merchants. The first period was a blank.

It was made clear not far on in the second period (a la N. H. A.) that the Q. R. L. did not want for power from Montmorency or elsewhere, for C. Doherty came through with the first goal which was followed shortly by another by J. Kirkwood. This set the C. N. Q. on their mettle and Young hammered in the first for his side in two minutes.

Both sevens, continuing the Eastern rules in the final act, played very cautiously, with the result that Kirkwood was the only man who shook the nets for a goal.

VICTORIA CURLING CLUB'S SEASON DRAWING TO CLOSE

Only a few more curling matches remain to be played on the season of the Victoria Curling Club will be at an end. This evening the postponed matches for the Club Gold Medal will be played. Good ice is expected with the change in temperature yesterday, so it may be possible to finish up the remaining competitions either tomorrow or early next week.

GOULD WILL PLAY COVEY RETURN MATCH.

Philadelphia, March 19—Hon. Neville S. Lytton, who employs George T. Covey as a professional and accompanied him to this country for his match with J. Gould announced today that Covey will play a return match with the new title holder next spring in Egland.

"It was thoroughly understood that we would receive a return match to be played in England in the event of Covey losing to Mr. Gould," said the English visitor, "and I will arrange for the same to be played next spring, when I believe the result will be different."

USES SPORT PAGE FOR SAVING SOULS.

Pittsburgh, March 19—"Let's try it on the sport page," suggested the Rev. Singleton Neisser, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church of McKeesport, when he took the copy for his weekly church advertisement around to the newspapers last Friday.

"Seems to me it ought to get some folks who never see the advertisement when it goes on the editorial page," he said.

The experiment was a winner. When the Rev Mr. Neisser mounted his pulpit this morning he faced a record-breaking audience. The congregation included fight fans, basketball "bugs" and dozens of baseball followers.

The church advertisement of this pastor will appear on the sport pages regularly hereafter.

EMMETTS OFF TO PLAY VICTORIAS

WILL TACKLE THE MONTREAL CITY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS TOMORROW NIGHT.

The challenge sent to Mr. Cecil W. Hart, Trustee of the Art Ross Cup, Montreal, by Manager McLaughlin of the Emmet Club, to play for the Art Ross Montreal Challenge Cup has been accepted.

Victorias, champions of the Montreal City League, have captured the trophy and Emmets will meet them at the Montreal Arena in a sudden-death game tomorrow evening.

The local City League champions will leave town either this evening or tomorrow morning and they will be accompanied, doubtless, by a large number of followers.

CRESCENTS RAISE ANOTHER SHOUT

CLAIM THAT ROSS CUP AND CHAMPIONSHIP ARE TWO DISTINCT THINGS.

Spotring Editor, Chronicle:

Dear Sir—For some time past several articles appeared in your paper stating that the Emmets and Crescents were toplay for the championship of the League; these statements are not correct. Mr. Ross can impose his own conditions for the winning of his cup, but he cannot alter the rule of the league. The Crescents consented to play for the cup, since Mr. Ross would not allow it to follow the championship. At a regular meeting of the league, held at the Victoria Hotel on the 20th of February, the Crescents were regularly awarded the championship and according to the rules of the league there is no appeal from such decision. The Crescents mean to hold what belongs to them and will adopt means to do so.

Yours very truly,

A. E. DELANEY,
President Crescents Club.

NEW YORKER WOULDN'T LIKE MORAN'S JOB.

After watching the Canadian icemen perform, an enthusiast of hockey remarked: "If I got hard up I might let them throw baseballs at me at Coney Island, but as for being a goal tender in one of these hockey games—excuse me!"—New York World.

BASEBALL PLAYERS STRONG ON GOLF

Matty must have been in despair when McGraw prohibited golf as a training stunt. Last Summer "Big Six" used to rise early in the morning and head straight for the links. As he won twenty-five games and lost eleven, allowing an average of 2.06 runs per game, his golf apparently did not do him much damage. It is probable that batting rather than pitching is the thing that McGraw fears would suffer. For all that, Eddie Collins, who is also a great golfer seems to hit pretty well.

The pop-eyed fan addressed his son,
Said he: "Observe those two;
One's Merkle and one Mathewson
I'll tell you what we'll do,
We'll listen quietly. I hope
You will not miss a word,
For this will be real inside dope,"
Well, this is what they heard:

"I sliced a niblock shot today—"
"That bunker is too deep—"
"I used an iron—" "I could play
That seventh in my sleep—"
"I murdered Bogey on the third—"
"My caddie was a mutt—"
"That drive was sure a lu-lu bird—"
"You should have seen me putt."

The poor fanatic heard no more:
For, in a faint, he bumped the floor.

MISS RAVENSCROFT INTENDS TO RETURN FROM ENGLAND

Philadelphia, March 19.—Miss Gladys Ravenscroft of England, woman's golf champion of the United States, denied tonight reports sent out from southern golf links that she had decided not to come to this country next fall to defend the title she captured at the Wilmington Country Club last October. Miss Ravenscroft arrived here today from the south.

"I said before leaving for Philadelphia," she declared, "that I would return for the next women's national tournament in the United States, provided it was at all possible for me to make the trip. I fully expected to come to this country the latter part of August, and I still hope to do so."

Miss Muriel Dodd, women's golf champion of Great Britain, will not come here again next fall, according to Miss Ravenscroft, but one or two other women who rank high in British golfing circles probably will try for the American title.

Miss Ravenscroft expects to sail for England on March 25.

QUEBEC ARENA AND ARTIFICIAL ICE

PLANT WILL NOT BE INSTALLED HERE UNTIL MONTREAL ARENA TAKES LEAD.

There has been some speculation in sporting circles lately as to whether or not an artificial ice plant would be installed in the Quebec Arena this coming summer.

Questioned on the matter yesterday, Dr. Dussault, of La Cie d'Enterprises Publiques, stated that they were prepared to put the plant in the Arena if it comes to a question of the N. H.A. ordering the different clubs to do so. The Arena directors feel that the winter season is sufficiently long and at any rate they will continue with the natural ice until Montreal takes to the artificial surface. It is said that the installation might cost $35,000.

