Montreal Harbor Improvements Will Be Extensive—

Montreal, May 22.—Mr. L. Scheff, of London, is in Montreal on a tour of Canada in the interests of various English publications, including the London Graphic. Mr. Scheff proposes to write articles on Canada for several leading provincial dailies in England, and also to arrange for a special Canadian supplement for the London Graphic.

MERCHANT'S SUDDEN DEATH.
The sudden death of Mr. Charles R. Taylor, a well-known Montreal grain merchant, is announced. Mr. Taylor succumbed to heart failure. He was 47 years of age.

STUDENT'S LEFT REMAINS.
A sensation was caused at police headquarters to-day when a report was received from No. 6 Station stating that the leg and arm of a man had been found in an ash barrel at the rear of 200 Milton street. Sergeant Fisher was put to work on the case and discovered that the limbs had been found by the scavengers in an ash barrel belonging to Dr. Helen MacDonald. Miss MacDonald informed the police that she was unable to explain how they came in her ash barrel, but as it is close to McGill University it is believed that the remains were thrown there by McGill students.

NEW HEAD OF OGILVIE CO.
At a meeting of the directors of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, Ltd., to-day, W. A. Black, who came down from Winnipeg some time ago, was elected to succeed the late F. W. Thompson as vice president and managing director of the company.

TO IMPROVE WATER FRONT.
Additional details with regard to the extensive scheme of improvements being carried out on the water front by the Harbor Commission were made public to-day, when it transpired that the completion within the next 18 months of nearly 14,000 lineal feet or two and a third miles of new deep water wharves would give Montreal a total accommodation for over 60 ocean-going vessels.

FEDERATION OF BOARDS OF TRADE
Three Rivers, May 22.—The fourth annual convention of the Federation of Boards of Trade of the Province of Quebec opened here today in the City Hall, and was attended by delegates from the various boards of trade of the province.
The delegates were warmly welcomed to Three Rivers by Mayor Normand, by the president of the federation, Mr. G. A. Vandry of Quebec, and by the president of the board of trade of Three Rivers.

CHASE AFTER INDIAN OUTLAWS
Clinton, B. C., May 22.—Men and extra horses were rushed north last night to intercept the Indian outlaws, Paul and Spintail, and furnished fresh mounts for Chief Fernie's posse, who are reported to be close on the desperadoes' heels. Word came from Bridge Creek yesterday that the trackers, who have been following the trail with the persistence of bloodhounds, came in sight of their quarry for the first time. They have during the past three days been reported as being from 12 to 14 hours behind their prey, but the latter travel only at night, camping in impenetrable position during the day time and watching the surrounding country with field glasses. Eight extra constables arrived last night and went to the front this morning with Superintendent Campbell.

GOT THEIR SHARE OF THE BUSINESS

Notwithstanding the So-Called Interlocking Directors, I. B. Co. Was Successful.

New York, May 22.—Interlocking directors between the United States Steel Corporation and numerous railroads exerted no influence to prevent the McClintic-Marshall Construction Company, an independent bridge concern, from securing contracts to build bridges, according to testimony given by C. D. Marshall, President of the Construction Company, to-day, and on cross-examination he named over a score of railroads, some of whose directors are directors of the United States Steel Corporation, for which his concern had built bridges. In most cases, he said, the American Bridge Company, a subsidiary of the "Steel Trust," had competed against his concern for the contract.

C. A. Severance, counsel for the Steel Corporation, called the attention of the witness particularly to the "Hell Gate" bridge over the East River in New York city, now under construction for the New York Connecting Railway, a corporation owned jointly by the New York, New Haven and Hartford and Pennsylvania Railroads. The American Bridge Company secured the contract for the span of the bridge and the McClintic-Marshall Company for the approaches, the witness said.

"Did the fact that there are interlocking directors between these two roads and the United States Steel Corporation interfere with your concern securing this contract?" asked Mr. Severance.

"Not to my knowledge," replied the witness. "We got the contract." "In any of these contracts you secured from all these railroads you have mentioned did you have any difficulty on account of interlocking directors?" pursued the Steel Corporation attorney.

"We got our share of the business," said Mr. Marshall.

The witness further stated that his firm had frequently secured contracts from the Pennsylvania Railroad for which the Pennsylvania Steel Company, controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad, was a competitive bidder. His company also secured the contract for building the locks of the Panama canal in competition with the American Bridge Company, he said.

Mr. Severance used his testimony together with the statements showing the increase in the McClintic-Marshall Company's business since 1900, to point out how an independent concern had thrived under the American Bridge Company's alleged intent to monopolize the bridge industry as charged by the government.

Marshall said, however, in response to a question by Judge Dickinson, the Government counsel, that there had been comparatively little growth in most of the independent firms that were in existence at the time the Bridge Company was organized.

At that time, in the opinion of the witness, the American Bridge Company absorbed about 75 per cent of the principal competitive business of the country and its present share was 70 per cent. A number of small concerns, however, was not included in the estimate, he admitted. The Steel Corporation contends that the Bridge Company's productive capacity at the date of its organization was only in the neighborhood of 35 per cent.

Charles Page Perin, an iron ore expert and member of the commission which in 1904 appraised the Birmingham district iron ore properties of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, the Republic Iron and Steel Company and the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company, when a proposition was on foot to merge the three companies, testified briefly to-day in support of the Government's contention that the Tennessee Coal and Iron properties were a valuable acquisition to the United States Steel Corporation on account of the cheapness with which big iron could be made from them.

BODY OF UNFORTUNATE YOUNG MAN FOUND
Portage Du Fort, Que., May 22.—The body of Gordon Hodgins, the young bank clerk who shot Teresa Dolan here last Friday, was taken from the river tonight. It was close to the wharf where blood stains were left the night of the tragedy. A bullet wound was in the lad's temple.

At the Ottawa General Hospital, Miss Dolan, the victim of the shooting, is reported as progressing favorably. She will return to her home here on Friday or Saturday.

STORMY SESSION OF THE REICHSTAG

Final Meeting Was Marked by a Number of Most Sensational Scenes.

Berlin, May 22.—The final session of the Reichstag to-day was a most stormy one. The Social Democratic leader, George Lebour, in referring to the Emperor's recent threat at a banquet at Starsburg that he would incorporate Alsace-Lorraine into Prussia declared: "A people like the English would in a parallel case either have smashed the throne fragments or have confined a monarch making such remarks in some quiet castle in the same way as had been done to the mad King of Bavaria and ex-Sultan Abdul Hamid."

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor, rose excitedly from his seat and answered, declaring that the nation which was devoted to the Emperor would know how properly to resist such attacks.

The Social Democrats, Albert Suedekum and Philipp Scheidemann and the Conservatives, George Schultz, increased the uproar by hurling charges and counter charges at each other, the Socialists saying that it was a fine state of things when they instead of the Imperial Chancellor had to appear in defence of the constitution and citing the conservative attacks on the Emperor.

