CHANGE SOUGHT IN WESTMOUNT LAWS

BUSINESS MEN EXAMINE QUESTION OF AMENDING EARLY CLOSING BY-LAW

Others Coming Under Scrutiny Are Those Affecting the Closing of Gas Stations on the Sabbath and the Act Prohibiting the Sale of Beer by Grocers in This Municipality

Modifications to the present laws governing closing hours for establishments, the operation of gasoline stations on Sunday and the sale of beer by grocers doing business in this municipality will be discussed at the general meeting of the Westmount Business Association to be held in Victoria Hall next Wednesday evening at 8.30 o'clock. All these questions are considered of vital interest. The meeting is open only to members.

There is a group within the association clamoring for some form of legislative modification against laws which figure curtailments of their business or tends to reduce the purchasers to go into other districts. There are several who hold the view that the law regarding the closing hours should be amended so as to conform to the change of business traffic. Some merchants believe that it would be preferable to be made to close an hour earlier Saturday night and remain open later Friday night. They say that late trade Saturday night is dwindling, but that on the other hand many residents in Westmount go shopping Friday evening and the local stores being closed they must shop elsewhere.

EX-LIEUTENANT OF WESTMOUNT FORCE PASSES

Retired Lieutenant George Hain Dies in Ireland — War Veteran

Retired Lieutenant of the Westmount police department, George Hain, died in Ireland October 21, according to word received here this week.

Lieutenant Hain retired from the force in June after 30 years' service with the department. He had been given three months leave of absence in March. He took up residence in Ireland shortly after leave was granted, along with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Millie Fullerton.

The popular officer was born in Fifeshire, Scotland, where he received his education. He enlisted in the Scottish Light Horse at the outbreak of the South African war and at the close of hostilities came to Canada and became a member of the Westmount Police force.

When the Great War broke out he joined the re-enforcing company of the Royal Highlanders of Canada and served overseas during the entire course of the war.

He re-joined the Westmount force in 1919. In November 1931 he was promoted to lieutenant.

Many friends in Westmount will regret to hear of his passing.

WILL CONTINUE SERMON SERIES AT ST. ANDREWS

Alfred Pick Will Preach Sermon This Sunday — Theme "If I Could Preach Just Once"

Alfred Pick will preach the sermon on Sunday evening in St. Andrew's Church. He will be the fourth young man to preach on the general theme: "If I Could Preach Just Once." Each man condenses into one sermon the long, long thoughts of youth on the meaning of God, human life and destiny.

Mr. Pick graduated from McGill Law School several years ago, after which he spent two years at the Sorbonne in Paris. He has published a book in which the respective city governments of Montreal and Paris are compared and appraised. In his sermon on Sunday evening it is expected that he will deal with the revolt of youth against the inhumanities and injustices of the world and will show a new kind of world towards which we are striving.

'A' SQUADRON IS CARRYING OUT FINE PROGRAM

The Legion of Frontiersmen (Canadian Command) are busily engaged once again in their winter training period, and "A" Squadron, Quebec Command, is receiving competent instructions under the supervision of Capt. P. T. Grant, M.M.L.F., Commanding Officer. Military training, first-aid, special police instruction, as well as possible emergency measures, are but a few of the subjects to be reviewed.

Classes are being held every Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in Queen's School, Olivier Ave., Westmount.

The squadron is now adding new recruits to its strength, and in view of the many requests regarding the necessary qualifications for enrollment it is well to note that applicants must have had previous military training, and that they must be past the required age as called for by the present Active Canadian Militia standards.

Hi-Y Members Visit Iverley Settlement

Thursday night the Westmount Hi-Y Club had its usual supper meeting. After the regular business had been attended to, President Elaine Leger conveyed to the girls the invitation of the staff of Iverley Community Centre to visit the settlement, which the club eagerly accepted. Sixty members went down to the Coursol street building. After an address by Miss Vail, the directress, the girls were shown through the building, several being sufficiently interested to volunteer their services. The club is very grateful to the staff of the settlement for their kindness in entertaining the girls.

Bishop Sovereign Relates North's Importance In Address At High School

The importance of Canada's northland which no doubt some day become the centre of Canadian industry, was stressed by Rt. Rev. A. H. Sovereign, Bishop of Athabaska to the boys in the four forms of Westmount high school this week.

His Lordship referred to the speech made by Lord Tweedsmuir last autumn after returning from an extended tour of the sub-arctic zones across the country. At that time the Governor-General declared "Canada's future lies in the heart of her Northland."

On an expansive colored map of the Dominion of Canada Bishop Sovereign traced some of his exciting travels. Pointing to a sparsely populated section of the map which represented the Peace River District, he told in a few words how the people of that region earned their livelihood. He dealt primarily with the prize wheat-growing competition; the fine specimens of grain which after careful cultivation were taken to the Chicago Fair each year for the judging and awarding of trophies. He particularly pointed out the great pride these producers had when they were preparing for the contests and explained the reasons for the unusual excellence of the wheat in such northerly regions. Three reasons were given for the successful growing of wheat where

YOUTH CONFERENCE SUBJECT OF TALK

The Girls Hi-Y club of Westmount High School met last Thursday, Elaine Leger presiding.

After the business had been attended to, the girls were addressed by Gordon Hendery, who is president of the Boys Hi-Y. He spoke on the World Youth Conference, held last summer in Amsterdam, which he attended as representative for a number of Westmount organizations. The girls found his account of the conference of great interest.

The president announced that the next meeting would be omitted because of the Inter Hi-Y dinner on Friday night, after which the meeting was adjourned.

Dog Owners To Have Necessary License

If you have an unlicensed dog in Westmount you'd better keep it under cover.

Reason? Police are engaged in the annual check-up on dog licenses. Notices have been served on many dog owners that it is expedient to take out the necessary license now. Police reported this week that they will start issuing summonses to all violators at once. Sixteen hundred and nine canines were licensed last year.

