SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION.

Brought to a Successful Close Last Evening.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

The Total Attendance This Year a Little Below That of Last Year.

Yesterday marked the close of another successful Sherbrooke fair. The total attendance this year was not quite up to last year's mark, but the directors express themselves as well satisfied with the week. The president, Hon. John McIntosh, the energetic manager and secretary, Mr. H. R. Fraser, and the directors deserve congratulations upon the success achieved by the exhibition under their able direction. The secretary's staff, Messrs. W. M. Tomlinson, F. Enright, E. G. Simpson, and also Mr. James Robertson, clerk of the races, have the special thanks of the press for the courtesy with which they received at all times the inquisitive pressmen.

Much of the stock left the grounds last evening and this morning, a considerable portion proceeding to Quebec exhibition, which takes place next week.

The result of yesterday's races follow:

2.25 PACING, 2.22 TROTTING.

Mac V. H. B. Stewart, 1 1 1
Marionette, W. J. Loughren, 3 2 4
Railway Queen, A. Langevin, 4 3 2
Little Fanchette, L. N. D. Houde, 2 4 3
R.H.P., E. C. Squires, 5 5 5

Time, 2.23 1/2, 2.23, 2.24.

Mac V took first money, while the next three moneys were divided equally among the next three horses.

2.17 TROTTING AND PACING.

Sailor Boy H. B. Stewart, 1 1 1
Henderson, W. J. Loughren, 3 2 2
Alice G., L. E. Richardson, 2 3 3
Time, 2.18 1/2, 2.22, 2.19 1/2.

A very successful double balloon ascension was made last evening, Miss May-Jewel making her third ascent. She goes to Kingston next week, where she will make several ascensions.

RAND'S ACME SAW VISE.

In the main building, at the fair, was shown the interesting and valuable invention of Mr. L. H. Rand, of Fitch Bay, known as Rand's Acme Saw Vise. It attracted much attention, and many orders were left with Mr. Rand, who was present with the exhibit in person. It is a new thing and cannot fail to prove a boon to all who file saws by hand. The vise is made any length desired, and while it holds the saw firmly it is quickly and easily operated. It was demonstrated that with this machine and the band saw attachment, any good sawfeller can file a band saw at the rate of a foot a minute, that is, can file a 20-ft. saw in twenty minutes, which is pretty rapid work, and as fast as the ordinary saw filing machine will do. Mr. Rand secured a patent for his invention this year and a large number of the machines are already in use. The testimony of those who have tried it, speaks most highly of its merits.

PRISONER BURNS HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Rutland, Vt., Sept. 9.—James McDonald, a prisoner in the House of Correction here, committed suicide Thursday by setting fire to his bedding and permitting himself to be burned to death. From the appearance of his room it seems that McDonald had pulled his bed to pieces, torn the mattress open, scattered the excelsior over the floor and set fire to it. The bed, across which strips of sheeting were tied, bears marks of a struggle, and it is thought that McDonald had tied himself to the bed before lighting the fire, but could not stand the torture and broke loose. The keepers put the fire out with a few pails of water. McDonald was lying on his back in the fire when found. His flesh was terribly burned.

GUY BROS. COMING.

The favorite minstrels, Guy Bros., have arranged for another appearance in Sherbrooke on Thursday evening next, Sept. 14th, at the Rink Open House. The success of this company in the past is all that is necessary to guarantee a large attendance next week. There will be, as usual, a street parade at noon.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Sept. 9, 11 a. m.—Forecast for next 24 hours, issued by the Meteorological Bureau.
Moderate winds; fine; not much change in temperature.

THE FATE OF DREYFUS

A Verdict, It is Believed will Be Rendered To-Day.

Almost Universal Feeling That Dreyfus Will Be Condemned.

Rennes, Sept. 8.—The announcement was made this afternoon that the verdict of the Dreyfus court-martial would be rendered tomorrow. Maitre Labori will forego the right to speak for the defense in order not to irritate the judges, thus allowing M. Demange to make the best impression.

