Liz on the Hill

Report from Parliament Hill by Elizabeth Dickson

The big news on the federal scence this week was the firing of a civil servant, apparently for criticizing the government. We also saw more of the Prime Minister than usual with a TV interview and a press conference. Finally, there's some news for homeowners with UFFI in their houses. But first, a brief up-date on a number of continuing stories:

• The British government announced Thursday that the constitutional package would get third and final reading in the House of Commons March 8. Twenty-five motions for amendment were made during the committee stage of this bill.

• Although it was feared for a number of days that the federal government and Newfoundland were going to hold independent investigations into the Ocean Ranger oil rig disaster, it was announced Thursday that a six-member commission was being set up for a joint investigation. vestigation.

• Four MPs visited El Salvador last week on a fact-finding trip. Jorge Bustamante, chief of the election commission for the March 28 election told them that observers would be allowed to travel freely throughout El Salvador to judge the fairness of the election. He promised that if they declared the election a fake, he would declare it null. However, there are over two million people of voting age in the country and only one million ballots have been printed. This suggests that a poor turnout is expected at the polls, presumably as a result of fear on the part of voters that they would be killed. Is an election under these conditions better than no election at all?

• Prime Minister Trudeau has grown impatient with U.S. high interest rates. He finds the unpredictability of the U.S. rates the most distressing thing about the economic situation. He says this will be an important topic for consideration at the seven-nation summit in Versailles this summer.

• A new justice for the Supreme Court of Canada will be announced after the cabinet meeting tomorrow. Everyone is waiting to see if it will be a woman. The Prime Minister made it clear, however, that the justice would be chosen on merit alone.

Prime Minister Trudeau's Press Conference Thursday

Trudeau's exposure. This week Canadians were treated to a TV interview of Pierre Trudeau by David Frost on Tuesday and the fallout of a press conference Thursday. Of course many topics were discussed. Taking the two events together, Mr. Trudeau projects the image of having done what he can for Canada. He seems to have become disillusioned with the provincial governments because of their apparent lack of willingness to cooperate with the government in forging solutions to the many problems facing Canada. Because viable solutions to economic problems are so hard to swallow, he speculates that it might take "a new economic guru" or "a great political or moral leader" to make people forget themselves long enough to arrive at solutions for Canada.

UFFI. The federal government will supply free do-it-yourself kits to test the level of gas in homes insulated with urea formaldehyde foam. Since I mentioned several weeks ago in this column that no-one in this area had installed UFFI, I have discovered that, in fact, many homes do have it. The kits are available from the federal urea formaldehyde foam insulation information centre.

Bob Rae, NDP

House of Commons notes. Yesterday, Bob Rae, MP from Toronto Broadview-Greenwood and NDP finance critic, resigned his seat in the House of Commons. This 33-year-old politician is the new leader of the Ontario NDP.

Liberal MP Warren Allmand was asked to leave the House Thursday night because he violated the dress code by entering the House to vote without a tie. To emphasize the severity of the situation, Prime Minister Trudeau made a little paper hat and perched it on his head. Joe Clark explained that the ruling to eject Mr. Allmand was appropriate since "These procedures respecting dress...prohibit, for example the Minister of Agriculture (Mr. Whelan) from appearing here with the green hat through which he speaks...."

In honour of the sixth anniversary of the election of Joe Clark Monday, Feb. 22, Liberal MP Leonard Hopkins made a motion that the House "unanimously urges the Progressive Conserative Party to support the leadership of the Right Hon. the Leader of the Opposition with a view to having him lead his party in the next general election". All members of both the Liberal and New Democratic parties appeared to be in favour of this motion, putting the Conservatives in a tough situation. Conservative House leader, Eric Nielsen, managed to spin out discussion long enough to have the debate interrupted at 2:15 by Oral Question period.

Neil Fraser loses his job. Last week Neil Fraser, an auditor in the taxation department of Revenue Canada, lost his job. According to J.A. Morrison, regional deputy minister for the taxation department's Ontario region, he was fired because he continued criticizing government programs after being warned not to. Fraser had spoken out against the metric system, patriation of the consitution, and handling of the Polish situation.

This event has set off a heated debate across Canada on the subject of freedom of speech among public servants. There is good precedent for dismissing or suspending a civil servant who attacks his own department. In Fraser's case, however, the revenue department was not the object of criticism.

On Tuesday, Joe Clark asked the Prime Minister to "table in the House a detailed statement of the rules which will henceforth govern the rights of public servants in their capacity as free and private citizens of the country to express their views on questions outside their official responsibilities as public servants".

Thursday at a press conference the Prime Minister noted that the Charter of Rights will protect the rights of all Canadians, including those of Neil Fraser.

Perhaps the dialogue set off by Neil Fraser's criticisms will lead to a clarification of exactly what public servants are free to speak about. This would be a great service to all Canadians.

Holstein Association honours George Pirie and Son

The Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada has awarded George Pirie and Son of Bristol, Quebec, with a Master Breeder Shield. This honour received February 10, 1982 is the highest achievement that a Canadian Holstein breeder can win. The presentation was made by Doug Blair, President of Western Breeders Service Ltd., Balzac, Alberta.

The original herd was started by the late Edwin and Sadie Pirie in the 1920's. Edwin's first membership with the Holstein Association was in 1936. In 1962 a Master Breeder Shield was awarded under his name. In 1976, Edwin became a Veteran Breeder of the Association. Edwin's son, George, states that since 1949 he has worked with every cow on the Master Breeder list. In 1965, half the herd was officially transferred to George Pirie & Son. When Edwin fully retired in 1974, the remaining herd was purchased and the ownership transferred to Elmside View Farms, which is today being run by George, Winnifred and family.

The good cow families from the previous Master Breeder award have aided Elmside View greatly in their further achievement. George states that all the main cow families came from practically the same bloodlines. Every one of these cows has been a Shawville Fair Grand Champion and Ottawa Winter Fair winner. Gladys Queen is the only one of these still living in the herd with over 80,000 kgs. She was three times an Ottawa Winter Fair winner and once Reserve Grand Champion. Gladys is now being used mainly for flushing embryos as her sons are in good demand in the export market.

The present herd classification is one Excellent, twenty-four Very Good and seventeen Good Plus. Eighty-five percent of the Elmside View herd trace to, at miniumum, six generations Very Good or Excellent.

George and Winnifred have four children: Charles, Debra, Mary-Lyn and Nancy who all play an important role in Elmside View Farms. They are very active in a local 4-H Club and Quebec Young Farmers.

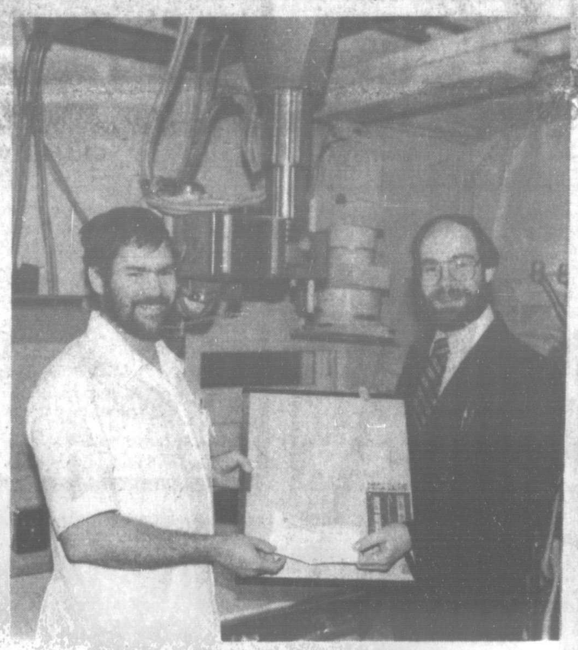
Charles states that all their cows are favourites and all are treated equally. There are a number of top producers and show winners in the herd. Elmside View Deannie (Very Good) and her dam Elmside View Xmas Belle (Very Good) were the only dam and daughter pair to win the highest producing individuals in Quebec. The herd has been Premier Breeder and Exhibitor at numerous shows for years. In 1981, they were Premier Breeder and Exhibitor at the Ottawa Valley Spring Show and the Shawville Holstein Show. They also had first prize for Breeder's Herd.

Patty Jones

In 1981, Elmside View again won the plaque for the highest producing herd in the county as well as for the top producing aged cow.

George has been very much embroiled in community activities. He is Past-President of the Pontiac Agricultural Society, Pontiac Holstein Club and Past Director of the Western Quebec Fluid Milk Producers. He is also involved in 4-H as a leader. He is Clerk of Session of St Andrews Knox Church, Chairman of the Pontiac Protestant School Board and a member of the Executive of the Western Quebec Regional Board.

