(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, December 10.—Prime Minister Baldwin stated in the House of Commons today that the sub-committee of the cabinet, after examining all the evidence put before it, had come to the unanimous conclusion that there was no doubt the Zinovieff propaganda letter was authentic.

AMUSING DILEMMA OVER DISPOSITION OF LADY ASTOR'S PORTRAIT

LONDON, Dec. 10.—An amusing dilemma has arisen over the disposition of Lady Astor's portrait, which hangs on one of the staircases of the House of Commons. The picture was presented to Parliament by Lord Astor, with the approval of a former government, but Parliament has found that it is "undesirable as a matter of principle" that pictures or statues of living persons should be displayed there.

During the controversy, which lasted for some weeks, the picture was covered with cloth and it still hangs under this shroud, neither Lord Astor nor the first Commissioner of Works, Lord Peel, being willing to remove it. Lord Astor says it is not at his disposal, as it was accepted by the Commissioner of Works of the late Conservative Government, while Lord Peel says he has no authority to dispose of it and nowhere to send it.

(Associated Press Despatch)
STATEVILLE, Ill., Dec. 10.—Leo Koretz, serving a sentence of from one to ten years for swindling, in connection with the promotion of a phantom Panama oil scheme in which relatives and friends invested $2,000,000, has been made a prison "white wing." He will police the yard of the state penitentiary for bits of paper and rubbish.

Warden Whitman assigned him to the job when informed by prison physicians that the fresh air would be beneficial to the chronic diabetic.

Three Canadian Sects Join In New National Church

REV. J. W. G. WARD

REV. C. MACKINNON

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 10.—The first step towards the creation of the "United Church of Canada" has been taken.

Under act of Parliament all Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches in the Dominion are at liberty to say whether they will join the union or remain outside. Those who do not vote at all will be regarded as favoring it.

Six months hence—next June 10—the act of Parliament with regard to property rights and incorporation will come into force.

The movement dates back to 1889, when the general assembly of the Presbyterian church appointed a committee to confer with other evangelical churches looking toward consolidation. Nineteen years later a definite plan was drawn up, submitted and approved. But the war delayed proceedings and it was not until this year that an enabling act could be passed.

Why They're Doing It.
The reasons for the union are broadly given as follows:
To eliminate wasteful duplication in mission fields at home and abroad.
To eliminate the strife and dissensions between sects of the Christian Church which converts find it difficult to understand.
To effect economies in administration, especially in sparsely settled districts.
To put the administration of these churches on a sound footing.

The policy of the new church is Presbyterian in origin. There will be a series of graded courts composed of an equal number of lay and ministerial members. First there will be the session in the congregation, then the presbytery with jurisdiction over districts and next the conference. Above his there will be special courts meeting annually, such as the general council, the highest court and the supreme governing body.

Any church choosing to dissent after December 10 may retain its congregational property. If a group of dissenters organizes a new church a share of the property of the united church will be allotted them. As a general rule all property will go with its parent church into the union.

Their Total Strength.
A commission, consisting of three members from the united church and three from a conference of non-concurring congregations and six more chosen by them both, will sit within nine months from June 10 to determine what share of the property shall be retained by non-concurring congregations.

The relative strength of the three uniting churches, according to the Dominion census of 1911, follows:
TOTAL MEMBERSHIP—Congregational, 30,574; Methodist, 1,158,744; Presbyterian, 1,408,812.
CHURCH MEMBERSHIP—Congregational, 12,762; Methodist, 407,264; Presbyterian, 369,939.
SUNDAY SCHOOL MEMBERSHIP—Congregational, 11,132; Methodist, 470,000; Presbyterian, 392,942.
DONATIONS (1923)—Congregational, $329,821; Methodist, $9,209,275; Presbyterian, $9,187,512.
PROPERTY VALUE—Congregational, $2,189,000; Methodist, $57,773,010; Presbyterian, $4,268,074.

SLIDING IS TO BE TOLERATED IN SOME SECTIONS; COUNCIL ENDORSE MOVE TO PROHIBIT SUNDAY LABOR

City Council at Last Night's Meeting Definitely Decided that Soldiers' Monument Will Be Placed on King Street West—Children in West and East Wards to Enjoy Sliding Without Fear of the Police—Other Sections Likely to Secure the Same Facilities—Objections Raised to City Employees Working on Sundays and Holidays—Sunday Observance League Secures Approval of Petition—Alderman Crepeau's Resignation Held in Abeyance—By-Law to Suppress Sensational and Immoral Advertising—Power Company Was Criticized.

ANTICIPATED discussions were conspicuous by their absence at last night's session of the City Council, yet a large amount of business was disposed of under circumstances which justified the contention that old time troubles have been relegated to a secondary position and that city business now has preference in all things.

The outstanding discussion, although there was little difference of opinion, centered around a petition asking the City Council to endorse a resolution to the Provincial Government prohibiting work on Sundays, unless same be urgent and essential.

Ald. Langis was opposed to passing any resolution of such nature, contending that it might lead to more drastic measures and encroach on the liberty enjoyed in this Province. Ald. Labrecque took the opportunity of drawing the Council's attention to the fact that a number of city employees were kept at work on Sundays and religious holidays, and asked that this work be prohibited in future unless same was strictly essential. A resolution favoring the petition was subsequently adopted.

Sliding on City Streets.

Police tolerance with regard to children sliding on certain streets was unofficially approved of by the Council last night, following the discussion of a petition, presented by Ald. Houlahan, in which residents of St. Martin Street asked that the children of the vicinity be allowed to slide without fear of molestation on the part of the authorities. It was pointed out that there was little traffic at this point. Ald. Bourque asked that the same privileges be extended to the children on second avenue. The Council then decided to refer the matter back to the police committee.

Other important matters disposed of included the definite location of a soldiers' monument on King Hill West, and the decision to have a general store room on St. Gabriel Street. Alderman resignations were not discussed, although a letter was received from Ald. A.C. Crepeau, stating he would like to resign, effective January 1st. The resignation will be dealt with at the next meeting of the Council.

Power Company Criticized.

Ald. Labrecque touched upon the advisability of putting a few loads of stone on certain streets even if they were not homologated, particular reference being made to Federal Street. He observed that under present conditions it was often necessary for teams to cross sidewalks and for pedestrians to wallow in the mud. The Southern Canada Power Company, Limited, came in for criticism with Ald. Langis in the vanguard. The Councilors were unanimous in stating that the company had made very unsatisfactory efforts to meet their obligations. Ald. Tetreault pointed out that, with the exception of a little work in the west ward, nothing had been done.

Ald. Langis—"We should cut the wires and you would see we would get a settlement within two weeks."

Regrets Omission From King's Speech Of Reference To Any Effort By Government To Deal With The Inter-Allied Debts

Premier Baldwin Pledged Himself to Refrain from Bringing Forward Policy of Protection—Labor Party to Introduce Amendment "Regretting the Policy that is Being Pursued by His Majesty's Advisers With Regard to Egypt and Russia."

LONDON, December 10.—The new Parliament, destined for a long legislative life, lent its ears to the party leaders yesterday after learning from the King's address some of the things the Conservative Government intends to do. Shortly after His Majesty had ceremoniously opened Parliament, the Prime Minister, Stanley Baldwin, with two-thirds of the Commons back of him, told the House what his Government aims to accomplish.

When the Premier had done talking, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and Mr. Lloyd George, the leaders of the Labor and Liberal minorities, respectively proceeded to tell the Cabinet ministers and their Conservative colleagues some of the things they thought the Government ought and ought not to do.

So far as the House of Commons itself is concerned, there is little time to do anything this year except talk, as Parliament will begin its long Christmas recess a week from Friday and the members will remain away from Westminster until February 10th. One of the questions which will be discussed in Parliament very soon is the subject of international debts. The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Winston Spencer Churchill, will have his say on the matter of these debts next week.

Inter-Allied Debts.

Mr. Lloyd George remarked yesterday that he regretted the omission from the King's speech of any reference to any effort by the Government to deal with the inter-allied debts. He argued that Great Britain had borrowed from the United States only because her Allies needed the money, and now Great Britain was paying her debts, and not one of her debtors was paying her. This country, he went on, was the heaviest taxed nation in the world. He asked if it was taking part in the negotiations going on between France and the United States in regard to the French debt. He knew it was a very unpleasant matter to ask one's friends to pay their debts, but he added, "United States never hesitated a moment to call upon this country to pay."

Stand Not Likely To Be Criticized.

Foreign affairs will be taken up by Parliament probably at considerable length upon the return of Austen Chamberlain, the Foreign Secretary, from Rome. The Government's recent action in Egypt is not likely, it would seem from the tone of yesterday's speeches, to be criticized to any great extent except by the laborites.

Labor to Move Amendment.

The parliamentary labor party has decided to move an amendment to the King's Speech, "regretting the policy that is being pursued by His Majesty's advisers with regard to Egypt and Russia."