The court, therefore, will deliberate on the conclusion of M. Demange's speech and the judgment will probably be delivered before noon.

There is a nearly universal feeling this evening that Dreyfus will be condemned.

FINE HARVEST WEATHER.

Manitoba Wheat Will Be Threshed at Once.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 9.—During the past few days the weather in Manitoba has been cloudy and unsettled, with heavy rains in some districts. Today the sky is clear and the prospects are that there will be another spell of fine harvest weather. Wheat cutting is now practically finished and threshing is in full swing. Farmers are inclined to thresh as much as possible from stock to save the necessity of stacking a large acreage, which means that much wheat will be marketed early if prices remain as at present. Recent rise in lake freight rates will mean a loss of several cents per bushel to Western farmers.

Social Economy.

Mrs. Brooks—There is a big advantage in having a nursemaid who is good looking. Mrs. Rivers—How do you mean?

Mrs. Brooks—The park policeman does not say anything when the children get on the grass.

The Seven Ages of Women.

At first the infant's cap, soft, warm and white, With strings well mouthed and muffled in sorry plight.

The giddy schoolgirl's hat, a waif and stray— Any old thing that hinders not her play.

The budding maiden's hat, pert, smart or trim, According to "sweet sixteen's" mood or whim.

Bravest of all, the bridal wreath and veil, Which marks life's great event and turns the scale.

The new designed matron's "dream," by Worth designed, Which "hubby" pays for, sighs and looks resigned.

The well planned bonnet of the chaperon, Which hides time's ravages from her alone.

Last scene of all, the widow's ruche and weeds, Sans feathers, flowers, ribbons, lace or beads.

—New York Sun.

Fun For the Promoters.

Fuddy—There is not much money in the average gold mine.

Duddy—But there would be if the promoters didn't take it out for their own use as fast as the stock subscribers put it in.—Boston Transcript.

Ready to Assist Him.

Mr. Ferguson—I think I'll go out awhile and stretch my legs.

Mrs. Ferguson—You needn't go out for that. Have you got $20 about you?

I want to do some shopping.—Chicago Tribune.

The Trouble.

She can golf, she can wheel, She can feel

The passion that poets know; She can cook, she can bake,

She can sew, She could make

This a paradise here below; If she tried to, but oh,

She never will Till

She can learn to keep still She can laugh enough so may get

A chance to let My pent up feelings loose!

But what's the use? "Oh, I'm not serious to declare

My love for her, but I swear I haven't had a chance to get in a word yet!"

—Chicago Times-Herald.

The Wooting at Golf.

"Hasn't Willoughby Perkins proposed yet?"

"No, mamma; his approach work is all right, but then he gets nervous and fizzes."—Chicago Record.

No Time to Be Lonesome.

"So you are the only one of the family now at home?"

"Oh, I'm not lonesome! My wife left the house plants in my care."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The School on the Hill.

The school that rests upon the hill, With shutters long and green,

Its shadows bring to me a thrill And what up memories keen.

I see once more the master grim, That selfsame righteous man;

Again I throw dried peas at him And feel the same rattle.

—Chicago News.

Hint to Taxpayers.

Mark Twain's rule—"when in doubt, tell the truth"—would be a good motto for assessors to print at the head of schedules.—Chicago News.

A Choice.

Of all the summer men I see, The iceman is the one for me.

—Chicago Record.

BRIEFLETS.

One hundred basket grapes for tonight's trade, at 25c each. Very choice quality, Fletcher's.

Two senior lacrosse matches take place this afternoon, viz.: Cornwall vs. Toronto at Toronto, and Capital vs. Shamrock in Montreal. Results will be bulletined at this office.

The pastor of Plymouth Church, Rev. Frank J. Day, has returned from his vacation, and will occupy the pulpit at both services tomorrow. At the evening service in addition to the regular music, Mr. A. E. Fette, of Toronto, will sing "The Dream of Paradise." The Sunday School will re-assemble at 12.15 in the chapel.

