DARING AVIATOR SPRANG ANOTHER SURPRISE TODAY

Merchants Association Plan Action--Lone Sailor On Long Trip

Rumor Nungesser And Coli Found Not Confirmed

Definite Steps Are Being Taken to Have Whole Question Settled—Since Story of Distress Signals First Published Searching Parties Have Been Organized, and They Are Reconnoitering District of Northern Quebec.

AIRPLANES WILL HAVE TO BE CALLED INTO SERVICE

Whole World Had Eyes on Quebec Last Night Following Rumor that Missing French Aviators Had Been Found—News-papers Had Planes All Prepared and Manned by Reporters to Rush to Shipshaw.

QUEBEC, June 16.—Quebec was the centre of the world last night following the report received here yesterday afternoon that the famous French aviators, Nungesser and Coli, had been reported found. The message was received from Edward Blais, an accountant at Price Brothers, at River Bend, by his mother, Mrs. Blais, wife of Captain Joseph Blais, who lives at 27 Mont Carmel Street, Quebec. The message read as follows:

"Reported here that Nungesser and Coli were found this noon."

Immediately, this was bulletined with the addition, however, that it was not confirmed. Every effort was then made to get in touch with River Bend to get further details of the discovery. Owing to trouble on the line, it was six o'clock before communication was established between Quebec and River Bend. It was learned from the telephone exchange that while there was nothing definite about the report, the whole population there was talking about it and the general story ran that Nungesser and Coli had been found alive on the north bank of the Shipshaw River.

Newspapers Had Planes Ready. This was learned about six o'clock. By this time the whole world had its eyes on Quebec. There were telephone long distance calls from New York, Chicago and cables from Paris and London asking for news to verify the finding of the two famous aviators. New York newspapers wired that they had airplanes all ready to take off and had reporters to come up to the Shipshaw. Film companies wired to ask for particulars as they had machines and photographers ready to come up.

Confirmation of the news was difficult to obtain. At eleven o'clock A. Bedard, assistant chief of the Provincial Forestry Service, received two messages. One was from Eugene Racine, a forestry engineer of Chicoutimi. This message stated as follows:

"Sawred, inspector, reports that observers at Towers on Rivers River and Mendache saw last night at the height of the Peribonka River, a flashing light which appeared to be floating on the waters of the river. Instructions issued to the observer to be on the watch during the whole night and to notify immediately if anything further."

Heard Motor of Plane. This was followed by another message to Bedard from Bagotville, stating that George Brousseau, a trapper, who had just arrived there, reported hearing a machine like that of an aeroplane on the evening of Monday, May 9, the day following the take-off of the "White Bird" from LeBourget Field, Paris. The night was very foggy, he said, but while near the St. Marguerite river, he clearly heard the throbbing of a motor in the air. By the peculiar sound it seemed to be short of gas or out of order. It was going in a northerly direction, he thought.

Search Plane to Leave Today. Mr. Blais, who had sent the first message about the finding of Nungesser and Coli, was got in touch with over the long distance telephone. He said that he had just discovered that the report was without foundation and that it had been brought to River Bend by a forest worker found out to be unreliable. When he heard the news, he said, he thought it correct and sent news to his mother in good faith. He sent

AGAIN SIGHTED WHAT THEY BELIEVED TO BE DISTRESS SIGNALS

(Canadian Press Despatch). CHICOUTIMI, Que., June 16.—Reports received here today by townsmen employed in the Lake St. John District stated that they again sighted what they believed were distress signals coming from the direction of St. Germain Township, where it is thought the missing French aviators, Nungesser and Coli, were forced to land after their transatlantic flight on May 9. The men were of the opinion that the flashes were made by fuses.

a wire denying this statement.

Today, definite steps are to be taken to have the whole question settled. Up to the present, since the story of the distress signals was first published on Tuesday there has been search parties organized and they are reconnoitering the whole district. It is now felt that aeroplanes will have to be called into service, and it is thought most likely that a government plane at present stationed at Lake St. John will leave for St. Germain and begin townships some time today.

TOKIO, June 16.—The cruiser, Nachi, which is the second 10,000 ton vessel provided for in the Japanese government's naval programme, was launched yesterday.

Is Of Opinion That Old Mosaic Law In Business Should Again Be Adopted

Bankruptcy Fund of $100,000 Covering Entire Dominion Decided Upon—Will Strengthen and Augment Weapons of Legitimate Business in Prosecuting Fraudulent Bankruptcies.

(Canadian Press Despatch). MONTREAL, June 16.—Practice of the old Mosaic law in business, "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" was advocated by G. Laflorey, president of the Board of Trade, in the course of addressing a luncheon of business men.

Held under the auspices of the Merchants Association of Montreal, the luncheon was for the purpose of inaugurating a bankruptcy investigation fund of $100,000 covering the entire Dominion, which will strengthen and augment the weapons of legitimate business in prosecuting fraudulent bankruptcies.

Earnest Bertrand, K.C., senior Crown Prosecutor of Montreal, was the chief speaker, and at the outset of his remarks he drew attention to the frequent custom of business people, despite the fact that they themselves had been victimized, coming forward and asking clemency for the offenders.

Vigorous and merciless prosecution was urged by Mr. Bertrand as a corrective method for such conditions. "Let me tell you frankly," he said, "that the interference of creditors after the accused have been found guilty is one of the great incentives to fraud."

Mr. Laflorey echoed the sentiments of Mr. Bertrand. "We know that fraud is rampant in the land," he said. "Asking clemency for the men who have victimized you, why, such maudlin sentimentality should not exist in business. I think if we should go back to the old Mosaic law, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, business would be cleaner."

NATIONS PAY $89,998,931 TO U.S. TREASURY

Of Payments from Foreign Governments, the Largest Was from Great Britain of $67,575,000.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The United States government yesterday received $89,998,931 from thirteen nations on account of their indebtedness. Further swelling the amount due the treasury, officials estimated that income payments due would aggregate $400,000,000. Of the payments from foreign governments the largest, $67,575,000, was from Great Britain and was made in United States government obligations with a small cash adjustment. France paid $10,000,000 on its debt without prejudice to future action on the unratified Mellon-Berenger debt funding agreement. A payment of $5,000,000 was made by Italy.

The obligations of the United States accepted in connection with the payment by Great Britain were cancelled and retired and the public debt was reduced by that amount.

THETFORD MINES MAN INJURED IN HEAD-ON CRASH

Emile Dubreuil in St. Joseph Hospital as Result of Auto Accident Near Black Lake on Saturday Evening Last—Other Occupants of Car Escaped Without Serious Injuries.

THETFORD MINES, Que., June 16.—Emile Dubreuil, of this place, is at present lying in the St. Joseph Hospital here in a serious condition as the result of an automobile collision which occurred between Cole and Black Lake at about nine o'clock Saturday evening.

According to accounts received, it appears that Mr. Dubreuil, accompanied by Miss Catherine Fournier and Mr. Oscar Cloutier, was on his way to Sherbrooke when he met a car driven by Mr. Achille Metivier, also of this place. The drivers are said to have been blinded by the headlights of the approaching cars and crashed head-on. Outside of a severe shock and minor cuts and injuries the other occupants of the cars escaped injury.

CONTROVERSY OVER STATUS OF GERMAN RESIDENTS OF MEMEL SETTLED

(Associated Press Despatch). GENEVA, June 16.—The controversy over the status of the German residents of the city of Memel was settled amicably yesterday by an agreement between the representatives of Germany and Lithuania.

Premier Valdemaras, of Lithuania, in a statement to the League of Nations Council said his government was prepared to arrange elections assuring popular representation and safeguarding of political and individual rights.

Foreign Minister Stresemann, of Germany, expressed hope that the promised measure would bring the situation into conformity with the statutes drafted by the special League Commission in 1924.

Lindbergh Made Surprise Trip To Washington And Brought Back Own Plane

Suddenly Left Midnight Benefit Performance at New York and Went to Mitchell Field, Where He Borrowed a Plane and Flew to Washington—Returned at About 8 O'Clock This Morning in "Spirit of St. Louis."

HAS ANOTHER VERY BUSY PROGRAMME TODAY

Flight Again Demonstrated the Amazing Ability of Youthful Flier to Do Without Sleep—He Had Slept Until Noon Yesterday, But from Then On the Day Was a Continual Whirl of Luncheons, Receptions and Theatre Parties for Him.

(Associated Press Despatch). NEW YORK, June 16.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh sprang another surprise early this morning when he suddenly decided that he should like to have his own plane, "The Spirit of St. Louis," which had been left behind in Washington on Monday owing to engine trouble. At 3.05 a.m. he hopped off in a borrowed plane from Mitchell Field and at 7.57 a.m. was back at Mitchell Field with the other half of his famous "we."

The trans-Atlantic flier was attending a midnight benefit performance at a local theatre in aid of the families of the missing French aviators, Nungesser and Coli. Suddenly, at two o'clock "Lindy," accompanied by Grover Whalen, chairman of the reception committee and his personal representative, left the theatre unknown to most of the 6,000 in attendance. Even the newspapermen assigned to trail the famous flier were taken unawares and they did not catch up to the scene of their action until he was ready to take off at Mitchell Field.

