MOVE TO ARREST SAMUEL INSULL STRAINS TURCO-GREEK RELATIONS

Greek Government Protests Action of Turkey in Detaining Steamship at Istanbul—Insull Refuses to Comply With Police Request to Quit Floating Haven—Police Fear Fugitive Will Take Drastic Action to Prevent Arrest.

Istanbul, March 31.—Turkey today ordered the arrest of Samuel Insull but the seventy-four-year-old Chicago fugitive flatly refused a police request that he quit his floating haven, the tramp steamer Maiotis which flies the flag of Greece.

It was Greece which gave him a year and a half's asylum from United States authorities who seek to try him on charges of grand larceny and embezzlement growing out of the collapse of his mid-west utilities companies.

The Turkish order followed a request by the United States Government that Insull be arrested, but Insull, apparently, clung to the hope that the Greek flag would continue to give him protection.

Complications in Turco-Greek relations as a result of the incident were feared in some quarters, for Captain Ioannis Mousouris, the master of the Maiotis, protested to the Greek consul here against the detention of his vessel in the Straits of the Bosphorus, a "free" passage similar, according to law, to the Danube.

It was even predicted that the Greek government might send a note to the Turkish government on the subject.

The Turkish police "requested" Insull to disembark and remain in either a hotel or hospital pending decision in his case.

Diplomatic circles were of the opinion that the question between Greece and Turkey would be settled amicably.

Captain Mousouris said the police had asked to put an agent in Insull's cabin in order to prevent him from committing any desperate act, but that this request had been refused, although a police agent stayed continually on guard in the corridor outside Insull's room.

Attorney General Kewan Bey said the Istanbul penal court, which probably will give Insull a trial, was expecting to receive documents in the case momentarily.

GREECE REGISTERS FORMAL PROTEST OVER DETENTION

Athens, March 31.—The Greek government today asked its legation at Ankara, Turkey, to demand of the Turkish government what justification it has for holding the Greek S. S. Maiotis, Samuel Insull's haven.

This threat of international difficulties between Greece and Turkey comes at a time when the two nations have been particularly friendly.

They recently signed a Balkan pact and a Turkish aviation mission visited Greece on March 25th in honor of the Greek independence day. Nevertheless, a strong feeling was evidenced here today that the Turkish action in holding the Maiotis at Istanbul was unwarranted and subject to criticism.

WOMAN WILL FORM PART OF CREW FOR AMERICA'S CUP

Women Have Sailed on America's Cup Contenders Before, but Always as Guests, and While They Did Not Lose Races They Certainly Did Not Win Many.

Boston, March 31.—A sailor ashore may regard the ladies with favor, but afloat—well, that is another story. Every mariner of any standing at all knows that to ship a woman aboard a sailing craft is to sign on bad luck for the voyage.

Graying heads wag over news from England that T.O.M. Sopwith is bringing Mrs. Sopwith along as a member of Endeavor's crew in his quest for the America's Cup next September.

Women have sailed on America's Cup contenders before, but always as guests, and never as members of the crew. Perhaps they didn't lose races, but certainly they did not win many.

Yankee is coming out again this year in the hope of being selected over Westmore and Rainow, the latter now building at Bristol, R.I., for the honor of meeting the British challenger, and it has been rumored that a young woman may be aboard her during the trials. She is Miss Elizabeth Hovey, young and attractive daughter of Chandler Hovey, and a capable skipper in her own right. Papa Hovey says she will not sail, but Elizabeth has been in international yachting competition before in small craft and it will not be surprising if she shows up—even as a stowaway.

Any old salt will vouch for the fact that women bring only trouble to sea with them. Maybe vessels encounter hard voyages with women aboard, but that has no bearing on the case, and you may lay to that.

ARCTIC SNOWSTORM DELAYS RESCUE OF RUSSIAN PARTY

Nome, Alaska, March 31.—An Arctic snowstorm delayed today the efforts of an aerial rescue party to reach eighty-nine Russians marooned on an ice pack 250 miles northwest of here.

A wireless message said the Soviet rescue plane had been forced down forty miles from Cape Van Karen, Siberia.

The marooned party has been awaiting rescue since February 13, when their steamer sank. Less than two weeks of food supply remained.

GERMANY TO MAKE PART PAYMENT TO U. S.

Washington, March 31.—Of the $50,000,000 due this country today from Germany on mixed claims and army of occupation costs, the State Department received notice a $1,250,000 payment would be made on April 3rd.

Actual deposit had to be deferred as today and April 2nd are bank holidays in Germany.

The Germany government informed the United States some time ago that it would be unable to make full payment on the due date.

UNITED STATES PLANS TO CUT FINNISH DEBT

Tentative Agreement Said to Involve Considerable Reduction in Interest Rate Retroactive to 1923.

Washington, March 31.—The Washington Post said today that officials of the State and Treasury departments had worked out a tentative agreement for the reduction of Finland's war debt.

The formula for lifting part of the load from the only thus-far-paid-up war debtor, the paper says, will be submitted to the United States Congress by President Roosevelt.

The president may possibly ask extension of the plan to Great Britain and others now behind or in default.

Although only hints of the plan have been known it is indicated the formula may involve application of a considerably lower interest rate, which would be made retroactive to 1923 when Finland started payments. The remaining amount, the paper adds, would be collected in thirty annual installments.

NOW HAS TWO HUSBANDS
Pittsburgh, March 31.—Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Moore told the court she wanted a divorce from her second husband, W. M. Moore of Bristol, Conn., explaining that Hamilton Barnes, husband No. 1, told her one day he had obtained a divorce. They parted and she married Moore.

Then Barnes came to call one day and explained he had been deceived, that he didn't get a divorce at all. Moore and Mrs. Moore parted.

St. John's Nfld., March 31.—A Arctic ice that disabled the sealing steamer Thetis held her in its grip today seventy miles east of Fink Island, off the coast of Newfoundland.

Government officials were awaiting a wireless message indicating whether or not she was in need of assistance. A message received last night said the ice had broken her tail shaft and it would not be known until today whether the damage could be repaired at sea.

Her crew of one hundred or more men were believed to be in danger, however, because several other vessels of the Newfoundland fleet were killing seals in the vicinity.

Rather than force one of the other vessels away from the "main pack" while such heavy catches are being taken aboard, the Government would send a steamer out from St. John's. The catch already exceeds last year's total of 176,046, although the Thetis crew have not been faring well.

HAS ONLY CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE HOGS IN HEAVEN
"Twenty Hogs Died and Went to Heaven," Farmer Informed Government, and That Started the Ball Rolling.