George Pirie & Son required 241 points as dictated by 17 registrations per year. He has bred twenty-two Very Good and two Star Brood Cows and four Excellent, thirteen Very Good and one Superior Production Bulls for a total of 252 points.



Union presents hospital with $2000

Jerry Chevalier (left), President of the Union of Pontiac Community Hospital Employees (CNTU), recently presented Michael Robillard (right), Director General of the Pontiac Community Hospital, with a cheque for $2000 on behalf of the union. The hospital will use the donation to help pay for special "rare earth screens" manufactured by Kodak to permit x-rays to be done with a lower dose of radiation. These screens are placed inside cassettes like the one held here by Mr Robillard to convert x-rays into fluorescent light which, in turn, exposes the x-ray film (also held inside the cassette), thus intensifying the image.

This is the second time the local hospital union has made a large donation to the hospital. The earlier one was used to help install lockers for personnel. EQUITY PHOTO

The CC consolation trophy was won by Renfrew over Three Rivers, 5 to 3; the CC champions were Canterbury, 3 to 0 over Deep River. The BB consolation game was won by Smith Falls over Cornwall, 3 to 0, the the BB championship game by Brockville over Lindsay, 4 to 2. AA consolation winners were Villagers Cumberland 3 to 1. AA champions were Rayside Balfour, 3 to 1 over Toronto Aeros. EQUITY PHOTO

Queen and Princesses

Last Friday evening the five judges at the Miss Campbell's Bay pageant had an extremely difficult time coming to their final decision: Linda Laliberté was crowned Queen, Susie Walsh was 1st runner up and Roxanne Burman was 2nd runner up. The girls themselves selected Susie Walsh as Miss Congeniality. But as MNA Bob Middlemiss put it so aptly in his remarks, all seven of the contestants were winners. They were poised, charming and talented.

Coordinators of this smoothly-run pageant were Sharon Larivière, Frank Sofalvi, Christa Krislaty and Robert Vibert. Robert Vibert's experience as a radio announcer paid off when, as M.C. for the evening, he had to fill "dead air" on a number of occasions. Sharon Larivière and François Grenier introduced the contestants in English and French over background piano music played by Edith Robinson. The judges were Ernest Schrankler, Rosaleen Dickson, Ellwood Francoeur, Mary Vibert and Sylvia Hodgins.

Claude Charron, government House Leader in the National Assembly, resigned from the Levesque cabinet on Tuesday of last week, following his disclosure that he had stolen a $120 sports jacket from the T Eaton department store in downtown Montreal on January 30. As a member of cabinet he earned $74,192 per annum, which will be reduced to $42,596 when he sits as a backbencher. If he resigns his seat in the National Assembly he will qualify for and receive a fully-indexed pension of about $25,000 for life. Deputy House leader and Communications minister Jean-Francois Bertrand has been named to replace Charron as House leader. Originally elected to the National Assembly in 1970, Charron represents the riding of St Jacques in Montreal east end, and says that for the time being at least, he will retain his seat.

On Wednesday Charron was fined $300 in Montreal municipal court after pleading guilty to a charge of theft of goods worth less than $200. The sequence of events is alleged to be as follows. A female security guard noticed Charron putting his overcoat on in the Eaton store over a new sports jacket off one of the racks. He then selected another jacket, paid for it, and walked out of the store, where he met a companion who had been with Charron in Eatons but had left a few minutes earlier. The security guard met the pair at the corner of McGill College and St Catherine Sts., where she asked Charron if he had forgotten to pay for the jacket he was wearing. The companion then urged him to run, which he did. He was finally apprehended by another security guard about three blocks from the store. Back once more on the Eaton premises Charron gave the company a signed statement admitting he had stolen the coat, and offered to pay double the price of the jacket if Eatons would agree not to press charges. This offer was refused, but he is reported to have been told that for the time being the company would not refer the matter to the police. On February 8 and 17, officials of the company discussed the case with the chief prosecutor of the municipal court, and on February 17 a summons was issued against Charron, but was not served until February 22. By Monday evening, February 22, rumors of the incident were flying around Quebec City, and on Tuesday morning Charron met with Levesque and three hours later told reporters the story.

All's well....

Gratien Gelinas, the playwright, is breathing easier this week. His son Yves, 42, a Montreal actor and film-maker, is sailing single-handed around the world in his 36' sailboat "Jean-du-Sud". He left the coast of France on September 1 and when last heard from was in the vicinity of New Zealand. Last radio contact with him occurred on February 15, when he reported that he was caught in a severe storm in the South Pacific. Nothing further was heard until the early hours of February 24, when a weak signal came through to a radio ham, Pierre Decarie, of Montreal, who has been monitoring the "Jean-du-Sud" ever since she left France. Gelinas reports he is safe, although his craft was dismasted in the storm.

Change of venue denied

A motion for change of venue in the attempted murder trial of Roray Shayne has been refused by Judge Jean-Paul Bergeron. The charge against Shayne follows an incident in the Montreal Court House last December 15, when he is alleged to have taken a guard hostage and attempted to fire shots from a pistol at Judge Paul Martineau. The pistol failed to fire. The trial date has not yet been set. Judge Martineau, prior to his elevation to the Bench, had a long career in Pontiac as a Campbell's Bay lawyer, crown prosecutor, and in federal politics as member for Pontiac.-Temiscamingue, Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys, and finally as Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons.

Fédérée earnings down

The Co-op Fédérée, Quebec's largest co-operative, reports sales of over $1 billion in 1981, but net earnings down from $12 million to $9.7. The revenue increase represented an advance of 14.9 in sales over 1980, while the net profit was down almost 20%. Management stated that the drop in earnings arose from the increased cost of money; the desperate situation in the hog marketing business; and labour problems. The Fédérée is owned by 35,000 of the province's 52,000 farmers and employs over 3,000 people. Two-thirds of its revenues come from the marketing of its members products and the other third from selling supplies to farmers.

Engaged

Stevens - Drisner

Mr and Mrs James E Stevens are pleased to announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Darlene Ann to Leslie Mark, son of Mr and Mrs Reinhart Drisner of Newbrook, Alberta. Wedding to take place August 21, 1982 at Bethel Pentecostal Tabernacle, Shawville, Quebec.

A hot potato for the feds

26 farmers living in the eastern part of Quebec have sustained a total cash loss of $1.4 million caused, they claim, because they planted potatoes last year which turned out to be diseased, even though they had been examined by federal inspectors and were marked "Canada approved". Some growers, when they received the potatoes, suspected that they might be diseased, and requested that the feds conduct a re-examination. The request was refused, and now the Quebec minister of agriculture, Jean Garon, states that he has given Eugene Whelan notice that he expects the federal department to come good for the losses. It turns out that not only is a cash loss involved, but fields in which the potatoes were planted must be left idle for a period of two years.

P.Q. Government censured

The Quebec government defeated a Liberal motion last Wednesday, by a vote of 64 to 34, which censured the government for three recent tax increases, namely, 20% increase in cost of vehicle registration; 16% increase in the cost of electricity; 30 cents per gallon increase in the price of gasoline. In the motion, Jean-Claude Rivest (Liberal) of Jean-Talon, stated that the government, in the preparation of its last budget should have foreseen the development of the current economic situation, which would have avoided the need for imposing such heavy taxes this year.

Taxi drivers protest

Business of the National Assembly was brought to a brief halt on opening day, February 23, when a group of 12 taxi operators interrupted proceedings from the visitor's gallery by calling on finance minister Jacques Parizeau to do something about the exhorbitant insurance premiums now being levied on taxis. Parizeau thereupon tabled a letter on the subject he had written to the president of the Quebec Taxi League, and remarked that it was strange that only three of Quebec's 100 insurance companies are interested in insuring taxis. He recommended that the province's superintendent of insurance look into the matter.

The following day, the taxi drivers returned to the National Assembly, and when about 25 of them attempted to get inside, police locked the doors and put up barricades. The drivers then seized an automobile, rolled it onto the Assembly grounds, and set it on fire, as a demonstration of their anger over the huge increases in 1982 Taxi insurance premiums.

Quebec Liberals need funds and members

The Liberal party of Quebec has launched a new drive for funds, and has given itself until the end of May to build up a total of $1,725,000. Heading the drive is Daniel Johnson, Jr. MNA for Vaudreuil-Soulanges. An earlier campaign for funds was started last fall, mostly through the mails, which yielded a total of $950,000. This sum will provide the bottom half of the new campaign, which simply means the party is now looking for an additional $775,000. It is expected that Daniel Johnson, as president of the drive for funds, will visit all regions of the province to solicit funds and to encourage people throughout the province to join the Liberal party. There are at present 80,000 members, but it is believed that as many as 150,000 members is a distinct possibility.