The "merry-go-round" was one of the best patronized "side-shows" on the exhibition grounds. From "morn till dew eve," the wooden horses glided around, each with its burden, in the shape of a stalwart young countryman accompanied by a rosy damsel, both bent on getting all the enjoyment possible out of the fair. Little did they care that the strains of music to which the horses, revolved, were dismal! For the time they were in Arcadia, and life was most pleasant.

TO BECOME A JESUIT PRIEST.

There was a sad leave-taking at Councillor Gendreau's, on Tuesday, when the eldest son, Ernest, left home with the view of becoming a Jesuit priest, which means that except in the case of the death of his parents he will never visit home again. He has been a most successful student. Two years ago he took the degree of B. A. at St. Hyacinthe seminary, when he was gold medalist. He has continued his studies there for the past two years, and the end of the present college year took first place in practically every subject, and secured the seminary prize. His father had hoped that he would study law but he preferred philosophy and theology. He will now take a special two years' course of study at Sault Aux Recllets, during which time he may withdraw and return to the world. At the end of the two years he will be forever precluded from so doing. He will be obliged to continue his studies for twelve years before he can be ordained as a Jesuit.—Coaticook Observer.

DREYFUS FOUND GUILTY.

Verdict Rendered at Rennes, France, This Morning.

Rennes, France, Sept. 9.—(Special)—Captain Alfred Dreyfus has been found guilty. This was the verdict rendered by the Court Martial this morning. He was condemned to ten years imprisonment.

A SHORT HORN BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION.

A meeting was held in the Secretary's office at the Fair grounds on Thursday, to consider the question of forming a Short Horn Breeders' Association for the Eastern Townships.

The following gentlemen were present: Senator Cochrane, J. A. Cochrane, Hon. John McIntosh, Mr. Elliott, Danville; Mr. C. C. Cleveland, Danville; Mr. Fuller, Capleton; Mr. Burton, Waterville; Mr. Fitzgerald, Lennoxville; Mr. W. P. McClary, Capleton; W. Johnston, Compton, Mr. J. F. Learned, Cookshire.

SENT TO COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

Before Judge Mulvena, in the Magistrate's Court, this morning, Hugh Randall and James Wells, who were arrested at Richmond, for picking pockets on the Fair grounds there, appeared for the continuation of their preliminary examination which was begun before A. Wilcox, J.P., at Richmond.

After the evidence, which was taken before the Justice of the Peace, had been read over, the prisoners declared they had nothing to say excepting they were "not guilty." L. C. Belanger, Esq., Q. C., who appeared as counsel for the prisoners, then stated to the court that they did not intend to offer any evidence at preliminary enquiry, whereupon the Magistrate bound both the accused over to take their trial at the next term of the Court of Queen's Bench.

PARIS FAIR GROUNDS DAMAGED BY STORM.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The heavy thunderstorm which prevailed here Wednesday night did considerable damage at the exposition grounds. A portion of the machinery department building was unroofed and the scaffolding about the American pavilion collapsed. "Tannhauser" was being performed at the Opera House, but the last act was omitted on account of the darkness caused by the damaged dome to the electric light plant.

THE SHERBROOKE MARKET.

Last Week's Prices Prevailed Again This Morning.

THE OTHER MARKETS.

Foreign Butter and Cheese Market Firm.

While not as large as on some previous Saturdays, the market this morning was a good one, and everything was pretty well cleared out by noon.

As far as prices are concerned today's market was a repetition of last week's, there being only a few unimportant changes in the quotations.

The following is the table of market prices as revised this morning.

DAIRY PRODUCTS.

London, Sept. 8.—Butter steady.

Finest creameries 104s to 108s; highest price 110s. Cheese firm and quiet.

Finest coloured 55s to 56s; white 54s to 55s.

Liverpool, Sept. 8.—Butter. The supply is good, and demand less active.

Finest creameries 100s to 108s. Cheese firm and business small owing to high prices. Finest 54s to 56s.

