DEPORTATION OF LEADER IS BLOW TO SUFFRAGETTES

"War Cabinet" of Militant Organization Is In Sorry Plight.

NEW CAMPAIGN BEGUN.

Pethick Lawrence Breaks Away To Start Peaceful Alliance.

London, Oct. 18.—The order for the deportation of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, coming on top of the publicly announced defection of Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence from all forms of militancy, has caused consternation among the militant suffragettes here. The headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union were kept open tonight, but only members of the rank and file reported. In the absence of officials few of them cared to talk for publication. They did not attempt to conceal their anxiety, however.

SICK OR IMPRISONED.

The famous war cabinet of the militant organization has been decimated by illness and prison bars. "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond is seriously ill. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, Miss Annie Kenney, Miss Kerr and Mrs. Saunders are in jail, while others are absent in the country. Not a single official could be found tonight to take charge, and the cohorts gathered to learn if they could assist in any way their leader now in the United States.

Miss Amy Maud Hicks, who has served several terms of imprisonment for window breaking and "obstruction," said:

"I am greatly surprised that the American immigration authorities should take such action which would tend to make the United States, equally with England, the laughing stock of the civilized world, as regards the treatment of militants, but I confidently expect that the American suffragette will make such a protest as will lead to the rescinding of the deportation order."

"Mrs. Pankhurst had no intention of trying to persuade the American suffragettes to adopt militant methods, for Americans generally are so much more reasonable than Englishmen on the question that there seems to be no need of militancy there."

At a meeting tonight presided over by the Bishop of Kensington and attended by leaders of all shades of opinion, except adherents of the Women's Social and Political Union, Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence spoke, advocating and calling off of old scores in an effort to organize all branches of suffragists. The new campaign will be on entirely new lines, without a hint of the violent methods, which were formerly favored. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence were forced out of the Women's Social and Political Union by Mrs. Pankhurst and her daughters several months ago, but continued their advocacy of militancy until today.

The Bishop of Kensington hinted that the Church was now ready to become a positive force and would back up the women's movement conducted on the new line.

Several speakers predicted that enfranchisement would be brought about as a result of the proposed campaigning and by the agreement of all parties.

MAYOR OF MONTREAL SUPPORTS HEBREWS

MASS-MEETING OF JEWS CON-DEMNS THE "BLOOD ACCU-SATION" CHARGE.

Montreal, October, 19.—A resolution protesting against the "attempt made in the city of Kiev to revive the hideous charge of ritual murder, known as the blood accusation against Judaism and the Jewish people," was unanimously adopted amidst frantic cheering by about three thousand local Hebrews this afternoon. The resolution was intended to voice a cry against the blows struck at them and their religion by the Beliss trial now in progress in Russia. The speakers included Mayor Lavallee, Langlois, and several prominent Hebrews. All expressed sympathy with the Jews and the protest against the charge of ritual murder. The meeting was one of the most demonstrative ever held by the Jewish people of Montreal.

London, Oct. 19.—The appointment of Sir Rufus Isaacs, the Attorney-General, as Lord Chief Justice, was officially announced today. He succeeds Baron Alverstone, who recently resigned. Sir J. A. PILGRIMS.

Rome, October 19.—During the past fortnight the condition of the Pope has improved greatly. He has resumed his audiences, and today received the Right Rev. Francis Mostyn, Bishop of Menevia, Wales, who found the Pontiff looking better than ever before, bright, alert and keen. The Pope informed the Bishop that he anticipated the pleasure of receiving on Thursday 200 pilgrims, who came to Rome under the charge of Bishop Mostyn.

ACCIDENTLY SHOT.

Montreal, October 19.—William Demers, 36 years old, a farmer of Parc Laval, was accidentally shot by his brother-in-law, Joseph Delorme, this morning and died twenty minutes later.

Demers and his two brothers-in-law, Joseph and Cyril Delorme, were out hunting and the victim received the charge of shot from both barrels of the gun Joseph Delorme stumbled and fell while travelling over rough country. The police and coroner were notified and upon the report of Dr. Dugar it was decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Joliette, Que., Oct. 18.—The necessity of reducing the tariff for the purpose of cutting down the high cost of living was announced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier here today as being the first item on the Liberal program which was, said the leader of the Opposition, more important to Canadians than the building of Dreadnoughts. The second item was more railways, especially the connection of Montreal with the Transcontinental, and finally Sir Wilfrid repeated that the Liberals would oppose any tribute to England in the shape of a contribution of $35,000,000 as proposed by the government at the last session of parliament.

afternoon, there was considerable enthusiasm for the many speeches, and an undoubted hearty welcome for Sir Wilfrid. The large crowd was attentive to the arguments, and though generous with applause, there were many indications of the presence of government supporters.

After discussing the naval and Manitoba school questions, Sir Wilfrid proceeded with a discussion on the present taxing of merchandise, the tariff now being from 25 to 30 per cent. "I say we can do something," said Sir Wilfrid. "When we discuss the tariff we are told we can do nothing without injuring the manufacturers. I say we can, and the manufacturers will not suffer. We did so in 1897, when we altered the tariff on 140 articles, and we can do so again what we have already done. Without speaking in demagogic fashion, I know the reduction of the tariff will reduce the cost of living without doing harm to the manufacturers. If we were in power we should do as we did in 1897. We then appointed a commission composed of Messrs. Fielding, Cartwright, Tarte, and others, and they traversed the country and gathered information from all classes and when all the facts had been learned we organized our tariff of 1897, which has given fifteen years of prosperity to the Dominion. Is this not more important than a navy and Dreadnoughts. This is, I say, the first part of our program. But that is not all of our program. But that is not all. The second is more railways."

Railway Development.

Sir Wilfrid then taking up the railway question developed it from the point of view of the construction of the National Transcontinental, re-

PITY BATTLEFIELDS COM-MISSION CANNOT FOLLOW EX-AMPLE OF LABOR BOARD.

If there ever was a marked contrast between two public bodies in Quebec, it is to be found in a comparison between the methods and achievements of the Harbor Commission and those of the Battlefields Commission. In the former case quick, practical and businesslike results have been obtained in very short time and the extent of the improvements is evident to everyone. On the other side are to be found the easy-going, dilatory and one-man methods that are likely to bring it about that the work will drag on for years with very little more to show unless there is a change made. It would be both interesting, though probably somewhat difficult, to figure out just how long it will take the Battlefields Commission to complete its ambitious schemes if it has taken nearly five years for it to make a couple of short stretches of road at enormous cost and to fix up a couple of monuments.

It is current rumor that the cost of the work done in the park has been abnormal and extravagant, considering the meagre results that have been obtained. So long as the work is left, as at present, in the hands of a commission, most of the members of which seem to pay almost no attention at all to this important scheme, and so long as it is run in this one-man fashion, so long evidently must we expect this backwardness and wastefulness to continue.

It would be interesting if the chairman of the commission would con-

SULZER HAILED AS VICTIM OF BOSSES BY SYMPATHIZERS

Admirers Present the Former Governor of New York
With Loving Cup.

HISSES FOR MURPHY

"Hurrah For Next President of the United States," Cries
One.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 18.—There was red fire, oratory and music by a brass band at the executive mansion tonight when several hundred admirers of William Sulzer called to present him with a loving cup.

A GREAT OVATION

When they arrived at the house the doors were thrown wide open and the most of the crowd rushed into the hall, at the end of which stood Sulzer and his wife.

Sulzer started in to shake hands with all his callers, but he never completed the task. Some one said a few words of consolation to him only to be interrupted by Mrs. Sulzer.

"The action of the court is the least of our troubles," she said. The crowd began to cheer and shout. "We'll have you back here next year, Bill," one man yelled.

Applause greeted this and another enthusiast cried "Hurrah for the next President of the United States," whereupon there was more cheering. Three cheers and a tiger for Mrs. Sulzer followed.

Attendants moved the crowd back from Mr. Sulzer; he stepped over near a man who held a banner, the inscription being "Our Bill, who dared to do right," and "William Sulzer, a victim of corrupt bossism," and the speech-making began.

Chester A. Platt, Sulzer's secretary, read a speech informing Sulzer that he was removed because he would not obey the bosses. Mention of the name of Charles F. Murphy brought hisses. J. W. Forrest presented the cup to Sulzer. It was inscribed "To William Sulzer. A victim of corrupt bossism, October 17, 1913." Mrs. Sulzer was presented with a bouquet.

Sulzer, in a speech, reiterated his assertion that his removal was due to his displeasing Tammany Hall.

"Had I obeyed the boss, instead of my oath of office, I would still be the Governor and the 'organization' would be patting me on the back and telling the people that I was a second Andrew Jackson," he said. "Tammany Hall, through the agency of Chief Murphy, has succeeded in taking away the office the people gave me by the largest plurality of votes any candidate for Governor ever received in the history of the state; but Tammany Hall cannot succeed in taking away my manhood; my self-respect and my determination to keep up the struggle, day in and day out, for honest government, which should be the hope and the aim of every decent citizen."

IS THIS SUICIDE?

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 19.—What may be a suicide came to light yesterday. James Bogue, registered at the empire Hotel, Niagara Falls, N. Y., at 10 p.m. Oct. 8, as from London, Ont. He left the hotel on the morning of Oct. 10 without paying his bill hotel bill or taking his suitcase. He was a paying teller in the London branch of the Bank of Toronto. He had frequently threatened to end his life, but his fellow-workers in the bank thought that it was all a joke.

This information was imparted to the police here today by Henry Tobey, also a clerk in the bank at London, who came to investigate. According to the story Tobey told the police, Bogue was not short in his accounts, so could give no reason for the young man's suicide, or his desire to end his life.

CHURCHILL FAVORS A NAVAL HOLIDAY TO LAST ONE YEAR

First Lord of Admiralty Would Confine "Serious Misdirection of Human Energy" Employed in War Preparations
Within the Narrowest Limits—Better
Relations with Germany

London, England, October 18.—(Through Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Addressing a great Liberal meeting at Manchester today, the Right Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, expressed on behalf of the Admiralty and the navy, keen sorrow for the Zeppelin disaster. He then proceeded to comment upon the disquietude occasioned by expenditure upon naval armaments which, he said, was higher now than ever. While next year it would be higher still the intention was to keep within its narrowest limits the serious misdirection of human energy involved in this and other countries by the preparations for war. But if existing burdens were to be relieved, he continued, it must be by international agreement.

MOMENT OPPORTUNE.

"Our relations with Germany," said Mr. Churchill, "have been greatly improved without the loss of our friendships with other countries. The moment, therefore, ought not to be unfavorable for our taking up the friendly reference to the question of a naval holiday which is to be found in the German Chancellor's speech. We seem to have reached the point where the relations between the great powers, however, amicable they may have become, produce no effect on warlike preparations. The proposal which I put forward in the name of His Majesty's government is quite simple. Apart from the Canadian ships or their equivalent, apart from anything that may be required by new

New York, Oct. 19.—"If I am deported, the ship taking me back will carry me to my death." These words, carrying a veiled threat of a hunger strike, were uttered today in the immigration detention station on Ellis Island by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette, who arrived here yesterday on the steamer La Provence, and was ordered deported as an undesirable alien.

No Bail Allowed.

Today Mrs. Pankhurst waited on Ellis Island, and not without some impatience, word from the Washington immigration commissioner as to QUEBEC, MONDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1913.

GO SLOWLY.

The announcement that the City of Quebec will apply at the next session of the Legislature for permission to borrow another $600,000 has come as a shock to a good many of the taxpayers who have already begun to find their burden of taxation almost as much as they can bear. We have been promised so many times that taxes were to be reduced that these continual expenditures and increased rates are coming to be regarded as too much of a good thing.

