World News In Brief

Rome, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Dispatches to the Italian press said today Trieste's pro-Communist Communists have announced they "will continue their fight to prevent Trieste from becoming an Anglo-American imperialistic base." The dispatches said elements of Trieste's Communist party favoring Premier Tito of Yugoslavia in their squabble with the Communist International Information Bureau were expelled from the party.

London, Aug. 24.—(Reuters)—Britain today advised other countries to pin their faith on the British system of television.

A long-awaited statement of government policy said that after inquiry by experts it had been decided not to change the present system for years to come because no developments at home or abroad had been found that would justify making existing television sets obsolete.

Sydney, Australia, Aug. 24.—Ten persons are missing in the wild "crocodile country" along the north Australian coast 200 miles below the northern part of Darwin. The party left Darwin eight weeks ago in a 20-foot wooden barge to shoot crocodiles near the mouth of the Victoria River. The barge was last seen by a missionary, a Father Doherty, at sea off Point Keats two weeks ago.

Washington, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Russia and her Balkan satellites are stepping up their campaign to oust Marshal Tito as Premier of Yugoslavia, diplomatic officials said today.

These authorities point to increasing violent denunciations of Tito from every top Communist official in eastern Europe outside Yugoslavia.

In addition, party leaders in Italy and France also have lined up beside Moscow in condemning Tito as a "traitor" to the Communist cause.

Singapore, Aug. 24.—(Reuters)—R.A.F. planes, cracked down on guerrilla hideouts in Malaya in large-scale rocket and bomb attacks yesterday. Ground troops followed up in one combined operation.

Beaflighters went in with rockets and bombs against a communist centre south of Ipoh, Perak.

Spiritfires attacked in The Kuantan district on Pahang state, strafing rebel positions with cannon and machine-gun fire.

Quebec, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Countess de Saint-Marc of Belgium will visit Ottawa in a few days when she will present Prime Minister Mackenzie King with a golden book bearing the names of all Canadians who helped free her country.

The Countess, president of the Organization of Remembrance of Gand, now is here meeting next-of-kin of Quebec soldiers buried in Belgian cemeteries.

General Area Of Agreement Reached In Talks Between Western Powers And Russia

More Meetings To Be Held To Adjust Technicalities—Long Series of Conferences Climaxed by Meeting With Stalin.

Moscow, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A qualified source said the western envoys and Russia have reached a general area of agreement during talks climaxed last night by a long Kremlin interview with Prime Minister Stalin.

The informant said technicalities lie ahead for adjustment but that these are not trifles and will require considerable negotiation.

Walter Bedell Smith, United States ambassador, emerged from the Kremlin after the meeting in a buoyant mood and declared "we're going to have more meetings." He added later:

"We're always optimistic. We expect the best and prepare for the worst."

The envoys have been trying since late July to find bases for lifting the land blockade Russia imposed on Berlin and for four-power talks on Germany and perhaps other problems in Europe.

The meeting last night, attended by Stalin, Foreign Minister Molotov, and Smith and his British and French colleagues, lasted four hours and 40 minutes.

Before last night's session observers here and abroad predicted it was to have been the last meeting.

The informant said today the seven Kremlin conferences, two of which included Stalin, have a "fair" chance of resulting in a solid agreement. He said prospects are far better today than they were at this time yesterday.

"Some progress" has been made, the source said, adding there is no cause for pessimism.

The source said western powers and the Soviet Union now have reduced their terms to the "lowest denominator." Had no progress been made last night and early today, he added, the current series of conversations would have ended.

It had been stated on good authority before the meeting last night that the session would be the last.

(Whitehall sources in London said Stalin introduced certain "new ideas" which offer hope for an east-west settlement in Berlin. Introduction of these unexplained new thoughts dispelled fears that diplomatic exchanges would break down, the informants said. They added that prolongation of Moscow negotiations averted a potentially explosive international situation, at least temporarily.)

It was stressed that despite the length of the talks, delicacy of the subject matter, and the fact that it was impossible to pay the Maritime miners adequate wages because of American competition in central Canada. This can never again be accepted as a reason for sub-standard wages for the Federal government nor has a settled policy of so administering subventions that they will enable our coal to compete in central Canada. As we told the coal board, a subvention policy for coal must have as its primary purpose the greatest possible output of Canadian coal, at a fully adequate wage level for the coal miner.

Another point that should be emphasized, he said, was that the present spiral of price and wage increases "is not the work of labor."

"It is not the attempt of labor to protect living standards that has forced up prices. Rather it is the greed for profits gained through high and rising prices that has forced labor to enter the race against uncontrolled price increases.

"It has always been within the power of government to impose price controls. It is no fault of labor and its unions that once the war was over government preferred to let business have its own way.

"It would be suicidal for the workers to give up the race. Such a policy would reduce our living standards to starvation levels and would in no way gain us price controls or ward off depression."

Dealing with labor representation, Mr. Jenkins said the U. M. W. was among the first to recognize that without "our own members of Parliament, without men from our own ranks who have our interests and our point of view, progress for

Soviet Is Seeking Share Of Control Of Ruhr Output

By EDWIN SHANKE

Berlin, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Communist press is beating the drum again for a Russian share in western Germany's coal-rich Ruhr. The demands, seemingly timed with the Moscow negotiations which drew Berliners' attention today, appear to be an outgrowth of the Soviet zone's economic troubles, which the western press has reported on the increase since the Soviet blockade cut it off from Ruhr output.

"It can be regarded as pretty certain," the Russian-controlled newspaper Nacht-Express said, "that the question of Russian participation in the control of the Ruhr was raised in Moscow."

Demand for a share in the rich coal- and steel-producing area of the Ruhr came on the heels of Gen. Lucius D. Clay's latest report on economic conditions in the west. It said there had been a 10-per cent gain in Bizonia's industrial production for a post-war high.

The report said brightest spot was iron and steel production in the Ruhr.

American military government officials said the reopening of bus traffic Friday between the American and Russian zone appeared to be a "local arrangement." They had no indication that it forecast the lifting of the Russians' present road and rail blockade of Berlin.

The British military government announced last night it had blocked an attempt by the Central Bank of Berlin, which is in the Russian sector, to get 3,000,000 east marks unfrozen from the British sector.

Commenting on the Communist campaign for participation in the Ruhr, United States officials said it looked to them "as though the Russians would like to get their hands into western Germany and benefit by it now that it is beginning to show signs of economic comeback under the European Recovery Program while their own economy is floundering and being run into the ground."

U.S. Labor Act Draws U.M.W. Fire

Mine Workers' President Calls Taft-Hartley Act a "Slave Bill."

By DAVE MCINTOSH

Canadian Press Staff Writer Truro, N.S., Aug. 24.—(AP)—An attack on the United States Taft-Hartley labor act, President Frank Jenkins of the United Mine Workers (C.C.L.) district 26, said today "if United States employers are able successfully to impose that slave bill on American workers it is beyond doubt that attempts will be made to introduce similar laws in Canada."

In his presidential report to the 22nd annual U.M.W. convention, Mr. Jenkins also hit at the Nova Scotia trade union act, the Dominion coal board and the "shocking indifference" of the Federal and Nova Scotia governments to unemployment.

Mr. Jenkins listed four main problems which, in the opinion of union officers, faced the U.M.W.:

1. To restore the standard of living of our membership to the level at which it stood before this year's price increases, or, if possible, to raise it.

2. Unemployment in the Maritime bodies.

3. Strengthening of the union. The stocky, black-haired president said there was one point in regard to wages that it was essential the union clarify this was:

"We have always been told in the past that it was impossible to pay the Maritime miners adequate wages because of American competition in central Canada. This can never again be accepted as a reason for sub-standard wages for the Federal government nor has a settled policy of so administering subventions that they will enable our coal to compete in central Canada. As we told the coal board, a subvention policy for coal must have as its primary purpose the greatest possible output of Canadian coal, at a fully adequate wage level for the coal miner."

Another point that should be emphasized, he said, was that the present spiral of price and wage increases "is not the work of labor."

"It is not the attempt of labor to protect living standards that has forced up prices. Rather it is the greed for profits gained through high and rising prices that has forced labor to enter the race against uncontrolled price increases.

"It would be suicidal for the workers to give up the race. Such a policy would reduce our living standards to starvation levels and would in no way gain us price controls or ward off depression."

Commodity Prices Fall In China

Drop Follows Conversion of China's New Gold Yuan Currency.

Shanghai, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Commodity prices tumbled as much as 25 per cent today as China converted its first 24 hours of conversion to its new gold yuan currency.

The operation, the central bank of China announced, netted the government approximately $1,250,000 worth of gold, silver and United States dollars. The receipts were in payment for the gold yuan, which in the first 24 hours also brought to the banks an estimated total of 10 trillion old Chinese dollars.

None of the banks in the larger cities was able to keep pace with the demands of crowds seeking to exchange old Chinese dollars, silver, gold and American currency for the gold yuan.

The downward thrust of commodity prices reflected both the stronger position of the new currency and reaction from the unbridled price increases of the last three days when government controls were lifted before the change-over.

The general effect of the price slump was to return to the commodity cost level of Aug. 19, the day the government announced its new currency. In efforts to hold the price line at that level the government has police swarming over market places.

The currency conversion, temporarily at least, has almost stopped speculation, one of the main causes of China's inflation. One gold yuan is equivalent to 3,000,000 Chinese national dollars, and it takes four national yuan to buy $1 in United States funds.

Scientists Make Progress On Study Of A-Bomb After Effects

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

Buffalo, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A surprising start toward protecting humans from some bad effects of atomic bombs or X-rays was shown today by five Chicago scientists.

One of these effects is anemia. Radiation from atomic bombs or X-rays can destroy bone marrow, the factory that makes red and white blood cells. When the marrow is damaged, production of these cells falls off and anemia results.

The surprise is a way to prevent damage to the marrow factories by fighting fire with fire. It is explained in an exhibit at the International Congress of Hematology by Drs. L. O. Jacobson, N. H. Block, E. K. Marks, E. Gaston and E. L. Simmons of the Argonne National Laboratory and University of Chicago.

One big dose of radiation destroys the bone marrow of normal animals, they found. The animals got anemia and it took a long time for them to recover. They took other animals, and first made them anemic before exposing them to the dose of X-rays or neutrons.

These animals escaped any damage to their bone marrow. They escaped it when given doses of radiation that probably would kill a human being. They weren't made

King, Queen To Attend Maori Church Service

London, Aug. 24.—(Reuters)—The King and Queen and their younger daughter, Princess Margaret, will attend a service at a Maori church when they visit New Zealand early next year.

An itinerary of the tour issued by Buckingham Palace shows they will visit 40 places in the 32 days they are in New Zealand, before going to Australia.

The Royal family will spend four days in Wellington, where they arrive the morning of Feb. 28 in the battleship Vanguard, which took them on their South African tour last year. They will spend two days at Christchurch, two days at Tororua, noted for its mineral springs, and three days at Auckland.

Most of their travelling on the two main islands will be by plane or automobile. They will board the New Zealand naval ship Bellona at Wellington March 7 to cross Cook Strait, dividing the islands, for a visit to Pictou.

The Royal family will break their "hop-scotch" trip from coastal town to coastal town by spending single nights at six different hotels. At both Wellington and Auckland they will stay at Government House.

Only six days of the visit will be free of functions. March 27, at Auckland, the Royal family will embark again in the Vanguard to travel up the west coast of North Island, rounding its trip to the Bay of Islands where they will disembark for the day.

After two days aboard the Vanguard there, without any official engagements, they will be given a farewell ceremony at Waitangi before sailing for Sydney March 31.

Voice In Church Affairs Sought

Amsterdam, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Women attending the assembly of the World Council of Churches here want a greater voice in the administrative affairs of the church. They feel they've been relegated too long to minor roles in church activities.

One layman, speaking for his wife, said that, everlastingly at sewing circles, helping with a church dinner or at similar tasks. Before her marriage she had four years of business administration in college and several years' experience in a business firm.

