JAPANESE RESUME FORWARD MOVEMENT

Several Colums Advan. But Many Troops Still at Feng Wang Cheng.

KUROPATKIN ABOUT TO MOVE

Persistent Rumors of Heavy Fighting Near Kin Chou in Which Japanese are Reported to Have Lost Heavily.

Mukden, May 25.—11 p.m.—According to the latest information obtainable, the Japanese have resumed their forward movement. Several columns are advancing, though the bulk of the invading army is still near Feng Wang Cheng.

There are persistent reports of a bloody battle having taken place between the Japanese army advancing along the railroad from Pulantien and the Russians, near Kin Chou (Liao Tung peninsula), resulting in the defeat of the Japanese with great loss.

Small parties of Japanese scouts have been seen northeast of Mukden, at a considerable distance, but no important body of the enemy has been located in this vicinity.

Japanese Land More Forces at Taku Shan.

Che Foo, May 25, 2 p.m.—Chinese junks arriving from Taku-Shan, a port lying southwest of Antung, report the landing of 6,000 Japanese troops at Taku Shan on the 21st instant. Another junk from Pitsewo reports the Japanese landing a small number of troops there every day and building temporary barracks on Elliott Island, where a hundred ships, including men-of-war and transports have made a rendezvous.

Only small skirmishes are reported along the western shore of the Liao Tung peninsula up to the 22nd instant.

Heavy firing was heard in the direction of Port Arthur yesterday, indicating that a land attack had commenced, as the Japanese fleet is not to be seen off Port Arthur.

Dalny refugees say that General Stoessel has taken all the cash from the Port Arthur and Dalny banks, so that the depositors are unable to cash checks.

There are two Taku Shans on the Liao Tung peninsula, one lies about forty miles southwest of Antung and the other is situated midway between Pitsewo and Talien Wan Bay. The latter is the point at which the Japanese have been landing their troops and is evidently the one referred to above.

Reported Japanese Reverse.

Liao Yang, May 25.—A report has been received from New Chwang saying that on May 18 five battalions of Japanese troops reconnoitred to the south, almost as far as Kin Chou, and ran into Major-General Fock's artillery, which was strongly posted on the heights in a narrow section of the Liao Tung peninsula and that the Japanese were severely wiped out. The report lacks confirmation.

Kuropatkin Preparing to Move.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—There are indications that Gen. Kuropatkin is preparing to make a very important movement against the enemy. One of the reasons for this belief is the sudden increased restrictions upon the war correspondents at the front. The prevailing belief here is that Gen. Kuroki's army is in difficulties.

Cossack Operations.

Seoul, May 25.—Col. Kioshi's column arrived at Ning-Yang May 17 and found the Russians had divided, one party going northwest and the other going east. The latter attacked Hung-Heung. It was impossible for the Japanese infantry to overtake the mobile Cossacks, so the column returned to Anju May 23.

The main commissariat base of the Japanese, which has been located at Chemulpo since the outbreak of the war, has been transferred to Seoul. Twenty-five officers and a large staff of non-commissioned officers and clerks have arrived here to take part in the work of provisioning the Japanese armies.

Cossacks Repulsed.

Tokio, Japan, May 25.—General Kuroki reports that a section of Japanese infantry encountered and defeated two hundred Cossacks at Toutao-Kou, eight miles northeast of Kuang-Tien. The Cossacks fled to Ai-Yuang-Pommen, leaving twenty dead. The Japanese sustained no losses.

Additional details of the fight at Wang-Chiatun, near Taku-Shan, May 20, indicate that the squadron of Cossacks was almost annihilated by the Japanese infantry, which surrounded and completely routed the enemy. All the Russian officers were killed, wounded or captured. Natives report that some of the Cossacks escaped on foot, abandoning their equipment. Many killed or wounded were found on the battlefield.

Kuropatkin's Report.

St. Petersburg, May 25. The following despatch, dated May 22nd, from Gen. Kuropatkin, has been received by Emperor Nicholas. "All is quiet in the direction of the Fin-Chou-Ling mountains. It is reported from Sin-Ye that on May 21 a Japanese force, consisting altogether of about one regiment of infantry and two regiments of cavalry of guard and of the line, was observed moving on the broad front from Haba-Ling towards Salitzputz.

"During the night of May 20th-21st one of our Sotnias returning from Taku-Shan to Lona Miao and Khondoi-Khan discovered a detachment of Japanese infantry bivouacking at Sitkhoutzhindzy, ten miles northwest of Taku-Shan. The Japanese opened fire on our troops.

"There is no change in the situation along the sector of the Liao-Tung peninsula."

Kuropatkin Tells of Other Engagements.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—The following despatch from General Kuropatkin to the Emperor, date 1 May 23, has been received.

"Our cavalry outposts on May 22 and May 23 observed a movement of a portion of the Japanese forces westwardly along the Hun-Cheng road near the village of Dalin-Kouten, six miles from Feng Wang Cheng.

"On May 21 a Japanese detachment consisting of six companies of infantry and three squadrons of cavalry attacked some Sothias of Cossacks on the heights on the right bank of the Sedzi River near the village of Poutetkha. When the engagement began the Japanese cavalry remained under cover and the infantry which declined to cross the valley, maintained a distant, almost harmless, fire without sparing ammunition. A small party unsupported tried to cross the river for the purpose of turning our left flank, but was driven back by the charge of half a Sothia of Cossacks and the fire of the sothia occupying the heights. Towards evening the Japanese retired. Our losses were ten Cossacks wounded.

ACTION TAKEN TO ANNUL FRANCHISE

Westmount Citizens Claim Contract With St. Railway is Illegal.

SAY IT OPPOSES CHARTER

Mr. Duncan Cameron Petitions the Court to Declare the By-law and the Contract Null and Void.

There is every prospect of a heavy legal fight over the Westmount Street Railway agreement. The citizens who are opposed to the contract are determined to fight it to the end, and this morning commenced legal action looking to the cancelling of the contract and the town by-law under which it was drawn.

Messrs. Ryan & Bickerdike this morning filed in the Superior Court the petition of Mr. Duncan Cameron, gasger, of Westmount, praying that the whole proceedings between the town of Westmount and the Montreal Street Railway be annulled.

The first ground of complaint is that such a by-law, to be legal, must be carried by a two-thirds vote of the whole council. This involves a rather ticklish point, as it is hard to determine exactly what vote should constitute two-thirds of a council composed of eight, as is the case at Westmount. The objectors say it requires five votes. The supporters of the by-law contend that it is legal, because it carried by four votes to one, six councillors having been present until the vote was taken, when one withdrew.

Another point on which objection is taken is that as the by-law involves an expenditure of over $5,000 for grading streets on the upper level, it could not legally be passed without a vote of the ratepayers. They claim that the town engineer admitted the expense of fixing the streets would probably be nearly $10,000.

A new point in the dispute is the contention raised in the petition that the by-law is illegal because by it the council attempts to cause the town to abdicate rights contained in its charter, and this cannot be done save by act of Parliament. By its charter Westmount is entitled to at its discretion operate a system of street cars, but by the contract with the Street Railway Company it agrees to abandon this right. The objection raised is that although the council is not compelled to use this right, they cannot legally covenant not to do so.

Besides this, the petitioners, as represented by Mr. Cameron, argue that in the present state of the law the town of Westmount has no right to grant an exclusive franchise to the Street Railway Company.

There is an influential body of Westmount citizens behind Mr. Cameron in the contest, and they are determined to fight to the last legal ditch in contesting the constitutionality of the by-law. They declare that, far from objecting to the car line on the upper level, they actually desire it, but are absolutely opposed to the conditions under which the council has made the contract with the company.

The petition will probably be heard in the Practice Court on the 6th or 7th of June.

MR. EDMUND GUERIN TO ACT AS PROSECUTOR

Mr. J. P. Cooke Asked to be Relieved Until Royal Commission Reports.

The following letter received by Mr. J. P. Cooke, K.C., from the office of the Attorney-General explains itself.

Sir, I am directed by the Attorney-General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated the 20th May inst., in which in view of the appointment of a Royal Commission to enquire into the charges made by William Blackley, of Toronto, against you as Crown Prosecutor, and as this commission will be unable to report before the June term of the Criminal Court, in Montreal, and as you would prefer not to act as Crown Prosecutor until after the report of the commission has established whether such charges are true or not, you ask him to appoint someone to replace you for the June term of the Criminal Court, which opens on the 1st proximo, and, in answer, to inform you that he has this day appointed Ed. Guerin, K.C., to act as Crown Prosecutor at said term. Yours, etc.,

Assistant Attorney-General.

Will Send a Special Pathological Exhibit.

McGill will hold her own at St. Louis. A special exhibit of pathological specimens has been arranged and sent to the World's Exposition to compete with exhibits of American medical schools, and it is expected that the showing of McGill will be satisfactory.

The exhibit consists of twelve specimens especially prepared to show the natural colors of the diseased organisms represented.

The work of preparing the exhibit has been done by Mr. Judah, and Mr. Bailis, osteologist and preparer of the McGill Pathological Museum. The various method of preparation illustrated are in many respects peculiar to the McGill Museum.