Whole Question Of North African Coast Discussed-- Plan Friendly Collaboration

Was No Talk of Equilibrium of Mediterranean, But Only of Friendly Collaboration—Conversations Between English, French and Italian Representatives to be Continued.

ROME, Dec. 10.—The British Foreign Secretary, Austen Chamberlain, received Italian newspapermen at the British Embassy last evening and, during the course of the conversation, it transpired that the former, in previous talks with Premier Herriot, of France, and Premier Mussolini, of Italy, had discussed not only the Moroccan problem, but the whole question of the North African coast.

The Premier said that he hoped to discuss inter-allied debts next week, and that Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, would participate in the discussion.

The British industries affected by the Dawes report, he said, were being closely watched, as well as (Continued on Page 9.)

Much More Effective When Freshly Made At Home

When you feel a sore throat coming on—or the tonsils get inflamed—or someone at home gets a cramp—a good, old-fashioned mustard plaster gives quick, healthy relief. In cases of neuritis, neuralgia, rheumatism and even as an emergency treatment for pneumonia, a mustard plaster does a lot of good.

It seems hardly worth while to bother with messy, sticky ointments which contain only a small quantity of the oil of mustard, extracted from the mustard seeds. Such ointments are either too weak to give very prompt relief or very so much that they cannot be depended on.

The same dry mustard you use for cooking makes the best mustard plaster. It is always the same in strength and it sets promptly and effectively with flour, or linseed meal to make a mustard plaster. It is mixed with hot water for a mustard foot bath, or for acute indigestion and also for croup in children.

In addition to the agent, some of the local swimmers donned the suit and entered the water, floating comfortably on it. An interested crowd watched those brave enough to enter the icy lake.

It is hard to keep them from taking cold; they will run out of doors not properly clad, or have on too much clothing; play too hard and get overheated, and cool off too suddenly; get their feet wet; kick off the bed clothes at night, and do a dozen things the mother can't prevent.

REOPENING OF HIGH SCHOOL AT WATERVILLE

School Ranks Among First Three in Province—List of Prize Winners Announced.

WATERVILLE, Que., Dec. 10.—The reopening of the high school took place on November 28 in the town hall, which was crowded for the occasion. As usual, an excellent programme was presented by the school. The different items on the programme were well rendered, but perhaps a feature of the programme was the way in which the pupils of the first and second grades took their parts, also the "Dairy Maid's Drill" was much enjoyed.

In opening the evening's entertainment the chairman, Mr. F. G. Gale, mentioned that the Waterville high school as a result of the last year's work had made a tremendous advance among the high schools of the province, and now ranked among the first three of the province so far as the government examinations determined. Another feature of the programme was the presentation of three memorial pictures by the members of the local chapter of the I.O.D.E., thus again showing their interest in the high school. Last spring the I.O.D.E. presented the high school with a beautiful flag.

Mr. Hatcher, superintendent of the Sherbrooke high school, was presented and delivered an excellent address. Mr. Hatcher was somewhat critical of the present course of study and believed that it might be altered so as to be better adapted to the needs of the great majority of the pupils in fitting them for the practical duties of citizenship and of life. Mr. Hatcher's remarks were especially practical and helpful as regards the conduct of the school, considering the parents, principal and pupils in co-operation to secure the best results.

The staff consists of Mr. A. E. Bartlett, principal; Miss M. Taylor, Miss H. G. Kerr, Miss L. Stewart and Mr. L. Massicot.

The programme was as follows: Opening remarks, chairman; school chorus, "Soldiers of the King"; recitation, Mildred Smith, "Caleb's Courtship"; piano solo, Frances Ayer; Mother Goose dialogue; chorus, "If Winter Comes"; address, Mr. Hatcher; vocal solo, Miss Gladys Swanson; recitation, Bobby Baglow, "Little Mister Mischief"; piano duet, Muriel Johnson and Jean Gerrard; Dairy Maid's Drill; French chorus, "Alouette"; presentation of pictures; school chorus, "Rule Britannia"; distribution of prizes, God Save the King.

The Brownleigh Y. P. Society held their regular meeting on Friday evening, November 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown. Quite a few members and many visitors were present. Games were played and refreshments were served. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the host and hostess for their kind hospitality. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, on December 12th.

Mr. James Kenny of Ottawa, states very clearly the advantages of Carnol taken for stomach trouble, when he says—"No man or woman can be strong who suffers from stomach trouble and its associated troubles, indigestion and impaired nutrition. When the stomach is weak there is loss of nutrition from food, and food is the source of all physical strength. When a man, woman or child doesn't feel just right, doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, my advice is to take Carnol and get relief. If nervous or despondent and losing the nutrition to make strength, such a man or woman needs Carnol. It will do for you as it has done for me and many others, restore you to natural health and happiness."

Mr. Kenny then goes on to say,—"I have been suffering from a bad case of nervousness and stomach trouble for two years. I suffered so bad that my hands and lips used to swell. I had a bad breath, couldn't eat, couldn't sleep, felt doped all the time. Even my sight failed and I had to pay fifteen dollars for glasses in order to continue my daily work. I had nearly every known medicine and only got relief for a while. I was just about discouraged when a few months ago, health knocked at my door with one of your little books on Carnol. I decided to try a bottle. I bought three more bottles. After taking half of the first bottle my coughing and spitting lessened and had breath disappeared. I am now on my fourth bottle and feel like a new man. I have thrown off my glasses, have no pains or headaches and can do a day's work with any man. Have a good appetite, eat any old thing and sleep well. Before taking Carnol I was so cross and cranky I could not make any friends. I was called the crank, but now I am always ready for entertainment and fun. Carnol cannot be recommended too highly as I have spent hundreds of dollars on different medicines only getting temporary relief. I gladly say that the four dollars I spent for Carnol was the best investment I ever made."—John Kenny, 158 Isabella Street, Ottawa, Ont.

75% of disease avoided through internal cleanliness

When you are constipated, poisons are formed in the accumulated food waste, and reach all parts of the body. The first results, headaches, biliousness, a feeling of "heaviness", etc., serve as warnings of graver diseases to follow if this intestinal poisoning continues unchecked.

This is why intestinal specialists state that constipation is the primary cause of three-quarters of all illness, including the gravest diseases of life.

Physicians Advise Lubrication for Internal Cleanliness

Medical science has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste, and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Thus, Nujol brings internal cleanliness.

Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water, it is harmless. Take Nujol regularly and adopt this habit of internal cleanliness. For sale by all druggists.

FAREWELL SERVICE TO S.A. COMMANDERS

A large gathering, composed of members of the local corps and interested friends, were present last evening at the special service held in the Salvation Army Citadel as an official farewell to Adjutant and Mrs. Martin, commanders of the local army for the past two years and three months.

During the farewell meeting many testimonials were given regarding the benefits received through the administration of Adjutant and Mrs. Martin, and registration was made by seekers for the higher life. Rev. Dr. Read was present and voiced his own appreciation of the warm friendship and Christian spirit shown by the commanding officers during their term of service in Sherbrooke.

After the farewell addresses by Adjutant and Mrs. Martin, the meeting closed with the singing of "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Previous to the meeting the soldiers and adherents sat down to an excellent repast, served in the lower hall by the ladies.

The work that has been done during Adjutant and Mrs. Martin's stay in Sherbrooke speaks for itself, and it adds weight to the many expressions of appreciation from those who are in a position to know of the excellent service given by them.

The local membership has been doubled, and the attendance at services has increased accordingly. The band has been organized and equipped at a cost of sixteen hundred dollars, and visits have been made by the band to the Sherbrooke Hospital on Sunday mornings for the past two years, where services were held for the comfort of the patients.

The Sunday School has been enlarged to twice its original size, also a fine library has been established. The annual self-denial campaign has been increased from $1,500 to $2,300 and the circulation of the "War Cry" has advanced over one hundred and twenty-five per cent.

The annual fund from Christmas serenading has increased from $125 to $500, and in connection with this fund a separate one has been established to provide for Christmas cheer and winter relief work. Fifty families have been cared for annually through this line of work. This year the third Christmas tree for poor children will be given, and it is hoped that this feature, introduced by the retiring officers, will continue as a monument to their de-

Christmas Sale in Douglas Hall
The ladies of the Methodist Church held their annual Christmas sale in Douglas Hall yesterday afternoon, and in spite of somewhat inclement weather conditions achieved both a financial and social success. At a long table covered with fancy work, aprons and articles designed specially for the Christmas trade, the ladies in charge were Mrs. J. A. Seale, Mrs. Calvin Sterling and Mrs. Munroe. The food table was supervised by Mrs. W. J. Martin, Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. McKee. The Philanthropic Class of the Sunday School had a fancy work table in charge of members of the class, and the C.G. I.T. group sold home-made candy articles from a Christmas tree, under the supervision of Mrs. Roy Jones. The guests were received by Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. C. E. White and served with afternoon tea by Mrs. W. J. Lane, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Lipsy, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Titcomb, Mrs. C. G. Greene, Miss Gwendoline Matthews and others. Downs, who acted as cashier, reported good financial returns, and the proceeds will be applied to the work of the Ladies' Aid.