CANADIAN TEAMS DON'T SUFFER BY ROUGH PLAY,

New York, March 17—Many New York hockey followers who saw the first game of the series between the Canadian professionals were outspoken in condemning the rule by which when a man is put off for rough play another player takes his place until the offender's time is up. They hold that by this no real penalty is put on rough playing, in that the offending team is able to keep its full numerical strength.

The Canadian teams play with six men, and while many criticized the rules governing penalties, there were those who held that the scheme was the only feasible one for the six-man game, because it kept up the full playing strength of the teams and did not result in one team having perhaps half its players on the side lines. It is true that had substitutes not been permitted to take the places of men ruled off in Saturday night's game at the St. Nicholas Rink there would have been times when hardly half a dozen players all told would have been on the ice.

OXFORD NAMES TEAM FOR PENN RELAY MEET.

English University Will Be Represented by Jackson, Taber, Sproule and Gaussen.

New York, March 19—Official announcement was made yesterday by the personnel of the Oxford University four-mile relay team, which will run against the best of the American college fours at the University of Pennsylvania on Saturday, April 25th.

The English university team will consist of A. N. S. Jackson, Norman S. Taber, G. M. Sproule, and D. N. Gaussen, forming the most cosmopolitan team that ever represented England in a track meet of the importance of the Pennsylvania games.

Jackson, the president of the Oxford University Athletic Association, and captain of th eteam, is the English runner who won the 1,500 metre run at the Olympic games in Stockholm in 1912. Norman E. Taber is an American Rhodes scholar from Brown University, and during his college athletic career was considered, next to Paul Jones, the best mile runner in American universities athletics.

Sproule is a Rhodes scholar from Australia, captain of Oxford cross-country team and a miler who has done 4.30 or better repeatedly. Gaussen, an English student at Oxford, has run the mile for the Dark Blue against Cambridge for the past two years. Basil Rudd, a Rhodes scholar from South Africa, may come to America as emergency runner, although his best distance is the half-mile.

Taber will leave England for the United States, this week, in order to make arrangements for the reception and quartering of the English university runners since he has taken much of the responsibility for the trip and the management of the team upon his own shoulders. The other members of the quartet will leave early in April, and according to the present plans will do their preliminary training at the Brown University, Providence, where Taber is thoroughly familiar with both track and climatic conditions. The final week previous to the games will be spent in Philadelphia in order that the English team may become accustomed to the quarter mile cinder track upon which the race will be run.

REGINA HONORS GRAND MERE TEAM

Regina, Sask., March 19.—Several thousand people, headed by a brass band and an automobile parade, will see the Grand Mere hockey team away at the Canadian Pacific Railway station tonight. The eastern team goes now to Winnipeg to play the Victorias, thence to Cleveland, and after that to Toronto before going home. The visitors have shown themselves good sports and Regina is anxious to show appreciation.

TORONTO BOWLERS MAKE GOOD SHOW

Buffalo, N. Y., March 19.—The Athenaum team of Toronto, Ont., champions of Canada, took third place in the five-man event tonight with a score of 2,863. Eddie Sutherland, anchoring the team, shot 234 in his last game, but was off to a poor start, getting 184 in his first and 148 in the second. He made six straight strikes in his last game, but missed a single pin spare in the tenth. But for the error his team would have taken second place.

The Athenaums was the only team in the first squad of five-man teams tonight to class among the leaders.

Following is the standing:

Five-Man Event.

Howard Major's, Chicago	2,881
Clark's, Peoria	2,871
Athenaum's, Toronto	2,863
Peterson's, Chicago	2,855
Maltop's, Rochester	2,854

The annual general meeting of the St. Patrick's Baseball Club was held in St. Patrick's Hall last evening and was attended by a large and enthusiastic number of members.

Following are the officers elected:
President—Thos. Byrne.
Vice-President—H. Hayes.
Secretary-Treasurer—A. Kerr.

QUESTION OF POLES ON CITY STREETS

COUNCIL CONSIDERS IT TOO COSTLY TO PLACE WIRES UNDERGROUND.

The question of removing the unsightly telegraph and telephone poles from the streets of Quebec and placing the wires in underground conduits was brought up at the first regular business meeting of the Civic Road Committee last night by Ald. Trudel, of Limoilou Ward.

The meeting was presided over by Ald. Lavigueur, the newly elected chairman.

After certain explanations given by Mayor Drouin the committee seemed of the opinion that while this improvement, which all would like to see carried out, might be realized in the remote future it was not feasible at the present, due principally to the enormous cost which would have to be shouldered almost entirely by the City.

Ald. Trudel pointed out that it might be started in Limoilou ward, which was a new section of the City and gradually be carried out in other wards.

City Engineer Baillarge informed the Committee that the Public Utilities Commission had ordered the removal of some five hundred unnecessary poles, and that more than 300 of these had already been taken away. He said that the Q. R. L. H. & P. Co. had already signified their intention of removing the poles of the old Jacques Cartier Electric Company, and attaching the wires to their other poles. This, he said, would bring about the removal of some 1,400 extra poles, which would be a decided improvement.

Tenders for Supplies.

The committee last night considered a number of tenders for annual supplies required for the Road Department, and awarded the contracts to the lowest tenderers in each case, as follows:

Nails, Chas. A. Parent; sand, J. E. Canchon; stone-dust, G. J. Tierney; broken stone, Quebec Brick Co., and Chateau Richer Quarry Co.; special broken stone, Quebec Brick Co.; unbroken stone, Elzear Verrault and Quebec Brick Co.; carters' numbers, A. Freniere. The question of lumber was left to the City Engineer to decide. The contract for the repairing of the elevator of the City Hall and the supplying of a new cable was awarded to Mr. Barbeau.

Streets in Belvedere Ward.

