

Cars Collide, Two Men Die In Crash Near Coaticook

Motorbike In Smash, Youth Hurt

Two persons are dead and five injured as a result of Eastern Townships accidents over the past 24 hours.

Eugene Cotnoir, 58, of R.R. 1 Dixville, and Andre Paradis, 32, of Victoriaville, died when their cars collided on Route 22 about 2½ miles from Coaticook.

Two young sons of Mr. Cotnoir, Lucien and Martin, who were riding with him in the car, were taken to hospital but are not in critical condition.

Claude Aube 17, of St. Elie d'Orford was taken to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital this morning after the motorcycle he was driving collided with a car driven by Florent Dion, 31, also of St. Elie. Mr. Aube's condition, was not immediately known.

A two-car collision at the intersection of Rose and Denault Streets slightly injured two persons late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Jean-Yves Dion, 21, of R.R. 2 Sherbrooke, and her young son were taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital where they received first aid and were released. Jean-Yves Dion, 27, and Ulderic Rouillard, 41, of 1470 Caron Street in Sherbrooke drivers of the two cars, were not injured.

A 16-year old bicyclist, Raymond Guillemette, of 112 12th Avenue North, suffered multiple contusions and lacerations of the hands and knees when the bicycle he was riding struck a car driven by Euclide Descotes, 51, of 228 3rd Avenue North, Sherbrooke, at the intersection of King Street East and 1st Avenue yesterday. Raymond was taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital, where authorities say his condition is not serious.

Danielle Briere, 3, of R.R. 1 Asbestos, is in Johns Marville Hospital there after she was struck by a car driven by Fernand Laroche, 22, of St. Georges Road yesterday morning. Hospital authorities say her condition is not critical.

Hall Winds Up Demands

MONTREAL (CP) — Union spokesman Frank H. Hall was expected to all but complete his case for a total of $65,000,000 in wage increases for almost 120,000 non-operating railway employees today during his second session before a three-man conciliation board.

The veteran negotiator, whose unhurried, carefully - inflected voice has been heard by many conciliation boards during his 13 years as chairman of the joint negotiating committee set up by the 15 unions which represent the non-ops, worked his way through a major part of his defence of the durable-goods standard of setting wages Monday.

Today, after completing the defence, he was to discuss the unions' arguments for three weeks paid vacations after 10 years service instead of 15, and four weeks holiday after 20 years instead of 35 before summing up the union claim that low railway revenues are no excuse for denying wage increases.

He touched on the latter briefly Monday, re-emphasizing that previous conciliation boards have always felt the employees should not carry the burden for government regulations which keep freight rates down and forced the railways—as a public service—to operate uneconomical routes.

His introductory remarks were good-humored, indicative of the close personal relations he has feined with the railway executives during his years of negotiating with them.

But he left no doubt the unions were not prepared to accept anything but the durable - goods standard as a means of arriving at a fair wage for non-ops.

Demand Governor's Dismissal

KITWE, Northern Rhodesia (Reuters) — Police made a dawn swoop on a Negro township here today and arrested a "considerable number" of Negroes after weekend rioting in which dozens of whites were stoned.

The police action came as government offices in this rich copper-mining area were flooded with demands for drastic action to quell the disturbances.

Authorities were charged with creating a "reign of terror" by Lawrence Kadigau, president of the African Mineworkers Union.

At the same time the European Mineworkers Union sent a telegram to Colonial Secretary Iain MacLeod in London calling for dismissal of Governor Sir Evelyn Bone because of his handling of this central African protectorate's "grave security problem."

The union also questioned the wisdom of Queen Mother Elizabeth's planned visit to Northern Rhodesia this week in such "a state of turmoil."

Whites blamed the riots on the Independence party but party secretary Munkayumbwa Sina lo Monday night blamed "arbitrary use of police powers" for the situation.

Political Roundup

Granby Rally To Hear Union Nationale Chief

By CUTHBERT JONES
(Record Staff Writer)

The Eastern Townships will feel the first heavy burst of political campaigning when Premier Antonio Barrette visits Granby Thursday evening to address a regional rally in the Christ Roi School hall. The meeting is scheduled to get underway at eight o'clock.

This is the first visit either major party leader has paid to this district since the election date, June 22, was formally announced and is the initial speech to be made by the Premier since his campaign opener at Joliette Sunday afternoon.

The rally is described as an opportunity for the Premier to meet the electors of Shefford, Rouville, Brome, Bagot and Missisquoi. This district is particularly strong in cabinet representation, with three ministers being included in the membership of the five seats.

Mr. Barrette will be supported by his three cabinet colleagues from the area — Youth and Social Welfare Minister Jean Jacques Bertrand of Missisquoi, Agriculture Minister Laurent Barre of Rouville, and Hydraulic Resources Minister Dan Johnson of Bagot. Other speakers will include Armand Russell, MPP for Shefford in the last Legislature, and the Brome County Union Nationale candidate to be selected at a convention in Knowlton tonight.

Officially the gathering will be under the joint chairmanship of the 20 mayors of Shefford County.

IN SHERBROOKE

Sherbrooke Union Nationale supporters will meet at the St. Francis Superior School, Bowen Avenue South at Galt East, on Thursday evening at eight to offer the candidature to Finance Minister J. S. Bourque, who has been representative of the county since 1955.

Last fall, during the course of a party rally at a local snowshoe club, Mr. Bourque indicated that

Sidney's Two Brazen Mermaids Separated By Student Prank

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Once there were two mermaids on the flat rock of a headland defining Bondi Beach.

Now there is only one, though she is brazen as ever.

For four weeks the mermaids sat together as if bolted to the rock (which in fact they were), braving high tides, stares of the curious and a public debate over their nudity.

"With too much of this sort of thing," a Roman Catholic church spokesman said, "we can hardly complain if young men, their passions inflamed, commit sex offences."

A beach inspector complained that people might fall over the cliff trying to get a closer view of the mermaids.

Sculptor Lyall Randolph had made and installed them in his spare time as a contribution to Sydney's art and culture. He valued them at $4,700.

His models were Mrs. Peter Carmody, a former Miss Surf, and Lynette Whillier, a 1956 Olympic swimmer. Both said they saw nothing vulgar about the figures.

The Carmody figure vanished on university commemoration day, when students have fun and dream up practical jokes. It was found scratched and with the tail and an arm broken off in Sydney University's engineering school.

Randolph, declaring the damage beyond repair, was quite upset.

"I feel like crying," he said. "It is not as if I had been paid for my work. I merely donated it to society because I thought people might appreciate it."

Mr. K. Warns Spy Planes Will Be Shot Down

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Russia today formally protested to the United States against the intrusion of an American plane on Soviet territory May 1.

MOSCOW — (AP) — Premier Khrushchev has warned that Soviet rockets will shoot down any more spy planes that venture over Russian soil, and that his government will take "appropriate counter-measures."

The Soviet leader also warns that Soviet rockets will be aimed at bases in any foreign countries that allow American planes to take off on spy missions over Russia.

If intelligence missions are continued over Soviet soil, the premier said in a speech Monday night at a Czechoslovak Embassy reception, "we shall bring down the planes, just bring them down."

"If such flights are repeated, we shall take appropriate counter-measures."

GENERAL WARNING

Khrushchev issued a general caution against use of foreign bases for spy missions. After his speech he called over Norwegian and Pakistani diplomats and told them that if the United States continues using bases in their countries for operations against the Soviet Union, "we will have to aim our rockets at your bases."

Khrushchev told the Soviet parliament last week that American pilot Francis G. Powers, who was shot down and captured May 1 at Sverdlovsk while on a spying flight, had taken off from Peshawar, Pakistan, and was heading for Bodo, Norway.

The U.S. at first said the plane was based in Turkey. Both Pakistan and Norway have denied any knowledge of Powers' flight, and Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange said he is seeking clarification from Washington. Lange told his parliament that Norwegian airfields are not open to foreign planes which violate the air space of foreign countries.

"We assess such actions as provocations against our country," Khrushchev said in his speech. "We tell the governments of those countries, if you leased your territory to others and are not the masters of your land, of your country, we shall have to understand it in our way."

"Those who lease your territory, operate against us from your territory. Their lands are far from us while your land is near. That is why as a warning to remote targets, we shall find the range to the near ones. Let them draw the appropriate conclusions." Khrushchev charged that Powers' flight was timed deliberately to affect next week's summit meeting in Paris.

'Carrying Out Orders' Russians Quote Pilot

MOSCOW (Reuters)—American pilot Francis Powers admitted with "no pricks of conscience" that he was on a spying mission when his plane was shot down over Russia on May 1, his two Russian interrogators say.

Powers was quoted as saying he was just carrying out orders from his commanders in making the flight and had been told it would be "absolutely safe."

The two interrogators told the Soviet newspaper Red Star that Powers did not believe his U-2 plane had been hit by a rocket even when it began falling. He thought the engine had failed.

Powers described himself as a "simple carrier—his master sent him and he flew," his questioners said. But he admitted that he was on a spying mission.

Powers said he dreamed of buying a piece of land with the $2,500 a month which he was paid and of building a house on it.

In the cabin of the plane was "a cheap tattered book with a half-naked girl on the cover..." the questioner said. "Its tattered look suggested it was very popular among American officers."

Powers was said to have never heard of the titles of American aviation magazines which were mentioned to him. The paper sums up:

"So we are dealing with a stupid, corrupt, greedy adventurer... He has no pricks of conscience that he is a spy. But he was offended when we called him simply a pilot."

"I am an ace, a test pilot," he said passionately.

Urge Halt To Flights Over Russia

OTTAWA (CP) — Without actually putting it into words, Canada has made the suggestion to the United States that it halt spy flights over Russia.

Informants said today that the suggestion was implicit in the Commons statement by External Affairs Minister Green Monday that a continuation of such incidents might trigger a nuclear war.

In this way, Canada was telling the U. S. that it is strongly opposed to any further reconnaissance flights over Communist territory.

It is understood that Mr. Green tried to be as blunt as possible without giving offence to the U.S. and without presuming to interfere in an American administrative responsibility.

Tony's Sweaters May Start Rage

LONDON (AP)—British women's magazines, which have previously offered readers the chance to make themselves dresses similar to those worn by Princess Margaret and the Queen, have come up with a new idea—the Tony Armstrong-Jones sweater.

The knitting pattern is offered by Woman's Illustrated which advertises: "How about knitting a Tony Armstrong-Jones sweater for YOUR man of the moment? ... It is a rugged casual that every girl will lovingly picture her man wearing — for work or play-time."

