PRESS PLANS FOR WINDING UP TALKS

British and U. S. Delegates Believe Failure Of Conference Has Become Certain.

By EDDY GILMORE

Geneva — (AP)— Britain and the United States were reported to have agreed today on general procedure for winding up the deadlocked Geneva conference.

State Undersecretary Walter Bedell Smith and Foreign Secretary Eden had a long conference on this problem prior to Eden's meeting with Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov.

Informed quarters said there was "a great amount of agreement" between Smith and Eden.

Foreign Minister Bidault, who returned this morning from France, planned to see both Eden and Smith in separate meetings during the day. Bidault will go back to the French capital tonight for the vote of confidence in the National Assembly Saturday.

It is understood the western powers expect to end the Korean phase of the conference by next Wednesday unless there are surprise developments. No details are known, however, of western plans for breaking off the Indo-China talks.

Eden suggested the meeting with Molotov Thursday after declaring that the Indo-China talks might as well be ended unless the conference can narrow the east-west differences without further delay.

There appears to be no evidence that either side will make the concessions required for agreement.

One important western diplomat said: 'The failure of the conference certainly seems to be within sight."

Awaiting the outcome of the Eden-Molotov meetings, the Indo-China talks are in recess. The two diplomats are the chairmen of the conference.

A meeting of the 19-country Korean conference, however, was set for this afternoon. This discussion is deadlocked too, and western diplomats already have written it off as hopeless.

The Eden-Molotov discussions are expected to consider three possibilities:

1. That the talks should continue in semi-public meetings, such as those of the last three days, which allow the fullest publicity to the proceedings.

2. That the negotiations should be carried on in private, with all parties formally bound to withhold information from the press. The conference has held a dozen such meetings but information has always leaked out.

3. That the conference should arrange talks by smaller groups or by two or more representatives, such as the meetings now going on between the representatives of the two military commands in the Indo-China war.

This latter alternative was mentioned by a British spokesman. He said he was sure Eden had this in mind when, in his speech to the conference Thursday, he said Britain still is willing to attempt to resolve east-west differences "here or in restricted session, or by any other method which our colleagues may prefer."

Gallows Close Story Of Near Perfect Crime

By BOB McHUGH

Baltimore — (AP) — George Edward Grammer, once a New York business man with a high-figure expense account, dropped to his death from Maryland's gallows early today for the murder that was almost the "perfect crime."

The state accused Grammer of beating to death his 33-year-old wife on a sultry August night in 1952 so he could be free to marry a pretty Canadian United Nations secretary.

Grammer admitted he killed his wife, but claimed he hadn't planned the crime.

The body of the mother of three little girls was found in an automobile, smashed by a wild, careening drive down a Baltimore hill.

Police found a pebble lodged beneath the accelerator to force it into a downward position. Their alert discovery led to a trail of damning evidence and the 37-year-old Grammer's ultimate conviction.

Grammer lived in New York and earned $660 per month as office manager of the Climax Molybdenum Co., before he was jailed for the slaying of his wife.

It was testified at his trial that he had an "almost unlimited" expense account. State prosecutors put into evidence love letters Grammer had written to Mathilda Mizibrocky of Hamilton, Ont., a vivacious brunette employed by the UN. Grammer met her at a New York City bowling alley.

He loved her and wanted to marry her, state prosecutors argued. They produced testimony that the two spent at least one week together in a swank Chicago hotel on Grammer"s fancy expense account. She testified she never knew he was married.

The burly six-footer went to his death without a trace of emotion. He had a glass of milk and a bun for breakfast Thursday, and passed up the traditional last meal.

In the execution chamber, a bleak room with a high ceiling, Grammer was stoic to the end. He raised his face and closed his eyes as the hood was dropped over his head.

Warden Vernon L. Pepersake said Grammer left behind 14 letters for members of his family, prison officials and chaplains.

Newfoundland House Member Quits Liberals

St. John's, Nfld. — (CP) — Premier Joseph Smallwood announced Thursday he has launched a second fraud inquiry but the disclosure was paled by the sudden bolt from Liberal party ranks of legislator Sam Drover.

The premier told the evening sitting of the legislature he had enlisted the RCMP to make "proper and efficient" inquiries into opposition charges that mill operator Chester Dawe practised profit-splitting in the building of a birch plant. The factory was one of Newfoundland's 15 new industries since confederation.

Shortly after Mr. Smallwood's announcement, Liberal Sam Drover who represents the northern riding of White Bay stalked from the chamber after blasting the government's medical policy. It was the second time he has quit the Liberals.

Mr. Drover's departure from Liberal ranks leaves the party strength at 22 members in the 28-seat house. The Progressive Conservative opposition holds five seats.

The White Bay representative is the third legislature member to leave the Liberal party. The other two were cabinet ministers.

Edward Russell quit as Resources Minister in 1951, saying he had lost faith in the government's financial policies. Oliver Vardy, Minister without portfolio, resigned later the same year after a general election following a disagreement with the cabinet over housing projects in the capital.

W. J. Browne (PC—St. John's West) charged during the budget debate Wednesday night that Dawe had split the profits with commission agent J. K. Pratt who imported two conveyors which he sold to the birch plant.

Mr. Browne said $3,017.34 was paid for the machines which was $975.56 more than the landed cost in St. John's. Premier Smallwood said he had never entertained suspicions of Mr. Dawe but he was referring the matter to the police because the charges were levelled against a "member of the general public."

Mr. Drover left the house after a 20-minute attack on the government's medical policy which, he claimed, discriminated against his constituents. He was expelled from the party four years ago after publicly declaring that his constituents were being neglected.

For example, Mr. Drover charged, persons in other parts of

Bankers To Create New Loans Plan

Montebello, Que.—(CP)—T. H. Atkinson, president of the Canadian Bankers' Association, today outlined a day-to-day loan market as an extension of the short-term money market in Canada.

The market will open Monday.

In an address prepared for delivery before the CBA annual meeting, Mr. Atkinson said discussions on details of the new market have been proceeding for months among the chartered banks, the Bank of Canada and investment dealers.

He said the banks "will make available to jobbers in government of Canada securities who have been granted re-discount facilities with the Bank of Canada a new category of call loans."

These are the day-to-day loans. They will be secured by treasury bills or government of Canada bonds maturing within three years. The loans will be granted strictly on a day-to-day basis "at the convenience of the individual banks when they have surplus cash available to employ in this manner."

"The rates on these loans will, it is expected, tend to fluctuate within fairly narrow limits not far from the yield at any time on 90-day government of Canada treasury bills. This will apply to all loans coming within the day-to-day category regardless of the collateral but will be flexible and set by competition among the banks, varying as the underlying money market conditions vary."

Basically the new market, which will be extremely liquid, is one in which surplus funds of individuals or corporations can be set to work for short periods.

The period, for instance, may be only a few days or three or four weeks. The bank, if its cash position required, could recall the loan any day.

Mr. Atkinson said the loans, a new aspect in Canadian banking practice, "will be granted on a completely impersonal basis and the traditional customer-bank relationships will not necessarily exist in this form of lending.

"Investment dealers will borrow where they can to their best advantage and banks will be governed in granting or recalling loans entirely by the surplus or deficiency in their cash reserves, always of course providing that the borrower has access to the Bank of Canada as a lender of last resort and that the collateral consists of securities acceptable to the Bank of Canada for re-discount.

"In these circumstances it is apparent that pledged securities may move from one bank to another or from the banks to ultimate purchasers fairly frequently, and to avoid penalizing the jobbers in their efforts to develop a broad and fluid market the banks will reduce their charges for daylight over-drafts to 40 per cent of the former tariff."

Mr. Atkinson said the new market should have a direct bearing on efficient channeling of funds for development purposes and capital investment.

It should also "increase the mobility of short-term capital, thereby helping to reduce the cost of doing business, a highly desirable factor in a nation such as Canada that is so dependent on world markets."

Referring to the new power to make housing loans on the security of mortgages, Mr. Atkinson said the banks did not seek this authority, which resulted from government policy. But a spirit of willingness on the part of the banks to give the new power a chance to work "may reasonably be assumed."

Churchill Joins Select Order Monday

By ALVIN STEINKOPF

London — (AP) — In a ceremony of ritual and solemn music, Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill will be installed Monday as a member of the Order of the Garter.

The ceremony will be in St. George's chapel at Windsor, where kings and queens are buried.

It will be a moving moment in the life of the 79-year-old statesman. Sharing it with him will be the queen he adores, Elizabeth II, who elevated him to the exalted knighthood a year ago with the touch of a golden sword in a drawing room of Windsor castle.

The honor is one he turned down in 1945, shortly after the defeat of the Conservative party in the first post-war general election. He has never elaborated on why he refused then.

A palace statement said Churchill begged King George VI "that in the present circumstances he might be allowed to decline the offer." One unverified story was that Churchill himself remarked "How can I accept the Order of the Garter from my sovereign when his people have just given me the order of the boot."

But the voters later changed their mind. And so did Churchill.

The service in the chapel will complete his introduction into the select group. He will be assigned to one of the stalls which flank the choir of the beautiful chapel in which knights sit to hold their infrequent ceremonies.

The Queen will preside.

The regalia he will receive is impressive. Most important—the very heart of the order—is the garter itself. It is a gold-edged band of blue velvet on which golden letters proclaim the order's motto, "Honi soit qui mal y pense" —evil to him who thinks evil.

Legend says King Edward III, who established the order 600 years ago, proclaimed those words when the beautiful and demure Joan, Countess of Salisbury, lost her garter at a state ball. The king picked up the garter, wrapped it around his own leg and delivered the remark in rebuke to rude courtiers who snickered at the countess' plight.

Sir Winston will also receive what is called the collar, but which looks more like a necklace. Of gold, it weighs just two ounces short of two pounds. It consists of a garter surrounding a Tudor rose and connected with 24 knots of chased gold.

Another bit of regalia is an eight pointed star of silver with a cross in the centre.

At present there are 21 knights of the Order of the Garter who are not of the Royal Family. The Queen, then Princess Elizabeth,

Bizarre Tale Of Arizona Kidnapping

Phoenix, Ariz. — (AP) — A great manhunt spread around the Superstition mountains today for an armed kidnapper with $75,000 in ransom money, who abducted Mrs. Evelyn Ann Smith from in front of a Phoenix beauty parlor Wednesday and freed her in the mountains late Thursday.

The 23-year-old wife of a wealthy Phoenix pipe and steel company executive was unharmed.

Her ordeal ended when her husband, Herbert, struggled up a hill to her side after a masked man had fired at him with a rifle.

Smith, following instructions contained in two notes, had taken $75,000 in $100, $50, $20 and $10 bills into the purple-hazed Superstitions towering over the central Arizona desert.

The kidnapper picked up the valise containing the ransom and vanished into the dusk-shadowed brush and cactus. He was carrying a rifle and a revolver.

With Mrs. Smith safe at home with her husband and two children, FBI agents and state and local officers circled the area where the ransom was collected.

They were hunting a man des-

Tot Suffers Little From Wandering

Southwest Port Mouton, N. S.—(CP)— After wandering in a big circle in the rugged woodland of this south shore area for the last four days and nights, two-year-old Tony Roy, weeping and weak from exposure was found today.

Francis Burgess was on his way to work this morning through a short-cut path skirting a cemetery on the outskirts of the little fishing village when he heard a child weeping. He parted the under brush and found little curly-haired Tony emaciated from his long ordeal and bearing scratches from bushes but apparently in otherwise good health.

The tot's father, Eugene Roy, his weary face lighted with a happy smile, figured Tony had made a wide circle through the woods and returned Thursday night or early today to an area where the search had been heavily concentrated.

Thursday his mother had washed and hung out Tony's playclothes saying confidently he would be found.

A preliminary medical report said Tony, who hasn't yet started to talk, is suffering exposure but will be discharged from the hospital shortly.

Tony was found less than half a mile from his parents' home and he was taken to a neighbor's house

Separate Radio Control Board Demands Rejected

Ottawa — (CP) — The government again has rejected demands for a separate body to regulate broadcasting in Canada.

Revenue Minister McCann turned down the idea in the Commons Thursday night and also announced that a second television outlet has been authorized for the Ottawa-Hull area, now served by the CBC's station CBOT which broadcasts one-quarter of its time in French.

Dr. McCann, who reports to Parliament for the publicly-owned CBC, said the two Ottawa outlets, duplicating the situation in Montreal, means the government's policy of reserving the six major centres of population to the CBC remains unchanged.

The CBC had television stations on the air in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. The sixth will start operation in Halifax about the year's end.

The Progressive Conservative and Social Credit parties demanded a separate regulatory body during a broadcasting debate last week. The suggestion, made previously at different times by the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters and other groups, has been consistently rejected.

The broadcasting debate came at the night sitting after Trade Minister Howe said earlier that Canada is not engaging in a price war with the United States on wheat and that the U.S. recession has about run its course.

The second television outlet for the Ottawa-Hull district is understood to have been decided at a cabinet meeting a few hours before Dr. McCann made his announcement in the Commons.

Concerning the separate regulatory body, Dr. McCann said a similar proposal was opposed by the Massey commission on arts, letters and sciencies. The government accepted and still accepts the commission's views on this subject.

He said statements favoring such a body often came from areas where the newspapers also had private radio interests. From what he had seen of the CARTB demands the regulatory body would have none of the powers held by the CBC. There would be no body to limit abuses of the public air channels.

"The idea of a separate commission probably seems attractive to a number of people who have not looked carefully into the subject," he said. "It seems to me that this point of view, often accepted without careful consideration, is in many cases helped along by interested propaganda."

T. J. Allard, executive vice-president of the CARTB, said in commenting on Dr. McCann's remarks that "we have certainly never advocated that a separate regulatory body should have no regulatory powers."

"We still believe that it is unjust and unfair that a commercial body—and that is what the CBC is—should exercise regulatory functions over its competitors."

Gordon Churchill (PC—Winnipeg South Centre) raised the question of the six areas reserved for CBC use in television. He asked how long it will be before the government's announced intention is carried out by allowing additional stations in certain areas and privately-owned stations in CBC-reserved areas.

Dr. McCann replied that he feels he is being baited and tantalized to announce something new regarding policy but "there is nothing new to announce."

He also said the micro-wave network linking CBC stations could be completed from coast to coast in two or three years. It now links Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Buffalo with extensions to serve privately-owned stations at London and Kitchener, Ont.

Further extensions would be towards Windsor, Ont., and Quebec City with links to Halifax and western Canada later.

Other privately-owned stations now are broadcasting at Sudbury and Hamilton, Ont., and Saint John, N.B. The CBC has recommended that the government license privately-owned stations at Peterborough, Kingston, Windsor and Port Arthur in Ontario; Quebec City, Sherbrooke and Rimouski in Quebec; Sydney, N.S.; Saskatoon and Regina; Calgary and Edmonton.