PARENTS NIGHT BEING PLANNED BY BOY'S UNIT

Company Made Splendid Showing at Remembrance Service — Plans Being Made for Hockey

The First Westmount Company turned out in good numbers to the Westmount Commemoration Service, Sunday afternoon, at the War Memorial. Assembling on Westmount Park, they proceeded to the service via Sherbrooke St. and returned along Cote St. Antoine Road, the march past taking place at St. Andrew's Church.

Plans are going forward for the company's annual Parents' Night, on which occasion the various activities of the weekly program will be presented, that parents and friends may see just what their sons do on Brigade nights. A handicraft exhibit will be featured this year, the entries being judged for prizes.

Boys desiring to play on the Company Hockey teams will register with Warrant Officer Robert Beal, this Friday evening. All entrants will be tried out as soon as ice is available and those qualified will compose the Company's League team. The Battalion trophy, now in the hands of the 8th Snowdon Company, has long been desired by the First Company, and will be closely contested this season. The hockey committee consists of W. O. Robert Beal and Staff-Sgt. James Patterson, counsellors and all Non-Commissioned officers.

Is Keen
 Inter squad competition is very keen this year, the Month of October being won by the Band, under Sgt. Phil Lamb, who has the honor of wearing the medal throughout this month. To date, the standing shows Squad 1, under Sgt. Don Taylor, fairly well in the lead but it is early in the month to predict who the winner will be. Neatness, punctuality, cleanliness of uniform, all play a large part in the weekly inspections, and Captain Richardson is well pleased with the improvement noticed each week, especially amongst the bells, which now, in the majority of cases, glitter. This is one of the best methods of teaching boys self-respect, instituted by the founder, and means much to him when he becomes of age. Arrangements are in the process of completion whereby regular swimming periods will be featured.

HEAVY DAMAGE TO MOTOR IN ACCIDENT

A car driven by Paul Trudeau, 5442 Notre Dame de Grace avenue, sustained heavy damage to one side when it struck a tram car on Sherbrooke street.

Trudeau reported to police that he was driving west on Sherbrooke street and as he was attempting to pass another auto proceeding in the same direction, his car swerved on the tram tracks and hit an east bound tram.

Police Follow Up Clues In Hit And Run Death

Westmount police are following up clues in connection with the hit-run death of Edward Lallemande, killed almost instantly this week when struck by a truck. Lallemande and a friend, J. A. McDougall, 1054 Girouard avenue had enjoyed a meal at a restaurant. It was the first time they had met for some time. Later McDougall drove his friend to his home at 3286 St. Antoine street.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1939

SIX WEEKS TO XMAS

Although it is difficult to realize, there is less than six weeks to Christmas. Stores are beginning to display holiday wares, gifts and toys, and arrangements are being made by merchants all over town to handle the rush. Within a few days, gift stocks will be at the peak—and that is the time to do your shopping, not when stores are crowded and selection limited. By shopping early you not only give the merchant a break, but you assure yourself of the widest possible selection in the choice of gifts. Do your Christmas shopping early—give yourself that comfortable satisfaction of knowing that the job has been done and finished with when other people are rushing about in a last-minute scramble.

RED CROSS APPEAL

Local residents are now being asked to contribute to Canada's first war appeal—the Red Cross. With the outbreak of war, the demands upon the Red Cross have been severe—three million dollars is being asked in this first appeal to the public, of which eight hundred thousand is expected from the Province of Quebec. The magnitude of the work done by the Canadian Red Cross in war time was impressively illustrated by the Prime Minister in his radio address opening the campaign: "The task before the Red Cross can best be visualized by a glance at its record of performance in the last war. . . . The Society raised more than $9,000,000 in Canada for its own needs, raised another $6,250,000 for the needs of the British Red Cross Society, and sent overseas materials and hospital supplies to the value of another $20,000,000. . . . Once again the Canadian Red Cross is faced with war and its attendant suffering. The magnitude of its present task may vastly exceed even that of the last Great War." That objective of the present drive will be met, it is assured, but only so if everyone does his bit. Collections locally will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Leslie Hodges, who has over five hundred voluntary women workers ready to assist.

FOOTBALL PLAY-OFFS

With the Eastern Canada football season drawing to a close, it is interesting to note that in addition to London, Ontario, west

University of Western Ontario won the inter-collegiate title, four cities are still in the running for the two other senior championships—Ottawa, Toronto, Sarnia, and Montreal. Rough Riders meet Argos, and Sarnia meets Westmount in the first of two-game play-offs in the O.R.F.U. and Interprovincial, respectively, on Saturday afternoon, the winners to meet for the Eastern Canada title and the right to meet the Western Canada title for the Dominion crown early in December. It is seldom that the finals have been spread around among so many cities as is the case this year, and the game should benefit thereby. Just how Westmount will fare in the quest for the Dominion title is problematical, for although the locals should clear the Sarnia hurdle, the next one, probably Ottawa, is an obstacle of vastly greater proportions. If the local team gets through to the Dominion finals this year, they will stamp themselves as one of Canada's all-time great football aggregations.

HOW'S YOUR AIM TODAY?

Maybe you haven't drawn a bowstring since you wore short pants. But listen to this: "In the practice of archery we have something resembling the principle in a man's moral life. When the archer misses the centre of the target he turns round and seeks for the cause of his failure within himself." Confucius contributed that one about 2500 years ago. And how it fits today! How it applies to the man who misses his objective by a mile and then goes around yelling about all the adverse conditions under which he unleashed the arrow, or started a new business plan, or any one of a dozen things which you and I do every day.

You'll find plenty of people in need of wise old Dr. Confucius' medicine among your associates. Maybe you'll find someone by taking a second peek in the mirror next time you shave. Yes, most of us can do quite a lot more turning round and seeking the cause of our failures—directly back of our own necktie. Who knows but we may all become better archers or better planners or better people if we do turn round and put our finger on even one fault. At any rate it will be a lot quieter in an alibi-less world.