General Notes

Mrs. W. A. Bown entertained at bridge at her home on Saturday evening, about thirty being present. Six tables were made up and the first prize was won by Mrs. M. Bayne, Mrs. J. G. Watson taking the consolation prize. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social evening enjoyed.

Mrs. David Harrison, who underwent a serious operation at the Montreal General Hospital yesterday, is making satisfactory progress, according to reports received.

Work in Sherbrooke.
The religious work has been carried on in a way that has made lasting impressions, and it is considered that the work at the Penitent Form has been of great importance.

Capt. Lloyd Brown, of the Ottawa Men's Social work, was appointed some time ago to assist Adjutant and Mrs. Martin, and he will remain here for the present. Capt. and Mrs. Bell are expected to arrive on Thursday.

Adjutant and Mrs. Martin will leave tomorrow and the best wishes of all who have known these officers, have worked with and under them, accompany them to their new field of labor in Montreal.

Y.M.C.A. BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Sherbrooke Young Men's Christian Association was held last night when, after routine business, reports were received on the different association activities.

Mr. C. K. Tate presented the boys' work report, indicating considerable activity with two billiard tournaments going on between junior and juvenile boys, and the organization of boys' groups for Bible study and other useful purposes.

The house committee report was given by Mr. G. S. Lathrop, in which the question was raised as to the necessity for getting new chairs. The matter was left in the hands of the house committee with power to act.

Mr. D. J. Salls gave the report on foreign work showing that over $550 had been raised for this and forwarded to the National Council. The secretary stated that it was hoped to raise at least another $50, a large amount of which was promised.

The report of the religious work committee was given by the general secretary, who outlined the plans of the committee for the coming season, with discussion groups meeting weekly and a mass meeting for men once a month.

The report was presented by Mr. G. S. Sampson, showing an attendance of 1,049 in gym classes during the month, which is the largest number on the records of the association. Beside the regular classes there have been the following groups taking advantage of the floor: Leaders' groups, C.S.E.T., C.G.I.T., and Gibbs Home, while large numbers of others, including Boy Scouts have had the privileges of the pool.

The membership report, given by Mr. C. K. Tate, indicated a membership at the end of November of 600. This was an increase of 86 over October, and 6 over November of last year.

The finance report, given by Mr. J. R. Sangster, indicated an income of $5,769 against $5,541 last year and an expenditure of $7,689 against $7,894 last year, which position was relatively the same as a year ago with somewhere around $250 in contributions due and $100 in memberships.

The general secretary's report indicated healthy conditions all around. He making special reference to the progress made in the boys' department and foreign work department, also to the visit of Mr. J. H. Geldart, one of our foreign work secretaries from China. On motion these reports were all adopted, after which some discussion took place on the suggestions in the general secretary's report for still greater activities in the Association programme.

The question of magazines for the Association was raised and some suggestions made regarding new magazines, after which the matter was referred to the social committee for consideration and action.

The question of activities on Christmas and New Year's Days was referred to different committees and action will be taken in the near future.

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Corner Children:
We were all sorry to see the snow go away, at least in the city. Perhaps there is some left in the country, but the hills around Sherbrooke look pretty bare.

LETTERS FROM THE CORNER FOLK.

Dear Uncle Jim:—
I go to school most every day, and am in grade four. Our teacher is Miss Ross and I like her very well. We have had three of our Christmas examinations, and I got 9 1/2 in my spelling. I am nine years old and I have two brothers. The youngest, Donald, is not three months old yet. I will close now.

Your niece,
Dorothy Alberta Gustin.
Ayer's Cliff.

Dear Uncle Jim:—
I haven't written to you for a long time so I thought I would write a few lines now. I go to school and am in grade five. My favorite study is drawing. May I join the Children's Cozy Corner, Uncle Jim? My teacher is Miss Cloutier. My sister Lillian and I have two miles to go to school. My mother, father, Lillian and I went out to a roof on Wednesday evening for a short time ago. We have two black kittens, named Blackie and Nigger, and we have a dog, Jack. I will close wishing the corner success.

Your niece,
ARDEL BEARD.

Dear Uncle Jim:—
It is fine today and there is quite a lot of snow on the ground. We built a snowhouse and put a roof on it. The birds are nearly all gone now. I saw a partridge's nest this year and it had nine little eggs in it, but only three eggs hatched out. There was a martin's nest at the corner of our house and it has been there for a number of years. There is another in an old stump in our orchard. As my letter is getting long I will close.

went after her.
Behind the old log beyond the brook Reddy panted and panted as if he never would breathe easily again. He trembled with weariness. He was safe now. Mrs. Reddy was fresh, and those dogs were tired. If she kept away from those hunters with terrible guns she would be quite safe. She had proved a true mate. She had saved Reddy's life. Reddy was thinking of this when, from the direction in which Mrs. Reddy had disappeared, there came the bang, bang of a terrible gun!

STOP BURNING MONEY!

This may seem an elaborate statement. Nevertheless, it is so that 9 out of every 10 heating plants or domestic furnaces are wasteful and extravagant on fuel. The average heating plant is less than 50% effective. This ineffectiveness is due in great part to lack of hot oxygen thoroughly diffused in the firebox. This condition doubles your coal bill, prevents complete combustion, increases your ashes, and gives one-half the heat you should have. There is a simple device that remedies this condition—that makes your furnace breathe, gives you quick, steady heat, reduces the coal bill 20 to 50%. This device is the Sherbrooke Fuel Saver, made in Sherbrooke.

REV. A. T. JONES ADDRESSED THE ROTARY CLUB

Used for His Text "Borrowing Business"—No Business Man Can Exist and Not Have Some Relations With Church.

Rev. A. T. Jones gave a very interesting address before the members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club last evening, when he used for his text, the words "Borrowing Business". In his opening remarks, Rev. Jones expressed pleasure in having the opportunity of speaking for the largest and oldest manufacturing concern in the world established in the year one, to make men. He stated that, as he was neither a politic leader nor a business man, but only a poor parson, he did not know that he had anything of value for a group of hard-headed business men, which he saw before him, but since God had honored him, he must talk whether he said anything or not. He went on to say that no business concern could exist and not have some relations with the church; and further emphasized the fact by quoting from one of the greatest financiers in America: "For any business man to ignore the Church or its influence would be as useless as to attempt to ignore the sex impulse, and the great physiological forces emanating therefrom."

"You business and professional men are interested in paying your debts, and having others do the same. But who in the final analysis pays his debts? We are borrowers all," remarked the speaker, "and are much like one of Dickens' characters in Copperfield, Micawber, who, owned Traddles £41 10 11½, and who, on leaving London said, 'To leave this metropolis and my friend Traddles without acquitting myself of the pecuniary part of this obligation would weigh upon my mind to an insupportable extent. I have therefore prepared for my friend, Mr. Thomas Traddles, and now hold in my hand a document that accomplishes the desired object. I beg to hand to my friend, Mr. Traddles, my I. O. U., for £41 10 11½, and I am happy to recover my moral dignity, and know that I can once more walk erect among my fellow men.'"

"Disciples of Micawber are we all. No wonder that the old prosimistic creed is widespread, that 'the world grows daily worse', when it is seen that we are all hopelessly drifting into debt through the inveterate habit of borrowing." The speaker went on to say that we start to borrow even before we are born, to make up the necessary equipment for the body, which our parents in their turn borrowed from the earth. The speaker said, "Our body is only a loan, not a gift, and as soon as we are done with it, we must hand it over for the Almighty holds the mortgage and takes on Micawber's I. O. U., for the amount.

"As soon as a man is born he is a beggar and goes through life grumbling because he has to pay taxes and the greater part of his income for the privilege of enjoying life, never giving a minute of thought to the men who risk their lives that he may live to enjoy these privileges. R. L. Stevenson says, 'although our purses are continually in our hands, the better part of service goes unwarded.'"

"Gentlemen," said the speaker, "unless we give back to the world something that costs, may be in blood, agony and tears, we shall not notice to quit find our cheque dishonored at the Bank, and leave without having discharged our honorable debts."

Richer and Fuller Life. The speaker went on to state that the tendency of civilization is toward a richer and fuller life, and that the present day clamoring about rights instead of duties; of emphasizing the distribution of wealth instead of its production, is anti-religious and savors too much of pig-tough philosophy. He said, "Men talk of over-production. When was there ever an over-production of the things men need?"

Rev. Mr. Jones remarked that to carry out the Rotary motto—"profit through service"—and to make the most of this present life, three things are necessary, namely: harmony, appropriation and ministrations. He said, "We must know how to harmonize with our surroundings and not go round with the blue devil whose creed is, 'Man is born to trouble.' Men of this type are a curse to the business, commercial and religious world. Two waves of sound clashing make noise, not music. To find the music of life we must harmonize, not clash.