The wardens of the Catholic parish of Maisonneuve at a meeting held last night decided to spend $125,000 on the erection of a new church. While twenty tenders were received for the contract only five were retained, and another meeting will be held this week to decide on the contractor.

HOLIDAY FISHING PARTY DROWNED

Three Well Known St. John People Meet Death at Oromocto Lake.

St. John, N.B., May 25. E. P. Stayert, inspector of the bank of New Brunswick here, who with John H. Thomson, of Wm. Thomson & Co., and R. P. Foster, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, was supposed to have been drowned in the south branch of Oromocto Lake, on Sunday, as stated death in a remarkable manner.

The three named, with Ald. MacRae, G. Wetmore Merritt and E. Jones, all of St. John, left here on Saturday for the lake to fish until after the holiday. On Sunday morning Messrs. Thomson, Stayert and Foster went out in a sail boat and were last seen at 3 p.m. They then were far from the shore fishing.

Sail Boat Was Dismasted.

MacRae Jones and the club caretaker went out in the afternoon in a small sail boat, leaving Merritt in camp. The wind came up squally. The second boat was dismasted and with difficulty reached the lake shore opposite the clubhouse.

The three men spent the night at the caretaker's. In the morning they tramped round the lake to the clubhouse and there found Merritt alone.

Search was made for the first boat and it was found overturned, twenty feet from the shore, with the mast broken.

There was no trace of the occupants and it is believed all have perished.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Children Play With Matches With Fatal Effect.

Ernie Dupuis, a little boy of five years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dupuis, of 303 Parthenais street, met a terrible death a little before midnight. The father and mother were awakened by cries emanating from the room where their two children slept, and on rushing into the room were horrified to find Elzelle enveloped in flames. The little fellow was taken to Notre Dame Hospital in a critical condition. Little hopes were entertained for his recovery from the start, and he died this morning at 4.25.

The coroner held an inquiry this morning into the circumstances, and it was proved that the children had been playing with matches, and the accident doubtless originated in this way. The coroner issued a certificate accordingly.

HALIFAX HARBOR MINED.

Protection of the City in Time of War, Secured.

Halifax, May 25. Halifax harbor is ready for war. Royal engineers have just completed the work of thoroughly mining all the ship channels. Two hundred mines, each having 500 pounds of gun cotton, have been laid, and the city to-day, with its warships and its forts is practically impregnable. The mines are controlled and operated from three observatory stations at Fort Ogilvie (Eves Point and Fort Clarence, but arrangements will be made to have two operating or observing stations instead of three. Fort Clarence station will be abolished. The authorities have arranged for the explosion of two mines next week as an experiment.

NO CHARGE AGAINST HEBERT.

Ernest Hebert, twenty-five years of age, a bartender in Herb's saloon, corner of Craig and St. Lawrence streets, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Chief McCaskill, of the Provincial Police, on suspicion of having stolen $8,800 from Patrick Coleman, a former saloonkeeper, while the latter was under the influence of liquor in a wine room in Herb's. Hebert appeared before Judge Lafontaine this morning, and the case was adjourned for an hour to await the arrival of Coleman. The latter arrived about eleven-thirty, and, after a conference between the parties, Hebert being represented by Mr. R. Grenshields, His Honor took his sat on the bench and informed Hebert that he was honorably acquitted, as there was no charge against him.

CATTLE EMBARGO; MORE PROTESTS

Chairman of Co-operative Congress Says it is Chamberlain Policy.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 25.—A co-operative conference meeting at Stratford, Essex, has passed a resolution in favor of the removal of the restrictions upon the importation of live Canadian cattle, and regretting the avowed intention of the Board of Agriculture to maintain the restriction order in order to protect breeders against foreign supplies at the expense of the consumer. The chairman, Mr. Maxwell, of the Scottish Wholesale Society, declared that the embargo was the first instalment of the Chamberlain policy.

MASTERS REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE UNION

Plumbers Are Organizing an Excursion to Burlington, Vt.

The bookbinders' strike situation is to-day practically in the same position," said an employer this morning. "The men are waiting for us to give in, and for our part we do not care if they never give in."

It was further stated that the employees would have their shops filled before the end of the week, if not with the original men, with others from elsewhere. "I only want three of my former men," said the master quoted above," and the others may look elsewhere for employment. The suggestion of introducing American labor is warmly received by the various firms, as in the American cities the rulers and other workmen turn out work at a forty per cent. faster rate. Many applications have been received already from New York, asking for situations in Montreal.

The men are still confident that they will ultimately succeed in forcing the masters to come to terms.

Another attempt on the part of the union to open negotiations with the masters has been repulsed by the latter, who insist on disregarding the organizat on and in dealing individually with their workmen.

Plumbers are Sporty.

more and more in demand. It is stated that several large buildings are forced to remain incompleted in consequence of the strike.

The plumbers will run a large excursion to Burlington in July to visit a sister local. A baseball match will be played between the local of Kingston and that of Burlington. The union continues to receive ample financial assistance from the international organization.

Stonecutters Still Out.

No arrangement has been reached by the stonecutters with the contractors. The stonecutters are confident of eventual success.

Meetings To-night.

Union meetings in the city are announced for to-night as follows: Moulders, carpenters' executive, plasterers, and electrotypers and stereotypers.

Strike in Toronto.

Toronto, May 25.—Because the master brickmakers refused to accede to their demands for higher wages, shorter hours and recognition of the union, the local brick, tile and terra cotta workers decided to go out on strike. The trouble will be confined to the brick manufacturers in the east end, all of whom have a large number of orders on hand. The action of the union in declaring a strike quite probably will hamper the building trade of the city considerably if a settlement is not reached before the end of the week. The brickmakers say they have a fairly large supply of brick on hand. The Masters' Association met at the Builders' Exchange on Saturday, discussed the demands of the union and notified a committee of the men that they could not see their way clear to grant an advance in wages this summer.

FISHERMEN LOST AT SEA IN DENSE FOG

Had Left Their Dory to Attend Their Trawls When Befogged.

FOUR DAYS WITHOUT FOOD

Unable to Stand, When Finally Rescued by Passing Schooner Which Brought Famished Men to Sydney, N.S.

North Sydney, N.S., May 25.—(Special.)—Having left in their dory on Monday evening to attend their trawls, two French fishermen of the schooner Cousins Reims, lost their way in the dense fog which sprang up, and were unable to find their vessel. Having rowed all night in a vain effort to find the missing schooner, they decided to wait till the fog lifted, but when it did so not a sign of a sail was to be seen.

All day Tuesday they remained without a drop of water, and only a few biscuits in the dory. On Wednesday a gale sprang up, and the danger of a death by drowning was added to the chance of dying of hunger. Wednesday evening the men, overwhelmed with cold, hunger and thirst lay down to wait their death.

Thursday morning, when they had been adrift for four days, help came in the shape of the schooner St. Martin, Capt. Porrier. The men being unable to stand were tenderly carried aboard, and realizing their condition, Capt. Porrier ran for this port, where the men were landed and are receiving every attention.

Feeling in need of alcoholic refreshment they made application at the local drug stores, but were told that stimulants were sold only in cases of snake bite. The actors had about decided to

MONTREAL PEOPLE ENJOYED HOLIDAY

Superb Weather Made the National Celebration a Huge Success.

SPORTS WELL PATRONIZED

Parks and Resorts Were Crowded All Day—Excellent Order Maintained—Few Accidents Reported.

Despite gloomy meteorological predictions, royal weather graced the Empire's holiday yesterday, and right royally did Montreal's population enjoy it. The first great holiday of the springtime, it is a day on which the mass of the city's population love to renew their acquaintance with nature in resorts both far and near. Yesterday everyone of the city's breathing spots was the scene of joyous holiday crowds. The Mountain Park was naturally the most favored, and picnic parties made its woody nooks gay with laughter the whole livelong day. Many thousands climbed the side or took the incline railway during the afternoon.

The baseball park was also liberally patronized by admirers of the game, and many a fan is speaking in husky tones to-day as a result of his enthusiastic encouragement to the Royals while they fattened their percentage of wins against the Providence team. Over seven thousand people graced the grand stand during the morning and afternoon. Younger enthusiasts spent the day at Fletcher's Field, where fully a dozen games were in progress during the day.

The exhibition lacrosse match between the Nationals and Capitals attracted about a thousand lovers of the national game.

The new public swimming baths were formally opened by members of the Hygiene Committee during the morning, and both were liberally patronized by the younger elements during the day.

Big Street Car Business.

As usual on holidays, the Street Railway Company did a land office business. It is estimated that over 150,000 fares were collected during the day. A most annoying accident occurred in the morning, when a car loaded with rooters for the ball game ran off the tracks on St. Catherine Street, and hung up the service for nearly half an hour, preventing a large number from getting out to the game.

The various ferry-boats were feverishly busy all day, large crowds visiting St. Helen's Island, Longueuil, Boucherville and other river resorts.

Although fireworks were consumed in considerable quantities during the evening, only one serious accident was reported. Michael Carrol, aged sixteen, living at 35 Young Street, became too careless with a giant fire cracker, which exploded in his hand, shattering his fingers so badly that two had to be amputated from his right hand at the General Hospital.