The sweater was inspired by the type Princess Margaret's new husband used to wear when he was working behind the camera. The magazine pictures him wearing one of the heavy sweaters he favored in his bachelor days.

Accusations Have Been Made On Both Sides Of Iron Curtain

Scores Held As Spies During Cold War

LONDON (Reuters)—Since the cold war began scores of persons have been accused of spying on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Less than two months ago Communist China jailed American Bishop James Walsh, 68, for 20 years as a spy.

A Russian colonel, Rudolf Abel, was sentenced to 30 years for conspiring to steal American military secrets in New York in 1957.

William Oatis, an American Associated Press correspondent in Prague, was convicted in 1951 of spying for the United States. He was pardoned and released in 1953 after serving 25 months. In Canberra in April, 1954, Vladimir Petrov, 46, head of the Soviet secret police in Australia, was granted political asylum and brought documents detailing two spy rings which operated in the country since 1943 under the cloak of the Soviet Embassy.

PARALLEL STORY

The Petrov case paralleled that of Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk in the Russian Embassy in Ottawa, who sought Canadian asylum in 1946 with information that led to the uncovering of a Soviet spy ring in Canada.

Last October the Soviet Union charged an American Embassy security officer in Moscow, Russell Langelle, with spying and expelled him from the country.

In May, 1954, Russia accused the British assistant military attaché in Moscow, Major Charles Landon, of "espionage activities" and declared him "persona non grata."

Eastern European countries such as Poland, Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary have many times reported the capture and sentencing of persons spying for the West, particularly the United States and Britain.

In August, 1953, Hungary "pardoned and expelled" Edgar Sanders, 49-year-old Russian - born British businessman, after he served 3½ years of a 13-year sentence for spying.

Robert Vogeler, an American tried and sentenced with Sanders, was released in April, 1951, after 14 months imprisonment.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Roger Pugmire, a handsome giant, faced a bright future in the movies. Obviously he needed a new name.

In this era of Rips, Rocks and Tabs, he was offered these choices: Tank Smith, Silver Sloan, Sparks Rebel, Boot Hill, Bolt Action, Red Rock, Levi Sgt, Joshua Tree and Judd Butte.

"The one that killed me was suggested by someone at MGM: Box Canyon," said Roger. "I couldn't stand any of them, so I took my mother's name, Torrey, and shortened it to Torrey."

Just a year out of Pocatello, Idaho, Roger Torrey seems on the road to success. He is 22 and stands six feet, five inches. He told rather wonderingly of the things that happened to him recently.

"They say that Hollywood is supposed to be a tough town," he said, "but everybody has been nice to me here. I've gotten help wherever I turned."

Roger left home to find out what he wanted to do in life. He knew one thing: He didn't want to enter his parents' motel business. So he came to California to find work. He tried all kinds, then heard that towering Jim Arness needed a double for television's Gunsmoke.

"Jim and I hit it off well right

Biology Club Of Waterloo High Holds Dinner

WATERLOO — A dinner and dance was held at the Cabana Lodge, Magog, by the High School Biology Club, a group formed of pupils in Grades 10 and 11 who have been studying biology for the last two years under Sam Waye. The students, their escorts and the special guests made a party of about 45. All details of the evening were capably looked after by the president, Bernard Fleming, and the secretary, Helen Maynes.

The toast to the Queen and from the start, and he took an interest in my well-being. He has been a great help in guiding my career."

Roger was born and reared in Pocatello, and his forebears were Mormon pioneers in Idaho.

And what do real westerners think of today's TV horse operas?

"They like some of them, and so do I," he answered. "But some of the others... I don't see why the hero always has to be a law officer. And I don't agree with the way some real-life figures have been played. I've talked to some of the people who would know, and they say that men like Wyatt Earp and Bat Masterson weren't as good as they are portrayed on TV."

Church Group Holds Meeting At Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND — Stanstead South Church Ladies Aid met in the church hall, with the president, Mrs. Harry Smith, presiding and in charge of the devotional period.

The members and friends responded to the roll call by quoting a proverb. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard.

Plans were made for a rummage sale taking place in the church hall in conjunction with the Helping Circle and 35 Club on May 14.

Members were reminded that the 35 Club is sponsoring a mother-and-daughter banquet in the church hall on May 11.

The wool afghan was worked on and almost completed, it will be presented to a Newport hospital.

Supper was served at five o'clock to a good number of friends coming in. The tables were pretty, centred with daffodils and a lily.

The next meeting will be on May 12.

ABERCORN —

Mr. and Mrs. William McLeod and son, of Toronto, Ont., were Easter guests of their aunt, Miss Alice Barnes.

welcome to the guests was given by the president and A.J. Buckland, chairman of the School Board, said a few words. He stressed the advantage the experience of formal entertaining would be to these young people in their future life. Mr. Waye spoke briefly, congratulating his class on their initiative in planning the event.

The guest speaker was R. Millinchamp, who chose Conservation as his subject. His opening remark drew the difference between biology, which is to take a rabbit apart to see what makes it "tick", and conservation, which conserves the rabbit. Mr. Millinchamp held the interest of his young people with his expert handling of his subject.

Stories of wild life and the joys of hunting were interspersed with advice on not abusing the privileges of hunting. He gave examples of the use of every animal, including the smelly skunk in the scheme of creation.

Mr. Millinchamp then went on to soil conservation. A B. Sc. in Agriculture, he has had years of practical experience in this study and the students and their guests listened with interest as he explained the methods of conserving the soil and the proven benefits of "top soil" protection.

Good land is necessary for good hunting and fishing, as well as good farming, he said and urged them to enjoy the pleasures of outdoors, whether hunting or hiking. "It is the bounden duty of each one to leave our land as we found it. Improve it and build it up but don't destroy," Mr. Millinchamp concluded.

Bobby Dalton thanked Mr. Millinchamp for his excellent speech.

STATION ROBBED

Thieves broke into the C.N.R. station on Foster Square one night

recently. The signs showed the thieves had tried to pry open the windows and eventually broke open the locks to enter by a back door. Parcels were opened in the freight room but left undisturbed when the contents proved uninteresting.

Ulric St. Pierre, station agent, discovered the broken locks when he came on duty at 7:00 a.m. and immediately notified the police. Constable Jean-Paul Robidoux made the investigation. The safe was not touched and the petty cash and tickets were left intact. Chief Hollenbeck turned the case over to the Provincial Police.

City To Honor Emery; To Study Zone Law At Thursday Session

A civic reception will be held for Burke Emery, who a week ago Sunday won the Canadian light heavyweight boxing championship here.

Date of the reception has not as yet been set.

The new zoning by-law will be studied by council members this Thursday. The study is not expected to last more than one hour.

The Sherbrooke Firemen's Athletic Association will hold its annual festival this year July 9 at the Jacques Cartier park.

Council members postponed the adoption of by-law number 1067 last night for the homologation of land for widening of King Street West in accordance to Town Planner's J. C. LaHaye urban plan, until a more detailed report is made available.

The homologation would prevent further construction bordering King West for Burlington Street to the city's limits.

The urbanism plan calls for the present street to become a four-lane 100-foot wide street.

A report from police chief Edouard Moreau last night showed that it would not be a good idea to have a bus terminus in the basement of the Magog Hotel.

The terminus was not recommended because buses would be obliged to use Abenakis Street, which the police chief claims is already too narrow for the large trucks using it at present.

Instead, the chief recommended that the buses park along Bank Street. Mr. Moreau explained that already 80-foot long trucks use of 29-foot wide street.

The terminus would be used by three buses leaving daily for East Angus.

Decision was postponed until next week.

The Walter M. Lowney Company has purchased an additional 13 acres of land from the City of Sherbrooke. Cost of the land will not be released until expropriation procedures have been held.

The City sold the land which borders the 35 acres the company purchased one week ago according to the option the Lowney company had on the land.

A demand by Wilson Street residents that their street become a commercial one was postponed pending study of the new zoning by-law.

Tenders will be called this week for the purchase and installation of new street lights along Wellington North and South.

The Catholic School Commission has been granted permission to build a sidewalk facing their property on Lisieux Street, as long as it is in conformity with city requirements.

Waterworks and sewers on Tache Street will be extended for a distance of 128 feet at a cost of $1,800.

Mrs. Irene Bureau was refused a permit for the operation of a restaurant on the Bromptonville Road by council last night.

Reason for the refusal: her building did not conform to the construction and zoning by-laws.

Ald. Everett Nicol proposed that the restaurant be tolerated but received no backing from his conferees.

The Canadian Petrofina Company, operators of a service station in the Webster parking lot, have been ordered to remove a sign on city property advertising the price of gasoline.

In turn, council will have a sign erected advertising the parking lot. The sign is located on Albert Street.

Provided For In By-Laws

$277,000 In Works Set For This Summer

Over $277,000 worth of uncompleted public works provided for in by-laws will be done this summer city council decided last night.

Of this sum, $2,901.88 has been set aside for improvements to St. Francis Blvd. South; $23,969.94 for additional waterworks facilities; $50,000 for improvements to the city's traffic lights.

Drains will cost $100; foundations and graveling of streets, $150,000; widening of King-Bowen intersection, $6,600; other street foundations, $10,000; centralization of city services, $9,739.93; purchase and installation of fire hydrants, $12,000 and waterworks improvements $11,384.43.

The city purchased 1,000 cubic yards of Ready-Mix cement, 3,000 tons of a bituminous mixture and 1,000 tons of a bituminous mixture with stones for street repairs to be made during the summer months.

The city has spent a total of $18,000 up until now this year for the repair of pot holes in city streets.

Council approved purchase of 257 single street name plates costing a total of $650.

Local Salvation Army Personnel Help In A Wide Variety Of Cases

Many stories of human interest can be told across Canada about the practical work of The Salvation Army, in homes, institutions, hospitals and jails.

It is not necessary to project yourself into another community far away to see this organization at work. Here at Sherbrooke and in the Eastern Townships, many services are done, by the officers and comrades of this area. The following two case histories are examples of the work that is being done.

Mr. F. J. found himself in strange, exceptional circumstances in the local jail. He had suffered a mental breakdown and a lapse of memory and was being assisted by a local doctor. As a "temporary measure," he was placed in the local jail, "for his own protection," where unfortunately, through unforeseen events and various official channels, he became a forgotten man.

Contact was made with the local Salvation Army Officer, who visited him regularly, while efforts were being made to see that he was released and given necessary treatment.

Salvation Army personnel in another province who were assisting his wife and family, were also contacted.

