PARLIAMENT. DID DEWEY DO IT?

Another Division Took Place Yesterday.

House Voted Not to Reduce the Tariff on Coal Oil—68 Against and 30 For.

Ottawa, April 25.—A principal feature of yesterday's sitting of Parliament was the discussion and division on the coal oil question.

Mr. T. O. Davis, Saskatchewan, moved, in the opinion of the House, coal oil should be put on the free list, contending the time had arrived when his motion should become a fait accompli. He should not have moved that resolution, but for the great comings that they knew at present existed, called the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. D. C. Fraser, Guysboro, said that in Canada the well owners who had sold them the great combine were an insignificant number compared with those who retained and worked their own petroleum wells. The petroleum industry was almost entirely in the hands of Canadians, and it was in the interests of those people that he opposed the motion. Some people seemed always ready to rejoice in decrying all that was made in Canada, and to laud to the skies everything made on the other side of the line.

Mr. Ellis (St. Johns, N. B.) supported the motion of the hon. member for Saskatchewan. The Minister of Finance said this was a subject which the Government could not take up on a special motion as it was undesirable to anticipate the budget. (Government cheers). He then moved the adjournment of the debate.

Mr. Monk (Conservative member for Jacques Cartier) said the Government obtained support in his constituency by promising to free coal oil. They had not carried out that promise and he should support the motion.

Mr. W. S. Calvert (W. Middlesex) opposed the motion. Mr. Davis finally said he was willing to accept the amendment, but a division was challenged, when there voted for the amendment, 68; against the amendment, 30. Government majority 38.

ARE THEY THE MEN?

Two Parties Arrested at Farnham Are Now in Sherbrooke Jail.

Brought Before the Magistrate This Morning Charged With Being Connected with the Windsor House Shooting Affair.

High Constable Moe returned from Farnham last night, with the two men arrested there, who were suspected of being connected with the shooting affair at the Windsor Hotel, this city, last May.

They were brought before Judge Mulvena, this morning, and gave their names as John Lane, of Toronto, book binder, and Arthur Bradley, of New York city, steam fitter. They were remanded for preliminary examination until Friday morning next.

It will be remembered that in the shooting affair referred to, four men were engaged. The wounded man and one other was secured. The one who fired the shot and his companion, could not, however, be traced. The two arrested refused to give any information against them and after serving a term in jail for vagrancy were released.

A fairly good description of the two men who escaped was, however, obtained and it is said to correspond very well with the parties now in jail. It is understood that some who saw the men in May last and have seen those arrested at Farnham, state that they can identify them in court.

Should the men not be connected with the shooting affair of a year ago, it is understood they will be sent to Montreal where they are wanted by the police authorities on serious charges.

Mrs. Ashe and Miss Kathleen Ashe are at home again, after a prolonged stay with relatives and friends in Ontario and Montreal.

Mr. Z. Hill, formerly of Compton and now engaged in ranching at West-askwin, N.W.T., is visiting his old friends.

Messrs. D. G. Loomis & Sons will open a box factory in the Bryant shop building, recently damaged by fire. Work is already in progress in the lower portion of the shop and as soon as the upper part of the building which was destroyed by fire has been restored, machinery will be put in and the box manufactory opened on quite an extensive scale.

German Consul in Montreal Says Had He Insulted the German Flag as Reported He Would Not be Alive Today.

Germany Has Entered a Protest Against the Language of Capt. Coghlan and Demands His Punishment.

Montreal, April 25.—Mr. Bopp, the Imperial German Consul, in this city, speaking to a press representative regarding the speech reported to have been delivered in New York by Captain Coghlan, giving a sensational account of an alleged interview between Admiral Dewey and Admiral Diederichs, of the German Navy, said: "I am satisfied that there is no truth in the story, and that the communication from New York is a new attempt from a certain quarter to create a bad feeling between Germany and the United States, and to disturb the friendly relations which, so far, have withstood all calumnies.

"There is no officer in the German Navy who would listen to an insult to his flag without taking from the offender the possibility of repeating it, so if Admiral Dewey is alive still, the whole story is a lie."