From the details of the proposed loan we see that a sum of $250,000 is to be spent on Montcalmville. Is it necessary to borrow all this at once when the terms call for the expenditure of only $100,000 for the first year, the rest of the expenditure to be spread over a period of another three years? While the annexation of Montcalmville seems eminently desirable, we hope that the city has fully weighed the returns which it expects for the bargain.

As for the annexation of Little River, we fail to see what particular advantages it will bring to the city and as yet no one else seems to have taken the trouble to enumerate them if there are any.

Another item calls for the outlay of another $100,000 on Limoilou, where considerable sums of money have already been spent. Possibly this is in accordance with the agreement made when Limoilou was taken over. We do not happen to have the details at hand at this particular moment but will take means to examine all these matters during the next few days. The moral, however, is that these annexation deals begin to look somewhat costly for the taxpayers and that it is time to go slowly in the matter of these large expenditures.

Then there is an item of $125,000 for ornamental poles. It is true that our lighting bills have been reduced by the coming of the Dorchester Company, but it is also very doubtful whether the lighting is as good as it was before and if we have to pay extra taxes because of the change, there is not such a lot gained after all.

The fact is that our civic expenditures are increasing far beyond the bounds which the increase in our revenues justifies. It is time to sound a note of caution.

MR. BORDEN'S PROGRAMME.

It is a comprehensive programme that has been mapped out for Mr. Borden during his visit which will take place here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Wednesday morning will be spent in a visit to the Quebec Bridge, to the Ste. Foye freight yard, while the site for the south end of the N. T. R. tunnel at Lampson's Cove and the Champlain Market site for a freight station will also be inspected.

In the afternoon the corner stone of the large new Post Office will be laid. This will be followed by a reception at the Chateau Frontenac where all citizens of Quebec desirous of seeing the Premier with regard to question of public interest will be received by him.

Thursday morning will be devoted to an inspection of the work that has been achieved by the Battlefields Commission. In the afternoon the Premier will be given a reception at the Levis city hall. That finished, he will pay a visit to the site of the dry dock at Lauzon and will turn the first sod for the commencement of this great national work. After that a tour will be made around the harbor.

On Friday morning the new grain elevator will be inspected and the Premier will review the works which have been accomplished under the direction of the Harbor Commission. From there he will make his way to St. Malo, there to lay the corner stone of the St. Malo workshops. In the afternoon another corner stone will be laid, this being in connection with the St. Charles River locks.

All these works represent an outlay of millions of dollars, they mean employment and wages for thousands of Quebec's citizens and the distribution of vast sums along every section of the community. They mean the future prosperity and advancement of this city and they speak eloquently of the justice which this district is receiving from the present Premier of Canada. It should be our object, therefore, to see that Mr. Borden receives a hearty and cordial welcome not only as Prime Minister of the Dominion but also as a benefactor of Quebec.

NO COMPARISON.

Liberal organs are trying to create the impression that the naval policy of Australia is exactly the same as that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and that the Australian fleet has been built in Australia by Australian workmen and that Australian money has gone to pay for Australian labor and materials employed in construction.

These contentions are absolutely ridiculous and furnish another instance of the manner in which these organs endeavor to play upon the ignorance of those who have not always the time or the opportunity to find out the real facts. The truth of the matter is that the first class cruiser Australia and the cruisers Sydney and Melbourne and three of the destroyers have all been built in British shipyards of material bought in Britain, made by the labor of British workmen and paid for by Australia.

Speaking of this in a recent interview, Hon. Mr. Foster, who has just returned from Australia, says:—

"It was thought that some of the lighter craft might be constructed in Australia. These are destroyers for which ready-made parts were sent to Australia and fitted together in the dock-yards at Cockatoo Island. That, however, is scarcely to be called construction. Two other destroyers were being built in Australia while I was there. That is, the materials are all brought over from Great Britain and the construction in Australia consists of boring the holes and fitting the rivets, with maybe some shaping of the lighter parts. The third class cruiser Brisbane was to have been built in Australia. And I see by the latest cablegrams that all the other parts of the fleet mentioned above are now in Australian waters after having been constructed in Great Britain, while the parts for the cruiser Brisbane, which was to have been built in Australia, have not yet been sent from Great Britain, and in consequence the Brisbane will be one or two years behind time in completing the Australian unit."

Then again it is made to appear that the Australian naval programme is the same as that outlined in Sir Wilfrid's late policy. This is wholly incorrect because the Australian fleet is a complete unit and all that Laurier did was to rescue a couple of old hulks from the scrap-heap and put them where they could not possibly co-operate, thousands of miles apart by sea.

In addition to this, under Laurier's plan, the Canadian ships were to be subject to the Canadian government only, which, he asserted, might declare neutrality in the event of an Imperial war, while the Australian authorities, with the unanimous consent of both political parties, have laid down the principle that in war time their fleet unit will pass automatically under the control of the Admiralty to be used in conjunction with the Imperial fleet.

PUBLIC BRIBES.

The Toronto News has been making a review of the electoral corruption which was so flagrantly in evidence under the Laurier regime and the result of its investigations is to lead it to the conclusion that for every dollar spent on elections by the Conservatives from 1878 to 1896 the Liberal party spent twenty-five dollars during its fifteen years of office.

The News refers to the elections at West Huron and Brockville, pointing out the suspicion that, when a Conservative was elected in the former constituency, the ballot boxes were opened and enough Conservative votes stolen to give the seat to the Liberal candidate, while bogus ballots were put into the boxes at Brockville. It says further:—

"In the general election of 1908 wholesale bribes were offered in 22 constituencies out of 40 in Western Ontario, or in 55 per cent. of the total. In Central Ontario wholesale bribes were offered in 15 out of 25 constituencies, or in 60 per cent.; in Eastern Ontario in 9 out of 15 constituencies, or in 60 per cent.; in Northern Ontario in 5 out of 6 constituencies, or in 83 per cent., and in the whole Province in 49 out of 86 constituencies, or in 56 per cent."

Continuing, it recalls the appeal to Durham to vote for Aylesworth and the canal and it recalls telegrams containing promises sent by Sir Wilfrid to Liberal candidates on the eve of elections. Then, too, there was Goderich which was told that if it had voted right it would have had a military camp. Then there was the letter of Mr. Beaudesne who opposed Mr. Marcell in Bonaventure. Mr. Beaudesne wrote to a Montreal paper saying that at a joint meeting at Paspébie Mr. Marcell said to the electors "Gentlemen, Mr. Amyot, the government engineer, is here with me. He will take contracts after the meeting for the construction of the new breakwater. See him and arrange with him for loading the stone and hauling the timber." Mr. Marcell further pointed out that he had obtained in public subventions more than $125,000 for the county, or about $125 for each voter in the constituency. And here in the district of Quebec it has been a common thing for Liberal candidates to publish a list of the public grants which they have obtained for their constituents and to promise them all manner of "pork barrels" in the future.

As the News concludes, "Bribery by appropriations was reduced to a science under the Laurier Administration. 'The interests,' to use the new Liberal phrase, were bled white for campaign funds. Even the sanctity of the ballot boxes was violated. These practices the Liberal press condoned. In the results it exulted. In face of the facts the wild and unproven charges against Conservatives in Chateauquay are not likely to create much sympathy for Sir Wilfrid Laurier or to convince the country that 'the old gang' have suddenly become fit candidates for holy orders."

Comment of The Press

The latest in the list of occupational maladies is "wireless operators' disease." A German authority reports that the men who send the C. Q. D. signals suffer often from impoverished blood, headaches, and other untoward symptoms. That these are directly due to the powerful electric waves sent out by their machines has not been directly proved, but incidents are cited that make this appear at least probable. Other conditions only indirectly connected with wireless telegraphy may, of course, add to the effect. We translate the following from a German scientific journal: "Wireless telegraphers are subject to anemia, in which the number of red blood globules, as well as their content of hemoglobin, is diminished. This malady has certainly various causes: In the first place, the defective sanitary conditions of the stations, especially on board ship. It is equally probable that the strong ozonization of the air, due to the use of alternating currents of high frequency to send the messages, plays an important part. Similar troubles, such as paleness, headache, loss of appetite, and bad digestion, have often been noted among the electrical workers employed in high-tension plants, such as those at Niagara. The future will show us whether electric waves have any physiologic effects. A Viennese physician, Dr. Beer, has noted the production of subjective glows when a powerful electro-magnet is brought near the head.—Exchange.

It takes a poet to appreciate the poetry of grocery. But Mr. G. K. Chesterton has accomplished the feat. No reader of "The Napoleon of Notting Hill" is likely to forget the visit of Adam Wayne to the grocer. "I can imagine," says Adam, "what it must be to sit all day as you do, surrounded with wares from all the ends of the earth, from strange seas that we could not even picture. No Eastern king ever had such argosies or such cargoes coming from the sunrise and the sunset, and Solomon in all his glory was not enriched like one of you. India is at your elbow, he cried lifting his voice and pointing his stick at a drawer of rice, the grocer making a movement of some alarm. 'China is before you, Demarara is behind you. America is above your head, and at this very moment, like some old Spanish admiral, you hold Tunis in your hands.'"—London Chronicle.

"Hush! There are burglars in the pantry eating those pies I made this afternoon!" "All right, I'll look after them." "Oh, George, you are not going to attack them." "Certainly not, I am going to take them a bottle of painkiller."—Houston Post.

by our new "pressing system" it has the same attractive appearance that it had when new. Our process gives the shirt the proper stiffness without that harsh, board-like effect.

And, owing to the fact that there is no friction used to iron your garments, by this method, there is positively no opportunity for unnecessary wear.

Our "press ironers" make your linens fit and look better—and wear longer.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Gun Shifting Competition at Kingston

As mentioned in this column some time ago, the sad accident at the Citadel by which Corporal Hunter lost his life in practicing the gun shifting prior to the competition to be held at Kingston between teams of "A" Battery of Quebec and "B" Battery of Kingston. The competition took place at this time, 30 years ago. "B" Battery being the winning team. "A" Battery's time being 10 m. 45 s., while "B" Battery's time was 7 m. 32 s. Lieut. Col. Irwin and Capt. Wilson accompanied "A" Battery team from Quebec.

Capt. Wilson Sat on Major Taschereau

After the gun shifting competition, the officers indulged in gymnastic practice at the Barracks, in the course of such Capt. Wilson sat down on Major Taschereau and the result was a badly sprained knee for the Major. Capt. Wilson should not sit down on anybody until after he had reduced his weight by using anti-fat.

Quebec Air Agreed With the Capt.

The "Daily News" of the time says: Captain Wilson, who is in command of the "A" Battery squad from Quebec, looks as if Quebec air agreed with him, even as well as Kingston's pure air. His friends are glad to see him looking so well. Capt. Wilson was well known in Quebec as Col. Wilson, commandant of the Citadel, and as a great sportsman.

RAISE IN SALARIES IN ALBERTA HOUSE.

Premier Will Now Get $10,000 and Leader of Opposition $4,000 a Year

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 19.—The legislature was in committee of supply on the estimates yesterday. The salary of the Premier has been increased $1,500, and of each of the Cabinet Ministers $1,000, as well as that of the leader of the Opposition. Including a sessional indemnity of $1,500, the Premier will now get $10,000 per year, other ministers $6,000, and the leader of the Opposition $4,000. Last evening the Speaker and Mrs. Fisher, held the annual reception in the Legislative hall.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO TODAY

The War in Spain.

Since Suchet evacuated Valencia and fled towards Catalonia, his track has been so darkened that we know not on what spot on the map of the "little domain" of would be King Jo. to point at as the location of this butcher. But where he is—whether he is ascending to the French on Aragon, or skirting the coast of Barcelona—it is certain he is followed by armies of ardent Spaniards, determined to inflict on him retributive justice.