New Charges Of Socialism Against CBC

Ottawa— (CP) —A Social Credit member of Parliament Thursday night charged the CBC with broadcasting Communist-line radio talks and then heard himself described as "the best friend the Communists have."

John Blackmore (SC - Lethbride) renewed in the Commons accusations against the publicly-owned CBC.

However, he faced more interruptions and questioning than last Friday, when he said some CBC broadcasts follow the Communist line because they taught evolution and socialism, questioned Biblical teachings and presented life in Russia in a favorable light.

At one point Thursday night, he was interrupted by Claude Ellis (CCF-Regina) who said: "You are the best friend the Communists have."

Mr. Blackmore, in a series of questions, singled out two Canadian newspaper men who have made CBC broadcasts and asked who chose them. The two he named were J. B. McGeachy, a member of the editorial board of the Toronto Globe and Mail and Charles Woodsworth, editor of the Ottawa Citizen and son of the late J. S. Woodsworth, founder of the CCF party.

Mr. Blackmore said people have monitored CBC broadcasts for him.

"I must say that the broadcasts on which I have received a report do, to a surprising degree, convey the Communist line. As I said the other night, they are indoctrinating the people of Canada with the Communist line in speech after speech, and I have mentioned only two of the gentlemen concerned."

A. M. Nicholson (CCF-Mackenzie) said "I think the job those two particular men are doing on

Gestapo Tactics Charged To Provincial Detectives

Quebec—(CP)—Superior Court today sought to determine whether three provincial police officers and their superiors used "Gestapo tactics" and violated a defence counsel's privileges when they questioned a clerk employed by the defence lawyers for Wilbert Coffin, accused killer of one of three American hunters.

Jean Guy Hamel, 29, was to testify today at the hearings of a petition by Defence Counsel Raymond Maher urging a court injunction to prevent police from further questioning Hamel. Maher's petition said Hamel was submitted last month to nearly six hours of questioning in one day and "intimidated, threatened and offered bribes."

Capt. Alphonse Matte said Thursday the only money offered Hamel was to cover his transportation from his home in nearby St. Jean, Island of Orleans, to police headquarters.

Capt. Matte, who testified before Chief Justice Alfred Sevigny in the hearing that opened Thursday, said he ordered Detective Pat Mercier to bring Hamel to police headquarters after receiving an anonymous telephone call May 25 in which someone said Hamel held important information in the Coffin case and added: "I'm a friend of Hamel. . . I want to get even with Maher."

Matte said Hamel told him he had quit working for Maher since Feb. 28 but that he was afraid to give information to police for fear of meeting "the same fate as Battaglia"—Frank Battaglia, a Montreal underworld character who police said was the victim of a gangland slaying.

Hamel's wife testified her husband still worked for the defence counsel at a salary of $30 a week. She added that on June 7, Detective Mercier returned to their home, "began swinging his arms in the air," was "impolite" and "spoke in a loud voice."

Maher charged in his petition that police in questioning Hamel for information he obtained as an employee of a defence counsel, "violated" the defence lawyer's privilege to keep secret all information he obtains in preparing a case.

A statement by the Attorney General's office said Hamel no longer was an employee of Maher when questioned. It added the clerk, while working with Maher, had foiled police and entered the Gaspe forest after talking with Coffin, recovered the gun that allegedly was used to kill the three hunters and took it to Quebec city. The statement said the gun was tossed into the St. Lawrence river from the Quebec bridge, seven miles west of Quebec.

French Political Crisis Big Worry To Washington

Washington — (AP) — United States officials are deeply concerned over the political crisis developing in the French government. They fear it will have a further paralyzing effect on allied efforts to halt the Communists in southeast Asia.

For the fact which stands out in connection with the diplomatic-military campaign which the Communists are relentlessly pressing is this: While the allies are held to the council table at Geneva, cope with political controversy in Paris and generally debate the conditions for action on Indo-China, the Red high command gives every evidence of pressing for a decision on the battlefield.

One western diplomat put it this way: "There has been a lot of discussion between the United States and France about training Viet Namese troops, by the time they get it all settled the Viet Namese may not be there to train anymore."

French authorities here report that no one can be sure when the Communist forces of Ho Chi Minh, following up their triumph at Dien Bien Phu a few weeks ago, will launch a big attack to take the Tonkin delta, the key city of Hanoi and its port, Haiphong.

Both American and French leaders agree the Reds can make the drive pretty much on their own timing. The French assert they will run into a terrific fight.

President Eisenhower told his press conference Thursday that the French and native forces could use some outside help in fighting for Hanoi but he offered no sign that the U.S. is going to provide such help in the way of combat support. It is already providing arms and equipment.

All the evidence indicates there is no American plan to intervene with armed forces in behalf of the defence of Hanoi.

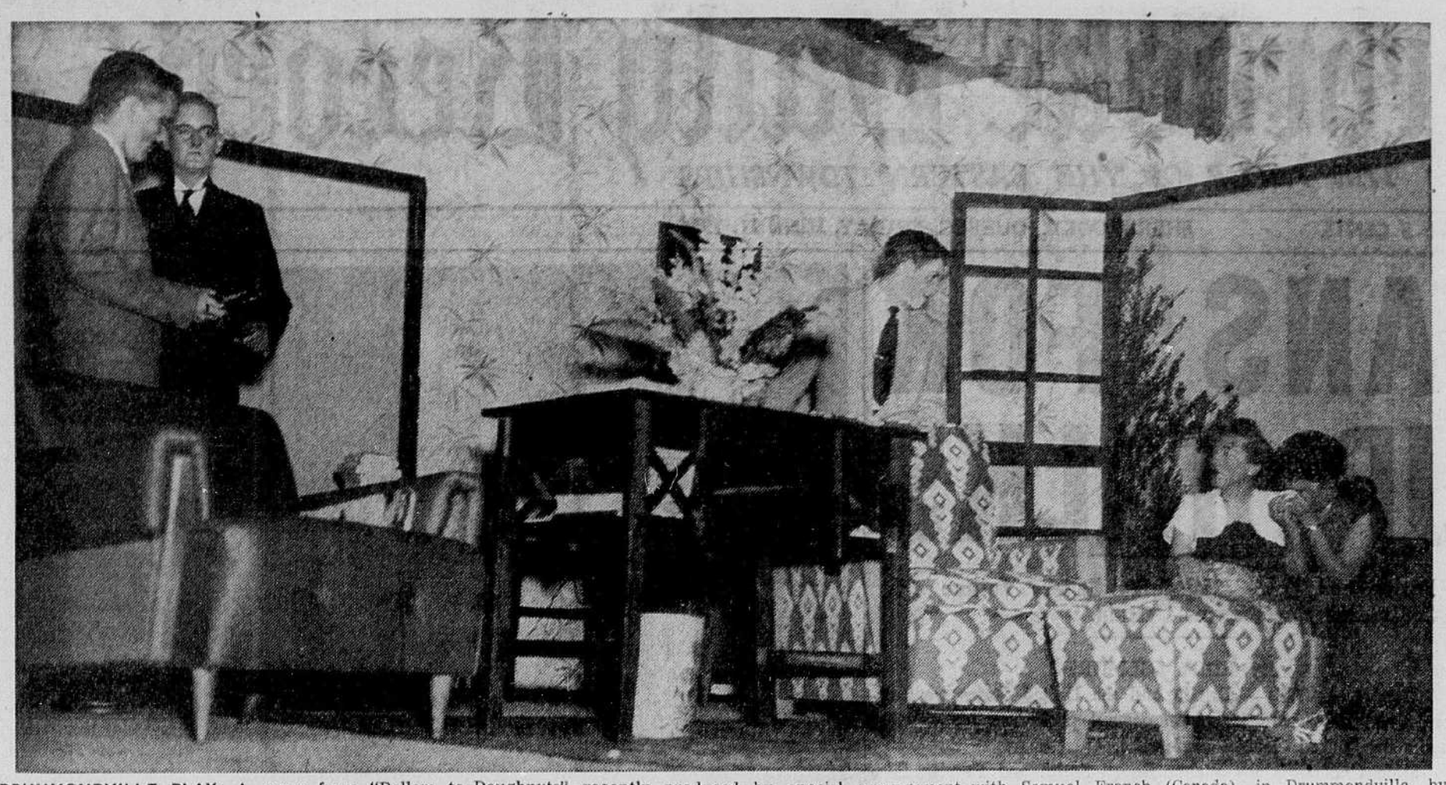

Efforts to arrange some kind of base for longer-term operations against the spread of Communist control in southeast Asia are virtually paralyzed.

It is in this connection the French government vote of confidence Saturday is of great significance.

If the Laniel regime is overthrown, it will remain as a caretaker government until a new administration is formed. But a caretaker government can carry on only day-to-day operations. It cannot make basic policy decisions.

Carroll Righter's Astrological Forecast

Aries (March 21 to April 19) Listening attentively, with real respect, to what others have to say eliminates decided tendency, otherwise present, to lose support, even the friendship of worthwhile associate by intolerant attitude. Be understanding.

Taurus (April 20 to May 20) Using unusual care to prevent injury or damage to anything that comes into your daily duties saves you considerable time that can be required to make repairs. Show others your charming smile — help them.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Keeping your attention focused upon ways and means to bring more support, affection to you by the support you now give others turns rainy period into one of sunshine and constructiveness.

Cancer (June 22 to July 21) Strange condition at home you can't put your finger on requires that you be very gentle, understanding, cooperative. Make sure you do not impose your will, thoughts on others today—you get support by allowing them freedom.

Leo (July 22 to August 21) Forget that apparent limitation that has kept you from doing things you know should not be neglected. Let it alone; it will work itself out rightly. Be adroit.

Virgo (August 22 to September 22) Using your fine, keen sense of best way to handle details permits you to get your possessions in better shape; avoid some extravagance upset friend tries to lead you into now.

Libra (September 23 to October 22) Spend least amount of time arguing with others who are in positions of power. "Agree with thine adversary quickly" if you would avoid harsh conditions. Be astute.

Scorpio (October 23 to November 21) Investigate all you do not understand, then some angle being worked that is adverse to your best interests comes into the open so you can handle it intelligently.

Sagittarius (November 22 to December 21) Friends are pretty confused about what your current plans are, so be sure to explain carefully if you want their support, otherwise the muddled thinking lessens your chance of success.

Capricorn (December 22 to January 20) Highly volatile associates and befuddled higher-ups seem unable to grasp just what you are trying to do, so side-step them for the moment while you attend to work only you can do.

Aquarius (January 21 to February 19) Try to get away as early as possible from dreary drudgeries, then seek new places, conditions, personalities who can brighten your existence by bringing fascinating viewpoints, favors you've not known before now.

Pisces (February 20 to March 20) It isn't necessary to become all het up, overly subjective where emotional or material problems are concerned; keep cheerful exterior and others appreciate your self-control, and all sorts of favors fall in your lap.

If Your Child Is Born Today . . .

Today's child is one of those very interesting youngsters who just must have a background of proven principles of right living in early life if he, or she, is to have a clear concept of right and wrong, so a tremendous responsibility rests with you who have this receptive child's care in your charge. There is a desire to have everything just right in surroundings that can become a preoccupation unless you early teach the lesson of objectivity — then your amazing child will be a great joy and a great success.

PENSION PLANS and YOUR employees
A well designed, financed and administered Pension plan can improve employee relations in these important ways:
- By helping relieve worry about old-age financial security;
- By supplying retirement benefits for older employees and assisting in the promotion of younger people;
- By creating an incentive for long, loyal service.

But before you choose your plan, you will want to know the answers to many questions. What should the benefits be? What will they cost? Should your employees contribute? How will social security laws affect your plan?

Our long experience in Pension Trusts can be of benefit. Let us help you choose and set up the plan best suited to the needs of your company, and explain how our services will assist you in its operation.

Inquiries by telephone, letter or personal call will be most welcome.

Average Canadian Refutes Scientists Claim That World Is Getting Warmer

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Scientists say the world's getting warmer.

Many Canadians, still grumbling about the cold, damp spring, say it isn't so.

Weather officials in Toronto, backed by a pile of facts and statistics, side with the Canadians as far as this country is concerned.

April and May were abnormally cold and wet months in most parts of the country.

Residents of Alberta, where the average temperature for April was 25.1 degrees, look askance at suggestions that increased industrial activity will tend to make the world's climate warmer.

The Alberta temperature average was 14 to 15 degrees below average for that time of year and was the lowest on record for April.

Officials of the Dominion public weather office, casting an eye over springtime weather figures, said the cold felt in Alberta was general throughout the Prairies. Temperatures ranged from five to 18 degrees below normal for the season.

Excepting for southern Ontario, lower-than-average temperatures were general in Canada during April. In May, temperatures warmed up a bit, but still ran from two to six degrees below average. Northern Quebec, where temperatures were up six degrees, was the exception.

It was a wet spring, too.

During April and May rainfall in Ontario and the Prairies was "considerably above normal," a weather official said. It was about normal in April on the Pacific coast and in the Atlantic provinces. Last month, Quebec and the Maritimes had from normal to 50 per cent above normal rainfall. Southern Ontario was unusually dry.

So far this month, Canadians generally have been treated to slowly warming temperatures and less rainfall.

C. G. Boughner, head of the climatology department in Toronto, said the low temperatures in April and May were a result of successive cold air outbreaks from the north. He said he couldn't say what caused them.

Despite the unseasonable weather, some weather experts insist the climate is getting milder.

Keith McLeod, superintendent of public weather services for the Canadian government, said recently that average temperatures across Canada have gone up about three degrees in the last 70 years.

"If the trend continues . . . the ice might melt on the northern straits and permit cities on the Hudson Bay to carry on year-round ocean trade across the Atlantic to Europe."

St. George's W.A. Has June Meeting

The June meeting of the St. George's branch of the W.A. was held in the parish hall with the president, Mrs. E. L. Stevens in the chair. She suggested that all members read the book "Behold Your King" of which Mrs. Atto has a copy.

Miss Perry, treasurer, reported all obligations met and a substantial bank balance.

The Dorcas secretary reported on a bale sent to the Indian school at Prince Rupert and read an interesting letter of acknowledgement which told of school activities and great progress made. A parcel of clothes has also been sent to the Bishop Mountain Hall.

Miss Ethel Taylor and Mrs. Elton Scott were delegates to the bienniel meeting of the Diocesan Board of the W.A. held in Drummondville. Miss Taylor gave both reports in the absence of Mrs. Scott. They were very full, excellent reports, painting a vivid picture of the missionary work of the church in distant places, as well as work done in our own diocese.

