MIGHTY OFFENSIVE UPON STALINGRAD LAUNCHED

Reinforced Nazi Columns Advance On Three Points

Reaching Toward Rich Grozny Oil Fields and Black Sea Ports of Novorossisk and Tuapse—Unprecedented Numbers of Men Thrown into Fray—Battle May Develop Into One of Mightiest Yet Seen on Russian Front.

Moscow, Aug. 13.—(P)—A mighty new German offensive against Stalingrad appeared to be taking shape in the Don Bend today as hard-pressed Russian forces in the Caucasus battled desperately to halt constantly-reinforced Nazi columns advancing toward three vital objectives—the rich Grozny oil fields and the Black Sea ports of Novorossisk and Tuapse.

Military advisers reported that the Germans were massing vast quantities of men and equipment in the Don elbow and told of intensification of fighting near Kotelnikovsk, ninety-five miles southwest of Stalingrad.

Both armies were reported throwing almost unprecedented numbers of men into the fray in this sector and there were indications the battle might develop into one of the mightiest yet seen on the Russian front.

Thus far the Russians seemed to be holding their own on the approaches to Stalingrad, but the picture in the Caucasus, where Hitler is reaching out for the oil to feed his fighting machine, was grave.

New concentrations of dive-bombers were reported plying the German drive, raining tons of high explosives on Caucasian towns in raids carried out by waves of forty to sixty planes.

At the same time the invaders were reported concentrating masses of men and equipment in the great Don bend to the North in apparent preparation for a new offensive against the important industrial city of Stalingrad, on the approaches to which the Red Army has withstood attack after attack.

Dispatches from the front said one Nazi spearhead already is less than two hundred miles from Grozny after breaking through the Russian lines at Cherkessk, a small town in the Caucasus foothills seventy miles southeast of Armavir.

The breakthrough, announced by the Soviet Information Bureau last night, was accomplished by great numbers of German troops, heavily supported by tanks, the dispatches said.

The Russians were reported to have counter-attacked desperately in an attempt to seal the breach in their lines, but were forced to fall back to new positions.

Sixty miles Northwest of Cherkessk, the Information Bureau's mid-day bulletin said, Russian forces were fighting fierce battles in the Malkop oil fields with enemy tanks and infantry thrusting toward Tuapse.

Red Star, Soviet Army organ, said "almost all the German attacks were repulsed," but announced the

R.A.F.'s Big Bombers Returned To Bomb Mainz For Second Night

London, Aug. 13.—(P)—London's freedom from air assault was interrupted today with a small burst of high explosives and fire bombs on the capital outskirts as the Germans reported the R.A.F.'s big bombers back over Mainz, Rhineland rail-river traffic hub and industrial centre, for the second successive night.

The pre-dawn raid on the Greater London area was the first since nuisance raiders unloaded a few bombs before daylight July 30 and some buildings were wrecked.

By mid-morning authorities said all persons trapped in the debris had been removed. Casualties were reported as seven killed and at least three injured.

The attack set off the air raid sirens for the third successive time during the sleeping hours of most Londoners. The alarm lasted only briefly and it was believed at first the Nazis had sent a lone plane—perhaps a fast long-range fighter—to turn thousands of fire-watchers out of bed and waken the city's millions.

On the preceding two nights the

DEATH TOLL OF FIVE TAKEN IN FLYING MISHAP

Search Being Conducted for Body of Sixth Member of R.C.A.F. Group Involved in Plane Collision.

Armstrong, Ont., Aug. 13.—(P)—Residents of this small Northwest Ontario town early today searched for the body of a missing airman, possibly fatally injured late yesterday when two Royal Canadian Air Force planes collided in mid-air and crashed, killing five other R.C.A.F. men.

Names of the airman were not disclosed immediately.

A terse announcement from the No. 2 Air Training Command at Winnipeg last night that bodies of

Marines Consolidate Their Positions In Tulagi Area

By MURLIN SPENCER, Associated Press Staff Writer. Allied Headquarters, Australia, August 13.—(P)—Firmly entrenched at three points in the Solomon Islands, United States Marines battled to expand their positions today with the immediate backing of Allied sea forces and long-range air assault on Japanese communications and reinforcement bases.

A Washington Navy announcement that operations had advanced to the point where the Marines were consolidating their holdings in the Tulagi area, in the Southeastern Solomons, indicated that initial hand-to-hand fighting had been overcome after six days of savage hand-to-hand combat.

The United States Navy's communication said the Marines landed as scheduled on three islands, whose names it did not disclose, in the Tulagi vicinity. It added that supporting naval craft were meeting with bitter opposition, suggesting the Japanese had thrown powerful surface and air units into the defence of their ground forces.

Flying Fortresses, striking yesterday at Rabaul, New Britain, in the fifth raid there in five days, knocked out four enemy ships in the harbor of this base from which Japanese troops and supplies have moved to the Solomons.

A 15,000-ton ship and two medium-sized ones were left spouting flames and another large ship was seen sinking by the stern, a headquarters communique said today. One of eight challenging fighters was shot down and from three to six others were hit and damaged. No Allied planes were lost.

Allied airmen went to work on shipping at Rabaul after concentrating their previous raids this week on the big Japanese airdrome there which undoubtedly had been sending air aid to the Solomons.

Reconnaissance before today's raid showed a spurt in shipping activity in and about Rabaul, which is some 700 miles Northwest of Tulagi, a spokesman said.

Some 2,000 miles West of the Solomons Allied airmen attacked Japanese shipping and base installations in the Netherlands Timor-band sea area with undetermined results. The raid off Timor was believed to have been on the same convoy from which one ship has been sunk and two others, including a destroyer, have been damaged in two previous attacks.

Guadalcanal, where the Japanese established one of their main air bases in the islands, is the largest of the Solomons. Dense tropical jungles cover most of its face except a forty-mile stretch on the North-east coast where there is open, undulating country ten miles wide. It was there, on Lunga Bay, that the enemy set up a base.

Up and down this island rise extremely steep and rugged mountains towering up to 8,000 feet. It is 90 miles long and 30 miles wide.

It was announced at headquarters today that Melbourne had an air raid alert last night but no enemy planes were sighted.

WALTER KAPPE NAMED TO HEAD FIFTH COLUMN

Is Sought by Federal Bureau of Investigation in Connection with Nazi Sabotage Ring Probe.

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST, Associated Press Staff Writer. Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Dies Committee, it was learned authoritatively today, will send to President Roosevelt this week a copy of a confidential letter sent from Germany to trusted Nazi sympathizers in the United States advising them that Walter Kappe had been appointed to head a fifth column front in the United States and paving the way for his work.

Syndicate Recognition Is Bluntly Refused In Four-Point Ultimatum

Windsor Mills Firm Reserves Right to Discharge Any Employee Whose Conduct Warrants Such Action—Office and Technical Staff Employees Must Resign Union Membership—Construction Staff to Be Laid Off.

U. S. JOINS IN EUROPEAN FRAY
London, Aug. 13.—(P)—United States Army fighting planes have entered the European fray on a large scale for the first time, having engaged in thirty-one operational sorties during the past forty-eight hours, United States European headquarters announced today.

Windsor Mills, Aug. 13.—(P)—Smoke poured out of the tall chimneys of the Canada Paper Company mills here this morning as nine hundred men went back to their jobs at eight o'clock following last night's abrupt settlement of the strike of six hundred Catholic Syndicate members which had tied up operations for three days.

Ideal Weather Greeted First Day Crowd At Waterloo Fair

Shefford County Agricultural Exhibition in Full Swing Today with Midway in Operation and Races and Grandstand Performance Headlining Afternoon Programme—Judging Commences in Several Classes—List of Exhibitors.

Waterloo, August 13.—(P)—Ideal summer weather greeted first-day visitors to Waterloo Fair when they passed through the gates to the Shefford County Agricultural Society grounds this morning, and directors of the organization were optimistic that one of the most successful exhibitions in the long history of the society would be written into the records Saturday night.

Crowds were attracted by various features of the fair programme, with the kiddies and young people making bee-lines for the midway, where Sim's Shows are once again holding forth with a good number of rides and games, the farmers heading for the livestock barns to see the fine cattle, horses, swine and other stock on display, and their wives going to inspect the home-cooking, handicraft and floral exhibitions.

A full programme was scheduled for today, with the racing card getting underway on the track in front of the main grandstand this afternoon, and a full grandstand show being shown this afternoon and again tonight. During the three-day racing a purse of $1,250 will be divided by the winning horses.

Judging was started today in various classes and was being followed with interest, while crowds went into the main building to see the many exhibits. Subscriptions for the Record will be accepted at the Record booth, where donations to the Record Cigarette Fund for the boys

Rioting Is Diminishing In India Independence Crisis

Three Police Stations and Post Office Burned Down at Nagpur Which Was Scene of Worst Rioting—Outbreaks Growing Fewer and Smaller—Strong Military Forces Kept at Key Points in Bombay.

Bombay, Aug. 13.—(P)—Rioting and clashes with police kept alive the spark of danger today in several Indian cities but in Bombay, where much of the violence had centred, outbreaks over Mohandas K. Gandhi's independence campaign grew fewer and smaller.

Armed police and troops, nevertheless, were on guard here and elsewhere against new flare-ups.

Nagpur apparently was the scene of the worst rioting yesterday.

Three police stations and the post office were burned down there and attempts were made to set the central co-operative bank and power-house on fire. One rioter was killed and twelve were injured when police fired into the crowds. Nineteen police were hurt by stone-throwers.

While a night curfew cleared the streets, mobile police patrolled the city and strong military forces were held at key points.

Police opened fire three times at Old Delhi to disperse riotous crowds. One man was killed and two were injured. New Delhi, where the worst outbreak the day before occurred, was quiet.

NON-PROFIT WAR PLANT
London, Aug. 13.—(P)—London has a small non-profit making war factory converted from a toy locomotive plant run by 82-year-old retired Rear-Admiral Sir Edward Ingfield, the workers being boys and girls of 16 and 17, who turn out brass parts for aircraft wireless equipment.

howl of the sirens had been the only indication of enemy aircraft in the vicinity but anti-aircraft guns peppered the raiders approaching the Thames last night. Nazi planes also caused some damage and casualties at a Southwest port.

Besides the small German attack on the outskirts of London, a single raider dropped bombs at two points in Southeast Scotland and a few aircraft were reported over the East Anglian coast.

Britons had perhaps a better picture of the havoc sown by the R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. Tuesday night than of any raid British air forces yet have made, the work of picked crews which circled the city from start to finish of the attack.

This was a new device by R.A.F. to check on the effectiveness of its bombers but their missiles fell in such profusion that one of the observers said there were more fires at the end "than we were able to count."

Between 250 and 400 British bombers made the attack, an R.A.F. commentator said, and left a 15,000-foot pillar of smoke over the city from fires still burning when British scouting planes returned in daylight to survey the damage.

