Rotarians Stage Children's Party At Victoria Hall

Crippled Kiddies Will Be Guests Of Local Rotary Club Tonight—Movies, Dance Recital, Punch and Judy Show, Magic, etc.—Dr. Aubrey K. Geddes, Noted Child Specialist, Spoke At Meeting Wednesday

Dr. Aubrey K. Geddes, well-known child specialist, addressed the members of the Westmount Rotary Club Wednesday at their regular weekly luncheon at Victoria Hall taking as his subject "Preventable diseases of childhood." Introduced by Dr. G. Little the speaker launched at once into his subject, holding his listeners with his straightforward manner and obvious intense personal interest in his subject. The members were taken by Dr. Geddes on an imaginary tour of the average children's hospital. Here is a little girl less than two years of age. She is pale, infects easily. She is suffering from rickets, probably because her mother didn't know of the value of Vitamin D as presented in sunlight or cod-liver-oil. This disease is easily preventable.

Here is another infant, pale, suffering from scurvy. This disease too is preventable. A diet of orange and tomato juice will cure it in a very short time. Fortunately this disease is becoming more rare. But it is absolutely preventable.

Another case is suffering from diphtheria. The child is finding it highly difficult to breathe. But the suffering could all have been eliminated if injections had been given before the disease took hold. The city in 1933 started a campaign to stamp out this disease and the rate fell very low before the onslaught of injections. But unremitting vigilance is the price that must be paid if this rate is to be kept low.

Similar instances were quoted. Today, the speaker admitted, conditions have improved, twenty years ago almost every second bed in a children's hospital contained a case that might have been prevented.

Tuberculosis is not a hereditary disease except through contact. The child need not take it from the mother if they are separated and the parent treated for the disease.

The conservation of life and health in the child is a big problem. The means are at hand and the making of them available to all is a challenge to the medical profession and to the public. The speaker was thanked by Boyd Robson.

Party Tonight
The Rotary Club of Westmount is holding a party at Victoria Hall tonight for crippled children. A fine programme has been arranged. Supper will be served and an orchestra has been secured to play during the meal.

The programme includes a singing, moving pictures, a dance recital by the pupils of the Hilda Galt school, a Punch and Judy show, a magic show and the distribution of fruit, candy and nuts.

Dr. J. Kenneth Carver, president was in the chair at Wednesday's luncheon and will preside tonight.

Brotherhood To Hear W. Marshall On Sunday

Mr. W. Marshall, of Deseronto, Ontario, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Calvary Men's Own Brotherhood on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Marshall is associated with the Rev. A. Slater, who spoke last Sunday, in a series of Evangelical services in the city and district.

The box social held on Tuesday was a marked success. Games and musical items preceded disposition of the boxes, and the serving of tea by the ladies brought the evening to a close. A social evening is held by the Brotherhood every Tuesday.

Local Schools Take Part In Nation Wide Education Week

Delegation Visits City Hall Monday

Notre Dame de Grace Property Owners and Local Representatives Discuss Co-operation

A delegation of Notre Dame de Grace property owners visited the City Hall on Monday evening to discuss the projected bus route between upper Westmount and the western ward of Montreal with representatives of the local Council, it was learned yesterday.

The meeting was of a friendly nature, and methods of co-operation between the two communities in the transport matter were discussed.

The delegation appointed by Council two weeks ago to visit the Tramways Commission on this matter has not yet interviewed that body; the situation is much the same as it was a week ago, being still in the "talk" stage.

The gathering at the City Hall on Monday night is indicative that this matter may be settled amicably between Westmount and Notre Dame de Grace. Further developments, however, are pending upon decision of the Tramways Commission.

Leadership In Sales Is Westmount's

Real Estate Figures For January Show City Ahead Of Verdun By $27,263 For Ten Sales—Good Start For Year

Real estate transactions during the month of January on the island of Montreal had Westmount as their most active participant, it is revealed in figures released by the Montreal Real Estate Board recently.

Ten transactions for a total of $147,823, are noted during the month, with the city of Verdun, always a close contender for leadership honours, trailing but $27,263 behind, with twenty two deals amounting to $210,560.

Outremont falls a poor third during January, sales numbering 16 for a total of $80,823. Thus it is seen that the average value, per sale, in Westmount stands at $14,782.30; in Verdun, at $5,480; and in Outremont, slightly lower still at $5,051.43.

During the previous month, Outremont led the island municipalities, with Westmount a close second and Verdun trailing third.

The island's real estate market was active during the first two weeks of the month, but slackened off towards the close, leaving a gap down by more than a million dollars over the customary totals.

Westmount led the island municipalities during 1936 in real estate trading, with a total of 176 sales for a value of $1,820,546, with Outremont and Verdun trailing closely behind.

The city has a good start towards duplicating its performance of last year and if the deal should go through, involving the purchase of the Nuns' Farm opposite the athletic grounds, it will certainly place the city in a likely position to lead during the coming year.

Boy Suffers Broken Leg

Injured in Mishap With Toboggan in Murray Park on Monday Afternoon

Robert Denman, 4092 Northcliffe avenue nine years of age, suffered a fractured left leg when he was struck by a toboggan in Murray Park on Monday afternoon. The mishap occurred at about five o'clock, the boy having gone to the park with his brother Douglas and a friend, Donald Guess, to play.

Westmount police were informed that the boy was walking uphill after a slide, when a toboggan with a number of girls aboard came careening down the slope. The boy was unable to dodge the oncoming toboggan, and it collided with him.

He was taken to the Homoeopathic Hospital by Alf Salmon, driver of a florist's truck, and first aid was rendered by Dr. Mode. The names of the girls on the toboggan could not be learned at the time.

It is reported to be progressing well at home where he was taken on Monday evening.

WESTMOUNT ELECTORS HONOUR DUPLESSIS AND W. R. BULLOCH

LOCAL M.L.A. HONOURED MONDAY

William Ross Bulloch, M.L.A., representative at Quebec for Westmount.

