

Monday Evening Parade Winds Up Another Successful Season

For the past six weeks, youngsters of all creeds and language had the opportunity to enjoy themselves under the supervision of monitors. This was made possible by the local organization known as O.T.J. (Playground Association) to which a group of people devote themselves every year.

The little ones were able to take part in many activities and spent many pleasant hours. The trips to the neighbouring beaches were most popular. Two weeks ago all of them (2 bus loads) were taken to the local Rotary Club. The Malone authorities greeted them warmly as they do on each occasion. The kids were able to swim in the pool and take part in many organized games. They also enjoyed a picnic on the grounds. The O.T.J. organizers are very grateful to the Rotary Club for their contribution in giving joy to the little ones.

Last week, the members of the parade. Decorated bicycles, fancy costumes, even floats designed by young boys and girls of ten to twelve years old showed their ingenuity. The committee of the O.T.J. took part in the parade. The Mayor and mayoress, duke and duchess in convertible cars were the stars of the parade. After going on York Cemetery, Chateaugay, Bouchette streets, the parade turned on King and stopped on the school grounds to form at the County Building where the heroes were greeted by Alderman Murphy, acting as pro-mayor, councillors Brisebois and Laplante. Mr. Brisebois addressed a few words and invited them to sign the golden book; members of the committee and the chief monitor also signed. Then the president thanked the town representatives for their contribution to this organization and expressed the hope that it can count on it again in the future. As they went out of the building they were cheered by the approximate hundred children who are members of the O.T.J.

They again formed their ranks to proceed to the school grounds, where prizes were awarded for the best costumes or decorations. Later, a bonfire was lit and the children gathered around signing.

And with this ended another season of activities for the children of our community. Praise is due to the committee, the monitors and also those who helped make this possible. We wish them continued success.

Remarks On Budget

Before the budget was presented, we were given an economic report on which the budget was based. This mass of documents that was made available to us contained an impressive amount of statistics that showed progress in 1966. It clearly indicated that the very large investments in the Province paid dividends. Public investments are important in any province, but this is more important in Quebec because not only did we have a lot of catching up to do, but we also have to find ways and means to stimulate private investments to encourage industrial development. We will have to find productive jobs for a growing and better educated labor force. The budget does nothing to even recognize this problem and if anything, discourages investment by reducing demand through the increase of the sales tax. The Minister of Finance, in preparing his budget, was rethinking like a politician rather than an economist. I have no quarrel with the Minister's choice to give education priority. We need educated people, they are an important ingredient to our industrial development, but hand in hand with the development in education there has to be the creation of many jobs. If we cannot find satisfactory employment for our young people, they will go elsewhere. That there be no mistake, a young and better educated labor force is mobile, and if they cannot find employment in Quebec, we are bound to lose the cream.

Since the Liberal Government under Mr. Lesage assumed to share the responsibility of not wasting our human resources, it is the duty of the present Government to discharge the responsibility. I submit, Mr. Speaker, that the budget as presented by the Minister of Finance will not do it. Mr. Speaker, the Minister has accomplished several things with his budget, he has achieved special status for Quebec, it has become the most heavily taxed province in Canada. He has no doubt solved the problem of immigration by encouraging immigrants to settle elsewhere than in Quebec. He has pulled the sheep's skin from the Union Nationale Government and disclosed the wolfish 8% tax that will eat up many of the hopes of the people who voted them into power.

M. Kenneth Fraser
M. FRASER: Mr. President, in the budget for 1967-68, as presented by the Minister of Finance, as a member from an agricultural county I was interested to see what would be the programs of the Department of Agriculture to help solve the farm problems facing the farmers of this Province. Everyone knows that the problem is a complex one with many complications, international, national as well as provincial. I was disappointed therefore to see that in a speech that covers nineteen pages in the Journal des Debats, the Minister has devoted one small paragraph to the Department of Agriculture, and only 3.7% of the total budget.

Mr. Speaker, the budget deals with the finances of the Province, money. Farmers are interested in money, money and more especially the lack of money is the problem. Another pre-cause of the decline of agriculture to industrial development and the reason why men is to find ways and thousands of farmers' sons means to improve the climate have left the farm to go into the labour front. The power of the easier and more lucrative struggle within and betwixt employment. The basic between the union movement solution to this problem is can result in discouraging money. Descendants Of English River Blacks Enjoy Family Reunion At The Finlay Milne Home

More than 50 descendants of the Black family who settled on the English River in 1827, attended a reunion held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Finlay Milne, Riverfield.

A bountiful lunch supplied by local members of the clan was served at the noon hour. Mrs. Ernest Robertson, 84 and her cousin Mr. John Black, 83, of Tupper Lake, N.Y. cut the anniversary cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Finlay Milne welcomed the guests, who were descendants of Josiah Black (1815-1895) native of Glasgow and a son of the original Black settler who owned a print field at Patrick, Scotland and sailed from the Clyde in 1827. (The story of their arrival and early life in Canada, is told by the son Josiah in Sellar's History (page 523).

Josiah married Ann Wylie (1818-1892) of Perthshire, in 1842. They had 8 children, Alexander 1843, James 1845, Janet 1846, Agnes 1848 John 1850, Josiah (Jr.) 1852, William 1857, Margaret Christina Ann, 1859.

Donald Black, son of Josiah Jr., was the Master of Ceremonies for the afternoon program. He read from a clipping he has in his possession dating from the death of his grandfather Josiah Black Senior, on April 7th, 1895 at 80 years of age.

After the reading of this history Mr. Black called on the oldest descendant, Mr. Ernest Robertson, (Annie Black) of Riverfield. She said she knew she was born in Chicago, Ill. 84 years ago. Her father was William Black (1857) and her mother, Adeline Angell, died a few days after she was born the Black family who settled on the English River in 1827, home to Riverfield, a tiny baby attended a reunion held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Finlay Milne, Riverfield. When the train arrived at Montreal her aunt handed her to another aunt and said, "The baby is dead". Grandma and Grandpa Black cared for her for 6 weeks then she was taken to her Grandma Angell at Riverfield. She is the only grandchild who remembers Grandpa and Grandma Black.

The second speaker of the afternoon was John Black of Tupper Lake who was accompanied by his daughter Marion. Another brother, Jim Black, Jim Black Jr. and his sister Ann of Malone, N.Y.

Other speakers were Alex Black of California, who learned his trade with Annie Robertson's father William, a construction contractor who had lived in many places in the U.S.A.

William Black, (brother of Donald) is a successful wheat farmer in Camrose, Alberta. His sons were present also, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Black and family and Mr. Keith Black, all of Alberta.

A third brother, Angus of Aubrey, son William of Montreal and daughter Phyllis Lett, and Fred of Montreal, Agnes Black Milne, the hostess and daughters Thelma and Clifford Brown, Shirley and Robert B. Ness, Anita and Charles Judson, also Ann Brown, daughter of Thelma and Clifford, who spoke for her generation.

The generations spoke in turn and all expressed pleasure in being together. The (Continued on page 5)

INFANT SHOT ACCIDENTALLY

Another weekend tragedy occurred on Friday evening at about 6:15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armistice Miljour of the Gore Road.

The parents, who were away at the time had left their eldest son Robert, in charge of the children. Robert noticed that his brother Jean Claude, 2½ years old was playing with a 12 gauge shot gun. Realizing the danger, he tried to take the gun from the smaller boy and in doing so in some way released the trigger. A blast from the gun struck the infant and he was killed instantly.

Provincial police were called to the scene and had Dr. George Lefebvre, Coroner go along. The latter declared the death accidental and the body of the victim was taken to the Kelly Funeral Home.

A service for the victim was held in Herdman Church on Saturday, after which

THREE LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE ATTEND CENTENNIAL JUNIOR ALBERTA FARMER EXCHANGE

Three young people from this area were recently honoured by the Quebec Farmers' Association in representing Quebec on a Junior Farmer visit along with eight other Quebec youth. Douglas Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hunter; Clayton Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Murphy, both of Huntingdon and Carolyn Templeton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Templeton of Howick, were members of the delegation which left Montreal by train on July 2.

They arrived in Edmonton on July 4, shortly after midnight. It had been a long day for these Quebecers as they had moved their watches back two hours. The following morning they toured the city of Edmonton. This included the University of Alberta, the Jubilee Auditorium and the Alberta Legislative Building. From Edmonton they travelled to Rocky Mountain House by bus and then by car 65 miles up into the mountains to Gold Eye Camp. Here they spent three days attending the Junior Farmers' Union of Alberta Annual Convention. They also met young people from across the province who were attending a graduate seminar.

On July 8 they dispersed to farms and ranches throughout the province. This farm visit included a variety of interesting things such as horseback riding, gopher shooting, and water skiing.

They all especially enjoyed meeting the rural people and getting to understand their common farming problems. The western hospitality was wonderful.

During this farm week the twelve young people met at the Calgary Stampede and enjoyed the grandstand show and the evening's famous Chuckwagon Races. Later they met a young man who had actually ridden as an out- rider in these races. That evening they headed by car to Banff and early by the following morning began sightseeing. Lake Louise was their first stop and they went only as far west as the British Columbia border at Kicking Horse Pass. They enjoyed the scenery at Johnston's Canyon and a four-mile hike up the mountain trail. The Gondola lift up Sulphur Mountain furnished a grand view of the majestic Rockies. The Cascade Rock Gardens at Banff were a most refreshing change from the mountains. The Hot Springs were a completely new experience for the Quebec group although one cannot really swim in water that is 110°F. Dinner in a large Italian Restaurant proved to be quite an experience and the remainder of the evening was spent shopping in Banff, catching a glimpse of campus life at the Banff School of Fine Arts, and driving around the resort town.

POLICE AT ORMSTOWN KEPT BUSY FOR PAST TWO WEEKS

Break ins, accidents, fights and run-aways have kept the Ormstown Police busy for the past two weeks. An accident at the corner of Roy and Bridge Streets on August 8th at 8:30 p.m. involved a 1963 Rambler owned by Gordon Koser of Franklin Centre and a 1963 Mercury owned by Guy Girard of 4330 1st Ave in Laval. Damage to the Rambler amounted to $125.00 while the Mercury damage was estimated at $400. On August 10th at 4:50 p.m. an accident on route 14 resulted in complete damage to a car owned by Emile Belaire, who was driving a 1958 Chev with a $50 damage suffered by Stanley Currie who was driving a 1962 Chev Station Wagon.