Too Fine for Theatres.

The magnificent weather which made the holiday so enjoyable prevented the theatres from doing the usual holiday business, although all of them were fairly well patronized.

Cyr & Vallee's circus at Maisonneuve proved quite an attraction, many from the city visiting it both in the afternoon and evening.

During the afternoon the Mount St. Louis Cadets with brass and bugle bands, enjoyed a parade on the Champ de Mars, where a drill competition for a handsome flag took place.

A feature of the holiday was the excellent order maintained everywhere, few arrests being made, most of these being for trivial offences.

May 24th has become so firmly fixed as a national holiday—being to Canada what Easter Monday is to the people of Great Britain—that it looks as though kings may come and kings may go, but it will go on forever.

Only One Accident.

The only accident reported as a result of yesterday's festivities was that of Michael Carroll, sixteen years of age, of 35 Young Street, who while letting off a cannon-cracker had it explode in his hand, shattering his fingers. He was taken to the General Hospital, where amputation of the tops of two of his fingers was found to be necessary.

Soldiers' Graves Decorated.

A touching feature of the Empire Day exercises was the decking of the graves at St. Helen's Island by the members of the British Army and Navy Veterans. A band of thirty elderly men, in blue uniforms, boarded the St. Helen's Island ferry yesterday morning, under the command of Capt. Jones. When the island was reached the veterans proceeded to the military graveyard, where British soldiers and sailors have been sleeping for over half a century. Flowers were strewn over sixty green mounds, and a large Union Jack was then spread over the central grave.

After the decoration ceremony a short address was delivered by Rev. W. W. Craig, of St. Luke's Church, who paid a tribute to the dead. The chaplain also gave credit to the veterans of Montreal for their sense of duty towards their comrades in arms.

Captain Jones sounded the bugle call, and the veterans returned by the 11 o'clock boat.

Scotchmen Celebrate at Sydney.

North Sydney, N.S., May 25.—(Special.)—A unique feature of North Sydney's celebration of Victoria Day was the Highland sports, which attracted Cape Breton Scotsmen from one end of the Island to the other. Kilted pipers discoursed the national music, and prizes were given for pipe-playing, Highland dancing, as well as the usual athletic events. In the tug-of-war, all Cape Breton vs. Old Countrymen, the Canadian Scotsmen proved easy victors.

Daughters of the Empire.

A most impressive and loyal memorial service was held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the Daughters of the Empire decorated the graves of our late heroes lying in the old military cemetery, Papineau road. The burial service was read by Rev. Mr. Renaud, assisted by Rev. Mr. Almond, late chaplain of the South African contingent of Halifax.

Mr. Renaud spoke a few words of encouragement to the ladies and of the wonderful improvement in the cemetery since the work had been taken up by them. Mr. Almond also gave some interesting experiences of his life in South Africa. The service was largely attended, the Daughters of the Empire all wearing the colors of the federation.

DEATHS.

QUIRK—On the morning of the 24th instant, Aileen, beloved daughter of E. P. Quirk, C.E. Funeral will leave her father's residence, 698 Boulevard Ville St. Louis, on Thursday, the 26th, at 8.15 a.m., to the Church of the Infant Jesus, from thence to Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

SUES LE NATIONALISTE.

Mr. Jean Prevost Takes Exception to Items Referring to Him.

Jean Prevost, M.L.A. for Terrebonne, has, through his solicitor, J. A. Lamarche, entered a libel action against Le Nationaliste for $500 damages.

The alleged libel consists of an item in last Saturday's edition of Le Nationaliste. The item was to the effect that a man had been arrested on Main Street for "acting the little Jean Prevost," and it is on this ground that the action is brought.

Mr. Prevost claims that Le Nationaliste has been making insinuations against him, and a number of back copies of the paper will figure in the case, in an effort to prove animus. The suit is brought against Le Nationaliste Publishing Company and Olivar Asselin, managing editor of the paper.

BY NEGLECTING SPRING TIREDNESS

YOU JEOPARDIZE HEALTH

This Tiredness is an Evidence of Impoverished Blood, of Depressed Vitality, of Failure to Eliminate the Wastes of the Body.

From the earliest time it has been universally acknowledged that the transitory period between winter and spring is the seed time of disease.

We exercise less, probably bathe less in winter than in summer, and besides we cover the body bravely with woollens and furs, thus preventing the necessary elimination through the pores of the skin.

To all intents and purposes we breathe through the skin just as we breathe through the lungs. Just as the carbonic acid gas is exuded from the lungs, so are these poisons in the body exuded through the skin.

Here you have the cause of your tiredness. The different functions of the body have not been active.

As a consequence the blood is loaded with poisons—the whole system is contaminated with unhealthy matter. The blood is so poor and thin that it cannot possibly nourish the different organs and your lack of strength is a direct warning of trouble ahead.

People suffering from this spring sickness feel heavy and drowsy; they don't want to eat; they don't enjoy work—about half sick and half well.

This is just the condition that favors pneumonia and typhoid, and you must therefore act at once without delay.

It is imperative that you build up as quickly as possible. You must increase your blood supply, and make it rich and red.

The only way this can be done is by using Ferrozone, which is acknowledged to be the most efficient spring medicine ever compounded.

The marvellous purifying and tonic properties of Ferrozone are quickly felt, because the blood is at once supplied with the elements it needs to become rich and red. It is ironized, vitalized, and rapidly brought up to its normal strength.

The very best ingredients for toning up the system are contained in Ferrozone, and if you use it you are sure to get back your old-time strength and spirits.

If you suffer from debility, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, or any of the symptoms of disordered blood, nothing will so rapidly tone you up as this great food tonic, Ferrozone. Its record of successful cures, its recommendation by the public, by druggists and doctors commends it to every thinking person.

You need Ferrozone to make you well. Why not get it to-day? Sold by all druggists; price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50. By mail, postpaid, to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., or Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

BY-LAW AGAINST TRADING STAMPS

A New One Presented to Council This Afternoon.

A new trading-stamp by-law is required in order to avoid all trouble in future, inasmuch as the previous ones were declared null and void. This is the substance of a report prepared by the city attorneys, Messrs. Ethier and Archambault, and which will be submitted to council this afternoon.

Since the last by-law had been declared null by the Superior Court the aldermen have been busy determining upon a plan to stop the use of trading stamps in the city, and finally the matter was turned over to the attorneys with the above result.

A new by-law has been drawn up and approved by City Attorney Ethier and will be introduced in council this afternoon by Ald. Paquin.

City Attorney Ethier has written to the council informing them that since this proposed by law is based on a provincial statute and not on the city charter, under ordinary circumstances it could be passed by a two-third's vote of council. But to-day's meeting is an adjourned one and for the bill to be placed on the order of the day would require the support of the Mayor and all the aldermen present. One dissenting voice would be sufficient to give the motion a week's hoist.

City Attorney Ethier remarked this morning that this method of suspending the council rules and carrying three readings on one day was quite legal. On the whole he did not consider it an advisable plan to follow but in cases of urgency like the present, it was the only thing to do.

"Details of the engagement May 20 and 21 at Sitkhoutchindza have not yet been ascertained."

Russians Destroy Anju.

Mukden, May 25.—The Russians, on May 16, made a sudden attack upon the town of Anju, Corea, from the village of Hai-Tchien, and captured the town, destroying it.

The Japanese garrison set fire to the houses and stores, and retired in perfect order.

Chinese Becoming Restless.

Harbin, May 25.—Missionaries report a movement among the Chinese, north of Shang Trung resembling the agitation which preceded the Boxing uprising.

Chinese Threatening.

Cologne, May 25.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Gazette learns that events point threateningly to war between Russia and China, and also to important changes in Japanese naval commands.

Chinese War Contributions.

London, May 25.—A despatch to the Standard from Tien-Tsin says that contributions for military purposes continue to pour into Pekin. The central government's demands on the provinces are continuous and urgent. The significance of this hoarding of supplies in Pekin cannot be over-estimated, as it foreshadows some foolhardy action by the Chinese.

Chinese Will Occupy Mukden.

London, May 25.—The correspondent of the Standard at Shanghai, says reports have been received from Mukden that the Chinese there are alarmed because of threats made by the Russians that they will burn Liao Yang and Mukden before retiring to Harbin. The correspondent adds that the Tartar viceroy at Mukden has ordered a brigade of Chinese troops to occupy that place immediately after the Russians retire.

France May Intervene.

Paris, May 25.—The Soir claims that it has learned from a trustworthy source that Lieut.-General Baron Fredericks and another member of the Russian court who recently visited Paris came on a secret mission which had for its purpose the seeking of the intervention and effective support of the French Government in the event of China adopting an aggressive attitude towards the Russians in Manchuria. The paper alleges that the Government gave a formal promise of compliance with Russia's request.

DISCHARGE ANNULLED BY SUPREME COURT

Judges Held That Notary Improperly Released Mortgage Without Owner's Knowledge.