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg then made another attack on the Socialists. The session was adjourned to Nov. 29. Before reading the Imperial rescript proroguing the House, the Chancellor briefly thanked the members for passing the public defence bills, which, he said, "Give evidence at home and abroad of the resolute spirit in which the nation asserts its power by strengthening the guarantees of peace."

Beside the budget the only important legislation enacted was the army and navy bills, but the finance resolutions adopted yesterday will probably lead to legislation placing the treasury permanently on a firm basis.

ROOSEVELT WILL BE NOMINATED

Will Sweep the Country and Be the Next President of the United States.

Vancouver, B.C., May 22.—"Roosevelt will be nominated on the first ballot at the Republican Convention in Chicago next month. He will sweep the country and be the next President of the United States. The Democrats have not got a ghost of a chance. Taft is hopelessly out of the running," declared Gifford Pinchot to-day in this city, after reading the latest returns from the Ohio primaries, showing that the ex-President has swept Taft's home state.

TWENTY THOUSAND MEN OUT IN LONDON

London, May 22.—No progress has been made towards a settlement of the London port strike. Twenty thousand men are now out. The Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Clark, former solicitor-general, has been appointed to conduct the government inquiry which will open Friday. The Transport Workers Federation will meet tomorrow to discuss the situation, and it is expected will call a general strike.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN MARINE PAINTER

London, May 22.—Commandatore Eduardo de Martino, the marine artist, died today.

Eduardo de Martino was marine painter-in-ordinary to the late Queen Victoria. He was born at Meta, near Naples, Italy. His wife was Isabel Gomes of Rio Janeiro. He was a member of the Academy of Fine Arts of Rio Janeiro. He served as an officer in the Italian navy for several years, but went to England in 1875, where he resided until his death. Among his paintings is a series of four pictures of the battle of Trafalgar.

STEAMSHIP PRISONERS BEFORE THE COURTS.

Montreal, May 22.—The opening of navigation has increased the duties of the police force and to-day there were eight cases in court. Blundell, Proven and Beattie, of the Scotian, were accused of breaching liquor in the cargo. The chief officer testified that on the way up the river from Quebec all were drunk and Proven at the look-out had to be replaced. He had had a similar experience with Beattie in mid-ocean. Each got one month. William Anderson had assaulted a constable who was arresting deserters and will be tried later. R. Watt, a deserter, was also held. Two Norwegians were arrested accused of desertion, but their alleged vessel had sailed and they were remanded until their return. M. Norton, of the Athenia, was sent to jail till his vessel sails for insubordination.

SIR RICHARD MAKES DENIAL

Did Not Know Travers, of the Farmers' Bank, and Remembers No Conversation.

Ottawa, May 22.—Sir Richard Cartwright sent the following letter to the press this afternoon regarding the evidence of W. R. Travers in the Farmers' Bank enquiry yesterday in Toronto:

"Sir—I observe a very extraordinary statement in reference to an alleged conversation between myself and the late manager of the Farmers' Bank. I did not know Mr. Travers and I very much doubt if I ever had any conversation with him at all. In any case, the statement is absurd on its very face—the circulation which a bank is authorized to issue has nothing whatever to do with the amount or character of the notes it holds. The circulation is based on the amount of its paid-up capital. (Signed) R. I. Cartwright."

In his evidence, Travers stated that he had asked Sir Richard if it were irregular for a bank to issue circulation against good farmers' notes. He alleged that Sir Richard had said: "If you can't issue circulation against good farmers' notes what can you issue it against?"

WILL GO AFTER NORTH POLE

Amundsen, the Discoverer of the South Pole, Has Further Fields in Sight.

Montevideo, May 22.—Capt. Roald Amundsen, the discoverer of the South Pole, who arrived here yesterday, announced his intention to-day to start from San Francisco in March or April, 1913, on an expedition to the North Pole. He will have with him the same men who accompanied him on his last expedition. Captain Amundsen was received this afternoon in audience by the President.

MINISTER OF TRADE AND COMMERCE

Met Montreal Board of Trade and Appealed for Co-Operation for Canada's Trade.

Montreal, May 22.—Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, this afternoon met members of the Montreal Board of Trade. He gave an address in which he appealed to the board to co-operate with his department, both in suggestions as to improvements, and in helping the preparation of statistics giving information as to foreign and inter-provincial trade. To this end Hon. Mr. Foster asked the board to appoint two committees, one for foreign and the other for inter-provincial trade, to work with his department.

He also indicated what was being done in the way of securing preferential trade with the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand, and stated that the Government was prepared to do all possible to aid good steamship and cable communication, especially with the West Indies, to back up these preferential advantages.

With regard to the port of Montreal, Hon. Mr. Foster said he was anxious to see that its trade did not proportionately decrease, as it had done during the past two years, and declared that the Government was ready to spend the necessary money to see that it held its place. He asked the business men to find what was wrong and inform the Government. He also stated that efforts would be made to secure better co-operation between Canadian trade agents in foreign lands and the unrivalled British consular service, so that Canadians would get the benefit of this work, and the regular publication of the information so secured.

Mr. Foster also dealt pointedly with the insurance question in referring to the complaint that it is the high insurance rate charged on vessels using the St. Lawrence route that hampers Canadian trade. He made a significant statement when he promised that the Government would take up this matter as well as others, and that he had no doubt but that a remedy could be found for it.

DOCTORS AFRAID TO OPERATE

Could Not Remove Stone From The Bladder.
Gin Pills Enabled Him To Pass It.

JOLLETTE, P. O.
"During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been suffering terribly with Stone in The Bladder. He decided on an operation and was assisted by another doctor. They said the calculus was larger than a bean and too hard to crush, and that they could not take it out.
I returned home suffering greatly, and did not know what to do, but was recommended by a friend to try GIN PILLS. I bought a box and found relief from the pain at once. I took a second and third box of GIN PILLS after which I went back to the specialist.

He told me the calculus was reduced in size, still he could not relieve me of it, although he tried for two and a half hours. I returned home and continued to take GIN PILLS as they reduced the pain very much, but I did not expect they would relieve me of the stone, but to my great joy, I passed the stone on October 3rd, and am now a well man and very happy.

I am sending the stone to you so that you can see for yourself what a great work GIN PILLS did for me. GIN PILLS are the best medicine in the world, and because they did so much for me, I will recommend them all the rest of my life".

J. ALBERT LESSARD.
Isn't it wonderful? Just think of these simple pills, that even children can take, being able to perform what the greatest specialists in Canada could not do. Surely, the days of the miracle have not passed away, as long as we have GIN PILLS. These wonderful pills dissolve stone in the bladder or kidneys, for uric acid, which causes calculus. If GIN PILLS are not sold in your neighborhood, send us 50c for a box or $2.50 for 6 boxes. Sample free if you write us mentioning this paper. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada Limited, Dept. ## The Quebec Chronicle

QUEBEC, MAY 23, 1912.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

The following is what the Montreal Witness has to say of the treatment that has been accorded to the Salvation Army in Quebec:

"Poor old Quebec! Because a corps of the Salvation Army paraded in its streets the officer was arrested and fined ten dollars by the magistrate.