A recent break-in at the CNR station resulted in the arrest of two Montreal men. The Ormstown Police were helped in the ultimate solution to the particular crime through the alertness of the Station Master who was puzzled by the query put to him by two strange men on the day of the break-in. They wanted to know when the next passenger train arrived. Since there has not been a passenger train for more than ten years in Ormstown, the Station master immediately went to the door on the departure of the two men and took the licence number of their car. On being questioned the next day by the police, he was able to furnish them with that information which led to the arrest of the culprits.

The thief who stole a car owned by T. Dandurand was arrested shortly after his crime.

Two young girls were picked up by the police on the weekend. They were hitchhiking to Malone at eleven o'clock at night. On being questioned they told police of their intentions and were immediately taken into custody. On further questioning they revealed that they were from Montreal, their parents were contacted and came to Ormstown to get the girls, both were fourteen years of age.

The home of Mr. Kenneth Cooke was broken into last week and a strong box containing valuable papers and an amount of money was stolen. Two boys, one from Ormstown and the other a fourteen year old from Huntingdon were apprehended and dealt with by Provincial Police.

The Ormstown Police now have a car radio which greatly speeds their work and will prove most valuable to them in carrying out justice.

Several Federal Buildings Are In The Plans For This Locality

Mr. Gerald Laniel, M.P. for Beauharnois-Salaberry is happy to announce that the federal government has decided to build two more post offices in our region next winter. One of them will be erected in St-Stanislas-de-Kostka and the other at St. Anicet. The construction should begin in November and be completed in the spring of 1968.

According to Mr. Laniel these buildings will be erected on certain conditions. The local authorities must be in favor, the Public Works Department must acquire an appropriate site and reasonable conditions and that the tenders for the construction meet the estimates of the Department.

In St. Louis de Gonzague, where the building of a post office has been discussed for a couple of years, the plans are all ready and tenders will be called by the end of August.

As far as Melocheville is concerned, a similar project has been postponed due to the recent expropriation of about one hundred houses, but the project is included in the regular construction programme for 1969. Mr. Laniel is hopeful that this municipality will have its own post office by that year.

Finally, Mr. Laniel has been informed that in regards to the construction of the federal building in Valleyfield, the plans and specifications will be ready soon and tenders should be asked for Sept. 18, 1967 and that the contract should be given on October 15th, unless unforeseen problems occur. This building which will cost approximately $1 million will house a post office, the Manpower Centre, the Customs and Excise offices. It is to be erected on the old Beauharnois canal, facing Jacques-Cartier Street.

Third Year For Mr. Perron

Mayor Of St. Anicet Heads Union Of County Councils

The annual meeting of the Union of County Councils of the Province of Quebec was held at the Chateau Champlain in Montreal the past week. More than one thousand delegates attended the three-day conference that officially opened on August sixth and was terminated by a banquet on the 8th. Mr. Lucien Perron, Mayor of St. Anicet, was re-elected president for the third consecutive annual term. Equalization of taxes for all counties was the main topic of discussion and Mrs. James E. Barrett, secretary, is of the opinion that when the general evaluation roll is made next year greater effort will be made to base taxes according to a prepared scientific roll.

Those attending the conference from Huntingdon County were Mayor Charles Reid and Mrs. Reid, Godmanchester; Mayor Alister Somerville and Mrs. Somerville, Hemmingford; Mayor Allan Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Hinchinbrooke; Mayor Sylvio Benoit and Mrs. Benoit, Ste. Barbe; Mayor Graham Saller and Mrs. Saller, Elgin; Mayor Gerald Faubert and Mrs. Faubert, Dundee; Mayor Kenneth Sample and Mrs. Sample, Havelock; Mayor Marc-Andre Barrette and Mrs. Barrette, Franklin.

Mayor Lucien Perron of St. Anicet presided at the three-day convention and was ably assisted in the social activity by Mrs. Perron, Mrs. James E. Barrett, secretary of the Union of County Councils, was accompanied at the banquet by her sisters, Mrs. Robert Barrette and Mrs. Raoul Soueise, both of Huntingdon.

HUNTINGDON - ORMSTOWN HOLSTEIN CLUB TWILIGHT MEETING HELD

Around 100 people arrived at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Pinsonneault at Port Lewis, on Wednesday night, August 9th, for a twilight meeting of the Huntingdon-Ormstown Holstein Club.

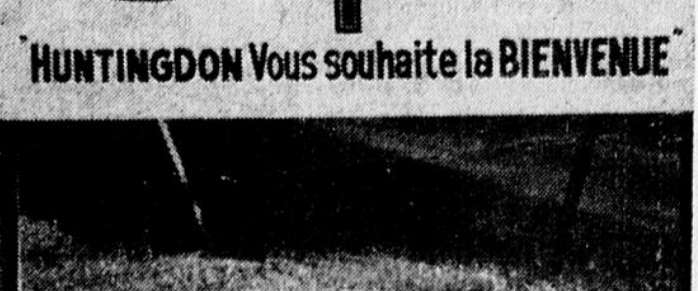

Murray Templeton, President, opened the evening by welcoming all those present and then turned the meeting over to Mr. Hermas Lajoie and Pierre Lenore who were present from the Head Office of the Quebec Branch.

A class of cows were judged by all, after which Mr. Lajoie gave the official placing and reasons for same. Mr. Lenore gave a very interesting talk on R.O.P. Grading, raising heifers and calves to achieve better cattle. Many prizes were distributed, thanks to the various merchants, and anyone who donated prizes.

Guests each brought their own lunch which was served with coffee kindly donated by Mr. and Mrs. Pinsonneault and chocolate milk donated by J. J. Joubert, through the courtesy of Mr. Daoust, Milk Transport.

The President thanked the host and hostess for the fine hospitality shown and also called on Mr. Rene Sauvé to say a few words on behalf of the club.

WELCOME TO HUNTINGDON

The sign which welcomes visitors to our Town of Huntingdon is to be seen at both East and West approaches to Town on Highway No. 4. They were placed there by the Council of the Town of Huntingdon to welcome all visitors. At the same time the dates 1867 and 1967 on each side of the Centennial symbol draws attention to Canada's Centennial of Confederation. They are quite colorful signs and one cannot but see them.

Remarks on

business by low prices. The farmer in Quebec, the Canadian farmer, finds himself competing with the American farmer who has been subsidized to some extent. The climate in Pennsylvania and the neighbouring States or even in Wisconsin, gives the farmers a great advantage over the farmers in Quebec who must keep their cattle in the barn for six and a half months of the year, seven months this last winter.

We are also in direct competition with the New Zealand farmers who can produce cheap butter, because their cattle are outside twelve months of the year and need extra feed only two or three months. The same thing is true for farmers in the British Isles, in Denmark, in Holland and in other countries in Europe.

Mr. Speaker, to help solve the farm problem, the government has cut the budget of the Department of Agriculture by $4 1/2 million in ordinary expenditures. The government is introducing crop insurance. This is a good thing but it is not a cure-all, nor will it perform any miracles. It will act in the same way as fire insurance. It will prevent a loss from being a disaster, but it will cover only 80% of the loss, not 100%. It will be another bill to pay in an industry that has already only been able to keep its head above water under the best conditions and with considerable federal aid. The federal program of subsidies on industrial milk has been the greatest step in the right direction in my opinion, that has ever been done for the dairy industry in Canada. In 1966, the Federal Government helped Quebec farmers to the tune of $24 1/2 million.

I would ask the Minister of Agriculture to be very vigilant in making sure that these subsidies do not serve to deliver milk to the companies at a lower price and allow them to take big profits at the expense of the taxpayer. For the benefit of the honorable members who have not had the benefits and privileges of a life on the farm, I would like to point out a few figures.

Many speakers in discussing the farm problem say that the farmers must become more efficient. An interesting article in "La Presse" gives figures to prove that the Canadian farmer is the most efficient farmer in the world by a considerable margin.

Using 1957 to 1959 period as a base of 100, the total production in Canada has risen to 109 in 1960 — in the United States it is 106 — to 128 in 1963 — in United States it is 112 — to 144 in 1966 compared to 113 in United States. The same thing is true of production per person employed in Canada in 1967, it equalled 100. It increased until 1966. Now it is 124, that is much higher than in any other country. The number of people employed in agriculture in Quebec in 1941 was roughly 250,000 persons or 13.1% of the population. In 1966, there are only 109,000 people or 5% of the population who are producing our food. To show up part of the economy, what contribution it gives to the economy, the dairy industry in Canada produced 17 billion pounds of milk, 34% of this was produced in Quebec, 37% in Ontario. This milk was sold to 1,300 dairy plants for $600 millions giving employment to 30,000 persons other than farmers whose wages amounted to over $140 millions.

Now, Mr. Speaker, what benefit will the new policies of the Government be to the farmer in Huntingdon County, who, last year, fed his grain to 40 hogs? He fed them for five months and he lost $5 per hog, that is $200 on his winter work. The same thing is true of the broiler industry. The people raising broiler chickens are working on a very small profit, they are practically working for nothing. The same thing is true with the potato industry and many other farming ventures where the people are working on a small profit.

My argument is this. Why should we insure our crops at extra expense, when the farmer after all his work and hopes sells the end products at cost or at a loss? The fluid milk producer is also in difficulty. He has had some increases during the last year and I will give you figures to show how little. There was much publicity when the price of fluid milk was raised by $.02 or $.03 a quart in Montreal and in the other markets too, besides an increase of $.01 last summer. Since one year, the dairies in Montreal have had an increase of $1.90 for a hundred pounds, the farmer an increase of $.90. As a producer, I received in November of last year $4.88 per cwt on average price for total production or $.12.1 per quart. In February, after the increase, I received $.04 for a hundred pounds or $.12.6 a quart. One half cent a quart extra with the supposed increase in price.

