LEAGUE ACTION PLANNED IN DANZIG

Urge Move To Counter-Act Reich Plans

British Cabinet Receives Personal Reports on Developments in Free City from Ambassador to Poland—Envoy to Germany Will Give Views—Renew Drive for Conclusion of Alliance With Russia.

London, July 4.—The Foreign Affairs Committee of the cabinet heard a personal report today from Sir Howard Kennard, Ambassador to Poland, on the Danzig situation in a special meeting here today.

The cabinet expects tomorrow to get a first-hand summary of German views from Sir Neville Henderson, Ambassador in Berlin, who is to arrive tonight from the German capital.

Count Edward Raczynski, Polish Ambassador in London, had a long talk last night with Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax and left by airplane today for Warsaw, where he will report to his Government on the situation. He expected to return here in two or three days.

The Foreign Affairs Committee discussed developments in Tientsin, where Japanese imposed a blockade on the British and French concessions June 14, and considered a summary by Sir William Seeds, Ambassador in Moscow, of yesterday's conversation with Soviet Russian officials regarding the proposed British-French-Russian mutual assistance pact.

There has been speculation over whether Britain, France and Poland would complain to the League that Nazi activities in Danzig contravened the Free City's constitution, which prohibits militarization of the city without League of Nations consent.

Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons yesterday that he had reliable reports indicating "intensive" military activity in Danzig, which exists as a Free City under the League's protection. If the League could establish that such activities menaced Danzig, it could call on Poland alone or with other powers to protect Danzig against them.

Shanghai, July 4.—(P)—Nearly all milk supplies for the British and French concessions in Tientsin were cut off because of delay at the blockade barriers today, and Japanese explained that the milk must be examined "because there might be bombs in the bottles."

Only thirty bottles of milk entered the British concession during the morning. It was for the British military hospital. There was none for other hospitals.

Rimouski Doctor Fatally Mauled By Enraged Bears At Quebec Area Zoo

Charlesbourg, Que., July 4.—(P)—Victim of a mauling by two suddenly-angry polar bears, the body of Dr. Joseph Germain, fifty-three-year-old Rimouski physician, lay in a morgue at Quebec, thirteen miles distant, today. He was killed accidentally, a coroner's jury found, while feeding the bears in the Zoological Garden here last night.

While his twenty-two-year-old daughter, Jeannine, and fourteen-year-old son, Paul, looked on with horror, unable to aid him, Dr. Germain was pinned against the cage bars and mauled until his body fell to the ground. The son frantically threw sand and gravel into the bears' bloodshot eyes but to no avail.

Witnesses said Dr. Germain climbed under a small guard rail and approached the cage and was feeding one bear peanuts when the animal attacked. The bear reached a paw through the bars, grabbed Dr. Germain who clutched a bar but the second bear pinned his other shoulder against the cage.

His arms were torn to ribbons, thighs and legs lacerated. The key to his automobile was found in the bear's paw inside the cage. Bits of clothing and articles from his pocket lay on the cage floor.

UNITED STATES WILL CLARIFY MONETARY PLAN

Treasury Plans Early Statement to Clear Up Situation without Waiting for Senate Vote on Measures.

Washington, July 4.—(P)—Officials of the United States Treasury plan to issue a clarifying statement on the complicated monetary situation, early tomorrow without waiting for the Senate to vote on the monetary bill.

They would not say definitely what the statement would contain, but indicated that it might disclose the price of silver mined in the United States, the price the Treasury will pay for foreign currencies, whether the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund is operating, and the price of gold.

The statement will be given out a few hours before the Senate acts tomorrow on a bill already approved by the House of Representatives extending the President's power to change the gold value of the dollar, continuing the stabilization fund, and fixing the price of domestic silver at 71.11 cents an ounce.

Independent Canadian Foreign Policy Urged At Youth Parley

Winnipeg, July 4.—(P)—Instead of following Britain's foreign policy, Canada should immediately form an independent one and define the Dominion's constitutional position with regard to the Empire and other nations, declared a resolution approved last night at the Fourth Canadian Youth Congress.

The Congress which winds up its five-day sessions today favored steps to defend Canada's coasts but maintained the success of Canadian government depended on the Canadian government pursuing a foreign policy of collective security.

The report of the Commission on Peace Policy was endorsed at the general meeting, leveled criticism at the domination of Britain over the Canadian foreign policy and added:

"This is because Canada has to date declared no foreign policy of her own and because her channels of information lie largely through the British Foreign Office and British press agencies. 'French-Canadian delegates pointed out that this was particularly true for information coming from Germany and Italy.

The Commission condemned the Chamberlain appeasement policy

NEW DEMOCRACY LEADERS FORM ORGANIZATION

Saskatchewan Group to Form Basis of Permanent Dominion-Wide Organization for Herridge Political Party.

Regina, July 4.—(P)—Saskatchewan conference of the New Democracy movement is expected to set up a permanent organization today in closing sessions of the two-day meeting with union of "progressive" political groups in preparation for the next federal election the chief immediate aim.

Discussion of the unity question occupied the 115 delegates most of yesterday's opening session. "I am convinced that the desire for unity permeates the province," said A. C. Stewart, Minister of Highways in the former Saskatchewan, Co-operative Government and now one of the two Unity members of the Legislature, representing Yorkton.

The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation had refused to co-operate with the Unity members at the last legislative session. "Whether this organization can achieve unity with C.C.F. opposition facing you I do not know," said Mr. Stewart.

W. D. Herridge, of Ottawa, former Canadian Minister to the United States and sponsor of the New Democracy movement, spoke of Dominion organization and said the conference's aim was to urge the wisdom of unity upon the Saskatchewan people.