"The Salvation Army has had a long uphill fight for the right to parade where others parade, and to preach the Gospel in the streets, and its victory on behalf of the freedom of the individual and of freedom of speech has been welcomed by all liberty-loving people.

"The contest for free speech has been as long drawn-out and is as noble a principle as the freedom of printing established by Cromwell.

"It is but thirty years ago in England that the army established finally its right there by appeal to the higher courts of the case arising out of the trouble at Weston Super-Mare.

"In the United States the army has frequently had trouble, and been suppressed by local authorities, the appeal to the higher courts has always resulted in giving them the fullest liberty, for the very first amendment to the Constitution of the Republic made away back 1791 said that 'Congress shall make no law' . . . prohibiting the free exercise of religion, or abridging the freedom of speech . . . or the right of the people peaceably to assemble.

"A splendid example of the liberty accorded people to parade and speak in Canada was given on May Day in Montreal, when the Socialists, who would destroy our present system of government, paraded peacefully through Montreal, led by a girl dressed in red, carrying a red flag.

"They were accorded the right to parade and to preach their doctrine to all who would listen on a public square.

"To be sure the authorities of Montreal do not always recognize the liberty of free speech, though, so far as the Salvation Army is concerned, they long ago won their liberty through a season of persecution.

"In Quebec alone of the cities of Canada has the army now to meet attempts at official suppression.

"Quebec will come around; it is only a little slow in keeping up with the progress of the world.

"Possibly the police authorities in Quebec are not aware that in Catholic France the Salvation Army is allowed the liberty that they deny them.

"In Italy, the home of the Catholic Church, the army is allowed very large liberty.

"Russia—Quebec and Russia—does prohibit the army, yet in Finland, despite the law of the empire against them, the Salvationists have found a strong foothold, for the local authorities have discovered that they have nothing to do with politics and give no trouble if given their way.

"The spirit of the age demands the freedom of speech and of public assembly both in politics and religion, and Quebec has misread the signs of the times if she believes she can stem the rising tide. Resistance can but end in defeat."

THE FIRST STEAMERS.

Even yet there are to be found Canadians who credit American claims to precedence in the application of the steam engine to navigation. The common reference to Fulton as the inventor of the steamboat too often passes challenge. The Savannah is called the first vessel that ever crossed the Atlantic with steam power. It appears, therefore, that the truth of the matter cannot be set forth too often nor too conspicuously.

The improvements in the steam engine effected by Watt led very quickly and very naturally to its application to many purposes. The real inventor of the steamboat was William Symington, who placed his craft, the Charlotte Dundas, on the Forth and Clyde Canal in 1802. It was propelled by a double-acting condensing engine placed horizontally, and connected directly with a shaft at the stern, which carried a revolving paddle wheel. The trial of the boat was successful, as it towed two vessels of 70 tons each at three miles an hour, but its regular use was abandoned for fear of injuring the banks of the canal. In 1807 Robert Fulton, who had learned of Symington's work, procured an engine in England from the firm of Boulton & Watt, and with it built the Clermont, which ran successfully between New York and Albany. In 1809 the Hon. John Molson, of Montreal, built the Accommodation, and ran it between Montreal and Quebec, deriving his ideas as much from what had been done in Scotland as on the Hudson. In the Old Country, because of the absence of suitable rivers, steamboat navigation made slower progress than in the United States or Canada; but in 1812 Henry Bell built the Comet, with side paddle wheels, the first passenger steamer built in Europe, and such navigation began to be a practical success in Great Britain.

As to ocean navigation the distinction of precedence clearly belongs to Canada. In 1818 the Savannah was built as a sailing ship of 350 tons to ply between New York and Havre. At the suggestion of Captain Mosese Rogers it was equipped with a steam engine with one cylinder of 40 inches diameter and 6 feet stroke. The paddle wheels were of curious construction and so little dependence was placed on them that they could in an emergency be displaced and put on deck.

Her first voyage, in 1819, was from Savannah to Liverpool. During this voyage, which took 29 days, the engine worked the wheels only 80 hours. The steam was only installed as an auxiliary force and on its first trial it proved of little use.

The first vessel built as a steamship was constructed at Quebec in 1830, by James Goudie, from Greenock, Scotland. It was called the Royal William, in honor of William IV., who had visited Canada as the Duke of Clarence. On the occasion of launching, the Governor General, Lord Alymer, who had suggested the name, discharged the usual ceremonies, assisted by Lady Alymer, amid the music of military bands. At first this vessel traded between Quebec and Halifax, where she attracted the notice of Mr. (afterwards Sir) Samuel Cunard, who, taking the cue from its performances, proceeded to found the now famous Cunard line. Owing to a pledge, which produced a severe commercial depression, the Royal William undertook to find employment on the other side of the Atlantic. In 1832 she steamed away under the command of Captain John Macdougall, and attained the further shore in 25 days. Unlike the Savannah, she steamed the whole way across. She was chartered as a transport by the Portuguese Government, and in course of time, because of the rotting of her timbers, was discarded, her engines being then removed to a new vessel.

Let Canadians keep clearly in mind every honor properly belonging to their country for achievements in the arts of peace. Some care so little for this that they even forget the invention of the telephone in Brantford.

THE MADE-IN-CANADA TRAIN.

Fifty thousand dollars' worth of made-in-Canada goods form the exhibit of the Canadian Home Market Association as contained in a railway train now making its way through the West, there to demonstrate to the men of the prairies that the home producer can and does produce goods that are the equal, if not the superior, of foreign-made goods and at prices that compete, if they do not excel. The train of exhibits is also intended to suggest to the Westerners the tremendous possibilities of the development of their own towns and cities when they add busy workshops and factories to their industries.

If Canada is ever to make any advance in balancing the trade between this country and the United States it must be along these lines. That our American friends would have succeeded under reciprocity in further widening the difference between what they buy from us and what they sell us there is every reason to believe.

The Canadian Home Market Association is to be congratulated upon its enterprise. Preservation of the home market for the manufacturer and for the farmer and fruit and vegetable grower is of prime importance. Reciprocity would have struck a vital blow at the home market. It would have enlarged the United States home market by building up the industries of American cities, and Canada would have suffered in adverse ratio. The Canadian working man would have been the first to feel the unfortunate effects, but as the cities and towns of Canada declined or failed to grow, so would the immediate market of the Canadian farmer decrease in value.

SOME EXTRAORDINARY SURGICAL EXPERIENCES

Toronto, May 22.—The record of some extraordinary "experimental" researches in the surgery of the blood vessels and the transportation of tissues and organs" was given to the members of the Ontario Medical Association at the first public meeting of their thirty-second annual convention by Prof. Alexis Carell, of the Rockefeller Institute, New York, at the Medical Building of the University of Toronto to-night.