ALIVE FROM JUNGLES
London, Aug. 13.—(P)—Sgt. Pilot R. K. Thompson, a 21-year-old Rhodesian, is serving with an R.A.F. fighter squadron in this country after having been posted as dead. He was lost in the jungles of Rhodesia for three weeks and when natives found him they effected his rescue.

URGE SALE TAX TO SUPPLEMENT INCOME LEVIES

National Association of Manufacturers Programme Calls for $37,200,000,000 in Revenue in 1942.

Washington, Aug. 13.—(P)—An eight-per-cent sales tax to supplement heavy corporate and individual income levies for war purposes was proposed today by J. Cheever Cowdin, spokesman for the National Association of Manufacturers.

The N.A.M. programme called for $37,200,000,000 in revenue in 1942, a sharp increase over pending measures, on top of which was suggested consideration of compulsory individual savings.

While urging a sales tax as had the United States Chamber of Commerce, the N.A.M. said a five-per-cent withholding tax on individual earnings, such as the Chamber also proposed, was "impractical and indefensible."

Cowdin, in recommendations prepared for the Senate Finance Committee, called the revenue bill pending before it "one of the most important single measures ever to come before Congress" and added:

"A bad tax bill can lose the war." The N.A.M. proposed the Treasury take $11,900,000,000 in taxes

SAY JAPANESE TRANSPORTS IN GULF OF TONKIN

No Indication, However, Where Vessels Carrying 20,000 Troops Going or Where They Came From.

Chungking, Aug. 13.—(P)—An army spokesman said today that an intelligence report had been received saying that Japanese transports carrying more than 20,000 troops were sighted in the Gulf of Tonkin on August 7.

He said there was no indication, however, where they came from or where they were going.

Southernmost China, Thailand and French Indo-China lie from North to South around the coast of the Gulf of Tonkin. Haiphong, Indo-Chinese port on the Gulf of Tonkin, was bombed last Sunday by United States planes based in China.

If the Japanese transports were Southbound, as would be reasonable, they might be taking reinforcements into Thailand or Japanese bases in French Indo-China for possible new offensives in Southern Asia, perhaps heading toward Burma and the Indian border.

To avoid "incidents" and observation by members of British and Allied diplomatic missions the Spanish headquarters, named "Stutzmarkt Spanien," has been transferred from Madrid to Vigo where the Gestapo headquarters for the Iberian Peninsula and North Africa have also been centred.

"Branch agents," the Turkish control point for Nazi espionage for the Levant and Middle East, has been set up in the summer palace of the German embassy at Istanbul, instead of at Ankara. Its most important branch is in the offices of the German Consul-General in Alexandria.

WAR BULLETINS

London — The German-controlled Paris radio broadcast a report today under an Istanbul dateline saying that two Russian warships, fully manned, had entered a Turkish Black Sea port and that the crews had been interned.

Chungking — United States bombers attacked the Japanese-occupied town of Yoyang (Yochow) in the Northeastern corner of Hunan Province Tuesday.

London — A Reuters dispatch from Stockholm said today many German soldiers were killed or injured in an explosion which followed the collision of a German troop train and a fuel train on the Douai-Arras line in occupied France.

London — A Vichy broadcast heard here today quoted Algerias dispatches as saying a British "aircraft carrier of the Glorious class and the aircraft carrier Argus and four destroyers have entered Gibraltar."

GERMANY'S SPY SYSTEM HAS TO BE OVERHAULED

Has Been Disrupted by Swift Blows at German Spies and Fifth Columnists in U.S. and Latin America.

London, Aug. 13.—(P)—The Nazis have been forced to overhaul their intelligence and espionage system, disrupted by swift blows at German spies and Fifth Columnists in the United States and Latin America, according to Die Zeitung, free German newspaper published in London.

"The supreme command of the German spy system now has been transferred to Hitler's headquarters from which agents' activities will be synchronized with military movements," the paper said, in an article reviewing the Nazi espionage network. Headquarters previously was centred in Berlin.

The spy ring is operated by three organizations, the Military Intelligence Department, the League of Germans Abroad and the Gestapo, it continued. Chief liaison officers representing each group have been established in the new headquarters where orders are dispatched to the main branches and distribution centres for Nazi agents in Spain and Turkey.

To avoid "incidents" and observation by members of British and Allied diplomatic missions the Spanish headquarters, named "Stutzmarkt Spanien," has been transferred from Madrid to Vigo where the Gestapo headquarters for the Iberian Peninsula and North Africa have also been centred.

"Branch agents," the Turkish control point for Nazi espionage for the Levant and Middle East, has been set up in the summer palace of the German embassy at Istanbul, instead of at Ankara. Its most important branch is in the offices of the German Consul-General in Alexandria.

SEEDS-TO-BRITAIN CAMPAIGN SUCCESS

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—(P)—Revenue Minister Gibson described Canada's first "Seeds-to-Britain" campaign today as an unqualified success.

The campaign was started by the Revenue Department's income tax division which raised funds to purchase Canadian vegetable seeds and sent them to Britain through a Montreal firm (Dupuy and Ferguson Limited).

Now the Minister has received a letter from Lady Tweedemuir expressing appreciation for the gift, and plans are under way to repeat the effort on a larger scale next year.

Further Restriction On Travel By Railroad Imposed By Ottawa

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—(P)—Munitions Minister Howe today announced the elimination of certain reduced fares on Canada's railroads, and warned that unless unnecessary civilian travel is limited on a voluntary basis "further restrictions may become necessary."

Effective at midnight, August 31, the following are prohibited:

1. Reduced fares on trips between Eastern and Western Canada;
2. Reduced fares between the Prairies and the Pacific Coast;
3. Special fares for convention groups.

"After August 31, all such traffic will be carried at ordinary fares," said Mr. Howe, who issued his statement as Acting Minister of Transport.

In addition to banning reduced fares on trips between Eastern and Western Canada and the Prairies and the Coast, the ban also applies to through trips from Eastern Canada to the West Coast.

Official spokesmen said there is no intention to disband reduced fare tickets sold before August 31, with round-trip provisions good for some length of time after that date.

There was no indication in the Minister's statement as to what "further restrictions" might be in prospect unless there is voluntary curtailment of unnecessary civilian travel.

Mr. Howe's statement said the elimination of reduced fares was taken to conserve steel, oil, coal and other vital materials, and to assure adequate transportation facilities for the movement of munitions, other war supplies, and the armed forces on duty.

"Civilian travel is on the increase," said Mr. Howe.

"The traffic now is so heavy that unless voluntary curtailment of conventions and other unnecessary travel proves a sufficient answer, further restrictions may become necessary."

The new order was issued by T. C. Lockwood, Transport Controller on the War-time Industries Control Board. It was approved by R. C. Berkinshaw, Chairman of that Board, and concurred in by Donald Gordon, Chairman of the War-time Prices and Trade Board.

Imposition of the new order was delayed until August 31 to avoid inconvenience not only to the railways but also to private individuals and convention groups who have planned trips far in advance, spokesmen said.

Mayor Ross Purchases First War Savings Certificate As Over Counter Sale Launched

Sale of over-the-counter War Savings Certificates was officially launched in Sherbrooke this morning when Mayor A. C. Ross purchased the first one at the Sherbrooke Post Office from Postmaster C. E. Soles. The certificate for twenty-five dollars was sold in the presence of H. A. Clark and L. R. Hebert, Sherbrooke County National War Finance Committee organizers.

It was stressed today at the headquarters of the local War Finance Committee that War Savings Certificates can be converted into certificates at any bank, post office and sub-station. All sub-post offices are also handling certificates in addition to War Savings Stamps and sell them over the counter or from wickets the same as ordinary postage stamps. At the Sherbrooke Post Office the certificates are handled at the money order window.

Chairman of the local committee emphasized that the new departure does not conflict in any way, but is in addition to the system of the bank pledges, and the payroll savings plan. They added that these will not only continue but will be intensified as major operations of the National War Finance Committee in enlisting the savings of the population to help finance Canada's huge share of war costs.

It was announced that from now on the staff of the branch postmasters and the bank managers will be added as an important section of the voluntary staff for War Savings Certificates from coast to coast.

War Savings Stamps go on sale next week in practically all Sherbrooke and Sherbrooke County stores and henceforth will be part of the regular stock, although neither store owner nor the clerks get anything out of it but the satisfaction of contributing to the national war effort.

The service is entirely voluntary and has been organized by the National War Finance Committee in collaboration with committee members of the Sherbrooke Lions and Rotary Clubs, Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Board of Trade, each enlisting the co-operation of its own members especially for this purpose.

It was explained that in most stores the stamps will be offered to each purchaser by the clerk making the sale, but the offer will be merely a reminder and there is no obligation to buy. In some of the larger stores, there will be stamp booths. The plan has the double purpose of promoting the regular buying of the stamps by the general public and of making it more convenient to secure the stamps at all times.

Committee members of the four Sherbrooke organizations who are contacting about six hundred retail stores in connection with the sale of War Savings Stamps, are expected to make their reports to the local War Finance Committee at the week-end.

CHARGE FALSE PRETENCES FOR PROMISING JOBS

J. T. Maily, of Montreal, Formerly of Sherbrooke, Arraigned Before Justice of Peace on Two Counts.

Arrested last night before Justice of the Peace Hottel O'Bready on two false pretence charges, J. T. Maily, of Montreal, who is a former resident of Sherbrooke, was remanded to next Wednesday. Maily was arrested earlier yesterday in Montreal and brought to Sherbrooke by Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Bail was set at $200.

Following complaints lodged by Mrs. Willie Morissette and Omer Theriault, both of Bromptonville, Maily was taken into custody by the R.C.M.P. It is alleged that the accused man illegally obtained thirty-five dollars from each of the complainants for a course which would prepare Mrs. Willie Morissette's son, Aurele, and Mr. Theriault for a civil service job at Ottawa, providing they passed examinations following completion of the course.

Maily also allegedly failed to get Mr. Morissette and Mr. Theriault the promised positions, after they had been successful in passing their tests. They claimed that the accused informed them that he was helping young French-Canadians obtain Government jobs at Ottawa.

Police said that Maily reportedly is Secretary of H. W. Pateneud Inc., of Montreal.

Tables To Facilitate Income Tax Deductions Are Sent Out

Tables are going to employers across Canada this week-end to facilitate income tax deductions from their employees' pay envelopes beginning the first pay day in September. Revenue Minister Gibson announced today at a press conference.

There will be three sets of tables—one each for employees paid by the day, by the week, and by the month. Employers who pay every two weeks will double the weekly table and those who pay semi-monthly will halve the monthly table.

Deductions will be on the basis of deducting an equal amount from each pay for twelve months to pay 90 per cent of the employee's income tax based on his income in the calendar year 1942.

The deductions will be reduced by the Defence Tax an employee has paid between January and August this year. Deductions also will be reduced up to 90 per cent of the refundable or savings portion of the tax by savings the taxpayer makes directly by payment of life insurance premiums, superannuation payments, principal payments on mortgages and trades union payments other than dues. No savings in excess of the refundable tax will be counted.