Her sister, an expert in child psychology, also helps peel potatoes for church dinners. Both say they enjoy such homely chores but feel they could contribute something more to the management and program of the church.

The women weren't taken by many of whom they claim have no proper training for the job. Mrs. Twila Lytton Caver, a United States Presbyterian lay leader, and other women leaders expressed concern lest the whole problem of women's work in the church be confused with the specialized question of ordination of women.

They especially want a voice in church government and in the management of church organizations. Women have no quarrel with the World Council, which is giving them their first chance to have an adequate discussion of the matter. They have found further encouragement in the fact that Dr. Karl Barth of the Swiss Protestant Church Federation, a world famous theologian, has come out on their side.

Berlin—A City Of Tension

In the top picture, a Russian jeep packed with Soviet military police, stands in "no man's" land between the Soviet and American sectors of Berlin, while an American jeep filled with M.P.'s waits for the Russians to make the first move. A sign in three languages, including Russian, stands in foreground. It reads: "You are now leaving the American sector."

In the lower picture, a Russian officer gestures to United States officers (backs to camera) in Potsdamer Platz, downtown Berlin, where the Russian, British and United States sectors come together. The meeting took place following a gun battle between German police from the Soviet zone and four Germans, who were killed. Both sides withdrew after a conference.

Russia Will Build Plants In Poland

Big Industrial Development Is Planned in Lower Silesia.

Warsaw, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Russia is blueprinting plans for building huge industrial plants in Poland with accent on steel.

She's taking a big hand in the development of Poland's "Little Ruhr" in the lower Silesian area which this country absorbed from eastern Germany.

Henryk Rozanski, director of the treaty division of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, recently revealed plans for "carrying out by the Soviet Union of projects of all the great industrial plants which are to be built in Poland, as well as supplying investment for such plants."

All of this is to be done under the five-year trade pact which Poland signed with Russia early in 1948. In addition to sending Poland just about everything she needs to get on her industrial feet once again, Russia is loaning the Poles $450,000,000.

The Russians are reported to have started big deliveries of machinery and equipment. One of the projects in which they are showing considerable interest is the construction of huge Russian-equipped steel mills along the Glatz (Glatz) Canal in lower Silesia, which until the end of the Second World War was a part of eastern Germany.

These mills, expected to start operating within two or three years, are designed to double Poland's best pre-war production of 1,500,000 tons of steel.

That's just one item on the Soviet program in Poland. The Russians, too, are highly interested in the agreement between Poland and Czechoslovakia to set up a big industrial hub in southern Poland.

Plans for 10,000,000 tons annually. Also planned are chemical plants, foundries and factories of various types.

Transport Planes Crash In Germany

Ravolzhausen, Germany, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Two American planes on the supply run to blockade Berlin collided outside this American zone town today, killing four United States air force fliers.

New State Of U.N. Budget "Unosia" Is Presented By Trygve Lie

Paris Home of United Nations Will House 4,500 Inhabitants.

By ROBERT C. WILSON
Paris, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The new, independent state of "Unosia" is being born in the capital of France.

The tiny, sovereign state will cover 10 acres of land and will number about 4,500 inhabitants. This makes it even smaller than Andorra, Monaco or Liechtenstein. But Unosia will be far more powerful and far more polyglot. Its Lake Success, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Secretary-General Trygve Lie asked today for $33,469,387 to operate the United Nations in 1949.

The figure, about a million dollars less than the 1948 budget, goes before the 18-member General Assembly in Paris next month for approval.

Despite the shock, moves already are under way in the U. N. to cut

Freight Cars, Sheds Swept By Huge Fire In Montreal

Montreal, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Streams of water were being played early today on the still smoldering wreckage of twisted freight cars and gutted sheds after Montreal's worst fire in recent years destroyed the Canadian National Railways' Bonaventure freight yards yesterday.

A series of explosions, culminating in one last terrific blast, sent the flames rushing through a quarter mile of sheds and standing freight cars. By the time the blaze was brought under control, more than three hours after it started, two sheds and 130 freight cars and their contents were a total loss.

No one was killed in the fire, but seven firemen were taken to hospital, overcome by the black, oily smoke that dropped flaming embers across the St. Lawrence River in St. Lambert. All railwaymen in the area were reported safe.

"It's the worst fire I've seen in 35 years," a fire department official said.

As the flames reached their height, 60 hoses played water into the inferno. Three alarms brought every available fireman from all Montreal stations to the scene.

The final explosion might have been followed by yet another had not firemen and railway workers unloaded a car full of dynamite by hand.

The blaze broke out at about 3:30 p. m. EOT just as 200 steel and wooden freight cars were being unloaded. An oxygen tank blew up in shed No. 1, and in less than 15 minutes the whole yard, from Caspelle Square to Mount St. Charles Bridge, was aflame.

Blaze followed blast as the fire reached tank cars and drums of naphtha. Policemen, sweating in the 110 degree heat at the edge of the blaze, kept pushing the crowd back out of danger.

The last explosion blew in the loaded windows of the Queen's Hotel Tavernier, shattering glass over water, Maurice Cyr and 10 customers who were placidly drinking beer. None was hurt.

Meanwhile, Louis Guibert of Bond Brook N. J., was standing in the concourse of old Bonaventure Station.

American Consulate Clerk Is Kidnapped In Palestine

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Jerusalem, Aug. 24.—(AP)—John Macdonald, United States consul-general here has protested to the Jewish governor of Jerusalem that the Stern Gang kidnapped and mistreated an American consulate employee Sunday.

Macdonald said the Sternists seized George F. Paro, a confidential clerk, and held him for seven hours, during which they handcuffed, blindfolded, slapped and questioned him.

An Israeli army source said the Sternists kidnapped Paro and called him a "damnable British spy" because he bears a faint resemblance to a British detective who left Palestine four months ago.

After Paro was released by the Sternists he was held for another nine hours by Israeli military police. Asked why the army had held him so long a spokesman replied:

"To clear up such a mystery in nine hours is not bad police work." Macdonald said he had filed a full report of the incident with the United States State Department and had sent a strongly-worded protest to Dr. Bernard Joseph, Jewish military governor in Jerusalem.

Macdonald's story of the incident was as follows:

appeared and a second man took her place. The first man explained he wanted to drive the other home first and Paro agreed.

After driving for a time the two men told Paro to get out. A third man, in uniform, appeared and snapped handcuffs on Paro under the guise of shaking hands.

"There were about a dozen others standing around, most of them in nondescript uniforms. They took me in the room of a building and blindfolded me with a cheap brown scarf and told me to sit on the floor."

For an hour, he said, they cursed him, accused him of being British, insulted him and then began questioning him.

At about 8 A. M., they put him in a car, drove him around and transferred him to another automobile. After being taken into a building he found himself in the hands of Israeli military police.

CARY GRANT AND BETSY DRAKE MAY BE MARRIED IN ENGLAND
Hollywood—Cary Grant is acting coy about Betsy Drake (his latest flame) and I'm suspecting there will be wedding bells in England sometime next month.

Attorneys for Larry Parks and Columbia are in a huddle, and it looks like Larry will get a new deal (it's about time) any minute. Then watch for a quick announcement that Larry will star in a sequel to his big hit, "The Jolson Story." When a studio needs something, feuds can turn into moonlight and roses.

The Frank Sinatras are extremely lovey-dovey these days. Friends say the birth of their third child really cemented this marriage. Oh well, I guess some people just need a lot of cement.
Foresight
No one can say the Humphrey Bogarts aren't careful. They've already built a fence around their swimming pool, to protect the baby—which won't be born until February.

Depression note: Kay Thompson says she will premiere her new revue, "Happy Ever After," in Hollywood in November—if there's a night club still open by then.

Those who lifted eyebrows at Sydney Greenstreet playing a comedy role with Danny Kaye in "The Happy Times" can relax. He was a light comedian on the stage before Hollywood turned him into a Merchant of Menace.

Now it's a canoe-in. A resort owner on a Minnesota lake has installed a screen near the shore and you watch the movie from your canoe. Instead of rolling in the aisles you fall in the lake.

The high price of meat isn't worrying Dinah Shore and George Montgomery's friends. Dinah and George are importing meat from their Montana ranch and selling it.

Local Trees To Be Guarded Against Dutch Elm Disease

A disease, known as the "Dutch Elm Disease," has attacked elm trees in this district according to J. A. Tardiff, superintendent of the Municipal Parks.

Only two trees in Sherbrooke have been attacked but several trees in Ascot and on Bevilport Road have been found with this disease. Mr. Tardiff sent a letter to Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests, asking him for help and R. J. Letourneau, entomologist, will check the trees frequently.

The disease is incurable. It is a species of canker which attacks the trees and kills the sap. The contagious element is transported from one tree to another by insects.

The majority of trees in the city are elm, therefore if this disease spreads it will be serious.

The only method of stopping the disease from spreading is to chop down the trees and burn them. After the tree has been burned the ashes should be taken to the incinerator as the germs spread quickly.

All elm trees in the district will be inspected regularly by qualified entomologists. Since the majority of trees in the Townships are elm inspection will take some time but it will be carried out thoroughly.

One of the diseased trees was found on King Street East and the other on Belvidere Street.

All trees whether in public or private parks or on public or private property are subject to inspection.

Since the majority of elms are in the North Ward this section of the city will be inspected first.

Lady Banting Receives High Medical Honor In Britain

Special to The Record

Montreal, Aug. 24—A former resident of Rock Island, Lady Banting, the former Henrietta Banting and widow of Sir Frederick Banting, of insulin fame, is the first Canadian woman to be awarded the coveted Membership in the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

Lady Banting graduated in arts at McGill and was married to Sir Frederick in Toronto in 1939, when she was a research worker at the Banting Institute. She later received her M.D. at Toronto and served during the war as a medical officer in the Canadian Army near London, Ontario.

She has been preparing for her M. R. C. O. G. examinations for the last two years, while working in a London hospital.

When interviewed here after her arrival from London, Lady Banting remarked with shy modesty, "It was just a fluke, I think." She admitted that the requirements and examinations are very stiff and the "mortality" of candidates is always high.

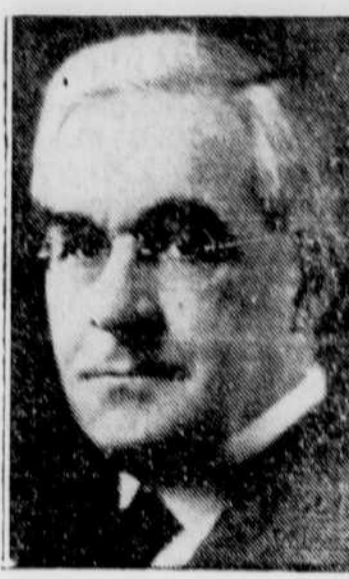

Lady Banting took the examinations in London in July and said she was amazed when she passed. "I didn't think I had a hope." Only three Canadians were successful, the other two being men from western Canada. About 100 doctors sat for the examination, after meeting other requirements including a thesis and some practical work.

Women are prominent in the medical profession in Great Britain, Lady Banting declared. About one-fifth of all doctors in the United Kingdom are women and they are admitted to the highest posts, a number of them holding professorships in universities.

The new national health plan will help doctors to specialize, Lady Banting believes, because internes are paid a reasonable salary while doing their "house" work in hospitals. At first it may discourage general practitioners but young men in the profession like the scheme because it gives them a minimum financial security at the start of their careers.

Lady Banting returned to Canada to visit her mother at Newcastle, N.B., and so far, has not formed any plans for the future.

TO BE HONORED

JOHN T. HACKETT, K.C., Progressive Conservative Member of Parliament for Stanstead and president of the Canadian Bar Association, who will be honored with an honorary degree by the University of Montreal during the Association's annual meeting, Aug. 30 to Sept. 3.

The ceremony will take place Sept. 1. Similar degrees will be conferred on Prime Minister Cestello of Elze, the Rt. Hon. the Viscount Simon, Lord Chancellor of Great Britain; Maitre Maurice Ribet, Batonnier of the Bar of Paris, and Chief Justice Orville S. Tyndale of the Superior Court of Quebec.

