Fiftieth Year

World News In Brief

London, May 14.—(C.P.)—After 22 days of existing on a "European diet" of 1,000 calories per day, W. F. Vernon, Labor member of Parliament, reported today he had lost nine pounds but was still feeling "perfectly well and fit."

Mr. Vernon began the regime of limited eating in an effort to gain a personal knowledge of the effects of the restricted diet on which many Europeans must live.

Vernon is continuing his diet for a fourth week.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 14.—(P)—The United States supply of bread was threatened with a mass cut today as inadequate wheat shipments curtailed flour production in Buffalo, outstanding milling centre.

The curtailments here to date already are equivalent to 10,000,000 loaves of bread daily.

Quebec, May 14.—(C.P.)—Premier Maurice Duplessis said last night that an offer will be made to the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Commission, most probably on Wednesday, for indemnity to be paid shareholders of the company expropriated in 1944 by the former Quebec Liberal government.

The Premier, who studied the indemnity question with commissioners and lawyers of Quebec Hydro in Montreal over the week-end, held a press conference that the offer would be made to Montreal Light, Heat and Power Consolidated, Montreal Island and Beauharnois Light, Heat and Power Company "showing the position adopted by the Quebec Hydro."

Damascus, May 14.—(Reuters)—The Syrian Minister to Syria has told the Syrian government the Soviet government has decided to back the Arab case if the Arab League brings the Palestine problem before the United Nations, it was reported today.

He was said to have communicated the decision to Sa'Abdullah Jabry, Syrian Premier and Foreign Minister. Sa'Abdullah Jabry later called a cabinet meeting and informed the ministers of the Soviet decision. The Arab governments will be immediately informed.

The Arab League is meeting next Saturday at Bloudane, near Damascus, to discuss the Palestine question.

White Cloud, Mich., May 14.—(P)—County Prosecutor J. Donald Murphy said today he is asking investigation into the death of the first wife of Charles Gilbert, who has confessed the bludgeoning slaying of his second wife and four-year-old step-daughter. Gilbert waived examination yesterday at his appearance for a preliminary hearing on two charges of murder in the death of the wife, Gladys, 26, and step-daughter, Karen Greenwald, their bodies were discovered last week in a shallow grave near Grant.

Butter Supply In Storage Seen As Far Below Normal

Ottawa, May 14.—(P)—The Prices Board said today in a monthly summary of the Dominion's food situation that beef and butter had taken top priority in the public interest, with a tightening up of beef supplies and a slackening of the butter shortage.

The survey also showed that while the larger cities, particularly Toronto, were the first to feel the pinch of beef distribution, there was ample meat, such as lamb, veal and other cuts, going into domestic markets in Canada to satisfy the consumer ration of two pounds a person a week.

In dairy products, British Columbia reported canned milk so short that retailers delivered only to housewives for infant feeding.

There was general improvement in the butter situation for consumer needs at present but storage supplies were far below normal, with cheese factories resuming operation in May.

"A slump in milk and butter may result, but this should clear up in a few days at various points," the Board said. "This should be overcome, however, when cattle go to pasture."

Depleted stocks of beef in British Columbia, Southern Alberta, Ontario urban centres and the Maritimes were in part due to a seasonal decline in cattle deliveries, but also to less marketing of cattle to stockyards and packers. Sales were mostly to smaller buyers.

Nova Scotia, Quebec and Saskatchewan showed a "fair amount" of pork and pork products. While supplies elsewhere were not always sufficient for demand, they

Lewis' Demand For 7 p. c. Payroll Levy To Finance Welfare Fund Is Opposed

Presents $70,000,000 Stumbling Block to Negotiations Towards General Agreement President Truman Has Asked for by Tomorrow—Labor Leader's Demand Termed "Ridiculous"—Levy Would Add 14 Cents a Ton to Cost of Coal at Mine.

Washington, May 14.—(P)—Soft coal negotiations in the United States collided with a $70,000,000 obstacle today—the cost of the welfare fund John L. Lewis wants for his United Mine Workers (A.F.L.) each year.

Operators, taken by surprise by the proposal for a seven-per-cent payroll levy, withheld formal reply until Mr. Lewis reveals the rest of his contract demands.

But their reactions expressed privately to newspapermen raised doubts that the negotiations of the next 24 hours could produce the general agreement President Truman has asked for by tomorrow.

One producer termed the demand "ridiculous." Another, not a member of the negotiating committee, said: "We reject the whole damned principle."

Chief Justice Raps Lawyers In Spy Trial

Conduct in Sending Parties to Interview Potential Jurymen Termed Highly Improper by McRuer.

CHIEF JUSTICE MCRUER

Ottawa, May 14.—(P)—Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of the Ontario Supreme Court today reprimanded defence counsel in espionage cases before him for "highly improper" conduct in sending "two parties" to interview potential jurymen last night.

At the opening of court, he said it had been brought to his attention that "certain of the panel" called for jury duty had been "interviewed."

He had immediately discussed this with defence and Crown counsel and R. A. Hughes, counsel for E. W. Mazerall, had told him that together with other defence lawyers were more plentiful than for some time. A few lambs were offered for Easter trade in Ontario, but frozen lamb and storage stocks were more prevalent. New Brunswick had a surplus of mutton.

Sausages were reported adequate for the needs.

The mid-month adjustment in the mark-up basis on imported cabbage, carrots, beets, turnips and onions, resulted in better distribution. Limited hot-house supplies were available, such as tomatoes, cucumbers and lettuce. Asparagus and celery were plentiful, but some varieties of canned vegetables were scarce in every area.

New potatoes in southwestern Ontario were expected between June 20 and July 1, and early deliveries of onions between July 1 and 15, with seed onions ready around the middle of August.

Large quantities of carrots were planted under contract with canneries and there were increased acreages of cabbages, cauliflower and celery. Asparagus and radishes now were available.

New Brunswick was having difficulty in getting tablestock potatoes, but seed potatoes were "very plentiful." Sweet potatoes were available throughout the Maritimes.

Sugar was plentiful everywhere, but there was a general shortage of corn syrup. In New Brunswick supplies of maple syrup and maple cream were in excess of last season.

Tea, coffee, cocoa, citrus fruits and imported tomatoes were "very plentiful." Canned fish, fruits and tomatoes generally were scarce, however.

Iran Election Despite Stand Of Azerbaijan

Negotiations Between Government and Rebels for Return of Province Founder—Pact With Soviet.

Tehran, May 14.—(P)—Premier Ahmed Qavam disclosed today negotiations for return of Azerbaijan Province to jurisdiction of the Iranian Government had foundered on three major differences between the Azerbaijan delegation and Iranian officials.

These differences, which included an Azerbaijan demand for redistribution of large estates and public lands, were announced in a communiqué as:

1. The Iranian Government claimed the right to appoint a provincial Governor-General of Azerbaijan. Jafar Pishavari, Azerbaijan "Premier," insisted that the governor be selected by the Provincial Council.

2. The Iranian Government likewise claimed the right to appoint army and gendarmerie officers. Pishavari insisted that they be commissioned by the Provincial Council.

3. Pishavari proposed redistribution of estates of land owners and the division of public lands among peasants. Iranian officials maintained such a move would be unconstitutional and could be taken only if authorized by parliament.

Despite the continued uncertain status of Azerbaijan, Qavam called for general elections to be held "as soon as possible." He explained that "we have an agreement with the Soviet Union to present the northern oil concessions agreement to parliament within seven months of the conclusion of the agreement (March 26)."

"I expect that the people of Azerbaijan will provide the necessary facilities enabling the government to carry on free elections and that Azerbaijan will send its deputies to the Majlis (parliament)," Qavam added.

Premier Sails For Congress Of Dominions

King Accompanied by Staff Leaves for London Aboard Queen Mary—Has Little to Say.

New York, May 14.—(P)—Prime Minister King sailed today for Great Britain to take part in Dominion talks scheduled to resume May 20. Length of his stay in London is indefinite.

Mr. King, accompanied by Under-Secretary of State, and his personal staff, boarded the liner Queen Mary which sailed early today.

The Prime Minister, as customary, had little to say to reporters before his departure. He posed willingly for newspaper and movie photographers alongside the huge bulk of the liner lying at her Hudson River pier but said only: "I am glad to be going abroad at this time." To a girl reporter he said facetiously: "Tell them I'm glad to see you."

Mr. Robertson said how long Mr. King was away from Ottawa would depend upon the progress "of the conferences in Paris." He did not amplify his remark but it was believed he referred to the European peace parleys for which no date yet has been set but which the United States is seeking to open June 15.

A fellow-passenger is the Earl of Halifax, retiring British Ambassador to the United States. Also among the 850 civilians and 650 service personnel is Viscount Astor, Lord Mayor of Bristol, who with his wife had been in the United States since January. Lady Astor is remaining in her native Virginia until June.

War Criminal Extradition Is Debated By U. N. Council

New York, May 14.—(P)—The question of war criminal extradition was raised indirectly before the U. N. Security Council's sub-committee on Spain today by a Belgian statement emphasizing that Franco Spain has become a refuge for the Belgian Quisling, Leon Degrelle.