Mr. Gibson explained that the reason the deductions are based on 90 per cent instead of the full income tax is that the taxpayer might make unforeseen contributions to charitable organizations or have doctor's bills or other expenditures which would entitle him to a reduction in his total tax. The 10-per-cent margin would cover many of these.

The employee must file with his employer before September 1 a form known as T. D. 1 setting out whether he is married, his dependents, and the amount of his savings for 1942 which qualify to be set against the refundable tax.

These forms will be at the Post Offices and Revenue Tax Offices within the next few days. Offices within one day's mail distance from Ottawa should have them available tomorrow.

It will be to the tax-payer's advantage to get this form in time, the Minister said, because if it is not filed with the employer, deductions from his pay will be on the basis that the employee is unmarried and is putting aside no savings. Persons who are single without dependents and are putting aside no savings are the only class who need not file these returns.

A married man whose wife is in receipt of less than $660, or over $660 when these receipts are from wages and salary will come under the married status in the deductions. If, however, the wife receives more than $660 from investments or other payments, not salary or wages, then the husband will be classed as single for tax purposes. In either case the wife will put in her own tax return if more than $660 and be classed as single status.

Mr. Gibson said that despite the general increases in the new income taxes some in the lower-wage brackets actually will pay less than under the previous rates. A married man getting $1,300 will pay less under the new tax than he did on his 1941 income, as will also a married man with one child getting up to $1,500 and a married man with two children up to $1,700.

NO DANGER OF MILK SHORTAGE IN THIS AREA

Demand for Milk Drinks Expected to Increase as Result of Rationing Tea and Coffee.

R. W. Reid, Manager of the Sherbrooke Pure Milk Company, Ltd., said today that the rationing of tea and coffee may cause a rapid increase in the popular demand for milk and milk drinks, but there is absolutely no danger of a milk shortage in this district no matter how great the demand may be. From other Canadian centres have come reports that dairies fear the increased milk demand will create a serious milk shortage.

"So far there has not been any increase in the demand for milk and milk drinks," Mr. Reid explained to a Record reporter today. He did say, however, that there is a possibility of an increase after local residents return here from their summer cottages and homes.

"But there is absolutely no danger of a shortage arising here," he added. "We could get much more milk into our dairy if the demand was increased. There are many milk producers in the Eastern Townships who would be eager to change over and sell to city dairies. We never have any trouble securing milk when we need it."

Opinions of other dairy heads, as to the effect the rationing may have on milk consumption differed in a survey conducted by the Record, but the general belief is that milk, cocoa and chocolate drinks will become more popular.

ALBERT RIVARD IS BOUND OVER TO STAND TRIAL

Options for Speedy Trial on Charge of Theft from Mont Notre Dame Convent on August 1.

Judge J. H. Lemay yesterday afternoon ordered Albert Rivard, of Sherbrooke, to stand trial at the Fall assizes following his preliminary hearing in Magistrate's Court on a charge of breaking, entering and theft by night. The count against the accused was laid by municipal police in connection with the theft of two one-hundred pound bags of sugar and eight thirty-pound cans of jam at the Mont Notre Dame Convent early on the morning of August 1. Rivard later asked for a speedy trial.

Eudore Poullet, a soldier from Quebec City, who is similarly charged in connection with the same offence, was remanded to next Wednesday for his preliminary hearing.

Important witness to testify at the hearing was Armand Duhamel, local taxi driver, who told the court that he transported the commodities in his taxi from the convent to a local downtown hotel. He said that the cab was hired by Rivard, who was accompanied by the soldier.

Sgt. Edoard Moreau testified that he and several other officers arrested the men twenty minutes after the offence was committed, and recovered the stolen goods which were taken to No. One Station on Marquette Street. He told the court that an investigation revealed that the convent furnace room had been jimmied and the sugar and jam apparently were carried out in a box which had been unlocked from the inside.

Fitch Bay, Aug. 13.—Ronald Dube, an employee of the Arnold Bros., had a narrow escape from serious injury when the large milk truck he was driving to the Carnation Milk plant in Sherbrooke overturned on the Stanstead-Sherbrooke Highway.

Mr. Dube and seven-month-old baby, riding with him, in the cab of the truck, escaped with bruises, while Dube suffered cuts to the right hand. The truck was damaged badly, and all but eleven cans of milk were lost.

DEATH CLAIMS INDUSTRIALIST IN 89TH YEAR

Israel O. Blake, Who Died Yesterday at North Hatley, Was Noted Business Man and Horse Breeder—Native of Beebe.

North Hatley, Aug. 13.—One of New York City's most prominent industrialists and a noted horse breeder, Israel O. Blake passed away yesterday afternoon in his eighty-ninth year at his summer home here, and his death will be learned with regret throughout this district and in the United States.

Leaving his birthplace, Beebe, where he was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Blake, the deceased went to New York City to lay the groundwork of his diversified industrial career.

Founding the Crystal Lake Ice Company, which was later merged with the American Ice Company, he became manager of the latter concern. Organizing the Crystal Spring Water Company of New York City in 1901, he remained President of this company until his death. Other concerns which he was instrumental in founding, and of which he was a director, were the Corcoran Fitzgerald Company, ice manufacturer, the Cornell Electric Manufacturing Company, which was associated with the DuBilier Condenser Company and known as Cornell-DuBilier Electric Company, and which has plants at Providence, R.I., Plainfield, N.J., and New Bedford, Mass. Mr. Blake was also a director of the 36th-38th Street Corporation and the Symmes Realty Corporation.

Breeding and racing trotting horses for the last fifty-five years, Mr. Blake entered many of them in Grand Circuit races at Goshen, N.H. Among his outstanding horses were Island Wilkes, Jr., 2:06 1-4, Lady Isle, 2:06 1-4, Derby Custer, 2:05 1-4, and more recently, Lee Brewer, 2:03 1-4, Estermite, 2:06 1-4, Voltaire, 2:03 1-4, Atlantic McKilwin, 2:05 1-4, and Britanic, 2:02 1-4. He was patron of the late Walter Cox, of Goshen.

Mr. Blake belonged to the Riding Club and the Union League, of New York City, and maintained the Newport Stock Farm at Newport, Vt., for many years.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Edward Martin, of Newport, daughter, Mrs. Arthur Virgin, of North Hatley, and a son, Octave Blake, of Plainfield. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at his summer residence, with burial in Beebe Cemetery.

In addition to a concert by the Sherbrooke Harmony Band and singing by the St. Jean Baptiste choir, there will be fireworks and amusements.

There will be no admission charge. It was also announced that in the event of rain the programme will be postponed until next Tuesday.

While on a holiday, Wilfred Therrien, twenty-nine years of age, local butcher, who resided at 152 Council Street, drowned in Little Lake Magog near Kateville at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Leonidas Bouchard, Coroner for the District of St. Francis, said this morning that an inquest into the drowning will be held at No. 1 Police and Fire Station, Marquette Street, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Police said that Therrien was swimming about a hundred feet from shore when he was heard to call for help, and Paul Andre Blais, 58 Murray Street, who was on shore, swam out to aid him, but Therrien disappeared.

The body was recovered about thirty minutes later by Adrien Lagace, R. R. No. 2, North Hatley, in about six to seven feet of water.

In the meantime, Officer Robert Lessard, of the Sherbrooke Police, arrived at the scene of the drowning in Brien's Ambulance with the pull-motor. Constable Lessard tried to revive the man by artificial respiration, but his efforts were fruitless.

Therrien was taken to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where he was pronounced dead by Dr. Richard Belisle. Scene of the mishap was Notre Dame de Laus, near Menard les Bains.

To Save Gas And Tires—Get A Horse

Canadians, faced more and more with shortages in two vital war materials, rubber and gasoline, are already beginning to go back to older forms of transportation. When wedding bells rang in Hudson, Quebec, recently, Miss Constance Kingsland, of Montreal, and John Archibald McIntyre, of Whitby, Ontario, hitched up Dobbin and drove to the altar in nineteenth century style. Hudson residents approved of another feature of the war-time wedding—the absence of tooting horns as the bride and groom and guests drove by.

A COMPROMISE IN INDIA

De Witt MacKenzie, who writes a daily analysis of the war situation for The Associated Press, yesterday turned to Sirdar Kumar J. J. Singh, President of the India League of America and former member of the All-India Congress Committee, in the hope, as he says, of "finding something useful" regarding a possible compromise in the India situation. To his surprise, the Sirdar produced a new plan, going much farther than anything heretofore offered by the Nationalists, which he believed would be acceptable to the All-India Congress party.

The Sirdar pointed out that executive power now rests with the Governor-General-in-Council, that is, the Viceroy and the Executive Council of fifteen members. Four members of the Council are British and eleven are Indian, all of them appointed by the Viceroy.

"My suggestion," the Sirdar told MacKenzie, "is that the Council be reconstituted to provide a popular interim government. Let five seats be given to the All-Indian Congress, of which Mohandas Gandhi is the outstanding figure; give an equal number of seats to the Moslem League, which doesn't see eye to eye with the All-India Congress but demands guarantees that it will get proportional representation in any independent government; and let the Viceroy himself pick five other members from among universally respected Indians.

"There would be absolutely no constitutional change until after the war, except that the Viceroy would not have his present authority to override his Council. (I am told the Viceroy hasn't used this prerogative since 1879—D.M.). He would remain as Governor-General with powers similar to those exercised in Canada and other sovereign countries of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

"The status of the some 360 Indian Princes and their states, which has been a great bone of contention, would remain unchanged until the framing of a new constitution after the war.

"However, either the United Nations must guarantee complete freedom for India after the war, or Prime Minister Churchill must make an announcement in unambiguous terms in Parliament, guaranteeing India's complete independence soon after the end of the world conflict."

"The Indians are prepared to leave military defence to an Allied War Council. We would cooperate fully in the war effort, the first essential being to win the war."

air power is declining. That of Italy had declined earlier for her heart is not in this war. The United Nations have only begun their climb to production. No power, no combination of powers, can hope to stand against that rising tide.

He discloses that the March 3 raid on the Renault works near Paris "robbed the Germans of all the armored fighting vehicles and transport of five motorized divisions for a long period," and says that "history will show enemy shipping losses in our air-laid minefields as a major contribution to the outcome of the war."

Air Chief Marshal Sir Sholto Douglas, Commander-in-Chief of the Fighter Command, says that since the summer of 1941 the heavy and continuous aggressive sweeps of fighter planes from Britain over occupied Europe, together with the bomber and coastal command activities, have aided the Russians by keeping more than fifty per cent of the German air force's total fighter force pinned down in the West.

Warm tribute to the Canadian businessmen who in 1940 founded the Atlantic ferry service since taken over by the R.A.F. is paid by Air Chief Marshal Sir Frederick W. Bowhill, Commander-in-Chief of the Ferry Command. Sir Frederick also speaks glowingly of the work of the Canadian Department of Transport in building the "splendid airport" at Dorval, Que.