The meeting closed with the Benediction. Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Alfred Baker and Mrs. Thorn.

The next meeting will be held next September.

Local Y's Men To Attend Charter Night In Montreal

The Y's Men's club of Sherbrooke is obviously taking its summer camp seriously. Chick Whatley, who handles press relations for the club, reported this morning, that three nights a week during the month of June will be devoted to work at the Shore Acres site in order the camp may be in a much better condition than in past years.

Wednesday night, they held their second work meeting at the camp, and more than ninety percent of the members turned out to help put the screens on the cabins, start work on the sewage project, and to generally clean up and repair anything requiring attention.

For the second consecutive week the local club will form a delegation which will visit a Montreal club. This Saturday, twelve members are expected to attend Charter Night celebrations of the Westmount Club at the Queen's Hotel. George Grant, regional director of Y.M.C.A.'s, will present the charter to the new club, which is sponsored by the Sherbrooke Club.

J. Codere Named Chairman Of Local Organists' College

John Codere was elected chairman of the Canadian College of Organists, Sherbrooke Center, at their annual meeting held on Wednesday evening at the home of Jack Lenaghan, Quebec Street, retiring chairman.

The slate of officers for the coming year follows: Gordon Peabody takes over the secretarial duties from Irene Boomhour; Doris Robinson was re-elected treasurer; Morris Austin was re-elected as recording secretary; and Mrs. Beverly Conger was nominated as social convener.

A note of regret was expressed at the supper meeting, concerning the forthcoming departure of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brown, well-known in local music circles, who are leaving to take up residence in Florida.

It was also announced, that on June 23rd the final organ recital of the year would be given. Guest artist will be the celebrated organist, John E. Fay, of Portland Maine. Program and other details, such as place and time, will be announced later in both newspapers and over the radio.

Membership Drive Launched By Bury Athletic Assoc.

Bury, June 11. — In an effort to expand their membership, the Bury Athletic Association is currently conducting a Township-wide drive for new subscribers. Membership fee for the entire year is only one dollar, and each new subscription will entitle the holder to a chance on a gigantic raffle to be drawn on July 1 as part of the famous Bury Dominion Day celebrations at the Memorial Park here.

First prize in the raffle will be a deluxe General Electric television set, second prize is a Sunbeam automotic toaster and the third prize is a Phillip's mantle radio.

Subscriptions may be obtained from various agents throughout the Eastern Townships: Scotstown: Scotstown Motors; Cookshire: Casavants, Reg., A. H. Pope Store, and R. Wallace; Sherbrooke: Syd Saunders, (Daily Record Office), Roland Vallee, (United Auto Parts), and S. Wheeler (Allatt's Bakery); Lennoxville: Harold Turner, and Zep Rousseau; Bury: Wallie Adkins.

Subscriptions may also be purchased from any member of the Bury Athletic Association.

Sangster Memorial W.A. Meeting Held

The Sangster Memorial Women's Association held their regular meeting in the Church Hall, with fourteen members and one guest present.

The president, Mrs. A. H. Noble was in the chair, and the meeting opened with the Mary Stewart collect followed by a short devotional let by Mrs. E. Howland.

After the reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report various business was discussed, and it was decided to hold the Christmas sale on December 4th next.

June 16th will be the last meeting of the W.A. for the summer months, and the Sunday School annual picnic will be held on June 19th.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. J. Hillman.

St. Andrew's Society Holds Final Meeting

St. Andrew's Missionary Society held their closing meeting for the summer at the home of the president, Mrs. George Stevenson.

The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn followed by the devotional period conducted by Mrs. S. Garland. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A letter of thanks was read from a shut-in for a card sent while she was in hospital. The secretary was asked to send a card to an elderly lady who was confined to her home as a result of a fall. Many calls have been made on the sick. Our hospital is doing excellent work.

The treasurer was requested to send the Presbyterial Treasurer our half-yearly instalment to the allocation.

Mrs. Allan Morrison read a very interesting account of the meeting of the Council Executive which met this year in Winnipeg, telling of the excellent work being done by the W.M.S. ladies accross Canada. Wool was given out to be used for socks and mittens. These will be ready for the bale in the fall. All business for the year was then finished.

The president wished every member a pleasant summer. After singing another hymn, the meeting closed with a prayer. Mrs. G. Douglas acted as accompanist throughout the meeting.

Boundary Church Will Observe Children's Day

Rock Island, June 11.—On Sunday, June 13, children's day will be observed in Stanstead South Church at Rock Island with a special worship service, commencing at 10:30 a.m.

It is hoped to repeat the success of last year's service. By arrangement, the senior choir of the church will give their accustomed place in the choir loft to the juniors.

Rev. E. Geoffrey Tenneson, Mrs. Arthur Judd, Mrs. Alfred Aldrich and Mrs. A. P. Bliss have been working with the children for this big event for several past weeks, after which the children will begin summer vacation.

The junior choir members have already acquitted themselves very well at the different services on Christmas, Palm Sunday and the regular Sunday morning worship. Their contribution to these services is much appreciated and eagerly awaited by the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Tenneson invites all members of the church, friends at the Boundary and any of their guests to be present for this special service on this day of the year which belongs to the children.

Mining Institute To Meet Tonight

Dr. G .G. Hatch, director of research for the Quebec Iron and Titanium Corporation, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada being held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel this evening at 8 o'clock.

He will give a review of the development of the titanium industry in Canada and the United States.

TODAY and TOMORROW

TOMORROW

Social evening, Saturday in Unity Lodge No. 8 of Independent Order of Oddfellows. Everybody welcome. 138 Wellington Street North.

Belvidere W. I. will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Joint hostess: Miss Edna Smith.

R. Alex Sim, Former Adult Education Chief, Receives Citizenship Post

The appointment of R. Alex Sim, M.A., of Oakville, Ontario, as Chief of the Liaison Division, Canadian Citizenship Branch, was announced by the Honourable Walter Harris, Q.C., Minister of Citizenship and Immigration.

The Liaison Division maintains close association with voluntary organizations and other agencies engaged in work among newcomers and in general citizenship promotion.

Mr. Sim has been on the staff of the University of Toronto since 1949, when he was appointed Research Associate in Sociology in the Department of Psychiatry. In 1950 he was appointed Assistant Professor, and in the some year was Assistant Director of the UNESCO International Seminar on Adult Education at Salsburg, Australia.

R. ALEX SIM

A native of Saskatchewan, Mr. Sim was educated in Ontario Public School and Pickering College, where he received a rural life scholarship. He completed his undergraduate work as an honors student in Sociology in 1938 at the University of Toronto. Following graduation he was appointed to McGill University, Montreal, to initiate an experiment in adult education in rural Quebec, particularly among the English-speaking farmers. He had his headquarters in Sherbrooke.

Mr. Sim was the first national secretary of National Farm Radio Forum and was one of the founders of Laquemac, a summer school of community programs.

On a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, he travelled widely in the United States and Canada studying adult education programs in the field as part of a program of graduate study at Columbia University, where he received his Master of Arts degree in 1944. In 1947, he was awarded a Fellowship to pursue further graduate work in sociology and anthropology at Michigan State College.

Death Claims Mrs. H. S. Ball, Of Waterville

The death occurred at Waterville this morning of Mrs. Henry Stewart Ball, the former Bessie Beatrice Aldrich, following an extended illness.

Mrs. Ball, a native of Lennoxville, was married to Mr. Ball at Edwards, N.Y., in 1913 and came to Waterville where she spent her entire married life.

She was active in the affairs of the Waterville United Church and in community undertakings until ill-health forced her to suspend most of her activities. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, the I.O.D.E., the C.G.I.T. and the Waterville Golf Club.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, John Tonkin Ball; a daughter-in-law, Fleurette P. Ball; a granddaughter, Sandra Ball; a brother-in-law, Dr. F. R. Ball, and Mrs. Ball; and the following cousins, Miss Eva Mallory, Mrs. Clifford Goodhue, Russell, Gerald and Arthur Spafford, of Sherbrooke.

The funeral service will be held Monday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. at her late residence Waterville.

Stiff Sentence Is Imposed For Driving Charge

Marcel Bisson, of Richmond, received a stiff sentence this morning from Judge Joseph Marier in Court of the Sessions of the Peace. He was condemned to 14 days in jail plus payment of costs or in default an extra 14 days. His driving licence was also suspended for a year and in virtue of the Criminal Code he is not allowed to drive a car anywhere in Canada.

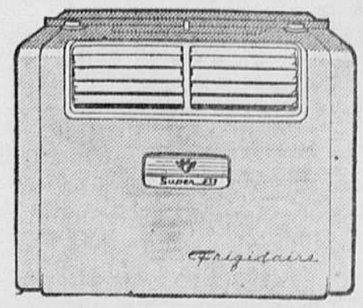

The case arose out of an accident last May 23 on the road between Richmond and Danville when Bisson's car was found in the ditch by two policemen from Richmond. According to testimony given by the policemen he was asleep at the wheel with the keys still in the ignition. He was then taken to the Richmond Police station by Constables Scurry and Paquin and put in the cells.

A Former P.M. Approaches 80

It seems only a short time ago that he came from the West — spare of frame, gaunt of features with a look of penetration. He was in politics but never seemed to be of them and he brought something new to Ottawa.

Time flies. The Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, former Prime Minister of Canada, will observe his 80th birthday on Wednesday of next week. For years he was the most controversial figure in Canadian politics.

Arthur Meighen brought to the federal arena a brilliant mind and the personality of a scholar. He attracted staunch loyalties. He was idolized by a large section of the Conservative party; never entirely accepted by another group. In public life he made many enemies.

Mr. Meighen was at his best on the floor of the House of Commons. In debate he was respected and feared. He was feared for his "rapier-like thrusts" — and how often the term was used! Probably only one man, Sir John A. Macdonald, had been able in that House to handle himself better and his was a vastly different and a more bludgeon-like technique.

Mr. Meighen also shone when representing his country in conferences abroad.

It was in his lack of the personal touch that Arthur Meighen, like Woodrow Wilson and many another intellect in politics, betrayed his Achilles' heel. He was labelled as cold.

An amusing story, though it may be apocryphal, was told about him.

A friend, the tale ran, was intent upon encouraging "The Chief" to be a little warmer in his personal relations. "Make a joke occasionally," he urged one day. "Now, for instance, if you happen to meet a man on the street during a snow-storm and he remarks on the weather you might answer with a smile: "Oh, snow matter."

A few days later there was a snowfall and the trudging leader met a political supporter. "Bad weather, Mr. Meighen," was this man's salutation. The Prime Minister puckered his brow for a moment, struggling to remember his line. He did manage a smile but his reply was: "It's quite immaterial."

Mr. Meighen was a parliamentarian with few equals. He was noted for a prodigious memory when it came to speeches. It was said he could commit a three-hour effort to heart in an amazingly short time and reporters found that his deviations from text were few.

His scholarship includes a wide and profound knowledge of Shakespeare and he has given many addresses on the Bard's works.

Mr. Meighen left active politics for finance. He had always found his relative poverty a handicap. He was succeeded in the leadership by the Hon. R. B. (later Viscount) Bennett who did not suffer from a like disability.

Arthur Meighen, who will soon reach four score years, brought great gifts to the public service: brilliance of mind, incorruptible honesty and principles strongly held.

As a public speaker he was more effective before a small gathering of thinking people rather than with a great audience for he appealed mainly to the Reason. He was compared sometimes to a cold flame; those who have heard him will not soon forget him.

Mr. Meighen's success in both the political and financial spheres has, compared to the careers of most men, been great, indeed. Had the atmosphere of politics approached more nearly to that envisioned by the Platonic ideal of The Republic it is probable that his contribution in active leadership would have been much greater and more prolonged

"If You Wish To Win Her--"

Bank robbers are generally and properly regarded as anti-social but there is at least one in Chicago who has the social impulse developed to a high degree — when it comes to dancing.

Samuel Hochstetler, convicted of a hold-up which netted the respectable sum of $31,000, told FBI agents that he had spent $5,000 of the loot in six weeks for lessons in the graceful art. He had not only mastered the stately waltz and the faster-moving fox trot and tango but also the gyrations of the samba, the rhumba and the mambo.

Unfortunately for Hochstetler, tripper of the light fantastic, he must now take a trip to a place where dancing is not encouraged. At least, it would not be a wise prisoner who would indulge, no matter how great his attainments might be.

The picture of No. 7777 going into a solitaire rhumba or a samba on his way to the dining-hall or even a prison concert might be one to make the heavy eyebrows of hardened wardens lift more than a little. So, the fruits of the costly lessons may have to go into moth-balls.

But Hochstetler's dancing may still have a future. When he gets out, the "dancing robber" will probably be grabbed by booking agents and given a theatrical tour, as the man who risked and suffered much to make himself socially acceptable.

Which may go to show that dancing-school ads sometimes can be too inviting and effective.

In Passing

The Lions Club of Magog which heard recently about the financial plight of the Cecil Memorial Home in Austin Township, Brome County, has offered more than sympathy. The Magog Lions have donated two hundred dollars to the Home which cares for mentally retarded, incurable children, many of the mongoloid type. There are few institutions doing more exacting and unselfish work than that under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Butters. . . . . .

More than seven hundred policemen of Jersey City, N.J., a stone's throw from New York, have been ordered by their safety director to learn the fire art of delivering babies. They are now taking a course at a maternity hospital. It is not likely that this example will be followed widely among other forces and we imagine that the prospective mothers of Jersey City will take particular pains to get to the right place at the right time. . . . .

If it took $16,000,000 to produce the first pair of nylon stockings, this being the figure of speech used by a local Kiwanis Club speaker this week to describe the research necessary, one can't help wondering the name of the American woman who wore that first pair. It should go down in history. . . . .

The type of stabilizing fins to be used on the 83,000-ton Queen Elizabeth, the world's largest liner, to reduce rolling in heavy seas, will probably be added to other large vessels if they work well on the Elizabeth. They may go a long way towards making luxury travel by water even more comfortable. There is also a surprising amount of vibration on some of the larger ships. . . . .

Isaac Smith, of Knoxville, Tennessee, is an escapist. His wife, in seeking a divorce, has claimed that for the last year he has disappeared every time the rent comes due and has refused to some home until she has paid it. Mr. Smith must be surprised at his own moderation. He might have vanished, too, at income tax payment time, when the bill for the new radio arrived and two weeks before Christmas. . . .

"Canned music" is the phrase applied frequently when the strains are transcribed with the singers or players not to be seen in the flesh. But the soprano and baritone solos heard this week in the Premier's Melba have nary a suspicion of tinniness. One has only to close the eyes and the artists are there. . . . . .

