U.S. LABOR URGES HARDING TO MOVE IN DISARMAMENT

A.F. of L. Urges Americans to Call Conference of Powers on Subject

SINN FEIN ANSWER

Irish Sympathizers Demand Boycott on British Products

DENVER, Colo., June 15.—(Associated Press.)—President Harding and Congress are urged to lead the way in bringing about world disarmament in a resolution presented today to the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

They are requested to call a conference of the powers of the world "with the hope and in the belief that through such conference the billions now being expended in naval armaments may be saved to the tax payers of the several countries.

"The whole world contemplates with horror," said the resolution, "the possibility of a race for naval power between the United States, Great Britain and Japan similar to that between Great Britain and Germany which preceded the great war.

"Such a race is inconsistent with and must serve to postpone and prevent general disarmament, to which the American labor movement stands committed."

SINN FEIN DISTURBANCE.

Sinn Fein sympathizers today replied to the warning sounded yesterday by J. H. Thomas, British labor leader, that organized labor of the United States could not solve the Irish question, by introducing resolutions demanding action on the part of the convention supporting the "Irish republic."

Failing to get recognition in the resolution drafted by the committee appointed by a mass meeting of Sinn Fein sympathizers, representatives of the "Irish republic" presented two resolutions demanding boycott of British made goods and concerns in this country by United States workers.

The boycott resolutions, presented by T. J. Vind, secretary of the labor bureau of the American Commission on Irish Independence, have caused the split among the Sinn Fein faction to widen. They are reported to have been drawn by "high officials of the Irish republic," but they failed to get the support of the delegates who signed the resolution drafted by a committee of Sinn Fein sympathizers.

The resolution presented by Peter J. Brady of New York, chairman of the committee selected at a mass meeting of Irish Nationalists supporters and signed by nearly 150 delegates demanded:

"That the American Federation of Labor in convention assembled reiterates and affirms the action of the Montreal convention supporting the Irish people in their struggle for freedom and recognition of the Irish republic."

ASK HARDING TO INTERFERE.

The resolution also demanded that President Harding be urged by the Federation to interfere in the Irish situation; that the various unions be asked to urge members of Congress to pass legislation recognizing the so-called "Irish republic"; that the officers of the Federation be instructed to call upon the United States Government to demand immediate payment by Great Britain of loans made by the United States; and wound up with a paragraph intended to secure the support of the Canadian delegates for such a program. This clause read:

"That the American Federation of Labor ask the British trade unions and the trade unions in all British colonies and dominions to co-operate in the objects herein set forth."

The executive council of the Federation is "directed to carry out the instructions" of the resolution. Nearly a ton of literature and propaganda has been distributed in the convention hall urging the delegates to support the Sinn Fein cause.

"MAKE GERMANY PAY."

The Irish question was brought up on the day devoted to international debates in the convention.

J. H. Thomas, leader of the British delegation said that a large part of the unemployment and wage-cutting in the Allied countries was due to the policy of "making Germany pay." Through France getting goods, especially coal, for nothing from Germany, she was able to undersell the other nations and ship-builders were put out of work through confiscation of enemy vessels, he said.

James Walker, president of the Steel Smelters' Union of England, made a plea for disarmament. W. F. Bush brought the greetings of the Canadian union men.

Bituminous coal miners were the greatest sufferers from the wave of unemployment which swept the country, according to delegates. A large proportion of the soft coal miners have been working only a few days each month since the coal business was hit by the industrial depression. Many have been unable to find any work.

The resolutions committee of the Federation was working today on the difficult problems of the convention. Among the propositions presented to the committee were the Irish question, the resolution providing for recommendation for the release of Tom Mooney, an amendment to the constitution which will permit women to become members of any union which is affiliated with the Federation.

TORONTO PRINTERS' STRIKE DEADLOCKED

TORONTO, June 15. No material change has occurred in the printers' strike here. Negotiations between the employing printers and the pressmen which were supposed to be leading up to an amicable conclusion, were deadlocked yesterday. The pressmen insisted upon all the strikers being reinstated, but the employers refused to dismiss men who had been taken on since the strike began on June 1.

BIG INFLUX OF NEW SETTLERS

Thirty Thousand Immigrants Arrived in Last Two Months

MANY REJECTED

Newcomers Being Closely Handpicked to Protect Dominion

OTTAWA, June 15.—(From Our Own Correspondent.)—Thirty thousand immigrants have come into Canada in the first two months of the fiscal year.

While many figures are not complete they are running about the same as those of April. In that month 15,052 arrived, an increase of 13 per cent over the corresponding month of 1920.

There were 8,476 from the British Isles, 5,035 from the United States, and 1,541 from other countries.

Figures just completed for the fiscal year ended March 31, show a total influx of 148,477 of which 100,418 came in by ocean ports and 45,059 from the United States. In the previous year immigration totalled 117,336 but only 67,680 came in that period from Europe.

A feature about the immigration in the recently closed fiscal year has been the few rejections. They numbered 963 or less than one per cent. Deportations of those who have failed to make good in the country totalled 655.

The situation at the border is not so favorable. Many come, but not all are allowed in. Of 68,190 who presented themselves for admission to Canada 20,181 were rejected or at the ratio of one in four. Why so few are turned back at ocean ports and so many on the border is explained by the fact that people from the States are more inclined to take a chance and rejection does not impose the same inconvenience. The main reasons for the extension rejection are lack of money qualification and for having come by indirect passage through the States from Europe.

LONDON GIVES SIMS CORDIAL SEND-OFF

Forgets His Tickets But Officials Say They Will Look After Him

LONDON, June 15 — (Associated Press) — Rear Admiral William S. Sims left Waterloo station this morning for Southampton, where he was to board the steamer Olympic later in the day and proceed to New York. He rode in a special car that was so burdened with floral testimonials that there was scarcely room for members of his party to move about.

Leaning out a window of the car, the Admiral waved his cap to a large group, who, despite the earliness of his departure, had gathered to give him a rousing send-off. Admiral Sims spent half an hour before his train left in handshaking and exchanging greetings with friends on the station platform. As the train slowly moved out, men raised their hats and women waved their handkerchiefs, and all joined in three cheers which were given so lustily that a cab horse at the station platform curbing shied and nearly ran away.

In the throng at the station were newspapermen and photographers, with whom Admiral Sims is most popular, because of his unassuming ways and his readiness to oblige with interviews. The Admiral walked to the end of the platform, where a bright shaft of sunlight was to be found, and there he faced the newspapermen's cameras for several minutes.

NOTHING TO RETRACT

Answering reporters' requests for a farewell message, Admiral Sims called attention to despatches in this morning's newspapers telling of a reaction in the United States against his critics. He declared he had nothing further to say "and nothing to retract." He said he had received hundreds of letters approving of his attitude regarding "American hyphenates." Asked whether he had received any threatening missives, the Admiral smiled and said:

"I had one signed 'Erin-go-Bragh' making a play on reference to zebras in my address last week, and telling me I would meet the asses on the other side, but I have paid no attention to it—it doesn't worry me."

Those who gathered at the station to bid Admiral Sims farewell included Admiral Watson, representing Earl Arthur Hamilton Lee, First Lord of the Admiralty; Admiral Freemantle, Vice Admiral Sir William Lowther Grant, Commander Harry L. Roper, Assistant United States Naval Attache and Col. Oscar N. Solbert, military attache at the United States Embassy.

The Admiral forgot his tickets in the rush of getting away to Southampton. He left his transportation at his hotel, but officials of the steamship line promised they would take care of him.

BRITISH INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK GROWING MORE OPTIMISTIC

Miners' Ballot Expected to Bring Strike to An End

VOTING TODAY

Wool Workers Agree to Reduction of War Wage

LONDON, June 15.—(Special Star Cable).— A more hopeful view of the industrial situation prevails.

It appears to be generally assumed that the coal crisis will be concluded by the balloting of the coal miners to be announced on Friday, when it is expected that a large majority of the miners will take vote to resume work, although they have not gained any concession through their idleness of nearly three months.

Many employers regard this as an important and significant trial of strength on the question of whether necessary wage-cuts can be made with any reasonable expectation of success.

The cost of living has undoubtedly fallen considerably.

The coal miners' executives succeeded in blockading the country's trade, but it is now clear that they have finally been defeated. It is argued that if the coal miners have failed other unions in many trades would not succeed on a similar test.

Immediate betterment in industrial conditions is looked for and certainly there never was more room for improvement. The textile, woollen and light steel trades all report better inquiries and a more optimistic feeling is reported generally.

MINERS NOW BALLOTTING.

LONDON, June 15.— (Associated Press).—British miners today voted on the proposals of the mine owners for the settlement of the coal diggers' strike which has been in progress since April 1. All coal fields in the United Kingdom were affected by the decision to ballot on acceptance or rejection of the mine owners' terms and the question was placed before the miners without recommendations from the conference of delegates, which met here on June 10.

The owners' final proposals included the establishment of a new standard minimum wage by raising the 1914 scale, or that of 1919 in the case of piece workers by 20 per cent. It was provided that this percentage would be calculated on the output for March, 1921, and would continue in effect for twelve months. The owners offered to surrender their profits proportionately to the assistance received by the various districts, and new district boards would, if the proposals should be accepted, redistribute the districts on an economic, instead of a geographic, basis. A national wage board would then determine the ratio of profits to wages in each district.

The owners suggested as an alternative that the new wage standard be settled by a national wage board or by arbitration.

The delegate who met here on June 10 represented 958,000 British coal miners. The result of today's vote will be announced on Friday.

SOME SECTIONS UNFAVORABLE.

Unfavorable reports concerning the attitude of miners from the Forest of Dean, Lancashire, Cheshire and Welsh coal fields on the new proposals are being received. The Nottingham miners have decided to abstain from voting on the ground that they were called out on strike without being consulted. On the whole, however, the optimistic feeling is being maintained that the two-thirds majority required to continue the strike will not be obtained.

In the course of a speech today Jos Birkin, a notable north country labor leader, thanked God for the failure of the extremists among the miners who thought to Russianize the country. The demand for a national wages pool had been a political idea from the first, he said, so why did the leaders now waste time taking a ballot instead of admitting defeat?

The leadership among the miners certainly seems to have become nerveless as witness the decision in many district courts is not to give the men advice concerning the ballot. Workers in these sections ascribe this to cowardice on the part of the leaders.

WOOLLEN MEN MODERATE.

LONDON, June 14.—(Special Star cable). The woollen workers' wage conference has agreed to a reduction in pay scale of 10½ to 12 per cent for men and 7 to 9½ per cent for women per week, the reduction to date from July 9. It is believed that ratification of this arrangement is certain when the matter comes to a vote.

BIG STRIKE IS HALTED.

LONDON, June 15 (Associated Press).—Strikes averting a great engineering stoppage affecting 1,500,000 men were taken this morning, when the Minister of Labor, Thomas Mac Namara, held a conference with representatives of the employers and employees. The result of the conference was that the employers agreed to postpone issuing notices of lockouts from tomorrow until the end of June in order to enable the unions to submit the employers' latest proposals to a ballot.

Government intervention was decided upon after negotiations between the employers and employees on proposed wage reductions broke down yesterday.

The committee on employers and operatives met again at Mac Nesbit today and it is understood stated that the proceedings were marked by considerable conciliatory parties handling the dispute with the feeling the whole industry is involved are expected to be getting closer together on the wage question.

MURPHY STAYS IN JAIL

CHICAGO, June 15 — (United Press.) — "Big Tim" Murphy, Chicago's labor "czar" will spend another of his friends today at the county jail in defiant of Sheriff Michael Healy. Murphy, president of the Building Workers Union, refused to put up $30,000 bail demanded by Judge Lindquist in connection with the $3,000,000 Lincoln Station mail robbery.

CHARGED BELFAST RIOTING PART OF DELIBERATE PLOT

Belfast Reports Concerted Attempt to Keep Disorders Alive

WILD RIOTING

"Irish News" Urges Belfast Catholics to Preserve Their Lives

BELFAST, June 15 — (Associated Press) —A feature of the Belfast disturbances which is disquieting to the authorities is furnished in what they termed today a concerted attempt to keep alive the disorders.

Several police barracks notified military headquarters at 1:40 o'clock this morning that whistles had been blown, revolvers fired and cries of murder raised in their districts, followed by genuine screams of panic from women and children who associated the noises with reprisal raids. This happened in one district yesterday, but today it assumed a widespread character. Shooting occurred during the breakfast hour this morning in the streets affected yesterday morning. Sand bags were used for shelter. Snipers were seized by the police in one street.

SAND BAG BARRICADES.

The worst fighting yesterday evening was in the maze of streets radiating from Conway street to the Falls district. Sinn Feiners, armed with revolvers, took positions on roofs and at other vantage points. Sand bag barricades furnished shelter for others, behind which they were safe from the bullets of the Crown forces while gunmen kept up a contentious fire on the police. When the barricades were stormed it was found that the defenders had beaten a quick retreat.

An attempt was made to empty the sand bags, but the police did not have time to do this properly, and as they passed on Sinn Feiners reassembled, rearranged their defences and the shooting was begun again.

The Nationalist newspaper Irish News today says "there are more than 100,000 Catholics in Belfast. It is time they awakened to the grave perils which beset them and took practical, courageous and effective steps to defend their integrity as Irish citizens, to hold their homes and to preserve their lives."

MANY OUTRAGES.

DUBLIN, June 15.—James Kane, a police pensioner and an inspector of fisheries, was shot dead today by members of the Irish Republican Army as a spy near Listowel, County Kerry. A farmer named Boyle was shot dead near Killeated, County Tipperary. The body was labelled "Tried and sentenced to be shot by the Irish Republican Army." The house of Bernard Reilly, near Athboy, County Meath, was burned and Reilly's wife and child, who were unable to escape, perished in the flames. District Inspector Sully, a sergeant and two constables were wounded in the explosion of a mine in a road at Ballydwyer, County Kerry.

RUHR OCCUPATION RUMORS REVIVED

Polish Insurgents Couple it With German Self-defence Campaign

INSURGENT HEADQUARTERS IN POLAND, by wireless, via Paris, June 15.—(By L. C. Walter, to Montreal Star and Chicago Tribune Copyright.)—Occupation of the Ruhr Valley, with energetic military measures against the German self-defence troops in Upper Silesia is predicted in insurgent circles if General Hoeffer rejects the pacification proposals outlined by the Inter-Allied High Commissioners and already accepted by the Insurgent Leader Korfanty.

Negotiations will be held in Oppeln with a view of obtaining the German military leaders acceptance to the disarmament plan, but definite results are not yet known, though he is said to have refused to disband his forces.

General Hoeffer possesses 61,000 armed men, which is twice the number under arms in this province May 20, and also 112 heavy machine guns about 1,000 light machine guns.

Peaceful withdrawal of the Poles in the insurgent area continues, although there are reports that the insurgents are bombarding Ratibor. Two Polish soldiers were killed by Poles in Ratibor.

General Hoeffer, German commander, recently threatened to attack this sector, but was withheld by the Allies. Insurgents in the area are refusing to obey their leader, Korfanty.

Anyone here knows reports that the Germans are attacking the Poles with cavalry, armored trains, heavy artillery and mine throwers are absolutely sure, although it is given out officially as true by the insurgent headquarters in Poland. The Germans have none of this equipment, excepting ten pieces of artillery captured from Poles in the Annaberg region.

Hoeffer has not a single plane, despite the Polish reports that they are being bombed from the air.

TO LIQUIDATE U.S. MERCHANT MARINE

Shipping Board Strikes Out $2,950,000,000 as Dead Loss

WASHINGTON, June 15—(By Russell Browning, United Press Staff Correspondent.) — With the swearing in today of the newly appointed United States Shipping Board, under the chairmanship of Albert D. Lasker, the initial step in the liquidation of the $3,000,000,000 United States mercantile marine was taken.

The first action of the board was to place $2,950,000,000 on the debit side of the ledger, and draw a red line through the figures. This represents the depreciation in the cost price of the 1,708 Government-owned vessels and the remaining figures, $750,000,000, will serve as an approximate basis for disposal of the ships.

Lasker announced that he and his colleagues on the board would energetically tackle the problem of stopping leakage of taxpayers' money into the up-keep of the marine, which is now flowing at the rate of over $2,000,000 per week.

The plan the board is expected to follow and which is said to have the approval of President Harding, is to [illegible] purchasers for the ships among [illegible] and shipowners who will keep the vessels under the American flag.

The $3,000,000 venture in wooden ships is looked on as virtually a total loss. Ships that cannot be sold as ocean bottoms, will be junked, it is said.

SEMENOFF WOULD SEIZE LEADERSHIP

STATE OF FLUX

Far Eastern Government Favors Soviet—Letvia After Communists

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(United Press).—Japan has warned General Semenoff, Russian anti-Bolshevist Cossack leader, not to interfere in the situation in the Vladivostok area of Siberia, according to a statement by a high authority of Japanese circles here today.

Semenoff who had a spectacular military adventure in Siberia since the Bolshevik revolution in Russia, was in Port Arthur when Vladivostok was captured recently by the so-called Kapell anti-Bolsheviki forces. He has since been trying to assume the leadership of the Vladivostok coup himself.

According to the Japanese statement here today, Japanese authorities in Port Arthur have warned Semenoff not to go to Vladivostok. The Cossack leader left, but on reaching Vladivostok he was again warned by Japanese authorities at that place not to inject himself into the already tangled situation.

Advices just received by the State Department from the American consul at Vladivostok state that Semenoff, through his secretary, has presented a demand to the consular body at Vladivostok that he be recognized as the chief of the newly formed government there and commander of the military forces. This demand was refused by the body of foreign consuls.

JAPANESE STATEMENT.

TOKIO, June 15. — (Associated Press).—Charges made by the Government of the far eastern republic that the Japanese assisted the anti-Bolsheviki in the coup d'etat which resulted in the ousting of the Socialist Government of Vladivostok are denied by General Tachibana, Japanese commander in that city. It was alleged that the Japanese disarmed the militia in the city, but the General declares that both the anti-Socialists and the militia were disarmed for the reason that the Japanese would not permit activities of armed bodies in the zone of occupation.

Gen. Semenoff who came here from Dairy for the purpose of taking over the leadership of the elements which ousted the Socialist Government three weeks ago, left the Kyoto Maru on which he entered the harbor and on which he was held a virtual prisoner and boarded the Russian steamer Pechenga today. It is reported he intends to [illegible] some point on the Siberian coast of the Amur basin.

SOCIETY AT THE CAPITAL.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—St. Joseph's church was the scene yesterday morning at a quarter past eleven of an exceedingly pretty wedding, when Miss Isobel Anglin, second daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. F. A. Anglin, was united in marriage to Captain S. V. Paterson, D.C.M. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Cournell, O.M.I., during which the bride's father, Judge Anglin, sang Fowlers "Ave Marie" and Mr. Joe Foley also sang "My Happy Day." Mme. E. Tesse was at the organ and as the bride entered and left the church played the two wedding marches, the first from Lohengrin and the latter Mendelssohn's and during the signing of the register, Mrs. J. Angus Mackenzie sang "All Joy be Thine." The church was decorated with palms and peonies and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Major Wilfred Mavor, M.C., of Toronto, was the groomsman, and proceeding the bride and her father up the aisle, were the ushers Capt. S. Bate, Capt. Major L. Sherwood, Mr. Robert Laurier and the bride's brother Mr. Frank Anglin. Following were the four bridesmaids, Mrs. Franklyn Ahearn, Mrs. C. A. Grey, Miss Jean Macdougall, and Miss Eleanor Anglin, of Toronto, then the maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Anglin, sister of the bride, two dainty little flower girls Miss Mary Grey, a niece of the bride, and Miss Peggy Crerar, then followed the bride. She looked very lovely in her wedding gown of lace with panels of white georgette embroidered with seed pearls, a court train of lace and georgette. On her hair she wore a coronet of rose point lace with a long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a string of pearls. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were all gowned alike in pretty peach colored georgette crepe, finished at the waist with girdles of gold ribbon faced with green, forming into a ribbon train. They were picture hats of cream lace trimmed with orange blossoms and carried arm bouquets of yellow and blue iris and pansies. The two little flower girls wore dainty dresses of the same shade as the other attendants, peach georgette, with gold sashes faced with green and they carried small bouquets of yellow and blue iris and pansies and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in their hair. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents where Mrs. Anglin received her guests in a handsome gown of navy blue satin with overdress of grey georgette crepe, heavily embroidered in blue, and a blue and grey hat trimmed with grey ostrich feathers. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anglin, Miss Knox and Miss Fraser of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Johnson, Captain and Mrs. W. D. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bertram of Montreal. Among the very large number of gifts were a beautiful antique pendant of amethysts and pearls from their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, a large painting from Lady Laurier and to the bride from Lady Borden, an ivory manicure set. Captain and Mrs. Paterson left by motor on a trip through the Adirondacks, the bride travelling in a smart suit of grey jersey with a grey feather hat.

Lindsay, rector of St. Lukes church and the bride was given away by her father, both bride and groom being unattended. The bride wore her travelling costume, a smartly tailored suit of navy blue serge with a sand colored georgette blouse and a leghorn hat trimmed with blue ribbon and flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left later for Montreal and after their wedding trip will reside in Vankleek Hill, Ont.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, attended by Capt. Lloyd, A.D.C., formally opened the new school on Breeze avenue, which has been called the Devonshire School, last night.

A most interesting event took place yesterday afternoon at Government House, when the wives of the Cabinet ministers presented Her Excellency the Duchess of Devonshire with a beautiful little silver casket with the Canadian coat of arms in enamel on the cover and lined inside with pale grey satin. Lady Foster, in the absence of Mrs. Meighen, made the presentation, and in part her charming address was, "Words are inadequate to express to you the admiration and affection which we, in union with all Canadian people feel for you, and we desire also to express our genuine sorrow at your departure. The charming personality and the courtesies and kindnesses of Your Excellencies and of your family, will never be forgotten, for in Canadian hearts there is enshrined a deep and lasting affection for the beloved chatelaine of Rideau Hall, and all the memories of the Devonshire regime."

Her Excellency replied in a very touching manner, and later entertained those present at tea. Among the guests were the Marquis and Marchioness of Hartington, Miss Saunders, Miss Margaret Wright, Lord Richard Nevill, Capt. Balfour, A.D.C.; Capt. the Hon. P. Kinnaird, A.D.C.; Lady Foster, Mrs. C. J. Doherty, Mrs. F. B. McCurdy, Mrs. J. A. Calder, Mrs. R. W. Wigmore, Lady Drayton and Madame P. E. Blondin.

CHURCHILL TELLS OF BRITISH PLANS IN MIDDLE EAST

To Revive Arab and Other States Under the Mandate

LONDON, June 15.—Great Britain's new policy of replacing the existing provisional native government of Mesopotamia by the creation of an Arab state, which should be built up around Dardad and revive the old glory and culture of the Arab races, was announced in the House of Commons today by Winston Churchill, the Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Churchill declared that this was a clear policy definitely chosen and agreed to within the whole Arabian peninsula and he indicated the belief that Emir Feisal, son of the King of the Hedjaz, would be elected head of the new state.

Mr. Churchill's speech dealt with Middle Eastern Affairs and his visit to Cairo in connection with his appointment as special minister over that area, and had been awaited with great interest for a revelation of the extent of the British commitments in this region and whether any great reduction of military expenditure might be hoped for.

The Secretary contended that a policy of appeasement and friendship alone was compatible with the British pledges, and if accepted by the Arab people it was the best possible solution that could be reached. King Hussein had already consented that his son Feisal should be a candidate for the throne.

INDIA NOT CONCERNED.

There were no primary or directly strategic interests concerning India to justify British retention of Mesopotamia, Mr. Churchill continued. India could better be defended on its strategic frontier. The British policy was to reduce its burdens, while discharging its obligations, by creating a Government which would be a friend of Great Britain and might also be a friend of France. An Arab army would be created for the defence of the new state.

Next October he hoped to reduce the British occupying army to twelve battalions and when the new state was created to withdraw all the British forces and enter into treaty relations with the new state.

Mr. Churchill announced that the Kurds were not anxious to come under an Arab state; hence Kurdistan would still be administered by a British commissioner, but he hoped it would eventually join the new state.

Turning to Palestine, he admitted that this was a graver problem than Mesopotamia, but much smaller in a military sense. The Arabs feared they would be swamped in a few years by Jewish immigration from Central Europe and Russia and that the Jews would gain absolute control of Palestine. He declared, however, that these fiqures were quite illusory; no Jews would be brought in beyond the number that could be provided for by the development of the country's resources.

It was only by securing a real and lasting peace with Turkey that the prospect he held out of substantial abatement of the charges falling upon both countries in the Middle East could be realized.

In a detailed statement of the military position in Mesopotamia he showed that with the reductions already effected the total expenditure for the current year would be £35,000,000 but he hoped that next year normal expenditure in both Palestine and Mesopotamia would not exceed £10,000,000.

MANY GRADUATES GO TO COLLEGE

Over Seventy Per Cent of Montreal High School Students

CHOOSING CAREERS

Wide Range of Professions Selected by Graduating Students

In a short time 198 high school students of this city and Westmount will experience the sensation of being set adrift from the old familiar ties of school days, to be abased from the exalted position of the graduating class, to that of inexperienced persons entering the business world or college life. The vast majority have chosen college where they will once more become the younger members in the midst of a large community, where they will, through four years of work, climb again to the leading class of their community, only to be once more rudely shoved back to inconspicuousness when they enter upon their chosen profession in which fame has again to be striven for, if it is to be obtained.

MUST CHOOSE CAREER.

On the majority of those whose school days are ending, the burden of a choice of profession or business falls at the present time. Some have had definite plans for some time. Others have thought seriously of late of the course to be followed, but still others, whose natural inclinations or present circumstances have not been sufficiently strong to allow them to make up their minds, are undecided as to what next winter will find to occupy their time.

GOING TO COLLEGE.

The Montreal High School with 137 students in its graduating classes has 102 who intend to go to college, or over 74 per cent. The boys number 68 out of 87, or over 78 per cent, of their classes and the girls 34 out of 50, or 68 per cent. Of the total number 87 have selected McGill University in which to continue their studies. Thirteen of the girls hope to enter the school for teachers at Macdonald College, four of them to take the kindergarten course. One boy intends to enter an American university and one is undecided in what college to take up work. Sixteen of the girls, and 13 of the boys have made no plans for next year.

ARTS FOR GIRLS.

The majority of the students have definite ideas on the subjects of the courses which they wish to follow. A few seem rather doubtful as to whether they will attain to the course which particularly appeals to them and still fewer are vaguely planning to "go to college," as yet undecided as to what faculty they will enter. The girls for the most part will enter the Faculty of Arts. Four, however, this year are planning to take the physical education course offered at McGill. Of the boys, 22 have medicine as their ultimate aim, five taking a double course with Arts. Eighteen intend to enter the Arts Faculty, five proceeding to Medicine, five to Law and one to Dentistry. In all four will study for the dental profession, 2 for pharmacy and one for architecture. The School of Commerce will claim two with possibly another who has not decided between it and the Faculty of Applied Science. The latter will have ten representatives in the class. One only is planning an agricultural course. Two are planning to work for a year and then attend college, one aiming definitely for the commerce course, while another, intending to take up chartered accountancy, may take a college course preparatory to entering upon his chosen profession. Four have definitely decided to enter the business world with no plans for a university career.