MACHINE-GUNS AND TANK RIFLES

The difference in the kind of fighting expected in this war is best illustrated in the composition of the British Expeditionary Force. In 1914 some 60 out of every 100 men were infantry soldiers. In 1939 only 20 out of every 100 are infantrymen. Where machine-guns were few and far between and anti-tank rifles were unknown in 1914, each battalion now has 50 machine-guns and 16 anti-tank rifles. With weapons like that, the British boys ought to mow them down.

BOOK REVIEW

BY HOWARD S. ROSS

"Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments in the Common Law Units of the British Commonwealth" by Horace Emerson Read, Professor of Law, University of Minnesota. Harvard University Press, Cambridge, Mass. Price: $4.00; Pages: 371.

Examining basic legal theory from a largely original point of view and in the light of data derived from an unusually wide base, Professor Read here brings together for the first time the judicial and legislative experience on foreign judgment, of those countries in the British Commonwealth in which the law is founded upon the English common law as distinguished from the Roman, or civil, law. Those countries include Great Britain (excepting Scotland), Ireland, Canada (excepting Quebec), Australia, and New Zealand. By analysis and comparison he has welded the case-law of those countries into an Anglo-Dominion law of foreign judgments. He has not only investigated the precepts which the courts have developed but has also attempted to discover and formulate the theory which has emerged in the course of their rationalization of those precepts. Several chapters are concerned with the jurisdiction of foreign courts; and here Mr. Read is constructively critical and makes some useful suggestions for legislative improvement of present legal rules. His last two chapters are devoted to enforcement of foreign judgments.

The volume is dedicated to John Delatre Falconbridge, K.C. Scholarly Architect of Law.

Professor Read points out in his Foreword that since 1924 two notable books within the field of Anglo-Dominion conflict of laws have been published: "Private International Law" by Professor Cheshire predominantly English and "Conflict of Laws with Special Reference to the Law of Quebec (1927)" by Walter S. Johnson, K.C., of the Montreal Bar.

Book I deals with the legal nature of a foreign judgment; Book 2—Jurisdiction of Foreign Courts; Book 3—Enforcement of Foreign Judgments. In the Appendices un-

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

"The Lancet" an important (British) medical journal stated: "Our propaganda will be powerful for peace in proportion as it carries the conviction of our moral capacity to make a good peace. A war of silent hate would be long and destructive of our lives and of our own ideals."

Birmingham-Southern College (U.S.A.) has banned intercollegiate football. A larger program of intra-mural sports is being arranged. Howard College also of Birmingham will continue football and this situation will be a test as to whether this sport has the drawing power that many believe it has.

The U.S.A. post office department is issuing a series of stamps commemorating the services in the past of men and women in civil life. Booker T. Washington is included the only negro to be so honored. He was for 34 years president of Tuskegee (Alabama) Normal and Industrial Institute.

Canada is given the Key position as an aviation centre for the Empire and it is expected that great developments will be seen during the coming months.

The machines will in some cases be flown directly to Europe, ferrying the Atlantic.

Recently, unannounced by the press or radio, several bombers took off from Canada and were in England eighteen hours afterwards.

It is stated that a monthly output of 1000 to 2000 fully equipped (with trained operators) planes from Canada, Australia and New Zealand sources (together with purchases from the United States) will be possible within a comparatively short time.

Man's liberty ends, and it ought to end, when that liberty becomes the curse of his neighbors.—Far-rar.

Learning passes for wisdom among those who wish for both.—Temple.

During August Roger Babson's Julius Streicher, arch Jew-baiter, was arrested for appropriating for himself money confiscated from the Jews.

A committee of the New York State Chamber of Commerce places religion first in importance in the U.S.A. educational system.

Lord Lothian after his visit to Russia said: "The existence of the Russian experiment has raised an issue which more and more will have to be faced by Western civilization. . . . the divine right of property."

In an address before the Boston Chamber of Commerce he once remarked, "No country can exist half-Capitalist and half-Communist. It is one or the other."

There is in London a Chamberlain Club, named not after the Prime Minister, but after his father, Joseph. The club has only had two honorary members since it was founded in 1903, when Chamberlain launched his Tariff Reform campaign. These are the Prime Minister and his brother, the late Sir Austen Chamberlain. Only one new member is added each year, the newest recruit being Lord Horne, and the present membership is thirty-seven.

This is probably the only club which spends its entire income on food and flowers. Each member pays a subscription of one guinea. The total is then handed over intact to the hotel arranging its annual dinner, with instructions that it shall serve the best that the money can buy. Included in the contract is the provision of two white orchids.

One of these symbols of "Joe" Chamberlain is placed in a glass in front of the president, Lord Leonfield. The other is handed to the annual new member.

WESTMOUNT BAPTIST CHURCH

On Sunday, in the absence of the minister, the pulpit of Westmount Baptist Church will be occupied by Rev. M. F. McCutcheon at the morning service and Rev. Harry R. Pike at the evening service. A Postscript Service of Hymn singing will be held at the close of the evening service.

Rev. J. A. Johnston, as President of the Baptist Convention, will preach in the First Baptist Church Ottawa, on Sunday morning. He will address an Assembly of Ottawa Baptists on Sunday afternoon and will occupy the pulpit of McPhail Baptist Church in the evening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, November 19th.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 6:19. "What, know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?"

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let Israel rejoice in him that made him; let the children of Zion be joyful in their King." (Psalm 149:2).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul, or Spirit, is God, for man is God's image. . . . To himself, mortal and material man seems to be substance, but his sense sees to be substance, but his sense of substance involves error and therefore is material, temporal. On the other hand, the immortal, spiritual man is really substantial, and reflects the eternal substance, or Spirit, which mortals hope for. He reflects the divine, which constitutes the only real and eternal entity." (Pages 120, 301).

BAPTIST MISSION

To-morrow night there will be a treat in store for the children at the Snowdon Baptist mission, 5181 Decarie boulevard. There will be no charge for admission and boys and girls in and around Snowdon and Hampstead are invited. The treat will take place between 7 and 8 o'clock.