Washington, April 25.—The German Government has entered the formal protest against the language used by Captain Coghlan, of the Raleigh, at the Union League Club banquet in New York last Friday night. The protest was lodged with Secretary Hay through the German ambassador, Her von Holleben.

Secretary Hay replied that the language appeared to have been used at a dinner in a club, and so could not be regarded as an official or public utterance in the sense that would warrant the State Department in acting. However, the Navy Department was fully competent to take such action as the case seemed to require. With this statement the ambassador was content for the time at least, and will doubtless await a reasonable length of time upon the Navy Department.

Berlin, April 25.—It is announced in a semi-official note that the United States Secretary of State, Col. Hay, has expressed to the German ambassador at Washington, Dr. Von Holleben, his strong disapproval of the "conduct of Captain Joseph B. Coghlan" of the United States cruiser Raleigh.

The afternoon newspapers here contain few comments upon Captain Coghlan's remarks, and they generally take a calm view of the after-dinner speech and consider the incident closed, particularly in view of the semi-official note published here announcing the strong disapproval of the United States Secretary of State with the captain's conduct, coupled with the dignified tone of the American press on the subject, which is regarded as being noteworthy and as testifying to the improved German-American relations. The Vossische Zeitung is an exception to this rule, and pronounces itself in favor of demanding severe punishment for Captain Coghlan. It says: "Captain Coghlan belongs to the class of American officers who have swelled heads in consequence of their easy victory over Spain."

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

April 25, 11 a.m.—Forecast for next 24 hours, issued by the Meteorological Bureau.

Fine today; showers or thunderstorms during the night or early on Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Miss Muriel Odell, who has been indisposed during much of the winter, is able to be out again.

The Junior Epworth League of the Methodist Church, will meet Saturday afternoon, at 3 p. m.

Twenty Lashes For Six Hairs.

A singular theft was tried by Mr. Beale, first class magistrate. Superstitious Burmans pull out the hairs of an elephant's tail for talismans, making rings out of them and other charms. One Nge Tun Lin went into an elephant's shed at Ahlone and pulled six hairs out of a bull elephant's tail, secreting them in his umbrella. The mahout challenged him, and he promptly shook the hairs out of the umbrella. They fell on some straw, were picked up and put forward in evidence of theft. The man was convicted and sentenced to receive 20 lashes.—Times of Burmah.

Not Mentioned.

"Everybody seems to have been mentioned for the office except you," observed the sympathizing friend. "Yes," replied the disappointed politician. "My name is Panta." "Then, of course," soothingly rejoined the other, "you might expect to be among the unmentionables." And silence like a poultice fell.—Chicago Tribune.

FILIPINOS IN FORCE.

Aguineldo Assembles a Large Army at Calumpit.

The American Forces on the March to Meet Them—Rebels Attempt to Destroy a Bridge.

Manila, April 24.—7.40 p.m.—General MacArthur's division left Malolos today, apparently intending to besiege Calumpit.

General Hale at 4 o'clock this afternoon had crossed the Bugbag and had reached a position a quarter of a mile from Calumpit, thus commanding the ford.

Prisoners captured by General Hale's troops say Aguineldo, General Luna and the Filipino staff are at Calumpit with a great force of Filipino troops.

Before daylight the Fourth cavalry, with three guns belonging to the Utah battery, the Nebraska regiment and the Iowa regiment, under General Hale, were proceeding in the direction of Kuinchua, where the Bagbag is fordable, but commanded by trenches. During the afternoon the troops crossed the river.

Generals McArthur and Wheaton, with the Montana regiment, advanced to the left of the railroad and the Kansas regiment moved forward to the right, north of Malolos.

They had with them a long supply train, with two armed cars in front, carrying two Gatlings and Colt rapid-fire guns and the six-pounder which did such execution at the capture of Malolos.

The insurgents attempted to destroy the railroad bridge outside of Calumpit and succeeded in badly warping the iron frame work.

As soon as the soldiers left the Filipino capital, the natives began flocking in, as they did in Santa Cruz before the last boat of General Lawton's expedition had sailed.