Eventually, he was released by the local authorities into the care of the Salvation Army. Here he was cared for for a number of weeks, showing himself to be an efficient and useful worker. New shoes, and other items of clothing were purchased and some articles obtained from the Salvation Army Welfare Store. He was taken to Montreal where he stayed at the Men's Hostel until transportation could be arranged to his home.

Word has been received from this man on numerous occasions of his gratefulness to the Army for their interest in him.

Another case is that of Mr. E. S. who came to the Army with a record of twenty years of drinking, quarrels and trouble. His bodily condition was such that the offer of a meal and a place to stay was appreciated, but was not the answer to this man's need.

A decision was made to have him enter the Army's Rehabilitation Centre, in Montreal, where he responded in a wonderful way to the treatment of kindness, spiritual and physical aid. Much later, a letter was received, and is still carried by St. Capt. Glen McEwan, saying, "Captain, I want to thank you very much for all you've done for me..."

When visiting this centre at the holiday season, the Captain was informed by St. Capt. Martin's Chapel, Bishop's College School.

The Sher-Lenn Choir, the choir of King's Hall, Compton and the Bishop's College School Choir will each sing a special anthem during the service. They will as well receive the helpful comments of Gerald Knight, director of the Royal School of Church Music in England and a former organist of Canterbury Cathedral, who will be present.

By W. G. MACDOUGALL
(County Agriculturist)

The Sherbrooke County Agricultural Society is an amalgamation of the farmer's clubs in Sherbrooke county and Compton Township. The Board of Directors is composed of the presidents and secretaries of the Farmer's club in the said area.

The Agricultural Society uses the funds at their disposal for premiums for the improvement of agriculture. The following are the premiums offered for 1960.

PREMIUMS

1.—Premium of $3.00 per acre (maximum: 3 acres) for the preparation, good fertilization and seeding of pasture with a mixture of 7 lbs. of Timothy and 2 lbs. of Ladino per acre, or 7 lbs. of Timothy, 1 lb. of Ladino and 4 lbs. of Birdsfoot Trefoil per acre.

2.—Premium of $3.00 for the purchase of 100 chickens or 50 turkeys from a certified hatchery. (This identification must appear on the invoice).

3.—Premium of $3.00 for the cleaning of grain (at least 20 bushels of seed grain) provided that the seed grain be treated with "Ceresan" in this case, the farmers have to send the invoice or a voucher for the cleaning of the grain and if the disinfectant is made at the mill, the operator will have to indicate on the voucher or invoice that the grain cleaned has been disinfected. He must sign the voucher and the declaration. In the case where the grain has been disinfected on the farm, the farmer will send the Secretary the voucher for cleaning and complete form No. 3, specially prepared for this purpose, and have it signed by the Secretary or President of the farmer's club.

4.—Premium of $1.00 per ton for the purchase of ground limestone. Send invoice and form duly completed. (Maximum: 10 tons).

5.—Premium of $1.25 per cow inseminated by the operator of the artificial unit, to all members of the Society who are also members of the Artificial Insemination Unit. (Maximum: 8 cows).

6.—Premium of $1.00 per acre for the control of weeds. (Maximum: 10 acres).

TO OBTAIN PREMIUMS

1.—The 1, 4, 5 and 6 forms must be completed, certified by the President or Secretary of your Club and sent to the secretary of the Sherbrooke Agricultural Society, before Oct. 1st, 1960.

2.—For chickens: Send a voucher to the Secretary of the Society before Oct. 1st, 1960.

3.—For cleaning grain: The voucher and form No. 3, as requested, have to be sent to the secretary of the society before Oct. 1st, 1960.

Each member may benefit from the above premiums, to a total of $10.00. Furthermore, if the total amount allowed for premiums is exceeded, a deduction will be made pro rata. The Secretary of the Sherbrooke Agricultural Society is Mr. Jean Martin,

P. O. Box 70, 234 Dufferin, Sherbrooke.

This simply means the farmer with an investment of $2.00 can draw premiums to the extent of $10.00. This is a good investment!

AYRSHIRE SALE

One of the big events in the dairy world this month will be the Canadian National Ayrshire Sale at Huntingdon, Que. on Monday, May 23. Consequently, the total of 65,813 cattle have been exported this year as compared to 64,554, an increase of 1,259 this year.

In dairy cattle, we find that 9910 cattle were exported to the U. S. A. as compared to 10,715, a decrease of 805 head.

Over 6,300 calves were exported to the U. S. A. as compared to 7,533. A decrease of 1,219. American Buyers have been active in the calf market in the month of April.

Canada also exports large quantities of dressed meats. These meats are exported as fresh, frozen, cured, canned, etc. For the period of Jan. 1st, to April 23rd of this year, 4,945,216 lbs of beef and veal were exported to all countries, including the U.S.A. 19,506,919 lbs of pork as fresh, frozen, cured and smoked, were exported to all countries.

These figures do not include canned meats. Statistics are rather boring, however, they are necessary at times to indicate certain trends. Furthermore, the statistics given indicate what the livestock industry is doing in aiding the balance of trade between countries.

High Level Hypocrisy

Both the hurt shock of the U.S.S.R. and the self recriminations of the U.S. over the spy-plane incident are significant and important even if they are not very convincing.

There is an element of high level hypocrisy in the stands taken by both nations.

After all, most of us have become more or less conditioned to this sort of thing since the start of the Cold War. Right after the Second World War we, in the West had the shocking and sensational revelations of the Soviet spy trials. Similar trials, leading to the convictions of alleged Western agents have been held in Yugoslavia, in Hungary and in Russia.

As well, most of us have absorbed any number of stories of Iron Curtain intrigue that have been both real and fictional, directed at us by press, radio and television.

And so, in the year 1960 it is not difficult for most of us to believe that an American, on a mission of espionage, could be shot down over the Ural Mountains in the heart of Russia. This is not being cynical, it is being realistic.

But this realistic approach is not shared by the leaders of the Russian or American people.

At least on the surface it is not.

Mr. Khrushchev gave the impression of a man betrayed when he made his charge known to the world last week. And the United States, first by its inept denial and then by its all-out confirmation, helped further the illusion that a trusting man had been taken advantage of.

Overnight, Mr. Khrushchev managed to brand the U.S. as a two-faced cheat, negotiating disarmament with one hand and plotting the Third World War with the other.

And false though this picture may be it will gain some credence throughout the world and it represents a major tactical gain for the Russian leader.

He now goes to the Paris Summit talks next week in the role of a man betrayed. And there can be no doubt that these talks were very much in his mind when he decided to drop his verbal bombshell. The timing was too perfect for it to have been otherwise.

And the United States, in its failure to ignore the charges or at least let them die down without comment must have exceeded his wildest and most optimistic dream.

Some Strange Sounds

There are some strange sounds coming out of the meetings of the Sherbrooke Proprietors' League these days.

The League is presently in the midst of a campaign to force a referendum on the city's latest public works loan by-law — a $910,000 one that will come before ratepayers at a public meeting at City Hall tomorrow.

Once the referendum is forced — if it is — the League then intends to campaign to have it defeated.

If the by-law is defeated, the League says the mayor should resign. Should the mayor agree to this and the by-law is approved, the directors of the League say they will resign.

But, note carefully, the League says it is not opposed to the by-law. The League thinks it is a good and necessary by-law. Still, they want to see it defeated on what they call a matter of principle. The principle seems to be that the mayor has challenged the League to defeat the by-law if it can.

Any organization that seeks to defeat a civic move which it thinks is a wise one leaves grave doubts in the minds of observers as to the worth of that organization. The position is a ridiculous one, to say the very least.

There seems to be some rather fuzzy thinking, too, on the question of the mayor resigning should the by-law be defeated.