The Sunday services are as indicated in the announcement at the evening service the preacher will speak on, "The War and Human Nature."

Commencing on Wednesday, November 22nd until December 7, there will be a series of evangelistic services under the direction of Rev. H. C. Slade, of First Baptist Church, Timmins, Ont.

Mr. Slade though a young man is a preacher of outstanding ability. He has all the fire and energy of a successful young preacher and yet the depth of understanding, which you would expect from one who has preached for many years. His addresses, though noted for their depth, are replete with a perfect blending of humor and pathos.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL WALKS OF LIFE PRESENT AT IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Number Wreaths Placed on Cenotaph in Honor of Sacrifice of Great War Heroes — Mayor Merrill Places Remembrance of City of Westmount — Inspection of Escort — Last Post

Citizens of Westmount, representatives of the city's military body and veterans of the last Great War, gathered together on Sunday afternoon at the War Memorial on Sherbrooke street to pay homage to their fallen comrades on the occasion of Remembrance Day. A guard of honor stood at each corner of the monument, while crowds of residents lined Sherbrooke street and the grounds adjoining City Hall.

The ceremony opened with the inspection of the escort to the colors, the Royal Montreal Regiment (M.G.) C.A.S.F., Veterans, the Royal Montreal Regiment (14th B.C.E.F.), and No. 115 (Fighter) Squadron, R.C.A.F.

Hon. Capt. the Reverend Gilbert Oliver, M.C., Chaplain of the 115 (Fighter) Squadron, R.C.A.F., read the lesson which was followed by Remembrance Day Prayers by Hon. Major, the Reverend Harold Laws, Chaplain of the Royal Montreal Regiment.

During the singing of the Hymn, "Abide with Me," wreaths were placed at the base of the monument in the following order: City of Westmount. The Royal Montreal Regiment. 58th Westmount Rifles. Ladies' Committee of the Royal Montreal Regiment.

Civic Bodies and Societies and private individuals. Mayor Walter Merrill, K.C., placed the wreath on the monument on behalf of the City of Westmount.

Westmount Women's Club and the Westmount Chapters of the I.O.D.E., were among the societies to place tokens of remembrance, as well as many private individuals.

The Last Post was sounded by the drums and band of the Royal Montreal Regiment, at which time flags were flown at half-mast followed by two minutes silence. The same band sounded Reveille, as the flags were raised to the top of the mast.

The simple ceremony ended with the National Anthem, sung by the entire audience.

During the ceremony, five planes flew over the city, circling the monument several times.

POSITIONS SECURED!

We are pleased to announce that we have placed a greater number of graduates in permanent positions during the past month than in any similar period since 1929. Many of these positions were with firms of international reputation discriminating employers — who employ none but the best trained office help. We are, consequently, now in a position to accept a few additional enrolments — either sex — but quick action is necessary, as our accommodation is limited.

"Things Which Cannot be Shaken" Sermon Subject

On Sunday morning in Calvary Church, Dorchester St. at Greene Ave., Westmount, the Minister, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach on the theme, "Things Which Cannot be Shaken," in which the abiding elements of the Christian Faith, which no shock of War or other circumstance can ever shatter, will be proclaimed.

At the evening service, Dr. Jones will preach on the theme, "Whose Flag Are You Flying?" The illustration that is set forth in almost every daily newspaper of ships flying the flags of other countries, suggests the question in this theme, concerning our lives. What do our lives proclaim regarding our relationships? Who is our acknowledged Master? Whose colours do we wear? Young people are specially invited to attend this service.

THE MENIN GATE.

O! wind abroad your notes of gold,
As you come each night at eight,
We witness to the brave, and the bold,
Who fell at The Menin Gate!
Like ripened wheat they waved in the sun,
One flash of the scythe and they were gone.
By The Menin Gate!
Your notes will not die on the distant air,
Nor in an echo hollow,
But will reach their ears where'er they are,
And on and on will they follow,
To say with a tender, deep regret,
That never their comrades will forget.

They'll say to "Our Boys" who hear your call
"You're a nation of Peace, you can't know all
Of those you spared a horrible fate
When you gave your young lives
at The Menin Gate,
And tho' we sound the old Reveille!
We know there's no night where now you dwell,
And in gratitude will our full hearts throb,
To every note of the Last Post sob!
"O Death where is thy sting!"
We know 'tis of Victory now you sing
Who fell at The Menin Gate!
And so we'll come each night at eight,
With never a fear but that you'll hear
Our call at The Menin Gate!"

Westmount, Que.

LOVELL BAKER GUEST SPEAKER AT HI-Y CLUB

Delivered Talk on the History of Diamonds and The Process of Mining Them

The Westmount Hi-Y Club held its weekly meeting on Wednesday evening, the guest speaker for the evening being Lovell Baker, who gave the boys an interesting address on diamonds; their history, mining, and polishing.

The first mention of diamonds was made in 1700 B.C., he said. In the British Museum is a diamond which dates back to 500 B.C. Diamonds take millions of years to form in the earth. They are only a crystal form of pure carbon. They are by far the hardest of all known substances. Diamonds mined in Australia are usually harder than those from other parts of the world. The greatest reflecting and refracting power of light rays is found in diamonds. This accounts for the brilliant sparkle of the gem. This power is never diminished by age.

The finest diamonds are known as blue-white diamonds, he added. Next are the Green, red, which combine the colour of the ruby with the sparkle of the diamond, the sapphire-blue, the orange and the canary. The finest individual diamonds to-day come from Brazil. Mr. Baker said that up to the present day no diamonds have been discovered in Canada, but that the country has great possibilities. To separate the rough stone from the ore, that contains it, the crushed ore is passed over greased tables which only the diamond adheres. Then they are shaped, cut, and polished. He touched upon the stories of such great diamonds as the Kohinoor, The Regent and the Cullinan, which is by far the largest diamond in the world, weighing 3025 karats.

Next week the club will be the guests of the Hi-Y Grads.

