BEAUHARNOIS PROJECT HELD UP IN HOUSE AS A GIGANTIC CONSPIRACY

Allegations of Fraud, Misrepresentation and Improper Dealings Levelled Against Promoters by Progressive Party Leader—Declared Montreal Senator Netted Thirty Million Dollars for Part Taken in Negotiations and Claimed Attempt Made to Corrupt Judiciary of Quebec Province.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 20.—Investigation of the Beauharnois Power Corporation, its subsidiary companies and its hydraulic development scheme in the St. Lawrence area of the Province of Quebec, will be made by a parliamentary committee. This announcement was made in the House of Commons yesterday by Premier R. B. Bennett after a day long debate on the corporation, its financial make-up, its probable effect upon the canalization of the St. Lawrence and whether it was living up to its charter rights and privileges.

For some time Premier Bennett has been gathering information on the Beauharnois project, he informed the House. It had been shown by Government engineers that the Beauharnois Canal, now under construction, was larger than provided for under the original order-in-council.

"The St. Lawrence River undoubtedly is being dewatered if the cubic feet per second provided for by the original lease granted to the company by the Province of Quebec, plus the lease to take away 30,000 second feet additional, is given effect to," the Premier declared.

T. A. Reid, Liberal member for New Westminster, B.C., toward the close of the day drew attention to the discrepancy between the domestic and foreign grain freight rates on the Pacific Coast. He intimated he would move an amendment to the motion to go into supply, which possibly will come before the House today.

Robert Gardiner, U.F.A. leader, precipitated the Beauharnois discussion when he moved the adjournment of the House "to discuss a matter of urgent public importance." It developed into one of the most hectic days of the session. Mr. Speaker Black on many occasions called members to order for using extravagant language and for otherwise transgressing the debating rules of the House. A tense atmosphere hung over the chamber. Crowded galleries leaned forward to catch every word and the members generally forsook the lobbies and remained in their seats in the House.

The whole Beauharnois project was held up as a gigantic conspiracy to secure for private interests the entire flow of the St. Lawrence River for hydraulic purposes. Allegations of fraud, misrepresentation and improper dealings were levelled against the promoters. Charges were made that members of the Senate were interested in the power scheme. It was insinuated Beauharnois officials had attempted to corrupt the Judiciary of the Province of Quebec. Frequent interruptions, heated cross chamber repartee, points of order and objections punctuated the discussion practically all day.

Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, welcomed an investigation because some members of the U.F.A.-Labor-Progressive group "will get a chance then to make good some of the general statements they have been making on the floor of this House about judges, members of Parliament and everyone else who does not happen to be one of their own number."

"In the committee," the Liberal leader proceeded, "every one will be given a chance to prove any charge he may bring, but he will be obliged to prove it, not under the privileges which he has as a member of Parliament, but by evidence which he can produce of a character which would be accepted in a court of law."

It still was not too late to secure "for the people of Canada their heritage which Sweezy and his friends are attempting to acquire by fraud and conspiracy," declared Mr. Gardiner. The King Government had no authority to approve the application to divert 40,000 cubic feet of water per second from the river. The Beauharnois development was "without real legal foundation and contrary to the laws and treaty obligations of Canada."

"To add insult to injury," the U.F.A. leader proceeded, "they have secured this past winter 30,000 additional cubic feet per second from the Province of Quebec, and are awaiting a favorable opportunity to ask for another order-in-council from this Government."

Senator Wilfrid L. McDougall came in for mention from Mr. Gardiner, who quoted him as telling the Senate he did not own stock in the Beauharnois Company. He had evidence, the U.F.A. leader declared, to prove that Senator McDougall was (Continued on page 12)

EARTH TREMORS WERE FELT IN LISBON TODAY

Created Panic Among Populace—No Casualties Were Reported and Damage Was Only Slight.

LISBON, May 20.—Portugal's capital city was rocked by two sharp earth shocks early today, one of ten seconds duration. No casualties were reported and the damage was slight.

The first occurred at 3:20 a.m. It created panic among the populace and they deserted their beds for streets and cellars. The longer one waited the more minutes later shaking the city severely.

The damage was small considering the sharpness of the tremors. Water mains were broken, building walls were cracked, a few chimneys were felled and household furnishings were knocked about. Shocks also were reported in the Madeira Islands, and at Coimbra and Leiria but no injury to life or property was reported.

People in the provinces also were badly frightened. In Lisbon's night club patrons standing to the street without paying their checks. All the telephone girls in the central exchange deserted their switchboards as the building swayed.

At Oporto and Braga hundreds of people in the streets to pray for the night in the fields, and the same situation was reported from a dozen other points.

GERMANY LOSES ITALIAN SUPPORT OVER LISTING TRAINED RESERVES

Italy and France Back Stand of Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson that German Proposals Are Too Idealistic—League Council Refuses to Reopen Matter Rejected by Preparatory Disarmament Commission—Hold Conference in Geneva.

GENEVA, May 20.—Renewed debate in the League of Nations Council today on the principle of limiting trained reserves and war materials disclosed that Germany had lost Italy's support in this controversy over the provisions of a projected general disarmament treaty.

The question was raised when the council attempted to determine the form of a questionnaire which the states will be requested to fill out preliminary to the conference next February 2. The form would disclose the current state of each country's armaments.

Julius Curtius, Germany's Foreign Minister, urged the use of a form which would include a report on the status of trained reserves and war materials on hand. Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, characterized that as "too idealistic" and pointed out that the preparatory arms commission already had rejected the principle.

Aristide Briand, speaking for France, reiterated his country's case against limiting trained reserves and supported Mr. Henderson's suggestion of a tabular form harmonizing with the provisions of the draft convention produced by the preparatory commission.

Ono Grandi, Italian Foreign Minister, also cast his vote for the British formula, asserting that the Italian government believes the question of principle should not be reopened. At the preparatory commission Italy supported the German stand.

The issue was tabled until Friday. Geneva was selected as the place for the general disarmament conference next February.

ENGINEER OF HIGH REPUTE PASSED AWAY

Sir Trevor Dawson, Whose Death Occurred in London, Was Well Known in Canada.

LONDON, May 20.—Sir Arthur Trevor Dawson, leading engineer and ordnance expert and a commander of the Royal Navy, emergency list, died yesterday at the age of sixty-five years. He was a director of Vickers and chairman or director of several allied companies, and a member of the leading engineering societies. Sir Arthur was known in Canada on account of his visits to this country both on business connected with the Vickers shipbuilding firm, and also for his social and family connections, he being linked by marriage with the Henshaw family and a first cousin of Lady Frederick Williams-Taylor.

Born at Richmond, Surrey, the son of Hugh Dawson, barrister-at-law, he was educated at the Royal Naval College, Gosport, and the Royal Artillery College, Woolwich, and the Torpedo School of H.M.S. Vernon. He served on board of several of H.M.'s ships and was on the ordnance staff of H.M.S. Excellent. In 1892 he became experimental officer at Woolwich Arsenal, and in 1896 superintendent of ordnance to Vickers, and later chairman of their artillery and shipbuilding management board. He was also chairman and director of several other companies associated with his firm.

Sir Trevor Dawson, who was created a Baronet in 1920, was active in the engineering and mechanical world through societies and organizations of that character, among such being the Institution of Naval Engineers, the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, the Royal United Service Institution. He was past president of the Junior Institute of Engineers, vice-president of the Council of Imperial Society of Knights Bachelor; held the Grand Cross of the Order of Naval Merit of Spain; held certain Japanese orders, and had published some works on ordnance.

INQUEST HELD INTO DEATH OF M. B. KAUFMAN

Quebec Jury Decided Wealthy Boston Manufacturer Died from Privation and Exposure.

QUEBEC, Que., May 20.—Following an inquest presided over by Dr. Edouard Auger, of St. John's, a verdict of death from privation and exposure, was returned in the death of Mitchell B. Kaufman, wealthy Massachusetts businessman, whose body was found in the woods at the head of Rivière du Loup, in Beauce County, early yesterday morning. There were no marks of violence on the remains, which were in an advanced state of decay and the only article found in the dead man's clothing was a pocket watch. Identification of Kaufman's body was made by his brother-in-law, Albert Wetherill, a representative of an American insurance company. Coroner Auger announced yesterday that he would open his inquest this forenoon, but owing to the fact that better time was made than was expected in transferring the body from the isolated spot where it was discovered, to Armstrong, the doctor decided to hold the autopsy at once. Following the inquest a group of men set out with Kaufman's body for St. Gedeon, a distance of eight miles. As there are no vehicular roads in this section the body had to be carried the full distance on a stretcher and at one point the little group accompanying the remains was forced to make a detour to make-shift raft to convey the body across Lac Loup. On arrival at St. Gedeon the body was placed on board a Quebec Central train en route for Boston.

Mitchell B. Kaufman, wealthy Massachusetts rubber magnate, disappeared early last November while on a hunting trip in the woods bordering on Beauce and the state of Maine, and while scores of expert guides and woodsmen scoured the surrounding forests for several months no trace of the missing man was found until yesterday when a guide named Wilson, member of a party of men engaged by Kaufman's relatives in a renewed search, came across the body lying in the bush at the head of Lac Loup.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 20.—John Factor, alias "Jake the Barber," sought for an alleged $500,000 swindle in Great Britain, surrendered to Government authorities today and was held for arraignment before a United States commissioner.