American army is compelled to abandon all towns when an onward movement is commenced, because of the insufficient number of men to garrison them.

RUSSIA'S DATE MAY BE MODERN.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—In reply to inquiries made by the committee that was appointed to consider a reform in the calendar, the foreign office and the department of the interior and finance have sent communications to the committee expressing themselves as favorable to a change from the old style, which is twelve days behind the calendar used by other civilized nations.

A SERIES OF MUSICAL CONCERTS.

The series of musical concerts which Mr. G. A. LeBaron proposes to hold in his new quarters, Banque d'Hoche-la-ga block, will take place next week. Many details yet remain to be settled. It has not been decided whether the concerts will be given every evening, or only on the nights when the by-law permits establishments to be open. Mr. LeBaron's idea in giving these concerts is to afford the public a musical treat, as the services of the best talent has been secured. There would be no attempt made to transact business; as the instruments would have to be moved into one end of the establishment to allow seats being placed for the audience. Mr. LeBaron will be under considerable expense in bringing musicians here and naturally would like to avail himself of their services every evening. If, however, any opposition to holding the concerts every evening is offered, the idea of doing so will likely be abandoned, and the entertainments confined to the three evenings when places of business are permitted to be open.

LACROSSE.

A Good Practice but no Business Meeting.

Sherbrooke Lacrosse players held their first practice last evening, as seniors, in the drill shed. There was a large turnout and much enthusiasm prevailed. It was a first rate opening practice and showed that the boys were determined to be in it when the days of the big matches arrive.

It was intended to hold a meeting of the club, at the drill shed, for the election of captains and committees, but the interest in the practice prevented all thought of other business.

A general meeting of the club is called for Wednesday night, to be held in the City Hall.

The election of Captain seems to be hanging fire and it may not be to the disadvantage of the club that it does. The popular captain of last year intermediates will be expected to act in the same capacity in the seniors, till his successor is chosen. "Remain as we are" is not always a bad policy.

A barn belonging to Edward Lomas, situated on the Montreal road, was destroyed by fire Sunday night.

KILLED AT COATCOOK.

Young Man Caught in the Belting at Cummings' Factory.

Injuries Were Fatal and He Died Two Hours Later.

Coaticook, April 25.—A fatal accident occurred at Coaticook, this morning. At 7.30 o'clock, Harry Dawson, an employee of A. H. Cummings & Sons' factory while working about the shafting was caught in a belt and before he could be rescued had sustained fatal injuries.

Medical aid was summoned but to no purpose, as the young man died two hours later.

He was about 19 years of age and unmarried.

An inquest will be held.

ICE BREAKER A SUCCESS.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—The great ice breaker, Ermak, since her arrival at Kronstadt in the latter part of March, has demonstrated her success beyond the hopes of her designers. Ten ice-bound vessels have already been liberated in the harbor at that place.

The vessel is likely to revolutionize the entire conditions of navigation to ice-bound ports, and the course of trade with such countries as have hitherto been considered closed by sea in winter. The Ermak with ease opened a passage through packed ice eight feet thick and through solid ice three feet thick. Such ports as Kronstadt, Archangel and Odessa may in the near future be considered "open ports," and the benefit to commerce and shipping will be immense.

THE SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

Archbishop of Canterbury Calls a Conference to See What Can Be Done.

London, April 25.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has taken a decisive attitude in regard to seven-day journalism. He has issued a circular to the Bishops, asking them to meet in conference at Lambeth Palace, May 10, to consider what steps may be taken to prevent the growth of the pernicious system of breaking the Sabbath by publication of newspapers, which entails the labor of men seven days in the week.

His Grace will propose drawing up a message which will be read simultaneously in all churches throughout the country on a given date, condemning the system of Sunday newspapers, which are becoming popular in England.

ODD MIXTURE OF KINSHIP.

Sir Peter Walker to Marry His Step-mother's Sister.

London, April 25.—The curious relationships which marriages often bring about find a curious instance in the case of Sir Peter Walker, a wealthy young baronet, possessor of Asmaston manor, one of the finest country seats in Derbyshire.