The Belgian complaint was filed in support of Polish charges that Spain is a hideaway for Nazi war criminals and scientists engaged in atomic research.

The sub-committee that Franco has refused to hand over the former Belgian Rexist Party leader who pursued a politico-military career with Hitler's armies of the east and west before his escape by plane into Spain more than a year ago.

In Step—But Not For Long

JOHN L. LEWIS, left, president of the United Mine Workers, and CHARLES O'NEILL, representing the coal operators, were in step in more ways than one when this picture was taken after the White House conference that preceded Lewis' order to his miners to go back to work. The two men appeared today, however, with reported enmity over Lewis' demands for a 7 p. c. levy on the coal industry's billion dollar payroll to finance his proposed health and welfare fund.

City Of Trieste Deadlocks Big Four Paris Conference

Paris, May 14.—(P)—British and French delegations are willing to accept the internationalization of the City of Trieste as a compromise to resume the stalemated Foreign Ministers conference, reliable sources said today.

Both the United States and Russia were reported standing pat, however, on opposite sides of the fence in regard to Trieste, historic Adriatic gateway to Central Europe.

The United States, hitherto supported by Britain and France, has insisted that Trieste remain Italian. Russia has been equally insistent that the city be ceded to Yugoslavia.

The ministers, meeting amid predictions that the conference would end Thursday or Friday, turned today to discussion of the French-Italian frontier. The German problem, including French requests for the detachment of the Ruhr and Rhineland, is scheduled for tomorrow.

King, Queen Aid Cathedral Fund

Coventry, Warwickshire, Eng., May 14.—(C.P. Cable)—The King and Queen donated $500 ($2,225) yesterday to open an inter-denominational drive for £1,250,000 to rebuild Coventry Cathedral, ruined by a German air attack November 14th, 1940.

The fund is backed by both Church of England and the Free Church leaders.

The Roman Catholic Church is not participating in the drive.

War Criminal Extradition Is Debated By U. N. Council

New York, May 14.—(P)—The question of war criminal extradition was raised indirectly before the U. N. Security Council's sub-committee on Spain today by a Belgian statement emphasizing that Franco Spain has become a refuge for the Belgian Quisling, Leon Degrelle.

The Belgian complaint was filed in support of Polish charges that Spain is a hideaway for Nazi war criminals and scientists engaged in atomic research.

The sub-committee that Franco has refused to hand over the former Belgian Rexist Party leader who pursued a politico-military career with Hitler's armies of the east and west before his escape by plane into Spain more than a year ago.

This refusal to extradite this notorious war criminal and collaborator has caused bad feeling between Belgium and Spain," the Belgians said in response to the committee's request to U.N. members for information on Spain.

The statement made no formal request, however, that the U.N. support Belgian extradition efforts.

A Belgian court in December, 1944, was reported to have sentenced Degrelle—in absentia—to be shot for collaboration with the Nazis and he now is being sought for trial before the Brussels High Court of Justice. Degrelle was decorated by Hitler for leading German troops on the Eastern Front, where he was reported wounded in 1942, and was wearing the uniform of a German colonel when he crash-landed on a Spanish beach May 8, 1945.

On the subject of alleged persecution and execution of Spanish Republicans and others by the Franco regime, the sub-committee announced last night it would generally accept evidence from Spanish underground sources "subject to the proof of the authenticity of each document."

The Spanish Republicans charge that German scientists are experimenting on atomic fission in Granada and Murcia provinces with encouragement of the Franco Government.

Indian Is Charged In Bride's Murder

London, Ont., May 14.—(P)—A 21-year-old Brantford Indian was due to appear in court here today, and Crown Attorney Claude Savage of London said he will be charged with murder after the fatal stabbing of Kathleen Hill, his pretty, 20-year-old bride of two weeks.

Mr. Savage, who announced the court appearance, added that a late probably will be set for a preliminary hearing during the session.

The youth, Leslie Hill, surrendered to police yesterday five hours after his wife collapsed in the doorway of her mother's home—a cabin on the Chippewa Indian reserve, 25 miles west of London. Her stepfather, Amos DeLoary, said she gasped: "He stabbed me," before she lapsed into unconsciousness, bleeding from a cut jugular vein.

To Eradicate All Forms Of Nazi Thought

Destruction Of Nazi and German Military Memorials of Two Great Wars Also Directed by Allied Control Council.

Berlin, May 14.—(P)—A purge of German Fascist and militarist literature, criticized in some Allied quarters as "akin to the Nazi book burnings," has been ordered by the four-power Allied Control Council.

Destruction of Nazi and German military memorials of the two Great Wars also was directed by the council, in orders approved by its co-ordinating committee. Many monuments already have been razed.

"The Americans agreed to the principle of banning books glorifying Nazi theories and German military tradition," said Miss Vivian Cox, assistant to the deputy director of the American armed forces division.

An American public relations officer, announcing that the order on literature would be published May 20, disclosed some of its details in advance.

He said it provides for a purge "to eradicate in all forms Fascist, militarist and anti-democratic ideas in Germany through confiscation and destruction of Nazi literature and other media of propaganda."

"Owners of circulating libraries, bookshops and publishing houses, all former state and municipal libraries and heads of all universities and schools must hand over to the military commandants all Nazi and military propaganda in their possession."

"Textbooks, magazines, newspapers and films containing Nazi racial theories and other propaganda, as well as instructions, maps and diagrams used for military training of troops are included in the list of material to be surrendered for destruction," the public relations officer said.

The order, said to have been sponsored by the French and hotly debated by the co-ordinating committee, would require that the banned books be surrendered within two months, with as yet unspecified penalties provided for disobedience.

May Fix Date For Ballot In Compton

Quebec, May 14.—(Special to the Record)—It is expected that news in regard to the forthcoming by-election in Compton County—the seat is vacant due to the recent death of W. J. Duffy, Liberal—will be announced sometime this week, Premier Maurice Duplessis stated here last night.

The election will be held following a cabinet meeting scheduled for tomorrow.

However, according to the Premier, there will be a by-election only in Compton and not in Laviolette, as has been mentioned.

R. Ducharme, N.U. president, incumbent of the Laviolette seat, has been mentioned for the Bench, but Mr. Duplessis stated that for the present, the member had important work facing him and no immediate steps to appoint him to the Bench were contemplated.

Church Rites Given Second Irish Striker

Belfast, May 14.—(P)—David Fleming, a former leader in the Irish Republican Army, today was reported near death in Belfast prison where he embarked on a hunger strike 52 days ago.

Desmond Harriman, Fleming's lawyer, said the prison chaplain early today administered extreme unction—the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church—to Fleming.

Mr. Harriman added that he and a fellow lawyer had tried to see Fleming yesterday but had been told by the jail governor there was no authority to admit them. Fleming then appealed unsuccessfully to the Minister of Home Affairs in Northern Ireland, the lawyer said.

The sub-committee, now holding daily sessions over a mounting stack of evidence, awaited formal presentation of the 350-page indictment of Franco brought here from Paris by Jose Giral, premier of the exiled Spanish Republican regime.

The Spanish Republicans charge that German scientists are experimenting on atomic fission in Granada and Murcia provinces with encouragement of the Franco Government.

M. W. Wilson, Royal Bank, Dies Aged 63

Noted Canadian Financier Passes on in Montreal After Short Illness.

Montreal, May 14.—(P)—Morris W. Wilson, 63, president and managing-director of the Royal Bank of Canada and one of the Dominion's most prominent financiers, died in hospital (Royal Victoria) here early today after a short illness.

Born at Lunenburg, N.S., Mr. Wilson was chancellor of McGill University and held a large number of directorships and other positions of public responsibility in leading Canadian groups.

During the war, he was chairman of the British Supply Council in North America and for his services in this post, he was created a Companion of the Order of St.

MORRIS W. WILSON

Michael and St. George "for distinguished service and leadership in philanthropic and patriotic work" by the King on January 1, 1944.

He succeeded the late Sir Edward Beatty as chancellor of McGill and in the position conferred honorary degrees on the late President Roosevelt and on Winston Churchill in the Quebec conference of 1944. Next week, he would have conferred a degree on Canada's new Governor General, Viscount Alexander.

Educated at Lunenburg where he entered the services of the Royal Bank in 1897, Mr. Wilson later served in Halifax, Charlotteville, Montreal, Truro, N.S., and Vancouver. In Montreal, he was appointed general manager in 1929, vice-president in 1931 and to the position he held at his death in 1944.

Mr. Wilson was, for more than 10 years, a director of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. On leave of absence during the war, he first served as assistant to Lord Beaverbrook in charge of aircraft production for Britain in Canada and the United States.

In 1941, he was named vice-chairman of the British Supply Council in North America, becoming chairman later in the same year.

Afterwards, the Canadian government appointed him to the pulp and paper committee of the Combined Materials and Resources Board. He returned to the Royal Bank in April, 1942.

He is survived by his wife, the former Clara Leon Mason, and by one daughter, Betty.

