

JEUDI LE 27 JUIN 1811.

au Maître à Pond. Québec, le 25. Juin, 1811.

POSTON, June 13.

The ship Packet, arrived here yesterday, from Denmark, brings some papers and oral information, to the 11th May. At St. Petersburg, April 8, colonial produce was very low; but manufactured foreign goods scarce and high.

A rupture between France and Russia was daily talked of at Hamburg. French troops were marching to the North, through Poland, and the borders of Russia.

The communication between England and the Continent was becoming every day more difficult and hazardous.

A letter to a respectable merchant of this town, from Gotteburg, dated 19th April, has the following news:—The Markets in the Baltic are becoming more gloomy, and the Danes are capturing every vessel they meet with; two out of three American Vessels, which have attempted to pass the Sound this year, have been captured and sent into Copenhagen; one is the brig Cachet, of Salem, Capt. Joseph, and the other is a ship from the Southward. There are fifty new Privateers fitted out from Denmark this year.

"We have seen letters of the 7th and 9th April, from Bordeaux, from resident Frenchmen, and from Americans, who feel disinterestedly on the subject, and we find in their letters advice, that the Speech, as copied from the Eastern papers, is substantially true; that the French Government considers our Non-Importation Law as a VIOLATION of the engagement; and that all property on board American ships was ordered to be landed and stored."

Letters from Naples, 22d March, state, that ALL American vessels which had arrived in that port since Nov. 2, had been CONFISCATED, and SOLD. —Whig.

LETTER.—"April 9.—The Emperor still declares that the Berlin and Milan decrees are the fundamental laws of his Empire; and that he will favor American commerce if the U. States will conform to those decrees; if not, their vessels shall be driven from all his ports in Europe. No American vessel can arrive in France in safety unless protected by an Imperial License." —Whig.

Loss of the ship Hercules, capt. Chase, of Saco, owned by D. Cutts and A. Stevens.

This ship sailed from Liverpool 17th Feb. for Philad. with a cargo of dry goods fifty five days out she sprung a leak, at 4 o'clock A. M. and at 7 P. M. the water then over her main deck, the crew left her in the boat. The next day, the boat was taken up by a brig from N. York for Lisbon. Nine days after, she fell in with the British frigate Guerrier bound to Bermuda, the captain of which kindly offered to take on board the whole of the crew, or as many as chose to go with him: capt. Chase, Mr. G. Russell mate, the second mate, and one seaman, chose to remain on board the brig: four young men, seamen, all belonging to Saco, and without protections, went on board the frigate, and were landed at Bermuda; but on their arrival there, no opportunity presenting itself for the U. States, he kindly offered them a passage in his ship to Halifax: prior to her sailing, however, an opportunity offered to proceed to N. Carolina, where they have arrived. The captain of the frigate politely offered and furnished the brig with provisions enough to replenish what had been expended by the crew of the Hercules, and enough to supply those that chose to stay on board, to carry them to Lisbon.

A British 36 gun frigate, supposed to be the Melampus, or Cleopatra has been spoken off the Cape. Immediately Capt. Decatur, in the United States frigate of 44 guns, began to prepare for sea with all possible haste, taking two Lieutenants from the Nautilus, to supply the places of two absent. —N. Y. P.

Commodore Rodgers, in repairing the mast of the frigate President, has discovered, that the shot from the British ship which struck them were 42 instead of 32 pounders as they were at first believed to be. —Nat. Int.

We are informed that Walter Rodgers, the boy wounded on board the frigate, and who behaved with so much firmness, has been appointed a Midshipman in the navy of the United States!!! —Nat. Int.

The population of the United States by the late census, is found to be 7,238,421. The four highest rated States are Virginia, 955,079—New York, 959,230—Pennsylvania, 810,163—Massachusetts including Maine, 703,745.

The Orders.—The public here, from low murmurs, are beginning to raise loud clamours because we are not permitted to see or to know, what really were the orders given to Commodore Rogers. If those orders were not hostile, but only such as were fit and proper for a neutral government to issue, why are they not permitted to see the light? Commodore Rogers has cautiously avoided touching them; and in that he followed the dictates of prudence. Of the commodore's intelligence, we have no doubts, any more than we have of his real bravery whenever the opportunity shall present itself for him to show it; his orders, we believe, therefore, were perfectly well understood by him, and strictly followed, but still, on a question of such importance the nation ought not to be left in uncertainty. If our administration claims the right for a neutral to chase a belligerent 15 or 20 leagues from land, on the high seas, and will go to war with Great Britain in defence of such claim, methinks, the people ought to be made acquainted with it, and that in due season to enable them to make known in turn, whether they are ready to engage in such a war to support such a pretence. —Evening Post.