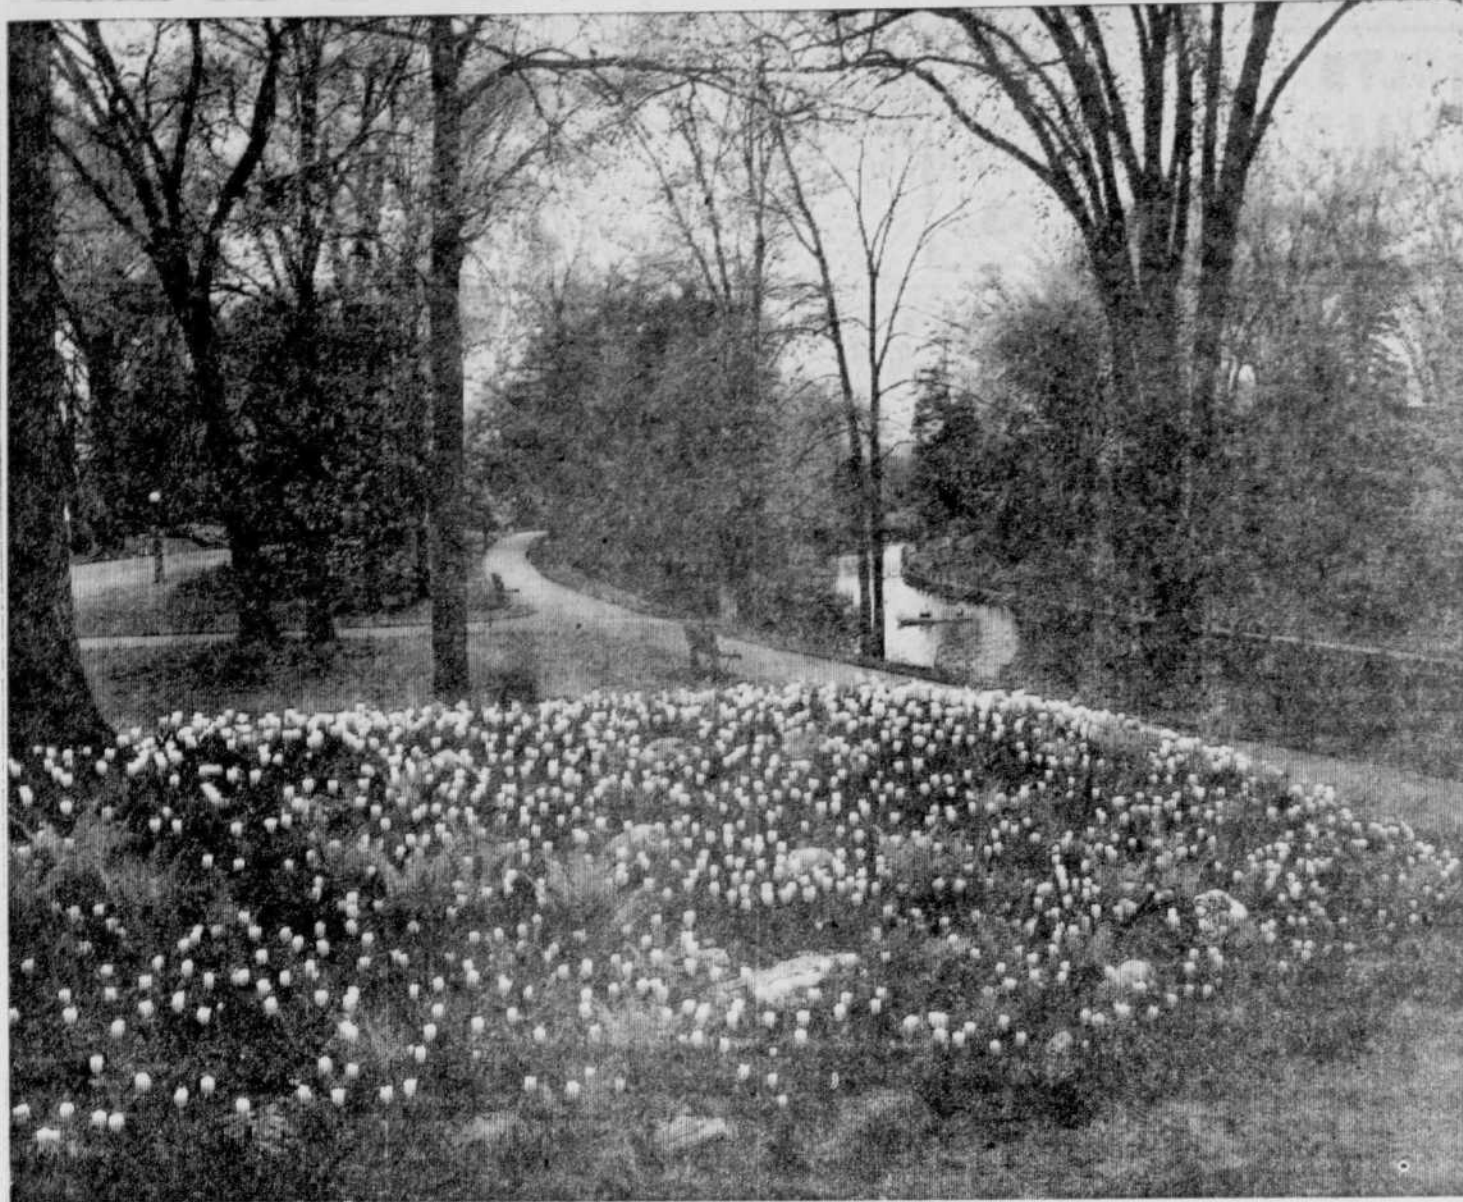

League spokesmen are apparently confusing provincial and federal administration in Canada with municipal administration here. There is really no parallel. So far as the "non confidence" principle is concerned.

Defeat of a civic by-law by proprietors is as far removed from defeat of a provincial or federal government motion by other elected representatives as a mayor is from a prime minister.

There is no rule or tradition that says a mayor must resign when proprietors reject a by-law. On the contrary, the referendum is one way for a mayor to ensure that his council is doing what the people want it to do. A defeat can, under certain circumstances, be a victory for a mayor.

Mr. Nadeau's administration may not be the most desirable for Sherbrooke. It may have faults, it may have flaws.

But if it has, the Sherbrooke Proprietors' League does not offer the alternative. The League, judging from its amazing posture of the last few weeks, has amply demonstrated how ill-equipped it is to understand, let alone tell anyone how to handle, the business of civic administration.

Shed A Tear For Speech-Writing M.P.'s

Chance Words Often Rate Highest

OTTAWA (CP) — Shed a tear for the member of Parliament who spends hours polishing high-sounding phrases for a formal oration in the Commons, only to find it is best remembered for a few chance words thrown in as an aside.

Howard Graffley (PC-Brome Missisquoi), who believes he is the first man whose mother tongue is English to represent an old French-Canadian riding, says he is still being quoted in his home district for a few words that weren't in the prepared version of his speech two years ago.

When Mr. Graffley, now 31, came to Ottawa after the 1958 general election, he was one of the youngest in the Commons. In his maiden speech he remarked on his youth and also on the fact that it was the first time a member from his riding had made a major speech in some years.

"I am told that backbenchers in the former Liberal administration were not encouraged too much by Mr. Howe to get to their feet and make speeches," he said. His reference was to former Trade Minister C. D. Howe.

"You are new around here," CCF House Leader Hazen Argue interjected. "You will have the same treatment, only more so."

"This is fun while it lasts," Mr. Graffley replied. That remark is still drawing comment from his constituents. He tells them it's still fun, and it's lasting. Mr. Graffley has developed into a quick-witted and sometimes noisy heckler of Opposition speakers.

London-born H. W. Herridge (CCF-Kootenay West) finds after 15 years in the House that reactions from his constituents are still unpredictable. Earlier this session he made a major speech on CCF farm policy, which was fully reported in the press at the time. But he put in an aside on which he has received more congratulatory letters than many members do.

In his speech, he was extolling the thrift of Kootenay district pioneers. "I represent a district which knows the necessity of saving money and watching the pennies," he said. "I think I represent a district which had the only travelling Plymouth Rock roster. We used to ship him up and down the Arrow Lakes in a crate, from one ranch to another."

One letter received by Mr. Herridge came from a British Columbia logging camp in which one of the workers subscribes to Hansard—$3 a session—and reads speeches to his fellow lumberjacks.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker has found that some asides can be disconcerting in a courtroom. After he was defeated in Prince Albert in the 1926 election by prime minister Mackenzie King, Mr. Diefenbaker took the defence case for a municipality's secretary-treasurer who was charged with theft after finding himself short $10,000 through bad book-keeping.

Out on bail while awaiting trial, the man was elected to the local telephone company's board of directors and to the school board. During the trial, Mr. Diefenbaker brought out these facts in cross-examination, in support of his client's good reputation.

The presiding judge couldn't see that the testimony was relevant. "After all," said the judge, "your recent experience is that the best man doesn't always get elected."

ROSES FOR A TICKET

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

Private first class Robert Cudini of the United States forces in Germany was doing a military police job recently when he saw a car parked in a narrow street and blocking traffic. He challenged the woman driver to get out of the way, then finding she had no driver's license, he took her to the army police station, and there gave her a parking ticket. Then she was allowed to drive herself home.

Two hours later, Cudini, his commanding officer and two others were called to the post supervisor where the details of the case were explained. Next day Cudini, private first class, was reduced to private and transferred to another unit.

The woman driver happened to be the wife of the United States Consul General. The chief of staff of the Seventh Corps sent her a bouquet of roses and a letter of apology.

ALL BIDDING IS NOT BY RULES

When an expert makes an unfortunate play he frequently explains it by saying, "It was the best percentage," or "I couldn't see all the cards." Sometimes he breaks down and admits, "I made a bad play."

When one of his bids goes wrong he sometimes admits to an error in judgment or adopts an explanation developed by some of our younger players and says, "I took a position."

Now take a look at the South hand only. Assume that you are an expert playing with a comparatively weak partner. Your partner passes and East opens with one heart. What should you do?

The particular expert who held that hand decided to "take a position" and jumped to five clubs. Everyone passed and the hand fanned for a grand slam. The grand slam was also there in spades so the expert looked like a real dub.

The game was duplicate and after the scores came in he looked a great deal better. His score for five clubs bid and seven made was 610 points. At other tables where South made the scientific call of two hearts, West would jump to some large number of hearts. North would either pass or show his diamond suit and no one ever found that four-four spade fit. Some South players went all the way to seven clubs, but East or West went to seven hearts and all North and South could gather in defensively would be one diamond, one club and one spade for a net plus of only 500 because East-West were not vulnerable.

Will Erect A Monument To The Locomotive Era

HUMBOLDT, Sask. (CP)—The number plate and bell from engine No. 2132 have been donated to the town of Humboldt by the Canadian National Railways and will be incorporated into a monument to mark the end of the steam locomotive era here.

The plate and bell were obtained by the town council and the board of trade so that some permanent marker could be erected to indicate the town's close connection with the railway.

Engine No. 2132 was one of the oldest locomotives not yet scrapped. It represents one of the first classes of engine to operate in Humboldt.

The engine was built by the Canadian Locomotive Company at Kingston, Ont., in 1912 for the Canadian Northern Railway. At that time it was the heaviest and most powerful freight locomotive operating over Canadian Northern lines in western Canada.

Total weight of the engine and tender was 165½ tons. In its 48 years of service, the engine covered approximately 1,500,000 miles.

WHOSE IS EVEREST?

(Stratford Beacon-Herald)
The Chinese Communists are not ones to set little goals. Now they are trying to move a mountain—the biggest in the world—into Chinese territory.

Premier Koirala of Nepal, back from a visit to China, has revealed that Chinese officials informed him that they claim Mount Everest, the 29,028-foot giant straddling the Nepal-Tibetan border which climbers find so challenging. Koirala replied that Everest is "Nepalese in every respect," and that Nepal has no intention of acknowledging the Chinese claim.

Climbers wanting to have a try at Everest have always obtained permission from Nepal, and Nepal has made a good thing out of Everest as a climbing and tourist attraction. China has never before challenged its right of possession.

But Red Chinese claims and pretensions seem to be growing all the time. They'll probably be claiming all the Himalayas next.

by Clyde Blackburn

OTTAWA—Cecil A. Cathers, Conservative member for North York, is reported to have told a Commons committee the other day that a slug of good Canadian rye might be substituted for drugs in certain treatments of illness.

It is quite possible Mr. Cathers does not take a drink himself and he certainly does not take very much. But he was arguing that a drink of liquor for relaxation might be safer than a drug.

Less danger of building up an addiction.

His comment set me thinking about drinking liquor around the parliament buildings in Ottawa.

Sure, some drinking goes on here. Not publicly.

But there are frequent dinners and luncheons, large and small, at which the host is permitted to dispense liquors galore or have them dispensed by the staff. And receptions with all the alcoholic trimmings.

In the real old days, before the fire of 1916, there was a genuine bar in the building and old timers say it was well patronized. And a most happy and restful place.

The new building was provided with a spacious and convenient room, at the rear of the Commons chamber, designed to be used as a bar if such a convenience were to be continued.

But drinking laws had been changing fast during that period and not enough members rallied to the support of a move to re-establish the bar.

So that lovely room, "Room 16," stands empty and forlorn. Occasionally some member uses it for a quiet talk with a visitor, but it is virtually unused.

Establishment of legal public drinking on a pay-as-you-go basis has never been carried out since 1916.