The consumer in Montreal is paying $.08 to $.10 a quart delivery charges. One delivery man with only the investment of a truck made $6,900.00 last year more than any farmer producing on the market. The price of delivery should not be included in the price of milk.

I cannot understand why the marketing board maintains a minimum price for milk. This only protects the profits of the big dairies; it limits competition and maintains a system that is inefficient and costly to the consumer. Let the dairies compete and let efficiency replace disorder. The present price received by the farmer is not enough to stop the many farmers who are selling out nor is it enough to encourage young men to undertake the great investment that modern farming demands. The solution to the farming problem is not a Chamber of Agriculture or crop insurance alone. The solution lies in setting up in cooperation with the other provinces and the Federal Government a system of floor prices for farm products that will stop the bottom falling out of the market, that will stop the fluctuation of prices that rob the farmer of his livelihood, fluctuations that more often than not are not reflected in prices to the consumer. The floor price must be high enough to insure the producer a fair return for his labour and his capital invested.

In the socialistic State in which we live, where family allowances, pensions and social aid protect the livelihood in such a large percentage of our population, the man who works and produces our food must be assured of a decent return for his labor or he will lose interest in working. There must be difference between one who works and one who does not.

On the family allowances, I am in favor of them as I stated in the first speech I ever made in this house. However, Mr. Speaker, on speaking about social aid given to the people of this province, $261 million, that was up $25 million from last year, may I say that the worker who is paying this in taxes and every one who pays taxes is carrying an enormous burden. I see in the budget an item for $20 million for social aid to employable persons.

Mr. President, can Quebec afford to continue giving mo-

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Melnyk of St. Bruno were Saturday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bell. Mr. Melnyk, former principal of Huntingdon High School and who has been principal of the Noranda High School for the past three years, has accepted the principalship of St. Bruno High School for the 1967-68 term.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Caldwell of Noranda are spending this week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Curran and son Kim have returned home after spending a week with relatives at Chipman, N.B.

While there, they attended the Crabb-Barter wedding. The former Miss Anna Barter is well known to many in this community as she was on the nursing staff of the Huntingdon County Hospital for some time and her husband, David Crabb was stationed in Huntingdon with the local R.C.M.P. detachment for a year.

Mrs. Glenn Loveridge of Cuba, N.Y., arrived in Huntingdon on Tuesday and is spending a few days with her friend Mrs. Mae O'Connor. Mrs. Loveridge (the former Mrs. Olivette Kelly) will also be calling on other friends here and plans to visit Expo.

Mrs. M. Binnie of Derby, England, and Mrs. Gordon Pinel of Toronto are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Angus McNaughton. They will visit with other relatives in the neighbourhood also. Mrs. McNaughton has just returned after spending several days in Westmount with her friend, Miss Mary MacFarlane. ney to people who are able to work but do not. I consider it a waste of money to give a man money for doing nothing. I would rather see twice this amount spent to give employment in the rural areas of this province, there are thousands of farmers who need fences built, ditches dug, brush cut, barns painted or repainted, who have not the time or the money to hire men to do this work. The present system of social service is creating and will perpetuate for generations a class of people who will not work. If the children of a family are brought up in this kind of an environment, they will, in a great majority of cases, end up as a burden on society, on the man who works and pays taxes.

The only way to break this chain, the terrific hold of environment, is to make work available and an obligation for those who are able. If a man is dependent on the State for his livelihood, he should be made an employee of the state and produce in some way for what he receives.

The Late Thomas J. O'Connor. The community was saddened and shocked on Saturday, August 5th, to learn of the sudden passing of Thomas J.

O'Connor, a lifetime resident of Huntingdon. Mr. O'Connor had been in apparent good health until a few days before his death when he entered the Huntingdon County Hospital, under observation. Shortly after noon he was stricken with a severe heart seizure which proved fatal.

Born in Huntingdon on October 31st, 1891, the deceased was the son of the late Joseph O'Connor and Ellen O'Hare. He followed the occupation of farming throughout his lifetime and was highly respected by his neighbors and a multitude of friends. His thoughtfulness and many acts of charity to friend or stranger will long live in the memories of those whom he assisted. His love for and kindness to children were among the many fine qualities he possessed. The numerous floral offerings and Mass offerings attested to the esteem in which he was held. A veteran of World War I, he served with the Canadian Army overseas and served with the Canadian Legion, Branch 81 during World War II. Mr. O'Connor was a member of St. Joseph's Church. He served both on the Godmanchester Council and Catholic School Commission for many years.

He married the former Grace Walsh of Huntingdon, who survives. He also leaves to mourn his loss three daughters, Mrs. George Leroux (Eileen) of Valleyfield, Mrs. Gerald Gallagher (Rita) of Montreal, Mrs. Bruce Anderson (Marjorie) of Malone, four sons, Emmet of Gatineau, Cecil of Huntingdon, Vincent of Montreal and Ancel of Sherbrooke, 23 grandchildren, three sisters, Sister Helen Marie, O.S.B. of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Edward Harrigan (Lucy) of Saranac Lake and Mrs. Hugh Cavanagh (Elizabeth) of Churubusco. Four brothers and six sisters predeceased him.

His funeral, largely attended, was held from St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon on Tuesday, August 8th. Mgr. J. A. David officiated at the Requiem Mass. Five of his grand-nephews served as altar boys. A very impressive ceremony was held at the grave by the Canadian Legion, Branch 81 of which he was a member. President Anne Cameron conducted the ceremony.

Honorary pallbearers were: Legionnaires Edward Beare and Frank Napier. Pallbearers were: Legionnaires Paul Patterson, James O'Hare, Telesphore Emond, Cyril Rolfe, Art Champion and Earl Wilson.

Aubrey-Riverfield Messrs. Gene and Neil Goundrey motored to Jeffersonville, Vt., recently and attended the Maplerama on Friday and Saturday. This included a tour to different Maple sugar shanties, the Vermont Maple Research Station, the Leader Evaporator Plant and a ride on the Madonna Ski Lift.

This and That in Town

✓ THERE'S A CANARY in Oortown that's going to wish he was safely back in his cage if the nights get much cooler. Monday morning, on the way to her office, Mrs. James E. Barrett saw the little bird on Wellington St., near the park. If anyone is mourning the loss of a pet because he can't be found, forget it: the little digger is having a whale of a time discovering the big, wide world.

✓ JIM OF THE STORE exercised muscles he didn't even know he had over the week-end. Seems he was enjoying a cruise with friends when his sleek inboard developed real engine trouble. Dipping a paddle from St. Anicet down to Connaught Place sweat off a few lbs., bejabbers.

✓ ALDRIDGE SAUMIER, the Kensington Grocery Man, is walking on air these days. His long-time favourite baseball team, the Boston Red Sox are in the thick of the fight to win the American League Pennant. From what the baseball experts are saying they could do it because they have the strongest reserves sitting on the bench. If they do win, there will be a lot of rejoicing in Kensington.

✓ THE MALONE GOLF team which took part in the recent Northern New York Six Man Team Championship at Massena finished in third place. The strong Massena Team scored a 75-stroke victory over runner-up Gouverneur. With Malone two strokes behind. Our local Golf Champ tells us he didn't play too well, but couldn't think of any reason for it. Jon said "Maybe I'm getting too old to stand the pressure."

✓ TALKING ABOUT GOLF, we wonder when local insurance man Bud Bourgon is going to take that golf lesson from Henri Gregoire, of Furniture Fame.

✓ ORMSTOWN — The High Boys from this town who provided the dance music for a Teenagers' Dance at Hemmingford last week-end are a real swinging group. Roy Youngie plays the rhythm guitar, Harry Youngie handles lead guitar, Brian Aldridge bass guitar; George Barrington is on tenor sax, Randy Campbell alto sax; Chris Ness does an excellent job on the electric organ keyboard and Tom Aldridge is the drummer boy. The dance band has been a hit at Lake Hermas, Howick High and the 4-H dances at Ormstown. According to some of those cool cats from Hemmingford, the High Boys are on their way.

✓ TALKING ABOUT HEMMINGFORD, the Golf & Country Club there is really putting that town on the map. Quite a number of families from south of the border are now members at this club as well as the local players for miles around and the numerous members from Montreal and district. Apart from the Keddys families and a few more, we don't hear many fish stories from there though, and we've sometimes wondered how many of them have ever gone trout fishing in the Ausable River, some 40 miles to the south in N.Y. state country. It's a wonderful river for rainbows, browns and brooks. Several groups from Huntingdon have been fishing the Ausable and they've brought home the limit each trip. The river is swift and the rocks slippery and treacherous. Alex Roy of Huntingdon says he thought he was a goner one day not long ago when he slipped into a hole. Another good river, according to the local experts, is the Chazy.

✓ SURVEY FINDS NEWSPAPER BEST for learning about products — The newspaper is the most popular choice as the best medium for finding out about advertised items. According to a survey disclosed at the recent International Marketing Congress in Toronto, and reported in Marketing, the local newspaper was chosen for six out of the 10 of the 120 items (58%) named in the survey. Television came next, leading in 32% of the items, and radio in 1%, or about the same as word of mouth. Frank Orenstein, of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, who revealed the survey results, said the people most interested in a product turned consistently to printed advertising for information about it because of "the more detailed information in print ads and the fact that print can be examined at the convenience of the consumer."

✓ EXPO VISITORS BOOST BEEF PRICES — Steaks and hamburgers being consumed by visitors to Expo 67, along with a heavy demand across Canada, will keep beef prices high during August, reports Maclean-Hunter's Ottawa business news bureau. Turkeys may be cheaper than they were last fall. Here is the food price outlook for August, based on predictions just issued by federal agriculture officials: broiler CHICKEN marketings will be up, but little price change is expected; the big 1967 TURKEY crop has started to market and the outlook is for slightly lower prices than a year ago; heavy seasonal BEEF demand, increased by Expo visitors, will mean continued high prices; PORK supplies are plentiful and no immediate price changes are expected; EGG prices have gone up and more small increases are likely; smaller crops of PEACHES and PLUMS are expected than last year, with firm prices; early varieties of APPLES will be available this month, with good crop prospects; LETTUCE and TOMATO prices are expected to drop from current high levels.