The judgment of the Court of King's Bench has been confirmed and the appeal dismissed with costs by the Supreme Court, in the case of Gervais et al. vs. McCarthy. The respondent, Dame M. McCarthy, widow of the late Alex. Shannon, instituted an action against one of the appellants to have the latter's property declared subject to a mortgage granted her by a previous owner. The different persons who held the property after the mortgage was given were all made defendants in the action. They all pleaded that Mrs. Shannon had been paid her mortgage and had signed a discharge. Mrs. Shannon, however contended that this discharge was forged by the notary before whom it appeared to have been signed by her, and that she only became aware of its existence after the notary's death, it appearing that the notary had continued to pay her the interest on the loan even after the forgery.

In addition to the question as to whether the discharge was forged, the court had to decide whether, as alleged by appellant, the notary was not Mrs. Shannon's agent to receive the money, because if so, in the event of it being proved that he had received the money Mrs. Shannon's action must fail, even although the discharge was a forgery.

The Superior Court maintained Mrs. Shannon's action, and this judgment was successively confirmed by the Court of King's Bench and the Supreme Court.

Mr. J. W. Ferguson appeared for Mrs. Shannon and H. Gervais, K.C., for the defendant.

PAINFUL RHEUMATISM.

This Trouble is Caused by an Acid in the Blood, and Can Only be Cured Through the Blood.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid in the blood. That is a medical truth every sufferer from this trouble should bear in mind. Liniments and outward applications cannot cure what is rooted in the blood—the disease must be cured through the blood. That is the reason rheumatism yields almost like magic to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This new blood conquers the painful poison, sweeps out the aching acid, soothes the nerves, loosens the muscles and banishes rheumatism. Mr. Robert Morrison, one of the best known and most esteemed residents of Guelph, Ont., gives striking testimony to the truth of the statements made above. He says:—"My trouble came gradually and was pronounced muscular rheumatism, and was located chiefly in my neck and shoulders. I can hardly tell you how much I suffered. I was confined to my bed for fifteen months. A great many friends came to see me during that time and I think I am safe in saying that most of them had very few hopes that I would get better. I tried a great many remedies without any lasting benefit. Then I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I am thankful to say that through the use of these pills and the indefatigable nursing of my wife I am again on my feet. My neck is still somewhat stiff, but the pain is gone. I am now in my seventy-ninth year and I feel that I owe much to Dr Williams' Pink Pills."

These pills have cured thousands of the very worst cases of neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backaches, and they can do the same for you. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Quebec Celebration.

Quebec, May 25.—(Special.)—Victoria Day was very quietly observed in Quebec, notwithstanding that it was a legal holiday. The Ninth Regiment was inspected in the afternoon by Col. Gordon, D.O.C., of Montreal, and made an excellent showing and in the evening Lieut.-Col. Evanturel and officers of the regiment entertained Col. Gordon to a dinner in the Auditorium Cafe. The romantic French drama was performed at the Auditorium, under the patronage of Lieut.-Col. Pelletier and officers of the Garrison, and the greater part of the officers in dress uniform and members of the local corps, together with the elite of the city, were in attendance.

DIED IN THE CELLS.

Joseph Riendeau, 43 years of age, of 80 Bourget street, St. Henri, died in the cells of No. 1 station at 4.15 this morning. It appears that the man was seen drunk on Ontario street yesterday morning, close to No. 3 police station, and was taken in charge. Later on in the day he developed symptoms of delirium tremens, and Captain Choquette caused him to be removed to central station. This was done, and the delirium would seem to have continued until his death. When his name was called in the Recorder's Court this morning to answer to the charge of drunkenness, Judge Weir was informed officially of the death, and he remarked that some provision should be made for cases of this kind, and he was of opinion that the hospital would be the more suitable place. However, his Honor did not wish to make any comment on the case, as it was now in the hands of the coroner, who would no doubt elicit all the facts.

The inquest will be held to-morrow morning.

FUNERAL OF FATHER SCHMIDT.

The funeral of Rev. Eugene Schmidt, S.J., for a number of years minister at Loyola College and St. Mary's College, took place this morning at the Church of the Gesu, and was very largely attended by the members of the Jesuit Order in the city and the very many friends of the deceased priest. Previous to the mass, the office for the dead was chanted at St. Mary's and Loyola Colleges. The requiem mass was said by Rev. Father Turgeon, rector of St. Mary's, and the general absolution was given by Rev. Ed. Lecompte, S.J., superior of the order in Canada.

Interment took place in the cemetery of the order at the Novitiate at Sault au Recollet.

The policy that depopulates.

Six millions of people in Canada!

Seventy-six millions in the United States.

Canada immigrates raw labor from Europe, and EMIGRATES Skilled Artisans to the United States!

Canada contains altogether, less than 17 times as many people as there are CANADIANS now living in the single State of Massachusetts.

Why this tremendous leak?

Because of the blind purchasing by Canadians, of anything which is made in the United States, regardless of value.

Because of 25% higher wages paid Canadian workmen, in the United States, to make goods which may be sold back to Canada, plus the 25% higher labor cost, and plus the 25% Customs duty.

Canadians who buy UNITED STATES SHOES, merely because they are "not made in Canada," foster that EMIGRATION of skilled labor which is the curse of this country and of home industries.

No United States Shoe, with a 25% higher labor cost, and a 25% Import duty, can have 60% of the solid value put into the "The Slater Shoe" for men and women.

Sold in free trade England in, open competition with the best United States shoes.

Made in Canada by Canadians, and a credit to the nation.

The case of Miss Frankie Orser, of Boston, Mass., is interesting to all women.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered misery for several years. My back ached and I had bearing-down pains, and frequent headaches. I would often wake from a restful sleep in such pain and misery that it would be hours before I could close my eyes again. I dreaded the long nights and weary days. I could do no work. I consulted different physicians hoping to get relief, but, finding that their medicines did not cure me, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was highly recommended to me. I am glad that I did so, for I soon found that it was the medicine for my case. Very soon I was rid of every ache and pain and restored to perfect health. I feel splendid, have a fine appetite, and have gained in weight a lot."—MISS FRANKIE ORSER, 14 Warrenton St., Boston, Mass. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

STILL SALVING CARGO.

Two More Steamers Have Reached Sydney With Cargo From the Wrecked Ship.

North Sydney, N.S., May 25.—(Special.)—The Harlaw and Wasis both returned this morning from their second trip to the wreck of the Hibernian. There are still a number of schooners at the wreck, but the weather is very unfavorable for salving.

LAND FOR THE C. P. R.

The special civic committee appointed to deal with the Canadian Pacific expropriations in the East End held a meeting this morning, Ald. Levy presiding.

On motion of Ald. Payette it was decided to recommend Council to grant 71,000 square feet on Barclay, Wolfe and Beaudry streets to the Canadian Pacific Railway on certain conditions, and for a period of nine years.

The Quebec Legislature will be asked to extend this term to ninety-nine years. One condition provides that the railway company will have to deal with all the interested proprietors and residents and pay all damages resulting from the closing up of these streets. In addition the company will have to connect all sewers and water pipes and be responsible for any damage thereto.

WRECK AT ST. LAMBERT.

About noon yesterday (Victoria Day) a freight train that was bound for Point St. Charles, met with a mishap at St. Lambert station.

While approaching the "cross over" switch, just west of the depot, three cars laden with cattle jumped the switch and were turned over on their sides. A few of the cattle were injured. The wrecking train was taken over from Point St. Charles and soon had the tracks cleared for traffic. None of the train hands were injured.

ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR FROM SEA

Japanese Bombarded the City for an Hour Yesterday Morning.

JAPS' COMMUNICATIONS CUT

Kuropatkin Gets Between Generals Kuroki and Oku—Telegraph Line South of Liao Yang Absorbed for War Purposes.

Chee Foo, May 25.—10 p.m.—A portion of the Japanese fleet bombarded Port Arthur at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The attack was witnessed by a Frenchman, who left Dalny on the night of the 22nd, arriving here last night. He says that eight large warships circled before the entrance of Port Arthur harbor for one hour, firing broadsides at intervals of ten minutes.

Up to the time the Frenchman left Dalny everything was quiet there, but an attack on the part of the Japanese was expected hourly. The military and civil officials of Dalny were ready to leave. Only a few civilians remain there.

Japanese Communication Cut.

Paris, May 25.—5.40 p.m.—A despatch to the Temps from St. Petersburg says General Kuropatkin has cut the land communication between the armies of Generals Kuroki and Oku.

Telegraph Lines Absorbed by Militia.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—Telegraphic communication with New Chwang is interrupted and private messages for points south of Liao-Yang are refused here at the telegraph offices. The nature of the interruption with New Chwang is not known, but the cause for refusing messages south of Liao Yang is the complete absorption of the lines for military purposes.

PROPOSED LINE TO NEW ZEALAND

Mr. Deschrynor, of Aukland Talks of the Chances of Trade.

A new steamship line to run between Canada and New Zealand, making not less than monthly trips with properly equipped steamers of large freight carrying capacity is a possibility of the near future. New Zealand wants such a service and thinks that Canada would benefit by its establishment, and to show the Canadian authorities just how badly such a line is needed and just how beneficial it would be when established is one of the things that has brought Mr. Th. Deschrynor, of Aukland, N.Z., to Canada. Mr. Deschrynor is an Aukland business man of much prominence, and he is deeply interested in Canada, among other reasons because he is the representative of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in New Zealand.