Before selection of candidates or enunciation of any precise reform formula it was necessary the people should have confidence in the movement, realizing it was bona fide, he said.

EARLY VOTE IS PREDICTED BY LIBERAL CHIEF

Hon. Adelard Godbout Declares Refusal of Banks to Make Further Advances Will Force Government to Appeal to Country.

Hull, Que., July 4.—(P)—Hon. Adelard Godbout, Quebec Liberal leader, last night forecast an early election in the Province of Quebec if the banks continued to refuse to advance more money to the Provincial Government.

Winding up a speaking campaign in the northern and western sections of the Province, Mr. Godbout said the Province's finances were in such a state that the Government might have to appeal to the people within the next few weeks.

He charged that the Provincial debt was increasing at the rate of approximately $1,000,000 a week and that Quebec's credit had reached a new low unprecedented in its annals.

Mr. Godbout advocated the establishment of a provincial labor tribunal which would advise the Government in labor and social legislation and assist in the settlement of disputes between employers and employees.

New York State Efforts To Reclaim Large Sum In Montreal Bank Fruitless

Judicial Committee of Privy Council Refuses to Hear Appeal from Quebec Courts Rejecting Claim to Money Deposited in Sewer Construction Case—Ancient Precedents Invoked.

London, July 4.—(P)—The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council today dismissed the appeal of the State of New York from decisions of the Quebec courts in its effort to reclaim $3,405,000 paid John M. Phillips for sewer construction between 1917 and 1923 in Queen's borough, New York.

Part of the money had been deposited in a Montreal bank. Their Lordships decided they could not hear the appeal on its merits because both lower courts had found against the appellants on questions of fact.

Aime Geoffrion, K.C., of Montreal, remarked that the rule under which Their Lordships rejected the appeal was not of cast iron.

Lord Atkin replied that the only time he recalled it had been waived when a woman appeared personally in a copyright case. "She fainted when told the rule might apply in her case, and the committee heard her address for three days, fearing she might faint again."

Lord Atkin added: "Mr. Geoffrion: We are not afraid of what might happen to you."

The appeal was heard by Lords Atkin, Russell of Killowen, Thankerton, Wright, and Romer.

The Queen's sewer scandal rocked New York city politics more than a decade ago. Phillips was charged with conspiracy in obtaining contracts fraudulently, but died before he could be brought to trial.

It was learned that $12,000 bills had been deposited in a Montreal bank in the name of Phillips' son, Francis, who was killed in an airplane accident. Claims to this money by New York state were rejected by the Superior Court in Montreal in 1934. It was found that in fact there had been no conspiracy. This judgment was upheld by the Quebec Court of Appeal last year.

HEAVY DAMAGE IS CAUSED BY FOSTER BLAZE

Prompt Work of Waterloo Fire Department Averts More Serious Loss — Flames Originated in Wright Building.

Foster, July 4. — Considerable damage was done to the property of R. H. Wright, by a fire that originated from a short circuit caused by defective wiring. The large building which houses Mr. Wright's general store and living quarters was threatened for a while as were adjoining structures but quick work by the Waterloo Fire Department averted what might have been a large conflagration.

First noticed before midnight, the blaze had broken out in a garage to the rear of the Wright establishment and was apparently under control when smoke was seen pouring out of the upper storey windows of the building. A call was put in for the Waterloo department, five miles away, and the prompt response undoubtedly was instrumental in saving the structure.

Because of an inadequate water supply, fears were expressed that the blaze would not be checked in time to be kept from spreading to the Town Hall and hotel, which adjoin Mr. Wright's general store but these proved groundless as the fire-fighters quenched the flames. Great damage was caused by smoke and chemicals.

"Some day you'll be rich enough to retire from business."

"Give up my nice pleasant office and stay home? I should say not."

MILBY CENTRE

Mrs. Samuel Hopper, "Four Elms," was hostess at the June meeting of the Milby Centre Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. R. W. S. Nutbrown, the president, was in the chair. The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Richard Smith and the hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung. Mrs. W. T. Evans acting as accompanist. There was an interesting response to the roll call, "What Can I Do to Strengthen My Union?" Mrs. C. H. George gave an account of the recent social gathering and tea held at the home of Mrs. Robert Smith and a vote of thanks to Mrs. Smith was moved. A lawn social in the near future was suggested, plans being left to the social committee. A report of the county convention held in Sherbrooke was given by the delegate, Mrs. C. H. George. Following adjournment tea was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. S. McHarg, Mrs. Philip Sarasin and Mrs. Doris Ross. There were several visitors in for the tea and social hour following.

JIM BRUEN IS CHILL AS ICE ON GOLF LINKS

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 4.—(P)—Young Jim Bruen of Ireland probably is the most notable example of independence in St. Andrews today.

The young Irishman, who knocked out a sixty-nine yesterday to tie with Lawson Little of the United States and Percy Allis of England for the qualifying lead in the British Open golf tourney, is only nineteen, thick-set and heavily legged. He is deliberate as fate and cool as they come and he treats the best golf course in Scotland like dirt and doesn't treat his opponents much better.

When he's going to hit an iron shot, James walks all the way up to the green and even peers into the hole. He takes as long to sight a drive as the average player does on a putt. Often he flops flat on his belly to sight a wood shot.

Last night he gave the impression that whether he wins the tournament or not, he still is one of the best players in it.

"I don't see what's to prevent me from having as good a day tomorrow or Wednesday as I did today," Bruen said. "I was beating 70 on this course all last week."

At that he has the record to back him up. He won the boys' championship at sixteen and holds four course records in Ireland.

He has great competitive spirit, too. Yesterday when he started his first round he drove into "Whins," a tight clump of bushes. The ball was unplayable, so Bruen went back to the tee. He was on a par four green in two and down in two more.

