Third Bank Theft In Five Days

Religious Riot Shakes Poland

KRASNIK FABRYCZNY, Poland (AP)—A wave of arrests continued in this southeast Polish town Thursday in the wake of a major religious riot that erupted June 28.

In Lublin, the nearest big city, squads of militiamen armed with sub-machine-guns, patrolled the streets after dark in fear of a further outbreak.

Tadeusz Marx, chairman of the local national council and secretary of the United Workers' (Communist) party, said in an interview:

"We deplore what took place June 28, but I wish to state here that the whole affair was inspired."

Marx, a small, thin man with large, flashing eyes, blamed the troubles on what he regards as excessively religious women and said: "We will never give in to a band of fanatical women. These few hundred women must realize they do not represent public opinion."

Pieced together from a long series of interviews with church leaders, Communist authorities and local residents, the following picture emerges of the riot—apparently one of the largest outbreaks of popular feeling in a Communist country in several years:

Back in 1957, the people of this town of 11,000 built around a metallurgical factory, erected a shrine in a wooded area behind a school at the end of Vladimir Lenin Street. The town had no church and no priest of its own although, church authorities said, the Roman Catholic hierarchy had repeatedly asked permission to build one.

A church spokesman said they had warned the authorities that the people were getting impatient and that visiting priests had difficulty in keeping them quiet. The church authorities in Lublin have a petition signed with thousands of names demanding construction of a church.

"Before we build a church, which would cost millions (of zlotys)," said Marx, "we must build more schools which also cost millions."

$8 Million Haul Drug Case May Be Biggest

MONTREAL (CP)—Two Montreal men were charged with trafficking in narcotics Thursday, climaxing a series of RCMP raids which resulted in one of the largest drug seizures in Canadian history.

The raids on Montreal underworld caches during the last few weeks uncovered raw heroin worth an estimated $8,000,000 on the criminal market and police said the case may be one of the biggest in modern criminal annals.

Giuseppe (Pepi) Cotroni, 45, and Rene (Bob) Robert, 31, arrested in a motel in suburban Montreal, are also wanted by a Chicago court on charges of possessing bonds stolen in a $3,500,000 robbery of the Brockville Trust and Savings Company in Brockville, Ont., last year.

The pair was ordered held without bail after crown lawyers argued they would disappear if they were freed until preliminary hearing set for July 16.

20 OTHER RAIDS

They were arrested by 15 RCMP officers and four United States federal narcotics agents while other police were carrying out 20 other raids on Montreal Island. No other arrests were made.

Joseph Cohen, the criminal lawyer appointed prosecutor by the federal government, said in opposing bail the total amount seized was 13 pounds "which, I'm told, diluted and sold in the drug market, would be worth about $8,000,000."

"The operation is so big and so extensive that any bail would not ensure the presence of the two accused at the time of trial," he said.

Cotroni and Robert were rumpled and nervous at their arraignment on charges of trafficking in drugs between April 28 and July 8, and of conspiring with unknown persons to traffic.

14 YEARS AND LASH

They could get 14 years in penitentiary and the lash on each charge.

Both of them have had brushes with death in the last few months.

Cotroni, who has cafe and restaurant interests in Montreal, was one of several people who drank from a bottle of poisoned liquor during a party in the Laurentian Mountains last December. One man died in what was believed to have been an underworld execution which misfired.

Robert was shot in the stomach on a downtown Montreal street last April shortly after he was acquitted of a charge of possessing bonds stolen in the Brockville theft.

U.S. authorities had Cotroni under surveillance for many weeks, it was learned Thursday. Sam Levine, acting district superintendent of the U.S. Narcotics bureau in New York, said Cotroni made frequent trips to New York and was always shadowed by agents.

Levine said the investigation was hidden so successfully that Cotroni made a trip to New York only a month ago without even suspecting his arrest was near.

THE BANK AT ROXTON POND HELD UP BY A LONE GUNMAN

Raffles-Type Thief Gets $3,000 Haul From Roxton Pond

By NICK POWELL

ROXTON POND — An armed modern Raffles, the "gentleman" burglar, added a touch of irony to the third bank robbery in five days in Shefford county, as he politely made off with about $3,000 from the Banque Nationale Canadienne branch here.

The first robbery occurred last Friday afternoon at the West Shefford Banque Nationale when three armed masked men took $2,000; the second, again by three armed bandits, involved a haul amounting to about $100,000 in a wild chase at Valcourt on Tuesday. The robbers dropped about $70,000 of their haul while getting away.

Yesterday's holdup at Roxton Pond was as quiet and unspectacular as the other two were hectic.

Miss Georgette Bernier, manager of the branch, gave the following account of the robbery:

"It was about half past two and I was alone in the office when the man came in."

"He was tall, brush-cut hair, very well dressed and very polite. He did not wear a mask. I didn't worry about anything until he reached his hand into his pocket and pulled out a note, passing it to me through the wicket."

THIS IS A HOLDUP

"It read: 'This is a holdup. Give me all the money in the till.' I looked up at him and he was pointing a gun at me."

"I was so nervous I didn't know what to do. I just started pushing the money across the counter at him. All the time he just stayed on the other side of the counter."

"Then he told me to get down on the floor behind the counter and not to make a move or make a noise. Then he must have walked out because I only heard the door close. I got up, went to the door and looked out. He was getting into a grey car, but I managed to jot down the license number."

Sgt. Leopold Dauphin of the Granby detachment of the Provincial Police identified the license number as that of a stolen two-tone grey, 1956 Oldsmobile, missing Wednesday night in Montreal.

CALLER MOTHER

Miss Bernier continued: "I phoned the police right away and then Mr. Armand Jauvin, manager of the bank in Granby. Then I called my mother."

Mrs. Bernier lives with her daughter in an apartment above the bank. According to Mrs. Bernier, her daughter was badly shaken by the experience and they both went over to see another daughter, Mrs. H. Ducharme, who lives in a cottage by the pond.

They all believed the slick holdup man headed in the direction of the city.

Minister Green Goes For Speed

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Green must be setting some sort of record for speed in the Commons.

He managed Thursday to get external affairs department spending estimates through the House in one sitting. He pulled off a similar unusual feat earlier this session by getting House approval for public works department estimates—he holds that portfolio, as well—in a day, too. Usually, the estimates of each of these departments takes two or three days.

Canadian Tourist Wounded

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Me. (AP)—Two men shot and robbed a Canadian vacationer in a picnic grove Thursday and then escaped in a blue panel truck.

Maurice Couture, 35, of the Rosemont section of Montreal was critically wounded. He was given emergency treatment at a Biddeford hospital and the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church were administered before he was hurried to Maine Medical Centre, Portland.

Doctors said he was shot in the right side of the chest and suffered damage to the spinal cord. Couture was paralyzed from the waist down and lost a lot of blood.

His wife, Lise, 28, was unharmed. She told police in French and halting English that she and her husband were headed toward Lewiston from this famed resort when they stopped in a picnic grove to change out of their swimming clothes.

She said the blue truck was parked in the grove with two men—one about 45, the other about 18—reading a roadmap. She said she thought they were after directions when they approached with the map.

The older pulled a gun, she continued, and shot her husband. Then they took his wallet and her purse and fled toward Old Orchard Beach.

Russia Renews Inspection Plea

GENEVA (AP)—Russia renewed Thursday a demand that the number of on-site inspections of suspicious events in a nuclear test ban control system be determined by political rather than scientific factors.

Soviet delegate Semyon Tsarapkin for the first time submitted to the three-nation talks a formal draft article on the Soviet proposal for a fixed quota on on-site inspections. But he refused to commit himself on how many such inspections could be held in each of the three nuclear nations.

The Soviet draft provided that these inspection teams should be staffed by Russians in the United States and in Britain, and by British and Americans in Russia. But it did not determine the number of the envisaged permissible on-site inspections.

No Politics In Foreign Policy

Small Ship Sliced By Freighter

QUEBEC (CP)—A small coastal schooner was sliced in two Wednesday after colliding with a larger ship in the St. Lawrence River near Murray Bay, 80 miles downriver from Quebec City, the transport department's signals service reported Thursday. The five-man crew was rescued.

The crew of the 250-ton pulp wood carrier St. Timothee said the larger ship continued on its downriver course after the collision and they were unable to identify it.

Only the forward section of the St. Timothee remained afloat after the larger ship's bows sheared through her. The crew who jumped overboard following the crash, were picked up by the coaster T. B. E. which was following their ship upstream. The bow of the St. Timothee later was beached near Murray Bay.

Captain Nere Harvey of the St. Timothee suffered the only injury. His leg was cut as he hurried himself from his ship.

Walker Tipped For Public Works

OTTAWA (CP)—There was speculation Thursday that David J. Walker, Progressive Conservative MP for Toronto Rosedale, will be named soon as public works minister.

The portfolio has been held on a temporary basis by External Affairs Minister Green since his appointment to the external affairs post.

He Didn't Have A Chance

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Policeman William Ryke lost his eyeglasses to a petshop monkey.

The monkey snatched Ryke's glasses and ran off with them. Ryke then read the sign—"watch your eyeglasses."

Obscenity Bill Attacked

Sex All Right Says Senator

OTTAWA (CP)—Senator Arthur Roebuck, 81, Thursday delivered this solemn pronouncement in the senate:

"Sex is perfectly all right."

The Ontario Liberal, chairman of the Senate divorce committee, was criticizing the legal definition of obscenity the government wants written into the Criminal Code.

Justice Minister Fulton has said its main purpose is to rid newsstands of filthy publications.

SEX ISN'T OBSCENE

"Whether sex comes in small doses or big doses, sex is not obscene; sex is perfectly clean and around it generally clusters the highest ideals and the purest sentiments," Senator Roebuck said.

"I do not care whether the whole book is full of it or just one page, sex is perfectly all right."

Sensor Roebuck, a former Ontario attorney-general, said sex should be open to discussion. It was "in the mind of everyone practically all the time."

"What we should be legislating against is the perversion of sex. That is what is objectionable."

The definition would make any publication illegally obscene if its dominant characteristic is undue exploitation of sex, or of sex and crime, horror, cruelty and violence.

"Obscenity is much broader than just sex," said Senator Roebuck.

"Legislation to curb freedom of speech and publication in an attempt to curb some certain evils may easily create evils greater than those sought to be suppressed."

"Suppressive laws administered by bigots, by busybodies, by overzealous people, can do a very great deal of harm in any community."

Sensor Roebuck approved of a government proposal to amend the code to prohibit broadcast or publication of any statements by an accused at a preliminary hearing until the case has been disposed of.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here's a capsule report on the new economic setup of the movie industry:

This week nine feature movies are being made for theatres. And 65 television series are being filmed.

There can no longer be any doubt that TV is keeping the movie industry alive. Every major studio is buzzing with TV activity—Warner Brothers alone has 10 series shooting, and no features. The RKO (now Desilu) and Republic (rented by Four Star) lots now are exclusively devoted to TV production.

The major studios were late to jump on the home-screen bandwagon, but they're making up for it now. The TV profits will be enough to keep them in the riskier business of making theatrical films.

The theatre business outlook is good this summer, now that TV is suffering from re-runs. The lack of new TV programming is sending viewers out of their homes to catch the display of fresh products in the theatres. . .

PAT BOONE HERE

The Pat Boone family will be here through the summer, but they aren't ready to become Californians yet.

"I'll have to return to New York for the TV show," the singer says. "We've got a brand-new studio there, and ABC still hasn't built a big enough plant to do the show in Hollywood. They're working on it, but they built the executive offices first."

It was nice to see Eddie Cantor squiring his wife and family around to the Las Vegas shows. The Cantors were hard hit by the loss of their eldest daughter and both parents have been ailing. Eddie looks his usual spry self, but is taking life easy. . .

Jerry Lewis gave one of the top parties of the year to salute the confab of Paramount bosses—his partners since the $10,000,000 deal for Jerry's services. The Lewis mansion, once Louis B. Mayer's, was gaily decorated for the 200 guests and the host went all-out to entertain them, even a furious tap dance.

HONOLULU (AP)—Six Japanese warships sailed into Pearl Harbor Wednesday on a goodwill and training mission. There were two destroyers and four frigates. Guns of the visiting ships boomed salutes just before entering the harbor. U.S. Marines, manning shore batteries, returned the salutes, salvo for salvo. The Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

PROPELLER-DRIVEN TRAIN DESIGNED — A train driven by standard airplane propeller and engine is shown in this artist's sketch. A working model of a three-car, 276-passenger train will be shown at a series of international fairs, starting at Salonika, Greece, in September. Engineered by Curtiss-Wright, the train is aerodynamically propelled by engine at front and rear and so can run equally well in either direction. The reverse-pitch propellers provide all-weather braking. Several railroads are said to be studying the possibility of placing such trains in use within the next two years.

Tree Farm Ideal For Forum Field Day At Bulwer

BULWER — Good weather and a large crowd helped to make the Field Day held near W. S. Laberee's cottage and pond a decided success.

Mr. Laberee's certified tree farm was an ideal place as the men's topic was trees.

Professor Jones, of Macdonald College, explained about Woodlot management and answered questions of the group. In the morning they visited a plantation of young trees and a woodlot. In the afternoon they visited the sugarbush of Mr. Laberee and Mr. Prescott, at the end of the afternoon Mr. Jones showed samples of trees with different diseases, and explained how each affected the trees, and distributed folders to those persons interested. The ladies spent the morning visiting and some took advantage of the swimming. In the afternoon, Mr. Richardson, of the Experimental Farm, spoke to them on plants, flowers, shrubs, vegetables, and the different fertilizers needed. He also talked on diseases which strike at the different plants, and he answered many questions, and also gave out pamphlets on the control of plant diseases.

The water was the main attraction for the children with supervised games after dinner. At the noon hour all enjoyed a basket lunch with coffee, ice-cream and cold drinks, served by members of the Bulwer Forum. A large tent was on the grounds as well as tables and chairs for everyone's convenience. Soft drinks were sold during the afternoon. After dinner the District Council meeting for zone five was held with the president, Roland Lowry, presiding. The minutes were read and D. J. MacMillan, agronomist for Compton County, gave the address of welcome.

Mr. MacDougall, agronomist for Sherbrooke County, spoke briefly saying how pleased he was to be present, and outlined many benefits of Farm Forum, saying it was the voice answering all farmers' questions. He spoke on efficiency and said all farmers should take as their text, efficiency in Farming.

Mr. MacMillan was in the chair for the election of officers, all were re-elected as follows: President, Roland Lowry, of Sawyerville; vice-president, Carlo Peterson, of Ayer's Cliff; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Verne Wilson, of Sawyerville. The president, vice-president and Gordon McElreath were named a committee to make plans for a Field Day at the Experimental Farm early in August.

BULWER —

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moulton, Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Clifford Leavitt, of Tilton, N. H., Miss Glenna Evans, of Sawyerville, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Forgrave and family, of High Forest, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Patton and children, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hobbs, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hobbs.