Seen at the Windsor this morning he refused to say much about the desired steamship line, contenting himself with saying that no statement could yet be made. He was, however, willing to talk upon the chance of developing trade between Canada and New Zealand. At present the limit of this development depends entirely upon the transportation facilities, New Zealand is anxious to trade with Canada and to foster this trade they have granted to Canada preferential treatment such as is shared by other portions of the British Empire. Under this preferential arrangement certain goods imported free from Great Britain or the Colonies are subject to a twenty per cent. tariff if imported from other nations. In the case of dutiable goods there is a discrimination of fifty per cent. in favor of Great Britain and the Colonies, or as Mr. Deschrynor explained it this morning, articles from Canada subject to a twenty-five per cent. duty would pay 37 1-2 per cent. if imported from the United States.

"There is great reason for development" said he, "Last year New Zealand's exports from the United States totalled $7,000,000 and of this fully 60 per cent. could be bought from Canada if proper transportation facilities existed. New Zealand is prepared to take from Canada a great variety of articles mostly in the line of manufactured products and she could ship back such commodities as wool, flax, gums, etc."

If the new steamship service is readjusted Aukland and Wellington would be the probable New Zealand termini, while Littletown and Port Chalmers would be ports of call. In Canada the sailing port would probably be Vancouver or Victoria.

Speaking of wheat growing in New Zealand Mr. Deschrynor said that enough wheat is gown for home consumption but very little for export. Population is gradually increasing and comparatively New Zealand had last year as large an immigration as Canada, the total number of immigrants entering the country being 23,000. There is no assisted immigration and little effort is made to attract it, the bulk of the immigrants coming from Australia and Great Britain.

Mr. Deschrynor will remain in Canada until about June 15 and while here will make his headquartess at the Canadian Manufacturers Association offices at Toronto.

PELTED POLICEMEN WITH SOFT CUSHIONS

The Crowd at the Baseball Game Has Fun With a Westmount "Peeler."

There was an amusing scene at the baseball grounds yesterday just at the close of the afternoon game.

The stands being packed, there was an overflow of rooters in right field, and as they had to sit on the grass the management supplied them with cushions.

When Montreal won the game the cushion-holders jumped to their feet and about 500 cushions shot up in the air, only to be picked up and thrown again.

The crowd spread across the diamond, and then a member of the Westmount Police Force started to rescue the cushions.

He had no trouble in finding them. He suddenly became the target of the soft missles and in a twinkling he was down looking for his hat.

The moment he put it on, off it flew again and he was pretty nearly smothered with cushions from all sides.

One policeman against 500 cushions is an unfair fight. He fled on the dead run, making for the nearest gate, and after him went the crowd hurling cushions as fast as it could pick them up.

As he ducked out of sight a perfect roar of laughter came from the crowd on the stands, who had stopped to watch the fight.

KOREAN MINISTER TO ST. PETERSBURG

Has Gone to Berlin Where He is Staying at Japanese Legation.

St. Petersburg, May 25.—Cin Pom Yi, the Korean minister, has gone to Berlin. His departure led to rumors that he will not return, and that his post will remain vacant until the end of the war. The secretary of the legation states, however, that the minister is on a private business trip, and that he will return to St. Petersburg May 27.

Believed He Will Not Return.

Berlin, May 25.—The Korean minister to Russia, Chin Pom Yi, who arrived in Berlin this morning from St. Petersburg, occupies an apartment in the Japanese legation. Surprise was expressed at the legation that the minister had delayed his departure so long, since Korea and Japan are allies. Did Not Notice Approach of Quebec Express—Body Terribly Mutilated.

Albert Mathieu, laborer, of 549 Plessis Street, was run over and killed by the Quebec express this morning, due at the Place Viger station at 6.30. The accident occurred while the train was running through the yards at Hochelaga, when Mathieu attempted to cross the track, apparently without noticing the approach of the express. Found What He Was Looking For

A COMPLETE CURE FOR BLADDER TROUBLES IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

James Atwell Tried Other Medicines and Bandages but They Failed—Dodd's Kidney Pills Didn't.

Campbellford, Ont., May 24.—(Special.)—"I had Lumbago and Bladder Trouble for years. I could get no relief till I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured me."

This is the statement of James Atwell, of this place, and all his neighbors know it to be true. Speaking further of his cure, Mr. Atwell says:

"For five months of the time the pains in my bladder were very severe and in passing my urine would hurt me so as to almost cause tears to come to my eyes.

"I used other pills and got no relief. I used a bandage and got no relief. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely and permanently."

All bladder diseases are caused by disordered kidneys. There is just one natural way to cure them—by curing the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills.

TEACHERS' INCREASE FIFTEEN PER CENT.

Owing to Legislative Delay Will Not Go Into Effect Until September.

WILL EQUALIZE THE SALARIES

Smallest Salaried Teachers Will Get Largest Increase and Vice Versa—Average Raise Will be $57.

The increase in salaries to be accorded the teachers employed by the Protestant Board of School Commissioners will go into effect on September 1st. It will be approximately fifteen per cent., but will be arranged on a sliding scale, so as to equalize salaries. Teachers who are receiving the smaller salaries will secure an increase that will grade slightly over fifteen per cent., while to those in receipt of larger incomes the ratio of increase will be somewhat less. The announcement of the increase will be made by the school board in November when their financial plans for the year are outlined, but the advanced schedule will go into effect on the resumption of work in the fall.

In discussing the advance, Superintendent Arthy said this morning that the board's expenditure for salaries at the present time is approximately $140,000 a year, but the advanced scale will make it necessary to spend some $20,000 more. The average salary of a female teacher is at present about $385 per year, and the average rate of increase will be about $57.

It was hoped that the new schedule could date from June, but although the bill authorizing the board to increase its collections to provide for additional salary expenditure has passed at Quebec, and only requires to be signed before it becomes law, the board decided that it would be unwise to incur expenditures on a large scale until they have actually received the money.

PARK & ISLAND RAILWAY MAY ENTER LONGUE POINTE

Supreme Court Ends Long Suit by Reversing All Previous Judgments.

A special despatch received by The Herald this afternoon announced that the Supreme Court had rendered judgment in the case of the Montreal Park and Island Railway Company against the Chateauguay and Northern Railway Company. The Supreme Court allowed the appeal made by the Park and Island Company, which gives it the right to build a line along the main road into the town of Longue Pointe.

For the past two years the demand of the Park and Island Company to build this line has been the cause of a series of legal battles in the different courts.

When the Park and Island Company started building the line, the Chateauguay and Northern Railway obtained an injunction from Judge Pagnuelo, forbidding the work. The case was brought before the Superior Court and appealed to the Court of Appeals.

In each case judgment was given in favor of the Chateauguay and Northern and the Park and Island Railway was ordered to tear up its tracks.

The grounds on which the case was won by the Chateauguay and Northern was that there was nothing in the charter of the Park and Island Railway that gave it the right to build such a line.

Judgments Reversed.

By its judgment the Supreme Court holds that the Park & Island Company were entirely within their rights and even stated that all the costs should be paid by the Chateauguay and Northern.

It was intended in case judgment went against the Park and Island that the Suburban Light and Power Company would secure a charter during the present session of the Legislature.

The oven of an Imperial Oxford Range and the old-fashioned spit before an open fireplace do better roasting than any other cooking apparatus invented.

In the olden days the spit had to be kept turning to get all sides of a roast cooked. It is much the same with the ordinary cook-stove. The heat of the oven is greatest on the fire side — roasts, bread, pies, cakes, etc., have to be turned and twisted to get them cooked at all. The result is uneven, unsatisfactory cooking—good food ruined. The diffusive flue construction of the draws fresh air into the flue chamber, super-heats it and diffuses it evenly over the oven, thus heating it quickly, thoroughly and uniformly—back, front and sides are at the same equal temperature. The result is juicy, tender roasts, light, dainty pastry, evenly raised bread—successful cooking.

When you buy an Imperial Oxford Range you get the result of over sixty years' thought and experience in scientific construction of cooking apparatus.

MONTREAL PUPILS ARE PATRIOTIC

Over Six Thousand People Attended Empire Day Concert at Arena.

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAMME

Ten Hundred Children Carol National Airs to Delight of Their Parents—Other Celebrations.

The Arena was crowded with over six thousand people old and young, last night, for the Empire Day concert given by the children of the Protestant schools. The choir consisted of a thousand pupils, the boys all in black and the girls in white. They were accompanied by an excellent orchestra under Mr. W. H. Smith's baton.

The programme naturally consisted of a series of patriotic and popular national airs.

As of right "God Save the King" opened the concert, as representing the whole Empire from the musical lore of the various nations under the Union Jack. England was represented by Bayly's "Long, Long Ago" and "The Brave Old Oak." For Scotland, "Farewell to Lochaber" and "There's Nae Luck About the House" were sung; for Ireland, "'Tis the Last Rose of Summer" and the inspiriting "St. Patrick's Day" were well rendered. Canadian airs were represented by "Acres of Your Own," and French Canada by that sweet ballad, "A la Claire Fontaine," which, by the way, was nicely sung in the original language. Two humorous English folk songs followed.