Canadian Bill Of Rights Discussed In Parliament

Ottawa, May 14.—(P)—A suggestion that a parliamentary committee be established to draw up a Bill of Rights was advanced in the Commons yesterday by Veterans Minister Mackenzie before the House rejected a Bill of Rights which John Diefenbaker (P. C., Lake Centre) sought to have included in the Canadian Citizenship Bill.

Solomon Low, Social Credit leader, Angus MacInnis (C.C.F., Vancouver East) and David Croll (L., Toronto Spadina) stressed the need for a bill or charter of rights, but favored it as a separate measure and not as part of other legislation.

John Hackett (P. C., Stanstead) objected to a clause which would allow a woman of another nationality who married a Canadian to retain that nationality.

Mr. Hackett sought an explanation of why there was a departure from the age old practice under which the wife assumed the citizenship of her husband on marriage.

State Secretary Martin said the Government sought in the bill to allow women to have citizenship in their own right.

Mr. Martin obtained the support of the House in rejecting an amendment by Thomas Reid (L., New Westminster) which would provide for loss of citizenship for any citizen who acknowledged the citizenship of another country while residing in Canada.

Mr. Martin said that if Mr. Reid's amendment was accepted it would mean any group of citizens could voluntarily divest themselves of citizenship in "consequence" with a foreign power in Canada.

Resources Minister Glen, sponsor of the motion, held out the hope that ultimately the Canadian Indian will be able to assume the "full rights and responsibilities" of democratic citizenship while re-

Juvenile Delinquency Causes Outlined To Local Association

Chase of delinquency and steps which citizens might take to deal with the problem were discussed by Judge J. Gordon Nicholson, Juvenile Delinquents' Court of Montreal, at the annual meeting of the Sherbrooke Home and School Association held last night in the Sherbrooke High School auditorium, with retiring president E. G. Bascom presiding. Various committee reports were presented, a new slate of officers elected and a program of song rendered by pupils of the Lawrence and East Ward Schools, under the direction of W. H. Bishop, director of music in the Protestant schools of the city.

The children sang four songs: "Bumble Bee," "Lobster Quadrille," "School Band," and "The Ash Grove."

The new slate of officers for the new term is headed by E. T. Harbert as president, and includes: First vice-president, R. G. Loveland; second vice-president, G. A. Rockwell; secretary, T. K. Kennedy; treasurer, F. G. LeBaron; and these school representatives, B. D. Lyon (High School), D. R. Bishop (Mitchell), J. R. Wright (Lawrence), and P. E. Gray (East Ward).

An increase in membership over last year was noted in the report of the membership committee, presented by Mrs. E. T. Harbert. There is presently a paid membership of 92, and a total membership of 171, of whom nine are teachers. This is an increase of eleven members, and a decrease of fifteen teachers. A breakdown in the membership role, with figures for 1944-45 in brackets, shows: High School 20 (41); Mitchell 96 (64); Lawrence 18 (12); East Ward 5 (3); Kindergarten—(10); Those affiliated with two schools 17 (25); Those interested in the

B'NAI B'RITH INSTALLATION CEREMONY HELD

The installation ceremony of newly elected officers for the 1946-47 term of B'nei B'rith, Sherbrooke Lodge 1070, took place at the Community Hall on Montreal Street.

The official installation officers appointed by Grand District Lodge No. 1 for this ceremony were Harry Greenwood and Lionel Coviensky who are prominent members of Mount Royal Lodge in Montreal. These officers were accompanied by two assistants, Phil Fainer and Dr. Simon Kirsch, also of Mount Royal Lodge in Montreal. Upon their arrival in Sherbrooke, the officers were met by a reception committee and escorted to the New Sherbrooke Hotel to meet many local members.

The entertainment committee, headed by Sol. Niloff, had arranged a welcoming dinner which took place in the Mayfair Room of the New Sherbrooke Hotel. The members then adjourned to the Community Hall to participate in the installation ceremonies in the form of an open meeting, and was attended by ladies and families of the members.

The retiring president, Moe Kapusta, gave a brief outline of the work accomplished during the past year. The installation officers were introduced by Henry Echenberg. In thanking the retiring officers for their fine work, Harry Greenwood paid warm tribute to the Sherbrooke Lodge for their outstanding work and stated that per capita the contributions were higher than many larger lodges, both in Canada and the United States.

The newly-elected officers were sworn in as follows: Lawrence Charkin, president; Dan Heilig, first vice-president; Lester Sackstein, second vice-president; A. J. Wener, treasurer; Joe Niloff, recording secretary; Jack Cooperman, Kapusta, chaplain; Tom Adler, warden; Gerald Smith, guardian; Irving Steinman, trustee; S. A. Vineberg, trustee; Jack Friedlander, trustee.

In recognition of outstanding work, the District Grand Lodge No. 1 awarded certificates of merit to Ben Math, Moe Kapusta, A. D. Smith and A. J. Wener. These certificates were presented to the officers by General W. H. Bishop.

A vote of thanks to the installing officers was made by the newly elected president, Lawrence Charkin.

Local Command Changes

Lt.-Col. Joseph Aime Biron, left, who returns to command of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, local infantry unit, a position he held prior to the mobilization of the Sherbrooke Fusiliers Regiment, replacing Lt.-Col. Alphonse Genest, right, who has retired.

Major Roy served as a Company Commander in action with Les Fusiliers de Mont Royal, fighting with them from France, through Holland into Germany. Enlisting in Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke in 1930, he obtained a provisional Second Lieutenantcy in 1940 and went to Brockville to qualify. He stayed there as an instructor until the mobilization of Les Fusiliers, then joined his old unit. Major Roy went Overseas on course in 1943, and on his return received a Captaincy with the unit, then in British Columbia. He took a reinforcement company overseas for the Regiment de Hull and in 1944 went to Les Fusiliers de Mont Royal in France. Major Roy returned to Canada in October of last year with the famous French-Canadian battalion.

FILM LIBRARY PLAN OUTLINED TO LIONS CLUB

With both educational progress and amusement as its aim, the Sherbrooke Junior Chamber of Commerce has instituted a local film library in which membership is open to societies or groups on payment of a small stipulated fee or from which other organizations may rent films and equipment. Jean Paul Audet, president of the Junior Chamber, told members of the Lions Club at the weekly dinner meeting in the New Sherbrooke Hotel last night.

There are already some 150 films on hand in the library. Mr. Audet said, and more will be secured as the membership in the library grows.

Three Sheets Of Artificial Ice For Local Curling Club

Letting of a contract for the installation of three sheets of artificial ice at the Sherbrooke Curling Club was announced to the Record today by President Dean Bishop. The contract, amounting to $8,500, went to the Sargent Rink Ice Company, Ltd., of Montreal.

At present the Curling Club building is being operated as a roller skating rink, but the organization now using the premises will be leaving them on October 15th. Work will be started immediately, and is due to be completed by November 15th.

The new sheets will prolong the season considerably for enthusiasts of the "roarin' game," who will now be able to curl from November 15th to April 15th each year. With natural ice, the curlers had to depend on the whims of nature as far as the length of the season was concerned.

Anticipating a larger membership because of the longer playing season, officials of the club have decided to limit the members to 150. Mr. Bishop said, and an increase in annual fees will be necessary to defray costs of the installation of the artificial ice equipment.

Local curlers are expecting that the trend toward granites will be continued at the club, with iron being gradually pushed into the background. It is expected, however, that as usual the club will hold two large bonaparts, one for iron and the other for granites.

Many Vets Have Enrolled In Vocational Training School

Veterans who wish to take advantage of the new vocational training school now being established in Sherbrooke, would be well-advised to enroll immediately. J. M. Lajeunesse, director, told the Record this morning.

The school, which is to be located on Lansdowne Street, on the site of the old Pneumatic Tool Works, will accommodate approximately 150 pupils, the director said, and nearly 100 have already signified their intention of attending.

Classes, which are expected to commence in early June, will comprise instruction in welding, electrical work, machine shop, auto mechanics, agricultural machinery repairing, ornamental iron work, radio laboratory work and mechanical draughting.

Instructors will be specialists in their respective lines and will be graduates either of a reputable university or of a technical school. They will all be bilingual.

Machinery to be installed is of the best and has been supplied mainly by Wartime Assets Corporation. Much of it is already in the 30 by 110-foot workshop.

Applicants must enroll at the outset at the vocational training centre, Sherbrooke Division, 153

"The disposition of Juvenile Delinquents' Courts depends upon it: character of a child as a whole, his personality, habits and condition of life, and such disposition will be for the purpose of conditioning him to socially accepted behavior," the speaker continued.

He spoke of the work and training of probation officers, who prepare social histories of children, arrange for medical, psychological and psychiatric examinations, consult the judge as to rehabilitation plans and supervise the carrying out.

"Upon their efficiency depends the efficiency of the court," he declared, later outlining distinguishing features of the Court. "A delinquent remains subject to Court control until he is 21," he pointed out, mention need of attention, security, prestige, conformity and accomplishments as some causes of delinquency.

"Insofar as cause of frustration are essentially heritages of our civilization, we cannot do very much by way of separate individuals."

Continuing Of Needed Services Is Aim In New Red Cross Drive

Relatives visiting hospitalized servicemen in Ste. Anne de Bellevue Military Hospital have enjoyed the comfort and homelike hospitality of the Red Cross guest lodge on the hospital grounds.