The colonel was dressed in full evening clothes, but over this put on a flying suit borrowed at the field, besides helmet and goggles. He arrived at Bollingfield, Washington, at 4.44 a.m. and started back for New York at 5.09 a.m., arriving in two hours and 48 minutes later. The flight, against demonstrated the amazing ability of the youthful flier to do without sleep. He had slept until noon yesterday, but from then on the day was a continual whirl of luncheons, receptions and theatre parties for him. Today he planned to take a show up before beginning another crowded programme of activities that was to start at 10.30 a.m.

SAYS FLYING WILL PLAY VERY IMPORTANT PART IN ANY FUTURE WARS

(Associated Press Despatch). NEW YORK, June 16.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh rode his hobby with avocation, flying, in another speech yesterday. Business men instead of officials and fliers heard his assertions this time at a luncheon in his honor.

The son of the one-time Pacific member of Congress spoke of war. "We do not want war in this country," he declared, "but one of the surest ways to avoid war is to be prepared for it. There is no longer any doubt but that our air corps will play one of the most important parts in the next war if we have one, and we have not sufficient personnel for that air corps. We cannot train pilots in a few weeks or months properly. Experienced pilots from commercial flying activities can be made into military pilots in a very short time and a well-developed commercial air service in America would be invaluable in time of war."

He continued: "The air corps in time of war will never take the place of the navy; it will never take the place of the army, but both the navy and the army must have an air corps."

ADDITIONAL HONORS FOR NEW YORK-PARIS FLIER

(Associated Press Despatch). NEW YORK, June 16.—This young man Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who recently flew across the Atlantic and who has since managed to sustain a large number of compliments and decorations, was staggered yesterday. He literally staggered as he emerged from the Times building and received full on the chest one hundred and six pounds, or thereabouts, of femininity. Police kept the lady off.

PONS-WINNECKE COMET LOOKED LIKE "LITTLE FUZZY STAR"

(Associated Press Despatch). CHICAGO, June 15.—The Pons-Winnecke Comet, hurling earthward a million miles every 24 hours, looked like "a little fuzzy star" to Professor Philip Fox, director of Northwestern University's Observatory, who saw it without a glass during yesterday's eclipse of the moon.

"It was a hazy blur," he said, "and looked a bit fuzzy. Some of us saw it without glasses, just a degree south-west of the constellation 'Mu Draconis.' It was clearer of course, using glasses."

proposition received further consideration yesterday when the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues presented him with an initialed gold pass to all games for life. Flight fans hailed him at the Polo Grounds where he went to see the St. Louis-Baby Goldstein battle. He entered the ring and Mayor Walker stood with him as he was presented with a set of golden gloves.

The flier's mother left last night for St. Louis in a special car named after her son's plane "The Spirit of St. Louis."

Byrd Faces A Probable Delay Of Several Days In Take off On Flight To Paris On Account Of Unfavorable Weather Report

Indications Are that Flight Will Not Begin Before Saturday and Possibly Not Until Next Week—Has Made No Plans for Flight Around World.

(Associated Press Despatch). NEW YORK, June 16.—With his tri-motored Fokker monoplane "America" fueled and provisioned for its projected flight to Paris, Commander Richard E. Byrd today faced a probable delay of several days in his take-off due to unfavorable weather conditions.

Atmospheric conditions over the Atlantic could hardly be worse than at present, the weather bureau announced. "There is no chance for a trans-Atlantic flight by Friday," said Forecaster James Scarr, who also declared the outlook after tomorrow is not very good.

Commander Byrd had previously announced he would not attempt the flight until the weather bureau had given its approval, and indications therefore were that the flight would not begin before Saturday and possibly not until next week.

Questioned as to reports that he planned a flight around the world upon arriving in Paris, Commander Byrd, in Lexington, Va., where a honorary degree was conferred on him by Virginia Military Institute, said that while he has considered the possibility of such a flight he made no plans for one and that it is "a matter of a possibility, than a probability."

"I have not intended to give out the impression that I am planning such a venture," he said. "My plans other than the flight to Paris are indefinite."

CANADA WILL ADOPT SYSTEM OF RESEARCH IN LINE WITH WORK AT LONDON AND WASHINGTON

Facilities of Laboratories Are to Be Thrown Open to Private Firms, According to Present Plans—National Research Council Is to Be Established at Ottawa.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

OTTAWA, June 16.—To the end that Canada's natural resources may be developed to the fullest possible extent, that Canadian industries may be placed on the most efficient basis, and that the waste products of industry may be utilized, the Government has, it is announced, decided upon an important expansion of the activities of the Honorary Advisory Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. As stated by Hon. James Malcolm, Minister of Trade and Commerce, during the closing days of last session, it was the intention of the Ministry to submit to Parliament a generous appropriation for the purpose, but it was felt that such an appropriation should not be put through without opportunity for adequate discussion on the part of the members of both Houses.

Important Feature. The sum to be appropriated will be approximately sufficient, it is believed, to place the Dominion on a per capita basis of practical equality with other countries which are at present engaged in extensive research work. The most important feature of the proposed expansion will be the establishment at Ottawa of national Research Council. The function of the laboratories will be twofold, as follows:

1st—Standardization work of all kinds similar to that being conducted by the Bureau of Standards at Washington, or the National Physical Laboratories in England.

2nd—To make provision for the carrying out of research through the laboratories, which will be open to private firms who desire to conduct investigations, under the administration of the permanent staff of the National Council; for instance, any private corporation will be enabled to endow a researcher to conduct an investigation into any particular problem affecting its business, and will be able to retain the results to itself after paying the cost of the laboratory facilities.

While it is realized that pure science must be pretty well left to the universities, it is the aim of the Government to co-ordinate all the forces now engaged in industrial and scientific research under one common aim, with a system of laboratories as the national brain for the direction of the entire activity. It is the desire to concentrate present effort, but more or less haphazard, endeavor under one head; to bring about uniform activity and effort; and to eliminate so far as possible wasteful duplication. The men and the brains are available. The Research Council has effected an aggressive co-operative system. It is now proposed that there shall be established a national institution thoroughly equipped and efficiently manned, whereby all effort shall be focused on one aim.

Will Study Entire Methods of Research. A study of the British methods of research is one of the objects of the present visit of Hon. James Malcolm, Minister of Trade and Commerce, to England.

In many cases it is observed, manufacturers cannot afford the cost of laboratories, but can well afford the cost of individual and supervised research. At the Mellon Institute at Pittsburgh last year $527,000 was expended on private research alone, while at the Bureau of Standards at Washington, half a million was spent for the same purpose.

The whole amount spent on research last year in Canada, including all agencies, was comparatively small, and was probably not a third of what would have had to be expended if our universities had not given free assistance. In the same year in Great Britain the sum of five million pounds was spent on research, and in the United States $50,000,000.

Under the act passed on July 19, 1924, by which the Research Council is incorporated, the functions of the Council may be summarized as follows:

To promote the utilization of the natural resources of Canada; to undertake researches with the object of improving the technical processes and methods of the industries with a view to utilizing the waste products of the industries; to investigate and determine standards and methods of measurement; to undertake the standardization and certification of scientific and technical apparatus and instruments; to investigate and standardize at the request of an industry, the materials used by, or the products of the industry making the request; to make researches the object of which is to improve conditions of agriculture and to have in view over researches which may desire to avail themselves of the facilities offered.

THE STRANGLER IS RECAPTURED EARLY TODAY

Fifteen Minutes After His Arrest Last Evening Suspect Was Again Free, Making His Way Bootless Through Woods—This Morning, However, He Was Again Under the Law.

(Canadian Press Despatch). WINNIPEG, June 16.—The man who escaped from Killarney jail last night, fifteen minutes after being lodged in a double-locked cell on suspicion of being "the strangler" slayer of women and children, was recaptured early today by a posse of citizens and police.

The man was arrested at Wapapa, Man., five miles from the international boundary by provincial police officers early last evening. Fifteen minutes after being lodged in the Killarney jail he was free again, and had disappeared into the bush, presumably to the south of the town. Placed in a double-locked cell he picked the lock with ease. As is the custom in the country jail, his boots were taken from him when he was lodged in the cell, and he entered the bush country bootless.

$527,000 was expended on private research alone, while at the Bureau of Standards at Washington, half a million was spent for the same purpose. The whole amount spent on research last year in Canada, including all agencies, was comparatively small, and was probably not a third of what would have had to be expended if our universities had not given free assistance. In the same year in Great Britain the sum of five million pounds was spent on research, and in the United States $50,000,000.

ARE YOU SLEEPLESS?

Some Hints on How to Overcome This Most Serious Trouble.

Some people lie awake for hours before they can fall asleep. Others waken suddenly in the small hours and worry over trifles, while some doze fitfully all night and never feel rested on rising. Sleeplessness is caused by a disordered condition of the nervous system. It means that the nerves are not receiving proper nutrition and in the quiet of night, when the muscles relax and heart settles down to repair the system, the nerves grow restless and cry out for the nourishment the blood cannot supply.

It is very unwise—more, it is dangerous to rely on narcotics. What is needed is a good tonic to build up the blood. For this purpose no other tonic is so highly recommended as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This because they assist the digestive organs to take blood-making ingredients from the food, and so supply the nerves with the nourishment they need. With satisfied nerves sleep comes easily and naturally.

Not only do Dr. Williams' Pink Pills help the nerves. Their main function is to enrich and increase the blood, and as the blood supplies the whole body, new life is given to the entire system. Better sleep, steady nerves, improved appetite, increased vigor—all these can be yours by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Begin them today. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail post paid, at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Snell and Miss B. Snell have been spending a few days in Montreal.