LOTTERIES LEGALIZATION PROPOSAL WAS DEFEATED

LONDON, May 20.—The House of Commons came down hard yesterday on advocates of legalization of lotteries in support of hospitals, defeating by 181 to 58 an application by a Conservative member for leave to introduce a bill authorizing the operation of such lotteries.

There has been considerable agitation in favor of loosening up the laws in this respect, in view of the great sums which have gone out of the country into the Irish hospital sweepstakes on horse races while charitable institutions at home need money.

BODY OF LOST EXPLORER HAS BEEN LOCATED

Body of Professor Alfred Wegener Found Ninety-Three Miles from His Camp at Eismitte.

BERLIN, May 20.—Reports to the Wolff Bureau today said a relief expedition in Greenland had found the body of Professor Alfred Wegener, German explorer, ninety-three miles from his camp at Eismitte.

Eskimos had found it before the expedition arrived and wrapped it in furs, the report said.

Professor Alfred Wegener headed a German expedition into Greenland last year and has not been heard from since November when he started with one Eskimo and one sled from his base camp for the west coast.

Last week the relief expedition found the sled and the explorer's skis. It was then that hope for his safety was definitely abandoned.

CANADIAN HEADS SPECIAL GROUP APPOINTED AT WHEAT CONFERENCE

Winnipeg Man Chairman of Special Committee Which Will Examine Means of Disposing of World's Surplus Wheat—Various Proposals Have Been Made for Committee's Consideration—Eagerly-Awaited Statement of Soviet Russian Scheme Expected Today.

LONDON, May 20.—The conference of wheat exporting nations of the world today appointed a special committee, under the chairmanship of one of the Canadian delegates, Mr. Darby, of Winnipeg, to examine means of disposing of the world's surplus wheat.

Various proposals have been made for the committee's consideration, including the denaturing of a portion of the surplus stock in order to confine its use to fodder purposes for livestock and the disposal of agreed portions at special low prices in those countries now using little or no wheat, such as China, with a view to increasing world consumption.

The committee immediately began its deliberations. Two other committees are also at work, one on statistics and the other engaged in endeavoring to reduce the proposals made by various delegations to one common plan.

Hungary and Rumania today submitted plans along the same broad lines as those of Poland, Australia and the Danubian countries yesterday, proposing an international organization to control and direct exports, with quotas for each exporting country. But while the conference is still in the committee stage on these proposals, it is understood that opinion is definitely divided on the value of export quotas.

The conference proper meets again this afternoon to hear the eagerly-awaited statement of the Soviet Russian scheme. Isidore Lubinoff, Deputy Commissioner for Foreign Trade, will outline the Soviet's position regarding the world wheat situation. The proposals submitted by the other delegations all include some sort of restricted export, while the United States has placed before the conference the United States plan of reduced acreage.

But if the Soviet representatives decline to participate in any agreement which would restrict their activities in world grain markets, it seemed certain that whatever the others might reach, the Russian question would remain a vexing obstacle to regulation and stabilization of the wheat markets.

The Closed Doors.

I close my doors. You have no right to open them by day or night. —Midget the Mouse.

Midget is a true Mouse. Yes, sir, you would know that just to get a glimpse of him. What you wouldn't discover at a glance, however, is the fact that he is a member of a particular branch of that family. Unless you had him in your hands to examine, or happened to be watching him gather in seeds and so saw his cheeks gradually swell without apparent cause, you wouldn't suspect the pockets in his cheeks. All the members of his branch of the Mouse family have these pockets and so are called Pocket Mice. Midget is the smallest, so small that he will weigh less than an ounce. He is a pretty little fellow with a yellow silky coat. Because of the latter he is called the Silky Pocket Mouse. Some of his cousins and neighbors have such coarse hair in their coats that they are called Spiny Pocket Mice.

Farmer Brown's Boy had seen Midget in the moonlight and had quite fallen in love with him. Now, moonlight is all very nice for certain things, but not so satisfactory as sunlight for seeing clearly. So it came about that the next morning right after breakfast Farmer Brown's Boy was back at that place where the night before he had watched Longfoot the Kangaroo Rat and Midget. Not a single kernel of the grain he had left there remained. He got not so much as a glimpse of either of his acquaintances of the night before. Only fairy-like footprints in the sand remained to prove that those pretty, lively little folk had been there.

"Well," said Farmer Brown's Boy, "for a little fellow you are smart!"

Of course, he knew that the smallest, faintest prints had been made by Midget, and so he began to trace them in the hope that they would lead him to Midget's home. After a while he came to the end of one of these little trails and he guessed right away that Midget's home was close by. He looked for a hole in the sand, but no hole could he find. Under a small bush was what appeared like a very low mound and on the edge of this Farmer Brown's Boy noticed a tiny heap of sand as if it had been thrown out by someone digging a hole. He looked more closely and saw what looked as if it might be a doorway filled with sand. With a small stick he pushed away the sand and found that he was right. It was the opening to a small tunnel. Even while he was looking at it some grains of sand came out almost in his face, for he had his face very close to the hole trying to look in.

Then Farmer Brown's Boy began also Mrs. Wm. Nutbrown and children, all of Sawyerville, motored here and spent the week-end with friends.

Master Alvin Guy, of Kinnear's Mills, spent the week-end with his cousin, Mr. Elmore Guy.

Miss Mabel Griggs, of Clapham, was a recent guest of Miss Pearl MacLeod.

Mr. Joseph Cordick, of Lower Ireland, spent a couple of days at Mr. Fred Crawford's.

Mr. Everade McKee and Mr. Rob Jamieson and sister, Miss Jennie, were visiting friends at Kinnear's Mills on Sunday.

The Orangemen's dance on Friday evening, May 15, was well attended, and all report a good time.

to chuckle. "I do believe," said he, "that the door is actually being closed in my face."

It was Midget, for this was Midget's home; he was closing that doorway with sand just as fast as he could. He was making his little feet fairly fly as he kicked sand into place. Farmer Brown's Boy waited until the doorway was quite filled with sand. Then he removed it as before, and as before Midget immediately began to kick sand to close the door. Presently Farmer Brown's Boy found another closed door and opened this with precisely the same result. It was perfectly clear that Midget wanted no visitors and didn't mean to have any if he could help himself.

"Well," said Farmer Brown's Boy, "for a little fellow you are smart. I imagine that an open doorway wouldn't be the safest thing around here. I don't know who your enemies are, but an open door would be an invitation to walk in or dig in. A closed door isn't likely to be noticed. And you are right on the job to close it as fast as it is opened. Yes, sir, we must so. I guess I'll have to come around here after jolly, round, hot Mr. Sun goes to bed. It is evident that you are too sensible to come out in the heat of the day."

So Farmer Brown's Boy didn't bother Midget any more then, but started back for the ranch.

MOTHS CAN'T LIVE with FLY-TOX

Like oil and water, FLY-TOX and Moths do not mix. When FLY-TOX spray touches moths or moth worms they die. They can't live with FLY-TOX.

With the hand sprayer, send fine FLY-TOX mist directly on clothing and furs, on rugs and upholstery, into chests and closets. Kill the moth before the damage is done. Moths will riddle clothing with holes and leave it damaged beyond repair. FLY-TOX will kill all the moths and stop moth destruction. Guaranteed not to stain. Harmless to people.

Fourth Annual District Meeting of Y's Men's Clubs in Eastern Canada Held—Interesting Discussions.

Discussions regarding finances and the International Convention were the chief items of interest at the fourth annual district meeting of the Y's Men's Clubs in Eastern Canada, which was held recently in Quebec. A number of suggestions were put forward in connection with the convention, one being that it be held once in two or four years. Officials only would act as representatives and there would be three from each district.

Mr. Henry Malette, of New Haven, Conn., led a discussion on the "Basis of Membership," when he declared that in his opinion the association had in many ways ceased to be a movement for common uplift and had deteriorated into a business organization. In the mind of the speaker, the association could not fulfill its functions as a movement until there had been a stock taking of its purpose and objective.

Two other interesting addresses were given by Mr. H. Grime. One was on "The Place of the Y's Men's Club in Emphasizing the Y.M.C.A. Message," and the second an illustrated lecture which showed the centres in which Y's Men's Clubs operate.

Before the close of the meeting, the Resolutions Committee brought in its report. It was decided that the International Convention will be held every year as at present, but only clubs with representative delegates will be asked to share in the convention pool. Each club will have a delegate present once in two years.

Among the officers who were elected for the coming year was Mr. H. Griffith, of Sherbrooke, who was appointed district lieutenant.

SPECIAL SPRING SHOWING OF THE FRIGIDAIRE LINE

Will Begin Tomorrow and Continue for Three Days at the Showrooms of H. C. Wilson & Sons, Limited.

The annual spring showing of Frigidaire electric refrigerators in this city will begin tomorrow and will continue over a three-day period, H. C. Wilson & Sons, Limited, local distributors, announced today. The showing will be open evenings during the demonstration and arrangements have been made for special accommodation of visitors.

"Much interest has been created everywhere in the splendid Frigidaire line which is being offered this year and this spring opening will make it possible for many people to see these new models for themselves and become acquainted with their many points of superiority. We believe that this is by far the finest line of Frigidaires ever offered the public," said Mr. Wilson, "providing as they do lower operating cost, more ice capacity, faster freezing, acid resisting porcelain finish in the food compartment, more surplus power, quieter operation and all the other features which combine to make a really advanced electric refrigerator."