Beyond college, professions awaiting the students will include, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, chemistry, chemical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, architecture, law and business of various sorts. A number of the girls, at least, plan to enter the teaching profession with the possibility of several others joining them should no more attractive work present itself before they are qualified to teach in Montreal schools.

The record in general corresponds to that of the actual activities of the class which graduated a year ago, of the 87 boys of that year 13 entered Arts, 9 Applied Science, 14 Medicine, 4 Commerce, 3 Dentistry, 1 Architecture and 1 Pharmacy at McGill, while the remainder are engaged in business of various kinds. Of the 50 girls graduates of that year, only 7 stayed at home. Twenty entered the course for teachers at Macdonald College and 2 that of domestic science. Two attended the arts course at McGill and one that of Law. Four went to business colleges, two accepted positions in business, two spent the winter in the Old Country and attended an English art school, three were engaged in temporary work.

ONE HAS ENOUGH

Of the seven members of the graduating class of Westmount High School one alone has decided that her present education is sufficient and has stated definitely that she is about to continue it. The plans of the other girls are varied and many of them are uncertain. There are a number who want the cap and gown, the 12 degrees the Bachelor of Arts can obtain at McGill, but as soon as they have received them they will be ready to enter upon their chosen profession. Others are undecided as to whether they will enter the University at all, but will spend a year or two in travel or in taking a course in domestic science. Some will enter the business world, but for the most part the girls are undecided as to their future, partly owing to the fact that the choice of a profession is not left entirely to themselves, but is influenced by the wishes of parents and friends.

GIRLS HESITATE.

According to the statistics the record of the boys is far in front of that of the girls, for 91 per cent of the former are reported to 51 per cent of the latter expecting to attend college. Among the four candidates for graduation that the brightest ones are, and thirteen of the girls stated that they had not as yet made up their minds but expect to do [illegible] future. The year [illegible] the first two or three years how they will spend their future.

TRIED TO RESCUE FRIEND IN DISTRESS

Non-Recognition of Detectives No Excuse, Says Recorder

"You are liable to a fine of $200 or six months hard labor," said Recorder Semple, this morning before fining Leonard Mecock, twenty-five dollars for interfering with the police when arresting a man accused of drunkenness. "The excuse that there was no means by which you could tell that the detectives were police officers does not excuse you in any way," said the Recorder.

Mecock was walking near Windsor and St. Antoine streets when he saw that his friend had been stopped by two men. He went to find out what the matter was and tried to pull Constable J. A. Lavoie away. Mecock pleaded that he could not tell the men were detectives and he only pulled his friend by the shoulder.

"PEGGY" CROSSES OCEAN WITH DOLL

Three-Year-Old Traveller Would Talk Little of Trip

BELLE OF SHIP

Child Names Doll "Metagama" After the Vessel

A doll presented to her by the London Daily Mirror was proudly shown this morning by little Miss "Peggy" Featherstone, three years old, who crossed the ocean alone on the Metagama, which arrived in port last week, and is now living in Montreal. The London newspaper hearing of her projected voyage presented Peggy with a new doll as a souvenir of the trip and this latest acquisition to her family is at present her favorite child. She said she had called her "Metagama" after the boat she had travelled on.

Little Peggy who has come to live with her grand-aunt, Mrs. Michael Toner, wife of the Superintendent of the Art Gallery, seemed very happy in her new surroundings and was anxious to tell about her father and her brother and sisters, whom she has left behind in England.

Of her trip across she would say very little except that there was a swing on the ship, but her aunt explained that she had made a very good sailor, and had not suffered at all from seasickness. The child had been placed in charge of the Captain of the Metagama, by her father, who is an engineer in the British Navy, and in care of the stewardess, who was very kind to her, she journeyed to Canada. Little Peggy is a very pretty child with fair hair and rosy cheeks, and she proved the belle of the ship, said her aunt, many people calling out to her as she was leaving the boat "Won't you say good-bye to me Peggy?" She is quite a talkative young lady when her first shyness has worn off, and is quite happy here, although she has not been very well since she came.

She ought to be a good sailor, said her aunt as her grandfather has served for many years in the Navy. Little Peggy's mother died last July, but the child still talks of her and showed The Star reporter her photograph. Her father will come to Canada to live in six years' time when he has completed his term of service.

MAIL BOXES NOW ATTACKED BY THIEVES

Apartment dwellers, watch your mail boxes you will lose your mail, according to a lady resident of the Regent Apartments Aylesbury avenue. She had all her mail and a check for $30 stolen a few days ago. According to the report made to The Star this lady had been absent from the city for about ten days. She returned the day before yesterday. She was expecting a check for sixty dollars. Examining her mail box she found no mail. Inquiries were made from the firm who was sending her the check and she was informed the check had been mailed several days previously. The bank on whom the check was drawn was visited and the lady was surprised to see the bank produce the check, and on the back was a signature purporting to be hers. It was a forgery.

This lady informed The Star that this is not the first occasion that her mail box and those of residents of apartments in the same district have been robbed. As soon as the postman rings, she states, she rushes down to the mail box. If the owner is not quick, she says, the thieves are there first. Apparently they watch the postman.

CITY WATERWORKS BEING INSPECTED

Progress of Work Already Done by Water Board Reviewed

The work undertaken by the Montreal Water Board in ensuring a sufficient and assured supply of water for the citizens, is being inspected this afternoon by the members of the Administrative Commission, the Water Board, aldermen and others interested. The Board has been in existence a little over a year, and during that time has practically completed one half of the big project and made the connection with the main conduit, thus putting in half the possibilities of a break in the latter and at the same time increasing the supply of water considerably.

The second half of the aqueduct will be completed next year and [illegible] having already been awarded [illegible] from St. Lambert to the [illegible] Mountain. FURTHER DROP IN CANADIAN TRADE

Figures for May Show Heavy Decline Compared With Year Ago

EXPORTS ARE LOW

Falling Prices and Lowering of Business Activity the Main Factors

OTTAWA, June 15.— (By Canadian Press).—During the month of May, as compared with the same month of last year, Canadian trade took another heavy drop. Last month, total trade was $129,038,951 as compared with $193,739,038 in May, 1920, a reduction of $64,700,087. For the two months of the fiscal year ending May, total trade was 1921, $238,425,568; 1920, $345,900,272, a reduction of $107,474,764.

Exports of domestic merchandise last month were $59,567,992, in comparison with $77,342,578 in May, 1920. Agricultural and vegetable products classified as mainly foods were the only domestic merchandise to show an increase. They totalled $26,417,669 in comparison with $19,772,559 in May, 1920. For the two months of the fiscal year also, they showed an increase, namely: 1921, $43,032,631; 1920, $32,494,672.

Principal exports of domestic merchandise for the month of May in the two years compare as follows:

	May, 1920	May, 1921
Animals and animal products	$13,758,894	$9,726,650
Iron and steel and manufactures thereof	6,645,800	3,030,082
Ores, Metals and metal manufactures other than iron and steel	3,649,890	1,727,986
Non-metallic minerals and products	3,356,589	1,703,330
Wood, wood products, paper, and manufactures	21,573,330	13,777,894

Duty collected on imports in May, 1920 was $19,920,885; in May, 1921, $9,992,488. In the two months ending May, it was: 1920, $37,246,202; 1921, $20,209,016.

Under the head of dutiable imports the greatest reduction was in fibres, textiles and textile products. In May, 1920, dutiable imports of this class were valued at $20,424,999; in May, 1921, at $6,074,871. In iron and steel and manufactures thereof dutiable imports dropped from $17,801,088 in May, 1920 to $10,244,014 in May, 1921; free imports in this class from $3,503,858 in May, 1920 to $1,078,-655. Free imports of non-metallis minerals and products increased from $4,927,859 in May, 1920 to $7,139,-484 in May, 1921.

Grand totals for May in the two years are:

	May, 1920	May, 1921
Merchandise entered for consumption	$113,320,690	$58,304,986
Merchandise domestic, exported	77,342,578	59,567,992
Totals	$190,663,277	$127,872,978
Merchandise, foreign, exported	$3,075,761	$1,165,973
Grand total Canadian trade	193,739,038	129,038,951

The decline in volume of trade does not come unexpectedly. Falling prices and general lowering of business activity throughout the world are regarded here as the main factors. In fact, a lower revenue from customs was provided for in the budget submitted to the House by Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance. Sir Henry then estimated that customs revenue for the present fiscal year would amount—if based on existing fiscal legislation — to $135,000,000. This, in comparison with a customs revenue of $163,000,000 in the previous fiscal year.

MENTION DOHERTY FOR COURT POST

Generally Expected He Will Represent Canada on International Tribunal

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15 — (From Our Own Correspondent) — The appointment of a Canadian "National Group", to make nominations for the Canadian representative on the Permanent Court of International Justice, is believed to presage the ultimate retirement from the Cabinet of Rt. Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice. The qualifications for the position call for a man of "recognized judicial standing" and, as an ex-judge, Mr. Doherty is considered to measure up in that regard. He is also thoroughly bilingual and was at the Peace Conference at Versailles and at the League Assembly in Geneva last fall. With Sir George Foster he will go there again at the end of August. The court will be elected at that assembly.

Should Mr. Doherty get the position, with which his name is commonly associated in the gossip here, Hon. Hugh Guthrie would probably become Minister of Justice, while Irish Catholic representation in the Cabinet would likely go to Dr. Robert Manion, M.P., for Fort William.

The common expectation is that the coming fall will see a measure, more or less extensive, of Cabinet reconstruction in connection with which men like J. A. Stewart of Lanark, Col. Currie, of North Simcoe, W. A. Boys, of South Simcoe, and H. H. Stevens, of Vancouver, are mentioned. Rumor is revived now and then of a "reconciliation" which would pave the way for the re-entry to the Cabinet of Hon. Robert Rogers and the Senatorial appointment of Hon. J. A. Calder, but nothing confirmatory of that prospect is obtainable here.

EXPRESS DISBELIEF OF FAITH HEALING

Dr. Salem Bland, However, Tells Methodist Conference of Some Cases

ORILLIA, Ont., June 15. In a discussion of faith healing at the Toronto Methodist Conference here yesterday some of the ministers expressed doubts of the genuineness of so-called healing by faith, and some expressed disbelief. Rev. Dr. Salem Bland, Toronto, who referred to Christian science as "a lop-sided faith," claimed that some persons possessed the gift of healing by faith.

"I have encountered in my experience," said Dr. Bland, "a number of such cases of healing. I know a young man in the West who had the gift, and the church seemed to have no place for him. There is the gift of healing, and our church should not be found lacking in respect of it."

The question of faith healing came up in a report on the state of the work, submitted by Dr. Bland, which asked that "due honor and exercise" be given the "ministry of healing." The report was adopted.

The conference extended congratulations to eight ministers who had reached the fiftieth anniversary of their entry into the ministry, as follows:

C. Lankford, Toronto; Henry Berry, Barrie; N. Wellwood, Richmond Hill; A. B. Haines, Toronto, Wm. Buchanan, North Bay; Thos. W. Glover, Toronto; Dr. Robert Burns, Toronto, and Samuel Sellery, Toronto. The first four ministers were present.

DOMINION ADVISERS TO BRITAIN URGED

Hon. J. W. Lowther Suggests Permanent Officials Be Resident in London

TAKE UP PROBLEMS

British Cabinet Needs to Consult with Representatives

TORONTO, June 15.—Right Hon. James W. Lowther, former Speaker of the British House of Commons, addressing the Empire Club here yesterday, expressed the opinion that each of the Dominions should have a minister resident in London, Eng., for the purpose of advising the British Parliament of conditions and movements in the Dominions.

"I should think," said Mr. Lowther, "that it would be desirable for the Dominions to have a permanent minister in London to discuss matters with the members of the British Cabinet as they arise and not after difficulties have grown grave. It is only by conferences and mutual interchange of ideas that we can all jointly follow the same policy and prevent serious divergence.

"I think that there are two main principles that should be followed in the matter of the relationships of the Dominions and the Mother Country. One is the complete autonomy of both the Dominions and the United Kingdom. The other, I believe, is that any suggestion of change in the relationships of the Dominions and the United Kingdom—and I think that there must be some changes as time goes on—must come from the Dominions themselves.

"There has been in times gone by much talk of what was called Imperial Federation. The difficulties imposed by time and space would militate against the success of such a scheme and in the British House of Commons there is a continuous struggle for power, for who shall be top dog, that would be no concern of the Dominions.

"I think that perhaps in a reformed House of Lords something after the manner of the Senate, with which I see you are familiar—there would be a place for representatives from the Dominions. This could be made a large representative and consultative committee that would serve to unite the Empire.

"I see that this suggestion is not well received, but perhaps you have not as high an opinion of the House of Lords as I have. I assure you that it is quite as illustrious a body as the House of Commons and that its debates attain quite as high a standard as those in the Lower House. There is indeed, no reason why the House of Lords should not render a very valuable service to the Empire.

"I do feel strongly that the British Cabinet should have the opportunity of consulting as often as possible with members or a permanent representative of the Dominions. Let us at all events be carreful how we tinker with the old constitution that has been a thousand years in the making, and remember that we are citizens of one great Empire. You, at all events, from your name, are not afraid of world empire. I have met people in Canada who were and preferred the term, a commonwealth of nations, so to please them, let us call it a commonwealth of nations."

WILL HE MAKE IT?

COMPLETE AUTONOMY FOR ALBERTA MINERS

Convention Accepts Conditions of International Executive Board

CALGARY, Alta., June 15.—(Canadian Press.)—Full and complete autonomy is to be restored to Alberta and Eastern British Columbia miners, District No. 18, United Mine Workers of America, whose charter was suspended in 1919 when the One Big Union leaders got control. This was fully foreshadowed at the opening session of the convention of miners of this district here yesterday with the passing of a resolution accepting conditions laid down by the international executive board of the United Mine Workers of America and the "pledging of support and co-operation to the end that harmony and co-operation between the various branches of the organization may be obtained."

The adoption of this resolution followed an address by John P. White, of Des Moines, Iowa, ex-president of the United Mine Workers of America, who dealt with the work achieved for the miners by his association.

HUGE MACKEREL CATCHES.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 15.—Information received last week from Capt. William Milne, of Shediac, commander of the Canadian Government steamer Arleux and from Captain Barkhouse, commander of the Government steamer Arras that immense schools of mackerel were heading in the direction of the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Straits of Northumberland was soon verified by the Gloucester county fishermen who have made some of the largest mackerel catches ever known there.

DIRECTOR OF CHILD WELFARE.

TORONTO, Ont., June 15.—Rev. Peter Bryce, a Methodist minister of this city, has been appointed by the Social Service Council of Ontario, Director of Child Welfare for the Province of Ontario. He will attend conference on child welfare in London and Brussels, Belgium, before assuming his new duties.

BELGIAN MARKET FOR CANADIAN TOBACCO

Buyer Tells Ontarioans That Country Could Take Whole Crop

CHATHAM, Ont., June 15.—Capt. Brooke Booth, a tobacco buyer from Belgium, addressing the meeting of the Kent County Council yesterday afternoon, advised Western Ontario growers to prepare their tobacco for the European market, stating that if the proper care in handling the tobacco from this country were exercised there would be no trouble in selling the whole output in Belgium. This is a splendid year to make a start, he contended, as the tobacco crop in the States is a great failure caused through a disease of the leaf.

VANCOUVER, June 15. — The wholesale price of refined sugar was reduced here yesterday from $10.75 to $10.25 a hundred pounds.

HUNDREDS IN POSTAL DEPARTMENT TO GO

Result of Reorganization Under Way by Experts

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15. — (From Our Own Correspondent)—Under the scheme of postal reorganization being worked out by the Griffenhagen firm of efficiency experts, four hundred employes of the Postal Department are stated to be dispensed with, about 180 in the inside service at Ottawa and the remainder outside. The changes are being made from day to day. Some difficulty is being experienced with the retirements projected as regards the retiring allowances.

While the scale under the so-called Calder Act would be applied, the retirements would not be directly under that statute and, if not, some obstacles have to be overcome. The matter is being dealt with by a Cabinet subcommittee.

WORKERS WANT BEER SOLD IN QUEBEC CITY

Premier Taschereau Tells Delegation Matter in Federal Hands

QUEBEC, Que., June 15.—(Star Special).—A delegation comprising about fifteen representatives of the Federated Council of Trades and Labor waited on Premier Taschereau yesterday afternoon to ask that steps be immediately taken to allow the sale of beer in the city of Quebec. A very energetic stand was taken by the members of the delegation, who were not accompanied by any Members of Parliament, but who took their stand personally following a meeting called yesterday evening.

Premier Taschereau stated that the matter was in the hands of the Federal authorities, and that as far as the Government was concerned it was quite evident that beer was favored since special legislation to that effect had been adopted at the last session of the Legislature. Consequently he suggested that the best means of getting results was to petition the Federal authorities to call for a referendum immediately.

As a result of the interview a special meeting of the unions has been called for this evening. On Friday a huge delegation of all labor interests will wait on Mayor Samson and ask him to take all necessary steps for the sale of beer and wine in the city.

NEW RULING BY CUSTOMS BOARD

Clears Up Uncertainty Caused by Recently Enacted Amendments

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—(By Canadian Press)—In view of the uncertainly occasioned by the recently enacted amendments to the Customs Act, the Board of Customs has ruled, effective as from June 6, that:

"In determining the value for customs duty purposes of goods entered for warehouse prior to June 6, and entered ex warehouse for consumption on and after that date, the provisions of Section Ninety of the Customs Act shall apply, as follows:

'Duty shall be payable in all cases on the quantity and value of goods in the warehouse as ascertained and stated on first entry, or as originally warehoused.'

"It is understood, nevertheless, that the provisions of the act to amend the special War Revenue Act, 1915, in effect from May 10, 1921, as respecting tax on sales, apply to all such importations when entered ex-warehouse for consumption."

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 15. — At the 33rd annual meeting of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Association here, George O. Spencer, of Moncton, was elected president, and W. R. Rodd, of Moncton, secretary.

COLGATE'S
TALC POWDER
"Light as Colgate's Talc"— passed through a silken mesh
IMAGINE a spider's web which only the shining dew makes clear—then imagine a silkworm's thread as fine.
Imagine a mesh formed by thousands of such gossamer-like threads contained within a single square inch. Conceive this weave to be so fine, so fine that only dust of flower-bloom, or powder as microscopic, could sift through it.
Through so incredibly minute a filter Colgate's Talc is passed. By what other means could come its delicate, breath-like quality—its airiness lighter than thistledown, lighter than gossamer?
To the tender, sun-sensitive or wind-whipped skin what can be more gratefully cooling, what be gentler or more fragrant than Colgate's Talc?
What talc, while adding its charm to the complexion, merges with it as does Colgate's Talc?
So fine, so very fine it is.
And perfumed to your liking.

"OH CHILDREN! For me! But it's—it's lovely enough for a girl of twenty."
"Huh! You're heaps nicer'n any silly girl," scoffed the youngest son with the unshaken loyalty of fourteen years.
Hitherto mother's gifts had been purely practical—middle-aged. But this birthday was different. "I'd love to be young again, just to have a wrist watch," mother had chanced to say one day. She had forgotten, but her children had remembered, and the best and loveliest wrist watch they could buy was now their tribute of love.

"Put it on, mother," and a happy light shone in youthful eyes as they saw the beautiful little Elgin on the wrist of the dearest mother in the world.

CONCETTA BARUCCO FOUND NOT GUILTY

Submits with Composure to Severe Cross-Examination by Crown

JUDGE'S CHARGE

Jury Remained Out Only Eighteen Minutes

After only eighteen minutes' deliberation, Concetta Barucco, wife of Antonio di Francesco, was found not guilty of the charge of murder of Salvatore Marandoli by the jury sitting in Court of King's Bench late yesterday afternoon. The trial lasted two days, and a great number of witnesses were heard, including the accused herself.

When the afternoon session opened, the woman was brought back to the stand and for half an hour was submitted to a grilling examination by the Crown, during which she maintained the composure which marked her demeanor in the Court throughout the trial. She consistently held to the story she had told in the interrogation by her counsel, Leonce Plante.

The only other witness called in the afternoon was Dr. Wilfrid Derome, specialist in nervous diseases of Paris University and expert autopsist at the Morgue, who was recalled by the defence and clearly and emphatically explained that the pathological effect of the woman's condition at the time of the shooting was such as to render her able to commit acts that she would otherwise never have thought of doing.

Addressing the jury in both French and English, the defence made an able and stirring plea for acquittal, pointing out that the woman had evidently shot the man, who was a lodger at the house, a utter fear and in defense of her honor after having been assailed and threatened with death at the point of a revolver.

D. A. Lefortune, K.C., presenting the Crown side of the case, was inclined to doubt that part of the woman's story in which she declared that the man had threatened her with a revolver, and based his argument on the assumption that the danger of attack was not imminent at the time the woman confesses she shot Marandoli.

Mr. Justice Monet, reviewing the evidence and explaining the code on the matter, told the jury that, under the circumstances, only one verdict could reasonably be rendered, that of not guilty, if the act was found justified in any way.

Aime Leblanc acted as counsel to the attorney for the defence, Leonce Plante.

The address in medicine will be delivered by Dr. D. L. Richardson, superintendent of Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, R.I., and that in surgery by Dr. Hugh Cabot, Ann Arbor, Mich.

THINKS RAILWAY BUILT TOO SOON

J. J. Sullivan Continues Evidence Before Arbitration Board

Evidence touching the Grand Trunk Pacific was continued at yesterday's session of the Grand Trunk arbitration, when J. J. Sullivan, railway engineer and consulting engineer, resumed his evidence of the millions required for maintenance and betterments. A considerable time was spent on argument as to just what "extraordinary" maintenance meant, Sir Thomas White, Government arbitrator, declaring there was no such thing, and that it should be either ordinary maintenance or deferred maintenance. Pierce Butler, counsel for the Crown, finally explained that this expression covered the replacement of wooden trestles, by fills and permanent bridges, and the renewal of ties.

About $19,704,000 was Mr. Sullivan's estimate of the total that would be required between now and 1925 merely to put the road in good operating condition, not to bring it to the standard originally planned. He thought the G. T. R. had been built a hundred years before its time.

It was good railway practice, said witness, first of all to instal wooden trestles, in order to get the line into operation, and now it would be necessary to complete the construction of the line by substituting permanent structures. The expenditure he recommended on this account would not increase the earning powers, but was necessary to keep it in good operating condition. Moreover, the line could not pay for this expenditure out of earnings, and the G.T.P. had not the money to meet it.

STAGE AND SCREEN

THE stupidity of the existing form of motion picture censorship is gradually being borne in upon many of its former most strenuous advocates. A few of their methods may go far to convince the public. Public determination will do the trick, doubtless—in due course. This is no age in which to hurry.

The Paramount Eastern studio staff of specialists is feeling a bit absurd since the following letter was received at the studio: "I ain't hard to please anything. I'm brave to jump off a dock, can swim and stay at least one minute and a half under water. I pose well and I'm 17 years old. I'm five feet tall and weigh 107 pounds. I have to play writer, too, but Now I'd like to be an Actor."

Wendell McMahill, managing director of the talking pictures at the Capitol Hall, has recently completed talkies of tures by Dr. Frank Crane, Jules Arthur, the well-known Canadian lecturer, and Lucy Gates, giving Broadway a chautauqua all its own. Dr. Crane gives a lecture with a moral. Mr. Arthur gives a reading, "When Knighthood Was in Flower." Miss Gates sings some ballads. Dr. Crane will appear in a series of talking pictures. The announcement that Jules Arthur has made a record for the talking pictures is noteworthy, says the N.Y. Tribune. This actress, who is well known in England, where she played next to Miss Terry, will be heard by many for the first time in the talkies.

"Where do I go from here?" pointedly asks Charles S. Gilpin in the June issue of the American Magazine. This negro actor, who has scored so great a personal success in Eugene O'Neill's drama, "The Emperor Jones," cannot profit by that success unless someone turns up quickly with a play containing a great negro part, and even the most casual observer knows how few theme plays are. As a result, Gilpin's future is a problem. He has had a thorough training, at that, and his success is not merely a freak. In his time he has played in all kinds of companies from the old-fashioned minstrel show and negro stock companies to a great success like Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln." Aside from "Lincoln," however, and "The Emperor Jones," he has had no other parts on the "white stage." It was his performance as Curtis in the Drinkwater play that won for him his chance to play in the O'Neill drama.

When the Duke of Connaught went to India, his party included two cinematographers, commissioned to obtain a complete pictorial record of the tour. They brought back 30,000 ft. of negative, but as it would be impossible to show it all, the Film Booking Offices, Limited, have cut it down to a 6,000 ft. film of absorbing interest. Extremely interesting glimpses are given of every ceremony of importance in which the Duke of Connaught took part, but equally fascinating are the details of Indian life and customs which are woven into the film. There are some of the best pictures which have ever been taken of the Burning Pryes of the Sacred Dead at Benares, and of the actual ceremony of cremation. Almost equally interesting are the views of the 50-mile journey on the Darjeeling-Himalaya Railway, which has no straight run exceeding 100 yards. There are glimpses of the great Tata steel and iron works, which employ 44,000 workpeople, with a bird's-eye view from one of the giant chimneys which conveys an impression of the size of the works. The cotton industry is also fully illustrated. Highly successful pictures were obtained of a tiger hunt in which the Duke of Connaught took part, and in which a magnificent beast more than 9 ft. long was secured. Even in a black-and-white film one is able to get a vivid impression of the beauties of Agra. An elephant fight is also shown. Of the actual pageants few are more effective than the review of the Camel Corps, with more than 1,000 animals on parade.

The closing of "Deburau" by David Belasco, and his announcement that this play would never be sent on tour because of expense of transportation, led the dramatic editor of the New York Times to publish some figures about the extent to which costs have risen in the theatre. Bigger productions than "Deburau" have been sent out in the past by Mr. Belasco himself, but, says Mr. Kaufman, "the point is that expenses of carrying a production on the road have gone sky high." It costs twice as much to take "Deburau" to Baltimore for a try-out as it would cost in 1916. In the latter year it cost $6 a load to haul scenery and trunks from the Belasco theatre to the Pennsylvania station. The price today, for the same service, is $25. Lithographic printing has doubled in price since 1916, the price of canvas for scenery has advanced 500 per cent, etc. Under these circumstances, the producer such as William Harris, Jr., should have credit for keeping in circulation such plays as "Abraham Lincoln" — a production, by the way, that contains fifty speaking parts, and is, therefore expensive—particularly when the moderate scale of $2.50 is charged for "Lincoln" at all times. Only the enthusiastic support of the American public with capacity houses make such a tour possible.

Storm scenes in motion pictures are by no means unusual, but William Christy Cabane steps forth with the claim that his latest special, "Live and Let Live," unreels by all odds the most furious storm ever converted to film.

Mr. Cabane says he took greater pains with this scene than has ever heretofore been lavished on storm "shots" in motion pictures. How the episode was filmed is of interest, for it gives an inkling of the care and caution used in the making of "Live and Let Live." An entire city block was marked off for the use of Mr. Cabane. Then were set up batteries of wind machines strong enough to blow a terrific gale. Fire hose and lights were set in position and then the week began. The downpour deluged the neighborhood, the "lightning flashed as it came straight from the blue heavens above, and the winds blew with almost as much vigor as a Kansas cyclone. Five cameras were used in recording the action and the scene was done over again to ensure its perfection.