GUARDING AGAINST RUMORS

The Canadian Column, an organization whose announced purpose is to combat all rumors that tend to hamper Canada's war effort, has issued appeals from Brigadier B. G. Chisholm of the Department of National Defence, and Dr. Robert C. Wallace, Principal of Queen's University, to guard against the spreading of rumors.

"Unfounded or exaggerated rumors which are passed by word of mouth among civilians frequently are quoted in letters written to members of the Canadian Army forces Overseas or in Canada," says Brig. Chisholm, adding that such rumors might have a profound effect on the morale of the troops because "they themselves have no way of disproving such rumors even if their falsity is recognized.

"All Canadians should regard rumors as one of the enemies' most persistent and insidious weapons and should refuse to help Hitler by passing them on."

Dr. Wallace states that even when rumors are not believed, "they create a feeling of uneasiness and lack of confidence—the worst possible atmosphere for an all-out effort to win the war."

He urged Canadians to "challenge every rumor. Compel your informant to give chapter and verse. Trace the rumor back to its source. . . ."

CHEERFULNESS AN ASSET

By Grenville Kleiser
Wendell L. Willkie says that in his opinion opportunities for advancement are greater today than at any previous period in his lifetime.

"Assuming integrity and reasonable mental equipment," said he, "success is purely a question of foot-pounds of energy."

Despite this optimistic viewpoint, a man of forty-two recently made this declaration of defeatism: "I am subject to moods of depression, with feelings of futility. I have worked hard and not unsuccessfully, as things go, but mostly uphill."

He continues: "I look back, and there seems little to show for conscientious work, and now I have little enthusiasm and do not care to join in outside affairs, fearing to be thought a miserable wet-blanket."

This man is running away from life and reality. He is afraid of himself. His malady is curable, but the remedy lies in himself.

First, he should stop looking back and treat the past as a closed book.

Second, he should compel himself to like people and to associate with them. Difficulties can be readily hurdled if he sets his will to work.

SHERBROOKE REGIMENT BAND CONCERT APPRECIATED

To the Editor of the Record.
Dear Sir:—I would like to express, through the medium of your paper, my appreciation of the quality and tone of music as played by the Sherbrooke Regiment Band at Portland Square last Tuesday evening, August 11th. To Bandmaster R. Havard and his musicians should be extended congratulations for the excellent rendition of the programme presented.

It was too bad the concert was not advertised, for there no doubt would have been a larger audience present. It would not be a bad idea to repeat such a good programme again so that those who did not hear the concert may have the opportunity of doing so.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the opportunity to express my thanks to the members of the Sherbrooke Regiment Band, I remain,
Yours truly,
A LOVER OF GOOD MUSIC.

ANTI-FASCISTS OR COMMUNISTS
Le Nouvelliste, Three R.vers.
The argument in sum the sole argument, for the liberation of interned Communists is that they are for Russia and against the Axis. We are not told that they seek victory for Canada. No, they want Russia's victory. As long as the Russians were not in the fight, these Communists had no heart for the fight against Germany. More than that, they agitated throughout the country and worked against our war effort. It is good Communist tactics to beg the question. It would be useless to ask the House of Commons to approve Communism and to demand the liberation of Communists. The word is very carefully not mentioned. These gentlemen are forever dubbed anti-Fascists. And it is because they have become anti-Fascists that their release is sought. But have they ceased to be Communists?

Do not hearts break every day?

Our bark sets sail in peace or strife,

TWO-FACED SCOUNDREL
San Francisco Argonaut
Pierre Laval, the French architect, is aptly called a two-faced scoundrel. His name is spelled the same, forward or backward. His loyalty has always been as interchangeable as the spelling of his name.
He has demonstrated a cupidity of character unparalleled in modern history. The only possible exception might be Wang Chingwei, the Chinese renegade who acts as Japan's puppet in Nanking. Both of these two-faced scoundrels have been repudiated by the people they would sell into perpetual slavery.

"FLOODLIT" WOUNDS
British Industries Bulletin
New surgical instruments which "floodlight" the interior of the body are being used by some Army surgeons in the Middle East. Equipped with a set of these unbreakable luminous instruments, medics can perform field operations under a tree or a lean-to shelter, without worrying about aircraft overhead and with better lighting in the wound than in an operating theatre.

Made of a transparent plastic material like glass which transmits light round corners, does not conduct heat and can be thrown on the ground without breaking, the instruments are made in about thirty different shapes, to suit any kind of wound or operation. Even where there are two right-angled bends in the transparent instrument, the light rays travel down to the frost-iced tip and flood the wound with a cold shadowless light, however, inaccessible the place may be. Blood does not easily congeal on the instrument, as it does with ordinary lighting apparatus.

Lighting apparatus of this type are available, but there are three or four dual-purpose models which are quite suitable for ordinary diagnostic and surgical work in the field. A set of these, together with a small electric accumulator, cost about $12 and many surgeons in the fighting services have bought them out of their own pockets, so useful have they proved in action. Some of Britain's greatest surgeons are now using these instruments for wounds which cannot be seen into by ordinary operating theatre-lighting.

Similar instruments have been made in other countries for some years past, but they had the disadvantage of losing their shape in sterilizing. They new instruments are made of a methyl methacrylate plastic specially developed by British chemists, which will stand any amount of boiling without losing shape.

The tragic total compiled by McGill investigators is merely the summary of the grim items appearing week by week, and particularly summer by summer, in the newspapers of the country. guarded waters; who can swim but not well enough; who cannot swim but get beyond their depth.

The psychology of the situation is similar to that of the reckless motor car driver. Like the speed on the road, the careless or foolish swimmer takes crazy chances on the theory that "it can't happen" in his or her particular case. No doubt the greater proportion of the 4,537 listed in the McGill compilation thought that too.

Reduction of the drowning toll is mainly dependent upon individual common sense. If people would not take needless and dangerous risks, if they would season the holiday spirit with a measure of ordinary caution, the obituary columns would not be so long.

THINKS U-BOATS REFUEL IN U.S. WATERS

Argonaut, San Francisco
German submarines are destroying our shipping in the Gulf of Mexico without let or hindrance, and it is evident that these submarines are not obliged to return to Europe for re-fueling. It is not evident all that they need from the West Indian Island of Martinique, or from some other American possession on the road, the cargoes headed by M. Laval, who makes no secret of his sympathy with Germany, and who has said more than once that he wants to see Germany win this war? It is evident, and if we had a State Department with guts, the island of Martinique, and every other French possession in America under the control of M. Laval, would have been seized long ago. It is all very well for Mr. Hull to damn Hitler, for we are all doing the same thing; but M. Laval is tarred with the same stick, and equally subject to condemnation. What the people of this country want to be told is not how wicked Herr Hitler is, for they have already been told thousands of times, and the lesson has sunk in; what they want now is to witness energetic measures for winning the war, and these are nowhere visible.

Our Government is not telling us anything that the American people want to know. Indeed, it puts up an old man, who doubtless ought to be retired, to tell us what we all know as well as he. Not how wicked Hitler is, but how wicked he is, and his Japanese allies, can be conquered—that is what the American people want to know, and they want those in authority to tell them P. D. Q. Moreover they want to know when the Administration means to proceed against M. Laval, and prevent him from re-fueling German submarines, now preying on our shipping in the Gulf of Mexico, through his authority in Martinique and French America generally.

We should have liked to have Secretary Hull tell us why it takes weeks to try German spies caught red-handed by the F.B.I. It has recently been pointed out that it only took a few hours for the Administration of President Lincoln to try, convict and execute a spy. This country is in need, not of a tender-minded Administration, but of a tough-minded Administration.

STRATEGICAL ERROR SAVES A CONTRACT

In today's hand East opened the six of clubs. Declarer made the right play of accepting the finesse, and the king won. A club came back for East to ruff. East later made the ace of trumps and that was all. The opening lead was a strategical error often made by inexperienced players. With four trumps, including a stopper, the general plan should be to try to force the declarer. A short suit lead, playing for a ruff, usually relieves the declarer of much of the trouble that can be caused by a strong adverse trump holding. East's only long side suit has been bid by South. Still, the bid was secondary, and North has denied the suit. It is not too much to hope that North can be forced by spade leads. East should stick to principles by opening the five of spades. Dummy wins and probably leads the king of hearts, which East may well duck. Now declarer cashes the ace and king of diamonds and ruffs out the loser. Then he leads the jack of trumps. Whenever East wants to take his ace, he can punch North with spades, and West can punch him with diamonds when he gets in with the club king. Declarer is set one or two tricks.

At the beginning of World War II, Germany was estimated to have 50,000 dogs under military training, with Frankfurt boasting the world's largest military dog school.

The largest Roman Catholic Church is St. Peter's, in Rome. The seating capacity can hardly be estimated, as much of the edifice consists of corridors and halls. The building covers four acres of ground.

CHIN STRAPS CAN BE A HELP BUT THEY HAVE AN "IF," TOO BY ALICIA HART Several women write asking whether a chin strap will "cure" a double chin. The answer is: it will help, if chosen correctly, but it should be used together with some good stretching and chewing exercises. That goes for any unlovely throat line.

If you wish to improve your throat's appearance, you might ask the operator who gives you a facial treatment to include a "tie-up." She will adjust it after thoroughly cleansing the face and neck and massaging with emollient cream. You should follow the same routine at home. If you use a ready-made chin strap, be sure it is made of bias-cut or elastic material. You might use a towel folded diagonally to make a three or four-inch band, which you simply tie comfortably tight. See that the bandage holds the tissues smooth and flat, but do not let it distort the face.

It would be a good idea to use the chin strap at night after you have done these chewing exercises. Bend head forward, then backward until the chin is high in air, the throat stretched, the muscles tensed. Holding them thus, turn head slowly to right, to left, to front and again. Relax and repeat six times. Now, stand up and stretch chin as far forward as possible. Keeping this position, move jaws as if chewing—but chewing as exaggeratedly as possible, so that the lower jaw drops down considerably with each chew. Turn head to the right and repeat, then repeat to the left, then back.

Do It Right To Get Results This regimen will give results, if followed faithfully for some weeks, and if the double chin does not go with a very much overweight figure, which of course calls for dieting and general reducing exercises. And, this regimen has another use, for practically every woman who wants to remain youthful all her life. It is an excellent preventive for sagging jowls. The throat, more than other features, bears out the axiom about the ounce of prevention.

Kenton, England, Aug. 13.—Able Seaman Jack (Rusty) Steel kept his promise to bring his fiancée three pairs of silk stockings as a wedding gift, but it was a narrow squeak.

When H.M.S. Wild Swan was sunk while returning to Britain after 14 months foreign service Jack managed to snatch up the stockings before abandoning ship. Yes, his fiancée, Joyce Brook, wore a pair when she tripped to the altar in a mid-Atlantic town after Jack had recovered in hospital.