Highlights Of Division Banquet

A human interest touch was given the banquet proceedings by the presence of Hon. P. A. Pease, deputy prime minister for Queensland Australia, who was representing the Hon. Forgan Smith, premier. The Hon. Mr. Smith was a school-boy friend of Mr. Bulloch.

Handsome tulip-wood canes, from Queensland, were presented to the Prime Minister and to Mr. Bulloch, by the Hon. Mr. Pease, who paid high compliments to Mr. Duplessis and to the Westmount member in his suave antipodean manner.

George Campbell, K.C., president of the Westmount Conservative Association addressed the gathering on behalf of the association. E. Greenwood, secretary, was a tower of strength to the arrangement committee.

'Jock' Long, opponent of Mr. Bulloch at the recent election, wired his congratulations to the banquet-room. "To the victor," says John, "belong the spoils."

A fine tribute was paid to General Smart, retired incumbent of the seat, by the Premier. A letter was read from the General, expressing his disappointment at being unable to attend due to ill-health.

R. S. White Is Oldest Member In House

Veteran Tory Warrior Falls Heir To Title "Father Of The House Of Commons" On Death Of Dr. Matthew McKay In 83rd Year—Member For St. Antoine-Westmount Division First Entered Parliament In 1888

"Father of the House of Commons," the revered title reserved for the oldest member of the Canadian Parliament, fell on Sunday to the broad and still active shoulders of Robert Smeaton White, veteran Conservative member for St. Antoine Westmount division. The honour was formerly held by Dr. Matthew McKay, Liberal member for Renfrew North; his death on Sunday at the age of 83 automatically transferred the title to the local member.

Mr. White's experience in parliamentary activities dates before his election to the House in 1888. Previous to that time he had been a member of the press gallery. He was re-elected to the House in 1891. He served as Collector of customs at Montreal for twenty-two years, from 1895 to 1917.

He re-entered politics in 1925, being returned to Parliament that year and again in the 1926, 1930 and 1935 general elections.

Mr. White has been a life-long Conservative, and his activities in the cause of Conservatism have been many and invaluable. His staunch representation of this division as a Tory constituency at Ottawa has won him great popularity.

Mr. White will observe his 81st birthday on March 15th. Many will remember the reception given him and Mrs. John Scott on March 25th of last year, on the occasion of their reaching their eightieth and eighty-first birthdays almost simultaneously, and in recognition of their long and devoted service to the Conservative cause.

We join with countless others, across Canada as well as in his own division, in wishing Mr. White many more years of active endeavour in the interests of this division as "Father of the House of Commons."

Cartierville Road To Be Widened Is Premier's Promise

W. R. Bulloch Says Honest Business Need Not Fear Socialization—George Campbell K.C. Compliments Premier and Member—Hon. Gilbert Layton Also Spoke—Presentation Of Canes To Premier and Deputy By Hon. P. A. Pease, Of Queensland, Australia—Head Table Guests

The English and French speaking electors of Westmount Division joined Monday night at a banquet in the Windsor Hotel in a spontaneous tribute to the Hon. Maurice Duplessis, Prime Minister of Quebec, and William Ross Bulloch, M.L.A., an event that will live long in the memory of every citizen who attended, and a tangible evidence that the local electors are taking a keener interest in politics than ever before.

Mr. Duplessis delivered what is thought by many to be his finest address since his election, paid high tribute to the local member and to Brig.-Gen. C. A. Smart, former incumbent in the seat. Incidentally a letter was read to the assembly from General Smart, who was unable to be present owing to his failing health. A telegram was received from John Long, Mr. Bulloch's opponent in the recent election, congratulating him on his success. "To the victor," wired Mr. Long, "belong the spoils."

Mrs. Bremner Heads Local Association

Westmount Social Service Body Held 23rd Annual Meeting With Hospital Parent Body

At the 23rd annual meeting of the Western Division of The General Hospital Social Service Department, Mrs. J. A. Bremner was elected president for 1937 of the Westmount Social Service Association, which functions as the women's committee of the department. Other officers named by the nominating committee are: honorary president, Miss Maud Sampson and Mrs. F. J. Eveleigh; first vice-president, Mrs. V. Soucieux, second vice-president, Mrs. C. Sibley, hon. treasurer, Mrs. D. McL. Brophy, hon. secretary Mrs. E. E. Roberts, sewing convener, Miss L. Carroll.

Expenditures for the year were $922.93, leaving a surplus of $661. The 1935 deficit was thus absorbed.

In her report, Miss Clara Gass, director of the department revealed that case workers had carried out some 13,600 interviews with patients of the hospital during 1936, and made nearly 1,500 visits to their homes, averaging 182 cases of intensive social service work during each month. Mrs. E. Scarsbrooke, visiting housekeeper, had a total of 64 children under her care during the year. Services rendered to patients included the provision of eyeglasses, meals, braces, plates and other essentials.

The staff consists of six workers, three being case workers, in the wards and clinics, one a visiting housekeeper, one a secretary and one a director. An additional case worker in the medical clinic is considered necessary.

Gratitude is expressed in the report to some 24 ladies who worked as volunteers on the staff during 1936 as helpers in the neurology.

Bulloch

Mr. Bulloch reviewed in part the many fine attractions of the division and his work in the house since his election. He said in part "As our Prime Minister has stated on many occasions, no honest business, large or small, need have any fear if it conducts itself honorably to its employees, the public and its shareholders. I feel the state of co-operation with industry to settle any differences, which may arise, is much preferable to confiscation of industry by the state, which is only a step towards Socialism or Communism. We may provide many benefits for our workers, but if there is no work benefits mean little. I therefore, feel that capital and labor working together, respecting the rights of each other, will have the full support of our Government and will bring prosperity to our province."

The premier, in a forty-five minute address that was carried throughout the province by radio stressed the main points of his programme, the outstanding fact of interest to Westmount Division citizens being the promise to do something about the Cartierville roadway that leads to the Laurentians. Many residents of the division journey over this road each summer. This point was seized on by the Hon. Mr. Leduc, minister of Roads, who stated that he was pleased to hear that the premier was going to authorize him to do something for that stretch of the highway.