Speaker Rene Beaudoin, in the last parliament, had a plan to gradually and quietly without fanfare, introduce the sale of wines and ales in the parliamentary restaurant.

But he had to discuss it with some of his colleagues and restaurant committee people and he also talked to a few reporters about it.

There was a flood of objections from temperance people, and he quickly tore up his plans.

It is most unlikely Parliament will ever see a legal, casual and ordinary drinking facility restored to the House of Commons.

Members would not go on public record as favoring it.

Probably not even Mr. Cathers.

Evening's Entertainment Provided By Church Group At Bedford

BEDFORD — A large and enthusiastic audience filled the United Church hall on the occasion of the presentation of an excellent evening's entertainment under the auspices of the Women's Association of the United Church.

The program consisted of five numbers opening with an operetta in three acts, The Winning Ways of Grandma's Days. The ladies, majestic in fashions of a by-gone era, long skirts, leg of mutton sleeves, bonnets and hats bedecked with vari-colored willow plumes were received with hearty applause. Those taking part were Mrs. Henry Trott, Mrs. F. T. Duncan, Mrs. Ewart Martin, Mrs. R. S. Grevatt, Mrs. Gordon Jones, Mrs. Ralph Oakes and the Misses Noreen Wood, Mary Muncester, and Linda MacArthur. Mrs. Alex MacArthur was pianist.

The second item, those Husbands of Ours in one act, showed that while art and culture are desirable attributes, good food, congenial company and entertainment were more appealing to husband. In the cast were Mrs. Brown, the hostess of the evening of culture, Mrs. Isabel Norris, Mrs. Eileen MacArthur, as the maid who after two experiences in matrimony, felt that she was an authority on the proper treatment of husbands. Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Edith Wood, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Mabel Gough, Mrs. Williams, Miss Joan Northup, Mrs. Glass, Miss Lottie Casey, Mrs. Clark, Miss Dorothy Perault and Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Iris Percy were members of the Culture Club.

The president of the Women's Association, Mrs. Neil Creller, expressed her pleasure at the large gathering and thanked Joseph Dion and son for their kindness in loaning furniture for the different scenes and to the Bell Telephone for the pastel-colored telephones used.

A pantomime, Grandma Retires, then and now, with Miss Nettie Lovering as the "then" grandma, brought back nostalgic memories of life on the farm, with unstinted food, when life was untroubled, when "early to bed and early to rise" was the rule. Miss Lovering made a most appealing and realistic grandma. Mrs. George Wilkinson as the "now" grandma, left one with the feeling, more than ever, that the "then" grandma, was the preferable one. Dressed in the extreme of fashion, rushing in to tell her poor husband of the exciting and wonderful day that she had been on the go every minute, and reciting with animation her full schedule for the coming day, the reason for her brittle and excitable manner could be easily understood, and one was left with pity and understanding for the tired husband. Kenneth Best was the reader.

Let's Review the Bidding, a one-act play, showed the frustrations of one good bridge player contending against three players, whose only interest was in the repeating of the latest and most exciting neighborhood gossip. Those taking part were Mrs. Fred Gilman as the hostess, Mrs. William MacArthur, Mrs. Robert Getty, Mrs. Neil Creller, Mrs. N. Belieu were the bridge players, and Mrs. Jack Soles was the photographer.

The final number on the program was the MacArthur Special a song by Mrs. Alex MacArthur and son Peter, with Mr. MacArthur accompanist. Candy was sold by Mrs. R. Cruise and Mrs. B. Kryling.

Traffic Safety Quiz No. 3

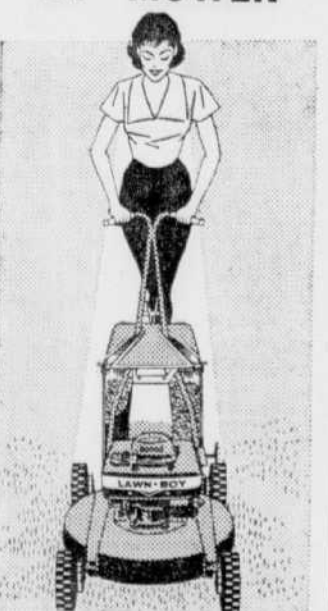

Can you find 10 traffic hazards in this picture?

Look sharp! This quiz checks more than the acuteness of your vision. It also tests your judgment of what's right and wrong on the road. Look again—then rate yourself against the list. But keep in mind that perceiving a traffic hazard is not enough. A good driver is always prepared to take instant action to avoid trouble.

Like all good citizens, Shell is interested in safety. We urge you to be alert, drive carefully, know the rules—and obey them. Remember: about 75% of all accidents are caused by the driver—not the car.

- (Each hazard is located by letter and by number. For example, F8 indicates the location of the station wagon at the lower right of the picture where lines from F and 8 would cross.)
- 1 Boat on station wagon is improperly secured (F8, lower right)
 - 2 Driver's rear vision blocked by packages (J8, lower right)
 - 3 Parked car not completely off highway (C10, center right)
 - 4 Car attempting to pass on the right (D7, center)
 - 5 Car with trailer is cutting in on car at left (B8, upper center right)
 - 6 Car crossing divider (A6, top center)
 - 7 Child losing ball from car (E4, left center)
 - 8 Driver reaching in back of car, his eyes off road (G1, lower left)
 - 9 Car following car ahead too closely (D2, left center)
 - 10 Car with one door not completely closed (I-5, bottom center)
- (These are major hazards; there are others. If you found more than ten, congratulations!)

OBITUARY

GEORGE E. MACASKILL, OF GOULD,
Formerly of Stornoway

GOULD — The sudden death of one of this community's prominent and well beloved citizens, George E. MacAskill, occurred at his home here on Wednesday afternoon, April 13, 1960, after a long illness. Mr. MacAskill had been in poor health for over 14 years and had returned from the Sherbrooke Hospital only five days before his death.

George Edward MacAskill was born at Stornoway on August 19, 1882, the son of the late Donald MacAskill and his wife the late, Annie MacRae. He was the last surviving member of his family of nine brothers and sisters.

Mr. MacAskill was a friendly man, of a kind and jovial disposition which won him many friends. His earliest language was Gaelic and he always enjoyed a visit with someone who spoke Gaelic.

He took a keen interest in the affairs of his town as long as his health permitted. He served on the Town Council as mayor for eight years and as councillor for 18 years. He was interested in the Lingwick Cemetery project and gave generously of his time and money to this work.

In 1913 Mr. MacAskill moved with his family to Milan from Stornoway and in 1915 to Gould, where he had since resided. In 1954 he retired from his farm on the main road and built a new home in the village.

He was predeceased by his wife, Grace Eleanor Duffy, whom he married in 1921, his parents, his brothers, Alex, Malcolm, Milton and Clarence and his sisters, Katherine, Mrs. James Matheson, Lottie Mrs. Roy Coleman, Christina and Annie.

Lingwick Lodge, No. 79, A.F. and A.M., of which he was a life member had charge of the service at the house and later at the cemetery.

Rev. E. Breen conducted the service at Chalmers' United Church on Good Friday, April 15, and gave a brief but impressive message. The organist, Mrs. Ruel Annesley, played the favorite hymns of the deceased. Safe in the Arms of Jesus, All the Way My Saviour Leads Me and the 23rd Psalm.

The bearers were: Kenneth McIver, Alex MacKay, Leslie MacLeod, Donald Morrison, David Hillis and Stearns Morrison.

Interment was in Lingwick Cemetery.

Among those present were: Alex and Bernard Matheson, of Stornoway; Lieutenant Colonel Ross MacAskill, Alexandria, Va.; Dan MacKay, Detroit, Mich.; Haris Olsson, North Hatley; Col. George Logie and Mrs. Logie, Sherbrooke; Mr. Roy Coleman, East Barre, Vt.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacLeod and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacLeod, Milan; Mr. Donald Annesley, Lachine; Miss Anna Melver, St. Lambert; Mr. Frank W. McCrea, Sherbrooke; Mr. and Mrs. William MacLeod, Canterbury; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Paul Murray, Lennoxville. And a large number of friends from the surrounding towns.

Canada To Make Gift Of Flour

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada is making a $1,500,000 gift of flour to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency to help feed Palestine refugees, External Affairs Minister Green announced Monday in the Commons.

Mr. Green said the grant, made in response to an appeal by the agency, is in addition to Canada's annual cash contribution to UNWRA of $500,000.

By releasing a agency funds which otherwise would be spent on food, it was hoped the grant would enable UNWRA to proceed with worthwhile rehabilitation projects to assist the refugees.

Birth Control Pill

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time the Food and Drug Administration has approved a pill as safe for contraceptive or birth control use. "Approval was based on the question of safety," associate commissioner John L. Harvey said Monday. "We had no choice as to the morality that might be involved. The pill which has been approved as safe for contraceptive use is called Enovid. It may be used only on doctor's prescription.

Bucking World Trend

Says Canada Failing To Adjust Economics

SACKVILLE, N.B. (CP) — Canada has failed to keep pace with an ever-changing economy, H. Roy Crabtree said Monday night in addressing the annual alumni dinner of Mount Allison University federated alumni.

The Montreal industrialist told his listeners that a flexible mind and the ability to accept change are expected of them in a realistic approach to what is best for Canada.

Mr. Crabtree is chairman of the board of Howard Smith Paper Mills Limited and chairman and president of Woods Mfg. Co. Ltd. and its subsidiaries.

Text of his address was released to the press in advance of delivery.

CONSTANT CHANGE

"The economy is constantly changing," he said. "The policies and practices employed for its conduct must change too."

"Successive Canadian governments since the end of the Second World War have stubbornly adhered to commercial policies suited to the farm economy we possessed more than two decades past."

"In doing so, they have bucked the world trend. This would be admirable if a useful purpose were served. All that has been achieved, however, is an increasing deficit in our international payments position and a dangerous imbalance in development of our means of production within Canada."

Both trends might be acceptable in a period of rapid growth but only as temporary conditions.

The precedent of U.S. reliance on British capital during a "comparable state of development is frequently cited in support of the

Gala Tea At Sangster Memorial

In honor of Mothers' Day, Sangster Memorial W. A. held a delightful salad tea in the church hall on Saturday afternoon. Carnations, the floral symbol of Mothers' Day, were used in the lovely red and white floral arrangement on the lace covered tea table, with white tapers and silver appointments completing the attractive arrangement. Vases of daffodils centered the smaller tea tables.

The guests were received by Mrs. C. Currie, honorary president, and Mrs. C. Wilson, president. Tickets were taken at the door by Mrs. Jas. Hosking, treasurer.