The firemen were called out three times Monday. Two chimney fires and a barn on Cowie street were the calls. The barn was badly damaged. The origin of the blaze was thought to be from a spark from some chimney.

Mr. Arthur Robinson, of Knowlton, has been the guest of his brother, Mr. George Robinson.

Mrs. Yeates has been spending a few days in Montreal.

Mrs. George Gilmore, of Waterloo, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Smith, and sister, Mrs. E. Harvey, for a few days last week.

Mr. Harvey has sufficiently recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia that he expects to leave for St. Albans this week.

The funeral of the late Gordon Payne was held at St. George's Church on Wednesday afternoon, June 8th, and was very largely attended. Rev. Geo. Keith, C. Savage, O. V. Giddings, K. Cowley, F. Wallace and E. Graham. The floral tributes were very beautiful. The interment was in St. George's Cemetery.

optometrist, received a phone call informing him that the four windows of his store on King Street had been broken by a motor car, which had got out of control and jumped the sidewalk to crash into the front of the store.

The exact circumstances of the accident are not known, but from what can be gathered it appears that it was caused by a new driver, who, after putting the car in reverse by mistake, speeded up the motor and threw out the clutch, with the result that before the car could be stopped it had jumped the sidewalk and forced its way into the passageway leading into the store, breaking the four windows in doing so.

CAUSED DISTURBANCE ON WELLINGTON STREET THIS MORNING

Two stalwart sons of Uncle Sam found that although Canada is known as the playground of North America, the streets of this city are no place to carry out their games. While engaged in a newly discovered game of letting down the blinds of stores on Wellington Street this morning at about one o'clock the young men were arrested and brought to headquarters, and, after paying a deposit, were allowed their freedom. This morning, according to police headquarters, these two strangers, who gave their names as Joseph Bryan, of Worcester, Mass., and Ralph McNulty, of Hanover, N. H., failed to appear when their names were called and forfeited their deposits.

CITY-GRIFFITH PROBLEM NOW BEING SETTLED

In Accordance With Decision of Arbitrators, Mr. Griffith Has Engaged Men to Tear Down Portion of His Building at the Corner of Frontenac and Marquette Streets to Enable City to Complete Sidewalk.

A large number of workmen are at present busily engaged in tearing down a portion of the building situated at the corner of Frontenac and Marquette streets, the property of Mr. W. H. Griffith, and from the present indications it is expected that the work will be completed in a week or ten days.

This matter is the beginning of the end of a difficulty which has been hanging here between Mr. Griffith and the city for the past five years.

The property in question, owned by Mr. Griffith, consists of the Ansell drug store block at the corner of Marquette and Frontenac streets and the small wooden building on Frontenac street, formerly used as an upholstery shop by the late B. C. McNab.

The small wooden building, and one end of the Ansell Drug Store block project out in such a way as to interrupt with the sidewalk. When the remaining part of Frontenac street was paved the work stopped at the Wilson plumbing shop, as the city and Mr. Griffith could not come to an agreement regarding the price and sale of a sufficient portion of this property to allow to completion of the sidewalk.

The matter dragged on for a considerable time and finally was put into the hands of arbitrators on agreement of both Mr. Griffith and the city. The result was that it was decided that Mr. Griffith would sell to the city a portion of his land which would allow for the straightening out of Frontenac street and completion of the sidewalk, and that the tearing down of the building should be done by him.

This agreed to, Mr. Griffith on Friday last engaged men for this work, which is now in progress. It is Mr. Griffith's intention to tear down the end of his building at the corner of Frontenac and Marquette streets to the wall of the Ansell Store and to move the small wooden building on Frontenac street back so as to put it in straight line with the other block along the street.

Price, C. M. It is expected that the pack will be out in force for this, the first big hike of the season. The pack will assemble at the headquarters on Bank Street, at nine o'clock in the morning, should bring with them sufficient food for two meals. Cubs should also bring a pencil and paper for observation records, as some real Cubbing is on the programme for the day. Baseball gloves and other equipment may be brought so that a ball game can comprise part of the programme. The Cubs will be conveyed home at night by car by the members of the Pack committee, an after which is being arranged by the president, Mr. Bert Jones. This should be a real day of real Cubbing, boys, so all up.

REMAINS OF MR. N. N. WALLEY ARE LAID TO REST

Many Citizens Paid Final Tribute of Respect to One of Sherbrooke's Highly Esteemed Residents Yesterday Afternoon.

Sherbrooke yesterday afternoon paid its final respects to another of its old and highly esteemed residents, when the mortal remains of the late Mr. Norman Neil Walley were conveyed to their last resting place in Elmwood Cemetery.

Following the service, which was held at the late residence, Portland Avenue, with Rev. Dr. W. S. Lennon, pastor of Trinity United Church, officiating, the cortege formed and quietly wended its way to the cemetery. In the large number of friends and acquaintances who followed the remains were business and professional men from nearly all walks in life, as well as many of the older residents of the city, who were paying their last tokens of respect to one, who for the past half century, has been a

BARNSTON

Mr. G. A. Hadlock and son, Douglas, of Lennoxville, were Sunday guests of the former's mother, Mrs. C. J. Cushing. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Stanley Thornton and Master Robert Thornton.

Mrs. W. L. Cleveland, Mrs. Carl Rose and daughter, Miss Mildred Rose, were in Dixville last week attending the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Corey and three grandchildren, Mrs. Lillian and Marion Corey were in Rock Island last week guests of the former's daughters, Mrs. E. G. Webb, and family, Master Nelson remaining for the remainder of the week guest of his aunt and cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Webb and children, of Rock Island, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Corey on Sunday evening, Master Madison remaining for a longer stay.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Smith and Miss Winnifred were in Magog on Friday.

Miss Julia Cleveland was a recent guest at the home of her uncle, Mr. J. L. Thornton, Dixville.

Mr. Ernest Repington is the fortunate fisherman heard from up to date, he having a mask-nonge recently in Lake Massawippi, measuring three feet, two inches in length and weighing eleven and one quarter pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Minard and two daughters, of Compton, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dresser, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Larson and son, Edwin, of Montreal, were calling on friends here on Saturday. During the electrical storm on Friday, lightning struck the house on the Jenks farm and but for the timely discovery of fire by Messrs. Paquette and Fox it would have been totally destroyed.

DRAWING TOGETHER

Conventions, as a rule are not very serious affairs. Delegates arrive and register and after a varied programme, three-fourths pleasure and one-fourth business, they decide on the place of next year's meeting, sing Auld Lang Syne, the National Anthem and depart.

Conventions, however, serve a useful purpose. They bring people from various provinces and communities together. They rub shoulders, become acquainted, discover that the other chap is a good fellow after all and separate with a better understanding.

This applies especially to inter-Provincial meets, such as that of the Union of Municipalities now being held in Ontario. Good-will among provinces is promoted by such gatherings. The business programme of the convention is secondary in importance to this.

From coast to coast, there is a sentiment of good-will in the air this year, Canada's Jubilee, and a desire that the occasion shall mark a cementing of the ties of union established in 1867.

THE TWO GREATEST CANADIANS

MacLean's Magazine has been appealing to its readers to name the greatest living Canadian. Letters have been received voicing the opinion on the subject.

Summarizing the replies the Magazine says: In the opinion of a majority of MacLean's readers who answered the question, "Who is the greatest living Canadian?" Dr. F. G. Banting, discoverer of insulin, is that man. Letters received since the last issue appeared have not altered the ranking then published. Dr. Charles E. Saunders, to whom Canada owes the gift of Marquis wheat, is the nominee of the second largest group; Sir Robert Borden comes third, and Sir George Foster, fourth.

It is significant that Drs. Banting and Saunders—two scientists, the one in medicine the other in agriculture—should head the list. Neither of these men has attained prominence in politics; neither of them has made the accumulation of riches his goal; neither of them commands the power that comes to the successful politician or financier, but both of them have wrested new knowledge from Nature which makes life more livable in Canada, or in the world, for that matter. If the letters received are representative—and there is every reason to believe they are—it is obvious the Canadian ideal is that of service, as opposed to personal aggrandisement, a striking valuation to come from a people confronted at every turn by the starkly material.

One other point: Letter after letter commends Banting and Saunders for refusing to leave Canada in order to assure themselves of large financial returns. Canadians, it would seem, admire most those who elect to stay in their own country and devote their genius to its service.

Two of the writers, in support of their nominations, writes as follows:

Dr. F. G. Banting
I nominate Dr. Banting, Toronto, as the greatest living Canadian, because:
He has added something to the store-house of human knowledge.
He has alleviated pain and distress.
He has helped to conquer a dreaded disease.

He has given his knowledge to the world gratuitously.
He still seeks quietly and inconspicuously to conquer mankind's ailments.
Because such a man's worth to Canada in every way is priceless and immeasurable, and because his service to mankind is comparable to Pasteur, Lister and others.

Through the development of Marquis wheat about 1900 Charles Saunders literally made possible the development of the Prairie Provinces. Its short growing period, and early maturity banished the spectre of frozen crops from the limited area then under cultivation and added millions of acres to the Canadian wheat belt. Furthermore Marquis wheat established Canada's reputation as a producer of hard red spring wheat and gave to the world a new standard of quality which has never yet been excelled.