A flag song created great enthusiasm. The song was led by a group of prettily uniformed girls, each carrying the Union Jack. The whole thousand voiced choir joined in the chorus, while each waved a tiny flag in the air, producing a most inspiring effect.

A series of excellent calisthenic exercises with dumb and bar bells was given by boys and girls from Dufferin Street. These evidently met with the approval of the audience, not only because they were really well done, but because the common sense of the exercises appealed to the parents.

A Pretty Fan Drill.

A Japanese fan drill closed the performance with a blaze of glory. The little folks sang a Japanese song with a very catchy Ira-la-la lilt, which proved immensely popular with the audience.

Conductor W. H. Smith was in charge of the programme; the leaders who were responsible for the excellent training of the different sections of the choir were Mr. S. P. Robins, Misses Allan, A. E. Baker, Ballantyne, Brown, C. M. Brown, Idler, MacMartin, J. M. MacMartin, Manson, Maxwell, Scott, L. Smith; Miss C. E. Brown was the instructor in calisthenics, and Miss Murphy the accompanist. The amateur orchestra was in charge of Mr. A. Larsen.

The pupils who took part in the celebration were from the following schools conducted by the Protestant School Commissioners: Senior, Aberdeen, Ann, Berthelet, Dufferin, Hochelaga, Lansdowne, Lorne, Mount Royal, Riverside, Royal Arthur, Victoria, Baron de Hirsch and McGill Model.

The Arena was appropriately dressed for the occasion, being decked with plentiful flags and bunting, while various national emblems decorated the walls. A large crown suspended from the centre of the building attracted a good deal of admiration.

High School Celebration.

At the High School the same national enthusiasm was manifest. A lively concert of a patriotic nature was rendered by the various classes in the large hall at noon, at which a great many of the relations and friends of the scholars were present. The pupils were given a half holiday after the concert was over. The feature of the High School exercises were contributions in both languages.

At Westmount Academy also an Empire Day entertainment was given, while special lessons along national lines were taught.

A Patriotic Movement.

Although of comparatively recent birth, the Empire Day idea has taken a very firm hold in Montreal, as in other Canadian cities. The idea is two-fold—first to inculcate a patriotic love for country and Empire, and also to teach, by special lessons, a useful knowledge of the subject.

The first fruits of the movement resulted in a series of patriotic concerts given in the various schools on May 23rd. These were so successful that in the following a mass concert was given in the Arena, which proved so popular and successful an event that it took permanent shape, and every Empire Day has been celebrated in like manner, but with growing eclat since.

FIFTY YEARS WITH SAME FIRM.

His fellow-employes on Monday presented to him a gold-headed cane, suitably inscribed, as a memento of a notable anniversary, and a token of their good-will.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE DAY.

The Programme Includes Four Days of Celebration.

At a meeting of the presidents of the different sections of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, the following programme was adopted for the celebration of the approaching national feast:

June 23—Bonfires.

June 24—Procession, with allegorical chariots; solemn service in the Church of Notre Dame; gala entertainment at the Monument National.

June 25—Congress of journalists.

June 26—Decoration of the tomb of Duvernay, founder of the St. Jean Baptiste Society.

It is the intention to invite the Independent Guards throughout the United States to take part in the proceedings.

SEWER TO BACK RIVER.

That is the Scheme the Road Committee is Talking of.

The Road Committee at its meeting on Monday decided that a sewer should be constructed to Back River. This action was taken as a result of the recent Superior Court judgment in favor of Ahuntsic. City Surveyor Barlow reported that if the sewage farm were utilized the cost would be about $88,000, of which $51,000 would be needed immediately to satisfy the courts. The cost of an independent sewer would be in the neighborhood of $133,000 and two years would be required for the construction.

It was decided to invite representatives from Outremont and St. Louis de Mile End to a meeting and find out if these municipalities would be willing to contribute to the cost.

SHERBROOKE NEWS.

Dam at Norton Mills Gave Way—Creamery at Lennoxville Damaged by Fire.

Sherbrooke, May 25.—(Special.)—The dam at Lake Averill, near Norton Mills, belonging to the Coaticook Water Supply Co., gave way Monday morning owing to the heavy rains. As the lake is the source of the Coaticook River considerable anxiety was felt by residents along the river, and the authorities at Coaticook, as soon as they were warned of the break, gave orders to raise all the gates in the river and the mill ponds were emptied. The high water reached Coaticook about 9 a.m.

The Lennoxville Creamery was scorched by fire on Saturday evening. The fire started in the roof, and was got under before it got to the lower part of the building. No butter was destroyed. The damage is estimated at $1,000, covered by insurance.

At the Sherbrooke Dairymen's Exchange this afternoon 375 packages of butter were sold at 15⅞c per pound.

KIDNEY TROUBLE
BY
Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks, a well-known farmer of West Cape, P.E.I., tells of how his son was cured of Kidney Disease, and how he was cured of Backache.

The First Sign of Kidney Trouble.

He says: "Our little boy was troubled with kidney disease. We had tried many kinds of kidney pills but they only helped for a time. We got Doan's Kidney Pills and one box effected a perfect cure. About six weeks after this I caught a very bad cold that settled in my kidneys. My back was so sore I could hardly walk. I went to the drug store and got a box, took them according to directions and the result was that my back was completely cured. I believe they are the best kidney pill on the market to-day."

There is not a kidney trouble from Backache to Bright's Disease that Doan's Kidney Pills will not relieve or cure. The price is 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 and may be procured at all dealers or from

WERE ONCE SAFE IN THE LIFEBOAT

When Huge Wave Dashed Turret Bay Crew Into the Sea.

CAPT. HAYDEN BADLY HURT

Was Carried Back to Ship in Dying Condition—Ship Might Have Been Saved but for Orders to Reverse Full Speed.

North Sydney, N.S., May 25.—(Special).—It was a mournful little procession which wended its way from the Southwest Lighthouse of St. Paul's Island to one of the few grassy plots that rocky islands afford, and there laid to rest in mother earth, the five bodies recovered from the wreck of the ill-fated Turret Bay. No funeral pomp was there, but the ready sympathy of their fellow sailors more than atoned for its absence. No priest or minister was there to bless the graves, but the words of committal sounded fully as solemn as said by A. D. Campbell, son of the superintendent of the Island. Having done all in their power for the bodies of their fellows, the rest of the ill-fated crew left the island on the Government cable steamer Tyrian and arrived here this morning where they are now being cared for.

Were All in Lifeboats.

When seen by your correspondent they told an heartrending story of the disaster. At one time the whole crew were safely in the lifeboat when it was upset by the waves and all had again to return to the ship. Just as the accident occurred, Capt. Hayden received a terrific blow on the head and he was taken aboard his ship in an almost lifeless condition. It is thought that he, with the chief engineer, the first mate, the boatswain and the cook, all went down with the ship.

Had the captain not ordered full astern, when the ship struck, she would almost certainly have remained on the ledge and the wreck would have been attended with no fatalities whatever.

Difficulty in Getting Lifeboat Out.

Great difficulty, too, was experienced in getting out the life boat while all efforts to get on the other boat proved unavailing. The men worked nearly twenty minutes at the life boat before it could be launched.

Johann Soderholm was in the water two hours before being rescued, expired in Lighthouse Keeper McLeod's boat before it reached the shore. Five of the survivors were rescued by Superintendent Campbell. All were so exhausted when they reached the shore that they had to be carried to the lighthouse. All speak in the highest terms of the kindness of the people of the island. Superintendent Campbell is confined to the house as the result of his exertions and so was unable to officiate at the funeral.

PUBLIC BATHS FORMALLY OPENED YESTERDAY

Records for Disrobing Broken by a Lad at St. Gabriels—Swimming Races Held.

The new public baths in St. Gabriel and St. Louis wards were thrown open to the public for the first time yesterday morning by Ald. Dagenais, chairman of the Hygiene committee. Others present were Ald. Nelson, Ald. Turner, Ald. Marchand, Ald. Proulx, Ald. Couture and Sanitary Engineer Dore.

No regular programme had been prepared and a soon as the doors were thrown open the boys rushed in and were soon sporting in the water.

At St. Gabriel's bath there was quite a contest for the honor of being first in the water. Frederick Smith broke all previous records for disrobing, and won with several seconds to spare.

A swimming contest followed, in which the winners were: 1, Clinton Thorney; 2, F. Smith; 3, Walter Sulley. Exhibitions of diving were given by Daniel Mackay and George Hogan.

The opening of the St. Louis bath took place an hour later, but the boys there were not so numerous. In addition they had not been accustomed to plunging in the canal like the Point St. Charles youngsters and were rather afraid of the cold water. Eugene Lambert, son of Deputy High Constable Lambert, was the first one to brave the water. After an exhibition of life-saving by Henri Lessard, the guardian, a swimming contest took place and resulted as follows: 1, Henri Gerhardt; 2, Hector Boudin; 3, Hector Richard.