THE BANQUE INTERNATIONALE

Du Canada, Though Opened
Only a Few Days, Is Meeting With Success.

The Quebec branch of the Banque Internationale du Canada, with offices located in the Merger building, corner of St. Joseph and Crown streets, is already meeting with success, though it only opened for business on Friday last. The bank offices occupy the west half of the first floor of the new building, and are magnificently fitted. The counters and all woodwork is composed of well polished mahogany with bronze mountings and is extremely rich in appearance. The counting room is spacious and the clerks' departments enclosed are easy of access to the public. The manager's office and the board room, where the directors may at times come to hold meetings, are a marvel of comfort and elegance.

Mr. J. D. Hood, formerly of the Imperial Bank managerial service, is the Quebec manager of the Banque Internationale du Canada, and one of the best known, capable, and courteous gentlemen in the Canadian banking service.

Mr. Hood was in a happy frame of mind yesterday, when a Chronicle scribe dropped into his office for a chat. He said he was perfectly satisfied with the business done to date, when it was considered that the bank was only open for business since Friday last. He had met with and had dealings with quite a few of the city's commercial men, asking information and accommodation, and had opened some very good accounts. Mr. Hood also alluded to the frugality of the masses of St. Roch's and St. Saviour, which he judged by their savings deposits, that augured well for the future popularity of the International Bank of Canada.

Speaking of the bank in general, Mr. Hood said that the capital was not only $10,000,000, but the whole of that amount was subscribed. Up to the present the bank's headquarters at Montreal had not commenced to extend its powers, as there was only a branch at Quebec, Three Rivers and Murray Bay. But no doubt in the near future branches would be extended to all parts of Canada, and it would obtain its fair share of the Canadian business.

Correspondence

Editor of the Chronicle.

Dear Sir: Allow me, through the columns of your paper, to thank the electors of Quebec West, who gave me such a cordial support and also my friends who devoted their energies for me during the recent electoral campaign. I will not forget those who stood by me.

In 1908 my opponent's majority was 466. I am defeated by a majority, which, if a recount took place, would not be over 46 votes. I have nothing to be ashamed of in my defeat, which I attribute to the following, among other causes: the abstention of a few of my friends and the supreme efforts made by my opponents at the last minute, in a certain ward of the division. I fought my battle without money or liquor; I had made that promise and kept it.

Thanking you once more, I remain your obedient servant.

CHARLES SMITH.

WE CAN FIT YOU.

"Completeness is the first thing you notice about this splendid showing of Fit-Reform Spring Suits," said Mr. J. L. O. Proulx, 105-111 St. Joseph street.

"It is a showing of styles that embraces everything worth wearing in 2, 3 and 4 button sack suits.

"It is a gathering of patterns that includes the richest and handsomest effects that the best looms in England and Scotland can weave.

"And the Fit-Reform system of sizes assures every man a perfect fit.

"It is this complete service that makes Fit-Reform Wardrobe such a satisfactory place at which to buy."

ALGONQUIN NATIONAL PARK.

The improvements being made in connection with the Highland Inn, situated in the Algonquin National Park of Ontario, 170 miles west of Ottawa, and 205 miles north of Toronto on the Grand Trunk Railway System, are progressing and the addition of fifty more rooms to this hotel will be completed and ready for the reception of guests about June 1st. The accommodation of this popular inn will when the annex is finished be for 200 guests. Situated 1,700 feet above the sea level the air is pure and invigorating and there are few places in Canada which offer such attractions to the summer resort as those that are found in Algonquin Park.

What a beautiful fall we are having!

'Tis such a short fall from the winter into the fall.

When the summer weather comes again, we'll all be good and happy.

The probs said "moderately warm," but it did not put the accent on the "moderately."

It is understood that the famous English yacht "Timac" made a record-breaking trip to the pond at the ring yesterday, and it is understood that she is still in the ring.

The Niagara was in a torrent of welcome and hospitality yesterday.

This is Arctic weather. How could it be otherwise with the Arctic in the Basin.

The board of experts in connection with the next America Cup race have not yet passed that yacht as a Canadian challenger.

Several straw hats have been seen about the streets lately. Apparently some people expect that we are going to have a summer after all.

If Detroit really wants a classy team to replace the strikers a Sunday morning visit to the Esplanade should bring some joy.

We will iron them so they will be stiff and hold their shape, give them a finish equal to that of your collars, and shape them to fit your wrist, avoiding their breaking by being bent into shape when the buttons are placed in them.

ROOSEVELT HAS

CARRIED OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, May 22.—According to returns in hand to-night from approximately 4,500 of the 5,192 precincts in the State Col. Theodore Roosevelt's delegates to the national Republican convention carried yesterday's Ohio primaries by a plurality of about 25,000 votes. It now seems scarcely possible that final results from the primary poll will change the number of district delegates for either side by more than one or two. The best figures available to-night show that Roosevelt has 32 of the 42 district delegates selected yesterday and that President Taft has 10.

Although later returns on the Democratic presidential preference primary vote give Woodrow Wilson a fighting chance for one or two more delegates, the New Jersey man's exact standing will not be known for several days.

Dublin, May 22.—A great Home Rule rally has been arranged for July 19 in the Theatre Royal here. Premier Asquith is on the list of speakers.

To Have Perpetual Daylight

Twelve blazing suns in the earth's heavens are predicted by a group of astronomers in Europe who have been closely watching our wild plunge into the Cluster of Hercules.

The world will know no deviation from the steady noonday glare—that there will be no night.

The terrific glare, if it does not burn the world up and shrivel mankind into a grease spot, will make all sorts of peculiar changes in the solar system.

The Cluster of Hercules has been studied for years by the most able astronomers. It will be many aeons before the world will find itself in the midst of these brilliant stars.

Nearly in the line with the direction of the solar system's motion through space lies a cluster of bright stars. Are we, perhaps, destined to join that wonderful assemblage? Such a consummation of the great light of the earth is possible.

That star cluster toward which we are journeying is one of the supreme marvels of the universe. It is believed to contain from 12,000 to 14,000 stars, crowded so closely together that in a telescope their light blends in an almost distinguishable blaze. In the central parts it is impossible to separate the individual stars. Around the outskirts of the cluster they are more widely scattered. Long rows of them are arrayed like the winding lanes and streets in the slums of a city.

Toward this wonderful metropolis of interstellar space we are speeding at the rate of 12 miles a second. In the course of an ordinary lifetime we draw more than 2,000,000,000 miles nearer to it, and yet its distance is so great that it does not seem perceptibly to have been approached. A slight change in the direction of our flight would send us straight into the heart of the cluster at the end of our journey.

If, escaping all the perils of the way, we should actually arrive there, what would happen?