DRAPER'S CORNER

Guests at the Dustin home were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, of Montpelier, Vt., Mr. and Mrs. Wardell, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. A. Wark and family, Huntingville. Master Peter Wark, remained for a week. Miss Ural Dustin, Ayer's Cliff, was a guest over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Pauquette were at LaPatrie for a few days and attended a family gathering, where several relatives who are priests or nuns who were in Sherbrooke for the Eucharistic Congress, were present.

Mrs. A. Charland has returned from a visit with her daughters in Ottawa.

Miss Paula Charland is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hamel, in Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Aitkenhead, Sherbrooke, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Draper.

ASBESTOS —

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bateman, of Montreal, spent a week's holidays at their summer home at Three Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley F. Graham and children of Sherbrooke, have opened their summer cottage at Three Lakes.

Miss Bonnie Demers is a guest at Maple Leaf Lodge, summer home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tardif and little daughter Francine, of Quebec City, are guests of Mr. Tardif's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tardif, at Three Lakes.

Dr. and Mrs. Roger Nadeau of Richmond, opened their summer home at Three Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cowdrey and baby son, Steven, have gone on a camping trip in the Upper Maine area.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Campbell are taking a motor holiday and have left their children in the care of Mrs. John Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. George Findlay and daughters, Carole and Brenda, motored to Kitchener, Ontario for a week's holidays, and to visit Mrs. Findlay's mother.

Mr. Douglas Wilkins, from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., is spending holiday with Mrs. Wilkins and children, prior to proceeding to another construction job.

Miss Luvia Webb, of the Bethel Bible School, Lennoxville, was a weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Webb. Miss Webb arrived to stay with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucia Fessenden, while her parents attend a wedding.

Miss Ginette Lambert is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Lambert at Three Lakes. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert entertained in honor of their daughter at a small party.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemay have opened their summer home at Three Lakes and their daughter, Mrs. Gerry Lambert, and Mr. Lambert, are spending some time there also.

Owing to the severe storm recently many property owners at Three Lakes are searching the lakes for boats, picnic tables, lawn chairs, docks and buoys. Many lakeside properties were badly eroded with the force of the wind and water. Mr. Bellevue who has a picnic ground lost several tables but found a motor boat and row boat when the water receded.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fletcher, of Montreal, were guests at Laroche and Dales Home, Richmond, and also Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fletcher.

SWEETSBURG —

Miss Francoise Lefebvre, of Quebec City, spent a week here in the local office assisting as secretary to Hon. J. J. Bertrand, rather than in the office at the Parliament Buildings in Quebec. Hon. J. J. Bertrand, Mrs. Bertrand and family are on holiday.

Mr. Richard Jackson is employed by Mr. J. Ayer on Lane's End farm and with his wife and family are residing in Mr. Ayer's house on the Centre Road.

Dr. Paul E. Roy is planning to build a residence off the Farnham highway in the Fordyce region.

Coaticook Church Honors Pastor At Farewell Party

COATICOOK — Rev. and Mrs. W. A. White, who have had to resign from the pastorate of the Baptist Church because of ill health were guests of honor at a farewell service and social hour at the church shortly before their departure.

Members of the Barnston Baptist Church were also present and on behalf of each of the congregations the former minister and Mrs. White were presented with gifts of money, and were the recipients of many expressions of good will and hopes for their future happiness in their new home in Smithville, Ont.

Mr. White expressed their appreciation and gratitude, and told some interesting anecdotes of their work in former pastorates, which he had served in various parts of Canada.

MRS. WHITE HONORED

At a meeting of the Baptist Women's Mission Circle, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Drew, Mrs. White was presented with a gift of several dainty cups and saucers as a token of appreciation of her work with the Circle during the past five years.

Mrs. White expressed her sincere thanks, and assured the members of her continuing interest in their work.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, and a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Clara Cook, of Montreal, was a guest at the meeting.

Mercy Killing

VANCOUVER (CP) — Mercy death for hopeless human sufferers was urged here Tuesday by Dr. Brock Chisholm of Victoria, international health authority. He said it should be done for them "just as we give it to a horse or a dog." Dr. Chisholm, former director - general of the World Health Organization, advocated mercy deaths at a public affairs lecture at the University of British Columbia.

HIGH FOREST —

Several from here attended the Farm Forum Field Day held at Mr. W. Laberee's in Bulwer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sample and daughter, of Ottawa, Ont., spent a weekend with Mrs. Sample's mother, Mrs. Clive Thompson, and visited her father, who is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

Bowker Lake Drownings Are Ruled Accidental

A five-man jury headed by Pierre McGee of Sherbrooke returned a verdict of accidental death at a coroner's inquest yesterday afternoon into the death of the three Ste. Therese d'Avila parish Boy Scouts drowned last Saturday afternoon at Bowker Lake.

The inquest, which was held at the local Court House by St. Francis District coroner, Dr. Louis Gagnon, lasted about one hour.

Drowned were Denis Bosse, Claude Huot and Real Le-maire.

Following the testimony of six witnesses, Mr. McGee returned a verdict of accidental death, but not before urging proper authorities to warn boat owners against overcrowding and demanding of them the use of life preservers in all boats.

"The boat was definitely overcrowded," said the jury foreman, "but it was an unfortunate accident."

He added "People should be obliged to use life preservers when they go out in a boat." Among witnesses testifying were the 21-year-old Scout in charge at the time of the tragedy and a 14-year-old Scout who was rescued from the cold waters.

Roger Gervais, 21, of 1068 King street west, told the jury that the children were originally scheduled to leave the camp and walk around the lake on foot. Following lunch, Gervais' 23-year-old brother, Andre, assistant cook at the camp, arrived by boat after making several trips back and forth across the lake earlier during the day.

"Most of the children jumped into the boat," said Roger Gervais.

NO EXACT ORDERS

"I had no objection, because no one had given me exact orders," he added.

"The boat was about three to four inches out of water, when the 12 or more children were in it."

According to Roger Gervais, his brother went out about 15 feet from shore before attempting to turn back once he noticed that the 16-foot motor equipped row boat was overloaded.

"A wave hit the side of the boat, the children got panicky and they jumped overboard," he added.

"Nobody gave an order for the children to get in," concluded the witness.

Roger's 23-year-old brother, Andre, told the jury that the boat had been rented for a week and that the five horsepower outboard motor had been rented but for two hours.

Father, Claude Champagne, priest at the Ste. Therese d'Avila parish and in charge of the group before he left on a sick call, told Andre to bring the boys across by boat, because he thought they would be tired," said the witness.

When asked by Dr. Gagnon how many were in the boat, Gervais said that there were 12 or more. He could not tell exactly.

BOAT OVERCROWDED
"About 15 feet from shore, I noticed that the boat was overcrowded so I attempted to turn about."

He added that in turning, a wave forced a "little water" into the boat.

One Killed, Three Hurt In Crashes

Four accidents, near Windsor, near North Hatley, in Richmond and in Sherbrooke claimed one life and sent three others to hospital last night.

Dead is Jacques Lehoux, 18 of 873 Belvedere St. South fatally injured in an automobile accident near Windsor.

Injured are: Athanasie Larrivee, 22, of King st. West, driver of the car in which Lehoux was killed, in Hotel Dieu, suffering lacerations, bruises and shock.

Robert Begin, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Begin of Richmond, in Hotel Dieu suffering serious leg and facial injuries resulting from a fall from the tractor on which he was riding near Richmond Cemetery.

Barry Badger, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Badger, 685 Woodward ave., in Sherbrooke Hospital with fractures and facial injuries resulting from a motor scooter accident on the North Hatley to Katesville Road.

Jacques Lehoux was a passenger in a small European car driven by Athanasie Larrivee when it slammed into the back of a parked truck on route 5, two miles from Windsor.

The truck, owned by Leo Boucher, of Coaticook and driven by Roger Lavoie was stopped on the road for repairs to the fuel pump.

The driver had placed signal lights 200 feet in front and behind the parked truck to warn motorists of his position. The tail lights of the truck were on.

Lavoie, driver of the truck, was working under the truck when he felt the jolt of the collision. He then heard screams and moaning. He scrambled out to investigate and met Oliva Beland, of Lennoxville, who had been following the fated car and together they got the men out.

The driver of the car stated that he did not see the red warning lights in time to stop the small car which suffered heavy damage.

Sgt. Conrad Leach of the Provincial Police in Sherbrooke investigated the accident.

Robert Begin was riding on a tractor hauling a load of hay in Richmond last evening around 9:00 when the load which was not lighted from the rear was struck by a following car.

Details of the accident are uncertain, but it is believed that the boy was pinned between the car and the load of hay as a result of the collision. Driver of the car was unidentified.

Barry Badger was driving his motor scooter on the North Hatley to Katesville Road last evening around 7:00 when he was forced to avoid hitting a team of horses and plunged into a ditch where construction workers are laying sewer pipes.

A car driven by Dominique Poulin of R.R. 2 Sherbrooke rolled over and caught fire this morning around 3:30 on McCrea st. Poulin was slightly injured and received first aid treatment from Assistant Lt. Ray Fournier of the Sherbrooke Fire Department who answered the fire call.

Coin Club Holds Meeting Monday

The regular meeting of the Sherbrooke Coin Club will be held 8 p.m. Monday at the YMCA.

An illustrated talk on odd and unusual coins of the world and other forms of currency will be given by Fred Smith, secretary-treasurer of the club. This should prove interesting as one can learn from these various pieces that were used several hundreds of years ago.

Airport Contract Awarded

The contract for the construction of the Sherbrooke municipal airport has been awarded to the Societe d'Entreprise General of Amos, Que., it was announced in Ottawa following the opening of tenders for the work.

The Amos firm submitted the lowest tender, $710,000, while the highest tender was for $1,300,000.

But according to Mayor Armand Nadeau, the awarding of the contract will in no way interfere with the proposed delegation to Ottawa to confer with Transport Minister Hees on the local airport situation.

Originally, the Transport Department indicated its intention of constructing an airport with two 6,000-foot runways on the airport site but when the tenders were finally called, only one runway of 5,000 feet was included.

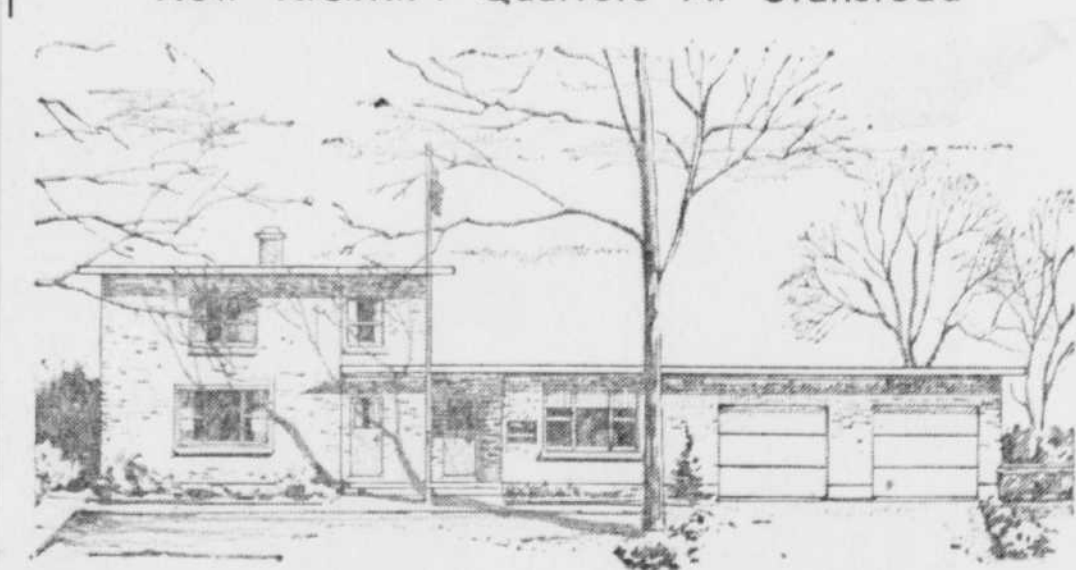

This decision brought protests from the city council and other public bodies and it was decided to send a delegation to Ottawa to ask an explanation from the federal authorities on their change in attitude.

The meeting with Hon. George Hees was arranged for July 16 by Sherbrooke MP Maurice Al-lard.

New R.C.M.P. Quarters At Stanstead

Rene LeTourneau, Member of Parliament for Stanstead announced he had received word from Hon. Davie Fulton, Minister of Justice, that approval has been given for the purchase of a site for the construction of R.C.M.P. detachment quarters, at Stanstead Village.

The site was purchased from Archibald W. Butters for the price of $3,500. Detachment quarters consist of married quarters which contain on the first floor a living room, dining room, and kitchen; on the second floor three bedrooms and bath. There is a full basement under this portion. There is also a two-car attached garage, general office, NCO's office and accommodation for four single members.

It is hoped that construction can begin during the course of the fiscal year of 1960-61. In the meantime, preparation of plans and specifications will proceed so that tenders can be called for the construction at the earliest possible date.

STUDY IN CONTRASTS — While hundreds of youngsters jammed the swimming pool at Dufresne Park to escape the intense heat, the municipal beach at Jacques Cartier Park was idle. Jacques Cartier Park is closed to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday when it is reserved for a playground organization.

Noted Pianist At Musical Camp Saturday Night

MAGOG — Frans Brouw, the internationally famed pianist, will appear at the JMC Musical Camp on Saturday, evening at 8:30, presenting some of the most outstanding features of the piano repertoire.

Mr. Brouw has just completed an Afro-European tour with great success. This Saturday he will play the following numbers: Sonata in F major by D. Scarlatti; Fantasy in D major, K. 397, by W. A. Mozart; The Sonata op. 49, No. 1, by L. V. Beethoven; the Intermezzo op. 116, and the Rhapsody op. 79, in G minor by J. Brahms. After the intermission, Mr. Brouw will continue the program with the Impromptus in G minor, and E. flat by F. Schubert; the Reflets dans l'eau of C. Debussy; the Valses Nobles and Sentimentales by M. Ravel; the Toccata op. 91, by J. Jongen, and the First Roumanian Dance by B. Bartok.

A bus service will be available from the Magog Post Office to the Musical Camp, at 8:00 p.m.

Additional Bus Is Acquired By Quebec Central

The Quebec Central Transportation Company announces the acquisition of an additional General Motors 41-passenger coach of the latest model, augmenting their fleet of latest bus equipment providing the best in comfort and safety for the travelling public in Southern Quebec between Sherbrooke, Quebec, Levis, St. Georges, Megantic, Jackman and Newport.

The Quebec Central Transportation Company fleet offers air conditioning, picture windows with "easy-eye" safety glass, air suspension ride, reclining seats and numerous other improvements designed for maximum comfort and safety of passengers. Their trained personnel are always at the public service to provide the best available transportation service.