Ronald Kemp, Of Capelton, Dies Following Accident

An inquest will be held today in Montreal, in the death of Ronald Kemp, 17, of Capelton, who died in a Montreal hospital yesterday following an accident which occurred near the Lennoxville bridge on Sunday evening. The victim was riding his motor bike along the Lennoxville road during a rain storm when he was splashed by a car and lost control of his vehicle which smashed into the fence near the bridge.

Kemp only slightly bruised road his bike home and told his story about being splashed. Later on in the evening, however, he complained of headaches and was taken by Blake's Ambulance to the Sherbrooke Hospital and was later transferred from the local hospital to the Montreal Neurological Hospital where he died as a result of a hemorrhage of the brain.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kemp, of Montreal; four sisters, Gwen, Patricia, Barbara and Lynn; three brothers, Raymond, Gordon and Thomas; his grandparents with whom he was residing, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, and an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moore, and Nina, a cousin. He also leaves to mourn his loss several other aunts, uncles and cousins.

MISS MILLAR IS AWARDED I.O.D.E. BURSARY

It is announced by the committee of selection that the Elizabeth Thomson Bursary has been awarded to Heather Rosalyn Millar of the Sherbrooke High School.

Miss Millar is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McD. Millar, of 22 Newton street, Sherbrooke, and received her education in the Sherbrooke Protestant schools.

The Elizabeth Thomson Bursary is awarded annually by the Sherbrooke Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., in memory of the late Mrs. G. S. Thomson, a former regent, and is given to assist a worthy student to attend university.

Miss Millar received the highest marks of any student at the Sherbrooke High School in the recent High School Leaving examinations.

CONSTRUCTION UNDER WAY ON NURSES' HOME

Digging will begin this week on the foundation of the $250,000 Nurses' Home, part of the projected new Sherbrooke Hospital to be erected at the corner of Portland and Argyle avenues.

J. A. Verret, Sherbrooke contractor who is in charge of construction, stated yesterday that his crews are in the process of clearing the area, and that the ground should be broken tomorrow or Thursday. He hopes to have the building completed by next July.

Nearly fifty workmen will be employed continuously during the construction period, with this number being increased to sixty to handle special jobs.

The $250,000 estimate does not include such items as heating, plumbing and elevators, which will be installed under separate contract. No estimate was available for these items.

Plans for the hospital itself are near completion, and tenders may be called for in this connection within a few weeks. Altogether three tenders were considered for the Nurses' Home.

OPTIMISTS VISIT BOYS' CAMP AT SHORE ACRES

The Optimist Club of Sherbrooke, were guests last evening of the St. Pat's Boys' Camp at Shore Acres.

Thirty members journeyed to the camp to spend the evening. At seven o'clock, members and campers enjoyed a most tasty meal prepared by Mrs. Maud Waldie, who is in charge of the cooking for the campers. During the course of the meal a birthday cake was presented to Mickey Timmons, one of the campers. Mickey, who was taken completely by surprise, will celebrate his tenth birthday on Saturday, and on behalf of the club received a gift of money, presented by Joe Gilbert, President of the Club.

Mr. Gilbert thanked all camp staff members for their invitation and hospitality, and presented Mrs. Waldie with a gift in appreciation of her services. He then called upon Henry Crochetiere, who thanked the Optimists for visiting the camp, and expressed hope that next year the Optimists would sponsor such a camp.

Following the meal, a softball game took place between the campers and the guests. The campers overwhelmed the Optimists.

Later the lads were treated to ice-cream and soft drinks, and were shown moving pictures.

Guests attending the social gathering included Brother Borgia, Brother MacCormack and Brother Ignatius, of the Camp staff; F. H. Wilson, Milton Lary, Doug McGuire, John McDonough, Dick Pearson, and Eric Sharpe, all of Sherbrooke; and Mr. Innis, of Montreal.

Fine Exhibits Are Being Shown At Cookshire Fair

Cookshire, Aug. 24—Under the broiling hot sun of a perfect day for the opening, a fair crowd for the first day of Cookshire Fair enjoyed the grandstand attraction yesterday afternoon, as the initial day preparations were completed. Judging began in many classes. The attendance, about the usual number for the opening day, and proportionately children, heartily applauded the stage acts presented by the Garden Bros. attractions between the heats of some good harness racing, a slow buggy race, and the first eliminations in the tug-of-war for the Compton County Championship.

Exhibits in all departments are especially good, with a splendid showing in the Horticultural section, and the industrial displays in the Main Hall drawing much comment, especially the Cookshire Milling and Farm Supply booth where "Gardelle" the hen, lays green eggs, and model homes show Brantford "sealed in" siding. Large displays of farm machinery are shown by Standish Bros. of Cookshire, International dealers, Oscar Desruisseaux with Hinman Milkers, and the Hornet Power Saw by Don's Repair Service of Sherbrooke. The sparkling exhibit of R. Wallace and Sons of Canada, Ltd., Cookshire, showing their Rose Point sterling is a big attraction in the Main Hall, and A. and F. Robinson, of Sawyerville, have a large display of propane gas stoves and equipment. Southern Canada Power Co. Ltd., has a large display of electrical appliances, for home and farm, and the handicraft exhibit of Les Cercles des Fermieres is especially attractive. The Bible Society also has a special booth, among others in this well-filled building.

Today, the main events at Cookshire Fair include a big program of harness racing with the Free-For-All and 2:22 mixed on the afternoon card, plus band music, several of the stage attractions, and another elimination in the Tug-of-War for the Compton County Championship. The first of the horse and cattle parades will take place this afternoon, showing the prize cattle and horses of Compton County. Judging in all divisions continues all day long, and several horse show classes will be shown in front of the stand.

Tomorrow, the final harness card will be presented, with the 2:26 Mixed and the Classified Mixed, as well as the final horse and cattle parades, and the big closing stage show by the Garden Bros. acts, and the final event in the tug-of-war competitions. Tomorrow night, as a special feature attraction, the Congress of Hollywood Daredevils will present their big auto thrill show in front of the grandstand, starring Frankie Matthews and his Auto-Maniacs, with Eddie Polo, "The Rocket Man" in his slide for life, and Curlew and Cogan on the 135' high pole, 25 acts in all.

Last night a small crowd witnessed the night performance in front of the grandstand, and enjoyed the rides and shows on the midway operated by the Model Shows of Canada. The Rocket Ride, Caterpillar, Rideo, Tilt-a-whirl, ferris wheel and merry-go-round, with a special kiddies ride, all drawing good business, with the circus side-show and the Western Show, featuring Montana Steve and his trained horse, Flicker, singer Kay Patti, plus Harry Seredi and Slim, two typical cowboys, an outstanding attraction.

On the stage, Clifford, King of the Slackwire, gave a grand performance, with the clever deceptions of Billy and Kay Arnot in "Magical Moments." Paul Nason and his trained dogs in one of the finest acts of its kind ever seen on the stage, the very funny Waldo Bros. in a clever routine of acrobatics and comedy, Bob Wallace "The Slender Benches" in an amazing routine of contortions and balancing feats, plus the sensational European musical clowns "The Carr Bros." in a rollicking act that brought down the house, and the thrilling performance on the horizontal bars by the Nicking Duo.

In the afternoon events, a slow buggy race, in which the owners give another owner's horse and attempt to finish first so their own horse will finish last, saw Gordon, French of East Clifton, win all 3 heats. Ellis Waldron, East Clifton, came in 2nd, with Chas. Dupont, Knowlton, 3rd, and Hazen Lowry, Sawyerville, 4th.

So many horses entered in the 2:29 that Sturter Alden Rousseau divided the entries into two classes one for pacers and one for trotters. The results were:

2:29 Pace
Ina B. Grattan, Beard ..	5-1-1
Morgan Volo, Lemieux ..	1-2-0
Jean Volo, Gevry ..	4-5-5
First Call, Schoelcraft ..	2-3-4
Arthur the Ritz, Gird ..	3-4-3
Times: 2:29, 2:18, 2:24.
2:29 Trot
Past Ruth, Beaudoin ..	3-4-4
Miss Peter Brino, Perras ..	2-3-3
Jean Harvester, Beaudoin ..	4-2-2
Times: 2:23, 2:22, 2:29.

The Tug-Of-War yesterday afternoon was won by the team from Gould and Bury district, winning two out of three tugs against the Cookshire entry. Today, the Sawyerville and East Angus teams will compete in the eliminations.

Canadian Legion, Cookshire Branch No. 139, is operating a large refreshment booth under the grandstand, with proceeds used to aid Legion work in the Cookshire district. Birchton W. A. ladies are again operating the fairgrounds dining-hall, St. John Ambulance Brigade has a first aid post in the Main Building.

ARBITRATION PROPOSAL IS REJECTED

A stalemate still prevails in the strike negotiations between officials of the Paton Manufacturing Company and some forty weavers who walked out on Monday last week in protest over a newly introduced bonus scheme at the mill.

Gerard Tremblay, Deputy Minister of Labor at Quebec, stated in a long distance phone call this morning that the company has maintained its original stand that they will not agree to arbitration until the weavers return to work to give the bonus plan a trial, according to an agreement signed last August with the workers.

During the week-end the Labor Department had received a telegram from Rene Gosselin of the Textile Federation, requesting that the department ask the company to submit the dispute to a three-man arbitration board. The request was forwarded to F. R. Daniels, president of the company, and the reply reiterated the company's initial policy of no arbitration without a trial by the workers.

The striking weavers met again this morning at the Syndicate Hall on Gordon Street, but reports received were that no new action was contemplated.

Work has been continuing at other departments of the plant, but it is believed that a complete shutdown will eventually affect the company if this key production department remains inactive.

DOG KILLER IS SOUGHT IN MAGOG

Magog, Aug. 24—Dog owners in the Magog and Georgeville districts are guarding their pets against an animal killer who has been active there for some weeks, it was learned today.

Several dogs have been poisoned and there have been reports of dogs being fed meat containing fish hooks.

Police investigations began after four or five dogs on the same street in Magog were poisoned, but so far there have been no arrests.

Some Magog residents say that clues point to one suspect and direct evidence is being sought to link the killings with this person.

LENOXVILLE WATER SUPPLY NORMAL AGAIN

A threatened water shortage in Lennoxville has been overcome by conservation and recent rain, Mayor R. M. Boright said today.

A circular sent to Lennoxville residents about a week ago asked them to conserve water because of the shortage which resulted from the dry summer.

The situation now has improved, Mayor Boright said, and there is ample water for all purposes.

News Of Quebec Province In Brief

Montreal, Aug. 24—J. O. Asselin, chairman of Montreal's executive committee, has been named a delegate from the Union of Quebec Municipalities to the International Conference of Mayors being held next month at The Hague, it was learned today.

Other delegates are Mayor Raymond Brunet of Hull, president of the union, and Mayor Alcide Cote of St. John's.

Montreal, Aug. 24—Provincial Police yesterday reported week-end safe-crackings in two widely separated localities — St. Jean de Mantha near Joliette and at Amos.

At St. Jean de Mantha thieves rifled what police said might have been several thousand dollars in cash from the safe of the Banque Provinciale du Canada. At Amos thieves stole $300 from the safe of the Federated Farmers' Cooperative.

Quebec, Aug. 24—Half of Belgium's farm population would move to Canada if it were not for Canada's requirements that settlers have capital of 250,000 francs ($2,500), the Countess de Saint-Marco said here yesterday.

Lac Beauport, Que., Aug. 24—Reo Bouchard, 16, was killed yesterday when crushed under a truck which overturned in a ditch. The boy was said to have been employed by the owner of the truck.

Montreal, Aug. 24—Montreal's Protestant Central School Board authorities announced yesterday that 15 British teachers, engaged to alleviate the shortage of Protestant teachers in this city, will arrive here today. The 15, all women teachers, arrived at Halifax aboard the liner Aquitania. Four male teachers have previously arrived from Britain.

Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 24—Elphege St. Ours, father of three children, fell Sunday from a cliff into the St. Lawrence River, 135 feet below and drowned. His body was not recovered.

SCOTSTOWN

A special meeting of St. Paul's Women's Missionary Society was held in the church, and was directed by the president, Mrs. A. G. Murray, who read Psalm XXXI, followed by prayer. A short business meeting was observed and included an appeal, from the national executive secretary, for comforts for refugee women. It was decided that a response be given to this worthy project, and the members were requested to send contributions to Mrs. K. M. Smith, to be forwarded to headquarters. Members were also reminded of the annual donations to the Tyndall Home. Supplies to be sent in October. Plans were formulated to have a missionary, Miss Ramsay, give an address in the near future. It was decided that the September meeting be held in August. The recital of the "Lord's Prayer" closed the session.

Mrs. E. M. W. Templeman was hostess to a number of friends at an informal tea, at her home on Coleman Street. The event was in honor of Lady Rumble, of Hampshire, England, who with Sir Bertram Rumble, is spending a holiday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Rumble, Union Avenue. Concluding a pleasant social afternoon, a buffet tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Ward, Mrs. Bernice Atkin and Miss Ann Rumble. The tea table, with its lace cover, was centred with delphiniums and braked roses in a crystal bowl, flanked with lighted pink candles, in crystal holders, while the rooms throughout were effectively decorated with pink and white phlox, delphiniums and golden rod.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman, of Lennoxville, were week-end visitors of the former's daughter, Mrs. Charles MacRae, and Mr. MacRae. Miss Madeline Henderson and Miss Phyllis Wells have returned from Marsboro, where they were guests of Mrs. Duncan Stewart.

Miss Isabel Sherman, of Montreal, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. A. MacAulay, at "Braeside," en route to South Freeport, Me., where she will visit her mother, Mrs. A. G. Sherman, her sister, Mrs. Roland Whitton, and Capt. Whitton.

Mr. Neil MacDonald has returned to his home in Albert Mines, after visiting his sisters, Mrs. N. D. MacIver and Mrs. M. A. MacDonald.

THE INFLATIONARY SPIRAL

Continued concern over the widening breach between prices and income, both from the personal and business point of view, features the Bank of Montreal's business review issued today. Price rises, which during the past eighteen months have caused the average Canadian's cost of living to increase more rapidly than his income, have also made some recent corporate earnings appear deceptively high.

The Bank points out that between 1939 and 1946 the average Canadian's income increased by ninety per cent, compared with a twenty-two per cent rise in the cost of living. "While statistical averages are not always convincing to the individual whose experience may have differed from that of the majority, most Canadians were aware that... they were better off in 1946 than in 1939, despite higher prices and heavier taxes, the review observes.

By contrast, per capita income during 1947 rose only five per cent, while living costs climbed twice as much. It is still too early to estimate the level of average personal income during 1948, but it is unlikely that it has kept pace with the cost of living, which at July 2 was fifteen per cent above the mid-1947 level.

Monthly reported average dollar earnings of over two million employees of the larger firms in Canada's chief industries indicate that the real earnings of this large segment of the population have been declining since early 1947.

In a similar sense, the review continues, the comparatively high corporate earnings reported for recent fiscal periods are in part rendered deceptive by the rise in prices. Not only have dividends received by shareholders shrunk in purchasing power, but changes... may have affected the true worth of a business. The nature of these changes is not always clearly recognized. For example, depreciation reserves based on original cost may fall far short of providing for the replacement of fixed assets at substantially higher current prices.

The rising value of inventories, characteristic of inflationary conditions, increases earnings, but such profits may be offset during another period. From this it may be concluded that apparent profits are to some extent fictitious and their distribution is tantamount to the impairment of capital.

The upward movement of both prices and living costs have "accelerated to a pace and reached a mark not exceeded in past records." It is this fact that causes concern over what the bank terms the "illusory nature of currently high earnings of both persons and business enterprises." These higher prices, rather than larger or more numerous purchases, account for the sustained flow of consumer buying.

WHEN HOME IS NOT SO GRAND

Life in the British Isles today leaves much to be desired from the North American point of view. Food is in short supply and the diet of the average man is monotonous to the extreme. Although restrictions have been eased somewhat in recent weeks, the Englishman finds it impossible to be well dressed. Government bureaucracy and red tape cause considerable annoyance. But these apparently count for little in the eyes of a number of participants in the Olympic Games from Czechoslovakia and Hungary who have announced they will not return to their homelands. It may be assumed that they obtained the permission of the British authorities before announcing their decision and it would not be surprising if some of their colleagues followed suit. Those who have obtained permission to remain in the British Isles will either continue their student studies or obtain positions as physical instructors.

For the most part, those athletes who expressed the desire to remain in Great Britain voiced the belief that despite the many privations which the average Briton faced, he had many advantages, especially that of basic political freedom which permitted him liberty of action despite certain official interference. It is significant that Russia did not take part in the games nor did several of her satellites. More than likely Soviet chiefs were less afraid of the beating their athletes might take than they were of the young people finding out how much freedom and comfort there is in austerity-ridden Britain compared with Russia which is supposed to be a paradise on earth. At home and abroad the Russian people are required to keep to themselves and have no social contacts; no conversations with Britons, Canadians, Americans, or any one else except on strictly matters of business. The Russian Government is mortally afraid they get to really know what it is like to live in a democratic country.

Moscow endeavored to pooh-pooh the Olympic Games, claiming their athletes would have beaten most of the others. To support this they tell of a woman who threw a discus 197 feet. This is some fifty feet more than any woman did at the games and ten feet more than the male winner did. Perhaps the Russians may have developed a super-race of athletes or maybe there is something wrong with the measuring tape.

ROUND AND ROUND

Rural people have crowded into the cities because they can earn more money in half as many hours of work. They have joined unions which prevent them from working long enough to get both food and houses. Their high hourly earnings make the cost of goods they produce too high for farmers. Farmers must get prices for food which are too high for city workers who will not work hard enough or long enough.

"Round and 'round she goes,
Where she'll stop nobody knows."

WALLACE "LIBERALS" CAN LEARN BIG LESSON FROM MISS BENTLEY

The misguided followers of Henry Wallace have an important lesson to learn from Miss Elizabeth Bentley, the spy heroine of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

When Miss Bentley was asked why she became a courier for the Communists, she had no trouble in answering. She had looked on communism as a world movement, she answered, something idealistic.

To plenty of American citizens both before and during the war, communism was looked on as a kind of religion whose purpose was to raise the standard of living for the lower levels of society and to bring on Utopia, quick. Miss Bentley fell for this line.

So she worked without pay, for the good of the cause. They told her she was particularly fitted to be a courier. Being what she thought was a "good" Communist, she did what she was told.

It was only when the Russian government began to offer her money that Miss B. got suspicious. It was when they offered her a Red Star medal right from Stalin that she really got wise. She realized then that she wasn't working for any great idealistic movement, but for the Russian government. That was when she looked up the FBI and told her story.

WALLACE FANS SHOW SAME DREAMY IDEALISM

Most of the fan mail coming to this department after several recent pieces on the Wallace movement has shown the same dreamy idealism that must have first lured Miss Bentley. A number of well-meaning and sincere people are apparently following the Wallace star because they believe that he is the only one who really believes in peace, the only one who will do anything to help Palestine, settle the Berlin crisis, stave off the threat of an atomic war.

They also believe Wallace is the only one who will do anything to aid minority races, increase wages, bring down prices, provide housing, end the draft.

For whatever belief there may be that Wallace is the only one who will do anything about this latter, domestic half of the program, the two older parties may have only themselves to blame. They haven't done much about these things, except argue. So it is only natural that some family about to be evicted from a house or have the rent raised would start looking around for new leaders.

The trouble is, most such people look too far. They don't look right in their own congressional districts to see if their local representative to Washington has voted right on these domestic issues. Looking over the head of their own congressmen, often not bothering to vote for or against him, the bewildered idealist listens to the siren song of the third party which has never delivered anything but promises, and promises everything because it now has no responsibility.

The fact is that all these promises on domestic issues are merely the sugar coating to make the third-party pill palatable. This is the idealism that has lured many liberals to take up communism and the third-party movement.

"LIBERALS" HAVE TO LEARN THE HARD WAY

Every liberal has to learn the difference between idealism and communism the hard way. This is by personal experience, just as Miss Bentley learned it.

Henry Wallace can disavow his Communist following till he is blue in the face, expounding all the while his theories on progressive capitalism. It will do him no good. The Communists endorse him, whether he endorses them or not.

The entire "Peace" section of the third-party platform is nothing more than an exposition of the Communist Party foreign policy. This has been pointed out here and elsewhere before. But it needs emphasis constantly, until election day, so that nobody misses it.

The Communist foreign policy line is not the line of world idealism and the promotion of the brotherhood of man. It is nothing more nor less than the Russian foreign policy line. It is grasping, selfish, nationalistic and imperialistic.

The Russian government is not a creation of Communist idealism, as the party members would have you believe. Instead, world communism is merely the captive creature of the Russian government.

By Wm. E. McKenny, America's Card Authority

JUST COUNT POINTS FOR RIGHT RESPONSE

This is the second of a series of articles on a new booklet by Fred L. Karpin of Washington, D.C., entitled "The Point-Count System of Bidding in Contract Bridge."

The basic principle of the system is that an ace counts four, a king three, a queen two and a jack one. The fifth card of a suit counts a point, and the sixth card counts an additional point. No points are added for the seventh card, in case you are lucky enough to hold a seven-card suit.

As Karpin points out, the responder is generally the initial captain of the team, because he is in a position to judge the possibilities of the hand. The opening bidder announces that he has a minimum of 13 points when he makes his bid. If the responder has 13 points making a total of 26, he knows that there is a game in the hand.

If he has less than 13 points, here are the basic responses: Holding 6 to 9 points, the responding hand is entitled to just one "progressive" bid; that is, a bid in which he either raises his partner's suit to the next higher level, or bids a suit of his own.

On today's hand, which is taken from Karpin's booklet, North and South probably would arrive at four hearts with almost any system of bidding, but under the point-count system, is impos-

PRESS COMMENTS

QUEBEC'S FUTURE FEDERAL STAND

Quebec Chronicle Telegraph
There is much speculation across Canada as to the future course of Premier Duplessis in his stand against centralization and as to the part that Quebec will play in the next Dominion elections. Some observers argue, for instance, that Premier Duplessis must take the field against the Liberal Administration and seek to carry his compatriots with him. Wishful thinkers of this school go a step farther, indeed, and speculate upon a possible alliance of the National Union chief with Col. George Drew, on the assumption that the latter will succeed Hon. John Bracken as leader of the Progressive-Conservative Party.

While we are not in the secrets of Premier Duplessis and have no authority to speak for him, we do know that he says what he means and he has said repeatedly that he will have nothing to do with federal politics. Moreover those who think that he has placed himself in a position where he must necessarily intervene at Ottawa in order to implement his constitutional policy further, neither understand Quebec nor Confederation as Quebec sees it. Most English-Canadians perhaps regard Mr. St. Laurent—and he apparently regards himself—as Quebec's No. 1 leader and spokesman, but the great majority of Quebecers do not share this opinion. It is true that he is the No. 1 representative of Quebec in the Federal Parliament but he was chosen for that position, not by Quebec but by Mr. King; just as he was chosen for national leadership, not by Quebec but by a Dominion-wide convention. In consequence, his responsibility is primarily to Canada and only secondarily to Quebec, if at all. The responsibility of Premier Duplessis, by contrast, is primarily to Quebec and but secondarily to Confederation so that he it is who, in the eyes of his compatriots, is in reality their No. 1 leader and spokesman—not Mr. St. Laurent.