Harry Ham, well known in Canada and Europe, is taking an important part in the new production for the Canadian Producers, which has been adapted for the screen by Miss Mary O'Connor from an original story by E. Phillips Oppenheim. Following appearances in several pictures with Mabel Janis, he was with the Chaplin comedies. Subsequently, he played opposite with Mary Pickford, Betty Compson, Alice Joyce, Peggy Hyland and other well-known stars, until the war interrupted his screen career. Mr. Ham served with the Canadian forces in France.

EXPLORATIONS FEATURE OF CAMP

Agaming, Situated at Lac Archambault, Has Many Activities

A boys' summer camp that is not as widely known as some other movements for the benefit of boys, although it has been in existence since 1906, and is attended yearly by an average of some 50 boys, is Camp Agaming in the Laurentians, operated exclusively for boys attending schools.

Camp Agaming is under the direction of C. P. Fowler, physical director in the Montreal High School, who has been at the head of it since it moved to its present site, Lac Archambault, from Lake St. Joseph, where it had previously been situated. With the removal of the camp, greater scope in activities was possible, owing to the site at Agaming being larger. Only boys who are pupils of a school are eligible to attend.

Lac Archambault is seven miles long, situated 25 miles north of Ste. Agathe.

Camp Agaming has one of the finest if not the finest, sandy beaches in the Laurentians, stretching for a lateral extent of half a mile, and sloping gradually to a depth of six feet about 100 yards from shore, ensuring safe swimming and canoeing for the boys. The accommodation consists of 100 acres of wood and field and a clearing for games, club house with piano, dining pavilion, boat house, kitchen, tents, boats, canoes, dinghies, motor boat and diving pier and two complete explorer's outfits.

The present management has governed Camp Agaming since its inception, and the experience it has gained in the years since that time enables it to offer a limited number of real boys a very pleasant and profitable holiday. Everything that can be done for their welfare, physical and moral, is carefully attended to. Under existing conditions the boys find ample opportunity to participate in various forms of outdoor activity, and the management endeavors so to plan events that their interest is always keen.

They are encouraged to learn to swim, row and paddle, and learning to do these, they are given every opportunity to sail and to compete in aquatic sports in inter-ten competitions. The motto "Each for All" is lived up to by each boy, and as a result it changes its wording and strengthens its significance by becoming "All for Each."

A special feature of life at Camp Agaming is the exploration trips throughout the surrounding country, which are made very thorough, involving tramps from lake to lake, tracing rivers to their sources and making use of lumber trails to reach new country, still keeping in bounds of vigorous forests unravaged by fire. It is during such explorations that the boys have rare opportunities given them to develop their natural talents in the line of initiative and adaptability, their powers of observation, self-reliance and mutual consideration thus being trained to a high degree. Some 200 lakes and about 16 rivers have explored and mapped by boys from Camp Agaming since its inception two explorations trips have extended from the camp to Montreal.

Special trips are organized for the younger boys so that they may enjoy the "sleeping out" without the necessary experience and ability which make possible the three, or four, or five day excursions of their older brothers.

ECOLE TECHNIQUE CLOSES TOMORROW

The tenth session of the Ecole Technique, Sherbrooke street west, will be brought to a close tomorrow at the annual distribution of prizes, during which 19 students will receive diplomas. The school opened its doors first in 1911 to both French and English-speaking students, offering both day and night courses. One hundred students registered the first session for the day courses and 333, of which 237 were French-speaking, were in attendance this year. The increase was particularly noticeable during the past two years, French students always being in the majority.

In the evening classes a slight decrease in number was observed this year, owing to the fact that a large number of firms were employing smaller staffs and had ceased to send the former large numbers for special training in the evening. Until this year the English section outnumbered the French. The registration figures for the past session show 334 English students and 440 French. The total number of students attending the school during the ten years was 1,981.

More than 3,000 students of the Protestant and Catholic School Boards have visited the various departments of the school during the past session. After the prize-giving tomorrow an exhibition of work done in the classes will be held in order that all interested in technical education may form an idea of the training given in the school.

WOMEN CONVENE AT MACDONALD

The annual meeting of the Women's Institutes of the Province of Quebec opened today at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue with delegates from the 55 branches in this province attending. Miss Armstrong, of Shawville, provincial president, took the chair. Dr. F. C. Harrison, principal of Macdonald College, gave the address of welcome, to which Miss Armitage, of Lennoxville, replied on behalf of the delegates. The program for the various sessions which will continue until tomorrow afternoon, includes the reception of reports from the various sectional committees and from Miss Eleanor M. Roach, superintendent of the Quebec Women's Institutes, and the president's address. Rev. Canon Shorford and Rev. Dr. Dickie, special speakers for the meeting, will deal with aspects of the work in which the members of the Institutes are particularly interested.

ORMSTOWN LIVE STOCK SHOW.

Entries are filling up rapidly for the 12th annual Live Stock Show of the Live Stock Breeders' Association of Beauharnois, to be held at Ormstown, June 14, 15, 16 and 17. W. G. McGeorge, secretary, reports entries from many prominent exhibitors this year including shorthorn cattle from the Greatwood Farm, Plainfield, Vermont, two car loads of shorthorns from John Miller, Ashburn, Ont.; Dr. J. A. Ste. Marie, Hull, saddle and carriage horses; Miss Viau, Montreal, South Bros., Montreal, saddle and carriage horses; R. J. Mercur, Montreal, Holsteins; E. C. Busby, Montreal, Ayrshire cattle, A. Ayer, Bowmanville, Ont., 60 entries of sheep; G. H. Monk & Son, Little Britton, sheep and swine. This will be the largest Exhibition yet held in Ormstown.

THREE RIVERS' NEW HOTEL.

THREE RIVERS, June 15.—(Star Special)—The $500,000 hotel here for tourists will be constructed on Notre Dame street, within view on the river, according to statements made to the city council by C. B. Hibbard, representing the St. Francis Bond Co., Montreal, bond dealers, who came here to ask for an exemption of $75,000 on the valuation tax. This exemption must be sanctioned by a provincial order-in-council, Mr. Hibbard was told.

MUSICAL NOTES

In the Auditorium of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday evening the pupils of Professor Emile Taranto—the well known master of the violin—held their annual musical recital.

The ease, lack of self-consciousness and technical skill shown by the performers bore ample testimony to the careful tuition and patience that Professor Taranto had spent on his pupils. He received his reward in that every item on the programme was encored and that the audience plainly showed their appreciation of his efforts.

It is not always an easy thing to pick and choose amongst pupils at such a recital. But if judged by the volume of applause, special mention may be made of the efforts of Miss Gwyneth Hodgson, Mrs. Mead Clarke, Miss Olive Robert, Mlle A. Lasalle, Mr. E. Gour, Mr. L. Sicotte and Mr. J. Desjaurier.

Miss Gwyneth Hodgson, a dainty little tot of eight years, rendered "Badinage" in a way that indicated marked talent. Without slip or falter this child delighted the audience by the charm of her playing.

Mrs. Mead Clark, a mellow soprano, sang with great expression. Miss Olive Robert's violin solo, "Dance Espagnole", was played with ease, grace and confidence. Mlle Anette Lasalle, who gave a remarkable performance at the Windsor Hall two or three weeks ago, last night again proved her mastery of the violin. She played "Valse Caprice" by Wieniawski and "Preludium et Allegro" by Kreisler with astonishing mastery of tone and expression.

Mr. Emile Gour sang "The Birth of Morn" and so pleased his listeners that he had to respond to two encores. He has a clear and well-rounded tenor voice and his articulation is good.

Mr. Lucien Sicotte in "Ziguinerisen" revealed mastery over technical difficulties in a graceful manner. J. Deslaurier, a nine year old boy, played "Meditation" with pleasing tone.

Mrs. Frank Hodgson, who accompanied nearly every one of the artists throughout the recital is to be congratulated. The recital was brought to a conclusion by a duet "Concerto pour deux violons" by Sinding, played by Professor Taranto and Mlle Lasalle.

WELFARE SOCIETY LOSES J. B. DAWSON

General Secretary Accepts Position at New Haven, Conn.

At the board meeting of the Family Welfare Association yesterday afternoon, J. B. Dawson, announced his resignation from the position of general secretary of the Association, as he had been offered an appointment at New Haven, Conn.

Senator Lorne C. Webster, presided over the meeting, which professed regret at the loss of Mr. Dawson, who leaves to take up his new duties on September 1.

Prior to coming to Montreal in January 1919, Mr. Dawson had been with the Army Medical Corps in Boston, the Associated Charities in York, Penn., and the Associated Charities in Boston and was therefore able with his wide experience to thoroughly reorganize, during the two and a half years he has been here, the Charity Organization Society, which is the Family Welfare Association's former name. Now the society is in a stronger position than before.

Mr. Dawson, while in Montreal, has taken an active part in promoting the closer union of charitable and philanthropic societies and has been able to bring much influence to bear, as he is a founder member of the Montreal Council of Social Agencies and an executive member, chairman of the Dependency and Delinquency Division, on the executive committee of the Canadian Conference of Public Welfare and on the executive committee of the Committee of Sixteen. He is also a lecturer at McGill University. The offices of the Family Welfare Association have been moved from 70 Jeanne Mance street to Bumenthal Building, together with a big group of such agencies.

An informal discussion on the question of trying to secure federal exemption from taxation for charitable agencies ended in no decision being arrived at.

The committee appointed to find a new secretary consists of Senator Lorne C. Webster, Dr. Milton Hersey, Arthur Lyman, James Hutchison, J. G. Newman, I. P. Rexford, Mrs. Robert W. Reford and W. T. Trower.

SHORT CIRCUIT BLAMED.

Short circuit on the wires of an automobile is thought to have caused the fire which broke out in the garage at 221 Ontario street on Friday night. The fire was the subject of investigation at the Fire Commissioners' Office yesterday afternoon. Children playing with matches are blamed for the fire which broke out at the rear of 1419 Cadieux street on June 10, and which destroyed a coal shed. Rats gnawing at a box of matches in a drawer at 259 St. Catherine street east are blamed for the fire which occurred there on June 8. Damage in this case was slight.

MILITIA UNITS READY FOR CAMP

Local Regiments Will Not Go Under Canvas

Final preparations have now been completed for the opening of the summer training camp at St. Johns for cavalry units of the militia, and the camp will be opened today by the 13th Scottish Light Dragoons, with Major H. E. Eastman in command. They will be followed on June 25 by the 17th Duke of York's Royal Canadian Hussars, under Colonel J. B. White, D.S.O. During their stay they will have all the facilities of any military camp as the canvas will be erected adjoining the barracks where A Squadron of the Royal Canadian Dragoons will be stationed. There will also be available over 50 trained horses for the benefit of the volunteers.

On the Pointe Aux Trembles Ranges there will be a training camp for the Chateauguay Regiment, under Lieut.-Col. J. H. Chaballe, M.C., and for the Joliette Regiment, with Lieut.-Col. de Lanaudiere in command. The whole camp will be under the command of Colonel Dubuc commanding the 11th Brigade. It will be held from June 25 to July 3. D Company of the Royal Canadian Regiment of Montreal will go under canvas at the same time in order to be on hand to help in the training of these units. There will also be a series of inter-regimental competitions during the camp.

Other camps will be held as follows: The Eastern Townships Mounted Rifles at Ayer's Cliff from June 27 to July 5, under Colonel J. R. Wilson; the 53th and 81st Batteries under Colonel J. J. Penhale, D.S.O., at the Exhibition Grounds, Sherbrooke, from June 20 to June 25; the 24th (Granby) Battery under Major Pitfield, at Granby from June 26 to July 1.

The various city units will not go under canvas but will train at their respective headquarters in the city. It is estimated by military authorities that over 1,000 youths in all will take part in the summer training arrangements.

Wykeham House School closed for the summer vacation this morning. Mr. Holmes-Orr, as headmaster, distributed the prizes. NEW PASTORAL APPOINTMENT.

Rev. Father F. Perdereau, O.M.I., of St. Peter's Church, has been appointed superior and pastor of that church to succeed Rev. Father J. N. Dozois, who has resigned owing to ill-health. Father Perdereau was born at La Doree, France, in 1870. He was educated at Notre Dame de Sion in France and at the Gregorian University, Rome, entering the order of the Oblats de Marie Immaculee in 1888, at St. Gerlach, Holland, and taking his vows two years later in Rome. He was ordained priest in that city in 1894 by Cardinal Parocchi, afterwards becoming professor of philosophy at Benevent, Italy. In 1897 he came to Canada, occupying the position of professor of dogmatic theology in the school at Ottawa and later in the university. From 1899 to 1902 he served as almoner to the Sisters of Mercy in this city, since that time being connected with St. Peter's Church.

Ghosts Now Made To Order on Stage By a Polish Artist

PARIS, June 15. — (By Hiram K. Moderwell, Copyright.) — The problem of how to make ghosts on the theatrical stage has been solved by Mme. Boutkovsky, a Polish artist now working in Paris. She has demonstrated her discovery before invited guests at her studio. Besides making "this too, too solid flesh," to melt, she is able to transform scenery without moving it. This may result in greatly changing the production costs of current sorts of plays and permitting remarkable effects of magic hitherto unattained in the theatre.

The invention is based on the long-known principles of chromatics, by which certain colors are obliterated if the lights of certain other colors are thrown upon them. Thus, by merely changing the lights, Mme. Boutkivsky can make actors disappear from view or can transform scenery, making, for instance, an enchanted garden appear to grow out of a barnyard. The invention will have its first public trial next month in the Estava Theatre, Madrid, on the occasion of the first Spanish performance of Barry's "Mary Rose."

Dickens' Pickwick First Edition is Bought for $9,550

LONDON, June 15.—(Special Star-Ledger Cable. Copyright.) — Charles Sessler, of Philadelphia, rare book dealer, has purchased at Sothedy's the first copy issued of the first edition of Dickens' "Pickwick Papers" for 1910 pounds. This book, in Dickens' time, sold for $5.

Mr. Sessler informed your correspondent today that this book was one of the two finest copies of the "Pickwick" first edition in existence, with original illustrations by Seymour, Buss and Phiz.

Mr. Sessler bought also another first edition of "Pickwick" for 102 pounds, containing Dickens' autograph, dated May 1870, the last day he wits in his office. These books come from the Library of Henry William Bruton, who had the most famous Dickens' "Pickwick" collection in the world. Mr. Sessler sails on the Olympic today.

Germans Plan to Erect Colossal Film City Soon

BERLIN, June 15.—(Special Star-Ledger Cable. Copyright)—The White House, Niagara Falls and New York skyscrapers are among the international settings included in the new film city to be erected at a cost of one hundred and fifty million marks near Berlin.

Other scenes will be Japanese towns, the gulf of Naples, and the Egyptian Pyramids, in addition to hotels, theatres, circuses and race tracks.

Critics express the opinion that the scheme is too big to be realized "even by Germans," but the promoters insist it can and will be done.

PELLETIER BULL ON GREAT BRITAIN

Many British Farmers Coming to the Eastern Townships

OTHER VIEWS

Irish and Labor Discontent Kept Alive by Extremists

QUEBEC, June 15.—(Star Special)—"Immigration to the Province of Quebec is fifty times better this year than ever before," was the statement made by Hon. Dr. P. Pelletier, agent general for the Province of Quebec in England, in an interview with The Star today.

Hon. Dr. Pelletier said that a steady flow of Britishers into Quebec was expected until September. As all these new Quebecers were wanted on the farms and not in the urban districts very few would come after September.

"The season's showing has been auspicious," he stated. "We need farmers very badly as so many people are moving to the cities and towns, and Quebec cannot do better than get good Britishers to work the soil. The greater part of these immigrants are being sent to the Eastern Townships."

"Within a short time I am certain that more English capital will be invested in the Province, especially in the development of water power and in the pulp and paper industry. This Province is much better known since the late war, and there are big possibilities in trade with Great Britain. Mr. Godfroi Langlois, the Belgian representative, also reports very favorably of trading possibilities on the continent."

DEFENDS IDLE FOR IDLE.

Speaking of the situation in Great Britain, Dr. Pelletier said "The coal strike is still on with little prospect of settlement at the present moment. Over a million people are out of work, and as a consequence the Government has to pay between one and one and a half millions weekly to keep them going. If the Government had not done this, there might have been more serious consequences. The majority of the laborers are not to blame for the existing conditions. Most of them are heartily sick of strikes. It is a small but powerful body of extremists who control the union, which are all-powerful and those of the coal miners are the most radical. There is a certain amount of Bolshevism among these men."

"I do not think that the average laboring man wants to rule the country. He wishes to live decently and mind his own business. If these extremists could only be got under control the situation would rapidly improve. The capitalist and the laborer alike can do nothing when the coal is tied up."

NO DISCORD WITH FRANCE.

Hon. Dr. Pelletier stated in discussing the Irish question that if the southern Parliament does not convene and some step of a friendly nature is not made between the two legislatures, there is little hope of an immediate solution of the problem. The majority of the Irish people are opposed to the Sinn Fein extremists.

According to Mr. Pelletier, Lloyd George is facing tremendous issues. He is doing very well under the adverse circumstances and will certainly remain in power for a long time to come. A Labor Government is an impossibility.

On the question as to the feeling between Britain and France he stated that there is absolutely nothing in the reports of a strained relation between Lloyd George and Briand. They are in complete accord and the Franco-British alliance will last for all time.

25,000,000 Francs For Gaming House At Chateau Thierry

PARIS, June 15.—It is reported that the municipal council at Chateau Thierry has voted to construct a twenty-five million franc gambling casino, which would be the nearest one to Paris legally operated. The law forbids a gambling establishment within a sixty-mile radius of Paris and now the famous town of Chateau Thierry is just beyond the limit. In addition to being one of the most advertised names in Paris.

FAREWELL GIFT TO THE DUCHESS OF DEVONSHIRE

Wives of Federal Cabinet Members Present Silver Casket

OTTAWA, June 15.—The wives of the Federal Cabinet Ministers yesterday presented, as a farewell gift, to the Duchess of Devonshire, a silver casket with the Canadian coat of arms enamelled thereon and lined with grey satin.

The presentation was made at Government House by Lady Foster, wife of the acting premier, in the absence of Mrs. Meighen. Lady Foster expressed the regret of the Cabinet Ministers wives over the departure of Her Excellency and their appreciation of "the tender sympathy shown by you during all the times of storm and stress through which we have passed together."

COLLECTIVE PLAN IN DAIRY INDUSTRY

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 15. — A modified application of the principle of collective bargaining in the dairying industry was advocated by E. H. Stonehouse, of Weston, Ont., president of the Ontario Milk and Cream Producers' Association, in an address at the annual meeting of the district association here yesterday.

Mr. Stonehouse suggested as a means of ensuring the dairy farmer a fair and uniform price for his product throughout the year the establishment of factories in various sections of the country, equipped to manufacture butter or cheese, or facilities to ship whole milk. A modified form of collective bargaining, he said, would be preferable to pooling.

STORM DOES GREAT DAMAGE AT NEVILLE

REGINA, Sask., June 15.—Scores of windows were broken, sidewalks washed away, stocks in stores damaged, and the crops set back a week or ten days by a terrific rain and hail storm that broke over Neville, Sask., 30 miles southeast of Moose Jaw, Monday night. A strip of territory thirty miles wide and 100 miles long, with Neville about the centre, was covered by the storm, during which hail stones as big as hen's eggs fell. The loss will amount to several thousands of dollars.

FIND TRUE BILL AGAINST LODER

PICTOU, N.S., June 15. — After deliberations lasting for several hours, the grand jury at the criminal trial sittings of the Supreme Court, which opened here yesterday morning, found a true bill against George E. Loder, of Summerside, P.E.I., charged with the murder of an aged resident of Pictou, Daniel Barry. Loder's trial will open here today, Mr. Justice Russell presiding.

LAY CORNERSTONE AT LOUVAIN.

NEW YORK, June 15. — Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, accompanied by his wife and daughter, sailed on the Aquitania yesterday for Europe, where he will lay the cornerstone of the rebuilt library of the University of Louvain, destroyed by the German army in 1914.

WANT PROVINCIAL CEMENT PLANT

QUEBEC, June 15. — A delegation of members of the Legislature and of mayors of the Province of Quebec will wait on Premier Taschereau shortly, asking for the establishment of a provincial cement plant.

TEST VALIDITY OF LIQUOR EXPORTERS

Injunction, Good Till Saturday, Stops Seizures in Ottawa

OTTAWA, June 15. — (Canadian Press). — The validity of liquor exporters doing business in the Province of Ontario is to be tested in the courts. An interim injunction restraining Provincial and local police officers from seizing warehouse liquor stocks in Ottawa was granted yesterday by Judge Gunn on the application of W. L. Scott and George Kelley, acting on behalf of William G. McIntyre, liquor exporter from Ontario and the Great West Wine Company, of Ottawa. The injunction holds good until Saturday when a motion will be made before a supreme court judge in weekly court to continue it and make it permanent.

In addition to the injunction secured by the solicitor for McIntyre and the Great West Wine Company, another action was commenced by Mr. A. E. Fripp, K.C., acting on behalf of the estate of William George against Liquor Inspector Howard Graham and calls for the return of $80,000 worth of liquor which was seized by the inspectors at 354 Wellington street a few days ago.

The action which was commenced by the issuance of a writ in the office of the Local Master also asks for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with business carried on by the George Estate as export liquor dealers. It also asks for an unstated amount of damages and claims that the seizure was made illegally.

ASBESTOS MEN MEET PREMIER.

QUEBEC, June 15. — Representatives from leading asbestos companies waited on Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Prime Minister of Quebec, at 11.30 a.m. yesterday, the delegation being composed of W. G. Ross, Montreal, vice-president of Asbestos Mining Operators of Quebec; J. R. Waddell, of Montreal, vice-president Consolidated Asbestos Company, Limited; D. H. Pennington, of Quebec, proprietor, Pennington Asbestos Company, and others.

A strong plea was presented in favor of revoking the 5 per cent royalty on the asbestos output of the Province of Quebec.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

SASKATOON, Sask., June 15. — At 3 o'clock Monday morning Frank Lubockl, an Austrian laborer, was shot and killed in a barn near Funnichy, Sask. Four and one-half hours later Paul Paschuk, a fellow workman, was arrested in connection with the shooting. At 2 p.m. the inquest was held and immediately following it Paschuk was given a preliminary hearing and committed for trial on a charge of murder.

THE HOLY LAND AND "THE BLESSED WORD."

THOSE who are in any doubt as to the wisdom of British policy in supporting Jewish aspirations in Palestine, in spite of the fact—to quote Mr. Winston Churchill—that it may "conflict with Great Britain's regular policy of consulting the wishes of the people in the territories under her mandate," should go to Palestine and take a look at the native Arabs. Over there, they call them "Bedouins". A Bedouin is a nomadic or desert Arab, and the application of that term to Arabs who really live in villages indicates pretty clearly what the European residents of the country think of their mentality.

It would be, of course, entirely unfair to judge the capacity of these Palestine Arabs for rapid development into a people capable of partial or entire self-government by the condition in which Turkish tyranny and suppression have left them. The Arab race has in it elements of unlimited promise. Under favoring circumstances, it blossomed into a fine and creative civilization in Egypt. The Moors, who filled the south of Spain with their monuments of beauty, were a considerable distance removed from the Arab of the Near East, but they were of the same stock and inspired by the same religion.

But the question is not what the Bedouins of the Holy Land may become, but what they are today; and there is no manner of doubt that they are immensely inferior in mental attainments and the power to govern themselves to the Jews who are already in the land or at all likely to go there. The expressed fear of Central European Jews is equally ridiculous; for even these people are much better equipped to manage a state than are the Bedouins, who still till the soil with a crooked stick and have been mentally maimed by centuries of Turkish misrule.

* * * *

British policy is to encourage the Jews to found in Palestine a Jewish State where the harried, robbed and "pogromed" Jews of lands where Christians think to prove their religion by persecuting the defenceless, can go and find an asylum. It is expressly declared, however, that the rights of the native populations shall be safeguarded. The religious privileges enjoyed by all the Christian sects are also to be protected. The British suzerain—if the League of Nations will allow us to employ an old term which, after all, may not turn out to be so very inaccurate—will hold the scales of justice and right evenly for the entire population of Palestine.

Then the security of the Arab majority will enjoy another buttress. There will be two semi-independent Arab States abutting on Palestine, and it will be the serious concern of British policy to keep on good terms with both of them. Any persecution of the Arabs in the British "protectorate" of Palestine would bring immediate repercussion among the militant Arabs of the Hedjaz and the newly organized Arab tribes of Mesopotamia. Moreover, any such attack upon the local Arabs would have its religious side, and would summon to their support all Islam from Morocco to Mandalay.

The Jews of Palestine are going to be far too shrewd to challenge any such deluge of religious rancour—just as they will be too shrewd to antagonize Christendom by interfering in any way with her control of the Holy Places. There is an abundance of room for them to establish rich agricultural colonies and busy industrial centres without taking an acre of land from a solitary Bedouin. Palestine is a country which has been allowed to fall into something like utter ruin. The denuded and barren hills still carry signs of the old stone terraces which once supported fat vineyards and endless olive groves, created by the industry of this very Jewish race which we are always being told has no genius for cultivating the soil. It is forgotten that they made this same narrow strip of mountain and plain a land of milk and honey, of grape and olive, of corn and wool and cattle upon a thousand hills.

Britain has fallen into no mistake in throwing her shield over a Jewish State which may easily become, through intelligent self-interest, one of the pillars of her Empire.

* * * *

The case of Mesopotamia is more on traditional lines. The British are simply setting up a native State for which they will be guide, philosopher and friend. Incidentally, they will protect it and its important sources of wealth such as oil, from outside exploitation. Mr. Churchill says that there is no need for a British bastion there to defend India, and he is undoubtedly right. But it will not weaken our hold on India to have a friendly State in the Valley of the Euphrates and at the head of the Persian Gulf. It will also tend to keep Persia from risking too much on a Bolshevik gamble.

Still, it is to cost the British taxpayer under normal conditions, yet to be reached, some ten million pounds a year. It is not to be presumed that he is to pay this for nothing. One thing he will get will be security against seeing some hostile power settled in the "blessed" valley. The fear of the Germans at Bagdad was one of the threats which aroused Britain to build against Berlin. Another benefit he is likely to get is a preferred relation to some very valuable oil fields. Then there is no reason why scientific irrigation may not make the plains of the two rivers as productive as it has the widened valley of the Nile. Every argument which defends our position in Egypt can be employed to explain our entry into Mesopotamia.

THE GREAT CHARTER.

SEVEN hundred and six years ago today, at the meadow of Runymede, on the banks of the Thames, the barons of England wrung from a reluctant monarch the Great Charter which is the foundation of the political liberties which the British peoples enjoy today.

It is not without reason that the famous charter is called the foundation of British liberties. It is true that most of its sixty-two clauses deal with the rights of the barons rather than the rights of the people. Yet the concessions forced from the King had a definite value. They established the principle that the King was no longer the arbitrary master of the realm and that there were definite and recognized limits to his power.