There was a vast difference in the way yesterday's three leaders got their sixty-nines. Little played serenely and smoothly and never tried a shot he didn't think would pay dividends. Allis golfed cautiously and well for the first nine, then when he found his putting touch was back, went at it a little harder.

But Bruen attacked the course savagely and fought it for eighteen holes. He tried shots that seemed against all the laws of nature and the Royal and Ancient Golf Club—a like a high No. 8 in the teeth of a brisk wind. He made it and others like it.

"Man," said an ancient caddy, "that's golf."

ACTIVITIES IN FULL SWING AT Y.M.C.A. CAMP

Approximately Thirty Youngsters Enjoying Holiday at Y's Men's Summer Camp on Little Lake.

Fine weather for the past two days provided an auspicious start for about thirty youngsters who are this week taking advantage of the Y's Men's Camp on the shores of Little Lake. Under the direction of W. J. Peak the lads will take part in a programme of hikes, water sports, games of all sorts, life saving classes, camp fires, sing-songs and other activities usual to camp life.

Visitors to the "Y" Camp have noted with interest the spacious main building and dining hall and the clean, well-kept cabins that provide sleeping quarters for the young campers. Adjacent to the buildings is a large playing field, while along from the front verandah of the main building is the broad pathway to the safe beach.

Perhaps the most important item on the programme is swimming, special instruction being given to those that cannot swim or have only a knowledge of the rudiments of the sport.

The young campers will be supervised by Fred Cooper, Ken Willis, Frank Bell and Fred Simpson, capable leaders, and will remain at the lakeside from one to three weeks.

Those providing cars for the transportation of the youngsters to camp were Mrs. M. Mitchell, Walter Mutchler, J. G. Colter, Ben C. Howard, William Cohoon and Adjutant S. Williams, of the Salvation Army.

What they said of the big fight: Dan Parker, Mirror: "Galento acquitted himself with all the honors that can go to a brave man who has done his best and failed."

Jack Miley, Post: "I am not going to kid Tony about being fat any more. That extra weight is his heart."

Hyge Igoe, Journal - American: "Galento was more glamorous in defeat than he had been in any of his victories."

Jimmy Powers, News: "It was the best battle of punches since Dempsey-Firpo. And make no mistake about this — Galento has a better punch than Louis."

James P. Dawson, Times: "Galento missed the title only because in his heavy, awkward-footed way, he could not muster the accuracy to knock another left hook to the jaw such as the blow that floored Louis."

Wilbur Wood, Sun: "Louis put at rest once and for all any suspicion that he could not take it or that he would fold when the going is tough."

Joe Williams, World - Telegram: "Galento was the story. He showed that Louis is not monumentally a great fighter."

INJURIES FAIL TO DISHEARTEN RECORD MAKER

Four Thousand Spectators Cheer Montana Auctioneer at Conclusion of 288-Mile Swim Down Yellowstone River.

Glendive, Mont., July 4.—(P)—Clarence Giles was "smacked around pretty hard" by the Yellowstone River but he fought his way down 288 miles of it to claim today a new world's distance swimming record.

Four thousand spectators cheered the forty-five-year-old Glendive cattle auctioneer when he climbed out of the churlish river at 6 p.m. last night—under his own power.

Griming through parched and bleeding lips, Giles said he felt "pretty good, except for the bruises." He had lost eleven of his 220 pounds since leaving Billings, Mont., 77 1-2 hours before.

"The toughest part of the swim was a surprise to me—a spot about twenty-five miles west of here, just above the Buffalo Rapids.

"The water pitched downward sharply at that point for about seven-five feet. There was a whirlpool at the bottom and I got caught in it and smacked around pretty hard before I could work my way out."

Floating driftwood and unseen boulders raked the husky's swimmer's legs. For a time he wore a bandage over an infected eye; another time a wrenched back forced him to propel himself with one arm.

But aided by the swift current, he averaged 2.6 miles an hour.

Frank Hyde, Glendive newspaperman, said Giles' title claim was not damaged by his having left the water once—for ten minutes at Forsyth, Mont. He waited there for repairs to the automobile used by his wife and sixteen-year-old daughter, Marian, in supplying food to the boat party accompanying the swimmer.

Son Jack, nineteen, was a member of the boat party.

QUEBEC RIVERS ARE NEAR NORMAL LEVEL

Quebec, July 4.—(P)—Flood waters, which have flooded over low-lying areas in Quebec and Fortin counties since late last week, was receding at all points today.

Streams, which overflowed their banks, carried away a temporary bridge, and flooded villages, summer resorts and farm lands along the shore, gradually receded following a let-up in the torrential rains.

The rainfall from Thursday to Saturday almost equalled that of the whole month of May, observatory officials reported.

Nearly all roads in the flooded areas were open to traffic today, although some still were in a soft condition.

Rheumatic Pain Goes! Now He Walks Without Limping; Feels Fine!

"Mosby's Tonic Relieved My Suffering," Says Mr. Gauthier. Cleans Poisons from System—Acts on Sluggish Kidneys and Liver—Now this Man Feels "Like New."

Another actual instance of splendid relief from long suffering came to light here a few days ago in a statement about MOSBY'S TONIC received from Mr. Omer Gauthier, 45 Champe de Mars St., Montreal. Mosby's Tonic is the new scientific compound of roots and herbs and other splendid ingredients which has recently created so much discussion here in Sherbrooke and which is being introduced to crowds daily by a Special Mosby's Tonic Representative, known as The Mosby Tonic Man, at the Magnon Pharmacy, 11 Wellington St. North. Following is Mr. Gauthier's grateful statement about Mosby's Tonic:

Rheumatic Pain, Due to Sluggish Liver, Kidneys

"If anybody in this world ever suffered from what you call real liver and kidney sluggishness and rheumatic pain, then I know I am that very person for I had to quit work on account of my suffering," said Mr. Gauthier. "My liver was so sluggish that my system was always full of sickening bile, and it seemed like every ounce of energy had left my body and I just dragged around."