While this new equipment will be placed in regular route service, it will be available for special and charter movements.

Of interest to travellers is the interchangeability of bus and rail tickets between QC buses and trains. Hand baggage may be carried on the buses and unaccompanied parcels may be transported at a small charge.

Duplessis Says

Common-sense Needed To Solve Federal-Provincial Differences

QUEBEC — Premier Duplessis said Thursday the whole federal-provincial tax-sharing issue will have to be solved on a common-sense basis.

During an interview with reporters at his office Mr. Duplessis said the federal government was faced with increasing demands from all the provinces during the recent federal-provincial conference of finance ministers in Ottawa.

He said the position of the federal government, which pays subsidies to all provinces that agree to refrain from direct taxation, is becoming impossible. Naturally, there would have to be a return to common sense.

Tuesday, Finance Minister Fleming announced he was postponing, at least until October, a decision on whether the federal government will provide the provinces with a better tax-sharing deal. But he added that unless Ottawa is prepared to increase tax-sharing payments to the provinces "there's not much use in calling a conference."

SINGLE EXCEPTION

Quebec is the single exception among the provinces in not seeking additional payments because it doesn't have a tax-sharing agreement with the federal government. Quebec levies its own direct taxes.

But Premier Duplessis and his government are pressing the federal government for a larger slice of the national tax dollar. Mr. Duplessis would like to see the federal government move farther out of the direct taxation fields so that his government could absorb a larger share of revenue collected by Ottawa in this province.

Mr. Duplessis did not elaborate on what he means by a common-sense basis but it is well known that since 1946 he has consistently asked for a clear definition of the respective tax fields of the federal and provincial governments.

ments and simplification in tax collecting methods.

Mr. Duplessis said he would probably consent to minor amendments to the Canadian constitution but he would always oppose any proposals to change the basis of the pact of confederation.

The Quebec premier said he met Prime Minister Diefenbaker Wednesday to reiterate Quebec's "firm, clear and precise views" on constitutional and taxation issues.

"I met Mr. Diefenbaker to outline the desires and wishes of the province of Quebec. The federal government has changed hands, as I have said before, but Quebec's attitude on federal-provincial issues is unchanged."

A reporter asked Mr. Duplessis if he felt the federal government's attitude had changed.

"I hope so," he said.

UNIVERSITY GRANTS

Another asked if the question Quebec universities do not accept federal grants-in-aid to Quebec federal aid because the government describes the grants as a "concession" on the province's exclusive rights in matters of education.

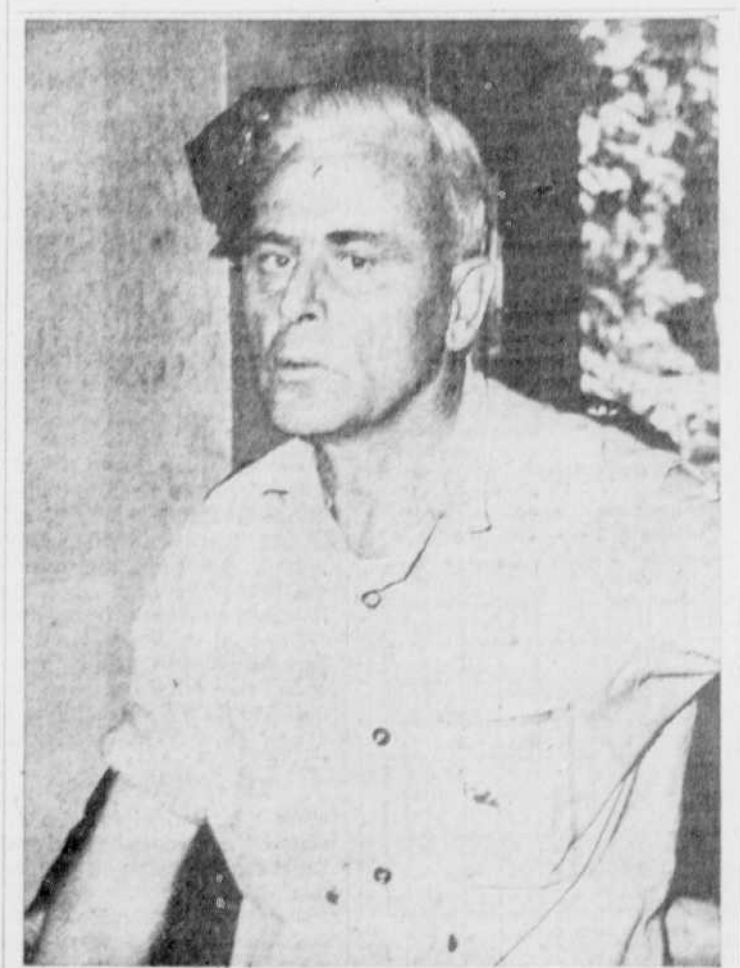

"We talked about the claims of the province of Quebec in all fields," said Mr. Duplessis.

"Moreover, our attitude on all these matters has always been ratified by the people of Quebec and I hope it will be ratified again in the future."

The premier said party politics play no part in federal-provincial talks. The discussions deal strictly with constitutional and taxation issues.

BRIEFLETS

Dr. H. Southwood will be absent from his office during the month of July.

HELD RESPONSIBLE — Clifford A. Barber, 52-year-old Huntingville resident, is seen at the local Court House yesterday shortly before being released on $1,500 property bail, when he appeared before Justice of the Peace, Jean-Marie Gregoire. Barber is scheduled to appear today in court of Sessions on a charge of criminal negligence.

Full-Scale Talks Needed

The Dominion-provincial conference which ended in Ottawa this week accomplished about what was expected of it, which was not much. Finance Minister Fleming indicated after two days of talks that provincial hopes for a larger slice of revenues will depend on the amount of additional revenues Canada's economic expansion bring into the federal treasury. The finance ministers will meet again in October to discuss whether a full-scale conference of government heads should be called.

The only concrete action taken was to initiate a series of studies of financial problems. This will be carried out by a group of senior civil servants.

Their task will not be easy. The problem of dividing tax revenues equitably among the three levels of government goes back to Confederation and has become more acute with the disruptions of war and post war expansion.

The present government has made progress. Federal contributions to the provinces this year will be an estimated $1,212,000,000. In 1956-57, the last year of the Liberal administration, they amounted to $689,000,000. The increase resulted partly from higher national income, partly from new outlays such as hospital insurance and partly from increased sharing of taxes approved last year by the Conservative government.

The provinces are constantly pressed by demands for better highways and other major capital expenditures. The municipalities face equally pressing demands for services, education and other needs resulting from expansion.

Responsibility for government is divided under our federal system and theoretically, each government should have revenues commensurate with its responsibilities. The provinces do not have the revenues they need. The federal government, with a substantial deficit this year, doesn't have enough money either.

An alternative solution would be to shift responsibilities from the provinces to Ottawa. Apart from constitutional difficulties, this increased centralization would violate the fundamental principle of local responsibility for local problems. It would undermine our federal system. There is no question that a full-scale Dominion-provincial conference will be necessary if substantial improvements in fiscal relations are to be achieved.

How Undue Is Undue?

One of the objections to Justice Minister Fulton's amendment to the Criminal Code designed to stamp out obscene literature was how enforcing officers were to know what was obscene.

The amendment, now approved by Parliament, includes such a definition. It is: "Any publication a dominant characteristic of which is the undue exploitation of sex, and any one or more of the following subjects, namely: crime, horror, cruelty and violence."

The courts are to decide whether literature seized was obscene. All they have to do now, apparently, is find a generally acceptable definition of "undue."

Until they do, Supreme Court justices, magistrates, constables and self-appointed guardians of other people's morals will find Mr. Fulton's amendment rather unhelpful. It is the kind of difficulty legislating against sin always runs up against.

Other amendments are welcome. They include empowering aircraft pilots to make arrests and judges to revoke licenses of hit-and-run drivers. Another change gives convicted persons at least two weeks to pay their fine and thus avoid imprisonment.

Unfortunately, one amendment is a retrograde step. It forbids the publication of a confession given at a preliminary hearing by an accused person. The government has bowed to pressure from members of the legal profession who do not agree that the public has a right to know what is going on in the nation's courts. Publicity in court proceedings has been one of the citizen's greatest protections against injustice. Any move toward secrecy is regrettable.

The Dog Days

These hot dog days often have unusual effects upon life, both human and otherwise.

In Paris, the 13 cleanest boys in France as judged in a school competition were awarded their weight in soap by experts who computed that a youngster weighing 115 pounds was worth 540 cakes of soap.

Somebody broke into a Christiansburg, Va., service station the other day, stole eight pints of ice cream, and fed it all to dogs at the local pound.

A Milwaukee, Wis., man was bitten by a mosquito a few days ago.

He slapped at it, his station wagon veered into the opposite lane, collided with a trailer truck, and the man ended up in hospital with a broken hip.

A Seattle, Wash., woman was reported squinting truck drivers who drove past her home with water from her garden hose. Seems she was waging a running battle with the trucks because of the dust they stirred up.

And in Reydon, England, a cauliflower weighing 10 pounds was grown in the Suffolk village.

Perhaps the dogs are right after all — the only sensible thing to do when the temperature soars is nothing.

We Have Almost Nothing to Worry About

Red China Today — 9

Production Rising Rapidly

By JAMES DUNCAN
James S. Duncan, Chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, recently spent three and one-half weeks in the Chinese People's Republic at the invitation of the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade. This is one of a series of dispatches presenting a colorful cross-section of life in China today.

When one considers the impoverished condition of China's economy at the time of "Liberation" in 1949 to which the Communists had contributed their liberal share by two decades of civil strife—the progress made since 1952, when reconstruction began in earnest, is remarkable by any standard of comparison.

During the first Five Year Plan from 1953 to 1957, construction started on ten thousand industries and mining projects and the total industrial output increased by 141 per cent. In 1958 the year of the Big Leap Forward, the output of industry and handicraft increased by no less than 66 per cent over the preceding year.

To quote but two examples, China's output of steel in 1958 amounted to 11,000,000 tons against Canada's 4,800,000 tons; her output of coal was 27,000,000 tons compared with Britain's 220,000,000.

China's objectives for 1959 indicate a further increase in the total value of her industrial and handicraft output of 41 per cent over 1958.

Steel output is budgeted for 18,000,000 tons and coal for 380,000,000 tons. This compares with 66,000,000 tons in 1952.

As has been previously stated, this startling rate of progress could only have been achieved with the massive assistance of Soviet Russia.

China's industrial progress has been so startlingly rapid that in describing it one could easily fall into the error of giving an exaggerated picture of her industrial strength. She still has a very long way to go before she could be classified as a great industrial power. As an example of this, Chinese citizens use annually one and a half gallons of petroleum products per capita compared with Canadians consumption of 525 gallons.

On the other hand, whereas her undeveloped hydraulic potential, estimated at over 500 million kilowatts, is almost unbelievably large, her total energy consumption last year, both thermal and hydraulic, was 27 billion kilowatt against Ontario's 31 billion kilowatt hours.

In China, as in Soviet Russia, industry is not only responsible for manufacturing operations, but for the living conditions of all the workers on the payroll. In some of the towns visited, living areas accommodating 50,000, 100,000 or more people had been recently built and allotted to workers of various industries.

These living areas include numerous apartment blocks, hospitals, nurseries, dining halls, kindergartens, Palaces of Culture, public baths, primary and secondary schools and occasionally a university. This sounds attractive, from an outside appearance the buildings are not unpleasing but the inside accommodation is modest in the extreme. The objective — and under the circumstances it is an understandable one — is clearly to house as many workers as possible at the lowest possible cost.

The accommodation as usual is strictly utilitarian. The small two-roomed apartment are occupied by two families with three or four people in each room. There is no paint or wallpaper, the floors are cement and there are no heating facilities other than a small portable stove. A primitive lavatory and kitchen are shared by both families. These apartments are already dirty and dilapidated and it is hard to believe they were finished only two years ago.

But as we have said before, these conditions cannot be judged by our standards. One of the occupants told us, with some show of enthusiasm, that they were "much better off than they had ever been before" and that they were "all very grateful to their government for what they had done for them and very happy in their new surroundings". ROYAL JEST SPARKS CONTROVERSY

(Windsor Star)
There is no occasion for Ontario people to work up a lather over a remark about Ontario liquor laws attributed to the Duke of Edinburgh. The member of the Ontario Legislature who was chatting with the Duke at the time has explained that His Royal Highness' comment was "just a jest." He was not suggesting seriously that Ontario should change its liquor laws. The Duke of Edinburgh is too well versed in the ways of royalty to be guilty of any such indiscretion.

The criticism stirred up over the incident demonstrates, however, how careful a member of the Royal House has to be, even when he is merely passing the time of day. As the Duke himself put it in a speech last week in Toronto, he is always "walking a tight rope" between platitudes and controversy.

REALISTIC PUNISHMENT

(The Edmonton Journal)
In sentencing a motorist, who had fatally injured two persons, to five years in prison and the loss of his driver's licence for life, Mr. Justice LaRue of Quebec said: "You're as dangerous as a holdup man and if you were not married and the father of six children my sentence would have been heavier." Alcohol and speed were involved, and the accused had a previous conviction on a similar charge.

In Alberta and elsewhere in Canada, motorists who have killed while driving recklessly after drinking have been given extremely light punishment or no punishment at all. The Quebec sentence was severe but was it not more realistic than a trivial fine for a person who has taken an innocent life while driving in no condition to do so? In Russia recently, a drunken driver who was responsible for a fatal accident was sentenced to death.

What sort of a mentality and attitude has a person, say, who would drive at eighty or ninety miles per hour through a city? Is he not as "dangerous as a holdup man" and his action as foolhardy and wicked as firing a high-powered rifle at random in the city's streets?

AIR POLLUTION THREAT

(St. Catharines Standard)
It is not sufficient for organizations to hear and discuss learned comments on air pollution. What is needed is action.

And while the situation within Canada is not to be compared to that in many parts of the United States, air pollution from the exhaust of motor cars is an increasing danger.

It would seem time for a concentrated program against this evil before it spreads to great proportions. In any such effort government backing would lend speed to the effort.

THEY'RE EXPENDABLE

(Sudbury Star)
Canada is well rid of malcontents, whether they be Britons, Sons of Freedom or any other nationality or creed.

There is no place in this country for loafers and ne'er-do-wells, or those who prefer to remain jobless rather than accept work in fields other than their regular vocations at less pay.

Canadians need not be disturbed over reports that appear in some sections of the United Kingdom press on "jobless, bread lines" conditions in Canada.

Letter To The Editor

The Editor,
Sherbrooke Daily Record.
Dear Sir:

There is nothing new in the erroneous arguments set forth by Mr. A. N. Risk in his letters to you against the use of fluoridation. All his fantastic ideas come from the "Fluoridation News," the "Lee Foundation" and other similar literature published by antifluoridationists from across the border. Some of these people are sincere but misinformed, while most of them are insufficiently informed or have an axe to grind.