By intervening in federal politics the Quebec leader would at once lose his freedom of action and weaken his whole position. Moreover, as long as Quebec's position in Confederation is respected, it is a matter of complete indifference to him what happens at Ottawa. Let any Dominion Administration invade the rights of Quebec or prejudice her interests, however, and he will promptly make a provincial issue of it, as he did in the late campaign. And this is quite enough to determine Quebec's future federal attitude. Strong though the Liberal Party may appear to be at the moment, it must reckon with Quebec whose solid bloc has been its basic support hitherto.

The Liberal organization is still capable of functioning in this Province and polled a considerable popular vote last month, even if it could win few seats. It is now reasonably certain, however, that the party which carries Quebec in the next Dominion elections will have to stand pledged to respect the principle of provincial autonomy, especially to miss four hearts. South's bid of one heart shows at least 13 points. When North bids one spade, all he promises is from 6 to 9 points.

However, under South's two-heart bid, North goes to three hearts. This is his second progressive bid and guarantees 10 to 12 points. Now South, having 16 points, can safely bid four hearts. Even if North has the minimum guarantee of 10, there is rummy. In the play of the hand South loses only two clubs and a diamond.

FROM THE PEN OF E. T. WRITERS

AFTER FORTY YEARS A TRIP THROUGH "TOLSTA." MY NATIVE HOME, AND THIS IS WHAT I FOUND

There was no one there at Peter's place
To fill their vacant chairs and bed,
That happy family when Kate was home,
Now all of them are dead.
Across the road where Norman Graham
Prayed to God upon his knees,
Nature labored night and day
And grew a million trees.
Up the road to Campbell's home,
Where lived a friendly Broggs,
No school house there but in its place
Were piles and piles of logs.
At last I came to Beaton's place
Where we danced with our lovely Queens,
I seem to hear them calling the changes
Of the old Virginia Reel.
Those pretty girls didn't have to paint,
Their cheeks were smooth and red,
In the morning they looked as nice
As when they went to bed,
But today you can't steal a kiss
Without painting your own lips,
Any more than I could eat an egg
Without getting it on my bib.
'Twas there I met my beautiful wife,
Forty years ago, more or less,
And if you remember there was a wedding,
Dear folks, you know the rest.
Now I stand at John Melver's home
With my head bowed and hat in hand,
If you knew the memories stored within my heart
Then I know you would understand.
If I knew that my wish would come true
This is what my wish would be,
To meet that father and his family again
With a child on each knee.
I know that their former pains
Are not compared with present gains,
That happy family now dwells above
Secure in God's eternal love.
Now down the road to Father's gate
I really thought my heart would break,
My home that always stood so proud
Was laying flat upon the ground.
There was no father or mother to welcome me there,
No sister or brother to call by name,
No, there was nothing there just the same,
It seems to me they changed the air,
I walked around that sacred ground
And now I am ashamed to tell,
Up and down and all around
But I couldn't find our precious well,
Then up the hill to my parents' grave
My eyes blinded with tears,
Their guiding spirits were leading me
As it has been these many years.
I remember well as if it was today
Those words that father said as they were in life
In the eyes of God and Man.
Oh! how that giant frame shook with grief
As my sisters were laid in their earthly bed,
He loved them then and watches over them now
By sleeping at their head.
I sadly wend my way to Martin's home,
It was standing there as before,
Reminds me of an old man with a cane
Shaking badly in the storm.
Then up the hill to Morrison's place
Where we used to get our mail,
There wasn't a sill, a board or beam,
There was not even a rusty nail.
McDonald's barn was partly there,
But our school house was a total loss,
A little way down the road.
There was one there with the cross.
At last I found just one little soul,
That could speak my mother's tongue,
My heart ached for that little frame
That was left alone so long.
I took the little darling in my arms
And I said this little prayer,
"Dear Lord, bless her every day
And protect her throughout the year."
And fill her lonely life with happiness,
And her eyes keep dry from tears,
She's waiting her call to meet her Bard,
And Donald is waiting for her,
Goodbye now, dear little friend,
Look not on life's dark side,
For just beyond those gloomy days
Happy days for you abide.
I stopped at the brook of Uncle John's
Where he watered his stock for years,
I looked around and I finally found
Just a little trickle like a tear.
John Graham's house was still there,
Where I often shared their bed,
The house that was known far and wide
For Eliza's grand Barley Bread,
Norman Smith, that famous, kindly man,
Oh! how he was missed when he was gone,
A plug of tobacco would pay the bill
For setting our broken bones.
Then down the road to Donald, McLeod's,
The home that never will be forgot,
It seems to me that I still could see
Big George and Alec putting the shot,
McDonald's fine family have all passed on,
No sign of their home to be found,
They're sleeping beneath the Stars and Stripes,
In the beautiful Puget Sound.
McLeod's river where the girls bathed and swam
Is, I am told, following the same route,
But they cut down the shades that hid our face
While they were changing to their birthday suit,
Then out the village and climbed the hill,
My eyes were blind with mist,
And a feeling of sadness came over me
That my soul could not resist.
I wend my way through the marble slabs
Where my grandparents rest and sleep,
I wonder what they would say today
If they could look across the street.
God created a monument that will live forever,
In memory of the dear pioneers that are gone,
Century will come and century will go
But there always will be Old Tolsta Stone.

chewing strictly centralization and autonomists, they will throw their lot in with that party. But if the Progressive-Conservative convention proves to be no more satisfactory than did the recent Liberal convention, then the new "Parti Canadien" of which there is current rumor, will be quickly built up.

The claim is made that a party standing on the plank of respect for the local autonomy of Quebec as guaranteed to her in the British North America Act, which is Canada's constitutional instrument, will take at least 45 Quebec seats in the next Dominion elections. If this is so, the result will be to fasten group government on the country, if not to create an absolute deadlock. Should any other party form an Administration it will have to bargain for the support of the Parti Canadien, whose interests will be primarily provincial and only secondarily Canadian—by no means a hopeful prospect.

Yet the only real difference, as compared with the situation that has existed thus far, will be that the Quebec influence in the Dominion Parliament is exerted upon the governing party, instead of being from outside, whichever of the satisfaction of Quebec

Views Of Red Dean And U.S. On Free Speech Differ

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press News Analyst

Dr. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury Cathedral, who long has had the sobriquet of "the Red Dean" because of his enthusiasm for Soviet Russia, announced in London yesterday that he had been refused a visa to enter the United States for lecture engagements.

The Anglican Dean made his statement through the Communist newspaper, the London Daily Worker. He is a member of the editorial board of that organ. He said the United States embassy disapproved of the "American-Soviet Friendship Society" which was sponsoring his tour. (The national council of Soviet-American friendship is an United States attorney-general Tom Clark's subversive list.)

"It seems," Dr. Johnson added, "that no steps must be taken in the United States to cultivate American-Soviet friendship or understanding. America is said to be the land of free speech, but obviously speech about friendship with the Soviet Union does not come under that category."

Dr. Johnson says he is "naturally sorry that this has happened." He thinks the average American also will have real regrets, but in a different sense. We aren't sorry that it happened, but that it had to happen. In other words the good doctor could scarcely expect us to welcome "free speech" supporting something which our country is trying its best to eliminate so far as our own way of life is concerned.

One suspects that by this time the Dean would be prepared to withdraw his statement that obviously speech about friendship with the Soviet Union doesn't come within the category of "free speech" in the United States. The "Red Dean" of course is well aware that there is nothing we desire more anxiously than friendship with the Russian people. We have expended millions of words of "free speech" trying to achieve that friendship, but at every turn have found our efforts blocked by the explosive "myet" (not)—not of the average Russian but of his Communist overlords.

Dr. Johnson said he was flying to Poland today to attend "the congress of intellectuals in defence of peace" at Wroclaw. If he wants to encourage friendship between the United States and the peoples of eastern Europe, let him employ his free speech there and tell them we want peace and good will, but won't have Communism thrust down our own throats.

Then we hope he will come and visit us again. He will receive a hearty welcome as, we trust, he always has received before.

The 74-year-old Dean is one of Britain's striking personalities. He long has been the most unorthodox of church dignitaries, a modernist and a campaigner for social justice. He has wanted to see Britain in the forefront of socialist and, as a matter of fact, was appointed Dean of Canterbury by the late Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, Labor leader and socialist.

Dr. Johnson is a tall, active ruddy-faced man with billowy white hair and kindly eyes. He used to be an athlete in his Oxford days.

The Dean has been constantly in the news at Canterbury. As a dress reformer he advocated shorts and open-neck shirts for choir boys and young acolytes. He said no girl should be excluded from the cathedral for wearing beach pajamas to religious services. Previously, while Dean of Manchester, he defended "new lovers," seeing no harm in young couples holding hands during his sermons.

After a trip to Russia in 1935 the Dean praised the U.S.S.R. and declared there was nothing essentially anti-religious in Russian Communism. His pro-Russian views resulted in five Canons of Canterbury disowning their Dean's politics. They accused him of condoning "Russia's offences

Garfield Case To Seek P.C. Leadership

Ontario M.P. Is Second Man to Announce Interest in Bracken Office.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—W. Garfield Case, Member of Parliament for the Ontario constituency of Grey North, said today he "will not hesitate" to enter the contest for leadership of the Progressive Conservative party.

The 49-year-old former mayor of Owen Sound, Ont., released a 1,000-word statement "regarding the possible leadership of the Progressive Conservative party and my own personal aspirations with regard thereto."

The leader, who will succeed John Bracken, will be chosen at the party's national convention here September 30, October 1 and October 2. Mr. Bracken is retiring because of ill health.

Mr. Case outlined his views on Canadian problems and said:

"I am convinced that if we are truly the alternate party we must forthwith convince the Canadian electorate that we are fully capable of taking over.

"To achieve this I will not hesitate to project myself into the leadership contest. While lacking in Parliamentary experience, nevertheless I have friends who believe in me and who feel that I have the benefit of vast experience in that level of government closest to the people."

Mr. Case is the second man to announce interest in taking over from Mr. Bracken.

The first was John W. Hanna, 59, Progressive Conservative member of the Ontario Legislature for Huron Bruce.

Better-known party members mentioned prominently as leadership candidates have thus far made no comment.

They include Premier Drew of Ontario; John Diefenbaker, member of the Commons for Lake Centre in Saskatchewan; Gordon Graydon, member of the Ontario riding of Peel, and Donald Fleming, member for Toronto Eglinton.

against humanity and religion." Dr. Johnson denied the accusation.

Dr. Johnson was told last night that a visa probably would be granted the Dean if he cared to visit the United States "on his own hook." Said the doctor:

"I hope to go to America within three years when this has blown over—when Mr. Wallace is President, and I think he is sure to be."

Unosia has the reputation of being the most pacific of states, but just in case it will be guarded by at least a 50-man police force and a 20-man fire department.

It may perhaps even be guarded by anti-aircraft guns.

A passport will be needed to enter Unosia.

Once within its sacred precincts, even criminals can benefit—temporarily—by immunity from French police.

Unosia is to be the fall home of the United Nations, which will sit in general session from Sept. 21 to December.

Unosia will be located in a French museum, in the Trocadero sections of Paris, looking out upon the Eiffel Tower.

France is spending $3,300,000 to equip the museum with everything from four-mile-an-hour elevators to banks, hospitals, a radio station and a 3,000-seat restaurant.

Tiny as the state is, it will have a telephone exchange equivalent to that of a city of 100,000 persons.

If you want, you could wander 12 miles from its conference hall to the secretariat offices.

Its printing presses can turn out 10,000 booklets daily.

Since May, 3,000 men have been working day and night to create Unosia.

At midnight, on Sept. 21 it will become the world capital.

Its citizens will be 1,500 delegates, 1,500 functionaries and 1,200 press and radio reporters.

subject and frankness exhibited by both Stalin and western diplomats, there has been no loss of temper.

Indications here were that the four powers may issue a public statement shortly on the talks.

It is not definitely known whether this will be tonight or tomorrow or the next day. It is obvious there must be conversations in the four capitals. There is little indication of how much ground the announcement will cover, but it is reported it should be sufficiently substantial to put at rest some of the rumors circulating around the world.