Stand on the Dufferin Avenue Bridge and watch a small Niagara pouring over the dam. Then think, with the mind of a newcomer, of this City of the Two Hills and the Two Rivers, Picturesque? There are scenic beauties that often go unappreciated and are under our noses every day.

More Important

Madge Martin glanced through her kitchen window when she heard the roar of a car next door. Ann Selby dressed in her best and with a satisfied look on her pretty but somewhat petulant face was starting to Springfield. She was a delegate to the state meeting from the local Women's Club of which she was president.

Madge sighed. How wonderful, she thought, to be important. She wished that she might be just once, and a smothering weight of frustration settled upon her. She was only a housewife doing daily the dozens of tasks a household demands. She belonged to clubs but never was she given an office although she knew she was as capable as any of her friends thrust into the limelight of publicity.

She was dishwasher of her clubs, the errand runner. In other words she was one of the wheels which helped to roll the vehicle along yet never permitted to drive, to bow, to smile and to be admired. The fever of her wish burned so searingly within her that, as she stacked the breakfast dishes in the sink, she cracked one of her favorite plates and didn't even care. If just once she could have her picture in the paper as Ann's was yesterday morning with "a honey of a genealogical write-up" as Bill, Madge's husband jokingly labeled it.

She threw the broken plate into the waste basket and began to swish the dishes through the soapsuds as if she hated them. Well, she did this morning and all because of Ann's two day trip to the state capitol where she would be important.

Then Madge's mind shifted to Jimmy. She hoped he would make the High School Freshman Basketball Team. The decision was to have been made last night. She then wondered if Alice had played well enough several days ago in the Amateur Musical Club recital to qualify as a Junior member. In Jimmy's case, if he didn't make the team it wouldn't be because he hadn't had the right kind of food or kept the right hours. She had seen to it that he had and sometimes very much against his will. The battle to keep Alice practicing her piano lessons had been long and arduous too.

And Bill! Would he get the promotion he had been waiting for for the past eight years? He was to know today.

Just then the telephone rang. It was Bill.

"Well, Hon," he said, "I didn't get it," and to her great amazement he didn't sound in the least disappointed. "I got something better. A big raise and no extra responsibilities."

"Fine, dear," She tried to keep the sickening disappointment from her voice. Even though she couldn't be important in her small woman's world, why couldn't he be in the big world of business? Yet this new set-up might be better for him.

"We'll celebrate tonight," and Bill sounded so elated that she felt somewhat ashamed.

The dishes finished, she hurried out to get the morning paper and sank into an easy chair to read it.

When she turned to page two she gasped from happiness. Alice's frank girlish face smiled at her as she read: Alice Martin was one of three to pass the rigid requirements set up by the Amateur Musical Club for Junior membership applicants . . .

Quickly Madge turned to the athletic page. Yes, there was Jimmy with his crew haircut looking as serious as the rest of the boys who had "made" the team.

Suddenly she knew that, although she was not important enough to merit a flattering write-up in a newspaper, nor aggresive enough to be a club officer, she was very important in an un-publicized way. As a homemaker she kept dull, that her physical beauty cloaked an empty or uninteresting character. It is possible the husband discovered that mere beauty isn't enough in a wife. And the sort of man who is attracted by beauty alone isn't likely to be a good husband.

Beauty can be a lure and a deception. A beautiful shop window often is no clue to the quality of goods inside.

DUKE AT WORK

Fort William Times-Journal

As citizens of the Commonwealth observe the manner in which the Duke of Edinburgh has applied himself to the responsibilities which come through marriage to Queen Elizabeth, they cannot be but impressed by his record to date. Despite his fun-loving nature, he has shown an earnestness which reflects full appreciation of the importance of the relationship between the Royal Family and subjects of the Crown throughout the world, and a willingness to put aside carefree hours in favor of ardous study of problems which are part and parcel of the Commonwealth.

It will be recalled that when the Duke addressed a gathering of scientists in Great Britain some months ago, members of his audience were obviously surprised by the knowledge he displayed of complex matters with which the ordinary layman is not well acquainted. In this connection it is typical that in advance of the Duke's visit to Canada this summer, he is hard at work on an intensive study of areas and enterprises related to his itinerary during the month of August. Technically, he is supposed to be at Balmoral Castle in Scotland having a rest after the strenuous six-months Royal tour of Commonwealth countries. Instead, he is reading Canadian history, studying statistics and information contained in the Canada Year Book, reading a copy of the voluminous Royal Commission report on arts, letters, and sciences presented by the Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey. He is examining documentary films showing development in Canada's far north.

Her Majesty the Queen could ask for no better aide than her husband is proving to be.

Another famous beauty has hit the matrimonial rocks. Mrs. Ronald Marengo told a California court her husband complained he found her dull and had tired of her. Last year, as 18-year-old Christiane Martel, a Parisienne, she won the title of "Miss Universe."

We don't know who was responsible for the failure of this marriage. But the marriage itself contained the elements of failure. The husband was attracted mainly by the girl's beauty. She perhaps had become giddy with her sudden fame. A union on such circumstances was not firmly founded.

WHERE TO SPOON?

Windsor Star

The plaintive plea of a romantic young man in Grand Rapids, Michigan, calls attention to a problem which has faced youth down through the ages. He asked the parks superintendent to place benches in the park, for the convenience of lovers.

Courtship is a requisite — and pleasant — preliminary to marriage. If there hasn't been a happy, successful courtship there is unlikely to be a successful, happy marriage. It is a time during which couples get to understand one another. Indeed, they may reach a higher degree of understanding during courtship than after.

But courtship cannot be carried on normally except in favorable environment. Presence of other people is a handicap. In the large, old-fashioned homes there usually was a parlor which offered sufficient seclusion. In modern, box-like houses conditions are too crowded.

One of the purposes of parks should be to enable young couples to stroll hand-in-hand in the moonlight. Or to sit, even if somewhat uncomfortably, on a bench whispering sweet nothing to one another.

We needn't worry to much, however. Young couples in love are versatile. Most do contrive means of being alone.

MOUNTAINEERS' EXAMPLE

Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph

Mountain climbing still has its attractions for the more adventurous of our human race. This past week-end brought to light three incidents, all of them more or less tragic, which indicate that even the prospect of death cannot deter these intrepid souls from their chosen sport. In Alaska, a rescue party had to work their way up Mt. McKinley to aid a climber who had broken his hip in a 1,000-foot fall two weeks earlier. In Nepal, Sir Edmund Hillary who had conquered Everest, was reported victim of pneumonia while attempting to scale the icy wastes in Barum valley. And in Oxford, England, a 22-year-old student was found dying beneath the 150-foot dome of the Radcliffe camera library building.

Tragedy always hovers near the mountain climber. Many are the men who perished in earlier attempts to scale Mount Everest, and Sir Edmund's feat was a real achievement. Fortunately, the closeness of death has not turned these man aside from their goal.

We, of lesser breed, might well learn from these mountainers. Their example could well be interpreted into our our experience, giving us courage to go on and conquer in the mountain peaks of life, that are so often discouraging. Failures are many, but it is in persistence that they are overcome. The tenacity of the mountain climber should be a real encouragement.

SIX CENTS EACH

The Christian Science Monitor

A great deal is said about American "give-away" programs for the rest of the world. The United Nations Children's Fund, UNICEF, is something more than a solely American program, though the United States has been much the largest contributor.

Last year the United States gave $9,814,000 to this fund. The food and medical aid given in many countries from Greece to Korea represented one of the greatest investments in good will that Americans could make. Fifty-two other countries raised the fund to $14,245,000, and this in turn was more than matched by $25,061,000 from governments of countries whose people received aid.

The buget now before Congress carries $13,500,000 for this purpose for the next 18 months, or at the rate of $9,000,000 a year, but an amendment is proposed which would hold back about one-fourth of the appropriation. It would impose the condition that the United States contribution shall not be more than 60 per cent of the whole UNICEF budget.

The object of this restriction, of course, is to push other contributing nations to give more to the fund. But will it have this effect, and if so, how soon? How many children will suffer neglect in the meantime?

On a $9,000,000-a-year basis the contribution to UNICEF costs each inhabitant of the United States about six cents a year. We wonder how many Americans really want Congress and the budget makers to hold back one and a half of their six cents.

Two of the aldermen who resigned recently in protest against actions of Mayor William Brault have returned to the Council. Ex-Ald. Armand Crepeau is back by an election acclamation. Last night Ald. Joseph Lebrecque, approached by a large delegation, agreed to withdraw his resignation. Alderman Bourque persists in his resignation and an election will be held to fill his place.

President Millerand of France resigned today. The country also has no premier at the moment, Edouard Herriot, leader of the new Left majority, having refused to accept a commission from the hands of M. Millerand.

LEARNING TO COUNT PAYS DIVIDENDS

When today's hand was played, South counted only his losers. He saw that he could discard both of his diamonds on dummy's hearts, and he assumed that he would have no club losers in view of dummy's shortness.

Without doing any more counting, declarer drew three rounds of trumps and ran four rounds of hearts in order to discard his diamonds.

Declarer then looked at the hand more closely and discovered that he had practically no play to make his contract. He had already taken seven tricks and could surely cash both top clubs and make his two trumps separately, but these would give him only 11 tricks. He couldn't get back and forth conveniently enough to establish an extra club trick.

South tried his best at this stage by leading the king of clubs, ruffing a diamond, cashing the ace of clubs, and then leading the ten of clubs. South hoped that West would duck the ten of clubs, but West was not so foolish.

He covered with the queen, forcing dummy to ruff. This established South's jack of clubs, but there was no way for South to get back to his hand to cash this trick. Dummy was left in the lead with two losing diamonds, and the slam contract was therefore defeated.

South should count his winners at the very beginning of the hand. Since there are four hearts and no diamonds, South must make eight tricks in the black suits. Since there is no way to get two ruffing tricks in the dummy and thus make six trump tricks altogether, South must plan to make three club tricks. (If South tries to ruff twice in the dummy, he will get stuck in the dummy with no way to get out.)

Once South has seen clearly that he needs three club tricks, his proper course is clear. He should draw trumps with the queen and the king, lead a club to the king, get back with the ace of spades, cash the ace of clubs and then lead the jack of clubs. When West plays a low club, South should let this trick ride. The contract therefore depends on dropping a doubleton queen o clubs or on finding it in the Wes hand.

When the jack of clubs holds South can cash the four hearts i order to get rid of his diamond and can easily make 12 tricks. I isn't difficult to solve this prob lem once you have counted your tricks and thus discovered what the problem is.

Efficiency Medal awarded to Cadet Major Frank LaFleche; the Stanstead Frontier Branch, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. shield for best N.C.O. awarded to Cadet C.S.M. Ian Doig; Captain L. G. McGilton cup for best platoon, No. 3 Platoon, to Allen Gillies; Inter-Platoon Rifle Trophy, Platoon No. 1, to Cadet Alex Philips.

Religious education: D. T. B. Moody prize awarded to Freida Vivian; Frances Willard W.C.T.U. essay awards to first, Gordon Edgar; honorable mention, Sandra Moore and G. Carruthers.

Mr. MacPherson made the dramatic thespian awards to Robert Amaron, Eleanor Parker, Elliott Cook, Donald Craig, Eddy Darac, Ian Doig, Peter Farwell, Michael Gerrie, Allan Gillies, Dale Gruer, Russell Hill, Helmut Kuhert, Stewart Levell, Nancy Planche, John Roberts, Colin Wetmore and Owen Wheelock.

The thespian star awards were made to Robert Amaron, Betty Ann Colt, Graham Gatehouse, Kathleen Hill, Frank LaFleche, Graham Lough, Alan MacMillan, Arlene Probyn, Frieda Vivian, Jean Vivian and Owen Wheelock. The second star and best thespian award was made to Nancy Pugh.

Debating: The junior inter-class debating, the Harper Trophy, Grade IX, Peter Farwell and Peter Rowley.

Senior inter-class debating: The John T. Hackett, Q.C., cup, Grade XI, to Robert Amaron and Helmut Kuhert.

Robert Amaron was the valedictorian of the school year, being chosen by his class mates and the teaching staff. In a few words he expressed the feelings of himself and his fellow class students, as he said:

"This day of convocation is the dramatic highlight of our life at Stanstead. In a few weeks will come the climax to the action and towards the end of July there will be the denouement.

"The story of our stay here at Stanstead has been a happy one. It began quietly enough in the fall with a few sports and many new friends. The tempo increased with inter-platoon sports for atexaminations and then died away. The second act began more quickly. Plays and public speaking vied with inter-platooo sports for attention. Then came the operetta and the exams. Hard work was rewarded by good results. The second term was over.

"If the first two terms had passed quickly the final term literally flew. Track and tennis, softball and cross-country, and debates and the magazine and the band and the gym displays and—suddenly it was Baccalaureate Sunday and then the June Prom and now it is convocation and the whole thing is over, forever.

"A page has been turned and, while we will never forget it, we shall never be able to change it either. Our carefree life is over. Now we must accept responsibility. We are fortunate though, that we have had our training here for we go out from Stanstead not only intelligent human beings but also good citizens. We have been trained by teachers who are all wonderful Christian men and women. We owe them much.

"We are going out to take our places in the world. Wherever we go, in whatever profession, whether finance, church, government, or education, we may enter we will find that because we are graduates of Stanstead Collge, more will be expected of us.

"We will be expected to be men and women of the highest character, ready and able to serve. We owe a great deal to our Alma Mater and this is the best way to repay our debt, by living up to the high standards expected of us. That way we will keep the memory of our school ever iresh.

"'We shall never cease to love thee, though afar we chance to roam;
And thy sons and daughters shall ever fight to uphold the truth and right,
And the honour of our dear old college home.'

"Te dico vale. Farewell, Stanstead."

Mr. MacPherson announced there were three more very important prizes to be awarded, "The Best Influence Awards." The "Bunty" Wilder Shield for best influence in the annex where there are twelve young boy students was awarded to Roger Aldworth. The Pitcher Memorial prize for best influence to the girls on the flats was awarded to Eleanor Parker and the boys to Frank LeFleche.