MARRIAGES

ROSEMOUNT, Aug. 13.—The marriage of Eileen Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols, of Rosemount, to Pte. Sydney Harold Stevens, now serving in the R.C.O.C., at London, Ont., younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Stevens, of Tremholm, was solemnized at St. Luke's Church, Rosemount, on Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, July 4, 1942. The Rev. Mr. Kettleborough performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white marquisette over heavy white satin, a finger tip length veil, of tulle, held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of deep pink carnations and white sweet peas.

The groom and the best man, Russell Brown, of the R.C.O.C., were both in uniform as were the ushers David Ednie, C.A.S.C. stationed at Kingston, Ont., and Harry Dickson, Postal Corps, stationed at Montreal.

Mrs. Nichols, mother of the bride, wore a dress of beige crepe with matching accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. The mother of the groom wore a dress of blue printed sheer over silk with matching accessories and a corsage bouquet of red roses and baby's breath.

The organ music was softly rendered by Mr. Leather during the ceremony. Following the ceremony a reception to about fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, and a buffet lunch was served. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake.

The outgoing guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Wintle, of Tremholm; Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Stevens, of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kelly, of Dixie; Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott Blackie, Mr. Deural and many others.

DEVELOP CHARM IN CHILDREN AT CRADLE AGE The time to start your son or daughter off to charm in looks and manner is—the cradle age. And you can do a good deal of your job in that direction with plain soap and water, plus your own savvy.

A baby who's kept cool, comfortable and clean will grow up looking it. And that will spur her or him to more faithful self-grooming, later, any talking about it that you do.

Lucky for you, modern babies are well dressed, these hot days, in that one garment, a diaper. Of course, clean diapers, they don't stay clean very long if they are crawling around. So you supplement the morning bath with light spongings several times during the day. Wrap the baby's own clean washcloth around the right hand, dip in suds, squeeze well, and wipe the baby's whole body. Rinse off and pat dry—rubbing stirs circulation, is discomforting.

Change the crib or carriage sheets often even if they aren't soiled—the feel of fresh clean things is much more effective a "humorizer" than grandma's patting was.

With this kind of handling, consistently applied during the child's first few years, you won't find yourself begging and cajoling about washing hands, brushing hair, etc., for herself or himself at five to seven.

If you have a cantankerous one of that age—it's not too late. Get your training over on the positive side by appealing to some emotion in such a manner that the child gets pleasure from doing what's good for him.

For instance, utilize the hero-worship that every child feels. Instead of cajoling or nagging about hand-washing before meals, play soldier or sailor or WAAC. You are the officer and you "issue" soap; he or she uses it for fun, because he or she is "in" to Army or Navy or WAAC cleanliness is part of the game.

BRITISH WOMEN ANXIOUS ABOUT WAR PROGRESS

Replies to Questionnaire Reveal Deep Interest in British Women in Wide Range of Vital Matters.

London, August 13.—If the opinion of a cross-section of members of the Women's Guild of the Empire is a criterion, then it may be truthfully said that British women are doing a lot of thinking about the war and are far from satisfied.

Shocked at the sudden fall of Tobruk, officials of the Guild, founded by Mrs. Flora Drummond, widely-known as "General" Drummond during the old suffragette days in Britain, dispatched five questionnaires to 1,500 of the 50,000 women on the organization's mailing list to find out the people's reaction. Those polled included titled women, doctors, nurses, social workers, housewives, factory workers and business women.

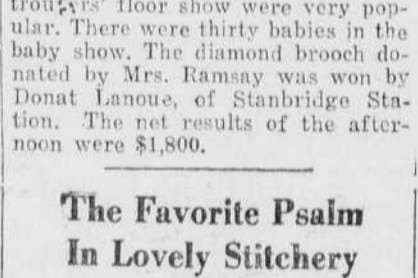

A survey of the replies showed that: Eighty per cent thought the office of the Minister of Defence should be separate from the office of the Prime Minister; Seventy per cent thought British people should be informed of the true position regarding shipping losses and production; Ninety-six per cent asked for information on the loss in production due to strikes and faulty administration; Ninety-four per cent demanded assurance that before a second front is started the armed forces will be properly equipped, thus avoiding a defeat similar to Tobruk; Ninety-six per cent thought members of Parliament should be given frank and full answers to questions in the Commons.

The answers represented 40 parliamentary divisions whose members will be informed of the precise results.

Although thrown several feet and cut back of one ear, no bones were broken. Aside from being bruised and lame for a few days, she seems none the worse for the accident. The ear was driven by a party from Georgeville, who was not blamed by eye-witnesses.

SOUTH AFRICA HAS IMPROVED DEFENCE WORKS

Millions Spent for Construction of Defence Buildings Recently, Public Works Minister Announces.

Cape Town, Aug. 13.—(P)—Since the outbreak of the war, the Union of South Africa has spent £20,000,000 ($89,400,000) on defence buildings. Public Works Minister C. F. Clarkson has announced. As yet the programme is by no means complete, and construction has been limited to the most essential buildings.

A number of evacuees are expected to arrive shortly in South Africa from Egypt. Natal Administrator H. G. Watson has asked all holiday makers in Maritzburg, Durban and the coastal districts to return home as soon as possible to make room for them. The residents have been asked to accommodate the 4,000 refugees for two weeks until the Government finds quarters for them inland.

A governmental decree has been issued to the effect that Italian war prisoners in South Africa may now be employed by private individuals.

BIG TELESCOPE IS PRESENTED TO UNIVERSITY

Instrument Being Presented to University of Alberta Will Have Motor Mounting.

Edmonton, Aug. 13.—(P)—August will see completion of a $2,500 building to house a 12½-inch telescope weighing 700 pounds, constructed and donated to the University of Alberta by Cyril G. Wates, an official of the Edmonton City Telephone Department.

The building, being erected on the university campus is about 30 feet long and 18 feet wide. It will be a one-story structure with a dome 16 feet in diameter, which will be covered with a flexible material made from wood fibre.

Made by Mr. Wates as a hobby, the telescope weighs nearly 700 pounds, exclusive of the supports. The tube is about 10 feet long and has a reflector, or curved mirror, instead of the familiar lens, possessing a power at least 1,000 times as great as the naked eye.

It took Mr. Wates five years "and a lot of patience" to build the telescope. Materials cost him approximately $100 but a similar one by a firm would be worth about $1,000, he said.

The telescope will be mounted on two pillars connected by a bar. Mr. Wates explained: "You set your telescope on the star you wish to observe and then let out a sort of clutch on the machine which starts a motor. This motor keeps the instrument set on the star which otherwise would soon be moved out of line by the rotation of the earth. The whole thing works much like the clutch of an automobile."

Much of the research work to be done with the telescope is expected to be on variable stars because, Mr. Wates said, "work of this kind can't be done in large observatories because the large telescopes can't be spared and most of them are photographic."

Bows And Braids Go To Head Of Small Girls' Style Class

Bows and braids are fashionable for wartime girls. This popular style is worn now in vacation, and will go back to school, too. Braids, of course, can be pinned up.

BY ALICIA HART Smart little girls are shaping their tresses to the times. Bows and braids often take the place of pins in their new vacation hair styles. Watch for more of those in the back-to-school ranks, too. Many youngsters follow the adult trend to shorter cuts, and some toss their locks way up like mother's. However, an outstanding hair stylist who specializes in schoolgirl fashions tells me that most of his customers want, first of all, something "Not too adult-looking." They seem to know this No. 1 rule: for youngsters, the simpler the hair-fix, the better.

If Hair Is Becoming, Don't Change It This stylist recommends no change at all if the girl has a hairdo which is becoming. For some youngsters who have long hair, he expertly tapers the locks and folds them into attractive braids. He recommends a soft permanent for those who cannot wear either braids or long straight hair. This permanent is really, says the expert, "a foundation for a permanent." It is just a suggestion of a wave, to keep the hair well groomed instead of dangling awkwardly. Here is what happens when the young customer arrives at this salon to have her hair styled: Her hair is expertly examined—its texture; its cowlicks, if any; its springiness; and the natural swirl if there is one at the hairline. Then she describes her likes and dislikes in hairfixes.

Youngsters' hair which needs waving gets very gentle, soft treatment in outstanding stylists' hands. This fetching fashion is brushed-out locks, parted at side, adorned with a bow like Mother's.

Then the stylist shows her photographs of hair styles, and either she chooses her own, or the stylist suggests one that is suitable. Then, if necessary, the hair is waved, cut, and coiffed. Care Now Pays Dividends Later These are necessary steps in acquiring a new and becoming hairdo, and if your daughter is choosing her own without benefit of such service, I'd advise you to help her. Examine her hair and the hair style she is wearing. Does it look right for her? Is it simple enough and not too severe?

If you are not satisfied, study some photographs of styles designed especially for girls of her age. Then decide upon one for her, and learn how to handle the hair for that style. When the hair is to be waved, have it done with just as much care and individual attention as your own hair gets. Hair is the most changeable of features—when it is healthy and well cared for. Just for that reason, the youngster's hair deserves a half-beauty routine which will keep her locks becomingly arranged now and healthy and manageable later.

SOUTH AFRICAN LOST TRADE IS SUPPLEMENTED

Exports Cut Down by the War Are Replaced by Sale of Supplies to Navy and Convoys.

Capetown, Aug. 13.—Losses to South African export trade to the war have been partially replaced by the business of supplying foodstuffs to the Royal Navy and merchant convoys calling at Union ports. It is estimated that stores to the value of $3,000,000 ($13,410,000) were sold to vessels, other than those of the Navy, during 1941. Cape wines, especially, have experienced a minor boom.

Importation from the United Kingdom by parcel post for trade purposes has been prohibited. This new order becomes effective August 3, and is designed to check abuses of parcel post and render maximum shipping space for war supplies. Special permits for exceptional assignments are obtainable from the United Import Controller.

A statement condemning the violence and misconception of certain young Afrikaners has been issued by Eric Louw, an Opposition Member in the South African House of Assembly. He declared that two young men now under death sentence for Rand dynamite outrages were victims of the irresponsible advice that "political means cannot bring about achievement of our aim and that other ways must be used." He said freedom could not be brought an inch nearer by wire cutting and bombing.

Congratulations have been conveyed to the Union Government from the British Admiralty for the achievement of the South African Seaward Defence Ships, Southern Maid and Protea. The sinking of an enemy vessel in the Eastern Mediterranean by these two ships is one of the most notable incidents in the history of the Seaward Defence Force. Beginning August 1 the South African Seaward Defence Force will be known as the South African Naval Force.

The detachment of the National Volunteer Brigade which recently escorted 4,000 German war prisoners from South Africa to America has returned to Capetown. The escort was composed of 250 officers and men.

General Ludwig Cruwell, German Afrika Korps Commander, who was captured in Libya arrived in Durban as a prisoner of war last week.