These visiting relatives, who often include residents of the Eastern Townships, come for one purpose: to see a hospitalized or convalescing serviceman. For many, the trip is a long one, and often represents a careful budgeting of money for the purchase of a bus ticket or a train fare. Into this budget must also be included necessary expenses for an overnight stop. Before the Red Cross lodge was opened, this accommodation could be obtained only by going into Montreal each evening.

Now, comfortable bedrooms, a spacious lounge and a convenient cafeteria are available at a minimum charge for these visiting relatives.

The cafeteria is staffed by volunteer members of the food administration section, Red Cross Corps, with a permanent chef in charge of preparing appetizing meals and lunches. The cafeteria, designed and furnished, and are itself, has gay, colorfully draped corner windows which open out on a view of a sweeping lawn and overlook the hospital. The adjoining kitchen and cold storage room provides ample space for food preparation and storage of food.

The bedrooms are tastefully available in single and double bed units.

The staff at the reception office includes a permanent hostess with volunteer members of the office administration section, Red Cross Corps, coming to the Lodge daily.

The spacious lounge is bright and artistically designed. The full length windows are draped to harmonize with the specially chosen and cleverly arranged furniture. One end of the lounge is given to a brick fireplace, which in the winter season adds to the general cheerfulness. Doors on either side of the fireplace lead into a well-lighted writing room where a small library has also been established to provide a wide variety of reading material.

All these facilities are available to relatives of servicemen who are hospitalized in the military hospital across the driveway.

It is to provide for the continuation of this, and other vital Red Cross services, such as outpatient nursing facilities, swimming and water safety, disaster preparedness and relief, blood transfusion service and Junior Red Cross work, that the Sherbrooke Branch of the Red Cross will conduct a district-wide membership drive.

The drive opens tomorrow and will run through to the end of the month. There will be a house to house canvass, with subscriptions always accepted during the day throughout the month at the Red Cross rooms at the rear of the Bank of Commerce, on Dufferin Avenue.

Best Gardens In Sherbrooke To Be Judged

Under the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, a contest to decide the most attractive gardens in the five wards of the city will be held during the month of July with the City of Sherbrooke appropriating $75 in prize money. It was learned from Alderman Sylvio Rousseau, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee, following last night's meeting of the council sitting as a committee of the whole in the municipal chambers.

The $75 donation of the city, to be voted at the next council session, will be apportioned by $15 amounts to each ward, $10 for the first prize and $5 for second. At the same time it was learned that the City of Sherbrooke cup won by the late F. A. Briggs in 1939 will be returned to competition by Mrs. Briggs for the prize-winning garden of the whole city.

It will be recalled that the first competition of this nature was held in 1938 followed by a similar contest in 1939, but since that time, due primarily to the war, the annual event was dropped until it was taken up again this year by the Junior Chamber.

It will be of some interest to readers of the Record to note last year's prize-winners, a detailed list of which follows ward by ward in both the first and second class divisions: North Ward, 1, F. A. Briggs; 2, F. L. Weinson; East Ward, 1, H. E. Tibbitt; 2, G. B. Nault; West Ward, 1, J. O. Dubuc; 2, A. W. Bray; South Ward, 1, J. Aubert; 2, G. Laliberte; and Centre Ward, 1, Hector Lanctot; 2, E. L. Lessard. In the second class competition prizes went to the following: Hon. Jacob Nicol, North Ward; Mrs. A. M. Sangster, West Ward; National Breweries, South Ward; Molson's Breweries, Centre Ward, and the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, East Ward.

The City of Sherbrooke cup for the best garden of all five wards went to the late F. A. Briggs.

While a committee to organize the judging has not yet been chosen, Jean-Paul Audet, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, stated today that this would be undertaken within a few weeks and that judging would likely take place at the end of July.

AMENDMENT TO B.N.A. DANGEROUS PRECEDENT

Decision of Prime Minister Mackenzie King to apply for an amendment of the British North America Act sets a dangerous precedent in Canadian political life. The Federal Government is making this application apparently without consulting the Provincial Governments, and by this act alone is sowing disunity.

Premier Maurice Duplessis, of Quebec, holds that this Province, Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, the four original Canadian provinces, should approve any change in the B.N.A., but so far there has been no approval sought or given.

Canada has not yet matured politically to the extent where it can govern itself without a written constitution. This is proved by the actions of the Federal Government in suspending civil liberties during the recent spy probe. It is further proved by the failure of the Dominion-Provincial Conference. The United States govern by means of a written constitution, and this principle is also necessary in Canada.

In a nation made up largely of two races with different language origins it is most important that the rights of both, particularly the minority, are safeguarded, and that these safeguards are guaranteed by a constitution. It is undoubtedly for this main reason that Premier Duplessis is opposed to any change in the B. N. A. without the approval of Quebec, and as Premier of this Province it is his first duty to defend all the inherent rights of its people.

An amendment in the B.N.A. today to re-allocate seats in Parliament may well lead to an amendment tomorrow to curtail the taxing rights of the Provinces—rights the Federal Government were unable to obtain in a round table conference.

Canada has developed through the years as a nation, until today she is a self-governing country, free to make her own decisions without any reference to any power outside the country. The right to nationhood has been earned and paid for in blood. All this has been done on the basis of constitution as written down in the British North America Act. Any change should only be made after full discussion with all interested political administrations within the country, and with their full approval.

THE ANGLICAN ADVANCE APPEAL

This week the Church of England in Canada is conducting the Anglican Advance Appeal which is intended as a great thankoffering for victory. The appeal is directly addressed to the members of that communion but the campaign bears close relation to similar appeals to their membership by the Presbyterian and United Churches. The Church—in all its branches—cannot rest on past achievement. Glories fade and influence perishes. In times of stress men seek the solace of religion for support and inspiration and to satisfy this need is the Church's duty and privilege. Thus today the Church is seeking to revitalize its moral authority in a world adrift. It has taken up the challenge of paganism and by the invigoration of its corporate life is preparing to renew the age-old battle for the soul of man.

But re-dedication cannot be a matter of words alone. It must be vowed in the consecration of lives and possessions to the over-riding devotion. Therefore, in a spirit of thanks for mercies received, for strength to deal with great issues, for comfort in the face of sorrows, this appeal is now underway for $4,300,000, an inclusive total reflecting a world-wide vision and responsibility.

The appeal hopes to provide aid for the wrecked churches of Great Britain and devastated Europe. The needs of the missionary enterprises of the Church will be amply met, and the security of those faithful servants of the Church, whose lives have been spent in the service of others than themselves will be strengthened. The contribution of the Anglican Church to education in Canada is not to be forgotten by this generation and an increased scope of its institutional activities is planned with part of this sum.

Now as never before in history the world needs the uplifting influence of Christian teachings and no more hopeful sign can be seen on the horizon than the rising revival of religion as displayed in the enthusiasm for the Anglican Advance Appeal and its sister funds.

COMPARATIVE INCOME TAX RATES

From time to time comparisons are made between income tax rates in Canada and the United States in an effort to prove that the levies in the Dominion are very little more onerous than those collected south of the border. Perhaps the basic rates might show only a small difference in favor of the United States taxpayer but, according to The Printed Word, the fact remains that the percentage of income paid by our neighbors is less.

A home-owner in the United States may deduct from his income interest on his mortgage, casualty damage to his residence, his trees, his furniture, and losses due to storms and earthquakes and other Acts of God, including drought, flood and frozen pipes. His local taxes and losses through theft and burglary and fire are deductible also.

Of course, few taxpayers could hope to enjoy all these deductions in one year, but there seems to be a good argument that personal losses reduce a person's income and, therefore, there should be no personal income tax on losses, just as there is not, in the United States, any tax on interest.

MOMENTOUS CONFERENCE

One of the most important conferences to be held under the set-up of the United Nations organization, that to study the control of atomic energy, opens in New York tomorrow. This commission comprises the states on the Security Council with the addition of Canada, which is given a seat on the body due to the important part it played in the development of the atomic bomb, despite the fact that it is not a member of the Security Council. The commission membership will change as the Security Council membership changes, except for Canada and the five permanent members of the Council, the United States, Great Britain, Russia, France and China. Canada is being represented by Gen. A. G. McNaughton, chairman of the Canadian section of the Permanent Joint Defence Board and former commander-in-chief of the Canadian Army overseas.

The importance of this conference can best be appreciated when it is considered that almost a year has passed since the first atomic bomb fell on Hiroshima in Japan, to be followed a few days later by another on Nagasaki and the unexpected collapse of Japanese resistance. These astounding events have left the world in a state of tension, bewilderment and alarm. A new and mighty force had been discovered to bring to an end a war which otherwise would have dragged out with a tremendous cost in blood and treasure. But it left the world, also, with a terrific force which, if in ruthless hands, might be used to wreak unlimited havoc and added a new and terrible element of insecurity in a world clamoring for security.