Pourers during the afternoon were Mrs. Diman Lynn, Mrs. Douglas Armitage, Mrs. W. Mutchler, Jr., and Mrs. Leslie Pettigrew, with Mrs. Russell Wheeler as replenisher.

The tea room was in charge of Mrs. Mervyn MacCoubrey, who was assisted in serving the guests by Mrs. J. Edmunds, Mrs. D. Wheeler, Mrs. S. Sjoden, Mrs. R. Walker and Mrs. W. Wilson.

The salad bar was in charge of Mrs. Sam McLean, Mrs. Robert Cutts and Mrs. E. Jenkinson with the cutting of squares and cakes being looked after by Mrs. Francis Gelinis and Mrs. C. C. McLachlan.

Duties in the kitchen were capably carried out by Mrs. J. Hall, Mrs. J. Hillman, Mrs. A. Noble, Mrs. H. Jolliffe, Mrs. S. Boduch and Miss Lettie Hodge.

Conveners of this delightful tea were Mrs. A. Noble and Mrs. C. C. McLachlan.

The table of home cooking was in charge of Mrs. E. Howland, Mrs. W. Sjolander, Mrs. R. Gillan and Mrs. R. Home. The fancy work table was presided over by Mrs. J. Paige, Mrs. A. MacDonald and Mrs. W. Wheeler.

Paris Styles Need Right Foundation

PARIS (Reuters)—Paris fashions demand self-control as designers reshape women to fit their fancy. It is the era of the fluctuating figure. Couturiers dictate nature's course with a wardrobe of different undergarments for various costumes.

Christian Dior decrees that bosoms should be flat in the daytime, and accentuated after dark. Pierre Cardin votes for hips as slender as a broomstick under tabular steel dresses, but rounds the hips in bubble-skirted formal fashions.

Today, a special bra and girdle can change the female form almost as easily as a new hat changes the aspect of the face. Paris couturiers and corsetiers prove that no woman is obliged to conform to nature's exact proportions.

The popular princess silhouette demands a subtle camouflage. Clothes caress the body without touching it and although waistlines generally are uncinched, the figure beneath must be subtle and slender.

All-in-one foundations are the key to current fashion in effects which raise the bosom and hollow the midriff.

SANGSTER MEMORIAL W. A.

Mrs. C. Wilson, president of the Sangster Memorial W. A. conducted the regular meeting held in the church hall, with Mrs. J. Edmund in charge of the devotional period.

Correspondence included a letter from St. John's Hall, the agenda of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbyterial being held in St. John's on May 10 and several thank you letters.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. Hosking, gave an encouraging report of the proceeds of the recently held concert and also gave the card and flower report.

The president thanked conveners and members for their assistance at the concert.

Following conveners reports, final arrangements were made for the Mother's Day tea held on Saturday, May 7, and for a wedding reception on May 21 and the Presbyterial luncheon, May 31.

Mrs. Wilson reminded the members of the tea being held in the hall on May 19 by the 7th Sherbrooke Scout Mothers' Auxiliary. She also stated three new supper tables will be made for the W. A.

It was moved that $25 be donated to St. John's Hall.

Following adjournment Mrs. A. MacDonald and Mrs. E. Jenkinson served refreshments.

DUKE OF WELLINGTON CHAPTER IOOE

The monthly meeting of the Duke of Wellington Chapter, I.O.E. held at I.O.E. House on Thursday night was presided over by the regent, Mrs. J. K. Doherty.

Following the prayer of the Order, Mrs. J. Couture reported on the proceeds of the Dessert Bridge which had proved a success both socially and financially. The regent extended her thanks to the members and those who had assisted at this event. It was moved that letters of thanks be sent for donations received.

Mrs. W. Ellwood, education secretary, recommended scholarships, bursaries and school prizes that the chapter has committed itself to pay the treasurer be authorized to remit payment when they are due. She also noted the amount due for the National Geographic Magazine had been raised to $5.

Mrs. P. A. Dauncey, assistant secretary, asked that meeting announcement cards be ordered. Mrs. Couture will order same.

Further discussion was held on the proposed hat show and following a letter from Mrs. Lindsay, read by the secretary, it was decided that the regent, while in Montreal, would contact Mrs. Lindsay to try to get a date, early in the fall.

Mrs. Dauncey, Empire and World Affairs convenor, read an article, The New Image of Syngman Rhee, which the members found most interesting.

Mrs. R. L. Bishop, Sherbrooke Municipal regent, then gave a brief resume of the Provincial annual meeting held in Quebec City. She announced the semi-annual provincial meeting will be held in St. John's, Que., on October 12.

Mrs. Bishop stated a concerted effort will be made by all chapters to pay off the mortgage on the building, and it had been suggested a giant rummage sale be held in the old bus terminal in the fall or a cosmetic demonstration in which all chapters would

Glamour Gals of Yesteryear Are Just That—Despite TV

TV may be able to intimidate the American housewife with photographic trickery such as thick cake icings, the likes of which she is never able to duplicate in her kitchen since she can't get by with "icing" her cake with shaving cream.

But one thing, for sure, TV hasn't been able to do as yet is to take an aging glamour gal and make her look like anything but what she is.

Whenever TV trots out one of these fortyish or fiftyish ex-glamour gals in a romantic lead, the cameras don't lie well enough to make her look like anything but what she is, a middle-aged woman who should have quit trying to be a glamour girl years ago.

"I can remember when I thought she was really something," Pop says with a touch of sadness and disbelief as actors young enough to be her sons swarm around her. TV writers always seem to think they can make an ex-glamour girl seem like the real thing if they will surround her with young actors who are supposed to be smitten by her irresistible charms.

But this trickery never rings true. So Papa looks sad to see one of the idols of his youth looking every bit her age while trying desperately to look young.

And then he glances over at Mama—and all of a sudden he realizes that the years haven't wreaked the havoc on her that they have on the one-time glamour queen.

Mama hasn't had to starve herself until she has a gaunt, hard look. Mama hasn't held on to the mannerisms of youth that look incongruous when practiced by a middle-aged woman. Mama's face has softened through the years spent in devotion to others.

And when Papa says, as though thinking out loud, "She must be years older than you are," Mama smiles a smile of deep content. TV hasn't found any way to humiliate her by making ex-glamour queens look as though the years hadn't touched them. Thank goodness for that!

Cookshire Hotel Opens Tomorrow

Gala Show Scheduled

COOKSHIRE — The Cookshire Hotel, a spanking new brick and stone structure on Craig street here, will be officially opened tomorrow.

To mark the occasion, Proprietor Shafic Cassar has brought the Montreal TV and radio artist, Ovila Legaré and his troupe to entertain at the hotel tomorrow night. A gala time is anticipated and those who join hotel guests in the spacious new grill will be assured an entertaining evening.

Actually the hotel opened the end of February and finishing touches are just about completed. There are 25 rooms, two grills, a tavern, dining room, kitchen and lobby.

The two-storey structure is built in an L shape and occupies some 5,000 square feet of space. An attractive wrought iron entranceway leads into the lobby, finished like the rest of the building in modern decor. Ample parking space is provided at the rear of the building.

The largest of the two grills seats some 275 people and is quite striking in its deep rose and beige decor. Multicolored lights over the bar are a gay note, and comfortable chairs and tables in toast brown shade carry out the color scheme.

An orchestra every Saturday night plays for dancing here.

A smaller room nearby is available for private parties and decorated in green, is aptly named The Green Room.

Typical Canadian food is served in the dining room at the front of hotel which can seat 25 easily. A beige color scheme, the same as used in the lobby is continued in the dining room.

Upstairs, gray corridors lead to the bedrooms, each styled with compact dressing table units and comfortable single or double beds. Pastel shaded tile bathrooms are available with some rooms.

Supervising the staff of eight at the hotel is Shafic Cassar, owner and proprietor, who lives there with his wife and three young children, John, Donna and George.

The hotel business is a new venture for Mr. Cassar who was in the dry goods business in East Angus for 23 years. But there is experience in the family — his brother, Louis runs the Rex Hotel in Marblenton.

This town can well be proud of its attractive new hotel.

Sluggers Lagging Feet In Major League Home Run Derby; Mantle Has Only One And Ed Mathews Three

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle of New York, Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee and Rocky Colavito of Detroit are high on the list of sluggers dragging their feet in the major league home run races.

Mantle has hit only one homer in 16 games. Mathews, last year's National League champion with 46, has three in 16 games while Colavito has three in 15 and none in his last 11. In the same number of games a year ago, Mathews had eight, Colavito four and Mantle three.

That's not all. Harmon Killebrew, who shared the American League crown with Colavito with 42 in 1959, has wallowed only two. However, the Washington star has been sidelined with a leg injury.

Willie Mays of San Francisco also has two. Charley Maxwell of Detroit, a 31-homer contributor for Detroit last year, has yet to hit his first this season.

The leaders through Sunday's games were Willie McCovey of San Francisco with eight in the National League and Woody Held of Cleveland with six in the American. Each slammed one homer in last week's games.

While Mays has been lagging in homers, the Giants' star continues to pace the senior circuit in batting. He had seven hits in 21 tries last week and his average tailed off to .425. Hank Aaron of Milwaukee and Tony Curry of Philadelphia are deadlocked for second place at .385 followed by Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, .369.

Roger Maris of New York climbed into the American League No. 1 spot on the strength of a 10-for-7 (.583) performance last week that increased his average to .458. Teammate Bill Skowron is in the runnerup position at .400. Then come Pete Runnels of Boston .396 and Jerry Lumpe of Kansas City, .382. Lumpe, the leader a week ago, has managed only two hits in his last 17 times at bat.

McCovey, who drove in six runs last week, continues to lead the National in RBI with 27. Clemente is next with 23. The Pirates' outfielder boosted his total by five. Skowron is tops in the American with 20, one more than Jim Gentile of Baltimore.

Albrecht Joins Als' Coaching Staff As Scout

MONTREAL (CP) — General Manager-head coach Perry Moss of Montreal Alouettes today announced the appointment of J. I. Albrecht of Brooklyn, N.Y., as director of player personnel.

Moss said Albrecht will serve as "our full-time scout developing Canadian talent and recruiting imports."

Albrecht will travel to allotted areas in Canada and will get information on every football player in Alouette territory. He will scout major colleges in the U.S., will recruit players and will also look for players who can be classed in the Big Four Football League as having dual citizenship.

Albrecht, 30, has done much scouting for U.S. colleges. He has been field representative for the universities of South Carolina, Tennessee, Southern California, Maryland and Wyoming. He recruited George Brancato, who came to the Als in 1956 and now is with Ottawa Rough Riders.