The committee considered a resolution which was passed at a recent meeting of the Citizens' Committee of Belvedere Ward asking for the following improvements:

1. To prolong Bourlamaque Ave. as far at St. Foy Road or as far as Dumont St.

2. To continue Ste. Marguerite St. to the eastward through the Hotel Dieu land to Cartier Ave.

3. To continue Dumont St. to the east also as far as Cartier Ave., and to the west as far as Bourlamaque Ave.

4. To prolong Moncton Ave. to St. Cyrille St.

5. To open Adolphe St. on the side of the cliff in order to permit the owners of adjacent lots to build.

6. To open a transecting street at the western extremity of said Adolphe street, and Jeanne d'Arc, Dolbeau and des Stigmates in order to give more facility for circulation.

The above improvements, which were supported by Aldermen Paquet and Walling, who were present, were left to the City Engineer to study and to report to the committee on them.

A second resolution from Belvedere Ward asked that the names of the streets be changed as follows:

That the name St. Lawrence be changed to Fontaine Manseau; that Ste. Marguerite be changed to St. Laurent; that Dumont be called Marquette; that Lee street be called Cremazie for its entire length; that the name of Vauquelain St. be retained.

All the requested changes were granted with the exception of the last, which was left over on objections being raised by Ald Walling.

Ald. Walling pointed out that the majority of the proprietors of Vauquelain and Aberdeen streets, which were really only one street, had signed a petition in favor of the name Aberdeen, and he said that Dr. Harper would like to appear before the committee to give certain explanations. This question was accordingly left over.

SENATE OF CANADA GIVES DINNER TO MACKENZIE BOWELL

Hon. C. E. de Boucherville Was Also Honored, But Could Not Be Present.

SON REPRESENTS HIM

Ex-Premier Thinks Canadians Will Not Fail the Empire Should Need Arise.

Ottawa, March 19—The Senate of Canada tonight gave a dinner in honor of Sir MacKenzie Bowell and of the Hon. C. E. De Boucherville and in celebration of the ninetieth birthday of the one and the ninety-first birthday of the other.

The function, which was held in the parliamentary restaurant, was remarkable in many ways. It was presided over by Hon. J. A. Lougheed, government leader of the Senate, who had on his right Sir MacKenzie Bowell and Mr. Joseph De Boucherville, representing his father, who was unable to be present. The vice-chairmen were Senator L. G. Power, Senator Robert Jaffray and Senator F. T. Thompson.

Premier Borden Present.

Premier Borden, who was seated beside the chairman, proposed the health of the two guests of the evening and in doing so regretted the absence of Senator De Boucherville, whose long life and record lent distinction to the Parliament of Canada.

"I do not know that it is safe of a staid commoner to associate with the gay young blades of the Senate," he said, "but I warn you that I be turned over safely to the House of Commons at the conclusion of this dinner. The first thought that occurs in connection with this dinner to ir MacKenzie and the Hon. Mr. De Boucherville is that the union of their names in the toast and the honor which is being done to them by their associates is a just symbol of the union and cooperation between the two great races which have made Canada what it is today."

Hon. Mr. De Boucherville had attained a ripe age and had a most distinguished career, continued the Premier. He was the only man who enjoyed the distinction of the membership in two legislative chambers in Canada. Though years had bowed his form his mind was that of a young man and he gave promise of years of usefulness to his country.

Manly and Upright.

Sir MacKenzie Bowell, who was of English descent, in his life showed the characteristics of the great race which had made Canada the great country that it was. His long public life had been a record of manliness and of integrity. He had struck hard blows but without bitterness. Entering public life as a member of the House of Commons in 1867 Sir MacKenzie had been a member of the Commons or of the Senate ever since. He had held three portfolios in the Federal cabinet, had been Premier of his country and both Government and Opposition Leader in the Senate.

Veteran Replies.

The health of Sir MacKenzie was most enthusiastically responded to and in acknowledging the honor Sir MacKenzoe said that never had he known a man whom he more honored and respected than Senator De Boucherville. Under Sir John MacDonald, Sir MacKenzie said he had learned long ago that in a country like Canada where there were two races with different creeds freedom could not be attained if the country was governed by the narrow prejudice which actuated some Canadians.

All Loyal to Crown.

"Without vanity I may say that I have occupied more than one post of honor in my country and how I have filled them is not for me to say," he said, "however, without fear of contradiction, I can say that I have always tried to do my duty as I saw it and during the years which remain to me I shall continue to do so." In conclusion Sir MacKenzie said: "I look forward to the time when Canada shall occupy a position which will be a credit to the Empire and to herself. However Canadians may differ as to details I fell that all of us, no matter of what blood or faith, are one in our feeling of loyalty and devotion to the British Crown and when the time requires our sons will rally to the defence of the Empire as they did in South Africa. Let us be true to ourselves as British subjects and there will be no fear for the future."

Responds For His Father.

Mr. Joseph De Boucherville, K.C., in the name of his father, thanked the gathering for the honor which had been paid to his father and to Sir MacKenzie Bowell. "I first knew Sir MacKenzie," he said, "twenty years ago when I was a student at the Kingston Military College. He then said to me something that I shall never forget. He said: 'My boy your father is an ultramontane Catholic and I am an Orangeman, but we have always been the best of friends.' That taught me a great lesson that men could be true to different ideals and still maintain their respect for each other and work together for the advancement of their common country."

Bostock Liberal Leader.

Senator Bostock proposed the health of the chairman and in reply Hon. Stnator Lougheed took occasion in felicitous terms to congratulate enator Bostock on his selection this afternoon as Liberal leader in the Senate. Senator Lougheed said he was sure that the relations of the new Liberal leader with members on both sides of the Senate would continue to be as they had always been in the past of the most pleasant character.

WOULD RATHER DIE THAN GO TO PRISON

SO SAID A YOUNG MAN BEING TRIED FOR MURDER IN NEW YORK.