NEW-YORK, June 7.—On the 25th ult. we published an extract of a letter, purporting to be written by an officer on board the frigate President, dated May the 14th, off the Cape of the Chesapeake. From Commodore Rogers, we have received the declaration, that this letter was not written on board the President, nor by any officer belonging to that ship. The declaration is grounded on the fact, that all the officers on board have denied to the Commodore, severally and individually, that they ever wrote such a letter. We are also authorized to mention that the details contained in that letter are not true.

In justice to himself, the Editor declares, that the letter from which he copied the extract, bore the Baltimore postmark; and that, at the time of publishing it, he had not a doubt of its being genuine. The letter unquestionably came from Baltimore by mail.

The letter alluded to will be found in this Gazette of the 15th inst. Its tendency was to prove the existence of a design, on board the frigate at the time of her sailing to attack some British ship of war. It is not surprising that, now, when even in the United States, Commodore Rogers conduct seems to be pretty generally censured by reflecting people, that he should be anxious to have it contradicted. But how is it contradicted? Why verily the officers of the frigate when questioned by the Commodore, deny having written it. When the Editor of the Commercial Advertiser saw the Baltimore post mark on the letter, could he not see the Signature? Or was it not signed? This attempt to contradict it only entitles the letter to additional credit.

NORFOLK, June 5.—On Saturday evening, an officer from on board a British 41 gun frigate, boarded Clarke's Hampton Pilot Boat, off the False Cape, to the southward of Cape Henry—could not learn her name, but said she belonged to the Halifax station.

We learn that the frigate United States, Commodore Decatur, will sail on a cruise tomorrow.

The brig Lloyd, Rand, in 38 days from Cadiz, bound to Alexandria, went up the Bay yesterday—Nothing new at Cadiz.

Thanks of the Portuguese Government to Lord Wellington.

Most illustrious and most Excellent Lord Viscount Wellington, K. B. Marshall, General Commander in Chief.

Your Excellency's Dispatch, dated the 9th instant, having been laid before us, and your Excellency's glorious and transcendent services in the course of the present campaign having been duly considered, we have high satisfaction in testifying our just admiration of the exalted achievements which have immortalised your Excellency's name, sustained the honor of the combined armies, and delivered this kingdom the third time from the oppression of our enemies.

The conduct of the army having justified the expectations of the allied nations, we are desirous that your Excellency do make known to the whole army, that the Government and the country are amply repaid for their exertions and sacrifices, by the wisdom, valour and discipline displayed by the Generals, Officers, and privates of which that army is composed.

We will lay before his Royal Highness, in the distinctest manner, the events which have taken place; recommending to his royal notice, the services of an army which has covered itself with glory under your Excellency's command.

Your Excellency cannot fail to derive high gratification from the result of your plans and labours, which, crowned with the most eminent success and public opinion, leave nothing wanting to satisfy the heart of the illustrious warrior by whom they were conceived and accomplished.

May God preserve your Excellency.

(Signed) PATRICK EJECT. COUNT REDONDO. R. NOGUEIR. PRINCEPS SOUSA. CHARLES STUART.

QUEBEC: THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1811.

London Newspapers to the 7th ult. have been received in Town, since our last; but they contain nothing of importance. It is said that Lord Wellington had returned from General Beresford's army, to join his own, in the vicinity of Almeida, in consequence of movements on the part of the French in that quarter, indicating a disposition to advance.

A letter from Lisbon dated the 9th May, has also been received in town per the Ocean, direct from that port. At that time no accounts had been received there of the surrender of Badajoz or Almeida. Intelligence to that effect, was, however, daily expected.

The American papers by Monday's Mail, are wholly uninteresting. The paragraph published in the National Intelligencer, the American Government paper, of the 30th May, and inserted in this Gazette of the 13th instant, purporting that the President of the United States approved of the conduct of Commodore Rodgers in the affair of the Little Belt, and had not granted the inquiry required by the Commodore, remains uncontradicted.

It is of course to be presumed, that, taking the facts for granted as stated in the Commodore's official letter, the President thinks that he is justifiable by the orders he had received.

A new and extraordinary pretension, that of questioning Bellicosity on the high seas, is thus advanced by the American Government; which, if it is continued to be put in practice, must produce more blood shed, and finally, war. We cannot however believe that any Government of the United States, will be long supported in a conduct so absurd and ruinous.

What is the most interesting to know, is the impression which the affair of the Little Belt will make in England, and whether recourse will immediately be had to retaliatory measures, or the usual previous course of remonstrance.

We are confident that the relations between France and the United States are upon the worst footing; and we should not be surprised, before long, to hear of some measure on the part of the American Government against France, which will have a tendency to calm the irritation which must prevail in England against the United States.

Look out!—Mr. CHARLES GUAY'S Shop in Buade Street was entered last night through the cellar and robbed of about forty pounds in Cash from his Desk and the Till.