There might be a collision, or there might not. That would depend entirely upon the direction of our motion at the moment that we entered the company. Owing to the multiplicity of attractions acting simultaneously from so many stars, the chances are that a collision would not occur and that our sun, carrying the planets with it, would become a member of the assemblage on equal terms with the others. The distance of the Cluster of Hercules is almost inconceivable.

The first hint of the glories in store would be furnished by the appearance of the cluster itself. As the earth drew nearer it would expand until it filled half the firmament with its splendor. The rest of the universe would be forgotten and utterly disregarded in the indescribable glory of that spectacle. On a dark, clear night we can see about 3,000 stars with the naked eye. On entering the Cluster of Hercules we would see 14,000 stars incomparably brighter than any of the dozen of the first magnitude at present visible to us.

Their united light would shed upon us an effulgence brighter than that of the full moon. This would be the beginning—the first hint—of what was coming.

As the earth continued to approach the splendor would rapidly increase. Soon those stars would be no longer stars, but suns in brilliance.

It can be shown mathematically that in the midst of such a cluster perpetual daylight would prevail. No matter though the earth continue to turn on its axis so that the sun would rise and set alternately, as at present, yet all sides of it would be forever illuminated by the other suns around it.

If humanity could continue to exist under such conditions, the whole scheme of life would be changed. When the sun was set the illumination from the stars would not be quite as brilliant as that of full daylight, but still the sky would be so radiantly resplendent that one would hardly know which to call day and which night. It would be a realization of Bunyan's ideal picture of the "City of the Golden Streets and Pearly Gates."

But everything would be in motion. The change of position of the multitude of suns surrounding us would be continually evident. Our own sun would fall into an orbit of amazing complexity, and with the earth chasing after it would be now near the centre of the great cluster, where the stars are so closely packed, and now on its outskirts, where they are relatively scattered. So the aspect of the heavens would be undergoing continual changes. The sky would be a gigantic kaleidoscope, ceaselessly turning and at every moment presenting a new and more wonderful combination of starry splendors.

Among the contending attractions of so many suns the earth might be torn away from the control of its own sun and fall under the dominion of another. And this could happen again and again, so that in the course of time our planet would be the slave of gravitation to many suns in turn. And with every change of master would come to a change of solar influences acting upon the globe, and the conditions of life would vary accordingly.

With the aid of a new instrument known as the Rumford spectroheliograph, Philip Fox, of the Yerkes observatory, has secured some interesting photographs of solar prominences. In principle the instrument is a spectroscopic and is attached to the famous 40-inch Yerkes telescope. The sun is an enormous roaring furnace, hotter than any blast or electrical furnace that we can construct, with a temperature greater than any we can make artificially. The flames that make up this solar furnace ordinarily do not leap to greater altitudes, but once in a while a tongue of fire darts out with an enormous velocity from the sun's edge and reaches to a height of hundreds of thousands of miles. Such an eruption occurred on November 13, 1907, rising to the terrific height of 52,000 miles.—Exchange.

UPRISING IN CUBA SERIOUS

Reports Are Vague and Conflicting as to the Extent of the Revolt.

Havana, May 22.—In consequence of the vague and conflicting character of the reports from Oriente province, the main focus of revolutionary activity, it is almost impossible to form more than mere conjectures regarding the strength of the movement. Estimates from Oriente relative to the strength of the insurgents vary from 1000 to 5000. One district alone, that of Quantanamo, is credited with 2000 by some. The first figure probably is nearest correct.

The secretary of the interior, Senor Bru, said that the government hoped to announce tomorrow that the rebellion in Oriente had been crushed. All the rebels, he added, in the remaining provinces, had already been dispersed and order completely restored. Apparently the only loss of life authentically established is the killing of two leaders of a negro band by rural guards in an encounter near Holguin. No destruction of property is reported in any part of the island beyond the burning of one bridge, the stealing of some horses and the looting of a small railway station and country store. No attempt has been made to cut the government wires.

Throughout Oriente a condition of panic prevails. The white planters and storekeepers and their families are taking refuge in the cities. Gov. Manduley of Oriente province has sent a message to Havana that there is much apprehension regarding the safety of the women school teachers scattered throughout the province. He recommended that all be ordered to take refuge in the nearest towns.

President Gomez has issued an order to requisition immediately 3000 horses for army use, 1000 each in the provinces of avana, Santa Clara and Oriente.

THE DORCHESTER
ELECTRIC COMPANY

City Decides On Installation of
 No. 4 Ampere Lights From New Service.

The civic authorities in connection with the city's contract with the Dorchester Electric Company, have decided to have installed No. 4 ampere lights in respect to the lighting of the streets, instead of 6 point 6 lights advised through the medium of The Chronicle.

The No. 4 ampere light is no doubt of sufficient illuminating power in the lighting of the principal streets where the scheme of placing additional ornamental cluster lights have been adopted. But this does not apply to the suburban streets, where the ornamental cluster lamps will not be added to the display made by the No. 4 light.

Mr. W. D. Baillarge, city engineer, is to be complimented on having his cluster ornamental lights adopted, but at the same time, it is to be regretted that the civic authorities have not chosen the 6 point 6 light instead of the No. 4, inasmuch as the former would display just treble the rays of No. 4. It is not too late to reconsider the matter, which should be done before the Dorchester Electric Company commence the work of installation.

ENVELOPED IN DUST.

The residents of Champlain street complain of the neglect the locality is subjected to in respect to street watering to keep down the flying dust that during the past few days is unbearable. It is said that the city has given out a contract to a party to water Champlain street daily, but evidently the terms of the contract are ignored inasmuch as the street has not been watered for the past week to the discomfort of the residents and pedestrians in general who use the thoroughfare.

GRAND MASTER
PREACHED SERMON

Unique Service in Masonic History Was Held Last Evening.

A unique event in Masonic circles in Quebec took place last evening, when the Rev. Frank Charters, of Montreal, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, preached the annual sermon to the united lodges of the order in the Ancient Capital.

Never before has such an occasion offered, and the brethren attended in large numbers to listen to the sermon of their Grand Master. The lodges of Quebec turned out in full regalia and marched across the Cathedral Close to the church to attend the service. The service was a notable one.

"I rejoice, my brethren of Quebec, to be with you on this your annual church service. It is a great opportunity to meet the oldest district of this great jurisdiction. I come to you with words of encouragement."

Rev. Mr. Charters, in his sermon, said that all Masons gave the first place to Christ's church. "The man who said that Masonry was good enough a religion for him, is not a good enough man to be a Mason," said the preacher.

"By your fruits, you shall know them," and members of the great order should always bear this in mind. Members of the order will be judged from the outside, and the members of the Masonic order should so let their light shine that they may be judged by their works.

"We ask no glory, we ask no praise, we simply wish to live out our lives on the lines laid out by the Great Architect of the universe."