Clatonia, Neb., March 31.—So far as Nelson Walker is concerned, the United States government will have to be satisfied with circumstantial evidence that his little pigs went to heaven.

"Never having met Saint Peter," the Clatonia farmer said today, "how can I get an affidavit from him that my pigs have been admitted at the pearly gates. My pigs were good pigs, though, and I'm sure they've got wings by this time."

All this came to pass when Walker, tired of answering the voluminous questions in a federal corn-hog contract, came upon a request for an accounting for a number of hogs which had died.

To this he jotted: "Twenty hogs died and went to heaven."

He thought that would close the matter, but when Frank Allington, county allotment committee chairman, noted the answer he chuckled and had the contract returned to Walker with this notation:

"Records of hogs' death accepted, but contract returned for more proof of destination of hogs' souls. Please obtain an affidavit from Saint Peter so contract can be approved."

"I guess I'll have to ask Allington to okay my statement on circumstantial evidence," Walker said.

NOTED GEOLOGISTS DEAD
Almonte, Ont., March 31.—Major J. MacKintosh Bell, one of Canada's most famous geologists and mining man, died here today.

CANADA OWES HUGE DEBT TO PROSPECTORS

Minister of Mines and Immigration Pays Glowing Tribute to Men Who Rolled Back Frontiers of Canada.

Kirkland Lake, Ont., March 31.—To the efficiency, hardihood and pioneering spirit of Canada's army of prospectors, the Dominion owes a huge debt, in the opinion of Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Mines and Immigration.

Speaking at a banquet here last night, attended by a number of leaders in the mining and political life of the country, Mr. Gordon declared Canada today had mining men second to none in the world.

He paid glowing tribute to the men who were not deterred by an unbroken trail "into the unknown, unto the end of the rainbow." These men had rolled back the frontiers of the Dominion by their discoveries, contributed to the settlement of the northland, and boosted the national wealth of the country, Mr. Gordon continued.

"If we keep on expanding the mining industry alone," he added, "we can in time pay our national debt in other sources of revenue."

"Under the stimulus of mining the virgin forest has given way to the open prairie, and the expansion of the mining industry alone," he added, "we can in time pay our national debt in other sources of revenue."

QUEBEC SILENT ON REPORTS OF RELIEF FRAUDS

Despite Refusal of Officials to Speak, Several Cases of Alleged Maladministration Are at Present Before Courts.

Quebec, March 31.—Guarded agreement with the main sections of the report in which the Auditor-General of Canada charges that there have been irregularities in connection with payment of unemployment relief work carried out under the tripartite Dominion-provincial-municipal plan was voiced by those close to the provincial Government yesterday.

While Premier L. A. Taschereau and other Government representatives withheld official comment it was understood that the situation of the province was one of grave difficulty. During the past few months, it has come to the attention of the Government that in a number of cases municipalities have attempted to exaggerate, if not actually increase, their bills for unemployment relief.

This fact has been a cause of considerable embarrassment to the Government for some time. There have been several actions taken by the Government against those suspected of having infringed the law, and there have been cases where the secretary-treasurer of a municipal or school corporation has been definitely accused of not turning in all the accounts that the province ought to have.

TRADING QUIET ON THE FOREIGN EXCHANGES.

New York, March 31.—Trading opened quiet on the foreign exchanges today. With traders showing little interest fluctuations were narrow.

Canadian dollars were unchanged at par of one hundred cents with United States funds. Pounds sterling eased half a cent to $5.12½, while French gold francs firmed one-quarter of a point to 6.37½ cents.

ANOTHER FATALITY PRESSES CALL FOR RESTORING MAIL CONTRACTS

Private Aviation Firms Deprived of Their Airmail Contracts Considering Whether They Will Meet Strict Requirements for Rebidding—Death of Pilot in Iowa First Since Flying of Mail Was Resumed by Army—Fixed Mileage Contracts Offered.

Washington, March 31.—Washington waited intent today for possible repercussions of the latest U. S. army airmail tragedy upon efforts for a quick return of the sky pouches to private operators.

The eleven fatalities that preceded the death last night of Lieut. Thomas A. Wood in a crash near Dewitt, Iowa, were an impelling reason for the call for new private bids prior to the enactment of permanent airmail rebidding.

The postoffice, in inviting bids for temporary contracts over twenty-one routes covering 18,000 miles at a forty-five cents per aeroplane mile maximum rate, ruled that no holder of a cancelled contract could rebid.

This was put up to the companies whether they would reorganize completely, or whether they would seek to continue without the benefit of airmail revenues.

Indications have been given that some might not choose to meet this requirement, coupled with another that all officers who attended the much-controverted 1930 airmail conference must be expelled.

BLINDING RAIN BLAMED FOR FATAL IOWA CRASH

Dewitt, Iowa, March 31.—Blinding rain and a perilously low ceiling sent Lieut. Thomas A. Wood, United States army mail flier, hurtling to death on a farm here, authorities said today. He was the twelfth army flier to die since the fighting airman received the order to carry the mails.

Lieut. Woods, flying an attack plane loaded with five hundred pounds of mail from Chicago, crashed last night in the field of William Mommson, farmer. So terrific was the impact that the flier, whose home station was San Antonio, Tex., was crushed between his motor and the twenty-three pouches of mail he carried.

The body, badly mutilated, was not taken from the wreckage until early today. A coroner had to use a tractor to pull the fuselage away and recover the body.

His death was the first since the recent resumption of army air mail carrying.

FORTY-ONE BIRD SANCTUARIES IN THIS COUNTRY

Twenty-Five Are Located in Province of Quebec—Special Protection Provided for European Cormorant.

Montreal, March 31.—Of the forty-one bird sanctuaries in Canada, twenty-five are in the Province of Quebec, the Montreal Women's Club was told by Harrison F. Lewis, Ph. D., chief federal migratory bird officer for Ontario and Quebec. A number of these are in the vicinity of Montreal, others in the Hull district and several on the lower St. Lawrence.

The Province of Quebec Society for the Protection of Birds, under the presidency of Mrs. C. L. Henderson, Dr. Lewis said, had provided special protection for the European cormorant in a colony on the north shore of the Gulf of St. Lawrence in 1925 with the result there had been an increase of more than 500 per cent. in the numbers of these birds. French-Canadian school children, enrolled in the Cercle des Jeunes Naturalistes, were doing their bit to protect bird life in the Province of Quebec.