The Tarragona Failure.

Although the miserable expedition against Tarragona may prolong the campaign, the great plans of the illustrious warrior who leads to continual victory the bands of the three nations, will suffer no interruption nor variation. The slaves of Bonaparte, who took upon themselves the title of exterminators, are now flying over the Pyrenees, followed by the Hero of Vittoria and Torres Vedras.

Commodore Chauncey, with his fleet, left Sacket's Harbor, accompanied by about 40 boats. We further learn that all our cannon had been brought over to the American side from Fort George and it was reported that the American troops had all left Fort George and had arrived at Niagara. It was supposed then that the whole of the American force would be mustered and an attack made on Kingston. Since our great naval victory on Lake Erie, Kingston ought easily to be reached and subsequently taken.

Makes Unsightly Hairs Quickly Disappear

(Beauty Culture.)

A smooth, hairless skin is possible for every woman if she uses a delatone paste to remove the ugly hairs. This simple treatment quickly banishes all hair or fuzz and leaves the skin firm and spotless. The paste, made by mixing water with powdered delatone, is applied to the skin for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. No harm results from this treatment, but care should be used to see that you get delatone in an original package.

A WRECK DISCOVERED.

San Francisco Diver May Have Found Treasure Ship.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—What may be the wreck of the steamship City of Rio de Janeiro, which was sunk inside the entrance to the Golden Gate, Feb. 22, 1901, with a loss of 122 lives and bullion valued at $2,000,000, was located yesterday by Herman Stelzner, a diver, who made a descent of 128 feet of water in a diving device which he invented. Incidentally Stelzner set a new mark for divers in his descent of 128 feet. The previous greatest depth attained is said to be 92 feet.

In describing his descent Stelzner said: "The tide was ebbing fast on the surface, but below there seemed to be the centre of an eddy where the water was practically still. The ship must have been carried inward until it reached the eddy, and has remained there ever since."

The vessel is supposed to have torn her bottom out on the Mile Rock before the light was built there. Stelzner leaves today for Japan, where he has a contract to search for lost vessels, but a San Francisco diver, who has bought the new diving device, will continue to seek the treasure in the wreck.

MRS. RINGLING GETS DIVORCE.

Circus Owner's Wife Awarded Decree on Ground of Desertion.

Madison, Wis., October 19.—Mrs. Della Ringling has been granted a divorce from Alfred T. Ringling, the circus magnate, by Judge Stevens, in the Dane County Circuit Court. An agreement in regard to the alimony has been made, and the final settlement was made between the parties at Madison on Wednesday. The terms of the settlement have not been made public, but it is understood that Mr. Ringling settles a large sum of money on his wife as permanent alimony.

The parties have been separated for some years, Mrs. Ringling living in Baradod, and her husband in New York. Desertion was the ground for the divorce.

SEARCH FOR WOLFE'S BIBLE.

It Contained Some Historic Statements Written in Blood.

London, Oct. 19.—A. D. Wolfe Aylward, of Farley, Westerham, Kent, is trying to trace a Bible, on a blank page of which, written with his own blood by himself, General James Wolfe, conqueror of Quebec, prior to leaving England, expressed certain views and convictions concerning the arduous campaign upon which he was about to enter.

Mr. Aylward, who is about to publish a record of Wolfe's relics, states that the Bible was in possession of Edward Wolfe Burcher, Wolfe's second cousin, who died in 1827.

A GREAT INVENTOR IS DYING IN NEED

MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR COLD STORAGE PROCESS IN DITUTE CONDITION.

Paris, Oct. 19.—A painful sensation was caused by the announcement that Geo. Tellier, the inventor of the cold storage process which first enabled American packers to export meat, is dying in a destitute condition at the age of 86. The report was found to be true, but Mr. Tellier's misery is due to his own fault.

The International Cold Storage Association recently raised $20,000 for the benefit of Mr. Tellier. One-half of this was subscribed in Argentina, but the money has not yet reached Paris. Mr. Tellier refused to accept a pension from the other half, saying that he was still able to earn his living and preferred to leave the money to his son. The company for which Mr. Tellier worked recently failed and the Cold Storage Association wrote him a letter containing an offer of money. No reply was received and the Association sent $200 yesterday morning by the doctor, who is attending Mr. Tellier.

On the other hand, the Paris Midi says the secretary of the Cold Storage Association wrote Mr. Tellier Thursday to the effect that his bookkeeper had embezzled the subscription for his benefit and fled. The secretary said he hoped to send some money before the end of the month. The paper adds that Mr. Tellier would have died of hunger last week only for the concierge, whose husband is a postman and withdrew $20 from the savings bank to help him. Tellier's son, who is 22 years of age, is delicate and unable to work regularly. Tellier's constant dread is as to what will happen to his son after his (the father's) death.

TALENTED DWARF DIES.

Miss Howes Was 37 Inches Tall and Weighed 60 Pounds.

New Albion, Ia., October 19.—Miss Ruthy Howes, who is dead at New Albion, Ia., at the age of 66 years, was reputed to have been the smallest perfectly formed woman in Iowa. She was 37 inches tall and weighed 60 pounds. Not deformed in any way, Miss Howes was a remarkably beautiful and attractive woman in miniature. She was a school teacher and musician of ability.

WARRIOR KING DEAD.

Dinuzulu Led Many Revolts Against the British.

Cape Town, Oct. 19.—Dinuzulu, the last of the warrior kings of the former Zulu nation of South Africa, died today. He was a son of Cetewayo, the king who led the Zulu nation against the British troops in the year 1879, and who was eventually defeated after he had inflicted a crushing blow on the British army at the battle of Isandhlwana, when practically the entire 24th Regiment was massacred. It was during this war that the French Prince Imperial Louis Napoleon was killed while out reconnoitering with the British troops.

Dinuzulu did not become king when his father died, but was proclaimed later by the Boers, and he led two or three rebellions against the British power. On one occasion when captured, he was exiled to the island of St. Helena, where the great Napoleon died. When permitted to return to his native land he took part in another rebellion, after which he was tried and sentenced to four years' imprisonment, but was given his liberty and a pension when the Union of South Africa was established in 1910.

HUGE C.P.R. ELEVATOR TOTTERING TO FALL

WINNIPEG GRANARY TILTS 30
DEGREES EXPOSING 1 MIL-LION BUSHELS OF WHEAT CROP.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Sinking steadily for over 12 hours since Saturday noon, the huge C. P. R. international terminal elevator at the Transcona is now tilted at an angle of thirty degrees from the perpendicular. The foundation of the great structure, which is composed of 65 concrete cylinders, five rows of 13 cylinders, began to sink at one corner. With a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels, the elevator was nearly full of this year's grain, which is exposed at the top, owing to the massive cupola, containing the distributing machinery, having collapsed when the lean of the structure was too great for the overhanging bulk.

The first movement was noticed shortly before noon yesterday, and before the engineers could do anything to stop the tilting, the bridge joining it to the transfer house went down, but although the great bins sank several feet below level, the transfer house was not affected, and the bins still held together as a unit. The elevator cost $700,000, but the officials of the company do not yet know whether it can be salvaged or whether it must be demolished and a new structure erected. As for the grain if no rain falls into the exposed bins before a temporary covering can be laid, there will not be a very heavy loss, the chief difficulty in this case being the problem of removal before navigation closes, all the machinery for this operation having gone down with the wrecking of the cupola.

The elevator was built on a floating foundation.

MRS. PANKHURST MAKES THREAT OF HUNGER STRIKE

whether she would be permitted to land under bond to carry out her lecture tour of whether she must go back to France, whence she came here. "Have there been any despatches from Washington on my case," she frequently asked. When word finally was received that Commissioner Cammelt had decided today to admit her to visit, Mrs. Pankhurst prepared again to sleep at the immigration station tonight. She still hopes that her case will be decided in her favor by tomorrow and that she will be able to speak at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, or at least be allowed to land under bond to keep her engagement to address the Garden meeting.

Mrs. Pankhurst kept to her decision of yesterday not to begin a hunger strike while the prospects seemed favorable to an early decision of her case. Her appetite, in fact, was good, and she seemed keenly to relish each of the three meals sent to her room.

Received Visitors.

Mrs. Pankhurst rose at 8 o'clock this morning and declared she felt refreshed as the result of a good night's sleep. She went to the roof of the building for a period of exercise, and spent nearly half an hour on the roof, gazing through the mist that hung heavily over the bay, at the Statue of Liberty and the skyscraping office buildings in lower Manhattan. Then she went below for breakfast. After the morning meal she attired herself tastefully in a gray suit to await the arrival of special friends who had obtained special cards of admission to the station from Commissioner of Immigration Uhl.

At 9 o'clock her visitors were ushered into Mrs. Pankhurst's room. Each of the visitors she kissed upon the cheek. "I am a prisoner, don't forget that," she said, by way of introduction.

"I have never submitted to unjust imprisonment in England," said Mrs. Pankhurst, "and I will not submit to it here. If the steamer La Provence carries me from New York next Thursday, as the result of an order issued by the immigration authorities in Washington, the steamer will carry me to my death. I feel that I cannot last long after six hunger strikes—not much more than 24 hours—if I entered on the seventh."

"As a result of those hunger strikes my stomach is in a weakened condition. On the way over I was seasick. I am a good sailor and I have been on ships when the sea was much rougher than it was during the trip over. The vibration of the ship affected me because, I suppose, my stomach was in a weakened condition. "I do not fully understand my detention. This moral turpitude clause is vague and difficult to understand. I suppose, however, that the meaning of it all will be made plain to me before long."

"This moral turpitude clause is vague and difficult to understand. I suppose, however, that the meaning of it all will be made plain to me before long."

The English woman read to her callers several telegrams she had received since her detention. "They have cheered me," she said, "because when I read them and reread them I realize that there are people in America who are looking at my case from the standpoint of a sympathizer."

One of the telegrams embraced a resolution passed by a woman's organization in Chicago and was signed by Jane Adams, of Hull House, and others. The resolution protested against the "flagrant violation of our law and established policy" in detaining Mrs. Pankhurst and asked that the decision of the immigration authorities be reconsidered and "this distinguished English woman" admitted.

After her visitors had left Mrs. Pankhurst made an inspection of Ellis Island. Particular interest was shown in the large dining room where the immigrants took their meals. Several times she tenderly patted little immigrant children on the head. After the inspection she declared that the question of caring for immigrants had been more scientifically studied here than in England. During the afternoon Mrs. Pankhurst granted the reporters an audience.

"If the immigration authorities at Washington decide your case against you will you enter upon a hunger strike," she was asked.

"I cannot talk about that now," replied Mrs. Pankhurst. "As yet, I am unwilling to make public my plans or to say definitely what action I will take."

"If you are taken back and imprisoned will you go upon another hunger strike?"

"Certainly," was the emphatic reply. "As far as any action which the authorities at Washington may take is concerned, I will only say that if such action upholds the decision of the special board of inquiry, which ordered my deportation, I will go to any extreme to secure my entrance to the United States. It is my purpose to remain here only until December when I will sail away."

"By any extreme do you imply a hunger strike," was asked.

"I have said that I cannot talk of that now," said Mrs. Pankhurst.

That there will be no forcible feeding of Mrs. Pankhurst in Ellis Island was made plain by Houlder Hudgins, who has the contract for feeding the immigrants at the station.

"The duty of my department will end," said Mr. Hudgins, "when a waiter goes to the room occupied by Mrs. Pankhurst and asks for her order. If Mrs. Pankhurst will not eat, it will not be because she will not have the opportunity to order and receive food."