During that year many proposals have been advanced for the control of this devastating force and international relations have been strained on several occasions, but the three trustee nations who were the real developers of the bomb—United States, Great Britain and Canada—have formally rejected all plans to surrender the secret until some effective international agency for the control of the knowledge released should be established. It is to establish such an organization that the conference opens tomorrow. The importance of its deliberations cannot be over-estimated. If the conference succeeds in laying the basis for a world-wide body, much of the existing friction and distrust might well be removed. If not, the world may well expect a continuance of the blockade tactics which have featured the various international parleys of the past twelve months.

BRITAIN'S EFFICIENCY SERVICE

Thirty-six different applications for assistance have been made to the United Kingdom Government's production efficiency service during the first two weeks of its operation. The service, which is operated by the Board of Trade, is aimed to help firms throughout the country attain new heights of efficiency.

Requests so far received have come in from all branches of industry. For example, one firm which manufactured rubber dinghies during the war wished advice on the lay-out of a new factory and methods of production for the purpose of making pneumatic furniture. The production efficiency service gave the required information and at the same time proposed useful modification of designs.

Another firm which has switched from war work to radio set manufacture in a "development area" asked for advice on the layout of a factory and production methods. Experts of the service solved its problems. Advice was also given on the question of machine tool supplies and on the means of avoiding bottlenecks in the woodworking side of production. Another typical example of firms seeking production efficiency service aid was a chemical manufacturer which received help in the re-design of a bad layout.

EDITOR'S NOTE-BOOK

The proposed additional security tax on income suggests that Ottawa is learning all the arts of "collectivism."

Apparently the contention is that everybody should be paid more for what he produces and pay less for what he consumes.

More people laying bricks and fewer throwing them would be helpful in the housing crisis.

PRESS COMMENTS

THE STRAIN OF MOVING TWO WAYS

The Montreal Gazette

Now that the Dominion-Provincial conference has ended, the political, no less than the economic effects of its failure remain to be considered.

The political implications are many and various, but the Conference has disclosed, above all else, the increasing difficulties which the Liberal Government is encountering in attempting to face and to move simultaneously in opposite directions. On the one hand, under the astute leadership of Mr. Mackenzie King, the party has cultivated, and with success, the support of the essentially conservative people of the Province of Quebec, the integrity of whose position in Canada is rooted in provincial autonomy.

On the other hand, the party has stepped leftwards, also with success, and has gathered to its support many Canadians who look not with distrust but with satisfaction upon an increase of federal control in the interests of social legislation.

This dual or composite nature of the Liberal party has had the practical political aim of attempting to remove the need for anyone to turn more definitely left or right for a political allegiance.

The difficulty, of course, is that such a policy is not only dual or composite, but latently conflicting, and potentially disruptive. So long as the moves and the concessions both left and right are limited and moderate, the strain does not threaten a fissure. But when a really sweeping move is made towards fiscal centralization, as at the Dominion-Provincial conference, it encounters in Quebec's provincial autonomy an immovable object.

The conflict can hardly be explained away by reference to incidental difficulties, especially by the fact that a Liberal administration did not happen to be in office in the province. For the fact is that provincial autonomy has never been a political issue within Quebec, in the sense that one party adhered firmly to it, while another was prepared to advocate compromises. It is, rather, the issue in French Canadian life that is most fundamental and undisputed. It is indeed not so much an issue in itself, as the groundwork of all issues.

The business of the Dominion-Provincial conference was one that bore directly upon Quebec's autonomy. It amounted in effect to the request of the federal government that the centralizing tendencies of authority and the high levels of taxation, granted at Quebec and other provinces as a war-time concession, should be retained by the federal government in time of peace, so as to create a new Canadian system. Under such a system the government would extend its power immensely over individual citizens and provinces, both in giving and receiving payments for social legislation.

It is true that Quebec, like the other provinces would have received a return (and even a generous return) in recompense for the taxing rights it conceded. But the independent financial position of the province would have been lost. It would have ceased to have clear provincial boundaries in matters of taxation, and would have become a fiscal pensioner of the federal treasury.

It is no doubt true that the federal Liberal government would have greatly preferred to avoid intrusion upon the provincial autonomy of Quebec. But if any country is to be socialized, it must also be centralized. It would have been very difficult for the Government to finance the Family Allowance measure (which it put into operation with its temporary wartime taxing powers), and it would have been quite impossible to finance the further projected schemes of social legislation, without obtaining new control over the country's government.

It was not through any incidental circumstances that the federal centralization and Quebec's provincial autonomy collided. For the attempt was made by Mr. King to send a seemingly irresistible force against a traditionally immovable object. The object remained immovable.

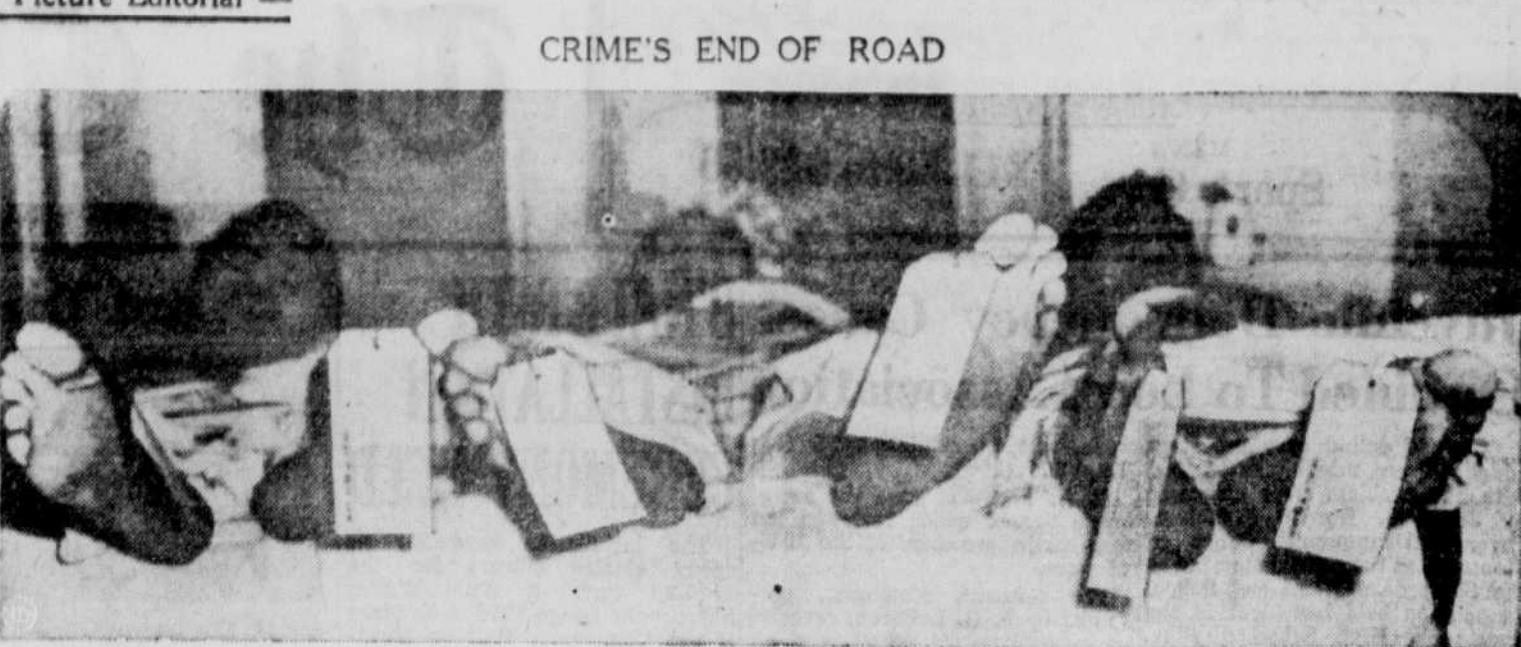

The important legacy of the conference is not only that it will leave the provincial Liberal Party in Quebec with little politically effective ground for criticism of Premier Duplessis' stand, but it will leave the Liberal administration in Ottawa in an extraordinarily confused position. It will encounter great difficulties in turning left or right, or even in keeping to the middle.

If it turns right and unequivocally shelters Quebec's autonomy, it will have to part company with the social planners who compose an important section of its supporters, and even of its leaders. If it turns left, it will strain still further its relations with its French Canadian supporters, who now compose about half the party's representation in the House of Commons.

If it walks in the middle, it will be accused of inaction and will satisfy nobody greatly. The financial burdens of Family Allowances—with an annual bill of $250,000,000—is to be met without the onus and the interference of stringent taxation.

But if the federal government at Ottawa has to decide whether a centralized state can be formed without intruding on Quebec's autonomy, so must the Province of Quebec. The fact is that Quebec is faced with intrusion upon its autonomy in a new form. For if social benefits are to be accepted from the Liberal administration at Ottawa, centralized government and controlling taxation must be accepted also. It is notable that the federal government has presented Family Allowances first, and asks

Picture Editorial —

Shown here are two scenes, one in the United States and the other in Italy, which are startling evidence of the futility of crime and violence. In the top picture are the tagged corpses of Joseph Paul Cretzer, Marvin Franklin Hubbard and Paul Bernard Coy, ringleaders of the recent Alcatraz prison riot and attempted break. Their illegal try for freedom ended in a San Francisco morgue. In the picture at right an Italian military policeman and a civilian gendarme are shown leading away a wounded prisoner in the riot at the St. Vittore prison in Milan. Here a large group of armed prisoners held out for several days, until some were killed, others wounded and the rest blasted out of their stone fortress by tanks and artillery. Anyone who regards gangsters as objects of admiration—as certain misguided persons used to do in the days of Al Capone and Dillinger—should study the pictures above which are much more typical of crime than those taken of racketeers in shiny bars or night clubs.