Garnir, Soviet Horse, To Get Another Chance

MOSCOW (AP) — Garnir, the Soviet horse which finished fifth in the International Race at Laurel, Md., last Nov. 11, will get another chance.

The Russians have told the United States Embassy that Garnir is being sent back for the Veterans' Day classic next November. However, Flang, which finished eighth after a mixup at the start last fall, would not return to the United States.

Instead the Russians probably will pick between Khabardin, a three-year-old, and Stator, a four-year-old. Each is a brown stallion.

There has been no word from the Russians whether or not they'll have a trotter in the Roosevelt Raceway International affair Aug. 20. Track officials were here to talk about it but the final answer isn't due until June 20.

Besmanoff All Set For Moore

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Willie Besmanoff arrived here Monday and assured everyone he will whip world light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore in a May 25 non-title fight and make money at it.

Besmanoff said Moore "has been great," but he's running out of gas.

"My only plan for the fight is to make speed. Moore won't like that. His legs won't carry him."

Besmanoff, who directs himself, also expounded his views on managers, saying "the fighters take the punches and the managers get fat," adding to his theory that he'll get paid for every punch he takes.

New York—J. D. Ellis, 133½, Trenton, N.J., stopped Chico Rollins, 132½, New York, 9.

Philadelphia—Stan Fitzgerald, 130, Buffalo, and Mel Middleton, 129½, Philadelphia, drew, 10.

Holyoke, Mass.—George (Kid) Ross, 140, Hartford, Conn., stopped Tommy Garrow, 137, Claremont, N.H., 5.

Tokyo — Fumio Kaizu, Japan, knocked out Jiro Kanazawa, Japan, middleweights, 9.

Herb Score Happy And Hopeful With White Sox, Believes Al Lopez Will Help Him Regain His Form Once Again

NEW YORK (AP) — One victory doesn't constitute a comeback and nobody knows it better than Herb Score.

But the erstwhile strikeout sensation of the American League is happy, hopeful and at home.

The reason is one man, Al Lopez.

"Al understands me," said Score Monday. "He knows my problem. He's helping me."

BACK TO LOPEZ

When Score was floundering around with the Cleveland Indians earlier this season, after an equally frustrating last half of the 1959 campaign, he asked to be traded to the Chicago White Sox, where he would be under Lopez, his old manager. Cleveland general manager Frank Lane complied, getting Barry Latman, a young right-hander, in return.

After two fruitless starts under Lopez, Score last week came through with six scoreless innings against Washington to register his first victory in nearly a year. He walked but two. How did he feel about it?

"I'm not overwhelmed," he said honestly. "I wouldn't call it a comeback yet, although I felt better than at any time this season. The tenderness I had in my shoulder appeared to be gone. I felt comfortable on the mound."

Score explained that in Cleveland they tried to get him to throw more overhand in the hopes that he would cure his wildness.

When he came to Chicago, Lopez told him to throw the way he felt most comfortable, whether it was three-quarters, sidearm or overhand.

"He made just one suggestion," said Score. "He noticed that I was taking my eye away from the plate just before I made my delivery."

Lopez is convinced that Score will return to his winning form.

"I decided as soon as I got him that I was going to pitch him," Al said. "You can't learn anything on the sidelines. I would have forfeited four or five games, if necessary, to find out if Herb could still pitch. He's worth it. I think he's going to be an even better pitcher than he was when I had him in Cleveland."

Score wanted to make himself clear on one point.

Orioles Hit Blank Wall In Hunt For Catcher

BALTIMORE (AP)—Baltimore Orioles have run into a blank wall in search of a catcher to replace disabled Gus Triandos.

"We're still trying though," Lee MacPhail, Oriole president and general manager, said Monday. MacPhail said he has been in touch with "six or eight" big league clubs in an effort to acquire a righthanded - hitting receiver.

Big Gus, who will be lost to the team for at least a month, is to undergo surgery today for a thumb injury.

MacPhail's primary target is believed to have been Darrell Johnson, third-stringer with St. Louis Cardinals who caught briefly for the 1954 Birds.

There is a possibility the Orioles will recall catcher-outfielder Gene Green from Miami Marlins, their affiliate in the International League.

Baltimore has only two catchers besides Triandos—left-handed hitters Joe Ginsberg and Clint Courtney.

Closed TV To Be Biggest Yet For Big Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—The closed circuit television coverage of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson return heavyweight championship bout on June 20 will be the widest in history, the president of Telepromper predicted today.

"Interest has been increasing in the bout," said Irving Kahn, Telepromper's top official. "We expect to have even more sites on the closed circuit this year than the record 174 we had for the Sugar Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio middleweight title fight in 1958."

"The picture will be carried into ball parks and other sports arenas as well as theatres."

The New York state athletic commission put its final seal of approval on the bout Monday by accepting the contract between Feature Sports, the promoter, and Telepromper, which controls the radio, TV and movie rights.

Kahn's company has issued a minimum guarantee of $700,000 for the rights.

Charlie Neal Slugs Three-Run Homer To Tag Elroy Pace With His Third Defeat, Senators Slug Kansas City

Pittsburgh's stumbling, fumbling Pirates still are a it, losing six of seven since spurting into the National League lead with a nine-game winning streak.

They dropped their fourth in a row Monday night, giving up a pair of unearned runs and losing 7-4 at Los Angeles as Charlie Neal slugged a three-run homer in the ninth that tagged the once unbeatable Elroy Face with his third defeat.

The Pirates now are 1½ games behind idle, first place San Francisco and only one game ahead of Milwaukee's third place Braves, who were rained out at Chicago on the only other NL game scheduled.

Rain also halved a two-game schedule in the American League. Righthander Camilo Pascual, winless since the season opener, pitched his second three-hit victory as Washington clubbed Kansas City 8-1. The Cleveland at Boston game was postponed.

COMMITTED FOUR ERRORS

The Pirates, who committed 4 errors Monday night, and 15 in their last five games, were shut out on one hit for seven innings by Don Drysdale. The Dodgers ace righthander struck out 13, but gave up two-run homers by Bill Mazaroski and Bob Skinner in the eighth and ninth before reliever Larry Sherry took over.

Sherry, back to doing what comes naturally after a fling as a starter, came in with the tie-breaking run on first, struck out Don Hoak and then retired Gino Cimoli on a grounder to end the Pirate rally. Neal's second home run of the season, following a single by Maury Wills and an intentional walk to Junior Gilliam got the job done.

It was Sherry's third straight victory in relief—all the Dodgers have won in their last nine games. It made him the champs' top winner at 4-3. The young right-hander has only a 1-2 record to show for his shot as a starting pitcher.

Bob Friend lasted seven innings for the Pirates before giving way for a pinch-hitter in his 12th consecutive unsuccessful try for a complete game against the Dodgers. Los Angeles scored twice in the fifth, when singles by Norm Larker and Bob Aspromonte sandwiched Don Demeter's double, and another in the sixth on Larker's second of three consecutive singles. It followed two errors by shortstop Dick Groat on Wally Moon's grounder, giving Groat five boots in two games.

UNEARNED RUN
The Dodgers scored another unearned run, on Dick Stuart's error in the eighth against Face (0-3), the relief wizard who won 18 of 19 last year.

Pascual (2-3) struck out 11 and gave up nothing but singles while putting away the fifth three-hitter of his career for Washington. He lost a shutout in the third when the A's scored an unearned run on the first of two hits by Dick Williams, a passed ball and a two-out error by shortstop Billy Consolo. Williams got the A's second hit in the eighth. Jerry Lumpe got the other in the ninth.

The Senators, after losing three straight, beat Ray Herbert (2-1) with three runs in the first on two walks and singles by Dan Dobek, Earl Battey and Reno Bertoia. Jim Lemon added his sixth home run, tying Cleveland's Woodie Held for the AL lead, in the second inning, and Bob Allison socked his second, first since opening day, in the eighth.

Eli Grba Wins His Third Straight As Vees Stop Red Wings 2-1, All Other Games In Circuit Rained Out

Eli Grba is a tough man.

Not only does he have one of the toughest names in baseball to pronounce (it's Grr-ba), but he is giving the hitters in the International League fits trying to make something of his pitching.

The Richmond Virginians hurler won his third straight Monday night, 2-1 over Rochester Red Wings, and ran his earned run average to 0.50 in 35 innings. All other IL activity—Buffalo Bisons - Columbus Jets, Miami Marlins-Montreal Royals, Havana Sugar Kings - Toronto Maple Leafs—was rained out.

Grba scattered five hits and struck out eight. He has allowed only two runs—both earned—in four starts and has given only 23 hits. What's more impressive is his 24 strikeouts against only 11 walks, and three complete games, two of which were shut-outs.

WILD THROWS HELP

The Vees pushed over the winning run in the eighth after two were out. Deron Johnson reached first on Julio Gotay's error, went to second on a wild pitch and continued to third on catcher Dave Rickett's wild throw. He scored one batter later when Jim Pisoni singled. Grba scored the first run in the third when he was forced home by Pisoni, who walked with the bases loaded.

Rochester pulled off its second triple play of the season in the second inning. With the bases loaded and none out, Bill Shantz' liner was snared by third baseman Bill Harrell, who stepped on third to get the second out and threw to second baseman Bob Sačowski to complete the triple play. Sačowski caught Granny Hamner off the bag.

Duke Carmel's double and Rickett's single scored the Wings' only run in the fifth.

Venetian Way And Bally Ache Meet Once Again In Preakness Saturday

Derby Winner And Runner-Up To Battle It Out, Tompion On Sidelines With Injured Foot, Royal Battle Expected

By JOHN CHANDLER

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky Derby winner Venetian Way and runner-up Bally Ache will renew their feud in the Preakness at Pimlico in Baltimore May 21, but Tompion will skip the run for the black-eyed Susans because of a hoof injury.

Isaac Blumberg's Venetian Way and Leonard Fruchtmann's Bally Ache fly in the same plane to Baltimore this morning for the 84th running of the $150,000-added Preakness.

C. V. Whitney's Tompion, the even money favorite for the 1 1/4 mile roses gallop, finished fourth after a shoe was torn off his left forefoot during the race. The nails were torn through the hoof wall, Dr. Jack Jockey, a veterinarian, said.

The winner of the Santa Anita Derby and Blue Grass Stakes was sent to Whitney's Lexington, Ky., farm for rest and recuperation. He may start in the $125,000-added Belmont, final race in the triple crown for 3-year-olds, June 11.

"Bill Hartack will ride Venetian Way in the Preakness," said trainer Vic Sovinski in putting to rest any thoughts that there was any chance of a change in jockeys.