CATHOLICS ATTEND MISSION CONGRESS

CARDINAL O'CONNELL WEL-COMES DELEGATES FROM ALL OVER CONTINENT.

Boston, Oct. 19.—Prelates, priests and other delegates from nearly every Catholic diocese on the continent attended the solemn Pontifical Mass this morning, which opened the second missionary congress of the Catholic Extension Society of America.

The congress will be in session the next three days, during which all phases of the work in this country will be discussed. The foreign missionary field will also be considered.

Cardinal O'Connell welcomed the visiting Archbishops, Bishops, Monsignori, priests and lay delegates in an eloquent sermon at the Mass, at which Archbishop John Bozano of Washington, a Papal Delegate to the United States Pontificated. It was one of the most brilliant ecclesiastical functions ever held in an American city.

Six Archbishops and nearly three score mitred abbots and Bishops from all parts of the United States and Canada participated and there was a score or more of Monsignori. More than 200 priests of the Boston diocese and visiting clergy took part in the procession which preceded the Mass. In his sermon Cardinal O'Connell reviewed briefly the work of the Extension Society in spreading the doctrines of Catholicism through remote parts of the country.

During the congress there will be two sessions daily at which clergy and laymen will speak in foreign and home missions, immigration, and colonial work and suggest solutions of many missionary problems. Brief lectures will be given in the interval between the regular sessions. On Tuesday there will be a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary.

Over two thousand members of the organization registered today. A cablegram from Cardinal Merry Del Val conveying the Papal Blessing to the congress was received by Cardinal O'Connell.

Read a letter from Mr. L. C. Jacques, secretary of "Le Syndicat Immobilier de St. Roch, Ltd.," transmitting copy of resolution passed by said company, praying the Council to exchange lot No. 569 of the cadastral plan of St. Roch's with lots Nos. 589, 590 and others, also of the cadastral plan of St. Roch's, so that a park could be erected on said lot No. 569; referred to the Finance Committee. Presented a petition from ratepayers of Montreal ward, praying the Council to place electric lights on the square near St. Michael's, St. Patrick's and Artillery streets, as said square is continually in darkness; referred to the Road Committee. Read a letter from Hon. L. P. Pelletier, inviting His Worship the Mayor and the members of the Council to commemorate in a suitable way the inauguration of all the federal works in and around the City of Quebec, on the occasion of a visit of the Right Hon. Presented the 864th report of the Fire Committee (tenders for the supply of hay, oats, straw, etc.). Said clause being put to the vote is adopted as amended. Clauses 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, being read, are adopted. Clause 27 being read, it is moved by Alderman Verret, seconded by Alderman Fiset, and Resolved: That the words "the provisions of By-law No. 23, passed by this Council on the 9th of August, 1912," be replaced by the words: "That all the former provisions in City by-laws". And the said clause, as amended, being put to the vote, is adopted.

Clause 28 and 29 being read are adopted.

And His Worship the Mayor being about to declare said by-law read clause by clause and in toto, Alderman Cote, seconded by Alderman Pouliot, moves, and it is resolved: That the word "metallic" be added after the word "laths" in the 10th line of clause 2, instead of striking out the words: "or with a rough cast of cement laid upon laths" in the 10th and 11th lines of clause 2, as said clause was amended. And said clause, as amended, being put to the vote, is adopted.

And His Worship the Mayor declares said by-law read a second time clause by clause and in toto, adopted and put in force.

Against: Aldermen Berube, Cannon, Cote, Dinan, Gauvin, Guillot, Lantier, Lavigne, Morin, Pouliot, Verret (11). And said clause 12 being put to the vote is adopted.

Clause 13, 14, 15, 16, being read and put to the vote are adopted.

And His Worship the Mayor declares said by-law read a second time clause by clause and in toto, adopted and put in force.

At the request of Alderman Lockwell, the Council accedes to said request in allowing the 864th report of the Fire Committee to be taken up as 3rd Order of the Day, instead of the motion of Alderman Lavigne.

3rd Order of the Day.—Read the 860th report of the Fire Committee, which being put to the vote, is adopted, and it is Resolved: That the contract for the supply of hay, straw, oats, etc., for the current fiscal year 1913-14 be granted to Messrs. Colvin & Co. at the prices stated in his tender. The amount to be taken from the credits voted to the Fire Department for the current year. That His Worship the Mayor is authorized to sign said contract and to accept such securities as he shall deem advisable.

With the consent of the Council, the two following notices of motion are allowed to be put before the Council.

Notice of motion by Alderman Trudel: That the municipal electors of the City of Quebec are requested to declare if they prefer the present system of administration of the City, or the reduction of the number of Aldermen to one for each ward, or to replace the City Council by a commission of four members. That, to that end, polling booths be established in the manner prescribed for the election of Aldermen at a date not later than the 15th of December next.

4th Order of the Day.—Continuation of the debate on motion of Alderman Lavigne, seconded by Alderman Cannon: That the Committee on amendments to the City Charter be instructed to consider the possibility of changing the construction as follows:

The Mayor to be elected by the whole City for four years. The City to be divided into two wards, one for the upper part, and the other for the lower part.

The said wards to be represented each by two commissioners, one for seat No. 1, and the other for seat No. 2.

At the first election that shall be held, the commissioners for seat No. 1 shall be elected for four years, and the commissioners for seat No. 2 shall be elected for two years. At the end of the second year, after the first election, the commissioners elected for two years shall have to go to re-election, but this time for four years, so that half of the board of commissioners shall be renewed every second year.

All those who are inscribed, either as proprietors or as tenants, upon the municipal list, shall be electors. And it being midnight, the Council adjourns.

LASSED A BIG RATTLER

How An Oklahoman Captured 14-Pound Venomous Reptile.

After struggling for nearly an hour J. E. Franklin, by main force and strength, captured alive probably the biggest rattlesnake ever seen in the valley of Red river. The weight of the snake is 14 pounds.

Mr. Franklin operates a sawmill on Red river, four miles north of Denison. While Mr. Franklin was walking through the bottoms near his mill he saw the huge rattler sunning himself. The enormous size of the serpent impressed Mr. Franklin and he hurried back to the mill, where he procured a lasso. Returning to the place where he had seen the reptile he found his snakeship quite angry, standing almost erect a rattling his buttons with a great noise. The sawmill man is an expert with a rope, and with little effort placed the noose over the head of the rattler. Then came the battle.

The snake, realizing that he was trapped, attempted to strike his captor repeatedly, but Mr. Franklin carefully avoided him. Tightening the noose, he eventually choked the serpent until he could get hold of his tail. Then he dragged the snake to the mill, where he was weighed and placed in a strong box.

ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE VICTOR

QUEEN'S SUPPORTERS ARE BITTERLY DISAPPOINTED—
AFRAID OF CELLAR POSI-TION.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 18.—Although neither Queens or Royal Military College had been regarded as a contender for the championship of the Inter-Collegiate Union, great interest was taken in their first meeting here today. The soldiers won the game by outlasting the Presbyterians, who started very well, but gradually faded until they finally collapsed completely in the final quarter. Royal Military College winning by a score of 15 to 6. Queens got a try in the first quarter. Military College had been meeting and there was one point to their credit on the score board when McQuay broke through and captured a loose ball. He chased the whole length of the field with the soldiers in hot chase, and went over for a try which was not converted. In the second quarter, the game was very even, and in a duel, mostly in midfield, each team got one more point. The half time score was Queens, 6; Royal Military College, 3.

In the third quarter the soldiers got two more, and entered the fourth one down, to use a golfing term. Their chances seemed poor as they were now playing against the wind which had been gradually increasing. Haslett started a punting duel, and Barvis responded. Royal Military College began a very aggressive game, and their fast following up more than did away with the advantage given to Queens by the breeze. Before the attack of their opponents the Queens backs seemed to wilt. They fumbled badly and were always on the defensive. It was more by good luck than good management that they avoided having a try scored against them, but as it was Royal Military College kept pounding away with fine booting and added ten single points before the close of the game, a good showing for one quarter. Queens' supporters are keenly disappointed at the outcome of the game. They regarded the victory scored by Royal Military College over Varsity a week ago as a distinct fluke and hoped to give up the cellar position in the league to the soldier boys. They now fear that they may remain where the close of last season found them.

Line-up: Queens—Flying wing, MacDonald; halves, Hill, Haslett, McCartney; quarter, Quigley; scrum, MacLachlan, McLeod, McQuay; inside wings, Ellis, Milliquham; middle wings, Rodden, White; outside wings, Kennedy, Box.

Royal Military College—Flying wing, Brownfield; halves, MacAulay, Barvis, Clark; quarter, Cochran; scrum, Greenwood, Wilkins, Denniston; inside wings, Matthews, Kittermaster; middle wings, Stewart, Dobbie; outside wings, Ross, Shoemaker.

marking that with every new railway in Canada the country had progressed. Joliette had felt the impetus with the coming of the Canadian Northern, and the same might be said of Montreal. The Liberals had built the Transcontinental and had added two new provinces to the Dominion. Sir Wilfrid reviewed the opposition to the transcontinental by the Conservatives, by whom it was pretended the railway was not needed, but all had lived to see the confidence of ten years ago proved to be a reality. This road had opened up a section of the country where the soil was as fertile and where the climate was the equal of any in the Dominion. Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke in general terms of the need of more railways and especially of the necessity of connecting Montreal with the transcontinental, adding that now there was a free tariff with the United States, that in twenty-five years all the paper and pulp mills of New England would be transferred to the valley of the transcontinental.

White Plumes Still Busy.

Taking up the last point of his address, that of the Chateaugay election, Sir Wilfrid intimated pretty plainly that the election will be protested. "We were defeated," he said, "but we are not dead. (Cheers). Twenty-five years ago my hair was not so white as it is now, but my heart is still young. (Applause). It is time to speak of Chateaugay, and if we lose it nothing can defeat my courage. I am the same in defeat and victory. (More cheering). We were not defeated, we were robbed. The government press declare it was a great victory for the Conservatives and for the tribute to England. It takes brave men to say things like that. The successful candidate, Mr. Morris, never defended that policy. He never pronounced him self upon it; and where is the victory? If the demoralization of the public is a title of glory let them have that glory. It was not a triumph for the Conservatives, unless that party wants an electoral debacle and demoralization of the electors. It was a triumph of degrading appetites by experts on consciences. Were we in a general election the result would have been different."

Forgets About Leduc.

Sir Wilfrid added that the Conservatives, seeing they could not defeat Mr. Fisher, were obliged to organize a demoralizing force, as he termed it. "The election was won by fraud and corruption, which is a serious affair, and we will prove it at the proper time," he added. "You may win but if by scandal, as at Chateaugay, you will prepare the fall of the country. We enjoy free institutions. We were defeated in 1911, and no one ever heard me complain. I accepted the verdict of the electorate, though I say they were deceived, and I am of the opinion they will return to the Liberal ranks. But after Chateaugay I say it is the duty of all honest men to arouse themselves against the corruption which demoralizes the electors. My duty is to make war on that, and I think that all honest people will come to our side and make our cause triumph."

SUBWAY TOO SMALL FOR CARS

Moose Jaw, Sask., Oct. 19.—In the subway connecting South Hill and the city, which is to be opened tomorrow for traffic, some one has blundered. The street cars will not clear the roof of the subway.

The height of the standard street cars is 14 feet 6 inches; the subway is only some 13 feet deep. To sink or raise the subway another foot would be costly, as but six inches down is the sewer system and over the roof of the structure are the C. P. R. tracks.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

BORDEN BANQUET WILL BE SUCCESS

OWING TO LACK OF SPACE, MANY GENTLEMEN COULD NOT OBTAIN TICKETS.