London, Aug. 24.—(Reuters)—Foreign Secretary Bevin today conferred with French Ambassador Rene Massigli and immediately afterwards with the United States Ambassador, Lewis W. Douglas, in a first attempt to co-ordinate the views of the three western powers in the light of last night's discussions at the Kremlin.

Diplomatic quarters here consider the conversations between the Soviet government and the three western powers are still in a critical phase after last night's interview of record length between the western envoys and Prime Minister Stalin in Moscow.

A Foreign Office spokesman stated, however, that for the present Frank Roberts Bevin's personal envoy, will remain in Moscow.

While a final break in the talks appears to have been averted, the possibility of their being continued, and on what terms, now seems to depend on the opinion of the western governments on the proposals for breaking the Berlin deadlock made last night by Stalin.

That one of the four powers has postponed an election.

Sokolovsky issued his order over protests of the zone's two non-Communist parties—the Conservative Christian Democrats and the Rightist Liberal Democrats.

Non-Communist leaders have claimed the Communists want the elections put off because they feared they would suffer a severe defeat. The Communists have claimed the people are "too busy working for recovery" to vote.

The Soviet zone is controlled both politically and economically by the Soviet-sponsored and Communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party (S.E.D.).

The S.E.D. has been undergoing a purge and transformation aimed at weeding out "anti-Soviet elements" and other "unreliables," who fall adhere strictly to the Marxist-Leninist line.

Postponement of elections in the Soviet zone also indicated the Russians would oppose holding new municipal elections in Berlin this October.

the total still more. The first of these came in a report from the Assembly's advisory budgetary committee which believes at least $1,300,000 can be lopped off.

The U. N. is financed by its member countries in accordance with a scale of contributions based on the ability to pay. The United States pays the largest share—about 39 per cent.

Estimates for next year show the first downward trend in the three-year history of the U. N. The 1946 budget was $19,300,000. The total climbed to $27,200,241 in 1947 and $34,835,195 for 1948.

Other reductions were made possible through cutting costs of home leave travel for staff workers and eliminating provisions for financial special commissions in Greece and Korea.

The biggest chunk of the budget—$24,355,300—covers supplies, equipment, services and salaries at Lake Success. Lie said he planned to increase the staff next year from 2,881 to 2,936.

Other major items are $2,516,650 for meetings of the Assembly, councils, commissions and committees; $2,235,820 for the European office in Geneva, and $6,525,257 for the international court of justice in The Hague.

Lie estimated the U. N. miscellaneous income for next year at $788,550. This covers such items as sale of used equipment, sale of publications, interest on investments and rental income.

Plans for permanent skyscraper headquarters of the U. N. in New York City do not figure in the budget, although construction on the building is expected to be under way next year. The headquarters are being financed by a $65,000,000 loan from the United States. U. N. payments do not begin until 1951.

Birmingham, England, Aug. 24.—(Reuters)—Strikers at the Austin automobile works here today decided to return to work on condition that the management suspend their present method of fixing piece work pay while negotiations take place.

The strike, which began last Thursday, affects 17,000 workers making cars largely for export trade.

firemen repeatedly extinguished blazes on the roof.

Passenger trains on the Lakeshore run, which ordinarily begins at Bonaventure, were held up and many commuters were forced to stay in the city for supper. Today, the Lakeshore trains will operate into Central Station.

The Canadian Pacific Railway offered to help the C. N. R. meet difficulties caused by the fire. Freight cars and use of C. P. R. yards were offered if needed.

It was perhaps ironic that the flames spared Bonaventure Station, which is slated for demolition in the street extension scheme. Central Station has been the main passenger depot since the war, with Bonaventure used only for local runs.

Vancouver, Aug. 24.—Two men today were held by police for questioning in connection with a $200,000 fire which last night destroyed a three-story business building in downtown Vancouver.

The three-alarm fire broke out in the basement of Copp's shoe store shortly before 11 P. M. PDT and early today firemen still were pouring tons of water into the hollowed brick structure. More than 200 firemen and 18 pieces of equipment battled the blaze.

One fireman was overcome by smoke and four others suffered minor face and hand burns.

STANSTEAD

One evening, thirty-five guests gathered at the home of Miss Mary Flint to take several trips to different parts of the world with Col. L. W. Perry, of Norfolk, Va. The guests were enabled to visit Rheims in France, parts of England, Norfolk, Va., Mt. Washington and "Dufferin Heights Golf Club" by means of a "Movie at Home," which was taken in Kodachrome film by Col. Perry on his many trips to these places. The guests were particularly interested in Col. Perry's filming of his start from Norfolk, Va., and arrival in Stanstead, and of the pictures of the surrounding countryside. Miss Flint served delicious refreshments later in the evening, which put to a close a grand entertainment.

Jerusalem, Aug. 24.—(P)

Delegates to the General Zionist Council meeting were told yesterday a total of 125,000 Jews will have immigrated to Israel by the end of 1948.

Moshe Shapira, Israeli immigration minister, told delegates 56,000 immigrants have arrived since Jan. 1, including 33,000 who arrived since the state of Israel was created May 15.

the wage earner through his union is made doubly difficult.

"As our unions grow so grows the need for political action," he said.

Mr. Jenkins said there were definite signs of more than usually energetic steps being taken to halt the growth in the numbers and authority of organized labor.

He listed "concered efforts of employers to put restrictive labor codes on the statute books," "arrest and deportation of international union officers," Prince Edward Island's trade union act and introduction of the "Fascist-like Lacroix bill."

The Doctor Says

MOST POLIO VICTIMS RECOVER WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS CRIPPLING

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
There is less danger of permanent, serious crippling from polio than is generally realized. For example, in one outbreak in Maryland in 1941 one-half of those who had diagnosed polio did not have any permanent paralysis.

Twenty-nine per cent had only slight paralysis, while less than one in five had severe crippling effects.

Of course, crippling or paralysis to the patient and to the family. However, it is encouraging to know that there is an exceedingly good chance that there will be no paralysis at all or, if any, that it will be very slight. This favorable outcome is particularly true if the treatment is begun early.

Strikes Suddenly
The crippling from polio often comes suddenly and strikes people who have been exceptionally healthy and active. For this reason, when it does come it seems fearful.

Polio is only one cause of crippling, however. The late effects of polio are responsible for less than one-fourth of all of the crippling deformities in children in New York City. It is also true, however, that it is the largest single disease responsible for crippling deformities. The other three-fourths stem from a large number of different causes.

If crippling from infantile paralysis does come, it should be faced with courage by all concerned. It does not mean the end of life, or even activity, in most cases. The treatment of the damaged limbs is so good that it can offer great help in restoring useful and active life. Frequently the courage of the victims of poliomyelitis, who have been seriously crippled, is particularly striking and reflects a strong and courageous character.

Q—What is Addison's disease?
A—Addison's disease is a condition originating in the adrenal glands, which lie next to the kidneys. A portion of the glands is injured, usually by tuberculosis, and their secretion, or hormone, is destroyed, causing low blood pressure and other symptoms.

LABOR DAY—A HOLIDAY FROM LABOR

Labor Day is a day of deep significance for all of us. On the first Monday of each September, as we pause and take a holiday from our daily work, we can look back with pride on the accomplishments of our people. From their labors has resulted this abundant land of freedom; ; this Canada of ours! Our pride in our homeland is justified; ; and will continue to be so if we strive at all times to follow the principles of "Good Citizenship".

You can help this public service effort. Make a note of some of the little things which, in your opinion, contribute to Good Citizenship.

DOROTHY DIX

Wise Divorcee

Unwanted Wife Finds Peace Of Mind After Freeing Disloyal Husband

Dear Miss Dix: After 10 years of what I supposed to be a successful marriage my husband announced to me that he had fallen in love with a girl 20 years younger than he was, and that he wanted a divorce so that he could marry her. I agreed as I did not want to be an unwanted wife, and I have gotten along much better than I thought I would without him. Our old friends all stuck by me, and his new ones and his bride are pretty much left to themselves, and I hear that the going is rough for him in his business and that his firm is about to go on the rocks.

I do not try to punish them for the wrong they did to me, for I can go securely on my way, living the life I want to without having to consider the wishes of an exacting man. I have a peace of mind that is far beyond my expectations, and I believe that as time goes on I will find even more peace and satisfaction. When a man throws away his wife after as many years together as we had, he is not worth grieving over.

MRS. M. B. Answer: I hope this letter from a wise and brave wife will be read by the thousands of women who are breaking their hearts over the dastardly husbands who foretook them for girls young enough to be their daughters.

If there is one time in life when Fate meets out a punishment to fit the crime, it is when a man swaps off a faithful old wife for a young narcissistic girl. For the old man's passion soon cools. He belongs to one generation and she belongs to another and they have nothing in common, so they bore each other to tears. While as for the girl, all she married for was to get the things that money buys. Nothing in life is more tragic than the sight of an old man sitting lonely at a table in a night club, while his pretty young wife dances and flirts with boys.

HUSBAND LOSES

The husband who forsakes his old wife for a young one thinks he has made a shrewd bargain, but he is mistaken. He has earned the contempt of all who know him. His old friends fall away from him and, 99 times out of 100, he loses his prestige in business circles. Men want to be able to respect and trust those with whom they deal. I wish that every woman who has had an unfaithful husband had the courage to meet the situation with as much good, common sense as you have, Mrs. M. B.

Dear Miss Dix: My husband believes in one church and there is nothing that you can do about it that will change his mind. I believe in a different church and no one can change my mind. So as we can't agree we don't go to any church. But we have two children and we know we ought to take them to church. Please tell us what to do.

Answer: Well, the thing to do is to be broadminded enough and really religious enough to worship God, each according to the dictates of his or her conscience, instead of quarreling over the matter. All roads lead up to God, so why not take the one that appeals to you most and that is endorsed to you not only by your faith, but by custom and habit. Take the children with you at times and encourage your husband to do the same, in an attitude of true humility and sincerely seeking the highest possible spiritual development.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

QUEBEC-SHERBROOKE PRESBYTERIAL MEETING

The summer executive of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbyterial met in the vestry of Trinity Church, Sherbrooke, on Wednesday, August 18. Mrs. A. R. Ross, president, of Asbestos, was in the chair. The opening words were taken from a hymn, which was afterwards sung in unison, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is."

Plans were drawn up for the fall sectional meetings. The suggestion made by the branch president, Mrs. G. W. Irvine, that Miss E. Gwen Sutton, B.A., who has recently returned from Japan, be invited to speak, and the name of Miss Ruth Churchill, proposed as alternate speaker, were approved. The sectional meetings will be held from September 25 to October 1. It was agreed that the entertaining auxiliary would furnish the tea and coffee and that delegates would bring their own lunch for all meetings.

Literature secretary, Mrs. Elsie Smith, was unable to be present and it was learned with regret, that owing to ill health she will not be able to attend sectionals. Mrs. E. E. Giles was, therefore, appointed to take charge of literature for these sessions.

Mrs. Mackie Fuller, convener of nominations committee, asked for an open discussion on nominations;

The High Note of Quality! KING COLE TEA

many helpful suggestions were offered. The request was made that a correctly filled "Reading Course" form be displayed at all public meetings and met with approval. Mrs. Faye MacIntosh was appointed the delegate to the Edgehill School of Leaders and hope was expressed that a large number of members would make it their duty to attend. A farewell party was planned for Miss Isabelle Miller, of Brome, who is leaving on September 15, for China, where she will be a nursing missionary. This event will be held from 3.30 to 5 p.m. on September 1, in Sherbrooke or Lennoxville, and will be sponsored by members of the Presbyterial.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. A. D. Ross, of Asbestos; Mrs. K. Armstrong, of Ulverton; Mrs. D. S. MacIntosh, of Melbourn; Mrs. L. M. Knowlton, of Knowlton; Mrs. R. M. McCutcheon, of Brome; Mrs. Florence Gooley, of Coaticook; Mrs. C. R. Boast, of Richmond; Mrs. N. D. McLeod, and Mrs. E. Pergau, of Lennoxville; Mrs. Mackie Fuller and Mrs. E. E. Gilson, of Sherbrooke.