The outstanding feature of the Charter is its recognition throughout of the Sovereignty of Law and its demand that not even the King shall demand or evade that law. The great expression of this idea is found in Clauses 39 and 40.

> "39. No freeman shall be taken or imprisoned or dispossessed or outlawed or banished or in any way destroyed, nor will we go upon him nor send upon him, except by legal judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land."
> "40. To no one will we sell, to no one will we deny or delay right or justice."

These clauses were, of course, imperfectly obeyed for many years to come. In the disorderly times which followed life and property and liberty were often at the mercy of the strong. But when that happened it was a breach and defiance of the law liable to punishment if the court's officers were strong enough.

Magna Charta did not set up a system of self-government, and it did not in any way provide that the people of England should be consulted as to the laws under which they were governed. All that was to be won later. Yet it did provide that the Law was supreme, that it was not merely the expression of the will of a tyrannical master, but a protection of men's rights and liberties. It created the higher ideal that laws should not only be obeyed, but that they must be supported and defended by all good citizens.

More than five and a half centuries after the granting of this great charter a small band of clear-sighted and able men framed a constitution on the skeleton of this charter, and of the other stepping stones in the pathway of political freedom. Hamilton, Maddison and Jay and the other "fathers" took the essentials of the English Constitution and moulded them with masterly conciseness and clear logic to meet the new conditions of the Thirteen Colonies. Out of the truths of Magna Charta, the Petition of Right and the law of Habeas Corpus they evolved the pregnant statement which is the kernel of Anglo-Saxon democracy, "that all men are created equal (before the law), that they are endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Only the Anglo-Saxon peoples can boast so rich a political heritage. To it they have added the dower rights of a common language and a rich literature. Magna Charta is not only the foundation stone of that heritage — it is the common tie that holds together peoples cemented by blood, common sympathies and mutual sacrifices. Paths may deviate in the gradual attainment of these ideals, but only if those nations are recreant to their heritage can they diverge in opposite directions. Such a foolishness is unthinkable.

AN UNJUST AMENDMENT.

MEMBERS of the City Council would add still more amendments to that hapless instrument the City Charter. It is already overloaded with a flood of former amendments. Today it is a thing of "shreds and patches."

To add to the confusion the astonishing proposal is made that there shall be another decree a drastic change in the existing mode of paying for permanent pavements. Such pavements are now generally paid for by "fronting" proprietors, now comes the startling suggestion that a general "mobile" tax be levied on the assessed value of all property for such pavements. This change would be radical enough were assessed values of land only aimed at, but the wild project actually embraces the assessed value of buildings as well. The plan is made the more freakish by the demand that it shall be "retroactive"; in other words it is to apply to lands and buildings fronting on permanent pavements which have already been paid for by corporation funds.

It is obvious that such a weird plan would mean colossal paving charges on buildings in the financial district. It is a preposterous idea that any action should be taken to mulct the other wards for pavements they have already acquitted. Those behind these amazing moves seem to have entirely forgotten that it is these divisions which for decades past have contributed the lion's share of the annual revenue. These revenues, moreover, have been largely used in constructing beautiful pavements in outlying wards.

Fortunately this "mobile tax" fantasy cannot become law till approved of by the Legislature. Its demise should be promptly decreed by that body.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

Worse Than a Blunder.

Kansas City Star: Austrian army officers are being tried for treason for aiding ex-Emperor Charles in his attempt to regain the Hungarian throne. Whether they committed treason or not the conduct of that affair seemed to indicate those responsible for it committed a blunder, which is the next highest crime and usually carries the same penalties.

But It Makes All the Difference.

New York World: For the Harding Administration to leave at his post the Ambassador who, formally representing the President, maligned his country in the eyes of the world, and to recall for punishment the Admiral who, on leave of absence and representing nobody but himself, uttered a minor indiscretion, will offend the entire country's sense of justice.

Freemen or Bond Slaves.

Indianapolis News: The problem is to keep parties from becoming "savage" and "wolfish," and this can be done only by recognizing them for what they are and using them for the accomplishment of good purposes. When parties degenerate into clans or factions, they become a source of terrible danger to the nations, as George Washington long ago pointed out. No man who puts himself in bondage to a political organization can hope to discharge his full duty as a citizen.

The Nations Need a Tonic.

Manchester Guardian: Since the war the most prevalent malady is just this loss of power which we call dullness. Declining nations abound in it, while rising nations are easily roused and absorbed by ordinary experiences. This is not to say that we are necessarily in for a permanent decline. It is only that we have, as doctors, or some of them, say, "lost tone" for a time. But we have somehow got to recover that tone and reachieve the vital miracle of finding every routine day a cheerful little adventure in itself, as it is for any mind at the top of its form.

The First Woman Barrister.

London Daily News: Miss Clapham, of the Middle Temple, is the first woman student to qualify to be called to the Bar. It is a sign of the times that the announcement has not called forth any questionings or misgivings as to woman's efficiency in her latest profession, but only doubts as to what will be an appropriate dress for her to wear in the Courts. The black robe would adorn her, but the horsehair wig is unthinkable. The suggestion that she should wear the traditional stage costume of Portia herself is a happy one, except that it would seem to place opposing male counsel at some disadvantage. Will the Benchers of her Inn of Court decide this delicate point, or is it the Lord Chancellor's personal privilege?

Faults on Both Sides.

Westminster Gazette: The reduction of 5s 7d per shift would still leave the miners with earnings 128 per cent above their pre-war earnings. No one desires the miners to submit to a reduction of 5s 7d per shift, but there is sufficient margin here to give the industry relief and to leave the miner in a substantially better position than before the war. It is all a question of restoring the pre-war output. How to do that is a problem which concerns the owners as well as the men, and the organization of transport in addition to both of them. The owners are certainly not without responsibility, for the slow development of new seams and other forms of slackness on their side have certainly contributed to the deplorable result.

Labor's Defeat In New Zealand.

Auckland News (N.Z.): The feature of the municipal elections throughout New Zealand this year has been the setback sustained by the Labor Party. In Auckland the representation of the party has been reduced from three to two, and the successful candidates are much further down the list than they were two years ago. The lesson for Labor is that it is under the grave suspicion of the electors. A genuine working-class movement would meet with a great deal of sympathy from all classes, and would be assured of fair representation on local bodies, but the official Labor Party in New Zealand so grotesquely distorts the aspirations of the average working man that it invites no tolerance from other sections of the community. It offends the sentiments of the patriotic, prudent citizen at almost every turn.

An Embargo on Brains.

New York Evening Post: Congress, which has a traditional tender spot for infant industries, will presumably not turn a deaf ear to the appeal of an infantile industry. That may be the hope, added to the urge of necessity, which has impelled the movie managers to march upon Washington with the demand for a 60 per cent protective tariff on German films. This time it is not a question of defending American open hearths and modern homes against the pauper labor of Europe. German film stars are not working for starvation prices, even when measured in paper marks. The German motion picture business is itself passing through a crisis, due in large measure to enormous salaries and lavish production costs. Protection is now soliciting against superior German art and craftsmanship. The movie interests are asking for an embargo on brains.

Accident Day.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: One with a statistical turn of mind and time enough to consult police reports for some months past might figure out with fair accuracy how many automobile accidents will occur in Cleveland and vicinity between sunrise this morning and midnight. The number will, of course, be large. In all probability there will be some deaths, more will be injured and property damage will run into many dollars. All this has come to be a regular part of Sunday. Knowing the facts, then, why not avoid the losses. These are penalties of carelessness, in large part. Some of today's accidents will be caused by individuals who think they are in a hurry and take desperate chances. Others will be caused by people who think they can get over the crossing before someone else reaches it. Speeding will take its particular toll, skidding of cars out of control will account for a few smashes, taking bad turns at too high a speed, neglecting to signal the machine behind, in short, taking hazardous chances of one kind or another is what gives Sunday its character as accident day. The recipe for an accidentless Sunday is simplicity itself. Be careful, that's all.

Imagination.

When my thoughts weary of noise and crowd,
And lose their sense of an Infinite Good,
I send them out to think aloud
In deep, green wood.

Pungent with pine and fresh with the smell
Of cool wet moss in the early hours,
And carpeted deep in a fairy spell
Of wee, sly flowers.

They bathe in a wide, blue lake close by
And watch the bright birds overhead.
And the long, black shadows of tall trees lie
On the water's bed.

In a flash they are back—my thoughts made new
With the fragrant freedom of those who roam,
And yet their mother is called by you
Stay-at-home.

Fanny De Groot Hastings in The New York Sun.

WITH THE FAMOUS

IF YOU look at a small country newspaper, you will find about half the news made up of personal references to various peoples' condition. The one great subject for conversation in rural parts is ill-health. The certain and quickest way for anyone living in the country to become prominent is to develop some physical ailment. Each day the whole populace undergoes a physical examination and the results are heralded far and wide. Life proceeds enriched with new sensations such as the surprising return of old Mr. Johnston's rheumatism or the sudden jump of Mrs. Jenkins back into bed with dyspepsia. Screaming conversational headlines give minute details of these unexpected events.

So pronounced is this habit of being unwell in the country districts that rural medical men are understood to have arranged a system to cope with it. The thing works out like this: suppose Mr. Whiffletree wakes up one morning and begins to worry about the monotony of life, he finds time hanging heavy on his hands, he feels in his breast the stirring of ambition. Mr. Whiffletree decides to make a bold bid for fame by a sudden descent upon the community in all the glory of an attack of paralysis. He chooses his deadly disease, whatever it may be, and calls the doctor.

Even before the doctor arrives, the news has been spread abroad by certain neighbors. The progress of the medical man along the road to Mr. Whiffletree's home is watched by intelligent observers. He gets there, finds out from the sufferer what is wrong with him, makes an examination to prove that nothing is the matter and then advises Mr. Whiffletree to stay in bed. The doctor departs after leaving a bottle of harmless mixture to be taken every now and then. He is a popular doctor because he plays the game.

Mr. Whiffletree settles down upon the dizzy heights of fame. By nightfall, he is well aware, his name will be on everybody's lips. For weeks on end, bulletins from his sickroom will pass over the community on the wings of conversation. He has achieved an eminence from which he can be dislodged only at his own command, and he will linger on the public tongue long after he has decided to ring the curtain of rugged health down upon his little entertainment. He is a railway accident, a prize fight, a political tragedy, an industrial war, a sudden rise in the price of gas—all headline-compelling events rolled into one palpitating sensation. The whole community revolves around his sick-room and in due time everybody will track down his convalescence.

It is not necessary, of course, to go outside of the cities to find people who suffer habitually from imaginary illnesses. But urban life possesses too many diversified interests to keep the gaze of any circle of friends fastened exclusively upon a single personality. Mrs. Hobson may excuse herself from visiting Mrs. Robson because Hobson is not well, and there is the conventional word of sympathy and enquiry, but Mrs. Hobson declares it is needless. Hobson is sick from his own carelessness, and it is not serious—and did you see the new Talmadge picture at The Magnificent?

FROM THE STAR FILES

(THIRTY YEARS AGO.)

(From The Star File, June 15, 1891.)

Ottawa—Hon. J. J. C. Abbott succeeds the late Sir John A. Macdonald as Premier of Canada.

The late Sir John Joseph Caldwell Abbott was born at St. Andrews, Que., in 1821. He was called to the Bar of Lower Canada in 1847, and was returned to the House of Assembly in 1859, before Confederation, and in 1887 was elected Mayor of Montreal, being re-elected by acclamation in 1888. It was also in '88 that Sir John (then Mr.) Abbott was appointed a commissioner to negotiate with Australia for closer trade relations and cable communication.

Sir John accepted leadership of the Senate, and a seat on the Privy Council, continuing to fulfil these duties without remuneration or portfolio until 1891, when he succeeded Sir Alex. Mackenzie as Premier, continuing the business of the country before Parliament without any break in continuity or any change in policy.

Sir John was knighted by the Queen in 1887, retiring that same year on account of delicate health. He died in 1893, leaving a memory for great ability, political honesty and personal self-sacrifice.—(Ed. Note.)

Montreal—Local lacrosse players defeated a team from Toronto on Saturday. The following composed the Montreal team: F. Sheppard, J. Patterson, J. Louson, A. Cameron, J. Barry, D. Patterson, W. Spriggings, T. Carlind, C. King, A. McNaughton, G. Baird, W. Gerraghty, H. Brophy.

Ottawa—Mr. Bourassa, of St. Johns, is now the father of the House of Commons. He has represented this county continuously since 1874 and is 78 years old.

LEGAL QUERIES

BACHELOR'S TAX.

Q.—Recently I noticed in the papers a judgment rendered against the city in favor of a man living in retirement, regarding payment of bachelor's tax. The head office of the firm I work for is in Montreal, but I live in the suburbs. Am I legally subject to the bachelor's tax?—Bachelor, Que.

A.—You are legally subject to the bachelor's tax, but a similar case to the issue is seemingly not being forced by the city.

NO RIGHT TO MOVE.

Q.—Not having signed lease for 1921, could I move? If so, how much notice could I give? I may also say the landlord asks me if I am going to stay, as he likes to keep in the matter. Wants to know.

A.—[illegible] move now, and are bound to stay until the expiration of the year.

NOTICE REQUIRED.

Q.—If I take a room by the month what notice have I to give? If I take a room by the week what notice must I give before leaving?—C. T., Montreal.

A.—A room rented by the month requires one month's notice to quit, and a room rented by the week requires one week's notice.

A WEEK'S NOTICE.

Q.—A tenant's room from [illegible] week, paying rent in advance, when leaving will A have to give a week's notice?—Ignoramus, Que.

A.—Yes.

A STATEMENT FROM MR. SAUVE.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—In its issue of last Friday your paper has published a news item which, I judge, has escaped your censure as it rather has the smell of the poisoned arrow shot by an organizer of the Quebec Government.

The item says in part:

"It is well-known that since Mr. Sauve became leader of the Opposition in Quebec he has kept aloof from the Federal Conservative party or its successor, the National-Liberal-Conservative party. It is believed that Mr. Sauve does not know the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen.

"The leader of the Provincial Opposition is handicapped owing to this state of affairs, but like the Hon. Robert Rogers, it is stated, Mr. Sauve does not believe in the alliance of Liberals and Conservatives in administering the affairs of the country nor of the province itself; he is completely and avowedly a party man in all the significance that this word implies."

And because of that the item concludes that I cannot expect to overthrow the Quebec Government.

The item is unfair because it is contrary to facts. The Taschereau Government cause Le Canada and Le Soleil to argue that French-Canadians must not give me their support because, they say, I am a follower of Mr. Meighen. It is the weapon used against me by Liberal members when they tour their counties. Now, to the English-speaking electors they say that since 1916 I am separated from the Ottawa Government and that I repudiate Mr. Meighen.

During the elections of 1912, 1916, and 1919, the Quebec Liberals carried on a campaign of prejudices against Ontario, against the capitalists, the manufacturers and the profiteers, against the alleged English oppression of the French-Canadians, and against the Ottawa Government depicted as the valet of Orangeism. This was said repeatedly in the open during the three campaigns, though the Quebec administration was the only one at issue.

As a result of those appeals to prejudice, Conservative leaders were crushed and the Liberal party became almighty in the Province of Quebec.

I was against conscription, not because of party advantages, but because of my convictions. But I always respected those who held opposite views, and I always tried to explain to my electors the true and real meaning of the law. I was not like the Liberals, who, in the expectation of terrorizing the people, grossly exaggerated their explanation of the law.

Since 1896, since the execution of Riel up to now, Mr. Taschereau's party always have been endeavoring, for their political ends, to fan the flames of racial prejudice by pitting the French-Canadians against the English, as it was so well demonstrated by Hon. Mr. Patenaude, at Terrebonne, last Sunday. Mr. Taschereau's party always tried to place the political question on a ground where the electors would not judge it on its merit.

Today, Liberal members are touring their counties warning their electors against Meighen, whom they describe as a fanatic who is trying to use Sauve to bring about the downfall of the Taschereau Government. Such is the Government that the English-speaking electors will try to maintain with their finance and their vote. But if they do so, I claim that it must be for some ulterior motives.

It is the Taschereau party who tried to discredit the capitalist and the manufacturer, calling them profiteers, and accusing them of thriving at the expense of the poor; the same party who depreciated the national industry by booming the foreign markets and claiming that the Canadian manufacturer was an extorter.

There are profiteers in every class and in every country. I despise them, and if I had the power I would fight them to the limit, but as I said in my program of 1916: "We must have respect for the capitalist who contributes to the growth of the country's wealth by the development of our natural resources. Capital is a necessity, so is the capitalist."

And in 1911, on the floor of the Legislature, did I not make a motion on the importance of our industries in the province? Was it not my party which for years preached a policy of protection for the pulp and paper industry, in spite of the Liberal opposition? But the Quebec Government accepted that policy only after his leaders had secured large personal interests in that industry.

I have separated my case from the Federal affairs, so as to react more efficiently against that dishonest tactic of my adversaries, and to put a stop to the campaign of prejudices they make a specialty of breeding in our province.

It is an unqualified untruth to say that I am a party man in all the significance implied by the word. As far back as in 1915, in a speech I delivered at Montreal, I pointed out the coming necessity of remodelling the parties, coming on after the war, as it always happened in the most difficult epochs of our history. Since 1919 I appeal for the alliance of all the better elements in our province for the formation of a government for the people, and not a government for favorites.

As to Federal affairs, I have always expressed myself as against the ultra-loyalists-empirists, and I want a change that will give my province, my race, and my language all their rights, and to my compatriots a fair proportion of representation in the government of the country, in the Senate, on the bench, and in the civil service.

I do not believe that Liberals could find an opponent with more loyalty and a broader mind. I am proud to say that the only enemies I have in the province of Quebec are those I have branded as grafters or otherwise dishonest.

I am French Canadian and Roman Catholic. For my race or my faith I would not hesitate in sacrificing my blood, but I am also ready to claim justice and fair play for my English-speaking fellow citizens. I have always battled my compatriots against the danger of exaggerating their rights and of looking for grievances. I have always asked them to stand on their rights and not to give an inch, but on the other hands not to look for imaginary enemies.

Such is the line of conduct I have followed, and which I will always follow in spite of the ungratefulness and the selfishness of those who should second my efforts instead of trying to thwart me.

Yours very truly,

ARTHUR SAUVE.

WOMEN AND UNEMPLOYMENT.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—One who signs himself "Returned Unemployed" criticizes "two big healthy English girls" (I quote his words and allow the name English to pass for Irish and Scot as well) who were applying for office jobs. It is a blessing to Canada that so many of these same big healthy girls from the homeland and more especially those of the Celtic race, have had the courage and pluck to cross the seas carrying their inherent principles of betterment, aiming high, and with the stern purpose of making a success of life. The backbone of Canadian life is founded on just such big healthy girls as "Returned Unemployed" would like to see at the beck and call of some of the upper ten.

Returned Unemployed may be certain that the education and character [illegible] of these girls from the homeland is of such a nature as to fit them for any position for which they make application. Possibly the man who [illegible] the job at $85 a month had a sister or wife working for him or that the salary was more than it was worth, or was morally certain that the services would be dispensed with at the end of the second month, or that it is a mighty good job that the young lady "got" the job and I verily believe that she is making good.

NEW ZEALANDERS ARE SOLID BEHIND PREMIER MASSEY

omes to London Conference with Sanction of Whole Dominion

VIEWS ON MEETING

hould Be Held in Dominions in Turn on Account of Travel

LONDON, June 15.—(Star Cable by Hemming. Copyright)—"It matters le whether you call it a cabinet, a ncil, or a conference the coming eting of the Dominion Premiers is tremendous importance, for the e has passed when the Empire can governed from Downing Street," d the Rt. Hon. W. F Massey, Prer of New Zealand, whom I interwed yesterday.

"The conference can hardly be ned executive," he continued, "for ry member is bound to report back his parliament, and can only comhimself where he knows how far people wish him to go. Everyg we do will be submitted to the ple of the Dominions on our re-n."

Mr. Massey's own position is especially solid on this point, however, for comes to London this June with sanction of the whole of New Zead. A vote of confidence before his arture showed only eight extreme or members against him in a se of eighty. When discussing program that is to be taken up by Premiers, he speaks with cleanviews, for the policy of New Zead is sharply defined.

SSEY DIFFERENT.

t will be interesting to see Mr. ssey face to face with the Premiers the other Dominions and the leadlights of Downing street. He difradically in character from the ers. A considerably older man than Meighen, he will argue with cold, ise, legal methods, where our Prer will effervesce with brilliance. imagines that Gen. Smuts' appeal be different again, for he is above soldier, and his victories in his country have been of a personal, timental nature. Whatever may the trend of the conference, a half r's conversation with Mr. Massey presses me with the fact that he leave his mark indelibly on the eedings. His views on many ts are already quite distinct is conception of the need and acter of the conference, for exe, is defined. He suggests that, ng to the difficulty of the Premiers ing South Africa, New Zealand Australia for several months. Very in order to take a voyage to don, the conference should be only every three years in Lon-, and in the other Dominions in the intervening years. Not only ld this distribute the burden of the nce equally among all the mem-, but the benefit to the Britand the Dominions alike would calculable. Contact would ed into personal touch. Each the Dominions in turn, and the nions would meet Downing street each other face to face.

ANS OCEAN TRAVEL.

this connection it is interesting refer to the comments and predis of aeronautic experts, who declare tently that the coming decade will trans At into a travel an accomplished fact, and that the journeys he Premiers to and from the Emconferences will take only two or days and involve inconvenidepartures in this direction entirely solve the problem of the and Empire.

Massey was much interested in speech made by Gen. Herzog of the Opposition in the an Parliament, in which ed to Gen. Smuts' part in the war that was p where they are entitled to a say in the policies of the British Empire, and as no objections whatever are raised on this score by the people of the Mother Country, the only question that remains to be decided is the detail of the organization that is to voice their opinions.

DOMINIONS RESPONSIBLE.

"We do not wish to interfere in European entanglements," said Mr. Massey, "but we must remember that as signatories to the Treaty of Versailles we have shouldered certain responsibilities. We have pledged ourselves to come to the rescue of France in case of attack, and we must therefore watch France's interests. I take it that this pledge would cut both ways and that if in future years the British Dominions were attacked, France would come to our rescue with equal readiness. We can therefore hardly pursue a policy of isolation."

Closely bound up with his views on European politics are Mr. Massey's opinions on the naval question. While a certain section of Canadians are dubiously asking, "Who is the enemy we are guarding against?" New Zealand looks ahead to the next generation and points to the long ocean roads of communication that bind the British Empire together. "Cut our communications and we are as helpless as a beleaguered city," says Mr Massey. "The navy is of as vital importance to us as ever, and although I see no foes on the present horizon, we must look to our ships on general principles and for the safeguarding of the future."

Mr. Massey snaps his finger at the bogey of the menace from Japan.

JAPANESE PROBLEM.

"So long as we insist on, and maintain, our right to choose our fellow-citizens in this country, we have much to gain, and nothing to lose by the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty. The Japanese were perfectly loyal to us during the war. When we were sending away our main body of the Expeditionary Force, the presence of the big Japanese cruiser made their home, as far as the sea voyage was concerned, perfectly safe. We owe them a debt of gratitude, and it is well to remember this fact, and to endeavor to repay them when opportunity offers."

Anglo-Japanese relations have no bearing whatever on New Zealand's immigration policy, which rigidly excludes all peoples not of Anglo-Saxon origin. New Zealand has the most drastic immigration laws in the Empire, and her position therefore differs from that of the other Dominions. Visitors who come to the islands for their health, business or pleasure, may remain six months without question, but they must have the permission of the Government if they wish to settle indefinitely. This permission is given seldom to others than English-speaking people.

DRURY-CREBAR TOUR OFF.

PASSAGE OF PEACE RESOLUTION STIRS AMERICAN SENATE

Wants Peace with Germany But Believes Should Fight Other House

CONSULT HARDING

Suggest President Should Declare Peace on Own Initiative

WASHINGTON, June 15. — By I. C. Martin, United Press Staff Correspondent)—How to make peace with Germany and not at the same time start war in Republican ranks here at home was the task confronting Senate G. O. P leaders today

They were inclined to retaliate against the House, which on Monday passed the Porter peace resolution as a substitute for the Senate's Knox measure, by refusing to accept the Porter plan, and insisting on their own. That course, however, threatened indefinite delay in restoration of the peace status.

SENATE MIGHT YIELD.

Senate leaders, therefore, were considering whether it would not be wiser to yield on a matter of detail, so that the main question upon which both House and Senate agree, could be speedily settled. That main question is the making of peace.

Senator Lodge made it clear that the Senate has no intention of giving in to the House without a struggle.

"We will have something to say about the final form of this resolution, you may be sure," was the only comment Senator Lodge would make today. He said incoming Senators, however, that the Senate substituting the Knox resolution for Porter's.

Senator Knox, author of the Senate resolution, told friends he had no pride of authorship, but that his resolution was most carefully drawn, as that it seemed to him to meet the situation.

Some Senators favor a request to President Harding that he settle the whole business by proclaiming peace on his own initiative

TREATY MUST FOLLOW.

A treaty of peace between the United States and Germany must and will follow the enactment of a peace resolution, Republican house leaders who have recently conferred with President Harding said today.

Such action is necessary, they said, to settle disputed questions that will arise between the two nations after the final passage of the peace resolutions and to establish clearly the rights of the United States and her nationals as to damage claims pending and future dealings with the German nation.

There is a growing belief in the House that it would not be wise to throw the Versailles Treaty into the waste-basket and to start new negotiations "from scratch." Many members think it would be better to accept the Versailles document, minus the League of Nations covenant, and with certain reservations, as the treaty to govern German-American relations. Others favor using it as the basis of a new agreement by including virtually the same terms it imposes upon Germany

COMMERCIAL RELATIONS.

One of the main features to be covered by the proposed treaty is the future commercial relationship of the two countries. Steamship owners recently protested that unless a provision of the Versailles Treaty were adopted by the United States, Germany would be able to discriminate against vessels of this country in its ports. Without a treaty established as definite law, German courts in which many American damage claims probably will be brought would be at liberty to disregard American claims, other members say.

House leaders today were recalling that President Harding in his address to Congress said that it might be wiser to engage under the existing treaty.

National ELECTRIC Range

No Matches
No Fumes
No Odors
No Ashes
No Dirt

IT'S goodbye to your hot, stuffy kitchen this summer—if you get your National Electric Range right away. And think of all the unnecessary cleaning you won't have to do any more. Your spotless kitchen, with the quiet elegance of the National Electric to set it off, will be the envy of all your friends.

National Electric Ranges are the masterpieces of a firm that has put all its experience, all its enthusiasm, all its ambitions and all its skill into the making of highest class electrical appliances. If you want the very best ask for the "National Electric."

Elements are guaranteed for one year against defects of material and workmanship.

Snap! The heat is on! The intense heat of the red, glowing coils is always even—always under perfect control. Pretty soon you will know instinctively just when the roast is done to a nicety, without noticeable shrinkage. You will know just when to regulate the heat and let your range act as a "fireless cooker." The juices are held in the meat; no fumes or gasses to mar it, no flame to burn it. The flavor is what it should be—always.

You will appreciate the big, four-unit cooking surface, large oven and warming compartment, the big, nine-inch burner for heavy duty and quick cooking, and the smaller ones that enable you to use electricity with surprising economy. You will use fuel only when needed, and—

BROKEN HEARTED.