The banquet to be tendered the Right Honourable R. L. Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, at the Chateau Frontenac by the citizens of Quebec on Wednesday night next, is already an assured success. All the tickets, 400 in number, were disposed of last week, and since then at least 200 applicants for cards desiring to be present have had to be refused, as the Chateau dining room cannot seat more than 400 diners.

Judging by the names of the gentlemen who have secured cards, the company will be the most distinguished in the annals of public banquets held at the Chateau since its inception.

His Worship the Mayor, Mr. Nap. Drouin, will preside and besides the honored guest, there will be members of the Dominion Cabinet, captains of industry, and members of Quebec's commercial bodies, irrespective of their political opinions, who are anxious to do honor to the Canadian Premier and statesman who commands the respect of the entire country, and who has shown his special good will towards the city of Quebec by his earnest desire to do it justice in the development of its port and natural resources, by public works that entail the expenditure of millions of dollars.

RECORDER'S COURT.

In the Recorder's Court on Saturday, a man convicted of causing a disturbance in his home was sent to jail for two months in default of paying a fine of $20 and costs.

Of four men charged with drunkenness, three were fined $5 and costs or fifteen days' jail each and one was discharged.

BALTIMORE GRAND STAND AND CLUBHOUSE BURNT.

Baltimore, October 18.—The grand stand and clubhouse at the Havre De Grace race track were destroyed by fire of unknown origin tonight, entailing a loss estimated at between $30,000 and $75,000.

The fire started in the grand stand about midnight, fanned by a strong northwest wind the flames spread rapidly throughout the two story structure and communicated to the clubhouse and thence to the stables and fences encircling the race track.

The Havre De Grace volunteer fire department made an attempt to reach the scene, but got stalled when about half way.

LAI'D AT REST.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Ferguson, which took place on Saturday morning from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Richard Swindell, was largely attended, the chief mourners being Mr. R. Fathers Delargy and Costello, as deacon and sub-deacon. The orphans of St. Bridget's Home were in attendance as were also the pupils of the first and second classes of St. Louis Academy. The interment took place in St. Patrick's Cemetery, a large number of mourners following the remains to their last resting place.

TWYNAM-CROFTON.

The marriage of Miss Mary Jeanette Crofton, daughter of Mrs. William Crofton, formerly of Quebec, to Mr. William David Twynam, formerly of England, but now of Quebec, took place Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's Church, Montreal, at half-past six. The bride was given away by her cousin Mr. William Coakley, of Quebec, and wore her travelling costume of blue ratine and blue hat with white osprey and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Crofton, wearing a black and white costume with a black velvet hat with touches of white and carried pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley tied with pink satin streamers. The groom was attended by Mr. Jack Hayden, of Quebec. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother where the decorations were pink and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Twynam left on the 9 o'clock train for Boston and Rochester, N.Y., upon their return they will spend a few days in Montreal before returning to Quebec where they will reside. The gifts received were numerous and handsome, including a purse of gold from the staff of the Chateau Frontenac presented to the groom at a banquet given for him on Saturday evening. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. James Halpin and Mr. Frank Sheehan, of Quebec.

Fisher and E. Picard, brothers-in-law of deceased, and Mr. Michael Crean, of Ottawa, uncle.

SPECIAL BIBLE LECTURES.

Dr. A. C. Gaebelein, of New York, opened his week's meetings in the city of Quebec by preaching in Chalmers Church yesterday morning.

He read the Seventeenth Chapter of John's Gospel, our Lord's high priestly prayer. This chapter, he said, had been called the sanctuary, the sanctuary, the holy of holies of all our Lord's words. I do not propose to give an exposition or exegesis of this chapter for none could, as no one had ever entered its heights and no Christian had ever risen to its heights.

The following seven words, which gives the believers standing from the time of his salvation to his being glorified with the Lord and found in this chapter were the basis of his remarks. Salvation, manifestation, representation, identification, restoration, sanctification, glorification.

He also spoke to men at 4.15 in the Y. M. C. A. Hall and conducted two meetings in the Methodist Church at 7 and 8.15. The attendance was good. We look for large meetings today at 4 p.m. Subject: "The Masterpiece of God." 8 p.m. "The Work of Christ on the Cross." All meetings this week will be held in Y. M. C. A. Hall. Everybody invited. Do not miss them. Collection will be taken at each meeting for expenses.

N.T.R. TUNNEL IS DECIDED UPON

MESSRS. DAVIS CLAIM THAT THEIR CONTRACT ENTITLES THEM TO THE WORK.

It has now been definitely decided that a tunnel will be pierced through the rock on which Quebec is situated and it is hoped that Premier Borden will officially start the work this week. There is, however, a hitch but it is hoped that everything will be arranged by the day of the Prime Minister's arrival. The hitch is apparently that Messrs. M. P. and J. T. Davis, who are carrying on the Transcontinental works here, claim that in virtue of a contract made with the Laurier government, they must undertake all works connected with that railway in this neighborhood and that, therefore, the construction of the tunnel must be done by them.

Messrs. Davis have handed in their claim to the Government, and it is now in the hands of the officers in law. If they sustain it the contract will at once be awarded to Messrs. Davis, and Premier Borden will start the work this week. If they do not sustain it, the work will have to be given by tender and this will mean a delay of some weeks.

The tunnel will begin at Lampson's Cove and will débouch at St. Malo, near the site of the Transcontinental shops, construction of which was begun about a month ago. It will obviate the alternative plan of connecting the sections of line east and west of the city by running a track around the congested waterfront.

RAILWAY OFFICES ARE ALMOST READY

GRAND TRUNK AND I. C. R. OFFICIALS MOVE INTO NEW QUARTERS THIS WEEK.

The two new railway office buildings built on either end of the new freight depot at the foot of St. Paul street, are practically completed and will be moved into by the railway officials during the present week. The building at the east end of the freight depot, close by the Custom House, will be occupied by the Grand Trunk officials and the building at the west end will be occupied by the Intercolonial Railway freight officials.

As soon as the new offices are taken possession of a change of freight shipments will be inaugurated. In the past the Grand Trunk Railway had charge of handling all freight shipped from Quebec over both the Intercolonial and Grand Trunk Railways. These conditions will prevail no longer; the Intercolonial will manage its own business, and the Grand Trunk deal with its special shipments, thus separating the management and calling into existence two staffs of clerks instead of one as heretofore.

The change will prove a great benefit to the Quebec shippers, as they will deal directly with the company that will handle their goods and will have to accept all responsibility for delays, etc.

TRINITY CHURCH.

Today being Thanksgiving Day, there will be Divine Service in Trinity Church at 8 p.m. The Offertory will be for the widows and orphans fund of the diocese.

TORONTO PAPER'S OPINION

See Nazimova in "Bella Donna" and You Cannot Forget Her.

Charles Frohman's presentation of "Bella Donna," with Madame Nazimova in the role of Mrs. Chepstow, at the Princess Theatre, Toronto, last season, played to one of the biggest week's business at that playhouse. So great has been the success of the distinguished Russian player in "Bella Donna," that Mr. Frohman has decided to present her again for another season in the drama before she begins her round-the-world tour in a repertory of plays beginning next May. The critics of the Toronto newspapers were unanimous in their praise of Nazimova as Mrs. Chepstow.

"The success of the play is largely owing to the splendid impersonation of the Russian actress, whose work was a dramatic triumph. In the highly emotional passages of the play Madame revealed the scope of her histrionic temperament, and invested the role with a fiendish dramatic instinct that caused one to marvel."—The Globe.

"Madame Nazimova on the stage demands a constant attention. The interpretation of the role is something extraordinary in its way. Bella Donna is intensely absorbing."—The News.

"Nazimova is wonderful in the title role. See Nazimova as Bella Donna and you cannot forget her."—The Star.

"Nazimova wins triumph. Wonderful acting displayed in role of feminine fiend. The play is magnificently staged."—Mail and Empire.

"Bella Donna as portrayed by Nazimova is a play of diabolical cleverness. The staging is superb in every act."—The World.

With the same supporting company of players, made up from Charles Frohman's English and American forces, Madame Nazimova this season is presenting "Bella Donna," and plays at the Auditorium tonight.

WILL LEVIS HAVE SHIPPING PLANT

INDICATIONS ARE THAT GREAT ENGLISH FIRM WILL ESTABLISH BRANCH THERE.

It is learned on excellent authority that one of the largest and wealthiest English Shipbuilding firms in Great Britain have under consideration the erection of an extensive auxiliary plant at St. Joseph de Levis, for the building of steel ships. The company is familiar with the ground and only await encouragement from the people of Quebec to start negotiations.

The scheme under consideration is to locate the plant close to the new graving dock, where nature has provided a site suitable for a ship yard.

THE LOCAL TRACK

FREE-FOR-ALL EVENT WAS WON BY HENRY R., A NEW QUEBEC HORSE.

A crowd of about two thousand people, which would have been much larger had the races been properly advertised, went to the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon to witness the program of three light harness races which were organized by local amateurs.

Good sport was furnished and keen interest was displayed in the events which were well contested. One race was unfinished, having to be left over to be definitely settled at a later date.

The weather was perfect, but due to the heavy rain which fell on Saturday the track was rather heavy, especially close to the fence, and in consequence the horses did a long mile. Despite the bad track the second heat of the free-for-all race was spun off in 2:20 1/4, which was exceptionally fast time for this season of the year, even under the very best conditions.

The best race of the afternoon was the free-for-all race, which went four heats. This event was won by Henry R., a handsome and speedy bay pacing gelding, which was recently purchased by Mr. Drapeau, second money being taken by Amazeur, which annexed second heat and the third, but in the former was placed second for squeezing Henry R. at the three-quarter post and for interfering in the stretch. In the first heat Forest Pointer had the pole and kept the lead as far as the stretch for the finish of the first half. Then Henry R. came to the fore with a burst of speed and was not headed, although Amazeur finished a close second. The second heat was a splendid race between Henry R. and Amazeur and the two raced neck and neck along the back stretch, as far as the three-quarter pole when Amazeur squeezed the gelding out and finished first with a length or two to spare. The heat was given to Henry R., however. The next heat was a strong contest from wire to wire. Henry R. had the pole and both horses raced home, the black stallion winning out by half a head. In the last heat Amazeur pushed Henry R. almost to the wire, when he had to cede second place to Gamy H., which Driver Gauvin brought home in a whipping finish and was only a head behind Henry R. at the wire.

In the named race Thorlo B. won in straight heats from the field of three contenders. The big bay's ability to finish won for him each time. The 2:30 class trot and pace, which was not finished, stands with Katie Yandle highest in the summary with two heats to her credit. The first heat was a keen contest, the brown mare breaking at the half and falling away back, while Dollie P. took the lead. Katie Yandle spurred well and overtook the big mare coming into the stretch and the two heads came under the wire so close that it looked like a dead heat. The judges' decision, however, went to Katie Yandle. Katie Yandle took the next heat with ease, leading from wire to wire, while Lyster Girl finished second. Dollie P. broke a couple of times and lost ground.

CUP LOOKS GOOD FOR MONTMORENCY

KENT HOUSE TEAM ONLY
NEEDS TWO MORE POINTS
TO WIN THE DROUIN TROPHY.

Through winning a very close victory over the R. C. G. A. last Saturday by the score of 1 goal to nil the Montmorency Association Football Club looks a sure thing for the possession of the Drouin Cup, which is now on exhibition in the Chronicle window. The Kent House team is now only one point behind the Gunners and has two more matches to play yet, both of which are against a team that has twice been beaten by the men who were vanquished on Saturday.