"Talking of appropriation, the speaker said, 'In order to render service, we must be owners. But the real test of ownership is appropriation. It is said that, 'Having food and clothes, be content.' I am not content with food and clothing only. However, I got a glimpse of this fact that I was the real owner of what I could appropriate only."

Service Highest Form Of Ownership. About service, Mr. Jones said, "Service is the highest form of ownership." The speaker went on to say that the word service has today earned a prominence not known before in the history of the world, and further remarked, "I represent, gentlemen, a firm that has been established two thousand years, and doing business on the ideals of Rotary. Rotary thinks of business in terms of service; and the greatest service any man can render society is to perform his own task with intelligence and skill, or in the terms of the old Catechism, 'to do my duty in that state of life into which I have pleased God to call me.' Following Rev. A. T. Jones' address, a sincere vote of thanks was proposed by Rotarian

INQUEST INTO FATAL MOTOR ACCIDENT HELD

Witnesses Agree that Auto Was Travelling at Excessive Speed and Made No Attempt to Get Off Street Car Track—All Witnesses But One State that Street Car Was at Standstill When Accident Occurred.

A verdict of "accidental death" was rendered last night at the inquest held at police headquarters into the death of Albert Allard and Percy Harper, who were killed on Saturday night last when a Ford runabout in which they were driving collided with a Newtonton street car on Bowen Avenue. Allard, it will be remembered was instantly killed, while Harper was taken to the Sherbrooke Hospital, where he passed away twenty minutes after being admitted. Hercules Allard, the third victim of the accident, is still in the Sherbrooke Hospital suffering from very serious injuries from which he may not recover.

Six eye-witnesses of the accident were called last night to give evidence, including Wilfrid Dionne, the operator of the street car. All witnesses agreed positively that the auto was travelling at a very fast rate of speed and that the driver of the auto apparently made no attempt to lessen this speed. The witnesses also agreed, with one exception, that the street car was at a stand still when the accident occurred. Mr. Moise Allaire, who was a passenger on the street car at the time of the accident, said that he could not swear that the car was stopped as the whole affair happened so quickly and he was so excited that he did not notice.

Story of Accident Related. Wilfrid Dionne, the operator of the street car, was one of the chief witnesses called to give evidence. Dionne stated that he was driving his car along Bowen Avenue towards Newtonton at a speed of about six miles an hour. He saw an auto coming towards him at a very fast rate, but at first could not tell if the auto was on the street car tracks or on the road. He decided, however, that it would be better to lessen the speed of the street car, and he immediately put the car into half speed. The auto still continued to approach at its same speed, and rather than take any chance the operator said that he stopped the car completely. Dionne said that he could not say exactly at what speed the auto was travelling, but in his opinion it was going at a very fast rate.

When asked if he was alone in the car at the time of the accident Dionne said that a Mr. Moise Allaire was with him, also a lady passenger. Following the collision Dionne said that he got off the car, and followed by Mr. Allaire, they went to the auto to investigate. Mr. Allaire told him to get help and he immediately went into Leblanc's grocery store and telephoned for the ambulances.

Mr. Allaire agreed with evidence given by Operator. Mr. Moise Allaire was then called to give his evidence. He said that Dionne had related the incidents as nearly correct as possible. He said that he was in the street car at the time of the accident, and that there was also a lady passenger on the car, but she was a stranger to him. Mr. Allaire stated that the street car was travelling at a very slow speed, but he could not swear positively if it had come to a stand still when the auto collided with it or not. The whole affair occurred so quickly and he was so excited that he did not notice if the car was moving or at a stand still, he said. He also stated that he could see the auto coming towards the street car, and that it was travelling at a fast rate.

Following the accident Mr. Allaire said that he and the operator went to the auto, and while the operator had gone to telephone for the ambulances he attempted to open the door of the auto, and failing to do so looked in through the side curtains and could see several people in the car huddled together. He immediately pulled the side curtains off the car, and took one of the occupants out, but did not know which one it was. Some one then came to his help and they took out the other two occupants. By this time the ambulances had arrived.

When asked if he thought that the street car operator could have done otherwise than he did to avoid the accident, Mr. Allaire said that he was thoroughly convinced that nothing else could have been done to prevent the accident.

Three Lady Witnesses gave Evidence. Miss Evelyn Kinde and Miss Mary Ann Lothrop, two young ladies of the City, were called to give their evidence. Both these young ladies said that they were on Bowen Avenue when the accident occurred. They were standing at the top of the hill and the accident occurred at the foot of the hill, but they were in a position to see perfectly what took place. They saw the auto coming down the hill on the street car tracks travelling at a very fast rate. They stated the driver of the auto made no effort at all to get off the street car track. The witnesses stated that at the time of the accident there were two ladies in the street car. They said that they did not see the ladies in the car, but were speaking to them after they were told by the ladies that they had been on the car at the time. When asked if they knew the two ladies personally the witnesses

CITY BRIEFLETS

Y'S MEN'S CLUB. The guest speaker at the Y's Men's Club tomorrow night will be Mr. V. E. Morrill, who is to give an illustrated lecture.

MAN ARRESTED FOR PEDDLING WITHOUT A LICENSE. Thomas Murphy, of this city, was arrested yesterday charged with peddling without a license. Murphy, according to reports, was in the habit of selling remnant cloth in the city, and upon investigation it was found that he was doing so without a license.

NO CHANGE IN CONDITION OF AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM. Reports from the Sherbrooke Hospital this morning state that there has been no apparent change in the condition of Hercules Allard, who was seriously injured on Saturday evening last when the car in which he was driving with his brother, Albert Allard, and cousin, Percy Harper, struck a street car, killing the two latter occupants of the car.

The hospital authorities that the patient's condition is still considered to be very serious, but that he still has a fair chance of recovering.

ONE JUDGMENT AT SWEETS-BURG YESTERDAY. Dr. Lafrance, of Montreal, was acquitted of a charge of theft when he appeared before Judge J. H. Lemay at Sweetsburg yesterday. According to the evidence given at the hearing a charge of theft had been brought against Dr. Lafrance by E. E. Nadeau, a hotel keeper at Henryville, asserting that Dr. Lafrance had stolen an anchor belonging to him and used on his motor boat at Clarenceville.

Following the hearing of the evidence Judge Lemay ordered the acquittal of Dr. Lafrance from the charge. This was the only criminal case which was dealt with by Judge Lemay at Sweetsburg yesterday. Several other cases of a minor nature were brought up, but these were either dismissed from the court or adjourned until later sessions.

DONATION TO 35TH BATTERY. One of the outstanding features in connection with the 35th Battery Club took place last night at the 54th Armory, when a beautiful silver engraved shield was presented by Lieut. Dunsmore, on behalf of Lieut. L. W. Greenland, the shield, which is a wonderful piece of workmanship, is to be known as the "Greenland Provisional Shield for the best annual attendance of sub-sections." The intention of the donor is that the shield shall be competed for annually, and should indeed encourage the members of the 35th Battery to turn out in large numbers.

Lieut. Greenland enlisted for overseas service with the 7th Dardevils of Winnipeg. He was seriously wounded while at the front. He is seriously ill from the results of his wounds at present. Ill as he is, Lieut. Greenland's thoughts are with his battery, and the donation is, indeed, deserving of the highest appreciation.

ADDRESS ON IMPORTANT SUBJECT

Yesterday afternoon the members of King George 5th Chapter, I.O.D.E., were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Walter Kinkead, Montclair Street. There was a good attendance, and the regent, Mrs. S. A. Jones, presided. The usual opening exercises were followed by a short business session, after which a most interesting and instructive address was given by Mr. Thos. Keeley, superintendent of the Gibbs Home on "Child Immigration," a topic of deep interest to the Order. After giving an outline of the early days of the Church of England Society for providing homes for children, the speaker stated that he thought the members present might find it profitable to ask questions on phases of immigration in which they were more directly interested, as the Daughters of the Empire were studying the matter very closely. This was agreeable to the meeting and many points were raised as several of those present had personal experience which to draw.

Mr. Keeley explained the Gibbs Home endeavored to supply an opportunity for its charges to obtain needed recreation by arranging that during the months from October to January inclusive, a party should gather there once a month composed of groups of boys well known to each other, this in addition to the general gathering during Sherbrooke Exhibition week. During the past summer it was possible to hold a camp outing of five days at Golden Lake for the Ontario boys through the courtesy of the Ottawa Y.M.C.A. The lads paid their own expenses and had a delightful holiday in one of the best equipped and most efficiently managed camps in the province. It was realized that nowadays when the ages of boys and girls brought to this country range from fourteen to sixteen there has been greater opportunity to discover in England if the child is likely to be suitable for Canada. Also, the mental, physical and moral tests to which the young applicants are submitted, ensure that this country is receiving especial consideration and accounts for the increasing appreciation and partiality shown for juvenile immigration. Whilst Canada has only recently and in a small way given any financial assistance to organizations bringing out children to this country, it is understood that because of the good results now observed, due to better selection and improved supervision, this contribution is likely to be increased and may one day approximate to the amount provided by the Overseas Settlement Committee of England.