Belatedly granted an inadequate pension by the Government, forgotten by his own generation and unknown to the rising one, show me another living Canadian whose contributions have influenced materially as many lives or meant more from the national standpoint than those of Charles Saunders.

THE PHILOSOPHER

Search thy own heart; what paineth thee in others in thyself may be.—J. C. Whittier.

DON'T GIVE UP.

(By Dr. Frank Crane)
Whatever has happened to you, don't give up.

Do not admit that circumstances are more powerful than you.

Though your head be bloody it should not be bowed.

You may have had financial losses and the accumulations of years may have been swept away, possibly by the treachery of some friend. What of it? Tighten your belt and go at it again.

Your health may be impaired. What of it? Other people have had discouragements and have lived bravely through them. The world is full of unsung heroes who have met with reverses and yet kept up a brave front.

Keep your flag flying. The bankrupt merchant or the disillusioned youth may see no escape but suicide, but those who are wiser tackle the problem again.

There is no great teaching that does not instruct us that we can rise upon our faulty past and climb the stairs to a finer future.

No more damnable gospel was ever preached than that for you or any man or woman there is no hope.

If you have sinned, if you have made mistakes, rise up! Shake off the past and face the future. There is no man living but what has committed some errors. We can allow the burden of life to plunge us into despair or we can shake it off and seek other fields.

The world is wide and if there is any one thing that both religion and philosophy teach it is that we can rise upon the wreck of our dead selves and enjoy that which remains.

You don't know what is around the corner and no man can tell what the future has in store for him.

Be a thoroughbred and keep up your courage, even though the battle may be against you.

Many a person has given up when success lay just ahead of him. If you can't do anything else, hold on. Believe in yourself, believe in life, believe in your star. If none of these beliefs can be proved to be sound their effect upon your character at least is sound, and one who is dominated by a persistent belief in his success is much more liable to have a sure hand and a good eye than the one who doubts himself.

Some one has said that you are never going to succeed in life in anything, mental, moral or physical, until you have stricken from your hands and heart and brain the shackles of fear.

What we want in this world is something to tone us up, to put us at our best, and fear is just the opposite of this.—Cpt. 1927.

PARAGRAPHS

A man may be down, but he's never out of excuses.

The "undeveloped" peoples are those that fight for their religion, not about it.

Ethics as is: Taking sly digs at a competitor instead of fighting him openly.

You can tell, just by looking at a man, whether he always laughs at the boss's jokes.

Those who did most to give the world good roads were the Romans and Ford.

The man who hates all members of another race usually is a poor specimen of his own.

Spring is that middle season when the butter is too thin for a knife and too thick for a spoon.

A good executive is one that has wit enough to hire good men to run the job.

A "good neighborhood" is one where you get liquor from a host instead of a bootlegger.

Men are funny. They can be confidential without even mentioning the faults of friends.

So often "tolerance" is just a fellow-feeling for those whose vices are similar to your own.

The most efficient reducing exercise consists in keeping a firm grip on yourself when asked to have some more.

It seems clear enough now that much of the political eloquence of the old days was in the hooch the audience had.

Tolerance is the feeling you have when you're too important to give a darn, or too unimportant to give a darn.

PRESS COMMENT

HATS OFF, MEN!

(Brantford Expositor)
The farm women of Ontario, with their wonderful institutes, have shown that the men in this part of the country have no monopoly on brains for business or community work, and their Western and Eastern sisters are no whit behind them. As a cold fact the men have made a poor fist of institute work in this Province. It took the women to show them how.

RESULTS OF THE GENEVA CONFERENCE.

(Christian Science Monitor)
The International Economic Conference has performed a most useful service in clearing the air and laying down the lines on which international action may be taken for the removal of some of the outstanding obstructions to the freedom of commerce. It has passed unanimous resolutions emphasizing the necessity for a return to a reasonable tariff policy in Europe, and has demonstrated the interdependence of nations, and the folly of the idea that the disorganization of industry and the inflated currencies which followed from the war, can be corrected by high tariffs. Import and export prohibitions, arbitrary practices and disguised discriminations in the form of internal taxes or subsidies, export taxes on raw materials, which increase the price of production in foreign countries, and all such measures designed to promote the trade of one country at the expense of another, have been shown to be illusory in their effect, for they injure the nation which adopts them even more than its competitors.

INFLECTING MONEY ON HIM.

(New York Herald Tribune)
Already the slightly disquieting calculation has been made that Captain Lindbergh may, if he chooses, "garner $1,000,000 the first year and several hundred thousand dollars a year thereafter for fully four or five years" as a result of his achievement. Even a great monetary reward does not necessarily damage the quality of a fine adventure; after all, the most distinguished of Captain Lindbergh's predecessors wrote himself a pretty stiff contract beforehand in which he insisted upon riches and titles not only for himself but for his posterity. The contract failed to hold, and there was a good deal of unfortunate publicity afterward, but Christopher Columbus's reputation survived it.

Nor, perhaps, is there anything any worse about extracting vast sums from the boundless mines of modern newspaper advertising and theatrical opportunities than there was in hoping to extract wealth from the less productive silver and gold mines of Mexico, which, after all, belonged to the Indians. Nevertheless, the charter of the unfortunate Admiral of the Ocean Seas did not stand unblemished under the strain of his dangerous success, and Captain Lindbergh's success, if it must be admitted, is of an infinitely more dangerous sort. The enthusiasm of a wildly applauding world lays a cruel test even upon heroic gentlemen, and when it is the modern world, with modern organs of emotion and of publicity, the test is almost an impossible one. The widespread belief that Captain Lindbergh is of the stuff which will survive it is perhaps the finest compliment that could be paid him.

Captain Lindbergh deserves all the wealth that a man of dignity and good sense would wish to accept.

Mrs. John Beattie, Of Lemesurier, Among Oldest Residents Of The Eastern Townships

Is now in her ninety-fourth year and still well and active. Mrs. Beattie has one great-great-grandchild.

(23rd in series of Record Sketches of aged residents)

There is living at Lemesurier, Que., an aged lady who is an honored and treasured link between the past and present in this province in the person of Mrs. John Beattie, who resides with her son, Mr. Gilbert Beattie, Mrs. Beattie is in her ninety-fourth year and is able to take part in the life about her; enjoys excellent health, and still has a good memory. Her reminiscences of the early days are most interesting, and her mental and physical strength is one more remarkable instance of the retention of faculties so evident among our pioneer men and women.

Mrs. Beattie, nee Jane Wilson, was born at Spencer's Cove, Quebec, on February 14th, 1833, daughter of Robert Wilson and his wife, Margaret McCutcheon, who came from Derry, Ireland. At the age of thirteen years, the young girl went to St. Sylvestre to live with an uncle, John Stevenson, and was married at that place on February 14th, 1853, to Mr. John Beattie. The ceremony took place in the Anglican Church at St. Sylvestre and was performed by Rev. William King.

Of this marriage there were six sons and six daughters, all living now with exception of two daughters. One of these Mrs. Wallace, who passed away in 1926, was nursed by the aged mother for nine days without even removing her shoes.

The sons are Robert Beattie, aged seventy-three, residing at Wainwright, Alta.; John S. Beattie, of Lennoxville, Que.; William J. and Gilbert Beattie, of Lemesurier, Que.; James Beattie, of New Jersey, U. S. A., and George Beattie, of Sherbrooke, Que.

The four living daughters are Mary Ann Nutbrown, Danville; Bella McDonald, of Montreal, Alta.; Charlotte Patterson, of Oshawa, Alta., and Elizabeth J. Oliver, of Unity, Sask. Her children are as widely scattered as many other families of Quebec province, and especially of the Eastern Townships.

Mrs. Beattie has thirty-two grandchildren, thirty-four great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

MRS. BEATTIE, LEMESURIER.

is a living example of the hardy, devoted pioneer woman, wife and mother. To her, many good wishes are extended by readers of the Record who are all proud to have among them such as she: "Around her shone The nameless charms unmarked by her alone; The light of love, the purity of grace, The mind, the music breathing from her face, The heart whose softness harmonized the whole." (Byron).

FIVE GENERATIONS IN MRS. BEATTIE'S FAMILY.

child living. The photographs here reproduced show Mrs. Beattie in her garden, looking well and happy, and the other view is of the four younger generations in her family. They are Mrs. Octavius Nutbrown, daughter; Mr. Henry Nutbrown, grandson; Mrs. Howard Robinson, great-granddaughter, and Master Raymond Thomas Robinson, great-great-grandchild, all of Danville, Que.

Reminiscences Of The Early Days.
Mrs. Beattie recalls many happenings of her younger days. One is the fact that she learned her alphabet from Bishop Mountain (first Anglican Bishop of Quebec). The letters were pasted on a shingle, but that did not worry the young pupil. She also remembers seeing the soldiers' barracks and their drillings, and recalls the time when she travelled from St. Nicholas to Quebec by horseboat; horse power was then used to propel boats.

