SHERBROOKE.

THE City of Sherbrooke ranks first in population, wealth and manufacturing importance in the Eastern Townships. It is beautifully located at the confluence of the St. Francis and Magog rivers, the site rising from the former till the upper town attains quite an elevation.

Sherbrooke is connected with the Townships of Ascot and Orford, and forms the electoral district of the County of Sherbrooke, being represented in Parliament, both Local and Federal.

The water power of this City is not to be competed with in the townships, it having a descent on the Magog River of 114 feet in less than a mile, affording an almost unbroken succession of first-rate privileges which large manufacturing establishments are utilizing, and others are about making use of. Its advantages are unlimited, as it were, and Sherbrooke owes, in a great measure, its advancement to this natural gift, as the city ranks one of the first manufacturing localities in the Country. Notwithstanding the present depression in trade and business throughout the Dominion, the busy hum of trade and the continual rattle of machinery, gives the visitor to understand that whatever may be the condition of business throughout the country, Sherbrooke is determined to rank among the first as to push and energy.

The Grand Trunk, the Passumpsic and Connecticut Rivers and Massawippi Valley, the Sherbrooke, Eastern Townships and Kennebec, the St. Francis and Megantic International and the Quebec Central railways meet here. The immense facilities of the territory which the last four named roads have opened up for the first time, must shortly increase the importance of the city as a commercial depot and manufacturing centre.

In 1871 the population was 4450; in 1873, 5500; in 1874, 7,000. * It has now reached about 8,000. The city has now a fire-alarm telegraph, together with two first-class steam fire engines and an efficient fire brigade—thus amply providing for herself in case of fire.

Measures are under way for lighting the city with gas, and the completion of the proposed water works and other improvements necessitated by the rapid progress the city is making in the commercial world.

In 1805 or 1806 the present site was known as the "Lower or Big Forks." The best authority we possess confers the honor of being the first settlers here on David Moe, Gilbert Hyatt and Samuel Terrill. The former improvised a frame barn on the border of the present city limits, on which "1800" was cut, without a thought that this trifling act would eventually turn out an historical item. Terrill took his stand on a point opposite the mouth of the Magog river, and Hyatt later built a grist mill on the Ascot<sub>2</sub> side, Jonathan Parker erecting the first carding and cloth dressing works. Jonathan Ball claimed the first sawmill on the Orford side, followed by William R. Willard with his pioneer tannery.

About 1828, C. F. H. Goodhue built wool-len, grist and saw mills here ; the latter was afterwards purchased by Chas. McDougall. The enterprise of Mr. Goodhue was the means of the building of an axe factory, whose assistants, Jonathan Silsbee and George Alger, were the first iron workers here; Albert Burchard and Thos. Gordon were the first shoemakers; Wm. Hall, the first harness-maker; Lucius Denning, the first brickmaker, and William Walker, who came here from England about 1816, the first blacksmith. The first foundry was started about the year 1833 by William Arms and Geo. Brown.

Stores were first opened by John Nicols, Goodhue & Moore, William Henry and Kimball & Ball, followed by the taverns of Felix Ward, Henry Hubbard, Noble Mallory and Otis King.

In 1822 the Hon. John Fletcher was the first judge of the District of St. Francis, followed to the present time by the Honorables J. H. Gardner, Edw. Short, J. S. Sanborn and the present judge, Hon. Marcus Doherty. Charles Bridgman Felton was the first prothonotary, his successors were William Bell, Bell & Bowen, Bell & Short, and Short & Morris. Charles Whitcher was the first sheriff, William Ritchie the first notary public, J. H. Terrill was the first high constable, succeeded by E. Clarke and the present popular and efficient officer, G. B. Loomis; Carey M. Hyndman, the first crier of the court, and Solon Shurtleff, the first jailer, who was succeeded in office by Patrick Read, father of the present official. William Hamilton was the first customs officer. The first court house, a wooden building was erected in 1822, and the present fine brick edifice in 1839. The jail was completed in 1869.