ORMSTOWN — A white 1957 Lincoln four-door sedan bearing New York State license number FR-5284 went out of control on a side road near Dewittville about three o'clock this morning (Wednesday) and crashed into a tree. Q.P.P. from Huntingdon investigated the accident and report that Pierre Caza 19, from Ormstown and a 16-year-old companion also from that town were seriously injured and taken to the Barrie Memorial Hospital. The car was demolished, extensive damage being done to the front of the vehicle and the left side, and was towed to Huntingdon by the C. J. Kyle wrecker.

some of the Stampede performances downtown and then it was back to their ranches for three more days. All of the young people really enjoyed their farm visits as they became a member of the family unit for a few days and it was also a chance for many of them to catch up on a bit of extra sleep that they had missed out on.

July 16 found them returning to Gold Eye Camp for a full session at Ten Camp. This was great fun and they enjoyed meeting about fifty other young people from the Edmonton and Calgary districts. At this camp the young people ran their own organizations complete with town council and newspaper. They owned shares in their own canteen and planned all their own recreation programs and evening entertainment. Discussions concerning Rural and Urban Organizations, Co-Operatives, Citizenship and Trade Unionism all proved interesting and informative. Four sessions of leadership skills, of which there were a variety, will prove useful to these delegates in the future. The highlight of the delightful week in the Rockies was a banquet which the young people had planned and organized themselves. The evening's entertainment included a lively talent show with practically everyone participating. A special Centennial Candlelighting Service was held at midnight when the past met with the future at the present.

Back to Edmonton on July 22, they caught a glimpse of Klondike Days and the gold rush festivities before boarding the train for Montreal. A trip across this land of ours — something to remember and something to cherish.

A Visit To Washington, D.C. For "The Book Of Kings"

Arnold McNaughton, Hemmingford, spent an interesting week in Washington, D.C., following an Eastern Airline flight July 26th from Montreal as guest of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Beall III. Mr. Beall has been assisting in editing McNaughton's manuscript, "The Book of Kings" to be published at the end of 1968 in London, England. It was decided a few weeks previously that in order to do justice to the work both parties had best get together so that the deadline date for the end of 1967, when the manuscript has to be delivered to the publisher, be thoroughly reviewed. In the last year over 1300 pages comprise the manuscript to date. The visit provided most successful as all but 150 pages were edited (i.e. checked and double checked), questioned, sources of information established as to where every item was located and a code chosen by which every name and chapter was to be identified as it shall appear when published at the end of 1968.

Assisting as Contributing Editors are Mr. Milton Rubincam, West Hyattsville, Maryland, Past President of the American Society of Genealogists as well as Honorary Vice President of the Ontario Genealogical Society at Waterloo, and by Mr. John Coddington, Bordenstown, New Jersey, retired Instructor in History at Harvard University. All four met at the Rubincam home on the afternoon of July 26th. It was the first time in the more than 12 years of correspondence that McNaughton and Mr. Coddington had met one another. It was in fact, through Mr. Coddington that Arnold was put in touch with "Bill Beall" and Mr. Rubincam. Many interesting letters in the field of Royal genealogy were passed between McNaughton and his three American friends during those years. Only after careful consideration and searching out the fact that McNaughton was just another "crack-pot" genealogist did "Bill" offer to edit the whole work. He is two years younger than McNaughton and knowing from experience the pitfalls into which one might fall in the publishing field he offered, with no strings attached, to edit the entire work. Messrs. Rubincam and Coddington offered their years of experience and advice to this apparent determined Canadian who, after realizing his work had been accepted by a British publisher, was bent only on heading his 20 years of research in one direction — a published book. This meant that all the original work must be McNaughton's since the three men did not want to interfere with its authorship. Small wonder that owing to their interests these four, with 40 years dividing the youngest from the oldest, conversation went on for several hours without interruption.

All, however, was not all work. McNaughton's hosts arranged, that in order to take a break from the concentration of checking every detail and between visits to the Library of Congress drives about Washington might be a mode of relaxation. Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington was one visit last afternoon; Sunday to Arlington National Cemetery to visit the Lee mansion, the new open mausoleum of the burial site of President Kennedy and to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier (arriving just as the changing of the guard was taking place); Monday to

Dear Mr. McNaughton, We took your last questionnaire with us to Herdington and had hoped that it would be answered from there. I gather from your latest letter that it was not, so I sat down immediately and called up all the people in question. I hope that now you have all the details you need and am very sorry that you had to go to all the trouble twice.

Please let me know when the book is published and available for the public as I would be very interested to read it. I can imagine how complicated and exacting your work must have been and I am sure that it will be a relief for you to have it published at last!

If you ever come to Germany do look us up — we are 1 hour by car from Frankfurt Airport!

With our very best wishes for the success of "The Book of Kings"

Letter to the Editor

Flying U Ranch,

Ormstown, Quebec,
August 14th, 1967.

Editor of the Huntingdon Gleaner.

Huntingdon, Quebec.

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to let people know one of the things that the Canadian Government is doing for its young citizens. This year about 5,000 high school students are taking part in a programme of student exchanges and I was fortunate enough to be chosen to participate in this annual event.

I travelled in a unit of twenty-four students, the majority being French speaking from Montreal. We received guests from Newfoundland for the first week of July, and we enjoyed learning about their province in many different dialects. Our unit has just returned from a delightful week in Abbotsford, British Columbia. The people of Abbotsford greeted us with the warmest hospitality and everyone did his best to make our stay very pleasant and exciting.

The aim of these exchanges is to promote friendship and understanding among all people across Canada. I am certain that this aim was achieved.

As a result of these exchanges we have become better acquainted with the various social, economic, and geographic characteristics of the rest of Canada. We have learned about many walks of life and our understanding of life in the city and life in small towns has been greatly strengthened.

As this was my first trip outside the province of Quebec, I found it a very exciting experience. I made many new friends and I have learned a lot about Canada's people. My first experience this year is one that I will cherish all my life.

With Sincerest Thanks,

A. McNaughton

Editorial Notes..

A Summer Activity Serving A Useful Purpose

THE summer season is surely drawing to a close as once again we notice advertising pertaining to Back-To-School shopping and general reminders to prepare children going back to school. The local textile industries have had their holiday period and the town is once more taking on a settled look.

Still another event which may have passed unnoticed except to a few is the undertaking of the Playgrounds Association, known as the O.T.J. This has now been carried on annually for a number of years. On Monday evening the conclusion of this activity was held with a parade and the signing of the Golden Book at the Council Chambers to mark another summer's program. For the past six weeks children in our community have been brought together under a system of supervised activities providing interest to the several age groups. Of particular interest were the many organized visits to local beaches where water games and sports of all types were engaged in for several hours at a time. A visit to the Malone Recreational Centre stands out as a highlight, when two busloads of children attended.

Yes, Monday evening saw the end, for this summer, of the Playground Association project and a very successful one it has been we believe. The monitors need some time now to prepare for the return to school, as do their charges during this summer season. Those in attendance at this summer playground project have had something worthwhile to occupy their time and have spent this time in an enjoyable way. Their summer vacation has passed without boredom and they are now quite ready to make their preparations for the return to school. The closing down of the summer activities at this time, allows ample time to everyone to pick up the threads where they were laid down last June.

This summer activity takes a lot of the worry from the mother of a family when she knows that her child is being well looked after and being amused and at a point that is known to her. She does not have to keep on watching to see how this one and that one is doing, or hunting them up to find out where they are.

Thanks are due this association and the monitors who are working with it for the good work they are doing. Thanks are also due the contributors who build the fund from which the expenses come from. The benefit derived is community-wide.

Government Seeing The Light

ACCORDING to a press announcement at the weekend Prime Minister Pearson intends to spend a good deal of the next session in dealing with matters of saving in government expenditure. It has apparently reached him that inflation could be on an upward and dangerous spiral about now and that unless something is done about it, our economy may be in a dangerous position.

We don't know who has been placing a bug in the gentleman's ear, but if it is not too late perhaps there is still time to slow down that spiral. It has been going at a fast clip of late, but not too many have paid attention to the buzzing sound made as the spiral has been gyrating. In consequence it has reached a high peak in orbit and is going so fast that points are snatched off in a week.

For purposes of international trade and business our dollar was devaluated around the world several years ago. In consequence it has a value outside of Canada of from up to 10 cents less. Domestically the Canadian dollar is worth 100 cents — full value. In domestic buying power according to latest rating it has a value of 66c. That means that today's dollar will buy 66 cents worth of goods instead of a full 100 cents worth. This is inflation.

It is what Mr. Pearson now sees and he also feels that something must be done about it. This newspaper has been pointing out this fact for more than a year now. There may yet be time to avert a real crisis and keep our economy stable and floating. It could mean adopting an austerity program and if this is done then everyone will have to share in it. We believe that this is what Mr. Pearson has in mind when he wants savings in all government departments. Such savings, if they can be instituted in sufficient quantity, would have an effect upon the country's spending. Canada has been spending plenty the past few years and this Centennial Birthday and Expo has cost a pile. It has opened up a gap so wide, that if we allow it to fill up too fast without providing some sort of fill we shall have a hole in our economy so wide it will take much economic stress to mend it. We believe Mr. Pearson is trying to reach there in time to prevent that hole. It is going to be a race and we have not much time.

ROUND BYRE and RING

By Frank Napier

Good Caterers

Mention might well have been made in my report of that sale regarding the excellent, picnic style luncheons which were sold by the Ladies' Club at the time of the Burnside Centennial Year Ayrshire sale of August 5. Several varieties of delectable sandwiches, doughnuts and home baked cakes, with coffee and soft drinks. All at very moderate prices.

From Far and Near

While we were unable to meet or converse with all of them we saw a lot of "Kents" from far and near, at the Burnside Sale. By the way, Gilbert Macmillan, Photographer-Engraver Corbett of The Gleaner, and this writer were conveyed to and from that sale by Douglas Elder, a former very active Holstein breeder and still an active adherent of that breed, but also one who likes to see what other breeds are doing. It was a very pleasant trip indeed — via 52 to the Gore and thence along Tullochogran Road to Burnside Farms. We understand that quite a large number of motorists are now regularly traversing that route, instead of No. 4, to Howick; that those doing so claim that it is the shortest way.