Montreal, Sept. 7.—There were about 600 head of butchers' cattle, 40 calves and 700 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir today.

The butchers were out in full force, and there was a brisk demand for the best cattle, but the common and inferior beasts were dull of sale, and a considerable number of these will not be sold today. There were no really prime beefs on the market.

Four large steers were bought for shipment to Great Britain at 4 1/2c per lb., but 4 1/2c per lb. was about the highest paid the butchers; pretty good cattle sold at from 3 1/2c to 4 1/2c, the common dry cows and thrifty young stock at 2 1/2c to 3c per lb., while some of the better beasts and hard-looking small bulls would not bring over 2c per lb. Most of the good calves were bought up before reaching the market. Prices here were from $2.50 to $7 each.

NEW GOVERNMENT IN PERU.

Lima, Peru, via Galveston, Sept. 9.—It is reported that Senor Eduardo Romana, whose term of office as president of the republic has begun, will offer amnesty to the revolutionists, and discharge from custody all persons now in prison for political offences.

The new cabinet is made up as follows: President of the council and minister of foreign affairs, Dr. Manuel Maria Galvez; minister of the interior, Dr. Eleodoro Romero; minister of finance, Senor Mariano Belandier; minister of war and marine, naval captain Camilo Carrillo; minister of public works, Senor Carlos Bazadre Fonero.

A MISTAKE RECTIFIED.

The Husband, However, Will Not Again Question His Wife's Bill.

"The other morning at the breakfast table," said the man who was telling the story, "my wife, seeing that I was in good humor owing to a business deal that I had put through the day before, took courage and handed me her millinery bill, amounting to $26.32.

"I'm," said she, "I looked the bill over," "seems to me that this is pretty steep. Are you sure it is correct?"

"Why, I don't know," she answered, "womanlike. 'I suppose it is. It is the bill that madame sent.'"

"Then you mean to say," said I sarcastically, "that you haven't the slightest idea whether it is correct or not? In other words, madame is at liberty to charge what she may please, and you never question it. No wonder that I am always on the verge of bankruptcy! I'll go down there and attend to this bill personally. I haven't the slightest idea but that Frenchwoman has been overcharging me right along and that this bill is for twice as much as it should be."

"I called on the milliner's on my way down town, and the madame, all smiles, came forward to greet me. I immediately produced the bill and insisted that a mistake had been made and that it should be rectified."

"Madame, still all smiles, took the bill, and said that she would look the matter up, and it was barely possible that a mistake had been made. I smiled grimly to myself as I saw she was leaving a loophole to escape."

"A moment later she returned, holding her hands tragically above her head, and exclaimed:

"Oui, oui, monsieur; there has been one awful mistake. Oh, ze terrible book-keeper! Ze bill should be for $47.28!"

"What did I say? What could I say to that grinning Frenchwoman? I paid the bill and congratulated myself that I had got it rectified before she had another talk with 'ze terrible book-keeper.'"

"Since then I have noticed that my wife is wearing millinery that I know nothing about, and I have a horrible suspicion my wife called madame up by telephone and ordered a few more things put down."

SOLDIERS MAKE PEACE.

Such is the Idea of the Emperor of Germany.

Hopes That the German Army May Continue as at Present.

Carlsruhe, Baden, September 9.—Emperor William, addressing the Burgo-master of Carlsruhe yesterday and expressing his satisfaction at the bearing of the troops, said: "Many centuries must elapse before the theory of permanent peace attains universal application. At present, the surest bulwark of peace for the German Empire consists in its princes and the army they lead."

"May the century now drawing to a close find our young Empire and our army in the same condition as the great Emperor left them. May the German princes always stand by our side, like the great Emperor, and like her illustrious daughter, everywhere mitigating the suffering of the people with loving hands. That will preserve the old monarchical loyalty in the new century, in spite of all new ideas, as an example to all lands."

HON. MR. MOORE.