Both baths are identical in accommodation; the swimming pool in each being eighty-three by twenty-four feet. It slopes gradually from three feet in depth at one end to seven feet at the other end, so that even those who cannot swim are in no danger. The guardian is always on hand to guard against accidents. There are seventy-two dressing stalls, with the openings in the rear, so that if a boy is undressing he cannot be pushed into the water before he has disrobed. This was the idea of Sanitary Engineer Dore, who had learned from experience that boys were sometimes pushed into the water by their comrades before they were given time to undress.

The buildings are fitted up with the most modern sanitary improvements, and there are eight shower baths. Every person before entering the swimming pool is compelled to take a shower bath.

OTTAWA UNIVERSITY CORNER STONE WAS LAID

A Most Notable Gathering of Church Dignitaries Was Present—Cardinal Gibbons' Speech—The Pope's Blessing.

Ottawa, May 25.—With the the pomp and ceremony of the Roman Catholic church the corner stone of the University of Ottawa arts building was laid yesterday. The blessing of the beginning of this structure, which is to replace the great building destroyed by fire last December, occasioned a gathering of distinguished prelates. A prince of the church laid the corner stone, and another pronounced a eulogy upon the undertaking in the interest of education. Representatives of alien faiths forgot differences of creed, and were present to place the stamp of universal approval upon an important effort for the advancement of learning.

The central figures of the function were Cardinal Gibbons, the head of the Catholic church in the United States, the Governor-General of Canada, Mgr. Sbarretti, representative of the Pope at the Canadian capital, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, prime minister of the Dominion.

The ceremonies of the day began with pontificial high mass, followed by the laying of the corner stone, and after that a luncheon.

Celebrated High Mass.

The mass was celebrated at ten o'clock by His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, as Chancellor of the University. He was assisted by Mgr. Routhier, the vicar-general, Father Lalonde and Father Coursol, of the Seminary, were the deacon and subdeacon. The mitre was borne by Rev. John Dowd, of the Seminary, and Rev. Father Archambault was the master of ceremonies.

Cardinal Gibbons assisted at the throne, having on his right Father Fallon of Buffalo and his own private secretary on his left.

There were present in the sanctuary Archbishop Bruchesi of Montreal; Archbishop O'Connor of Toronto; Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, and Bishops McEvoy, of London; Macdonell, of Alexandria, Emard, of Valleyfield, and Lorrain, of Pembroke. There were present also, Mgr. Mathieu, of Laval; Very Rev. Dozois, principal of the Oblat Order, Canon Foley and Canon Bouillon, Father French of Brudenell, Father P. Ryan, of Renfrew, Father John Ryan of Killaloe, Father Gray, Kingston, Father L. Latulippe, of Pembroke, Father Reynolds, of Massachusetts; O. M. L., Father Desjardins, of Montreal; Father Duvic, of the Scholastic; Father Froc, of the Seminary, Father John Maher, of Carleton Place; Father Gavarry, of Nancy; France; Father William Murphy, O.M.I., P.P., of St. Joseph's; Fathers Hurlburt, Cavan and Tierney, who accompanied the Cardinal and Father Lecoq of the Grand Seminary, Montreal; Canon Plantin, of Ottawa; Fathers McGovern, Myrand, Brunette and David of Ottawa, the prior of the Order of Dominicans, and representatives of the various religious bodies located in Ottawa.

Laying the Corner Stone.

At the close of the service the procession was lead from the church to the site of the building by Mgr. Sbarretti. A great crowd had gathered in anticipation of the event, and the piles of building material were black with people. A platform had been built about the stone which is to form one corner of the building, and as the dignitaries in their ceremonial robes gathered about the spot, the scene was a striking one. At exactly twelve o'clock Mgr. Sbarretti, with a silver trowel, placed the morter about the stone and declared it laid. He was assisted by Rev. J. Lebeau and Rev. E. Richard. The copper casket which was deposited in the stone contained:

Printed and manuscript copies of the College charter, both ecclesiastical and civil.

Specimens of the silver coins of the Dominion of Canada of the stamp of 1903 and a gold dollar.

A small statue of the Blessed Virgin.

Copy of the Catholic directory of the Dominion.

Copies of the local papers of the city of Ottawa.

Copy of the College Review of the present month.

A Latin script setting forth that this corner stone was laid on the 24th of May, 1904, in tre reign of Pope Pius the Tenth, in the presence of Cardinal Gibbons, of the Chancellor of the University, of His Excellency the Governor-General, of the Prime Minister of the Country, of the Minister of Education of the Province and of the rector of the University.

Cardinal Gibbons Speaks.

Cardinal Gibbons then spoke as follows:

"Your Excellencies, Mr. President, my lords and brethren, I received an invitation from your honored director to assist at the laying of the corner stone of the University of Ottawa, and this invitation was supplemented by a request, from the most reverend, the Metropolitan, and His Excellency, the most reverend; the Apostolic Delegate, and they were pleased to tell me that in extending this invitation they were expressing the sentiments of the clergy and the people of the vicinity. Notwithstanding the length and the fatigues of the journey and my advancing years I could not hesitate to comply with this invitation, which I regarded indeed in the light of a command, especially as we are assembled here to-day in the sacred cause of Christian education. Although, my dear friends, I am personally a stranger among you, yet I must say that I feel myself at home. I feel myself at home, not only because of the hospitality which you have extended to me, but because I am bound to you by the ties of faith, hope and charity. We have all, thanks be to God, one Lord, one faith and one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in us all. A traveller, in traversing the various States of the Union and these provinces of Canada, as I have done, cannot fail to be struck by the splendor of the institutions of learning, of religion and of education which confront him on every side; and if I were to ask myself the question, to what cause are we to ascribe these manifestations of Christian faith and piety, you would all agree with me that we are indebted, under the providence of God, to those sturdy immigrants who in past days and past generations came from Europe and settled upon our shores.

England's Share.

Among the nations that I would mention as contributing to this, coming as I do from the United States and Baltimore, I must refer to one to which we are personally indebted in that city and diocese. This, the first nation I would mention, is England. The diocese of Baltimore, to which I belong, and of which I am a native, was settled by English Catholics. A colony of English gentlemen, accompanied by their families, set sail from the Isle of Wight in the year 1634 and they landed on the banks of Chesepeake Bay on March 25 of the same year. The vessels which carried them bore the significant names of the Ark and the Dove, fitting messengers to transport the fortunes of pious pilgrims to a distant and an unknown land. The leader of the colony was Lord Baltimore and one of the very first public acts of this distinguished man was to proclaim the sacred doctrine of civil and religious liberty. He declared that in his colony no person should be disturbed or molested on account of his or her faith. And this was the first proclamation of religious freedom promulgated on the shores of America.

Irishmen Prominent in Religion.

"You will all, ladies and gentlemen, agree with me that Ireland has contributed not a little toward the spiritual and temporal prosperity of the United States and of the British colonies. Whatever may have been the unhappy cause which lead to the expatriation of so many of Ireland's sons and daughters, divine providence has regulated their exile and made it subordinate to higher and holier purposes. I venture to say to-day that there is not in any town or village in the United States or Australia or the British Empire where the Christian religion has not been proclaimed and supported by clergymen and laymen of Irish birth or Irish descent. Daniel Webster, one of the foremost statesmen of the United States, delivered an eloquent address in the Senate of that country upon the vast extent of the British Empire. On that occasion he made use of these beautiful words: 'England has dotted the whole surface of the earth with her forts and military possessions whose morning drum-beat, following the sun, and keeping company with the hours, encircles the earth with one unbroken strain of the martial airs of England.'

"And may we not say, with equal assurance, that wherever England has planted her flag, there the Irish missionary has endeavored to plant also, the cross, the emblem of salvation; wherever England has proclaimed her laws, there the Catholic missionary has announced the gospel; and wherever England has built a fort or a custom house, there the missionary of Christ has raised a chapel or a church to the service of Almighty God?

French Pioneers of Religion and Civilization.

"But there is another nation which should be dear to the heart of every Canadian, a nation which centuries ago sent to this country her sons and daughters, who were the pioneers of religion and civilization. For three centuries after the discovery of the American Continent missionaries from France crossed the Atlantic and explored our rivers, our mountains and our lakes, carrying their lives in their hands. They held the torch of faith in one hand and the torch of science in the other, and the charts and maps which they sent back to Europe are regarded, even to this day, as models of topographical accuracy. And as an evidence of the success which rewarded their efforts I may remark that there is to-day scarcely a single Indian tribe in the United States or in Canada which does not respect and venerate the black robe.

Opportunities of To-day.

And now, reverend fathers, let me say to you if those pioneers did so much in the cause of Christian religion, when they had no ships but frail canoes; when they had to struggle amid winter snows, virgin forests and desert wastes; when they had no compass but the naked eye; when they had no gufde except faith and hope in God, how much can you missionaries of the Lord effect in the days of railways, steamships and other appliances of modern civilization. Yes, we bless you all, you men of genius; we bles your inventions and we will impress ou into the service of religion. We will make of you the handmen of God, and we will say, 'Bless the Lord, lightnings and clouds; bless the Lord fire and heat; bless the Lord all ye works of the Lord. Bless the Lord, praise and exalt Him above all and forever.'