Mr. Risk can fool some people sometimes, but he cannot fool all the people all the time. It is a fact that Dr. A. W. Hutton, who was praised by Dr. Southwood, is the "Father of fluoridation in Canada." Thanks to his initiative, over one million Canadians now benefit from the economic and health advantages of fluoridation. Because of his work and achievements in this field, the Canadian Dental Association conferred on Dr. Hutton the highest honor any Canadian can obtain from our profession, that of Honorary Member of the C. D. A.

Mr. Risk also had the nerve to state that the proponents of fluoridation "steadfastly refuse to debate the issue." Well informed persons will agree that this is a falsehood. When the Canadian Dental Association first adopted its resolution in favor of fluoridation, 6,000 dentists were entitled to express their opinions in committees, at the board meeting and during the general session. Since that time the same opportunity to debate has been offered annually and the resolution has been readopted without a single recorded dissenting vote. Furthermore, the College of Dental Surgeons of the Province of Quebec also reaffirmed its resolution recommending fluoridation of water supplies on April 30 of this year. None of the 1,200 dentists of this province have raised before the board a single objection to the 17 reasons given in support of this safe effective and practical public health measure to reduce dental decay.

Mr. Risk further stated he could "arrange for a very highly qualified person to take the platform to debate fluoridation." Yet, he did not produce a single qualified person in Canada to support his claims when the opportunity presented itself. The occasion arose during the joint meetings of the Canadian Public Health Association and the Societe d'Hygiene et de Medecine Preventive de la Province de Quebec held in Montreal on June 1st, 2nd and 3rd of this year. During this meeting 2,500 members of the C. P. H. A. and S. H. M. P. had the opportunity of debating on any aspect of any public health measure. Close to 1,000 physicians, dentists, engineers, biochemists, and other scientists qualified in the public health field attended the meeting. Not a single word was uttered against fluoridation during these three days of intensive study and debate.

On the contrary several sections adopted resolutions recommending fluoridation of municipal water supplies. The final resolution adopted during the General Session further "urges Her Majesty's Provincial Governments to provide necessary enabling legislation where required."

The above should suffice to warn your readers that they should not readily accept inferior and risky advice from pseudo-scientists, nor from strangers like Mr. A. N. Risk. More communities are fluoridating their water supplies in the Province of Quebec than in any other Canadian Province. However, Mr. A. N. Risk and a few other antifluoridationists from across the border are trying to form a fifth column to sabotage the work of our qualified public health personnel.

NO-TRUMP PLAY ALWAYS RISKY

South was tempted to go to seven no-trump after his partner showed two aces but he was a little worried about his fourth club and decided that seven hearts would be a better contract. When he saw the dummy he decided to play the hand as if it were no-trump and proceeded to run off his high cards in the hope that either clubs would break, someone would discard long clubs or that a squeeze would develop. None of that happened and when the smoke of battle had cleared away South was down one and the rubber was still going on.

South should have made the hand by taking advantage of the trump suit. The winning play would be to draw two rounds of trumps only and then go for the clubs. Since West held three trumps and four clubs South would have been able to trump his fourth club in dummy. This play would have risked nothing. He could not lose the hand unless the player with the short clubs held the long trump and in that case he could not have made the hand anyway.

ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY

(Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph)
Over in Northern England, a group of archaeologists uncovered a find of old Roman knives, keys and horseshoes in almost perfect condition.

The metal showed no trace of rust or corrosion, though it had been buried in moist earth for centuries. This discovery stirred the curiosity of the scientists, and in seeking an explanation, they credited the phenomenon to a tannin-like agent in the soil.

Chemical science took over at that point, and a preparation was made from the material, and it was put to the test. Among other tests of the material, Big Ben—the massive bell in the Parliament tower at London—was treated, and after 18 months it was found to be rust free, despite considerable inclement weather.

Bygone Days

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Camille Houde, Mayor of Montreal, has been named leader of the Quebec Provincial Conservative Party to succeed Arthur Sauve who retired. Officers named for the Waterloo branch of the W.C.T.U. were: Mrs. Walter Wallace, Mrs. Goddard, Mrs. F. Jones, Mrs. W. H. Bridge, and Mrs. Nutting.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Military alliance negotiations between Britain, France, and Russia have been temporarily halted. Observers are convinced that at the best only a limited agreement will be reached. A special session of the Sherbrooke City Council police committee failed to reach any decision on the appointment of a new department director.

TEN YEARS AGO

The King today proclaimed a state of emergency to deal with the crippling strike on the London docks.

The Eastern Liquid Control Reg'd owned by Morin brothers was damaged by fire early Sunday morning.

Barcelona in Spain was a large settlement even before it was rebuilt about 233 B.C.

LEARNING THE FACTS OF LIFE

Residents of the town — a well-built, modern and attractive place where the ravages of war have been very well erased — decided to hold a communion service for children June 28 and obtained the services of a priest for this event. They cut branches from the woods surrounding their shrine and roofed it over. They hung holy pictures and linen draperies.

The police later roped off the area and sealed it with the Seal of Poland.

On June 26, some few hundred villagers came there and saw the draperies had disappeared. Their purpose in assembling, eyewitnesses said, was to sing hymn around the now sealed-off shrine.

The disappearance of the draperies touched off hot feelings, villagers said, and they decided to march on the town hall and police station where they were convinced these were being held. There was no independent evidence for this belief.

En route, they passed the local movie theatre where more hundreds were just coming out from a showing of Ingrid Bergman in Elena and Men. These joined the procession as did other persons in the centre of the town.

Ford To Market Second Small Car

TORONTO — Ford Motor Company of Canada announced Thursday it will introduce a new line of economy passenger cars in Canada late in the fall to be sold by its Mercury and Meteor dealers.

The car, to be called the Frontenac, will be compact, with accommodation for six passengers. It will be marketed in different models.

The company announced earlier plans for producing in the fall the Falcon, another economy car.

MP Wants More Refugee Aid

OTTAWA — Stuart Fleming (PC—Okanagan—Revelstoke) suggested Thursday that Canada might do more to help refugees still homeless in camps 14 years after the Second World War.

He expressed the hope that provincial governments would show willingness to accept tubercular refugees whenever space could be provided in provincial hospitals. The federal government had no jurisdiction over hospitals and could accept refugees with TB only if provincial authorities could be persuaded to care for them.

Marx said there were no more than 20 persons under arrest, but townsfolk said at least 300 had been picked up. Some of these, he said, had been released after interrogation.

Arrest orders still were being issued today.

J. O. DONIGAN

To-day Magog, and the whole Eastern Townships, mourns the loss of one of its most respected citizens, in the person of John O. Donigan, this city's oldest native-born citizen.

Mr. Donigan was born on a farm near Magog, on July 26, 1861, the youngest son of Patrick Donigan, of County Monaghan, and Ann Lee, of County Longford, who emigrated from Ireland in 1840, and settled near Magog on the Lakeshore on land which is now known as Snug Harbour. The first Catholic Mass ever sung in this community was celebrated in the house in which John Donigan was born. Although this occurred more than one hundred years ago, and the house has long since disappeared, the spot where it stood is marked by a granite cross and plaque to perpetuate this historic event.

After an education at the local schoolhouse, he took a position with A. H. Moore & Co., merchants of Magog, as clerk and Assistant postmaster, and later as bookkeeper and manager, which he held until the firm was dissolved in 1914. He then established his own grocery and fruit business in the Moore Building, and was also appointed secretary-treasurer and register of Civil Status for the Township of Magog. In the early thirties, he retired from the grocery business, but continued as secretary-treasurer for the Township, with an office in the same building and thus had the unique distinction of 60 years of business life under the same roof.

In 1900 he married Miss Augusta M. Doherty, of Danville, who predeceased him in August 1953. Of this union were born one son, Dr. Maurice Donigan of Montreal, who died early this year; and two daughters, Mildred A. and Ena M., both of Magog. Mr.

Donigan is also survived by his sister, Miss Catherine Donigan. During his lifetime, Mr. Donigan gave unstintingly of his time and ability to the citizens of Magog. He served as Town Councillor, member of the Catholic School Commission, assistant chief of Magog fire brigade and warden of St. Patrick's Church. He was appointed Justice of the Peace in 1915, and Clerk of the Court for the Township of Magog.

Mr. Donigan was always a lover and admirer of nature, and his greatest pleasure was the hours spent at his summer cottage, "Mamulena," built in 1911, on Drummond Point, Lake Memphremagog, on land which was once part of the farm on which he was born. He was an avid reader, especially poetry. He also wrote poems, a collection of which were published under the title "Our Country's Trees, and Other Poems." He took keen pride in possession of a letter from their Majesties, the late King George VI, and Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, acknowledging receipt of a poem he had written for them on the occasion of their Coronation.

Despite his great age, Mr. Donigan still enjoyed his garden and books. He was interested in young people, and was tolerant and understanding with their problems.

Ban Portables

MONTREAL (CP) — Operation of portable radios and other electronic devices by passengers on international airlines has been banned, the International Air Transport Association has announced. IATA said the devices can sometimes affect radio navigation aids in the pilots' cockpit by emitting static signals.

Cattle Prices
Are Stronger
At Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — Demand for cattle on the Montreal livestock markets this week was good and all classes were fairly steady except that good heifers and canner and cutter cows were stronger by about 25 cents and common heifers improved as much as 75 cents.

Receipts: 1,406 cattle, 2,175 calves, 1,575 hogs and 362 sheep and lambs.

Cattle receipts were some 227 head more than last week and 229 less than last year at this time. Ontario shipped 137 steers, 220 heifers and cows and 56 bulls. From the Maritimes were received two steers, 27 heifers and cows and nine bulls. Other receipts were from Quebec. A total of 236 steers was received, mostly of medium and good quality.

Choice steers brought 25-25.35, good 24.25-24.85, medium 22.75-24 and common 19.50-22.25. Good cows sold for 18.75-19.50, a few to 21.50, medium 17.75-18.50, common 16.25-17.50 and canners and cutters 12-16. Good heifers went at 22.25-22.50, medium 20.50-22, common 18.75-20.25 and few down to 15.25. Good bulls made 20-21.75, a few up to 23.25 and common and medium 15.25-19.75.

Monday and Tuesday calves were steady with last week except that drinkers slipped 50 cents. Wednesday good and choice vealers were $1 lower while other grades were steady with Monday and Tuesday. Good and choice vealers brought 27-30, four at 31, common and medium 15-27, grassers 16-17.50, drinkers 19-21.50 and a few for feeding to 22.50.

On the west-end market this week 1,100 hogs and sows were received and sold at steady prices. Grade A made 26, 15 feeders 19.85 and sows 17-18. On the east-end market 475 hogs and sows were received. Hogs were steady but sows were steady to $1 lower. Grade A sold at 25, some 35 at 25.25 and sows 17-18.

Sheep and lambs were in slow demand and prices on opening this week declined $3 for lambs and $1.50 for sheep. Good lambs went for 25-26, common 20-24, one mixed-quality load 23, good sheep 7.9, about a dozen 10 and common 4-6.

Steelworkers
Await Offer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Steelworkers Union waited expectantly today for an industry contract settlement offer. But there was no sign that steel firms intended to budge.

With a walkout threatened at midnight Tuesday, substantial progress must be made before Sunday if costly preparations for banking furnaces and tapering off steel production are to be avoided.

Executives of the industry's dozen leading steel companies met to decide whether to make a last-ditch wage offer to avert a walkout.

Apparently there was divided opinion. There was no announced decision.

The Steelworkers Union, headed by president David I. McDonald, indicated this meant a wage strike. The union, which granted a two-week strike truce from July 1 to next Tuesday midnight, rejected a bid Wednesday by President Eisenhower to put off a strike indefinitely.

Formal negotiations lasted only an hour Thursday, recessing to today to let both sides meet separately to review their positions. The union was reported to have shaved down its demands to a rock-bottom basis.

From both union and industry sources came informal estimates that a 10-cent-an-hour increase in wages and benefits, on a probably two-year basis, could settle the dispute. Workers now get $3.10 an hour.

Ontario Oil

COLCHESTER, Ont. (CP) — Discovery of a second producing oil well in the Colchester area has sparked interest in the possibility that the north shore of Lake Erie may become a major oil-producing district. It was revealed Thursday that Place Gas and Oil Company, Limited, has brought in a well west of here 350 feet offshore from Erieview Beach. The well is now under test.

OBITUARIES

MISS JESSIE E. GROSSET, OF KINGSLEY FALLS — The death occurred on Wednesday, June 24, at the Wales Home, Richmond, of Miss Jessie E. Grosset, a former resident of this place. She was born in Kingsley Falls on May 17, 1887, daughter of Joseph Grosset of Scotland and his wife, Elizabeth Beattie, of Windsor.

Following her graduation from school, Miss Grosset held the position of postmistress and later was employed as bookkeeper by the Dominion Paper Co. in their general store. Possessed of musical talent, Miss Grosset filled the post of organist for several years in both the Baptist and Methodist churches. Many young people, both English and French, owe their instruction in music to her.

She was a member of the United Church and Woman's Association, in which she held the office of recording secretary for some time.

Funeral services were held in Trinity Church, Danville, Rev. W. T. Eddy officiating, assisted by Rev. W. E. Long, whose acquaintance with Miss Grosset over many years prompted him to pay high tribute to her memory.

A choir of six women, with Howard Riddle at the organ, rendered the hymns Rock of Ages and Safe in the Arms of Jesus. Bearers were Albert Olney, Mac Leith, Cedric Morrill, John Phibrick, Donald Smith and George Smith.

Interment was in the family lot of Danville Cemetery.

Relatives include cousins in St. Cyr, Danville, Windsor, New York, N.Y., and Lennoxville.

MRS. ARTHUR DAVIS OF GRIFFIN, BEEBE

GRIFIN — Relatives and friends were saddened by the death of Mrs. Arthur Davis which occurred at Sherbrooke Hospital June 5, 1959.

Born on August 19, 1883, at Fitch Bay, Mrs. Davis was the third daughter of the late Mary and Osman Cass. She was united in marriage to Arthur Davis at Fitch Bay in October, 1902.

Most of their married life was spent on the Homestead Farm at Griffin.

Mrs. Davis, who had been in frail health for several years was a devoted wife and mother, a kind neighbor and a friend to all.

She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Miss Isabel Davis and Louise, Mrs. James Kell, of Montreal, four grandchildren and two brothers.

SYDNEY GRAINGER, OF UPPER MELBOURNE

UPPER MELBOURNE — This community was saddened by the death of a well known and highly respected citizen in the person of Sydney Grainger, at the Sherbrooke Hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Grainger was born in Kensley, England, on October 1, 1879, the son of the late Sarah and Joseph Grainger. He came to Canada at an early age and settled in this community. He married Annie Timney on June 30, 1909, and to this union six children were born, four girls and two boys.