However, we are wondering what that much narrower road would be like if there were heavier traffic both ways. There is also the junction at Winter's Corners, probably the worst potential hazard of any such in this district.

Among the first we met at Burnside, or rather Woodside where the sale ring was located, were our "smiling neighbours" from just across the border — Fred and Mrs. Bova of Burke, N.Y. One of Gib Macmillan's first questions to Fred was: "How did you make out at Plattsburg Fair?" to which the reply was: "We won the female grand champion."

We also had a pleasant chat with S. Wyman MacKeechne of Bonniashade Farm, Wyman, Que. All too short, because he had a lot to tell us about his last year's trip to the United Kingdom, including visits to the Royal Highland of Scotland, and the Royal English shows, and to many of the leading Ayrshire herds of Scotland. Their chief hosts were the Barrs of Hobsland and the Templetons of Carnell, both of which families are well and favourably known over here. By the way, here's a suggestion to the Howick-Huntingdon Ayrshire Club. Wyman MacKeechne made a motion picture film of Ayrshires at the two shows mentioned also of several of the leading herds he visited over there. This might be an interesting feature at a future Club event?

Another long time acquaintance whom we always like to meet was Rowan Stansell of Aylmer, Ont. He and his brother Arnold founded the second Selwood Ayrshire herd (the other having been previously maintained by their father at Stratfordville, Ont.) and built it up to become one of the greatest Ayrshire cattle breeding establishments on the North American continent. A couple of years ago, however, the partnership was amicably dissolved with Arnold taking over the home farm and one of the adjoining farms, and the senior female section of the herd. Rowan took over the other two farms and all the younger animals of the herd. "However," said Rowan, in effect, "the best laid plans gang aft agley." The reason annexed to the taking over of the younger stock was to give him time to rebuild the standing on what is now his home farm. But the labour situation has so far prevented him from completing his plans. Due of course to that the farm is on the outskirts of the industrial city of Aylmer with St. Thomas and London, two other great industrial cities, only a few miles further on.

Also at the Burnside sale was John Rennie, "an Ayrshire man born and bred," as the saying has it, also a former herdsman at Alderwood Farm, St. Valentin. However, during a considerable number of years past he has been Manager of the Kingsmill Farm and Ayrshire herd of London, Ont. Quite an old established herd but seldom in the limelight until John Rennie's herdsmanhood eased it up into the top ranks of Ayrshire herds of Western Ontario. That is, until a few weeks ago when the entire milking herd, including several well known outstanding producers and show-ring winners, was wiped out by an express railway freight train. In explanation, John told us that since the farm is now almost entirely within the London Metropolitan area, an extensive sewer system was being installed at one point alongside and underneath the main railway line. And so it was that came 5 o'clock one day and the sewer men forgot to erect the barriers, thereby permitting the herd of cows to wander on to the line, with such disastrous results. Quite a loss, not only considering the bloodlines thereof, including their individual monetary value, but also as regards the daily milk production.

Another considerable loss in a purebred livestock breeding way, was suffered several weeks ago by the M. F. (Massey-Ferguson) Farms of Milliken, Ont., about which we learned about in a letter from our brother Jack of Odessa, Washington State. At the time of his writing he had just returned from a trip to Calgary, Alberta, the chief objective of that trip being the great Short-horn Show which is staged there in connection with the annual Calgary Stampede. In commenting on the Short-horn Show he wrote, in part: "They had a very good show of Short-horns, without the expected strong competition from the Massey-Ferguson Show herd. That firm's cattle truck was wrecked on its way to Calgary, and all the cattle with the exception of three head were either killed or had to be destroyed. One of the men was injured but, fortunately, not seriously."

This was, of course, the group of M.F. Short-horns which started off their Show circuit at this year's Ormstown and Lachute (as they did last year) Shows before going on to the Western Canada Fairs. Included were the bulls M.F. Farm Winston and M.F. Farm Wentworth, respectively champion and reserve champion at Ormstown, and the cow M.F. Blood Royal, champion female, all of whom also won several firsts and championships at Ormstown, through the Western Circuit, the Royal Winter Fair and the Chicago International Show a year ago.

Mr. Archie Hayter Recently Returned From Two-Month Tour Of England And Wales

I will deal very briefly with my trip. On June 9th, I embarked on the Empress of Canada the largest Ocean going steamer that docks at Montreal having a tonnage of twenty eight thousand tons. Leaving Montreal at twelve o'clock noon under a clear sky and a balmy breeze the sailing was very smooth and pleasant. The Empress is a beautiful ship both inside and out, there were no dull moments on board if you wished to enter into the activities, or if you wished to lounge on the promenade deck and bask in the sun you could do so. The stewards were smart looking and very courteous and the cuisine was all that one could desire.

Docking at Liverpool, I proceeded on to Freshams, Pontardawe, Swansea, S. Wales to visit my nephews the Farquhars, where I received a cordial welcome. This part of Wales is most picturesque with its winding lanes and quaint little hedges in fields with bracken or stone masonry, a view from the hills is awe inspiring so different from anything that I have ever seen. Leaving Wales after a most enjoyable visit I proceeded on to Chard, Somerset, England, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pace, better known to the people of Huntingdon as the owners of Webber's Jewellery Store, here Charlie and Emily were looking forward to my coming to get all the news from Huntingdon and vicinity. Somerset is a lovely part of England and I call it a land of roses, no matter where you go the lanes, highways and towns are a mass of roses and flowers. What interested me greatly were the thatched cottages, timbered ceilings, fireplaces, ancient furnishings, etc. These cottages were built of stone four

CHATEAUGAY RAMBLERS TROUNCE MONTREAL NORTH BEARS

Chateaugay Ramblers got off to a fine start last Friday evening by defeating Montreal North Bears 21-0 in the Quebec Senior Conference. The Bears were last year's league and playoff champions, and were regarded as their team to beat in the current season. Following this opening game in which they showed convincing superiority in all departments, Ramblers must be considered as favourites. Bears had previously opened the season by defeating Hawkesbury Hawks by 21 points to 10.

Fans were kept waiting for the best part of two hours for the game to start. One report had it that this was due to a breakdown of the bus bringing the Bears to Chateaugay. Another report was that a player rebellion had threatened to cancel the game by Bears defaulting. Certainly the Bears, when they finally appeared, were considerably under normal strength, particularly on linemen, guards and tackles. Ramblers showed praiseworthy co-operation by lending Bears two players for the evening, and the players themselves, Dominic Desnoes and Bob Olson, are to be congratulated on fine performances against their team-mates. Defino, a guard when on duty for Ramblers, played as linebacker and on defence.

Paul Ricciardi, half backs Jack Herry and Ray Milley, full back Hank Lapointe, middle guard Ron Platt, centre John Kazmerchuck, linebacker Pat Meehan, guard Dan Prudham, tackles Emil Klacko and Bill Keegan and ends Russel Weir and Alfie Earle, Hank Lapointe and Jack Herry were in the first Ramblers team which was formed in 1960. Another original is Butch Chesser, who is also expected to play this season.

Other signings to date are quarterback George Parsons from Hawkesbury and six players from last year's St. Lambert team — halfback Leon Jacobs, flanker Ed Hay, fullbacks Milton Green and Doug Collins, linebacker Bob Watson and guard Sonny Wolfe, linebacker Bob Puzzi (Montreal North) and Earle Delaparelle (Montreal North).

Ramblers have also signed up a number of promising juniors, including linebacker Jim Taylor (Town of Mount Royal Lions), guard Bob Olson (Verdun Vikings) and Ed King (Easton Chayers, Rosemount). 33 players in all have been signed, out of a top limit of 40.

Friday evening's opener was preceded by a reception by the Ramblers at the home of Mayor Joseph Laberge.

MR. JEAN LESAGE PLANNING VISIT TO CHATEAUGAY

It is reported that Quebec Opposition Leader Mr. Jean Lesage will spend one full day, Sunday, August 27th, in Chateaugay.

During his stay in Chateaugay, Mr. Lesage is expected to confer with Liberal Party officials.

It is expected that Mr. Lesage will be guest of honour at the opening of the minor football season at Laberge Park. Mr. Lesage will probably kick off.

A public dinner at Marguerite Bourgeois School is under discussion.

LOCAL GIRL IS CHOSEN TO REPRESENT QUEBEC AT CAMP

Miss Heather Reid, long-time worker in St. Andrew's United Church, Chateaugay, has been chosen as one of two leaders to represent Quebec at the Centennial Camp in New Brunswick. Heather, who needs no introduction to anyone at St. Andrew's having taught Sunday School and played the organ there for many years, was chosen as the representative from the Montreal area. The other leader, Mrs. Orville Cinnamon, comes from the Sherbrooke area. These ladies left last Monday for Loon Bay, New Brunswick, where they will stay for two weeks. Each leader will have two girls in her care during their stay. The two girls, chosen at large from this area, are Miss Anne Sawers from Dorion and Miss Nancy Sathers from Pointe Claire.

Duplex Proposal Turned Down

The Council of the Town of Chateaugay last week turned down a proposal to build duplex units on Molson Street between Mitchell Street and Massey Drive.

Still under consideration is another proposal to erect duplexes on Molson Street between St. Charles Street and Craik, behind Vetville.

Chateaugay Girls Injured

Carmen Chagnon, 19, of 5 Durand Avenue, Chateaugay, was seriously injured last week when the car in which she was riding went out of control about 1000 feet from Seers Street on Youville Boulevard and crashed into a pole. Her sister, Diane, 22, was driving the car and received minor injuries. The impact of the crash broke the pole, and the car's front end was a total wreck. Injuries were to knees, legs, hip and facial cuts. One of the girls was thrown through the windshield.

At the request of Dr. Roger Laberge, the girls were taken to Verdun General Hospital, one by Bisson Ambulance of Lachine, the other by Police car.

At the time of writing, both young ladies are back home, convalescing from their injuries.