First Meeting Of New Rotary Club Being Held Today

Dr. Johnston Abraham is President New Montreal Westward Rotary Club — Will Meet Each Thursday at Westmount Y.M.C.A. Until Further Notice — New Link in Valuable Alliance of World Friendship

The first meeting of the newly organized Montreal Westward Rotary International Club will be held today at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. The club will continue to meet at the Y until a definite place of meeting is obtained in Notre Dame de Grace.

The charter of the new club will be delivered by the Montreal Rotary Club, Cecil Medlar, of Westmount, who is governor of the clubs in this district of Rotary, as soon as the new club has been admitted to membership in the international organization by vote of the international board of directors. The motto of Rotary, "Service above Self—he Profits Most Who Serves Best," is interpreted in Rotary if our ways—service to the club to make it a strong and active service to one's own vocation; service to the community; and service to the world as a world-citizen.

Efforts of well-known men in the western section of the city to form the new club were culminated at an organization meeting recently when the following officers were elected:

President, Dr. Johnston W. Abraham.
Vice President, Thomas Haugland.
Secretary, Alex E. Norton.
Treasurer, J. L. Pickering.

Directors, H. E. McCormick, J. M. C. Duckworth, O. V. Reipert. Many Cities

The action of the local group of professional and business men in forming the Rotary Club unites it with more than 4,300 cities all over the world where clubs have come to play a leading part in the progress and development of the life of the community.

The new club is sponsored by the Rotary Club of Montreal. They have felt for some time that the western section of the city should be represented in the world-wide organization.

One of the distinctive features of the Rotary Club is that its members are welcomed at every other Rotary Club in the world, and the constant interchange of these visits between business men of different cities tends to break down any feeling of provincialism and rivalry, to the advantage of all cities. It has been the custom of Rotary ever since the first club was founded in Chicago in 1905 to have weekly meetings where its members might develop a and strengthen a spirit of fellowship and mutual helpfulness, and engage in some informative discussion on some topic of general interest, usually presented by a qualified speaker.

Francis Willard W.C.T.U.

The regular monthly meeting of the Francis Willard WCTU will be held in Dominion Douglas Church hall in Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Frank S. Morley, B.D., Ph.D., will be the guest speaker. The subject of his address will be, "The Task of the WCTU in War Times." Miss Norma McLean, violinist, will be accompanied by Mrs. Eric Hanson.

TEA TIME TOPICS

High crowns are the rule for every type of winter hat except those designed for evening wear. The "cocher" crown, a bit modified from those of the French milliners, is conspicuous in all the London shops. One designer has created a slight variation of this in what he calls his "waisted crown," he is showing models which have a wide boned band, laced at the front like a corset.

One model in black felt has a deep "corset" of black satin edged at the top with narrow black lace, with the same lace at the edge of the brim. Rose Bertin has a striking "cocher" model in two shades of cyclamen velvet, light in the front and darker at the back falling in a snood effect.

Hugh Beresford makes a small, black felt hat, reminiscent of the 1880's with a narrow rolling brim with plumes of magenta marabou standing at the back, flanked with loops of magenta velvet ribbon with long ends falling to the shoulder—a perfect complement to the bustle frock of the same period.

The English woman is devoted to the beret, and one finds this type of hat featured by many of the London milliners. As a rule, this season's beret takes the form of a halo, standing high at the front, instead of at the side. Pisot and Pavy have designed a lovely model in soft black felt, which is swathed across the forehead with a gold dagger thrust through the high front.

Hugh Beresford adds glamour to his new black berets by placing a bit of stiff black taffeta ribbon embroidered in heavy gold or silver dots across the forehead ending in stiff ends at the side. Madelon Chaumet turns her big berets sharply up at one side and puts a choux of deep pink or green satin ribbon on the upturned side, resting on the hair.

Ostrich feathers are always in fashion in England because of their flattering qualities. Madelon Chaumet has a charming model in henna-colored felt, squashed in at the sides, with a high folded crown and almost covered with ostrich pom-poms, on many of the dresser models, as for instance, a little cinema toque, which is composed of a big bow of royal blue velvet ribbon, extending over the head with three big, blue feather pom-poms at the front. The same milliner is using tiny coq feathers for a little theatre toque with a little pointed crown, and another model is made entirely of black pigeon feathers with a pink feather pom-pom on the upturned side.

English sport hats are as famous as English tweeds, and this season's models are especially jaunty, as well as practical, fitting tightly over the head with all sorts of intricate crowns, folded, crushed-in, draped or slightly steeple-shaped, and rather wide brims, often turned up smartly at the side with a long quill thrust at various angles at the front or side of the crown.

And speaking of sports hats, Madelon Chaumet has a small round toque in fine brown silk jersey with two little coq's heads in red and white feathers at the front and at the back, a long scarf of the jersey which can be twisted tightly, like a snood, over the hair and brought around the neck, becoming, as well as practical.

H. Wilkinson, M.M., Rector of the Church of St. James the Apostle. Members may bring guests.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

FRITZIE'S FOLLIES

New York, November 15—Manhattan is giggling these days at a sprightly comedy of love and life produced by District Attorney Thomas Dewey and staged at General Sessions Court with Fritzie Kuhn, the talented German story-teller, cast as male lead. The female leads are several—with a certain Mrs. Florence Camp stealing the spotlight at the moment.

To be precise, Master Kuhn is on trial for alleged theft of $5,641 from the treasury of the German-American Bund, the famous "international goodwill" organization which he heads.

"Fritzie's Follies" is now in its second week at General Sessions Court, but the biggest laugh of the trial to date was provided Monday when a series of telegrams sent at Bund expense to Kuhn's "casual friend," Mrs. Camp, was read into the record by Assistant District Attorney Herman McCarthy. In these Fritzie proved himself quite a Romeo, much to the pleasure of a packed courtroom which howled with delight as the Bundesfuhrer blushed deeply.

"Hope to have everything under control tonight. Great love and kisses," read one wire addressed to the fair madam in Hollywood. "Arrived safely. Love you, my everything. All my thoughts of you. Great love and kisses," read a second wire.