Rev. Mr. Charters enlarged upon the great over-ruling providence of God. The building which we are now erecting may be somewhat obscured by the scaffolding, but in this great Empire, whether it is the blood Royal, or on the vast prairies, or on the veldt in South Africa, or from the four corners of the whole globe, this vast organization seems to have its place, and an instrument for the working out of His great designs. The moral teaching of the order all leads to the teaching that there is a great work to be done by the order. "God in His own way and in His own time will use this humble instrument of His will."

In closing his address, Rev. Mr. Charters appealed to his hearers to never lose sight of the Everlasting Providence of God, and he appealed to every member of the craft to apply the lesson to himself personally.

The musical portion of the service was specially well given. Mr. Bishop and his choir rendering the anthem by Martin "Rejoice in the Lord" in a particularly excellent manner. The service was fully choral, and the hymns and other musical selections being specially well rendered.

The first part of the service was sung by the Rev. Mr. Bunbury, the concluding prayers being said by Rev. Canon Scott. The first lesson was read by the Right Rev. Bishop Grisdale and the second lesson by Right Rev. Bishop Dunn. After the benediction, which was given by Bishop Dunn, the National Anthem was sung.

THE CANADIAN NORTHERN RAILWAY

Pushing Work Construction on Shops and Other Improvements at Limoilou.

The Canadian Northern Railway interests are losing no time on the improvement of their terminal properties in Quebec. Besides the building of the round house and machine shop at Limoilou, the company have a large number of men at the present demolishing 32 houses to give a right of way to this property. The two mentioned buildings now in course of construction will be built of steel and concrete, and completed by Nov. 1. Next week the number of men employed will be augmented to 200, and the work of building the car shops, stores, casting shop and oil storage buildings commenced. The Canadian Northern management have acquired 49 acres of land at Limoilou, which is destined in the near future to be transformed into a busy scene of railway enterprise. The round house and machine shops will be built large enough to meet the business entailed for many years, and the car shops will have a floor space of 65x350 feet, the stores 50x130, the casting shop 50x80, and oil storage house 30x50 feet. There will also be a large car yard, and if no obstacle is placed in the way of the company the whole of this immense and important work will be finished and ready for occupation by next November. Then all the shops that occupy the company's property in line with St. Andrew street, lower town, to the river's edge, will be demolished to make room for improvements that the company have in mind, and not yet prepared to make known to the public.

JOHN B. HANNA'S IDEA

Presidential Primaries to Be Held
 Same Day in All States.

As a result of the primary contest for the presidential nomination, it seems clear that in the future, primaries for the nomination of presidential candidates will be held on the same day throughout the country and not as this year on different dates.

This year the contest has been waged in districts and states on days fixed to suit the locality concerned, with the result that the contending forces have utilized the result obtained in one section to boost or harm, as the case might be, the cause of the candidates in other sections voting later. If we are to have direct nominations we should by all means have a general primary election day.—Refrain Times, John B. Hanna's newspaper.

PROVIDENCE BEAT OUT MONTREAL

Won Yesterdays Game by the Score of Seven to Six—Ten Innings Were Played.

Montreal, May 22—Providence won today's game in the tenth, 7 to 6. Montreal had it 4 to 1 until the seventh, when Burke became wild and the visiting batters succeeded in slugging out hits whenever the ball approached the plate. Five runs were netted, giving the visitors a one-run lead. Montreal tied it up in the eighth, but in the tenth Drake knocked the ball over the fence for the winning run. McDermott's homer came in the seventh with two on. The game was played in a cold rain and errors were frequent.

IRISH-CANADIANS HAVE A STRONG LINE-UP

Montreal, May 22—The line-up of the Irish-Canadian team with the teams on which the various players figured last year, for Friday's game with the Tecumsehs at the National grounds will be:

Goal, Brennan, Montreal; point, Gordie Roberts (Capitals); cover, Steve Rochford, Shamrocks; first defence, Kenna, Montreal; second defence, John White, Cornwall; third defence, J. McIlwaine, Shamrocks; centre, Aspell, Montreal; third home, D. Munday, Shamrocks; second home, Alf Kene, Montreal; first home, Fred Scott, Montreal; outside home, Henry Scott, Montreal; inside home, George Roberts, Montreal.

The officials will likely be E. C. St. Pere and Johnnie Brennan. It can be seen, therefore, that not a single N. L. U. team escaped Kennedy.

MAGISTRATE REFUSED ANY INJUNCTION

Vancouver, B. C., May 22—An injunction to restrain Clifford Spring and W. Turnbull from taking part in playing for the New Westminster lacrosse team in the match between Vancouver and New Westminster on Friday, May 24, was applied for this morning to Mr. Justice Morrison, of the supreme court. Great secrecy was observed over the application, which was made by M. W. Griffin on behalf of Manager Fleming, who had made affidavits to the effect that the players were under contract to play with him.

After reading the affidavits, his lordship declined to grant an injunction without the players or the New Westminster team being represented or warned. He ordered the application to be laid over until tomorrow, and in the meantime the players are to be served with notice.

EDDA WON FROM OLAMBALA

Plate Glass Was Withdrawn From Feature Event at the Woodbine Track Yesterday.

Toronto, Ont., May 22—Bright sunshine, a rapidly drying track and a large crowd marked the fourth day of the Ontario Jockey Club spring meeting at the Woodbine. The track was still quite heavy and anything but fast.

Only six races were on the card. The Woodbine Steeplechase having been called off on account of water on the field. The King Edward Hotel gold cup at a mile and a quarter was the feature race of the day but was marred by the withdrawal of Plate Glass, Frog Legs and Light of Life, reducing the field to three. The race was won handsily by Edda, the favorite. Olambala passed the stand in front, but was passed by Edda and Brosseau going down the back stretch, and they ran that way to the upper turn, where Brosseau fell back. Edda went on and was an easy winner, Olambala failing to respond under punishment. The most sensational win of the meeting so far registered was that of D. Lorne McGibbons' Inspector Lestrade in the first race. The horse, a rank outsider, was off in front, but was soon collared by Master Edwin, who stumbled at the start and came through on the rear. They raced together to the head of the stretch, when Inspector Lestrade drew away into a good lead which he held to the finish. A $2 mutual ticket on the winner paid $163.40 straight and $122.40 for place, but very few were down. Not a single $20 ticket was sold on the horse, but a Toronto butcher, William Waller, had a $10 ticket. Jockey Bell was given a nasty tumble during the running of the third race, which was won in easy fashion by August Belmont's Pricilian, Bell, who had the mount on Jim L., was caught in a jam and thrown heavily. He was badly shaken up, and his arm bruised. John K. Trubel, for years prominent as a jockey on Canadian and American tracks, and who was refused by the Ontario Jockey Club this spring, is suing Joseph E. Seagram, the president, for damages, on the ground that his prospects in life are ruined, his reputation gone, and his means of livelihood taken from him.

Trubel claims that he was expelled from the profession illegally, that he was refused a license without a hearing or an opportunity to defend himself. The trouble, it is rumored, originally started in Fort Erie on an indiscretion of Trubel's.