My sluggish kidneys caused sharp pains across my back, and when I got up in the morning I could hardly straighten up to walk. My rheumatic pains settled in my legs and my knees were so afflicted with it that I couldn't walk without limping. Finally I had to lay off from work."

Mosby's Tonic Relieves Him; Now Feels Fine

"I tried first one thing and then another for this suffering of mine, but nothing helped me and I surely was discouraged. But finally I found Mosby's Tonic, and want to say to everybody in this vicinity that this medicine did more for me than everything else I tried combined. In three weeks it simply changed me all over. It had a fine invigorating action on my sluggish liver, cleared out the old liver bile and waste and poison and now I have more energy THAN IN YEARS. It also acted on my kidneys, and the pains, stiffness and soreness are gone from my back and I can sit fine at night. Best of all is the way Mosby's Tonic relieved my rheumatic pains. Now I can walk without limping. I am back at my work again, and I feel fine, in fact, I feel LIKE NEW. This medicine is certainly splendid and I hope my statement will cause many other people who suffer as I did to get it and take it!"

Remember! Mosby's Tonic Is Reasonable in Price

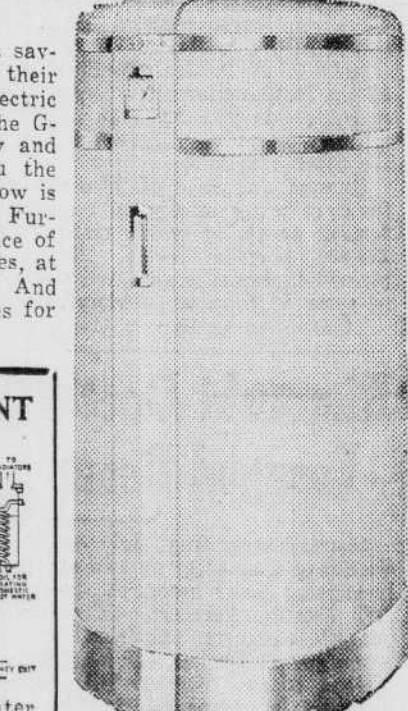

"Bear this in mind, that is, the price of Mosby's Tonic is reasonable. In every market where it is introduced, it quickly becomes the fastest selling medicine of its kind in that community. It does this almost without exception. And as a result of this Large Sales Volume, we are able to sell you Mosby's Tonic at a reasonable price. You can actually take this New Formula, with its Many Herbs and Other Splendid Ingredients, for just a few cents per day. So don't hesitate. Get Mosby's Tonic—NOW—and start taking it!"

A Special Mosby's Tonic Representative, known as the MOSBY TONIC MAN, is now at the CHAIXON PHARMACY, 11 Wellington St. North, Sherbrooke, daily meeting crowds of people and introducing and explaining this New Compound.

Condition Of Reynold Quinn Is Regarded As "Critical"

Verdict of Accidental Death Returned Yesterday Afternoon at Inquest into Death of Miss Isabelle McMahon, Who Lost Her Life While Returning from Plessisville—Funeral Services to Be Held Tomorrow Morning at St. Patrick's Church.

Funeral services will be held in St. Patrick's Church at nine o'clock tomorrow morning for Miss Isabelle McMahon, only daughter of Mrs. D. M. McMahon and the late Mr. McMahon, who lost her life in an accident near Kingsley Falls yesterday morning while returning from Plessisville where she had been visiting friends.

Miss McMahon, accompanied by her brother, Maurice, and Reynold Quinn, of Brocktonville, died from heart failure after the car in which they were driving suddenly left the highway and turned over in a nearby field.

Following the accident an inquest was held by Coroner Dr. Georges Letendre, of Danville, at the home of Pierre Roy, which was near to the scene of the tragedy. A verdict of accidental death was returned by the Coroner's jury.

Reynold Quinn, who sustained serious injuries, was immediately removed to the Sherbrooke Hospital, where he is under the care of Dr. W. W. Lynch. Reports from the hospital this morning were that Quinn's condition, which is regarded as critical, was unchanged.

The late Miss McMahon is survived by her mother and three brothers, Donald, City Editor of the Sherbrooke Record; Maurice and Leopold. Extremely popular with the younger social set of Sherbrooke, the death of Miss McMahon will be keenly felt not only in the family circle but by a host of friends.

NEAR-DROWNING IS AVERTED BY CITY RESIDENT

Kenneth B. Dean, Employee of the Record, Saves Friend from Death in Swift Current of St. Lawrence River.

A Sherbrooke resident and an employee of the Record, Kenneth B. Dean, 108 Laurier avenue, was hero of a near-drowning tragedy at the Montreal Motor Boat Club over the Dominion Day week-end, it was learned today.

Victim of the narrowly-averted tragedy was Paul Gelin, Point-aux-Trembles youth. With Dean and two Montreal residents, George Boucher and Lionel Manion, Gelin had gone to the club on the St. Lawrence river for the holiday.

While swimming on Sunday afternoon, Gelin was caught in the strong current and was unable to get back to the boat in which the other three were seated.

Losing his strength in the struggle with the swift current, Gelin shouted for assistance. Dean immediately jumped into the water and swam to aid the exhausted youth, holding his head above water until George Boucher reached the spot. A rowboat which had been fastened to the motor boat.

As Gelin was climbing into the boat it capsized and again Dean held him until the fourth member of the party, Lionel Manion, reached the scene in another rowboat.