The current issue of the Farm & Home contains this paragraph: "The remarks of Hon. Mr. Moore, Speaker, in the Dominion parliament, while discussing agricultural appropriations, have the right ring. Instead of $300,000 for farmers and $2,000,000 for the militia the item should be reversed. He would rather starve the soldiers and stuff the farmers than starve the farmers and stuff the militia, as is now the case."

THE FIRST TYPEWRITER.

Invention of 1870 Preserved at the Patent Office.

Hidden away in a dark corner of the model room in the patent office at Washington, with the dust of years giving its brown surface a coat of gray, is an apparently worthless block of wood cut in the shape of a staircase, with small blocks of wood mounted on wires on each of the stairs.

When I happened to see this object while looking through the 400,000 models the other day, I thought it must be some sort of child's plaything. On closer examination my curiosity was aroused, so that I induced one of the busy attendants to look up the matter for me. It was discovered to be the first typewriter ever made in the United States—perhaps in the world.

It placed by the side of one of our model typewriters, the first typewriter could not fail to provoke a smile from the spectators. Instead of dairy black and nickel letter keys, with an open framework showing the easy workings of the intricate machinery of the inside, as is usual in the typewriters of today, this first typewriter consists of a closed wooden box with blocks of wood half an inch square for its letter keys. The paper carriage of the first typewriter is also of wood, and instead of the operator turning the paper carriage by a mere touch or an extension rod, as is done with all typewriters now in use, when one line was finished on the first typewriter the operator had to use both hands to turn the paper carriage—one hand to lift a catch from the cogwheel and the other hand to push the paper around as far as desired.

However, much as the first typewriter differs from its grandchildren, close examination shows that it has the essentials of typewriters as we know them today. The inventor of the typewriter was R. T. P. Allen of Farmdale, Ky., who secured his patent in 1870. There were other so-called typewriters invented before this date, but the Allen invention is the first machine that bore fruit, and it is that machine which may be looked upon as the parent of the 5,000,000 or more typewriters in use in the United States today.

He Saw Himself.

Albert Chevalier, the king of coster song singers, was once asked what was the most unpleasant experience of his stage life.

"Well," he said, "I will tell you. It happened in a very handsome hall in the Midlands. The whole of the back and the sides were covered with immense plate glass mirrors. I knew nothing about it until I walked on the stage, and then, for the first time in my life, I saw myself as others, as my audience, see me. The effect was weird in the extreme. It unnerved me. It was positively terrifying. Instead of concentrating my attention upon my work, I found myself watching, studying Chevalier. Never again, no, thank you. I avoid halls that are glittering masses of plate glass mirrors."

Burma Civilization.

The march of civilization in Burma is full of interest and amusement, and the most casual observer. Young Burma cannot now go forth as his father did, in loose but comfortable sandals. He must have fancy colored socks, held in rigid order by fancy garters worn about the swell of the calf, while Crownwellian shoes with large steel buckles have caught on famously. A young student who purchased his first pair on a Saturday wore them to church on Sunday, but took them back to the store on Monday to be changed because they did not creak!

RUSSIA'S STARTLING MOVE.
First Step Takes in the Long Planned Absorption of Persia.

London, Sept. 9.—In this din of warlike preparation a small item of news to the effect that Russia on August 27 opened a military road from the Caspian sea to Teheran, the capital of Persia, passes almost unnoticed. This is the first step in the Russian absorption of Persia, which has long been planned. Nor can England prevent the performance of Russia on the north shores of the Persian gulf.

IS CHARGED WITH MURDER.
Frederick Man Accused of Killing His Little Child.

Frederick Man, Sept. 8.—Charles De Witt, a resident of Victoria Mills, was arrested yesterday afternoon on suspicion of being responsible for the death of his three year-old step-child, who died Thursday evening. Neighbors who saw the body reported that it bore black and blue marks, and looked as if the little one might have died from violence. Coroner Coulthard advised the arrest. He held a post-mortem today, and decided there was sufficient ground for further enquiry.

THE TROTTERING RECORD.

Venus II, the fast trotting daughter of Cupid, is blind in one eye.