Perspective:

We Are Not That Stupid!

By Russ Faughnan

We cannot be as stupid as Quebec politicians seem to believe. In particular, the Provincial Premier either assumes that we are morons or he has himself completely lost touch with reality. His actions in recent months and most of all his handling of the de Gaulle fiasco, indicate that he believes the people of Quebec are in the mood for separatism. He seems to assume that the "Quiet Revolution" has burst into a powerful urge for freedom. Perhaps it has but not the kind Mr. Johnson talks of. He talks of separatism but he is not a separatist. This is where Mr. Chevalier does not believe in it himself. He is far too well educated to really believe such nonsense but the galling thing is that he seems to believe the rest of us want it. So he talks of it, and now the bubble has burst and it has come Mr. Johnson's turn to pay the piper.

Personally, I have never for a moment believed that the public would buy this "Separate State" malarkey. Nor that bunks about unanimous support for the de Gaulle style freedom. And now, recent public opinion polls bear out the contention that while every society has its share of nuts, our share is no nuttier nor larger than others.

One poll asked the direct question, "do you feel Quebec should separate from Canada?" Only two percent agreed. The second poll is more interesting because complete results have been published and we are able to appreciate the certainty of Separatism's rejection while nothing the population's genuine concern and need for reforms.

The poll was taken in Montreal, Quebec City and Three Rivers. It showed some considerable support for de Gaulle and his "Quebec Libre" statement but denied that the statement or the support meant separatism. On the other hand, twice as many agreed with Mr. Drapeau's reaction as against Mr. Johnson's (Mr. Lesage's fence straddling was ignored).

If you have not done so, read and study the results of this report. I believe that it shows the determination of the French for revision of their status for improvement which are sorely needed and deserved but there is also ample evidence that this reform

67 PETITION TOWN TO BAR DRIVE-IN MOVIE THEATRE

As previously reported in The Gleaner, Faust Realties Co. Ltd. of Montreal, on behalf of an undisclosed principal, have requested permission from the Town of Chateaugay to erect a drive-in movie theatre on St. Jean Baptiste Boulevard between Towers and the Chateaugay Motel.

Last week a petition signed by 67 Town of Chateaugay ratepayers called on the Council not to approve the proposed movie. No reason was given in support of the petition.

While no vote has yet been taken by Council, it is reported that several Aldermen were in favour of the project. In the light of the petition, these Aldermen are now re-examining the desirability of a drive-in.

Recent Provincial legislation permits the operation of drive-in theatres throughout the Province. Prior to this new legislation, there were no drive-ins in Quebec.

Initial enthusiasm locally was inspired by the direct and intangible financial benefits which a drive-in would bring to Chateaugay. It has been estimated that an average weekly attendance of 500 patrons could net the Town approximately $5000. from entertainment tax and Provincial sales tax. In addition, restaurants, taverns and licensed premises would inevitably benefit from moviegoers converging on the area.

Approval in principle has been indicated by Town Planning Mr. Lucien Colle.

One of the supposed objections to the theatre is the noise of the film and from the patrons' automobiles. It is probable that the theatre would be equipped with portable microphones enabling the viewer to obtain sound only in the privacy of his car, in which case there would be no noise of a public nuisance character.

It is reported that another undisclosed principal has indicated interest in setting up a drive-in theatre on the Chateaugay Centre side of St. Jean Baptiste. There are virtually no residential buildings in this part of Chateaugay Centre, and Town of Chateaugay ratepayers would presumably have no effective voice in influencing a decision in the Town of Chateaugay Centre.

From Letter Dated August 15th, 1967.

Mrs. Noella Joffray took the initiative of organizing an informal meeting of homeowners at the Club, with the object of forming a Home Owners Association. 60% of all homes were represented, and a small committee was formed, with Mr. Larry Melis as chairman, to make a study of matters requiring concerted action. The committee was to examine the question of a written constitution for the group. Rats in the park-to-be were causing concern — where would they find refuge in the winter months ahead?

The Red Cross filmed a water safety feature at the club pool for an October release to over 200 North American television stations, and the National Film Board filmed Canadian nominees to the forthcoming British Empire Games in Australia.

And there was the sad case of the Chateaugay man suffering from a severe case of tennis elbow, who was forced to learn the new technique of raising the evening scotch and soda with his left hand.

Bus commuters on the St. Patrick route saw the clean up campaign in Victoria Square. Work had not yet started on the new Place Victoria skyscraper.

Some readers have asked me to find out if there will be more garbage cans placed in the park. I spoke to Mr.

is looked for within the framework of Confederation. The leaders of both major parties had better look to their grass roots. The revolution is here but it is not a Quebec revolution, it is a Canadian revolution, in Quebec and within Canada.

And don't you forget it.

COME TO THE FAIR

THE CHRISTIAN PAVILION and LA RONDE

by Russ Faughnan

If this seems to be a strange combination of subjects, so too is Expo itself. Above all else, Expo is a land of contrasts and strange combinations. In this case, there are striking similarities. Both do the unexpected. Both have their share of disappointment and surprise. Neither should be missed.

The Christian Pavilion, as everybody says, is a real shocker. It has nothing of the superficial religious image about it. And it has more religious content than most churches. The theme is, of course, Man and his World. This is broken into three viewpoints. Man today, the world he made and hope for the future. The whole picture does come across up to a point but it is the centre point, the evil world created by man, which draws the most attention. This takes the form of a short movie, shown under the most uncomfortable conditions at the fair. The film centres on all the evils created by man, crime, lust, poverty and even basic blind stupidity. The film hits home. And some of the still pictures cannot be ignored. Dark or symbolic, they all have something to say. Go, and listen.

On the other side of the world is La Ronde. One's first impression can easily be that this is only a cheap imitation of Belmont Park. Or rather an expensive one. But it isn't necessarily so. Sure, the Midway is there and a pretty ordinary one at that. And no place for a thrifty, tax-burdened suburbanite. But, as with most of Expo, some things stand out. In the rides, only two are worth the money. The Skyride is a real thrill to young and old and gives a fantastic view of the area. The Flume lets you ride a hollow log along a series of water channels. You'll have a mild thrill, get a little wet and have a lot of fun. Dad, this is the one to take the kids on.

The rest of La Ronde consists of a fun area of clubs and restaurants for night people only. Not too expensive if you choose your spots. The best is probably the Garden of Stars where Hellzapoppin is now playing. This is a show of fun, for nuts. I enjoyed it. Fast, funny material, beautiful gals and a wonderful theatre. You are sitting up high, looking down and the waiter comes to you. Really living. This is where Mr. Chevalier should have been.

And, remember, less than three months to go and so much to see. What a restful winter this is going to be.

One of the Club's best darts players told me the other day that in rural England, where the game is something of a national sport, the locals use sharpened nails, without benefit of feathers, as darts, and that their accuracy is uncanny. I wonder if any reader has ever witnessed a perfect game, that is, finish a 301 game with six darts?

Canada Wins The Canoe Championship

Chateaugay paddlers were disappointed not to have a representative in the Canadian team which last week-end at Expo was the runaway winner, with 63 points, in the North American Canoe Championships. The U.S.A. were second with 39 points and Mexico third with 2 points. Points were awarded on a 5-2-1 pts. system for 1st, 2nd and 3rd, respectively.

Chateaugay's main hope of a place on Canada's team was in the 10,000 metres Canadian tandem class. Chateaugay's Danny Rose and Robin Welsh placed second in this class in the previous week's Dominion Championship, also at Expo. However, apparently crew selection was on the basis of past performance. This poses an interesting question — just how does a new crew break into top honours? Ironically, the crew selected over the Chateaugay pair did not show in the race.

This year's regatta at Expo was the fifteenth occasion the North American Canoe Championships have been held. Canada have now won thirteen of the regattas and the U.S.A. two.

The regatta was held at Expo last Saturday and Sunday. Results were as follows:— Single Blade, Men: C1. 1 Canada, 2 U.S.A., 3 Canada. Kayak Single: 1 and 2 Canada, 3 U.S.A. Ladies Kayak Single — clean sweep of 1, 2 and 3 by U.S.A.

Kayak Single-Men: 1 and 2 Canada, 3 U.S.A.

Letter TO THE Editor

Chateaugay, Que.
August 14, 1967
The Editor,
The Huntingdon Gleaner
Huntingdon, Que.

Sir,
The Protestant Regional School Board of Chateaugay Valley does not intend to rush into public print every time a letter, article or editorial casts it in a poor light. However it does feel that your readers deserve to be exposed to fact rather than speculation. As a result I would like to clarify a few points raised in a letter to the editor in last week's issue of The Gleaner.

Over the last two and a half years the members of the Regional Board have laboured many long and hard hours in complete harmony to bring to fruition a fully operational regional school system. During this time there has never been any attempt to provide more or less for any segment of the region to the advantage or detriment of the other. Rather the objective has been singularly to provide the best possible educational system for all the students who will attend the regional schools regardless of where they reside or what school they will attend. The efforts of the Board have only been exceeded by those of the members of our Administrative staff and a large dedicated group of teachers from all over the valley who have given so freely of their time and talents in a labour of love to plan the facilities and courses for this system.

While it would have been highly desirable to have a grade 12 at the Chateaugay Valley school this fall it was not humanly possible to prepare for it. The public may not realize it, but a polyvalent high school such as will be opened at Ormstown this year is a completely new venture in this Province. As a result little or no guidance has been available from the Department of Education in planning for its operation. It might also be pointed out that it is highly unlikely that the Department would have approved the establishment of a grade 12 in a school which is embarking on its maiden year.

While it is highly regrettable that the talents of men like Messrs. Brockman, Greenbank and Smellie will be lost to the high school students this coming year, it is because of their own personal decision not to seek employment with the Regional Board. However "anxious mother" should remember that the students in the elementary schools are equally as important as the high school students. Teachers and administrators of high calibre are required at the elementary level if we are to expect adequate trained students when they arrive at the high school. Any educator worth his salt will tell you that a good grounding at the elementary level is a prerequisite to being a successful high school graduate. We can only be thankful that men like Messrs. Brockman and Greenbank have foreseen the glamour of our new regional school for the more important task of preparing the students for the years ahead. In the case of Mr. Green it would be a highly parochial action to raid the smoothly functioning system at Howard S. Billings High School. Rather it is the responsibility of the Board, through its education officers, to attract other men and women of the same calibre to staff the Chateaugay Valley school and develop the same type of smoothly functioning unit. We feel that we have been successful in our recruiting and trust that time will bear us out.