It was a close and exciting game and the interest was maintained to the very last. Montmorency started with the wind in their favor but, although they did a good deal of the pressing in the first half, the sterling defence put up by Kear and Boyd was practically impenetrable and the whistle blew without a single goal having been scored.

On resuming the garrison at once attacked and pressed hard, all their men coming up the field. The unexpected, however, happened, as Phillips slipped through while Boyd and Kear were well away from their own goal, and, carrying the ball right down, he succeeded in getting past Lowther with the only goal of the match.

The game became fast and exciting and the artillery made desperate efforts to equalize. Once there was great excitement when they got the ball into the Montmorency net but the referee ruled that Rose had used his hands in putting it through and the point was disallowed, the game ending without any further score.

There was a lot of feeling over the game and it became very rough towards the end, the referee having to take strict measures to calm the ardor of the disputants. Both teams seemed to shape better at defence than attack, the Montmorency forwards not combining as well as usual, probably because of the high wind, which militated against their game and also because of the close checking of the R. C. G. A. Their halves played an aggressive and useful game and Mills and Sheard, especially the latter, did a lot of hard work on the defence.

McGrath and Rose were the pick of the R. C. G. A. forwards, while the halves all did good work and Boyd and Kear did yeoman service at back.

QUEBEC VICTORS.

Defeated R. C. R. by Three Goals to One—Deleahunty Starred.

The Quebec team succeeded in winning their game against the R. C. R. by a score of three goals to one, although they were minus the services of Newton, Farnum and Powers. Good football was practically out of the question and the wind made the ball act like a boomerang most of the time.

Play was pretty equal but Quebec had the advantage in the matter of goalkeeper. Deleahunty, who played a fine game on the left wing, found the net twice for Quebec and Horlock got the third with a nasty swerving shot which the R. C. R. goalkeeper failed to handle cleanly. Slowey got the point for the R. C. R., shooting through a scrum round goal. Quebec should have netted another from a penalty. Deleahunty, Horlock and Hodgkinson all played well in the forward line and Fuller was the best of the halves, though Bray also worked hard. Prodder and Spry did great execution at back and Moulton brought off some great saves in goal.

For the R. C. R. McKenna starred at centre forward, and Dumble also did well. Lieut. Willoughby played a useful and energetic game at centre half, and Thompson showed well at back.

JOHNSON WILL PITCH AGAINST MATHEWSON.

Joplin, Mo., October 18.—Walter Johnson, of the Washington team, today signed an agreement to pitch against Christy Mathewson, in Joplin, when the New York Nationals and Chicago White Sox on their world tour play here October 27th. Johnson signed the agreement at Coffeyville, Wash., his home. Mathewson has been announced as the Giants' twirler in the Joplin game, and when he opposes Johnson it will be the first time the two have come together.

FIRE CAUSES LOSS

Oneida, N.Y., Oct. 19.—Fire that was brought under control tonight after it had burned for several hours, caused a property loss of approximately $120,000. Engines from Rome and Canastota at a late hour were aiding the local department in fighting the flames. Among the properties partly or wholly destroyed were the lumber yard of R. B. Ruby, the hardware store of George H. Ruby & Son, a three-story brick building taking up an entire block and containing a large stock of hides and pelts, a coal elevator of C. A. Frost & Son, two small dwellings and a barn. The fire started in a paint shop.

ITINERARY IS MAPPED OUT UP
TILL MARCH 6TH NEXT—EN-THUSIASTIC FAREWELL.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The world touring White Sox of the American League, champions of Chicago, and the New York Giants, winners of the National League pennant, were given an enthusiastic farewell despite the fact that the local club was defeated 3 to 1 in the second games of their long schedule.

The day was crisp, more suited for football, but close to 8000 persons attended. Both clubs wore uniforms trimmed with the national colors, with the American flag worked on their sleeves.

The touring party will travel in a special train which left tonight for Springfield, Ill., where the teams play tomorrow. The special train will be their home from now until they board the steamer at Vancouver for Japan, Nov. 19. The itinerary carries the party across this country southwest and up the Pacific coast to Vancouver from where they will start their journey to foreign lands, playing in Japan, China, Philippines, Australia, India, Egypt, Italy, France, England, Scotland and Ireland. They expect to arrive in New York March 6 of next year.

The game today was Chicago, boy, Russell and Demaree, a Chicago boy, opposing each other. The former pitched a great game, striking out ten of his opponents, but the Nationals managed to bunch hits in two of the innings. Demaree, although a little wild, pitched the best ball in the pinches.

Shortstop McBride, of the Washington club, today promised to join the globe trotters tomorrow.

Tris Speaker, of the Boston Americans, wired that he would report on Tuesday. Score:

OTTAWA HUNT CLUB
RACE MEET GOOD

EXCITING CONTEST FOR CON-NAUGHT CUP—MAN HAS COLLARBONE BROKEN.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—In the presence of a large crowd of local horse lovers, and a number of well known persons from Montreal and Toronto, the annual point to point steeplechase and flat racing meet of the Ottawa Hunt Club was commenced on Saturday at the club's picturesque course at Boawesville.

Despite a drizzling rain which kept up practically all day the races were successfully run off. Saturday's program consisted of six events, chief among them being the hotly contested race for the cup presented by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught. Three teams started in this event, including one each of the Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa clubs. The race was won by the Toronto club, the winning horses and their riders being: Capt. Proctor on Billberry; Lieut. Jervis on Lord Grey, and Lieut. Hudson on Lady Nora. Each of the riders on the winning team were Governor-General's Body Guard men.

The Military Flat, the Gill Cup, and the Yeoman's Steeplechase were each run off on Saturday.

The judges were: Bartlett McLennan, Montreal; Aemilius Jarvis, Toronto; Hon. Clifford Sifton and Dr. R. E. Webster, while Mr. E. S. Skead acted as starter.

In the Connaught Cup race, Henry Bate, Jr., son of Mr. Gerald Bate of Ottawa, who was riding Glenwood, was thrown off his horse and sustained a broken collarbone. Dr. E. B. Ehelin was summoned and the injured man was taken to the hospital.

The entries in the Connaught Cup race, besides the Toronto team, were: Montreal, A. H. Gault on Brushbrook; G. L. Ogilvie on Henley, and J. C. Watson on Kildare; Ottawa, J. W. Sifton on Empeyrean; Clifford Sifton on Laddie, and Henry Bate on Glenwood. The first part of the race was very closely contested but towards the end the Toronto team secured and held a safe lead over the rest.

The other events resulted as follows:

Military flat race—First, Legislator, owned by Lieut. Bate; second, Noble, owned by Lieut. W. T. Denison.

Gill Cup race—First—Rhylite, owned by Dr. D. M. Robertson, ridden by Master Hugh Billings; second, Sportsman, owned and ridden by E. T. B. Gilmore; third, Mayfair, owned by Jack Sifton, ridden by Clifford Sifton, Jr.

HAMILTON TIGERS
SWAMP MONTREAL

SCORE WAS 36 TO 1—THIRD QUARTER GAME DEVELOP-ING INTO A JOKE.

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 18.—In a game that was hardly even a good workout for the Tigers, they defeated Montreal here today by the overwhelming score of 36 to 1. The visitors did start off as though they might do something and held their own for one quarter, during which the locals were a little loose in their play. Montreal made one point on a rouge, Tucker kicking when they found that they could not buck over from the Hamilton ten yard line. Then the Tigers went to work and made a light lunch of the visitors. The home team did not even think it necessary to play their strongest line-up.

McKelvey, Manson and Smith formed the back division, Mallett, the star punter, being saved for an emergency, or for the game next Saturday. Ross Craig, the Tiger's premier line backer, was not in uniform, as he has not completely recovered from last Saturday's grueling. The stories of internal trouble in the Tiger ranks were quelled by the appearance of Wilson on the line.

It is not difficult to give a reason for the score. In the first periods, while Montreal still looked like contenders, the Tigers tried bucking and had no difficulty finding holes in the opposing line. With a good lead they resorted almost entirely to the combination work of their back division. It did not seem to worry them that the field was slippery and they made splendid gains. The ball was carried across for three of the tries, but the other three were scored when Hamilton wing men fell on the ball after it had been fumbled by the visiting backs. The Montreal halves did not catch nearly as well as they did against the Argos a week ago, and all of them failed to show much in any department. The score for the first quarter was Tigers, 6; Montreal, 1.

The jungle terrors added 12 before half time. In the second half Brophy replaced Burnick. Burnick went in for Crankshaw, and Bass replaced McSweeney.

The third quarter saw the game developing into a joke. Montreal was on the defensive all the time, and the backs were handling the ball miserably. Tucker, taking a pass on his line kicked but ten feet, and McKelvey got around the end for a try.

The third quarter ended Tigers, 28; Montreal, 1.

In the final quarter the Tigers contented themselves with playing safe, although Glassford added another try by falling on the ball.

Line-up:

MISS RAVENSCROFT
AMERICAN CHAMPION

DEFEATS N. Y. METROPOLITAN TITLE - HOLDER AFTER
SHARP CONTEST BY 2 UP.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 16.—For the third time in five years the Women's National Golf Championship has been won by a player from the British Dominions. On the course of the Wilmington Country Club today Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, of the Bromborough Club, England, former champion of Great Britain, defeated Miss Marion Hollins, of Westbrook, L. I., this year's metropolitan title holder, 2 up, after a sharp contest in which both played good and bad golf.

The match was interesting from start to finish. Both players were nervous at different periods, but Miss Ravenscroft was the stronger of the two and in the end appeared as if she were only in a practice match. Miss Hollins, feeling the responsibility of trying to keep the American championship at home, played a very plucky game. She got into frequent trouble by making bad drives and would come up strongly and get into the game again with shots that won applause. She could not, however, take advantage of the bad breaks made by her English rival. Her inability to do this helped her to lose the championship.

Both Miss Hollins and Miss Ravenscroft were good in their long game but were uncertain and at times weak in their approaching and putting. Notwithstanding the fact that Miss Ravenscroft at several periods was off her game, she covered the 18 holes in 86, the best score of the tournament. Miss Hollins' total score was 91.

Despite the weather, showers falling intermittently during the play, the largest gallery of the week followed the two players. After Miss Ravenscroft had been felicitated by Miss Hollins, the gallery rushed forward and showered congratulations upon

ARGONAUTS TIE WITH OTTAWA

FINAL SCORE OF EXCITING
STRUGGLE IS 10-10—BINKLEY
DROPS THE FATAL GOAL

Toronto, Oct. 18.—The Argonauts and Ottawas played a tie game here today, the final score of the exciting struggle being 10 to 10. The visitors led all the way until Binkley dropped a goal from the field near the end of the last quarter and put the double blue on a level with their opponents. A long dispute followed the final whistle. Ottawa refused to go on with the game, though Referee Robbins ordered two ten-minute periods to settle the argument, but when they found that the Argonauts were to go on and score the necessary points unopposed, they decided to come back. The dispute continued on the side lines, and in the meantime the darkness gathered.

The ball was finally booted off in the gloaming, but less than five minutes of play convinced the officials that the game could not be finished and it was accordingly called off. It will now be up to the executive of the Big Four to decide how the tie is to be broken, but their action will probably depend upon the outcome of the game would have upon the final standing of the lead. Ottawa got an early try. The Oarsmen made their chief error when they were likely to be most costly. Ginter muffed a ball behind the line and Quilty fell on it for the only touch scored by the Combine. In justice to Ginter, it must be said that the ball was a hard one to handle, being one of Gerrard's best spirals, and he had to consider the rather disconcerting fact that Quilty was on-side. This try, which was converted, gave Ottawa six of their ten points, and put the Argonauts in a bad position, making the whole afternoon an uphill fight.

