At a council meeting of the Pontiac Farm Forums, October 6, the sum of $75. was voted towards the purchase of a radio for a village in India.

'Radios for India' is a project sponsored by the National Farm Radio Forum, with the worthy aim of furthering the bond existing between our rural areas and those of India. The project is being supported by the Quebec Farm Forums, with Pontiac County actively participating through the sum voted. The cheque was mailed imediately following the meeting.

Delegates to the Provincial annual meeting, which is being held in the Ski Chalet, at Sutton, Quebec, October 14th are: Lewson Corrigan, Sydney Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDowell, Ken Kilgour and Joseph Wrinn.

A rally and annual meeting is planned for the evening of October 30 in the Shawville High School. It is hoped to have a former secretary of Quebec Forums as speaker on that occasion.

The president, Joseph Wrinn chaired the meeting and representatives were present from Radford, Shawvill West, Seventh Line and Vinton Forums.

Baby Trapped In Fridge

Three year old Debbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paddy O'Donnell of Shawville was playing next door on Norris Jones' front porch Monday morning.

Several unused refrigerators were there. Debbie crawled into one of them.

Another little child closed the door on Debbie and it automatically latched tight, then the other child went away.

Telephone linesmen, working right outside the Jones house heard the muffled screams of the little girl in the refrigerator but thought it was just some small child having a big tantrum inside the house, so they went on about their work leaving what they assumed to be a minor domestic problem to those parents concerned.

Martin Black, who just happened to be passing the house also heard the cries and also thought they were coming from inside the house. On an unexplained impulse, Martin rested his hand on the handle of one of the old refrigerators and opened it.

The child inside was hysterical and livid but alive.

No one will ever know how long Debbie spent inside the airtight chest as no one saw her get in.

The refrigerators on the Jones porch are there for repairs and it has been reported to The Equity that other children have been inside them, experimenting, before the near tragedy Monday.

The telephone linesmen at the scene immediately set the chests around with their doors facing each other so no other child could get in without moving them. At press time, the refrigerators are still on Norris Jones' porch with their doors intact.

Bus To Brookdale

Final plans have been made to have the special bus go from Pontiac County to Brookdale Farm at Farm Point, this Saturday afternoon. This is the first time a special trip from here to the Annual Meeting and Open House has been attempted. The coach will leave the western end of Campbell's Bay about 12 noon and will pickup any passengers on signal between stops and as far as Aylmer. It will make pick-ups at the usual Bryson, Shawville and Quyon stopping places. There is room for about one dozen more passengers and the fare is only $1.50 return. It is hoped that this special bus trip will become an annual event. The trees in full autumn colors in the Gatineau Hills is a treat too good to miss this time of year.

61 years married October 3 is now the boast of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dagenais of Bryson, Que. The occasion was celebrated by a buffet supper at the Bertrand Hotel, Campbells Bay last Saturday evening, October 7. Their daughters Anita (Mrs. Luke Chadillon of Montreal) and Edna (Mrs. Fernand Lepine) of Bryson were the hostesses. Over 70 relatives gathered to do honor to this well known couple of whom 7 sons and 3 daughters are now living; Leonard of Campbell's Bay; Elzear of Sudbury; Percy of Montreal Alonzo and Rheal of Bancroft and Dennis Dagenais of Bryson; Mrs. Narcisse Dubeau (Gertrude) of Lawn Station; Mrs. Luke Chadillon (Anita) of Montreal; Mrs. Fernand Lepine (Edna) of Bryson; also living are 56 grandchildren.

Cash and good wishes were heaped upon Mr. and Mrs. Dagenais who then and there expressed their gratitude and thanks for this spontaneous surprise celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Dagenais were married in Vinton, October 3, 1900 by Rev. V. Ferrerie, PP. The witnesses were a brother Mr. Dan Dagenais and Miss May Roy of Otter Lake. Mr. Dagenais died a few years ago and Miss Roy, now Mrs. Athanase Racine of St Catherines sent her congratulations.