New York, March 19.—"I would rather go to the electric chair than spend twenty years in prison," said 19-year-old Harry Schaeffer to his parents in the Supreme Court today, when they urged him to plead guilty in the second degree at his trial on the charge of first degree murder for the killing of William T. Martin, a Toronto, Ont., milliner last August. Taking the stand in his own defence, Schaeffer told how he and another man wrapped a towel around Martin's neck so tightly that death resulted, after Martin had been lured to a West Side flat.

Schaeffer said he and his companion, who is a fugitive, had not intended to kill Martin, but merely to quiet him until they could rob him. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

CITY REPORTED IN REBEL'S HANDS

Mexico City, March 19—Chilpancingo, Capital of the State of Guerrero, is reported to be in the hands of the rebels. Officially this report is denied but it is admitted that the Capital has been changed to Iguala, the military headquarters of General Olea.

The War Department announces that no important developments have occurred in the Torreon district.

General Blanquet, the Minister of War, again expressed fear today that Col. Arguelles and his command of 116 men, captured near Monclova by the rebels, have been executed, although he denied any exact information.

PRESIDENT WILSON ABOUT RAILWAYS

AND THEIR FINANCIAL CONDITION—WOULD HELP TO RELIEVE THEM, IF POSSIBLE.

Washington, March 19—President Wilson today manifested his deep interest in the financial condition of the railroads of the country, expressing a desire to help in every legitimate way to bring them relief. The President had been asked by callers if he had heard any particular complaints from the railroads about their financial condition, and remarked that he had heard that everybody was discussing—the uncertainty of their position. He let it be known that the government was giving consideration to the general facts of the continued increase in operating expenses with the decrease in net revenues.

The President made it clear that the question of proposed increase in freight rates was "the big thing" in the situation, but did not express any opinion on the merits of the increase. No legislative action to afford relief to the rtailroadscmfwySo.iii.(- mbmb to the railroads had been suggested to the President, according to his talks with callers.

The President did not point any particular way in which he could help the situation, though it is believed he intends to keep the Inter-State Commerce Commission constantly informed about opinion throughout the country as it comes to him. Many letters sent to the White House about the pending rate increases always have been referred to the Commission for the information they contained.

REPEAL OF TOLL EXEMPTION ON THE PANAMA CANAL

IS STIRRING UP THE TRANQUILITY OF THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY — SENATOR JONES' EXPLANATION.

Washington, March 19—More stubborn than anything that has arisen to stir the tranquility of the Democratic majority since the party came into control of the national government, is the opposition to President Wilson's plea for repeal of the toll exemption provision for American ships in the Panama Canal Act.

With the time almost at hand when the question is to be decided, the unyielding opposition of the Democrats who believe it will be an economic mistake to reverse the policy of the government on the tolls question becomes more active, and in Senate and House the discussion is certain to be the most vigorous that has been precipitated by any issue the Democratic congress has had before it.

While the President and Democratic members in both Houses who will support his position are confident that the repeal will pass by a comfortable majority, few have any idea that the majority will be large. Debate on the repeal will begin in the House Saturday, when a rule will be offered limiting debate to fifteen hours In the Senate action by the committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals on a repeal bill submitted by Senator Owen may be taken tomorrow or Saturday.

Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the committee, will consider the matter of taking up the resolution tomorrow.

President Wilson today conferred with Senator Jones of Washington, in-President told the Senator that he was absolutely no basis for conclusions he had referred to in a Senate speech Wednesday to the effect that the tolls repeal was the price to be paid as a result of negotiations with Great Britain for non-interference by foreign powers in Mexico, and for England's defence of the Monroe Doctrine. The forming the Senators that there was "skating on thin ice" in circulating such conclusions after reading them in some publication. Discussing the matter with other callers, the President said his address to congress on repeal of the tolls clause was written before the visit to Washington of the British Minister to Mexico, Sir Lionel Carden, to whom Senator Jones had referred in his speech, and that the canal controversy was not mentioned during the minister's conference at the White House.

Later in2the day Senator Jones made a statement to the Senate, asserting that he had not wished to misrepresent anybody, that he had referred to the conclusions as he had read them in a newspaper, and that it was due the President that he express to the Senate his first flat denial of the matter.

Senator Jones' resolution calling upon the President for information as to the position of foreign governments on the tolls question will come up again tomorrow, when Senator Bristow will make an effort to have it referred to the canals instead of the Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Poindexter plans to talk on his resolution which would ask the President for an explanation of some of the features of his message to congress on the tolls issue.

Drury, Secretary of the Canadian Council of Agriculture. A resolution approving of the principle of taxing railway property on the same basis as farm property was passed with great unanimity.

Thinness Easily Overcome
(From "Health and Beauty")

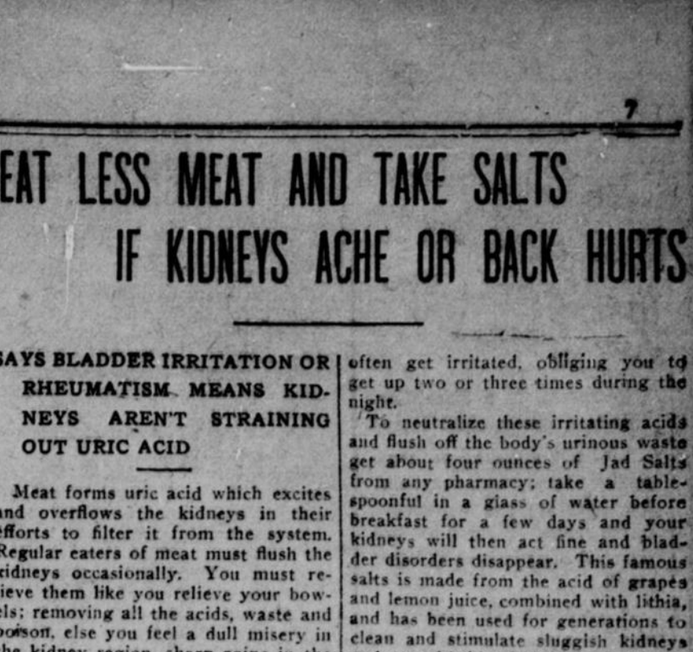

Further evidence is being presented almost daily that a recent compound of new chemical elements combined in a tablet with hypophosphites is in reality proving a blessing to the abnormally thin men and women, for it can be demonstrated beyond doubt that a regular course of three or four months' treatment brings an increase in weight of from 10 to 30 pounds, with a decided improvement of health and color, too. For self administration the most popular form is to be found in three grain hypo-nuclane tablets, obtainable in sealed packages from the best apothecary shops, with full directions.