Mr. Grainger was a kindly and good neighbor and will be missed by all who knew him. He retired from farming 12 years ago and took up residence in the village of Upper Melbourne.

Left to mourn are his wife; two sons, George and Charles, on the home farms; four daughters, Mrs. S. Hart, Mary, of Montreal, Mrs. J. Dunn, Evelyn, of Upper Melbourne, Mrs. H. Smith, Thirza, of Drummondville and Mrs. W. Royle, Beatrice, of Belleville, Ont.

Mr. Grainger is also survived by two sisters, Ellen and Emily, of Olney, Bucks, England; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. George Grainger and Mrs. Charles Grainger; four sons-in-law, S. Hart, J. Dunn, H. Smith and W. Royle; 32 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

A brother, William, and two sisters, Clara and Elizabeth, predeceased him several years ago.

The funeral took place on June 19 at St. Ann's Church, of which the deceased was a member, Rev. H. I. Apps officiating. Interment was in St. Ann's Cemetery, Richmond.

The bearers were four grandchildren, Thomas, Paul and Charles Hart and George Smith, and Ernest Oakley and Fred Converse, neighbors of Mr. Grainger. The floral tributes and cards of sympathy were numerous and beautiful, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Those from out of town attending the funeral were from Montreal, Belleville, Ont., Drummondville, Sherbrooke and the surrounding districts.

ATOMS JOIN FIGHT AGAINST AN ELUSIVE BLOOD DISEASE

Written for NEA Service

Several people have written me—one of them twice—asking for a discussion of the disease known as polycythemia vera.

It may be said first that polycythemia means an increase in the number of red blood cells in the circulating blood. This can occur under several circumstances, including prolonged residence at high altitudes.

However, polycythemia vera, true polycythemia, is considered to be a disease. While its cause or causes are not entirely clear, the location of the difficulty appears to be in the bone marrow, which manufactures an excessive number of red blood cells and releases them in to the blood stream.

The person who has polycythemia vera may have few or many symptoms. Actually, these symptoms vary considerably from person to person, but depend in part on the number of excessive red blood cells present.

A brick-red flushing of the face and hands is characteristic. Headache, dizziness, and inability to work well are common complaints.

The disease cannot be diagnosed by these symptoms alone, but counting the red blood cells under the microscope is essential. Sometimes obtaining a sample of bone marrow is desirable.

Polycythemia has been known for many years. Many kinds of treatment have been tried, the most common being repeated removal of blood from a vein.

Such repeated small bleedings do not, of course, cure the condition but do get rid of some of the extra red blood cells. This is still recommended under certain circumstances.

Other treatments are the use of drugs aimed at destroying some of the excessive red cells. In some cases this kind of treatment has been quite successful.

Today radioactive phosphorus has been used with considerable success. Phosphorus, of course, is one of the elements, and like many others it can be charged with radioactivity by means of the cyclotron or "atom splitting" apparatus.

If this is done, the phosphorus will give off certain kinds of rays which are commonly called radioactivity. Because the phosphorus loses this radioactivity quite rapidly, however, it is safer than some other radioactive substances.

When given to patients with polycythemia, the phosphorus unites with the red cells and destroys them, thus bringing the number down toward normal.

This method of treatment for polycythemia seems to be the best means so far developed of controlling symptoms and preventing complications. It is not to be used lightly, but is certainly one of the first healing results from the discoveries in nuclear physics and atomic research.

Since no one believes radioactive phosphorus is the last word in treatment, the search must go on for better methods—and also for the cause.

MR. and MRS. JOHN HENRY MORGAN, photographed following their wedding in St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke. Mrs. Morgan, the former Patricia Ann Hurley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Hurley, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Morgan.

MORGAN—HURLEY
On Saturday, June 13, St. Peter's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Patricia Ann Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Hurley, became the bride of Mr. John Henry Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander Morgan. Rev. Guy Marston officiating. The wedding music was played by Miss Doris Price. Standards of red peonies and white lupin were used to decorate the church, with white peonies adorning the altar. The guest pews were marked with green foliage tied with white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a floor length gown of white taffeta and lace, the pearl studded lace bodice having a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long lily point sleeves. The full skirt featured a bustle effect at the back of taffeta. Her shoulder length veil of nylon net was held by a bandeau of pearl trimmed organza and she carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses and baby's

MR. and MRS. MICHAEL HEWTON following their wedding in Grace Anglican Church, Sutton, Que. on July 1. Mrs. Hewton, the former Gail Bertha Lukassen, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kristian Lukassen of Sutton, Quebec. Mr. Hewton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hewton from Notre Dame de Grace, Montreal.

HEWTON—LUKASSEN
SUTTON — The marriage of Gail Bertha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kristian Lukassen, of Sutton, to Michael James, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hewton, of Notre Dame de Grace, Montreal, took place at eleven o'clock, July 1 in Grace Church, Sutton, Que. Rev. H. Brett officiated at the marriage ceremony assisted by Rev. A. Mellor.

Pink roses were used to decorate the altar. The organist was Mrs. Dennis Cowan.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length, full skirted gown of tulle illusion with a close fitting bodice and long sleeves. Her elbow length veil of tulle illusion was held with a close fitting headpiece of tulle leaves, and she carried a colonial bouquet of deep pink and white carnations.

Miss Margaret Burns as maid of honor, was in an ankle length dress of pale blue chiffon over taffeta, with a shirred bodice and full skirt. She wore a white bandeau of bows, white accessories, and carried a small colonial the hall, and the bride's table was attractively arranged with vases of summer flowers and centered with a three tier wedding cake.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for a wedding trip to New York City, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, the bride wearing a blue shantung fitted suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Out of town guests were present at the wedding from St. Lambert, Montreal, Asbestos, Richmond, South Durham, Sawyerville, Waterville and Dorval, Que., and Boston, Mass.

bouquet of pale pink carnations. Mr. Dwight Daigneault acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Dale Lukassen and Mr. Winston Lukassen.

Mrs. Lukassen, mother of the bride, chose a white and blue flowered dress, white accessories and a corsage of red carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Hewton, was in a gown of black eyelet cotton with black and red accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Sutton Parish Hall where white bells and pink and white streamers were used to decorate. The

Many New Uses Found For Ribbon

By MURIEL PENN
LONDON (Reuters) — Ribbon is one of British industry's post-war success stories.

When the war ended the industry was virtually non-existent. While Britain and her Allies were concentrating all their energies on defence, ribbon — except for medal ribbons — became a luxury. Even to find a length suitable to renew a woman's watch band became a real feat.

Starting from scratch after the war, with new machinery and equipment, manufacturers now have not only caught up with all competitors but in some ways are leading them.

70 USES
Today the only embarrassment is one of choice.

There are ribbons wide and narrow, in pure silk, nylon and practically every man-made fibre. There are jacquard ribbons, and ribbons woven with lurex, a popular non-tarnishable metallic thread. There are, in fact, ribbons to suit every taste and more than 70 uses.

Some of the latest ways of using ribbon were demonstrated at a recent ribbon review here—a display of ribbons and their uses.

This showed ribbons used on such unlikely articles as table cloths and men's sports jackets. A man's play shirt was trimmed with ribbon. So were men's pyjamas.

RIBBON SKIRT
There were hats made entirely of ribbon and a dog's leash with matching collar and even a ribbon skirt, designed by one of London's leading fashion designers.

There were practical demonstrations of the use of ribbon in hair-dos and on an inexpensive blouse—making it "look different" from the other thousands like it.

Nor are the uses of ribbon confined to clothes and the house. Thousands of yards of it are used every year by packaging specialists.

And 1,000 miles of it go every year into Christmas and other greeting cards.

The future of ribbon is particularly bright today in the lingerie trade. A new slotting machine just coming into use threads nylon ribbon into the skirts or tops of petticoats, nighties or any other garment where it is required. This is a great stride forward not only towards full automation but also towards prettier-than-ever underwear.

Cranberry Salad

18 prunes (pits removed), 2 (3-oz.) packages cream cheese, softened, 4 cinnamon sticks, 1 tablespoon whole cloves, 1 lemon, sliced, 4 cups cranberry juice cocktail, 2 packages lemon flavored gelatin.

Pit prunes and stuff with cream cheese. Simmer spices and sliced lemon with 2 cups of the cranberry juice for 5 minutes. Strain mixture over bowl containing lemon gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in remaining 2 cups cranberry juice. Pour half of mixture into 8"x8" square pan. Chill until almost firm. Place stuffed prunes on gelatin, pressing each one gently into gelatin. Carefully spoon remaining gelatin on top. Chill until set. Cut into squares and serve on lettuce. Makes 9 servings.

bride's table was centered with a wedding cake and there were small vases of pansies and roses on the tables.

For their trip to the Magdalen Islands, the bride wore a navy blue linen sheath with a white sharkskin bolero, with accessories and a corsage of pale pink carnations.

Out of town guests were from Montreal, Hudson, Sherbrooke, Cowansville and Sweetsburg.

Marriages Of Local Interest

WINTLE—BENNETT

CANTERBURY — Miss Elizabeth Muriel (Betty) Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bennett, of Canterbury, became the bride of Mr. Gerald A. Wintle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wintle, of Gould, Que., at eleven o'clock, June 27 in Christ Church, Canterbury. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Walker. Mrs. Gill, of Cookshire, played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Moulton, of Milan, in the rendition of O Perfect Love, and during the signing of the register, The Lord's Prayer. The church was adorned with baskets of summer flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a ballerina length gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace. The lace bodice featuring an Empire waistline and scalloped girdle neckline with appliqued organza panels flowing from the back to the hemline, and long tapered sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt was enriched by lace appliques. Her head-dress, a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins, held a finger tip veil scattered with lace appliques and pearls. She carried a prayer book adorned with pink Sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Bennett, of Ottawa, Ont., as maid of honor, Miss Gladys Cameron, of Ottawa, bridesmaid, Miss Betty Lou Groom, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., junior bridesmaid, and Miss Bonnie Matheson, of Gould, flower girl. The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore pink and blue nylon gowns styled similar to the bride's, with matching headpieces. The junior bridesmaid and flower girl were in light blue nylon over taffeta with headpieces to match. They all carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and white gladioli.

Mr. Norman Wintle was best man for the groom and the ushers were Mr. Edward Wintle and Mr. Reuben Bennett.

Mrs. Bennett, mother of the bride, wore a medium blue flecked dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Wintle chose a blue printed silk dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Harassed Husbands Reply To Old Feminine Queries

Some of my men readers are retaliating to a recent column which asked questions women don't seem able to answer. Questions like: "Why, when Mama is scurrying around getting ready for guests, does Papa always decide he has to clean his guns or straighten out his fishing tackle box?"

Well, ladies, here's why—according to the men.

"It's simple. With Mama working so hard, we want to look busy, too," says one husband.

"What better excuse can we use for showing off a gun or fishing gear to the guests than that we've had it out getting it in order?" answers another.

"When the little woman is making a mountainous job out of having a few guests over for dinner, a man knows he can get out of the confusion by hiding in the den—if he can just look busy fooling around with his sports equipment," explains another.

"Besides," he adds, "when a woman is rushing around like crazy it's mighty peaceful to hold a fishing rod in your hand and remember the peace and quiet of your favorite fishing spot." Well, there are three good reasons—at least from a masculine point of view.

Now for another question the men have been good enough to answer: "How can a man walk into his own living room and not even notice new curtains or a new slipcover?"

"Some wives change things around so often a man never quite catches up," explains one husband.

"If wives would just give us a little while to relax before they accuse us of not noticing something we would probably get around to noticing," says another. "If a husband is never asked to help choose the furnishings of his home he doesn't actually have much interest in them," is another husband's explanation.

"Besides," he goes on, "if a poor husband notices and says, 'Those new blue curtains look nice,' his wife is sure to correct him with 'Those aren't blue, they're aqua'—or whatever it is that looks like blue to a man but some other color to a woman."

But the kindest answer of all to this question came from a husband who said: "When I get home I'm so glad to see my wife I just look at HER." That's an answer that ought to satisfy all women everywhere.

Miss P. Gifford Tendered Party At Richmond

RICHMOND — Mrs. Raymond Gifford and Mrs. Arthur Merrill were hostesses at a pleasant surprise presentation attended by 50 guests at the Brunswick Hotel in honor of Miss Pauline Gifford on her approaching marriage.

The guest of honor was completely taken by surprise on entering the reception room to find so many friends and relatives waiting for her. She was welcomed by Mrs. Merrill and escorted to a seat of honor at an attractively decorated table covered with a damask cloth with decorations carried out in pink and white. Pink and white candles in cut glass holders were flanked on either side by vases of pink and white peonies, and a prettily decorated bride's cake, made by Mrs. Gifford, of Danville, centered the table.

The front and sides of the tablecloth looked most attractive with clusters of pink roses attached, and a corsage of pink roses was presented to the guest of honor by Mrs. Raymond Gifford.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation, a money bundle of one-dollar bills tied with a white ribbon bow and decked with pink roses. On presenting the gift Mrs. Merrill on behalf of the guests expressed best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Miss Gifford graciously expressed her appreciation to Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Gifford for the party given in her honor and to her friends and relatives for the gift, and invited all to visit her in her new home in Salisbury, Mass.

During the evening an enjoyable musical program was rendered by Mrs. B. Begin, Mrs. R. Desrosiers, Mrs. Evette Laroche, and Mrs. Raymond Gifford, and two monologues were enacted by Mrs. E. Laroche and Mrs. Desrosiers Jr., and brought forth much mirth.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Jeanne St. Louis.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Elwin Gifford, Kingsley Falls, Miss Marion Mastine, Asbestos, Mrs. Lillian Donahue, Rochester, N.Y., and Mrs. D. Gifford, Danville.

EAST ANGUS —

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Damon and Mrs. Wallace Robertson were in Montreal to attend the capping ceremony at the Catherine Booth Hospital, where Miss Ann Damon and Miss Marylin Robertson received their caps. They were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clout, at Baie d'Ur.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bullock, Glen Sutton, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Damon. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sims, from Kenora, Ont., are guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rock Aubin, and are visiting old friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waldron and Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Bain, of East Clifton, were guests of Mrs. Alice Waldron and Miss Eldine Waldron.

Fund Will Equip Sunnyside For Manual Training

ROCK ISLAND — Over $800 has been donated to the William Dustin Junior Memorial fund for equipping a room for manual training in Sunnyside School.

The Rock Island-Stanstead school board has engaged a manual training instructor and it is expected the room will be equipped and ready when school opens in September.

The fund was started by former classmates at Sunnyside School, who donated $30, and relatives and friends have made added donations, while the family turned in the bank savings of the youth.

During his short life, Junior was gifted in wood working and, prior to his death at the age of 16 years, had made several lovely pieces of furniture. He died last year in Germany, where he was living with his parents and sister, Beverly.

Donations to the fund are being received by his aunt, Miss Ruth Wing, Rock Island.