Mr. Dagenais was the son of Louis Dagenais of Otter Lake and his wife Elzere Lefevre of Portage du Fort. Their homestead was on Range A, and were one of the first settlers of that section of Leslie, which was well known for its inaccessibility during all of the year, high and rocky hills to traverse during the summer & fall and now snow blocked with pitch holes in winter and spring, bordering on Bear Lake and Long Lake most of the way, where an abundance of trout, partridge, duck, deer and moose were always plentyful for the table; bear, foxes, beaver, mink, otter, lynx, the trappers favorites; raspberries strawberries and blueberries, grew in plenty also so that none need go hungry.

ADD A THIRD

Many traps await children and at this time of year we are being urged to be particularly aware of two of them. One is disease, the other is fire.

Dying of tetanus, diptheria, whooping cough polio, smallpox or tuberculosis is old fashioned in this modern age of immunization but fire still claims the lives of dozens of children each heating season.

Aside from taking all the precautions about fire hazards and teaching everyone safe procedures with stoves and furnaces, cigarettes and other burning devices, the careful mother makes sure small children are never alone in the house in winter. If they can't be taken where the parents go, they can be left with a neighbor. Many of the children who were burned to death last year died while their parents were "just next door".

And after we have had our children immunized against the dangerous diseases and guarded them against fire we would like to remember a third hazard, brought forcibly to everybody's mind this week when a three year old Shawville child almost suffocated in an unused refrigerator. Every town has its danger spots. The most widely publicized over the past few years have been unused refrigerators — in fact these have been so loudly condemned it is shocking that any were still accessible. But there are other equally dangerous places children can be. Old deserted buildings and unfilled excavations are two and with a little thought many more come to mind.

Keeping a child alive until he is old enough to care for himself is a big job which involves not only the parents but the whole community.

Grains of Sand

Lots of news had to be held over for next week because it didn't get into The Equity office in time for today's paper. To be sure your news gets in the best time to mail is the day it happens — not the following Wednesday night, please!

Keith Horner's new Vauxhall car cost him the price of a raffle ticket bought from the Kingston - Smith Falls Soccer Club. Good going, Keith!

In line with the several reports of unusual vegetables grown locally which have found their way into this column recently, comes one from Gordon Armstrong of Shawville, who brought three potatoes in to The Equity office last week. These three spuds weighed in at a total of 5¾ lbs.; and the largest of the three tipped the scale at 2½ lbs.

Mrs. Norman Hobbs of the Portage road reports a potato stalk measuring 62" and one hill which yielded 42 potatoes. The branch is Green Mountain. The land is new — last year it wasn't cultivated. They call it sand-loam and it has produced large strawberries from seed this year as well as 21 lbs of onions from one pound of Dutch sets.

The people in Quebec who translate releases for the benefit of those ignorant of the French language persist in their quaintness. (Remember Frenchlish we used to publish several years ago when this nhenomenon was first noticed in this office?) This week we read that "no one can ever pass an autobus on the highway when it is stopped to leave down passengers" and "by throwing a bottle out of the window, even though you are not present, you can still be the direct cause of a mortal accident".

If you are an average Canadian you have four unfilled dental cavities according to the Health League of Canada, which totals up to at least 70 million holes altogether. Ick.

Farm Forum is entirely new this year, says a release from Toronto. This we will discover for ourselves come October 30 with the first program of the season at 8:30 on CBO.

Some topics at the teachers convention last week sound intriguing; It's Time We Took Education Seriously; The Teacher's Responsibility for the Curriculum; The politics of education; Juliette Drouet, l'immortel amour de Victor Hugo; The Emotionally Disturbed Pupil; Radiation and Its Effect on Cells and Tissues; A New Idea in Team Teaching; Fish Cookery; High School Art— and lots more. We hope someone took some notes for The Equity.

18 Bear For Ross

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Fire Prevention

Fire prevention week is a special week to remind us that Fire Prevention is an all year job.