Pease

The Hon. P. A. Pease, deputy-prime-minister for Queensland Australia, representing Premier Forgan Smith, a school-boy chum of Mr. Bulloch paid high tribute to the Premier and to the Westmount Division member, both of whom received tokens from the sister Dominion in the shape of tulip-wood canes.

The Hon. Martin Fisher, Provincial Treasurer, addressed the gathering at some length, outlining more fully several loan topics that had been explained by the Premier in his radio address.

Public Speaking Class Enjoyed Interesting Meeting On Monday

"The basic rule for all public speakers, namely 'get up, speak up and shut up', applies more particularly to introducing and thanking speakers than to any other branch of the art," declared Mr. Harry DeLuca, of the International Typewriter Exchange, in addressing members of the public speaking class at the Y on Monday night, taking as his subject, "How To Introduce and Thank a Speaker."

This phase of public speaking, went on Mr. DeLuca, is one which almost everyone gets an opportunity to use at one time or another. So many people fail properly to do this small yet most important part of an evening's functions that the subject had a place in any course of public speaking.

The introducer who arises and says that "so and so needs no introduction" and who then goes on for about twenty minutes in introducing this same person, commits a grave breach, said Mr. DeLuca. The introduction should be brief, interesting, and should put the speaker in a human light. A brief outline of his history, with any special points that may bring him nearer to his audience and to the place in which he is speaking, should be related. Above all, it is a job of courtesy and should be done tactfully.

Mr. DeLuca then outlined the main points to be observed in thanking a speaker, the main one being not to pick an argument or disagreement with him, and not to make another speech in doing so.

Following Mr. DeLuca's address the members of the class had an opportunity to speak, each for a few minutes, on assignments given at the previous meeting.

Summer Tours Planned By Mrs. Pope

An interesting and inexpensive personally conducted summer tour has been announced by Mrs. H. B. Pope, 422 Metcalf avenue, leaving here July 2nd by Cunard-White Star S.S. Antonia. The tour includes Scotland, England, a two week's cruise on the large Cunard White Star S.S. Lancastria visiting Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Poland and the Northern part of Germany, returning by the Kiel Canal to London.

These cruises to the Northern Capitals and the Baltic sea are always very popular, especially with the young people. One lives on the ship for the cruise duration, making interesting excursions on shore each day, with dancing, singing, bridge and games every evening on deck.

After a stay in London they follow extension tours which take in Holland, Belgium, Vimy and France, also Germany and Switzerland. These are also priced very reasonably. Mrs. Pope's tours have always been most successful. As it is expected that there will be a great deal of travel overseas this summer it will be an advantage to register early for any foreign holiday trip. H. B. Parker Recovering From Illness

Principal Of Westmount High School Reported Making Satisfactory Progress

The teachers and scholars of Westmount High were delighted to hear the good news circulated throughout the school this past week that Principal H. B. Parker, who underwent an operation in the General Hospital recently, is regaining his strength very satisfactorily. Officials have been kept busy answering calls regarding the progress being made by Mr. Parker, and when assured of his ultimate recovery there were expressions of satisfaction. The unavoidable absence of the Principal has put further responsibility on the shoulders of Mr. S. F. Kneeland, Superintendent of Schools. He is supervising the functioning of the High and coupled with his arduous duties in connection with the other schools, he is undoubtedly one of the busiest educationists in the city.

RUPERT CAPLAN

Ranked as Canada's greatest director of broadcast drama, Rupert Caplan has helped place Montreal on the map as originating point of many of the Dominion's outstanding programs. "Spotlight Parade," and "And So It Came to Pass," are but two of the many radio shows which take the air under his direction.

Cartierville . . .

(continued from page 1) of the Westmount Conservative Association spoke, telling of his admiration for the courage and ability of the premier and congratulating Bulloch for his splendid work since being elected to office. Both had man-sized jobs, the president stated, and "we are satisfied that we have man-sized men filling them." He ended with a strong plea that Mr. Duplessis, in his legislation, remember the tax-payers.

The Hon. Gilbert Layton, minister without portfolio, criticized Mr. Bulloch in a joking manner, for being too modest, reminding the member that the Division also boasted a fine cemetery and that places should be prepared for many of the members of the opposition. His division, he stated, wanted a lake on the mountain, a large auditorium on Picheurs field and numerous other advantages, and he thought Mr. Bulloch a little bashful in merely asking for wading pools. Other speakers included Rene Labelle M.L.A. and Hon. T.J. Coonan.

In the absence of Murray W. Hayes, who unfortunately was confined to his home with illness, J. A. Donnelly made a capable chairman, assisted by Horace J. Gagne K.C., as vice-chairman. MAINLY ABOUT GROUNDHOGS

Someone played us a dirty trick. We asked about Groundhog Day, after failing to find it on the calendar, and we were told that it was the third Monday after the second Sunday in March. So we planned on doing a column about Groundhogs for that week, when lo and behold! they sneaked Groundhog Day past us two weeks ago! Oh well! everyone gets fooled at one time or another! So we'll just ignore the trick played on us and do our column this week.

The groundhog is not a hog at all, but is a rat belonging to the genus marmota, (whatever that is) of which there are several varieties, ranging from the Alpine marmota to the Asiatic woodchuck, and including the common or garden groundhog and the American prairie dog. Generally speaking, it is a large, thickly built burrowing rodent, allied to the squirrels, with a thickly haired tail, no cheek pouches, with a rudimentary first front toe with a flat nail, special features of the skull and teeth, and fleas.

The groundhog inhabits open country, either in mountainous regions or on open prairie. They are something like humans, in that they like to gather together in large communities, but as yet have not developed socialistic, capitalistic or communistic traits. (Which probably explains why they live happy lives.) They live in burrows, each inhabited by a separate family; at the mouth of the burrow there is a mound of excavated earth, and on sunny days one can often see one or more of the members of a family sitting on the family hillock.

The groundhog is fond of the winter, for then he sleeps all through it. The procedure is to eat as much as possible all through the autumn, and when winter comes, can spring his . . . oh, excuse us, we're thinking of a couple of other hogs, not the ground one. As we were saying, when winter comes, Mr. Groundhog crawls into his hole with his wife and family, and goes to sleep, quite indifferent to the cold draught which blows down from the outside world. Sometimes, perhaps seeking fresh air—for the groundhog's burrow is not the most fragrant thing in the world—he comes out and goes for a walk.