"The new Waldorf-Astoria at New York, said to be the finest hotel in the world, and the new Empire State Building, the tallest in the world, rising skyward 108 stories, are both equipped with the same type of Frigidaires that are being exhibited at our spring showing. We feel sure that everyone will want to see these new Frigidaires."

SEVERAL APPEAR BEFORE RECORDER

Recorder Forest had a busy time this morning, there being seven cases on the roll. Two of these were for begging and the remainder for vagrancy.

Denis Clement, of Joliet, and Agéard Morin, of Richmond, appeared on a charge of begging on Alexander street. They were found guilty of the offence and both sentenced to fines of $3 and costs or five days in jail.

Two women, Jeanne Cardinal and Irene Rodrigue, arrested yesterday at the C.N.R. station, were accused of vagrancy. They were sentenced to fines of $30 and costs or thirty days in jail.

Three foreigners, Jos Penick, Steve Stos and Joe Miholi, two of whom could not speak either French or English, while the third had a difficult time making himself understood, appeared in the Recorder's Court accused of vagrancy. The three were let off with suspended sentences.

High School to give consideration to the closing activities for the season. The meeting was presided over by the president, George Banks.

The first matter to be considered was the election of officers for the coming year. It was decided that this matter be held over till the opening of the activities in September. A motion was made that this season's events be closed with a social event at the Y's Men's Camp on Friday, May 29th, and a general committee composed of Victor Newton, John Hogg and Melville Gifford was appointed to make arrangements. Mr. Carvel Hammond urged those present to get behind the H-Y Club movement and make it the success it should be.

A THREATENING PEST
Some of the citizens are becoming alarmed at the large number of tent caterpillars which are making their appearance in the shade trees in the town. One resident reports as many as seven on a single lot, with possibly many more which the growing foliage will eventually hide in a few days, leaving the caterpillars to spread through the trees and devour at will.

A determined movement to destroy these tents now would result in not only the saving of the foliage of the trees, but a much more comfortable and pleasant summer for those who like to enjoy their shade trees. To combat this pest on a large scale, in forests or large woods, would, of course, be practically impossible, on account of the expense involved. At any rate, nature will probably balance the matter before another summer. But in towns and in orchards the case is different, and if every one who has trees around their homes

SHOULD ACCEPT GROUPS WITH THEIR IDEALS

Foreign Groups or Nations Should Not Be Merely Tolerated, But Should Be Accepted With Their Own Thoughts, Ideas and Characteristics, Declared Mr. James Watermann Wise.

That all foreign groups or nations should be accepted with their own thoughts, ideas, characteristics and personalities, and not be merely tolerated, and that we should learn to control all tendencies which threaten the relations of groups, was the keynote struck by Mr. James Watermann Wise, of New York, prominent lecturer and author, who addressed the local Rotary Club yesterday noon at a luncheon held at the New Sherbrooke House.

Civilization is not a matter of uniformity or standardization, declared Mr. Wise, in endeavoring to demonstrate that the distinctiveness which marks every foreign group coming into a country must not be the basis of hatred. "Group solidarity, which is the method of the savage," continued the speaker, "keeps away the rich qualities and ideas of another people." There should be no group solidarity, exclaimed Mr. Wise. A nation should extend a glad, eager welcome to all foreign groups, and these should not be accepted with easy or negative tolerance.

Before striking the keynote of his address, Mr. Wise remarked on the importance of Rotary International, insofar as it is an important factor in the adjustments that must be made between nations and peoples. He declared that the scientific achievements of the world during the past decade have outrun the human achievements. The machinery is more powerful than the human spirit, and if the world continues in this manner civilization will eventually be destroyed. There must be an adjustment between nations and peoples, he declared.

"Tribal solidarity waned for a time. The thought came to the people of America in 1848, that there should be a union of all creeds and races. The distinctions and personalities should be buried and that one uniform family should be the result. This, the idea of the melting pot, was doomed to failure, for it was founded on a misapprehension. It meant to destroy and not to accept people from other countries with their thoughts and ideals, their memories, their individualities, or their knowledge and experience," continued the speaker.

"When I suggest that a group be received and treated as an individual, not standardized and imposed with new ideals only, I am not making a plea for tolerance," explained Mr. Wise. "I detest tolerance," he said, and pointed out that tolerance means a considered superiority on the part of one group over another. There is no fundamental superiority between races, he said. "There is distinctiveness, but no superiority. 'Tolerance,' he continued, "is a negative and not a positive virtue, if virtue it can be called."

"Our attitude towards new groups should be one of welcome and appreciation of what they bring with them. Only weak nations," he said, "are afraid of new thought and new individual personalities. The strong will not be affected. As an orchestra is not composed of one sort of instrument, but of a large number, from which issues a deep harmony, which is not uniformity or unity, so it should be with civilization."

A vote of thanks was moved by speaker by Rotarian Dave Salls.

GREAT DUTCH PAINTER DIED IN BANKRUPTCY

Rembrandt Went Bankrupt Thirteen Years Before His Death and Never Succeeded in Paying His Creditors.

THE HAGUE, Holland, May 20. — Rembrandt, the great Dutch master of painting, died in 1669, when he was about fifty years of age, and though he lived for thirteen years afterwards and did some of his finest work in those thirteen years, he never succeeded in paying off his creditors and he died a bankrupt. For the past 160 years or thereabouts, posterity has held Rembrandt van Rijn, of Amsterdam, in the highest honor. It has brought this or that painting or etching at a price which would have paid off all his creditors a hundred times over, but still his memory has not been cleared of the cloud that rested on his name when he died. His probity has not been restored. He has not been discharged from bankruptcy.

Now, however, a descendant of a brother of Rembrandt's first wife, Saskia van Uylenburg, has applied to the Amsterdam Court for the rehabilitation of Rembrandt.

The Handelsblad has published the text of the request made by the applicant, whose name is not given, but who is stated to be a student at Utrecht University. He says that he has a great admiration for his "forefather" Rembrandt, and is filled with sorrow that the last part of the master's life should have been passed in a bankruptcy from which he has never such adverse circumstances, ending in being rehabilitated. The sad lot of the master forms a sharp contrast to the fame of his works and the profits made by publishers, authors and art dealers.

The student avows that accord-

DOT LOSES IN LOVE TRIANGLE

She's sailed for Honolulu to marry John McCormick, movie director, in response to a cable proposal—that's the report about Mrs. Janet Hamilton Gattis, lower right, widow of a naval officer. Not long ago McCormick, upper right, took out a license to wed beautiful Dorothy Mackall, left, screen actress, but that's been called off. Now Miss Mackall, reported engaged to Neil Miller since the first romance, has postponed these nuptials. Is this the way they get ideas for movie plots?

ing to Dutch law, Rembrandt had the right to demand his rehabilitation, and that this right also exists for a descendant of the master. He supports his demand for the Court's pronouncement of rehabilitation with a long list of legal arguments based on the bankruptcy laws of Holland from the 17th century to the present time. He cites a book recently written by Dr. H. W. van Loon, born a Dutchman and afterwards naturalized in the United States, entitled "The Life and Times of Rembrandt van Rijn," in which the last sad years of Rembrandt are described.

An amount of 6,932 florins and 90 cents was paid, out of the proceeds of the sale of the master's estate on his death, to Titus van Rijn, Rembrandt's son by Saskia. Nothing seems to have been paid to Rembrandt's ordinary creditors, but no list of these creditors exists. This, the student contends, facilitates the case for rehabilitation. He pleads for a favourable decision so that the term of bankruptcy may not for ever remain on the property left by Rembrandt.

HOW GOOD ADVERTISING TRAVELS WITH PRINT.

Possibly a hundred newspapers in Canada have commented upon the Annual Review Number of the Record, but one which we value much because of its faraway origin has been laid on our desk by W. Valentine Macintosh, son of Judge Macintosh, of Stirling, Scotland, who is presently resident in Sherbrooke, and who is an all-round sportsman, a champion lawn tennis player, a lawn bowler, cricketer, and rugby player.

The Editor of the Stirling Journal and Advertiser, one of Scotland's leading daily newspapers, holds up the Record's contents as an example that might be followed by some of Scotland's towns and cities.

In his letter to the Editor Mr. Macintosh had commended the issue to the members of the Stirling Development Board, a body akin to our Chamber of Commerce, and he said: "The value of co-operative citizenship and of press advertising is fully realized by all Canadian towns, and they are prepared to offer all sorts of inducements to manufacturers who settle within their boundaries."

The Stirling Journal, in the course of a discursive column extolling Mr. Macintosh's suggestions, gives the City of Sherbrooke a splendid boost just at the time when British manufacturers have their thoughts turned to the problems of branch factories to overcome tariffs, as advocated by the Prince of Wales in his recent address in Manchester. We publish this extract from the Editorial news article under the headline of Sherbrooke's Dual "Record."

SHERBROOKE'S DUAL "RECORD."

"In the course of his letter to the 'Journal,' Mr. Macintosh calls our attention to a copy of the yearly anniversary issue of the 'Sherbrooke Record' newspaper. We agree with him that it is quite a wonderful journalistic achievement for a town of this size—29,500 population—bearing in mind the fact that sixty-five per cent. of the inhabitants are French-speaking Canadians. This particular issue, which is printed wholly in the English language, is printed in three sections and runs to sixty pages.