People do not realize that our cities, towns and villages are growing everyday. And this means more fire hazards with all the new electrical equipment and heating units being installed every year, we should bear in mind that all these new additions are a burden to electrical wiring and can cause your home to burn. So let's all have our wiring and furnace installations checked, that we may all be safe in our homes.

The past year fire and lives lost in Canada are still mounting. Let's play it safe by making Fire Prevention week every week of the year.

A Worried Man

In the year of 1960 the South Onslow council through legal procedure got possession of a property belonging to a man who is not finished putting his family of seven children through school, his debt of roughly $1000.00 he was unable to pay the council sold the property for roughly $3300. I'm maintaining that a corporation like South Onslow should be ashamed of their councillors that they did not give this man back at least what he did not owe, part of the trouble is that it was not until 1961 that I knew what the council of 1960 had done. In 1961 we got a new mayor and 2 or 3 new councillors. Now this present council sort of figure it's not up to them to rectify what I feel justified in calling the meanness of the 1960 council.

Any council is apt to do something a later council must rectify, if the ppresent council does not at the next meeting or so do as I wish I will be with my back to the wall and forced to tell what I have said nothing of.

W. B. O'Reilly.

(Ed. Note: Upon checking with South Onslow Council we find that the entire transfer above referred to has been done legally and with the advice of lawyers.)

Church History

St. Johns Rectory
Quyon, P. Q.
Oct. 10th, 1961.

The Editor, The Equity,
Shawville, P Q.
Dear Mr. Editor:-

A few months ago in the name of the Pontiac Historical Society, through the medium of your paper I asked that each of the churches in the area prepare a history of the parish.

Through such histories much of the story of this side of the Ottawa Valley could be obtained and, in time many of the pieces might be fitted together.

With these gathered in one place, the day would come when students and other interested people might use them for research and come to know the place our early pioneers hold in Canadian life.

One remarkable fact came to light this summer in the Anniversary sermon which Archdeacon R. K. Naylor preached at Radford. He said that many of the Irish settlers who came here in the 1820's were not political refugees nor people forced to move on account of famine, as were some after 1844 and 45, but they came as free agents, as adventurers and there is a great deal of difference.

To get things started I approached one with a good sense of local history, Mrs. Maude Bailey, and asked her to begin work on the history of her church St. Andrews United Church, Bristol, frequently called "The Brick Church".

The other day I received her manuscript, prepared with some assistance from a scrap book made through the years by Mrs. John Laird, and typed several copies as a draft for a very full history.

Any historian's appetite would be whetted after reading such material. Names are mentioned about whose owners we would like to know more and, we feel, such details should be included in the finished product.

Mentioned are two brothers, the Revs. David Wardrobe DD and Thomas Wardrobe D. D Was the name originally Wardrope? When did they come? Are there any in the area who could give us further history of them as their fathers related it?

We have the name of William King, a member of the first Session, a man strong in church and community life. Can anyone add something to what is already available on him?

These questions barely scratch the surface after one has read the manuscript. The importance of the work came up recently at a meeting of the Clergy in the Deanery when one man said he was gathering material for an M.A. thesis. He proposes to write on the Church in Clarendon. He added, "I will try to visit every parish for material." Others will follow him, studying and writing history. Can we be prepared to assist them?

Faithfully yours,
(Rev.) Edmund N. McColl

The Early History of Pontiac Families

from the files of Rev. Jos. E. Gravelle

We have only to spend a few hours in the tracing of the early families to come to realize what an interesting pursuit it really is. Of course we need some guidance and we need to have available the necessary sources from which we are to draw our information. The Pontiac Historical Society is endeavoring to create this interest and to supply at least some sources of enquiry. If you follow this column each week and put aside the articles that are being published for your information, you will soon find that you have at hand an accumulated treasure of material, much more than you would succeed in gathering, were you to visit the Federal Archives or even the centers from which our fore-fathers came.