(This brings us to the dirty trick they played on us.) This walk is on the second of February. If he sees his shadow, tradition has it that the sight thereof frightens him, and he goes back into the hole! Just what this has to do with six weeks more of winter, no one seems willing to explain, or even anxious. We were too lazy to look up the origin of the mystery, so we'll leave that to you, if you're sufficiently interested. Whaddya think we are, anyway . . . a free encyclopaedia?

The groundhog family grows in litters of from 2 to 4 at a jump. However, foxes and dogs eat the little ones at about the same rate, so the world is in no danger of being overcrowded with ground hogs. The prairie dog, incidentally, belongs to a smaller genus

V. C. WANSBROUGH WAS SPEAKER AT '6087' LUNCHEON

Addressed Overseas Association On Conditions For Fine Citizenship

Laying down conditions for the finest type of citizenship V. C. Wansbrough, M.A., headmaster of Lower Canada College, was the guest speaker Saturday at the 6087 Overseas Association Luncheon in the Queen's Hotel.

"I suggest that the healthy citizen of the future will be one who will have a deep concern for the good life of his fellows, and who will not be thinking all the time in terms of export trade, or money-making, or the stock market, although we have to think of these things at times," Mr. Wansbrough said. "But he will think of the human being and of human welfare and have a willingness to contribute of his own time to the welfare of his native country."

The speaker, pointing out that "The Citizen of the Future" was a subject with which he was professionally concerned, said while his chief object was to fit children for the world it was also important to keep a weather eye open to see what kind of a world it was for which he was going to fit them. The conditions of the last few years in this country to some extent, and in other countries to a larger extent, had raised problems which called for an altogether new emphasis in the sphere of education in relation to the social and civic responsibilities which young men were going to have to shoulder in the future.

Dealing first with knowledge, the speaker said that the approach of education should be from the angle of the personal appearances of the growing child, and he hoped in the next few years, that the first attempt would be made to transfer students from one part of the country to another during their school life in order that they might get a more intimate knowledge of the varied conditions of this vast country.

But knowledge was simply the bricks. Judgment, was the faculty whereby they took the bricks of knowledge, and built them into a pattern. "I can think of no more known as cynomys, but don't ask us why.

And now we're getting tired. (You're telling us, we hear you say?) Next week, all about plumbers. Goodbye!

Three Elders Were Inducted

John Moore was ordained and inducted as elder, and W. N. Cunningham and W. Thornber were inducted to that office, having been previously ordained, at Westmount Park United Church on Sunday, Rev. J. Lavell Smith officiating.

The minister applied the story of St. Andrew to the office of elder, and drew attention to the instance wherein St. Andrew proved himself to be the "first elder", bringing his own brother Peter to Jesus.

He was the first foreign missionary when he brought the enquiring Greeks, mentioned in the gospels, to Jesus, went on the minister and it was also Andrew who "found the boy on the mountain who was willing to share his lunch with the crowd".

important quality than judgment for anybody who is trying to find his way through all the complicated problems of modern life," Mr. Wansbrough said.

Another consideration was the understanding of the implications of living in an age of specialization. "The proper respect must be paid to those who by a life-time of training have acquired a specialist knowledge." On the moral plane young men and women must demand and maintain honest administration and also conform to such standards of moral judgment that they will know how to select their political leaders, and realize that any falling away in those standards must be blamed, in the last resort on the electorate.

Influenza On Wane In Westmount

Local Schools Report That Colds And Grippe Definitely On Decline

The influenza and grippe epidemic which has been rife throughout eastern Canada during the past few weeks, is now definitely on the wane in Westmount, investigation revealed yesterday. The schools report that the large number of absences, occasioned by these two ailments, has materially decreased in the past ten days, and pupils kept away from their studies by illness are returning to their desks.

In King's School, it was reported that the number of absences had returned to the average figure and the number of pupils away from their studies is now no larger than is usual from all causes. At the Roslyn Avenue school, it was learned that grippe and flu, which a short time ago had extended to the teaching staff and had necessitated the absence of several members, are definitely on the decline. A similar situation was reported at both Westmount High and Argyle Junior High. Flu had also made itself felt at St. Leo's Academy, but most of these affected have now returned to their tasks.

Marion Weldon, Chas. Starrett's leading woman in "Dodge City Trail," says she is too busy to be bothered with dieting problems, and she eats what she likes.

The Y.M.C.A. National Council meetings proved stimulating, whatever other impressions may have been conveyed. At the recent National Council meetings of the Y.M.C.A.'s of Canada, one got the definite impression that the Young Men's Christian Association was alert about the necessity of helping youth face the issue of the day intelligently and earnestly. There was a meeting of the General secretaries of Canada which proceeded the National Council meetings. At this conference great emphasis was placed on the matter for vocational guidance. Practical programs were considered in this venture. It was the consensus of opinion amongst the General Secretaries from the Maritimes to B. C. that this was one of the major problems for the Y.M.C.A. to deal with at the present time. Consideration was also given to the subject "Educational on Social Issues." It was recognized that in these times of change it was paramount to have a stranger to deal with the subjects which arise in the course of life's experiences.

May Robson, playing the lead in "Women in Distress," has traveled more than 500,000 miles over the U.S. and Canada during her long career on the stage.

Georges Enesco To Conduct Montreal Orchestra Feb. 28

World-Famous Violinist-Composer-Conductor To Appear With Clarke At His Majesty's Theatre In Musical Event Of Season

Georges Enesco ranked amongst the greatest musical figures ever to emerge from Roumania and one of the most magnetic musicians of the age, has been signed by the Montreal Orchestra and will appear in the dual role of conductor and violinist at the Orchestra's concert of Sunday afternoon, February 28, at His Majesty's Theatre in his only local appearance of the year. Enesco comes to Montreal direct from a season as conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra and the G. M. Symphony heard through the National Broadcasting Company's network facilities every Sunday evening.