"We'll go all the way and hope we can get the triple crown," said the former baker from Kanakake, Ill.

It was reported from Baltimore that the Preakness prep, a 1 1/16 mile race usually run on the Monday before the big one, had been shifted back to next Saturday, May 14.

Three other colts left by train Monday for Baltimore, including E. P. Taylor's Victoria Park, the Canadian colt who finished third. The others were the Llanoslen Farm's Divine Comedy, who disliked the muddy derby going and finished ninth, and a stablemate, Command Pilot. The latter didn't start Saturday.

Charley Whittingham, the Llanoslen trainer, said both probably would go in the Preakness prep.

Records Fall At First Outdoor Track Tourney

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two Canadian records fell and another was equalled by two sprinters Saturday in the Vancouver Olympic Club relays, first major outdoor track meet here this season.

Doug Kyle, a veteran distance runner from Calgary, and a Vancouver Olympic Club relay team established Canadian records, while Harry Jerome of Vancouver and Oregon and Lynn Eves of Victoria equalled an existing mark.

Kyle ran the three-mile distance in 13 minutes 53.2 seconds, clipping 4.6 seconds off the previous Canadian Native mark, which he set here two years ago.

The Vancouver Olympic Club team, with Terry Tobacco of Cumberland, B. C. running the 440, Eves and Bob Tarleck of Vancouver legs of 220 yards each and Allen Andrews of Vancouver the 880, broke the Canadian open medley relay record with a time of 3:26.0 for the two-mile distance. The previous mark was set by a team from the University of Chicago running in Toronto last year.

Jerome, 19, and Eves, 18, were both clocked in 9.6 seconds in the 100-yard dash, Jerome winning by inches with a last-second thrust at the tape. Their time compared with the world record of 9.3 seconds everyone because it came over a slow track, made heavy by Friday rains and badly chopped for the first 10 yards.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Camilo Pascual, Senators, gained his second three-hit victory of season, striking out 11, giving up nothing but singles and losing his shutout on an unearned, third-inning run in 8-1 decision over Athletics.

Hitting—Charlie Neal, Dodgers, hit three-run, tie-breaking homer in ninth inning beat Pirates 7-4.

Mr. And Mrs. Fred Roberts Win Mixed Darts Tournament Held At Richmond

RICHMOND — Fred and Eileen Roberts emerged winners of the mixed doubles darts tournament played at the Legion Hall on Saturday afternoon. Branch president Leslie Dalton presented the couple with the Dow Trophy, donated by Leo Loiselle local distributor. The trophy, called the Perpetual Mixed Doubles Darts Trophy, was won by Nellie Laroche and Bunny Sample of Sherbrooke last year.

Runners-up were Elsie Vickers and Basil Hayward while in the other semi-final it was Sample and Laroche with Maisie Heale and Harold Kydd. Fifty-six players took part from Richmond, Trenholm, Danville, Sherbrooke and Lennoxville.

High score was chalked up by Irvin Bradley of Sherbrooke with 140 for men while Blanche Mastine of Trenholm scored highest for women with 107. The Roberts' eliminated Laroche and Sample in the semi-finals while Vickers and Hayward got by Heale and Kydd to make the final round.

In Legion District darts, Richmond topped Danville 22-18 in a game played at the Legion Hall while the women split their fixture. Bob Heale paced the local men's team with 5 wins while Harold Kydd, Basil Hayward, Ken McLeod and Leo Delaney took three games. Lorne Kydd and Jack Cunningham dropped three games. Arnold Rodgers lost four out of five.

R. Tyler was best man for Danville with four wins while three-game winners were Don Baird, H. Bowering and Millar Scott. Frank Gregory and R. Sells took only two games with L. Heron losing four. The Danville branch team was short one man in the game, playing with only seven.

Latest reports on the Legion round-robin has the Richmond branch finishing on top to cop the District No. 8 Trophy. Other teams entered were two from Drummondville and one from Danville. Presentation of the trophy will take place next week in Drummondville.

REMEMBER WHEN...
Lionel Conacher, Canada's greatest all-round athlete of the half-century, won his first professional wrestling match 28 years ago tonight at Toronto, pinning Carl Popeshill in two straight falls. Conacher, best known for his football prowess, collapsed and died in 1954 while playing a softball game for members of Parliament against members of the Parliamentary press gallery at Ottawa.

AX TO GRIND — A new sparring partner for Floyd Patterson is an ax with which he attacks trees near his training camp at Newtown, Conn. Patterson hopes that this time he'll be on his feet when the referee yells, "Timber-r-r-r!" at the finish of return bout with Ingemar Johansson in New York, June 20.

Freddie Glover Of Cleveland Barons Named MVP In Amer. Hockey League

NEW YORK (AP)—Scoring champion Freddie Glover of the Cleveland Barons Monday was named the American Hockey League's most valuable player for the 1959-60 season.

Glover will receive the Les Cunningham Plaque and a $300 bonus from the league.

The veteran right winger was a unanimous choice of hockey writers and broadcasters in the seven AHL cities. He collected 35 points—5 from each city.

Glover scored 38 goals and 69 assists last season for 107 points to lead the circuit in scoring for the second time. He is also the AHL's all-time scoring pace-setter with 822 points, resulting from 339 goals and 483 assists.

Ed Chadwick, Rochester goalie, was runnerup in the most valuable player balloting with 16 points. He was followed by Larry Hillman of Providence, 4 points; Steve Kraftcheck of Rochester 3; Bill Sweeney, Springfield, 2; Phil Maloney, Buffalo, Harry Pidhirny, Springfield and Bobby Perreault, Hershey, 1 each.

Sydney, Australia—Clive Stewart, 161 1/4, Australia, outpointed Tony Dupas, 156, New Orleans, 12.

Bachman Wants Cleroux To Meet Chuvalo For Title

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Boxing Federation has been asked to help arrange a title match between heavyweight champ George Chuvalo of Toronto and Montreal's Bob Cleroux, the top contender.

Cleroux's manager Al Bachman said Monday night in a long-distance telephone call from New York that he made the request in wires to CBF president Merv McKenzie of Toronto and Gene Letourneau of Quebec City, the CBF's national commissioner.

Bachman said promoter Eddie Quinn of Montreal has agreed to stage a bout "at the earliest possible date."

Chuvalo's last defence was a 12th-round knockout in Toronto Nov. 17 over Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B.

Ingemar Johansson Has Changed His Training Methods, No Longer Easy Going Is Showing Much More Speed

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—There's a "new" Ingemar Johansson training for defence of his world heavyweight championship high in this Catskill Mountain resort.

No longer is Johansson the easy-going, take-it-slow fighter that he was the last time he showed up here just a year ago. Then, he showed so little that some folks feared for his life against champion Floyd Patterson.

Instead, he cut down Patterson and won the title with a devastating right hand.

Johansson began sparring Monday and this time he isn't hiding the right.

"I never saw him so fast," exclaimed Artie Towne of New York, one of his sparring partners. "Those rights, they were coming very fast."

Both Towne and Will Johnson went two rounds with the champion and both took dozens of sizzling rights to the head.

"Johansson was a flat-footed boxer when I stepped into the ring against him for the first time last year," observed Towne. "He's a changed man now."

While he didn't cut loose with the full force of his blows in his first sparring session, Johansson left no doubt as to how he intends to operate against Patterson in their return on June 20 at New York's Polo Grounds.

Even when he isn't sparring, he is working on the right. Trainer Nils Blomberg has a "shlung ball" which looks something like a musk melon. He spins it and Jo-

Sports Show Gives $35,000 To Conservation

Conservation programs, including education against pollution and on behalf of wildlife and forest protection, will be aided by $35,000 to be given to the Quebec Federation of Fish and Game Associations and Montreal Anglers and Hunters, Inc., as a result of a record in net proceeds set by the 1960 Montreal Sportsman's Show.

Net proceeds of the show, held at the Show Mart from March 13 to 27, were $41,745, compared with a previous high of $28,872 set in 1959, according to an announcement by Alphonse Leclaire, president of the exhibition. The 1960 show also set a record in paid attendance with 141,345, compared with the previous record of 131,182 made in 1955. Last year's attendance was 413,908.

Mr. Leclaire said the federation and Montreal Anglers and Hunters, the co-sponsors of the show, will share equally in the $35,000 awarded for conservation. A deduction of approximately $6,500 was made from the total net proceeds to cover a year's administrative and operating costs of the Montreal Sportsman's Show organization and its two co-sponsors.

The opening of bass fishing in Lake Massawippi and Brompton Lake two months earlier than usual (May 1) gave local anglers a veritable field day when fishing season opened a little over a week ago.

Some enthusiasts have been at it, of course, since April 20, the day when the landlocked salmon and trout season generally opened in the Townships lakes and streams. Season for rainbow trout (with the exception of Lake Memphremagog) begins

May 16. Daily limits are from five to 10 fish according to species. No trout minimums except 10 inches on rainbows. Landlocked salmon have a 15-inch minimum and daily limit of five fish totalling under 40 pounds.

Pickering and muskie open May 14, black bass July 1. Muskies must be 30 inches, bass 10. Three muskies and 10 bass are allowed in a day.

While the smelt season opens generally July 1, fishermen have been permitted to take them from Massawippi or its tributaries during the spawning season with dip nets with a 10 pound limit. The landlocked salmon, a wonderful fighting fish, has been planted in a number of lakes in the Eastern Townships, notably in Megantic and Massawippi but Lake Memphremagog still ranks as the best landlocked water in this part of the country. The fish is known to bite readily almost as soon as the ice goes out and many anglers consider this the best time to fish for them.

Out of bounds on Lake Mem-phremagog are Perkins Landing and Taylor brooks, tributaries of the lake, where fishing is unlawful the year round. But other tributaries where fishing is allowed after June 16 are: The Castle, Channel Bay, Sargent Bay, Hog's Back, Powell, MacPherson, Bunker and Fitch Bay brooks.

Fishing laws and regulations are set down by the provincial department of game and fisheries to protect the province's natural resources and anglers are advised to abide by them as well as to wear their license well in sight.

In Lake Massawippi no one is allowed to take more fish of any kind in one day than will in the aggregate weigh more than 15 pounds round weight.

It is also forbidden to buy or sell speckled trout, rainbow, trout, brown trout, ouananiche, bass, muskellunge or Quebec red trout or to export them.

To retain fish under the lawful size; the length of a fish must be measured from the tip of the snout to the posterior edge of the caudal fin.

And a gentle reminder to Be Careful While Wading or Boating might well be heeded by all enthusiastic fishermen.