Small-Business loans

The PQ government wants to set up a $200 million fund to provide low-interest loans to small business in the province; and to furnish $1,000 from each of the federal and Quebec governments for every $1,000 invested in a business by its workers. The plan is to have the feds supply 75% of the fund with Quebec making up the other 25%. In the National Assembly on Tuesday the government attempted to have the Liberals support the resolution. Replying for the Liberals, Reed Scowen said they would support the resolution only if the clause referring to the proposed worker-investment scheme were removed. He concluded by stating that Quebec's problems are due to high tax rates driving workers out of the province; political uncertainty because of debate over Quebec sovereignty; and the province's strike record.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

You'd half expect, way up here in the wilds of Pontiac, that our hospital would be equipped with the bare essentials and lucky at that. But the fact is, due to the generosity of such organizations as the Union of Pontiac Community Hospital Employees and other contributors, in our X-Ray department patients are protected from harm by the most modern devices available.

So much has been heard recently about the dangers of X-rays that every time the doctor says, "We'll need to see an X-ray of that" we shudder and wonder and try every way possible to avoid it.

The fear of X-rays has been occasioned by the fact that so many less than perfect machines are being used and that so many X-rays are being ordered up. We hear of maximum safe dosage and since the ordinary person has no idea of what to look for, or even what to ask about, we have to take it on faith that we are not being given more than this safe maximum. Our concern is in no way alleviated by the fact that X-ray technicians don't always ask us how many other X-rays we've had in the last year.

But there are ways of reducing the radiation dosage of each click. These ways involve expensive and very sophisticated equipment which is not available in many of the hospitals using X-rays. But now, in the Pontiac Community Hospital in Shawville, the special screening devices are in place. Now, in our own hospital the element of safety has been greatly increased by the use of these screens.

It came about because the money to buy it was available and the hospital administration considered it important. Two thousand of the necessary dollars to provide the most modern radiation reducer came from the hospital employees union this week. Thanks!

QUEBEC NEEDS US

That's the motto of the Quebec Liberal Party fund-raising campaign but it could be taken in a wider context. Maybe Quebec needs the Quebec Liberal Party fund-raisers and maybe it doesn't, but Quebec undoubtedly needs its English speaking population and that part of its French speaking population which isn't paranoid about the English language.

The fact of Quebec needing us is so evident that saying it is a redundancy. Imagine the result in this fair Province if each and every English speaking citizen moved out tomorrow, along with all those French speaking people who don't mind seeing a No Smoking sign in English or an Exit sign in Latin. The ones who would stay would have the whole Province to themselves and the result would be total chaos.

Those of us who still feel at home in our Province, despite the desperate efforts on the part of the present government, are putting up with more and more nonsense each day. Calling it necessary for their cultural survival, the fanatics in Quebec work non-stop to push us and every sign of our existence out of the Province.

Resisting the push are the die-hards among us who still believe the Province is worth a struggle and who know that Quebec needs us. Just because the Quebec Liberal Party fund-raising campaign has chosen this as their motto doesn't mean that we have to join them to assert our belief that Quebec needs us. In fact, the Quebec Liberal Party is going to have to come out publicly with a positive statement about lanugage before they can be accepted as a viable alternative to the separatists in power.

Just saying they are federalists isn't enough. They have to proclaim themselves positively against language legislation of any kind.

Then those who wish to promote the French culture will do so on their own time and with their own money and cease to drain the businesses, municipalities and provincial funds of Quebec for their own particular fads and fancies.

When the current language fixation is over it will take a long time before everyone settles down to a linguistic normalcy. Back lash and retroaction will be hard to overcome, but the sooner they let language be determined by the desires of the citizens, the sooner Quebec can begin to progress in other fields. Maybe the Liberals are in favor of this but thus far we haven't heard them say it.

"Home on the Hill" keeps getting better

Since the Pontiac Reception Center opened in Shawville about four years ago, many improvements have been made. Stroke chairs, wheelchairs, century baths (whirlpools), refrigeration units for the kitchen, and TV aeriel hook-ups for every room have been added. Air conditioning for the kitchen and administrative wing and an elevator have been installed. To top things off, the outside entrance which used to be so treacherous in winter because of the downhill slope of the walk approaching the door, has been covered over with an enclosure.

The Lions Club of Shawville has been a big contributer to the Home on the Hill right from the beginning. Contributing generously toward the improvements listed above, their total donations to date add up to $35,546.55. In the case of the elevator, the Regional Council of Health and Social Services supplied $87,000 of the required $95,900 and the Lions provided the balance. The Lions also shouldered the entire cost ($5000) of the new entrance way.

The In Memorium donations constitute another important source of funds for improvements. Joe Larose, Director General of the Home, says this community is unique in its generosity in this area.

The Home also benefits greatly from the efforts of the Ladies' Auxiliary, a group of about 30 local women who meet on the third Wednesday of every month at 2 pm to plan ways of making life at the Home more pleasant. Formed three years ago, the Auxiliary holds a bingo every second Wednesday night and a birthday party once a month for the residents of the Home, The women also do mending for patients, visit them, help them with correspondence, and look after a supply cart of things residents might like to buy. Once a year the Auxiliary hosts a tea to raise money for these activities.

Special help in all areas at the Home is supplied by about twelve "candy stripers" under the guidance of Mrs Maurice Lemay and Mrs Lloyd Stewart. These highschool girls contribute their time after school and in the evenings.

Future plans for improvements at the Home on the Hill include the wall papering of hallways, dining room, living room and B-wing lounge and the building of a sunroom 67 feet long looking South over Shawville. The estimated cost of this last project is $50,000 of which about half has already been raised.

In addition to the groups mentioned above, an enormous amount of credit goes to the hardworking people who decided more than twenty years ago that Shawville should have a Home on the Hill and have not stopped working since. Among them are Dale Thomson, President of the Board of Directors and Kathleen Lamb, Vice-President. The other six members of the Board are Aurele Dufour, Social Services Center rep.; Diane Danais RN, nursing staff rep.; Thelma Kuehl (sec-treas), non-clinical staff rep.; Joe Larose, Director General; and Harry Wilson and Clarence Carson, residents of the Home.

Local vegetables for Pontiac

Did you know that there is a new community development project by the name of "Projet Légumes chez-nous Pontiac" in Pontiac County? We started on February 8th, 1982, and our objective is to promote the production of vegetables in our county for local consumption. We have spoken with a few local producers and feel that there is great potential for increased production both in the field and in greenhouses. Our office is at the C.L.S.C. in Bryson, Box 220. If you are interested in vegetables or bedding plant production, contact Solange Léonard, Margaret Tubman or André Bastien at 648-2193, CLSC, Box 220, Bryson.

The Equity
Shawville, Quebec

Dear Mr and Mrs Dickson

I look forward to receiving your paper each week. Because of the post, delivery is not as punctual as your publishing. Often two issues will come in the same mail delivery.

Due to the interest in the Pontiac House, I thought you might be interested in receiving a copy of this old poster I have in my collection. It's shocking when you consider the things noted on thisposter are all ancient history.

PONTIAC HOUSE
Main Street, Shawville
CHRISTOPHER CALDWELL, - PROPRIETOR.
GOOD ACCOMMODATION FOR TRAVELLERS.
COMMODIOUS SAMPLE ROOMS.
FREE BUS TO AND FROM REGULAR TRAINS.

"The Pontiac House" is gone.
"Mr Christopher Caldwell" is gone.
"Good Accommodation" is gone.
"Commodious Sample Rooms" are gone.
"Free Bus" is gone.
"Regular Trains" are gone.

This old poster used to hang in Eades Mill which, as I recall, is or was a few miles north-west of Shawville. Like most printed ephemera, there is a strong possibility that there are very few copies of this advertisement left in existance.

I look forward to my annual or semi-annual trips to Shawville to see my mother, Mrs Henry McDowell and to see my old friends from Charteris and Shawville. The Equity helps me to keep in touch with all the action in the Pontiac.

Yours sincerely,
Jean Alder

A new publication for Auctioneers and the people who enjoy going to Auctions will appear in April. The magazine will be called "The Auctioneer" and will be published at Custom Printers, 25 Argyle N., Renfrew, Ontario.

March 8th is International Women's Day, celebrated on that day because it was March 8th, 1857 that the lady textile workers on the Lower East side of New York left their work and marched in the street, demonstrating against unfair working conditions. Twelve hour work days, child labour, starvation wages, unhealthy and unsafe working conditions were the main objections. Police on horseback charged the ladies, several of whom were trampled and others beaten. In 1910 Clara Zetkin, a German woman, first instituted the Day to commemorate the occasion and it was celebrated first in New York in 1911. Today in Canada there may be nothing exclusively feminine for most of us to demonstrate against but the day will be observed by some; to remind us of the struggle our mothers and grandmothers went through for equality, to remind us that in many other countries discrimination against women is still serious, and finally to remind us that even here in the best country in the world many women still play a subservient role in our otherwise enlightened society of 1982.