SYSTEM IN THE HOUSEHOLD.

It is not the woman who rushes in madly who accomplishes most. System is what counts. Have certain hours for certain duties.

Give yourself plenty of time for the performance of each duty, but no more than you are entitled to according to your plans made beforehand.

Five minutes' reflection at night is worth more than an hour's rush in the morning.

Let the busy woman see that her clothes are in order for the next day, that she has a clean change of linen with all the buttons on, that her shoes are well polished and her gloves and belt left in plain sight.

If everything is at hand she should be able to take her bath and dress in half an hour. Then she may eat a leisurely breakfast and be ready for a good day's work.

That's what a little planning and foresight will do for her.

The woman whose house is run in the best order, who keeps her help the longest and has them best trained has a day for each duty.

She can in this way accomplish part of her work before her mistress is up, as well as plan to-morrow's labor the way her mistress does.

Method should always be used with respect to children. A child who knows what is expected to do at a certain hour will eventually be trained into the routine of doing it, thus saving its mother many precious minutes.

The woman who has no method might just as well give up trying to accomplish anything in this world. She loses too much time through lack of forethought and planning.

RESTRICTED DISTRICT IN

Vancouver, B. C., May 22—After a

Commissioners declined to accede to the request of a delegation of two hundred clergymen, members of the Moral Reform Association and the Good Government League, to close the restricted district at once.

The commissioners took the view that it was their duty to first elimi-

residential sections before entering upon a campaign against the so-called restricted district.

617.

The foregoing is an approximate
summary of the degree will be conferred by the University of Toronto on convocation day, June 7th.

The striking feature of the list is the small number of M. B. degrees—only 20. Last year there were over 125 graduates in medicine. This slump is not the fault of the students but the result of the effort of the authorities to raise the standard. In 1908 the course was made five years in length, and the students entering then will not graduate until 1913. Today was the last day for writing on examination papers.

BY-LAW NO. 23.
Concerning the Lighting of Certain Portions of the City.

(Drawn up in the French Language.)
At a meeting of the Municipal Council of the City of Quebec, held on the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand and nine hundred and twelve, the following by-law was read for the first time:

Considering that by the Act of Incorporation of this city, 29 Victoria, chapter 54, article 29, paragraph 34, this Council is authorized to make by-laws to light the city all over, or in certain portions thereof.

Considering that in a contract made and passed on the 28th of January, 1912, before Joseph Allaire, notary, between this city and the Dorchester Electric Company, it was stipulated that if the city decided to erect or place herself and at her own expense in certain streets, or in other parts of the city, certain metallic poles and electric wires to install certain lights, the said Dorchester Electric Company bound itself to supply to the city the electric power or current for the said light at certain specific prices, which contract was declared valid by the Act of Legislature of this Province, 2 George the Fifth, chapter 55.

Considering that by the article 6 of the last mentioned statute, this city is authorized to make special loans by means of bonds issued according to the dispositions of the said Act.

Considering that this Council deems it useful and advantageous to order at once the establishment of a partial system of said lighting by erecting in certain portions of the city poles and electric wires supplied with the electric current furnished by the said Dorchester Electric Company.

It is in consequence ordered and enacted by the Municipal Council of the City of Quebec, and the said Council orders and enacts as follows, to wit:

1. This Council hereby authorizes the purchase and the erection in the streets and public places of this city of poles and metallic wires supplied with the necessary and useful apparatus and accessories for the establishment, under city control, of a system of lighting with electric power or current supplied by the Dorchester Electric Company, at the prices agreed upon between the city and the said company, as per contract between the city and company bearing date the 28th of January, 1912, before Joseph Allaire, notary.

2. In order to provide payment of the cost of material and works for the establishment of the said system of lighting, this Council hereby authorizes the issue, as fast as necessary, of bills of the municipal treasury of the city in conformity with the said statute 2, George the Fifth, article 6, up to a sum not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars.

3. The City Engineer is authorized to call for tenders for the supply of materials and the execution of the works for the purposes above mentioned, in order to establish the said system of lighting in such portions of the city which shall be mentioned in the call for tenders, the whole subject to the approval of this Council, as in the case of other public works ordered and regulated by this Council, in conformity with the law and with the by-laws of this Council.

4. When the apparatus for the said lighting shall be placed in certain places where they may be exposed to damages through the fall of ice or snow coming from the roofs of buildings, the proprietor of said building shall place on the edge of the roof of said building a snow fender or an appropriate and convenient protection bar to prevent the fall on the said lighting apparatus of any snow or ice or objects of a similar nature to damage the said lighting apparatus.

5. If the owner of a building in this city omits or neglects to place on the edge of the roof of his building a snow fender sufficient to prevent the fall on the said electric lighting apparatus of snow or ice or other objects liable to damage the said lighting apparatus, such proprietor shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty dollars, and in default of payment of the said fine and costs, to an imprisonment for a space of time not exceeding two months.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Is hereby given that, pursuant to law, the above by-law will be read a second time, for adoption, on Friday, the 31st day of May next, 1912.

By order,
H. J. B. CHOUINARD,
City Clerk.

NOTICE
Is hereby given that the Pier at the mouth of Cap Rouge River is submerged as well as the other deep wa-

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

McDonald & Lesperance, stock brokers, private wire to New York and Montreal, Hochelaga Bank Building, Telephone 1227.

(Canadian Press Service.)

New York, May 22—Regardless of recent statements to the contrary, it is quite evident that the course of operations on the stock exchange that Wall street will not wholly ignore political conditions. The influence of that factor obtruded itself today in no uncertain manner, and is likely, so competent observers believe, to make for greater conservatism and caution during the next few weeks.

In the afternoon the market became dull and narrow with some recovery from the lowest level, but the business of that period was of the usual professional character and failed to make any marked impression other than that brought about by covering of short contracts.

Conditions in the steel and iron trade show further improvement, according to trade authorities. Many of the larger manufacturers are at 95 per cent of capacity and orders booked now are expected to supply the basis of operations well into the fall months. Some plants are running behind in orders for steel plates and it is regarded as significant that price advances are moving with less opposition. A rise of $2 per ton in steel tubes was announced today.

Some of the leading railroads, including the Harriman system, have placed four orders for rails, with a sprinkling of contracts for new equipment. The movement of iron ore on the Great lakes promises to be unusually large this month.

There are indications that Germany is likely to renew borrowing money here, preliminary to that country's mid-year requirements. Some of Berlin's obligations here have been reduced in the past few weeks, and if terms and domestic conditions warrant, our bankers may extend German credits to a very considerable extent before the end of the month. International bankers will do nothing, however, to encourage a revival of the recent industrial speculation in Germany. Money was in reduced supply here today because of the prospective foreign demand, but the time rates were unchanged. June disbursements for interest and dividend payments are calculated at about $98,000,000, compared with $93-000,000 for the corresponding period last year.