The California mare, Dollican, 2:15 1/4, by Mambrino Chief, Jr., recently worked in 2:14.

Andy McDowell's 3-year-old filly, Emma Winters, by Directum, 2:05 1/4, has been a half in 1:10.

Bonnie Kirkland, 2:23 1/4, pacing, by Alton, has a previous record of 2:20 1/4 under the name of Al Faro.

The Canadian pacing stallion Wilson, 2:12 1/4, whose record was made as long ago as 1893, is again in training.

Opal Hal, a newcomer to standard pacing speed, is out of Opal S (also dam of Lagel Hal, 2:19 1/4), by Legal Tender, Jr.

The pacer Silkwood, 2:07, is out as a guideless wonder and has gone what some paper calls a lonesome mile in 2:09 and a half in 1:01.

Derby Lass, sister to Derby Princess, 2:08 1/4, by Charles Derby, is said to be trotting great guns at Cleveland, quarters in 3:14, halves in 1:04 1/2, etc.

Dr. Book, who has been trotting fast in the west without acquiring a record, is by McKinney, dam Leonora, 2:24, by Dashwood, 1:16, thus far the Mr. Mid-dlemay of 1890.

Kingmond, 2:12 1/4, by King-Darlington, is the fastest trotting newcomer of the year up to date. He was bought by Dan Mahoney at a Kellogg sale two years ago for $170.

Before shipping away from home Tom Marsh drove Betonica, 3:20 1/4, a mile in 2:00 1/4, last half in 1:01 1/4. He has railroad speed, but is said to have developed a propensity for breaking on the first turn.

TEN GOOD HEALTH RULES.

1. General hygiene—Rise early, go to bed early, and in the meantime keep yourself occupied.

2. Respiratory hygiene—Water and bread sustain life, but pure air and sunlight are indispensable for health.

3. Gastro intestinal hygiene—Frugality and sobriety are the best elixir for a long life.

4. Epidermal hygiene—Cleanliness preserves from rust. The best kept machines last longest.

5. Sleep hygiene—A sufficiency of rest repairs and strengthens; too much weakness and makes soft.

6. Clothes hygiene—He is well clothed who keeps his body sufficiently warm, safeguarding it from all abrupt changes of temperature, while at the same time maintaining perfect freedom of motion.

7. House hygiene—A house that is clean and cheerful makes a happy home.

8. Moral hygiene—The mind reposes and resumes its edge by means of relaxation and amusement, but excess opens the door to the passions, and these attract the vices.

9. Intellectual hygiene—Gayety conduces to love of life, and love of life is half of health. On the other hand, sadness and gloom help on old age.

10. Professional hygiene—Is it your grain that feeds you? Don't allow your arms and your legs to become ankylosed. Dig for a livelihood, but do not omit to burnish your intellect and elevate your thoughts.—Dr. Decornet, French author and Scientist.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Give one feed of sound grain daily. Oats as a single food will tend to lessen fat.

Before fattening goslings are rather tender. Sell off all the old hens and surplus cockerels.

The best layers are generally indifferent table fowls.

Disinfect the poultry house thoroughly with carbolic acid.

Nests lined with tobacco leaves prevent all trouble with lice.

The best layers will nearly always be found to be the active ones.

In building a poultry house make all the internal arrangements movable so that when the house is to be cleaned they may readily be taken out.

The guinea is one of the best of foragers. It seeks its food without scratching and not only eats the seeds of noxious plants, but is very quick and very successful in destroying weeds.

When chickens droop, look sleepy, have a rough appearance, refuse food and do not grow, look closely on the heads, necks and vents for large body lice—not the little red mites.—St. Louis Republic.

THAT MAN AND HOE.

"The Man With a Hoe" seems to be interesting everybody except the gentleman with the instrument.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Professor Edwin Markham of Oakland, Cal., who wrote "The Man With the Hoe," will go to Europe to spend the summer. That is the home of the men with the rake, who rather in American money by many millions a year.—Evening Wisconsin.