He has just become engaged to marry Miss Ethel O'Keover, his stepmother's sister.

A relationship of the same kind occurred when the Duke of Westminster married as his second wife a sister of his son-in-law.

Most curious examples of inter-relationship occur. In the Battenberg family, where the Princess Louise Battenberg finds herself related in half a dozen different ways to each of her sisters; to the Princess Beatrice she is both niece and sister-in-law. The Empress of Russia is niece and sister-in-law to the Grand Duke Serge; her eldest sister's husband.

ANOTHER LYNCHING.

A NEGRO PREACHER FOLLOWS SAM HOSE TO DEATH.

His Body Was Found Hanging to a Tree Yesterday Morning.

Palmetto, Ga., April 25.—The body of Lige Strickland, the negro preacher implicated by Sam-Hose in the killing of Alfred Cranford, was found swinging to the limb of a tree about one mile from town yesterday morning. The ears and fingers were cut off and on the body was pinned a placard bearing these words:

"We must protect our Southern women."

Strickland was a negro minister, 60 years of age.

Sam-Hose, just as the torch was about to be applied to the pile of wood near him, near Newman Sunday, admitted killing Alfred Cranford, and said that Strickland had given him $12 to do the deed.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND.

Mr. Ludgate and His Men Arrested Yesterday Morning.

Vancouver, B.C., April 25.—The great crisis in the Deadman's Island lease trouble came yesterday morning. Theodore Ludgate, of Chicago, and over thirty of his men were arrested on the island by the city police.

The excitement is intense over the late developments and a mass meeting will be held tonight, called by the Ludgate faction. The City Council will discuss the matter at its meeting this evening.

ODDFELLOWSHIP ILLUSTRATED.

An interesting illustrated lecture on Oddfellowship was given by Rev. J. E. Farrow, of Vermont, before Unity Lodge, I.O.O.F., this city, Monday evening.

There was a good attendance and the entertainment was very interesting and instructive. Several outside lodges were represented in the audience.

Refreshments were served at the close of the lecture.

The lecture was on the occasion of the 80th anniversary of the founding of the order.

The Guild of St. Faith met yesterday afternoon in St. Peter's Church Hall. The entertainment given last week by the Guild netted the sum of $83.

Icehouse Fires.

Curiously an icehouse is the most likely place in the world for a fire. Insurance rates are so high on ice sheds as to be almost prohibitive of any policies being taken out. Spontaneous combustion is responsible for the fires in ice sheds, according to some authorities. When a layer of ice is melted around the top and sides in summer, an immense amount of heat is set free. When conditions are exactly favorable, spontaneous combustion takes place. Others believe that a zone of warmth and moisture is created by the melting ice and that this attracts lightning. In any case an icehouse is a beautiful place for a fire.

Rather Close.

"The stingiest man I ever knew was a fellow who in going up stairs always skipped a step in order to save his shoe leather."

DOESN'T FAVOR DISESTABLISHMENT.

Ottawa, Ont., April 25.—Rev. Dr. Herridge, of St. Andrew's Church, preached Sunday night the annual sermon to St. George's Society and Sons of England. The church was crowded. During his remarks he said it would be a national calamity if the Church of England was disestablished in the old land.

PROVIDED WITH WEDDING OUTFITS.

Paris, April 25.—In consequence of the complaints of French colonists that it is impossible for them to find French wives unless they return home, the Minister of the Colonies intends to install a central emigration office for women, in Paris, with branches in the country. Approved maidens, who are considered suitable for colonial marriages, will be provided with a wedding outfit costing $60, with $20 pocket money, and with a free passage to the colony selected. The first experiment will be made in Madagascar.

HE WIELDED A HAMMER.