EDITOR.

for the necessary permanent centralization afterwards.

So it is, that if Quebec's autonomy presents a serious problem for the centralizing tendencies of the federal government, so does the federal government, with its tempting social measures, present a problem for a province that would like to retain its autonomy.

AMERICAN RETREAT?

Christian Science Monitor
A decision comparable with that by which the United States rejected the League of Nations is to be made by the Senate this week. And once more there is danger that a minority of the Senate will turn America into an isolationist course.

The loan to Britain has been considered for months and debated for three weeks. The arguments have been made, the issues are clear, and apparently a majority wishes to approve the loan. But opponents are trying to delay action in hopes that the proposal will have to be side-tracked for emergency matters, such as extension of the draft—which expires May 15. We can hardly think of a poorer way for America to retreat from the position of world citizenship it has taken in the last four years.

It would be an attempt to disavow the rights and obligations which the power and character of America bestow. It would be like sneaking back into isolationism. For it is isolationism that would scrap all the plans for international economic co-operation, which hang on British ability to buy American goods.

HOW TO GET AROUND PRE-EMPTIVE BIDS

Every day move players are using the Fishbein convention against pre-emptive bidding. When West opened the bidding on today's hand at three hearts, ordinarily there would be little for North to do but double.

South then would have to guess whether to leave the double in or to bid.

In the Fishbein convention an overall of a pre-emptive bid with the next higher ranking suit demands a bid from your partner; in other words, it is simply an informative double.

If North in this case were to bid three spades, it would say, "Partner, I want you to bid." If he had doubled three hearts, it would say, "Partner, we can beat three hearts; even though you do not have a trick in your hand."

In this hand, however, Fishbein fails, and he can then take the heart says that the correct bid is three no trump by North, which tells his

DOROTHY DIX

Widower's Choice of Bride

Mature Widow With Child Better Matrimonial Companion

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a childless widower, thinking of marrying again, and am faced with a choice of two very nice women. One, who is my own age, is a good manager and housekeeper and a splendid cook, but she has a teen-age child. The other is a girl 20 years younger than I am who apparently knows little about home-making. I have known the girl only a few months, while the other one has been a friend for many years.

Where do you think my chance for happiness lies?

G. A.

ANSWER: I would say with the widow, even if she is handicapped by a teen-age child, which you may consider only a temporary drawback, for teen-agers soon grow up and leave the home nest. I think that age is one of the most important factors in the success, or failure, of a marriage, for we are all molded by our own times. Our habits, our tastes, our opinions, all the things that make people congenial, belong to our age, and we cannot change them.

YOUNGER GIRL UNSUITED
The girl, who is 20 years younger than you are, will be her age. She will want to play around and have good times and dance and be surrounded by kids like herself. And you will be your age, and you will want a companion who will sit by the fire with you and only step out occasionally, and to whom you can say "don't you remember?"

Also, a widower will expect his wife to be a good housekeeper and cook and a thrifty manager, and when you sit down to a dinner that would kill an ostrich and the bills mount up, your child wife won't look like a glamour girl any more. She will look like an awful mistake. A lot is to be said in favor of widows for wives. They have cut their wisdom teeth on their first wedding rings. They have had poisoned their first husbands learning how to cook, but that saves the digestion of Number Two. They have learned how to handle men with gloves and they don't expect as much of marriage as brides do; hence they are good risks.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am just back from three years overseas. My mother is a widow, 50 years old. I have a sister, 15 years old, who has been working for two years, and a brother of 17, who is a big, strong, husky lad, who refuses to work at all, and two married sisters. I am 21 years old. Was wounded twice in the war and am not in the best of health.

My problem is this: My mother demands that I turn all of my money over to her and I refuse to do it until my brother finds a job. My mother does not think that he should work because he is too young, but he is far more able to work than I am or my little young sister. What should I do?

B. D. B.

ANSWER: Hang on to your money with both hands. Help your mother, but don't give her control of your money because, if you do, she will turn it over to your lazy brother to spend having a good time.

Why mothers should play favorites with their children and always have a weakness for the black sheep, is one of the mysteries of motherhood. But in almost every family there is one child who is preferred above the others and to whom the mother ruthlessly sacrifices the others. Your mother didn't think that a little 13-year-old girl was too young to go to work, but she thinks a big, strong, husky 17-year-old lad is too fragile to get a job.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been going with a married man for two years. He is 18 years my senior. I love him devotedly and he loves me, but he hasn't taken any steps towards getting a divorce. Should I stop seeing him immediately, or continue to wait and be patient, as he asks me to do?

I can't bear to give him up, but I am beginning to become impatient.

DESPERATE.

ANSWER: If you have any gumption in your head, you will become impatient enough to break off with your elderly boy friend at once. Can't you see that he has no idea in the world of getting a divorce from his wife and is just stringing you along until he gets tired of you and finds some other girl who hits his fickle fancy for the moment?

The married philanderers don't want divorces from their wives. They use their wives' skirts to hide behind when little sillies like you press them to name a wedding day.

MARRIAGES

CAMPBELL-ARMSTRONG

The marriage of Jane Allison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser, of Sherbrooke, to Mr. Colin Lorne Campbell, Jr., of Sherbrooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin L. Campbell, of Sherbrooke, took place on Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, the Rev. R. C. Tait, of Plymouth United Church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Fred Williams, of Trinity United Church. Miss Phyllis D. Armstrong, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music for the ceremony performed in the candle-lit drawing room. A profusion of spring flowers was used throughout the rooms as decorations.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a period gown of white heavy satin having a fitted bodice fastened in the back by tiny satin covered buttons, with a rounded neck with inset Victorian lace and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt draped at the waist with satin and inset lace, had a bustle effect, and ended in a train. Her veil of French tulle fell from a small cap edged with freshia and reached beyond the train. She carried a colonial bouquet of gardenias within a circle of tiny white roses.

Mrs. R. J. Carpenter, Jr., as matron-of-honor and her sister's only attendant, was in a floor-length gown of turquoise and rose striped tulle having an off the shoulder neckline, with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore matching mitts and hat and carried a hand bouquet of toning sweet peas.

Mr. Alfred Murray Campbell acted as best man for his brother, Mrs. Armstrong, the bride's mother, wore a dress of pearl grey crepe having a deep yoke of corded mesh, with a matching hat of French velvet flowers trimmed with fuchsia tulle and a corsage bouquet of fuchsia roses and sweet peas pinned at the belt.

Mrs. Campbell, mother of the groom, was in a two piece dress of Elizabeth blue crepe having lingerie touches at the neck, with a hat of the same shade and a corsage bouquet of deep red roses.

For the reception, the dining room was decorated with roses and white sweet peas.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for Grey Rocks Inn, St. Jovite, the bride travelling in a suit of fine grey and white check, with matching hat, her shoes and accessories of red. On their return

GUILD MEMBER FOR 52 YEARS AT WATERVILLE

Waterville, May 14.—Mrs. E. R. Roy was hostess for the regular meeting of St. John's Guild, held on Wednesday afternoon at the "Parsonage." The meeting was opened with the "Guild Prayer" and a prayer for the Anglican Advance Appeal.

The president, Mrs. Roy, presided over the business session, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Cecil Parrish, and were confirmed. The treasurer, Mrs. Fred W. Ayer, reported that the Lenten self-denial money handed in by each member, had amounted to a substantial sum.

Routine business being disposed of, a happy interlude followed when the president, on behalf of St. John's Guild, presented Mrs. Victor Parsons with a beautiful Wedgewood tea-pot and a bouquet of fifty-two daffodils, in recognition of her faithful and valuable services as a member of St. John's Guild for the past fifty-two years.

Mrs. Parsons in her usual alert and jovial manner, heartily thanked the donors.

A social half-hour was enjoyed, when the hostess served dainty refreshments. She was assisted in her hospitable duties by Mrs. Lloyd Spafford, who poured tea at an effectively arranged tea table, centred with a bowl of daffodils. Mrs. Fred Ayer, Mrs. Clifford Burton and Mrs. Elwin Brown served.

THE LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. C. Ball and Mrs. R. Reed at the latter's home.

Miss M. Woodside led the devotional service, the theme being "mother" followed by prayer.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. R. L. Gale, and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. Swanson. The fancy work sale which is to be held in the near future was announced. At the tea hour, the hostess served delicious refreshments, Mrs. F. Reed and Mrs. W. Pope poured tea and Mrs. G. Milmore and Thera and Thelma Ball assisted in serving.