The folks around Wakefield have their Gatineau Memorial Hospital and they intend to keep it. Their campaign to hang on to their hospital will turn out to be a demonstration of the power of the people in this part of the world. If 1500 people gathering in a church hall to tell the Government to leave their hospital alone will result in success, faith will be renewed for all such just causes. André Renaud, who organized the Citizens' Committee for the Saving of the Gatineau Memorial deserves great credit for spearheading this exercise. Here's hoping the hospital stays, undiminished in any way.

Lila Hewitson, in charge of Adult Education at Pontiac Protestant High School, has advised THE EQUITY that there are several openings left in the Construction Safety course being offered for heavy equipment operators and construction labourers. These workers are required by law to take a safety course before they are allowed to work. Lila may be reached at 647-5605 for further information.

The Protestant School Board, through Adult Education, continues to offer instruction to improve reading skills. This literacy program relies on the assistance of volunteer teachers to permit each student to have his own instructor. Anyone wishing to learn to read better and anyone wishing to help them do so should talk to Lila Hewitson. There is also the possibility that a course in cardiac-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) will be offered by Adult Education. At least fifteen students are required.

Person to Person

PROPAGANDA

Observers of the passing scene have noticed the current war propaganda. We have seen it before and know where it is leading us.

The campaign is working well. We will all wake up some morning and believe that the only recourse against whatever enemy is advertised at the moment is to go to war. When the call comes, be it this year, next year or in another ten years, the people of Canada will be so well prepared that they will deem it a privilege to take up arms, send their money, buy the poison gas or do whatever they are called on to do. They may even be persuaded to dig holes in the ground to hide in while the war is going on! They will be absolutely sure that the war will solve something.

So successful is this softening process that even the TV program MASH has slipped right off the top ten. The strong and delightfully intelligent anti-war message of this classic has lost favor with the viewing public. Have the superb acting and excellent scripts on the program become a victim to the changing mood of the public? Is it true that the population would prefer to forget that war is hell?

Dear Editor:

The Toronto Show

My Dad, Mike Graveline of Aylmer, Quebec, went to Toronto for the first and only 5A show in Canada. He went there with his 1952 GMC truck which he drove there and came back with a first place trophy. Special thanks to my brother and Brian Trudeau who encouraged him as a truck club member.

By Kelly Graveline.

Dear Editor:

On my first attempt at writing up the February meeting of the Auxiliary for the Pontiac Reception Centre, or more familiarly known to me as the "Home" in Shawville, I "goofed".

As you will no doubt understand, U.C.W. and C.W.L. are somewhat alike. However, the difference is that one is United Church Women, and the other is Catholic Women's League.

I must apologize to the Catholic ladies at Quyon, who so kindly offered to help with the supplies cart at the Reception Centre during the month of January, and I have contacted their president, Mrs Pat Foran, by telephone to that effect.

Next time I shall try to do better! Thanks.

Very sincerely,
Eleanor Hodgins

Dear Editor:

We were very pleased indeed to learn of the decision by Shawville Town Council to hold a referendum on "General Disarmament" alongside the municipal elections next November. Given that the governments of the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. have enough nuclear weapons between them to destroy all life on earth from 20 to 60 times over, it is of the utmost importance that the people of all nations have a voice on an issue which affects their survival. Council's decision has given the citizens of Shawville such a voice, and we would like to thank the Councillors for their concern. Shawville has now joined with Ottawa, Toronto, Hawkesbury, Ontario, and Pitt Meadows, B.C., in deciding to hold such a disarmament referendum and we fully expect that as many as 75 Canadian municipalities will take the same action this year.

There are several important facts which your readers should know about these referenda:

1) the ballot question concerns "General Disarmament", a United Nations-approved formula for phased and balanced multilateral disarmament. It is Operation Dismantle's belief that, given the hostility between the Western nations and the Soviet bloc, one-sided disarmament by "our side" (or "the other side") might well be more dangerous and destabilizing than no disarmament at all. "General Disarmament", on the other hand, was supported unanimously by the member states of the United Nations back in 1961 and stands to this day as the long-term goal towards which all government-to-government disarmament negotiations are directed.

2) "General Disarmament" does include provisions for verification of any disarmament agreement but the problem of one side "cheating" on an agreement is not as important as many people think. We have calculated that, if each superpower were to disarm at the rate of 10 bombs per year, it would take a minimum of 2,850 years or 114 consecutive generations before stockpiles fell so low that each superpower could only destroy the whole world once. In other words, the problem of one side losing its "credible nuclear deterrent" while the other side has been secretly saving part of its force will not arise for a long, long time. It is much more important to worry about turning the arms race around before the momentum of war preparation takes us into a globally-suicidal nuclear war.

3) The campaign for municipal disarmament referenda in Canada is part of a larger effort towards a world-wide disarmament referendum, sponsored by the United Nations. Dismantle staff spent 3 months lobbying at the U.N. and discovered that a proposal for a world referendum would pass in the U.N. General Assembly with support from all sides, including the Soviet Union and its allies. The Soviet government has always maintained that world disarmament is the centrepiece of its foreign policy. There are many good reasons to doubt the sincerity of Soviet intentions, given their behaviour in the world. However if their expressed desire for disarmament is really a bluff, then we have nothing to lose and possibly a great deal to gain by "calling their bluff", by proposing a plan which could well lead to balanced, verifiable disarmament ... such as a world referendum on the issue.

Once again, I would like to express our congratulations and thanks to the Mayor and Councillors of Shawville.

Sincerely,
T James Stark, President

P.S. Since this letter was typed, Courtenay, B.C.and the District of North Cowichan, B.C. have decided to hold disarmament referenda.

CURE for English problems

A new association, the English Cultural Resource Centre, has been established in Hull under the chairmanship of Kevin Drysdale. In a recent newsletter, the group expressed concern that French language training is offered free to recent immigrants to Quebec, but not to native English speaking Quebecers. Other concerns are that about eighty percent of the Anglophone youth leave Quebec, and that Anglophones do not receive the same social services enjoyed by other Quebecers.

CURE is an affiliate of Alliance Quebec, the new name of the old Council of Quebec Minorities. [The Post, Buckingham]

All eggs in one basket

The Parti Québécois may go on winning elections and losing referendums for years to come, at least so long as René Levesque continues to head the party. After having reasserted his leadership, the premier has put forth his plan to make independence the central issue of the next election.

A risky action, but one that eminates from a street-wise politician. Quebecers may not want sovereignty, but they do want a government that is capable of producing some kind of platform that is followed with a certain degree of integrity. The tarnished image of Bourassa's Liberals lives on like indigestion after a greasy meal and is accented by the complete inability of Ryan's Liberals to construct an identifiable alternative platform.

After the 'Non' vote, they had the opportunity but struck out. One hopes that the Liberals are not expecting to win the next election by default, using their loyalty to Canada as their only card. The péquistes may be putting all of their eggs in one basket, but so far the Liberals have yet to produce one egg, or for that matter, one basket. [The Post, Buckingham]

Apple meeting ends in uproar

The annual meeting of the Southwestern Quebec Apple Producers Syndicate ended in chaos with an outbreak of shouting and paper throwing by several of the fifty producers present, unhappy with proposed Federation fee increases and the introduction of a marketing agency for Quebec apple growers.

The meeting broke up without a single resolution being passed, however, the degree of unhappiness existing among apple growers in the Chateauguay Valley was quite apparent. These farmers face some of the most difficult growing conditions and lowest prices in Quebec. Their protests center around three issues.

First, many have refused to pay the Federation's levy of $17 per acre, either because of the principle or because of insufficient funds. One court case was decided in favour of the Federation. Second, the Federation is considering raising this fee to $32 per acre in 1984. Some growers feel they are now getting nothing for the fee they pay and see no reason why they should pay more for nothing. Third, the formation of a marketing agency is seen by some as only a scheme to eliminate their autonomy of operation, finding of markets and establishing a price, while providing an agency with the power to make deductions from producers' cheques at source.

Other producers see the agency as the only way for local apple growers to survive, given their competitive position with respect to Ontario growers and those elsewhere in Quebec. They feel that the opposition is caused mainly by a lack of information. [The Gleaner, Huntingdon.]