Legislation on the part of Canada and the United States was necessary to protect many birds which "won't stay put," explained Dr. Lewis. In earlier years many Canadian-bred birds migrating to the southern states had been destroyed and consequently the numbers returning home when warm weather came were greatly depleted. Canada's part in the Migratory Birds Treaty is administered by the national parks branch of the Department of the Interior with the assistance of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Dr. Lewis said. This branch also established bird sanctuaries and arranges for publicity.

JOYOUS FESTIVAL PLANNED BY NAZI EASTER SUNDAY

Ancient Nordic Ceremony to Be Held in Honor of Ostara, Goddess of Spring.

Luegde, Westphalia, Germany, March 31.—A joyous festival will be kept here Easter Sunday when wheels of fire, said to be the origin of the Nazi swastika emblem, will be sent rolling down the nearby Hermsberg.

This ancient Nordic ceremony is to be held in honor of Ostara, goddess of spring, and the locality was chosen for the fete because Hermsberg is where Arminius, chief of the Cherusci tribe, kept court. It was Arminius who defeated the Roman general, Varus, in the historic battle of nine A.D.

BANKER'S HOME BURNED; REVENGE NOTE FOUND

Burned as an act of revenge by a depositor in the defunct Dayton, O., bank of which George B. McCann was a director, McCann's $50,000 home is shown here, a fire-ravaged ruin, near Dayton. Inset is a note left in a garage in the rear of the home by the arsonist, giving the reason for the deed and threatening further vengeance.

WHEN IT CAME TO EATING MAN NEEDED LITTLE HELP

Unemployed Man Who Claimed He Had Not Eaten for Two Days and Had Not Had a Square Meal in Weeks Made Up for Lost Time.

Fort Lee, N.J., March 31.—Edward Morrison, twenty-five years of age, a one-time newsboy in Cleveland, O., signed up as a recruit yesterday in Camp Hazard, one of the government's transient training camps. He said he was hungry.

So for breakfast he consumed thirty-two hot cakes. At lunch fourteen breaded pork chops, several helpings of vegetables and six bowls of preserved peaches faded out of sight. And at dinner he swallowed twenty-six frankfurters, six bowls of sauerkraut, and several portions of pie.

And he was still going strong today. He told the camp physician he hadn't eaten in two days and hadn't had a square meal in weeks. His normal weight, he said, was 155 pounds, but he landed in-camp weighing 120.

NO DAILY RECORD MONDAY. On Easter Monday, April 2, the Sherbrooke Daily Record will not be published.

EARLY IRREGULARITY WAS FOLLOWED BY MILD RALLY

New York, March 31.—Initial irregularity in the stock market today was followed by mild rallying tendencies. Utilities, however, continued somewhat soft with Consolidated Gas and Public Service of New Jersey down about a point each.

Active buying flurries occurred in some of the aviation and amusement shares, but leading industrials and rails were rather narrow, and quiet.

Quotations were steady to fractions higher in shares of U.S. Steel, General Electric, American Telephone, Du Pont, Noranda Mines, General Motors, Loews, United Aircraft, Bethlehem and Westinghouse.

Paris, March 31.—Government employees started a drive today to block the economy pay cuts which Premier Gaston Doumergue had planned.

About 3,000 state functionaries crowded a hall at a mass meeting called as a protest against the economy measures, and listened to a Communist orator denounce the "Fascist Government" and urge a general strike.

JAPAN MAKES ADDITION TO SUBMARINE STRENGTH

With Launching of New Craft, Nippon Now Has Most Powerful and Up-to-date Flotilla in the World.

Kobe, Japan, March 31.—The Japanese navy's 1,900-ton submarine, I-6 was launched today with brilliant ceremonies at the Kawasaki dockyards.

The I-6 is the sixth of a group of long range undersea cruisers constructed in Japan's programme of maintaining the most powerful and up-to-date undersea flotilla in the world.

Only France, which has stood with Japan at all the naval and disarmament conferences in insisting on the "defensive" character of the submarine, now approaches Japan in undersea strength.

New submarines of the latest and most powerful types are being added to the Japanese fleet at the rate of three or four a year.

BENEFITS SEEN FOR NOVA SCOTIA FROM BUTTER DUTY

Halifax, March 31.—Benefits from a Federal Order-in-Council providing for an exchange dumping duty on New Zealand butter entering Canada were forecast for Nova Scotia today by F. W. Walsh, director of marketing for the province.

"This ought to solve the problem in Nova Scotia," he declared. "Apparently it will prevent profit making on New Zealand butter. From the information now before me, I would say the new duty will have a reassuring and stabilizing effect on the Nova Scotia market."

Other officials estimated the duty would average three or four cents a pound—enough, he said, to make importation unprofitable. The duty is calculated on the basis of $4.86 per pound sterling, with the difference between this and the New Zealand pound's exchange rate being supplied as the special tariff.

Exchange Dumping Duty on New Zealand Butter Entering Canada Should Solve Nova Scotia Problems.

ONE VOTE MAY DECIDE ELECTION

Kingston, Tenn., March 31.—On the eve of a hotly-contested city election, only one man holds a poll tax receipt qualifying him to cast a ballot, and at least five hundred would-be voters will have to watch while the election goes on. The voters "just forgot" to pay poll taxes. Possibly seventy-five who are over fifty years of age or who have just become twenty-one will be allowed to vote.

"Now, I wonder if any of you girls would care to spend a week in the country?"

LEGEND GROWS OF FRENCHMAN GONE AFRICAN

Tales Multiply and Fame Spreads of Man Who Scorned Civilization to Live in Sanctuary of Nature.

Djibouti, French Somaliland, March 31.—Last of the Corsairs, Henry de Monfreid lives in that part of Africa where magic is orthodox and legends grow full-blown overnight. He scorned civilization that he might live as a native among natives in Africa, his "last sanctuary of primitive nature."

Almost a legendary figure along the coasts of the Red Sea and down to the equator, wherever native tribes and Arab traders meet de Monfreid is now becoming a symbol of escape to the youth of France. Those who do not reach the standard of the firebrand Leon Daudet, or Leon Blum, the irreconcilable, are turning to the de Monfreid tradition, seeing his picturesque life as more alluring more dramatic, more primitive.

When he came to Djibouti the governor of French Somaliland told him: "You are not an Arab, you are French-born; are you not ashamed to be called native by coolies of the lowest class?"

"I am not ashamed. On the contrary what worries me is to know the opinion these natives hold of Europeans, I shall do my best not to be included in their number," answered the Frenchman with the eagle profile.

"The opinion of these savages is more to you than ours?" De Monfreid bowed. It was his farewell to civilization.