The first South Africans who volunteered in answer to Premier Jan C. Smuts' call to "avenge Tobruk" have begun intensive training. Camp scenes now are reminiscent of the early days of 1940 when the Active Citizens Force units were called up.

The marriage ban of South African troops serving outside the Union has been lifted, and a new national war fund has been started to make payments to the dependents of soldiers whose living standard suffers through enlistment.

In an effort to save vital rail transport for essential traffic, certain excursions and other concessions to the general public have been withdrawn. However, South African and Allied soldiers blinded as a result of the war are henceforth to travel free on the South African Railways.

The Postmaster General has announced that the first South African stamp to be reduced in size under the scheme to conserve paper will be the penny-halfpenny in the war series.

He Never Took Her Out Until ...

He was a fine husband in most ways—but for months now she hadn't been able to stir him out of his chair in the evening. They never went any place—they were losing their friends. All the fun and comradeship was going out of their marriage.

His excuse was always that he was "too tired"—until she got sick of hearing it. Then... one day when talking to her druggist about George, he suggested Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. George said he'd try them but didn't believe they could help him. To his surprise and her delight, soon he began to notice that his work did not tire him as it had... he slept more soundly—ate better and his nerves felt calmer. You'd never know George today—he's going ahead in his business—has some more fun of hearing it. In his good humor, he is always ready for an evening's fun.

Many a man like George can blame his feeling of weakness or nervous exhaustion on a run-down condition of the blood. Don't wait—try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now fortified with Vitamin B. They are wonderfully effective in building rich, red blood so necessary to vigor and strength and have helped thousands to get back "in the pink." Ask your druggist today for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Whitehall Notebook

By DOUGLAS AMARON, Canadian Press Staff Writer. London, Aug. 13.—The Premier of the film "The Young Mr. Pitt" attracted more members of Parliament than some sessions at the House of Commons Ministers, Privy Counsellors, Parliamentary private secretaries and Parliament "extras" were there to see how their predecessors carried on in circumstances strikingly similar to the present day.

The film shows the younger Pitt, played by Robert Donat, sustaining England's confidence at a time when the enemy was in Egypt and threatening India.

Reports that Winston Churchill is preparing his own account of the war brought an explanation that "The Prime Minister looks on his daily noting of the course of events in the same light as a ship's captain keeping a log-book," rather than as the groundwork for a future publication.

Suggestions still come in for cutting down the length of Parliamentary speeches. Sir Leonard Lyle (Conservative, Bournemouth), who has raised the question more than once, proposed an arrangement for relaying the chimes of Big Ben so they could be heard in the Chamber.

And back-benchers still object to ministers reading their speeches. So much so, they are reported to be hatching a plot to call the Speaker's attention to the irregularity every time they spot a Minister laboriously working through his brief.

A reference by Ernest Thurtle, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Information, to "pep talks" caused confusion in the Commons. "What is meant by 'pep talks'?" asked Sir Outburt Headlam.

"I'm not sure myself, but I believe the word has entered sufficiently into common usage for most members to understand what is meant by it," Thurtle replied.

A little later K. W. M. Pickthorn referred to "pep talks" as "a term apparently without definition," to which Earl Winterton added "and which has been out of date for twenty years in the country of its origin."

Lord Darley, known among his fellow peers as "The Gardener Earl," is worried about the future of horticulturalists and the prospects that before long people will be thrown back on a diet which, he said, "I intensely dislike—cabbage boiled until all the goodness has gone down the drain and its odor has penetrated to every corner of the house."

"I believe there is more joy in the flower trade than in all the other pleasures trades put together," the six-foot-six Earl said during an eloquent, expert but unsuccessful appeal in the House of Lords against an order reducing the capital of flower, bulb and shrub growers to twenty-five per cent of what it was in 1939.

For the first time in British Parliamentary history, Polish Parliamentarians have sat in session with in the precincts of the House of Commons. The meeting, in the huge committee room, was arranged by the executive committee of the Anglo-Polish Parliamentary group to stress the ties of friendship between Poland and Great Britain.

Sir Stafford Cripps' motion requiring M.P.'s to show passes before entering the Commons produced some good natured argument before it was carried by a 119-to-16 vote.

Earl Winterton, "Deputy Father" of the House and one of the tallest and slimmest M.P.s, recalled that on a visit to the Foreign Office he held out his pass at a distance at which no one could read it and the police nodded him on. The police officer, when questioned, said "We know everybody by sight who comes here" but admitted he didn't know Lord Winterton.

Sir Stafford, assuring the House that Commons police would examine passes, added: "You look so distinguished and ambassadorial that anyone would admit you to the Foreign Office in any circumstances."

Former Thetford Teacher Helps Keep Air Force Planes Going

By LOUIS V. HUNTER, Canadian Press Staff Writer. With the R.C.A.F. Somewhere in England, Aug. 13.—Engineer officer with the new French-Canadian bomber squadron, Flying Officer Hilaire (Robbie) Roberge of Ottawa is boss of the men on the ground who keep the machines in the air.

There isn't a busier man in the squadron and if there is one job in the world that would turn a man's hair grey this is it.

Before a bomber goes into the air a thousand-and-one checks must be made. Men swarm over the machines like ants checking wire connections, instruments, engines, bomb racks, controls.

The brand new Wellingtons used by the squadron require more than 300 modifications before they can even be passed as accepted after delivery.

"We are gradually getting equipped and there is a lot of work to do," said the 39-year-old permanent force officer, who has been in the Air Force since 1924. "We've got a very nice bunch of men and they are anxious to get going on the aircraft."

Roberge's helpers include a lot of experienced men. Sgt. Louis Coallier, 22, of Contrecoeur, Que., is the veteran of the squadron's ground crew. In England more than thirty months, he is the N.C.O. in charge of armament.

Coallier, who was with Roberge and the C.O. Wing Cmdr. Joe St. Pierre, of St. Bustache-sur-le-Lac, in Auxiliary Bomber Squadron No. 118 in Montreal before the war, looks after the bombing up of aircraft before raids and sees to it that all turrets and bomb gear are kept in working order.

Roberge's charges include LAC's Leo Caron, 25, Dalhousie, N.B.; Jules Barrette, 25, St. Joseph d'Alma, Que.; Gaston Tallon, 21, Quebec; Maurice Deschamps, 24, Grand'Mere, Que.; Joseph Poirier, 25, New Glasgow, N.S.; Lionel Pelletier, 20, Connors, N.B.; and Alexis Rioux, 24, Carriquet, N.B. Among the aircraftmen are Fernand Richard, 27, Rogersville, N.B.; Benoit Giguere, 23, Valley Junction, Que.; Norman Thibeau, 20, Little Brook, N.S.; Maurice Belanger, 20, Chicoutimi, Que.; and Albert Charette, 22, Melocheville, Que. Cpls. J. J. Arthur Cloutier, 35, L'Ange Gardien, Que., and Irene Faucher, 34, Ste. Marie de Beauce, are among the N.C.O.'s.

BUSY SESSION OF CANTERBURY EAST SOCIETY

Women's Missionary Group of McKenzie Chapel Entertained at Residence of Mrs. Everett Rudd.

Canterbury East, Aug. 13.—The W.M.S. of McKenzie Chapel met with Mrs. Everett Rudd with a good attendance. The President, Mrs. J. R. McLeod, was in charge and opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn, "O Word of God Incarnate," with Mrs. McMillan at the organ.

The roll call was answered by all with a verse of Scripture. The hymn, "Breathe On Me Breath of God," was sung.

The theme for August was "The Bible in the World Today." Those taking part were Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Alvin Coates, Mrs. A. J. McLeod and Mrs. W. O. McLeod.

Eleven copies of the Scriptures in whole or in part were circulated by the Bible Society in 1941 in Germany.

A 500-page volume called "Das Ewigkeit Wort" (The Eternal Word) was printed in Leipzig, Germany, with the sole purpose of bringing the reader to the reader of today the essential contents of the Bible.

The lesson was read responsively. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted as read.

The meeting, which was both helpful and instructive, closed with prayer by Mrs. Rudd, followed by the National Anthem and the benediction.

CANADA'S FILMS IN BIG EFFORT GEARED TO WAR

Modern Pictures on Large Scale Tell the World in Dramatic Way What Dominion Is Doing in Great Crisis.

Montreal, August 13.—That humming sound you hear in Canada's motion picture industry merrily turning out reel after reel of films publicizing our country's war effort. No nation has been quicker to sense the importance of films in rousing the public mind for the demands of all-out war.

Of a preponderantly documentary nature, Canadian films take a back seat to no other country in this domain, and have acquired an international reputation for excellence and "punch." A New York Times correspondent recently wrote that Russia and Germany were the only nations rivalling Canada's celluloid propaganda.

Bringing all existing problems into a single solid pattern, the National Film Board, headed by active John Grierson, has centralized all Government film interests and production, and made integrated use of the existent facilities of private film industry.

In 1942, the National Film Board, which is the Government Motion Picture Bureau under a new name, will produce and release approximately 150,000 feet of film in 150 items, of which forty to fifty will be of two reels or more.

Major activity of the Film Board is the series "Canada Carries On," roughly comparable to the American "March of Time" in technique, and produced monthly since April, 1940. The series includes Atlantic Patrol, Letter from Aldershot, Home Front, Front of Steel, Squadron 992, Wings of Youth, Britain at Bay, Letter from Camp Borden, Un du Ving-Duixieme, Children from Overseas, Heroes of the Atlantic, Churchill's Island, Strategy of Metals, Soldiers All, Battle for Oil, and many others. These were purchased by 900 of Canada's 1,000-odd theatres, who paid better prices for them than for any other shorts.

Other releases include special training films for the departments of National Defence, Munitions and Supply, Labor, the National War Finances Committee, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and other branches of the Government. Also included is a monthly news review in French called Les Actualites Canadiennes.

Apart from its war films, the Film Board has a carefully planned schedule of non-war pictures, covering art, social planning, elementary and human geography, history, nature study and natural resources.

At the end of six months, Canadian war films are reduced from theatre size to 16-millimeter for non-theatrical showing in distant points of the United States, Latin America, Britain and the Colonial Empire. No road company was ever called upon to do a more specific wartime job. These films carry a picture of Canada's war effort to the four corners of the earth.

An experiment was launched in the early months of this year, bringing travelling theatres to rural communities beyond theatre range, with the co-operation of the Canadian Council for Education in Citizenship.

Forty-three such travelling theatres are now in operation, each playing an average of twenty communities a month. In Quebec, most of the circuits are in French with the Quebec Government providing a lecturer who travels with the projectionist.

Montreal is the major centre of the film industry, more than 75 per cent of production and processing being done here. The rest of the war films are produced on the West Coast, with a Toronto firm doing considerable process work after production.