If Kuhn escapes conviction on his present accusation, he will have to face a second trial for theft in the very near future. Of course, the present procedure is more than a trial for theft.

Meanwhile, Fritzie's follies continue to bring grins to Americans at their breakfast tables each morning.

ROMANCE!

Linda Darnell, new screen "find," and James Ellison help romance rear its lovely head in Elsa Maxwell's "Hotel for Women," which opens Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre.

"FOUR FEATHERS"

Only the brave deserve a kiss from lovely June Duprez, so John Clements, who has proved himself a hero in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, comes back to claim his reward and return one of his "Four Feathers," in Alexander Korda's Technicolor production of the same name, which opens Sunday at the Monkland United Theatre.

Extensive Wardrobe is Used in Fine Picture

Three hundred overcoats for snowy Christmas scenes; 2,000 boys' suits in four different periods in the history of England; 300 flat-topped bowlers, straw hats and top hats; and 500 cloth caps with specially designed colors and badges.

These were just a few of the items the wardrobe department had to deal with in outfitting the 2,000 boys who appear in the school scenes of "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," filmization of the famous James Hilton novel, in which Robert Donat is now starring on the Westmount United Theatre screen.

Biggest item in the wardrobe list was a duplicate set of 1,800 Eton collars and 900 school ties that went with them. The duplicate set was necessary to allow for breakages. Then, for the sporting scenes, there were complete sets of rubber togs of the dashing, long-knickered 1870 period and the rather more select whites of the cricketering teams of all periods.

Masters' caps, gowns and hoods provided another large item, for during the sixty years in which "Mr. Chips" is at his school, nearly a hundred masters pass through its ancient gates. Old boys who came back during the World War needed khaki uniforms and the staff at the school, pictured in the story, the porters and the housemaids all required distinctive uniforms.

Great Drama In York United Presentation

"Dr. Livingstone, I presume?" Drama knows no more thrilling moment than when Stanley speaks these words to Dr. Livingstone in Africa, the climax of the adventure that thrilled the world. And now the most heroic exploit known to man may be seen in one of the most spectacular motion pictures ever undertaken, Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Stanley and Livingstone."

Featuring one of the finest acting casts ever assembled, the opening of the 20th Century-Fox film on Saturday will be a gala day at the York United Theatre. Spencer Tracy, twice winner of the Academy Award, portrays the daring Stanley, crack newspaper man of the New York Herald. Starred with him are Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene, heading an imposing cast including Walter Brennan, also an Academy Award winner; Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, as Livingstone; Henry Hull and Henry Travers.

NEW POWER STATIONS To relieve its power shortage Japan will erect seven new electric power stations.

WILL CONDUCT THREE MONTHS SPEECH CLASS

Dickson-Kenwin, English Actor, to Give Instruction - Class at Westmount Y

Dickson-Kenwin, the well-known English Actor who is heard weekly over C.B.M. as "James Burbage" in "Shakespeare's England," will conduct a three months course of evening classes at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. The classes commence Tuesday, November 21 and will be held weekly.

The curriculum includes effective speech and self expression for business and professional men and women and for students of dramatic art.

Last season, Dickson-Kenwin gave a successful course to employees of the Bell Telephone Co. at Beaver Hall Hill and at Strathcona Hall, McGill University. The actor has recently returned from a successful tour in the Eastern Counties, during which he produced Priestley's "Laburnum Grove" for the University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville. On November 28, Dickson-Kenwin will appear at the Victoria Hall, Westmount, for the Dickens Fellowship. On that evening he will impersonate more than a dozen Dickensian and Shakespearean characters in 45 minutes. Registrations for the classes at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. are now being received.

This shows earnings on the above basis of approximately $17.72 a share on Pepsi-Cola stock for the first nine months of this year. This compares with estimated net profits for the nine months ended September 30, 1938, of $2,775,000, an increase of approximately 67 per cent.

DEANNA DURBIN ADVOCATES SINGING IN SHOWER BATH

Singing in a shower has long been a popular American pastime, but only recently acquired by one of America's foremost singers—Deanna Durbin.

"It was only while I was learning the songs for my latest picture, 'First Love,' that I started singing in the shower," declared the young Universal star.

"I never used to sing very much around the house because I don't like to have people hear me practice. When I sing I like to really give out. You can give out when you're singing with an orchestra. Because of the music, you don't seem to be making much noise yourself.

"Well, it's the same way when you're in the shower. The water makes so much noise that you can sing as loudly as you like and nobody hears you. That's why I started singing in the shower. And now, sometimes I do 'home work' there."

Boys Blush Easiest Says May Robson

Following completion of her role in "Daughters Courageous," the Warner Bros. comedy now showing at the Snowdon United Theatre, May Robson branched out as a public speaker and made a hit before a Los Angeles Breakfast Club gathering which had invited her to make a speech comparing the young people of her generation with those of the present.

"The young people of the present are more mystifying," said the 75-year-old actress. "You see one of them walking down the street ahead of you, wearing slacks, some kind of a loose jacket, low-heeled shoes, no hat, and the hair cut short in back, and you don't know whether the person is a girl or a boy. So you go up and tap the top of her on the shoulder and say, 'Hi-ya, Toots!' If she turns around and blushes, she's almost sure to be a boy."

ORGAN RECITALS WILL BE FEATURED

Last year a series of organ recitals was held in the Captain's Chapel at Sir George Williams College under the auspices of the Student Christian Movement. In response to many requests from students who enjoyed this feature of college life, Ronald Hupfield, President of the Movement, announces that beginning today, a program of organ recitals will be inaugurated.

The first meeting will be held by Thorne Luttrell, with Harold Potter at the organ.

Hedy Lamarr In "Lady Of Tropics"

Hedy Lamarr came through the very first crying scene of her motion picture career with flying colors.

For an entire day Miss Lamarr had to appear before the camera with a sequence of tears in her eyes for a week with Robert Taylor in "Lady of the Tropics," now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday.