His prestige among the natives has become great. He frequented Somali cafes, spoke only Arabic or African tongues, went in the tropical sun without a hat, dressed like an Arab, lived like a native. Where the last of the waters of the Red Sea are sucked up in the onrush of waters from the southern hemisphere, he dived for pearls off the shores of Dahlac, the island of pearls.

Sorcerers, jealous of de Monfreid's influence over the natives, whispered the foreign corsair drank toasts to the angels of darkness. But when he strung electric lights across the palace of the King of Abyssinia last year, and built a power plant at Djibouti, the natives said, "white magician do magic," and let it go at that.

From pearl diver he became slave trader, dealer in contraband arms, and finally confidant and counselor of the King of Abyssinia. The destiny of this strange country became his destiny. "Africa is the last sanctuary of primitive nature. Let it remain pagan. Let it escape the contagion of civilization. I would give my soul to keep it so," he said.

He has already in a sense pledged his soul, the manner of it he tells in his confessions, "The Secrets of the Red Sea."

"While the stars pass slowly above my head I think on all the unknown towards which I am sailing. The monsoon rises and drives us swiftly towards Bab-el-Mandeb, the Port of Lamentations."

There follows a titanic struggle between the wit and will of man and the fury of nature. A wind from the north closes in with the furious monsoon whipping the sea into a whirlpool of contending currents. These seize like pitiless serpents on the little boat.

"The Mussulmen are resigned, knowing that Allah is all-powerful. What will come to pass is written. Nevertheless to gain an adept in his faith Mahomet can work miracles. I announce therefore to my men at the moment the ship is about to sink that I will become a Mussulman if we are saved."

"At once a mysterious force snatches us from the whirlpool. It is the miracle. At this strange juncture I become a Mohammedan, and take the name of Abd el Halil."

So he pursues his way, a mystery to the natives, an enigma to the European, living a life varied and dramatic and developing more and more power to communicate the fascinations of those sudden and terrible struggles of man with nature. In the vertigo of tropical oceans, shaken by the wind of typhoons, beaten upon by the tropical rains which break like glass against the rocks, his love of Africa grows.

"The isolation of nature fascinates and draws me irresistibly," he confesses. "I feel born again within me those profound forces which the oppression of life in the herd holds captive."

STOCK PRICES REFLECT FEAR OF INFLATION

Gains of fourteen to twenty-eight cents were registered for Sylvanite, Siscoe, God's Lake and Read. Authier, the latter having a gain of nearly fifty per cent. to 94. San Antonio had a net gain of nine cents. Howey eight and Central Patricia six.

Silver and base metal stocks were treated with comparative neglect through most of the week, but there was a noticeable pickup in buying of the leaders on Thursday. Noranda closed $1.05 higher at $39.65, Falconbridge got back around $4, Hudson Bay is near the $12 mark and Sudbury Basin recovered to $1.70. Leading silver shares held around the prices ruling for several weeks and the oils were barely steady.

International Nickel was a volume leader on the industrial boards and it held a gain of $1.30 at $27.90. The general tone of the industrial share markets was mildly reactionary in the early part of the week, but prices improved a little later and recessions were partly erased.

Toronto and Montreal industrial share markets were awaiting waiting for New York to shake off the alarm engendered by Washington's stock exchange regulation bill. Sale of New York Exchange seats at $83,000 and $85,000 indicates a genuine fear brokers are in for a period of reduced income. The trading public appear to have taken their cue from the brokers and have been selling stocks rather freely. Before the regulation bill was proposed the stock prices on the big board were getting back near the level of last July, the high point in the 1933 market, but averages are now down two points or more from the top and about at the position of last June.

Congressional insurgency this week against the Washington administration's policies has revived hope or fear, according to the viewpoint, that further inflationary measures are in the offing, and stocks took note of the situation by perking up a little in the final hour of Thursday's market.

"Is this a health town?" asked the newly arrived invalid. "I should say so," answered the native. "When I came here I had not the strength to utter a word; I had scarcely a hair on my head; I couldn't walk across the room; and had to be lifted from my bed." "You give me hope. How long have you been here?"

"Step right up, LADIES and GEN'M'N"

HAVE you ever heard a street-corner medicine man hawking his wares? Confess. Weren't you tempted to buy by his persuasive talk? Why didn't you? Wasn't it because you could feel no real confidence in his product? Wasn't that because, though he was here today, you didn't know where he'd be tomorrow? He was a stranger.

How differently you feel when you buy an advertised product. Here is no human personality to persuade you. But, instinctively you know you can trust the word of "The salesman in type." Manufacturers and merchants who advertise are permanent. They stand back of their products! They spend millions of dollars to determine your needs and to perfect products that will satisfy those needs. Unlike the medicine man, their business is built on your continued good-will.

Research laboratories, with the wealth and resources of great industries behind them, are constantly seeking to invent and improve things to make your life simpler and more pleasant. They bring their discoveries to you in the advertisements. Advertised merchandise is merchandise of quality. Merchandise you can depend on. Let the advertisements teach you what's new and good. Let the advertisements guide you in spending your money wisely. Step right up, ladies and gen'm'n!

Any man who buys a Want Ad in the Record can prove for himself that it pays to read Ads.

SCOTSTOWN

The regular congregation of St. Andrew's United Church was augmented on Sunday morning by those who wanted to know for themselves about the Oxford Group Movement. Mr. Richard Bishop, at present located at Sherbrooke, and some of the leaders of the movement, took the service. Dr. Watt Smith was away at Gould taking the place of Rev. James Payton who was absent at Megantic. Mr. Bishop gave an excellent sermon on the duties of professing Christians to lead those who had not committed themselves to the better way of life, to get them to surrender themselves to Jesus Christ. The service proved very helpful and inspiring to the congregation. Mr. Bishop put in a full day. He was present at early communion at St. Alban's Church, here the morning service at St. Andrew's, met a company of young people in the afternoon, went to Chalmers United Church, Gould for the evening service and met a company of people concerned about the Fellowship movement after the regular service was over. He was the guest of Mr. Payton Sherman over the week-end.