"The 'Record,' of Sherbrooke, would in the eyes of the average Stirling citizen constitute a record in civic enterprise, for the Corporation of that town has an entire page advertisement dealing with 'The Truth about Sherbrooke and its City Council.' Here it is stated that 'during the past year Sherbrooke and its City Council have received much unfavourable publicity from a portion of the Press. For information of 'Record' readers the following facts are supplied—the following facts relating to tax duties: financial statistics of Canadian Municipalities, showing Sherbrooke at the top of the Province of Quebec towns; acreage and population of Sherbrooke, industrial establishments of the town, giving number employed in normal times; statistics of municipal electric department, gas department, water department; general statistics as to cost of all paving during 1930, and the cost of side walks and gas mains, sewers, and water mains.

"And in bold and excellent displayed type at the foot of the page appears the announcement 'Sherbrooke is a good place in which to live: Sherbrooke is financially sound. Sherbrooke is progressive! Sherbrooke is well administered.

"They do things well in Sherbrooke. Stirling could take this page out of the Sherbrooke Corporation's book—to advantage. The 'Journal' intends, therefore, to place this valuable copy of the 'Sherbrooke Record' at the disposal of the Stirling Development Board, of which the proprietor, Mr. A. B. Learmonth, is a Committee member."

In another column of the Stirling journal extracts are given from the advertisement of the Town of Magog. We should have some enquiries from the Scottish jam factories for sites. Stirling is famous for many condiments, and we certainly appreciate the compliment paid to our city through the initiative of a fellow-townsmen from Stirling who has adopted Sherbrooke as his home.

SWEESTAKES AND LOTTERIES.

A few members of the Senate of Canada are sponsoring a bill to legalize sweepstakes in Canada, with the ostensible purpose of regulating the three different names: Lotteries, sweepstakes and raffles.

About thirty years ago a member of Parliament named Miller sponsored an Act of Parliament with the advertised intention of putting a stop to horse racing and the consequent gambling which has put these tracks on a sound business basis, as it is in Mexico.

I do not care to mention the names of those Senators who have sponsored a lottery measure, for call it sweepstakes or raffle, it is a lottery still, but can only say that they are old enough to know better. They cannot afford to bismirch the high reputation of the Senate Chamber by advocating a reversion to that which Canada has frowned upon for many decades—lotteries and gambling.

To legalize lotteries under the guise of charity or of any other two-faced disguise is tantamount to setting up a bar and brass rail in the church hall.

Surely such legislation is beneath the dignity of the Senators, no matter how specious the reason.

At the moment we do not care to pillory the individual Senators who have been made the victims of smooth confidence men of the same ilk as those who lobbied the horse-racing meets into Canada.

ALL'S WELL WITH THE WORLD.

I have a column letter from a correspondent in Waterville, evidently a letter which is being sent out through the mimeograph process. The signer asks me to please publish it, under his title of "Adam and Atheism." He premises his letter with the statement that we are confronted with the greatest contest the world has ever known, and he continues that both Russia, Berlin and the American universities are "seething with atheism or agnosticism."

With not a tittle of evidence to substantiate his statements the writer expects that we shall broadcast the imaginations of a fearsome obsession.

With a finger on the pulse of the world, with a knowledge of the advance of civilization throughout the continents we can assure our correspondent that he can rest easy in his bed. Noah received the promise that even they who live in the valleys are safe from all harm.

Not long since a Toronto University student indulged in a nightmare of atheism, and he printed his dreams. They were quickly proven unfounded.

"Adam was the brainiest man that ever lived," is another idea of our correspondent. Eve could handle Adam quite easily.

Let me assure our correspondent that "God is in his Heaven; all's well with the world," and that I do not care to publish a column of disquietude.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

The Hon. Ramsay MacDonald has given notice that his appeal to the people of England will be on an appeal to the prejudice of the poor against the rich, embodied in an attack against the House of Lords, who conservatively oppose any Socialistic measures carried by co-operation of the Labour and Lloyd George parties. It is not likely that the Conservatives will allow the main issue to be side-tracked by the wily Prime Minister. Hon. Mackenzie King won the election of 1926 on Lord Byng's interference, in which the King Government threw up the sponge after the 1925 election and demanded a dissolution. But in this case the then leader of the Opposition, Hon. Arthur Meighen, allowed the issue to stand, even though it was a matter of no importance, and was outgeneralled. This led to Mr. Meighen's resignation. A similar attempt was made in 1930 to make the issue the Imperial Conference, and who should go to it, but Mr. Bennett was too clever to permit the beclouding of the real problems of the country. . . .

Oh, ho! Likewise yo, ho! Another joyous jaunt of the City Council is proposed this summer, and all at the expense of ratepayers and rent payers. In this Hard Time year we will make this jaunt the Comedy of Errors for the members who sign up. This is not a year when the citizens are prepared to overlook a summer vacation taken at their expense. Landlubbers, ahoy!

FRONT WINDOW MUSINGS

Freedom is much like a good digestion: You never notice it much until it's about gone.

The great weakness of the tariff is that it enables manufacturers to charge more but does not tell them how to get it.

THIS DAY THIRTY YEARS AGO

From the Files of the Sherbrooke Record.
May 20th, 1901.

J. C. Holland, of the Stanstead Journal, attended a meeting in Sherbrooke of the Eastern Townships Press Association of which he is president.

A splendidly carved table, the work of the boys of the Sherbrooke Reformatory, was raffled, the winner being Harold B. Fuller.

Allie Brazel, of Birtchton, was severely injured by being run over by a heavy iron roller drawn by a pair of fractious colts.

W. Evans, of Montreal, purchased the farm of A. Converse at Melbourne, and S. F. McKay bought the house and lot at Waterville belonging to Charlie Hallett, who recently moved to Sherbrooke.

Part of the grand stand at Meadow Park, Coaticook, an adjoining building, a merry-go-round and show wagon were destroyed by fire. The owners of the property were William Smith, Eugene Bouchard and Fred Martin.

Departures from Sherbrooke included Wm. McCulloch, manager of the Paton Mills, to Montreal; Colonel Lang, U. S. Consul, to Vermont on a fishing trip; J. P. Royer to Quebec; Mrs. P. Hackett to visit friends at Stanstead.

PRESS COMMENT

THE PROHIBITION SONG

London Post.

Some Canadian friends whom I met today told that the Americans who cross the border in order to get reliable liquor at a reasonable price are responsible for the following rhyme, which is now current in Canada:

Four-and twenty Yankees, feeling rather dry,
Went across the border, to get a little rye.
When the rye was opened, the Yanks began to sing:
"Who the h—ll is Hoover? God save the King!"

MAY ON THE RIM OF THE SEA

New York Sun.

A gull that had learned how to open clams by concussion climbed slowly skyward with its prey. Surveying the earth for a cracking base, it descried some pieces of gneiss glittering with mica. The clam was dropped into a rock garden, bursting on a chunk blasted from the depths of Manhattan by subway builders. The body was expelled from the shell into a bed of pansies.

Swooping down to retrieve its victim, the gull was driven away by the family dog. The dog's master, marveling at a clam amid the flowers, baited his hook with the providential offering. Running gleefully to the sea he cast into the surf and a flounder took the hook. As the fisherman yanked his pole the flounder flew from the hook, fell on the beach and was seized by the gull; a flock came swiftly to the feast.

Next day the gull dropped a clam into the rock garden, another and still one more. The dog only growled; his master came not forth. The gull has gone back to his old practice, the pansies stare at the sky. It is May along the edge of the sea.

DOUBLE HOLIDAY TO BE CELEBRATED ON MONDAY

Canadian Victoria Day and British Whitsuntide Coincide—Whit-Monday Marked by Special Celebrations in North of England.

LONDON, May 20.—Whitsuntide is a moveable feast and because of this the people of Great Britain will be on holiday with the people of Canada. Next Monday, May 24, in Canada is Victoria Day but has always been called Empire Day here, and while Empire Day has never been a statutory holiday in Great Britain, Whit Monday has been a statutory holiday for the past sixty years. And Whit Monday coincides with Canada's delayed celebration of Victoria Day.

In the North of England, Whit Monday is marked by special celebrations among Sunday schools of nearly all religious denominations. In Manchester, Leeds, Bradford and Sheffield and many of the smaller towns of Lancashire and Yorkshire, there are processions of children. Collections of hymns are specially published and diligently practised for weeks before Whitsuntide. On Whit Monday, the scholars march to some selected centre, with brass bands, flags and banners, the smaller children going in gaily decorated trucks. For an hour or more there is singing of hymns and afterwards tea and games. Thousands of parents assemble and most of them can recall that when they took part in such festivities there was a much shorter distance for the procession to go before green fields were reached. Most of the old-time reports of the Whitsuntide gatherings have long since been built over.

LOSS IN FOREST FIRE IS FIGURED ABOUT $100,000

Blaze Swept 68 Square Miles of Poplar Growth and Destroyed 25,000 Spruce and Fir Trees in District Near Ituna, Saskatchewan.