"Have you ever cried before?" Director Jack Conway asked her, before the scene.

"Never in an acting role," Miss Lamarr admitted. Conway suggested that the actress employ menthol or one of the other agencies for producing tears.

"No, I can cry by myself," she said. She retired to a corner of the set, buried her head in her arms and remained quiet for a few minutes. She returned with tears filling her eyes and went through the scene.

During the Great War, the people of Canada subscribed $9,073,000 for the use of the Canadian Red Cross Society and donated a further $6,250,000 for the British Red Cross. Materials and supplies to a value of approximately 20 million dollars were also provided by voluntary workers.

WESTMOUNTS TACKLE SARNIA IN OPENING TITLE SERIES SATURDAY AT TUNNEL TOWN

Injured Players Return to Line-up for Important Match — Will Play Here Next Saturday — Westie Supporters Look for Senior Title — Total Points to Decide Title

Westmount's sturdy footballers will travel to Sarnia to open the Ontario Rugby Union senior play-off series with the highly touted Imperials. The second game of the series is slated for the Westmount Athletic grounds the following Saturday.

Westmounts have been hard at work drilling in practice sessions for their encounter with the Imperials. Their playing against the Sarnia squad in previous matches has given their supporters plenty of enthusiasm as to their chances of coping the title. Total points on the round will decide the championship.

Players who have been on the sidelines for the last match against Orfuns will be back in harness to strengthen the squad. Buddy Atchison, who has been nursing a leg injury, Alex Flemming, Britt Bowden and Jimmy Riddell, who were on the sidelines during the Orfuns game, will be back in the line-up.

Westmounts finished the league schedule at the top of the heap, with a point margin over Imperials. Toronto, Balmy Beach were another point behind. The Westmounts will leave tomorrow afternoon for Sarnia.

Finishing up their schedule last Saturday Westies had far too much power for Orfuns and swamped them 20-1.

Westmounts showed vast improvement over their performances against Sarnia and Beaches the past two Saturdays. For a team that was minus three of its regulars in Buddy Atchison, Alex Flemming and Britt Bowden, and with a fourth, Jimmy Riddell, used only sparingly, Westmounts displayed enough punch to make them favorites to halt the eight-year reign of Sarnians.

Good Bear Hunts In New Brunswick

Bears have become so plentiful in New Brunswick that the provincial authorities are offering a bounty of five dollars for each bear taken. Reports indicate that bears have inflicted considerable losses on farmers through the killing of livestock. Bear hunting is proving a popular sport in the province and many American sportsmen are securing some fine specimens of black bear which will later adorn their dens or studies in the form of rugs, according to C. K. Howard, head of the Fish and Game Department of the Canadian National Railways.

The Westmount Senior Leaders Corps bowed to Ottawa Senior Leaders in dual meet at the Capital. Although the local gymnasts captured top points in two pieces of apparatus the Parallel bars and the flying rings, this lead was not sufficient to offset the points piled up by the home team on the horizontal bar and the mats.

Westmount Downs McGill Junior Squad 2-1

Westmount downed McGill 2-1 in the Junior Amateur Hockey Association opener held at the Forum. Westmounts, a new entry in the league, replacing the disbanded Victorias, displayed great work in defeating McGill, which is reputedly a much stronger team.

McGill took a 1-0 lead on a goal by Ian Hellyer in the first period, but a second period goal by Gilpin evened the score and another second period marker by Brennan, sent Westmount into a lead they never gave up.

The teams:
McGill: Ritchie, goal; Ward, defence; Morrison, defence; Farmer, centre; Marshall, wing; Holden, wing.
Westmount: Morse, goal; Jones, defence; Dillon, defence; Browne, centre; Brennan, wing; Colby, wing.

McGill subs—Keay, Hellyer, Desrosiers, Dunn, Bradwell, Gurnham.
Westmount subs—Rowat, Brown, Casey, Gilpin, Stainway, Robinson, Rasantini.

Referees—Ken Mullins and George Gravel.
First Period
1—McGill—Burnham (Hellyer) 10:04
Penalties: Dillon, Jones.
Second Period
2—Westmt.—Gilpin (Rowat) 11:10
Penalties: Hellyer, Dillon.
Third Period
3—Westmt.—Brennan (Browne) 2:02
Penalties: None.

Firefighters From Sky May Save Forests

Fire fighters may soon be jumping from airplanes in parachutes to put out blazes in Uncle Sam's national forests.

In tests at the Chelan National Forest in the State of Washington, "smokechasers" equipped with fire-fighting tools have been dropped successfully from planes in specially designed parachutes which may be steered with improved accuracy.

Officials said fire fighting by this aerial method would save thousands of dollars annually by enabling the Forest Service to bring under control quickly small fires in remote sections. Under present overland combat methods, such blazes often spread into devastating conflagrations before firefighters are able to reach them.

The aerial fighters wear special protective clothing. Their suits are made of heavy duck padded with sponge rubber. They also have a headgear fitted with a steel face mask and neck protector and other devices designed to protect vital parts of the body from possible injury in landing.

Under plans now being tested, fire-fighting tools a two-days' emergency food ration, water, a compass, maps and a first-aid kit, and perhaps a light radio set for communication, would be dropped

WESTMOUNT FOOTBALL CLUB LOSES OUT TO GLADSTONE

Westmount Football club was defeated by Gladstones on Saturday by a score of 14-5, when the local team journeyed to Ottawa.

Both teams were out to secure such a play-off berth in the sudden-death Eastern Canada semi-final game. Last season Westmount were victorious over Gladstone in a similar game. It was a different story this year, for Gladstone came from behind in the second half to chalk up a win.

Gladstones won the hard way after a scoreless first quarter and a disheartening fumble on an end play, which gave Westmounts possession on Gladstones' five-yard strip and ended in an unconverted touchdown in the second quarter by Norm Johnston.

Gladstones threw back the Westmount line smashes twice but on the third play Johnston skirted the left end to score the first points of the game.