Play At Richmond Will Assist In Food Drive For Europeans

Richmond, May 14.—A year of widespread activities was reported by the Junior Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League, at its regular session held one evening, in the Knights of Columbus Hall, with Miss A. Linahan, president, presiding.

Reports were read and all business requiring immediate attention was dealt with. The proceeds from the Tag Day was very satisfactory in spite of the inclemency of the weather. A substantial amount was voted to

Mount St. Patrick, for prizes and "Catholic Action."

In response to an appeal made by the national president of the C.W.L. of Canada, to the members of all sub-divisions, proposing carrying on a project, as a unit, to pack and ship boxes overseas for relief of the starving children of Europe, the Juniors are sponsoring a play next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Town Hall, "Happy Days," a farce in three acts, to be presented by the St. Patrick Mission Circle of Sherbrooke, in order to raise funds to

"Thanks to you, Grandpa Kruschen..."

My Headaches Are Practically Gone

From a letter written by a Mrs. Dunn we quote:—
"I would like everyone who suffers from headaches to try Kruschen. Before taking Kruschen, I had headaches almost every day. But since I have been taking it faithfully I have hardly had a headache, for which I am very thankful, as headaches can make one feel quite ill. For as long as I felt it was necessary, I have taken Kruschen each morning in a glass of warm water, before breakfast, and I feel so well."

The reason Kruschen often gives relief from common or bilious headache, is because this saline treatment helps your system rid itself of underlying causes. Kruschen aids elimination and supplies the body with minerals which may be deficient in the diet. Take Kruschen faithfully for a month. Give this well-known saline treatment a chance to help relieve constipation and biliousness and see what it does to the headache that usually goes with these complaints. Kruschen is 25c. and 75c. at all drug stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacIver and family have sold their farm in Galsion and have bought the farm from Mr. Hugh MacDonald previously owned by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. MacIver.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Bella MacLeod in her bereavement.

help these poor and unfortunate children. The president believes that this concert should have the whole-hearted support of friends as it will be their fair share in this campaign, and in attending this entertainment, they will not only enjoy themselves, but they will at the same time be supporting and encouraging the project that touches every heart and that should go over the top. The Juniors are well organized and the enthusiasm shown thus far by some, is an assurance that all will contribute a fair share to the success of this noble undertaking of providing food to the starving children of Europe.

Conveners have been appointed to look after tickets, ushering, stage decorating, the furniture for the latter, will be graciously loaned by Mr. Ernest E. Cogan, Jeweller.

The proposed state of Diocesan Officers for 1946 was taken up and voted upon. National and Diocesan per capita fees were laid over until next meeting. Mention was made of the Diocesan Convention to be held in Sherbrooke, on June 5, with the Senior Sub-division acting as hostesses.

All matters on the agenda having been duly considered and disposed of, the meeting was adjourned.

Hollywood Highlights

By Bob Thomas

Hollywood, May 14.—(P)—The curtain of secrecy has been lifted on the revolutionary method with which Robert Montgomery will direct his first picture. Hope you haven't been losing too much sleep over it.

"Lady in the Lake" will be filmed in the first person," Bob told me. "I will appear only four times in the picture, just to establish the character, which is the private eye, Philip Marlowe. During the rest of the time, the camera will act as my eyes."

That means the camera will move as Montgomery's head would move. The lens will attempt to recreate as closely as possible a man's sight. When the character walks up stairs, the camera will not slide up, but move as a man's line of vision would.

"For the first time in movies, the actors will take directly at the camera, as though they were talking to me," Bob explained. "My voice will be heard and occasionally my arms will be seen. For instance, I might bring a cigarette up to the camera; then you would see smoke being blown out."

Bob said the technique has been used in sequences before, but never throughout a picture.

Vivian Blaine, the beautiful Newark redhead—or is she a blond this week?—received a letter of complaint from Col. J. T. Gibney at Bad Kissingen, Germany. The colonel explained that before he left Manila some weeks ago he saw her in "Doll Face."

He then embarked on a flying trip and encountered "Doll Face" in Honolulu, Oakland, Washington, D.C., Alexandria, Va., the Azores, Orly, France, Wristader, Germany, and finally, Bad Kissingen.

"Now you are beautiful and all that and I enjoy your work," said the colonel. "But please make another picture. If you and I are going around the world together there has to be a little variety to it."

Pete Lawford is being groomed in Van Johnson's footsteps. He's taking singing and dancing lessons. . . Tyron Power has a clause in his contract which approves his flying. . . Betty Hutton's baby will be a junior in either case. Betty, Jr., or Ted, Jr. . . Ward Bond goes to the hospital next month for more surgery on his leg. Boris Karloff sheds horror to play a Sereal Indian in "Unconquered". . . One way Betty Grable and Harry James can tell their twin fire-red convertibles apart: Somebody stole his license.

Perry Como's new Victor contract calls for 6,000,000 pressings a year. That's a lot of wax. . . Young twosome: Jane Powell and Roddy McDowall at the Derby. . . One actress is no favorite of the Chamber of Commerce. She posed for a raincoat ad.

STANSTEAD NORTH

The Stanstead North Women's Institute met at the Old Brick Schoolhouse, on May 2, with ten members, three guests and four children present. Mrs. Ralph Vivian, vice-president, opened the meeting in the usual manner. Every member responded to the roll call by reciting "A verse from the Bible pertaining to Agriculture." The reports were accepted as read. All bills were paid. Each member was requested to make an article from a flour bag to be sold at the annual sale. Several other items of business were discussed.

The conveners present reported on the work of their departments. The sunshine committee reported that Easter cards had been sent to shut-ins; a plant to a lady in a hospital; and a basket of fruit to a convalescent. The programme on "Agriculture" proved very interesting. A contest on naming flowers and vegetables was conducted by Mrs. Rudd. Miss Flint won the prize. At the close of the meeting the National Anthem was sung and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Roy and Miss Flint.

The Doctor Says:

OSTEOPOROSIS THREATENS OLDER WOMEN

By William A. O'Brien, M.D.
Thinning of the spinal and hip bones (osteoporosis) may develop among older people, particularly women. The condition is discovered as the result of an X-ray examination of a back injury produced by falling, lifting, or bending.

Dr. O'Brien.

All elderly persons lose stature with advancing years. The settling of the body is due to loss of calcium and phosphorus in the bones.

In older women, osteoporosis seems to be related to the menopause and it generally strikes at women between the ages of 55 and 65.

Normal bone consists of a dense framework of fibrous tissue in which are imbedded calcium, phosphorus and carbonate. Bones are in a state of constant flux, with calcium and phosphorus entering and leaving at all times. Thinning of the bone may result from too little absorption of calcium or from too great loss of it. Osteoporosis seems to develop in the cells which make firm bone.

Inactivity May Be Cause
After the menopause, women lack certain secretions from their ovaries, and this seems to affect their bones. A similar change may possibly occur in men. Thinning of the bone may also follow an inactive life.

Osteoporosis may produce no symptoms. If the condition develops slowly, the disease may not be discovered until an X-ray examination is made for another cause.

Back pain is relieved by lying down, increasing the strength of the muscles of the back, exercise, massage, and wearing light braces.

Liberal Diet Urged
As faulty diet has been mentioned as a possible cause, patients with osteoporosis are urged to eat a liberal diet which includes protein, calcium, and phosphorus, and they usually are given large doses of vitamin D.

Thinning of the bone after the menopause is not to be confused with softening of the bone (osteomalacia), which occurs so commonly in India, Japan, and certain parts of Europe. It too is most common in women, and it is a definite deficiency disease, resembling rickets in children.

The treatment prescribed for osteomalacia is food, sunshine, calcium, phosphorus and vitamin D. When large masses of people starved in Germany and Poland during and following World War I, osteomalacia was common. Similar conditions may develop now among other starving peoples if they cannot get adequate food in time.

KNOW QUEBEC BETTER...

Bird's-eye view, Bonaventure Island, off the Gaspé Coast

Do you know Quebec? Do you know, for example, that Quebec offers an unequalled variety of attractions for visitors?

A favorite haunt of tourists is the rugged Gaspé coast where, in 1534, Jacques Cartier first set foot on Canadian soil... where mighty cliffs rise from the blue waters of the Atlantic and a coastal road dips like a sea bird as it skims by famed Percé Rock, Cape Cove, the village of Gaspé and many another picturesque place.

Then there are the Laurentian Highlands, the St. Lawrence, Gatineau and St. Maurice Valleys, the Saguenay, quaint, old-world Quebec and Metropolitan Montreal. To visit them, tourists spend $50,000,000 in a normal year.

The people of Quebec have every reason to be proud of this and the other rich resources. Having developed them wisely they are enjoying their reward in the great contribution they make towards the building of a greater, more united Canada.

QUEBEC BUILDS FOR THE FUTURE

In 1608 Champlain brought the first colonists to Quebec. Today, Quebec's population is 3,000,000, her retail trade $800,000,000.00 per year. She leads all Provinces in the production of hydro-electric power, textiles, lumber, newsprint, footwear, processed tobacco, asbestos and aluminum. Natural resources, agriculture and transportation are being developed wisely. And now, Quebec, her people deep-rooted in the love of their homeland, prepares to share with her sister Provinces, Canada's bright and glorious future!