Conductor, composer, virtuoso, teacher—Enesco has reached great heights in each of these fields of musical endeavor and is universally recognized as the greatest interpreter of Mozart now living. As conductor he has appeared with many of the finest symphonic units throughout the world, and his compositions are ranked amongst the modern classics. His genius as a concert performer has raised him to a commanding position in the musical world of the day while his influence as a master is amply illustrated by Yehudi Menuhin, who was helped to fame as a pupil of Enesco.

Still in his early fifties, Georges Enesco was born in the Moldavian Hills of Roumania and absorbed as a child the simplicity and sincerity which is a part of his personality and so evident in his music which is possessed of a distinct Roumanian touch. Like many of the musical great, Enesco was a boy prodigy and was launched upon a brilliant career when seventeen after several years of study under Faure, Massenet and Gedalge in Paris, all of them ranked amongst the immortals of music.

Enesco's appearance with the Montreal Orchestra one week from Sunday will be his only appearance locally this year.

ON THE AIR

COMMENT ON CURRENT
Radio ProGrammes and Stars

BY JACK HIRSHBERG

With a turn of the switch as key and a flick of the dial as password, Canadian radio listeners held their first important get-together of the current year Tuesday night, the festivities lasting until the early hours of Wednesday morning as the new radio voice of British Columbia was dedicated in Vancouver in the presence of airplane-guests of five continents and inestimable countries gathered together as in one gay banquet hall through the magic of radio. But while British Columbia celebrated in grand style and British and American networks injected their note of happiness to the proceedings, the real hosts of the evening were located right here in Montreal, where Bill Reid, a west end resident, who is regarded as one of the smartest broadcast engineers in the country, directed the efforts of a crew of technicians in handling the output of over a hundred artists on both sides of the ocean, and both sides of the border, weaving their efforts into one smooth program that eventually flowed through your loud-speaker as a polished mass of entertainment.

The ceremonies attendance upon the opening of the new Vancouver radio station were more than the mere inauguration of another broadcasting plant; they signified, somehow, completion of another link in the chain that binds the provinces even more closely together and that keeps Canada in friendly communication with every country of the world. The march-past of battalions has already changed into a broadcast march-past of the provinces; and Tuesday night as one heard Englishmen and Frenchmen, farmers, fishermen and fur-trappers, easterners and westerners and northerners all stretch their arms through the ether and verbally shake the hands of their neighbours two or three provinces away, it was hard to keep from wondering whether the march-past of the provinces will not some day become a grand parade of the nations, brought together in friendliness and brotherhood by signals flung through the air.

"Nation shall speak peace unto nation" is the aim of the British Broadcasting Corporation, and it may yet be found that radio will succeed where diplomatic notes have failed.

cently, Europe has still to be discovered. . . All the pageantry and drama of the forthcoming coronation ceremonies will be carried in colourful broadcasts to America by the Columbia network which this week announced plans for the most elaborate radio coverage of any event since the inauguration of network broadcasting. . . Actual coronation proceedings, from the departure of the King and Queen for Westminster Abbey until their appearance on the balcony of Buckingham Palace to receive the cheers of an Empire, will be described by a special corps of commentators sent to London by Columbia to handle the brilliant event. . . Radio listeners in Canada will have a better view of the parade than most of the 2,000,000 persons who are expected to jam the streets, hotels and taverns of London. . . The American network will use thirty remote control units along the line of procession from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey to bring its listeners on this side of the water all the pomp, solemnity and excitement of the occasion. . .

Note from Rudy Vallee says he will depart for the west coast within a short time for movie work in Hollywood. Rudy now controls the orchestras directed by Richard Himber and Sleepy Hall. Sleepy once held sway with his banjo at the Salle Dore of the Mount Royal. . . George Temple, responsible for many of the leading dramatic shows to take the air from Montreal, is now announcing in Toronto and handles remote-control jobs for the Broadcasting Corporation. . . Evelyn Howard-Jones, English pianist who appeared with the Montreal Orchestra at its concert last Sunday afternoon, broadcasts Friday night from Toronto at 8:30 p.m. . . Arturo Toscanini has accepted the offer of David Sarnoff on behalf of NBC and will come out of hiding in Italy to conduct a special non-commercial series of broadcasts arranged by the National Broadcasting Company to take place in the near future.

Peck Robinson has lost his job as announcer on the tobacco-sponsored Sunday afternoon series without ever having appeared before a microphone during the program. Peck missed the premier broadcast because of illness, and dismissal followed. . . This series could be one of

Drama Group To Present 3 Plays

The Westmount Park Church Y.P.S. Drama Group will present three one-act plays on Friday evening, March 5th, under the direction of Miss Margaret Murray. Rehearsals are already under way for this event, and keen interest is being shown by all concerned. The group is endeavouring to present entertainment that is both educational and entertaining.

The three plays to be staged are: 'The Florist Shop,' 'The Bishop's Candlesticks,' and 'A Bargain's a Bargain.'

TO GIVE TRAVELOGUE

"A Travelogue On Scotland" will be presented by H. H. Black, of the Cunard White Star Line, will be presented on Tuesday evening at 8:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall of the Church of The Advent, Wood and Western avenues.

This event is under the auspices of the Women's Guild of the Church.

the finest ever attempted in Canadian radio, but too much talk slows down the program tempo and results in a general lack of colour and polish. . . There are 24,000,000 radios now in use below the border as against only 18,000,000 telephones. . . Four and a half million automobiles are equipped with receiving sets, a number much in excess of those showed by rough calculations or free guesses. . . Telephone surveys taken on a recent weekday evening showed eighty-one percent of local listeners were tuned to CKAC, seven per cent to CFCE, and thirteen per cent to other stations on the air at the same time. . . Alan McIver, baton-leader on the Spotlight Parade, is continuing his duties as pianist for the Lyric Trio, currently heard from Montreal on the CBC National web. . .