ITUNA, Sask., May 20.—Loss in the fire which swept sixty-eight square miles of poplar growth and destroyed 25,000 spruce and fir trees in plantations on the Beaver Hills government forest reserve, twelve miles north of Ituna, during the past week, is placed at $100,000.

Following a five-day fight the fire was placed under control Saturday evening, when Forest Ranger D. McBeth and a number of other fire fighters returned to the reserve headquarters, which along with homes of settlers in the district, were threatened in the blaze.

No cause for the outbreak has been established but incendiaryism is suspected.

ATTEMPT MADE TO POISON INMATES OF ORPHAN HOME

Fifty of Four Hundred Victims of Atrocity in Mexican Institution in Serious Condition.

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, May 20.—Four hundred children and employees of the Guadalajara Orphans Asylum yesterday were suffering from poisoning believed to have originated in adulterated milk. Fifty of the poison victims are in serious condition and two of them may die.

All available doctors were rushed to the asylum when the poison began to affect the inmates yesterday and Governor Ignacio de la Nora personally took charge of the situation.

It was found that the milk regularly supplied to the asylum had been mixed with formol. Although they protested their innocence, the concessionaire and ten employees of the asylum, through whose hands the milk passed before being given to the inmates, were arrested pending an investigation.

SENTENCED TO SCRUB FLOOR CHICAGO, Ill., May 20.—Mrs. Mary Ferguson, thirty-five, was sentenced yesterday to scrub the floor of the town hall court for driving while intoxicated. She broke down and wept.

"You ought to learn," said Judge Leon Edelman, "that scrubbing floors is more dignified than getting drunk."

THE MAN WITH THE "HAIR-TRIGGER" TEMPER

He was irritable at the office, and grouchy at home. His enemies increased, his friends became fewer. Then one day his doctor told him the truth.

He had been handicapped by constipation for years. It had brought headaches and constantly irritating ills to make him "touchy." It had stolen his energy and good nature.

His doctor suggested eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. And in a few days he was a changed man, cheery, ambitious—and on the road to success and happiness.

Constipation is so unnecessary. It can be overcome so easily, so pleasantly by eating delicious Kellogg's ALL-BRAN: a delightful, ready-to-eat cereal.

Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In stubborn cases, serve ALL-BRAN with each meal.

Use this natural method and avoid the dangers of habit-forming pills and drugs. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron, which builds up the blood.

Serve ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, with fruits or honey added. Delicious when combined with canned peaches. Use in cooking too. Sold by all grocers in the familiar red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

PROGRAMME BY CHILDREN WAS MUCH ENJOYED

Little Members of Excelsior Mission Band Excelled Themselves Last Evening in St. Andrew's Church Hall.

A delightful presentation of "Mother Goose" was staged last evening in St. Andrew's Church Hall by the children of the Excelsior Mission Band, under the direction of Mrs. David T. Diplock, their superintendent, with Mr. Gault Parker as accompanist.

Before the curtain was raised the sweet children's voices were heard singing their little mission hymns behind the scenes. Mr. Gault Parker opened the programme by playing a medley of nursery rhymes, a charming and appropriate introduction to the fascinating and clever little pageant which followed.

The stage was arranged with the "Old Woman's Shoe" for a background, and after the introduction by Miss Lorna Ross, who, wearing a pretty old fashioned evening gown, appeared first on the stage, was followed by Mother Goose, Vivian Jones, who took her place and welcomed every one in a pretty rhyme. Then one by one the children answered her call, coming on the stage dressed in lovely costumes. After bowing politely, each in turn recited the old nursery rhymes they represented, followed by the missionary version.

The following characters were presented: Rock-A-Bye Baby, by Lorna Hewlett and Elinor McCune; Jack Horner, by George Johel; Little Miss Muffet, by Barbara Dunsmore; The Woman Who Lived in a Shoe, by Audrey Elliott; The Children Who Lived in a Shoe, by Arlene Wells; Betty Simonds and Carol Jamieson; Little Jumping Jean, by Shirley Ward; Pussy Cat, by Gordon Diplock; The Little Boy That Lived in the Lane, by Donald Shaw; Mary Mary Quite Contrary, by Doreen Ross; Simple Simon, by Donald Mayhew; Little Polly Flinders, by Jean Ewan; Two Girls who recited for Little Polly Flinders, by Muriel Jones and Margaret Merseaux; The Sailor, by Marian McLean; Little Girl Who Had a Doll, by Sadie McLean; Lucy Locket, by Irene Atkins; Mary Had a Little Lamb, by Doreen Macdonald; The Poor Sinner, by June Graham; Pat-A-Cake, by Florence Berry; The Five Little Pigs, by Joyce Hatch and Ruth Hutley; The Good Child, by Ruby Hatch; Little Boy Blue, by Ronald Jobert; Jack and Jill, by Douglas Murchie and Mary Murchie; Little Bo Peep, by Margaret Murchie; The Wise Boy, by Malcolm Taylor, who sang "Soldier Boy" to the Scout, by Donald Diplock.

Several choruses were sung by

CONSIDERABLE STREET WORK IS UNDER WAY

Chief Item at Present Is Montcalm Street, Which Is Being Given Long Delayed Attention.

Under the able guidance of Alderman Emory Fortier, chairman of the Road Department, and the supervision of Mr. J. T. Martel, a number of men are at present engaged in street work in various parts of the city.

Probably the most important work at present underway is that on Montcalm street. This street, although a short one, is a convenient connecting link between two more important streets, and is used perhaps more than any other residential street of the city. The street has long needed attention, and when the work is completed the road and sidewalk will be much more suited for the heavy traffic.

At present the street is all torn up. The old sidewalk has been removed and the road is dug up. It will not be long, however, before the work will be completed.

Work is also underway on Prospect street, where a small portion of paving is to be done, while at the corner of King and Belvidere streets a large portion of the cement sidewalk is being repaired.

Throughout the city similar work is going on on many streets. All work is necessary and helps to provide employment for local workmen.

Alderman Fortier during the past few days visited Fulton avenue, the only street in the city which can be said to be a "miss and a mess" sidewalk, and it is very likely that improvements will be made on this thoroughfare in the not distant future.

All the children, including nursery rhymes, Mother Goose then asked the children where they were going, and each told in verse how they were going to help missions, ending with a grand cheer "Hurrah! Hurrah! We're helping mission work along in lands afar, Hurrah!" The success of the entertainment was largely due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. David Diplock, superintendent of the Mission Band, to whom congratulations were extended upon the artistic and charming manner in which the children took their various roles and the beauty of the tout ensemble.

A DEFECTIVE WASH MACHINE CAUSED ACTION

Magog Man Brought Action for Allegedly Bad Machine Sold Him—Matter Taken On Deliberate.

An allegedly defective washing machine was the subject over which Omer Pouliot, of Magog, took an action against the Perfect Washing Machine, whose place of business is at Warwick, asking that the Court order the defendant company to repay him the money he had given towards the payment of the washer and to annul the contract. Mr. Justice Charles D. White, who presided over the case in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon, took the matter on deliberation.

Pouliot declared that in 1930 he purchased a washing machine from the defendant company for a price of $175. After a few trials, the plaintiff claimed, the washer refused to wash the clothes properly, and although he had advised the company's agents of the defects and had also written the defendants in this connection, he had received no satisfaction. Pouliot asserted that the machine was accompanied by a contract and a written guarantee to give complete satisfaction.

A delightful combination of business and pleasure took place last evening when Mrs. P. M. Robins, Stanley avenue, entertained in honor of the Girls' Branch of the Diocese of St. Peter's Church, of which branch she is the popular president. The charmingly arranged buffet supper was served in the sun porch and on the broad verandah. Covers were laid for twenty-five at small tables dimly centered with yellow pansies and forget-me-nots, while a profusion of yellow primulas carried out the color scheme in the decorations.

After supper Mrs. C. H. Bowen, honorary president of the branch, presented Miss Edna Salls, Diocesan Girls' secretary, with a lovely silver bowl from the members of the Diocesan executive of the W.A., expressing in a happy little speech the best wishes of all for her future happiness and welfare. Miss Salls graciously acknowledged the gift and kind wishes.

The closing meeting of the season then took place with Mrs. P. M. Robins in the chair. Following the reading of the minutes, the reports of the delegates to the annual Diocesan meeting in Quebec, namely, Miss Bernice Fuller and Miss Blanche Woodgate, were heard with keen interest. The report for the Diocesan Girls' Branch (of which there are nine branches) was presented by Miss Edna Salls, the secretary, and it covered girls' work throughout the Diocese of Quebec in a comprehensive and most interesting manner.

At the conclusion of the meeting the members played bridge, the successful and enjoyable social evening being a happy ending to the winter and spring work.

ALD. MORIN TO VISIT THE PRESIDENT OF MEXICO
Ald. J. C. W. N. Doak will also act as legislative representative for the United States, with headquarters at Washington.

"Johnny Canuck Morin," as his colleagues dub him, intends visiting Mexico on the invitation of the President of that country before returning home to Sherbrooke. The Congress will close its sessions about the end of the month, and Mr. Morin hopes to be home the first week in June, to take charge of the City Hall when the City Council goes on its annual joy jaunt. He will not be given the password or the grip which will admit him to the secret sessions in the lazarette, situated in the dark passage below the stockhold, and aft of the beverage deck.