Regarding work connected with girls, the speaker made reference to Miss MacPherson and Miss Rye, who were pioneers in the work of establishing homes for girls in Canada, also to the fact that until a few years ago girls were brought to the Gibbs Home in this city. This was discontinued, and the work carried on at the Knowlton home has been

Social and Personal

Miss Fern Hunt, who has been spending the past fortnight in Montreal, Bury and Cookshire, has returned to town.

Misses Helen Parry, Grace Cromwell and Shirley Macrae were in town from Cookshire yesterday.

Mr. Nelson Decoteau, of Portland, Maine, motored from that place via the White Mountains to that place via the White Mountains, Brompton Road. Mr. Decoteau returned home last night after a sojourn of ten days here.

Mr. W. P. McVie was the speaker at the Methodist Tuxis Square's weekly supper last night. After the supper, Mr. McVie spoke on his experiences in the Belgian Congo, remarking on the perils and hardships of the missionaries. It was a very interesting address, and was listened to with pleasure by the members present.

Mr. William J. Carton was in town recently from Cookshire to visit his son, Master James Carton, who has been a patient at the Sherbrooke Protestant Hospital since October.

Misses Emma and Clara W. Farnsworth have returned to town from Cookshire, where they spent the holiday week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Farnsworth.

The Y.L.G. of Plymouth Church was pleasantly entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. F. MacLagan, London Street. There was a good attendance and the business routine included work connected with the coming presentation of the play, "Cinderella." At the conclusion of business a pleasant social hour was spent and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. A. McKee, Montreal Road, celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday yesterday. During the day several friends and neighbors called to extend good wishes for many happy returns, and to join in a pleasant social hour. At the supper hour friends joined with the family, and Rev. Alfred Bright, who was present, in a happily worded speech referred to Mrs. McKee's long residence here, and extended on behalf of all present hearty good wishes.

Yesterday afternoon in Plymouth Church Hall the completion of the annual holiday sale took place with the officers and members of the Women's Association in charge. The needlework, fancy articles of various descriptions and souvenirs were disposed of, and the proceeds were most gratifying. At six o'clock a turkey supper was served in the hall with a large number present, and a most delectable menu was provided by the Association, with Mrs. P. A. Hovey and Mrs. Z. Griffith as convokers. All officers and members assisted, and the annual event was much enjoyed. Excellent music was provided during the supper hour by Steele's orchestra.

The regular meeting of the Sherbrooke sub-division, Catholic Women's League, was held yesterday in St. Patrick's Church Hall. Among other matters discussed was that of remaining Catholic literature to the Canadian West, co-operating with the Catholic Truth Society of Toronto. This was decided upon and several members signified their willingness to perform this good work. It was decided to hold a rummage sale on the market on the first available date after the new year. A very interesting article on the "Lay Retreat Movement" was read. This work was undertaken by the League about two years ago and the meeting was informed that since that time six "Closed Retreats" for English-speaking Catholics have been held in the city, four for women and two for men. Ninety persons in all followed these exercises. The meeting then adjourned.

combined with the Marchmont Home at Belleville, Ont. The speaker told of a new feature of immigration work in the newly-opened home for girls in Toronto. Most of the girls coming to this home have two years' training before leaving England.

In speaking of the extensive work of child immigration, Mr. Keeley stated that, up to the present time, 28,000 children had been sent out to Canada from England. He touched upon various points of interest to those connected, or who intend becoming interested in the work, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the speaker.

A social half-hour was enjoyed, the hostess serving tea, and the members extending to her also their appreciation for the kind hospitality and pleasant meeting.

Mr. G. Hills, of Montreal, spent the week-end in town.

Mr. R. G. Dunbar, of Kingsbury, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. Ross Jameson is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. E. Hutchings, at New Rockland.

Mr. Herman A. Stevenson was at his home in Cookshire for the week-end.

Mrs. N. S. Parker has returned home after having spent the past week with her daughter, Miss Marjorie Parker, at the home of Mrs. Maddis, King Street West.

The many friends of Miss Mary Dunbar will be pleased to know that she is recovering from her recent operation in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

Misses Annie and Agnes Buchanan, of Keith, have been spending a few days in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beaton.

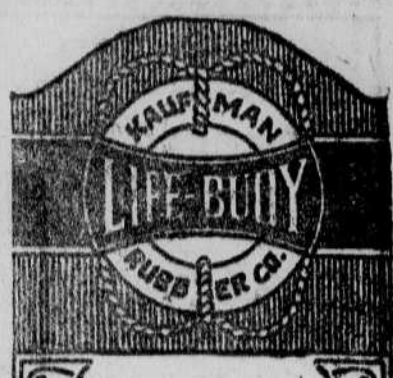

Miss Ruth Stoddard, who spent the week-end in Cookshire with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stoddard, has returned to town.

Mrs. Joseph A. Edwards, who has been a patient at the Sherbrooke Protestant Hospital for several days, has now left for her home in Cookshire.

During Mr. Raymond H. Stevenson's absence in Toronto, Ont., Mrs. Stevenson, of Lennoxville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Morrison, in Keith.

The Bluebird Club of East Angus held a very successful bridge and "500" in the Brompton Clubhouse on Monday evening. The prize winners in bridge were Mrs. C. S. Stoddard and Mr. H. Grinstead, and in "500" Miss Edyth Johnston and Mr. J. A. Bothwell. The sum realized was $43.75, which was donated to the war memorial fund for which the club is working.

The annual holiday sale held yesterday by the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church, with a department by the Willing Workers, was a most successful event. The tables of fancy and useful articles were in charge of Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Hadlock and Miss Leaman, and were well patronized. The visitors were received by the president, Mrs. Hunter, and the vice-president, Mrs. Holgate, while Mrs. Milford presided at the tea table. The Willing Workers, of which Miss Page is the superintendent, had an attractive display of articles for gifts, candy and homemade bread, cakes, etc. The Misses Nan Holgate, Dorothy Sanders, Murial Liddell and Dorothy Byrd were in charge, and all members assisted during the afternoon. At six o'clock a hot supper was served in the hall by the Ladies' Aid, which was well attended and much enjoyed. Those assisting at the tables were Mrs. E. Salter, the Misses Leaman, Florence and Gladys Leech, Edith Dalton, Gladys Hunter, Mary Gilson and Florence Hopkinson. During the supper hour enjoyable music was provided by the Misses Helen McCaw, Dorothy Byrd, and Evelyn Howe and Mrs. Leo Liddell. The proceeds from the sale, afternoon tea and supper were most gratifying, and the pleasant hospitality of the hostesses and their assistants was enjoyed by all who attended.

MILBY

The sing song held by the Milby Centre-W. C. T. U., on November 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McVetty was a great success. The evening was spent in singing and games, and every one had an enjoyable time. The ladies served refreshments. The proceeds amounted to $5.60.

On December 2nd, the W. C. T. U. was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. E. H. Smith. Owing to the busy time the attendance was not as large as usual. The work for the afternoon was the making of four sheets and two pairs of pillow cases for the I. O. O. E., Sanatorium, Sherbrooke. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mason on January 6th. The meeting adjourned and the hostess served a delicious tea.

CAPTAIN BLOOD
By RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini.
"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XXIX.
"Go home, if you will," said his lordship, when Blood paused. "You may be sure that none will harass you on the score of your piracy, considering what it was that drove you to it. But why be in haste? We have heard of you, to be sure, and we know of what you are capable upon the seas. Here is a great chance for you, since you declare yourself sick of piracy. Should you choose to serve King William out here during this war, your knowledge of the West Indies should render you a very valuable servant to His Majesty's Government, which you would not find ungrateful. You should consider it. I repeat: it is a great chance you are given."

"That your lordship gives me," Blood amended, "I am very grateful. But at the moment, I confess, I can consider nothing but this great news. It alters the shape of the world. I must accustom myself to view it as it now is, before I can determine my own place in it."

Pitt came in to report that the work of rescue was at an end, and the men picked up—some forty-five in all—safe aboard the two buccanier ships. He asked for orders. Blood rose.

"I am negligent of your lordship's concerns in my consideration of my own. You'll be wishing me to land you at Port Royal?"

"At Port Royal?" The little man squirmed wrathfully on his seat. Wrathfully and at length he informed Blood that they had put into Port Royal last evening to find its Deputy-Governor absent. "He had gone on some wildgoose chase to Tortuga after buccaniers, taking the whole of the fleet with him."

Blood stared in surprise a moment; then yielded to laughter. "He went, I suppose, before news reached him of the change of government at home, and the war with France?"

"He did not," snapped Willoughby. "He was informed of both, and also of my coming before he set out."