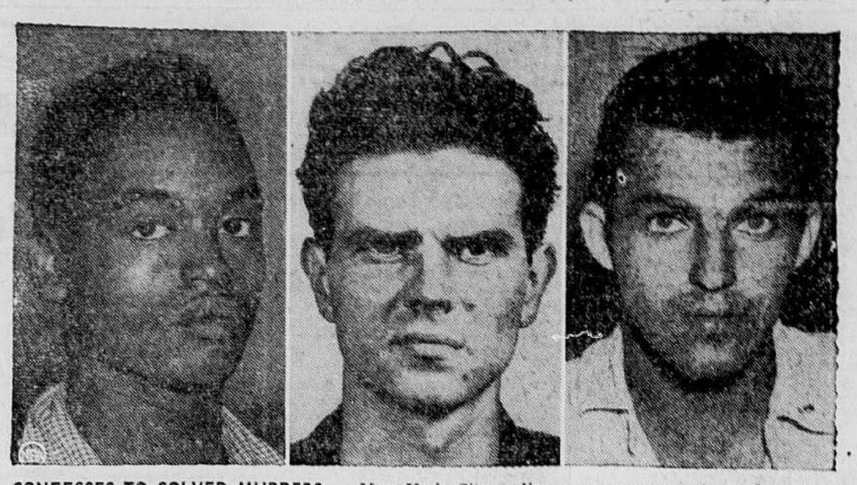

The message of Dr. Amaron, retiring principal was received with feeling by present and by many former students of Stanstead College, where he has been principal for twenty-three years. "My first attendance at a Stanstead College convocation was 39 years ago, since then I have witnessed several of these and although it is a repetition each year, it signifies the struggle in the one school year, represented by the prize giving and the receiving of the various awards by the students," he said. He congratulated the graduates who have had a successful year, as well as the students of the lower grades on the fine progress made through the year.

Dr. Amaron stated this would be his last public appearance in connection with Stanstead College, that he had considered it a privilege to be able to have worked and given guidance and assistance to so many young boys and girls entering other fields of education after Stanstead and taking upon themselves greater responsibilities. Many of Stanstead College graduates are now holding responsible positions all over the world. This College teaches honor, and dependability. In closing, Dr. Amaron offered his successor, Mr. MacPherson, his best wishes for a successful future at Stanstead College.

The report of Mr. MacPherson, acting principal, included the changes in the teaching staff. He referred to the decision of Dr. Amaron to retire because of his health, of Rev. Mr. Frank Stanton who has accepted a call to Wesley United Church in Beebe, and to both of these men who have given so much to Stanstead he wished every success for the future.

He also extended good wishes to Mrs. Elaine Hunter, R.N., who had been with the school several years, taking care of the sick or injured, who is now going to Sherbrooke to reside; to Keith Graham, who is returning to College for a postgraduate course in math; Mr. Jones, who is leaving to teach at Noranda; Miss Y. Stevenson, grade 5 teacher at Sunnyside, who is returning to her native province of Nova Scotia where she will teach; Raymond Jensen who will teach at Lower Canada College; Miss Shelia Furguson, who will be Ph. Ed. director at Noranda High school, and Miss Jean Davis, who will also return to her native Maritime province and teach music. To each of these Mr. MacPherson extended the best for a happy future and an invitation to each and all to return to Stanstead College whenever the opportunity prevailed.

The ceremony terminated by the singing of the National Anthems and with postlude organ music played by Mrs. A. P. Gordon, who also rendered predule music.

Meeting Held By Holy Name Group At Derby Line

Rock Island, June 11 — A corporate communion at the 8.00 o'clock holy mass was celebrated at St. Edward's church in Derby Line on Sunday morning, June 6, when approximately 110 members of the Holy Name Society of St. Edward's parish and the Mission of St. Benedicts of West Charleston attended. This was followed by a communion breakfast served at the Derby Town hall by the Ladies of the Altar Society of the St. Edward's, under the direction of Mrs. Francis Roderer and Mrs. Gabrielle Paine.

A business meeting followed the breakfast, during which a report was received from Gordon "Doc" Stewart, chairman of the Youth Committee and coach of the newly organized Midget baseball team. This team will be a member of the Newport League and is open to all boys in the community who are between the ages of eight and twelve years.

Roland Roy, chairman of the Bazaar, to be held August 5, 6, and 7, reported plans progressing favorably. The affair, which promises to be gala in every respect, will take place at Baxter Park in Derby Line. James Murphy and George Metzger have been appointed as chief assistants to Mr. Roy for the bazaar arrangements.

It was announced that there will not be any meetings held during the summer months, the next one to be held in September, at which time nominations for officers for the ensuing year will be received, with elections to take place at the October meeting.

William Burke, president of the society, then introduced the guest speaker, James A. Emery, of East Charleston, who is a retired lawyer, a former Council of the National Association of Manufacturers of the United States and who has also been active in Government affairs.

Mr. Emery gave an excellent talk on "The Faith on Which the United States is Built," referring to the pioneer days and on the founding of the country on a religious foundation. This inspiring address, which left the listeners with food for thought, was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Smith told officers that her kidnapper had said he was dying of cancer and "pulled the job so I can have one last fling."

The kidnapping was replete with bizarre elements. The ransom note was placed in the side pocket of Smith's golf bag, which was left at a desert service station. A note of instructions on payment of the ransom was delivered to Smith's home in a bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Smith, sunburned and frightened but otherwise in good condition, gave officers this statement upon reaching her home:

When she came out of the beauty parlor at 1 p.m. Wednesday a strange man with a gun was hiding in her car. She said she screamed, honked the horn and struggled but didn't attract any attention.

The man drove to the Salt river and put her in the car trunk. She was let out when they reached the mountains.

Following orders in the notes, Smith said that after walking about four miles in the hills he heard his wife scream. As he dropped the valise containing the money and started toward his wife, a masked man jumped up and sent a rifle shot whistling over his head.

A little later the masked man permitted Smith to join his wife.

the CBC is one that has given people greater confidence in our democratic and free way of life," he said.

Mr. Blackmore replied that he does not question their loyalty. "I did not call in question whether or not they were Communists."

"The usual McCarthy technique," Mr. Ellis interjected, an apparent reference to investigation methods of the U.S. Senate subcommittee headed by Senator Joseph McCarthy.

Lower Vegetable Prices Apparent At Local Market

Trading was fairly steady at the Lansdowne Market this morning. Very few price changes were noted. While the wholesale price of pork has dropped by one and a half cents a pound it has not as yet affected the retail price to any considerable extent.

Calf liver has dropped from $1.25 a pound to $1.00 a pound and chickens have dropped by 10 cents a pound.

Few slight changes were seen in the vegetable section. Radishes are selling at six bunches for a quarter—a considerable drop since last week—and local lettuce is on the downgrade.

STIFF SENTENCE

Traffic officer Bergeron of the Provincial Police was called to take the man to Sherbrooke. He was accompanied by Constable Angus MacDonald also of the Provincial Police.

In his defence testimony, Bisson said he did not remember being in the cells of the Richmond Police station because he was very tired. He thought he had slept in a chair in the office of the Chief of Police of Richmond. He was charged with driving while his faculties were impaired by the absorption of alcohol, and it was his second offense, thus the stiff sentence.

GREENSHIELDS STOCK MARKET

Stocks moved generally higher as volume declined yesterday. International Power was up 9 points at 93, Ford up 3-½ points at 91, CIL up 3-¼ points at 50-¼, Powell River up 1-¾ at 33-¾, Walker up 1-½ at 58-½ Aluminium up 1-⅜ at 57, Noranda up 1-¼ at 69-¾, LAC up 1-¼ at 42-¼, Steel of Canada up ⅞ at 34-¼ and Great Lakes Paper up ⅞ at 25-⅜. Bathurst A was down 1-¼ at 46-¾.

Sales of Canadian Cars and trucks was down 16 per cent at 47,204 units for April 1954 from April 1953. For the first four months of 1954 sales of 145,248 units showed a decline of 17 per cent from the first four months of 1953.

Unemployment insurance paid by the Canadian Government in April 1954 was 21 per cent below the March total at 25 million dollars but 56 per cent higher than April 1953.

Trade Minister Howe said that the U.S. has not asked Canada for voluntary restrictions on exports of lead and zinc.

Plans for refunding the present 7 1/2 per cent preferred stock of Abitibi have been approved by common stockholders. These plans call for issuance of 550,000 shares of $25 par cumulative preferred shares with an approximate 4 1/2 per cent cupon for a total of $13-750,000. A further $10 million will be raised through 1st mortgage bonds.

Wabasso Cotton Co. Ltd. reported earnings per share of 65 cts. for the year ended May 1st, 1954. This compares with $1.03 for the previous fiscal year. The decrease in earnings is attributed to the difficulty the textile industry as a whole is experiencing.

President To Fight Subversion

Washington — (AP) — President Eisenhower pledged Thursday night to stay "everlastingly" at the job of uprooting subversion, and appealed for political unity on his legislative program — including his embattled flexible plan for farm price supports.

In a television and radio address, the President turned to the language of the atomic world and urged:

"Let us have less political fission and more political fusion."

And he called for speedy approval by Congress of a program he described as a "potent package of protection against communism."

With him as he made the speech in a downtown hotel was an approval-whooping audience of close to 1,000 boosters. When he concluded, the President's wartime mess sergeant, Marty Snyder, jumped to his feet and bellowed:

"Who are we going to elect in 1956?"

"Eisenhower!" the crowd roared back. The President grinned.

The President's speech was his first full-scale plug for his legislative program since he announced June 3 that from then on he was going to use every possible opportunity to call for a speed-up of congressional action on it. With less than two months to the July 31 target date congressional leaders have set for adjournment, most of the program still is far from law.

GLEN LLOYD—

Mrs. Edgar Walker has been called to Sherbrooke by the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard Walker.

Welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell who have moved from Nelson and will be making their home here with Mr. and Mrs. Alger White.

Mrs. Roland White received word from Montreal that her brother, George Robinson, had another operation, this being the third since July 1953.

Mrs. Harry Campbell and son, Keith and Mrs. A. White spent Monday in Thetford Mines.

United Nations, N.Y.—(AP)—Pope Pius has given the United Nations children's fund $1,000 and a commendation on its work, the fund said Thursday.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all my friends and neighbours for the many kindnesses shown me during my two stays in the Canadian Johns Manville Hospital, in Asbestos, I would like to thank those who sent cards and gifts to the baby and those who sent me get-well cards and flowers; also the Cleveland Women's Institute for the box of fruits and the New London Women's Association for the Sunshine basket, and those who visited me at the hospital and at home. I would especially like to thank Dr. Robertson, the nurses of the hospital and Mrs. Gordon Healy who cared for our baby. Your kindness will always be remembered.

MRS. RALPH FOWLER,
Richmond, Que.

I would like to thank everyone who was so good to me while I was in the Sherbrooke Hospital. Especially the nurses and staff on the third floor, Dr. Ellis and those who sent me cards and toys: I will always remember them.

STEPHEN SLACK.

Horse-shoes by TIFFANY'S

AROUND THE END of the last century, when aluminum was practically a precious metal, a famous racing stable had one of its thoroughbreds shod with racing plates of the weight-saving material. They were made at Tiffany's, the famous New York jewellery house.

Nowadays it is standard practice for race horses to run on aluminum shoes. Since the turn of the century the price of aluminum has been reduced to the point where it is now one of the most economical of all materials, extensively used for things like barns and boats and bus bodies. LEGAL NOTICE

CANADA, Province of Quebec, District of St. Francis, Superior Court. No: 10290.

NOTICE OF SALE—On the 29th of June, 1954, at 10:00 a.m., in the presence of M. Albert Desilets, Q.C., protonotary of the Superior Court for the district of St. Francis, at the Court House in Sherbrooke, it will be proceeded at the sale by public auction, of the estate as under described:

"That certain tract or parcel of land known and designated as being the lot fifty-one (51) on the subdivision plan of lot one-thousand-five-hundred-and-thirty-seven (1537-51) upon the Official Cadastral Plan and in the book of Reference for the south ward of the City of Sherbrooke, with buildings thereon erected."

Subject to the charges, causes and conditions stipulated in the List of charges deposited at the Protonotary's Office.

The said sale will be made at the request of Lucien Drapeau, assistant-foreman of Sherbrooke, district of St. Francis, in his quality as curator at the person and for the properties of Juseph Hubert Leith, and in virtue of a judgment of the Honorable Judge William Mitchell, judge of the Superior Court, dated June 3rd 1954, permitting the said sale for the highest price obtainable, but for not less than $7,000.00.

Sherbrooke, June 10th, 1954.
LEBLANC, DELORME, BARNARD AND LEBLANC, (Attorney).

Ayer's Cliff Beulah Evening Association Sponsor Mother And Daughter Banquet

Ayer's Cliff, June 9. — The church hall was very attractive on Wednesday evening, when the Beulah Evening Association gave support to the C.G.I.T. members and their mothers.

Tables were covered with white linen table cloths and arranged with lilacs and tulips. Covers were laid for thirty girls, their mothers and guests. Each girl's mother received a carnation place card, the flower to be pinned on and worn home by the mothers.

Seated at the head table were the two presidents, Miss Dyanne Keeler, and her mother, Mrs. Alfred Keeler, and Miss Ruth Walker, and mother, Mrs. J. E. Walker; Mrs. Leland Mosher, as leader, and her daughter, Miss Sandra Mosher; Leader Mrs. Douglas Hodge and mother, Mrs. John Beamish; Mrs. Nelson Pierce, leader, and mother, Mrs. M. Gibson.

The guests were Mrs. J. E. Macvicar, president of W.M.S., Mrs. W. H. Rexford, Youth secretary in the W.A., and Mrs. H. Boomhour, vice-president for younger groups.

Grace was sung, after which a salad supper was served by Mrs. S. True, Mrs. L. R. Thompson, Miss Lena Gustin and Miss Pearl Dorman. Miss Dyanne Keeler proposed the toast to Her Majesty, the Queen, which was followed by a toast to the mothers, proposed by Rita Clough and responded to by Mrs. G. H. Clough.

Miss Ruth Walker expressed the thanks of all present to the Beulah Evening Association for the supper, especially thanking the ladies who planned and served it. This is the first such supper ever put on for the C.G.I.T., and they want everyone to know it was a truly appreciated and most thoughtful gesture.

A sing song followed, the girls giving a few motion songs for the guests.

A highlight of the event was the presentation of potted petunias by the Intermediate group to each of their leaders, Mrs. D. Hodge and Mrs. A. Keeler, in appreciation of their work.

BEULAH EVENING ASS'N

The regular meeting of Beulah Evening Association was held in the vestry, with the president, Mrs. G. H. Clough, in the chair.

Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Gordon Shipway, the subject being Christianity and home life, with appropriate scripture, hymns and meditation.

The secretary gave her report, and the treasurer reported a satisfactory sum realized from meals served at the Presbytery. A card of thanks was read from the family of the late Mrs. Grace Crook.

It was decided to give a donation of $10 to the Kiwanis Club hut at the Crippled Children's camp instead of blankets.

Miss Pearl Dorman was appointed delegate to the Presbytery W. A. to be held in Sherbrooke.

Plans were made for having the vestry and kitchen cleaned and completing work on the vestry floor.