Members turned out en masse, it being the largest attendance recorded during the year. The president, Mrs. R. Larrabee, presided, and during the business session several matters were completed prior to closing activities for the summer. The presence of Dr. and Mrs. George Brad was very much appreciated, and made complete the happy gathering. During the social hour which followed the meeting, vocal solos by Miss Harriet Brownlow, with Mrs. Read acting as accompanist, greatly enhanced the pleasure of the evening. The hostesses served dainty refreshments, assisted by Miss Muriel MacIntyre, bringing to a close one of the most delightful meetings of the Ladies' Guild for the season.

BARN AT BURY DESTROYED BY MORNING FIRE

Structure on Wyatt Road Belonging to Bernard Buttemer Completely Destroyed With Loss of Several Hens—Damage Partially Covered by Insurance.

BURY. May 20.—Fire early this morning destroyed the barn belonging to Mr. Bernard Buttemer, who resides on the Wyatt road on the property known as the John Wyatt place. The fire started about three-thirty o'clock and many neighbors answered the alarm. The flames, however, had made such headway that it was impossible to save the structure. At the time of the conflagration there was no live stock in the building. In an adjoining small barn, however, were many hens, half of which perished in the conflagration. The barn had recently been repaired and is understood to be partially covered by insurance.

MARRIAGES

STRACCHINO-LAFOND
KIRKDALE, Que., May 20.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Holy Trinity Church on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Florence Jane Lafond, R.N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Lafond, of this place, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Vincent Achilles Stracchino, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stracchino, of Sherbrooke.

The bride looked charming in long white satin-de-chine gown with wreath of orange blossoms and long bridal veil with train, and carried a beautiful bouquet of pink rose buds, lilies-of-the-valley and maiden hair fern. She entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. T. Lyster, of Melbourne, to the strains of the Bridal March played by Mrs. A. Cross, who also played softly throughout the service.

The bridesmaid, Miss Ruby Spaulding, of Sherbrooke, wore pale blue and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Albert Banks also of Sherbrooke, supported the groom, and the bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Lyster.

Rev. A. J. Oakley performed the ceremony and the church was well filled with friends and neighbors of the young couple.

Following the ceremony, supper was served to twenty guests at the parsonage, which was very generously loaned for the occasion by Rev. A. J. Oakley and Mrs. Oakley. Mr. and Mrs. Stracchino will make their home in Sherbrooke.

"Today I made a hole in one," boasted that dub Bill Blivet. The club wit overheard and asked: "Did you replace the divot?"

REAL SUMMER WEATHER FELT IN THIS CITY

Warmest Day This Spring Recorded Yesterday—Heat Wave Continued Today — Warm Weather Reminds One Summer Is Not Far Off.

Many a youngster idled over his school books this morning and lived in anticipation of an early visit to the "ol' swimmin' hole," and many a business man, struggling beneath the worries and cares of the day, wished himself out in the country, away from stuffy offices, warm pavements and the closeness of the city.

The warm weather which prevailed in this vicinity yesterday and today provided a taste of genuine summer. The thermometer registered as high as eighty-three degrees yesterday, while this morning at 9:30 o'clock it hovered in the vicinity of eighty degrees. This is the warmest experienced this spring, and serves to remind one that summer is "just round the corner." In fact, summer is merely one month and one day away.

With the advent of summer comes a change in the activities of many families. A large number leave for summer homes in the country and a larger number still plan week-end trips to various parts of the country. There is nothing like a taste of warm weather to awaken the youthful scholar with the fact that vacations are not far off, and that school books are very dry and uninteresting things. The months of May and June become the hardest of the year for the boys and girls at school.

Spring has almost completed its work in the country now, and the period of re-creation is nearly over. The pastures are green, the trees are heavy with their leaves, and the country side, so barren and sickly-looking a few months ago, has taken on an appearance of splendor. The forests have no longer innumerable trees, standing naked and bereft of leaves. They are green, beautiful with life again.

Yesterday's heat was a little offset during the night by a severe shower, when a little over an inch of rain fell. The temperature for yesterday was maximum eighty-three and minimum forty-five, while that for the same day last year was maximum sixty-seven and minimum thirty.

To Make Clothes Last Longer

It's hard rubbing that takes the life out of clothes. To wash with very little rubbing and to do away entirely with blueing and re-wringing just get Mack's No-Rub Flakes at any grocer and add a small quantity to the soap, using less than the usual of the latter. The clothes will come out a lovely white in 1-3 the ordinary time and will last far longer.

The 10c packet does for 3 washings and its cost is saved in soap. Try it next wash-day.

What a crushing set-back to one already carrying a burden of grief and responsibility.

WELL ATTENDED CONVENTION HELD AT BURY

Delegates from Several Branches of the Women's Institute Were Guests of Bury Society for Annual Conclave — Officers
Elected for Ensuing Year.

BURY, May 20.—A large and successful meeting of the county executive of the Women's Institute was held in the town hall on Monday, May 18th. A good representation from the Cookshire, Sawyer-ville, East Clifton, Brookbury, Canterbury, Canterbury W.I. Junior and Bury branches attended.

Mrs. F. G. Bennett, the county president, presided and Mrs. L. H. Martin gave the address of welcome which was replied to by Mrs. Edwin Waldron. The reports of the delegates from the different branches were then read and all proved interesting, showing that good work was being done in all the different localities.

The delegates representing the different branches were: East Clifton, Mrs. L. Waldron; Brookbury, Mrs. E. L. Grey; Cookshire, Mrs. M. Lefebvre; Sawyer-ville, Mrs. Harley; Canterbury, Mrs. A. Coates; Canterbury W. I. Junior, Miss Nora Goodin; and Bury, Mrs. W. Provis.

Martin; home economics, by Mrs. Pratt; legislation, by Mrs. Batley in the absence of Mrs. S. B. Coates; Canadian industries, by Mrs. Ray Waldron; and agriculture, by Mrs. A. G. Hurd.

The meeting then adjourned for luncheon which was served in the dining room of the hall, by the Bury W.I. ladies to about fifty-five guests. After luncheon routine business was transacted and reports concluded.

Miss McCain, of Macdonald College, gave a very interesting address touching on all phases of the work and Mrs. Pratt, the provincial president, also gave a splendid address.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

president, Mrs. J. A. Frazier, Cookshire; vice-president, Mrs. Nellie McClintock, Bury; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Waldron, Sawyer-ville; conveners: agriculture, Mrs. W. E. Waldron, East Clifton; Canadianization and national events, Mrs. F. G. Bennett, Canterbury; Canadian industries, Mrs. Vibert, Sawyer-ville; immigration, Mrs. R. H. Fuller, Cookshire; publicity, Mrs. L. H. Martin, Brookbury.

Mrs. F. G. Bennett, the retiring president, thanked the members for their support throughout the year and called on the new president, Mrs. J. A. Frazier, who began arrangements for the coming year for the Toronto, Cookshire and Scottstown fairs and extended an invitation to hold the semi-annual convention in Cookshire next October. The Brookbury president, invited the convention to meet with them next May.

Rev. Pollitt gave a short address and Mrs. Vibert then moved a vote of thanks to the members of the Bury W.I. for their kind hospitality and luncheon.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

GANG SYSTEM IS FOLLOWED BY MOUNTAIN GOAT

Regarded at a Natural-Born Assassin—Kills Off Rivals and Carries on Constant Warfare.

VANCOUVER, May 20.—The mountain goat is the natural-born assassin of the big game world, according to J. F. French, who has tracked members of this species in many parts of the British Columbia mountains with various important expeditions.

"It has always been a mystery that there should be so few male goats at large," says Mr. French. "It is very seldom that a hunter brings down a billy, and, roughly, I should estimate that the females run about ten to one male. The reason, according to my theory, is that the killing instinct is so thoroughly developed among the male goats that there is a constant war to the death going on among them, with the law

PRINCESS AND FLYER TO WED

Rumors of weddings and engagements have trailed beautiful Princess Diana, 22, of Rumania, since she became of age. A year ago Queen Marie announced she would marry Count von Hapsburg, but plans were suddenly abandoned. Now her engagement to Archduke Anton von Hapsburg, employee of a Vienna motion picture company and famed as an aviator, has been announced by her mother. They'll be married in June. Here they are.

of the survival of the fittest having its inevitable results.

"In all my hunting experiences, I never encountered more than five male goats in any one band, yet I have seen as many as eighty-seven females and kids in one flock. Usually billy goats are in twos or threes. And invariably the real old patriarchs are by themselves content with their own society and seclusion. "Billets—and especially the old fellows—do not fight like mountain sheep or antlered ruminants. They just walk up to another goat they dislike and hook him. The victim is invariably as good as dead and the assassin shows no contrition whatever. It is this gangster way of killing off rivals that makes for the shortage of males. There is no other way of accounting for the discrepancy in numbers between the sexes.

"Two instances in particular I have witnessed where a goat has walked up behind another male and assassinated him. One would never suspect such a tragedy was transpiring, as the fatal stab is delivered so quickly, and it is only when the victim drops or lags behind and is soon found dying that the grim ending of the encounter is realized.

"As an animal, able to typify the survival of the fittest, the goat is well equipped. He is very courageous and with his dagger-like horns can fight off the most dangerous attacks from other animals, especially when his back is to the wall, so to speak. Even a grizzly or cougar has to take him unawares in order to kill without imperiling their own lives. The bear and mountain lion are the only enemies. Golden eagles sometimes get an occasional young kid, but not if the old nannie sees the eagle before it grabs the youngster."