UPA building gets cool reception

Lack of consultation with the grass-roots on the construction of the new Maison de l'UPA in Longueuil was the most serious beef raised by over 100 members of the Chateauguay Valley UPA syndicate at its annual meeting in Ormstown. As one farmer said "the building is already under construction, and it seems we're going to have to pay for it one way or another, but what really hurts is that the local syndicates were not even consulted about the decision to build. It's the principle of the thing, and shows a lack of democracy in what was supposed to be a democratic organization." [The Gleaner, Huntingdon]

Food co-op rolling

The Cooperative Food Club, which opened last year in Lachute now serves its fifty members from quarters furnished by Centraide. Last year's sales were $91,000, and with no liabilities and $8,000 inventory the club is in sound financial state.

The club hopes to double its membership this year to spread the work load and allow for extra services. Membership is $130. refundable if the member leaves, and weekly dues of $2.50 are charged in addition to the one percent markup added to the cost of the goods sold. Co-op directors claim savings over chain store prices of between fifteen and eighteen percent. [The Watchman, Lachute]

Valentine's Day art

St. Partick's Variety Concert

by V Crawford

The townspeople of Campbell's Bay and Bryson are preparing to provide two evenings of entertainment to celebrate St Patrick's Day. The first item on the program will be a St Patrick's Day play written especially for this occasion. The play, "The Hangman's Tune" is based on legends told by Bernadette Ranger, Clifford Robillard and Michael John Hearty. The supernatural influence of the Irish and French legends can be felt when leprechauns, featuring Willy Rivet the grandfather leprechaun, a loup garou, a ghost and a haunted house appear on the stage.

The entertainment that follows the play comes from all over the Pontiac. The Helenettes from Calumet Island will be performing tap, jazz and baton routines. Irvine Cole, the singer from Vinton and Gaetan Poirier, the fiddler from Ladysmith will assist our own local performers. The Ostroms will provide the back up Irish music.

Come one, come all to the Campbell's Bay Community Centre on Wednesday, March 17 and to the Bryson Theatre on Friday, March 19 for an evening of fun.

We're committed to your future.

At the Secretary of State, we've received some very good ideas from Quebec's anglophone communities. And, we've helped them grow. Here are just a few of the projects that the Secretary of State has been associated with last year:

- a conference for Quebec's English-speaking youth. Young Quebecers from every part of the province came together to discuss the difficulties and challenges facing Quebec's anglophone youth;
- an arts and crafts exhibition and tour that allowed local Gaspé artisans to display their works in other English-speaking communities throughout the region;
- a workshop that brought members of the province's 13 Quebec Young Farmers clubs together to develop leadership skills and to share ideas;
- a project by Youtheatre to bring live theatre to children in 90 communities in remote areas of the province;
- and many, many more.

In the course of funding these projects, we've developed a good idea of just how vital Quebec's anglophone communities really are, and how important they are to Canada's cultural heritage. A good idea deserves to grow.

A good idea deserves to grow.

Clarendon WI

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs Evelyn Laframboise on Wednesday, February 10th with twenty members and one visitor present.

Mrs Carolyn Knox, in the absence of the president, presided over the meeting. She welcomed all and read a poem 'Valentines'. The roll call 'What I have learned through Women's Institute' was answered by all and over twenty valentines were sent to shut-ins.

Some time was spent trying to finalize Fair display articles and Expo articles.

The secretary read a letter from the provincial president and a thank you letter from Mrs Mayfred Dods for the donation of the Q.W.I. Pioneers to the library of the P.P.H.S.

February is Clarendon's month for the hospital cart so arrangements were made.

A motion was made that tickets be made for two articles donated to the Institute. Ina Kilgour volunteered to look after this.

Annual reports were read from all convenors.

The publicity convenor, Gwenyth Strutt, had a contest on cabinet ministers and premiers. This was won by Ina Kilgour.

March meeting is to be held at Mrs Marguerite Towsley's.

A social hour was enjoyed while delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses Evelyn Laframboise, Edna Wilson and Rebecca Wilson assisted by Susan McCleary and Muriel Bertrand.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank The Equity for publishing our reports each month.

95th birthday

Monday, March 1st, was the 95th birthday of Mrs Margaret MacLean who is spending the winter in St Joseph's Manor in Campbell's Bay. Mrs MacLean has had a reputable past in that she was in one of the first three graduating classes of the Montreal Children's Hospital, after which she nursed in Newfoundland. Pages have been written about her husband, George, who was the first man to make the trans-continental crossing in a truck, but Margaret's own personal spunk has had little or no mention.

However, this week, as this grand old lady turns 95, the Manor at the Bay is honoured to have her with them for such an occasion. (Among the many wishing her best wishes is her daughter, Helen McDowell MacLean Adams of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, who reads THE EQUITY weekly, enjoys the 50 Years Ago column particularly, as well as the column written by Mrs Manson Sharpe, with whom she went to school!)

Snowmobile marathon

Between the hours of 9 and 11:30 am Saturday, February 13th, the annual snowmobile marathon co-sponsored by the Quyon Lion's Club and the Quyon Sno-Riders got underway. Twenty-nine snowmobiles left the Beach Barn and set out on a 100-mile circular course that would take them from Quyon, close to Weirstead, across to Norway Bay and then Sand Bay, up to Shawville and then on to Ladysmith where a lunch was ready for them at the T.C.R.A. After lunch they gassed up and continued on their way diagonally above Thorne Lake to meet the Wolf Lake Trail, through North Onslow, over to the Ranch Hotel and finally back to the Beach Barn.

The weather was perfect for the marathon--lots of sunshine, no wind and moderate temperatures. All of the trails had been freshly groomed by the P.S.D.A.

Once back at the Beach Barn the Lion's Club served supper and a Valentine Dance was held with music supplied by a new local group of young musicians.

This year's snowmobile marathon, called "Sweetheart Arama" because of its proximity to Valentine's Day, was a huge success. $3300 in pledges were collected by the 29 participants. This money will be evenly divided between the Sno-Riders and the Lion's Club. After expenses have been covered, these clubs will make donations to charities as is their tradition.

Waltham winter carnival

On the weekend of February 19-21, the little community of Waltham put on an enormously successful carnival. The Queen and Princess of the carnival were chosen on the basis of their talents to sell carnival buttons. The Queen (left), Melinda Chaput, sold 500, while the Princess, Janice Harkins (right) sold 184. EQUITY PHOTO

Finalists on Saturday, February 20, at the euchre tournament at the Waltham Winter Carnival were (clockwise from the lower left) Gerry Pharand, Al Pilon, Wilda Chassie and Mary Pilon. The spectators enjoyed the suspense of the game, cheering the winners on to success. After a solid day of card competition, everyone unwound at a dance with music by the Midnight Ramblers, a local group composed of Johnnie Chassie, Randy Durocher and Yvon Ladouceur. For more results of the carnival, see the Waltham Notes on page 16. EQUITY PHOTO

Ladysmith winter carnival

The organizers of the Ladysmith Winter Carnival "Fundays 82" went out of their way to create new and exciting activities for all age groups. The under 10's were put through their paces at the rink by Pastor Carl Kappes and Verner Thrun with masquerades and a coin toss among the afternoons events.

Many ski events were held. Winners of the 6 km ski course were Carlo Guiliani, Robert Lafleur, Marisa Guiliani, Wally Bretzlaff, André Chartrand and Patricia Glahs. In the 1 km ski speed course (age 10-16) winners were Andrew Hodgins, Barry Krose, and Stephen Smith. Winners in the 16-plus category were John Foster, Carlo Guiliani and Ian Fulford.

The winning team in the exciting ski relay race was made up of Greg Bretzlaff, Ian Fulford and Sylvain Chartrand. Second were John Foster, Justin Foster and Carlo Guiliani. Third were Sylvie Chartrand, Patricia Glahs and Ken Turcotte.

A bizarre obstacle race on skis was won (age 10-16) by Sylvain Chartrand, Barry Krose and André Chartrand. In the 16-plus category, Carlo Guiliani, Ian Fulford and Greg Bretzlaff were the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners.

Top winners in the snow-shoe 100-meter race were Stephen Fierobin, Ken Turcotte and Roger Kodl.

In broomball, the Ladysmith Lassies were nipped out by the Otter Lake Women's team by 3-0. The Bean broomball team edged out the Ladysmith TCRAs by a score of 3-2. Mel Bean, Jack Campbell and Bob Bean each scored one goal for the Beans. Ed Walsh scored two for the TCRAs. In the Ladysmith Ladies' Broomball circuit Diane Yach scored the only goal for the Puffers against the Panters. The Bears edged out the Bee's again this week with Sandra Leger scoring two for the Bears while Tracey Miller scored one for the Bee's.

Finally, in an exhibition game on Sunday, February 21, the TCRA Lob Ball team beat the Bad Habits 10-2. The players provided high entertainment as they tramped their way through the snow. The Ladysmith Buc's and the Bad Habits also played a game to a score of0-0.