The summer sale date was set for Friday evening, July 23. Annual lawn social, sale, and band concert.

The kitchen committee was authorized to purchase two dozen cups and saucers to replace some of the set which has been broken. A donation of money to help pay postage on parcels for Overseas Relief work was voted.

A basket lunch was served by Mrs. Shipway and Mrs. Douglas Hodge.

BRIDE FETED

Mrs. Daignault, the former June Frappied, a recent bride, was feted when Mrs. L. A. Despres, Mrs. E. H. Chadsey and Mrs. J. Arnold McVeay entertained at a charmingly arranged shower in her honor at the Despres home, which was most attractive with a profusion of spring flowers attractively arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. N. C. Whitcomb made the presentation with an appropriate poem, wishing Mrs. Daignault many years of happiness. She received a beautiful wool blanket and a lazy Susan.

The guest of honor expressed her sincere thanks in well-chosen words. Bingo was enjoyed during the evening.

The dining-room table was centered with a beautiful floral piece and refreshments were served by the hostesses. Everyone voiced their appreciation for the evening spent with the guest of honor and expressed their personal good wishes.

General Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacPherson and Mrs. Blanche Clapp, of Manchester, N.H., were Sunday guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Waite, and Mrs. Doris Goode. Callers at the same homes were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith and family, of Graniteville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gleason, of Worcester, Mass., were guests for a week-end of Mrs. Gleason's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Brown, "The Oaks."

Mr. Oliva Bergeron, of Magog, has purchased the Christiansen farm from Mr. Robert Couture, which is on Government Highway just outside Ayer's Cliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Somerville, their daughter, Susan, and his mother, Mrs. W. Somerville, of Richmond, were guests on Sunday of Miss Flora Paul. Mrs. Lillian McFaul accompanied them here and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Johnston have returned from Ottawa, where they attended the meetings of the Montreal-Ottawa conference of the United Church of Canada. En route they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Taylor in St. Lambert and Miss Marion Mathews in Outremont. Mr. Johnston's friends will be interested in knowing that he was elected by the conference as commissioner to the General Council, which will meet in Sackville in November.

BETA SIGMA PHI

The annual meeting of Beta Sigma Phi took place at "Rockcliffe" on Monday, June 7, when the Lambda Chapter of Granby were guests of the Epsilon and Exemplar Xi Chapters.

Mrs. G. A. Rheaume, retiring president, was in the chair and started proceedings with the Opening Ritual, recited in unison, after which she welcomed the Granby Chapter.

The treasurer's report was read, after which the yearly reports of the executive and committees were given. Mrs. Rheaume thanked the members for their excellent reports presented.

Mrs. Kenneth Herring announced that Mrs. Guy Blanchette was the winner of the prize donated by Mrs. George Carr, social sponsor, for the best assignment of the year. Mrs. Blanchette was presented with a silver dish.

On behalf of the chapter, Mrs. R. MacMillan, vice-president, presented Mrs. Rheaume with the Sorority rose-pin in recognition of her splendid assignments.

Mrs. S. Williams was then presented with a lovely cup and saucer by Mrs. Rheaume, as a souvenir from her fellow sisters before taking up residence in Montreal.

The candlelight "Ritual of Jewels" ceremony, conducted by Miss Evelyn Eastman, president of the Exempler Chapter, followed when the nine new pledgees, of Granby, were accepted into full membership in the Sorority. The new members are Mrs. Stella Bata, Mrs. Janet Tanming, Mrs. Edythe King, Mrs. Mary-Anne Maimaick, Mrs. Myrtle Mitchell, Mrs. Lillian Pollard, Mrs. Margaret Rankin, Mrs. Sara Salkeld, and Mrs. Frances Tapp.

The Exemplar Chapter presided over by Miss Eastman accepted into its membership, by candlelight ritual, Mrs. R. G. MacMillan.

The ceremonies concluded, refreshments were served in the dining-room and to commemorate the sorority's anniversary, a birthday cake centered the attractively arranged table.

King George V Chapter Holds Important Meeting

At the season's closing meeting of the King George V Chapter I.O.D.E., held at headquarters, on Monday, congratulations were extended to Mrs. E. B. Sims on the occasion of her election as national councillor at the convention held in Saint John, N.B., recently, and to Mrs. C. F. Wallbridge, who was presented with a Life Membership in her chapter and as a result, an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sam MacLean, regent, was in the chair, and all unfinished business was completed.

Mrs. William Cochrane gave a splendid report of the supper bridge held in May, and all officers and members agreed it was a very worthwhile event.

Mrs. R. Havard, convener of empire and study, gave a fine address on the Royal Tour.

Mrs. Sims, Municipal regent, gave a short, though interesting report on the annual national convention, at Saint John, N.B., and particularly mentioned the impressive church service. She thanked the chapter for sending her as delegate to the meeting.

Plans were discussed for the annual apron, fancy work, food sale, bridge and tea, to be held on September 29.

The invitation to hold the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Wallbridge, Ayer's Cliff, was accepted.

The meeting closed with God Save the Queen, following which refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Povey, assisted by Mrs. Murray Smith and Mrs. William Hopkins.

Mansonville Intermediate School Holds Closing Exercises; Trophies Presented

Mansonville, June 11 — On Friday afternoon, June 4, the public was invited to attend the closing exercises of the student body of the Mansonville Intermediate School. The lower hall was appropriately decorated with the school colors and flowers.

The members of the Students' Council and the student body entered the hall while Mrs. Guy George played "Rule Britannia." After singing the National Anthem Lee Tinker welcomed the visitors to the school.

The following trophies were presented by Murray Bedard: The ping pong trophy to Roberta Bailey for the House of Blue and the crokinole trophy to Homer Cote and Sydney Allen for the House of Gold. The House shield went to the girls and was accepted by Lorna Belle Aiken. Very beautiful school crests were presented to each member of the Students' Council and to four other boys who have done outstanding work voluntarily during the year. These were Fred Harvison, Arthur Aiken, Bud Boyce and Jack Chappell.

Pictures of the Queen were presented to representatives of each class room. These were obtained through kindness of the I.O.D.E. of Knowlton and the student body of M.I.S.

The Glee Club and School Choir sang two selections," Billy Boy" and "Carry On."

The main event of the afternoon was the unveiling of the new school crest which was made by Mr. Doyle, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here. The crest [illegible] on a very beautiful square of dark wood and suspended from it is the school motto, "Work Conquers All." As this was the motto suggested by Roberta Bailey and was voted as the most popular of several others which were suggested, Miss Bailey was given the honor of unveiling the crest, which she did in a very able manner.

The president of the Students' Council, Dorothy Dix, then gave a brief but suitable address. The program ended with the singing of "O Canada."

Mr. J. G. McGibbon, principal, is to be congratulated on arranging a very successful and inspiring afternoon.

Several of the guests, including Mr. Doyle, were served afternoon tea by some of the staff and students.

GIRL GUIDES and BROWNIES

The Mansonville First Company of Girl Guides and the Mansonville First Pack of Brownies were visited by Mrs. Mitchell, the district commissioner, and Mrs. Hobbs, district camp advisor, of Granby.

The Guides, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Heath, demonstrated knots and first aid. Roberta Bailey received her second class badge. The Brownies played St. George Slays the Dragon, which was a demonstration of work from Recruit to Golden hand tests. The princess, Gwen Johnson, was freed by Judy Harvison, as St. George, from the dragon.

Following these demonstrations the girls prepared a lunch for the guests, mothers and interested friends who had been invited to attend.

Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Hobbs then talked to the members of the local association concerning the duties of the various offices and new officers were chosen for some of the vacancies.

W. A. RUMMAGE SALE

The rummage sale under the auspices of St. Paul's Women's Auxiliary was a very successful event, net proceeds amounting to $105.26.

Conveners of the different booths were Mrs. D. G. Eldridge, clothing; Mrs. L. B. Eldridge, miscellaneous articles and white elephants; Mrs. Harry George, food; Mrs. Fuller, hats and shoes; Mrs. Harvison, miscellaneous clothing; tea tables, Mrs. Boyce.

Other workers included, Mrs. Magoon, Miss Dix, Mrs. Cedric Bailey, Mrs. K. Bailey, Miss Atwell, Mrs. John Barnett and Mrs. Garth Eldridge.

DOUBLE SAFEGUARDING!

When walking on the highway keep to the left side of the road facing oncoming cars. This enables you to see them in time to adjust yourself and you do not run the constant risk of being struck from behind.

If two cars are about to pass each other it is wise to step off the pavement, especially if it is at a narrow spot. Thus while eliminating the risk of an accident between motorists you'll be safeguarding yourself.

At night carry a white handkerchief in your hand or tied to your arm. Better still, carry a flashlight. You'll never take too much precaution, especially at night, to assure your safety. And remember, a pedestrian rarely escapes serious injury when struck by an auto.

Melboro W. I. To Hold Glove And Slipper Course

Melboro, June 11 — The Women's Institute held its June meeting in the United Church Hall on June 1, when nineteen members and three visitors were present. One new member, Mrs. Robert Brown was welcomed into the Society.

The Date for the school fair has been changed to August 19, instead of 25.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. E. Gilchrist for her May 20 radio broadcast on "Textiles."

The treasurer's report showed that the May 7 dance netted $20.30, card party on May 29, $31, drawing on rug $16.55 and drawing on doily $4.50. A letter was read from the Women's Voluntary Service, requesting knitted squares for blankets for Greek earthquake victims.

Several ladies volunteered to clean the W. I. hall before the glove and slipper-making course, which will be held June 28-July 2. The demonstrator, Miss N. Hazel, will be a guest of Mrs. G. Crack during her stay here.

A letter of thanks is to be sent the Desmond Co. for their donation of doll's bankets.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. R. Brown for the W. I. Hall crest.

A sunshine box is to be sent a member who is ill. A member of the Community who has returned from hospital is to be remembered. Mrs. Batchelor voiced thanks for the sunshine box sent Mr. Batchelor.

The president, Mrs. Frank, thanked ladies who helped at the card party, also all those who made rolls for the country meeting dinner.

Mrs. R. Kerr gave a splendid detailed report of the annual county meeting held in Richmond on May 20.

Mrs. G. Crack reported on the leadership training short course held at Macdonald College the last week in may. She took up basket weaving and will give a demonstration later on.

The ladies were reminded that the next county meeting would be held July 9. The members are to bring a parcel for a sale table to the next meeting.

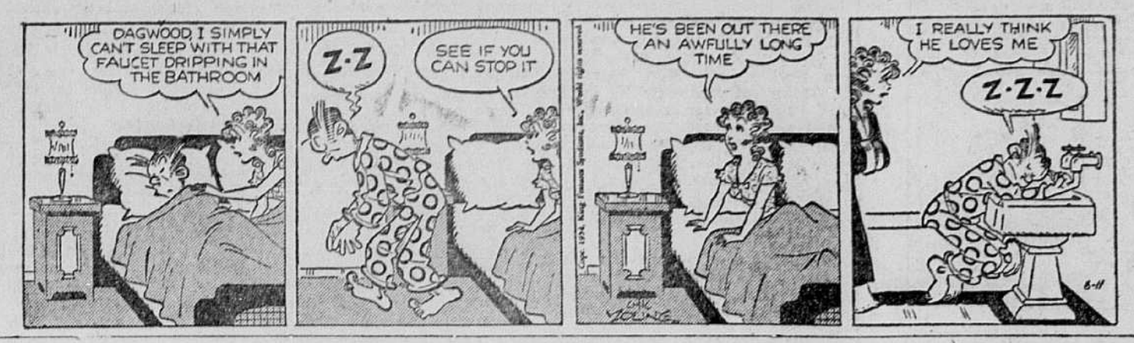

The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Mrs. Otis Fowler presided at the piano.

A food sale was held, with Mrs. W. Adamson, auctioneer, the sum of $3 being raised. The birthday parcels netted $1.26.

Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. O. Fowler, Mrs. G. Johnston and Mrs. N. Fowler.

GENERAL NOTES

Friends are sorry to learn Mrs. Merrill Taber is ill and best wishes are extended for an early recovery.

Many Present For Prize-Giving At Sunnyside School

Rock Island June 11 — Sunnyside school prize giving, took place in the auditorium on Monday afternoon, June 7, attended by a large number of parents and friends.

The fine program was opened by Rev. Dr. Amaron, principal of Stanstead College, who offered prayer. The singing "O Canada" followed.

The Students of Grade I presented a Rhythm Band number, "Gay Is the Rose" and "O Dear, What can the Matter be?" under the direction of Sandra Brand. Grade II sang the song "The fly and the Bumble Bee," with Grade III singing "Heigh-ho," from "Snow White." Grade IV sang "The Four Winds" and "Whistle While You Work" from "Snow White." Grade V rendered a French song, "Mon pere a fait batir une maison."

Two piano selections were rendered, the first "Guitar Serenade" by Gaynor, with Frederick Sheffer and Michael Saykaly at the pianos. "Irish Reel," by Martin, was rendered by Miss Lois Hill and Miss Thelma Hyatt. The third number was "Sonata in G." first movement, by Mozart, played by Miss Linda Gerrard accompanied by Miss Elsie McFadzen.

Mrs. Hugh McClary, principal of Sunnyside school gave a brief report of the activities of the school during the past year. Mrs. McClary welcomed those attending the afternoon's presentation. Continuing she stated there were 256 students enrolled in the school this year, with thirty three honor students and including Grades IV to VII.

The project during the year were dramatics and sports, with the presentation of the Operetta "Aladdin" being the major project in dramatics. The proceeds from this were more than satisfactory and the money will be used for the good of the school. Students had participated in the program of the annually held International Night last November and presented a fine gymnastic demonstration on Friday afternoon, June 4, also one previously at a Home and School Association meeting.

Mrs. McClary made mention of the school cafeteria, sponsored by the Border Home and School Association, when 14,645 meals were served from September to June 4.

She also mentioned the loss of four on the teaching staff next year. Mrs. Elaine Hunter, R.N., Miss Jean Davis, music teacher, Miss Y. Stevenson, Grade 5 teacher, and Miss Shelia Furguson, Ph. Ed. instructress.

In closing Mrs. McClary thanked Dr. Amaron for his help during the past year, also Lloyd MacPherson, the School Board, Stanstead Chapter of the I.O.D.E., the Boundary Rotary Club, the North Stanstead Women's Institute and all others who have helped to make the second year of Sunnyside School very successful.

Mrs. McClary and Mr. MacPherson then gave out the prizes for the 1952-53 year as follows:

Grade I — general proficiency, Janie Whitehouse; printing, Mary Osborne; arithmetic, Bruce Leckie-Ewing; co-operation, Sandra Hartley; general improvement, David Cunnington; greatest effort, Betty Smith; interest in work, Shirley Wallace.