[illegible] looks like me, because, on more than one occasion my friends have mistaken her for me. So is it not likely that her friends could mistake me for her? I can imagine Miss L. C. saying "Oh well, she isn't good-looking", or "maybe she's old," well in reply to the latter, I am eighteen years and dress very neat and girlishly. To the former, well looks are a matter of personal taste. One person might say that such a girl is good-looking, while the next might say that she is ugly. Yes, I have known it to happen. But I am not afraid to say that I'd enter a beauty contest with any or all of the girls who write to you stating that they are handsome, attractive, etc. They must remember that beauty is not found, nor looked for, only in one's face, but also one's figure, carriage, etc. To come back to the point, I have heard of girls being followed home from theatres, even when there were more than one. Lately I have been thinking things over and decided to experiment. I dressed up the other night and generously took myself to a downtown playhouse, sat myself down in a forty-five cent seat. Later the house became full. I looked about me and behold there were men on either side of me. One was alone, the other was with a male friend. I sat there until 10:30 and not even a glance was cast my way. When the show was over, instead of taking a St. Catherine car and changing, I walked along St. Catherine to my transferring point. And what do you think, I was actually followed but the follower only proved to be a friendly dog. Now I'll conclude by saying, that no man will molest any girl if she pays no attention to him, unless maybe they are the only two on the street after dark and that is very seldom the case on such streets as Miss "L.C." mentioned. 'Tis better far to be called "stuck up" and be respected, than to smile at everyone you see. Only good men know the real meaning of a friendly smile. WISTFUL WANDA.

A BOY TO TEA

[illegible] proper for a girl [illegible] her boy friend to [illegible] to be so by her [illegible] not proper. [illegible] B says it [illegible] to you think [illegible] MOLLY

LOVE AND RESPECT.

[illegible] person who is (naturally) anonymous sends in the statement that I must be "crazy" and unfit to carry on this page because I say it is possible to love a person without respecting him. I would ask this polished person if he has ever known a woman who loved her drunken husband through years of trial and humiliation? She would not possibly respect him because he was, when drunk, lower than the animals, yet she continued to love him. I have known such a woman and I maintain that you may love in spite of your lack of respect or even of approval.

J. A. G.

An absolutely certain method of reducing is dieting, combined with exercise. You must diet faithfully and you must not expect to lose too quickly. It will take months of self-denial and a real exercise of will-power but it can be done.

Do not eat candy, cake, pie or any dessert made with sugar. Do not take any sugar and cream in your tea and coffee, nor eat ice cream. Do not drink ice cream soda, ginger ale, ginger beer, milk, or any form of alcohol. Do not eat pork in any form. Do not eat butter, bread or cereals such as oatmeal, macaroni, spagetti. Do not eat potatoes. You may eat all kinds of fruit, except bananas, but take them without cream and sugar. You may eat all kinds of meat, except pork and all kinds of fish, except salmon. You may eat all kinds of vegetables and salads, except potatoes. Do not eat salads with rich mayonnaise or boiled dressing, but use them with pepper, salt and vinegar.

There is a book called "Eat and Grow Thin" which any book store will order for you, which will give you even fuller information. You are certainly far too heavy.

2. I would not advise you to leave your husband.

FOLLOWED BY A DOG.

I have written you before asking help and am pleased to say received it. But this time I am not coming to seek help. I simply want to pass a remark, if I may, on a letter which appeared in your most interesting and helpful page on June 2nd. It was signed "L.C." Now, Miss Currie, I don't want to seem too hard on this er—very attractive (?) child, but I'm inclined to think "there's somethin' wrong somewhere." I have had occasion to traverse Sherbrooke St. (from Union to St. Denis) four times each working day, for the last sixteen months, and strange to say, I have never been stopped once, by man, horse, auto or even motorcycle. (Oh, yes, I have been stopped by taggers and twice by beggars.) Once, a man in an auto passed me, then turned on purpose and passed me twice, each time looking at me, but as I showed no interest he neither stopped nor spoke. It was not light, so I suppose he thought he knew me. I know there is a girl in this city who looks like me, because, on more than one occasion my friends have mistaken her for me. So is it not likely that her friends could mistake me for her? I can imagine Miss L. C. saying "Oh well, she isn't good-looking", or "maybe she's old," well in reply to the latter, I am eighteen years and dress very neat and girlishly. To the former, well looks are a matter of personal taste. One person might say that such a girl is good-looking, while the next might say that she is ugly. Yes, I have known it to happen. KINDNESS TO ANIMALS.

It made my blood boil when I read E. C.'s letter in the Star of June 4th, re a mounted policeman beating a small dog, and I would like to say to E.C. that she could have saved the dog if she had really cared to do so. She should have gone to him and told him that she was going to telephone immediately for an S.P.C.A. Inspector, at the same time taking note of his number so that the Inspector could locate him, and the Society deal with him later on. She should also have taken charge of the dog until the Inspector came, so that if injured it could be sent to the S.P.C.A. Home for treatment and not left to suffer on the mountain. I cannot understand why people will sit and look on at an act of cruelty and do nothing to stop it. Surely it is not too much trouble to tell the person committing the act that you are going to 'phone for an Inspector and then go to the nearest telephone and tell the Society what is happening, giving them the number of the person, the name or number of the vehicle, or even the number on the license attached to the horse's harness. Then the matter is out of your hands and the Society will attend to it. If more people would report the acts of cruelty they witness, these human brutes would soon be afraid to illtreat animals.

It costs only $3.00 a year (less than one cent per day) to become a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (S.P.C.A.) 286 St. James street, and if even one person in every family would become a member, the Society would then be able to put Inspectors on the Mountain and at several other points where they are badly needed. The Society already does magnificent work, but they cannot carry on without substantial support. There is also the Jack London Club. It costs nothing to become a member, but you must promise never to attend any theatre featuring animal acts, which are a close second to the act witnessed on the mountain. Last of all, let me urge the mothers to teach their children to be kind to our dear dumb friends. The churches will not take up the good work, the schools will not (unless they have done so recently) so it rests with the mothers. If children are not taught to be kind and thoughtful, then we must expect they will grow up to be as cruel as the Mounted Policeman. Montreal is noted for its cruelty, but it is largely due to ignorance. Let the children join the Band of Mercy (write Miss M. Hagar, organizing secretary, for information) and thus give them a good start towards becoming worthy members of the Canadian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

EXTERMINATING THE MOSQUITO

Petroleum oil should be used temporarily and not as a valid or permanent means of mosquito destruction. Drainage and filling up the wet places solid are the surer way. Oil destroys the larvae by plugging up their breathing apparatus. One ounce of oil will cover 15 square feet of water surface and will remain effective ten days. The wind may blow this oil aside, to return generally when the wind changes; and though eggs may have been deposited in the meantime, the returning oil will suffocate the new larvae. An ordinary garden sprinkler may be used, or a knapsack sprinkler from which oil may be projected several yards from shore or from a boat. Gold fish, sticklebacks, minnows, sunfish, which find the larvae delicious tidbits, are well enough for fountains; but the mosquito problem is not adequately solved that way, nor by means of insectivorous bats, birds or water fowl.

The community which wants to be mosquito-free, which does not desire the unenviable and commercially injurious reputation of maintaining a malaria granary, must take community action. How often has one negligent householder nullified the perspiring and admirable zeal of a whole neighborhood! If live mosquitoes are not wanted, there must be a live health officer who knows his business and whose arms the electorate will stand ready and determined to hold up. Such a board will distribute throughout its sphere of activity descriptive circulars; will corral the press, the clergy, the schools, the ladies' societies, the board of trade. And the health officer has to inspect everybody's premises, and backyard (in which latter most of the hatching goes on).

If any citizen doubts the possibility of mosquito extermination, even in his own community, let him remember that the late General Gorgas and his associates turned the most pestilential spot on the footstool—bar none—into one of the healthiest (except for heat) on the footstool, as free today of mosquitoes, of malaria and yellow fever, as the equator is of icebergs. There are now people who, come winter, prefer Panama for a health resort to Palm Beach.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Information Wanted.

I am a daily reader of your health talks, but so far I have never seen an article on ozena. As I am a sufferer from such I would like to have some hints and would like to know if such disease can be cured and what causes it.

Answer—If you don't see what you want, write for it and you will get information on subjects the general reader would not care to see repeated. Besides the malodorous chronic catarrh, which the word ozema denotes, there are many subjects too offensive for the public, yet legitimate to consider, concerning which answers will be given if stamped self-addressed envelopes are sent to you.

TRAVELLING CONVENIENCES.

Most people love to travel, but it takes an old campaigner to make himself truly comfortable in the process. Too often it happens to the traveller to need some small convenience desperately. For a long trip across the country with nights in the pullman, and meals in the diner, there are several little things that should be remembered for comfort and pastime.

A Pullman apron to hold one's toilet articles at hand on some small chamois bag with a good snap per fastening and a stout ribbon to go round one's neck, for money, rings and identification card, a small housewife, containing safety pins and needles threaded with several colors of thread, stamped envelopes and postcards, some sort of handiwork not bulky and not easily soiled, at least one small book, some fresh fruit, are among the helpful suggestions for such a long journey. The equipment of the trains nowadays precludes the necessity of taking many things that used to be essential.

On short, but new and exciting journeys into the country, where the railway equipment on branch lines is likely to be inadequate and not overly clean, a lunch, if not a necessity, is often desirable, especially for children and may be carried conveniently in a flat canteen.

Travelling with children, one should make provision for their amusement with pencil and paper, story-book, playing cards, pocket checkers, or whatever portable device one can find. A small periscope or even just a mirror to hold against the car window will amuse a child indefinitely. A restless, hungry, or thirsty child is the worst travelling inconvenience there is.

FASHIONS FOR TODAY

Decidedly tailored and equally smart is the little plaid gingham frock shown in the sketch. It is designed for a girl of six to eight years. The frock has white pique vest, collar, cuffs and double strap belt. A large white pearl button fastens the vest at one side.

Many little girls are so definitely of the tailored type that a dress of this kind will be found very becoming. As a matter of fact, there has been rather a surfeit of frocks of the frilly sort, so that an occasional garment fashioned on severe lines, even for a juvenile, pleases the eye.

Chintz dresses are among the newcomers now, and the latest fancy is for trimming these dresses in white or plain colored organdy.

For example, a little straight line frock of small figured chintz seen recently had a panel front running almost the full length of the frock made of white organdy, ruffled all around, and held to the figure by an organdy sash which tied in a bow at the back. Neck and short sleeves of the dress were ruffled with organdy.

Plain linen or chambray dresses are very smartly trimmed with chintz, belt, collar, cuffs and pockets being of the figured fabric. These frocks are of the tailored type, usually designed for girls of not more than eight years and almost always accompanied by matching bloomers.

One of the important things to be remembered in making clothes for children is that the type of child to be outfitted must be carefully considered, and it is not always a good idea to blindly follow the bought pattern in every detail. Originality may be arrived at by changing sleeve lengths perhaps, or devising a decorative scheme different from that recommended in the pattern's "directions" and followed literally by the majority.

Two Cents a Week
That is all it costs to clean with a
Torrington ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANER
BIG BRUSH—POWERFUL SUCTION

Torrington cleaning is better cleaning. No wearing of the nap of rugs, no damaging of fabric or furnishings.

The big full-tufted carpet sweeper brush, in the nozzle of the Torrington, glides easily over the surface picking up loose dust, lint and hairs, while the powerful suction, generated by the motor unhampered by belts or gears, lifts all the deep down in trodden dirt and grit and places it in the bag.

Two cents worth of electricity a week is all a Torrington Electric Vacuum Cleaner asks. And doing the housework with a Torrington is just fifteen minutes fun every morning. It lightens and speeds the task of tidying up in a dozen different ways, eliminating all the old time drudgery of broom and dust pan.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE

HOW IT STARTED.

'Twas not by Afton's rippling tide,
(Where Burns held hands with various lassies)
That first the fatuous golfer plied
His cleaving cleeks and busy brassies.
The Dutch devised the royal sport,
The Scots observed it, apprehensive,
So grand a game, by all report,
Would be expensive.

Not till a Scot had won a cup
Which brought, in Holland, one pound sterling,
Did Caledonians take it up:—
They stuck to whiskey, war, and curling.
But when the laddie showed his pound,
And told how easy 'was to win it,
The game of golf, all Scotland found,
Had something in it.

They laid out links on dune and brae,
From Alton's braw and bonnie bankie
To where the gentle bannocks stray
Across the pass o' Killiecrankie.
And soon the sons of Ayr and Perth,
With clubs of sundry shapes and sizes,
Were in all quarters of the earth,
In quest of prizes.

Today if you would play the game,
You learn it of some husky person
Who burrs his "r's" and has a name
Like McEntuggart or McPherson.
The hand of golf is on the land;
No power is strong enough to stay it
Because, as you will understand,
It pays to play it.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

We fancy that now Mr. Bergdoll's funds are cut off he will not be quite so popular in Germany as he has been.

HE LEARNED IT SOMEWHERE.

John D's first business venture was raising turkeys. Perhaps it was from them that he acquirred the profitable art of gobbling.

A HUSBAND TO MARCIA

By CAROLYN BEECHER

CHAPTER IV.

The incident of the cards lingered in John Aldrich's mind, causing him to feel keen anxiety. He knew Bob French, the husband of the day's hostess, could not afford to pay his wife's gambling debts any more than he could afford to pay Marcia's; not as well. Was it considered au fait for women to gamble to such an extent? Helplessly he wondered if he could persuade Marcia to give it up, knowing he could not.

Marcia continued to play. Dinners on those days continued to be eaten when they had become cold, and John also continued to eat practically alone of the chilled food, because Marcia's appetite had been satisfied with the rich food provided by the ubiquitous kitty.

Marcia had developed nervousness. When John spoke of it, blaming her devotion to cards, her stress to win, her fear of losing, she pooh-poohed the idea.

"If you would earn more money so I could have another maid and a car like other women. I wouldn't be so nervous. The cards have nothing to do with it!" Then in a different tone: "You are just as smart, smarter than most men, John, why don't you earn more? I believe it is because you don't assert yourself and demand higher prices for what you do. Nell French told me the other day that her husband told his firm he would leave if he didn't get an advance. He got it right off the reel. Nell is going to have a little car. I'm so envious I don't know what to do. If you had enough spunk to ask what you are worth, I might have one also. I do so want a car."

"It is quite different with French," John answered patiently. "He is a salesman, perhaps will always be one. I have ambitions to be more than I am at present. My profession gives me opportunities. A few dollars more or less means nothing as far as my future is concerned. If I demanded a higher price for my services now when I know the conditions of capital and labor I might be cutting off my nose—not only my nose, but my prospects for the future."

"Nonsense! You don't value highly enough."

"You are very nice to say so, Marcia. I am glad you think me clever. But I must be the judge of what is proper for me to do in my business relations."

"You can't understand, I suppose," her tone changing again, now sarcastic. "How mortifying it is to ride in street cars when all one's friends have cars of their own."

"I'm sorry, Marcia, but you'll have to use them a bit longer, or walk."

"You're not sorry. You don't care a hang!"

"You are getting slangy, my dear. Please don't be unhappy because I can't afford a car for you. Perhaps some day I shall be able to give you all you want."

"I'd rather have things now than wait until I am too old to care whether I have them or not!"

John Aldrich laughed at Marcia's petulant speech and tone. He was still too much in love to resent what she said, save occasionally.

"We are making another mistake, John!"

"You call not being able to afford a car, a mistake?"

Marcia paid no attention.

"We are young. Young people make a great mistake when they stay at home instead of going about and having good times. When we get old we may have the rheumatism, or lumbago, and can't. I don't mean to settle down like an old woman."

"Did you think I wanted you to?" John Aldrich saw visions of the evenings he spent at home disappearing in the distance. The evenings he loved with Marcia, when they read aloud, or she played for him on the baby grand piano he had given her at the cost of several things he needed. Occasionally their friends would drop in, or they would go to some movie in the vicinity. But mostly, except on Thursdays, they remained at home. John perfectly content, Marcia apparently so—nearly always.

But the rift in the lute was there and it was gradually becoming wider.

"No—and if you did, I wouldn't. We must entertain more, too." Then: "It is fine that you have that extra work. If we do things as others do them it will mean additional expense." She smiled with satisfaction.

That very day John had taken on extra work. He really had done all he should before. But Marcia wanted so many things, he longed so to see her happy—the gay, light-hearted Marcia he had married — that he couldn't bear to leave undone anything that might even remotely contribute to her happiness.

He had the same mistaken idea most men entertain. He thought he knew the woman he married. No man ever knows his wife until the honeymoon is a thing of the past—isn't it so?

THE PASSING HOUR

A tiff had taken place, but Smithers had cooled down. He determined to try woman's weak point—dress—and he remarked in a pleasant voice, "I see dresses are to be worn longer this season."

But the hard lines at the corner of her mouth were still there. "Well, if they are to be worn longer than I am compelled to wear mine," she said bitterly, "they will have to be made of sheet iron." And then began all over again.

Painters certainly are touchy, when ignorant people dare to comment upon art. A woman of no importance as an art critic was studying the work of a well-known artist and remarked:

"Really, of these two pictures, I don't know which I like best."

"Don't bother, madam," said the quiet voice of the artist, who was standing just behind her, "it doesn't matter."

A small boy, describing Noah's life in the ark, wrote: "Then one morning Noah went out fishing but only for five minutes."

The teacher asked why he had put the time limitation.

"Cos there were only two worms," was the reply.

Dear Marie,

Well here we are again, old dear! I keep on deluging you with letters, — but it doesn't do me a bit of good! If it wasn't that I was having such a wonderful time I'd come right up and die, so I would!

Really, it is marvellous to have nothing to do but bask in the sunshine all day. Yesterday I must have basked too long, though, for when I appeared at the dinner-table everybody gasped. And by night-time I could hardly touch my skin without wanting to yell.

But I gently-oh so gently — rubbed on some Campana's Italian Balm and it did the trick. "Balm" is surely a good name for that lotion, because it is so soothing and refreshing.

Heaps of love,
Peggy.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS

PETER'S HEEDLESSNESS BRINGS DANGER.

(Copyright by J. G. Lloyd.)

Heedlessness is just the twin of thoughtlessness you know,
And where you find them both at once there trouble's sure to grow.

Peter Rabbit didn't mean to be heedless. No indeed! Oh, my, no! Peter thought so much of Mrs. Peter, who, you remember, used to be Miss Fuzzytail, that he meant to be so thoughtful that she never would have a thing to worry about. But Peter was heedless. He always had been heedless. That is the worst of a bad habit: you can try to let go of it, but it won't let go of you. So it was with Peter. He'd been heedless so long that now he actually didn't know when he was heedless.

Now, when there was nobody but himself to think about, and no one to worry about him, his heedlessness didn't so much matter. If anything had happened to him then there would have been no one to suffer. But now all this was changed. You see, Peter was little Mrs. Peter. At first Peter had been perfectly content to stay with her in the dear Old Briar Patch. He had led her through the private little paths, and they had pointed where they would make two or three more. He had showed her all his secret hiding places, and the shortest way to the sweet clover patch. He had pointed out where the Lone Little Path came down to the edge of the Green Forest, and so out on to the Green Meadows. He had shown her where the Crooked Little Path came down the hill. Little Mrs. Peter had been delighted with everything, and not once had she complained of being homesick for the Old Pasture.

But after a little while Peter began to get uneasy. You see, in the days before Old Man Coyote had come to live on the Green Meadows, Peter just one jump ahead of Old Man Coyote.

"I thought you said that we were friends," panted Peter, as he heard Mr. Coyote sniffing at the doorway.

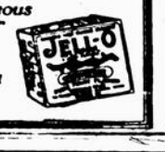

"So we were until I had paid my debt to you. Now that I've paid that we are even, and it is everybody watch out for himself," replied Old Man Coyote. "But don't forget that I always pay my debts Peter Rabbit."

Next Story:—Peter Rabbit Listens to Mrs. Peter.

There Was a Hungry Look in Old Man Coyote's Eyes.

The reason why

Glaxo—the Super-Milk—"Builds Bonnie Babies," is so simple, so logical. Baby's natural food is his mother's milk. Human milk and cow's milk both contain butter-fat, protein, milk-sugar, and mineral salts, but the proportions are different, and the protein of cow's milk is not so digestible.

Glaxo is pure, full cream, uncontaminated cow's milk, with the proportions of butter-fat, etc., adjusted by the addition of milk-sugar to correspond more closely to the proportions of mother's milk. The Glaxo Process makes the protein as easily digestible as the protein of human milk.

Nature knows best. Glaxo contains NO starch, NO flour, NO malt. There is no starch, flour, or malt in a mother's milk, which is Nature's food for baby. Glaxo therefore contains everything baby needs to build strong bones, firm flesh, sound teeth, steady nerves and brain—and nothing whatever that he should not have.

Send 50 cents for the 136-page Glaxo Baby Book

For 50 cents we will send you the 136-page Glaxo Baby Book and a Glaxo Weight Chart. In addition we will send to Expectant Mothers who state the month Baby is expected, our booklet "Before Baby Comes" and a Special Recipe Book. IMMIGRANTS NEED MORE ASSISTANCE

Warmly Received But Help Sometimes Required Later

NEW ORGANIZATION

Will Advise and Assist Immigrants from Great Britain

While the British immigrant to Canada, in common with other immigrants, is splendidly received from the social point of view on arrival here, nothing being left undone to make the immigrants comfortable during the transitory period between their disembarking and their settling down at the final destination, much could be done for the benefit of the Dominion as a whole in the way of encouraging and helping potential colonists to come and settle on the land, according to the Rev. John Chisholm, well known as an energetic worker for the welfare of immigrants.

The statement was the outcome of a letter addressed to the Star by an immigrant recently and shown to Mr. Chisholm this morning, reading as follows:

Sir,—In your issue of Saturday appears an article to prove Canada's need for immigration, preferably from Britain. Don't you think there is a great deal to be desired in the way immigrants are treated on their arrival in this country. I am a Britisher and I arrived here last fall with a wife and eight children, all perfectly healthy. I am ready and willing to go on the land, but find I have not enough ready money to get an equipped farm in this part of the country, and as for going homesteading, it is too much of a risk without some assistance or assurance that the necessaries of life would be forthcoming for myself and family for the first few years. If the Government of this country, or failing that, some responsible body of citizens would take this matter up and assist newcomers of the right sort, I think Canada would soon have more people.

AGRICULTURIST.

Socially, Mr. Chisholm said, immigrants could not be better cared for. Both the C. P. R. and the various social agencies do everything possible to care for and protect the immigrant on arrival. If they arrive late in the night they are housed free until morning. Girls coming unaccompanied are given hospitality free for twenty-four hours and helped to find suitable situations, and the authorities of Dorchester House watch over them for some time after having placed them, to see that they are properly treated.

CATHOLICS' GOOD WORK.

In addition to this, he added, all praise is due to the Catholic Immigration Aid Society for the splendid work they are doing in helping immigrants who come under their scope to settle on the land, thus contributing much towards the population of the vast spaces of Canadian land which is only waiting for capable hands to cultivate it.

The Jewish Immigration Aid Society is also doing a creditable work in seeing that none of their immigrants become a charge on the community, although Mr. Chisholm feels that this tends to overcrowd the city labor market. There is, however, a considerable proportion of British immigration which does not come within the scope of either of these organizations and the man who comes out with only his British citizenship to recommend him has reason, if not to complain, at least to look with a certain degree of envy at the way in which some of his fellow immigrants are cared for and, if necessary, financially assisted, by these societies.

TO AID OTHERS.

A society was organized last year with the object of carrying on such work, under the title of The British Immigration Aid Association, and possibly with ample support and good organization, may be able to improve the situation. The two objects of the association are, to advise the British immigrant who wishes to purchase land, as to the relative values of farm properties offered for sale to assist immigrants to find work with farmers where they could earn a living while, for instance, developing a homestead, and where necessary, to make advances to tide the immigrant over his immediate difficulties.

The president of this association is L. H. Davidson, K.C., the first vice-president, Lieut.-Col. H. R. Lordly, C.E., second vice-president, V. E. Morrell, Sherbrooke, Hon. Secretary, W. H. Henders, 45 Windsor street.

QUEBEC PHARMACY CLOSED TO WOMEN

Pharmaceutical Association Will Increase Entrance Qualifications

Quebec Pharmaceutical Association at its annual meeting held yesterday at the University of Montreal, St. Denis street under the presidency of E. Vadeboncoeur, refused to allow any more women to take up pharmacy, members deciding that the regulation passed over two years ago refusing admission to women to the study of pharmacy, would remain in force. Those who were taking courses before the passing of this regulation, however, will be admitted to practice on passing the final examination.

An increased standard of studies will also be required from prospective students, equivalence in scholarship with other professions in so far as the second grade of a college course or the passing of a rhetoric course in a classical course being necessary in the future for admission to the study of pharmacy. This is intended to eliminate the possibility of students entering for examinations without sufficient foundation for their work. The regulation passed last December concerning hours of work of students was also confirmed. Students in future will be required to put in a week of 54 hours or nine hours daily, with a Sunday off each second week, in a shop with a licensed druggist. This the Association consider necessary for a student's practical knowledge.

Six new members of the council for the year 1921-1922 elected were J. H. Robert, Montreal, E. Vadeboncoeur, Montreal, James Goulden, Montreal, J. W. Elcome, Montreal, R. Farley, Hull, and E. Brochu, Quebec, while the following six members remain in office for another year: J. A. Goyer, Montreal; G. A. Lapointe, Montreal; F. X. Rattey, Berthier; J. A. Leclerc, Quebec; J. R. Larose, Montreal; and J. A. Chevrier, Montreal.

The election of officers will take place at the first meeting of the council on the first Wednesday in July. The officers retiring this year are: E. Vadeboncoeur, president; G. A. Lapointe, vice-president; J. W. Elcome, second vice-president, and J. A. Goyer, treasurer. J. E. Dion, recording secretary, is a permanent officer.

The question of whether the Quebec Association will remain a member of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association was discussed. It was pointed out that the demand of the Quebec members for a bi-lingual secretary had been refused. The meeting unanimously decided that delegates from the Quebec Pharmaceutical Association to the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association to be held in St. John, N.B., on August 15, shall be given a free hand as to whether Quebec Association shall remain a member or not.

BIDDING SLOW AT LAND AUCTION

Mount Royal Heights Lots High Price—Eighteen Cents Foot

Two hundred lots were disposed of at yesterday's sales of the Mount Royal Heights sub-division, and at very varying prices. The highest obtained was eighteen cents a foot, bid at the evening session for some lots on Wilderton avenue, while five cents was the best offer for some of the property lying further back. Bidding in the afternoon was not particularly brisk buyers appearing to be very careful, though some lots on Bedford road sold fairly easily at eight and nine cents a foot. In some cases it appeared as if buyers were waiting for some particular lot to be put up, in order that they, by purchase at a low figure now, might average the high price they paid for adjoining lots some years ago.

Though the afternoon session was not brisk, evening bidding was very much slower, in some cases mounting by half cents. The best price at the afternoon session was fifteen cents a foot on Appelton avenue, for lots five minutes from the street car. In some cases bidders came forward in great numbers, especially for a few selected corner lots.