New Togs Ajust to Child's Size

New togs for the kindergarten set boast snappy styling and add-a-year hems, sleeves and leggings. Two-toned tweed coat, left, is ensembled with matching leggings and a sailor hat which has a velveteen-faced brim to match coat collar. Perky epaulettes dress up the wool suede coat, center, which is teamed with matching leggings and a tall-crowned hat. Wool covert ensemble, right, sports a detachable hood lined with velveteen. Coat is double-breasted with neatly stitched collar.

New York, Aug. 24.—Add-a-year hems, sleeves and leggings which keep little beanstalks from growing out of their coats should win palm-smacking applause from mothers. All that Mom has to do to make this fall's coat a size larger next fall—the feature of one line's smartly styled coats for children—is to pull out threads. These release length tucked up in the hem, lining and sleeves of coats. The same trick works with accessorized leggings, which are used to turn coats into ensembles that wrap up the apple of Mom's eye from chin to toes. There are detachable hoods on many of these Bambyru-designed coats which do a more cocon-like job of wrapping up a tot. One wool covert style which little fashion plates, sizes 7 to 14, go for sports double-breasted buttons, a small club collar, matching leggings and a hood faced with contrasting velveteen. Other snappy styles bring along matching hats to prove that add-a-year coats have more to offer than letting out possibilities. One little two-toned tweed number, complete with leggings, is ensembled with a saucy sailer. This skimmer has a tweed crown to match the coat, a velveteen brim to match the coat's collar. This matchmaker is designed for the back-to-kindergarten gang, sized three to six. A coat fashion for the younger one-to-four size group which brings along its own millinery is made of wool suede. Styling features of the ensemble include a coat with double epaulettes shoulders and whopping steel buttons, matching leggings and a honey of a hat with a crown as towering as a Pilgrim Father's.

Stanstead County Well-Represented On List Of Officials And Directors Of The Greater Ayer's Cliff Fair

Much hard work and careful planning has gone into the preparation of the 103rd annual exhibition at Ayer's Cliff, known far and wide as Stanstead County Fair, and rated "tops" by show folks and folks who like good shows.

Determined to let nothing stand in their way to give fairgoers one of the greatest and most entertaining exhibitions in the long history of successes which have marked Ayer's Cliff Fair, President Harold Case and his associates have lined up not only one of the largest midways ever to come to Ayer's Cliff, but the finest stage attractions ever presented at a county fair, topped off with a thrilling horse show every afternoon and evening, and a big auto thrill show on Saturday night.

"Something doing from morning 'til night" is the slogan of Ayer's Cliff Fair, and the program justifies this to the full. Special added attractions will be given in front of the grandstand every day, and on Saturday morning the Beebe and Waterloo ball clubs will play a baseball game for the Eastern Townships County Fairs Championship. Wm. Rediker, of Georgeville, who hasn't missed a fair at Ayer's Cliff in 60 years, will be introduced from the grandstand and given a special tribute from the Fair Board in recognition of his faithful attendance.

Co-operating with the Stanstead County Agricultural Society in staging their 103rd annual exhibition, the Stanstead County Horticultural Society will present their 37th annual exhibition of fruits, flowers, maple and dairy products, cooking and preserving in their spacious and colorful building just to the right of the Main Entrance. This exhibition, alone, is worth the price of admission, representing one of the finest displays of Horticulture, etc. ever seen at a county fair, and the building is the finest of its kind of any county fair in Canada.

The complete list of officials, directors and associates of the Stanstead County Agricultural and Horticultural Societies are as follows:

Horse Show, Stage Acts, Racing And Cattle Parades Every Day As The Ayer's Cliff Fair Opens Thursday

Well-worth waiting for, and anticipated eagerly by thousands of fairgoers from all parts of the Province and nearby New England States, Canada's proud Blue Ribbon County Fair opens on Thursday for three exciting days and nights at Ayer's Cliff, Stanstead County's 103rd annual exhibition is regarded as one of the best of all country fairs and presents one of the greatest entertainments and agricultural programs ever offered to the fair-going public.

Advance preparations indicate that this year's Ayer's Cliff Fair will far surpass any previous year, with great emphasis laid on the thrilling horse show each afternoon and evening, a big harness racing card every afternoon, the famous Cavalcade of Horses and Cattle every afternoon, and the great Garden Bros. stage attractions with many surprise numbers presented each afternoon and evening on the new covered grandstand stage.

Possessing a remarkably fine set of buildings and grounds accommodation that is hard to beat, the Ayer's Cliff Fair ranks well to the fore among provincial exhibitions, and is considered one of the finest county fairs in Canada.

To add the finishing touch to their preparations for the big Fair, the Directors made a complete renovation of their buildings, adding several new features and improving both accommodation for exhibits and for the thousands of visitors who throng the grounds. One important change has been in the Poultry Building, which is one of the most modern in the province, an entirely new set of coops having been installed which greatly improve this important department.

The new grandstand stage, which is the finest outdoor stage on the entire Fair circuit, is a distinct credit to the directors of Stanstead County Agricultural and Horticultural Societies. Here, rain or shine, every afternoon and evening, grandstand patrons will be able to see the complete stage show presented in this modern stage, complete with special trap-pings.

Joining with the members of the Agricultural Society in their 103rd annual fair, the members of the Stanstead County Horticultural Society are observing their 27th anniversary this year, and the attractiveness and quantity of their exhibits of fruits and vegetables, dairy products, maple syrup, honey, home-cooking, etc., housed in their own spacious and well-kept building is considered one of the principal features of the Ayer's Cliff Fair.

Considerable interest centres on the Boys and Girls Calf Clubs, and the judging and showmanship competitions, staged by these Junior Breeders always attracts a large crowd and proves decidedly interesting for the exhibitors themselves. To increase the work of these youthful farmers, the Fair Directors made them a special grant of $100 towards prizes, and a special section of stalls for their exhibits has been set aside for them just behind the Horticultural Building, adjacent to the track and the show-rings.

Stanstead County has long been famous for its splendid livestock and the horse and cattle exhibits, with the sheep and the swine, will be even more interesting than usual this year. To carry out the desire of the Directors to hold identically the same program on each of the three days of the Fair, the spectacular horse and cattle parades in front of the grandstand, a feature which has always been a very special attraction at Ayer's Cliff, will be held every afternoon in conjunction with the grandstand performance.

Racing is one of the highlights of the Ayer's Cliff Fair, and the half-mile track is one of the finest in the province, having been newly-surfaced and put in tip-top condition for the events scheduled during the big 1948 Fair. Top purses totalling $1,350 offered for the races will add interest to the program this year, and some of the best horses that have been competing in various events during the present season have been entered for the Ayer's Cliff Fair races.

BIG THRILL SHOW SATURDAY NIGHT: "THE AUTO-MANIACS"

Acrobatic Comedians

Slapstick comedy and acrobatic novelties highlight the crowd-pleasing performance of the two Waldo Bros. in the big "Fun at the Fair" stage show at Ayer's Cliff Fair. Similar to the knock-about antics of Abbott & Costello, these two clowns imitate this famous screen pair to a great extent, and their act is full of fun, with one laughable number after another. As they cavort about the stage in one of the most entertaining acts of its kind ever seen at Ayer's Cliff.

Olympic Team Returns To Canada, Beaten But Happy; No Alibis To Offer For Poor Showing In Games

By VIC MORRIS, JR.
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Hallifax, Aug. 24.—(P)—More than 100 members of the Canadian Olympic contingent entrained for home throughout the Dominion today after arriving here yesterday aboard the liner Aquitania.

The team appeared fit after the six-day voyage during which they maintained fellow passengers with deck sports and other athletic activities. They were easily recognized in their smart blue blazers with a red Canadian Maple Leaf.

Although the team was the Dominion's first contingent in the 12-year-old history of the modern summer Olympiad which failed to produce a winner, the boys and girls appeared cheerful despite the lack of brass bands and ceremony on their homcoming.

They were keen to discuss the prospects of their next goal—the 1952 British Empire Games in New Zealand and the 1952 Olympics at Helsinki. All expressed the desire to represent the Dominion.

Overshadowing gripes about food and transportation during their stay in England was the horseplay engaged in by members of the Hamilton Leander paddlers team who roamed the ship in gaudy caps and hats, cheering and poking fun at each other to the delight of passengers.

Track Coach Ken Vest and Track Manager Fred Rowell had no "excuses" for the team's showing. In a combined interview they said: "We have no alibis for our showing in the London games.

"Our boys were up against the best in the world and just didn't have it. They've learned lessons, especially in the longer distances, and know there's no let up or easing off in pace as we do in Canada. We must drive all the way."

Although many of the team

coaches displayed disappointment with their squads, Swimming Coach Archie McKinnon of Victoria said he was satisfied with his crew, although it failed to score a point.

"Our kids, whose average age is 17, have the stuff in them to hold their own in world competition. They should make a pledge to start serious preparations immediately for the 1952 games, using the British Empire Games as a stepping stone."

He was loud in praise for 27-year-old Dr. George Athans of Vancouver, who placed eighth in the high-diving event. Athans was handicapped during the contest with a severe dose of influenza.

Most popular members of the party were the women's track team and the weight lifters. The girls picked up three medals in the 40 metres relay; a fourth, Viola Myers, Toronto, and a fifth Pat Jones, Vancouver, in the 100 metre sprint and a fifth, Doreen Dredge, Kelowna, Sask., in the high jump.

The five-man weight-lifting crew earned two fifth-place diplomas, one sixth, one seventh and one tenth in the 32-nations event. Two days later they took four titles at the British Empire Games.

Respect for the brand of games played in other countries, especially those in South America and Europe, was expressed by the returning basketball team which ended in ninth place.

Before the team disembarked here, Treasurer Ken Farmer, Montreal, gathered the boys and girls together for a farewell talk. He explained reasons for the food and transportation problems suffered by the team and advised them to "soft-pedal their complaints and grievances on their return home."

Most were satisfied to settle for a Canadian steak with fresh vegetables.

Maurice Levesque Was Elected Head Of Club

Maurice Levesque elected president of Lake Park Canoe Club at the annual meeting held at Deauville school house, at which some 160 members attended.

The new president will succeed his father, Lieutenant Colonel Emile Levesque, who organized the club and has for the past two years been guiding the club's destinies. Colonel Levesque was elected to the board, and is the only original left of the founders of the club.

Five of the new executive were elected by acclamation, Gilles Cote, first vice-president, Pierre Legare, secretary, and Emile Levesque, Daniel Mignault and Miss Gisele Emond were nominated as councillors. Gerry Plamondon was re-elected as commodore while Andre Trottier was nominated as treasurer.

Emile Levesque thanked all members for their co-operation towards building the club, which was inactive during the war, and hoped that the members in future would give the executive the same help that was accorded the old.

It was decided that a committee of five veteran members would be formed to help the new board in an advisory manner at the next meeting.

Machineries And Unitcast Play To 4-4 Stalemate In Initial Tilt Of Playoffs; Meet Tomorrow Night

Sherbrooke Machineries and Unitcast battled to a 4-4 stalemate last night at the Parade Grounds in the initial tilt of the best-of-five series for the championship of the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Softball League.

Machineries took an early lead in the game, when they pushed across two tallies in the opening half of the initial frame on one single by Lindsay, and errors by Cabana and Joly. In the second and third neither team tallied as both squads settled down and played good ball.

In the upper half of the fourth Charlie Clark's boys accounted for two runs when Marin singled, Clark and Johnson doubled out, but Tracey batted out a double scoring Marin. Carson got a free lift to first and Lavoie picked up a double to score Tracey, but Lindsay fled out to Wilcox to end the rally.

In the lower half the Unitcasts came to life and tallied two runs as Bissin singled, Lafleur and Houde replacing Fontaine, went out. Wilcox walked and Fern Bouchard doubled to score both runners and put his team back in the flight.