Truly Canadian

The way we were in THE EQUITY

25 years ago

March 7, 1957

Canada's oldest woman. Prime Minister John D Diefenbaker sent a telegram to Mrs James Riley (née Mary Smith) when she turned 107 on March 2. Her nephews brought a hearing aid, Senator Horner sent cookies and MP Hugh Proudfoot came in person. Relatives and friends arrived from far and wide. The little brick house on Shawville's Center Street had never seen such a party. As the celebration wound up with square dancing at midnight, Mrs Riley urged everyone to be back on March 2, 1958, and meanwhile she would see them at the Fair.

The refugees have arrived. Last Monday the Zoltans, a family of Hungarian refugees, arrived to take up residence in the Radford house prepared for them by farm forum groups. In addition to the parents Zoltan and Maria Rigo, there are five children (Zoltan Jr. 11, Katalin 9, Anna 7, Mihaly 5 and Magda 2) and one adopted son, (Jozsef Dancs 17).

Ground observers complete test. The 300-strong Ground Observer Corps of the region extending from Campbell's Bay to Wakefield ran a test exercise last Saturday and Sunday under the command of Captain A.C.F. Winslow. The telephone operators received much credit for their cheerful and keen response to the "Aircraft Flash" signal by the Observers.

March 8, day of prayer. The Women's World Day of Prayer will be observed on Friday next, March 8th throughout the world. Following World War II, this world-wide project to unite all Christian women to bring the Rule of God into human hearts was initiated.

Top Hat Pavilion. The Happy Wanderers, heard daily over CFRA from 12:35 to 1 pm, will play Friday, March 8, at the Top Hat Pavilion in Campbell's Bay from 9 pm to 1 am. The evening will feature square dancing, round dancing and a stage show.

The issue of March 3, 1932 is missing from our files.

Boys remembered him. Mr Alex G Brough who has been miller at the Shawville Roller mill for the past year and a half took his departure from here on Thursday morning last. A number of fond associates hatched a conspiracy with Mr Brough's landlady, Mrs George Hodgins to spring a trap on the unsuspecting Alex. Mr Herbie Cuthbertson presented him with a substantial leather suit case whilst the customary accompanying address was being read by Mr J W Morris. Taken thus at a great disadvantage, it was with difficulty Mr Brough was enabled to find words to respond to this unexpected manifestation of his Shawville friends' goodwill towards him. After a week or so in Renfrew, he will go to have a look at things around Cobalt.

Hockey. Seven Shawville hockey players journeyed to Westmeath on Friday last to return the visit of the boys of that town on the 22nd of February. The boys went by the mixed train to Waltham from whence they drove to their destination by stage. After losing 10:4 the Shawville team was entertained to supper and a round of amusements consisting of impromptu speeches, vocal and instrumental music, dancing, etc., until it was time to make tracks for Waltham in order to catch the early morning train.

Shawville was treated to a most unusual and entertaining night of hockey on Thursday night last when the Shawville Ladies played the Shawville Old Boys and went down to defeat by just one point. Playing for the ladies were Miss Manly, Miss K Wilson, Miss Neilson, Miss Lester, Mrs Whitman, Miss M Shaw and Miss Lena Caldwell. On the Old Boys team were J Shawviskoff, R Whit Man Chung, J Turnhimselfupsidownovitc, M. Cambelliski, H. Barnoffsideovitch, J. Kiwanawayoff, and W Hodg Yen Ching. The Referee was C E Shaw and the timekeepers were Nit!

The New Lord's Day Act. A dominion measure, which provides that every man, no matter what his occupation, shall have one day of rest out of seven, came into force on Friday last. If conditions are such that a man has to work on Sunday, he must get some other day of the week to himself as a day of rest.

Travel plans. Sir Wilfred Laurier and Sir Frederick Bordon have booked passage to England on the Empress of Britain sailing from St John April 5.

Eighth Line notes. Mr Adam Elliott has commenced sawing again. The boys are all returning home from the woods. Welcome home boys. Mr Jas Armstrong has returned home from the woods. Mrs Wm Eades is ill at present. Don't be surprised to hear of a wedding in the near future.

Births. At Shawville on Saturday morning, March 2, to Mr and Mrs W A Hodgins a daughter.

At Stark's Corners on Tuesday morning, March 5, to Mr and Mrs John A Dean, a daughter.

Deaths. One of the oldest residents of Vinton (Upper Litchfield) passed away last week in the person of Mr John Mulvey. His funeral largely attended took place at the R.C. Cemetery on Thursday.

Very much sumpathy is felt for Mr and Mrs Geo H Wainman in the loss of their second daughter Mabel a little girl about five years who fell a victim to the scourge diphtheria on Tuesday last.

Mrs William Lunam (née Miss M K Farrell of Ironsides) died on Friday from pneumonia. She was the sister of Mrs W J Stark.

Mrs Robert Smiley, daughter of the late Henry Eades of Clarendon, died Saturday night in Montreal. Her husband, Robert Smiley (of Mr J H Shaw's) received the news by telegram on Sunday morning.

Quyon Council Meeting

Sandy Shores - Mrs Holtzworth - Letter from Mrs Holtzworth read concerning the purchase of lot 6-8, 6-9, 6-10, 6-35, 6-36, and 6-37. It is suggested that the question not be decided before the future of the historical-touristic project for the region is known and that she be advised that she will be advised in due course.

Law 125 - Meeting in Campbell's Bay - The Mayor explains the invitation as well as the progress concerning the formation of C.R.Ms in the Outaouais and the exit of the Municipality from the C.R.O.

Right of Way Mr Guy Moncion - Letter from lawyer Richard M Leblanc read to council. After discussion council agrees that the question of right of way is only the business of interested parties and that the question of circulation on those roads by our contractors is covered in our by-laws.

Public Lights - Corner Maple and Davis - Moved by Michel Grenier seconded by Eddie McCann and resolved to ask Hydro-Quebec to install a public light at the intersection of Maple and Davis roads it being understood that the maintenance cost will be charged to the Municipality.

Bill 90 - Jos Lelièvre - Moved by Michel Grenier seconded by René Vaillant and resolved to support the request by Mr Jos Lelièvre to the CPTAQ for the sale and residential construction on lot 1-B-8, Range II, Eardley Sector.

Salaries - Councillors - Councillor McCann underlines the fact that by-law No. 035-81 taking effect on January 1, 1982 and providing for a raise in the salaries of councillors from $2,000.00 to $3,000.00 a year and of the Mayor from $3,800.00 to $9,000.00 (in accordance with article 77 of the Code), replaces a by-law adopted five and a half years earlier that is on the 5th of April 1976.

Wolf Lake Road - Councillor Armitage asks that flags be placed where the road is in bad condition.

Hayes and Sons - Councillor Armitage reports that Mr Hayes asks if Council could help financially for the funeral of Mr Trousse, on top of the $540.00 paid by the social service.

Price of Gasoline - Moved by Eddie McCann seconded by Bernard Armitage and resolved to send a request to the Department of Revenue information services in Montreal asking them to support our request to the Minister of Finance to have the principle accepted that the Quyon ferry constitutes a frontier post with respect to the surtax and that that tax be reduced in accordance with the same regulations in effect at the other bridges on the Outaouais River.

Cedar Posts - It will be necessary to invite bids for 500 cedar posts.

Invoices - List No 2 - Moved by Ken Bronson seconded by Eddie McCann and resolved to approve invoice list no 2 amounting to $37,114.09.

Adjournment - Moved by Ken Bronson seconded by Bernard Armitage and resolved to adjourn the meeting at 22:44 hours on Monday, February 15, 1982.

The oldest living trees in the world are believed to be the bristle cone pines of California, some of which are estimated to be some 4,600 years old.

La survie du Camp Gatineau

Comme on le sait déjà, la survie du Camp Gatineau est asurée, ce qui ne signifie pas que tous les problèmes auxquels cet organisme doit faire face sont pour autant réglés.

Très heureux d'avoir vu les gouvernements fédéral et provincial en venir à une entente qui permettra éventuellement au Camp Gatineau de toucher une subvention qui totalisera d'ici 2 ans, $450,000., le Conseil d'administration par la voix de son président a tenu à remercier sincèrement les hommes politiques dont principalement les ministres concernés: Messieurs Lucien Lessard et Pierre De Bané respectivement du Ministère du Loisir de la Chasse et de la Pêche et du ministère de l'Expansion Economique et Régionale ainsi que les députés de la région et les fonctionnaires qui ont permis l'aboutissement heureux d'une série de démarches qui auront durées 2 ans

Le Président Robert DesRosiers a souligné que sans l'appui inconditionnel de plusieurs organismes locaux et provinciaux, de plusieurs individus et principalement des médias de la région de l'Outaouais, le Camp Gatineau aurait sans doute été devant l'obligation de fermer définitivement ses portes.