LONDON OFFERS WIDE RANGE OF STRANGE JOBS

Judging by a Man's Appearance, Sherlock Holmes Would Have Difficult Time Detecting Position Which He Might Hold.

LONDON, May 20.—There are queer jobs in London, jobs Sherlock Holmes could never detect by a glance at a man's shoes, his clothes or his hands.

Sponge wetters, nippers, mud-pushers, confetti counters, clock winders, pea shooters, coin ringers and the patient men who sit in little boats under Thames bridges, paddling and waiting, for somebody to fall in. One has been there ten years and the only thing he ever rescued was a hat.

Sponge wetters run around with a bucket of water at racetracks and wet bookmakers' sponges. Nippers are the chefs in London's streets who cook laborers' food and brew them tea strong enough to take the paint off a battleship. Mudpushers are the valets of Father Thames. Each time the tide recedes they clean the gravel bed by pushing the silt and muck back into the stream.

Confetti counters are girls, scores of them who take the ticket punches of London bus conductors, sort out the hundreds of colored bits of paper from the tickets punched and check them against the tickets sold.

Clock winders with long necklaces of dangling keys spend their lives winding the old clocks in government buildings and city offices. Pea shooters are early risers who scuttle through the mean streets where poor work people live blowing a mouthful of peas through a little

LEADING TEAMS WON GAMES IN MAJOR LEAGUES

Athletics Registered Eleventh Straight Victory Yesterday—Yankees Also Successful—New York and St. Louis Still Running Neck and Neck.

NEW YORK, May 20.—After starting out as if to upset the "dope," major league baseball teams are quite busy these days proving that the boys who follow the game from day to day are pretty sure of what they are taking about when they predict how a pennant race will turn out.

"A close race in the National and the Athletics again in the American," was the word that went out before the season. A glance at today's standings shows that the St. Louis and New York National League clubs are battling for the lead only a half game apart, while the Philadelphia Americans, although they have not been able to outdistance their leading rivals, are on top and have done their best to make it a runaway by winning eleven straight games.

The A's downed the Detroit Tigers by five to nothing yesterday for victory number eleven behind the unbeatable pitching of big George Earnshaw. The Philadelphia right-hander gave just two hits, while his team-mates, led by Al Simmons, made good use of nine blows off Waite Hoyt. Simmons, hitting in his seventeenth successive game, connected for a single, a double and a triple.

The victory resulted in no gain for the A's, however, for their leading rivals, the New York Yankees, staged a comeback to hand Cleveland its eleventh straight defeat by eight to six. The Indians, whose weakness is one of the season's puzzles, made a great attempt to break their losing streak by driving Charley Ruffing from the mound in the second inning. But Henry Johnson pitched good relief ball and Clint Brown could not still the big bats of the Yankees in the early innings.

Washington lost some ground as rain stopped the game at Chicago. Wet grounds halted Boston and St. Louis.

Timely slugging enabled the National League leaders and their strongest rivals, the Cardinals and Giants, to continue their race. The Cards beat Brooklyn by six to two as the Robins failed to give Babe Phelps good support. They got only two runs on eleven hits off Hallahan and Derringer and made five errors. Phelps pitched a good game up to the eighth, but then St. Louis cut loose to score five runs. The Giants took things fairly easy against Cincinnati. They used young Bill Morrell on the mound for the full game and held Fritz out of the lineup, but they won out easily by nine to three.

The fourth and fifth innings brought in seven runs, five of them coming on homers by Hogan and Ott.

The third place Boston Braves continued their pursuit of the leaders by pushing Chicago deeper into fourth place. Aided by three run errors, the Braves scored eight runs in the first inning and won out by nine to five.

"Ace" Elliott, of the Phillies, was in the hole again, but this time it was not of his own making. He relieved Jim Elliott in the ninth inning with none out and the bases full, and retired the Pirates in time to save a three to two victory. The victory left Philadelphia only half a game behind the fifth place Pittsburghers.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
Outstanding stars in yesterday's major league games were:

ASBESTOS DEFEATED DRUMMONDVILLE

ASBESTOS, May 20.—In the first game of the season, Asbestos defeated Drummondville by the close score of 8 to 7. Wainwright, on the mound for Asbestos, struck out ten men, while Scharnel, Drummondville twirler, fanned eight men and yielded fourteen hits. Scharnel struck a snag in the

AMATEUR GOLF PROVIDES KEEN COMPETITION

George Voigt, Chief United States Contender, and Roger Wethered, British Star, Both Won Way to Fifth Round in Championship Tourney.

WESTWARD HO, Devon, Eng., May 20.—George Voigt, of New York, advanced to the fifth round of the British Amateur Golf Championship today, defeating Bernard Darwin, London golf writer, by three and two.

Marching along into the fifth round with Voigt were Roger Wethered, of the Royal and Ancient Club, St. Andrews, and John DeForest, of Addington.

Wethered, who won the title in 1923, defeated Alan Maceth, of Bowden, in easy fashion, seven and six. DeForest eliminated Robert Neill, of Glasgow, two and one.

Syd Roper, of Wollaton Park, a consistent golfer defeated L. H. R. Hornby, of Saltford, two and one. He was to face Voigt late today. C. Tippet reached the fifth round after close battles with fellow Britons. Straker defeated W. Lister Hartley, winner of several minor championships and the leading first inning when McGinnis, Landry and Draggett hit safely and Harvey was safe on an infield error. Dubois singled and three runs were scored in this inning.

Asbestos tallied two more in the fifth on safeties by Gremard, Wainwright and McGinnis. Drummondville came back strong in their half of this inning and hammered Wainwright's offerings for five hits, resulting in four runs.

Asbestos crossed the plate in the fifth, seventh and eighth innings. Drummondville scored one in the eighth, but were unable to get the tying run.

The weather was very cold and both pitchers were not at their best.

The two teams will play at Asbestos on Sunday, May 24.

The score by innings was:
R. H. E.
Asbestos . . . 300 210 110-8 14 2
Drumville . . . 000 410 110-7 9 3
Batteries: Wainwright and Landry; Scharnel and Demers.

British amateur in the open last year, by two and one, and Tippet eliminated J. A. Stout, three and two.

Cyril Tolley had a close match with Stanley Lunt, of Moseley, having to go nineteen holes to defeat his lesser known adversary.

Tolley provided the spectacular golf expected of him in his homeland. Behind all the way and two down at the fifteenth, he barely missed a birdie on the sixteenth, when his putt hit the back of the cup and bounced out, won the seventeenth and eighteenth and the extra hole.

Lunt became nervous at the eighteenth, topped his drive, and then made Tolley hole a putt no longer than a club head. He then used a spoon on the nineteenth where a full brassie was needed, cut his shot into a bunker and could not get out to tie Tolley, who was ten yards past the pin with a brassie and took the regulation two to get down.

Tulloch, who defeated Hill by three and two in the fourth round today, will meet Roger Wethered in the fifth round.

The nineteen-year-old Newey eliminated the veteran De Montmorency by five and four to enter the fifth round. Newey's accurate approach and clean putting were too much for his more experienced opponent.

JOE TURNESA HEADS FIELD.
LEEDS, ENGLAND, May 20.—Joe Turnesa, who led yesterday's qualifying round in the Leeds five thousand dollars professional golf tournament with a 69, today duplicated that feat for a thirty-six hole total of 138 and a long lead among the early finishers.

Joe Kirkwood, of New York, shot a 69 on his second qualifying round for a thirty-six hole total of 143.

Jose Jurado, first of the Argentines to finish, brought in a score of 76 for a thirty-six hole total of 149, believed sufficient to qualify him.

HUNTER OUT OF RUNNING
LEEDS, ENGLAND, May 20.—Brighter and much warmer weather prevailed today for the final eighteen holes of the qualifying round play in the thousand guineas professional golf tournament over the Sandmoor course.

Willie Hunter, of Mont Bello, Calif., whose bad first round score of eighty-four left him little chance of qualifying among the select thirty-two, tore up his card this morning.

TITLISTS WON SHIELD GAME FROM ROVERS

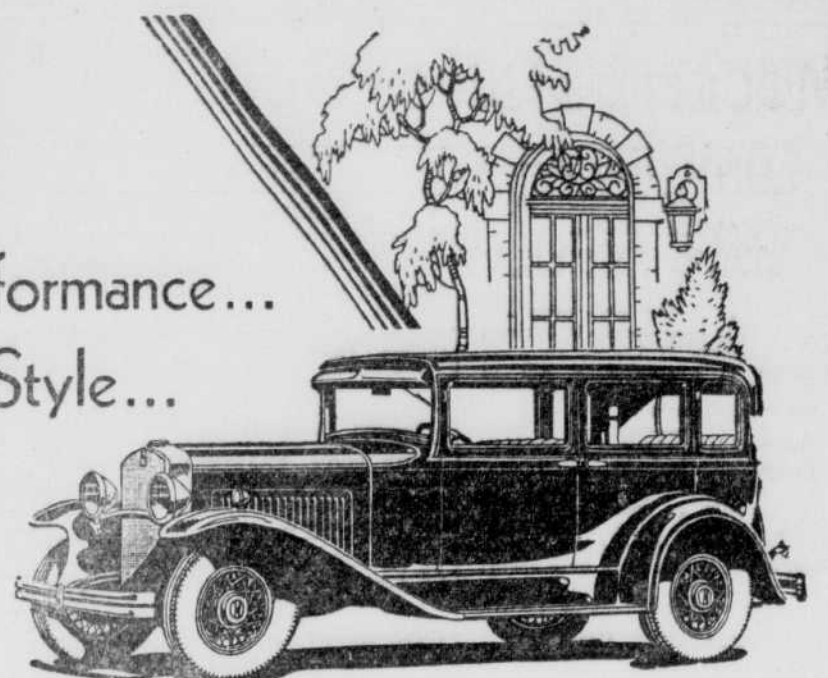

Quebec Central Will Take Two Goal Lead into Second Contest Next Tuesday Night for Coveted I.O.D.E. Trophy as Result of Their 4 to 2 Triumph Last Evening.