However you should not neglect going to that very rich source which you have in your very midst. The older citizens, with their wealth of information, handed down to them from those who lived farther back in the past, will pass on to you, for the asking, hundreds of details not to be found in any book or document. Nor will they begrudge sharing this information with you. Go to them with pad and pencil.. They will think it an honour you are paying them and thank you for lending them your ear, while they travelled back into the past, the past they love to recall. They may be failing in memory of what happened yesterday, but the important things of the past they cannot forget.

Two words of advice: First Do not be stingy. You are entertaining them, as well as getting information. Should they wander off the subject, to tell of some amusing event, be patient. Take notes on it. It may, later on, prove the most important topic of your conversation. Second, do not trust to memory. Write everything down and as clearly as possible, the names, the dates, the places, the other members of the family, to whom they were married, their children. Get the complete story and all on paper.

The winter season is coming on. It means long lonesome months for the old and the shut-ins. Make many of these old folk happy by frequent visits, and at the same time compile a store of information for your Historical Society and for the generations to come. Let us be worthy of the praise which our Prime Minister gave us a few weeks ago.

For this week let us record the following, which is one of the many lineages of Mrs. Bert C. Horner, starting with Baby Catherine Ann and reaching back into the 1590's. There are not many who can trace their ancesters as far back as this. We will begin with Myles Nutt, the great great, great, great, great, great, great, great great grandfather of Mrs. Horner.

1st Generation: Myles Nutt born in the 1590's.

2nd Sara Nutt, his daughter married 1644 to John Wyman, born in England and came to Woburn, Mass. in 1640.

3rd. Jonathon Wyman, their son, born 1704, dies 1786, married Hannah Fowler the daughter of Peter Fowler of Woburn.

4th. Jonathon Wyman, their son, whose family gave the name to Wyman Station and Post Office, up in Pontiac, married Martha Thompson.

5th. Jonathon Wyman, their son, married Abigail Wright, whose family gave the name to Wrightville. He was an united Empire Loyalist.

6th Lovina Wyman married on November 29, 1794, John Allen and lived in Hull Lovina's sisters married in the following prominent families: Philoman Wright, the founder of Hull, Benjamin Fowler, Samuel Choate and Laleb Brooks.

Lovina Allen, daughter of Lovina and John Allen, married Zenon Olmstead, the son of Gideon and Esther Andrews (Gideon born in Wales in 1768 and died in Hull in 1837).

8th. Mahelia Olmstead married Edward Taber and were the fore-parents of all Tabors now living in the Bristol district.

9th Charles Taber married Mary Blakely, the daughter of Malcolm, joining the McJanet and Drummond families.

10th. Louise Maria Tabor married George Samuel Nesbitt, son of James Nesbitt and Mary Frances Townsend and lived up the Gatineau.

11th Janet Louise Nesbitt their daughter married Bert C. Horner, the son of John and Catherine Caldwell of Shawville.

12th. Robert Nesbitt Horner married Joan Hannah, daughter of John and Margaret Hannah.

13th. Baby Catherine Ann Horner, born July 11, 1958.

NOTE: Of course any one whose parents, in direct line, either on their father's of the mother's side, join into the above lineage, can also claim this long line of ancesters.

—o—

One advantage of a large group of persons working together to compile their family histories is that, with information coming in from several sources and naturally overlapping, due to the intermarrying of families, a complete story can be obtained, covering all the different branches. In this way, no gaps are left unfilled, as might occur from individual research. Already after but three months of this cooperation, we have gathered a wonderful amount of data, which would be otherwise very hard to obtain. And as time goes on and interest spreads, more letters are being received, more information is being phoned in, more copies of The Equity are in demand and the history of Pontiac Families is becoming the subject most discussed in all group meetings. It is the hope of the Historical Society that not one family will be over-looked in all Pontiac and that all without exception, will be included in the final compilation, whether they have descended from the very early settlers, those who came at a later date or those who have come but recently into our midst.