A story will illustrate the value of one particular film. A woman in a Western city saw a Red Cross picture, and her first gesture on leaving the theatre was to call on campaign headquarters to reclaim a cheque for $150 she had just donated. "I saw your movie," she said, "and now I want to tear up my first cheque and give you another one for $1,000!"

"We have only begun to scratch the surface of the possibilities in film as a means for national education," John Grierson was quoted as saying recently. "The world events we are passing through will force us to reorganize our educational outlook and methods on a scale history has never known."

The United States has 1,539 railway tunnels, totalling 320 miles, and 191,779 railway bridges, totalling 8,860 miles.

Shaffer, of Frelighsburg. Miss Sadie Strickland, of Montreal, is spending a week's holiday with Mrs. Earl Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chalifoux, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Chalifoux, Mr. Archie Sherrer, Mr. James Dymond, Mr. W. Crawford and Mr. George Crawford attended the funeral of Mr. Archie Clark, at Hillside, on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Reta Spicer spent the weekend in Brigham, the guest of Miss Molly Brock.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perkins were Mr. Frank Martin and daughters, Ruth and Marjorie, and Miss May Anderson, of Waterloo; Mr. Arthur Townsend and Miss Sadie Strickland, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beattie, Misses Margaret and Marion Beattie and Messrs. Walter and Norman Beattie, of Sweetburg.

Mrs. W. Colton spent a day with her sister, Mrs. James Dymond, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Farrell, of Iron Hill, were callers in this vicinity.

RED CROSS IS STILL ACTIVE ON HOME FRONT

Fifty-Four Outpost Hospitals Have Been in Operation During Past Year in Various Parts of Dominion.

Even in the midst of its ever-increasing wartime activities the Canadian Red Cross is still carrying on its many vital activities on the home-front.

During the past year there were fifty-four outpost hospitals in operation in various parts of isolated sections of the Dominion. Home nursing and first aid classes have become more important than ever before and the Red Cross, especially in the territory along the Lower St. Lawrence, is making rapid strides on preparation for medical and hospital aid in the event of a major disaster.

Large quantities of relief stores, blankets, mattresses and surgical supplies have already been stored at strategic points especially in the Maritimes and British Columbia, while plans are rapidly reaching completion for similar preparation in the vulnerable parts of this Province. This work is being done by the Disaster Preparedness Relief Committee of the Quebec Provincial Division of the Red Cross.

Already this committee, in collaboration with the Montreal C.P.C. and the Health Department, has made arrangements for clearing stations, auxiliary hospitals, ambulance service and inquiry bureau service in case of an unexpected disaster striking the city.

In the Red Cross outpost hospitals along Canada's Northern frontier a total of 42,236 patients received treatment during the past year. More than 5,700 operations were performed. These outpost hospitals serve large sections of Canada's isolated areas where there are no other facilities for medical care.

Last year the travelling Medical-Dental Clinics of the Quebec Provincial Division treated over 8,700 settlers in the colonization areas of Abitibi and Temiscamingue counties, as well as bringing aid through its outpost nursing centres on the Gaspé peninsula and Magdalen Islands.

With the demands of war on the home front as well as Overseas becoming ever more evident the Red Cross last year sponsored more than 1,000 home nursing and first aid classes. In this province alone more than 300 classes were conducted with approximately 5,200 women and girls receiving instruction.

The Red Cross also maintains a registry of graduate nurses who are being maintained without jeopardizing in the least the tremendous effort being expended on wartime services.

Thus the home-front activities of the Canadian Red Cross, not only in the Province of Quebec, but throughout the entire Dominion are being maintained without jeopardizing in the least the tremendous effort being expended on wartime services.

War's Distaff Side

Taking an active part in the Sixth Army's current manoeuvres in North Carolina, the above nurses from Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, are shown keeping things orderly at their tents. Few of the girls have had more than three months' training. First Lieut. Mary C. Shaffer stands along in uniform.

recall the Russell sisters the Morton girls, the Robinsons, Camerons and Murnys. I knew former Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia when he was 11 years old and used to visit his mother at Woodstock.

"When fifteen I was married to Mr. Post, who was a carpenter. We moved to Winnipeg in 1881, lived there four years and then went to Port Arthur. Five years later we moved to Victoria."

Mrs. Post's husband died ten years ago. She has one son, who at eighty-five works every day as a carpenter. Another son died some years ago. "He never recovered from the shock of losing his wife and young son in the Point Ellice bridge disaster here on May 26, 1896," she said. An overloaded street car plunged through the bridge, resulting in loss of 66 lives.

"Granny" recalled incidents of the American Civil War when she lived in Watertown, N.Y., and Jersey City. "Then there were the Fenian Raids in Canada. I was living in Quebec and when the boys went away all the women cried. But the Fenians did not come far enough and the boys didn't have to fight them."

Mrs. Post remembered Confederation and said that she had seen Sir John A. Macdonald on several occasions. "We were Conservatives," she said, "but so long as Canada became a nation we didn't care who ran things. I'm a Canadian and always shall be."

She did not think that modern girls were different from those of her day. "In the old days some girls used something like lipstick and rouge. I didn't... and I never saw slacks until a year or so before I lost my sight five years ago. I was a Methodist and never smoked, danced or played cards. Dancing is good exercise, I guess, but I never learned."

Mrs. Post concluded the interview with the remark: "I honor any girl who puts on the Canadian uniform."

"HEY, BILL! WHERE D'YE GET THIS SANDWICH?"

"SAME OLD SANDWICHES, TOM, BUT THE WIFE'S DISCOVERED FRENCH'S MUSTARD—THAT'S WHAT PUTS THE SMACK IN 'EM!"

French's Prepared Mustard gives a distinctive flavour to all foods with which it is used.

Mrs. Hitchcock enjoys comparatively good health and spends her time sewing and writing letters, besides being able to wait on herself and assist in a few light duties in the home.

Mrs. Hitchcock, before her marriage was Jane Howie, sister of the late Mrs. John E. Vernal. She was twice widowed, her first husband being the late Rev. Calvin J. Hastings, of Brome. After the death of her second husband, Mr. Peter Hitchcock, of Stanbridge Station, she moved to Embro, Ont., to live with her only child, Mrs. Max Goodrich, wife of Rev. Max Goodrich. Again death broke up her home.

when her daughter passed away very suddenly. She is now very tenderly cared for by her granddaughter, Grace.

For many years Mrs. Hitchcock came to Brome and spent the summers here amongst her various nieces and nephews and her many friends who now regret the cessation of these visits owing to her advancing years.

Mrs. Hitchcock has three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She has always been very active in church work and is an honorary member of the W.C.T.U.

Her many friends from the Eastern Townships trust that this dear Christian lady may be spared to celebrate more birthdays and enjoy good health before she is called to her heavenly home.

A large gathering met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warden on August 5 to enjoy a salad supper served by the ladies of the Women's Association of the Brome Centre Church. At the conclusion of the supper a sing-song was held with Miss Margaret Shufelt at the piano and Mr. Dave Christie with his trombone.

This music was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A very gratifying gum was realized from the supper.

It was with much regret that the news was received here of the sudden death of Dr. Harris, of Knowlton, and much sympathy is felt for his wife and son, Mr. George Harris.

A large number from this locality attended the lawn social held in Hill on Friday by the members of the Church Guild.

PETITION OF K. OF C. TABLED AT COATICOOK

Knights Ask Council for Free Lighting of Tennis Court—List of Properties to Be Sold for Taxes Presented.

Coaticook, August 13. — At the regular monthly meeting of the Council, held with Mayor D. B. Hopkins and all the aldermen present. Considerable business was taken up.

A report on the Government analysis of Coaticook water was read which pronounced Coaticook town water exceptionally good.

A letter was read from the Department of Agriculture in reference to the advisability of changing the course of the Coaticook River, where it passes with many turns through the low-lying portion of North Coaticook. This is thought advisable because of complaints of farmers that in the time of high water blockades from piled up ice or waste at these turns are responsible for the damaging one-floor of the meadows.

A report was read also from the Government Department of Roads. The Department will close those parts of the road on Route 22 between Coaticook and Dixville, which were left still usable, when the new road was made public. Such parts of this highway which are within the town limits of Coaticook, are donated to the town.

A grant of $25 was made Mrs. Tafe toward the running expenses of her hospital.

A report was read upon the suggestion from the C. N. R., that the Davis Crossing, between North Coaticook and Upper town, where a serious accident occurred last Spring, be closed. It appears that farmers in the habit of using this road and crossing into town object to its closing so that it must now be left for settlement to the C. N. R. officials and the farmers interested.

A by-law was drawn up in regard to moving of buildings across or through the streets of the town, fixing the liability, if any, upon the persons responsible.

Messrs. Bonin and Tremblay, of Sherbrooke, report that the new building which they are erecting for the town at the Sheard Manufacturing Company is progressing and will be ready for occupancy by the date specified, September 1st.

YANKEES, DODGERS COME THROUGH IN 9th

Different Methods But Same Result As Subway Series Squads Triumph

Brooklyn Tops Phils 1-0 as Walk to Camilli Forces In Only Run of Game—King Kong Keller Poles Out Grand Slam Homer to Give Champs 8-4 Victory Over Boston Red Sox—Cards Blast Cubs 9-4 and 8-3.

New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers appear determined to save themselves and the baseball fans a lot of travel by keeping in 1942 World Series within range of a five-cent subway ride.

Both teams won again yesterday, which is hardly surprising in itself, but the secret of their continued success cropped out in the widely divergent methods they employed to accomplish the same result.

Boston Red Sox and Philadelphia Phils discovered what many others already knew about the Yankees and the Dodgers—had they been able to beat you one way, they'll beat you another.

At Ebbets Field, the Dodgers went to bat in the ninth inning of a scoreless game. They calmly loaded the bases on two singles and a walk and sent dangerous Dolph Camilli to the plate.

Camilli, however, didn't lay a bat on the ball. He merely waited out a walk which forced the winning run across, giving the Dodgers the verdict 1-0.

Meanwhile, over in the Bronx, the Yankees went to bat against the Red Sox with the score tied in the last half of the ninth. They also loaded the bases with one way and brought up Charlie (King Kong) Keller.

Keller picked out a pitch he liked, slammed it 420 feet into the right-centre field bleachers for his 18th homer of the year and presented the Yankees with an 8-4 triumph.

St. Louis Cardinals downed Chicago Cubs in both ends of a double bill, 9-4 and 8-3.

Cincinnati Reds regained third place in the standings, with the help of Boston Braves and the shutout pitching of Johnny Vander Meer.

"Double No-Hit!" Johnny tossed a three-hitter at Pittsburgh Pirates in a night contest which the Reds won 3-0, while earlier in the day, the Braves knocked New York Giants loose from their hold on third place by sweeping a doubleheader, 1-0 and 8-2.

In the American League, the Yankee victory gave Hank Borowy his 11th pitching success against only two defeats and stretched New York's lead to 13 games over the Red Sox. However, the Red Sox tightened their grip on second place since Cleveland Indians dropped a doubleheader to Detroit Tigers and watched their losing streak mount to six games.