Quebec Central Railway last evening obtained a stranglehold on the I.O.D.E. shield on the Parade Grounds, and unless the Rovers can overcome a two-goal deficit in the second encounter next Tuesday the Railroaders will retain the coveted trophy which they have won five times since it was placed in competition nine years ago. The titlists, however, had their work cut out for them in vanquishing their opponents, and it was with only a few minutes to go that they were able to notch two tallies and win the initial fixture by a four goals to two count. The second game will be contested on May 26, total points to decide the 1931 holders.

Rovers will yet be strong contenders in the Eastern Townships League. As the young players who compose the newly-formed aggregation obtain more experience, they are whipping their squad into a smooth working outfit which will without a doubt prove a menace to the aspirations of the other teams in the circuit. Last evening, encouraged by the applause they received from the large crowd that turned out to witness the benefit game, they held their own against the green-shirted eleven, and up to 15 minutes from the end the score was deadlocked. Continuing their brilliant offensive, they pressed hard, but Pearce and McHarg held the Quebec Central fort in the waning minutes and afforded Styles stellar protection.

The Railroaders, although deprived of the services of Pentland, were strengthened by Carvel Ham-

SHOULD THE CHILDREN EAT IT?

Parents, particularly mothers, are paying a lot of attention to children's diet. For it is far more economical and pleasant to keep a child well by feeding him correctly than by nursing and doctoring him back to health.

Of course the doctor should be consulted regarding what a child should eat and what he should not eat. But do you realize that the leading manufacturers of food now seek the advice and approval of the leading nutritional authorities in the country, relative to the claims they make for their products in their advertising?

In other words, food advertisements are reliable sources of information regarding diet. They are based upon the results of the latest approved scientific discoveries about vitamins, minerals and roughage, in relation to vigorous bodies, clear complexions, sound teeth and properly regulated systems.

So read the advertisements carefully. Consult your doctor about them. Very often the advertiser invites you to do this because he has asked authorities, whom your doctor respects, about those advertisements first.

LAUNCH LARGE CAR FERRY AT LAUZON TODAY

Many Notables from Maritime Provinces Attended Launching Ceremonies of S.S. Charlottetown, Largest Car Ferry Ever Built in Canada.

QUEBEC, Que., May 20.—Sponsored by Mrs. Charles Dalton, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island, the new Dominion government inter-provincial car ferry S.S. Charlottetown, was launched at seven o'clock this morning at the Davie Shipbuilding Yards of the Canada Steamship Lines, at Lauzon, Que.

A little more than a minute after Mrs. Dalton severed the white ribbon that released the trigger sending the new vessel down the slides into the St. Lawrence, the huge car ferry, the largest ship ever built in a Canadian shipyard, took the water.

Among the many who witnessed the ceremony were leaders in business and public life from Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, including Hon. Charles Dalton, and Mr. Dalton, Premier of Prince Edward Island, Hon. H. G. Carroll, Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec and Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Premier of the province. Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, represented the Federal government.

Following the launching a tour of inspection of the new steamer, which will operate between Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick, was made, after which those attending were guests of the Canada Steamship Lines on board the S.S. Quebec.

The car ferry, designed by Lambert and German, naval architects of Montreal, was built at a cost of $2,225,000. The vessel has a tonnage of 1,380, is 324 feet in length and has a beam of 59 feet. She has a carrying capacity of 750 passengers, 50 automobiles and sixteen railway cars or coaches.

COMMUTERS NOT ENCOURAGED BY UNITED STATES

Correspondence Between Hume Wrong and Henry L. Stimson, Regarding Restriction of Commuting Privileges Across the Border, Tabled in House of Commons.

OTTAWA, May 20.—The official reply of the United States Government to representations made on behalf of Canada in connection with restriction of commuting privileges across the border offers no encouragement to the border commuters. Premier R. B. Bennett tabled correspondence in the House of Commons last night between Hume Wrong, charge d'affaires of the Canadian Legation at Washington, and Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of State of the United States.

Mr. Wrong took up the commuting situation in a note to Mr. Stimson December 26, 1930, and Mr. Stimson replied in a formal note May 11, 1931. The United States note merely sets out the instructions issued to immigration officers governing commuters and makes no answer to the complaint that the spirit of the understanding arrived at between the two countries in 1927 has been departed from.

In part, the note from Canada declared "that during the last few weeks several hundred persons had been rejected on highly technical interpretations of the immigration laws."

The formal reply on May 11 said instructions had been issued with a view to according "to commuters who have been admitted to the United States as immigrants the same consideration as would be accorded them if they were actually residents in the United States and departed to Canada or any other foreign country."

Summarized the instructions are:

1. Commuters who have abandoned their status as such shall be regarded as new immigrants.
2. Commuters who have been out of employment for six months in the United States are presumed to have abandoned their status.
3. Commuters who leave Canada will have to secure entry as new immigrants when they go back to work in the United States.
4. Commuters shall not be refused because they change their employment in the United States prior to the check-up.
5. Where commuters obtained privilege by fraud it shall be withdrawn.

Other instructions governing appeals or new applications of persons refused are set out. But beyond setting out the instructions no comment on the situation is offered in Mr. Stimson's note.

Miss Flora Gardner has been spending the past week in Newport, Vt., with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hastings, of Bolton Pass, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Eric Sullivan, who is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Magoun.

ASSOCIATION IS FORMED TO AID FISHERMEN

Will Be Known as Newfoundland Industrial Fishermen's Association and Will Include All Engaged in Industry in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 20.—Between six and eight hundred fishermen, gathered here from the north coast to obtain supplies, met in a local theatre last night under the chairmanship of Captain Arthur Samson, of Flat Island, who opened the meeting with a declaration that it had no political significance, but was held solely in the interests of the fishing industry throughout Newfoundland.

Formation of an organization to be known as the Newfoundland Industrial Fishermen's Association, including all those engaged in the industry in Newfoundland, was advocated in one of three resolutions passed unanimously.

In order to encourage the production of fish of a higher standard, it was urged that the Government be asked to pay a bonus, varying with the market price, on both Labrador and shore fish of number one quality.

The other resolution asked that a steamship service be provided for the lower Labrador coast during the fishing season.

An outstanding provision in the proposed Fishermen's Association is that it would have no political affiliations.

I feel an elemental urge to break my shell and outward surge, beyond the sun, beyond the star, where all the unknown forces are. I want to dodge this life complex, this hedge and podge of "good" and "evil," the thought strives to be free from this distraught, elusive Me. What is this thing, this urging force? Can it be Spring? Of course!

Country and Dairy Produce Prices

MONTREAL, May 20.—Steady to firmer prices prevailed on the Montreal wholesale dairy markets yesterday. On butter, cheese and eggs a full week without decline was completed, the last downturns occurring on Tuesday of last week.

The butter market was steady to firm, some sales being reported at 20 1-2c per lb., and others quoting the market at 20 3-4c per lb. for No. 1 pasteurized creamery butter, in carlots or broken lots. To the retail trade solids were 22c and prints 23c per lb.

More butter has been sold for export to England, Western butter, because of its greater uniformity, has been favored for such sales, but some Eastern Townships butter also has been sold, it is reported. Some butter now arriving is full grass butter, while shipments from other sections will be the same shortly. Canada's butter this year is of better quality than usual, this being due to the fact that the season is a little advanced over normal. This is gratifying from a domestic as well as export standpoint. It is understood that some export sales have been made as high as 20 1-2c per lb.

The cheese market was 9 3-4c to 10c per lb. for Ontario colored, with Quebec cheese around 9 1-4c per lb.

On the egg market, fresh extras on spot were in demand, and sellers of such had the upper hand, with the result that some eggs were made as high as 23c per dozen for prairie fresh extras, although the general price was 22c per dozen. For shipment, prices were mostly 21c for fresh extras, 15c for firsts and 15c for seconds. British Columbia eggs for shipment are 22-23c for extras and 19-20c for firsts. Quotations to retailers follow:

Special brands	27c 25-26c
Fresh extras	25c 23-24c
Fresh firsts	22c 20-21c
Fresh seconds	20c 18-19c

The potato market was unchanged at 60c to 70c per 80 lb. bags or 90 lbs. bulk for carlots of New Brunswick Green Mountains, with small quantities jobbing ex-track at 70-80c per 80 lb. bags. New potatoes 160-lb. bins for No. 1 and $7 per No. 2. New Bermuda potatoes were $2.25 per 50 lb. boxes.