EXCELLENT PRESENTATION OF "THE MESSIAH"
 The excellent presentation of "The Messiah," at Trinity United Church last evening under the direction of Prof. R. Havard, with organ accompaniment by Miss Bertha Allen, L. Mus., was a dignified and fitting tribute to the observance of Good Friday.
 Handel's Messiah, perhaps the best loved of all oratorios, certainly one of the most familiar, depicting as it does the story of the life of the Redeemer, set to sublime music by the master, was especially impressive when sung as the finale to Good Friday. The grand triumphant Hallelujah chorus seemed unusually inspiring with the hundreds who filled the church standing with reverent mien during the singing of Handel's supreme tribute to "The King of Kings and Lord of Lords." The great Amen, "So Be It" chorus,

GOOD FRIDAY'S SERVICES WERE WELL ATTENDED
 Many Worshipers Present at Ceremonies in Catholic and Protestant Churches Yesterday—Helpful Address by Rev. Johnson, of Coaticook.
 The customary impressively sad Good Friday services were conducted in the various churches of the city yesterday. Worshipers, both young and old, attended the ceremonies which commemorated the crucifixion of the Lord. In Catholic as well as Protestant churches the places of worship were darkened as the hour of three o'clock approached and reminded the worshippers that the anniversary of the very hour of Christ's death was at hand. From twelve until three o'clock many solemn churches and in the solemn quiet meditated on the agony which the Saviour experienced before dying on the cross.
 A spirit of solemn devotion, adoration and triumphant confidence was manifest in the united Good Friday service held in Plymouth Church yesterday morning. The service was led by Rev. J. R. Graham, president of the Sherbrooke Ministerial Association, assisted by Rev. Dr. G. Ellery Read, Rev. Dr. W. S. Lennon and Rev. R. M. Simmons. Rev. Albert Johnson, of Coaticook, delivered the address of meditation, speaking on "The Final Triumph of the Cross" from the text "Perfect Love casteth aside all Fear."
 Rev. Johnson addressed himself to the bondage of fear which is evident in all phases of human affairs. Fear, the speaker claimed, is built into the fabric of our life to an extent which does little credit to the Christian inspiration of our civilization. Jesus Christ, continued the visiting minister, came to deliver us from our fears—the fears which weaken and undermine the physical fibre of life, and even more especially the fears which are shattering our moral ideals.
 Man's fear of man in business and international relations plays havoc with our ethical procedures and betrays our tradition of moral integrity, the preacher contended. Jesus came saying, "Be of Good Cheer," and Calvary is a vital part of His campaign against the world's fear.
 Faith, Rev. Johnson remarked in concluding his helpful sermon, spiritualizes our whole outlook and makes possible the life that is lived in God. Faith leads through the garden of lonely vigil where we must make a personal and individual decision in the face of the higher issues of life. The Cross reveals that there is no way out of the bondage of fear except to refuse fear and take the consequences, the preacher remarked in closing his forceful and comforting message.

which is often times omitted, seemed a most appropriate ending to last evening's successful performance.
 To Prof. Havard great praise is due for the splendid success which crowned his efforts to revive and strengthen a love of good music, especially among the younger singers. The choir of forty-five under his efficient baton did excellent work, and Mr. Havard was ably supported by Miss Bertha Allen, who as organist and accompanist filled the difficult role most effectively. Miss Allen was assisted by her brother, Harold Allen, of Coaticook.
 The soloists too must share the mead of praise for their pleasing contributions to the success and enjoyment of the evening. They included Mrs. Gordon MacKay, Mrs. W. W. Gibson and Miss Eleanor Wheeler, sopranos; Miss E. Burt, contralto; Raoul Gosselin, tenor; and Roy Whitehead, of Quebec, bass.
 The personnel of the chorus included the following: sopranos, Misses E. Burt, Christian, H. Crosby, L. Festner, M. Hall, M. Longeway, J. Platt, E. Wheeler, R. Schwartz, Mrs. W. W. Gibson, Mrs. M. MacKay, Mrs. G. Richards and Mrs. W. A. Salter; altos, Mrs. E. A. Salter, Mrs. W. Scott and the Misses R. Buckley, T. Crawford, B. Havard, M. McHarg, M. Havard, L. Ranseloushan, R. Wheeler and F. Willard; tenors: A. Davidson, P. Humphrey, F. Jackson, E. Lennon, E. Loomis, W. Scott, R. W. Smith, C. Taylor and H. Woolleton; bass: H. Allen, R. A. Bradley, J. A. Cook, H. A. Cochrane, J. Dean, F. LENNOXVILLE
 The speaker at the special Holy Week service held in Douglas Hall last evening was Rev. R. M. Simmons, of Sherbrooke. His sermon was based on Christ's words: "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." Christ chose the costly way of redeeming the world, he said, that way of the cross. The death He released a power in the world which has been going on ever since, and will go on until He has, as He foretold, drawn "all men unto Him." Rev. F. R. Matthews presided over the service.
 Mrs. Henry Downs has gone to New York, where she will spend the next three weeks a guest of relatives.

BOY SCOUT NEWS
BOY SCOUT EGG COLLECTION PINE SUCCESS
 Carrying out the spirit of the Third Scout Law, "A Scout's Duty if to be Useful and Help Others," some fifty Scouts, Cubs and Rover Scouts spent their time yesterday collecting eggs from generous-hearted citizens and re-distributing them to needy families in co-operation with the Social Service Organization. Over 2,500 eggs were collected, packed and re-distributed to 106 families in all parts of the city, in lots of from one to three dozen.
 This community good turn is now being carried out each year by Scouts in many districts throughout Canada, and Sherbrooke was one of the first centers to adopt the idea. This year the organization of the collection was in charge of the Rover Scout Club and much time was spent in preliminary work, in order that collections would be carried out promptly. Those in charge appreciate very much the splendid team work and co-operation of all who took part.

 Mr. Edward Loomis, president of Trinity choir, presided, and at the conclusion of the delectable supper several presentations were made. Mr. John Dean, on behalf of the Messiah choir, made the first presentation to Prof. Havard, expressing their appreciation to him as director for the great benefit they had derived and stating how much they had enjoyed taking part in the oratorio. Beautiful bouquets were presented to the soloists Mrs. MacKay, Mrs. E. Gibson, Miss Elsa Burt and Miss Eleanor Wheeler, Miss May Longeway gracefully voicing to each the thanks of the members.

Two Irishmen engaged in peddling packages of linen brought an old mule to aid in carrying the burdens. One would ride a while, then the other, carrying the baler of linen on the mule. One day the Irishman who was on foot got close up to his muleship, when he received a kick on one of his shins. To be revenged, he picked up a stone and hurled it at the mule, but by accident struck his companion on the back of the head. Seeing what he had done, he stopped and began to groan and rub his shin. The one on the mule turned and asked him what was the matter. "The cratur's kicked me," was the reply. "Bejabbers," said the other, "he's did the same thing to me on the back of the head."

DEATHS REPORTED

MRS. HENRIETTA HALLIDAY, SAWYERVILLE. Sawyerville, March 31.—There passed away on Saturday, March 31, one of the oldest and highly esteemed residents of this place in the person of Mrs. Henrietta Halliday, widow of the late Mr. Robert Halliday.