"Oh, impossible!" "So I should have thought. But I have the information from a Major Mallard whom I found in Port Royal, apparently governing in this fool's absence."

"But he is mad, to leave his post at such a time?" Blood was amazed. "Taking the whole fleet with him, pray remember, and leaving the place open to French attack. That is the sort of Deputy-Governor that the late Government thought fit to appoint: an epitome of its misrule!"

He leaves Port Royal unguarded save by a ramshackle fort that can be reduced to rubble in an hour. Stab me! It's unbelievable!" The lingering smile faded from Blood's face. "Is Rivalro aware of this?" he cried sharply.

It was the Dutch Admiral who answered him. "Would he go dere if he were not? M. de Rivalro he take some of our men prisoners. Berhabe dey dell him. Berhabe he make dem tell. Id is a great obdurdinity."

His lordship snarled like a mountain-cat. "That Raschal Bishop shall answer for it with his head if there's any mischief done through this desertion of his post. What if it were deliberate, eh? What if it were knave than fool? What if this is his way of serving King James, from whom he held his office?"

"Captain Blood was generous. Hardly so much. It was just vindictiveness that urged him. It's my self he's hunting at-Tortuga, my lord. But, I'm thinking that while he's about it, it'd best to looking after Jamaica for King William." He laughed, with more mirth than he had used in the last two months.

"Set a course for Port Royal, Jeremy, and make all speed. We'll be level yet with M. de Rivalro, and wipe off some other scores at the same time."

Both Lord Willoughby and the Admiral were on their feet. "But you are not equal to it," cried his lordship. "Any one of the Frenchman's three ships is a match for both yours, my man."

"In guns—aye," said Blood, and he smiled. "But there's more than guns that matter in these affairs. If your lordship would like to see an action

WAR DEBTS.

War debts rest heavily upon the nations which fought through the Great War. Canada feels this. Other countries are staggering under the load or evading it.

It would seem that in Great Britain there is some bitterness with regard to war debts. The British debt to the United States has been funded and assumed. On the other hand vast sums are due Great Britain from European countries which are practically uncollectable.

The following from the London Daily Express is interesting in this connection:

"The total loans to our allies amounted on March 31 to £2,000,028,000. They are as follows:

France	2,633,279,000
Russia	722,546,000
Italy	553,300,000
Yugoslavia	28,481,000
Poland	95,000
Romania	24,778,000
Portugal	21,544,000
Greece	23,355,000
Belgian Congo	3,550,000

Interest has been received from the Belgian Congo and on a part of the loan to Greece. In the other cases the interest is added each year to the principal of the debt due. At the present rate of exchange we are paying America in respect of principal and interest about $48,000,000 a year. For the next sixty years every man, woman and child in Great Britain will pay American at least $1 a year. Our payment last year represented a shilling on our income tax. Altogether the British taxpayer last year spent $347,309,000 on debt interest and redemption. None of our allies is bearing so crushing a burden of taxation. In addition we are carrying the load of supporting over a million unemployed, whereas there is no unemployment in France or Belgium and not much in Italy. After six years the British taxpayer feels that he is entitled to ask for some consideration from his more fortunate brethren. He looks to the new Chancellor to state his case and to evolve a reasonable plan for the liquidation of the vast sums owing to us."

A GREAT INDUSTRY.

Canada's great paper mills represent a vast industry. It is perhaps unfortunate that all the raw forest product is not being manufactured at home but, as the matter now stands, the output from Canadian mills is tremendous. Figures relative to newsprint, for instance, are available for the first nine months of the current year and the newsprint situation is thus summarized in the C. P. R.'s "Agricultural and Industrial Progress."

Newsprint production in Canada, which has for some time been slowly but surely overtaking that of the United States, made a big stride in the first nine months of 1924, and at the present time the Dominion is producing at a rate but very little below that of the Republic. For the first time on record in the period, newsprint production for the first nine months of the year in 1924 exceeded the million-ton mark, reaching 1,009,837 tons as compared with 941,442 tons in the corresponding period of 1923, an increase of 7 per cent. United States newsprint production in the same period was 1,096,973 tons, as compared with 1,126,192 tons in the first nine months of the preceding year, or a decrease of 3 per cent.

From 1920 the increase in Canadian newsprint production has been rapid and steady, except for the year 1921, when there was a decrease of 80,345 tons as compared with the preceding year, whilst in the United States the movement has been irregular. For the first nine months of 1924 production in the United States has been 4 per cent. lower than in the corresponding period of 1920, whilst in Canada the production has increased 53 per cent.

For the first nine months of the current year the total exports of pulp and paper from Canada were valued at $103,050,333, compared with a total of $104,636,736 for the corresponding nine months of 1923, a decrease of $1,586,403. This decrease in total volume is, however, rather pleasing than otherwise, the exports of wood pulp being responsible and there being an increase of nearly $5,000,000 in the value of paper exported. The total value of paper exported in the nine-month period was $74,270,296, in which newsprint accounted for $68,003,040, as against $69,421,621 in the same period 1923, when newsprint was responsible for $63,277,966.

New mills are being built and the Canadian production will soon be considerably increased. Thus, this great industry has by no means reached its limit. Its influence upon Canadian prosperity is very great.

PRESS COMMENT

CARELESSNESS AND ACCIDENTS.

Carelessness is the great breeder of accidents. The insurance statistician proves it by quoting figures to show that 25 per cent. of all accidents to come to his attention occur in the homes. The man who has been taught the necessity of carefully picking his way through traffic doesn't hesitate about opening a tin can with a pair of scissors, though blood poisoning has claimed more lives than have the modern four-wheeled juggernauts of the streets.

INCREASING TAXATION.

Take, for example, public playgrounds. Fifteen or twenty years ago it would have been regarded as absurd for the city to provide playgrounds for the children of the city. Today no one in London, except some chronic groucher, would object to the expenditures on playgrounds. But services of this kind cost money, and must be paid for by taxation. So in a dozen different ways we are demanding today more of our Governments; some expenditures like the playgrounds valuable, others of very indifferent merit.

TAX-DODGING.

Too many Hamilton people spent Thanksgiving Day, as they have spent other public holidays, in the unholy practice of tax-dodging. They journeyed to Buffalo, visited the shops there, bought things that they needed or fancied, and returned home "bringing their sheaves with them" secreted about their persons or in travelling bags and valises.

DANGEROUS FIREARMS.

The many hunting accidents of this season have called attention to the dangers of carrying risky weapons or of handling them carelessly. There is an incurable liking in the normal boy or man to tread on the edge of danger without stepping over, and this has led to innumerable accidents in connection with firearms. The demonstration of the lines and fine points of a rifle or revolver is a natural act by a proud owner, but the "didn't-know-it-was-loaded" condition has resulted in many a death or maiming.

TOO MANY OLD MAIDS?

Women are as much entitled to the advantages of higher education as men, but it is becoming a serious question whether it influences them to assume the station in life for which nature intended them or whether it is leading them toward spinsterhood, with its consequent menace to posterity.

The Alumni Association of the University of California, which has been investigating the subject, finds that out of five thousand women graduates reached by means of a questionnaire, it was found that two-thirds shunned the altar and espoused the cause of economic independence, while one-third had taken a chance at matrimony or contemplated doing so.

The alumni investigation is not encouraging to say the least. If co-education is going to put a crimp in posterity it would be far better for the future of the human race if we slowed down a little on co-education. We cannot afford to have too many old maids.

When Mr. Asquith returned to Westminster from Paisley in 1919 he found Labor holding the seats of the official opposition, and it was only with bad grace that a Labor leader made way for him on the front opposition bench. Now, even Mr. Asquith is gone, and Mr. Lloyd George, who a few short years ago held the British Commons in the hollow of his hand, is forced to huddle with his few followers on the back benches at the Speaker's left, known as "below the gangway." The position is almost precisely that held by the back-benchers of the Progressives in our own House of Commons—a strange one for the historic Liberal party.

Yet "below the gangway" bulks large in British history. There Parnell sat—strange, cold, mysterious. There Biggar nightly turned Westminster into a bear garden and revolutionized parliamentary rules. There "Tiger Tim" Healy poured forth the merciless satire of a rapier tongue. There John Redmond made his historic speech of August 4th, 1914.

Nor is "below the gangway" likely now to pass into either dullness or desuetude. Where Lloyd George sits will somehow or other be pretty much "the head of the table."

JAPAN BURIES AN UNKNOWN.

In 1920 the Japanese in this country were one-tenth of one per cent. of our population. Under the gentlemen's agreement immigration had steadily decreased since 1918. In 1923 it was 5552 and 2844 Japanese emigrated. Since many of our Japanese are unmarried students, merchants, travellers, laborers, the number was no longer increasing.

Congress in its wisdom, against the protest of the President, our ambassador in Japan and the Secretary of State, played politics to the sandlots by a specific Japanese exclusion clause in the immigration act. It was an intended insult. And out of the mist of obscurity in that far-off land stole a little, unknown man, fired with the spirit of self-sacrifice, to kill himself in the ancient rite of hara-kiri near the American embassy as the highest possible form of patriotic protest.