Au nom des usagers, le président a aussi ajouté que c'était là une excellente façon de terminer l'Année Internationale des Personnes handicapées.

Cette première phase ayant été amorcée positivement, le Conseil d'Administration travaille maintenant à la signature d'un bail à long terme avec la Commission de la Capitale Nationale. Tout indique que les démarches en ce sens pourraient aboutir d'ici quelques semaines.

Bien qu'aucune date n'ait été arrêtée pour le commencement des travaux de rénovations, on anticipe que les travaux préliminaires pourraient commencer à la fin mars.

Une chose est certaine cependant, c'est qu'il y aura un Camp d'été cette année pour les 800 usagers du Camp Gatineau, répartis à travers toute la province.

En terminant Monsieur DesRosiers a souligné le fait que les argents qui seront dépensés au cours des deux prochaines années, contribueront à l'essor économique de la région et vont constituer un bon point de départ pour une campagne de levée de fonds que Camp Gatineau tentera de mettre sur pieds afin de combler la différence entre les coûts de réalisation des travaux et la subvention reçue.

Project légumes chez-nous Pontiac

Un nouveau projet de développement communautaire du Canada a débuté le 8 février 1982. Ce projet s'intitule "Projet Légumes Chez-Nous Pontiac". L'objet de ce projet est de favoriser la culture des légumes dans le Pontiac. Nous sommes intéressés à regarder la production locale et toutes possibilités offertes pour l'utilisation des serres. Si vous êtes intéressés contactez Solange Léonard, Margaret Tubman ou André Bastien au C.L.S.C., C.P. 220, Bryson, 648-2193.

STATION DE POMPAGE ET RESEAU

Suivant l'entente Canada-Québec, le ministère des Affaires municipales couvrira 75% du coût du projet en allouant une subvention de $936,820 à la municipalité de Saint-Maurice (Champlain), pour lui permettre de réaliser la construction d'une station de pompage, d'un poste de traitement d'eau et l'installation de divers collecteurs afin d'assurer une meilleure distribution d'eau dans la municipalité. Cette subvention s'ajoute à une première de $309,530, et résulte d'une réévaluation du projet. La participation financière ministérielle sera donc de $1,246,350 dans ce projet particulier.

PRIX STABILISE POUR LE PORC

Le ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation verse une avance de $4 par porc couvert par le régime d'assurance-stabilisation des revenus des producteurs-finisseurs de porcs. Ce régime couvre les porcs d'engraissement mis en marché entre le 1er avril 1981, et le 31 mars 1982. Même si l'année fiscale n'est pas terminée, la Régie des assurances agricoles peut autoriser le versement pour compenser les pertes subies par les producteurs. Ces avances totalisent $3,240,000 dont profiteront quelque 761 producteurs qui avaient assuré 809,920 porcs d'engraissement.

High Days and Holidays in Canada by Annie H Foster and Anne Grierson, Ryerson Toronto.

The book, High Days and Holidays in Canada, relates interesting and valuable information about holidays of special interest to Canadians. The origin of each day, its history, and the customs associated with it are given.

This year, 1982, Shrove Tuesday is February 23, and Ash Wednesday is February 24. The following are excerpts from High Days and Holidays in Canada about each of the days just mentioned.

SHROVE TUESDAY

Like Easter, Shrove Tuesday is a movable feast. It falls on the day before Lent begins. Therefore, it may occur anytime between February 2nd and March 8th.

The name had its origin in the practice in the Roman Church of confessing sins and being shriven on this day. In Scotland it is known as Fasten's Eve, coming just before a season of fasting. Where the French language is spoken, it is called Mardi Gras, or Fat Tuesday. But it has a more popular name than any of these — Pancake Tuesday, because in almost every home pancakes are eaten on that day. This custom is said to have begun because of trying to use up the fat and dripping in frying the hot-cakes, before the meatless days of Lent.

Everywhere the day is one of mirth and gaiety. "Merry Shrovetide" is almost as joyous as Merry Christmas. The Mardi Gras festival in New Orleans, for example, is perhaps the gayest celebration on our continent. In the Province of Quebec, where it is a legal holiday, the day is one of festive joy.

The merriment used to begin the previous day, Collop Monday, when colloups-croquettes made of meat and egg—were served. Boys went about on that evening, calling at neighbours' houses in quest of treats, and singing:

"Shrovetide is nigh at last;
And I be come a-shroving;
Pray, dame, something:
An apple, or a dumpling."

ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday, the day following Shrove Tuesday, varies from February 3rd to March 9th. It marks the beginning of Lent, which gets its name from Lengten-tide, the Anglo-Saxon name for springtime, when the days are lengthening. It is a period set aside by the Church for fasting and self-denial, in token of Jesus' forty-days' abstinence under temptation.

For at least twelve hundred years Ash Wednesday has been observed in many branches of the Christian Church. Within modern times, although the day is one of marked solemnity with the Anglican (Espicopal), and other denominations, it is only in the Roman Catholic Church that ashes are used in the services. The branches used on Palm Sunday of the previous year are burned to provide the ashes which are then sprinkled with Holy Water.

Before the beginning of Mass, the members of the congregation approach the altar. The priest dips a forefinger in the ashes and, while marking the sign of the cross on the forehead of each of the worshippers, repeats in Latin:

"Remember, man, that thou art dust, and to dust thou shalt return."

Ash Wednesday, therefore, is set aside by the Church to teach mankind the lesson of humility.

Horsin' around

by Bonnie Richardson

We don't need the groundhogs shadow to tell us spring is here! Our horses can tell us that.

It's that time of year again when most horses are beginning to shed their winter coat. Why not give your animal a hand and help to get rid of that unwanted hair. By putting your animal outside on warm sunny days, the first thing they usually do is roll. (If your hair was starting to fall out you'd be itchy too.) By rolling throughout the day, the animal has loosened a lot of hair. Therefore, when bringing them in at night, you should take five minutes and give them a thorough brushing. After doing so, blanket them for the night with a warm winter blanket. In the morning before letting them outside again, remove the blanket and brush the hair once again. It's surprising how much hair will come out.

If you are consistent with this procedure and proper feeding habits, you not only help your animal to lose their winter coat, you also add to a soft and shinnier coat for an earlier summer look.

Waltham library opening

A committee under the chairmanship of Lise Gauthier has been busy converting an unused room in the Waltham elementary school (Our Lady of Perpetual Help School) for use as a municipal library. The Mayor of Waltham, Gerald Dempsey, built the shelves, others painted, the school board donated items of surplus furniture, and books, records, toys and pictures were brought in from the Bibliothèque Centrale de Prêt de l'Outaouais. Over 300 books including three encyclopedias were also donated by members of the community.

This Sunday, March 7, at 1 pm this library in Waltham will celebrate its grand opening. The library committee is hoping people will come from all over the County to help celebrate and so have planned to serve lunch all afternoon for the visitors.

AECL reorganization

Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd President James Donnelly has announced a reorganization of the Corporation resulting in the grouping of Engineering Company, Chemical Company, and International Company into a new corporate body known at CANDU Operations, with headquarters in Sheridan Park.

This change in organization and management structure was approved by the Board of Directors with the aim to enable AECL to obtain the "financial and other results that we are all looking for in carrying out our CANDU implementation, marketing and sales programs." Mr Donnelly stated that the changes will put AECL in a better position to face the challenges of today and tomorrow and benefit from new opportunities.

P.P.H.S. students win Commonwealth essay competition

by Ken Wentworth

The English Department of Pontiac High School has recently received information from the Women's University Club of Montreal that our school has again made an excellent showing in the Royal Commonwealth Society Competition.

Koushi Mahesan, a grade 10 student, won first prize in the Class B competition. Koushi, daughter of Mr and Mrs Morris Mahesan of Shawville, has participated and won on a number of occasions in the past.

Mary Lynn Pirie's essay won a commendation in Class B. Mary Lynn, a grade 9 student, is the daughter of Mr and Mrs George Pirie of Bristol.

In Class C, the school won honours in second and third place. Stephen Wentworth, a grade 7 student, won second prize while Marlene Stephens, a grade 8 student, won thrid prize in this class. Stephen is the son of Mr and Mrs Ken Wentworth of Shawville and Marlene is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Clarence Stephens of RR 2, Shawville.

All winning essays and those submitted for Class A, have been sent to London, England for inclusion in the world-wide submission of essays. Winners will be announced later in the year.

It was felt by the Montreal judges that on the whole the essays were of good standard. In general, they were well organized as well as being neat and legible.

Other winners came from the following schools: Quebec High School, Lower Canada College, Saguenay Valley High School, and Trafalgar School for Girls.