Mrs. Halliday, nee Henrietta Hitchcock, was born at Compton, Que., on May 11, 1853, the daughter of Hiram Hitchcock and his wife, Louisa Osgood, and was the last survivor of a family of thirteen, two of whom died in infancy.

The deceased was married in October, 1873, to Robert Halliday, of West Clifton, and came to Newport, where they spent the remainder of their lives. Mr. Halliday passing away on March 17, 1924.

Of this union there were three children, Dr. John Le Roy Halliday, of Wellington, Kansas, who died on April 6, 1928, and Dr. Ernest C. Halliday, of St. Albans, Vt., and Mr. George C. Halliday, residing on the home place. To these the sympathy of the community is extended in the loss of a kind and devoted mother. There is also one granddaughter, Mrs. E. S. Spencer, of Berkeley, Cal., formerly Miss Henrietta Halliday, daughter of the late Dr. John Halliday.

The deceased is also survived by a large number of nephews and nieces, who, residing in the middle-west and California, were unable to be present at the funeral. Mrs. Louise Sutton, of Barnston, and Mr. Harold Sutton and family, of Randolph, and a grandnephew by marriage, Mr. Arthur Batchelder, of Moe's River, were the only relatives besides her sons who were present.

The late Mrs. Halliday was the last member of two large pioneer families, Hiram Hitchcock and that of his sister, Cordelia Hitchcock, wife of Chauncey LeBaron. Wilfred LeBaron, of North Hatley, who passed away in 1928, was the last member of the LeBaron family, in which there were twelve or thirteen children. At the present time there are a large number of descendants of both these families residing in the province of Quebec and California.

Mrs. Halliday's death came as a shock to her family and friends. Being in her usual health on the day previous to her death, she drove to Brighton to call on some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmons. Upon her arrival at the Simmons home she became ill, and in spite of all that medical skill and loving care could do she passed peacefully away during the night.

The funeral was held on Monday, March 12th, at the United Church. The members of the Women's Association and the Ladies' Aid, of which the deceased had been a life-long member, attended in a body, thus showing their respect for one who was a faithful worker in the organization. The service was conducted by Rev. E. M. Wilson, whose short address was based on the text, "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore." Psalm 121, verse 8.

The bearers were all neighbors, and were Messrs. Leslie Buck, Austin Bowker, Elwin Bowker, Charles Banks, William Lobdell and Arthur Lake. The remains were laid to rest in the Eaton Cemetery.

CHIC IN BLACK AND WHITE

The funeral service was held in the United Church and was conducted by Rev. J. R. Carlton. Interment took place at Essex Junction beside his mother, who predeceased him about five years ago.

The pupils of the Consolidated School attended the funeral service here in a body. The little casket was covered with flowers. Besides those from the family, there were beautiful pieces from the employees of the Torrington Company, where his father works, the United Church Sunday School and from the pupils of the Consolidated School.

The bearers were Phillip Moore, Allan Harris, Guy Thornton and Wesley Gage.

ALEX McCASKILL GOULD GLED, March 31.—The death of Mr. Alex. McCaskill occurred on Monday, March 19, at the home of his brother, Mr. Donald McCaskill, with whom he resided for more than a year. Born at Red Mountain in March, 1855, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Murdo McCaskill. When very young he moved with his parents to a farm on the Meadows where he spent his life till September, 1932, when he was forced to leave on account of failing health.

The deceased is survived by one brother, Donald, and a sister, Sophia, Mrs. Plaisted, of Jefferson, N. H. He was predeceased by his father, Leonard Hughes, and a sister, Amabelle, Mrs. Malcolm Graham.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, March 20, from the home of Mr. D. McCaskill, and was conducted by Rev. George Murray, B.D., of Scottstown, who took for his text Eccles. 3rd chapter, 2nd verse, "A time to be born and a time to die." The music included psalm 23 and two verses of Psalm 46, sung in the Gaelic language.

The bearers were Messrs. Wallace McRitchie, Murdo Matheson, Fraser Melver, William McRitchie, Murdo McCaskill and Edward Watson.

Interments took place in the new cemetery.

ISRAEL WARRINGTON ROLFE, BISHOPTON. Bishopton, March 31.—The funeral of Israel Warrington Rolfe, one of Dudsweil's venerable residents who entered into rest on Sunday, March 18, was held at the United Church of Bishopton, with Rev. Mr. Smith officiating. Interment was in Lakeside Cemetery.

The funeral was largely attended by sorrowing friends and the bearers were Joyce Hughes, Daniel Gilbert Oscar Loyce and Rupert Bishop.

The deceased was born in Dudsweil on September 25, 1856, the son of Gershom Rolfe and his wife, Betsey Rice Rolfe, and with the exception of a couple of years spent in Montana, the entire seventy-eight years of his life were spent close to his birthplace.

Of the men who have added lustre to their Eastern Township homes, few names are higher in respect on the roll of honor than the name of Rolfe. Israel Rolfe settled in South Ham, on the lot where the court house and registry office presently stands. To the west his nearest neighbor was nine miles, and to the east eighteen miles distant.

The Rice family were known for their hospitality to the immigrants who came along the trail from Quebec by the way of the Craige Road, bound for one of the tiny settlements that were springing up through the Eastern Townships.

For many years, winter and summer, when the darkness of night was settling over the forest, a musket salute, the sunset gun, would ring out from the Rice home to tell a weary wayfarer that there was a shelter close by.

During the long life of the deceased the true Christian spirit that predominated the lives of his parents was exemplified in him. Since disposing of his farm overlooking Mirror Lake, Mr. Rolfe had lived at Bishopton. Since the death of his wife, who bore her maiden name Elizabeth Oughtred, which occurred in 1933, he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Leonard Hughes.

The deceased leaves to mourn him two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Rolfe, of Nashua, N. H., and Mrs. Leonard Hughes, and a granddaughter, Myrna, of Bishopton, and three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Bloomfield, Mrs. Linas Hooker and Mrs. James Andrew.

Relatives who attended the funeral from a distance were Mrs. R. E. Willard and Mrs. Gordon Willard, of Lennoxville; Fred Lindley, of Sherbrooke; R. W. Oughtred, of Cookshire; Fred Currier and James Currier, of Erie, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mackey, of Marlinton.

The large gathering of friends and acquaintances at the funeral testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community where he had spent his life.

WEST BROME Mr. Arthur Snodgrass, of Montreal, spent a recent week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Snodgrass. He is sailing from New York for the West Indies and Bermuda for his Easter holidays.