He is still unknown—if the Government has his name it is not telling. But his body is to be removed to the military cemetery, to lie in state beside that of General Nogi, who killed himself in mourning for the Emperor Meiji. If our emigration policy is a domestic question, as it is, burying a man and building him a tomb is a domestic question in Japan. May we hope that the sacrifice by the unknown will prove sufficient commemoration of a needless affront, and that the living will not foster a bitter jingoism to do honor to the dead.

PLAN TO START WORK AT COAL CREEK MINES

Workers to Break Away from United Mine Workers of America and from British Columbia Miners' Association.

FERNIE, B.C., Dec. 10.—Acting upon the instructions given them at Saturday's meeting of the Fernie and Coal Creek miners, when it was definitely decided to break away from the United Mine Workers of America and form a British Columbia Miners' Association, the men's committee interviewed the management of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company yesterday and were given a copy of a proposed wage scale which the company believed would reopen the Coal Creek mines and provide steady work for the Fernie and Coal Creek miners.

Later the agreement was placed before a special mass meeting of the miners and unanimously adopted, and preparations are now being made for an immediate commencement of work at Coal Creek. The agreement is for a four year term and is on a basis of 15 per cent increase in wages over the scale in effect during 1914. It is also slightly higher than the agreement now in effect in the Vancouver Island mines.

British Officials of Opinion that Visit at Present Time Would Be Liable to Misinterpretation.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, December 10th.—The Esthonian Government, through its representative in this country let it be understood that a visit to Reval of British warships would be most welcome. Though it is no new thing for ships of the British navy to pay visits of courtesy to Baltic ports, a visit to Reval just now owing to the recent Communist rising would be liable to misinterpretation and the British Government will not entertain any idea of a visit which might be taken as intervention in the domestic affairs of any of the Baltic border states.

Complete circular, copies of which will be mailed upon request, contains a letter from John H. Price, Esq., President of the Company, from which the following is summarized:

Price Brothers & Company, Limited, is one of the largest manufacturers of newsprint paper in Canada, and the fourth largest in the world. It is also one of the largest manufacturers of spruce lumber in Canada. The business has been in existence for over a century.

Timber areas owned in fee (250 square miles), and held under lease from the Quebec Government, total over 8,500 square miles, estimated to contain 45,782,055 cords of pulpwood—sufficient to produce 31,000,000 tons of newsprint paper, or a supply for operation of the Company's mills at the designed capacity for a period of over 100 years, without allowing for reforestation.

Mill properties include a complete newsprint paper mill, with a present daily capacity of 500 tons, at Kenogami, Que., a cardboard and paper specialties mill of 50 tons daily capacity at Jonquiere, Que., and six sawmills located at strategic points on rivers to which the timber areas are tributary. A new complete newsprint mill, of 200 tons daily capacity, is now in course of construction at St. Joseph d'Alma, Que., and is to be in operation by January 1st, 1926.

Water powers, owned and controlled, have an estimated capacity of over 125,000 horsepower of which 62,250 horsepower is at present developed. Under contract with Duke-Price Power Company, Limited, 90,000 additional horsepower will be available by January 1st, 1925, with increases to a maximum of 200,000 horsepower by January 1st, 1927. Thus, the Company is assured of ample electrical power, at most reasonable cost, for its present and future requirements.

Fixed assets (exclusive of any valuation of timber holdings, aggregating over 8,500 square miles), as appraised by Canadian Appraisal Company, Limited, with capital additions to September 30th, 1924, at cost, but without including the value of assets to be acquired through a portion of the proceeds of the Preferred Stock issue, have a value of $25,199,603.

Net current assets as at September 30th, 1924, after deducting all current liabilities and making provision for completion of additions to, and repairs in the vicinity of, the Kenogami mill and providing a portion of the estimated cost of the St. Joseph d'Alma mill, and including the proceeds of this issue, as certified by George A. Touche & Co., C.A., were $5,509,453.11.

Based on the annual earnings, after deducting operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation and depletion and all taxes and interest charges, for the four years ended February 28th, 1924, as certified by George A. Touche & Co., the average annual earnings amounted to $1,780,324, as against $465,000 required for the Preferred dividend on this issue. Net earnings on the same basis for the year ended February 28th, 1925, are estimated at $1,665,100.

For the past twenty-five years, the average annual increase in newsprint consumption in the United States has been approximately 8%. The Company is enlarging its newsprint manufacturing capacity to keep pace with the growing demand for its product. Proceeds of this issue will be used in part to refund to the Company a portion of capital expenditures made since January 1st, 1923, to provide a portion of the cost of construction of the St. Joseph d'Alma mill, and for other corporate purposes.

These shares are offered for delivery if, as and when issued and received by us and subject to approval of our counsel of all proceedings, at—

GIBBONS PUT NORFOLK AWAY IN SIX ROUNDS

Referee Stopped Bout—Gibbons Carried Fight Right from Start—Gave Negro Bad Beating.

(Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, gained another notch in his climb to pugilistic fame, when he blotted from his titular path Kid Norfolk, Baltimore negro, in the sixth round of a fifteen-round match at Madison Square Garden last night.

A capacity crowd of fifteen thousand paid the Christmas fund a net profit of $46,000 to see the card. The negro was badly cut by Gibbons before he was beaten into such a condition that he was almost helpless.

Employing short, cutting jabs, with few straight punches, Gibbons carried the fight to Norfolk right from the start; kept on top of him during the fighting, and then just to vary his attack, stepped back occasionally and launched a furious attack from long range, which all but knocked the negro into submission.

The blow which actually terminated the fight was synthetic. Down for a count of two in the fourth round, down again in the fifth for a count of four, and yet again in the sixth for a count of six; Norfolk got up from the third fall, staggered a short way across the ring, and stretched himself horizontally again, without even a blow from Gibbons.

He was helpless to weather the storm of leather, and equally helpless to counter in the face of this relentless jabbing.

NATIONAL BALL CLUB OWNERS BACK LANDIS

Praise Commissioner's Stand—Heydler's Term Increased to Four Years and Salary Raised as Mark of Appreciation—Attacks Denounced.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. — The opening skirmish of the baseball conflict, in which Commissioner Landis and President Johnson, of the American League, are central figures, was won yesterday by the commissioner when National League Club owners, at the opening session of their annual meeting, unanimously adopted resolutions giving a sweeping endorsement to the four-year administration of the veteran jurist.

The resolutions, adopted by the club owners after a three-hour conference, specifically congratulated Landis on his decision to carry through the world series in spite of the scandal, praised his entire course in banishing O'Connell and Dolan from the game for all time, and also singled out for the praise the prompt action taken by President Heydler and the integrity and courage of Henry Sand, Philadelphia shortstop, who revealed that he had been approached by O'Connell in a game between the Giants and Phillies near the close of the 1924 season.

President Heydler, who was re-elected by his club owners for a term of office increased from three to four years and voted an increase in salary as a mark of appreciation, denounced "unjust innuendoes and attacks," directed against the National League, in his annual report, delivered prior to adoption of the resolutions. His statement, pointing out that the older league had "scrupulously avoided interfering in the affairs of other kindred organizations," was taken as another sally against Johnson. With the National League's position thus clearly defined, interest turned to speculation on what course the American League would take tomorrow at its annual session.

He said he had heard with pleasure, as well as surprise, the mild and friendly paragraph in the King's Speech about Russia. He said he would raise the question of the Zinovieff letter next week, and asked the Government whether it was prepared to have further inquiry into the Zinovieff communication, which he declared was used simply as an electioneering "stunt."

The Great White Giant of the NORTH

CANADA'S tasks are big tasks. There are the early tasks of individual pioneers—prospectors, surveyors, farmers, lumbermen, trappers—the couriers who go before development. These are the men whose spirit of adventure leads them on to discovery. They bring in tales of new opportunity. They bring news of gold strikes, of rich forest tracts, of power sites. Then comes the stage of investigation. Engineers are sent into the field by capitalists who keep in touch with new opportunities. Machinery is moved in, despite all obstacles. Mines are developed. Forest operations are started. Railways throw their tentacles toward the new fields. But not an ounce of gold, a ton of pulp or a roll of paper will come out of this region without water power. Power is the dominant factor in making available to the nation this mineral and forest wealth. The north country is bountifully endowed with water power resources and water power might well be called the Great White Giant of the North.

THINKS RUSSIA WILL RETURN TO MONARCHY

Grand Duchess Believes Russian People Are Discontented With Soviet Form of Government.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Grand Duchess Victoria Feodorovna, wife of the Russian Grand Duke Cyril, who has maintained strict silence on political questions since her recent arrival to these shores, cast aside the barrier just long enough yesterday to say that she believes the Russians are discontented with the Soviet form of government, and that some day that vast country will again return to a monarchy. Her husband has proclaimed himself head of the Romanoffs and Czar of Russia.