Kenneth Dean, hero of the incident, is a linotype operator in the Record printing shop. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dean.

Plane Transports University Head To Face Louisiana Fraud Charges

Continued from page 1. Proclaiming his innocence since his arrest in Canada, Smith and his wife were driven to Syracuse early today and Murphy Roden, Assistant Chief of Louisiana State Police, said the party would leave for Baton Rouge by way of Cleveland in mid-morning.

Roden drove the Smiths on their uneventful trip through upstate New York from Brockville, Ont., where the former University President surrendered Saturday night. The party, which also included Special Investigator Bryan Clemmons, travelled in the new sedan Smith purchased before entering Canada at Windsor, Ont., last week. Travelling approximately forty miles an hour, the car entered the United States after passing midway of the Thousand Islands bridge across the St. Lawrence river for a thorough search of the Smiths' luggage by customs officials. The party stopped once for a few minutes near Watertown.

Before leaving Brockville, Smith told newspapermen in an interview he was "innocent of any wrongdoing" and that he would "fight" an indictment charging him with misusing the University's funds.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith signed waivers before being driven away from Brockville where they had been under guard in their hotel room. The officers flew to the Canadian resort town in a Louisiana State University plane.

Mrs. Smith is charged with "harboring" and "assisting" her husband.

Expressing eagerness to return to Baton Rouge, Smith said he knew nothing of the charges against him until he read of his indictment in a Toronto newspaper.

Large Influx Of Tourists As Americans Observe July 4th

The combination of Independence Day, America's national holiday, and warm, sunny skies have served as a stimulant to the Eastern Townships tourist trade that has lagged somewhat due to a late summer, and today a more than usually large number of outside cars were seen in Sherbrooke and the district.

With many of the travellers taking advantage of the lengthy week-end by including yesterday as a holiday indication is that the holiday influx of visitors will aid materially in keeping the tourist level up to that of other years.

In addition to the tourists from the other side of the international boundary line there are also an unusually large number from Ontario and other provinces who have chosen Old Quebec for their holiday stay. The Eastern Townships has also been the mecca for travellers from Montreal and Northern Quebec who are passing through this district on the way to the World's Fair in New York.

Most of the summer cottages in the district are now occupied and local tradesmen are feeling the effects of an augmented buying public. Every year shop-keepers count on the summer residents at the various resorts near here to help trade and to balance the loss incurred when local residents move farther afield for their vacations.

Although much paving is being done on some of the more important highways leading to the city flow of traffic has not been materially affected and the road work is not expected to interfere greatly with the tourist trade.

Yesterday's temperatures with a maximum of seventy-seven and a minimum of forty-one were considerably higher than last year's mark when high was sixty-six and low was thirty.

WOULD THAT SHERBROOKE WAS MODERN

Attractive transparent oiled silk bathing suits such as pretty Jean Foster, above, wears, will grab the beach beauty of 1950. It was prophesied at a recent fashion show at Alexandria Bay, N.Y. This type of bathing suit might go over big in modern cities, but it would not make first base in Sherbrooke. The City Council has guarded against anything as attractive—and sensible—as this. Perhaps the Sherbrooke City Fathers will stage a beach fashion show depicting the type of bathing overcoat they favor.

NIGHT IN THE DESERT

We lay upon the desert sands,
We held its coolness in our hands,
And let the white, the unseen grain
Fall to the desert heart again.
There was no shadow of a leaning tree
To shut from our wondering eyes
One glimmer of the open skies.
There was no curve of neighboring hill
To break that beauty—luminous and still.
And all the little words we said
Were echoes of the music made
By summer stars in silver flight
Across that other desert—night!

GREATER CAUTION NEEDED

The need for greater caution by motorists at the junction of Big Forks street and Wellington street becomes more apparent as the summer traffic enters its heaviest phase. Ever since Big Forks street was opened to traffic, the corner has been a spot for potential accidents, the situation becoming so serious that a few years ago a stop sign was placed at the head of the street, with the police making a determined effort to enforce the ruling. This had the desired effect with a sharp reduction in the number of minor and threatening accidents.

Protests from motorists who claimed that the stop order increased driving difficulties brought a change on the ruling, an eight mile an hour limit replacing the stop edict. This served its purpose for a time, but of late months a distinct tendency has been noticed to disregard the limit, with cars coming onto Wellington street at virtually any speed.

Steps should be taken, either to enforce the ruling of eight miles or return to the old stop system.

THE FUTURE OF NEWFOUNDLAND

The serious problem facing the Imperial Government in connection with the administration of Newfoundland, now under the tutelage of an administrative commission of three Newfoundlanders and three Englishmen is emphasized by the announcement that the people of Great Britain must find $5,405,000 to assist in meeting the expenditure needs of the former Dominion, the budget of which calls for $17,116,900. For many years the financial position of Canada's neighbor has been anything but satisfactory, the culmination being reached several years ago when Great Britain and Canada were forced to advance substantial sums to permit the island to meet its obligations.

Realizing that one of the great curses of the territory had been politics, drastic action was taken to change the form of government with the hopes that the country might be rehabilitated. This failed to achieve anything substantial, however, and despite increasing expenditures and grants in aid from the Old Land, business conditions have become worse with a larger proportion of people subsisting on the dole.

Two solutions are seen for the trouble, a change in the economic structure of the colony, now resting on codfish, or the fusion with the Dominion of Canada. Perhaps a combination of both would produce the best results. The Commission of Government is hopeful of increasing agricultural development of the island so that less food will be imported and the income of the people increased. But to date their efforts have met with little success, the people to a great extent having become enervated to their condition, the rather one-sided diet of codfish and potatoes having undermined their morale.