Mr. and Mrs. Beattie came to East Leaside in 1863, and all their belongings had to be hauled on a slide-car. Trips were often made to Quebec where their produce was sold in exchange for necessities for the home. Those were days when men and women worked in good health and with good courage, and many today look about them almost in surprise to see the changes that have come about. Mrs. Beattie still lives on the old homestead where she has resided for over seventy-four years. Her family is one of the outstanding ones of Megantic County, while members are now residing in different provinces and states, yet all retain their interest in the home place and their love and esteem for the aged lady who

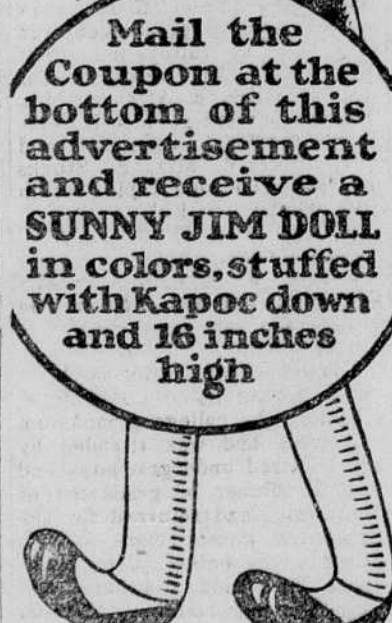

COMPTON

On Saturday evening, June 11th, Mrs. Thomas Brown entertained about forty young people at a miscellaneous double shower in honor of the Misses Mary Johnstone and Naomi Merrill, whose marriages take place shortly. The prettily decorated baskets were carried in by Miss Edna Brown and Miss Ruby Perkins, and placed before the guests of honor, who thanked their friends in a few well chosen words. At the close of the social evening, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by several of the young ladies.

A large number of out-of-town guests were in Compton on Tuesday for the annual closing of King's Hall.

The village school and the Roman Catholic convent will close for the midsummer holidays on Friday of this week.

Mr. Stuart Allis, of Boston, is in Compton to visit his mother, Mrs. Boudreau.

Sheer Frocks and Women's Hygiene

New way safer—discards

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

THAT filmy gowns and women's oldest hygienic problem now go safely together is a fact millions of women are learning.

Old-time sanitary "pads" with their worries and dangers are giving way to the utter protection of a new way called Kotex.

✓ Kotex discards as easily as tissue. Thus no laundry, no embarrassment of disposal.

Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton "pads," one may now dance, motor, go about for hours with never a doubt.

Also de-
odorizes; thus ending all fear of offense.
Obtain at any store without embarrassment simply by saying "Kotex." Box contains 12. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

yesterday while in town to attend the funeral of the late Mr. N. N.
Walley.

St. Andrew's Auxiliary members held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon with the president, Mrs. L. A. Wilkie, in the chair.
The concert to be given by the Utica Jubilee singers, on Monday, June 20th, was discussed. The tea tables were prettily decorated with pink sweet peas and a bunch of lilies centered the large tea table.
The hostesses were Mrs. L. L. Leslie and Mrs. L. Temple, who were assisted by Mrs. A. A. Gunning, tea, and by Mrs. W. J. Charlwood, who assisted in serving. This was the last meeting of the Auxiliary until September.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Mission held their closing tea and sale on Wednesday, June 15th, in the church hall. The guests were received by the president, Mrs. E.
King. The small tea tables were centered with lilies of the valley, while the food and fancy work tables looked very pretty centered with a bowl of tulips and other spring flowers. The hostesses for the tea were Mrs. R. Atto and Mrs.
T. Doust, who were assisted in serving by Mrs. W. T. Saunders, and Mrs. G. Peterson. Mrs. E. Stocks poured tea. The food table was in charge of Mrs. S. Robinson, Mrs.
T. Oak and Mrs. H. Woolerton, while the fancy work table was looked after by Mrs. S. Dugate, Mrs. S. Payne and Mrs. Nelson. The proceeds were very gratifying.

The annual Convocation dance at Bishop's University, Lennoxville, was held in the college gymnasium last evening, and was attended by several hundred undergraduates and others. A number of graduates of the university had returned for the event, while guests came from Montreal, many points in the Eastern Townships, and elsewhere. The gymnasium was prettily decorated in red and white paper streamers stretching from the centre of the roof to the walls. Woodard's orchestra supplied the music for dancing. Supper was served at 11.30 o'clock in the council chamber of the old arts building. The guests were received by the Principal and Mrs. A. H. McGreer and Mr. I. I.
Greene, president of next year's Students' Association, who was in charge of the dance. Amongst those that attended were the chancellor of the university, Dr. F. E. Mcdith, K.C., the Lord Bishop of Quebec, and members of the faculty and their wives.

Among the guests registered at the New Sherbrooke House are:

CITY BRIEFLETS

REPAIRS BEING MADE TO STREETS

The road department has a number of men at work on King street, near the Aymer Bridge, as well as on other streets of the city, where repair work is necessary to worn parts of the streets' pavement.

DATES FOR Y. M. C. A. CAMP
In a report published a few days ago the dates for the Y.M.C.A. camp were somewhat confused. The junior boys' camp will be held for two weeks' from July 4th, the ladies' camp for one week, and if a sufficient number register the senior camp for two weeks, beginning on July 23rd.

LAMP POSTS ARE BEING PAINTED

Taking advantage of the fine weather, a number of men were on hand early this morning, with a good supply of paint, which they were applying to the decorative lamp posts along Wellington Street.
Needless to say the paint made a decided improvement in the appearance of the posts.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION FOR CANADA'S FLAG

A new design for a flag for Canada has been received by the Record from Mrs. Arthur Gorthorpe, of Fitch Bay. She describes her design as "The Union Jack in the centre of a red ensign, as it is the centre of all the Empire, and nine white stars within, as the nine provinces of the Dominion are in or form a part of the British Empire." She suggests that this flag would be more easily distinguished from the British flag, as it would have the Union Jack in the centre.

EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OF GRIFFIN CHURCH TO BE OBSERVED

Sunday, June 19th, there will be a special service at the old Griffin Church, which will celebrate its eighty-sixth anniversary on that day. Rev. George S. Fortier, superintendent of Universalist Churches in Vermont and New Hampshire, will be the speaker, and the music will be in charge of Mr. J. G. Watson. The choir, consisting of the sol-ists will be Mrs. E. E. Stevenson, soprano, and Mrs. J. G. Trenholme, contralto, and there will be a male quartet consisting of Messrs. H.
McConnell, H. Griffith, J. G. Watson and W. Watson. The service will be at 2.30 p.m. standard time.

JUDGMENTS WERE RENDERED THIS MORNING IN SUPERIOR COURT

Presiding in the Superior Court this morning, His Lordship Mr.
Justice Archambault rendered several judgments.
The case of J. D. O'Bready, plaintiff, versus S. Cantin et al, defendant, which resulted over an auto smash between the two parties on Galt and Belvidere Streets, was settled when His Lordship ordered the defendant to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $94.20 and costs.
The other two cases were those of Alphonse Lecours, plaintiff, versus C. R. Scott, defendant, in which the court was called upon to settle a disagreement between the two parties regarding a seizure which had been made, the court declared the seizure in question to have been irregular and illegal; while judgment to the amount of $42.75 with costs, was awarded to B. Catudal, plaintiff, in his case against L. Lupalme, defendant.

WELLAND CANAL MATTER IS BROUGHT TO ATTENTION OF LOCAL BOARD OF TRADE

The attention of the Sherbrooke Board of Trade has been called by Border Chamber of Commerce, with executive headquarters in Windsor, Ont., to the proposition now under way for the erection of a series of twelve stationary bridges on the new Welland Canal.
The Border Chamber of Commerce objects strongly to this suggestion and considers the matter something of interest to every community in Canada.
An editorial published in "The Border Cities Star," entitled "Selfishness," which refers to this matter, remarks that if the new Welland Canal is blocked by a series of 120 feet in height along its twenty-five miles of locks it will result in the serious impairment of navigation facilities, it will prohibit the larger vessels from proceeding up the canal and the upper lakes will be barred from becoming ocean ports.
The request is made that the local Board of Trade take some definite action in this connection, and although the matter has not been brought before a meeting of the local board as yet, it is likely that it will be given careful consideration.

VACATION SCHOOL FOR CHARACTER BUILDING

The promise for the 1927 vacation school for character building holds out rich promise. Miss I. R.
Nourse, principal; Miss E. Symons for the primary department; Miss E. Morgan, of Truro Teachers' Training College, in charge of the kindergarten, and six of the graduates from the High school as helpers makes a splendidly equipped staff.

At a meeting last night of the promotion committee it was definitely decided that the school should open on Thursday, July 7th, and close August 4th, the sessions of the school to be from 9.30 to 11.30 a.m., each day, and a meeting of the parents to be addressed by last year's principal, Miss Edwards, will be held on July 29th, at 4 p.m., at Cambridge School. It was felt that some misapprehension had been entertained by parents in the past with reference to the school. The school is for all children from kindergarten to teen age, free of all charges to students, the support necessary being secured from a few of Sherbrooke's interested townspeople, and has for its definite purpose character building. It is hoped and fully expected that all parents will get behind the movement by encouraging the children to attend.

At a meeting of the committee held last night the question of publicity was left in the hands of Messrs. Haight and Hatcher, and the matter of getting the children from the districts somewhat reminded from the school was referred to the finance committee. It was felt by all that the outlook for the present year is exceptionally fine.

HIGH SCHOOL EXAMS BEGAN THIS MORNING

One Hundred and Eighty-Five Pupils Enrolled—Record Number in Grade XI This Year—Will Finish on June 23 and 24.