Beyond that assertion, the Grand Duchess would say nothing of a political nature. She insisted time and again throughout the very brief interview that she granted a group of newspaper representatives in her suite in the Waldorf, that she could not discuss politics. She came here only for the purpose of bringing thanks for the financial aid Americans rendered Russian refugees, she contended, and, therefore, would not reply to any questions bearing in any way on Russian political matters.

"Does Your Highness believe that the Russians want a monarchy, or are they satisfied with the present form of government?"

"I feel that our people want a monarchy," the possible future Czarina replied.

"Do you believe they are calling to you?" she was asked.

"Yes, very much so. Yes, they are calling to us. Every sane person knows they are dissatisfied with the present government. Just read their statistics and you will find out why."

"But I cannot talk politics with you," she added, "and I hope you will not stress what I have just said, but will only say that I am not here with any political motive."

Before expressing her views on the return of a Czar, the Grand Duchess was asked to comment on an Associated Press despatch from Berlin, yesterday, announcing that Grand Duke Cyril may soon be obliged to leave Coburg, where he has practically set up a court, and where on August 8th, 1922, he issued a manifesto proclaiming himself the successor of Czar Nicholas II. The despatch went on to say that the Grand Duke "apparently is not much more popular with many of the Romanoffs and former officials from the Petrograd court than he is with the German Communists and the Soviet Government in Moscow."

TO INTRODUCE DRASTIC ANTI-ORIENTAL BILL

Motion Calls on Federal Government to Press for Partial Cancellation of Anglo-Japanese Treaty.

(Associated Press Despatch) VICTORIA, B.C., Dec. 10.—Abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty as it affects Canada will be asked in a resolution placed on the order paper of the Provincial Legislature by Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines. The motion will call upon the Federal Government to press for partial cancellation by the Imperial Government.

This is the most drastic of a number of anti-oriental bills introduced this session by Liberal members. It is related to the domestic servants' measure, which Mrs. Smith has introduced, as the complaint is made that the Smith bill will conflict with the Japanese Treaty passed and will prove to that extent ultra vires.

INQUEST INTO FATAL MOTOR

said that they both knew them, and that they were Mrs. Robert Price and her daughter, Miss Ruby Price. Both witnesses also stated positively that the street car was at a complete stand still when the accident occurred.

Mrs. James Stewart, of Hall Ave. was the last eye-witness to be called to give evidence. She stated that at the time of the accident she was walking along Bowen avenue, and saw that happened. The auto was coming down Bowen Avenue, she said, at a terrific speed on the street car track, and no attempt was made to lessen its speed or to get off of the street car track. She also said that she saw Mr. Allaire and two other ladies, but she did not know who they were.

Drs. Hume and Berube presented Reports. Drs. Gordon Hume and A. Berube were also present and presented a report of the examination they had performed on the bodies of Percy Harper and Albert Allard. Both doctors stated that the deaths were caused from fractured skulls.

It was proposed to have the master mechanic from the Street Railway Company present and testify regarding the condition of the street car brakes, but the jury agreed that owing to the fact that all the witnesses but one had clearly stated that the street car was at a stand still, and as the other witness was not prepared to state whether or not the car was at a stop, they did not think that it was necessary to have this evidence.

CALDER'S VIEWS OF SITUATION AT MONTREAL

Former Crown Prosecutor Believes Attorney-General Should Control Police Through Director of Safety.

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Dec. 10.—Aldermanic control is the fundamental defect in the Montreal police system, and the force should be handled by a Director of Safety responsible only to the Attorney-General of the Province of Quebec. R. L. Calder, K.C., former Crown Prosecutor, declared yesterday afternoon at the police probe when asked for reform suggestions based on his experience with constables and detectives.

On the whole, Mr. Calder found, Montreal has the nucleus for a first class force of both uniformed men and detectives; but they are hampered by their proximity to the elected body in the civic administration. Lack of discipline, absence of proper instruction in their duties, and something approaching general slackness in department were the reproaches that might be made against the uniformed force; that should be replaced by strict military discipline administered by "the greatest disciplinary martinet to be found between Halifax and Vancouver." The detective force was too small, hampered by lack of funds, and interfered with by internal strife and lack of support. That could be cured by adoption of single control in the hands of a master detective by profession and experience.

"I think the police force here suffers from the vice of being under the control of an elective body," said Mr. Calder, when J. P. Lanctot, of counsel for the petitioners, invited him to give his views on the subject.

"Municipal police are obliged to require the observance of a large number of city by-laws and in requiring that observance they often incur the bad will of those to whom the by-laws have to be applied. These citizens then complain to their representatives in the civic administration and it often happens that the police find themselves paralyzed as a result of these steps."

At the risk of being called an Anglo-maniac, Mr. Calder said he favored adoption of the London system. In 1840, the police there had been removed from the control of the municipality though the cost of the force still rested on the city taxes. The Home Secretary nominated the Police Commissioner of the Metropolitan Constabulary, the Commissioner's two assistants were similarly chosen, and thus the police were placed outside the reach of influence, and had no responsibility except to extra-civil authority.

Mr. Lanctot—"Those police are independent even of the legislatures?"

Witness—"Yes, the police there do not have to worry about the mayor or the aldermen or anyone else except their superiors." Entry into the London force was made after examination of candidates secured by advertisement; there was no such thing as recommending anyone for the London police. Promotion was made on the basis of length of service and fitness.

(Associated Press Despatch) TORONTO, Dec. 10.—The six months period appointed for voting on church union in Canada commences today. Next Sunday probably two-thirds of the Presbyterian congregations throughout Canada will receive notice of congregational meetings to arrange for the taking of the vote.

Under the provisions of the act, this notice—read from the pulpit in each case—will be repeated on the following Sunday and then followed by a meeting to decide when and in what manner the vote is to be taken.

The act stipulates that it shall be by ballot and that a period of not less than two weeks shall be devoted to it, but says that it shall be "in such form and manner, and a such time, as may be determined locally."

WILL HOLD INQUIRY INTO DEATH OF THOMAS H. INCE

Motion Picture Producer Died a Few Hours After Returning from Yacht Party in San Diego Bay.

LOS ANGELES, California, Dec. 10.—San Diego county has launched an inquiry into the death of Thomas H. Ince, motion picture producer, who died here recently, a few hours after returning from a yacht party in San Diego Bay, the Los Angeles Times says it learned last night.

EYE STUNTS

In a novel we read that the hero "toasted his eyes on the wood embers." This reminds us of a story told by Edmund H. Garrett, the artist, about a friend of his who was given a story to illustrate. A marked passage read: "She threw her eyes on the floor." The artist went to the magazine man and said: "Say, do you want those eyes rolling around the floor, or up against the mop-board?"

PRINCE MAY VISIT CHILE AND URUGUAY

Invitation Was Extended by President De Alvear While He Was in London in 1922 Before His Inauguration.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 10.—The Prince of Wales' proposed visit here next year, it is stated in official quarters, is in response to an invitation extended by president De Alvear, while he was in London in 1922 before his inauguration. It is pointed out also that the visit will coincide with the celebration of the centennial of the first treaty of amity and commerce concluded between the two countries.

The official programme of entertainment for the Prince has not been completed, but it is understood that it will include visits to some of the principal ranches and polo pony breeding establishments in the country.

The possibility is indicated that Wales may also visit other South American countries, such as Uruguay and Chile.

SLIDING IS TO BE TOLERATED

Ald. Skinner—"Not always."
Ald. Houlihan—"In a tenement?"
Ald. Skinner—"A Chinaman?"
Ald. Houlihan—"No, he is an Irishman."

Children Sliding

The petition with regard to children sliding on St. Martin Street was then introduced. The members of the Council were favorably inclined towards tolerating sliding at this point, but did not care to actually give permission. The matter was referred to the police committee.

Express Sensational and Immoral Advertising

Ald. Houlihan asked that the chairman of the road committee be asked to prepare a report showing the cost of cement, paving stones and labor for the year 1920 and 1924. He also wished to know what had been done with the flagstones taken from the different sidewalks.

The same alderman, chairman of the police committee, then gave notice of a by-law to be presented at the next meeting, concerning the suppression of sensational and immoral advertising in the City of Sherbrooke.

Reports Submitted

The following reports were then submitted: Finance Committee—The committee approved of the different store rooms being consolidated and in future a central storeroom will be kept on St. Gabriel street and Mr. H. Bourque was appointed storekeeper at a salary of $125 per month.

The committee approved of the erection of the soldiers' monument on King Hill, half way between Wellington and Gordon, in the centre of the grass plot. The contract, revised by Mr. Audet and approved of the city attorneys, was also approved and the mayor and secretary were authorized to sign same.

Road committee—Sidewalks on Quebec Street from Portland Street to Dominion, cost to be $6,000 in addition to the expense of excavating the rock, placed at $3,000. The committee recommended that the work be proceeded with immediately.