Then three successive penalties to Westmounts following the kick-off helped Gladstones gain three first downs. With the wind against him Johnny Hicks' try for a Gladstones' field goal from placement hit the upright but he tried again a moment later and succeeded, cutting Westmounts' margin to two points.

Westmounts were in scoring position most of the third quarter as the wind carried Douglas Hill's punts over the Gladstone goal-line repeatedly. Each time, however, from the plane in a small parachute ahead of the jumper. Upon landing, the fighter will crawl out of his protective suit, free himself of the parachute, retrieve his equipment and strike out for the nearby fire. Two or three men may be dropped on the same spot. When the fire has been extinguished, the aerial fighter will then pack his parachute, suit and tools back to the nearest road or trail to return to headquarters. The weight of the entire outfit is about 60 pounds.

Westmount subs—Barrett, Balden, Sharron, Day, Dineen, Easton, Johnson, McKay, Robert, Walls.
Gladstone subs—Lefebvre, Sarazin, Goodman, Schroeter, Miller, Legari, McGovern, Myles, Bickerton, Gardner, Groulx.

Celebrate 100 Yrs. Founding Express

This year is the centenary of express service on the American continent. It was in 1839 that Frederick William Hornden operated the first express service between Boston and New York, carrying express matter in a carpet bag. Then followed the pony express, the pony with his picturesque rider being superseded when railways were extended to the West. The final development of the fast express was exemplified when the first plane of Trans-Canada Air Lines, inaugurating regular daily survey flights between Moncton and Montreal arrived here carrying express.

New D & H Day Coaches To be Displayed at Station

Desiring to give its patrons the finest possible service, the Delaware and Hudson Railroad recently received a number of new, lightweight, streamlined, air-conditioned passenger coaches which will soon go into service on the "Laurentian", fast, daylight train between Montreal and New York.

The new coaches will be open to public inspection on Track 11 at the Windsor Station on Saturday, November 18, from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. and on Monday, November 20 from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

These coaches, which seat 76 passengers each and set new standards of comfort, beauty and safety, are of all-welded construction and are insulated against noise. They have double windows and dehydrated units to prevent fogging and are equipped with reclining and rotating seats.

In every feature, within and without, these new D & H coaches are entirely pleasing. Raymond Loewy, well-known industrial designer, was retained to handle the color treatment: the dark green interior, enriched with golden lettering, windows framed in gray and vividly banded with orange, form a perfect accompaniment to the three different interior color schemes which give a most attractive variety to the coach interiors.

Thoughts of Inventors Turn To Keeping Warm

You may know it's getting along toward winter, because the inventors have turned their talents to keeping mankind warm.

The U.S. Patent Office sent out patents for the following: A bedclothes adjuster—a gadget which promises to keep them straight. It is the idea of Herman B. James of Los Angeles.

A coverlet with flaps—a device which makes kicking the covers off or losing them in the night impossible. It was thought up by Eugene R. Weisbender of Manhattan, Kan.

Yvonne Lamox is selling many hand-knit wool topcoats or hooded capes lined with fur. They are worn over knitted shirtwaist-dresses made of wool in a lighter weight. Browns and russet tones are her first favorites.

"On Toast" Specials are Ideal as Breakfast Food

Perfect toast—hot, golden, luscious—starts the day off right! As an all-Canadian breakfast favorite, it probably stacks higher than any other single food.

Did you ever hear of anyone who didn't like toast? Well, neither have I. But I bet you never guessed just why toast tastes so good the very first thing in the morning—

Yes, it's hot and it's crunchy, and its flavor is delicious with your breakfast coffee, tea, or cocoa—it's a swell excuse for jam or marmalade, too. But these aren't the real reasons you crave your morning toast, you know. The fact of the matter, so nutritionists tell us, is that toast is an energy-food (something you need to get going), that only 65 to 70 calories, in case you're counting them. Yet its mineral and protein content supply with valuable nutrients that you need for good health.

Make It Correctly Many people are just as particular about the way their breakfast toast is made, as they are about the length of time their eggs are boiled. So here are a few tips on making toast come out the way it's wanted:

Soft, golden toast: use very fresh bread, toast quickly at high heat; spread immediately with softened butter.

Crisp, brown toast: use fresh bread, toast slowly at moderate heat; butter immediately.

Dry, crunchy toast: use bread at least a day old, toast slowly at low heat; butter each slice as eaten.

Serve It Right

If you bring your electric toaster right to the table, you can have the luxury of toast piping hot without a bit of worry. If the toast is made in the kitchen, however, arrange it on a plate in a row of overlapping slices; cover with a folded tea napkin, and place in a warm oven until ready to serve. Leave the crusts on for breakfast toast. And never stack it or it will steam and become soggy, if it isn't eaten at once.

"On Toast" Specials

Ideal for snappy mornings are "on toast" breakfast specials! Butter slices of toast, leave the crusts on if you wish, arrange on a platter or individual plates, and then heap the toast high with fluffy scrambled eggs, hot creamed chipped beef, creamed codfish, or creamed finnan haddie.

Dominion Textiles Wage Increase Affects 60,000

Elsewhere in this issue Dominion Textile Company Limited points out in an advertisement that its recent wage increase of 10 per cent provides one million dollars a year in extra wages for the employees.

The large size of this sum of money draws attention to the importance of cotton textile manufacturing in the life of our province. Dominion Textile Company's eleven thousand mill employees live and work in communities situated throughout the province. With their dependents, they number at least sixty thousand people who benefit directly in sharing the million dollars.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa states in its latest report that, as an indication of the contribution which the textile industry makes to employment, this industry ranks among the first three in wages paid and in the number of people provided with employment. The bureau's figures also show that cotton textile manufacturing pays more wages and employs more people than any other division of the textile industry.

Quebec leads all Canada in the manufacture of cotton textiles, producing 70 per cent of the total Canadian output, and providing more wages and employment than all the rest of that industry in all the other provinces combined. Quebec is the Lancashire of Canada.