Congratulations go out not only to the winners but also to all students of our school who participated in the competition.

We're committed to your future.

At the Secretary of State, we believe in projects that foster the rich cultural heritage of Quebec's anglophone communities. Projects that enhance cultural awareness and traditions, that maintain and develop communications links, and that deal with issues of a socio-economic nature to suggest a few. Projects where the Secretary of State can either help out financially, or provide professional advice.

The Secretary of State has sponsored programs to bring Quebec's young people together to discuss the challenges that lie ahead for their generation, to encourage tomorrow's young farmers to develop leadership skills and to bring live theatre to the children of isolated communities. These are just a few of the projects that have been developed by Quebec's anglophone communities.

Because we recognize the significant contribution of anglophone Quebecers to the Canadian society as a whole, the Secretary of State is here to help the important projects in these communities bear fruit.

An important project should bear fruit.

PERSPECTIVE

REV. ED. McCAIG

The man they called Joe peered out the window of his boarding house into the black night. The wind tossed the branches of the trees and the rain spattered against the glass. The lantern on the table flickered in the draft that crept in under the door. Joe was worried and the kindly boardinghouse mistress, who looked in at him from time to time, knew the reason why.

Joe was from Dublin; an Irish boy who had left his home to seek his fortune across the sea. He had found his way to Canada and had somehow turned up in this little Ontario town on the shore of Rice Lake. No one knew much about him, because he was not a person who talked much about himself. In fact, he almost seemed to avoid other people, as if he was afraid of them; afraid to trust them; afraid perhaps of being hurt. So he had never really had a close friend all the time he was growing up. Now, here, in this little town so far from home, Joe still had not made any friends, at least not as far as he knew; none at all . . . with one exception.

Joe had met a girl in this town with whom he had fallen in love. In his eyes she was no ordinary girl. He had come to trust her and he had asked her to marry him. The wedding was set for the following day and that afternoon the girl had gone across the lake with some others in a small boat to get her wedding dress. It was now late, and stormy, and they had not yet returned.

And then came a knock on the door. The man who stood at the door was deathly serious. They knew that something was wrong. "Joe," he said, "I have some bad news for you. The boat that your girl was in — something happened. They were caught in the storm. They're all drowned."

In that moment Joe's fragile world ended. The only friend he had ever really trusted, the only one he had ever really loved, was gone. He fled upstairs to his room, locked the door, and wept. Only the darkness knew the brokenness of his heart.

Only the darkness — and the Lord. Because somehow in those terrible hours Joe began to pray. As he cried in brokenness and despair, he also cried out to God. And somehow, he began to discover that his cries were heard.

It was many hours later that he got to his feet, dazed and weak, and started back downstairs. What he could not understand was the group of people waiting for him at the bottom of the stairs. There was the lady from the third floor, the school teacher, the old lady from the library, and the mistress of the boardinghouse. They threw their arms around him and told him that they cared. They told him to have courage. The minister appeared and invited him to the manse. In the midst of the greatest crisis of his life, Joe discovered that he was loved.

The story has a strange ending. No one had ever thought of Joe as a commited Christian. Likely no one ever really understood what had happened to him that night, when he poured out his heart to God and discovered the love of those few people. But his life changed. There came a day when he gave away most of what he had to help the poor, and he spent the rest of his life helping the less fortunate people of that little town.

And he did something else. Joseph Scriven went on to write a hymn, one that has blessed millions of people all over the world: "What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear."

The Bible says, "Cast all your anxiety on him, for he cares for you." (I Peter 5:3 NIV). Millions of people have found that you can cast your cares on Jesus, and he gives the grace and strength that he promised.

Perhaps it is not really a strange ending to the story after all.

by Shirley Archambault

Margaret Reside who will be 80 on March 18th was born in Glasgow, Scotland and has been a resident of Luskville for over 50 years. She has one daughter Shirley Archambault, four grandsons, four great-grandsons and two great grandaughters. She is very active in local organizations.

Sympathy to Mabel Dowd and Doreen on the death of Wilmer Dowd last week.

Sincere sympathy to the family of Hillard Shaver of Finch who passed away last week. His wife was the former Betty Mohr of this area.

Luskville wound up a very successful Carnival on Saturday night. The winner of the afghan was Suzanne Archambault of Aylmer. After expenses the profits were $450.00. This is an annual event. It was nice to have our M.N.A. Robert Middlemiss and his wife in attendance. It shows that he cares. Our Mayor Marcel Lavigne did a fine job calling the squares as usual.

Congratulations to Jacqueline Charland for a great job of organizing. Some familiar faces in the crowd which unfortunately we don't see often enough were Vaughn, Isabelle and Janice Overton.

Congratulations to Keith Overton and his wife who were married on Saturday.

Happy birthday to Alex Richards who had a birthday on March 1st.

Get well wishes to Bob Barnes, a patient in the Civic Hospital.

Happy birthday to Madeline Perrier, Pat McConnell and Margaret Reside who are all celebrating this month. Also Father Bastien O.M.I. who is holidaying in the sunny south just now.

The Aylmer Merchants Ball league is having a St Patrick's party in the barn on Friday, March 19th with live music and a buffet all for $4.00. There will also be a bar.

The winner of the Luskville Fishing Derby was Mr Jean Guy Cleroux of Navan, Ontario, with a 5 lb 15 oz Pike. He won a trip for two to Florida.

Joy Campbell was treated to a trip to Montreal by her grand-niece Nancy and Bob Weatherton and grand-nephew Doug and wife Chrystiane White. She was accompanied by her niece Beryl White and son-in-law Milton Cooligan.

A lovely surprise party was held in the Luskville Community Centre on Saturday to honour Jessie (Joy) Campbell on the occasion of her 80th birthday. Approximately 200 attended. She received many lovely gifts including over 100 cards and a scroll from the Prime Minister. Friends came from Ottawa, Aylmer, Quyon, Wyman, Wakefield, Kingston, Carp, Stittsville, North Gower, Frobisher Bay and Haley's Station. Harry Osborne sang "When I was twenty-one" in her honour. Guests ranged in age from five months to 90 years! A beautiful lunch was served by her three daughters and four grandchildren. A two-tiered birthday cake was made and decorated by a grandniece, Barbara Stimpson.

Luskville crowned its Carnival Queen on Saturday night. She is Manon Chantignay who represented the 550 Restaurant. First runner up was Josie Robert representing the C.S.C. of St Dominque. Second runner up was Jo-Anne Scantabury representing the Octagons. The Carnival continues all this week with the Queen's ball on February 27th.

The Senior Citizens of Luskville held a very successful card party last Friday night with a draw on some cheer won by who else, you truly!

Leslie Walsh had the misfortune of his snowmobile breaking down and had to be rescued by his father Lennis and brother-in-law Kevin Hannaberry. They all had a wonderful weekend of snowmobiling around the Pontiac.

Visiting Lou Hannaberry on the weekend were Mr and Mrs Kevin Hannaberry of Ottawa and Darcy and Dallas Walsh of St Mary's. While here Viola Hannaberry, Lou Hannaberry and Audeen Walsh visited with Mr and Mrs Theo Morin on Saturday at Campbell's Bay.

We heard from our son, Peter, in Kamloops, B.C. over the weekend that all our friends are well and the weather is beautiful. Also heard from another son, Donald in Ear Falls, Ontario, that they are experiencing this good weather as well.

Get well wishes are sent to little James McGee of Osgoode who has been a patient in the Children's Hospital in Ottawa for over a week. Nanny and Grandpa Sharpe hope the doctors get to the bottom of your trouble and you'll be well enough to be home soon. Keep your chin up Jim and Connie.

What a reprieve we have had from heating this past week. It looks like an early spring but we had better not get our hopes up too high as March can be a blustery month.

Our little song bird, Elka Wittig was on CHIP on Saturday and also played and sang at Gavan's Hotel on Saturday night to a good crowd. Congratulations Elka.

The skiing hasn't been great but quite a few are making use of what we have for cross country skiing.

Birthday congratulations to Ruth Gordon of Quyon who celebrated her birthday on Saturday, February 20th.

There have been a lot of viruses and chicken pox going around. This wet weather hasn't been too good for common colds and sore throats but all one can do is try to keep the children from getting wet or staying too long with wet feet which sometimes is almost impossible especially when they are in school. I guess this all goes with this time of year.

To all our sick and shut-ins in hospitals and homes we say "Cheer up" spring isn't that far away. A month from this past Sunday will be the first day of spring! To the ones of us at home, spring means spring cleaning. Too bad Mr Clean can't do his work on his own.

Mr Ken Hannaberry, Mr and Mrs Kevin Hannaberry of Ottawa visited with Mrs Lou Hannaberry and Viola's parents, Mr and Mrs Lennis Walsh.