In spite of the bad roads and inclement weather, about twenty attended the Y.P.S. meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bell.

ANNUAL BATTLE FOR ALLAN CUP OPENS TONIGHT

Moncton Hawks and Fort William Blue Shirts, Pick of the East and West, Begin Fight for Ancient Trophy Which Goes to Canada's Best Senior Amateur Team.

Toronto, March 31.—The annual battle for the Allan Cup, and trophy that goes to Canada's best senior amateur team, starts here tonight as the pick of the East and West meet at the Maple Leaf Gardens for the first game of a two-out-of-three series. It promises to be a classic struggle with the Moncton Hawks and the Fort William Blue Shirts appearing evenly matched in speed and defensive ability.

Before the seniors step on the ice, the team that will go westward to Winnipeg to meet the winner of the Port Arthur West End-Edmonton A. C. series for the Memorial Cup will be known, and there seems little doubt the team will be St. Michael's College. St. Mike's will play the Charlottetown Abequewits by twelve to two in the first game of the Eastern Canadian junior final and the Maritimes have practically no chance of visiting Western Canada with such a lead to overcome.

The Abequewits and St. Mike's play this afternoon in the last of a two-game total goal series.

Coch Bob Davis, of Fort William, put his charges through a workout here yesterday and the railbirds predicted the Hawks were going to have a real fight on their hands in their efforts to retain the Allan Cup they won last year. The Blue Shirts displayed some tricky forward passing and an abundance of speed.

Dud James, Irvine and Bert Connelly rumored a New York Ranger prospect for National Hockey League wars, will find plenty of dynamite in the Hogart-Hacquoil-O'Leary line of Fort William.

Hughie O'Leary and Ossie Hacquoil on the wings and Bill Hogart at centre was the line that spelled doom for the Kimberley Dynamiters in the Western final, a series the Forts won by eight to three, taking the final battle by five to nothing after deafocking the first at three-all.

But the Hawks have a goaler in Jimmy Foster, who will need plenty of beating before the old Cup goes West again.

The second game of the series will be played Monday night and if a third is necessary it will likely be played Wednesday night.

EDMONTON FAVORED TO ADVANCE INTO MEMORIAL CUP FINAL

Winnipeg March 31.—Four goals down, the Port Arthur West Ends will step onto the ice here tonight against the Edmonton Athletic Club in the second of a two-game, total-goal series for the Western Canada Junior hockey championship.

Winners of the series will meet the Eastern Canada champions for the Allan Cup in a series of two games here next week. With next week's Dominion series also goes possession of the Memorial Cup.

The Edmonton youngsters lanky and hand-sawing outscored the lakerhead boys by seven to three in the first game to earn their four-goal margin to carry into the last game of the series. The Westies, despite being on the short end of the score during the whole game, pressed hard but could not overtake the Albertans.

Doubt as to the game being played on Winnipeg ice was wiped away. The Port Arthur followers had sought the second game for Port Arthur ice but officials ruled both games must be played in Winnipeg as originally arranged. Management of the teams expect to have the same line-ups as appeared in the first encounter.

DETROIT WINGS USHERED LEAFS FROM PLAY-OFFS

Ebbie Goodfellow Scored Goal Which Brought Detroit Its First National Hockey League Championship—Only Goal of Game Registered Late in First Period.

Toronto, March 31.—The starry Red Wings of Detroit, who almost nose-dived right out of the picture before the eyes of bewildered home crowds, were National Hockey League champions today for the first time. The toast of the town was the Wings and genial Jack Adams, smiling boss of the new titleholders.

A tumultuous crowd of 14,500, one of the largest that ever saw a hockey game in Detroit cheered the Red Wings to a brilliant one to nothing triumph over the Toronto Maple Leafs last night in the fifth and deciding game of a strange National Hockey League series as any on the books.

Ebbie Goodfellow lashed in the winning goal late in the first period while the Leafs were fighting desperately as Joe Primasau lashed in the penalty box. Johnny Sorrell and Herbie Lewis were credited with assists.

That was the decisive blow in the smashing Detroit comeback that aroused the packed Olympic Arena into a frenzy of excitement. The crowd roared for a full minute after Goodfellow, tall, husky center from Ottawa, belted a high shot past goalie George Hainsworth from a few feet out.

With an amazingly perfect blockade, the Wings protected the slender margin through the remaining forty-five minutes of the game. In desperation, the Leafs rushed four and five abreast in the third period and hammered viciously against the wall that stretched across the rink to protect young Will Cude, playing in his first major league play-off series.

It was a vain offensive from the start. Cude survived it with comparative ease because the Wings checked the invaders to a standstill inside the Detroit blue line and in the centre zone.

Far from being optimistic, the fans crowded Olympic to the rafters. They had seen the Leafs the up the series by winning by three to one Monday night and by five to one on Wednesday. The Wings had been overpowered by a great machine that was just getting into high gear.

The Leafs were still in high gear last night. They were five to four favorites with the betting men before game time. Even the loss of King Clancy, defence star whose sprained thumb and out face prevented him from playing, did little to lower the Toronto stock.

Adams, desperate in the face of this seemingly inevitable defeat, moved daringly to reinforce his slumping team. He promoted three players from the Detroit Olympics in the International League—Gus Mager, Gene Carrigan and Ron Moffatt.

And he watched the three turn in dashing performances. Pinned into the midst of this title series, the rookies checked hard, seldom allowed the Leafs to become dangerous and made the Adams strategy work in every sense. The Red Wing coach left Gordon Pettinger, Wilf Starr and Frank Carson on the sidelines.

With a team reinforced by several players picked up during the campaign, Adams emerged with the surprise winner of the year. His team now plays the winner of the Chicago Black Hawks-Montreal Maroons series in the Stanley Cup final.

Cude came to the Wings from the Syracuse Stars when John Ross Beach was injured. The Winnipeg youngster immediately became a sensation. The property of the Canadiens, he is on loan to Detroit.

Teddy Graham was secured in a deal with the Maroons for Stew Evans. Adams promoted Burr Williams to a place on the defence a few days before the play-offs. Williams had been with the Olympics. Weiland came here from the Ottawa Senators.

QUAKERS LOST FIRST GAME AFTER RETURNING HOME

Saskatoon, March 31.—Just one day after they returned from a tour of Europe the Saskatoon Quakers absorbed a three to two defeat at the hands of the Prince Albert Mintos here last night in an exhibition game. A second game will be played at Prince Albert tonight.