Murray Franklin's two-run single led the Tigers to a 4-2 triumph in the first game and Hal Newhouse blanked the Tribe 2-0 on five hits in the second.

Elden Auker pitched St. Louis Browns to a 6-3 decision over Chicago White Sox, but he had to be rescued the ninth when the Sox scored all their runs.

A scheduled game between Washington and Philadelphia was postponed.

Three 10-Round Fights on Card Tonight at Madison Square Garden—Fritz Zivic in Action.

New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Three ten-round fights are on the card at Madison Square Garden tonight and if you can pick the one that deserves the top billing, you're a lot better than most fight fans.

They'll be run off in this order: Cleo Shans, Los Angeles lightweight, vs. Maxie Shapiro, New York; Fritz Zivic, Pittsburgh, former welterweight champion, vs. Garvey Young, a Marine who fights out of Boston, and Bobby Ruffin, New York lightweight, vs. Bob Montgomery, Philadelphia.

The main reason for that arrangement is that Mike Jacobs, who hasn't liked all-star cards since his ill-fated tournament of champions, had to step in to save his matchmaking and publicity departments from madness.

IN SPORTING VEIN

By ALLAN BRYCE

You could hardly say that entries are pouring in for the City Tennis Tournament which will start on Friday, and there appears to be no indication that Director Jean Joneas, of the Tourist Information Bureau, will have to take on any extra employees to handle the rush.

On the other hand, about fifteen local racquet swingers have signed on the dotted line, so there will be a tournament definitely. In all probability a good many more players will enter the lists before the deadline tonight, and there should be about thirty competitors ready to go.

Championships will be decided in men's and ladies' singles, men's and ladies' doubles and mixed doubles, and the tourney should unearth some good talent and produce a number of interesting matches.

In keeping with the sports trend throughout the country the annual Eastern Townships Golf Tournament, one of the big events on the Country Club calendar, has been cancelled. Fears have been expressed, with teams folding up left and right, that things will never come back, and the same opinion is no doubt being felt in certain quarters with regard to the E. T. tournament. Truth of the matter is that these athletics will come back just as strong and stronger after the war, and when peace comes again there will be fifty, sixty and seventy golfers touring the Country Club fairways in search of the Townships crown.

In place of the tourney, a thirty-six hole medal play competition will be held on Sunday at the club for the unofficial E.T. title. Actual title holder is Don Doe, of Granby, who won both the senior and junior tournaments last season.

His former team-mates on the Sherbrooke Athletics football club must feel mighty proud of Ross Baxter Ingalls, D.F.C. Ross, in company with a pal, Jack Osborne, came over to Sherbrooke one evening while the gridlers were working out on the Parade Grounds, and wanted to know if there was a chance to get on the team.

The boys were welcomed with open arms, and it wasn't long before Ingalls had a berth in the backfield and Osborne was holding down one of the spots on the end of the line. They played with Sherbrooke for two seasons, and were highly valuable members of what was then a really powerful intermediate football club.

The Distinguished Flying Cross award to Ingalls was fitting reward for his gallant service Overseas, and the many men who played with him those few years ago and who are now serving King and Country in the armed forces both here and Overseas will say, "Nice going, Ross," when they hear about the honor accorded him.

This brings to mind the Honor Roll of former Sherbrooke High School students serving in the Active Forces, and prompts the thought that the boys who dotted the playing fields in years of peace are now the men who wear their King's uniform with bravery and gallantry in the vanguard of the legions who fight for liberty.

In the some two hundred names of S.H.S. graduates listed as on active service—and there are many more not listed—you see boys who were brilliant football, basketball and hockey players and valuable members of the track teams of other years.

You think with sadness of Donald Bell, William Jowett and Gordon Miller, who have paid with their lives the price of freedom, of Edward Ames, unreported for many months, and of Albert Hersfall, who was killed on a training flight in the United States Air Force.

Of all these boys it can be said, with conviction, "They played the game."

Chick Harbert Cashes In On His Rich Golf Inheritance

Battle Creek, Aug. 12.—Chick Harbert has been playing golf ever since he could hold a club in his hands. His father, E. W. Harbert, is a golf professional. At the age of 3 1/2, Chick (baptized Melvin) started swinging a cut-down set of clubs with a cross-handed grip that gave him more distance.

He played that way for three years until he was changed over to a correct grip by his father. His grip still is somewhat unorthodox, a result of his cross-handed days.

But his game is not. Today, 27-year-old Chick Harbert is the sensation of the season and picked as the coming star of the game.

Harbert rose to prominence in 1941 when he won the Michigan Open with a 268 total for 72 holes, an amateur record. He went on to win the International Amateur and Trans-Mississippi in 1939, was a quarter-finalist in the National Amateur.

He turned professional in April, 1940, and took over his duties at the Battle Creek Country Club, a position his father had held many years before him.

Harbert made the winter tour in 1940. He showed promise by placing second in the St. Petersburg Open and going to the quarter-finals of the National Match Play tournament, where he was eliminated by Harry Cooper.

He joined the winter gypsies again in 1941, resolved to get into the money ranks. He won his first prize at the Hartington, Tex. Open—$125, but it was a start.

The next stop was Beaumont and Harbert blazed home with a 276 total for $1,000 first money.

When the jacket hit California, Harbert finished in the money in seven straight tournaments.

They trokked back into Texas, and the Battle Creek slugger was at the peak of his game. He tied Ben Hogan for the Texas Open title, won the playoff and pocketed another $1,000.

A throat ailment cut him down toward the end of the season and he won no more championships. He competed in the Miami Four-Ball and was invited to play in the Masters.

Although technically ineligible on his professional standing, he was picked to play in the P.G.A. on his outstanding performances during the year. He finished tenth.

Harbert was paired with Horton Smith at the Inverness Invitational at Toledo and finished seventh. He played on Walter Hagen's Challengers against the Ryder Cup team.

After finishing 10th in the Tam O'Shanter Open, Chick debated about entering the St. Paul Open. He decided to go, tied Dutch Harrison at 280 and fired a 66 in the playoff, six under par, to bank another $1,000.

That brought his total earnings for the year up to almost $6,000—sixth among the money-winners.

A prodigious driver, Harbert stands 5 feet, 11 inches and weighs 170 pounds. He usually pokes from 250 to 300 yards off the tee. He won a driving contest on the winter swing with a 281-yard average.

His short game used to be weak, but he has improved it with a lot of practice sweat. If he ever gets his putting touch, he should be the outstanding golfer of his age.

Chick is a great gallery pleaser. At the end of a match with Ben Hogan in the Hagen-Ryder Cup competition in Detroit, he missed a putt

PO. BOB FRITZ MIGHT RETURN TO WINNIPEG

Big Backfielder and Coach Transferred to Rivers, Manitoba, by Royal Canadian Air Force.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—It isn't impossible that P.O. Bob Fritz will play again with Winnipeg Blue Bombers, the club he plunged and coached in the Canadian rugby football championship in 1935 and Western crowns in 1935 and 1937. The big backfielder has been transferred to Rivers, Man., by the R.C.A.F., and Rivers is close enough to Winnipeg for Fritz to get in on the odd workout or week-end game.

When Robert first joined the air force rumor said he would wind up in Lachine, Que. . . . Whatever his autumn assignment, it'll probably include some football. . . . Either Winnipeg or Montreal (or any other club) could use him. . . . Here's a footnote on a great football player: Red Storey, the former Toronto Argo, scored four goals and had two assists for Lachine in the Quebec Senior Lacrosse League a few days ago.

Opinion: J. P. (Toronto Telegram) Fitzgerald, on civilian football teams: "It is modestly suggested for their own protection that no player be permitted to indulge in football unless he can produce a certificate from the military authorities that he is not fit for the fighting services or is otherwise excused for good and proper reasons."

Stolen bases—Case, Washington 27.

Pitching—Chandler, New York, 13-2.

NEWARK PRACTICALLY SETTLES INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE SCRAP

Bears Make Clean Sweep of Five-Game Series with Jersey City Giants, Hottest Rivals, Scoring Wind-Up Double Victory, 7-2 and 3-2—Les Burge Smashes Two Home Runs in 5-5, 11-Inning Tie With Toronto.

Newark Bears, in the well-founded opinions of many International League fans and scribes, are at least as good a ball club as some of those in the major leagues. They certainly are one of the strongest outfits in the minors.

The proof can easily be found in the league standings. The Bears are thirteen games ahead today, and they got there by licking the one team that might have had a chance to pull them down—Jersey City Giants. Facing the remote possibility of trouble, Newark unloaded its full strength to make a clean sweep of a five-game series with its nearest neighbor and hottest rival, winding up with a doubleheader victory yesterday, 7-2 and 3-2.

Since the Bears have only 31 games to play and the Jerseys 35, that disposed pretty effectively of any threat from the Little Giants.

Buffalo Bisons took advantage of an off-day for Syracuse to move into a fourth-place tie with the Chiefs as they whipped Rochester Red Wings 6-1.

Home runs featured the day's third game, in which Montreal Royals and Toronto Maple Leafs battled to a 5-5 11-inning tie. Les Burge delivered his 22nd and 23rd homers of the year and Gene Moore his 18th for the Royals and Johnny Wrostek slammed one for the Leafs. The game was called to allow both teams to catch a train.

Three Players Favored For Men's Singles Laurels

Most of the money is riding on the shoulders of Majella Charest, Gerard Fontaine and Paul Biron for the men's singles championship in the City Tennis Tournament which is scheduled to get underway on Friday.

Charest, for years one of the best players in Sherbrooke, has been practising hard and will be at top form when he goes into action. Fontaine, now at the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre, won the provincial junior championship in 1936, and is seeded No. 1 at the Tugue Rouge Club. Paul Biron has been a steady contender for many years.

Louise Trigamme will be defending her ladies' singles title against strong opposition offered by her sister, Andre, and by Carmen Charest and Marthe Robert.

Matches are to be played in East Sherbrooke, at the Tugue Rouge, Jacques Cartier Park and on another well known local court, and officials hope they will be able to clean the tournament up inside a week.

JACOBS THROWS ALL-STAR CARD AT RING FANS

Three 10-Round Fights on Card Tonight at Madison Square Garden—Fritz Zivic in Action.

New York, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Three ten-round fights are on the card at Madison Square Garden tonight and if you can pick the one that deserves the top billing, you're a lot better than most fight fans.

They'll be run off in this order: Cleo Shans, Los Angeles lightweight, vs. Maxie Shapiro, New York; Fritz Zivic, Pittsburgh, former welterweight champion, vs. Garvey Young, a Marine who fights out of Boston, and Bobby Ruffin, New York lightweight, vs. Bob Montgomery, Philadelphia.

The main reason for that arrangement is that Mike Jacobs, who hasn't liked all-star cards since his ill-fated tournament of champions, had to step in to save his matchmaking and publicity departments from madness.