A number of lots along the Outremont Golf Links sold at from fourteen cents downwards to ten, while lots on Bedford road, two blocks from the Portal station of the C.N.R., went for nine and ten cents.

Mayor T. S. Darling, of the Mount Royal Land Company, announced that the contract for the main sewer on Darlington avenue had been let, and that the work was being pushed forward rapidly. He also announced that lots from the company will in future cost forty-five cents a foot.

APPROVE NEW LOAN ASKED BY VERDUN

The Metropolitan Commission yesterday afternoon approved of a loan of $100,000 being floated by the Verdun City Council to replace funds taken out of revenue for civic improvements and already spent. An opinion from Charles Laurendeau, K.C., in favor of this loan being approved was received, while the legal adviser disapproved of a proposed loan for $26,500, which Verdun also asked for, on the ground that the method of imposing the special tax on immoveable did not conform to the law.

An application was made by Lachine for sanction to float a loan of $262,800, and a statement of the finances of the city showed that with a taxable roll of $14,723,808, the city had borrowed $2,686,937 or 18.25 per cent of its valuation, and that if the new loan was issued the borrowing power exercised would be 3 per cent over the limit allowed by law. The matter was referred to the legal adviser for study. A request from Montreal East for a loan of $270,000 was also referred to the legal adviser of the commission.

GOMPERS BLAMES GERMAN WORKERS FOR WORLD WAR

Says Labor Movement in Germany Could Have Stopped Slaughter

J. H. THOMAS SPEAKS

British Labor Leader Warns U.S. Labor Against Interfering in Ireland

DENVER, June 15. — Blame for the recent world war was placed squarely on the shoulders of organized labor in Germany by President Samuel Gompers in an address to the American Federation of Labor convention here yesterday.

"I hold, and I accept full responsibility for what I am about to say," said President Gompers, "that the organized labor movement of Germany failed dismally at the critical hour.

"If it had taken the situation in hand it might have meant the destruction of a few thousands, but it would have stopped the war. The failure of men to act at a time of crisis is faithlessness to a common cause."

In his address, which was a response to those of fraternal delegates from Great Britain and Canada, President Gompers dwelt upon the attitude of the Federation and himself, both during the war and since, during the period of reconstruction.

W. F. Bush, fraternal delegate representing the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, told the assembled delegates that despite difficulties, organized labor in Canada was at least holding its own. He reviewed the inception of the "One Big Union" movement, and predicted "its early death."

A resolution was adopted by the convention urging Congress to pass immediately the Johnson Bill providing for a Federal investigation into conditions in the Mingo county, West Virginia, strike zone.

J. H. THOMAS' WARNING.

Warning against an agitation that might disrupt the United States labor movement, James H. Thomas, British labor leader, told the American Federation of Labor convention yesterday that it could not solve the Irish problem.

"For one hundred years we in England have been confronted with the problem of Ireland and if we at home cannot solve that problem, let me ask how can you, 3,000 miles away, expect to solve it," he said.

Mr. Thomas, who is president of the International Federation of Trade Unions, addressed the convention as a fraternal delegate from the British Trades Union Congress.

"British labor," Mr. Thomas continued, "has always stood and stands now, for liberty. We stand for Home Rule for Ireland.

WARNS AGAINST AGITATION.

"Let me warn you against any agitation that might disrupt your movement here in the United States by creating differences among yourselves. Do not mistake me. British labor stands for Irish freedom, the only limitation we must insist is that Ireland has not be allowed to become a menace.

"For one hundred years the people of Ireland have been deceived. For one hundred years they have been fed upon promises. Broken promises by British statesmen. Now the Irish people are face to face with you.

"I want you to assist me to create in the minds of the people that you an [illegible] You can't [illegible] this problem [illegible] for the past one hundred years."

Mr. Thomas' remarks immediately brought a response from Irish sympathizers among the delegates, who demanded the right to question him.

After the British leader had answered several questions regarding the acts of the ministry in Ireland President Samuel Gompers stopped further questioning.

WORLD PROBLEMS.

Speaking of the international problems of the nations of the world, Mr. Thomas said:

"There is no difference today in any part of the world with regard to the problems with which we are confronted and compelled to face. The only difference is a difference of degree, and we today in America, in [illegible] the Central [illegible] the inevitable [illegible] riotous [illegible] which pays the [illegible] of nature [illegible] whether [illegible] or not.

"The world is not suffering from overproduction, the British labor leader declared, replying to reported arguments that workers do as little work as possible, if they want to increase their chances for employment.

"If you were cut off from overproduction," he continued, "everybody would have boots, clothes and [illegible]. Overproduction could be [illegible] the world's requirements [illegible] But [illegible] and [illegible] had [illegible] poverty stricken [illegible] of the world.

"You workers are [illegible] as much if not more than ever. There are more hungry men and women boots, more without clothes than ever in the history of the world, and overproduction is not the cause. It is under-consumption that we are suffering from and not over-production.

AIMS STRIKE A SUCCESS.

MISSIONARY ON WAY TO FAR NORTH

Disappearance of Caribou Brings Hardships to Esquimeaux

The Rev. W. G. Walton, who preached at Grace Church on Sunday, has gone to Toronto. On Monday, June 20, he leaves that city for Cochrane, where he will go to the east coast of James Bay.

Before leaving for Toronto, Mr. Walton gave many interesting facts concerning the people among the Indians and Eskimos of Ungava—the district under his care.

"They live entirely on seals and fish, except in times of stress, when it is not an uncommon thing for them to eat moss, roots and berries," he said. Their clothing consists of seal skins, dog skins and bird skins. The women are expert in the manufacture of garb of cotton, but they sew with skins of everything procurable, and in many cases not enough to cover their bodies. They have very little bedding, and in winter sleep with their dogs to keep warm.

"Previous to the year 1883," Mr. Walton explained, vast herds of wild caribou roamed over the Barren Lands. These animals furnished a never-failing supply of meat, clothing and bedding. About 1883 the caribou mysteriously disappeared and have never returned. This necessitated a re-adjustment of life to meet the new conditions. The natives moved to the coast and engaged in seal-hunting as the chief source of food, supplemented by rabbits, sea-fowl and fish. The result has been that seals have gradually become more scarce, as also the wild fowl.

To remedy the situation Mr. Walton had two solutions to offer. One is to render the Indians and Eskimos capable of caring for themselves and making their own livelihood without assistance from the outside world. The other by large annual contributions from the Canadian people. He thought the first solution the better, more reasonable and most permanent way out of the difficulty. This could be brought about by establishing domesticated reindeer on the Barren Lands, in such numbers as will, within a few years, provide that source of food and clothing of which the natives were deprived in the year 1883, when the caribou vanished from the country.

Until this was done, and during the years the establishing of the herds was taking place, it would be necessary to appeal to the generosity of the Canadian people for help to procure food for the hungry, clothing for the naked, bedding and shelter for the homeless and medical attention for the sick.

OBJECTION TO REAR VIEW OF HOUSES

One set of opponents to the proposed sub-division of the Thompson estate has declared it no longer objected to the scheme, but at Westmount City Council's meeting last night another set appeared, representing Mountain avenue residents. The delegation, consisting of C. V. Heward, F. B. Leslie, R. Hemsley, Prof. A. S. Eve, R. T. Lambert and C. S. Thompson, urged that as designed the view from the avenue would be of the rear of the houses to be built. They desired that this might be remedied, and the council left the matter to the engineer to remedy.

Approval of the expenditure of $46,500 was given, for sidewalks, sewers and paving, as well as the grading and planting of the soldiers' memorial site.

CANADIAN CLUB.

Right Hon. James W. Lowther, former speaker of the British House of Commons, will be the speaker and guest of honor at a special meeting of the Canadian Club to be held in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel on Friday, at 1 o'clock.

COMPENSATION FOR LACK OF HEATING

Judgment was given by Mr. Justice Mathieu in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon. His Lordship decreed [illegible] to receive sufficient heat [illegible] to be indemnified for the [illegible] and inconvenience he suffered [illegible] equivalent to a diminution of the enjoyment of the premises.

The case was that of Hyman Robinson against the St. Lawrence Investment Trust Company. Robinson occupied apartment No. 16 in a set of apartments at 291 Leonard Charles street, at a rental of $85 a month. He claimed from October 1, 1920, the company defendant failed in its obligation to heat the apartment properly. Besides not having the proper equipment in the dwelling, Robinson claimed that he was entitled to have the rent reduced from $85 to $60 per month as from October 1 until the lease expired on April 30 last.

Mr. Justice Mathieu, who heard the case, gave judgment for $30 and costs of an action of this amount in favor of plaintiff. His Lordship said plaintiff was entitled for $10 compensation for the months of November, December and January, at the end of which Robinson instituted his action; but he cannot demand diminution of rent for the future.

BAPTISTS OPPOSE NEW LIQUOR LAW

Resolution Passed at Recent Convention is Made Public

QUEBEC, June 15. — (Canadian Press.)—Publicity was given here yesterday to a resolution passed at the recent convention of the Eastern Association of Baptist churches, placing itself on record as opposed to the new Taschereau liquor legislation. The resolution passed was as follows:

"Whereas, the members of this association are opposed to the use of alcoholic liquors as beverages, and

"Whereas, it has been demonstrated that the consumption of beer, ale, porter or wines as beverages is injurious to the physical as well as the moral well-being of the consumer, and moveover creates or stimulates appetites for alcoholic stimulants of greater potency, and,

"Whereas, the increase by recent enactment, of the limits of alcoholic strength of the said beverages, and the greatly widened freedom of sale of the same, would imply that such beverages are harmless, and,

"Whereas, the purchase of ardent spirits is now virtually free from restriction in this Province, and

"Whereas, in view of the more stringent measures in force in the rest of the Dominion and in the United States of America, such freedom of purchase in this Province is drawing to this Province, and is bound in the future increasingly to attract persons of undesirable character, with resulting increase of crime and menace to public security:

"Resolved:

"That this association hereby respectfully but very strongly protest without allegiance to any political party, against the recent retrograde action of the Government of this Province, and calls upon our legislators to enact prohibitory legislation such as shall place the Province of Quebec on a level in this matter with the most advanced of the other Provinces of the Dominion."

Jim Henry's Column

I wish my face was 17 years old

I came across a Kodak of myself in football togs, the other day. It made me ashamed of my present self. I was in training in those days. My cheek bones showed and I had a waist line. You wouldn't believe it to look at me now, but I could get down under a kick like a jack rabbit that is two jumps ahead of a hound.

You'll never look as well again as you do now, boys, so keep your faces fixed up. Don't get lazy about shaving; it's really no bother if you do it right.

I want you to start with Mennen's Shaving Cream because it's superior to anything else you can buy.

It will soften the toughest beard without rubbing in with fingers.

It works equally well with hot or cold water or with hard water.

Half an inch is ample for the average shave.

Just build up a lather for three minutes with the brush and your beard will be so soft you can almost rub it off.

and afterwards Mennen Talcum for Men—it doesn't show

Your face will feel great afterwards—none of the smarting or dryness that free caustic causes.

Buy a tube of Mennen's Shaving Cream yourself and make your Dad try it.

COMPOSITORS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Heavy Assessments to Be Reduced as Soon as Possible

[illegible] president of the Quebec and Ontario conference of Typographical Union, the following officers were elected as follows: Vice-president, Joseph Gauthier; Montreal; secretary-treasurer, H. S. Bender, Toronto. Toronto was chosen as the meeting place of the convention next year. Various [illegible] with a [illegible] with the St. Lawrence [illegible] executive of the [illegible]

The [illegible] B. C. Hair, [illegible] International Typographical Union [illegible] in addition to appointing [illegible] the past week-end, [illegible] had been passing approximately one million dollars per [illegible] War I for a defence fund, to which members were assessed 10 per cent. of their earnings. Members did not want to pay that assessment after that was necessary, and the [illegible] would be reduced and eliminated as soon as possible. The International Typographical Union had never carried a large defence fund, members always being willing [illegible] when the need arose.

There had been an attempt made by a certain group of printers in the committee [illegible] to create an impression that the I.T.U. at an inopportune time had tried to make effective a short work week and curtail production at a time when business in both countries was in a critical condition. That was not true.

At the conclusion of the session, Mr. Brady, chairman of the I.T.U. committee on apprentices, announced that a recommendation that apprentices upon entering upon their third year of apprenticeship, should enrol and complete the course of I.T.U. lessons in printing before becoming journeymen printers was to be made an international recommendation.

Conference decided against the laying down of a flat rate for apprentices, all local unions being instructed to draw up adequate scales for their own apprentices. Mr. Brady, chairman of the I.T.U. committee on apprentices stated that in his opinion it was unwise to lay down at this juncture a flat rate for apprentices in Quebec and Ontario, personally he did not think the rates recommended in the apprentice committee report high enough, especially for third and fourth year apprentices.

C. E. Tardif, local 176, Montreal Typographical Union, moved a resolution asking conference to recommend the system of stamping matrix in white, which helped to preserve the eyesight of the operators. This was unanimously agreed to.

RESOLUTION REJECTED.

The Conference rejected the resolution moved by J. C. Tardif on behalf of Montreal Typographical Union, No. 176, that the I.T.U. constitution be amended to secure the election of a vice-president chosen from Canadian locals. Conference submitted that the union was international in character, and no borderline could be recognized.

JUDGE REBUKES AND FINES SPEEDER

Norman Holden was fined forty dollars and the costs of the court by Judge Leet this morning for driving his car on Sherbrooke street at the rate of fifty miles per hour.

When the accused was arraigned and the charge read to him by the clerk of the court he told Judge Leet "that it was alright." His Worship in reply said "You ought to be sent to jail for driving a car at that rate of speed." The prisoner then explained that it was quite light when he was arrested. Judge Leet replied that it did not matter whether it was light or dark he should not drive at that rate of speed. He then fined Holden $40 and costs.

ONE MONTH FOR FIRST CONVICTIONS

Recorder Hears Five Cases of Infractions of the Liquor Act

Five cases of infractions of the Alcoholic Liquor Act have been brought before the Recorder since May 30, and in each case a sentence of one month's imprisonment has been imposed. The maximum punishment of three months was reduced to that of one month by the Recorder as in all the cases the culprits were first offenders.

On May 30, Gertrude McGuir of Ontario street west was the first to be sent to prison for selling liquor without a license, since the introduction of the new law. Then Joseph Aroitche was charged with selling liquor on two occasions, without a license and was sentenced on June 2 to one month's imprisonment on each charge. Josephat Gibault and Willie Boton, of 121 St. Lawrence Boulevard received similar sentences of one month each. Nathan Gordon, City Prosecutor said that it was too early to judge the effect that the new law would have on stopping drunkenness. So far he had noticed no decrease in the number of cases of drunkenness brought before the Recorder.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR BIG WAR PROFITEERS

U.S. to Prosecute Those Who Profited Unduly

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(United Press).— Jail sentences and heavy fines await big war profiteers, according to plans of the Department of Justice.

The biggest grafters are to be prosecuted first, Attorney General Daugherty announced today. He indicated that petty profiteers would not be bothered with. Thousands of dollars extorted from the Government by these grafters under the stress of war necessity will be returned to the federal coffers, Daugherty hopes.

The Department of Justice has reams of evidence on file, ready for Daugherty and now has the sanction of President Harding and the Cabinet for its drive to round up men who profited unduly at Government expense.

DIXIE BEAT "ALL MONTREAL" ON THE SOUTH SHORE LINKS

Close Contest by Enthusiastic Lady Players, in Heavy Rainstorm—Some Close Games

[illegible] Miss Strachan and Miss H. Kennedy had a hard tussle for victory. They [illegible] tested every inch of the way. Miss Kennedy, who is a very willing student, told me that she owes her golfing education entirely to her father whom she used to watch play. Even at Wimbledon she never took to the game, and although she has not the physique of Miss Leitch, the British, or Miss Sterling, the American champion—the latter is an intimate acquaintance of Miss Kennedy's—still she is destined one day to become a champion. She threw away quite a number of strokes against Miss Strachan, who assumed an early lead of two holes. For the opponent reason Miss Strachan showed signs of pressing. She wanted "distance" with the result that Miss Kennedy very speedily wiped out the debit side of the ledger.

It was level pegging all the way until the rain came down in torrential downpour. While others of the field took shelter, these two ladies ploughed on, and so interesting was the game that I accompanied them to the last green. At the fifteenth hole, where Miss Strachan looked like throwing away the game, she was bunkered. There was a miniature lake where her ball lay, but she slashed at the mud, heedless of her personal discomfort, and all but halved the hole.

I went a goodly way with Mrs. Soper, who returned the lowest card of the afternoon—93. She played wonderful golf under the prevailing conditions. She takes a trifle too full a swing and loses a lot of power in consequence, but she is a lady who ought to be heard of in local golfing circles.

The energy displayed by the competitors was wonderful. Mere men would have been seeking the shelter of a rabbit hole so awful was the downpour. All credit to him. Of such stuff are champions made.

A feature of the afternoon's play, from what I saw, was the amazing general excellence of the approaches.

TANGIERS IS ASCOT GOLD CUP FAVORITE

LONDON, June 15.—(By Canadian Press).—Notwithstanding the absence of steam traffic many thousands gathered at Royal Ascot yesterday to watch the opening of what taken all in all is the most important race meeting of the season.

It is to be feared that the winner tomorrow, Thursday, will not bear comparison with the majority of his predecessors. The race closed with 63 entries, all of which, however, were made in Paris and apart from the dead-heat recorded above, no French horse has won a race with the sole exception of Mr. Edward Hulton's Sir William Ogden, Tangiers, who was adjudged the winner last year after the disqualification of Ispahan, is entered and he at any rate has demonstrated his ability to stay the course. He is now five years old and has to carry considerably more than the 126 pounds with which he ran into second place last year. There is in fact at the moment no great outstanding horse in training, though if Tangiers wins again he will have some right to be so regarded.

The event was won by F. Short, won the Hardwicke Stakes here today. Lord Woolavington was second, and Mr. Leopold de Rothschild was third.

METAGAMA ATHLETES WELL ENTERTAINED

A grand concert was given to the Metagama Rovers by the R.M.S. Metagama Sports Athletic Club at the C.P.R. Athletic Club. The artists were Messrs. Chas. Boyle, Brooke Swift, McGowan, Hector Dean and Miss Godefroy.

The chairman was J. Deering. Supported by Mr. Lunn, chairman of the Metagama Rover Athletic Club.

There was a very large and appreciative audience composed of members of the Rosemount Club and friends who thoroughly enjoyed the evening and applauded the sailors for the manner in which they had amused them.

KING OF SPAIN WANTS SPANISH POLO TEAM TO MEET AMERICAN

LONDON, June 15. — The King of Spain who will arrive in London Thursday to attend the international polo matches will while here, organize a Spanish polo team to play the American team after the international games probably June 28. It is understood the American team has accepted the king's challenge.

SCOTS WIN 6 TO 0 IN EDMONTON; LOCAL SCANDAL

EDMONTON, June 15. — After the [illegible] Scotch tourists, presently on [illegible] encountered the [illegible] Edmonton Caledonians [illegible] The game was all in favor of the Scots, as the street rain had [illegible] the air and softened the ground, making it quite futile to look for the cut-in-ked tactics are rather sore on the [illegible] of the visitors. The select team consisted of Goalkeeper W. McKinnon; backs, Alexander, W. McDonald, J. Hunter and C. Robson; halves, J. Collier, S. H. Campbell, T. B. Lamb, W. Miller and R. Murison.

The Scots—Brownlie, McCormack, Dr. Scott Brown, McAndrew, Bennett, McMurray, Wilson, Thomson and M. Lamb. Referee, J. K. Matheson.

The game on the cold favored Edmonton and the Scots led off. Wilson catching up the cross-pass, made off and forced a corner which Crozier punched clear. A nice combined effort by the local forwards followed, and Miller lost a fine opening by banging too long on the ball. Manson now made the running and crossed, but stopped in and returned strongly. Midfield play by the tourist half-backs let Wilson off, and Crozier was called on to save at the expense of a corner. Bennett early captivated the crowd with a fine run, eluding some three opponents, to be baulked by the zealous Crozier.

REFEREE SAID "NO."

From a goal-kick Wilson caught up and placed through, but to the amusement of Andy the referee ruled no goal. Again the local left-hair lout, but as the shadow of Jimmy loomed up both hesitated, and McCormack nipped in and cleared. MacBain initiated a movement, McMenemy accepted and shot at Crozier, who threw himself across the ground and saved. Wilson lying handy, netted from the rebound after fifteen minutes' play. The Edmonton forwards, small in stature, played sprightly football right up to the Scots backs, but stopped there. On the other hand, the tourists' front rank invariably finished with a pop at goal. With long swinging passes the Scots brought up the leather and Wilson, getting possession, sighting the goal between the backs, fired a wicked shot, which left the helpless Crozier with nothing to do but pick the ball out of the nets. After a spell of play in the home end, a great raid by Collier raised the siege, the outside man running straight up the right, he sent in a beauty which seemed to demonstrate the famous Brownlie clutch with huge kick following. Now the locals showed their worth, and a foul for Brownlie looked dangerous, though really harmless. McPherson, Hunter and Robson tried hard to stem the tide, but the struggle was vain, as the inside men of the Scots were intent on business. Wilson adding a third, and a minute later a fourth. After this the tourists eased up, and indulged in all manner of trickery, which tickled the crowd and kept the Edmonton boys on the move. Half time sounded, the score standing: Scotland, 4; Edmonton, 0.

CONDITIONS SUITED.

Resuming, the Scots were early aggressive, the conditions eminently suiting them, although the soft surface seemed a handicap to the local bunch. Strong tackling and good playing brought up the Blues, and Lamb sent Brownlie a first timer, which the keeper fisted clear. McBain came in to prominence by leading up the line and playing so accurately to Thomson that the Scots-Canadian had no alternative but to score. The Edmonton boys kept manfully to their work, striving against odds. The right half, McPherson, showed a fine conception of the game, playing and covering worthy of his patriotic name. A spell of rally by the homesters raised the Albertan hopes at least a goal, but McCormack and Orr were not giving anything away. Again Wilson covered merrily down the field and finished his run with a great shot which Crozier dealt with in a most capable manner. The tourists now exhibited the traditional Scotch close-passing game. MacMenemy especially being in his element, swerving and dodging in the manner as is his wont in his native city, Glasgow.

CROWD MELTED AWAY.

The local halves tried to force the game, lashing the ball, but the visiting defence would have none of it, repelling every endeavor at penetration. Wilson, playing at his best, now gave the lessening crowd an impression of what has made his name as a centre by a few skilful touches, then a half-turn and shot, and the score was Scotland, 6, Edmonton, 0, when the game ended 60 seconds later.

TOD SLOAN.

A mysterious Mr. Cowie is supposed to have some information regarding the gate receipts of the game between Montreal and the All Scots. The secretary of the Information was successful President Hepburn, of the L.C.F.A. last evening ordered everyone connected with handling newspaper matches, board members sworn to secrecy, and it was mere guess work as to what transpired. Rumor had it that tickets were forged, and that gate keepers let many in at four for a dollar. However, the council members as they came out were solemn mien, refused to divulge what took place. Nothing was arrived at, but the evidence submitted was considered serious enough to adjourn for further expected evidence.

All this was the tail end of affairs. The resignation of W. Topp was accepted, without comment, and an extraordinary general meeting of the clubs is called for July 5th to fill the vacancy, as laid down in the constitution. In parenthesis it can be observed that Topp's resignation is the outcome of personal differences with the president. Outside the meeting talk was general that if Topp seeks re-election the clubs will be behind him, which might mean that Hopburn would get out, the stable not being big enough for the two.

Several suspensions were handed out. Fleming, of Locos, got a month for abusing Referee Christie, and in retiring, Fleming expressed the wish that they would get better men in the meantime.

Noon, G.W.V. and McCann, Sons of England, each received a month for fighting, but in different enclosures.

Dabbs and Munro were exonerated.

Considerable discussing took place regarding the late start in the Guards-Sons of Scotland game, and both clubs will be asked for an explanation.

East Greenfield complained that Referee Bob Walker had charged $5 for officiating in their Quebec Cup game with Windsor Hotel, and Walker will be asked to return $2, he having exceeded the fee permitted by the rules.

The draw for the Connaught Cup semi-final next Saturday is:

Calvin vs. Grenadier Guards on S.O.S. Referee, P. Gray.

Lachine vs. C.P.R. Referee, J. McIlroy.

Emard have entered a protest against Referee Fairbrother, and Sons of England have a like complaint against Referee Branda. This comes up before the Second Division tonight.

Printers will play a friendly game with Verdun City on Thursday evening at Regina Park instead of practice on Wednesday. Kick-off 6.30 p.m. Players are requested to be at club house at 6.15.

ROSEMOUNT ROVERS VS. S.S. METAGAMA

Before a large and enthusiastic crowd the above teams met in a hard fought game. The Rovers fast forwards were held in check by the excellent defence of the ship's boys, Rooney and Gavin, while Beats between the sticks gave a brilliant display. The Metagama ran out winners by two goals to one, P. Kelly scoring both goals. The same team will represent the Metagama against the Mecanth tonight at Rovers ground. Kick-off 6.30 p.m. With the fine record of the Mecanth a keen game is anticipated. There are a large following of each team and those who stay away will miss a treat. Mr. "Chef" Ballantyne will be on hand.

REFEREE FOR BIG FIGHT TO BE SELECTED TOMORROW AFTERNOON

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 15.—The New Jersey State Athletic Commission will select a referee for the Dempsey-Carpentier bout here at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

At this special meeting all other arrangements pertaining to the fight will be made.

NEWS FROM THE TRAINING CAMPS

MANHASSET, N.Y., June 15.—Georges Carpentier is becoming a glutton for rest.

Manager Descamps today ordered for him another 24 hours' leisure and the "secret training" at the Manhasset farm was largely carried on in the cool little front parlor.

Descamps professes to be perfectly satisfied with his charge's condition, and Georges himself is in noticeably higher spirits than for some time.

There are guards with suspicuous guns, and local "constables" with polished badges, who still keep would-be visitors and newspaper men alike outside the gates, but for all they could hear, they might as well have been training on the moon. Tex Rickard also sent up word for a conference in the matter of referee. Tex will be mugged for the film also.

Kearns denied that he had talked with anyone on his choice for referee. He has a favorite candidate, he said, but declined to name him.

Robert Edgren was believed by some to be the champion's choice for referee, but others say no. Jack and his manager, asserted Jim Dougherty, Philadelphia, third man in the Dempsey-Miske fight last fall, was their choice. Both Edgren and Dougherty were named in the articles as acceptable officials.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., June 15.—(By Henry L. Farrell, United Press Staff Correspondent.)—Champion Jack Dempsey today shook off some of the cruder which have schackled him to idleness all week.

Manager Kearns' permission to take part in a training camp ball game today was followed with the announcement that the regular training program will be resumed tomorrow.

Thursday promised to be a big day for the champion. Aching to get back into the ring with the pillows on his fists, the announcement made Jack supremely happy. Kearns further informed him that the official training pictures which will be part of the fight film pictures will be clicked off Thursday, promoter Tex Rickard also will sit up for a conference in the matter of referee. Tex will be mugged for the film also.

Kearns denied that he had talked with anyone on his choice for referee. He has a favorite candidate, he said, but declined to name him.