June examinations have begun.
This fact is quite realized at the local high school where one hundred and eighty-five pupils gathered this morning to begin the grind that will not end until the middle of next week when the long looked forward to summer holidays commence.

Grade XI, the senior class, is one of the largest classes taking the McGill matriculation and school leaving examinations at the school for some years, forty-four being listed, as compared with thirty last year. The number of pupils in the lower grades taking the provincial tests compare favorably with the past years. They are: Grade X, twenty-five; grade IX, fifty-two,
and grade VIII, sixty-four.

The deputy-examiner for the year is Rev. O. Lewis, who is assisted by Messames J. P. Watson and E. W.
Page, the Misses Leslie Fales, Jennie Mariasine and Dorothy Dean and Mr. Wallace Barrie.

While grade XI and X will not finish their tests until June 24th, grades IX and VIII will write their last examination of June 23rd.

MARRIAGES

NORCROSS-HUTCHISON

The marriage of Miss Jean Hutchison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs.
Orrin H. Hutchison, of Montreal, to Mr. Ashley Norcross, of Cleveland, Ohio, son of the late Mr. Alton Norcross and Mrs. Norcross, of Sherbrooke, Que., took place at half-past two, yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents. The drawing-room, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Woodside, was prettily arranged with palms, ferns and pink peonies; and in the dining room where light refreshments were served following the marriage, the table was decorated with pink roses and snap-dragon. As the bride entered the drawing-room the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mr. J. Stafford and during the signing of the register, Mr.
J. F. McIntyre rendered "All Joy
Be Thine" on the violin.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a very lovely gown of white chiffon made with a long train of chiffon and cloth of silver. A long white net veil falling from a coronet, of lace and clusters of orange blossoms, hung gracefully down over her train, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Elizabeth Low, of Montreal, was maid of honor and Miss Lilian Bingham, of Ottawa, was the bridesmaid.
Both were gowned alike in pale pink chiffon and lace, with pink visage hats trimmed with velvet ribbon of a deeper tone, and they carried arm bouquets of pink and orchid-shaded sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. The best man was

Mr. A. E. Norcross, of Halifax, N.
S., brother of the bridegroom.
After the reception, Mr. and Mrs.
Norcross left by motor for Montreal and the Eastern States en route to their home in Cleveland. The bride's going away costume was a smartly designed dress and coat of grey with an azure blue felt hat.
Mrs. Hutchison, mother of the bride, wore grey chiffon over blue with a blue hat and carried a bou-quet of pink roses. Mrs. Norcross, of Sherbrooke, Que., mother of the bridegroom, was handsomely gowned in black chiffon with white net trimmings, wearing a black silk hat and carrying a bouquet of orchid shaded sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Maxwell Norcross, of Cleveland, Ohio, sister of the bride, wore a pretty dress of ocean green georgette with a black hat and carried ophelia roses.

NEWS OF SPORTING WORLD

CUBS CONTINUE TO IMPROVE THEIR RECORD

Pirates Maintained Their Advantage by Downing Braves—Giants Received Another Set-back.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, June 16.—Despite John McGraw's desperate effort to check the descent by trades, the New York Giants today were farther than ever behind the western teams, which have obtained a monopoly on the top shelves of the National League.

While the Giants, the only eastern club in the first division, were losing their sixth straight yesterday, the Pirates, Cubs and Cards—who lead the League in that order—were fattening their averages.

Citizens of St. Louis gave Rogers Hornsby the town when he returned there with his new team. But one thing they did not give him—victory. Neither he nor his Giant mates were able to hit the pitching of Jesse Haines, who gave but two singles for a 5 to 0 shutout and one of the finest hurling performances turned in this season. Jackson and Roush scratched the only safeties he allowed.

New York was one of the three eastern National League teams which fell in the general rout.

The Chicago Cubs' eleventh straight win was scored at the expense of the Phillies by 12 to 5.

While Cub bats pounded eighteen hits off two Phillies' hurlers, Charley Root held the foe in hand for his eleventh personal victory of the year.

Luckily for the Pirates, who are only about a game ahead of the Cubs, they too beat down an invading foe. A tight pitching grip by Carmen Hill held the Boston Braves harmless in the pinches for a 7 to 4 decision. Eddie Farrell, late of the Giants, made two hits for the Braves in five chances, which is hitting just 400.

On the team of Dazzler Vance, the Brooklyn Robins downed the Cincinnati Reds by 2 to 1. In Rixey, of the Reds, Vance met a worthy foe, who allowed but four hits in eight innings and Neph granted none for the remaining frame, but the rejuvenated Robins backed their pitcher perfectly in the field. At the start of the season the entire length of the league separated the Giants and Robins. Now they are side by side with the Robins in fifth place, not far behind their rivals from across the river. They have been faring better in the west. The White Sox 6 to 4 victory over the Athletics yesterday was the first game in the American League because of rain. It was the twelfth victory in fourteen starts this season for Ted Lyons, who won his own ball game with a triple in the eighth which broke a 4 to 4 deadlock and scored the winning runs.

DOUBT STORY THAT MCGRAW IS TO RETIRE

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, June 16.—Advises by New York newspapers from staff men with the Giants in St. Louis today cast doubt on a statement credited to John McGraw by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch to the effect that he would turn over the active management of the New York Giants to Rogers Hornsby after next season. The version of correspondents of New York papers is that McGraw said Hornsby would in all probability succeed him when he did retire.

Charles A. Stoneham, president of the Giants, after read the Post-Dispatch story, as carried by the Associated Press, said: "I telephoned Mr. McGraw in St. Louis. He denied having made any such statement. I can't understand it."

M. A. A. A. BASEBALL TEAM OF MONTREAL TO PLAY AT MAGOG SUNDAY

The followers of the Prue Cotton Company's baseball squad will be treated to what should be the best game of the season when the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association Baseball nine travel to Magog on Sunday for an exhibition tilt with the Textile outfit.

The M.A.A.A. known as the Winged Wheelers have got together the best team in years and under the management of Louis Dechesneav are at present sailing along in first place of the City Senior Amateur Baseball League in Montreal.

The Wheelers roster of players is composed of athletes who are star performers in many other branches of sport for the Winged Wheel organization. This galaxy of stars is alone worthy of a big turnout.

Sunday's team will be made up of the following: Manager Louis Dechesneav, last season manager of the M.A.A.A. senior rugby squad and junior hockey champions and for years a player of repute.

CELANESE DEFEATED BELOEIL

A very fast interesting game took place between Canadian Explosives of Drummondville, at Beloeil on Saturday, June 11th, which resulted in a three to one victory for the visitors.

Both teams were strongly represented and excellent work was the first to score, following a left wing movement. Celanese brightened up after this reverse for Davidson to secure the equalizer.

GOLF AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

PROPER BALANCE ARE CLOSELY RELATED

What are the points to follow in developing a good, sound, smashing drive?

By BOBBY CRUICKSHANK
Holder of Three Important Titles, 1927.

Making a good drive is one of the greatest pleasures a golfer derives from the game. Very few players are able to hit a ball with the greater part of their strength and still control the swing. Accurate and proper timing makes this possible for professionals and first-class amateurs, and the only way to get a smashing drive consistently is to time the shot properly.

Balance, of course, is another thing which counts greatly, and to have proper timing one must have perfect balance at the top of the backswing. Most professionals seem to be able to swing the club back in a careless manner, bring it down the same way, and still hit a fine ball. This is due, of course, to the development of their timing and balance powers.

Bobby Cruickshank

having plenty to do, and doing it well. The game gradually veered round however, and Celanese, after some nice forward passing, scored two goals in quick succession through Hallworth. With the Explosives defence cracking up, Celanese were attacking to the close of play, but were unable to increase their lead and the final three to one count for Celanese.

Y.M.C.A. TO PLAY EXHIBITION GAME WITH DRUMMONDVILLE.

All players and fans wishing to go are requested to be on hand at the Y.M.C.A. no later than one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

TERRIS TOOK DECISION IN DRAMATIC BOUT

Apparently Beaten, He Came Back and Beat Goldstein With Single Punch in First Round.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, June 16.—Rising from the resin dust of threatened defeat, groggy and sick after a right hand smash that dumped him for a count of nine, Sid Terris last night knocked out Rub Goldstein, rival for New York lightweight supremacy, with a single punch in the first round.

In the ring that reeked with drama, where Col. Charles A. Lindbergh had just made his bow to 40,000 fans of the Metropolis and from where it had been erroneously broadcast that Nungesser and Coli, French trans-Atlantic French aviators, had at last been found, Terris last night settled the question of superiority, gameness and punishing power with a single blow.

Ruby, with a weight advantage of five and a half pounds, danced about Terris at the start, jabbed him into position and laid his full weight of 138 1/2 pounds into a clashing right cross to the jaw. Terris went down, climbed to one knee and blinked dazedly across at his lean, quivering foe.

The timer tolled the count of nine, slow and measured and Terris climbed groggily to his feet as the huge assembly gathered to swell the fund of the Catholic Boys' Charities, stood and roared at the unexpectedness of an apparently decisive victory.

From down deep in the resin close to his heels, Terris lifted a light hand smash, a driving blow, that carried every ounce of his falling strength behind it.

The blow landed full on Goldstein's chin. As Ruby toppled to the floor his head banged on the canvas and he lay inert, first for ten seconds, then for a full minute as his seconds tried to lift him and carry him back to the corner. Goldstein was in no condition to leave the ring for several minutes.