Farewell Party Tendered Couple At East Farnham

EAST FARNHAM — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Webb were guests of honor at a farewell party given by friends and relatives at the home of Mr. Webb's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Frederick Shuffelt.

A social time which included a bit of dancing and refreshments, preceded a presentation by Miss Laurel Webb, on behalf of the Explorer Group to Mrs. Webb, in recognition of her leadership during the past year, with best wishes for success and happiness in their new endeavor, at Ste. Anne de Bellevue.

Mr. D. Fred Shuffelt, on behalf of the assembled guests, presented Mr. and Mrs. Webb with a purse of money expressing regret at their leaving but wishing them success in their new home and work. Mr. Webb thanked all for their thoughtfulness and good wishes, and invited all to visit them soon at Ile Perrot.

Lastly a happy event of the evening was when all joined in singing the Birthday Song for Mrs. Carl Thomas, whose birthday anniversary and the party had been extended to include.

GENERAL NOTES
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mahannah, of Unionville, Conn., and Mrs. Alma Grubb, of Freilighsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas. While in this vicinity they also visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mahannah, at Cowansville, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Powers, of this place.

ISLAND BROOK —

Mrs. Maple Westgate and daughter accompanied by Mrs. John Gill, of Cookshire, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser McLeod, in Drummondville. Miss Cathy McLeod accompanied her grandmother home for a stay. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford and daughter, Gail, were guests of Mr. Crawford's family in Manchester, N.H.

Annual Sugar On Snow Supper At Morgan July 15

MORGAN, Vt. — The 14th annual maple sugar on snow supper will be held Wednesday, July 15. The supper, sponsored by Morgan Union Church, is really a sweet affair. It involves using 35 gallons of Vermont maple syrup and several large containers of real snow which were placed in storage last February.

The sugar-on snow, served doughnuts and pickles are raised as dessert, following the main course of salads, baked beans, etc. Large quantities of food are needed to serve the 700 or more people who patronize the affair each year. Both the Morgan Church and Community House dining-rooms are used, with servings at 5, 6 and 7 a.m.

This year the mobile Sugar House, which has been visiting in the states of Maine and New York, helping to tell the story of Vermont Maple and bringing greetings from Vermont's Gov. Stafford, will be a feature of the affair.

Morgan, a small town on Route III, is between Derby Centre and Island Pond.

ISLAND BROOK

Mr. and Mrs. Gleason Painter were in St. John, and were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Betty Painter, who has completed her term of teaching. Kiwanis Sponsored All Star Ball Game At Thetford Mines

THETFORD MINES — The Kiwanis Club sponsored an allstar softball game with players picked from Thetford against a team of 'Canadiens' hockey players.

Prior to the game, members of the Kiwanis Club, the ball players, fans, plus two local bands and many cars, led in a parade to the Ball Park.

Lucien Therrien, president of the Kiwanis Club, welcomed the guests thanking all for their loyal support and for coming out in good numbers. There were some 2,000 spectators on hand. Autograph seekers were found milling around their favorite Canadiens fans, and pretty young ladies were selling peanuts and programs, all for the good of the Club.

Such famous Canadiens hockey players as Boom Boom Geoffrion, Claude Provost, Andre Pronovost, Doug Harvey and Junior Langlois were part of the Canadiens team. The game was well played in spite of the fact that the score was a bit one-sided with the Canadiens winning 11 to 1.

The game was teamed a huge success, the only drawback being that weatherwise, it was a bit cool.

TWO-BALL FOURSOME
The cloudy, wet weather cleared up and the sun shone just long enough for the two-ball mixed foursome to take place recently at the Golf Club. The players teed off around 6:15 p.m. but with a very small turnout of lady golfers.

A buffet supper, which boasted a good attendance, was served at the Club House following the game.

After the supper prizes were presented to the winners by H. Sellakwe, chairman of the match committee, as follows: First, Miss Giguere and Mr. Guidon; Second, Miss Constance Sellakwe and Gaetan Therberge; third, Miss Therese Fillion and Nelson Fillion; fourth, Calli Sellakwe and Bob Fillion; fifth, Miss Bessie Schmokler and H. A. Smith.

Gentlemen's prizes consisted of golf balls but instead of the usual golf balls, the ladies received costume jewellery.

A social evening followed the presentation of the prizes.

MELBOURNE —

Flowers were placed in St. Andrew's Church, Upper Melbourne, on Sunday, in loving memory of Mr. John Peter Stott by the family and grandchildren. Mrs. John Stott, a daughter, Mrs. H. McGowan, of Verdun, and others of the family were present at the Sunday morning service. While here Mrs. McGowan attended the funeral of Mr. Sydney Grainger in St. Ann's Anglican Church.

MYSTIC —

Miss Shirley Soule has returned from Lachute and is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. P. Soule.

Guests of Mrs. H. T. Smith were Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Cook, and Miss Lovering, of Bedford. Miss Muriel Capsey, of Montreal, is spending her holidays with her mother, Mrs. H. E. Capsey.

San Francisco Giants Take Over Lead As Braves Drop Into Third

Wings Rolling In P.O.N.Y. Loop Down Bears 9-4

Wings are still leading the pack in the P.O.N.Y. league. Last night at Sangster Park they came up with a 9-4 win over the Bears. Wings have now collected sixteen points for nine games played and are still undefeated. The next game will be played Saturday afternoon at Sangster Park when the Bears and Royals will clash with game time at 1:30.

At the end of four innings the Wings had a 3-3 lead. Robert Bourque, the Wings' pitcher, had a big say in the lead having hit a bases loaded home run in the fourth. Each team scored once more in the remaining three innings Wings taking the game on the long end of a 9-4 count. Bourque in his win had fifteen strikeouts while his opponent, Bob Lamey had eight strikeouts. Boisvert, of the Wings, was another home run hitter in the game.

HAMILTON (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four Football League Thursday announced signing of flanker Tommy Grant, linebacker Harry Lampman and end Billy Graham for next season. All three are Canadian hold-overs.

Cookie Gilchrist Claims He Is A Good Football Player With A Bad Reputation, Denies Hard To Handle

TORONTO (CP) — Cookie Gilchrist is a good football player with a bad reputation. He has been called a "dumb athlete" and sold by his team for $5,000 after helping bring home the Grey Cup.

But he denies that he has a chip on his shoulder and is hard to handle as a football player.

The crashing fullback who scares coaches despite his brilliant record as a plunger and linebacker accuses Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four Football League of exploiting him and not treating him with "kindness."

"I expected to be treated as a man and as an individual," he said in an interview. "I was never treated that way by Hamilton."

"I played with them in 1956 for $4,800," he said. "I made the all-star team and they offered me a $700 raise the next year."

"I wanted more. Why some of their imports were paying more in income tax than I got in salary."

Now with Toronto Argonauts for the 1959 Big Four season, the 24-year-old Negro backfielder is looking forward to a chance to "show people that (Hamilton coach) Jim Trimble shouldn't have traded me last year."

Cookie, who broke into Canadian football from the United States high school ranks, and moved to Hamilton after one season with Sarnia and two with Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen.

He came to Argonauts in a trade after he told the Roughriders after one season that he didn't want to play with them any longer.

Explaining why they had let Cookie go, coach Trimble and Hamilton president Jake Gaudaur said at the time that Cookie was a "dumb athlete" though a great player.

They said he fumbled, missed assignments and gumbled up defenses. Cookie also had personal troubles which included an appliance business that went bankrupt.

Cookie has his own opinion about the Hamilton club's decision to sell him.

"There were a lot of small things which all added up. I don't think I'm a 'dumb athlete.' I know that's what the club tries to sell as the reason for letting me go."

"If the Hamilton club had treated me with kindness, I'd have played for it the rest of my life for peanuts."

He said he took a pay cut of $2,500 in 1953 in moving from Sarnia to Kitchener - Waterloo because the then Kitchener coach, Harvey Johnson, "treated me like a man."

"I'm supposed to have a chip on my shoulder. I don't have any chip but I'm suspicious of people."

Rough Riders Want More Seats For Home Games

OTTAWA (CP) — Club president Barry O'Brien of Ottawa Rough Riders Thursday issued a public invitation to city hall to discuss an increase in seating accommodation at Lansdowne Park or the construction of a new stadium for the Big Four Football club.

O'Brien said that the club could sell more season tickets if there were more choice seats available between the goal lines. This year the club is aiming at a ticket sale of 9,000. Lansdowne Park has a capacity of 29,000, including end zone bleachers.

During the spring the club paid two-thirds of the cost—about 18,000—for an addition of 504 box seats. Tickets for the seats were almost all sold before the stands were put up.

Alex Olmedo Advances In Swedish Tourney

BAASTAD, Sweden — (AP) — Playing in 95-degree heat, Wimbledon champion Alex Olmedo of Peru Thursday defeated Thomas Hallbert of Sweden, 5-7, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3, in the quarter-finals of the Baastad International tennis tournament.

Olmedo was joined in the semi-finals by Jan Lundquist of Sweden. Lundquist easily downed Norway's Thorvald Moe, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3. Moe was the surprise conqueror of Barry McKay, Davis Cup star from Dayton, Ohio, on Monday.

Tokyo — Fumio Kaizu, 146½, Japan, knocked out Steve Tony, 145, Philippines, 3.

Yvon Durelle Returns To His Training But Still Sore Over Postponement; It Will Help And Hurt Moore, Goldman

MONCTON (CP) — When the world light heavyweight championship fight between titleholder Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle was postponed two weeks to July 29, the New Brunswick fighting fisherman was as "mad as a wet hen."

He was still annoyed Thursday, but his handlers seemed to think the delay would work to Durelle's advantage.

"I was coming great and would have been A-1 on July 15. Now the postponement," Yvon commented sourly in an interview at his training camp here.

The delay came when Moore turned up with a bruised heel that interfered with his roadwork.

When the postponement was announced, Durelle's manager Chris Shaban said the delay may mean the difference between winning and losing the fight.

The only happy man in the Durelle camp was veteran trainer Charley Goldman.

"If anybody is going to suffer, it will be Moore, not Yvon."

"The curtailment will give me more time to iron out Durelle's few draws."

Durelle was an unhappy man when he arrived home to Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., from Montreal last week. The postponement was costing him additional training money.

"I was real heart-broken, but I went out and picked up $600 on a catch of salmon and that made me feel real good," he said, brightening perceptibly at the memory of the good catch.

Durelle resumed training here Wednesday following a four-day layoff.

"I've changed my opinion regarding effect of the postponement," said Shaban. "I think it will do Yvon good."

Durelle hustled through a hard workout Thursday. His family had made the 130-mile trip from Baie Ste. Anne to watch him train.

Durelle's five-year-old son, Yvon Jr., was among the railbirds. His wife Theresa spent the day shopping with three-year-old Paul and seven-year-old Jenevia. The Durelle's other daughter, nine-month-old Francine, remained at home.

Roger Craig Comes Up With 11-Inning Shutout Relief As Dodgers Top Braves In 13-Innings; Elroy Face Wins Again

Maybe you remember Roger Craig. He's the big righthander who made his rookie debut with Don Bessent in mid-1955 and gave the Dodgers a double lift to the National League pennant and their only world championship.

He won 12 in 1956, then lost the touch. So did Bessent, and they wound up in the minors.

Now Craig's back and he's got the touch again. Unbeaten, he won his fourth in a row Thursday night, with 11 innings of three-hit, shutout relief that paid off with a 4-3 Los Angeles victory in 13 innings over Milwaukee — tumbling the Braves from first to third and hoisting the Dodgers to second place.

GIANTS ON TOP

The San Francisco Giants jumped into the lead—by a half-game over the Dodgers and a full game over the Braves—with a 3-2, ninth-inning victory at Cincinnati that ruined Fred Hutchinson's debut as manager of the Reds.

And reliever Elroy Face won his 18th in a row, 13th this season, as third-place Pittsburgh defeated Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 10 innings.

Philadelphia and St. Louis split a two-night doubleheader, the Cards winning 6-2 after the Phillies had taken the opener 11-0 behind Gene Conley's seven-hit pitching.

Craig's brilliant relief job, finally made good by Wally Moon's one-out double and Rip Repulski's single, out-dueling a two-man try by Braves' starter Joey Jay and Warren Spahn, the loser in relief. They had blanked the Dodgers after Norm Larker's tying, three-run pinch homer in the third.

Craig, following starter Danny McDevitt, retired 26 of the first 27 men he faced. He walked

BRINGS IN WINNER

Willie Mays singled, stole second, then rolled home on Daryl Spencer's single for the Giants' winning run. Willie Kirkland rapped a two-run homer in the sixth, but the Reds tied it on Frank Thomas' homer in the seventh and Jerry Lynch's pinch-single in the eighth against winning reliever Sam Jones (11-8).

A pinch single by Harry Bright won it for the Pirates and Face, who had given up a tying single by Tony Taylor in a two-run Cub ninth.

Face now has a string of 19 scoreless innings and an 0.80 earned run average while topping the majors in victories. Unbeaten since May 30 of last year, he has defeated every club but Milwaukee in his string of 18 victories and 24 saves.

Gene Freese hammered his third grand slam of the year and Harry Anderson hit a two-run homer for the Phillies in the opener in support of Conley (7-5). Larry Jackson (8-7) then won the nightcap for the Cards with Ken Boyer's third-inning home run clinching it.

Two Baltimore Pitchers Combine With Double-Header Shutout For Rare Feat; Chicago Edge Indians, Red Sox Win

Two pitchers combining for a doubleheader shutout over one club is rare in itself. Occasionally it happens twice in one season.

But it happened twice in the American League Thursday night.

White Sox moved to within one game of Cleveland by beating Indians 4-3. Baltimore's 20-year-old righthander, Milt Pappas and Jerry Walker, blanked Washington 8-0 and 5-0 in a two-night doubleheader. Kansas City's Ray Herbert and Johnny Kucks each pitched five-hitters while whitewashing Detroit's tumbling Tigers 5-0 and 4-0.

Tigers, who have lost six in a row hadn't been handed a double shutout since Chicago's Marv Grissom and Joe Dobson did it May 5, 1952. It hadn't happened to Senators since Cleveland's Herb Score and Mike Garcia pulled it off Sept. 19, 1956.

YANKS LOSE GROUND

The sweep by Baltimore lifted Orioles out of a third place tie with the New York Yankees, who were walloped 14-3 by Boston.

Senators, leading the majors with 101 home runs, managed only one extra-base hit among their 11 off Pappas (9-4) and Walker (7-3) — a first game triple by Bob Allison. Walker gained a 4-0 record over Washington in his brief major league career. He has two shutouts in the majors—both four-hit jobs against Nats.

Pappas, also pitching his second shutout in the majors was backed by Billy Gardner's two-run homer and Gus Triandos' solo 21st. Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer in the nightcap after Brooks Robinson stole home in the fifth. Russ Kemmerer (5-8) and Pete Ramos (9-8) were the losers.