In the fifth and sixth the Machineries got singletons but failed to cross the platter. In the lower half of the sixth the Unit squad got a single but could not tally.

In the opening half of the seventh Machineries got two consecutive singles but could not score. In the closing half of the frame Cabana started off with a singleton, but was forced at second as R. Boudreau connected for a single. Boudreau was by an error, and then Joly batted out a double and both runners came scampering home to knot the score. With the winning run on second, and only one man away, Bissin fled out, and Lafleur struckout to end the game and leave the score tied at 4-4.

Tomorrow evening at 6:30 sharp both teams will continue their series. The Machineries outfit their opponents 8-0 and committed one error while the Unitcast had two miscues. Perpin had seven strikeouts and Fern Bouchard whiffed four and gave up four passes to Bissin singled. Lafleur and Houde replacing Fontaine, went out. Wilcox walked and Fern Bouchard doubled to score both runners and put his team back in the flight.

Promoter Jack Solomons Pinning Hopes For Fat Boxing Season On Cripples--Woodcock And Mills

London, Aug. 24.—(P)—Britain's indoor winter boxing season opens next month with Promoter Jack Solomons pinning his hopes for a fat season on two ring cripples.

They are heavyweight Bruce Woodcock, whose jaw was fractured 17 months ago, and Freddie Mills, world light-heavyweight champion, who has a couple of floating bones in his back.

If these old favorites can be taped up to hold together for 15 rounds a few times this winter, it looks like a great season for the fans who are still lapping up boxing at the fanciest prices in the world.

Who knows but that Woodcock may win the world heavyweight title right here next year? Think back on how dismal were the predicts of Mills winning his world crown 12 months ago. Yet he did it July 26 at White City Stadium. Woodcock will top the bill on the opening show at Harringway Arena Sept. 21 against an opponent from the United States. From then on Solomons is arranging fortnightly cards, alternating between Harringway and Royal Albert Hall.

It is an old formula he has employed successfully since he moved from an East End fish market to a Piccadilly boxing office after the war. Only Ben Smith has made an effort to challenge Solomons as the leading London promoter, but his shows are infrequent.

Woodcock can demonstrate the old punch-and-win-Solomons has the trump card to produce when World Champion Joe Louis executes his retirement papers in December. Then Solomons intends to import a leading United States heavy to oppose Woodcock and bill it for the "world championship."

Mills will go to South Africa to meet Johnny Ralph in a non-title bout Nov. 6. Solomons then will get him back for some lucrative assignments, maybe a defence against Gus Lesnevich, from whom he took the title.

Robert Bedard Cops Initial Net Match

Montreal, Aug. 24.—(P)—Robert Bedard, Sherbrooke, Que., defeated R. Morrissette, Montreal, 6-0, 6-2, to win his initial match in the Quebec Junior Tennis Tournament yesterday.

G. Fradet, Drummondville, Que., defeated W. Caverhill, Montreal, 6-0, 6-2, and L. Miron, Valleyfield, Que., upset Bill Grove, Ottawa, 6-2, 6-8, 6-1, in matches which the out-of-town players figured in. Second round matches are scheduled for tomorrow.

Patricia Lowe of Ottawa, considered potential Wimbledon material, disposed of Gabrielle Andre of Montreal in straight love sets, 6-0, 6-2, and L. Miron, Valleyfield, Que., in the men's division, favourite Raymond Page of Montreal downed fellow-townsmen M. Collier 6-1, 6-1.

32 Qualifiers Embark On Match Play For Canadian Ladies' Open

Riverside, N. B., Aug. 24.—(P)—Thirty-two women golfers, qualifiers in yesterday's 18-hole round, today will battle their way down rolling fairways in the first of six rounds of championship match play for the Canadian Ladies' Open Golf Championship.

Of the 32 qualifiers, 16 will tee off Wednesday morning and by Friday's semi-final round only four will remain.

Miss Grace Lennox, defending champion from Newington, Conn., who led the field yesterday with a one-under-par 76, will knock out the first ball today paired with Riverside's Mrs. C. L. Urquhart who carded 84.

Miss Lennox went on a par-mashing spree yesterday combining five birdies and two pars on the incoming nine for a 35.

Surprise of the day was Mrs. Graeme Pyke of Whitlock Club near Montreal who went the first nine in 41 and came in in 37 to take second spot of the day's play. She had failed to shoot better than a pair of 93's in Interprovincial play last week-end.

Paired with Mrs. Pyke in last tee-off place today is Mrs. H. P. Connor of Halifax who fired one under the 95 needed to qualify.

Mrs. Eddie Bush of Wilmington, Del., who was one back of Mrs. Pyke will drive off ninth with Mrs. W. H. Smith of Ottawa Riverhead who also carded 94.

Two other United States entries who were among the 32 low gross scorers—Mrs. Pat O'Sullivan of Orono, Conn., and Mrs. Catherine Park Fox of Belleville, N. J.—will start eighth and fifth, respectively. Mrs. O'Sullivan shot 80 yesterday and Mrs. Fox 81.

Mrs. Ada M. Kenzie, a five-time champion from Toronto will pair with Miss Jo Anna of Willard, Ont. Mrs. M. Kenzie fired 85 to qualify and Miss Jo Anna 89. Mrs. J. H. Todd, Victoria, with 83 and Mrs. C. E. Goodenham, Toronto, and Mrs. J. C. Whitelaw, Leval-sur-Lac, Que., with 82 each will be among top contenders for today's honors.

Mrs. Todd is scheduled to start with Mrs. J. B. Seawright of Scarborough, Ont., who shot 80; Mrs. Goodenham will pair with Miss Kay Helleur of Toronto who carded 93; and Mrs. Whitelaw takes on Mrs. K. E. Shakespeare, Scarborough who made 93.

Other pairings and yesterday's scores include:

Mrs. Blair Gordon, St. Andrews, N. B., 88, vs. Mrs. T. M. Lockwood, Montreal, 88.

Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Winnipeg, 85, vs. Mrs. A. L. Smith, Oak Ridge, Ont., 92.

Mrs. J. G. Ross, Quebec, 93, vs. Mrs. H. O'Callaghan, Vancouver, 85.

Mrs. Catherine Park Fox vs. Mrs. W. S. Eddy, Winnipeg, 93, vs. Miss Frances Sharpe, Hull, Que., 93, vs. Mrs. Pat O'Sullivan, 93, vs. Mrs. A. McDougall, Toronto, 80, vs. Mrs. J. H. McCarter, Toronto, 87.

Mrs. C. H. Shuttleworth, Hamilton, Ont., 85, Miss Evelyn Mills, Toronto, 90.

Miss Isabel Jarvis, Victoria, 92, vs. Miss Marjorie Row, Windsor, Ont., 85.

Mrs. N. J. Carlson, Toronto, 87, vs. Mrs. Anne Sharpe, Welle, Ont., 89.

Jack Banta Out For 25 Wins This Year

Jack Banta, Montreal's thin but hard-throwing right-hander, has an opportunity to become the International League's first 25-game winner since 1945.

The 23-year-old hurler became the first pitcher in the loop to win 18 games this year when he pitched four consecutive victories in a 2-1 victory over the runner-up Newark Bears in the first game of a doubleheader last night.

Montreal has 27 games left to play and Banta will probably start at least seven of those. At the rate he's going he should have little trouble topping them.

Not since Jean Ray won 25 games for Montreal's 1945 pennant winners has an International League pitcher won as many. No pitcher has won more than 29 games since Ray ran up 25.

Banta yielded only five hits. The Royals snapped a 1-1 tie in the ninth on a single by Dick Whitman, a wild pitch and another one-bagger by Johnny Simmons.

Montreal also won the nightcap, 4-0, behind the eight-hit pitching of Clarence Padfield. It was the 13th time this season that the Royals have swept a twin bill.

The twin setbacks cut the Bears' lead over Rochester Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs, who are virtually tied for third place, to three games.

Rochester divided a doubleheader with Syracuse Chiefs while the Leafs split a pair with the last-place Baltimore Orioles.

The Leafs nipped the Orioles 4-3, behind veteran Nick Spinovich, but the Orioles grabbed the second game 6-4, as Ernie Groch became the first Baltimore pitcher to win 10 games this year. Four-batters by Ed Levy, Cizecki and Bill Martin accounted for five of Baltimore's runs.

In the Rochester-Syracuse game, after Bill Reeder pitched the Wings to a 3-0 two-hit victory in the opener, but Deber twisted the Chiefs to a 9-0 triumph in the nightcap.

Boston Braves, After Cooling Off Dodgers, Move Into St. Louis For Important Series With Cardinals

The Boston Braves, following the battle plan of the old New York Yankees of knocking off your closest rival, take on the runner-up Cardinals in St. Louis tonight after successfully disposing of a Brooklyn bid for their league leadership.

Billy Southworth's handling Braves cooled off the Dodgers, 3-2, in 14 innings yesterday to win the four-game series, three games to one.

The loss dropped the Dodgers into third place, the Cardinals taking over second, 2 1/2 games behind the Braves.

However, the Braves may have plenty of trouble in following the old Yankee formula against the Red Birds. The Cardinals have showed the Braves around recently, winning eight out of the last 10.

Both teams have their pitching aces primed for the two-game series. Right-hander Johnny Sain has been nominated to face the Cards tonight with Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, clever southpaw, as his opponent. Brecheen has beaten the Braves three times in four decisions while Sain has won three and lost four against St. Louis.

Before 22,499 fans at Brooklyn yesterday, the Braves won out in the 14th when Phil Masi and Connie Ryan socked consecutive doubles against Rex Barney, fourth Dodger batter.

Mike McCormick sent the frame into overtime when he bolted the Brooklyn starter. Paul Minner's first pitch into the lower left field stands in the eighth inning. The blow was McCormick's first homer of the year and it tied the score at 2-2.

The Dodgers scored once in the first on a double by Mary Rackley and a single by Gene Hummel. Boston tied it up in the second when Sibby Sief beat out a hit with the bases loaded.

Brooklyn regained the lead in its half of the second on Paul Minner's single, a sacrifice and another one-bagger by Minner.

Nelson Potter started for Boston but left the game in the second in favor of Red Barrett after he aggravated an old back injury by fielding a punt by Billy Cox. Barrett held the Dodgers to two hits after the second inning. He left the game for a pinch-runner in the fifth and Ernie White, Bob Hogue and Vern Bickford finished up with Hogue receiving credit for the victory.

Only one other game was played in the National League, the Reds moving out the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2 in 10 innings on relief pitcher Harry Gumbert's homer.

Gumbert relieved catcher Ewell Blackwell in the eighth inning after the lanky right-hander re-injured his shoulder. Gumbert left off the 10th with a driver over the left field wall off Schoology Rowe, third Philly pitcher, to break up the game. The four-bagger was Gumbert's first hit of the season.

In the lone scheduled American League contest, the New York Yankees crushed the last-place Chicago White Sox 11-1 in a night game at New York. The victory was the seventh straight for the Yanks and it enabled them to move within one game of second-place Boston and within 1 1/2 games of lead-losing Cleveland.

Allie Reynolds went the route for the Yanks to post his 13th win. He lost his shutout in the eighth when Aaron Robinson homered.

Joe DiMaggio paced the Yanks' 4-hit attack against 4 Chicago pitchers by driving in four runs on a single and three-run homer. The homer was his 23th and the four runs batted in enabled him to tie the Boston's Vern Stephens for the circuit lead in last department at 112.

Bribery Case Reported In Blue Ridge League

Mount Airy, N.C., Aug. 24.—(P)—A case of attempted bribery has been reported to President E. C. Bevins of the Class D Blue Ridge League of North Carolina and Virginia.

Pete Treese, veteran Mount Airy pitcher, reported to Bevins that an unidentified man offered him $50 to throw the Mount Airy-North Wilkesboro game on Saturday night. Treese pitched Mount Airy to a 5-0 victory.

Bevins said he was investigating and would report findings to George Trautman, minor league head.