Lindbergh came to see Ace Hudkins, the Nebraskan, in a claying match with Sammy Baker, soldier batter of Mitchell Field. Although he arrived to late, the flying ace was in time to see his western friend lose to Baker on a technical knockout in seven rounds.

WALKER IS HARD ON SPARRING PARTNERS

LONDON, June 16.—So great is the wear and tear on Mickey Walker's sparring partners that he has had fourteen since he started intensive training on an island in the Thames a few days ago.

Walker, world's middleweight champion from America, meets Tommy Milligan, of England, here on June 30.

Walker knocked out four sparring partners in one afternoon.

BAKER KNOCKED OUT HUCKINS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Sammy Baker, of New York, technically knocked out Ace Hudkins, of Nebraska, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten round bout here last night.

Those present at the meeting were Messrs. J. B. Travers, O. C. Smith, J. R. Gregoire and A. A. Stewart, representing Granby; J. P. L. Stewart and W. J. H. McKindsey, Lennoxville; E. Curley, Knowlton, and Gordon Miller, Sherbrooke. (Additional sport on page 11.)

Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong,

A NEW SERIES OF INTER-CLUB GOLF MATCHES

To Be Played Under Same System as Ryder Cup Contests—Schedule and Rules Decided Upon.

With Sherbrooke Country Club, Lennoxville, Granby and Knowlton entered, and the possibility that Dufferin Heights and Drummondville will also compete, preliminary plans were drawn up at a meeting at the New Sherbrooke last night for the local district in the Province of Quebec Golf Association competitive tournament. The P.Q.G.A. this year divided the province into sections for inter-club matches, the idea being to arouse more interest in competitive team play. Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Hermitage (Magog), Stanstead (Dufferin Heights), Drummondville, Granby and Knowlton clubs were placed in the group known as district six. However, the Hermitage Club informed the officials that they were unable to enter a team, while definite replies have not been received to date from Dufferin Heights and Drummondville.

The rules of the tourney call for inter-club matches under much the same system as the Ryder Cup matches between Great Britain and United States are played, and a meeting of the Eastern Townships' clubs included in district six was held last night to draw up their programme. It was decided that a team will be composed of eight players, with four reserves, and no substitutes can be played once a team is nominated. Eight single matches will be played on one course, while the return match will consist of two ball foursomes. A win in the singles will count one point and a victory in the foursome two points, the total points in the two matches to decide the victors, the ultimate winners to be decided by the process of elimination.

It was also decided that a player can play for only one team, that all members of the teams must be bona fide residents of the Eastern Townships and must have been members of the club for which they are playing for a period of ninety days before the tourney opens. Clubs also must line up their teams in the order of strength according to the players' handicaps.

The first round in the series in this district will find Country Club (Sherbrooke) playing Lennoxville, Sherbrooke winning the toss to name whether the singles or foursomes will be played on their course; while Granby and Knowlton will play off. The winners of the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville match will then play Dufferin Heights, if that club decides to enter the tourney; while the victors of the Granby-Knowlton contest will next meet Drummondville, provided the latter club enters. The winners of this latter series will then clash for the trophy offered by the P.Q.G.A.

The first matches must be played before or on July 18, and the second series before or on August 8th, while the final match time limit date will shortly be decided.

Those present at the meeting were Messrs. J. B. Travers, O. C. Smith, J. R. Gregoire and A. A. Stewart, representing Granby; J. P. L. Stewart and W. J. H. McKindsey, Lennoxville; E. Curley, Knowlton, and Gordon Miller, Sherbrooke. (Additional sport on page 11.)

WHO'S WHO IN THE STORY

SALLY LINGFIELD, dancer at the Faun, a London night club.

JOSH AKERS, a waiter, with whom Sally was once in love.

OPPY, Sally's room-mate, another dancer at the Faun.

PHILIP SANDERSON, young man of wealth, who early one morning, when drunk, runs over Sally, badly injuring her. Sanderson loves Sally.

SOMETIMES, Sanderson's dog.

MRS. KIFF, his landlady.

Josh Akers, hearing of Sally's probable permanent injury, says he is through with her. Sanderson assumes her care, and establishes her in a cottage with Mrs. Kiff in the country. There she meets and falls in love with GARRY NAIRN, the "son of a gun." Sanderson, wretched because she prefers Garry to him, takes her to London for an operation which may restore her health. Garry goes, too, and meets Josh Akers, who says something insinuating about Sally's past. So Garry runs away, with only an inadequate written letter to Sally. Sally comes through the operation wonderfully. She goes back to the cottage and gradually finds herself able to walk more and more.

CHAPTER XL

A Promise

Sally and Philip Sanderson were back in the little sitting room then, and Sally was crying for sheer joy and excitement.

"I walked all alone, didn't I? Nobody helped me, not a step?"

"You did indeed, my dear."

"And tomorrow I shall be able to walk further still, shall I? Oh, Philip, I know you think I'm silly, but if you'd been on your back as long as I have you'd be silly, too."

"I don't think you're silly. I'm as proud and excited as you are. I'm as proud as if it had been myself."

"And some day I shall be able to run, shall I?" she went on, heedless of his words. "Run downhill like other girls, and perhaps dance, and then—"

"And then?"

"And then I suppose you'll want to leave me—eh?" His voice was harsh with pain.

Sally sat very still, her slender hands, which had grown so white and what she loved to call "refined-looking" during the past weeks, tearing at her handkerchief. For some moments she did not speak. Her blue eyes were fixed on the little garden outside, where the setting sun was making long shadows across the tiny lawn and flower borders, and though she looked at the roses, she saw only a broad-shouldered man with crinkling red hair and a boyish smile who came no more, and for a moment her face looked old and pinched with the pain of memory; then with a mighty effort she forced the thought of Garry Nairn from her and turned to Philip.

"I shall never leave you—never—unless you want me to," she said earnestly.

"Sally!"

He was down on his knees beside her, a clumsy giant in the tiny room, his arms around her, his face hidden against her shoulder.

"Don't leave me, Sally. You're everything in my world. Stay with me, my dear. Let me look after you always. I love you so."

She raised one hand and touched his hair—the dark hair that had lately turned so much more grey.

"Poor Philip!" she whispered, and then again, with a little sigh, "Poor Philip!" Then suddenly she laughed with a ring of her old elfish chuckle. "Won't there be a scandal, now I can walk, if I go on living here with you?"

Philip looked up.

"As my wife, Sally?" he said.

"Your wife?" She drew away from him with a little shiver, and then, quick to read the mortification in his eyes, she took his hand between both hers and squeezed it hard.

"Do you still really want to marry me?"

"You know I do."

"I shall be horrid to you sometimes."

"He smiled grimly.

"Worse than you have ever been?"

"She sighed.

"I used to be awful, didn't I?"

"Pretty fierce."

She laughed a little, and then grew grave again.

"I shall never be quite like that any more, I think. You see—"

She knitted her brows as if in perplexity at herself.

"I've changed so much, Philip."

"Have you, my dear?"

Sally nodded.

Philip clasped and unclasped his big hand about hers. — there's a little church in the village, you know. I hate registry offices. Gloomy—nothing happy about them—and old Nairn's little church—"

"Not!" said Sally sharply.

That little church was so full of memories of Garry; she felt that she could never walk up its aisle to marry Philip Sanderson, no matter how strong and well she grew.

"What does it matter where we are married?" Sally insisted. "Isn't one place as good as another? You always used to say you hated churches and narrows."

"Perhaps I've changed," Philip put her gently from him and rose to his feet, his head nearly touching the sloping ceiling. Instinct told him what was the cause of her objection to the little church, and it was as if someone had wiped the happiness from his heart.

Sally looked at him silently for a moment, then she held out her hand. "Come here, Philip."

"Well?"

"Come here, and don't scowl."

"I am here."

"You're not near enough. I want to touch you."

He moved a little closer, and she clasped her hand around his wrist. "Have the Guards retired, Philip?" she asked laughingly.

Then Philip laughed, too. He drew himself stiffly to attention and saluted.

"The Guards never retire," he said solemnly.

"Tomorrow—Sally's Wish."

AMATEUR HEADS MANY ATTEND LIST IN U.S. OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

Hunt for Title Honors Regarded as Anybody's Race When Play Was Resumed This Morning.

(Associated Press Despatch)

OAKMONT, Pa., June 16.—Two amateur golfers were warily watched by a score of professionals as the final thirty-six holes of the United States open started today. Harrison "Jimmy" Johnston led the field of sixty-two survivors with a score of 147, compiled through the combination of 73 in the rain and mist under a shining sun. Harrison is a Minneapolis amateur.

The other amateur in which professional interest was being shown is Robert T. Jones, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., present title holder in the United States and Great Britain, resting at the start of the third round in a tie for tenth place with a score of 153 for thirty-six holes. The champion was not expected to remain so far down the list, and although he was six strokes behind the leader, he was still regarded as a menace to the hopes of his fellow amateurs and the professionals who are still within range of the goal, should fortune smile today.

Just behind Johnston was Gene Sarazen with 148 and Tommy Armour, another stroke back. Walter Hagen and Harry Cooper were in a tie at 150, and Harry Hampton stood next at 151. Bobby Jones, Archie Compston, Great Britain's only representative among the first dozen, "Long Jim" Barnes and Eddie Loos were tied with 153, just behind Bill Mehlhorn, Fred Baroni and Leo Diegel.