To His Excellency Sir JAMES HENRY CRAIG, Knight of the most honorable Order of the Bath, Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Provinces of Lower Canada, Upper Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and their several dependencies, Vice Admiral of the same, General and Commander in Chief of all His Majesty's Forces in the said Provinces of Lower Canada, and Upper Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and their dependencies and in the Island of Newfoundland &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency, WE the Clergy, Proprietors and Yeomen of the County of Warwick, in the District of Montreal, beg leave to convey to Your Excellency our unfeigned sentiments of regret at Your approaching departure.

We want words to express our feelings when we take into consideration the melancholy cause of our loss, at a period when, the frowning aspect of our affairs with the United States of America, makes us more particularly wish to meet the events that may fall to our share, under the auspices and guidance of your talents and experience!

The many benefits we have derived from your unremitted zeal and exertions, have raised, within our breasts, a Monument to Your Excellency, never to be effaced.

Time and experience have taught us to revere, and from gratitude we shall fondly cherish the memory of him, whose enlightened, firm and impartial administration, "during a period of no common difficulty," rescued this Province from impending evils; causing it to emerge from obscurity, to impetuosity; from jealousy to confidence, and from restless inquietude to a state of perfect tranquillity.

To this expression of our feelings, we add our most fervent prayers to the fountain of mercy, for the restoration of Your Excellency's health; and wishing you a safe and speedy passage, we rely with confidence, upon your carrying to the Foot of the Throne, that indulgence for our past errors which has so eminently marked every measure of your administration.

[This Address was signed by 908 persons.]

To which His Excellency was pleased to make the following answer:—

To the Clergy, Proprietors, and Yeomen of the County of Warwick.

Gentlemen—I have to thank you for those sentiments of regret which you have so warmly expressed, on the occasion of my departure from amongst you; while I agree with you in lamenting the precarious footing, on which our affairs with the United States seem to stand, I trust that you will do me the justice to believe, that I would not have abandoned my station, at such a moment, but from the fullest conviction that my inability to exertion, might have proved more prejudicial, than my presence could have been useful.

I may be allowed to assure you that the prosperity of this Province will ever afford to me, a subject of the liveliest interest, and the testimony which you now give, of my having attained an object, which I had so much at heart, as its advancement, will never be forgotten.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

SIR JAMES HENRY CRAIG,

Knight of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over the Provinces of Lower Canada, Upper Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and their several Dependencies, Vice Admiral of the same, General and Commander of all His Majesty's Forces in the said Provinces of Lower Canada and Upper Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and their several Dependencies, and in the Island of Newfoundland, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS our Sovereign Lord the King, by certain Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster, the 29th day of August, in the forty-seventh year of his Majesty, hath been pleased to declare, that in case of the death, absence, removal or suspension of the Governor and of the Lieutenant Governor of this Province of Lower Canada, the oldest Member of the Executive Council of the said Province, being a natural born subject of Great Britain, or of Ireland, or of the Colonies and Plantations, professing the Protestant Religion, and residing within the said Province, shall take upon him the Administration and Government of the said Province, and shall execute His Majesty's Commission of Governor of the said Province, his instructions thereon, and the several powers and authorities therein contained, to all intents and purposes as others His Majesty's Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and persons administering the Government of His Majesty, during such absence, and until the further pleasure of His Majesty shall be known therein.

And whereas the very infirm state of my health, at the same time that it renders me incapable of any longer carrying on the duties attached to my station of Governor in Chief of this Province, compels me forthwith to return to Europe, and to absent myself from the said Province:—And whereas His Excellency the Honorable FRANCIS NATHANIEL BURTON, Lieutenant Governor of the said Province, is now by the Royal Permission absent from this Province: Therefore I have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Executive Council of and for the said Province, to make known by this Proclamation, the will and pleasure of His Majesty in the premises, unto all whom it doth or shall in any wise concern:—And that by reason of the absence of His Excellency the Honorable FRANCIS NATHANIEL BURTON, from the said Province, the administration of the Government of the said Province, from and after the departure of me, the said Sir JAMES HENRY CRAIG, from the said Province, will devolve upon the Honorable THOMAS DUNN, Esquire, he the said THOMAS DUNN being the oldest Member of His Majesty's Executive Council of and for the said Province of Lower Canada, who is a natural born subject of Great Britain, professing the Protestant Religion: And that he the said THOMAS DUNN, under and by virtue of the aforesaid Letters Patent, will thenceforth take upon him the Administration of the Government of this Province, during the absence of His Excellency the Honorable FRANCIS NATHANIEL BURTON, and of me, the said Sir JAMES HENRY CRAIG, from the said Province, and execute His Majesty's Commission of Governor of the said Province, and the Royal Instructions thereon, and all the several powers and authorities therein contained, to all intents and purposes, as others His Majesty's Governors, Lieutenant Governors, or Persons Administering the Government, until His Majesty's further pleasure in the premises shall be made known.

Of all which the Officers of His Majesty's Government, and all others His Majesty's Subjects in this Province, and generally all whom the premises shall or may in any wise concern, are hereby required to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly.