Herbert, pitching his first shutout since breaking into the majors in 1950 with Tigers, walked two and struck out 10 while beating his ex-mates for a 6-7 record. Kucks walked two and fanned three for a 3-4 record and his first complete game in 13 starts since June of last year.

Bob Cerv belted home runs in both games for the A's, one in the opener against Frank Lary (9-6) and his 11th with a man on in the nightcap against Ray Narleski (4-9), who also gave up a home run by Bill Tuttle.

Jim Landis drove in three runs for White Sox and Bubba Phillips clinched it with a sixth-inning home run off loser Score (9-6). Both Indians and White Sox had only five hits, with Pierce (9-10) going all the way for the victory after losing three in a row. Jim Baxes extended Indians' home run streak to 18 games.

Vic Wertz and Ted Williams each hit solo sixth Boston home runs and Bobby Avila, batting .174, drove in four runs with a pair of homers. Bob Turley (8-8) gave up three homers in his 2-1-3 innings.

Frank Sullivan (5-5) was the winner for a 3-10 lifetime mark against Yankees, who scored all their runs with two out in the fourth when they lumped half of their six hits.

Rochester's Charley James Has Right Tonic To Help Pitchers, Belts Hits; Royals Edge Out Bisons In Close Duel

Rochester's Charley James had added the right tonic to keep the club's pitchers in a winning mood during the battle for first place in the International League.

It is his own special formula of base hits and runs batted in spread over 18 games—16 consecutive—in 15 days. James had his streak stopped at 16 on Wednesday but bounced back Thursday night with three singles, a triple and three runs batted in the Red Wings' 7-0 victory over Toronto. That plunked the Leafs back into last place.

Rochester has been dogging Buffalo for first place, he smacked 32 hits, including three doubles, four triples and two homers, and drove in 10 runs.

His stickwork Thursday night backed up Bill Smith's four-hitter—all singles—and helped hang a seventh defeat on Ron Negray, who has won 10. Smith is 5-2. The Wings sewed it up with a run in the second, added two in the fourth and four in the sixth. Smith drove in two of his team's runs with a single.

Walt Craddock pitched a two-hitter as Havana defeated Miami 1-0. Montreal won over league-leading Buffalo 4-3, reducing the Bisons' first-place lead to one game over Rochester. Columbus left the league basement and tied Havana for sixth place with a 3-2 victory over Richmond.

32-HIT STREAK

During James' streak, in which

Craddock 7-5 gave a single to Foster Caseleman and a double to Woody Smith in the seventh but left them stranded. Havana scored its only run in the third when Ello Chacon singled, went to second on a fielder's choice, to third on a passed ball and scored when Smith booted Tony Gonzalez' grounder. John Anderson (10-5) lost.

Fuller Beats Canucks 6-2, Cards Drop Kist 5-3 In Fortier Circuit

Both Clubs Strengthen Positions In Loop; Fuller Travels To Windsor, Kist Visits Indians This Weekend

Fuller and Windsor last night strengthened their leads in the Sherbrooke Junior League with Fuller downing Coastcook 6-2 while the Cardinals beat Kist 5-3.

The Cardinals, racked up five runs in the first two innings and held the Kist squad to only two runs in the entire game. This win allowed the Cardinals to remain in second place three points ahead of the Canadians and three points behind Fuller, the league leaders.

Majella Dubois was credited with the win allowing five hits while Denis Aury was named loser. Aury was replaced at the end of the first inning by Tanguay.

Dubois whiffed eight batters and walked nine men. The infielding of the Windsor squad kept hitting and scoring to a minimum.

The Cardinals scored two runs in the first inning. A walk and two singles by Dubois and Kendall brought Belanger across the plate to score. Couture made the second on balls while Couture singled and knocked him home.

In the second inning, Windsor completed their score-getting. Millette tripled and came home on a single by Desrochers. Belanger made first on an error and Dubois followed with a sacrifice which brought in another run. A third run was scored by the Cards before they were retired. After this inning, Tanguay held the Cardinals scoreless for the rest of the fixture.

Kist tilted with one run in the third. Michaud went to first on an error while Perrault and Aury followed with hits which brought Michaud in for the run. The fourth inning saw Kist pick up two runs. Jacques and Letarte both walked. They then advanced to second and third on two passed balls. A double by Fortier brought in the two tallies.

Dubois regained his control and allowed no Kist hitting in the last three innings.

In Coastcook, Wayne Nugent distinguished himself in another Fuller victory. Even with the absence of catcher Gauthier, Fuller had no trouble in retiring the Canadians.

Two games are on tap this weekend. Fuller will travel to Windsor to play the Cardinals while the Indians play host to Kist. Both tilts are slated for Sunday with the Fuller-Windsor game at 2:30 while the Indians play Kist at 7:30 at the local stadium.

Philadelphia Girl Sets Pace In Opening Day Of Canadian Swimming And Diving Events, Breaks Records

BRANTFORD, Ont. (CP) — A 100-pound American girl, appearing as if a slight ripple on the water would submerge her, took just 45 minutes to show tournament-hardened Canadian swimmers that things will be mighty tough in the Aug. 27-Sept. 14 Pan-American Games in Chicago.

Unheralded and practically unknown in these parts, 14-year-old Deirdre Rhoads from Philadelphia whipped Canadian champion Sara Barber of Brantford in two events of the opening day's program of the three-day Canadian amateur swimming and diving championships Thursday night. In each case she rubbed it in by breaking the Ontario girl's Canadian records.

The attractive black-haired Philadelphia, making her first appearance in international competition stole the show from a field of nearly 160 swimmers, mainly from Ontario and the eastern States.

440-YARD VICTORY
She took the quarter-mile medley in 6:03.5. Miss Barber was second with 6:06.7. The previous record of 6:14.1 was established last year by the Canadian, a competitor in Pan-American, Olympic and British Empire Games since 1954.

Miss Rhoads then took the 22-yard freestyle, after a terrific battle with Miss Barber and Susan Doerr of Philadelphia, in 2:31.5. Susan, also 14, clocked the same time but the judges ruled that Miss Rhoads touched first. Miss Barber, who set the record of 2:35.1 last month, was third with 2:32.0.

Cameron Grout of Montreal, a member of last year's BEG team, won the 440-yard men's individual medley after finishing a disappointing third behind Fred Rounds of Indianapolis and Tom

Aubrun's Wilson To Join Cards' Training Camp

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Auburn's controversial Jerry Wilson said Thursday he plans to report to the Chicago Cardinals' football training camp on July 16.

This apparently marks the finish of the 220-pound end's ill-fated efforts to accept a better deal from Edmonton of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

There were indications from Edmonton that the Canadian club stung by the loss of Wilson through court order, may try to revise its player-raiding agreement with the National Football League.

Wilson still has not signed a contract with the Cardinals. He said he hopes to settle the deal after he arrives in the training camp.

Last winter Wilson accepted $1,000 from the Cardinals, who made him their second choice in the National Football League draft. But he signed no contract.

Then later he signed a contract with Edmonton calling for a salary of $14,500 a year—$4,500 more than he said the Cardinals offered him.

The Cardinals went to court, contending that Wilson's acceptance of $1,000 sealed the deal even if no contract was signed.

Circuit court here agreed and barred Wilson from playing professional football with any team other than the Cardinals in 1959.

LAST NIGHT'S STARS

Pitching: Roger Craig, Los Angeles, pitched three-hit, shutout ball in 11 innings of relief, walking none, striking out three and retiring 26 of first 27 men he faced for 4-3, 13-inning victory over Milwaukee.

Mrs. Volterra Files Complaint, Vamur Was Doped

PARIS (AP) — Mrs. Suzy Volterra, owner of one of France's leading racing stables, Thursday charged her horse Vamur "was doped to slow him down in the Grand Prix de Paris" on June 28.

Francois Mathet, trainer of the Volterra stable, has filed a complaint in a Paris court, asking an investigation.

Mrs. Volterra said, "a saliva test after the race showed the presence of a narcotic. In addition we had a blood test made and this confirmed it."

Vamur was one of the favorites in the Grand Prix de Paris, one of the top events of the season for 3-year-olds. Vamur finished seventh, far behind Birum, the winner in a photo finish over Le Loup Garou.

Jockey Maxime Garcia complained immediately after the race that Vamur was listless during the race and did not respond to his urging.

A nationwide sweepstakes of the French national lottery also was tied in with the Grand Prix de Paris, which had a purse of 30 million francs $60,700 for the winner. The winner of the top sweeps prize of 100 million francs $202,000 was determined by the winner of the race.

Als' Imports Are Taking French Leave

MONTREAL (CP) — Sudden departures of American imports from Montreal Alouettes football training camp left the management Thursday in something of a quandary.

The latest are John Brodnax, fullback from Louisiana State; Olin Renfro, a halfback from the same school, and Clifford Poirier, centre from Boston College.

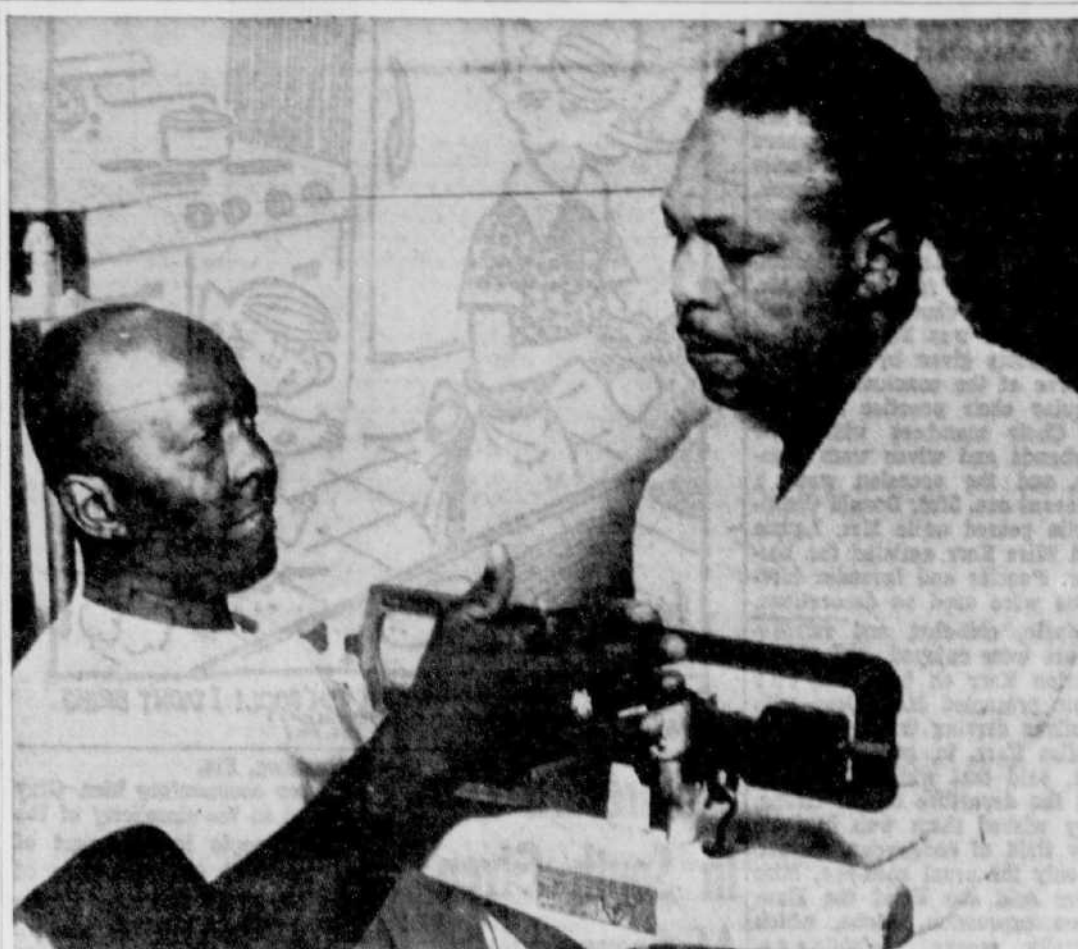

A couple of days ago a couple of husky tackles disappeared quietly—Wayne Farmer, from Purdue University in Indiana and Joe Schroeder from Xavier University in Cincinnati.

"These fellows just don't seem to have any sense of responsibility," said Alouettes president Ted Workman. "Some of these boys were given bonuses for signing; others had advances on their salaries. Yet they just take off and leave without giving us a word of explanation."

Law Finally Catches Up With Vic Kristopaitis

TORONTO (CP) — The long arm of the law reached out Thursday and tapped Vic Kristopaitis of Dayton, Ohio, high scoring punter with Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four Football Union, just as he stepped from the showers after his first practice session with this year's squad.

The charge: Speeding last September at 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone. Out-of-court settlement would cost him $15.

Don Jordan Risks His Welterweight Title Tonight When He Takes On Young Danny Moyer In Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Don Jordan of Los Angeles risks his welterweight boxing crown tonight against an exuberant teenager who hopes to become the youngest fighter ever to win the title.

The challenger is 19-year-old Danny Moyer, who will be fighting before home town supporters in the scheduled 15-round outdoor bout at the Portland Meadows race track. He is ranked No. 5 contender by the National Boxing Association, No. 2 by Ring Magazine.

His uncle, Tommy Moyer, matchmaker and promoter for the bout, said he expects a crowd of 10,000 and a gate of $100,000. Jordan said he has a guarantee of $70,000.

The fight will be on NBC and CBC television, starting at 10 p.m. EDT except for a 200-mile area around Portland. Weather forecasters said skies will be clear and the thermometer at 72 degrees or warmer.

Plans Laid For Rematch Between Mexico's Jose Becerra, New World Bantamweight Champ, And Halimi

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tentative plans were laid Thursday for a local rematch of Mexico's Jose Becerra, the new world bantamweight champion, and Alphonse Halimi of France, the man he dethroned.

Matchmaker George Parnassus said it would be within 90 days in the new sports arena, where Becerra scored a stunning knockout over the heavily backed Frenchman in the eighth round of their scheduled 15-rounder Wednesday night.

Becerra thus became the first native of Mexico to win the undisputed championship of the 118-pound division.

Celebration of his victory, his 12th straight knockout and 16th straight triumph, continued Thursday and will be resumed today when he flies to Mexico City.

Halimi, the 27-year-old ex-champion, remained in semi-seclusion Thursday. His manager, Philippe Filippi of Paris, collected his $65,000 guarantee.

He advised Parnassus the Halimi party will fly to New York today and leave there Monday for home.

HALIMI GETS REST
Halimi will rest a week or more then undergo a thorough physical checkup.

"Then we will talk about the rematch," said Filippi.

Becerra, who got $20,000 for his share of the gross purse of $151,151 insisted that Parnassus accompany him to Mexico where presumably he will receive congratulations from the president of the country, Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

Before coming here to train Becerra pledged that he would bring the crown back to his native country.

The knockout came with surprising suddenness: after two minutes two seconds of the eighth round.