The Chief of Police Was Struck and Rendered Unconscious. Moncton, N.B., April 25.—Tom Donnelly was arrested Saturday night charged with the attempted murder of Chief of Police Tingley. The latter, with Officer Scott, was arresting Billy Donnelly, brother of the accused, for drunkenness. Tom, who was sober, got a hammer from a blacksmith's shop, concealed it up his sleeve and coming up behind he struck at Scott's head. The latter avoided the blow and Tom made a fierce blow at Chief Tingley. Scott grabbed the hammer, which missed Tingley's head, striking him on the breast, lacerating it and knocking Tingley unconscious. Officer Scott then struck at the ruffian with the handcuffs and the brothers were arrested.

A SIMPLE INSCRIPTION.

His Holiness, the Pope Writes the Inscription to be Placed on His Tomb. Rome, April 25.—Several years ago the Pope placed with the famous sculptor Luchetti a commission to construct a tomb for His Holiness, to be placed in the Basilica of St. John. The tomb is now complete in every detail save one. It can be erected in its place in a day or two. The missing detail is now being supplied. It is the inscription which the Pope once jokingly said he would write when there seemed to be a likelihood of its being required. Last week he composed the inscription and sent it to Luchetti. It is in Latin and very simple, containing only the Pope's Christian name and surname, the date of his birth, a blank for the date of his death and a few words recording Pope Leo's veneration for St. Thomas and St. Anthony.

THAT MILITARY RUMOR

SHERBROOKE TO BE MADE THE MILITARY CENTRE OF THE DISTRICT.

What It Would Mean Should the Plan Now Under Consideration Be Carried Out.

Lieut.-Col. Worthington speaking this morning of the rumor that Sherbrooke was to be made the military headquarters of the district, said that he believed such a proposition was being considered by the military and Government authorities.

Should this plan be carried out it would have an important effect upon the efficiency of the townships militia. It would mean the erection of a new drill shed in this city, which is in itself badly needed, and within the structure would be located a large armory, sufficient to store the accoutrements of the 58th, 58th, 60th battalions and 5th Regiment of Canadian Dragoons. Sherbrooke would become the military center of the district.

At present each company or squadron has its armory and the military accoutrements are, therefore, scattered all over the country. Some of these armories are well kept while in others the arms and uniforms suffer from want of proper care. In case the centralization plan is carried out, the money voted for the care of these scattered armories would go to the central depot. This would permit the engagement of a competent and skilled person to look after the military outfits of the district, and who would be responsible for the proper care of all.

DEATH OF MRS. C. MILLIER.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Clement Millier, which occurred this morning under very sad circumstances. Just three months ago, her sister, Mrs. L. C. Belanger, preceded her to the grave, and now her niece, Mrs. Belanger's only child, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Millier's health has been rather delicate of late years, and the death of her only surviving sister preyed upon her mind. She had been seriously ill ever since her sister's death, and a few days ago a serious attack of congestion of the lungs caused great alarm to her family, but the crisis was averted and strong hopes were entertained for her ultimate recovery.

The decease lady was a great favorite among her relations and friends, and well known as charitable to the poor, of genial and kind disposition, a truly Christian woman.

The two sisters will be laid side by side, on the same day, the remains of Mrs. Belanger not having as yet been confined to the grave.

The funeral will take place on Thursday morning, 27th inst., at nine o'clock, from the late residence, corner King and Brooks streets, to St. Michael's Cathedral, and thence to the cemetery.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully requested to attend.

WESTERN UNION AT BAY.

War in Kansas Against the Telegraph Company.

Topeka, Kas., April 25.—The war started by the business men of Topeka a few days ago against the Western Union Telegraph Company promises to reach all sections of the State. Two hundred damage suits were filed here, and Saturday similar suits were commenced in a dozen counties. The law passed by the special session of the Populist Legislature in December fixed the maximum charge for a ten-word message within the State at fifteen cents. The telegraph company is contesting the law.

Any citizen may start a damage suit against the telegraph company. He may write out one or more messages, offer them at fifteen cents each, and upon refusal by the operator sue the company for damages. It is believed that a flood of these suits will be started during the next week. The Western Union Company will close many offices in Kansas as a retaliatory measure.

GERMAN INTERFERENCE IN CUBA?

A Story that Bribes Were Offered the Insurgents to Rebel Against the United States.