Grade II — General proficiency, Brian Denney; reading, Linda Ellis; printing, Douglas Mitchell; general improvement, Verdena Ellis; spelling, Elaine Soutiere; arithmetic, Beverly Dustin and Joan Chamberlain.

Grade III — General proficiency, Melinda Leckie-Ewing; arithmetic, Robert Channell; spelling, Gloria Goodsell; Reading, Carol Young; writing, Larry Clowery; Citizenship, Nancy Miller and Terry Soutiere.

Grade IV — General proficiency, Geoffrey Denney; spelling, Bernard Hallot; French, Bernard Hallot; writing, Cheryl Webb; co-operation and industry, Edith Davis.

Grade V — General proficiency, Frederick Sheffer; second rank, Billy Brock; progress, Sheila joyce; Citizenship, Judy Gordon; arithmetic, Billy Brock.

Grade VI — General proficiency, Judy Wells; second rank, Linda Gerrard; citizenship and leadership, Joe Setlakwe; greatest improvement, Larry Dale Keeley; arithmetic, Catherine Malony.

Grade VII — General proficiency, Sandra Moore; progress in arithmetic, Frank Johnson; improvement in French, James Savage; general improvement, Lorna Lloyd; second rank, Phyllis Curtis.

Mr. Boswell, Ph. Ed. instructor, presented the Sam Abbott Shield for highest aggregate in Junior School Boy's Athletics to Joe Setlakwe. Dr. Amaron presented the Amaron French prize for 1953-54 to Larry Wilson, with Mrs. Amaron presenting the Alice Amaron trophy to Carolyn Goodsell for Best Girl Track Athlete, saying she was happy to present Carolyn with the cup, the first student of Sunnyside to be the winner.

Kenneth Baldwin, chairman of the Stanstead Plain-Rock Island school Board, offered a few brief remarks in which he complimented Mrs. McClary and her staff on the progress made in the school this year over last year. He then presented two scholarship awards from the school board to Linda Gerrard for first rank in Grade VII in 1953-54 and to Ethel Mae Lloyd for improvement in Grade VII for the same year.

The program concluded with singing the Canadian and the American anthems.

The auditorium was beautifully decorated with a white picket fence in miniature, entwined with white and lavender lilacs and with the school colors of red and white garlands.

Indians Pound St Johns 12-0, 7-4; Braves Here Tomorrow

Six Homers Smashed Out In Hitting Display; Kolod Earns Shutout While Locke Turns In Fine Relief Job

Unleashing a barrage of home runs, coupled with fine hurling, the Sherbrooke Indians shutout the St. Johns Canadiens 12-0 in the abbreviated nightcap while in the second tilt they posted a 7-4 decision to make a clean sweep of the twin-bill before 1,050 fans.

The Indians have a rest tonight before they tackle the pace setting Braves of Quebec in a week-end series. The first tilt is slated for tomorrow evening at 7.15 while Sunday afternoon they meet in a doubleheader, commencing at 1.30.

The double win allowed the Indians to gain half a game on the Braves who dropped a 5-3 verdict to Three Rivers while Thetford pulled a surprise to break Drummondville's winning streak when they posted a 9-5 win over the A's. This evening two games are on tap. St. Johns is at Drummondville while Quebec tangles with the Phillies once again.

In the opening inning the Indians pounded starting hurler Leach for a total of five hits and registered six runs before Manager Detore lifted him. Bob Stephens commenced with a double. Fishback walked while Bill Williams was tossed out at first. Williamson doubled and then Vaughan and Bartunek belted one apiece out of the park on consecutive pitches. Bob Pratt was called out but Mayhew smashed the third homer of the inning and that was the end of Leach. Pompykala had Kolod lift one to short to end the rally.

Stehpens came up in the second frame and drove the first pitch to deep right field fence to end up on third base. Fishback went out at first but then Bill Williams, the Indians' fast stepping centre fielder, smashed another pitch out of the park to count two runs.

In the fifth Williamson opened with a bingle while Vaughan and Bartunek walked. Pratt was called out but Mayhew lifted a sacrifice fly and Williamson came racing home. On the other side of the score sheet Gary Kolod was coasting along in fine shape. He allowed a single in the first and second frames with the other hit in the seventh. He gave up seven free passes but he accounted for eight at the plate to ease matters.

Vaughan Hits Second Homer

In the sixth inning Stephens was tossed out at first. Fishback drew a walk and Bill Williams shoved him around to third when he belted a hard drive into centre field. This set the scene for a homer and Tommy "Stumpy" Vaughan delivered the goods, his second of the game to count three runs.

Jim Fishback, Bob Pratt along with Gary Kolod were the only Sherbrooke players who failed to pick up a hit for themselves. The game was little closer as the Canadiens perked up.

The Indians struck first, in the third, and registered three runs. Bob Petrillo, the new shortstop who took over from Bob Mayhew in the second tilt, and Tom Farrell drew walks to start matters rolling. Stephens singled and Fishback hit a fielder's choice. Williams went out at first but Farrell came home. Dick Brown singled and two more runs came home to give the Indians a 3-0 lead.

Farrell allowed Solombo, the Canadiens left fielder, a bingle in the third but from then until the seventh he put together a bunch of zeros after the name on the score board. The locals extended their lead in the fifth with two runs.

Bill Williams Gets Second Homer

Stephens went out at first to commence things in the lower half of the fifth. Fishback, who couldn't seem able to buy a hit, was called out at the plate. Bill Williams notched his second round-tripper of the evening, over right field fence, to give the locals a 4-0 advantage.

In the seventh Icenhour singled while Smallwood hit a fielder's choice and Vaughan tossed wide at second on the play. Patchell and Reider drew walks as Farrell's control left him momentarily. A wild pitch and Icenhour counted. Stair singled and that was the end of Tom Farrell. Bobby Locke took over and although he gave up a double he finally got the fire out but the score was tied 4-4.

The Indians bounced right back and on a two-bagger by Williamson and singles by Williams and Bartunek registered three runs to move to the fore once again. They were aided by two walks and a wild pitch. Blackburn took over to finish the game while Locke finished up without allowing a safety to earn the decision.

White Sox, Yankees Open Crucial Series Tonight For First Place; Giants And Dodgers Share Top Spot

If you feel the urge to make a wager on tonight's big clash between Chiago White Sox and New York Yankees, you might consider backing the Yanks to win by one run while using at least two pitchers.

The two teams have met four times so far. New York has won three of the four, always with two or more pitchers. And every one of the games has been decided by a single run.

The white-hot White Sox come into Yankeee Stadium for a four-game series leading the American League by a game and a half. They've won 16 of their last 19, seven of them in a row. But a lot of visiting winning streaks have become mere memories in the vast reaches of the Bronx stadium.

The White Sox have visited New York once before this spring. They had won seven out of eight and were leading the league when they arrived April 27. And they proceeded to beat the Yanks 4-3 on Minnie Minoso's two-run homer.

But after a rain-out, the Sox lost the second game as the Yanks twice came from behind and won 5-4.

Yanks Trim Tigers

The White Sox had a day of rest Thursday as rain washed out their scheduled game at Philadelphia. The Yanks took batting practice against Detroit, beating the Tigers 9-5 on home runs by Yogi Berra, Bobby Brown and Mickey Mantle.

Cleveland fell a game and a half behind Chicago by losing to Washington 8-4, Baltimore took a pair from Boston 5-1 and 9-0.

New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers continue to share first place in the National League. The Giants edged Milwaukee 1-0 on Bill Taylor's 10th-inning pinch homer. The Dodgers beat St. Louis 7-4, Philadelphia Phils defeated Chicago Cubs 6-0 and Fred Baczewski pitched Cincinnati to a 6-0 victory over Pittsburgh.

Ruben Gomez, who says he will be much happier when really hot weather finally arrives, pitched his third shutout as Giant pitchers stretched Milwaukee's string of scoreless innings to 25.

The Giants never threatened until Taylor's home run. They had only four hits off Gene Conley and hadn't moved a man past second.

A brilliant throw by Willie Mays caught Henry Aaron trying to score for the Braves after a fly ball in the seventh.

Raschi Loses Second

The Dodgers broke a two-game slump with a 13-hit attack on Vic Raschi and Stu Miller. The loss was Raschi's second straight after winning his first five in the National League.

Steve Ridzik and Jim Konstanty combined for the Philadelphia shutout over the Cubs. Ridzik left the bases loaded in the fifth and Konstanty finished up for his second victory.

The Pirates got to Baczewski for 11 hits but they all were singles. The Cincinnati attack included Gus Bell's third homer in two days and Jim Greengrass' second.

Washington jumped on Bob Lemon of Cleveland for five runs in the third inning, three of them coming after George Strickland threw wild on a potential double-play ball. Dean Stone, a rookie, won his fourth straight for the Senators.

Boston's hopes of climbing out of second division received a double setback from Joe Coleman and Duane Pillette of the Orioles. Coleman spaced seven hits in winning his seventh game in the opener. Pillette allowed only five in the nightcap shutout.

Accidental Death Of Bobby Dufour

Montreal—(CP)—A coroner's jury Thursday returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning in the case of Bobby Dufour, 24, well-known Montreal boxer, whose body was recovered from the St. Lawrence river Tuesday.

Dufour, a 1951 golden gloves champion, had been residing in Chicoutimi, Que., for some time. The body was found near Varennes, 13 miles downstream from here.

Qualify For Stewart Trophy, Ben Hogan And Pres. Vs. Vice-Pres. Match At Lennoxville On Saturday

It will be a busy week-end for members of the Lennoxville Golf Club.

On Saturday, June 12, three events will be staged con-currently at the Lennoxville Club.

Saturday, being National Golf Day, the members will try to beat Ben Hogan, (the man to beat) and some 100 Lennoxville Golfers will be among the many thousands of Canadians and Americans who will try for the medal.

The president vs. vice-president match will be held, weather permitting, as will the qualifying round for the J.P.L. Stewart Trophy. This trophy is for class "A", "B", and "C" golfers.

President Spence Howcroft and his team will battle with vice-president Bert Worster and his aggregation.

Sixteen golfers will qualify for the J.P.L. Stewart Trophy. The sixteen low net entries will start to eliminate one and another by match play commencing the following week as soon as the draw has been made.

The three events will be played con-currently and some good scores are expected.

This week-end the annual open is being held at Victoriaville and on Saturday the class "B" and "C" golfers will take part while on Sunday the professionals and the class "A" golfers will compete for the prizes.

Lennoxville will not be represented on Saturday but on Sunday professional Jimmy Fowlis and class "A" amateurs Garth Smith, Gordon Harmer, Doug Davies, Fat Murphy and several others will represent the club.

The Stewart Trophy, in memory of the late J. P. L. Stewart, a prominent resident of Lennoxville and one of the ardent supporters of golf in the Eastern Townships, gives all the golfers a chance. This is worked under the handicap system and a class "C" player stands just as good a chance of winning as a class "A" golfer. As a matter of fact the majority of those qualifying are expected to be class "B" and "C" golfers.

Lennoxville club swingers will be kept busy this week-end, providing the weather man co-operates.

Maritime Boxer Injured In Car

Sydney—(CP)—Welterweight boxer Ernie MacKinnon, 19, was critically injured on the New Waterford highway near here Thursday when his car left the road and rammed into a culvert.

MacKinnon was alone in the vehicle. He had been scheduled to fight at Halifax Tuesday night.

MacKinnon was returning home from work at New Victoria's No. 18 colliery when the accident occurred.

He had 19 straight ring victories to his credit and was being boosted as the rightful claimant to the Maritime welterweight title which now is vacant.

Dave Jacobs Of St. Johns Leads Race For "Lord Calvert" Trophy; Vaughan And Bartunek Stalemated For Fifth

In the first official release of the scorers' voting for the Provincial Baseball League most valuable player award—the Lord Calvert Trophy—Dave Jacobs of St. Johns has been sent into the lead with a total of 12 points, one more than Sunny Smith of Thetford Mines.

In view of the success achieved last season when the official scorers throughout the league cast ballots for the best performers after every game, the "Player of Distinction" campaign has been renewed for this season. A delay in announcing the progress of the scorers' voting in each city has been caused by the many postponements of games throughout the Provincial League. The winner of the Lord Calvert Trophy last season was Sherbrooke's Bob Diers.

The voting so far has been very close. With Jacobs and Smith battling for the lead, another Thetford favorite—Buzz Beatty—has already moved to within two points of first place. Bob Ryan of St. Johns is next with nine points followed by Joe Ala of Thetford with eight.

A five-day tie exists for fifth position in the most valuable player listings: Jack Wesniski of Drummondville; Gerry Bartunek and Tom Vaughan, both of Sherbrooke; and Ike Quaterman and Mike Fandozzi, both of Quebec. All these players have seven points apiece.

Dick Zack of Three Rivers is in seventh place deadlocked with Quebec's Andre Pratte and Thetford's Neil Thode—all with six points. In the balloting for the Lord Calvert Trophy which has become the permanent property of the Provincial Baseball League, three points go to a first-place selection, two for a second, and one for a third. After each game, the official scorers send their selections to league statistician Maurice Descarreaux in Quebec where the list is compiled.

Canadian Golf Team Appears Good After Opening Day Display; Split In Points For Hopkins Trophy Battle

Toronto — (CP) — Justifying locker-room speculation that this might be Canada's year in international golf, this country's professional team today appears at least an even-money bet to edge the United States for the first time in the Hopkins Trophy matches.

Six-man teams representing both countries ended Thursday's opening-round singles play with an even split of points in the match play competition, scored under the Nassau system.

Each counted nine points — and Canada played without one of her top competitive performers, long-driving Stan Leonard of Vancouver.

Leonard was sidelined with a bad rash over his forearms and hands. Despite injections during the last two days the ailment, caused by an allergy, has responded little to treatment. The draw for today's three four-ball matches in the three day even was delayed until almost tee-off time in the hopes that Leonard, a three-time member of Canada's Hopkins team and a veteran of U.S. winter circuit play against many of this year's American team here, might be able to play.

Play Encouraging

On past record, Canada's opening-day showing was surprising. The Americans have won both previous tournaments sponsored by the International Golf Association and never before had the Canadians been able to gain even a tie after the first round.

Optimists had an idea that the Canadian team's past experience in Hopkins match play might turn the trick this year. Five members of the team—on which Bobby Locke of South Africa plays by being an honorary member of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association—competed in last year's tournament, won by the United States 27 points to 18. Only two of this year's American squad competed in 1953.

The performances of Locke and two last-minute substitutes, one on each team, highlighted Thursday's play at the Mississaugua Golf and Country Club at nearby Port Credit.