As I stated before our objective is to develop the best possible education system in the Province here in the Chateaugay Valley, consistent with our ability to pay for it. This can only be achieved through the continuing co-operation of parents, teachers, taxpayers and students all working in harmony for one common objective. Constructive advice and criticism is always needed and welcome. However, seeds of discontent are easily sown and insinuations of favouritism towards one group or another can only lead to mistrust and the eventual downfall of everything we are striving for.

G. C. Carpenter,
Commissioner
P.R.S.B.C.V.

Chateaugay News Notes

At the last Council meeting of Chateaugay Centre, the whole three hours was spent discussing the Zoning By-law 644. See these pages for public notice for date and time of public meeting.

Chateaugay Centre Police Chief Spenard told The Gleaner that things are very quiet around there — as they have been all summer — so far.

Town of Chateaugay has received a petition signed by sixty-seven taxpayers in the general area of Colonia protesting the impending construction of a Drive-In Theatre on St. Jean Baptiste Blvd. between Towers and the Chateau-Gai Motel. The Town have written to the developers to tell them to expect trouble.

Town also have written the Provincial Authorities requesting installation of traffic lights at the corner of Dunver and Highway No. 34. A reply has been received and a study is presently under way.

Tenders for a bus shelter at the above corner are coming in, but although closing date was Aug. 15th, the tenders will not be opened until the next Council meeting which is Aug. 22nd.

The Town has received several complaints about water. Not the lack of it this time, but the distressing color and apparent brownish marks left on newly laundered clothing.

A reason for the sediment in the water is that the Public Works Dept. is presently doing the regular draining of the fire hydrants all over Town. The job is done mostly during the night, leaving the silt and other deposits in the domestic water pipes. Residents are advised to run their taps for a short while after rising to eliminate the deposits in the pipes.

Town of Chateaugay Police were kept on the hop all this past week with a number of 'traffic mishaps' in which injuries were suffered in five of the accidents.

On Aug. 7th at 6:20 p.m. in front of Place Chateaugay 75 St. Jean Baptiste, two cars travelling in opposite directions collided. Both cars were damaged; the driver of one suffered a broken left arm and was taken to Lasalle General Hospital by ambulance. The other driver was only slightly injured.

On the same day at 9:30 p.m. on St. Francis Blvd., near the Police/Fire Station, a car struck a parked auto pushing it 25 ft. Driver of the moving car suffered facial injuries.

An accident on Aug. 9th between two small cars slightly injured a three-year-old boy. The accident occurred at the entrance of Towers Dept. Store and the Highway. Other passengers in both cars escaped without injury.

At 2:45 a.m. on Aug. 10th, two cars attempted to pass the other. The mishap occurred on the new highway bridge on route No. 3. Driver of one car was taken to Lasalle General Hospital by Police car, with injuries to his face.

Two young Chateaugay girls, Carmen and Diane Chagnon, were injured in a car accident on Youville Boulevard last week. See details elsewhere in this issue.

Letter From...

Welcome to cousins Jane and Margaret Prosser, who arrive in Seigneurie Park today from England and Illinois, respectively. This will be Margaret's first return to the Montreal area since she left at the tender age of three, which was a few years ago.

I very rarely lose a bet, for the simple reason that I just don't bet unless I'm sure to win. Last week, though, I was certain to win, but I lost, even so. The wager was with Alderman Phil Bonneau, to the effect that there used to be a drive-in movie theatre in Caughnawaga some 14 years ago.

Of course, I KNEW there was one, because I remember seeing it, driving along the old back road. Mr. Rene LaBerge, Catholic School Board Chairman was appointed umpire, and promptly ruled me offside, because although the screen was erected, the theatre never opened for business. The story is that drive-in theatres, until a few months ago, were illegal in the Province of Quebec. The entrepreneurs saw a legal loophole, because Caughnawaga was Indian territory, administered by the Federal Government, and went ahead and erected a screen. However, a legal hassle developed, and the ruling was that while a drive-in theatre could legally be erected in Caughnawaga, only Indians would be eligible to attend. This of course made the project economically unattractive, and it was promptly abandoned.

Our best wishes to neighbor Bert Hustins of Molson Ave., who is presently in Hospital recuperating from surgery. Maple School staff and students all know Mr. Hustins very well, as he is custodian of the caretaking there. Hope to see you home again, very soon, thoroughly recovered from your illness.

And our congratulations to Patricia and Gordon Hollingdale on St. Francis Blvd. on the birth of their third daughter this past week (9 Aug.) at the Jewish General Hospital. We hear from a little bird that no name has been chosen yet — but sisters Stephanie and Belinda are quite delighted even though she's just called "Baby" so far.

I haven't had a column in for two weeks — because I have been Expo-ing it so much and not only my feet and legs were exhausted, but also my brain and my writing hand. Last Saturday though, I had some excitement and must tell all Chateaugay about it. I had a half hour (light on the Goodyear blimp!)

Both my husband and I! We had gone over to St-Hubert to see the Airship landing and taking off, and quite a sight it was. On enquiring at the mobile office about passengers and so on, I was told that only Goodyear dealers and the Press were eligible for flights. A press card works wonders though. I told the gentleman in charge all about The Gleaner and although they were all booked up solid until their departure on the 15th or 16th August, they put down our names.

We waited around for an hour, and then we were called to go and embark. It is quite an experience. The blimp is so huge, but carries only six passengers and the pilot. Friend husband sat beside the pilot so had a marvellous view. We floated over Boucherville, Longueuil, St. Lambert, the Seaway and the St. Lawrence River. We were up one thousand feet, so had an excellent view also of the Expo grounds. Funny thing it didn't look so crowded from the air. It was a great experience, not at all like flying in a plane or a helicopter. When we returned to terra firma my husband and I were given membership cards in the "Blimp Club". The only snag in the event, was that No. 1 son Steven wasn't along with us to join in the fun. The blimp is to go on now to the C.N.E. exhibition in Toronto.

The christening of Kimberly Ann, chosen daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aldwin Lampitt, was held at St. George's Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 13th, with Rev. P. Gavin Barnett officiating. Godmothers were Mrs. Hazel Downie of New York and Mrs. Rosalind Trotter of St. Andrew. Barbados. Godfathers were Mr. J. Clarke and Mr. H. Lampitt of Chateaugay. Present at the reception, following the ceremony was Kimberly's brother David; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Carter, children Christine and Jeff.

Pastoral Charge for four and a half years, also other appointments in the Montreal Presbytery. He is at present enjoying his retirement in Chateaugay.

Having returned from his vacation, the Rev. Herbert Gould, Minister of Chateaugay Centre United Church, will be available to look after any emergencies requiring the help of a minister.

Next Sunday's regular service will be at 10 a.m. and will be conducted by Rev. Ronald Mahabir, B.A., B.D.

Local Horse Farmer Operating Successful Tourists Gift Shop At Henrysburg, Quebec

"The Purple Sleigh", a gift boutique located at Henrysburg Copper gas lamps, originally eight miles north of the Canada-U.S. Customs Office on Route 9, opened on June 24th. Owned and operated by Don Watson of Huntingdon, it is now a flourishing business featuring an excellent line of quality merchandise including the most popular items in seal-skin, fine English bone china, Irish porcelain, Scottish and Irish Woollens, Eskimo soapstone and Canadian handicrafts.

The Purple Sleigh is open daily and Miss Judy Cavers of Ormstown is a full-time employee. Don and Martha Watson also spend much of their time at their new enterprise. Don acquired the one-acre lot which is ideally located for the tourist trade in May and erected a new building that measures approximately 22 x 40 on it. A sign depicting a horse pulling a purple sleigh easily identifies the gift shop. The fibreglass horse was bought in San Diego, California and Don was top bidder at an auction sale some time ago at the Walsh sale on the Boyd Settlement Road, near Huntingdon.

Mr. Watson has informed The Gleaner that 99% of their business is with American tourists, many of whom are on their way home from Expo. "The people who have visited us seem happy with their Expo stay and invariably they

V.I.P. actually has two meanings at our place. It means that you're a very important person to us and when you bring your car in, we like it to undergo our Volkswagen inspection plan. There's nothing very mysterious about our V.I.P. We just go over your VW thoroughly and make sure a lot of things are right before they ever have a chance to go wrong. V.I.P. is very reasonable. Herdman at Knotty Pine, Chateaugay Lake, N.Y.

after which a pleasant evening was spent at the home of Eileen's aunt, Mrs. Dorinda Whaley, in Huntingdon. Congratulations, Eileen and Bill.

On Monday evening a number of the firemen of the Hinchinbrook Volunteer Fire Brigade assembled in Athelstan and motored to Fort Covington and there paid their respects to the late Mr. Andrew Cappiello who passed away last Friday evening. Mr. Cappiello was the father of Mr. E. W. Cappiello, Fire Chief and County Fire Instructor in Fort Covington.

Bar-B-Q — Many of our firemen and some of the residents for that matter have been getting their fill of chicken and all that goes with it in the form of salads etc., the last two Sunday.

The one at Constable and last Sunday at Fort Covington were grand affairs. Blessed with good weather, the children were made happy with pony rides and other form of amusement for youngsters and oldsters.

The boys here together with the two churches are getting ready for their big day, the dinner at Havelock Fair. See you there?

Letter to the Editor

Hemmingford Que.

The Editor, The Huntingdon Gleaner, Dear Sir,

I Lucien Viau and my family, wish to thank most sincerely the young people of Hemmingford, English speaking as well as French speaking, and all those who contributed towards the gifts so generously offered us on the occasion of our departure from Hemmingford, following the sale of our business and restaurant, "Les deux copains".