OH-OH! THERE'S A BREAK—A CANOE?

By Zane Grey

"Each day seemed endless"

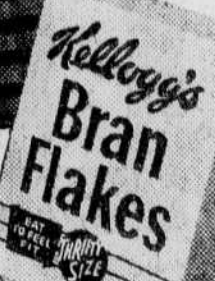

... because I forgot one simple fact!

A TICKET agent has a tough job these days... it's almost unbearable if you're always dull and headache, as I was!

"Then I tried Kellogg's 30-day test. One simple change of diet... but what a difference it made. My job is fun now... and so is my spare time. What's more, I found Kellogg's Bran Flakes really delicious... really good to eat!"

Make this 30-DAY TEST

3 to 1 say Kellogg's are favourite. In a recent survey, 3 times as many housewives voted "Kellogg's" their favourite Bran Flakes as named any other brand. Look for the golden-yellow package—try the large, THRIFTY size.

1. If you're really ill see your doctor! But if you just feel dull and headache, you may only be suffering from incomplete elimination. Especially if you're over 35. Here's how one simple change of diet can help you keep fit:

2. Start right now to eat Kellogg's Bran Flakes every morning. No harsh doses... just keep fit the natural way! Get more of the "bulk" your system needs by eating delicious, gently-laxative Kellogg's Bran Flakes With Other Parts Of Wheat.

3. Just thirty days should prove to you how grand it is to feel alert, to have the energy for all the extra things you'd like to do. You'll want to go on keeping fit the Kellogg way!

Keep fit with Kellogg's every day in the year!

MORE LONG DISTANCE CALLS THAN IN WARTIME!

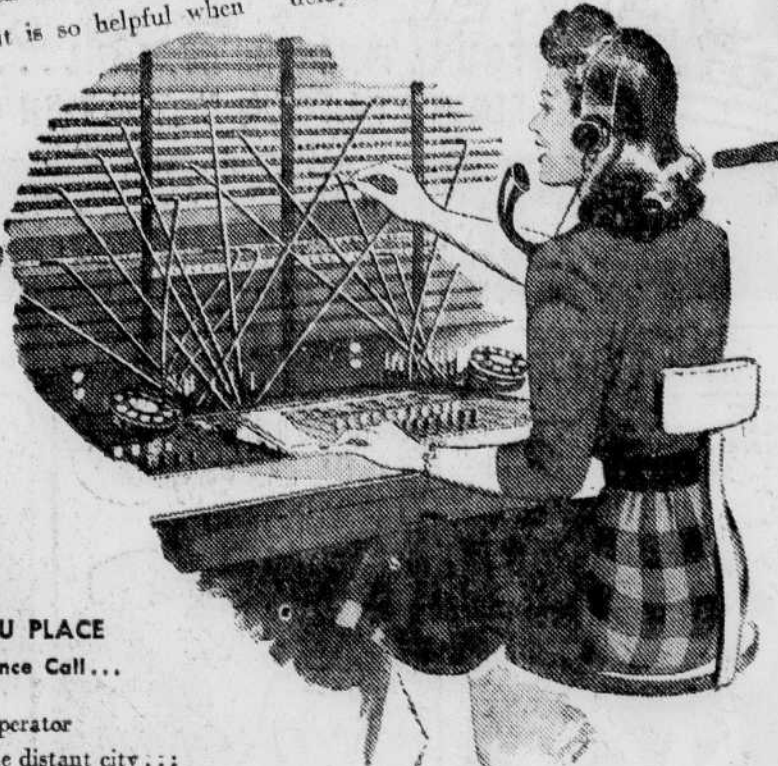

JUST two years ago we were serving 975,000 telephones.

There are now 120,000 more telephones and as a result Long Distance calling has steadily increased even though the war is over. Actually the volume of calling is now about 100% higher than when the war began.

That's why it is so helpful when you observe the proper sequence, as shown below, in making Long Distance calls.

We are building new lines and new switchboards but it will take some time to get them into use. In the meantime we'll appreciate your help and understanding, especially if your call is delayed.

WHEN YOU PLACE a Long Distance Call...

FIRST, give the operator the name of the distant city...

THEN, the telephone number of your party...

THEN, when the operator asks it, your own telephone number.

If you don't know the distant telephone number, please make a note of it for future use when you hear the operator repeat it.

Collin's No-Hitter Featured In Industrial "A" Twin Bill

Paul Emile Collin, of the Letendre team, has a right to be walking around with his head in the clouds today. After all, you don't often pitch a no-hit, no-run affair.

That's what Collin did last night to lead his mates to a 2-0 decision over the Rand in the opener of a two-game series marking the inauguration of the Industrial "A" Softball League season at Dufrane Park. The other game saw Lessard rally in the late innings to knock off Savard 5-3.

The doubleheader drew a large crowd to the Galt Street playgrounds, and they were treated to a fine display of softball in the Letendre-Rand engagement. They battled for three and a half scoreless innings before Letendre bunched their hits for the only two runs in the last half of the fourth frame. There was a string of goose eggs for the rest of the game.

Ald. Sylvio Rousseau, chairman of the local parks committee, went to the hurler's mound for a brief opening ceremony. Ald. Armand Fiset donned the catcher's mitt, with Ald. Paul Hamel swinging the bat. It is not expected that the trio will receive major league bids.

Savard and Lessard also waited until well along in their fixture before breaking into the scoring column. In the first half of the fourth Savard chalked up three markers, but Lessard came right back in their half to go ahead 4-3, and ended the scoring with another run in the sixth. Les Bessant, pitching for Savard, gave up seven hits, and his mates committed four errors behind him. Although the winners made five misuses, three-hit heavy by Lamontagne held Savard in check. In the first game Collin did more than pitch winning ball. He also accounted for his club's runs.

Canucks Have Score To Settle With Red Sox In Local Opener

Local fans who journeyed to Granby Sunday afternoon came back impressed with the display of hitting power put on by the Sherbrooke nine, with the total of 15 base knocks piled up by the Canadians remaining in their mind after thought of the 8-7 setback had disappeared.

They reasoned that if "Pappy" Smith's boys could hit like that every day, they would win lots of ball games. Look at Boston Red Sox. When their pitchers can't handle the opposition, the batting stars of the Cronin crew simply overpower the other team.

Granby will meet the Canucks tonight at the local stadium in the inaugural game of the Border Baseball League season in Sherbrooke, and many of the large crowd expected for the opener will be going to see if the locals can continue the heavy clubbing they staged Sunday.

Chuck Tribotti was landed on pretty heavily by Bill Sisler's Sox in the first two innings, and was removed from the mound in favor of Tony Bosco. Tribotti was having trouble finding the plate, apparently being troubled by nervousness, and Granby got away to an early lead. His successor did a lot better, and pitched good enough ball to win, but the damage was done.

Smith expects better things from Tribotti, and it's too early to start saying that the locals are weak in the hurling department.

The moundmen must be given a chance to get going. They haven't had any decent weather yet, and it takes a while to put those salary arms in shape.

Pitcher for tonight's do for Sherbrooke will be Augie Zande, and Smith expects this boy to come up with a nice job of twirling. If the rest of the boys can get him some runs to start with, all should be rosy.

A new left-fielder, Tiborelli by name, got most of the rave notices in Granby with a sock for four bases over the left-field barricade, and a two-ply swat. That's the kind of hitting that goes over big with the crowds. Also clouting the apple consistently was "Pinky" Fine, who had three safeties to his credit. Zimmerman's clout for two runs in the ninth didn't hurt any, either.

Normie Dussault, speedy second sacker, was out of the line up because of a leg injury on Sunday, but is expected to be out there in his regular spot tonight. If he had been on deck in Granby the

LESNEVICH SET FOR TIFF WITH MILLS TONIGHT

London, May 14.—(U)—Tangling in the first big-time Anglo-American prize fight since Tommy Farr challenged Joe Louis before the war, Gus Lesnevich and Freddie Mills will meet tonight for the world light-heavyweight championship before what is expected to be a record crowd in Harringay Stadium.

Titleholder Lesnevich lays his crown on the line in a 15-round go against the British light-heavyweight king.

Lesnevich, who exploits the straight left in traditional English manner, rounded off training Monday with quiet strolls on the Sussex downs. Characteristically, he refused to comment on the possible outcome of the battle.

"I am in fine shape," he said. "I know I am in for a very hard struggle. I have never been better and there will be no excuses if I lose."

Mills is facing his first fight in 15 months. Recently demobilized from the R.A.F. after service in India, his first task was to get down to 175-pound weight limit.

"I am in fine fettle; I am looking forward to a terrific scrap," Mills commented. He echoed his rival's confidence when he said there would be no excuse for him if he lost.

Reese In Surprise Role As Swat King

New York, May 14.—(U)—Pee Wee Reese, Brooklyn's flash shortstop who never has hit higher than .272 for a major league season, tops both big leagues with an average of .411 in figures including Sunday's games, it was made known today.

Boston Red Sox dominate the American League batting race with shortstop Johnny Pesky out front at .394 and teammate Ted Williams tied for second place with Washington's Mickey Vernon at .387.