Paris, April 25.—The Herald's European edition yesterday published a letter from a correspondent telling the story of how alleged German agents approached Captain Juan Fernandez in Paris and offered to supply him with arms and money to arouse the Cubans against the United States. Following is a summary of the tale told by the correspondent: Fernandez, who served with distinction under Antonio Maceo, is a Cuban of Moorish extraction, born under the United States flag, of Cuban parents, and is said to have considerable influence over the Maceo element of the Cuban army, which held out so long against Spain during the rebellion. Fernandez says that last Sunday evening, while smoking in front of the Hotel Terminus, he was approached by three Germans, who knew his name and all about him, and began to rave about the selfishness of the United States Government in its relations to Cuba.

In the course of their talk one of them showed Fernandez the photograph of a German officer, whom Fernandez recognized as the man speaking to him. The German went on to say that through Fernandez he could get the Cubans $50,000 at once and plenty more when required, with all the arms and ammunition necessary for a prolonged rebellion against the United States Government, if Fernandez would work in Germany's interest.

At this, Fernandez replied: "Gentlemen, I am a Cuban by blood, but I am a citizen of the United States, and will see you and Germany in — before I would raise a finger against the land of my birth. I shall make this matter public if it costs me my head. Good day." Exit the three Germans in great haste and confusion.

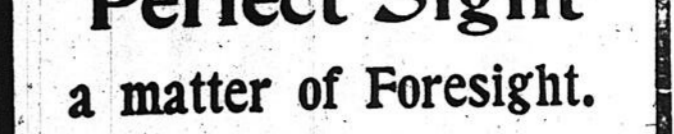

DAIGNAULT-BRADSHAW.

Mr. C. E. Daignault, manager of Sherbrooke Electric Laundry, and Miss Mary M. Bradshaw were united in marriage last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Lett, pastor of the Methodist Church, and subsequently by Rev. Father Fiset, according to the Roman Catholic ritual. Miss Kate Hobden acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. A. J. Gendron as groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Daignault left by the B. & M. evening train for Boston on their wedding trip, followed by the best wishes of many friends who assembled at the station to see them off.

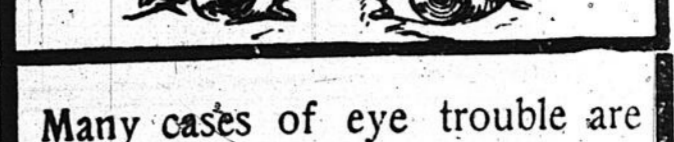

WITHDREW THE CHARGES.

St. John, N.B., April 25.—In the New Brunswick Legislature on Saturday, Opposition Leader Hazen withdrew the charges made by him in the House against Premier Emmerson. He said he had never imputed political dishonesty to Emmerson, but still he believed some of the bridges had cost too much.

Durable Shoes!

The word durable means something more than strength. Durable Shoes must be well made; good materials must be used; they must fit feet comfortably otherwise they crease and soon get out of shape. The skilled manufacturers make durable Shoes in very stylish shapes. I sell DURABLE SHOES.

MAYOR OF SYRACUSE MAY BE IMPEACHED.

Syracuse, N.Y., April 25.—Popular indignation against Mayor James K. McGuire for his course in approving of the riots on Friday night, during which the rails of the Rapid Transit Street Railway Company in Butternut street were ripped up and its cars demolished by a mob, police protection being refused the company, has led to talk of an effort on the part of prominent citizens to secure his impeachment. It is said that facts in connection with the case will be presented to Governor Roosevelt at once and action urged. The Mayor has become frightened at this talk, and has forbidden any further destruction of the Rapid Transit Company's property.

COATICOOK.

[News items for insertion in the Daily Record will be gladly received by E. L. Sice, local correspondent, Coaticook.]

April 24.—The "Hobo" season has commenced and today the town is full of them, several of them being very tough looking characters. The "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show which was advertised to play here tonight, did not appear in town at all, upon investigation it appears they were billed to appear at Windsor Mills and Coaticook the same evening, and as they chose the former, that town must be more attractive than ours.