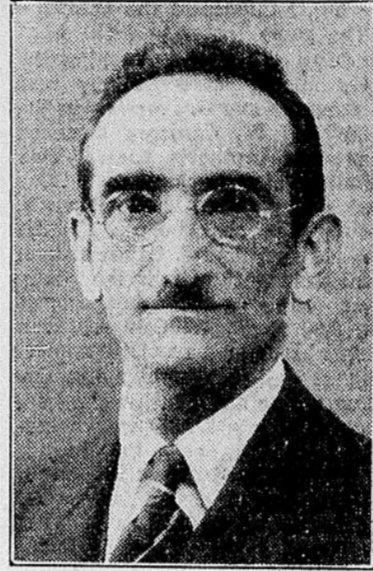

POSTLINES. . . H.N.: Yes, the stations are supposed to identify transcribed programs as such but this obligation often slips their minds! . . . R.M.L.: Walter Downs was the man. He is active in local amateur photography circles. . . H.B.: The dance programs broadcast through CHLP are for the most part commercial broadcasts. We agree that the announcing is deplorable, but evidently nothing is to be done about it. . . I.B.H. and R.H.: Bill Simms does his sports broadcasting by remote control. He sits in a studio in Montreal and reconstructs the game from brief telegraphic notes. . . T.J.: I believe Frank Starr subs for Shag on the sports newscasts, but this is not confirmed. . .

'Charge Of Light Brigade' Playing At Westmount

"The Charge of the Light Brigade," Warner Bros.' stupendous production suggested by the immortal poem of Alfred, Lord Tennyson, is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre, coming Sunday to the Seville and then following at the Monkland, with an all-star cast headed by Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland — and over fifteen thousand extra people.

STORY OF FAMOUS CHARGE . . . !

Nino Martini Sings In "Gay Desperado"

Nino Martini, world famous singing star of radio, opera and films, comes to the Westmount Theatre Sunday for three days, in Pickford-Lasky's sparkling romance, "The Gay Desperado." This feature will follow at the Seville and then the Monkland.

Ida Lupino and Leo Carrillo are featured in support of the handsome tenor.

The second offering of the newly formed Mary Pickford and Jesse L. Lasky producing combination, "The Gay Desperado" completely discards the conventional plot formula for films starring famous singers and tells a fast-moving romantic story of a gay and glamorous Mexican bandito who sings his way out of a succession of difficulties, saving his life and winning the girl by the magic of his voice.

Pert Kelton is a member of the famous "Three Keltons" in vaudeville and has taken part in three world's tours. Miss Kelton has a prominent role in "Women of Glamour" which Columbia is bringing to the screen.

Joliat Day February 27th

On February 27th when Canadians play Americans at the Forum a presentation will be made to Aurel Joliat, arranged by a local hockey paper, according to information received from Bus Johnston, who is staging the event.

As in 1934, the day will be set aside as Joliat Day and the great little player will be feted on that occasion.

Joliat is undoubtedly one of the greatest hockey players of all time and having recently played his 650th game in the National Hockey League is one of the major loop's outstanding figures.

Virginia Bruce, who has the feminine lead in "Women of Glamour," first attracted attention on the screen as "Jenny Lind" in

DICKENS GROUP MEETS TUESDAY

Fellowship To Hold 'Members' Night' At Victoria Hall—Debate and Play On Program

Tuesday will be "Members' Night" at the Dickens Fellowship in Victoria Hall. For the occasion a special program has been arranged. There will be a mock debate directed by R. H. Mainer, in which a Piewickian investigation will be held into certain startling charges concerning Charles Dickens and his works. Several prominent members will take part and the proceedings promise to be most hilarious.

On this evening the Trinity Dickensians will be the guests of the Dickensians, and, directed by Basil Donn, will present the one-act comedy "A Spot of Lunch."

Musical entertainment will be provided by Maud Aston, vocalist, and Phyllis Rowell, pianist, under the direction of Mrs. F. J. Hodgson.

Whitfield Aston, president, will officiate as Master of Ceremonies.

'Libel' To Be Presented At Ritz Carlton

For its forty-fourth major production, MRT will present "Libel," one of the outstanding dramatic successes of the London and New York stage. It is a play which we are confident will hold its audience from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

The story is briefly as follows: An influential London newspaper publishes a statement that Sir Mark Loddon, well-known M.P., is an impostor, that he has no right to his title, his lands, his fortune, or even his wife, to whom he is allegedly bigamously united. Sir Mark brings a suit for libel against the paper, declaring the whole story to be an infamous lie. The suit is brought to court, (the scene of the play), and a series of intensely dramatic situations begins to be unfolded. The defendants declare that Sir Mark had a double during the war, an unscrupulous adventurer who killed Sir Mark and, conveniently pleading that shell-shock had obliterated his memory of his pre-war experiences, returned to England, took his companion's place in society and married the girl to whom Sir Mark was engaged. For twenty years the couple are undisturbed, until the inevitable blackmailer appears. The newspaper takes up the fight and a series of characters, placed in the witness box by the opposing counsel, begins to draw aside the veil of secrecy around the life of the man whom Lady Loddon, in a highly dramatic moment declares to be "not the same Mark Loddon" she loved in the days before the war.

How the climax is reached and the play ended must, like all good stories, remain a secret.

In the MRT production, the role of Sir Mark, the plaintiff, is taken by Burt Hall. Eleanor Nichol, well-known for a long time in MRT presentations, plays Lady Loddon. The counsel for the plaintiff is ably played by Jack Ralph, last seen in "The Bishop Misbehaves"; the aggressive defence counsel by Cedric Hands, who is playing one of his best roles; A. E. Grant-Crofton is the judge, and other parts, no less appropriately cast, are taken by Cyril Hessey-White, Eric Hall, Ruxton Byatt, Murray Black, Robert Goodier and Violet Broadhurst.

In the New York production of "Libel," which was running about a year ago, Colin Clive played Sir Mark Loddon; Joan Marion, Lady Loddon; Ernest Lawford and Wilfred Lawton were the opposing counsel, and the judge was played by Frederick Leister.

Tickets for "Libel" are now on sale at the MRT office, 1461 Union avenue, telephone PL. 9654. All accommodation is reserved and bookings may be made by mail or telephone.