If Edwin Markham was shooting at the Iowa farmer in his poem, "The Man With the Hoe," he missed his target. Any efforts in that direction should be addressed to "The Man With the Riding Plow, the Cultivator, the Self Binder and the Steam Thrasher."—Sioux City Journal.

A CLOSE SHAVE.

Shaving off one's beard doesn't make a man a priest.—Washington Democrat.

Some men never shave themselves for fear of cutting their best friend.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Whenever we see a man with a curled mustache we figure out that he can't have much else to do.—Washington Democrat.

A man never feels better repaid for his labor than when he has shaved off his beard and folks don't know him.—Berlin (Md.) Herald.

THE BANK CASHIER.

Society is becoming more highly developed every day, particularly in the way of keeping a vigilant eye upon bank cashiers whose habits exceed their salaries.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

The defalcation of another bank cashier who had used the funds of the bank, which he had the opportunity to handle almost entirely without supervision, in stock speculations, raises the question whether any cashiers who do this sort of thing get on the right side of the market.

Windsor Mills.

(News items for insertion in the DAILY RECORD will be gladly received by A. McLean, local correspondent, Windsor Mills.)

Sept. 8.—Mr. Geo. Caldwell, of Huntingdon, formerly of this place, is visiting his old associates here.

News has been received of the death of Mr. Michael McMahon in the Klondike, by typhoid fever. The death of this young man casts a large number of relatives and acquaintances into mourning. He, in company with Mr. Frank Woolly, left here for the Klondike with sympathetic and admiring friends wishing them all prosperity.

Mr. McMahon is a brother-in-law of Mr. M. Pye, of the C. P. Co., and it was through him we had cognizance of the melancholy news.

THEATRE WAS BLOWN DOWN.

St. Thomas Park Building Collapses Just Before the Performance.

St. Thomas, Ont., Sept. 9.—The summer theatre at Pinafore Park, belonging to the Street Railway Company, was blown down by a terrific storm that passed over this city about eight o'clock Thursday night. The performance, which was to start at 8:30, when the building collapsed.

John Sparr, 24 years of age, who resides on Curtis street, this city, and who is connected with the theatre, was badly injured. The rest were taken from the ruins and escaped with various cuts and bruises. The structure was erected about three months ago.

BEAUTIFUL KILLARNEY.

It Takes Three Days to "Do" Its Attractions Thoroughly.

A certain tourist who was doing all the sights of the Holy Land with painful earnestness was scandalized to see an American arrive one afternoon, hurry round all the sacred places and make ready to depart betimes on the morrow. He ventured to inquire of this bustling traveler why, having come so far, he rushed away so quickly. "Six," replied the Yankee, "I am timed to do Europe in a fortnight. I have thrown in the Holy Land, and if I stay here longer than one night I cannot see Killarney, which takes three days." That American had been well advised. Energetic, bustling tourists have endeavored to see all the beauties of the place in one day, and though they have been delighted and overreached by what they saw, they have not been able to restrain a pang of regret at the thought of what they had missed.

Killarney, if not in itself at least by description, is known the world over and has a great reputation to maintain, but, unlike many other places of renown, it does not belie it. The lakes of Killarney may not prove to be quite as the stranger anticipated, but the impression he carries away is none the less one of profound admiration and wonder. The particular charm which wraps him in that of the peaceful loveliness and serenity of the whole, and this strikes home with increased conviction after passing by the waterway from the upper to the lower lake. The former sheet of water, enveloped as it is by ragged peaks and gloomy, unclothed mountains, cannot vie with the lower lake, whose magnificent stretch of silver waves is fringed and caressed by foliage and trees, by rich meadows and sweet smelling blooms, while the rugged outlines of the wild hills is softened by the purple haze, and space is lost in an infinity of graceful undulations. The boat ride from the far edge of the upper lake to the ruins of Ross castle is an experience which cannot be described. It must be enjoyed, and rest assured it will linger in the memory to the last day.—London Times.