Today's Enquiry

EDWARD DALE born in 1805 in Ireland, coming to Canada in 1819 at the age of 14, possibly a son of John and Elizabeth Dale, the first settlers at Shawville, along with John and Thomas Hodgins. He later married Mary. . .who also was born in Ireland, in the year 1795. Their family of at least five were all born in Canada: ROBERT 1828, Margaret 1829, Mary Jane 1831, Edward 1837 and Sara Ann 1835. Who was Mary and to whom were these five children married?

EDWARD DALE, much younger than EDWARD 1805, born in Ireland in 1823 and marrying a girl named Mathilda about 1850, who was born in Canada in 1833. They had no children when the 1851 census was taken.

JOHN DALE, born in Ireland in 1824, married Catherine. . . about 1849. She was born in Ireland in 1829. They had one child Mary born here in 1850 and possibly more later on. There was a Thomas Knipe, a child of six, born in Ireland, staying with them in 1851, possibly a younger brother of Catherine.

DALE, JOHN b. 1830 in Canada and married about 1851 to Margaret. . .b. 1831 in Canada heir children J. ALEX in 1852, MARGARET 1855, HUGH 1857 and R. A. 1860. JOHN could be a son of William and Mathilda or of John and Elizabeth.

JOHN DALE 1803 Ireland and Elizabeth 1797 Ireland, just mentioned above as possibly the parents of John, came out to Canada in 1823. In 1841 they had three children living with them. One was Margaret b. 1831 in Canada, and later died of choking, another was Thomas b. 1833 who later married Anne Armstrong and Rebecca 1848. This is the family of Mrs. L. E. Thomson of Shawville.

DALE JOHN, the oldest of the Johns, born in 1777 in Ireland and his wife also ELIZABETH, born 1771 in Ireland, parents of William 1801 and John 1803. It was this John who was the early settler in Shawville.

DALE WILLIAM 1801 Ireland and Mathilda 1811 Ireland, came out in 1823 and had a family of five in 1841. Children: John 1832, Elizabeth 1835, Jane 1836, Mary 1843, Nancy 1845, Margaret 1846 and Sara 1848.

The seven Dale families listed above will help the descendants and their affiliated to be able to tel lus to which they belong.

DONAHUE, JOSEPH b. 1811 in Ireland and Mary. . .his wife born in Ireland the same year. They had no children living at home in 1851.

DONOHUE MICHAEL, possibly a brother of Michael, born 1805 in Ireland and his wife Hannah. . .Children: Patrick 1848 and Sara 1850. The mother and children were born in Canada.

DRAPER, JAMES b. 1774 in USA, a Quaker, carpenter by trade.

DRAPER, TRUEMAN W. b. 1811, d. 1898 and Martha Barber 1824, his wife. A son Alonzo 1845 m. Mary Sturgeon and died in 1912.

DUBOIS PIERRE 1804 Canada and his wife CLEOPHEE 1809. Their children: Rachel 1833, Pierre 1834, Joseph 1836, Francis 1838, Hilaire 1840, Eleonore 1842 and Angelique 1845 all born in Canada.

ALLEN GEORGE, not on the 1851 census, but in Clarendon in 1841. He was born in Scotland and came out to Canada in 1828. In 1841 his family consisted of three persons.

BARBER CHARLES, listed on the 1841 census and not on the 1851, born in Ireland and came out in 1837. His was a family of two persons in 1841

BARNET ROBERT, on 1841 list only, born in Ireland, came to Canada in 1829 and had 9 in his family in 1841.

BOHAN, DANIEL on 184[illegible] census only, born in Ireland, came out in 1829 and had four in his home in 1841. A Julia Bohan, born in Bristol in 1856 and later married to John Cooney of Weirstead, could be a grandchild of Daniel.

61 Years Wed

Mrs. Dagenais, now 81 was the daughter of Wm. Lafleur of D'Acre and her mother Miss Elizabeth Shannon of Dublin, Ireland, living at Otter Lake. Mr. Lafleur was a shoemaker for the district. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Dagenais continued living on the Dagenais homestead until 23 years ago when they moved to Bryson.