Robert Edgren was believed by some to be the champion's choice for referee, but others say no. Jack and his manager, asserted Jim Dougherty, Philadelphia, third man in the Dempsey-Miske fight last fall, was their choice. Both Edgren and Dougherty were named in the articles as acceptable officials.

SCORES OF GOOD TENNIS PLAYERS MEET IN QUEBEC

QUEBEC, June 15. (Star Special) — With five classes of events, the men's singles, men's doubles, ladies' singles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles, down for play, and with the best racket wielders in the Province of Quebec assembled, the Provincial tennis tournament will get under way this morning in this city. That there will be some stirring contests is evident from the draw. A number of prominent Montreal players will be on hand in an effort to capture the various crowns in the different classes, while the players from the various local clubs will also turn out in force. In addition to players from Montreal and Quebec, the best that can be found in La Tuque and various other places have entered in the Provincial tournament, for which there are over one hundred competitors.

Quebec will be represented by some thirty to forty players, while the Metropolis has practically as many.

LIGHTS ON EIFEL TOWER TO SHOW FIGHT WINNER

PARIS, June 15—(By Wythe Williams, for the Montreal Star and Philadelphia Ledger Cable Service. Copyright.) — A curious and rather an embarrassing situation has arisen as a result of the announcement cabled to the Ledger Foreign Service a few weeks ago to the effect that Gaston Vidal, the French Minister of Physical Education, would give his official recognition of boxing by his personal attendance at the Dempsey-Carpentier bout.

It is now definitely learned that M. Vidal has abandoned the trip, not from any desire of his own, but at the request of Premier Briand, owing to the fact that certain bodies of American clergymen have made representations through Washington urging him to remain in France.

M. Vidal, who is a great friend of Carpentier, and is the possessor of a pair of gloves worn by the French champion in his victories over Wells and Beckett, said to your correspondent: "I also am promised as a souvenir the gloves with which our Georges will put your Dempsey well to sleep."

The city of Paris is taking greater interest in the fight than anything that has occurred since the armistice, elaborate preparations already being made to receive the returns of the bout round by round. Inasmuch as the result should be known here late in the evening, the entire city will be in fete. If Carpentier wins red rockets will be sent up from the Eifel Tower and the heights of Montmartre and Montrouge. Lights will be blue if Dempsey wins, and yellow in case of a draw.

HUMOR IN FIGHTING.

(Ring W. Lardner Will Write on The Dempsey and Carpentier Fight).

Fighters, trainers and hangers on of the camps will be discussed by Lardner, in his inimitable, humorous way. Their habits and life will come under his eye and be translated into humor — Lardner Humor— and that means the very best. (Starts June 18.)

BABE RUTH MADE TWO MORE HOME RUNS YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, June 15. — Babe Ruth selected the first appearance of Tyrus Cobb as manager of the Detroit Tigers in a New York series to shatter his record for home runs on consecutive days.

Ruth's two home runs yesterday placed him sixteen days ahead of his record last year. Also, they marked, so far as is recorded, the only occasion on which the star has hit two home runs each in games on successive days. They also established the record of seven home runs in five days.

BLUE BONNETS MEET HAD GOOD CROWDS ALL THROUGH WEEK

Successful as Far as Attendance Went, But Increased Purses and Taxes Ate Up Much of Turnover—Vice-Chairman Won Jacques Cartier

From the point of view of the number of race-goers at Blue Bonnets during the past week, the Montreal Jockey Club has had probably the most successful meeting in its history. Taking into account the increased purses, taxes, etc., perhaps the financial success was not great. However, the public will remember the treatment they received at the hands of the management and J. K. L. Ross was congratulated for the way the first meeting was run under his presidency. Much credit is also due to Louis Angevine, who is serving his first term as secretary-treasurer. He and his staff have worked hard to make the meeting what it has been.

Yesterday's crowd was a good one and despite the occasional showers of rain, the weather was fine for racing. Betting was brisk on the mutuels, enthusiastic race-goers turning out for the last time for two weeks, anxious to make or lose their fortunes.

The feature event of the day was the Jacques Cartier Stakes. This race was won without much difficulty by Vice-Chairman, carrying the silks of W. Locke Vice-Chairman got away to a good start, running second for part of the way. He pulled ahead, however, and won by a good margin from Fort Bliss. Bolster, which was third, ran a fine race. After being left at the post, he cut down the lead of the other starters, until at the finish he was third.

The steeplechase yesterday was featured by no spills. It is the first time during the meeting that the event has been run off without at least one jockey being thrown. The favorite in this chase was absolutely out of the money, running a very bad last of five starters. King Terry won the event in fine style with Candidate second place and Butcher boy third.

Thurber was again the leading jockey of the meeting at Blue Bonnets. He brought in seven winners during the seven days, two less than were chalked up to his credit at Dorval. However, there were none of the other boys within one element which was conspicuous by its absence at the Blue Bonnets meeting was the "tout". Many remarked on this, which was largely due to the eagle eye of Dan McLaughlin and his Canadian Detective Agency. It just goes to show that Canadians can look after our racing meets here just as well as highly-paid Americans.

SUCCESSFUL SHOW OF LADIES KENNEL CLUB —SERGT.-DETECTIVE MERCIER HAD BEST SPECIMEN BELGIAN POLICE DOG

Due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Costar, the superintendent, and the committee, composed of Mrs. Learmont, Mrs. Trudeau, Miss Laviolette, and Miss Vera Robson, the fourth annual dog show of the Ladies' Kennel Club of Montreal, was the most successful yet held by that organization. There were 215 dogs benched at the two point show.

Out of town dogs did well and chief amongst them were the Airdales. In this breed, Norman MacKenzie's famous International champion Potsm Maxim was outstanding.

In the wire-haired class, Jas. Strachan's Homeless Hector was not only judged best, but he was also awarded the prize for the best dog in the show. This is a fine specimen of the breed and earned the honors bestowed upon him.

One of the largest entries in the show were the Belgian police shepherds. Besides dogs on exhibition only, there were thirty-seven of this breed at the show. The first prize dog was Albert Bourgeous' Carlo, while Mr. Beaudelbs showed the best trio and Mr. Rouly, the best bitch. The best specimen of the breed was shown by Sergt. Mercier of the Montreal Detective force. Sergt. Mercier's bitch Nellie Mercier created much comment as did most of the other entries in this breed. Mr. Fleurquin, of the Belgian Police Dog Club, of Montreal, was the judge in this breed and had on exhibition two dogs of his own, which were easily the best class of the entries, but which were not entered for prizes on account of the fact that their owner was the judge. These were the object of much attention on the part of dog fanciers.

Another special feature of the show was the Star Kennel's Alsatian sheep dogs, which Mr. Fleurquin also judged. The Star Kennels have won first all along the line.

Mrs. Webster's famous wire-haired terriers from Ottawa, carried off honors in specials and this lady from the Capital had a fine entry in the show.

Of the variety special awards, Patrick Doyle's Irish setter Tyrone Lady Erin, won in Class A, Mrs. R. E. Webster's terrier, By Town White Lady, won in Class C, Miss C. J. Laviolette's Chu Chin Chow of Aldershourne, won in Class D for toys, Mrs. R. E. Webster's fox terrier, by Town White Lady, won in Class E for Canadian-breds and in Class D, for brace, the award was given to Star Kennels' entry of Alsatian sheep dogs.

The prize of a five-dollar gold piece, offered by Drs. Etienne and Etienne, for the best puppy in the show, was awarded to Jas. W. Bain's Birchcliff Bashful.

THREE HOME RUNS IN OPENING GAME OF TWILIGHT BALL

Twilight Park League Got Away to Good Start Last Evening, When Athletics Defeated Crescents in Heavy Slugging Contest

Two home runs and eight other hits off the Athletics' star pitcher, Grenier, did not save Crescents from overwhelming defeat by a score of 14 to 7 last night in the opening game of the Twilight Park Baseball League, which was very well attended despite the threatening weather.

It was a slugging contest with a vengeance. Crescents were retired for nothing in the first half of the first, but when the fireworks began, Carmel drew base on balls, J. Delisle sent a screaming single through short, Lyons hit a home-run over the left field fence, Flaherty, Farrand and Lamothe singled in succession. Score, 4-0 for Athletics. The second innings told the same story. Crescents scored none, and Athletics two, making the score 6-0, and Arthur gave way to Guillaume, whose entry into the game seemed to inspire Crescents to make a fight of it, for in their half of the third they scored four runs.

Belec drew a pass, and Shaughnessy hit the ball right over centre field just out of the ground. O'Rourke singled and Dubuc sent a terrific liner to right field which he went the whole circuit. Score, 4-6.

Athletics, however, were not to be denied. They started the hitting, and they intended to finish it. Lamothe took first on O'Rourke's error. Papineau singled. Grenier tripled. Carmel singled. J. Delisle doubled. Lyons rounded out, but Tamm singled and five more runs swelled the Athletics' total. Score, 4-11.

Further comment is hardly needed. In the fourth, Crescents could do nothing, and doubles by Lamothe and Papineau, together with Carmel's sacrifice fly, netted Athletics two more, yet in the fifth, virtually defeated, but not disheartened, Crescents came back with two on their own account, a triple by Curtis and F. Delisle's hot single through short being responsible for the tally.

Heavy as was the hitting, a sterling brand of baseball was nevertheless put up. Each side made five errors, but these were mostly off very hot hits. Grenier's performance in the box was much better than the score indicates, for he struck out eleven men — three in a row in the sixth — and two of the ten hits off him netted four of the seven runs.

Considering the weather, the opening of this twilight baseball was auspicious, and when the real summer does at last set in, the conjunction of one of the nicest and handiest grounds in the city with excellent baseball will doubtless prove an irresistible lure to hundreds at the end of a sultry day.

Thursday evening, 6.30 sharp, Indians vs. St. Arsene.

PREPARING FOR THE GREAT INTL. POLO MATCHES

LONDON, June 15.—(By Floyd Gibbons.)—When one finds men willing to remove themselves, their families and their households 4,000 miles, make an outlay approximating a quarter million of dollars, devote a half year's exile to hard, gruelling and dangerous preparations, and then risk skull fracture or death beneath horses' hoofs—for the purpose of playing a game of skill and strength with men of another nation, one might suspect there would be blood in the game, and that it would be blood of the real sporting variety.

Only one week intervenes between now and the playing of that game. It will take place next Saturday, in the outskirts of London on a level rectangular green, 300 yards long and level as a putting green.

Eight stalwart horsemen, booted and helmeted, will participate together, with more than 100 high-spirited horses. A thousand enthusiasts drawn from many nations will witness the [illegible] and the doing of a great thing, even as the tourney as his forebears did at the court of King Arthur.

AMERICANS HOPE.

Americans' hopes for the International Polo Championship will rest in the hands of four white-clad Yanks expert of the mallet. Their opponents will be a veteran quartet of British polo stars.

Both teams have been in training for daily training for six months. Pony grooms with farriers, blacksmiths, saddlers and trainers have been hard at work since Christmas time, and according to the stings of educated horse flesh up to the highest development of pony power.

From the captain of each team down to the humblest stable boy everyone is doing everything within its power to court victory. Each player in the list is determined on winning for his pride in and the honor now holds will be defended by the following: Lieut.-Col. H. A. Tomkins, 2; Major F. W. Barrett, 3; Maj. A. N. Lockett, and Lord Wodehouse, back.

America's supreme effort to win the trophy will be made by the following: H. L. Stoddard, 1; H. H. Jr. 3; J. Watson Webb and Devereaux Milburn, back.

THE TWO UMPIRES

The umpires will be W. S. Buckmaster, an old international player, and Lieut.-Col. E. D. Miller, late of the Seventh Lancers and the Northumberland Fusiliers. The latter is the author of "Modern Polo," and is recognized as one of the world's greatest authorities on the game.

The contest calls for a series of three games, scheduled for June 18, 22, and 25, all of which will be played on the Polo Field of the Hurlingham Club.

Much anxiety is being felt over the condition of the [illegible], now hard and dry, promising [illegible] great punishment for the ponies. In practice games recently both teams left the best ponies in the stables, using only reserve animals. They will begin intensive training this week, sparing their good [illegible] playing only the mildest games.

Expert observers are reticent in their predictions on the outcome of the match. There is a shade of sentiment favoring the English, based on a belief that the American ponies are not in as good condition as the English; also the English team play is considered superior to that of the American team, which has played in its present composition only six or seven times, whereas the English players have all played together for years. Many observers hold that the individual players on the American team are superior to the men opposing them.

The $100,000 worth of American-owned ponies occupy a row of stables at the Hurlingham Club, and thousands of humans could well envy the care and attention lavished upon these equine stars. The ponies number fifty, and each occupies a palatial box-stall provided with a door and a window.

There are a number of veteran ponies in the American stables, but none that has reached the undesirable stage of knowing too much. The American players do not join with Kipling in the belief that the pony plays more of the game than the player. Old ponies get the habit of keeping their eye on the ball and following it at all times, but this is most disastrous for the team play, because in the interests of play it is frequently more important for the player to be in a position away from the ball, so that it may be passed to him by a team-mate.

Life begins daily in the stables at 6.15 a.m., when twenty-five American grooms each take two ponies under charge for an hour and a half of exercise, walk and jog, usually through country lanes, on in the soft meadows of Richmond Park, after which they are returned to the stalls.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero: Fred Toney. The ponderous pitching phenom of the New York Giants stopped a Giant losing streak and a Cardinal winning streak. The score was six to four.

Long hitting didn't help the Athletics. They got four homers, but St. Louis won, 10 to 9, in ten innings.

Another extra inning game was staged by Washington and Cleveland, the Senators taking it 8 to 7.

The Phillies crowded thirteen hits into one game and beat Pittsburgh 8 to 3.

Babe Ruth — Hung up his twenty-second and twenty-third homers for the season and helped in a 9 to 6 win for the Yanks over Detroit.

In the semi-finals club championship at the Westmount Lawn Bowling Club, Gardner's rink defeated that skipped by W. J. Moon by 22 to 17, while Mr. Moon's won from W. Brown's rink by 22 to 13. The winners play the final to-night.

RINGERS FEARED FOR MERCANTILE BALL LEAGUE

It is rumored that a certain club, member of the Mercantile Ball League, may have in its lineup tonight some players who are not eligible to play in the league, because they are not bona-fide employes of the firm this team represents. The league's secretary stated yesterday that if this was the case, the said players would not be allowed to take part in the game in question. When seen today President Boucher said that it was true there were rumors to the effect that a certain club had the intention of using outside players in their line-up, but the manager of the club in question had been notified not to do so.

Fletcher's field will be the scene of two interesting games of the Mercantile Baseball League tonight, when the following teams will be seen in action:

On Diamond No. 1, Swift-Canadian and American Railway Express Co.

On Diamond No. 2, Guaranteed Pure Milk Co. and Goodwin's.

These contests will start at 6.30 o'clock and all the friends and supporters of the contesting teams no doubt will turn out in large numbers to see their favorites play.

STANDING OF THE LEAGUE.

The official standing of the Mercantile League, as given by President Champlain Provencher, is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Canadian Swift Co.	3	1	750
American Ry. Ex. Co.	3	1	750
Goodwin's, Ltd.	2	2	500
Guaranteed Milk Co.	0	4	000

Ottawa Will Play Shamrocks Here

The Ottawas, champions of the Eastern Amateur Lacrosse Association, will play Shamrocks next Saturday at the Mile End grounds. The Green Shirts will present a stronger team than gave the Cornwalls such a hard run for victory here two weeks ago. The Shamrock defence is a very strong one, and the home will be strengthened so that the Irishmen expect to pull out at the end of the match with the big end of the score. The practices each evening at the Shamrock grounds are being well attended, and the youngsters are fast rounding into first-class condition. Saturday afternoon will see lots of excitement and the spectators will get their fill of lacrosse. At 1.45 a junior game between the Violets and Erins will be played, followed by the senior game at 3 o'clock. At the end of the senior game the Independent Juvenile League will open its schedule.

A. A. Sharpe and E. Perry were successful last night in defending the A. H. Vallance and H. L. Paton Challenge Cup for doubles at the M.A.A.A. Lawn Bowling Club green, when they defeated the challengers, H. V. Iverson and W. J. LeGallais, 14 to 10.

SMITH PAPER HAS DROP; TOR. RAILS MAKES ADVANCE

Little improvement in tone was evident on the stock market here this morning, and general trading was somewhat less heavy than in any morning session this week. The list of active issues was also a smaller one. General prices ruled about steady, with here and there a notable fluctuation. The widest movement of the morning was in Smith Paper, while Toronto Rails had a sharp rally, with some other issues ranging slightly narrower.

In Smith Paper the movement was a downward one, the stock being offered down to 70, a net loss of 3 points, and a new low on the decline. Other papers were rather divided. Abitibi was 32½ to 32 down 1. Brompton 30½ to 30, unchanged. Laurentide 84, while Abitibi pref. sold down 2 net points at 83. Only odd lots of Riordon changed hands during the session, sales taking place unchanged at 10.

The rally in Toronto Rails was a fairly sharp one, and noted from the opening of trading. The first sale of the issue occurred at 75½, the stock then rising to 77½, at which level it closed with a net advance to its credit of 2 points. Other utility issues were less brisk. Bell Tel. rights, which disappear from trading today declined almost to the vanishing point at ½ cent. Quebec Ry. rallied ⅛ point selling at 26⅛. Shawinigan was 105, unchanged. Power sold at 82, steady.

National Breweries which became ex-dividend $1 per share today sold less ½ dividend and ¾ lower down, the stock changing hands at 51. Atlantic Sugar appeared in the market for the first selling at 28.

There was no further change in Dominion Steel this morning, the stock selling at 26¼.

Dominion Canners lost a net point going to a new low at 19. Lake of the Woods was unchanged at 135, while Smelters came out steady at 15.

WOOLLEN MILLS STILL IDLE

BRADFORD, England, June 15.—Most woollen mills are still standing idle from a lack of coal. Prices are generally steady to firm but Bradford does not think higher prices are warranted. Agreement has been arrived at regarding future wages in both the woollen and worsted trades. Representatives of workers have decided to recommend acceptance of the new proposals which mean that workers will accept a reduction on their present gross wages of 18.91 per cent compared with 26.65 per cent on the first award by employers. This means a reduction of about fourteen shillings per week for male workers. Proportionate reductions for females and junior workers.

RALLY SETBACK BUT PRICES PICK UP SOME LATER

NEW YORK, June 15.—Oil shares registered substantial gains in the early trading in the stock exchange today as a result of latest developments in the Mexican oil situation. A block of 2,000 shares of Mexican Petroleum changed hands at the opening at 120, representing an overnight loss of 7 points. Pan-American Petroleum, which controls Mexican Petroleum, opened at a moderate loss, but this was immediately extended to 3 points. Royal Dutch, General Asphalt and Atlantic Gulf featured the other reactionary shares of that group. Heaviness marked the early dealing in Baldwin Locomotive, Pullman, American Sugar, Crucible Steel and numerous other industrials and specialties. Rails were only moderately changed, but mainly downward.

Oils overshadowed the market during the active forenoon. Mexican Petroleum made an extreme loss of 7⅜ points and Pan-American "B" fell 5½. Most other oils increased their early losses, especially Atlantic Gulf common and preferred and Royal Dutch. Steels, equipments, sugars and numerous miscellaneous issues continued to lose ground. Weakness was most pronounced in Crucible Steel, Baldwin and American Locomotives, American Sugar, United States Rubber, Sumatra Tobacco and International Paper. These and sundry shares were 2 to 4 points down. Virginia-Carolina Chemical pfd. lost 8 points. Rallies of 1 to 3 points occurred before noon on short covering. Call money opened at 5½ per cent.

The improvement after the early reaction from yesterday's rally was mostly sustained in the later trading up to 1.30. A few leaders extended the early rally, while others held back. Mex. Petroleum, which was the spectacular feature of the day, held at 122¼ at 1.30, or three points above the low of 119¼. The close yesterday was 130 and the opening this morning 120, ex-dividend 3 per cent.

Northern Pacific and Great Northern, which made partial recovery from yesterday's weakness continued to act better. The former after selling off from 63½ to 64½, rallied to 66 and Gt. Northern moved up from 62½ to 63¾. C. P. R. was also firmed at 110¾ to 111. Reading worked up to 68¼ from an early low of 67⅝, and Union Pac. from 115¼ to 116.

Other features of the list were: Loco. 80¾ to 79½ to 80; Asphalt 56⅝ to 55 to 56½; A.J. 37½ to 35⅝, 37¼; Sumatra 37 to 52⅝ to 54⅛ to 53⅜; A.C.W. 28 to 22¼ to 23¼; Baldwin 74 to 71 to 73⅛ to 72⅝; Beth. Steel B. xd. 1¼, 51¼ to 49¾ to 50½; Cuba Cane 9⅝ to 8⅝ to 8⅝; Chandler 60⅜ to 60¼ to 61¼. Crucible 53¼ to 52 to 53½ to 53. Alcohol 56⅛ to 54¾ to 56. Int. Paper 54 to 50¼ to 53⅜; Pan American xd. 1¼, 50½ to 48½ to 49¾; Pierce Arrow 21 to 19¾ to 20¼; Retail Stores xd. 1¼, 55⅛ to 54⅜ to 55; Rubber 59 to 57 to 58¼. Am. Sugar 71 to 70 to 69½. Studebaker 75½, 76¼ to 74⅝ to 75⅜; Steel 76½ to 74¼ to 75⅛. Money was 5½ per cent.

LONDON WOOL AUCTION

LONDON, June 15 (Special Star Cable).—At yesterday's wool auction Lincolnshire long wool fleeces sold at from 14d to 18d per 2lb pounds against 45d last year. Merinos were somewhat easier, but crossbreds held steady.

Slackening of interest on the part of the continental buyers is noted. The British Australian Wool Realization Association offered 11,500 bales today, and although it was a very miscellaneous selection, practically all of it was sold, chiefly to home, French and Belgian operators. Merinos continued firm, also fine crossbreds, but for lower grade crossbreds the market was generally in buyers' favor. The detail: Sydney, 4,378 bales, best scoured merino 31½d, greasy merino 25½d, greasy crossbred 23½d. Victoria, 1,766 bales, greasy merino 11½d to 24½d, scoured merino 21½d to 38d, greasy crossbred 4¾d to 12½d. New Zealand, 1,067 bales, all crossbred; best scoured 26d, greasy, 10¾d slips, 15½d.

Ontario's Big Issue Discourage d in N.Y.

TORONTO, June 15. — Conditions in Wall Street have discouraged the Ontario authorities from making the $30,000,000 provincial loan in that market. In the United States bonds yielding 7½ per cent to the investor are required and this is regarded as impossible for the province. The new money is needed to see the province through the balance of this year, largely to meet expenditures on completion of the first units of the Queenston-Chippawa hydro development. For the present the province will hold away from the market, but the money is needed early in the autumn.

Dome Mines Outlook Quite Satisfactory

TORONTO, June 15.—(Star Special.) That minority shareholders should take a lot for granted and rely on directors' judgment, and that majority shareholders in the United States would sway the directorate as to the form of dividends, were a couple of points brought out at the annual meeting of Dome Mines.

While shareholders had great difficulty in getting an opinion as to ore reserves, as general manager H. E. Dewdney said the mines are known were equally both in form and value, he told a shareholder that at no time had he been so well pleased with the property as at the present time.

The general tenor of the addresses was to the effect that the situation was bright. Mr. De Pencier made the statement that the ore body run into one of the eighth level, may quite probably be the top of the body on the tenth level.

Experimental work on the eighth level with diamond drill has been borne out by actual working. The ore is estimated running from $2 to $20 to the. Mr. De Pencier said that it looked as if an average of $10 to $12 would be developed. Below the tenth level the diamond drill has gone down another three hundred feet, indicating continued ore.

President J. S. Bache intimated that he thought the future of Dome Mines this year would be well over $2,000,000 and that it was probable that there would be capital reduction of $1 per share, the $1 dividend placing the stock back on its old basis for all intents and purposes. Earnings of $200,000 a month were predicted. The mine was easily cleared with its development, he said, and it would not be necessary to do a minimum of four years mining to make its sight.

Two changes were made on the board of directors, Dr. D. Keating, chief of the board, and has left the country. A. H. Curtis is also resigning. They are being replaced by Morton F. Stern and F. G. Corning, both of New York city.

Business Men in the Public Eye

ARMAND CHAPUT
New president of the Canadian Association of Wholesale Grocers.

Topics of the Street

There was quite a sharp decline in the volume of business on the local stock exchange today, the turn-over for the morning being 2,094 shares, a decline of 2,324 shares from yesterday morning's total of 4,418 shares.

Toronto Rails was the most active stock on the list during the session, showing a total of 540 shares, other active issues including: Abitibi 225; Brompton 180; Shawinigan 172; Mont. Power 104; Quebec Ry. 75; Bell Tel. 66; Laurentide 50, and Nat. Breweries 50 shares.

The better tone in Spanish River was attributed to the brighter outlook for a settlement of the labor dispute in which the company is involved and an early resumption of operations at the different plants. In fact it was believed that a settlement might come within a few days.

So far as the Spanish mill hands are concerned it is stated that they are very tired of their enforced idleness particularly as they have received little or no strike benefits from the organization which precipitated the strike.

There has been an impression that the paper manufacturers have stood solidly together in all matters appertaining to their welfare both as to prices of their product to the consumer and wage scales. Whether this was the case at any time would be difficult to prove, but there have been indications lately that if they are bound together in any way the binding is rather loose.

The latest indication of this was when Abitibi started up operations, and there is as yet no indication that it attained any advantage from that down. The other plants have now been shut down for five weeks. A conference is scheduled for tomorrow in New York between employers and employes.

Confirmation was forthcoming after a meeting of the directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation yesterday afternoon that British Empire Steel second preferred will not come up for dividend consideration for a month hence or three months after the date of issue of the new securities. At yesterday's meeting the regular dividend on Dominion Iron and Steel preferred was declared and the amount goes to the holding company for distribution to holders who have exchanged their shares for the Empire first preferred, series B, issue.

The present condition of the market for Dom. Steel or British Empire second preferred does not encourage expectations that the results of the first quarter's operations under the new corporate conditions will provide dividends. There are, however, some who think the company will be in a position to pay something. This is based on the activity in the coal trade and the profits from the 40,000 ton steel rail order which the company now has in hand.

At the recent special meeting of Riordon shareholders, at which it was hoped the atmosphere would be cleared by a free discussion, some questions were put which it was understood the speaker did not desire reported, otherwise they would not be asked. One of these had reference to the interest of J. W. Killam, president of Royal Securities Corporation, in the sale of the Gatineau property to the Riordon company. As publicity has been given this matter in a connection which reflects on the deal, the following verbatim report of the questions and answers will be of interest:

Mr. Killam said: "I know a good deal about these properties. I bought the properties from Senator Edwards and the Gilmour Hughson Company. I could have sold the Gilmour Hughson property alone, which I bought several months before, for a million dollars cash profit, without buying the Edwards properties at any time during the three or four months that I had them. There were other people besides the Riordon people who wanted to buy Gatineau, and would have bought it at that time.

"I turned these properties over to the Riordon Company for a profit in shares, and I have not sold one dollar of these shares, and their value depends entirely on the future of this company."

