A LIFE SAVED

BY TAKING

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Several years ago, I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest, either day or night. The doctors pronounced my case hopeless. A friend, learning of my trouble, sent me a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. By the time I had used the whole bottle, I was completely cured, and I believe I saved my life."

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The Pall Mall Gazette has received a report from Monte Carlo, at which place Mr. Arnold Morley, Postmaster-General, and Mr. Frederick B. Smith, the Local Government Board, are sojourning, that Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has resigned from the Ministry.

The report has it also that the resignation of the Cabinet has been called for Thursday next and that a dissolution is imminent. The report is contradicted in all particulars. It seems to have had its origin in the fact that

The Church of England boasts among its clergy one Equimaux. Rev. Robt. Gibbons is the man in question, and his parish is Parrabro', N. S. Mr. Gibbons was born in Labrador, and educated under the guidance of the Bishop of Newfoundland. He is a devoted worker among his own people, and ill health prevented him from living in the far North. An Equimaux missionary to the whites is a novelty.

Professor Vircow was asked by an inquisitive member of the community at what hour he expects to come to go to bed. "When my day's work is done," he answered. "It may be o'clock, or 2, or 5, but it's my rule not to sleep until I have finished my day's work." In spite of this irregularity of habits Professor Vircow at 72 is a very energetic and active man.