Those who organized that pleasant surprise in our honor. We will cherish pleasant memories of our stay in your midst. We had wonderful years here, true, we worked hard but your presence and appreciation have fully repaid what we have tried to do for you. You were under no obligation toward us, you always paid us for the services we rendered you and to-day I have the proof of what I always said.

The young people of Hemmingford are fine youths, appreciative of the small services rendered them. Time proves many things and it has proven that I was right when I interceded with the police and the municipal authorities in favor of the young people when they played harmless tricks on Halloween Eve. The municipal authorities have, on occasion, called a number of policemen to prevent our young people from playing a few harmless tricks. Gentlemen, it was their way of telling you that you did not always do the right thing for Liturgie — Parole du Seigneur — Conduisez-vous selon l'Esprit qui est Amour et vous n'accomplirez pas les désirs de la chair. On sait ce que produit la chair: impuretés, discordes, jalousies, colères, haines, meurtres, orgies. Le fruit de l'Esprit au contraire, est charité, joie, paix, bonté, fidélité, douceur, tempérance, chasteté (Epître de ce jour). Vous ne pouvez servir Dieu et l'argent. Cherchez d'abord le Royaume de Dieu et la justice dont la loi fondamentale est l'Amour du Seigneur et du prochain et tout le reste vous sera donné par surcroît (Evangile de ce jour).

Liturgie — The practice of penance which met the needs of the Church came to Europe with the evangelizing Irish monks. St. Patrick had used frequent confession not only as a means of reconciliation for one cut off from the Church but, also, as an instrument to instruct and strengthen his converts. With confession more accessible it became possible for the individual Christian to acknowledge his sinfulness not only in the Confiteor of the Mass and the "Lord I am not worthy" before communion but frequently in the sacrament of Christ's mercy.

L'O.T.J. termine une autre saison

Lundi soir avait lieu la parade de l'O.T.J. Chaque année à la fin des activités, a lieu une parade similaire.

Dès sept heures, les petits se réunissaient dans la cour de l'école St-Joseph pour y prendre part. Plusieurs d'entre eux avaient revêtu des costumes de leur fabrication, qui ont prouvé que la jeune génération ne manque pas d'imagination. D'autres avaient décoré leur bicyclette, tandis que d'autres encore portaient des pancartes.

A sept heures trente, on prenait le départ, empruntant les rues Cimetière, Châteauguay, Bouchette, King. Faisaient partie du défilé, les membres du comité de l'O.T.J., MM. Maurice Perrault, Lionel Blanchette, Réal Fournier et Mme Emery Latreille. Dans un décapotable le maire et la mairesse, Jean-Luc Tremblay et Joanne Corneau, sa-prix furent décernés aux élus lauréat tout le long du parcours. Venaient ensuite le duc et la duchesse, Robert Corneau et Nicole Gauthier, arbo-

Nous ne voudrions pas oublier à pied, qui en bicyclette, blier de mentionner le beau chantant, lançant leurs cris de travail du moniteur en charge, M. Michel Blanchette qui té le défilé s'arrêta et les héros du jour furent accueillis par le maire et la mairesse, le duc et la duchesse ainsi que les membres du comité de l'O.T.J. à signer le livre d'or. Puis le président, M. Perrault remercia le conseil de l'appui accordé à cette organisation, souhaitant pour l'avenir.

Puis le défilé se reforma pour revenir dans la cour de l'école. C'est alors que des blay et Joanne Corneau, sa-prix furent décernés aux élus lauréat tout le long du parcours. Venaient ensuite le duc et la duchesse, Robert Corneau et Nicole Gauthier, arbo-

Accident mortel causé par un fusil de chasse

Un accident mortel s'est produit vendredi dernier à la demeure de M. et Mme Armistice Miljour, sur le Gore Road, Hinchinbrooke. Les parents, étaient absents au moment du drame et avaient laissé leur fils Robert, âgé de dix ans en charge.

La police provinciale fut mandée sur les lieux. Le Dr George Lefebvre fut également appelé et constata le décès. La dépouille fut transportée au salon Kelly à Huntingdon et la cérémonie des

Beaucoup ignorent la cause de leur mal de dos

Il est peut-être simplement dû à des reins paresseux

Quel dommage d'avoir à endurer cette forme commune de mal de dos simplement parce qu'on n'en connaît ni la cause ni le remède! Si les reins deviennent paresseux, il peut s'ensuivre une irritation des voies urinaires et des malaises de la vessie, d'où peut-être un mal de dos lancinant. C'est alors que les Filles Dodd's pour les Reins peuvent aider à procurer du soulagement. Les Dodd's stimulent les reins et aident à soulager l'état d'irritation qui cause le mal de dos. Prenez des Dodd's — vous vous sentirez mieux et vous dormirez mieux. Demandez des Filles Dodd's pour les Reins à n'importe quel comptoir de produits pharmaceutiques. Depuis 70 ans, des millions de gens en prennent avec succès.

L'activité n'a pas manqué à l'O.T.J. cette saison

Pendant les six dernières semaines écoulées, nos jeunes ont eu l'occasion de s'amuser et de passer des heures agréables. Les baillages ont été fort populaires. Ceci a été rendu possible grâce à l'organisation locale de l'O.T.J. à laquelle se dévouent un groupe de personnes qui travaillent pour le bien des jeunes.

Les petits sont venus nombreux participer aux jeux organisés et tous ont passé des heures agréables. Les baillages ont été fort populaires. Ceci a été rendu possible grâce à l'organisation locale de l'O.T.J. à laquelle se dévouent un groupe de personnes qui travaillent pour le bien des jeunes.

Lettre à l'éditeur

Hemmingford, Qué.

M. l'éditeur

Moi, Lucien Viau, ainsi que ma famille, tenons à remercier de tout cœur tous les jeunes de Hemmingford, aussi bien de langue anglaise que de langue française, et tous ceux qui nous ont témoigné des marques de gratitude par de jolis cadeaux à l'occasion de notre départ de Hemmingford à la suite de la vente de notre commerce, le restaurant Les Deux Copains, le rendez-vous de tous les jeunes et un double merci à ceux qui ont organisé cette merveilleuse surprise.

Nous gardons toujours un très bon souvenir de notre passage parmi vous. Nous avons passé des années merveilleuses. Certes nous avons travaillé très fort, mais nous étions récompensés par votre présence et votre appréciation pour tout ce qu'on fait pour vous. Vous n'êtes absolument obligés à rien, nous vous remercions de tout cœur pour ce que nous faisons pour vous et aujourd'hui, je peux prouver ce que j'ai déjà avancé à Hemmingford, c'est la place où on peut trouver des jeunes qui ont le cœur à la bonne place et qui sont reconnaissants pour les petits services qu'on peut leur rendre.

Le temps vous-même, prouve bien des choses, et il a prouvé que j'avais raison. Par exemple quand je prenais à part les autorités municipales ou policières pour les manières pas correctes à l'égard de mes jeunes, où que simple, ment ils les dénigraient de la belle façon, parce qu'ils avaient joué un petit tour le premier novembre. Les autorités municipales faisaient venir une armée de policiers pour empêcher les jeunes de jouer quelques tours innocents.

Messieurs en autorité, ceci n'était que leur manière à eux de vous dire que vous n'avez pas toujours agi correctement avec eux durant l'année.

Au lieu de les critiquer ces jeunes, essayez donc de faire quelque chose pour eux. Il n'y a qu'une chose qui manque à Hemmingford, c'est un centre récréatif pour ces jeunes pleins de vitalité, et je crois que vous êtes bien placés puisque le premier magistrat est un ancien membre du gouvernement. Ce serait facile d'obtenir un bon octroi, en tout cas je le souhaite, car n'oubliez pas, ces jeunes sont notre richesse et quelle richesse! Je le sais, je les connais très bien et je vous dirai ceci: cette jeunesse manque d'affection, nous les avons adoptés ma femme et moi comme nos propres enfants; nous les avons réprimandés s'il y avait lieu de le faire; nous les avons conseillés; nous les avons aussi loués, et si vous voulez occuper d'eux soyez surs qu'ils vous le rendront au centuple.

Donc mes jeunes garçons ou filles, continuez à être ce que vous avez toujours été, de bons jeunes, nous gardons de vous un très bon souvenir, ainsi que de tous les gens de Hemmingford. Nous n'avons que des amis et soyez certains qu'ils nous fera toujours un grand plaisir d'y retourner. Merci.

Letter to the Editor

Huntingdon, Que.

August 7th, 1967

The Editor,

The Gleaner,

Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sir:

In your Report on last week's Council Meeting it was mentioned that I had made a complaint regarding the noise of the heavy traffic on Prince Street since Chateaugay St. had been made one-way. As no mention is made of my solution to the noise at night, I would like if you could print in full my letter to the Council which was as follows:

August 4th, 1967

The Mayor and Aldermen,

Town of Huntingdon,

Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sirs:

Last Fall, due to construction, the main street was made one-way and all highway traffic was rerouted up Prince Street. Shortly after, the snow came and the main street was kept one-way for which there was some excuse due to problems of snow removal; however, the snow has been gone for over three months and still the main street is one-way — all highway traffic, including buses, large transport trucks etc., coming up Prince Street.

We property owners bought our homes on Prince Street in the assurance that it was a residential street, which implies that we should not be kept awake at night with heavy and noisy traffic.

We agree that the main street is narrow but, in past years, (except for Winter) it was open both ways. Most certainly there is no need for it to be one-way twenty-four hours of the day in Summertime. I all other measures fail to keep it two-way all the time except Winters, at the very least it could be two-way for all traffic, including buses and trucks, during non-business hours.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forrest and children of Toronto were week-end visitors of Mr. Howard Geddes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Welton of Toronto were guests of Mr. Ward Rember the past week taking in Expo and visiting other relatives while in the vicinity.

Miss Lori Skidmore of St. John, New Brunswick is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen.

Mrs. Annie Quinn of Parrasboro, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen last week.

In 1966 Canada's highway accident toll was 5,258 dead, 160,656 injured. Property damage totaled $650 millions, including buses and trucks, reported the Canadian Highway Safety Council.

Yours truly,

F. G. McCrimmon, M.D.