Union with Canada is favored in many quarters but the dependence of Newfoundland commerce on Old Country financial institutions provides many practical difficulties to such a step. In the meantime the people of Great Britain pay and pay while the people of Newfoundland continue depressed.

THE CARILLON MUSEUM

Stirring days in Canada's early history are recalled by the Carillon Museum which was recently opened by Hon. T. S. Crerar, Minister of Mines and Resources. The conversion of the old Carillon barracks, built about 1830, into the historical museum has been brought about by the efforts of the Argenteuil County Historical Association with the assistance of the Dominion Government.

The immediate neighborhood of the museum is rich in historical associations, for it was here in 1660 that Dollard des Ormeaux and sixteen other Frenchmen made a gallant stand for eight days against eight hundred Iroquois. A rough palisade fort was built and though the valiant defenders were killed to the last man, the budding colony at Montreal was saved. Carillon was named after Carrion du Fresnoy, an officer of the Carignan regiment in 1670.

One of the best preserved examples of military architecture of the period of early British rule in the Province of Quebec, the building is a four-storey structure, located at the foot of the Long Sault Rapids on the north bank of the Ottawa River, about seventy-five miles from Ottawa. It was erected by General Forbes, himself a veteran of the Napoleonic and Peninsular wars, for the accommodation of the Royal Engineers, a military unit detailed to this locality for the construction of the Carillon-Grenville Canal. This canal is said to have been built on the advice of the Duke of Wellington during the troubled years that followed upon the war of 1812, and it is still used in the transit of freight between Montreal and Ottawa. The archives reveal that the barracks building also saw military occupation during the rebellion of 1837-39.

The most revered traditions of the French and English sections of the population of Argenteuil County are centered around the old Carillon Barracks, and its development as a historical museum provides a lasting memorial to the stirring events with which it has been associated.

ALIEN SMUGGLING RETURNS

Reports coming from the international border, especially in the Detroit area, indicate that the old sport of alien smuggling has returned with all its former glory or disrepute. According to information from Detroit, border patrolmen with machine guns have established a special watch on the Detroit river to combat this rising wave of alien smuggling, the immigration officers being aided by a detail of Federal Bureau of Investigation operatives sent to Detroit especially for this work. The theft of a speedy cruiser from a Detroit boat club and its subsequent return unharmed has increased the belief that the City has become the centre of activity for a well-organized band of smugglers.

The power boat was the fourth "borrowed" in recent weeks. Two have been taken from the Canadian side and two from the American side. The radios or other articles that would make easy loot for petty thieves or joyriders were not taken in any case, the stories point out.

The significant fact in all four cases is that whenever a boat has been taken for a short period Federal Agents have learned through the underworld grapevine that ten or twelve aliens, mainly Chinese, had come into the United States in this district about the same time.

EDITOR'S NOTE-BOOK

A composer of popular ballads confesses that he gets most of his ideas from his wife. Of course a woman can make a song about anything.

A coastguard says he is frequently mistaken by holiday makers for a beach inspector. He explains to them that he is keeping a lookout for smugglers, not smugglers.

"Golf is one of the games that have to be learnt from the very beginning," says a professional. It's not the slightest use starting at the nineteenth hole.

We read that natives in Central Africa are eager to wear European fashions. No wonder missionaries become discouraged.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From the Files of the Sherbrooke Record.

July 4th, 1909.

The cement foundations for the new iron bridge opposite R. French's residence at Flanders have been completed by W. Gates and everything is now ready for the bridge builders from Montreal.

Several clergy and laymen from the surrounding parishes expect to be present at the laying of the cornerstone for the new Bishop Carmichael Memorial Church at Foster which is taking place tomorrow.

Nearly three thousand people attended the ceremony of the solemn benediction of the new bridge across the Chaudiere at St. Joseph de Beauce on Sunday. Special trains brought excursionists from Levis, Quebec, Thetford and many points in Beauce County. The Honorable Messrs. L. A. Taschereau and Rodolphe Roy represented the Government which contributed $15,000 of the $23,000, the total cost of the structure.

Bearing several signatures of residents having children of school age, a petition is being circulated among Protestant parents requesting the Board of Protestant School Commissioners of the City of Sherbrooke to allow the primary pupils to attend school half days only. The appeal explains the need of the other half day for recreation and lessons in other things.

An interesting meeting of the Directors of the Sherbrooke County Agricultural Society was held at Waterloo on Saturday when the following were chosen as judges of the Fall Fair: Asa Johnson, Miss Johnson, E. E. Temple, C. B. Taylor, Mrs. Dr. Corcoran, Mrs. J. Nichol, Mrs. F. J. Johnson and Mrs. Arthur Allen. It is expected the judges on live stock will be furnished by the Government. During the session it was decided to erect a large building for thoroughbred cattle and the contract was given to W. H. Martin and Sons.

HAUNTED

Without the window lies the rain-streaked night;
Without the wet, black pavement shines like glass,
Mirroring in long, wavering lines of bright,
Pure gold the haloed street lamps. Figures pass
Like wind-blown wraiths across the dripping pane,
And, passing, turn a moment toward the light
Pale faces, dumbly questioning. The rain,
Blurring the window, blots them from my sight.
Within is warmth, and comfort that derides
Their wistful eyes. I turn away. And still Those faces haunt me; one thin pane divides
My life from their life, my good from their ill.
What must I do then? How act? Undismayed,
Thro' the window, or draw down the shade?

TIME FOR THE ALDERMEN TO WAKE UP

To the Editor,
Sherbrooke Record.

Dear Sir:—After reading "Mrs. Grundy Comes to Life," in a recent edition of the Record, I would like to ask this question: "Why do the broad-minded, sport-loving people of Sherbrooke allow a few narrow-minded, grumpy-like aldermen, like some of the members of our present City Council, to run this lovely city, which could easily be made an ideal summer resort, if it were not for their rigid, but fruitless, city by laws?"