The Dagenais homestead was located about 8 acres from the Bellmont school, situated on top of the mountain where the vista is far-reaching and exhilarating.

In his reminiscence Mr. Dagenais, now in his 88th yr. says Otter Lake was always an important center for the logging trade and their family income was always from it. The first store he remembers there was that of Joe Roy (pronounced er wah) then Wm. Moore, Mr. Lunam was post master at Bronson depot where mail was distributed. When a doctor was needed they had to drive for one, Doctor Gaboury, then in Bryson, was most on call. Rain or shine he was always ready for the long tedious drive.

Mr. Dagenais is one of the few men now wearing earrings when asked about it he said that when a boy he was nearly blind and Doctor Gaboury advised having his ears pierced to wear small gold rings, his sight then cleared up and he never had to wear glasses. He still wears a ring in the lobe of his ear.

Pembroke Diocesan Autumn Meeting

"To reassert the leadership of fathers in the home" was the advice given by His Excellency Bishop Morrocco, in his address "Family Life of To-morrow" delivered at the Provincial Convention of the CWL in Hamilton. He advised that children be taught obedience at an early age and to share in responsibility. These and other points in his address, were related by Mrs. Greg Gervais Dioc. Pres. at the annual Fall Meeting of the Pembroke Diocesan Council, held in the Cathedral Parish Hall, Sunday.

Gerald Maloney was Valedictorian and he said in part that they now stand on the threshold of life, in persuit of an ideal, and nothing short of Heaven should satisfy their striving. He expressed gratitude to all who have aided them on the road to graduation.

Father Legree introduced the guest speaker Rev. Marc Gauthier, principal of St. Michael's Normal School at Fort Coulonge. This is Father Gauthier's address in part.

If we would look in the dictionaary for the difinition of 'to graduate' we would see that it is to attain an academic degree at the end of a course to bring to a higher degree. You have received a threefold education. First let us salute the parents for their untiring and unfailing love and sacrifice. They are proud of you tonight, continue to please them. The teachers, you are fortunate in being in a school directed by the Sisters of St. Joseph, whose reputation for zealous and competent endeavours in the field of Higher Education is well established. It is incumbent upon you that in all walks of life, by your conduct, you maintain that reputation. Mother Church teaches moral conduct, a barometer by which you should style your life so that your Church will not be ashamed of you. Your religious background and Christian principles should prevent spiritual laziness. Remember what you have been taught in the home, school and church and make this society a better place in which to live. To do good we must be good. He then congratulated them and wished them success in their endeavour. Marilyn Keon thanked Father Gauthier for his contribution to a memorable evening.

His excellency, the Bishop then addressed the graduates commending them on their achievements and how necessary a higher education was in these times. He spoke of the unsettled and troubled world and of the greater need for a good example to be set forth by the Christians of North America, a land where people live in great prosperity and greater luxury and enjoy so many of God's Blessings. Wallace Morris thanked His Excellency and hoped that they would benefit from his message and in this way be worthy of the interest he has shown in them.

Calf Club Banquet

By Mary Kilgour

The climax of another successful year for the Shawville Calf Club came last Saturday night when they held their annual banquet. This finale was held in the new Agricultural Building with the Yarm Ladies Aid catering.

The chairman, president Ken Kilgour opened the banquet by calling on vice president Wallace Barber to seat the guests.

Between courses the toast to the Queen was proposed by Bonnie Warren and Margaret Kilgour played for the singing of the Queen.

After the meal, Mary Kilgour secretary treasurer introduced the head table guests which included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brownlee, donator of the C.T. Brownlee and Son trophy; Mr. and Mrs. Athol Dale donator of the transistor radio to the club; Mr. Neil Drummond Agronomist; Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Kilgour, president of Pontiac Agricultural Society; Mr. Austin Clarke, President of Quyon Calf Club; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Judd, assistant Leader of Shawville Calf Club; Mr. & Mrs. George Pirie, Leader; Wallace Barber vice president S.C.C.; Kenneth Kilgour, President and Mary Kilgour, Sec-Treas. Many other guests were invited but were unable to attend.