Mr. Stevenson, the questioner, then said that that was one of the principal reasons for the small number of subscriptions coming in. Then "How much in shares?"

Mr. Killam: "One million dollars in 7 per cent second preferred, and about three million dollars in common stock. The reason I did not sell those shares was because I could not have sold them. I could have sold them for two million dollars cash easily last summer, but I want to say this, that I believe in their future, and it is also the established policy of the Royal Securities Corporation that in connection with bonus stocks that it receives having reference to the sale of securities that it does not sell them to the public until such time as they have demonstrated their value, for instance, as in the case of the Cement Company. The main issue, gentlemen, is to get over a thousand subscriptions for these five million dollars for bonds. Get the four million, and as I said before, we will put in the fifth million if necessary."

LACK OF CREDIT FOR COAL ORDER HAMPERS ITALY

NEW YORK, June 15.—(Star Special)—Italy is in the market for one million tons of American bituminous coal but is unable to purchase it on account of the lack of credits. Italy needs this amount of coal immediately for her manufacturing industries which have plenty of orders ahead.

Italian buyers must have three months' credit, if they are to purchase coal here. Given 45 days for delivery, would leave the Italian manufacturer an additional 45 days to fabricate his product, distribute it and collect his money, part of which would go to pay for his coal. But no one in this country is willing to gamble on the ability of the Italian to pay for the coal. Neither will the banks of Italy guarantee any except the very biggest of the Italian purchasers' payments, nor will the local banks advance coal exporters sufficient funds on the shipments to carry the business for three months.

Thus the U.S. coal producer is losing between two and three million dollars worth of business and the Italian factories are closing up because they are unable to advance the cash for the needed bituminous.

Advices from Italy tell of the acute scarcity of bituminous coal there, and suspension of business due to the inability of the manufacturers to secure the all essential, coal.

The entire export situation, according to well informed coal men, is bound up in the matter of credits. Unless the producers of this country can find some means to advance credit to the European manufacturer until he is able to help himself, the coal export business of this country can be but meagre at most. Many coal men hope that the American banks will see the advantages of local exporters securing this trade, and devise a system similar to the British plan by which United Kingdom producers were able to advance long credits, and thus control the coal exportation of the world.

American bituminous is being laid down at what is considered very reasonable prices abroad. The European buyer can secure good grades of soft coal at from $12 to $15, according to destination.

Local houses report Ireland active and buying considerable amounts of American coal. This is almost exclusively for immediate delivery, and the Americans do not expect to retain the business after England's strike is ended and she is in a position to export once again. But the business is more than welcome just now with the local consumption so low and the probability that England will not be ready to export any coal for many months, due to the damage effected against her mines by the long continued strike.

BETTER TONE AT CLOSE OF RAW SUGAR MARKET

NEW YORK, June 15 (Special to Star).—A break to four cents c.i.f. delivered basis of 96 degrees occurred in Porto Rico raw sugars yesterday on sales of upwards of 25,000 bags in port, afloat and for shipment, when Arbuckle Brothers secured 8,000 bags afloat due the 18th, at 4 cents c.i.f. delivered, together with 6,500 bags in port at 4 cents c.i.f. delivered, while Federal Sugar Refining Company got 10,000 bags for the last half of June shipment at the same price. The four cents level was a decline of 15 points from the recent price paid for Czecho-Slovak tablets sugars and established a new low level for this year. The four cents c.i.f. price for Porto Ricos was equivalent to 2.40 cents for Cuban raw sugars, which is the lowest level the market has touched in upwards of five years.

At the close the market generally had a better tone, there being fewer offers at the four cents level. There were several invoices reported under treaty, port and afloat reported under treaty, but their owners were reluctant to load in establishing a further decline. It was intimated, however, that in the absence of a better movement in refined sugars it would be difficult to order better than four cents delivered for Porto Ricos particularly if they were forced on the market.

In the absence of definite advices from the Cuban Sugar Commission prices for Cuban raw sugars were regarded as nominal. So far the commission has declined to meet the reduction in the raw market, preferring to remain inactive despite the downward trend in uncontrolled sugars.

WHEAT MARKET OPENED STEADY, BECAME LOWER

The following noon grain letter was received from Chicago by E. C. Morris, manager for Logan & Bryan, at their Board of Trade branch office:

Wheat.—Generally favorable weather conditions and advices indicating free country offerings to arrive, led to free selling during the early part of the session. Cash market started about steady. Crop reports were more favorable, with responsible authorities stating that the appearance of black rust in the spring wheat district is not a matter for immediate concern.

Corn.—Started fairly steady, but commission house selling was encouraged by the weakness in wheat, and prices dropped to a discount under previous close. Volume of business was moderate. Cash market started relatively unchanged, with spot trading basis the same as yesterday.

STAGNATION IN STEEL IS ACUTE; STOCKS SMALL

NEW YORK, June 15. (Special to The Star) — The Iron Age tomorrow will say:

So pronounced is the stagnation that the trade has given up hope that anything can be done to break the accentuated summer dullness. The continued excess of consumption over production is digging into stocks in consuming hands, and some expansion in demand is counted on in the early fall. The quick deliveries asked on much of the run of new orders indicate that stock balances are far from remaining well rounded out.

Except for a further slowing down of operations, the week has been devoid of developments. Guaging of the percentage of producing capacity that is active is difficult. It is doubtful if for the industry as a whole output is above a 25 per cent rate.

The estimate for Pittsburg is that it is around 20 per cent.

Seven of the open hearth plants of the Carnegie steel interests, including blast furnaces, are idle. Two more of its blast furnaces are expected to go out of blast this week, leaving only 15 of its total of 59 in operation. One Steel Corporation stack has been blown out in Chicago, leaving nine active of 29. The Corporation's steel output in the Chicago district is put at 30 per cent of normal.

Price changes have been unimportant. The recession, as in wire products, sheets, chain and castiron pipe, brought no better demand. Bidding for export business, small but conspicuous by comparison with the orders making up domestic sales, brings out price weaknesses which points the way attractive inquiries will be received except in the event of an expansion beyond present hopes for 1921.

ORDERS TO RETURN

Compositors Vote Against Instructions of Typographical Union

BOSTON, June 15.—Although the walkout of compositors from several local newspaper offices developed an impromptu strike organization today, it had to further effect on the publication of papers. Editions of both morning and evening papers have been approximately on time since the start of the disturbance on Monday night. Eight pages, by agreement, have constituted the size of those papers affected by the walkouts.

A new factor in newspaper make-up appeared today in the use in some papers of photographic reproduction of typewritten copy. Baseball box scores, editorials, feature matter and occasional stories were presented in this form.

The compositors who walked out have organized with the election of a "vacation committee." Members of the committee said today that the concensus of opinion among the compositors was that they would not return to work until they received a wage increase in line with recent requests. The publishers have announced that an arbitration board duly authorized, returned an award that no advance was justified at this time. The International Typographical Union and the Boston Typographical Union heads have declared the strike unauthorized and ordered the men to return to work. The compositors have voted against any return until their demands were met.

"AN UNAUTHORIZED STRIKE."

Newspaper compositors who walked out of morning and evening newspaper offices here, Monday night and yesterday, voted at a meeting last night not to return to work until their demands for a wage increase were granted. This action was taken after Sylvester J. McBride, president of Boston Typographical Union 13, had told the men they had made a mistake in going out and urged them to return to work.

Michael Wall, who presided, told the meeting that the wage scale desired has been presented to the publishers by a committee of the men this afternoon but that the publishers had declined to treat with them. The scale, he said, called for $1.22 an hour for day workers, $1.29 for night workers and $1.36 for the "lobster shift."

Edward Fisher, chairman of the State Board of Conciliation and arbitration made the following statement yesterday with regard to the walk-out: "From the information received by the Board it would appear that the strike of the compositors was unauthorized and the organization has assumed the obligation of getting the men back to work."

At the offices of the board it was said that the word "organization" in this statement referred to the typographical union.

PRESIDENT'S ORDERS.

Sylvester J. McBride, president of the Boston local of the International Typographical Union, issued the following statement last night: "The action of members of the Boston Typographical Union in striking the newspaper offices of this city Monday evening, is in violation of the laws of the International Typographical Union and the international arbitration contract, and places in jeopardy the interests of members of our organization employed on newspapers through out the jurisdiction. President McParland has telegraphed from Denver ordering the men to return to work immediately, and carry out all contractual obligations. This order has been promulgated by the local officials to the men who went out on strike, and it is incumbent on members to obey this mandate."

NO PAPERS AT PORTSMOUTH.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., June 15.—Publishers of the three newspapers here and representatives of the striking compositors failed to agree on a wage scale and working hours at the conference yesterday, and as a result this city was again without papers. The Herald and Times, both afternoon papers, in whose plants the strike started Monday afternoon did not publish.

At the conferences today the publishers said they offered the men a contract providing for the same pay and working hours as that which recently expired. This offer, the publishers asserted, was refused.

Striking compositors in job printing plants reached an agreement with their employers whereby they will be paid $32.50 a week, and will return to work.

WEEKLY PAPER MEN ENJOY LAKE LOUISE

CHATEAU LAKE LOUISE, Alta., June 15. The C.P.R. special train, carrying about 150 representatives of Canadian weekly newspapers under the auspices of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, arrived at Lake Louise yesterday morning. The train was somewhat delayed on account of a stop-over being made at Field in order that the party should see beauties of the Yoho Valley en route to Lake Louise. During their stop at Field, an impromptu dance was arranged at the Y.M.C.A., which was formerly one of the famous hotels along the system of the C.P.R., and they had a most enjoyable time.

The party is exceptionally well representive of the whole of Canada, representatives being present from Nova Scotia to British Columbia.

W. R. Davis, president of the Association during the past year, was very enthusiastic in his impressions of the trip along the C. P. R. from Vancouver, and eulogized the services which the company have placed at the disposal of the party. Everybody, he said, was perfectly happy and comfortable, and the scenery was the most magnificent he had ever seen. Every facility was afforded in order that they might enjoy the beauties of the Canadian Pacific Rockies. And it was a great surprise when a special observation car was placed on the train from Revelstoke to Field. On arrival at Lake Louise, the party enjoyed breakfast aboard the special train, and were conveyed to the Chateau by electric cars.

A. B. Calder, representing the C.P.R. is in charge of the party and at Vancouver, was joined by H. W. Brodie, General Passenger Agent, Vancouver, who accompanied him to Lake Louise where F. W. Fox, editor of the C.R.R. Press Bureau, joined them.

SINN FEIN PLANS TO KILL SUCCESS OF ULSTER HOUSE

Intransigents Destroy Great Portion of Belfast Water Supply

GREENWOOD SPEAKS

Craig Still Eager for Peace But De Valera Refuses Conference

LONDON, June 15.—(Montreal Star and Chicago Tribune Cable. Copyright.)—Joseph Devlin opened the debate in the House of Commons last night on the murder of civilians in Belfast on Sunday, accusing the Crown forces of outrages, and the Government of having instigated them. The whole Irish question was again thrashed out, General Townshend advocating martial law and stringent military measures.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, in answer to Devlin, said there was a deliberate campaign by the Sinn Fein to destroy the success of the Ulster Parliament. He declared that within the last few hours one of the results of this campaign has been to destroy a considerable portion of the Belfast waterworks, which supplies the city.

U.S. PLOT AND MONEY.

He condemned a suggestion that the Crown forces were responsible for Sunday's murders, and said the remedy for the Irish situation lies in the hands of the Irish people. One parliament, in the north, is functioning, he said, and then declared he would like to see the other in operation.

"I would like to see the country administered by Irishmen and for Irishmen, with the widest possible measure of financial control," said Sir Hamar.

"The Premier of the North has already met the leader of the Sinn Fein, and is prepared to meet him again, but the Sinn Fein leader has refused."

The Government, continued the secretary, must take every means to defeat the Sinn Fein conspiracy to break up the Empire by "a highly organized and heavily financed—principally from the United States — organization of murder and terror."

Sir Hamar was continually interrupted throughout his speech.

RIOTING UNTIL CURFEW.

BELFAST, June 15.—Considerable rioting continued in Belfast yesterday. A number of persons were injured, among them a girl, who died later, and two women.

Yesterday afternoon an outbreak occurred, when women jeered at the funeral procession of a policeman who was shot during Sunday's disturbances. Sinn Fein cries were raised as the procession passed through the Sinn Fein district, and later on an armored car returning from the funeral was attacked in the Falls road district.

The fighting was almost continuous last night about Ashmore street, and part of the Falls division, where the police were attacked last Friday, which was the beginning of the present trouble. As the night progressed, the riot area widened. A large section of the Falls division was affected, but when the curfew hour arrived armored cars took possession of the district and the snipers reluctantly withdrew.

A man and a boy were killed, the boy dying in Victoria Hospital. His parents probably will not be aware of his fate until the curfew is raised in the morning. Another youth was shot in the throat.

SMUTS MAY MAKE OFFER.

LONDON, June 15.—(Special Cable to Montreal Star and Chicago Tribune, Copyright).—At the same time that the Irish question now is practically sure to be discussed in the Imperial Council, the Government organs are busy creating an atmosphere of peace. It has been suggested that the King in his speech at Belfast on Wednesday next, will take an offer to the South, but this is unlikely, as it would mean identifying the Crown with a party in the quarrel.

It is much more likely that a definite offer will be made to south Ireland through one of the Dominion Premiers, probably Mr. Smuts, in whom all have confidence.

McKEOWN TRIED FOR MURDER.

DUBLIN, June 15.—A field general court martial has begun the trial in the City Hall of John Joseph McKeown, M.P., for Longford on a charge of murdering district Inspector McGarth on January 7 last.

Inspector McGarth, accompanied by other policemen, surrounded a house in which McKeown had hidden. There was an exchange of shots and the Inspector fell. McKeown escaped to the hills, but was followed by a police sergeant. There was a fight between the two men until dusk, when the ammunition of the sergeant became exhausted.

On March 7, McKeown was captured, but, although he was handcuffed, he made his escape while being taken to the Mulligan barracks. He was pursued, wounded and re-captured.

Today at the court martial, McKeown was handcuffed, but his hands were freed while he made an eloquent statement. He claimed that as a commandant of the "Republican army" he had made war in defence of his nation and was not a murderer. McKeown declared that he should have received the same treatment as had been meted out to Crown forces he had captured, who had been well treated. He said the Irish people had endorsed his acts.

McKeown was the commandant of an ambush at Bellinalee in February, when a lorry was blown up by a mine in the road, resulting in the death of three persons and numerous other casualties. Evidence given for the defence by auxiliaries who were in that ambush tended to show McKeown's chivalrous treatment of wounded and prisoners.

The Crown counsel contended that in view of McKeown's admission on the stand the only possible verdict for the court to render was that of murder. The Judge advocate in summing up adopted this view. He said the law recognized no difference in a degree of murder. Later on, he added, the court might decide upon what recommendation it might make in supplementing the verdict.

KILLED HERO OF "OTRANTO."

A despatch from Dublin, February 3, said District Inspector Francis Worthington Craven was one of those killed in an ambuscade the previous day at Ballinalee. Craven served in the British navy during the war and received the United States distinguished service medal and navy cross and the British distinguished service order. While comanding the British destroyer Mounsey he saved 600 United States soldiers from the transport Otranto when the Otranto was lost as the result of a collision with thesteamer Kashmir off the Scottish coast in October, 1918. He had only been a member of the Royal Irish Constabulary a few weeks when he was killed.

U.S. CITIZEN WAS SHOT.

DUBLIN, June 15.—Thomas Rush, who was shot to death Sunday evening at Lisacul, near Castlereagh, by Crown forces was a pensioner of the American army, it is officially stated. He returned to Ireland fourteen months ago and probably was a United States citizen, it was added.

At Lisacul the Crown forces surprised about fifty civilians who are believed to have been drilling. The civilians scattered, but were pursued for some distance by the troops, who repeatedly sumoned them to halt. The civilians refused to stop, and the Crown forces after chasing them for two miles opened fire.

Rush was among those shot dead. He lived at Megher Bay, county Mayo.

HUSBAND'S WATCH PAID FOR MURDER

Allege Mrs. Kaber Gave Publisher's Timepiece to Assassins

CLEVELAND, O., June 15.—(Associated Press).—A diamond ring and watch owned by Daniel F. Kaber, which are said to have been turned over to one of his assassins by his widow, Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, as part payment for the murder, have been located by the police and it was predicted the articles would be in their possession within a few hours.

The police refused to say whether the ring and watch are still in possession of one of four men said to have been hired to commit the murder for which Mrs. Kaber, Mrs. Mary Brickel, her mother; Miss Marian McArdle, her daughter, and Mrs. Erminia Colavito, a midwife, are under indictment.

Mrs. Colavito declared the two articles were given to the man by Mrs. Kaber in her presence, according to the police.

REPORT NEXT FALL

No Financial Statement Yet from Liquor Commission

QUEBEC, Que., June 15—Of all the bodies under control of the Provincial Government, the Quebec Liquor Commission will be the only one not to present a financial report for the fiscal year on 30th of June next, as the Commissioners do not think that they have been doing business for a sufficient time to warrant it. This is said to be one of the reasons which has prevented the Commission from paying cash for stock and has delayed the transactions in many cases.

However, the Commission may present a financial statement at the next session, which has been definitely set for the fall.

ALD. JACOBS MAY ACCEPT NOMINATION

In view of the persistent rumors of an approaching provincial election considerable activity has been aroused in political quarters. The name of Ald. Lyon W. Jacobs, representative of St. Louis ward in the city council has been mentioned as a possible candidate in St. Lawrence division. Today a delegation waited on Ald. Jacobs and requested that he accept the nomination.

Ald. Jacobs has refused the nomination for this division on two previous occasions but it is very probable he will accept the nomination this time. This would give the Hebrew citizens of Montreal, should he win his election, two representatives in the provincial legislature in the same way as they have two representatives in the city council.

WAITER! A GLASS OF BEER!!

called up Nebuchadnezzar, nearly three thousand years ago.

Perhaps!—but it's more than likely that he expressed himself differently although we now know that beer was a popular beverage in Babylon during the monarch's reign.

Recent excavations by Mr. Hronzy over the site of ancient Babylonia have shown that the subjects of Nebuchadnezzar were not only expert legislators and builders but also brewers of more than local fame.

Engraved on one of the burnt-clay tablets found in the ruins was seen a recipe for the perfect brewing of beer, giving in detail the approved method and technique as well as the exact proportion of each of the different ingredients to be used in order to obtain an ideal brew.

This subject should interest everybody especially lovers of good beer who should not fail to read the first of a series of illustrated advertisements published by the Frontenac Brewery on the history of brewing, which will appear in this paper, Thursday 16th instant, under the heading: "The History of Brewing begins with Egypt." —(Adv.)

URGES CLINICS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Suggestion to National Council of Women to Help End Insanity

KEEP COUNTRY BUSY

Ottawa Delegate Urges Women's National Information Bureau

CALGARY, June 15—(By Canadian Press)—The report of the standing committee of the National Council of Women of mental hygiene was read by the convener, Mrs. J. J. Hall of Calgary at the annual convention of the National Council of Women yesterday afternoon. She said that there had been a tremendous advance recently in the public's knowledge of mental hygiene.

Mrs. Hall gave convincing statistics showing that criminality and vice have a direct relation to insanity and feeble mindedness. According to figures which have been compiled recently, 30 per cent of all prisoners and prostitutes are feeble minded, 10 per cent of the population is dependent, 60 per cent of the school children are abnormal and twenty-two out of thirty-eight unmarried mothers are mentally defective.

Mrs. Hall also urged a stricter mental examination of all immigrants. Sixty per cent of the mentally deficient children recently examined in Toronto were of non-Canadian birth and over fifty per cent of the children dependent on the Montreal charities are foreign born, she declared. "In spite of such facts as these, the Government spends $1,000,000 each year to encourage immigration," she said.

CLINICS IN SCHOOLS.

Mrs. Hall advocated the establishment of clinics in public schools to prevent and treat nervous troubles which eventually result in insanity. Much has been done throughout the Dominion to prevent such diseases and to segregate the feeble minded. Ontario has instituted a survey of the public schools and the Winnipeg General Hospital maintains a clinic for the treatment of nervous diseases.

The committee at Regina has been studying the journal of mental hygiene and has been bringing literature into the province. In this way they have induced the national committee on mental hygiene, who praised the work already done, to make a provincial survey.

The Government of British Columbia has granted $75,000 for the home for feeble minded boys, but so far nothing has been done for the girls.

In Nova Scotia the provincial council has been instrumental in bringing a bill before the legislature to maintain Government homes for feeble minded, and the council feels certain that it will be passed soon.

Progress has also been made in Manitoba, British Columbia, New Brunswick, Alberta and Nova Scotia, and recommendations have been made to the Government for special classes in schools for the mentally deficient, homes for the feeble minded, the appointment of mental specialists in schools and courts, the providing of suitable employment and training for the insane and feeble minded and better care for ex-service men.

With a view to keeping Canada busy, Mrs. J. C. Sears, of Ottawa, presented to the delegates of the National Council of Women at yesterday's session of the annual convention a scheme for the formation of a women's national bureau of information. In order to carry out her plan, Mrs. Sears suggested that the women encourage the buying of Canadian made goods, and ask that the Canadian manufacturers bring the same up to standard of excellence; all goods to be trade-marked; goods to be placed on market at a price not greater than that charged for United States products.

The plan proposes that this method can be put into effect through a Federal board at Ottawa with a provincial board in each province. These boards could communicate with every women's organization and society asking co-operation of the members in buying and boosting "Canadian-made goods." In turn the societies would be asked to inform these boards of any manufacturer who is not keeping up to standard or whose products are too high priced.

The board would collect information from any and every source and be able to give it out when sought. It was recommended that educational pamphlets be sent out from time to time.

Mrs. Sears further proposed to have a speaker to visit different places and also to visit every fall fair.

BOOST VALUE OF DOLLAR.

Following the presentation of this suggestion, Mrs. Thorburn, of Ottawa, said in support of Mrs. Sears' scheme that she was out to make the Canadian dollar worth 100 cents. She pointed out that the women of Canada spend 90 per cent. of the money of the people.

"I'm not out to say boost only Canadian products," declared Mrs. Thorburn, "but there are many things we are now buying from the United States that could be purchased at home or elsewhere and help our trade balance."

Mrs. Jessie MacIver, of Toronto, stated that if Canada has to have a standard the women will have to make it.

In support of the information bureau, Miss Charlotte Whitton, of Toronto, said that buying out of the country had a tremendous effect on the unemployment situation. The speaker predicted that this winter would see the establishment of soup kitchens and relief stations in communities where such things were never heard of before. She claimed that Canada had not yet reached the peak of unemployment. She spoke of the slump in prices which the wholesalers had been better able to stand by reason of their reserve, whereas the retailers who were stocked up with goods bought at high prices, were the sufferers and they sought to save themselves by an attempt to keep up prices. What Miss Whitton thought was most needed in Canada was an organization of women who would refuse to buy goods at inflated prices.

ASCRIBES LONGEVITY TO BEING VEGETARIAN

Dr. Peebles, Young at 99, Neither Smokes Nor Drinks

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 1.—(Associated Press Correspondence.)—Dr. James Martin Peebles, physician and author, who not long ago celebrated his 99th birthday anniversary and who wrote a book on "How to Live a Century and Grow Old Gracefully," ascribes his long life in large measure to abstinence from eating animal flesh. Dr. Peebles stopped eating meat when he was thirty-nine years old. He wrote his book on the rules of living when he was sixty-two.

Asked what he considered the greatest contributory cause to his long life he instantly replied:

"One cannot strengthen life by living on death. I cannot bear the idea of eating dead cows and dead hogs; and it is not necessary. See how strong are horses and oxen; they do not live on dead flesh." Other rules he made for himself and which he said he believed had helped him to reach his advanced years included:

"Go to bed every night at 8.30. Out of bed every morning at six. Never use tobacco. Never use intoxicating liquors. Never complain.

"Avoid all worry and keep an harmonious mind. Worry is among the worst things in the world. Have a strong will-power. Always look for the new. Keep calm."

On his 99th birthday, Dr. Peebles walked erect, only occasionally using a cane; his sight was good although he used spectacles for reading; his hearing "as good as ever," and his appetite and digestion he declared excellent. His long white beard and hair gave him a truly venerable appearance.

Asked what his plans for the future were he replied:

"To live a number of years more and to write at least another book. This will be on the progress of Christianity as it is preached, showing how preachers are leaving hell fire, brimstone, purgatory and many other old-time dogmas behind.

"What a variety of mighty changes since my birth!" he exclaimed. "Napoleon then had just died on the Island of St. Helena; old 'Hickory Jackson', as he was then called, had just been elected President of the United States; Ohio was then a budding State and the great wide West was dotted with Indian wigwams.

"Later came telegraph, telephones, railroads, electric lights and machinery, wireless flashes on ocean and land, airships sailing through the skies and automobiles dashing madly across the continent.

"There is life in everything. Crush the acorn to earth and the germ looks toward the mountains. In every marble block there is an angel's form awaiting the sculptor's chisel. God is good. There is no absolute evil in the universe, because God made it."

Dr. Peebles was born March 23, 1822 at Whitingham, Vt., and was graduated from Oxford Academy, Chenango County, N.Y., in 1841. He has travelled around the earth five times.

BANDITS TAKE LOAD OF SILK

Daring Hold-up in Mountains Near Newton, New Jersey

ONE MURDERED

Motorcyclist Shot When Trying to Elude the Robbers

NEWTON, N.J., June 15—One man was killed and two others kept bound to a tree for several hours in the mountains in a daring holdup yesterday by six masked men, who succeeded in getting away with an automobile truck load of silk valued at $20,000. The holdup occurred at Cat Swamp, seven miles from here.

The man shot and killed was Charles Kosta, aged 35, an engineer of Andover.

He was passing the scene of the holdup on his motor cycle. The highwaymen, not wanting him to spread the alarm, ordered him to stop. Instead, he put on speed and tried to pass them. The bandits opened fire, two bullets piercing Kosta's chest and another striking him in the shoulder. He fell from the motorcycle, dead.

The motor truck, manned by Claude Resh, driver, and Charles Mann, his helper, was on its way from the Sussex Print Works here to New York. Resh was rounding a bad curve in the road when six men, all armed and wearing handkerchiefs over their faces jumped out from the roadside.

"Get off the truck and be quick about it, both of you," the bandits' leader called to them.

TIED TO A TREE.

They did so promptly. Four of the bandits then started to lead them to some bushes just off the road. It was then that Kosta, on his way to work, came along on his motor cycle and met his death when he refused to stop at the command of the highwaymen. His body was thrown down the side of the embankment and into a small brook, where it was found late in the afternoon.

Resh and Mann were taken back some distance from the road and bound hand and foot. Four of the highwaymen remained on guard over them, while the other two sped off with the truck. Some time later, the four guards walked part way up the side of the mountain with the captives and tied them to a tree.

"Stay here and starve" was the parting remark from the guard leader, Resh said tonight.

Resh and Mann managed to free themselves from their bonds after more than an hour's effort. They walked to the nearest house and gave the alarm by telephone. Deputy Sheriffs were immediately sent out to try and locate the highwaymen and the truck, but neither Resh nor Mann was able to give a good description of them.