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS ACHE OR BACK HURTS

SAYS BLADDER IRRITATION OR RHEUMATISM MEANS KIDNEYS AREN'T STRAINING OUT URIC ACID

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overflows the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

TANGO CRAZE IS FINE FOR THE CLOTH MAKERS

Takes Yards More For Gowns And Other Apparel Than The Tight Skirts Did

(From Fibre and Fabric)

Textile industry can make no mistake in encouraging the tango. It is a craze and as such calls for special dressing and quite out of the usual trend when present-day fads are being worked to the limit it calls for increased yardage in ladies' dresses.

For several years fashion has dictated reduced yardage in women's wear, and it is a source of satisfaction to learn that the tango changes conditions. A woman cannot safely stand the strain of this new dance in the close-fitting affairs that have been and are so popular. She must have more room to save buttons and seams, and the tango gowns are considerably fuller and have more trimming and flouncings, all of which calls for increased yardage in the outfit.

During the last few years it has taken less than half the cloth formerly used to make a dress and weavers and everyone else connected with the trade have suffered in consequence. But now that the dresses are becoming a bit more full, or at least the dressmakers are using more cloth in them, many of the manufacturers state that they should sell as much cloth this year as they sold last, even with a great deal more coming here from the foreign mills.

If there was ever a time when the xtile industry needed fads and fash- s that increased the amount of th in dresses it is now when the riff is opening out markets to for- n competitors, and if the tango os, all hail the tango.

RESIGNATION OF M. MONIS LIKELY TO BE PERMANENT

Gay Parisians Forget Calmette Affair in Mi-Careme Parade and Confetti Battles.

CAILLAUX'S WIFE ILL

Maitre Labori Tells Her She Must Throw Herself on the Court's Mercy.

Paris, March 19.—French public opinion continues to be deeply occupied with the Calmette tragedy and resulting political agitation, although interest was less outwardly manifested today. The general interest of the pleasure loving Parisians was centered in the Mi-Careme parade, of which confetti battles in the boulevards were a feature.

A few excited students in Paris and Versailles attempted demonstrations against M. Caillaux, but the police had no difficulty in dispersing them.

The principal development of the day was the resignation of Ernest Monis from the Ministry of Marine, and it is understood that his withdrawal from the cabinet will be permanent, not temporary, as was at first expected, whatever may be the finding of the investigating committee.

No Successor Yet.

Various names were mentioned in the lobbies of the chamber for the post of Minister of Marine, but Premier Doumergue has decided to take no action for the present.

While some kind of a demonstration by the anti-Republicans is certain to be attempted at the funeral of M. Calmette tomorrow, the police authorities do not anticipate serious trouble. Nevertheless M. Hennion, the Prefect of Paris, has made extensive preparations to preserve order.

Object of Interest.

Saint Lazare prison, where Mme. Caillaux occupies a cell, was again the object of interest today by many hundreds of persons who seemed deeply interested in those who passed within its doors. Mme. Caillaux, it is said, is beginning to show the effects of her imprisonment. Her young daughter by an earlier marriage, Juliette Claretie, is allowed to visit her daily. Her husband and her attorney, M. Labori, called on her this afternoon and found her in a very much depressed and nervous state. She discussed her case with M. Labori, in preparation for her first appearance before the examining magistrate next week.

Advice of Labori.

M. Labori informed Mme. Caillaux, it is said, that she had no alternative but to throw herself on the mercy of the court, and that in her defence he could not make an reflections on M. Calmette. In fact, he explained, it was only on this condition that he agreed to undertake her defence, and he had made this plain to both the family of his late friend, M. Calmette, and M. Caillaux. The former Minister of Finance said that he understood M. Labori's attitude perfectly and approved of it, adding: "I have asked you only to defend my wife; I do not want you to attack M. Calmette."

The Rochette Committee.

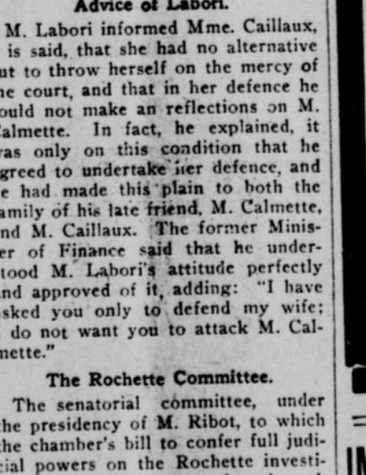

The senatorial committee, under the presidency of M. Ribot, to which the chamber's bill to confer full judicial powers on the Rochette investigating committee was referred, took the matter under consideration today. Senator Richard considered that full judicial powers were not wanted, and proposed an amendment giving the committee power to punish witnesses, who either refused to appear or to take the oath, and providing for a punishment of from two to five years imprisonment and a fine for those bearing false witness, or suborning witnesses before the committee.

It is understood that the government will accept the amendment and that the bill will pass the Senate tomorrow.

REAL MILITANTS NOW ONLY A DOZEN

The British Government Believes The Heart of the Movement Is Crushed

The Daily Mail prints this morning what it calls "a carefully considered statement obtained from high sources in reference to the Government's attitude toward the militant suffragettes." It reiterates previous statements in the same paper to the effect that the "cat and mouse" act is steadily crushing the militant movement and adds:

"The Women's Social and Political Union is no longer able to command the activities of more than a very few militants. The days of organized conspiracy and big raids are long past. A year ago there were 50 or more women ready to commit militant crimes. Nearly all of them have been forced to abandon their criminal activities by repeated punishment. Militant crimes are now confined to about a dozen women, of whom seven are well known. Several of them are paid servants of the Women's Social and Political Union.