ADVANCE SALE FOR CARNIVAL IS PROMISING

Rotary Club Of Westmount Sponsoring Annual Event For Children's Hospital

The advance sale of boxes and seat tickets for the Westmount Rotary Club's Ice Carnival, to be held at the Forum on April 7th, indicates that the affair will, as usual, be a sellout.

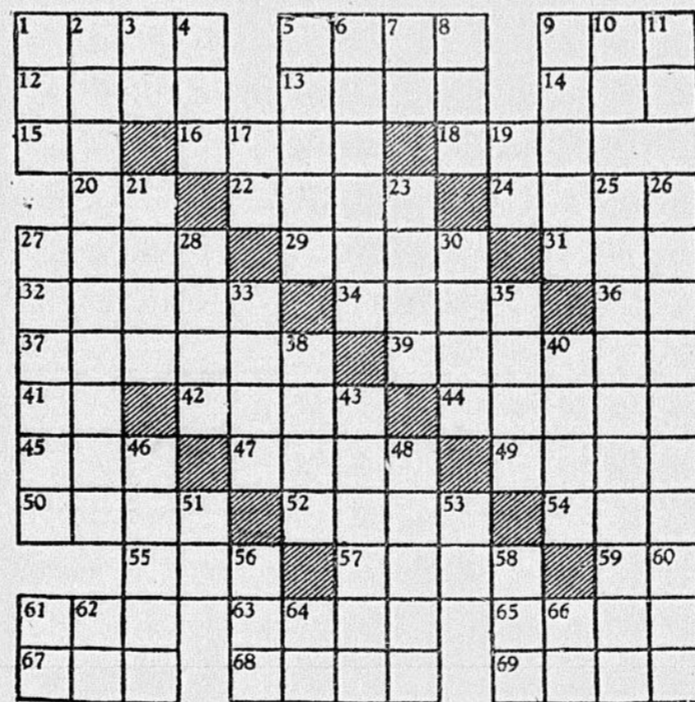

The carnival, which is held annually in aid of the Montreal Children's Hospital will be "better than ever" this year, according to information received from W. Northey, in charge of the programme.

The entire programme is being arranged and produced by the Carnival committee of the Winter Club with the members of the Winter Club and other figure skating clubs taking part.

Evelyn Chandler, star of last year's event, will be featured again this season by popular request. A world-renowned professional figure skater Miss Chandler is a popular favorite and a big drawing card for the event.

Miss Audrey Joyce and Mr. Harrison Thompson, Junior pair champions from the Winter Club will also be featured as will the Sextette from the Granite Club of Toronto.

WESTMOUNT SENIORS TAKE HOCKEY LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

12-2 Victory On Monday Over West End Seniors Brings Title To Locals

By Doug Laing

The purple and white Senior squad defeated L. C. C. on Tuesday to become the League Champions. The score was 12 to 2. The game was fast from start to finish. Ross Bennison played a marvelous game, scoring four goals. Col. Ross, Casey, Mowatt, Thomson and Doug Small started for Westmount, while Buckley and Aird scored the two goals for L. C. C. Westmount scored five goals during the first six minutes of the first period.

Ross started the scoring at the beginning of the game with Casey and Small assisting him. About a minute later Wright, Thomson, and Casey forced their way through L.C.C.'s defense and Wright slipped the puck past Fred Johnson into the nets. In another minute Bennison skated past the L.C.C. defencemen and beat Johnson at the nets. Westmount kept pressing L.C.C. and the goals certainly came fast. A minute after Bennison had scored, McMartin broke through the defense and scored on Johnson unassisted. Hellyer, in another minute, beat Johnson at the nets on an assist from Ross to score the fifth goal inside of the first six minutes of the game.

Westmount was inside the L.C.C. blue-line most of the time and at 11:25 Hellyer again scored with Mowatt assisting him. Bennison skated swiftly up the ice with Col. Ross who slipped the puck to Bennison and he slipped it into the nets. With a minute and a half left Casey received a pass from Thomson and scored.

The second period opened with Jack Fry making a nice save on a shot from Lorimer. L.C.C.'s right wing, Walter Johnson took Fred Johnson's place in the nets and Aird had to go off duty because of an injury. Johnson let in only three goals with Bennison scoring the first one on assists from Doug Small and Jack Mowatt. Three minutes later L.C.C. retaliated with MacDonald passing the puck to Buckley who shot it into the nets. Walter Johnson making a save got the puck right in his neck, but inside of a few seconds he was alright. At 15 minutes Ross Bennison, Hellyer and Mowatt skated through the defense and Bennison beat Johnson to score. Three minutes later Casey shot the puck nicely into the nets with Ross assisting him. With only thirty seconds to go Aird, L.C.C. center, broke away and outskated the Westmount lads to beat Jack Fry.

The teams:

W.H.S.—Fry, Small, Ross, Wright, Casey, Thomson.

L.C.C.—W. Johnson, Fred Johnson, Morrell, MacDonald, Lorimer, Buckley, Aird.

W.H.S. subs:—Hellyer, Mowatt, McMartin, Bennison.

L.C.C. subs:—Kerrigan Laroque, McClymont, Neale.

SECOND BASKETBALL LOOP STARTS TODAY

First series winners in the Junior basketball loop were declared on Friday in the 'Y' Jack McCreath's team took Doug, Redfern's boys into camps with a 3-0 victory. It was a well-contested match but the winners had some edge on their opponents. Both teams are eager to meet again in the second series which commences today.

St. Leo's Sport Notes

The intermediate hockey team, coached by Mr. E. H. Connolly, has shown great progress in the last two weeks. It stands second in the Western High School League, formed of St. Leo's Loyola and Daniel O'Connell. The boys gave a good account of themselves in an exhibition game recently with Mount St. Louis 2nd team, holding them to a 2-all tie, notwithstanding their superior weight and age.

Regular swimming will be resumed this afternoon at 5:30 at the N.D.G. Community Hall tank. Messrs G. A. Healy and H. Thrasher are in charge of this activity, and it is felt that the forthcoming second aquatic meet will be a great improvement over the first.