David McCord proposed a toast to the ladies by telling that "it was once said, 'you can t live with women but you can't live without them" '. The girls in the Shawville Calf Club were support, conflict and companionship to the boys".

Margaret Kilgour responded to the toast to the ladies by saying that the girls in the club took pleasure in acting as their support, comfort and companionship to the boys.

Ken Kilgour in his presidents remarks, welcomed the many people who had come to the banquet to make it such a success. Ken also related the events which had taken place during the past year. They included the meetings held at farms, a senior calf club started along with the junior calf club; the Western Quebec Judging Elimination which were held at Shawville for the first time and of which Wallace Barber won and Ken placed second. These two boys went to Sherbrooke to judge and were in the top 14 which entitles them to a trip to the Toronto Royal. Their trip includes staying at the Royal York Hotel, going to Niagara Falls, an NHL hockey game; and doing many other interesting, exciting and challenging things. Shawville Fair was the next big item on our agenda for the year and looking over the results, Shawville came out on top. Wallace Barber, Saturday of the fair won the C.T. Brownlee and Son trophy for the best Holstein junior heifer calf. Ken Kilgour won the Watson Trophy for the most points in livestock judging & Ken also won the Norval Horner trophy for the highest aggregate score. Now the next big challenge for the Club is the Ottawa Winter Fair in which three groups have been entered. Ken also remarked on the donations which the club have received and also told of the clubs donation of $200 in total to the Agricultural Building. In closing the president wished everyone attending the banquet a most enjoyable evening.

John Tracy on behalf of Gary Hodgins, Don Campbell and himself expressed their thanks to the club for donatin a small amount of money to them so that they could attend the Sherbrooke Winter Fair so as to show their beef steers and participate in the 4-H show and also represent Pontiac County. John also told of their results.

Our leader, George Pirie, then, in a few remarks expressed welcome to everyone, told of the club and also gave praise to everyone including parents for making the Shawville Club what it is and for giving it their support.

Mr. Pirie then presided as chairman for the presentation of awards. He told how these boys have worked to earn their prizes and how much they deserve them. Mr. Clarence Brownlee presented his trophy to Wallace Barber; Mr. N. A. Drummond presented the Norval Horner trophy to Ken Kilgour and Mr. Walter Kilgour president of the Pontiac Holstein Club and president of the Holstein Association of Quebec presented the John Watson trophy to Ken.

Chris Judd on behalf of everyone present thanked the Yarm United Ladies Aid for the most delicious meal and said he was sure everyone was "stuffed as full as himself."

Louis Judd our assistant leader then gave a few remarks regarding the club work and also the appreciation which the club has for our leader George.

Mr. Neil Drummond told all those present of what the club was doing and expressed that the young people, especially farmers, could do a lot worse than attending a 4-H meeting.

Mr. J. Arthur Kilgour on behalf of the Agricultural Society thanked the club for the two $100 donations to the new building and asked each and everyone for their continued support.

The banquet and years work came to a close by the singing of "O Canada".

Books Needed For High School English

These are the booklists for Shawville High School English classes. Anyone who has any of these books at home is invited by Mrs. Henry McCord, English teacher, to lend them to the High School for the term. Just write your name and address in each book and mail to Mrs. McCord c/o Shawville High School, Shawville and after the students have read it the book will be returned to you, probably next May. This is a new experiment in community cooperation and will be most helpful to the High School. Many of these books have been given as awards to students at Award Nights in recent years. It would be most thoughtful if some of the award winners could lend their books now. Check these lists and check your book shelf and Mrs. McCord thanks you in advance.

Scout Master Ed Lane will be glad to let anyone know what is needed.

More boys can be accommodated by the Scouts in Portage and any boy in the area is invited to to join. Adults are also in demand to become members of the group committee and the Scout Master, though doing an excellent job with the boys single handed, could use an assistant.