"We are rapidly approaching the residue of these fanatics. The few remaining militants continue to appear and reappear in connection with fresh crimes."

Reference is made to the many suggestions sent to the Home Office. The most usual of these is that the women should be allowed to die in jail. The Daily Mail says:

"This responsibility the Government will not at present assume. The suffragette leaders are undoubtedly hoping for the death of one of their fanatics in order to regain public sympathy which the movement has lost. Similar objections apply to placing criminal lunatics in an asylum.

"In regard to deportation of the women it is asked who is going to feed them if they are deported. The conclusion is that the present methods are the best, indeed the only ones now applicable, and it appears from the steady reduction of militant crime and criminals that they are successful. The law will be steadily and ruthlessly applied.

"Finally it may be said that the police are having increasing difficulty in protecting them from the outraged fury of the people after their crimes."

Ottawa, March 19—Bank clearings for the week ended today were $4,040,614, as compared with $3,770,138 for the same period last year.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF--25 CENT DANDERINE

LADIES! MEN! HERE'S THE QUICKEST, SUREST DANDRUFF CURE KNOWN.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight — now — anytime — will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

NEW YORK CLOSING LETTER

Received over the private wire of McDougall & Cowan, Stock Brokers, 61 St. Peter St., Quebec. Tel. 246.

New York, March 19.—The market reversed it course at opening this morning and slight net advances were recorded in early dealings, Lehigh rising a good sized fraction on covering of shorts put out in anticipation of announcement of Government suit. At noon the tone was good, but on a very moderate rise entire list relapsed into extreme dullness, and from then to the close transactions were made up almost entirely of swapping of stocks amongst the traders on the floor of the exchange. The Petroleum stocks were strong, shaping themselves for a solution of the Mexican difficulty, although it is not easy to see how this is accomplished. The pool in Cen. Leather took hold of that stock and marked it up to the highest price of the year on reports that dividends would be increased. American Tobacco continued to show marked strength throughout. A moderate advance in Fertilizers following report of good demand for their products from the increased area which is likely to be put into crops this year. The Rock Island issues continued to be depressed, the 4's making a new low record at 37. The tone in final dealings was steady.

Sales 143,500; bonds, $2,634,500.

Montreal Letter.

Montreal, March 19.—Brazil was again the weak feature: it opened at 80, a point and a half below previous close. It sold at this price all morning, but advanced half a point during the afternoon session. There seemed to be selling for London account and a fractional advance was made after the close of that market. Power reacted to 224½. Iron was in good demand at 30½. R. & O. was well bought at 102¾, and seemed to be well supported at that price. Balance of list was quiet, with no fluctuations of note. There was a fair demand for bonds and Bank of Commerce was the most active of the bank stocks.

In the Unlisted Department Tramway Power sold at 38½, and National Brick at 50.

BANK CLEARINGS.

Toronto, March 19.—The clearings of banks in Toronto for the week, with comparisons, were as follows: Week ended March 19, $40,359,110; last week, $38,810,715; corresponding week of 1913, $41,925,542; corresponding week of 1912, $37,318,794; corresponding week of 1911, $32,964,697.

Winnipeg, March 19.—Bank clearings for the week ending today are $20,832,801, as compared with $24,812,179 for the corresponding week of 1913, and $25,590,800 for the same week of 1912.

Halifax, N. S., March 19.—Bank clearings for the week were $1,885,495.09, and for the same week last year, $1,766,945.19.

Montreal, March 19.—Bank clearings for the week ended today were $49,626,772, a decline of $1,826,794 from the level of the corresponding week a year ago. The week's aggregate, however, is still $4,632,364 ahead of the same week in 1912. Comparisons: 1914, $49,626,772; 1913, $51,453,566; 1912, $45,994,408.

CLOSING MARKET LETTERS.

Received by Breen & Gourdeau, stock brokers, 63 St. Peter St. and 6 Sault au Matelot.

New York, March 19—Aside from the continued weakness in the Rock Island issues today's stock market was featureless, dull and narrow, with transactions professional in character. The undertone, however, was good throughout the full session and fractional gains made shortly after the opening were maintained to the close. The Government's suit against Lehigh Valley announced late yesterday, was discounted so far as the market value of the stock was concerned, opening an eighth of a point up from last night's close and showed a full point advance on the day in the final sales. The excellent earnings published by the United States Steel Corporation for the year 1913, in which 11.01 per cent earned on the common stock against 5.71 per cent the previous year, and reports concerning the Mexican situation interpreted as having an improving tendency, were factors helpful in sustaining sentiment. The public, however, are holding aloof and until the situation is clarified of some of the uncertainty we believe their lack of participation will tend to hold prices to trading limits only.

Sales to 3 p. m., stocks, 143,522; bonds, $2,631,500.

Moon Phases

Last Quarter, Wednesday, 18th 2:39 p.m.

Boston, March 19.—The market today was entirely professional and fluctuations very narrow, but the tone continues firm. Good sized sales of copper have been reported this week for both foreign and domestic account and the price is now on a firm 14½c basis again. We do not think the market will continue on its present rut much longer, and when the change takes place it will be towards higher prices.

Chicago, March 19.—Wheat ruled very dull, but firm, early, and finally took fire from the strength in corn and the small receipts at Kansas City and Omaha and the fact that corn is again selling 10c over wheat in some places in the southwest. Argentine shipments are light and Australian expected to be light. It looks as though the other side would have to take some notice of the growing conditions as applied to their situation. We would still buy wheat on the recessions.

Corn—The opening was higher with liberal trade and then a reaction to about yesterday's closing, at which point there was reinstating by longs who sold out yesterday. This, in turn, made a strong and higher market. Cash corn was again strong here and at other points. Speculation is in the corn again and good fluctuation probable, but certainly it would not be wise to buy it on anything but sharp reactions and this for only moderate profits.