On Monday (Feb. 8th.) a skiing party to the Laurentians was held which promises to be an annual affair. Two chartered busses took the party of some eighty boys, under the guardianship of Rev. Bro. Director and Messrs. T. Healy and C. Durocher of the lay teaching staff, and Mr. E. McCormick, scoutmaster, and Bros. Manhan, Camille and Gerard, from the school grounds at 8:30 a.m. for Shawbridge.

On arrival at Shawbridge, the boys were grouped into parties according to their age and prowess. Mr. Durocher, accompanied by the biggest and best skiers started off in the direction of St. Sauveur. Bro. Gerard and Mr. McCormick took another group to the Valley of Paradise. Bros. Manhan and Camille took charge of those who were tobogganning.

At the annual meeting of the Sports Motor Cycle Club on Thursday at the clubrooms, Ted Neopole was elected the president of the club for the season of 1937. He replaces Lorne Lyndon who during the past season did a very capable job and whose leadership will long be appreciated by all the members of the club.

Although the attendance was somewhat under that expected, a good turnout of members represented the voice of the club as a whole, and the voting of the new executive was carried out to the satisfaction of all.

Preceding the voting, Ted outlined a very well thought out programme for the benefit of all present members as well as those to join for this year. He stressed the fact that a substantial increase in members will aid this club to carry on to a greater degree than ever before and with the help of every member the S.M.C.C. will be a greater leader in this field of sport than at any time in the past.

The Financial position of the club is still secure and the success of the recent banquet was a contributing factor in this respect. The executive expressed its appreciation to Herb MacRae, Ken Scott, Wally Campbell and several others who worked so hard to make a successful evening.

The new officers elected are as follows: President, E. Neopole; 1st vice-pres., H. MacRae; 2nd vice-pres., C. Painter; Ex-officio, J. S. Knox; Sec'y, T. McGrail (acclamation); treas., W. Campbell; Light Car Rep., E. Gardiner; Competition, K. Scott; Social, H. MacRae; Auditors, W. Roper, S. Chard; A. C. U., C. Painter, K. Scott, A. Mildon; Publicity, W. Roper; Welfare, J. Rose; Group, W. Riddel.

A bowling night will be held on Thursday, February 25th, and any wishing to attend should be at the Dominion Square Building at 8.00 o'clock.

Grads Defeat Fossils 9-2 In Fast Game On Thursday W. Cameron Scored 3 Times

Westmount Team Sweeps Through League Without Loss—Piled Up 6-0 Score Before Fossils Able To Net—Faulkner Of Fossils Outstanding Member Of Team—No Penalty Game

Westmount Grads ended their regular schedule Thursday with decisive win over Fossils, beating them 9-2. The Fossils were no match for the smooth passing and fleet skating Grads who piled up a 6-0 lead before being scored upon.

W. Cameron, fleet left winger of the Grads netted the puck no less than three times, while his co-lineaman Ostiguy, sniped two. Morgan also scored a brace, while J. Cameron and C. Smith made up the scoring. Faulkner of the Fossils, scored his team's two goals.

The game opened with hard checking on both teams and at the third minute mark Ostiguy sent J. Cameron and B. Cameron in the clear and W. Cameron slammed home his brother's pass. Two minutes later Ostiguy on a lone rush scored from a difficult angle, fooling the goal keeper all the way. Morgan and J. Cameron then combined for the Grads third tally on a pretty passing play, this at the 8.00 mark. W. Cameron then scored his second from a scramble, this at the 12 minute mark. Ostiguy, Milne and Smith earned assists on this goal. Morgan breaking away fast, split the defence neatly and fired one in the corner as the Fossils goaler fell to the ice in an attempt to save. The first period ended with Grads leading 5-0.

The second period started a little slower as the forwards were continually being slowed up by the hard body checking. W. Cameron completed his hat-trick with a sizzling shot from the defence with J. Cameron and Ostiguy earning assists in this play. C. Smith defenceman for the Grads broke away with Ostiguy and timed a beautiful pass to Ostiguy, who punched home a marker after drawing the goaler out of his net. Faulkner of the Fossils then snapped home his two goals in less than two minutes of play. C. Smith of the Grads then stickhandled through the entire Fossils team and notched a counter making the score 8-2. J. Cameron completed the scoring in the last minutes of the third period in a passing bee with Ostiguy, W. Cameron and A. Milne.

Faulkner was the outstanding star for the Fossils, and was held to two goals only by the tenacious back-checking of the Grads and the tight goaling of Collis.

High Scores Registered In Y Juniors League On Saturday At Murray Park

Ice in Good Shape Despite Warm Weather — Walter McGuire's Team Defeated Don Ellis 6-5—Gregg Harrison Victor Over Jack McCreath by 3-1 — Harrison Now in First Place — Further Games Tomorrow

Damp weather could not dampen the spirits of the Y boys who turned out for hockey at Murray Park on Saturday morning. The first game was a high-scoring competition, with T. Greenshield's team, led in his absence by Walter McGuire, out-scoring Don Ellis' weakened team 6-5. Ellis and his boys fought stubbornly and came very near to at least tying the score. Walter (Mickey to you) McGuire scored four of his team's goals.

He was only one of several who stood out. Don Ellis scored three for the losers and R. Way got two, among them the winning goal. The second game was a grudge affair between Jack McCreath's squad and Gregg Harrison and his team. Both teams took and gave the bumps with equal vigour. Harrison came out on top by 3-1. The first goal was scored from a scramble, the second by Bruce McPhee, and the third by William Harrison. Jack McCreath gained his team's only goal. This victory leaves Gregg Harrison in complete possession of first place. Next Saturday, Don Ellis plays Jack McCreath in the first game and Gregg Harrison plays Tommy Greenshields in the night-cap. The teams were: J. McCreath,

D. Cameron, L. Renault, D. Goode, R. Whittall. G. Harrison, W. Harrison, K. Farquharson, T. Weller, B. McPhee, E. Murray, D. Logan, S. McIntyre. D. DeJong, H. Ferguson. D. Ellis, R. Rutledge, H. Harkness. C. Griffith, W. McGuire, R. Brown, B. Johnson, R. Way, R. Finlay, E. Jones.