A young girl about eight years old, was knocked down and run over in the lower town today, sustaining quite severe injuries, several ribs being fractured, both wheels of the carriage going over her. It is a marvel that there are not more children injured in this way, considering the way in which they play in the middle of the public street.

CONSPIRACY AT BARCELONA.

Spanish Officers Spoil an Attempt by the Carlists to Start a Riot. London, April 25.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says that well-informed persons in Madrid treat the Barcelona affair as a somewhat serious conspiracy. The police have discovered that active correspondence has been going on among the Carlists for some time past, and that prominent members of the party have been moving between Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia and Saragossa.

Meanwhile the Barcelona authorities arrested General Gruesse and four others. They found photographs of the pretender, and documents revealing the ramifications of the conspiracy, but showing that the Catalan Carlists were acting spontaneously, they having no authority from Don Carlos to do anything. Although the Government knows the names of all the persons implicated, it has decided to arrest only the ringleaders.

A Verbal Melee.

Going up on a Cedar avenue car the other night the passengers were much entertained by a verbal spat between a small citizen of German parentage and a tall native. The trouble all originated from the fact that the car was very much crowded, so crowded that the two disputants were brought face to face in such close proximity that they couldn't make a gesture.

"Push up a little, can't you?" inquired the tall man in an irritable tone. Several people were pushing him, and his irritability was quite excusable.

"Vell, no, I can't," replied the little man, "and, vat is more, I don't hef to."

"You're not much of a gentleman," said the tall man.

"Oh, I ton't know!" said the little man airily. "Ven I vant an opinion on chentlemen, I go to some fellow vat has got a leetle knowledge of der subject."

"You're a very funny boy," said the tall man in a tone of deep sarcasm.

"Vell," said the little man, "I may haf some senses of humor, but I'm not so hart hearted as to laugh at der foolishness of one idiot."

"Do you call me an idiot?" gasped the tall man.

"As long as I ton't know your name," said the little man, "I couldn't make der identification any more complete."

Pretty soon the car stopped to let off half a dozen passengers, and when things finally settled down the tall one and the short one were separated by a dozen seats.

Immortality Cranks.

Immortality of fame is something desired by many, but attained by few, says Dr. John Fiske in The Atlantic.

Physical immortality is something which has hitherto been supposed to be inexorably denied to human beings.

The phrase "All men are mortal" figures in textbooks of logic as the truest of truisms. But we have lately been assured that this is a mistake. It is only an induction based upon simple enumeration, and the first man who escapes death will disprove it.

So at least I was told by a very downright person who called on me some years ago with a huge parcel of manuscript, for which he wanted me to find him a publisher.

He had been cruelly snubbed and ill used, but truth would surely prevail over bigotry, as in Galileo's case. I took his address and let him leave his manuscript. Its receipt for physical immortality, diluted through 600 pages, was simply to learn how to go without food!

Usually such a regimen will kill you by the fifth day, but if at that critical moment, while at the point of death, you make a heroic effort and stay alive, why, then you will have overcome the king of terrors once for all.

I returned the gentleman's manuscript with a polite note, regretting that his line of research was so remote from those to which I was accustomed that I could not give him intelligent aid.

A Curious Ashanti Custom.

When children are born in Ashanti, they are at once rubbed all over with a mixture of oil and red ochre, this being repeated every two days. Their mouths are washed with a fiery concoction in which red pepper is the main ingredient, and a cry goes through the town proclaiming the new arrival and claiming for it a name and a place among the living.

Some one else in a distant part of the village acknowledges the fact and promises, on the part of the people, that the newborn babe shall be received into the community. The townspeople then assemble in the streets, and the baby is brought out and exposed to view.

A basin of water is provided, and the headman, or chief of the town, sprinkles water upon it, leaving it a name and invoking a blessing upon it, such as, for instance, that it may have health, grow up to manhood or womanhood, have a numerous progeny and possess riches.

Most of those present follow the example of the headman, and the poor child is thoroughly drenched before the ceremony is ended. Every one who participates in the ceremony pledges himself to be a friend to the child.