As the contest was close, it had some very strenuous moments. In fact, play in the third quarter became more than rough and contained some of the unpleasant features which have generally been introduced on local gridiron by Father Stanton's squads from Ottawa.

The combines had the wind in the first quarter and they made good use of the gale. Gerrard was able to boot almost half way down the field, and although the Argos gained the yards a number of times, they could not get the play down past half way. The fast following up of the Ottawa wings gave Ginter and O'Connor few chances of getting away. After three single points had been scored, two of them being to the deadline, the visitors got their only try. They added one more point before quarter time. Then the Argos began to kick with the wind and soon were pressing their opponents. The inability of Ottawa to gain their yards gave the Oarsmen a good chance in this quarter, especially after Binkley relieved Treckie. The double blue scored a try and two roughs, half time score being Ottawa 10, Argos 7. The Argos gave a magnificent exhibition of defensive work in the third quarter, smashing through for yards time after time. The halves run out everything that Gerrard could in shooting everything over the line. They were desperately defending their line when the whistle blew for the third quarter. Unfortunately for the Oarsmen, the west wind had died down and Binkley had but little advantage over Gerrard in the final punting duel. The Oarsmen made one big gain when he punted over the heads of the opposing halves, but Gerrard relieved by getting away for a run. By slow degrees the Oarsmen worked down the field until Binkley was able to kick the goal which tied the score. That was the final tally of the day.

The sterling British player. She had to do much handshaking on the way to the club house and for a long time after she reached there. Miss Muriel Dodd, the present British and Canadian champion, who was defeated by Miss Ravenscroft in the semi-final round on Friday, was one of the most enthusiastic of those who greeted the new title holder.

The prize which now goes to England was held by Miss Margaret Curtis, of Boston, who won the national title in 1911 and 1912. Miss Curtis was defeated in the first round last Tuesday by Miss Caroline Painter of Chicago. Prior to Miss Curtis' possession the American championship was held by Miss Dorothy Campbell, a Canadian and former British champion, who won it in 1909 and 1910.

MCGILL DEFEATS
VARSITY, 21 TO 5

CLOSE AND HARD CHECKING
MILITATED AGAINST BRIL-LIANCY—MUCH FUMBLING

Montreal, Oct. 19.—Outplaying their opponents the greater part of the time McGill scored a most decisive victory over Varsity on the campus Saturday afternoon, beating them by a score of 21 to 5. The play was not marked by the brilliancy of a week ago, owing to the close and hard checking of the lines which did not permit of the backs getting in their numerous sensational runs. There was more fumbling than in the previous match, accounted for by the slippery and dangerous condition of the grounds. A heavy rain had fallen in the early afternoon. Both teams played at full strength.

The winners always had the call on their opponents in tackling. They followed up better and showed greater ability in recovering a loose ball, which accounted for at least one of the tries scored. In the punting duels MacKenzie had the advantage on Draper, who was used almost exclusively by McGill after Brophy had made several bad fumbles placing his line in danger. The Toronto half is a much larger man than any of the locals and made good use of his weight all through the play.

The greatest disappointment of the afternoon was the work of Maynard and Brophy. The former has been the star of the Varsity team for the past three years and on Saturday was decidedly off color. Brophy, who had starred in the previous match, played in a nervous manner and in the third period fumbled almost every punt that came to him.

The play at times was marked by unnecessary roughness, Varsity being the greater offenders. Campbell was sent to the side lines twice for roughing it, while Gage, who mixed it up on several occasions, got off easy when he was only penalized once. Hughes of the McGill team drew a penalty for scrapping for the ball after a down had been called by the officials. Only two changes were made during the afternoon, Sinclair replacing Clarkson, who was injured, and Wollatt replacing Paisley on McGill's half line in the final five minutes.

The crowd was much smaller than at the opening match, it having been thinned down through the disagreeable weather. The result of this match

A fine Meerschaum is a pleasure in the coloring, but for flavor, a French Brier, with just the right mouthpiece for your tooth hold and just the right dip, can't be beat. We have every kind of pipe at, not forgetting the meek and lowly "corn cob," a good pipe at that!

and the victory of Royal Military College over Queens ties the local students and the cadets for first place in the standing, each having won two games without a defeat against them.

The Line-up:

McGill—Flying wing, N. Williams; halves, Paisley, Brophy, Draper; quarter, Montgomery; scrum, MacLean, Lee, Demuth; backs, Hughes, Donnelly, Waterous, Mayay, Laing, Jeffrey.

Toronto—Flying wing, Gage; halves, Carr, MacKenzie, Maynard; quarter, Campbell; scrum, Schwalm, Blackstock, McDowell; wings, Cory, German, Pearce, Knight, Clarkson, Reame.

Wollatt replaced Paisley; Sinclair replaced Clarkson. Officials: Phil MacKenzie, referee; Ben Simpson, judge of play.

PALZER DID NOT LAST TWO ROUNDS

CONQUEROR OF WELLS IS PUT OUT BY THE SENSATIONAL WORK OF DALEY.

Pittsburg, Pa., October 18.—"Al" Palzer, of New York, heavyweight pugilist, was knocked out in the second round of a six round boxing contest here tonight by Dan Daley, of Newcastle, Pa., with a left right to the jaw. Previously Palzer had been knocked down with a left hook to the jaw. Palzer had to be carried from the ring.

The fight was the second surprise here within a week. Last Saturday night, George Chip, of Madison, Pa., a miner, a companion of Daley, put out Frank Klaus, reputed to have been the middleweight champion. The defeat of Klaus in the sixth round of that bout was a sensation. Daley's feat of knocking out Palzer tonight was veiled in a similar manner.

In the first round Daley showed amazing footwork and was quick. He seemed to land at will. The second round was merely a repetition of the first with Daley then administering a much heavier blow. After a minutes fighting in the second round Daley dropped Palzer for the count of nine. Palzer arose and clinched. Daley then drove left and right to the jaw and the fight was over.

HUERTA STILL AT SAME OLD STAND

WILL NOT RESIGN UNLESS TO SEEK RESTING PLACE SIX FEET UNDER THE SOIL

Mexico City, Oct. 18.—Provisional President Huerta has not resigned, nor has he fled from the capital. When seen at the national palace at 5 o'clock this afternoon he said he had no intention of doing either.

"When I resign," said General Huerta, "it will be to seek a resting place six feet in the soil. When I flee the capital it will be to shoulder a rifle and take my place in the ranks to fight the rebels."

SPORTS NEW SUIT.

This was President Huerta's answer to queries as to whether there was any foundation for the reports which have freely circulated in the capital and found their way to the United States.

General Huerta looked the picture of health and energy. Attired in a brand new dark sack suit, he greeted the Associated Press correspondent with extreme cordiality, motioned him to a seat, asked for a cigarette and listened to the explanation of the motive for the visit.

"So it is reported that I have fled," said the President. "You can see for yourself that I am here at my post. To say that I have resigned or intend to resign is an absolute falsehood. I have no intention of resigning."

"Should the elections, which will be held as I have promised, indicate another for the Presidency I shall step aside. Until that time you will find me here complying with my promises to the nation, which are to re-establish peace, within the law if possible, but to re-establish peace."

President Huerta interspersed his talk with anecdotes illustrative of his points.

Plenty of Money.

"Another thing," said the President, "I have money for my requirements. Don't think that I haven't. Where did I get it? My secret," he responded, tapping his chest with a satisfied smile. "But I have it!"

On the question of pacification, he declared that before the end of the month the government would have retaken Torreón and made headway toward pacification of the state of Durango. "I have eight thousand men at Hipolito," said the President, "moving on Torreón, and two thousand more are proceeding north from Zacatecas."

In reply to a suggestion that further rumors were afloat to the effect that a troop train proceeding to Torreón had been blown up, he exclaimed: "More lies. Nothing of the kind has occurred."

"It has been said that all Americans have been ordered to leave the capital."

In response General Huerta made a gesture of disgust. "What nonsense," he replied. "As I have repeatedly said since I came to the Presidency, foreigners, from Hottentots to the most enlightened, have received and will continue to receive every guarantee. Mexicans likewise who obey the law have nothing to fear from me. Transgressors must watch out. They shall be punished through every means the law affords."

Sensational Rumors.

In the opinion of General Huerta these sensational rumors have originated with the enemies of the administration in the capital and elsewhere for the effect they would have with the revolutionists. General Huerta is working from 15 to 18 hours daily, sleeping at odd times when fatigue overtakes him. He adopts various ruses to escape from the scores striving to reach him with personal affairs. He slips out of unused entrances and takes round about routes to hide his whereabouts. Col. Carlos Aguila, his son-in-law, who is with him almost continuously, sought him today in half a dozen haunts before locating him in the palace.

The rumors of President Huerta's resignation and flight caused a sensation in the capital. Many believed them as a fact, finding circumstances to bolster up the story such as the departure of Col. Vidaurazaga, War Minister Blanquet's private secretary, for Vera Cruz, and difficulty in finding any cabinet ministers. Few remembered having seen General Huerta for a day or two.

RITUAL MURDER TRIAL.

Another Sinister Rumor Is Proved to Be Baseless.

Kiev, Oct. 18.—The myth concerning the presence of two Jews in the neighborhood about the time the boy, Andrew Yushinsky, was murdered was dispelled today at the trial of Mendel Beiliss, charged with the murder, by the testimony of the Jews in question, Landan and Ettinger by name, who turned out to be very ordinary individuals, but testified in a straightforward fashion, accounting for all their movements. It had been alleged that these two men were in some way connected with the crime.

Another sinister rumor, that some of Yushinsky's blood had been used in connection with the laying of the foundation stone of the Old Age Home, was shown to be groundless by the testimony of Mark Zaitoff, one of the proprietors of the brick works, works, who produced irrefutable proof that the ceremony occurred several days before the murder.

developments, we should lay down four great ships to Germany's two. Now, we say, while there is plenty of time, in all friendship and sincerity, to our great neighbor, Germany, 'If you postpone beginning your ships for twelve months we will postpone beginning our four ships, in absolutely good faith, for exactly the same period.' (Cheers).

A Great Saving.

"That would mean a complete holiday of one year, this holiday to be as far as big ships are concerned, between Great Britain and Germany. That would mean a saving of nearly six millions of pounds to Germany, and of nearly twelve millions to Great Britain, while the relative strengths of the two countries would be absolutely unchanged. It would be impossible to stand still for a whole year unless the other Powers could be persuaded to do likewise. But suppose that Germany and Great Britain took the lead in approaching the other great European Powers there should be good prospects of success. If Austria and Italy do not build the obligation would be removed from France and Great Britain, and the fact that the Triple Alliance was building no ships would make this proposal possible without the slightest danger or risk. Was it not likely that so great and memorable an event would also produce an effect upon the naval construction of the United States and Japan?"

"By such a policy," said the First Lord of the Admiralty, "a vast treasure, scores of millions, would be rescued for the progress of mankind. Even if the policy failed, we would have made an impression upon the mind of Europe which would be wholly beneficial and could not fail to produce fruit in future years. That is the proposal which I make for 1914 or if 1914 be considered too near, then I make it for 1915."

"I am quite impervious to the objections which no doubt will be raised by the great armament firms of this and other countries. But they must be our servants, not our masters. Some will blame me for these proposals, but let them mock. I am convinced that it is necessary for the welfare, even for the endurance of our civilization and the structure of society in Europe, that this question of armament shall be openly discussed not only by diplomatists and governments, but by the parliaments and people."

Home Rule Question.