The bond market was irregular,
with weakness in Rock Island collateral 4's. Total sales par value, $2,082,000.

CLOSING LETTER.

By private wire to Neuville, Belleau & Co., 93 St. Peter street, Quebec.
Phones 946 and 4076.

New York, May 22—The Roosevelt victory in Ohio has put a quietus on Mr. Taft's ambitions and narrowed the nomination field on the Republican side. The speculative public was not pleased with the outcome and sold stocks freely in the early dealings, but the larger interests rendered able support and not only kept the market from breaking, but actually advanced quotations in many instances. Later in the day activity quieted down and prices dropped.

There was strength in special issues, notably Pittsburgh Coal, the common rising 1½ points and the preferred 2½ points on rumors of retirement of the preferred by a 5 per cent. bond issue and par and accumulated dividend. If this deal should carry the preferred should be worth at least 20 points more than at present. Bull points are in circulation on Amalgamated Copper and par is talked for the stock within 60 days. If Amalgamated should touch par the other coppers would not be slow in responding. Heavy buying of copper for June delivery was reported today and the price of the metal holds strong at 16½ cents. Smelting and Lead both acted well today, also In-terthorpe issues.

International Paper advanced, but there was further liquidation in Union Bag and Paper. Rubber reacted and was nervous on the financial plan as submitted by the company, which did not meet with an enthusiastic reception. National Lead did not increase its dividend.
Harvester was strong and United States Steel held its own fairly well.

The closing was strong, although many issues recorded net losses for the day.

The trading and interest, as will be seen from the foregoing, was largely confined to the industrials.

We do not feel over bullish on the railroads at present.

YOUNG WOMAN WAS STRANGLED

Was a Native of Newfoundland
—Boston Detectives Searching for Her Slayer.

Boston, May 22.—Lillian Eleanor Jewer, who was found murdered by strangulation in her apartment in the South End Saturday night, was a native of Botswoodville, Exploit Bay, Newfoundland, where her parents now live. The body was fully identified by the police late to-day after a thorough inspection of the woman's effects and investigation among her former companions. She formerly lived in Montreal and came to Boston about two years ago from New York, having lived in the latter city in West 142nd street. Scores of girls and women of the South End have been questioned by the police to secure some clue to the woman's slayer. The police would not disclose whether they found any evidence which would point to a particular person. It is known, however, that they are looking for some one of degenerate habits among men who frequent certain places of questionable reputation.
The body still lies in the City Hospital morgue awaiting a claimant. The only known relative of the woman in this vicinity is a Mrs. Marrah, a cousin, who was questioned by the police to-day.

THE RUNAWAY.

The rector was sitting in his study hard at work on the following Sunday's sermon when a visitor was announced.
She was a hard, muscular-looking woman and when the minister set a chair for her she opened fire somewhat brusquely:
"You are Mr. Jenkins, ain't you?"
"I am," replied the man.
"Well, maybe you'll remember o' marryin' a couple o' strangers at your church a month ago?"
"What were the names?" asked the clergyman.
"Peter Simpson and Eliza Brown," replied the woman. "and I'm Eliza."
"Are you, indeed?" said the minister. "I thought I remembered seeing your face before, but—"
"Yes," interrupted the visitor, "I'm her, all right, an' I thought as how I ought to drop in an' tell you that Peter's escaped."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

LUNCHEON ON BOARD THE NIAGARA

Many Prominent Business Men
Inspect the Fine Vessel—All Confident of Success.

On the invitation of Wm. M. Macpherson, Esq., local agent of the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, a large number of Quebec's prominent business men as well as those connected with the shipping interest of the port and members of the press assembled on board the company's fine steamer Niagara shortly after noon yesterday.

The guests were received by Capt. Juham, commander of the steamer, Mr. Macpherson and his chief of staff, Mr. Geo. B. Ramsay. When all had assembled Captain Juham conducted them over the vessel. The visitors were greatly astonished at the comfortable and luxurious manner in which the saloon, staterooms, smoking room, etc., were furnished, more particularly so as the Niagara is what is termed a two-class steamer, i.e., for cabin and steerage passengers.

On the completion of the inspection the guests, numbering about 100, were invited into the saloon, where luncheon was served to discuss the following menu:

Beurre. Celeri en branche Huitres Marennes.
Turbans de filets de sole a la Normande.
Filet de bœuf a la Richelieu
Ris de veau a la Godard
Asperges d'Argenteuil Sauce Mousseline.
Grouses bardees sur toast
Cresson Salade
Aspic de foie gras en Bellevue.
Desserts.
Fruits Fromage
Petits Fours Pain de Genes
Bombe Canadienne
Chateau Yquem 1905.
Pommard 1903.
Champagne G. H. Mumm.
Liqueurs.

Mr. Macpherson presided. The service was most excellent, the trained stewards of the steamer performing their duty in a very efficient manner. After ample justice had been done to the excellent bill of fare, the chairman arose and proposed the health of the King and the President of the French Republic. The toast was duly honored, the company rising on its proposal.

Mr. Cauchois, Assistant General Manager of the Company for Canada and the United States, thanked the guests for their kindness in accepting the invitation to be present.

The chairman called upon Hon. G. E. Amyot, as representing the Quebec Board of Trade, to read an address from that body to Capt. Juham.

Mr. Amyot, on rising, said the principal officers of the Board of Trade were attending a convention in Three Rivers, and it therefore devolved on him to read the address. At the conclusion of the address, Mr. Amyot spoke of the advantages of a direct line, and said that on one occasion when he bought some goods from Lyons they took ten weeks to reach Quebec, the principal delay being between Lyons and Liverpool. He regretted that the Niagara had not a larger cargo on the present voyage, but thought that was owing to the lack of sufficient advertising and that the company should have announced their coming months in advance. However, as the service became better known the trade would increase, and instead of a monthly line a weekly line would be required.

Captain Juham, who is more of a navigator than orator, thanked the Board of Trade for their kind address of welcome in a few appropriate words.

Mr. Cauchois said the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique was here to stay. When they send their vessels to any place they meant business, and he felt that with the aid of their general agent here and his staff as well as with the assistance of Quebec's citizens, the line would be a permanent fixture at this port. (Applause.) With regard to the carriage of goods, he could assure the citizens of Quebec that any cargo entrusted to his company would be delivered in Quebec within ten days, which was one of the many advantages of direct shipments.

Mr. V. Chateaufort, chairman of the Harbor Commission, on being called on referred to the improvements going on and in contemplation at this port to meet its increasing trade, and stated that the body over which he presided would do everything possible to aid the new line.

Mayor Drouin, in response to loud calls, wished the new line all success, and felt sure that it would have the aid and sympathy of all Quebecers. After remarks from Senator Choquette and the President of the Montreal Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Macpherson asked the aid of all Quebecers in support of the new line. No matter how hard the representative of the company and its officials might work their efforts would be futile without the assistance of the public. A most interesting function was then brought to a close.