Hillsdale topped a field of nine for Saturday's guaranteed $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup handicaps as entries closed Thursday for the big race at Hollywood Park.

The only surprise came from the L. K. Shapiro stable, which entered Swaps Kin in the mile and one-quarter feature.

Hillsdale, star of the C. W. Smith stable, faces Terrang, Find, Day Court, Amerigo, How Now, Whodunit, Ying and Swaps Kin.

Hillsdale, the solid favorite, will carry high weight of 124 pounds in quest of his eighth stakes victory of the year and fifth at the Hollywood meeting.

The Indiana colt's earnings of $332,500 is tops for the nation this year.

Hillsdale and his rider, Tommy Barrow, have beaten everything

Molson Beats Duchess 21-6, Brown Shoe 9-6

Brown's jumped back into first place in the Richmond Softball League by swamping Duchess 21-6 Tuesday and by downing Brown Shoe 9-6 Wednesday.

The Brown-Legion tilt scheduled for Monday night was postponed due to rain and will be played at a later date.

Brown Shoe was the first squad to tally in the fixture. They racked up two runs in the primary inning. The second frame was a deadlock and it wasn't until the third that Molson came through to chalk up three tallies.

The fourth and fifth also saw Molson piling up the marks tallying with two in the fourth and one in the next.

In the sixth, both teams scored.

Molson racked up three runs while Brown Shoe brought two men across the plate. The seventh and final inning was highlighted by two Brown Shoe runs bringing the final score to Molson 9; Brown Shoe 6.

The next scheduled game is on Monday night when Brown and Legion clash. Legion will be looking for their second win of the season Monday while Brown will be looking for some points to bring them up into second place.

The league standing follows:

Team	W	L	T	Pts
Molson	8	4	1	17
Brown Shoe	7	4	0	14
Duchess	5	6	1	11
Legion	1	7	0	2

Ron Kissell Signed By Argonauts

TORONTO (CP) — Ron Kissell, who late last season was cut from New York Giants of the National Football League, was signed Thursday by Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four.

Kissell was given a temporary workout with Argos following his release from Giants. For the past year he has been in the U.S. Army.

Jim Rountree, also just out of the army, returned to Argos to try for a backfield position, a post at which he excelled last season.

Spain-Britain Split Singles In Opening

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — Spain and Britain were tied, 1-1, after the opening singles matches Thursday of their European zone Davis Cup tennis semi-finals.

Andres Gimeno of Spain, defeated Mike Davies 9-7, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2, while Billy Knight of Britain defeated Manuel Santana, Spanish champion, 9-7, 6-1, 6-3.

The matches were played before 1,600 at the Royal Tennis Club in suffocating heat.

Marthe Tanguay, R. Royer And Laberge Reach Semi-Finals In Last Night's Matches; Team Travels To Quebec

Marthe Tanguay reached the finals of the single women's championship of the City by defeating Jeannine Levesque 6-2, 6-1 in last night's match at the Sports Club. She will now meet Betty Henri in the finals next week. The date shall be announced this weekend.

Marthe Tanguay, who had previously won the honours several years ago and who decided to return to the game last year, was served by her experience in winning last night. Jeannine Levesque put up a valiant battle but was defeated by her opponent's superior experience.

In the men's division last night, Richard Royer posted a win over Paul Yergeau in the semi-finals while Yves Laberge, the Junior champion of the Eastern Townships, was victorious in his match against Claude Metras.

Royer was the favorite to win over Yergeau but at one time in the battle Yergeau was leading 4-1. Due to his superb rally, Royer finally won the match.

The battle between Metras and Laberge was the closest, best fought, and longest of the games last night. After winning the first set 6-3, Metras seemed certain of a victory. However, Laberge played

Fishing Heads Agree With Outdoor Writers Of Canada On Derbies Which Are Held To Be Detrimental To Sport

MONTREAL — The recent statement by Dr. Gustave Prevost, Director of the Biological Service of the Department of Game and Fisheries of the Province of Quebec and the resolution by the Outdoor Writers of Canada at their annual meeting has focused attention on fishing derbies.

When questioned on the subject, Mr. Richmond Pelletier, Director of Molson's Fishing Club, said: "I agree with Dr. Prevost that fishing derbies where prizes are given for the largest quantity of fish caught, or for fish that have been stocked in a river or lake specifically for such derby, are detrimental to the sport of fishing. As Dr. Prevost pointed out there is always danger that the transplanting of fish may spread disease from one water to another unless the fish are first given a clean bill of health by a biologist."

"Anglers and the public in general know that Molson's Fishing Tournament, the largest of its kind in the world, does not give prizes for the quantity of fish taken, but only for the biggest fish caught. The Molson tournament is also the only tournament approved and supervised by the Quebec Federation of Fish and Game Association. The dore stocking program, in which Molson's cooperates with the Minister and the Department of Game and Fisheries of the province and with local associations, is carried out specifically for the improvement of the fish population and fishing conditions generally, and all phases of the program are under the strict supervision of members of the Department of Game and Fisheries.

"It is regrettable that the facts concerning the resolution regarding fishing derbies adopted by the Outdoor Writers of Canada have been reported incorrectly. The motion as adopted by the O.W.C. reads as follows: 'That the O.W.C. go on record as being opposed to short term derbies which are of one, two or three days duration, and which concentrate a comparatively small body of water to fish for prizes, and which is detrimental to the fish population and to the principle authorities such as biologists that such derbies are detrimental to

Mrs. J. L. Dean Honored By Choir At Richmond

RICHMOND — Mrs. J. L. Dean was entertained prior to her departure for Iroquois, Ont., where her husband, Rev. J. Leslie Dean, of Chalmers United Church, has accepted a call to the new United Church there.

Among the several presentations arranged for her and Mr. Dean by the church groups and others, she was honored at a choir party given by Mrs. K.G. Nourse at the conclusion of the regular choir practice on June 25. Choir members with their husbands and wives were present, and the occasion was a pleasant one. Mrs. Donald Chamberlain poured while Mrs. Laurie and Miss Kerr assisted the hostess. Peonies and lavender blossoms were used as decorations.

Music, chit-chat and refreshments were enjoyed, and Miss Marion Kerr on behalf of the choir presented Mrs. Dean with a silver serving tray.

Miss Kerr, in presenting the gift, said that while all regretted the departure of the Deans, they wished them well in their new field of endeavor. Instead of only the usual good-bye, Miss Kerr said she liked the Hawaiian expression, Aloha, which literally means, "Hello" and "Farewell" and come back again.

Mrs. Dean responded with sincere thanks for the gift and kind expressions, and said she would always remember her pleasant associations in the choir.

Mrs. Dean has been a faithful member of the choir since coming here over seven years ago, and with her husband and family will be much missed and especially by the congregations of the Richmond - Melbourne and Trenholm United Churches.

Lecture On Life In South Given At Cowansville

COWANSVILLE — Mrs. Lingford Gray motored from North Carolina to spend about a fortnight here with her father, Mr. J. H. Doak.

Mrs. Gray, the former Margaret Doak, was born in Farnham but spent her childhood here, and graduated from the High School, where she entered the nursing profession, completing her course at the Queen Elizabeth (then Homoeopathic) Hospital, Montreal. She married one of her patients.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray have two sons, Carl and Peter, both of whom are university graduates. Peter is married, an athletic coach in Florida, and the father of three boys. "Bill" is a psychologist and an army veteran who has had experience in the Orient.

During her Cowansville sojourn, Mrs. Gray, a gifted speaker, gave an illustrated lecture to a group of friends in the United Church Hall, her colored slides being shown through the co-operation of Rev. and Mrs. Carl Gustafson. The pictures gave educational glimpses of the Smokey and Blue Ridge Mountains, where Mr. and Mrs. Gray have their summer home near Asheville. Their winter abode is in St.

Petersburg, Fla.

In her commentary Mrs. Gray referred to the simplicity of the life of people in this part of western North Carolina. Many of them are descended from distinguished English families, who received grants from George II. In their speech there can still be heard some ancient words: the flux and mountain misery are malades; a hog is a pig; a pig is so-called only when very small.

They are honest but unethical: they will not steal but they will read your mail. The signs of the moon guide their planting: e.g. root vegetables "by the dark of the moon." The men chew tobacco and the women dip snuff, but a lady does not drink or smoke. Mrs. Gray stressed that these rather humble folk are endowed with inborn manners, which make them gracious hosts to visitors.

Of particular interest to Mrs. Gray, is the local hospital where free service is given to the residents of the area, who until its advent received their medical care from a nurse on horseback. Mrs. Gray helps there two days a week.

NESBITT RESIDENCE NEWS

On June 30 Rev. H. O. Slattery of St. James Church, Farnham, conducted Evensong service in the absence of Rev. John Peacock. He was accompanied by the organist of St. James, Mrs. Helen Coultas and both remained for supper.

On July 3 Mr. Frank Wise enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Macfarlane, of Montreal, and their daughter, Sister Margaret Anne, of the Order of St. John-the-Divine, from Regina.

Another friend who recently called upon Mr. Wise was Miss Claire Bolduc of Montreal.

Rev. John Peacock conducted a Communion Service here recently.

Mrs. M. Morrison and Mrs. L. Hymus motored with Miss Marion Phelps, of Cowansville, to West Brom, where they visited the Edith Kathman Home.

Mrs. Edith Whitby and Mr. Frank Wise were tea guests of Miss Frances Humphrey, who earlier in the week had been here as Mrs. Whitby's supper guest.

Col. and Mrs. Orrin B. Rexford of Foster, spent some time at the Residence recently. Other visitors were Mrs. Andrews of Knowlton, calling for the Misses Rita and Molly Knowlton and taking them home with her for tea; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Buddell of Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Martin of Cowansville, visiting Mrs. Phoebe Turner, who accompanied them for a drive and tea; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fraser and their son and daughter, guests of Mrs. Fraser's mother, Mrs. Roe.

Other guests have been Miss Brenda Heney, of Stanbridge East; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, of Rock Island, and their children, visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Edith Hunter; Mr. and Mrs. H. Shofelt, of Montreal, calling on their sister, Miss Myrtle Shofelt, the matron; Mrs. Demming, of Bedford, daughter of Mr. William Blake, who took her father and Mr. Arthur Gilmore for a drive; Mrs. R. Townsend, another daughter of Mr. Blake, and her small son, who, with Miss Mary Graham motored from Sutton.

Also calling were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Pickford of Waterloo and Mr. Alfred Jenkins of Westmount, on Mrs. Edith Hunter; Mrs. M. Maynard, who visited Mr. Wise; Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Miss Belnap, of Knowlton; who came to see the Misses Knowlton; Rev. and Mrs. Paul Busing of Waterloo, guests of Mrs. Edith Hunter and Mrs. Margaret Morrison; Miss Marjorie R. Tees, of Montreal; Mrs. Herb. Loewy, of West Shefford, visiting Mrs. Brownrigg; Mrs. Loewy was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Barr, and the Misses Leslie of West Shefford.

Col. Rexford has twice taken a group for a drive. Miss Collier, Mrs. M. Michie, Mrs. E. Cope and Miss M. Murray went to Knowlton; Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Roe and Miss A. Dawson had a similar excursion to Selby Lake.

Five Generations At Christening In Theftford Mines

THEFTFORD MINES — The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. MacLeod, Jr., was christened at St. John the Divine Church, with Rev. Sydney Meade officiating. The baby was named William Kenneth, III. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Irving and Mrs. M. E. Joyce are the godparents. It is of special interest to note that Mrs. John Lamb, of Port Elgin, N.B., 95, great-grandmother of the baby, as well as Mrs. F. A. Knight, of Boston, great-grandmother, attended the christening and with the grandmother and mother, represented five generations.

O'BRIEN BABY BAPTIZED

The christening of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel O'Brien took place at St. John the Divine Church with Rev. Sydney Meade officiating. The baby was given the names, Kathryn Mary. The godparents are Mrs. McCully, from Nova Scotia, aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Penney, of Vancouver, also aunt and uncle of the baby, but in the absence of the Penneys, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Taylor were proxies.

GENERAL NOTES

Mrs. Julia Donaghy, of Plymouth, N.H., visited Mrs. Lee Pharo for a few days.

Mrs. David Simons, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., has been a guest of Mrs. and Mrs. Gordon Simons.

Mrs. R. Nicolaichuk, accompanied by her children, was a recent guest of her father, Mr. C. V. Smith.

Miss Louise Triganne, daughter of the late "Doc" Triganne who was a very familiar figure in Theftford in the past, has returned here and is working as secretary with one of the mining companies. Mrs. Triganne will join her daughter shortly.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Johnston were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook and children, all of Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnston and family of Montreal were also guests.

Mrs. Frank Brayton and children, of Black Lake, have left Theftford to take up residence in their new home at Shelter Bay. Mr. Brayton joined his family one weekend recently and they accompanied him on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Little and sons, Russell and Kenneth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Little, in Lennoxville.

COWANSVILLE —

On a recent Sunday, Trinity Church, Cowansville, and Christ Church, Sweetburg, jointly held their annual picnic at beautiful Haven Isles, South Bolton. At nine o'clock the regular service was conducted by the rector, Rev. John Peacock, and from there both congregations departed for the successful outing. Miss Anita Vaughan, Sunday School superintendent, awarded prizes for best attendance. Games were arranged for the youngsters; swimming and boating were enjoyed by all.

The usual Teenagers dance was held in Trinity Church Hall. Attendance was high at this, the last party of the kind until the end of the summer.

Messrs. Anthony Barker and Bernard Beaudoin are on a motor trip to Mexico.

Mr. Jimmy Fulford is spending a week on holiday in Toronto.

STANBRIDGE EAST —

The closing of Jeanne d'Arc School was held recently in the school basement, the program including playlets presented by the English and French classes in both languages. After the giving of prizes by members of the board and Father Houle, the priest made short speeches in French and English.

Mrs. M. Rollins Feted At Shower In Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND — The home of Mrs. Thomas Lees, was the scene of a pleasant occasion when relatives and friends gathered to surprise Mrs. Maynard Rollins, of Stanstead, at a stork shower.

As Mrs. Rollins recovered from her surprise, she was escorted to a chair prettily trimmed in pink and white, and was presented with a decorated basket filled with daintily wrapped and ribboned packages.

The honored guest was assisted in opening the parcels by her mother, Mrs. Eulalie Goodsell, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. H. Rollins. The dainty apparel and other useful and lovely gifts were admired by all, and Mrs. Rollins voiced her appreciation.

Several games were played and the winners awarded prizes. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lees, assisted by Mrs. L. Kesar. A stork cake, made and decorated in pink and white by Mrs. Lees, was presented to Mrs. Rollins, who made the initial cut.

Among the guests were Mrs. Howard Rollins, Fitch Bay, Mrs. Allyn Rollins, Mrs. Ronald Minor, and daughter, all of Magog, Mrs. Carl Alger of Coventry and others from the Three Villages.