I am reminded of one incident which occurred on a recent warm day. I happened to be walking along Wellington street, not in shorts, I assure you, because our big brave policemen might give me a ticket. But, as I was saying, on the corner of Wellington and Meadow streets I saw three girls and three boys. None of them were over eighteen years of age, and they wanted to go for a swim. They also planned on taking their lunch and remaining for the evening. But, the question was, where could they go? Certainly there was no place within the city limits. They would have been willing to go to the Vacation Colony, but, if they did, they would have to separate, as mixed bathing is not permitted.

Well, the result was that the six youngsters hired a taxi and off they went to Rock Forest for the remainder of the day and evening. Literally speaking, they were shoed out of their own city limits, and from police protection, into the woods, alone, to swim in a dangerous spot.

Now, what is the sense of a by-law brought in and more under control, the death rates in Canada being considerably less than ten years ago, the mortality from degenerative diseases continues to increase. Some interesting comparisons have been issued by the Health League of Canada, as between the years 1915 and 1936, the last year for which final government data is available.

Diseases of the heart and arteries lead the list with over 2,000 deaths per month in Canada. The rate per hundred thousand population in 1936 was 235.9 as compared with 177.5 ten years previous, an increase of 32.8 per cent. The greatest increase took place in the Western Provinces, from 115.5 to 196.6 per 100,000, a rise of 72.1 per cent. The Maritime Provinces increased to 243.3, equal to 46.1 per cent. Quebec from 158 to 185.8, an increase of 21.4 per cent. Ontario had the highest death rate in 1936, 320.2, which was an increase over the 1926 rate, 253.1, of 26.5 per cent.

Cancer rates were up 30.6 per cent in Ontario, 43.2 per cent in Quebec and 39.9 per cent in Canada. Diabetes rates were up 21.4 per cent in Ontario, 25.6 per cent in Quebec and eighteen per cent in Canada.

The explanation of the increase in deaths from these causes, particularly in the West, is the shifting of population from younger to older groups. All of the degenerative diseases occur to a larger extent after forty-five years of age. In 1911 not quite eighteen per cent of the population was forty-five years of age and upwards; by 1931 the percentage had risen to 25.17.

In the case of diabetes, it is important to note that while the number of deaths has increased to some extent since the discovery of insulin, the lives of many a victim of this disease, in Toronto in the period from 1916 to 1922 the average at death was fifty years. In the period from 1930 to 1937 it was sixty-four years.

Mr. Gioveti told us that farmers were keeping more cows today than when they sold their hay, but in this he is ill informed. The truth is that, after losing the hay market, they have had to reduce the number of their cows, and today many are forced to sell their livestock to pay current expenses on the farm. We have therefore fewer and fewer cows as the months go by.

What is the truth in this distribution of free butter is just a political scheme to clear the surplus in view of approaching elections, for the recipients are voters and the public in general, seeing only the kindness done to these people and not the damage done to the farming community, is sure to applaud. That again means more votes.

Why curb the gold mines, which in 1925 produced seventy-seven millions, the output in 1937 being forty-five millions. Is this curbing of gold mines to increase the number of unemployed so they may help consume the manna that falls from Government?

Canada imported five to eight million pounds of Australian butter, fulfilled all orders in the country, and then our Government let fall as manna four to six millions of Canadian butter. Is that right? Is that what the people wish?

Yours truly,
ALDEN LENNON.

WHY AN ELECTION?

Prime Minister King stated several years ago that there would be no general election until 1940 unless something unforeseen made it necessary. He could very well declare that nothing had transpired in the House of Commons, no challenge had come from the opposition party, to warrant any departure from the original decision of the government to carry on until 1940.

PRESS COMMENTS

KEEP CANADA "FOREIGN" COUNTRY

The "theme song" of Canada's Government travel advertising is that Canada is a "foreign country." This is a basically sound appeal to the American traveller.

But do we follow through and take full advantage of the fact that Canada is a foreign country to the American visitor in our midst? Not always. Many of our hotels, service stations and restaurants try to make the American visitor feel that he is still at home. That is not what the visitor wants.

Leo Dolan, director of the Canadian Travel Bureau, mentioned in Toronto last week that often the garages, stores, etc., lining our tourist highways are decorated with American flags. Hotels and restaurants advertise "Cape Cod oysters," "Idaho potatoes" and "Southern fried chicken."

Travellers do not come to Canada to get what they can enjoy at home. They want to see Canadian flags. They want to be offered Canadian-made souvenirs—blankets, Indian handicraft goods (without "Made in Japan" labels). Canadian-made clothing and shoes, books and paintings by Canadian authors and artists. They want to eat Prince Edward Island oysters, Lake Winnipeg gold eyes, New Brunswick potatoes, Ontario blueberries, Quebec maple products, British Columbia and Nova Scotia apples.

Unfortunately, not all those who serve the American visitor in Canada can be relied upon to appreciate the significance of such considerations. There is need for leadership from the Canadian Travel Bureau, acting with and through provincial and local tourist offices, the railway companies, the steamship lines, the hotels, the gasoline companies and other agencies to educate all service groups to what the American visitor wants to do and see and eat. Canada calls the tourist. But when the visitor comes let us show him Canada—and not just a second-rate edition of the United States.

McKENNEY'S BRIDGE QUIZ

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY
Secretary, American Contract Bridge League

"SAFETY FIRST" PLAY AND EXPERT TIMING WILL BRING PLAYER DUPLICATE VICTORY

Today's bridge quiz hand was taken from last year's Hershey Tournament, a Master Point tournament of the American Contract Bridge League, which will be held this year at the Community Building in Hershey, Pa., July 14, 15 and 16.