The South African greens expert, who uses a wooden-shafted 25-year-old putter like a magic wand, carded five birdies and an eagle on the 490-yard par five hole, to defeat Ted Kroll of the United States 5 up after 18 holes. He carded an unofficial 65 over the par-72 layout-equal to the course record-capped by a difficult 25-foot putt on the 18th that had the large gallery and Kroll clapping at the shot.

Oliver Replaced

Jerry Barber, named in the draw to sit on sidelines, substituted in the U.S. line-up, and turned in a sparkling 4 up 18-hole margin over Pat Fletcher of Saskatoon. Ed (Porky) Oliver was drawn against the big western Canada linksman but arrived here tired after an overnight drive from Chicago and decided he wasn't fit.

The pro at the host Mississaugua Club, Gordie Brydson, was the other late nominee. He was scheduled to sit out Thursday's action but went in Leonard's spot against Dave Douglas. He matched Barber's grand-slam, winning the first nine holes 1 up, the second by a similar margin and the match.

Under the Nassau scoring system, one point is given the winner of each nine holes and another for the player winning the match. If the two are tied after 18 holes each gets 1½ points.

Locke and Brydson netted two thirds of the Canadian total. The other three points were gained this way: Edmonton's Henry Martell, the golfing ex-policeman, 1½; Bill Kerr of Montreal, 1, and fellow Montrealer Jules Huot, ½.

Huot Off Game

Martell, captain of the Canadian squad, split with his American counterpart, Walt Burkemo. Each won a nine-round go with a 1 up edge and split the match point.

Kerr, who started off hot with birdies on the first three holes, won the first nine 1 up against Chandler Harper but couldn't withstand the American's terrific comeback on the back round, bowing by two holes. Harper picked up two points for the U.S., Kerr one.

Marty Furgol of the U.S. team caught little Huot off his game in the opening nine, winning 4 up. The French-speaking pro at Laval-sur-le-Lac club bounced back to halve the back round. This match, the last finish, gave Furgol 2½ points, Huot ½. That split spelled the tie.

Roughriders Sign Art Nowack For Coming Season

Otatwa—(CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders have signed a Notre Dame centre, Art Nowack, to try out at snap this fall, club officials announced Thursday.

Nowack, with the Irish for the last four seasons, is six foot two and weighs 230.

O'Quinn And Poole Sign In Montreal

Montreal— (CP) —Montreal Alouettes Thursday announced the signing of two ends from last year's team of the Big Four football league—Red O'Quinn and Ray Poole.

O'Quinn last year was named to the all-star first team for the second straight year. Poole, the placement specialist who boosted his total points with a few touchdowns, was the team's highest scorer and runner-up in the Big Four on point-getting.

Queen's Plate On Television

Toronto—(CP)—Montreal and Ottawa will be the only Canadian cities to see a "live" telecast of the 95th running of the Queen's Plate Saturday.

However, a delayed telecast of the race will be seen on other eastern Canadian stations beginning at 9:30 p.m. EDT, Saturday night.

The "live" show will be seen in Ottawa and Montreal, beginning at 5:15 p.m. The 9:30 show will be seen in Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London and Kitchener. Monday night the race will be shown in Sudbury, Winnipeg, Vancouver and Saint John, N.B.

The radio broadcast of the race will be carried over the entire Trans-Canada network of the CBC beginning at 5:15 p.m. EDT.

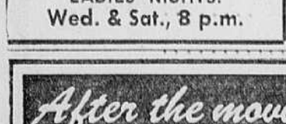

Woodling To Be Sidelined With Fracture Of Toe

New York—(AP)—Gene Woodling, regular left fielder of New York Yankees, will be out of the lineup for about a week with a chip fracture of the great toe on his right foot.

Woodling fouled a ball off the toe during batting practice before Thursday's game with Detroit.

Nine Horses Still In Queen's Plate; May Be Richest Purse In History; Timer Tom Bird Predicts Fast Event

Toronto—(CP)—Tom Bird, who has been clocking horses at Woodbine Park for 60 years, is sure of one thing about Saturday's 95th consecutive running of the $20,000-added Queen's Plate. The winner will make a shambles of the track record for the nine furlongs.

The record for Canada's blue-ribbon racing event was set in 1948 by Last Mark, owned by Jim Fair of Cainsville, Ont., who ran over the early pace-setter, Lord Fairmond, to win in 1.52.

The 1.50 clocking wasn't seriously threatened until 1953 when Canadiana, owned by E. P. Taylor, came within one-fifth of a second of the mark with jockey Eddie Arcaro aboard. Canadians breezed home by a six-length margin and Arcaro said, "We could have chopped nearly a second from that time if any one had been chasing us."

Outstanding favorites for Saturday's race starting at 5:30 p.m. EDT are King Maple, owned by Mrs. Gordon McMacken of Toronto, and Queen's Own, owned and bred by Taylor, Canada's most successful breeder of thoroughbreds.

King Maple, horse of the year in Canada last year and 7 to 5 winter book favorite, probably will be favorite for first place with Queen's Own second betting choice. Bird, however stuck his chin out Thursday to predict Queen's Own will enter the winner's enclosure. "This chestnut bombshell will run away and hide on his rivals," Bird said.

"This is a very high-class colt. He can run as fast on two good legs as most horses can run on four good legs."

Meanwhile, it is believed that about nine horses will meet the starter's gun with King Maple and Queen's Own the public's choices and the rest at about 30 to 1 odds. The possible field:

King Maple, Queen's Own, Staff Reporter, Collisteo, Pancho, Sweet Infinity, Heptad, Hi Laude, and Three Striper.

Governor-General Vincent Massey is scheduled to be on hand to present the plate and the Queen's 50 guineas to the winning owner.

Santee Racing For Record In Los Angeles

Los Angeles — (AP) — Olympic champion Josy Barthel is not an athlete to make rash promises, but the 27-year-old runner from Luxembourg offers quiet assurance of giving a cocky Wes Santee all he can handle in their mile race tonight in Memorial coliseum.

The studious, mill-mannered visitor, pressed for a prediction on his approaching race and possible time, said he "does not run against a clock but against a man."

He said he thinks he is capable of running the mile in 4:02 or 4:03 but he left the impression that if it takes better to subdue Santee, he'll give it all he has and hope for the victory.

Graham TKO's Simmons In 6th

Danbury, Conn. — (AP) — Billy Graham, of New York, 155, working himself back into shape after a seven months layoff, defeated Charley Simmons of Charlotte, N.C., 150, on a TKO in the sixth round of a scheduled eight-rounder at Candlewood arena here Thursday night.

Graham, although looking a little slow, knocked Simmons down five times—twice in the fifth and three times in the sixth when referee Ed Moore stopped the fight.

Ted Atkinson Injured In Fall

The horse, Thymus, cantered a brisk quarter-mile before being captured by an outrider.

A few minutes later, having refused treatment, the Toronto-born jockey piloted Thymus to a three-length victory, his third of the day.

The lower picture shows George Garard of the Sherbrooke Paper Products presenting President Ted Anderson with a $100 cheque. Willis Kirby, second vice-president, is standing in the middle. The Paper Products is sponsoring a team in the circuit which opens Monday evening at Dufresne Park. (Record photos by Gerry Lemay.)

National Golf Day Takes Place Tomorrow; Sherbrooke Paper Products To Sponsor Event Over Station CKTS

In the past two years, there has been over $22,000 raised through National Golf Day. These receipts were split between the Canadian Red Cross and the Provincial Golf Associations across Canada for the promotion of Junior Golf amongst boys and girls.

This year, one-half of the total receipts will again go to the Canadian Red Cross and the remaining half will be set up as a Golf Fund in each province for junior promotion. This fund will be administered by the Provincial Golf Association and the Provincial Branch of the Canadian P.G.A.

In order that our readers may know how this event is run, the following outline is given:

Tomorrow, Ben Hogan will play an 18-hole round of golf at the Baltusrol Golf Club, Springfield, N.J., scene of the 1954 U.C. Open. On that same day, any player, man or woman, with or without an official handicap, may play a round at his or her club. A $1 entry fee will be paid by each participant. If their net score beats the gross score of Hogan, they will receive an attractive medal, stating "I beat Ben Hogan! National Golf Day, June 5th, 1954." In the case of a woman, she adds 7 strokes to her handicap to compensate for the difference in handicaps between men and women. If the player has not an official handicap, the Callaway System is used.

Harry Fowlis, the local pro, and Pete Leblanc, the club captain, are looking after this event again this year at the Sherbrooke Country Club, and since "Beat Ben Hogan's day" will coicide with the Turnbull qualification round quite a few are expected.

During the past two years, only Gaston Authier and Jean Prefontaine have been able to beat Hogan in this Special Event and many more should be able to qualify for this attractive medal this year.

Last year George Beaulieu won the trophy, in fact he has copped it for the last two years. The 32 best set scores qualify for this event. Tomorrow's program will be sponsored by the Sherbrooke Paper Products and will be carried over the local station CKTS. It is slated to commence at 1.30 and brief descriptions will be given of the various matches.

Marshall Annoyed At Toronto For Signing Import

Toronto — (CP) — Coach Frank Clair of Toronto Argonauts said George Marshall, owner of Washington Redskins, telephoned him Wednesday and was "pretty nasty" because Argoes latched on to United States import Norbert Hecher.

"He really scorched me out," Clair said. The telephone call involved the signing of Hecker, a six-foot-two, 196-pound offensive end, who accepted an Argo contract this week to play in the Big Four league.

Hecker turned down a deal whereby he would be traded from Los Angeles Rams to the Redskins, in the National Football League.

"He (Marshall) said that Hecker should play his football in Washington, not in Toronto," Clair said. "I told him that the boy had been traded by Los Angeles and if he didn't want to go to Washington, he didn't have to. Just because he'd have to accept the deal if he stayed in the NFL doesn't mean he can't come up here if he wants to."

Giles Modifies Rain Ruling

Milwaukee—(AP)—National League President Warren Giles will modify his instructions to umpires regarding rain at baseball games to make them more specific, sports editor Russ Lynch of the Milwaukee Journal said Thursday.

Lynch said in his column that Giles said by telephone:

"I have in mind advising the umpires that if the game continues through five innings in rain they should complete play another inning or two and not make it appear that it was played only to get the money."

The question arose as the result of a game here between Brooklyn and Milwaukee June 2. The game was suspended by rain for 90 minutes and finally called at the end of five innings, some of which were played in the rain.

The league president said earlier in a letter that instructions issued by his office were:

"The umpires should continue the suspension because of rain as long as there is any chance to get in a legal game."

Baltimore Orioles Cause Upsurge In AL Attendance

Chicago — (AP) — Baseball attendance in the American League is running 19 per cent higher than a year ago, thanks mainly to the debut of Baltimore Arioles.

Earl Hilligan, league service bureau director, Wednesday reported attendance in the circuit through 191 games was 2,413,498—an increase of 384,252 over the 1953 total of 2,029,246 for the same number of games.

The National League Monday announced an increase of 307,577 for the first 188 games this year over 1953 attendance for 179 games played through comparable period. The National total was 2,436,062 against 2,128,485.

Hilligan's figures credit Baltimore with a 23-game home attendance of 399,066, compared with 297,238 attracted for the entire season by the erstwhile St. Louis Browns last year.

Lumley Leafs Most Valuable Player

Toronto— (CP) —Harry Lumley, 27-year-old netminder of Toronto Maple Leafs, has been chosen the year's winner of the J. P. Bickell Memorial Cup, it was announced Wednesday.

He is the second winner of the trophy. Captain Ted Kennedy was the winner of the cup for the 1952-53 season.

The trophy is awarded to a Leaf player "at such times and for such merit as may be designated and determined by the board of directors" of Maple Leaf Gardens Limited.

Lumley won the Vezina Trophy last season as the netminder with the best goals-against average in the National Hockey League.

Scots Teams To Leave For Lucerne

Ayr, Scotland— (AP) —The Scottish national soccer team to play in the world cup championships in Switzerland June 16-July 3, will leave Prestwick by air Saturday morning for Lucerne.

Plans for a practice game with the English team early next week in Switzerland have been abandoned.

Del Mar Track To Be Sold

Los Angeles —(AP)—Two Texas multimillionaires, Clinton Murchison and Sid Richardson, are ready to buy controlling interest in the Del Mar race track today, or go further and buy all the stock for a price reportedly approaching $3,000,000,000, attorney C. Ray Robinson said Thursday. Negotiations are expected to be conduced today.

Paul Giel, Minnesota Football Star, More Impressed With Gift Car Than With $60,000 Bonus From Giants

Milwaukee — (AP) — How does a college kid react to an assured income of $60,000 over the next three years?

If he's Paul Giel, the Minnesota football star whose signing to pitch professional baseball for New York Giants at those terms was announced here Wednesday, he's more impressed with a gift automobile.

"Boy, you ought to see it," he told reporters. "They gave it to me up at Minneapolis the other night. Was I surprised. It's a cream-colored hard-top convertible, a 1954 model."

Don't conclude from this that Giel, a two-time All-America halfback at Minnesota, is more than usually naive. He had his pick of six or seven offers from major league baseball teams and turned down a couple of what he called "highly attractive" bids to play football in the Canadian leagues with Winnipeg or Toronto.

ATTRACTIVE OFFERS

"I decided a long time ago to play baseball instead of football," the 21-year-old single-wing tailback explained. "But when those Canadians came around I just had to listen. They made me some real attractive offers."

Actually, Giel admitted, "several" other baseball offers were better than the one he agreed to with the Giants — "but there were some other considerations, and I always wanted to play with the Giants, anyway."

Leo Durocher, Giants' manager said he hadn't seen the right handed Giel throw prior to a short workout at County stadium here Wednesday night but that Carl Hubbell, farm club director, was "high on the boy."

"Hub says he's a low-ball pitcher and that's good enough for me," Durocher said.

Giel, who did about everything in the Minnesota offence except pass the ball from centre for three years, was named The Associated Press "Back of the Year" in 1953 and won virtually every national football honor.

Salesmen's Job May Force Buller To Quit Hockey

Cleveland—(AP)—Hy Buller, defenceman who was traded Tuesday by New York Rangers to quit hockey entirely for a year-Montreal Canadiens, says he may round salesmen's job.

Buller, who formerly starred with American Hockey League's Cleveland Barons, said his position as salesman demands most of his attention.

He said he might possibly continue in hockey for "three or four" more years, though he seems pretty certain about quitting now.

EXHIBITION OFFICIALS REPORT SURPLUS

Quebec — (CP) — Provincial exhibition officials report a surplus of $113,206 for 1953, the 20th consecutive surplus of the 42-year-old exhibition. Revenues were $616,909, expenditures $503,703.