CANADIAN AMATEUR BOXING MEET FIXED FOR MAY

Montreal, March 31.—The Canadian amateur boxing championships will be held in Toronto on May 23 and 24, it was learned here today by Montreal boxing officials. The province of Quebec championships will be held here a month before the Canadian meet.

INTERNATIONAL HOCKEY SERIES IS SANCTIONED

Canadian Amateur Hockey Association Has Approved of Amateur Championship Play-offs Between Winners of Allan Cup and Simon-pure Champions of the United States.

Toronto, March 31.—Toronto, bearer of play-off hockey for the Stanley Cup by last night's defeat of the Maple Leafs by the Detroit Red Wings today looked forward a week to the first international amateur championship play-offs between the winners of the Allan Cup and the Detroit White Stars, simon-pure champions of the United States.

Confirmation of previous arrangements made at Montreal for such a series was given yesterday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association. The series will start on April 7 between the White Stars and the Moncton Hawks or the Fort William Blue Shirts. Two out of three games will decide the winners.

The Association decided against making changes in the playing rules but took occasion to clarify the rule that a junior may not play in more than one intermediate or senior game during a season. A clause was added to the rules specifying it does not apply to exhibition games, but that appearance of a junior on the line-up of a senior team playing a competition match will be taken as meaning he played with the team.

The question of overtime play was left more or less to the discretion of the branches. Most of the branches have decided to establish a ten-minute overtime period, but thirty minutes will be the limit of inter-branch play-offs. If the issue is not decided by that time the president of the Association will decide on the venue of the next game.

Previously the rule was that the second game of a play-off series must be continued until any existing tie was broken.

DOMINION'S HOPE FOR STANLEY CUP DEISTS WITH MAROONS

Montreal, March 31.—It's the spotlight or curtains for the Montreal Maroons tomorrow night. The big red team carries Canada's only hopes of winning back the Stanley Cup when it clashes with the Chicago Black Hawks at the windy city tomorrow night.

The Canadiens knocked over by Chicago; the Toronto Maple Leafs nosed out by the Detroit Red Wings, only the Maroons are left to carry on the Dominion's prestige in the hockey wars.

And at that the burden is pretty heavy. The Maroons must do something no club has succeeded in doing on the Chicago ice this winter if they are to survive and meet Detroit in the Cup final.

No team has scored four goals in one game at the stadium all year. The highest score against "Chuck" Gardner at home was three, registered twice, by the Ottawa Senators and the New York Rangers. Yet the Maroons must score four, holding the Hawks with no goals, if they are to overcome the three-to-nothing lead established by Tommy Gorman's ambitious young team here last Wednesday in the first game of the total-goal series.

FIREMEN HAD A DIFFICULT TIME RESCUING CAT

Denver, March 31.—To give an alley cat its freedom, five Denver firemen had to chop a hole in a holly brick porch pillar at the F. T. Wiedenseld residence. They used liver, tied on rope, a length of hose, designed to give the animal surer footing, and other means of getting kitty out, without success, before they chopped the hole.

SPORTING NOTES

CANADIAN CHAMPION WON TORONTO MARATHON

Toronto March 31.—Lloyd Longman, curly-headed runner of the Monarch A.C. of Toronto, breezed from front here yesterday in the Bloor Business Men's seventh annual fifteen-mile modified marathon after fighting off the challenge of Harold Webster, of the Hamilton Olympic Club.

Longman, three and six-mile Canadian champion, covered the distance in 58:24.2-5 and Webster was at his heels to finish in 1:26:43. The race was run over Toronto streets in raw spring weather. The sky was overcast with a threat of rain. Ten seconds behind Webster Dick Widing, of the Silver-corne A.C., Toronto, went over the line to take third place.

Winner of three previous Good Friday marathons, Billy Reynolds, of Galt, was up with the leaders throughout and landed fourth position. Harry Oldag, of Buffalo, member of the largest United States Olympic marathon team, was sixth behind Alex Burnside, of Toronto, fifth-place winner.

The feature of the run was the showing of Paavo Lahe, youthful unemployed Finn of Sudbury, who dodged seventh. He hitch-hiked his way from the Northern Ontario town to Toronto to compete in the race. Dave Komonen, formerly of Toronto, but now running for Sudbury, dropped out during the first lap. Komonen, voted Canada's outstanding athlete in 1933, stated he had not been training lately and was out of condition.

LESS NOISE, MORE MUSIC IN THE FUTURE OF JAZZ

Repeat Said to Have Tremendous Effect on Popular Music — People Are Turning to Waltzes in Viennese Tempo.

New York, March 31.—More like music, less like noise—that is the future of jazz as envisaged today by four widely known orchestra leaders.

"Repeat is having a tremendous effect on our popular music," commented George Olsen. "People I think are turning to waltzes in Viennese tempo. Something like old Gypsy songs, with light and dark shades."

Explaining he is just a fiddler and not a prophet, Paul Whiteman placed the future of jazz on the two tenor courts in the key of popular dance orchestras in the next few years.

"Popular music from now on must be played properly," said Phil Harris. "Bands will be composed of qualified musicians, men who will play the key of 'long haired' music if necessary."

FLYING FUR PELTS FROM LABRADOR TO MONTREAL

Customs Officials Undecided Today Regarding What Action Should Be Taken Against Fur-buyers.

St. John's Nfld., March 31.—Customs officials were undecided today regarding what action should be taken on reports that Canadian fur buyers using aeroplanes were picking up Labrador furs at Blanc Sablon and flying them to Montreal.

They pointed out that Blanc Sablon is in Canadian territory and the furs have been exported to that point without customs authority because there was no customs inspector in the Labrador Coast during the winter months.

Their regulations were broken, they said. A fur must have a license, there must be an export entry and each shipment must be examined by a customs officer before exported. The examination was necessary because export of caribou skins and beaver skins was prohibited.

A report from Labrador stated a plane from Montreal landed at Blanc Sablon on March 19 and picked the winter's catch of trappers resident along the Labrador Coast as far north as Cartwright.

Labrador came to St. John's and entered Canada by steamship through North Sydney, N.S.

HITCH-HIKING ROOSTER.

Topeka, Kas., March 31.—"Toby," a hitch-hiker, rode into town perched on the front bumper of salesman Verle Wagner's car. Wagner didn't know he was there until tittering pedestrians brought it to his attention.

Toby hopped off and waited a bit. Soon another car moved away and Toby made a flying leap for its bumper—and made it. When last seen the car was heading west.

Toby is a rooster.

Mother: "What are you playing at?"
Molly: "Weddings, Mummy. I am the bride, and Mary is the bridesmaid."

Mother: "But you have no bridesmaid!"
Molly: "I know—this is quite a small wedding."