The first advocates were Charles Crecy, Charles A. De Tonnancour, Christopher P. Elkins, Ebenezer Peck, James Hallowell and Edward and John Short.

Among the other early settlers of Sherbrooke were Dr. Moses Nichol, Thomas Stevens of New Fane, Vt., who came to Brompton Falls in 1810 and to Sherbrooke in 1816; Abiel Chamberlin; major Henry Beckett, who came here from Hampshire, England, in 1819; Samuel Brooks; Stephen A. Edgell, store and registry office; Hassard Terrill; James Hughes, carpenter; Timothy Taylor, watchmaker; James Presby; Wm. Ames, blacksmith, who also kept a boarding house; Francis Loomis, storekeeper; Dr. Barnard;

Dr. Wilson ; C. Chambers, shoemaker ; John Drummond, carpenter ; D. Thompson, carpenter ; Joseph Griffith ; William Jones, mason ; Capt. Cokeley, and Irwin Stafford blacksmith.

In the year 1823, St. Peter's, church of England, was founded, the first clergyman being the Rev. C. F. Lefevre, sent as a missionary by the "Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts." The first church was a small wooden building on the site now occupied by Harkness' livery stables. The parsonage built by Henry Beckett was the first brick building erected here; the present church built of brick was erected in 1844 and greatly enlarged in 1864. Mr. Lefevre was followed in succession by the Rev. Messrs. Parkyn, Doolittle, Wait, Hellmuth, the present bishop of Huron, and Reid, the present incumbent.

Previous to the year 1834 the Roman Catholics had a mission station here, and in that year the Rev. J. B. McMahon was appointed resident priest, followed in succession by the Rev. Messrs. P. H. Harkin, Bernard O'Reilly, D. McGauvran and, in 1853, by the present incumbent, the Very Rev. A. E. Dufresne, vicar general.

The first church, built about the year 1833, and afterwards used as a school, was destroyed by fire in 1857. The present large and beautiful structure, now the Cathedral of the Diocese of "St. Michael of Sherbrooke," was commenced in 1854, and completed at a cost of about $50,000. The Convent School, under the direction of the rev. ladies of the Congregation of Notre Dame, is well attended, and the Industrial College of Sherbrooke, another Roman Catholic institution, conducted by Rev. Prof. Girard, has also a large number of pupils.

The Congregational Church was organized December 27th, 1835, with an original membership of twenty-nine. The Rev. Mr. Robertson was installed in 1837, and on his decease, Sept., 1861, he was succeeded by the present highly respected pastor, Rev. Archibald Duff.

The Presbyterian Church was established in 1864, and the Rev. Joseph Evans was inducted first pastor on the 28th of October of that year. The property on which the manse stands was purchased from Sir A. T. Galt, and a house once used as a theatre was transformed into a church and improved from time to time. Mr. Evans was succeeded in 1869 by Rev. Charles A. Tanner, and in 1872 by Rev. Peter Lindsay, the present pastor.

In the year 1819, the Rev. John De Putron, a Methodist minister, who was stationed at Melbourne, visited Sherbrooke occasionally. In 1833 the Rev. Edmund Botterell was appointed the first resident minister. The church was built in 1856, during the incumbency of Rev. W. D. Brown.

Sherbrooke has several good educational establishments of a private and public character; among the latter, the Saint Charles Borromée Seminary, under the control of Mgr. Ant. Racine, Bishop of the Diocese of St. Francis; the officers of the institution are Rev. P. Girard, principal; Mr. P. Allard, Acol., superintendent. The system of education is paternal, the masters endeavouring to unite love with firmness, and employ persuasion instead of corporal punishment, the parents of the scholars receiving every month a statement of the conduct, application to study and success of their children. There were 122 scholars in the seminary during its last session, and it is fully expected that it will be much larger during the next session. It was founded in 1855, by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Saint Hyacinthe, Mgr. Prince, who felt the necessity of such an institution for the education of the youth of the Eastern Townships in the higher branches of education. This institution has a printing office, in which the scholars are taught the science of typography.