Oats have followed corn, but trade has been rather limited. There has been a better cash demand on shipping account and firmer cash market here; prices up about ¼ to ½c. Selling mainly realizing.

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist.

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is acid in the stomach, usually due to, or aggravated by, food fermentation. Acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements — acid and wind. In all such cases — and they comprise over 90 per cent. of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls bisurated magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your chemist for the bisurated magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties—F. J. G.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

McDonald & Lesperance, stock brokers, private wire to New York and Montreal, Hochelaga Bank Building. Telephone 1227.

(Canadian Press Service.)

New York, March 19.—Speculation approached a deadlock today among the stocks whose movements usually determine the character of the market. The leading shares showed no important variations throughout the session, and the most that could be said was that there was a consistently good undertone. Opportunities for trading in these shares were so limited that interest was diverted to the specialties, among which fluctuations were wider. The tobacco stocks, fertilizers and oil shares advanced sharply, but the movement was by no means uniform. Express stocks and various other less active securities, including some of the low-priced railroad shares, were weak.

The passing influences of the day for the most part were of an unfavorable nature, and the resistance of the list to their force supported the opinion of the quantity expected by traders recently that the market had reached a sold-out condition. Filing of the anti-trust suit against Lehigh Valley after the close yesterday was without effect on the anthracite group. Lehigh Valley, in fact, was strongest of the active stocks, being bid up a point in the first hour. The government's action apparently had been discounted in the late decline yesterday, and covering of short lines put out at that time was responsible for the strength shown today. In the outside market Lehigh Valley coal sales was exceptionally weak. Liquidation in Rock Island securities was resumed, and new low prices were made for the collateral bonds and both issues of stock without disturbing the general market. Industrials were indifferent to depressing reports from the steel trade, which told of declining business and, in some instances, contraction of operations.

In the bond market movements were irregular. Rock Island Collaterals recovered after reaching 37. Selling of these bonds was due to fears of a default in the May interest payment, the usual March dividend not having been declared thus far on the stock underlying these bonds. Total sales, par value, $2,720,000.

United States 2's declined ½ to 98 on call, but were quoted later at 98½ bid.

NEW YORK CLOSING LETTER

By private wire to M. L. Dohan, broker, Dominion building, St. Peter street. Phone 4748. Branch, Quebec Ry Bldg., St. Joseph St. Phone 852.

New York, March 19.—The financial community received with indifference the announcement of the Government's suit against the anthracite roads and the reiteration of unfavorable advices regarding the steel trade. In fact the early stock market showed a mild upward tendency in spite of the general inactivity and the untoward speculative prospect. The feeling persists that the reactionary tone in advices relating to general business will have a beneficial effect at Washington and to hasten a decision of railway freight rates and stimulate increased effort to settle the Mexican difficulty. While the economic significance of an advance of freight rates has been exaggerated there can be no doubt of the wholesome moral effect of such an advance. It would very likely mean the immediate placing of large equipment orders with the steel mills and a general revival of business.

Notice—All clients long U. P. stock today will be made long "U. P. and rights" and until further notice all purchases or sales will be with rights attached, as Exchange rules that all certificates of Union must be with rights attached for same number of shares and name that stock Ctf stands in.

Total sales, 140,100.

CLOSING MARKET LETTER.

Received over the private wire of Neuville Belleau & Co., brokers, 93 St. Peter St., Quebec.

New York, March 19.—The market stagnated today, traders apparently waiting for some new impulse to lift speculation from the rut into which it has fallen. In fact, as London cables indicated, securities are dormant the world over, the same waiting attitude being displayed. England is in the throes of political uncertainty, the same being true of France, and even the United States waits upon action by Washington in various matters of prime importance to the business world. The reported settlement of the New Haven question to be announced in the near future fell flat in Wall Street, which is waiting for the definite conclusion of the negotiations. Intimations that the Interstate Commerce Commission might announce its findings in the railroad rate increase case by the middle of next month did not receive much credence and the traders generally were of the opinion that the outcome would be none too favorable to the roads. The government suit against the Lehigh to dissolve the connection of the road with the coal company apparently had been discounted, since the stock gave indications of quiet short covering. Strength in specialties like Cen. Leather called for little explanation, being due to pool manipulation. In contrast, continued weakness in the Rock Island group points to a desire of the public to liquidate such securities as face assessment under reorganization plans. Some improvement in the demand for copper is noted, which should logically help the copper shares eventually, though at the present time they feel the retarding influence of the general trade recession. More cheerful news from Washington as to the possibility of Huerta stepping out did not find corroboration in Washington, and until this question is cleared up Wall Street will continue hesitant. We still advise waiting for concessions.

Modern trade conditions are such that all up-to-date firms now have a periodical examination of their Books made by a disinterested Auditor.

They recognize its value for their own security and satisfaction. Bankers and Mercantile Agencies also attach much more importance and confidence to a Balance Sheet with an Auditor's certificate than one without such verification.

DISSOLVE SWEDISH ROYAL MARRIAGE

DIVORCE OF PRINCE WILLIAM AND GRAND DUCHESS PAVLOVNA IS APPROVED.

Stockholm, March 19—The Council of State has approved the dicision of the Consistory Court granting a divorce in the case of Prince William of Sweden and Princess Marie, who before her marriage was the Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna of Russia, and has declared the marriage dissolved. In their petitions for divorce incompatibility of temperament was given by both the Prince and Princess as the ground for their appeal. They requested a speedy decision.

Negotiations between the courts of St. Petersburg and Stockholm for the dissolution of the marriage began last November. The couple were married in 1908, and on account of alleged domestic troubles the Princess separated from her husband.