Mr. Churchill, referring to the question of Home Rule, said he had nothing to withdraw from his speech at Dundee. The two great parties had been brought nearer together on the subject of Ireland. This profound evolution of thought had received striking illustration in the last few weeks. The party had great responsibilities towards Ireland, and would progress much faster towards a settlement if as Liberals they cultivated the habit of considering the legitimate wishes of the Ulster Protestants, and if Conservatives turned their minds increasingly to the problem of satisfying the rights of the overwhelming mass of Nationalists. "That," he concluded, "is why the government has been patient regarding events in the north of Ireland. That is why we welcome any disposition on the part of our opponents to approach a settlement."

THE BAGGAGE OF THE DUKE.

The advance guard of the Duke of Connaught arrives by the "Virginian" this week in the shape of two hundred and twenty-five pieces of baggage, all of which, according to ancient tradition, is passed without a murmur by the customs officers as "settlers' effects," without as much as a hook being disturbed or a rope cut. Of these pieces, one hundred, consisting of the heavier pieces, containing household equipment and utensils, will travel by freight, but one hundred and twenty-five of the lighter cases will be transferred from the wharf at Montreal by motor truck to Windsor Street Station, and will be shipped in a specially guarded C. P. R. baggage car on a passenger train to Ottawa. One piece of "baggage" will, however, have the honor of travelling all by itself. This is the Duke's automobile, a magnificent equipage, which will be driven up a gangway into the back end of a Dominion Express wagon—the type that is usually reserved for racehorses and pedigree animals—so carefully constructed that there is the very minimum of vibration in transit.

The first arrival of the Duke of Connaught in Canada caused considerable perturbation in the breasts of the baggage men. They were instructed to take particular care of the two cases containing the Duke's medals and the Duchess' jewels, both totalling in value well over two million dollars. A soldier was detailed with a loaded gun to sit on the two cases, and deep was the breath of relief when the cases were safely delivered at Rideau Hall.

On this occasion, however, there is no such concern, for the jewels and medals have already been delivered at Ottawa, and are securely shut in the strong rooms of one of the banks pending the arrival of the Royal Party.

NEW FUR THIS SEASON.

It is the Tiger-Fitch, Produced By A Kind of Weasel.

(From N. Y. Times.)

New York will see a new fur this year. It is the tiger-fitch, product of a small animal which, in Russia, is known as the "perwitsky." For the first time in fifty years this animal has appeared in sufficient numbers to make its fur available for commercial use. Previously there had been no opportunity for an American introduction of the fur.

The skin, however, is one of the most beautiful of natural furs. In coloring it is a blending of canary and mahogany shades, and the texture is very soft. The animal is found only in the wilds of Russia, Siberia and Central Asia, but even in these countries it is by no means common. The naturalists classify it as a member of the weasel family, related somewhat to the ferret, skunk, and the fitch. It has a long, slender body and short legs, which give it a peculiarly serpentine aspect. In length it varies from 14 inches. The fur shows an underground shading from orange to canary, with many dark brown spots.

The perwitsky is being brought into this country by Kaye & Einstein. L.
H. Heilbroner, of the firm, said a Times reporter.

"The perwitsky first came to our attention two years ago at the Ninini Fair in Russia. Its beauty won for it immediate recognition as a commercial factor, and we were much disappointed to find that we could not get it in sufficient quantities to introduce it in this country. This year, however, we were more fortunate.

After we had bought all of these skins
we could in Russia we began searching among the other European

WOMEN EJECTED FROM CHURCHES

SUFFRAGETTES AGAIN INTER-RUPT DIVINE SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

London, Oct. 19.—Suffragettes again interrupted the services today at St. Paul's and also at St. Luke's, Kensington, where the Bishop of London was preaching, by reciting a prayer for "Mary Richardson and Annie Kenney, who are being forcibly fed."

After the women were ejected from St. Paul's they attempted to hold a meeting on the steps of the Cathedral, but the police interfered. A scuffle ensued and two women were arrested, charged with assaulting the police.

According to the official report of the militant organization, "fifteen American women also went to the Cathedral in order to demonstrate their sympathy with their English sisters and to protest against the action of the authorities at New York in preventing Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst from landing."

The report also says that the women were ejected with great violence by the vergers.

Similar scenes occurred at the morning services at the Birmingham and Norwich cathedrals. No attempt was made to interfere with the suffragettes who, when they had finished their litany, quietly walked out in both cases, and the services proceeded undisturbed.

TORONTO MEETING CONDEMNNS RITUAL MURDER CHARGE

Toronto, Oct. 19.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Massey Hall today when a strong resolution was passed condemning the so-called "ritual murder," as a cruel and utterly baseless libel on Judaism, an insult to western civilization and a dishonor to Christianity, in whose name it has been falsely formulated by ignorant and irresponsible fanatics.

The resolution, moved by Rev. Dr. Hinkes and seconded by James Simpson, a prominent Socialist and Methodist, contained the statement:

"Full of disgust and horror at the attempt of a modern nation to fasten such a monstrosity on a whole people in order to justify the policy of oppression, we recoil before the abysmal absurdity and infamy."

A copy of this resolution will be sent to the Russian consul resident in Canada as a solemn protest from this city.

ROMAN CATHOLIC PRELATE WOUNDED

MAN THOUGHT INSANE, FIRES ON BISHOP, INJURING HIM SLIGHTLY.

Harbor Grace, Nfld., October 19.—While conducting Mass today Bishop March, a Roman Catholic prelate, was fired upon by James Hare, believed to be insane. One shot grazed the head of the Bishop, wounding him slightly, while another bullet buried itself in the altar.

SHOT WITHOUT WARNING.

Hare had been sitting quietly in his seat during the service when without warning he jumped up suddenly, drew a revolver, and began shooting at the Bishop. He had fired twice before several powerful fishermen seated near him, rushed forward and clutched his arm, taking away the weapon and overpowering him. Later Hare was placed under arrest and locked up. In spite of his injury Bishop March continued the service as if nothing had happened, after a physician had bound up his head.

ALBANIAN TERRITORY.

Austria Gives Serbia Eight Days to Evacuate.

Belgrade, October 19.—The Austrian note gives Serbia eight days in which to evacuate Albanian territory. The note which Austria sent to Serbia yesterday is looked upon in the light of an ultimatum and demands the complete evacuation of the points in Albania occupied by Serbian troops since the recent engagements between them and the Albanians.

MERCHANT'S DAUGHTER

ELOPES WITH CHAUFFEUR.

Prescott, Ont., October, 19.—Miss Helen Loveland, 18 years old, daughter of one of the most prominent merchants of Gouverneur, N.Y., and Ray Fosgate, a chauffeur, were quietly married here yesterday by the Rev. K. W. Barton, after having eloped in the Loveland family automobile.

On the pretence of going for a ride with some girl friends, Miss Loveland took the family car and was joined by Fosgate. They crossed the border and after obtaining a license, Miss Loveland claiming to be the daughter of a farmer living near here, they went to the home of the minister who performed the ceremony.

It is understood the Loveland parents are prostrated by the news, as they entertained strong objections to the attentions of Fosgate to their daughter.

DISASTROUS FIRE

AT BRANTFORD

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 19.—A disastrous fire broken out in the factory of Thornton's, Limited, hide, wool and leather merchants, on Greenwich st., shortly after 1 o'clock this morning and completely gutted the building. The Fire Department had a hard fight to keep the fire from spreading to the Searle Varnish Company, situated on the adjoining property.

Mr. Percy Thornton, manager of the concern, stated this morning that the loss on contents would be between $60,000 and $70,000 and $90,000 on the building. The building had recently been heavily stocked with wool and hides. Mr. Thornton stated that the company would rebuild at once on a much larger scale.

The business in the meantime will be conducted at the company's office in Woodstock.

TWENTY SOLDIERS KILLED IN WRECK

HUNDRED MORE ARE INJURED
WHEN TROOP TRAIN GOES THROUGH TRESTLE

Meridian, Miss., Oct. 19.—Twenty soldiers were killed and about 100 injured when a special troop train on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad plunged through a trestle near State Line, Miss., this afternoon. The casualty list is given in a report of the disaster by Division Superintendent Pigford, of the Mobile & Ohio, sent to headquarters of the road in Mobile. All the killed were privates and members of Company 39 Coast Artillery, U. S. A.

Reports from the scene of the wreck are meagre because of interrupted wire communication. Most of the dead and injured, it is reported, were started to Mobile on a special train and another relief train was headed towards this city.

The 39th and 107th companies of artillery stationed at Fort Morgan, were taken to Mobile this morning and at noon boarded the special Mobile & Ohio train bound for Meridian, where the soldiers were to participate in a fair. On the train were 179 officers and men.

Relief trains carrying physicians and nurses were sent from Mobile, Meridian and Whistler, Ala.

TWO-INCH SNOW FALL

AT FORT WILLIAM, ONT.

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 19.—The first heavy snowstorm of the season came this afternoon and in a few hours two inches of snow covered the streets of Fort William and Port Arthur.

The wireless station reported high winds on the lakes, but all vessels communicated with said they were keeping their courses with no difficulty.

ONTARIO TOWN

WAS IN DARKNESS

Goderich, Ont., Oct. 19.—By the breaking of a shaft at the electric light station this town was in total darkness for an hour tonight. Shortly after the congregation had assembled in the churches lights went out with a flash and everything was in total darkness. There was no panic, however, the ministers quieted the people and psalm service was conducted in a twilight caused by the glimmer of a few coal oil lamps.

WINDING-UP ORDER

AGAINST CAR COMPANY.

Toronto, October 18.—A winding-up order against a large industrial concern has been granted by Chancellor Boyd at Osgoode Hall. The Northern Motor Car Company, of Kingston, has gone into voluntary liquidation, as it finds it impossible to establish a business on a paying basis within a reasonable period. The nominal capital of the company is $1,000,000, of which $85,000 has been subscribed, but only $46,400 has been paid up. The liabilities are stated to be $10,000.

FRICITION IN GERMAN

ROYAL FAMILY.

Berlin, October 18.—The Crown Prince's absence from the Leipzig festivities is attracting attention as indicating strained relations with the Emperor. The Prince went to a hunting lodge in the Bavarian mountains deer-stalking. According to the Lokal Anzeiger the Emperor sent his adjutant, General Von Gontard, to Munich for the Prince. The adjutant proceeded to the mountains and returned with the Crown Prince and Princess to Munich at night. All immediately took a train for Berlin. It is surmised that this is connected with the disturbed relations between father and son.

ITALIAN KING NAMES

THIRTY NEW SENATORS.

Rome, October 18.—King Victor Emmanuel has appointed thirty new Senators, including 18 former deputies who were not candidates for re-election on October 26th.

Among the Senators named are Signor Chimiri, who was in charge of the American fund for the survivors of the Messina earthquake, Signor Ardigò, who started life as a priest and was canon of the Cathedral at Mantua when his doctrines obliged him to abandon his ecclesiastical position; Signor Masci, a spiritualist philosopher; Riccardo Bollati, ex-ambassador at Berlin; Marquis Imperiali, ambassador at London, who was identified with the London conference; Count Giovanni Gallini, former ambassador at Paris, and Admiral Viale, who commanded the fleet against Turkey.

DOCTOR IS ARRESTED

ON BIGAMY CHARGE

London, Oct. 18.—Dr. William H. Ross, who has been relieving Dr. Craig, superintendent of the Byron Sanatorium, here during the latter's leave of absence, was arrested on Friday night on a charge of bigamy preferred by his first wife, who has been living in Detroit for the last three or four years with her sister, Mrs. Bernell, 189 Greenwood avenue. Dr. Ross appeared this afternoon before Squire Chittick and was remanded for a week when evidence of the second marriage which is alleged to have taken place to a Toronto girl, Miss Bernice Blackley, will be presented by Crown Attorney McKillop. The hearing today consisted solely of the evidence of his first wife and her sister. Bail was not asked.