1. Should North and South reach a contract of three no trump, after South's original pass?

2. If West leads the jack of spades against a three no trump contract, should the declarer finesse dummy's queen?

3. When the declarer gains the lead, what suit should he start?

4. Should West win the first heart trick?

Solution of Bridge Quiz
1. Yes. The combined hands warrant the game bid. North should open with one club, which gives him a chance to bid a spade over a one diamond or one heart response by South. When South responds with one diamond, North should bid one spade, South two no trump and North three no trump.

2. No. If East gets in with the king of spades, he will probably shift to a diamond. The spade queen has that suit definitely stopped, so the first trick should be won with the ace.

3. The declarer should start the heart suit immediately, thus establishing two heart tricks.

4. No. West should not win the first heart trick. Now, the declarer must not continue hearts, but should play the jack of clubs and take the finesse. As soon as he runs the club suit, he must lead another heart.

If in the seventeenth century there had been a man in Germany capable of uniting the country, we might be leading the world—not to a diamond. The spade queen has that suit definitely stopped, so the first trick should be won with the ace.

IN THE WOMEN'S SPHERE

MANY REPORTS ARE PRESENTED AT CONFERENCE

Scotstown, July 4.—Progress was the keynote in the many gratifying reports presented at the twenty-fifth annual conference of the Women's Missionary Society, Quebec Presbyterian of the Presbyterian Church in Canada held in St. Paul's Church here.

Mrs. E. E. Gilson, of Sherbrooke, president, was in the chair and the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Gilles, Milan, Mrs. A. Murray, of Sherbrooke, Mrs. Melver, of Melbourne, and Mrs. O. R. Campbell, of Montreal.

Mrs. McLellan, of Scotstown, in a very charming manner, welcomed the many delegates who attended the conference while, on behalf of the visitors, Miss Wheeler, of Sherbrooke, extended thanks and appreciation to the Scotstown Auxiliary for their kind and efficient and gracious hospitality.

Departmental reports occupied the greater part of the morning session, the several secretaries presenting in condensed and interesting form the work carried on by the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church.

That great progress had been made during the past year and that all allocations had been oversubscribed was gratifying news to the members assembled in annual conference at Scotstown.

Adoption of the departmental reports was moved by Mrs. Crawford Scott, of Danville, while the motion was seconded by Mrs. A. P. Watson, of Adderley, both paying tribute to the secretaries, not only upon the success revealed in their reports, but for the able and efficient manner in which they were presented.

Mrs. O. R. Campbell, of Montreal, led in the discussions which followed and Mrs. James McKelvie, of Lennoxville, introduced new business.

Members of the Scotstown Auxiliary then served lunch in the Town Hall, this hospitality being very much appreciated by everyone.

The afternoon session was also opened with devotional exercises, following which the minutes of the morning's session were read and adopted.

The answer to the roll call revealed that eight auxiliaries were well represented and that seven of the presidents were in attendance at the annual meeting.

To Mrs. E. E. Gilson, president, fell the pleasant task of introducing Mrs. J. W. Dougherty, of Montreal, president of the Provincial Board, who brought greetings from the Provincial.

The speaker then drew comparisons between the W.M.S. work today and that of twenty-five years ago.

The membership remains the same, said Mrs. Dougherty, but contributions have more than doubled within that period, proving that the work of the W.M.S. has been successfully carried on by the members.

The Young People's Conference which is taking place in Huntingdon from July 3rd to July 10th, with a view to leadership training among young people will be under the supervision of Rev. and Mrs. Allan Reid, of Montreal, and the speaker urged all young people to take advantage of this wonderful opportunity.

The W.M.S. girls' camp which will be open at St. Andrew's East from August 14th until August 28th, under the management of Mrs. Craig, of Montreal, will be supervised by Miss Violet Tennant, Dominion Girls' Secretary.

At this camp there will also be in attendance a trained nurse, a swimming teacher and two teachers for Bible study and handicraft.

COWANSVILLE W.C.T.U. WILL GO TO GRANBY

ATTRACTIONS AT THE LOCAL THEATRES

At The Granada

"Bridal Suite," which opens at the Granada tomorrow affords a happy variation from the more serious problems of life the heart-beats being provided by Annabella and Robert Young, teamed for the first time, the chief supporting fun-makers being Walter Connolly, Reginald Owen, Gene Lockhart, Arthur Treacher and Billie Burke.

In the story Robert Young is rushed off to Switzerland by his flutery mother, Billie Burke, to be cured of forgetfulness so that he may remember such trifles as his wedding date, but he loses his heart to Annabella, manageress of the Swiss inn, with a resultant series of daffy complications.

The story of Mexico not so many decades ago is reenacted in "Juarez" headlined by Paul Muni with Bette Davis, Brian Ahearn and Claude Rains.

At The Premier

Based on life along the Mississippi in the carefree days after the Civil War "Zenobia," Hal Roach's latest offering, features Oliver Hardy as a small town doctor and Langdon as the owner of a medicine show, the rivalry between the two being complicated by Zenobia, Langdon's town she-depot who forms a heavy attachment for the doctor after the latter utters an uncomfortable knot in her tail.

Billie Burke and Alice Brady give rich comedy performances in their respective role of doctor's wife and small-town snob, while the supporting cast numbers Jean Parker, James Ellison and June Lang. The story concerns the efforts of the Tibbitt family to overcome the social ostracism in which they have been placed by Zenobia's attention to the doctor.

The second picture on the bill at the Premier for the four days Wednesday to Saturday is "Crime Takes a Holiday," featuring Jack Holt supported by Marjorie Ralston, Russell Hopton and Douglas Dumbrille.