Brandy to Cure Catarrh

Recent experiments have proved conclusively that catarrh is a constitutional disease, and that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporise with the disease, and seldom if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money has been spent of late by a noted specialist in perfecting a pure, gentle, yet effective tonic that would dispel all traces of the catarrhal poison from the system. The result is given in the following formula, which has been found to produce most surprising results in an incredibly short time.

From your druggist obtain 1 oz. of Parmint. Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and two tablespoonfuls of brandy and 4 oz. of moist or granulated sugar. Stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, catarrhal discharge, and other loathsome symptoms that always accompany this disgusting disease.

Loss of smell, defective hearing, and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrh, and which are quickly overcome by the use of this simple treatment.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better.

Important—In ordering Parmint always specify that you want Double Strength; your druggist has it or he can get it for you; if not, send 75c. to the International Labatories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, P.Q., who make a specialty of it.

HOLDING UP OF FISHING TREATY

AT WASHINGTON MAY LEAD TO ITS LAPSING—MR. HAZEN'S STATEMENT

(Special to The Chronicle)

Ottawa, March 19—The continued holding up of the Fisheries Treaty at Washington and the activity shown by opposing lobbyists there, is causing considerable concern here as to the general outlook for the treaty. Though notice was served upon Washington, early in the year that this country could not wait beyond March 1st for notification of the agreement, the prospect of the treaty passing Congress early this month caused a less strict accounting, but as yet no favorable word has been received and there are fears that the treaty may fail entirely.

Mr. Hazen's Statement

Hon. J. D. Hazen made a statement in the House today. He referred to the fact that the Dominion Parliament in 1910, passed a bill making the treaty framed by the joint commission effective in so far as Canada was concerned. When the treaty was first presented to the American Senate, lobbyists quickly arrived at Washington in opposition. This he considered a most improper course, but probably the President had no power to prevent the American fishing interests taking such action. As a result of certain representations Canada was requested to consent to some modifications of the treaty and when such consent was given the President of the United States had explained that it was impossible to give effect to the treaty at the 1911 session because it was devoted entirely to tariff legislation. The necessary legislation was finally passed by the American Senate, but when the matter came up before the House of Representatives recently, the lobbyists again appeared at Washington and asked for further concessions.

These Canada refused to grant and it had been decided to notify the American Government that if the arrangement was not adhered to by March 1st, 1914, the treaty must lapse. In view of the fact that the bill to give effect to the treaty was still before Congress the Government had decided not to abide strictly by this notification. Word was expected from Washington in the near future, but if favorable action was not taken the treaty would be dead.

Canadian Fishermen Complain

Mr. Hazen pointed out that under existing conditions, Canadian Fishermen complain because that they are subject to restrictive regulations in international waters, which are not binding on American Fishermen. In the event of the expiring of the treaty the Government will have to decide whether or not these regulations are to be continued. The Fishery officers, Mr. Hazen said in conclusion, declare that if they are not kept in force the fisheries of the Great Lakes will be seriously affected.

In answer to a question put by Mr. Carroll, the Minister said that he was working on the question of improving the fisheries protective service for the inland waters. He trusted that before another year was passed they would have an improved service. His own view was that it was better to have fewer officers and the men better paid. Some guardians were only getting $20 a year and they could not expect much service in such a case.

The Indian Act

An act to amend the Indian Act was introduced by Hon. Dr. Roche. One amendment deals with industrial schools and provides that where there are no regular industrial schools the Minister may declare a public school to be an industrial school in the meaning of the act. Another amendment regulates the procedure for the expropriation of sites for industrial schools. A third extends the existing provisions of the law for the resumption of control over Indian reserves. At present such reserves may be taken over for municipal or industrial purposes when they are adjacent to a city or town. The amendment now proposed removes the qualification that the reserve must be adjacent to a city or town. A fourth amendment prohibits the attendance of Indians at dances or potlaches outside their own reserve.

C. P. R. TANK CARS

The construction of a couple of tank cars, specially equipped for fire fighting, is a new departure on the part of the C.P.R. They are, in general, of the standard construction. They have been built to the designs of the company by the American Car Company; and the idea is to operate them in Paris. Apart from the end arrangement of the auxiliary equipmeant, they are of identical construction. Each car carries a tank of 8,438 imperial gallons, and on the end of each car there is a 20 by 10 inch duplex fire pump, using steam from the locomotive boiler. The corresponding end of the other car has a rack construction on which can be carried 6,000 feet of fire hose. The car is designed for weight capacity of 100,000 pounds, so standard fifty-ton trucks are employed. These tank cars have done good service in the United States.

BIG CRACKS ON HAND AND FINGERS

Eczema for Three Years. Broke Out on Head in Scales. Itched and Burned Badly. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Lyons Brook, N. S.—"I suffered with eczema for three years. It started on my hands first in sores between my fingers and all over the palms of my hand and fingers were big cracks. Then it broke out on my head in scales. It itched and burned so badly I could not sleep It was so itching and burning that I scratched and made sores and my hair came out awfully bad. I did not know what it was.

"I was treated for a long time and it did not do any good. I gave up my work for a month but as soon as I started doing my house-work again my hands got just as bad as ever. I used two bottles of ——— and it did not do any good. One day I read about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them. I sent for a sample and I used them till I saw it stopped the itching and burning, so I got three cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and that cured me." (Signed) Mrs. P. J. McKearney, May 27, 1913.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, nor do it so economically. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

FATAL FIRE IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN

TWO BODIES RECOVERED AND A THIRD ONE SUPPOSED TO BE IN THE RUINS.

Detroit, Mich., March 19—Two bodies have been recovered and a third body is believed to be in the ruins of a five-storey brick building at 55-57 Woodbridge street, which was swept by fire this afternoon. Two men were injured and two score of employees, including a number of young women, escaped from the blazing building. The property loss was estimated at $100,000.

The known dead are:

Walter Libbey, Peterburg, Ont.
John Law, Newark, N.J.

Both men were employed by Wilson and Sharpe, who operated a machine shop on the fifth floor. Both bodies were badly burned. A man named Todd, who worked for the same company, is missing.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.