The hunt for title honors was regarded as anybody's race when the first pair started out on the long double grind soon after breakfast. Predictions were freely made that 29 would be good enough to win, with a possibility that 300 might decide the issue.

Brisk, clear weather prevailed today for the final 36 holes of play. The fairways were springy and the greens fast as lightning.

LADIES PLAYING SEMI-FINALS TODAY

MONTREAL, Que., June 16.—Semi-finals in the ladies' provincial golf championship will be played over the Marlborough course this morning and two stubborn battles are anticipated, if the contestants maintain the form they have shown in the earlier rounds played this week. In the upper bracket Miss Helen Paget, defending champion from the Royal Ottawa Club, meets Miss Ruth Wilson, the petite young golfer from Royal Montreal, whose game has been one of the bright spots of this year's championship competitions. In the second semi-final, Mrs. Maude Ross, Royal Ottawa, meets Eileen Kinsella, of the Senneville Country Club. Both Mrs. Ross and Miss Kinsella are golfers of wide tournament experience, both have been at the top of their game this week, and a keen struggle between them is certain.

The only Eastern Townships representative left in the tourney yesterday was eliminated when Mrs. A. A. Stewart, of the Granby Golf Club, lost out in the second round of the second flight to Miss P. Abbott, of Beaufortville, by four and two.

CONVENTION OF QUEBEC W.I.

History of Handicrafts Guild, Formed to Meet Crisis, Outlined by Mrs. John Savage.

(Associated Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, Que., June 16.—With over one hundred delegates and a large number of visitors present, the Quebec Women's Institutes opened their fourteenth annual meeting at Macdonald College on Tuesday. Mrs. Tyson Robinson occupying the chair. Greetings from the Cercles des Femmes were brought to the convention by Mlle Durand, on behalf of A. Desilets, who was unable to be present on account of illness. Mlle Durand pointed to the similarity of the work done by the Cercles des Femmes and the institutes as an indication that both French and English women of Canada were striving with a common aim of serving their country. G. Putnam brought greetings from Ontario institutes.

The feature of the evening was the address on handicrafts given by Mrs. John Savage, of the technical committee of the Canadian Handicrafts Guild. Mrs. Savage summarized her audience at once to realize the vital place of handicrafts in civilization, claiming that every nation at its best had had a fine standard of craft. In Egypt, Syria, Persia, India, she traced the arts of weaving, carving and dyeing, and she appealed especially to her audience by the mention of Cashmere, where the peasant, looking down from the hills on the valleys and winding streams, wove into his loom the exquisite design of the Cashmere shawl.

Mrs. Savage contributed an unusually cheerful note in the ominous gloom of prevailing discussion on immigration when she stressed Canada's debt of gratitude to these foreigners, who contribute their crafts to the art of the new country. In a peroration, artistically keeping with her subject, the speaker said that the things made by hand in Canada would be real Canadian art, although it branded itself with no special name or "school"; for, as the Cashmere shawl, with its soft colors, gave to posterity the beauty of the valleys of Cashmere, so would these Canadian crafts, embody the clear, brilliant spirit of Canada's shining snows, great planes and mighty waters. "I visualize Canada with fine cities of shapely buildings and people healthy and happy because they find expression for the best of their ideas," she concluded.

Assuring you, Madame, of my best support, I beg to remain, yours very truly, CHAS. DE L. MIGNAULT, Sherbrooke, June 14th, 1927.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

FRENCH SECTION OF SHERBROOKE MEN'S COMMITTEE

The French section of the men's committee for the Red Cross campaign is beginning work under the capable leadership of Messrs. C. L. Migneault, J. O. Darche, E. A. Bernard, J. A. Metivier, C. Picard, L. P. St. Jean and Gedeon Nadeau. The work has been laid out and is being energetically undertaken by these gentlemen.

THE DAILY TEA

During the Red Cross campaign those interested are reminded that tea is being served daily at the Red Cross rooms, Whiting Block, from four to six o'clock. This is being undertaken by the Mothers' Auxiliary of the second troupe of Boy Scouts.

COMMENDS RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Mrs. C. H. Bowen, Sherbrooke, Que.

Dear Madame:—It is with great pleasure that I accept to take part in the campaign to raise funds for the Canadian Red Cross. It is the first time since the war that the Red Cross appeals to the public for the financial support that will allow it to proceed with the task it has undertaken. We have been inclined to assume that its activities had ceased with the Armistice; yet, since the war, it has performed a work of immeasurable national value.

Not only has the Canadian Red Cross cared for disabled soldiers, soldier settlers and other veterans, but the Red Cross has carried a regular peace-time programme, in accordance with the covenant of the League of Nations, in promoting organizations for the purpose of the improvement of health. The usually cheerful note in the ominous gloom of prevailing discussion on immigration when she stressed Canada's debt of gratitude to these foreigners, who contribute their crafts to the art of the new country.

In a peroration, artistically keeping with her subject, the speaker said that the things made by hand in Canada would be real Canadian art, although it branded itself with no special name or "school"; for, as the Cashmere shawl, with its soft colors, gave to posterity the beauty of the valleys of Cashmere, so would these Canadian crafts, embody the clear, brilliant spirit of Canada's shining snows, great planes and mighty waters. "I visualize Canada with fine cities of shapely buildings and people healthy and happy because they find expression for the best of their ideas," she concluded.

Assuring you, Madame, of my best support, I beg to remain, yours very truly, CHAS. DE L. MIGNAULT, Sherbrooke, June 14th, 1927.

EXPLANATION OF MOTOR LAW IS RECEIVED

Mr. J. C. McConnell, Secretary of Sherbrooke Auto Club, Informed of Value of New Act by Mr. J. A. Begin, Comptroller of Provincial Revenue—Is Expected to Check Auto Thieves—Lower Rates of Insurance Expected.

The recently adopted Motor Vehicle Ownership Rights' Act, at present enforced throughout the Province of Quebec, has caused much misunderstanding among motorists, who were not aware of the purpose of this regulation. In view of this fact, Mr. J. C. McConnell, secretary of the Sherbrooke Auto Club, wrote to Mr. J. A. Begin, comptroller of provincial revenue, asking an explanation of the recent enforcement and received the following reply:

Mr. J. C. McConnell, Sherbrooke, Que.

Dear Sir:—It is the wish of the Honorable the Provincial Treasurer that some explanations be given to you concerning the advantages of the Motor Vehicle Ownership Rights' Act, which is now being enforced throughout the province.

It has been considered that the automobile representing a value in many cases equal to that of real estate, it is important that the titles thereto be registered.

The main advantage derived from the enforcement of this act is the suppression of automobile thefts to a large extent. The automobile thief does not steal cars for the purpose of using them himself, but to sell them. If we prevent the sale, by warning intending purchasers against buying without exacting titles, the reason for stealing cars will be eliminated.

This act is also sufficient protection for the purchaser, inasmuch as he is assured that he will not be annoyed after the purchase, if proper titles to the machine, which he buys, are furnished at the time of the sale.

Manufacturers and dealers are very much in favor of this law. The dealer is particularly anxious that it be strictly enforced. It is a custom in the trade to take old cars in exchange when selling new ones. It will be adequate protection for the purchasers of these cars to have the titles of ownership thereto transferred to them at the time of the purchase.

The insurance people are looking very favorably towards this law, and the car owners will benefit by it through a reduction in the rates. It is not a long time since this law was put into force, and the department has already over two thousand new cars registered. As you know this applies only to the new cars, so that in four or five years from now all the cars will practically have been registered.

The charges made for the inspection and the administration of the law are not considered a revenue for the province, because they are hardly sufficient to meet the expenses of the administration of the law.

When our registration law in regard to real estate was passed there must have been some criticism as to its application, but none of us would now blame that law when they are buying a piece of land and they know that there is a Registry Office, a successive chain of titles from the Crown to themselves.

This law regarding the titles to motor vehicles is looked upon in the same light by the people who own motor cars as the registration law in regard to real estate is looked upon by the people who own real estate.

You will notice that this law is divided in two parts. The first part applies to new cars bought since its sanction, and the second part applies to all cars which have been here for some time, but whose numbers of identification have been altered, after the car has been stolen.

I am enclosing herewith three copies of the Motor Vehicle Ownership Rights' Act, together with a circular which is sent to purchasers of new cars, calling their attention to the necessity of registering the titles thereto.

What our inspector is doing at the present time is the putting into force of the first part, that is the registration of titles to new cars.

Yours very truly, J. A. BEGIN, Comptroller of Provincial Revenue.

PLAN FLIGHT FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO HONOLULU

(Associated Press Despatch)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 16.—A flight from San Francisco to Honolulu within two weeks is planned by Ernest L. Smith, of San Francisco, with Captain G. H. Carter, of Los Angeles, as navigator. Backers of Smith, who is a commercial air pilot, announced yesterday that a six-passenger monoplane had been purchased and that as soon as a motor could be installed and the plane pronounced trustworthy he would hop off.

Smith and Carter would not be eligible for the $25,000 prize offer if they leave before August 12. The pilot is 34 years old. He entered the University of California in 1917, but quit his course to enlist in the aviation corps of the army. Since leaving the army he has carried the air mail, engaged in stunt flying and earned national fame.