Rice as a Detector of Thieves.

Not being able to trace anything in connection with the loss of the 2,000 rupees from the cash safe of the Surat Bazaar company, the directors have resorted to astrology and finally sorcery.

Every employee of the bazaar was given a mouthful of rice to eat which had been previously put through some magic preparation, the belief being that if the person who had taken the money ate the rice some very great misfortune would befall him. It is not recorded that any of the employees have yet met with a disaster.—Rangun Gazette.

A Slanderous Tale.

"Briggs is awfully hoarse this morning."

"Yes. You know how damp it was last night? Well, Briggs and his wife stood on the corner waiting for a street car, and Briggs' wife started in to say something, and Briggs stood there for fully a half hour with his mouth open trying to get in a word edgewise. That's where he got his hoarseness."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Congenital.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, "did yer hear 'bout Alaska?"

"Lots. Are yer t'inkin of de trip?"

"I dunno. I'm told dat daylight lasts 24 hours at a stretch. Ef I could git a job in dat locality as night watchman, I dunno but I'd be willin to work."—Washington Star.

Children's Sense of Pity.

One of my granddaughters, said the Duke of Westminster, when about 5 or 6 years old, burst into tears on passing a blacksmith's shop, and on her mother inquiring the cause said: "Oh, mummy, they are nailing the donkey's boots on!"

The people of Dresden are very polite.

The people of Dresden are very polite, so overpolite that they not infrequently bring down ridicule upon themselves. It used to be told in that city that a stranger was one day crossing the great bridge that spans the Elbe and asked a native to direct him to a certain church which he wished to find.

"Really, my dear sir," said the Dresden, bowing low, "I grieve greatly to say it, but I cannot tell you."

The stranger passed on, a little surprised at this voluble answer to a simple question. He had proceeded but a short distance when he heard hurried footsteps behind him, and, turning round, saw the same man running to catch up with him.

In a moment his pursuer was by his side, his breath nearly gone, but enough left to say hurriedly: "My dear sir, you asked me how you could find the church, and it pained me to have to say that I did not know. Just now I met my brother, but I grieve to say that he did not know either."

Her Opinion in Full.

The car turned sharply around a curve and the tall man who was holding on to a strap somewhat loosely was suddenly thrown from his upright position with a force that landed him in the lap of a dignified dowager sitting near him, while his high silk hat flew from his head and rolled down the aisle of the car.

"Sir," she said as he rose to his feet again with profuse apologies, "I am compelled to say that in my judgment you were lacking in that complete grasp of the strap which was essential to the highest efficiency in maintaining an upright attitude when turning a curve."

"That was all. But it crushed him."—Chicago Tribune.

As He Understands It.

"As I understand it," remarked the intelligent foreigner, "you Americans regard George Washington's hatchet as the emblem of truth."

"Yes, sir, that's right," replied the American proudly.

"Then, when statesmen or other individuals who have quarreled, bury the hatchet, I suppose they cease to speak the truth?"

Inspiring Hope.

The Doctor—Bear up. I must tell you the worst—you can't possibly recover.

The Client—That's a pity, for if I'd lived a bit longer I should have come into a fortune; as it is, I haven't a penny to pay you with, doctor.

The Doctor—Well, now, don't give up hope. We'll try to mend you. We'll try.—Illustrated Bits.

Fun For the saan.

During the winter months the little colony of 60 or 70 English people at Teheran organize concerts for one another's amusement. There is a dance now and then at the legation, and when the weather is cold of course there is skating. Skating is the greatest marvel of all to the Persians. Some years ago the late shah, Nasr-i-Din, saw 20 skaters twirling and curling and spinning gracefully on the ice. He was amused. He thought it wonderful. The next day he sent to the legation and borrowed a dozen pairs of the skates. These he made his ministers put on and attempt to skate on the lake in the palace grounds. The poor ministers were terribly discomfited, but it was twice as much as their heads were worth to refuse. His majesty was more amused than ever, and he nearly had an apoplectic fit from laughing.