"My friends this day shall be forever memorable in the annals of Ottawa. This day is sacred to the memory of an illustrious Queen, whose long and eventful reign shed lustre over the British Empire, and whose domestic virtues commanded the admiration of the civilized world. This is also a red letter day in the cause of Christian education. We are assembled to-day to lay the corner-stone of a new edifice, of a new university, and I have reason to hope and to believe that this new temple, to be dedicated to science and religion, like the new temple of Solomon, will surpass the old temple in the majesty and beauty of its architecture, in the splendor of its appointments, and in the number of its patrons and of students. 'Arise the enlightened, oh Jerusalem, for thy light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon three. For behold darkness shall cover the earth and a mist the people; but the Lord shall arise upon thee and His glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall walk in thy light and kings in the brightness of thy arising.'

With Unity Can Be No Failure.

"God grant, my brethren, that these words of the great Isaiah may be a prophesy of the future glory of this university, when thousands of the sons of Canada will issue forth from its portals clothed with a panoply of truth and justice, and carrying the sword of God in behalf of God and of their beloved country. And I am sure, in the providence of God, that you shall succeed. Where the bishop and the clergy, and the people are united there is no such word as fail. You form a triple cord that cannot be broken. You constitute a triple alliance far more formidable than the triple alliance of Germany, of Austria, and of civilization. And why should you not succeed if you consider the great aim which you have in view? Are you not all children of the same Father, brothers and sisters of the same Christ, temples of the same spirit of God? There are diversities of congregations but the same spirit; there are diversities of ministries but the same Lord; there are diversities of operation, but the same God that worketh all in all. We are all in the same bark, tossed about by the same storm and starting toward the same eternal shores; prospective citizens of the kingdom of God. Go on then, my friends, be encouraged to-day to help the rector and your venerable archbishop, unite together as one man in erecting here another monument in the beautiful city of Ottawa. Work altogether, hand in hand and shoulder to shoulder, to build up the wall of the spiritual Zion, and register to-day this vow in the language of the great prophet of old, 'If I forget thee, oh, Jerusalem, let my right hand be forgotten, let my tongue cleave to my jaws if I do not remember thee and always bless thee, oh city of God, among the first of my choice.'"

The Bishop of Valleyfield.

Bishop Emard, of Valleyfield, followed, speaking in French. He recounted the loss of the University building which was destroyed and commended the enterprise of the Oblat Fathers in so soon undertaking to replace it with a more splendid structure. Under such guidance, and with the Divine blessing, the enterprise could not fail of great future success.

Lord Minto Speaks.

The message of the King was delivered by Lord Minto, his Canadian representative. He said:

"Monseigneur, ladies and gentlemen, I rejoice in the opportunity afforded me of taking part in this ceremony today, a ceremony which his eminence Cardinal Gibbons has so kindly consented to honor. I join, I am sure, with all of you in welcoming His Eminence to Ottawa, and in recognizing in him one who has not only for many years occupied the position of a great dignitary of the Church of Rome, on the continent of America, but who has done much by his distinguished influence to direct and control the modern thought, and perhaps somewhat speculative religious tendencies of the New World.

"But, ladies and gentlemen, brilliant as to-day's gathering is, I know that to many of us the recollection of a bright winter morning a very little time ago must still be vividly present, when, in little over an hour, a cruel fire, that danger which would seem to be so constantly with us here, had reduced to a tottering skeleton the edifice we all knew so well, and had cast upon the community a grief for the loss of brave lives that could ill be spared.

"But, Monseigneur, what would any university be without the recuperative powers of youth, and sad though the loss has been to Ottawa, we cannot but feel that in to-day's ceremony we are celebrating the inauguration of a new building that will be architecturally worthy of the capital of the Dominion. I hope that from within its walls many distinguished men may go forth to contribute to the history of their country.

Vast Possibilities.

"We may look back on the early days of the College of Bytown and of the College of Ottawa, and on the birth of the University before Confederation, with its charter from our own great Queen Victoria, and its recognition by His Holiness the Pope and we can gratefully recognize the services rendered to the educational wants of Canada—still more can we look forward to the possibilities of the future, to the benefits offered by a university education on broad lines to a great and growing city, and we gladly recognize that the capitol of the Dominion is offering a fitting home, not only to students of literature and art, but to the scientist, the surveyor, the engineer and the electrician on whose early training the development of the mighty resources of this country so directly depend. And I cannot but feel, your eminence, that the ceremony you have so kindly attended on this brilliant spring day—dedicated to the memory of our beloved Queen—would appear to hold out a cheerful promise of all the blessings we so earnestly desire for the future of the University of Ottawa."

Guests at the Luncheon.

Eight hundred guests sat down to the tables in the Rideau rink upon which the luncheon was served. At the head of the table was Chancellor Duhamel, with Lord Minto on his right, and Mgr. Sbarretto next, and Cardinal Gibbons on his left, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Other guests were Rev. J. E. Emery, Sir Sandford Fleming, Most Rev. Archbishop Gauthier, Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Rt. Rev. Toast to the King.

The toast to the King was the first one proposed. It was offered by the chairman, Archbishop Duhamel. He pointed out that the aim of the university had always been to do its duty by the Church and the State by turning out as graduates good citizens, without which neither Church nor State can flourish.

The health of the Pope was then proposed by Cardinal Gibbons, briefly, and was responded to by Mgr. Sbarretti. He pointed out that where the missionaries of the church have gone darkness has been dispelled. It was for the purpose of dispelling this darkness that the Catholic Church had undertaken the erection of universities upon this continent. The present enterprise was one which was heartily approved of at Rome. The following message which he had received yesterday would show this:

The Pope's Blessing.

Rome, May 23, 1904.

Mgr. Sbarretti, Apostolic Delegate, Ottawa, Canada:

The Holy Father rejoices that tomorrow, under the auspices of Mary, the helper of Christians, there will be laid the corner stone of the edifice destined to replace the university building which was burned. He bestows his apostolic benediction on the prelate, clergy and faithful, who will take part in the ceremonies. Itis his hope that the commendable efforts of the well-deserving Oblat Fathers of Mary Emaculate, may soon be crowned with success.

(Signed) Cardinal Merry Del Val.

The Toast of Canada.

The toast of Canada was proposed by Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education for Ontario. He recalled a description of the foundation of universities after the dark ages, when they were said to have come out like stars in the night. Universities, with diversities of ideals, were necessary for the development and the diffusion of knowledge. In proposing Canada, he said that the people of the Dominion were too apt to dwell upon the material advantages nature had give to them. The greatest asset of the country was an educated citizenship. That it was the function of the schools, the colleges and the universities to provide.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Reply.

In responding Sir Wilfrid Laurier said:

"My Lord Chancellor, your excellencies, your eminence, my lords and gentlemen, it is with a very sincere heart that I join my poor voice to the voice of my friend Mr. Harcourt, to the toast of Canada, our country. A good deal might be said, even after the eloquent address of Mr. Harcourt, in praise of Canada. It is a land blessed by God. That is what every Canadian feels and believes. We are pleased to acknowledge that the Creator has showered upon us some of his choicest blessings. But the Creator has not done everything. In the order of His providence He has left a good deal to be done by the citizens of Canada, and the gentlemen who at this moment are engaged in resurrecting from its ashes the University of Ottawa, are associated in, perhaps, one of the most useful works that could be undertaken for the welfare of our country.

"There was a time on a frosty morning in the month of December last when the hearts of the friends of education in this city sank in their bosoms owing to the terrible disaster which swept away a noble pile which has stood for years upon the other side of yonder street. A good many believed that such a blow would crush the University of Ottawa, that it could not be restored to its former state of prosperity. But to-day, under most promising auspices, we have had evidences not a few that the University of Ottawa, like the Phoenix of fable, will rise from its ashes more resplendent than before.

"This is, indeed, an auspicious day. We have with us his Excellency the Governor-General, who comes here with a message from the King that his Majesty cannot be indifferent whenever a thing takes place in his dominions that is of interest even to the poorest and humblest of his subjects. We have also with us his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Baltimore, whom we know to be one of the ablest priests of the church, one of the most eminent citizens of a glorious country, and one whose name is a household word wherever Christian education is appreciated. Furthermore we have with us his Excellency the Apostolic Delegate, who has brought us the apostolic blessing of his Holiness upon this enterprise. Therefore, gentlemen, I say that in all these things we have evidence that the University of Ottawa will be what it was before, and indeed far more.

For English Speaking University.

"May I be permitted here to give expression to a thought which was recalled to me by something which I saw in the newspapers this morning. The hope had been expressed in some quarters that this should be an English-speaking university. If I had a voice in the councils of the university I would say by all means let this be an English-speaking university. But if the thought and the hope were to be one of exclusion, my position would be, 'no, I could not share in such a wish as that.' The spirit of the church is not to exclude. But on the contrary the spirit of the church is to open her arms to take in, not to endeavor to repel. If in addition to an English-speaking university it were likewise to be a French-speaking university it would be a double advantage for this institution. I need not tell you that in this age of more rapid communication between nation and nation, the education of a man, to be complete, he must have full possession of the language of the two countries which have stood at the head of modern civilization, and let me say for the advantage of Ottawa University, that if its pupils, when they come to leave school with their diplomas, have mastered the French language as well as the English, they will be doubly equipped for the struggle of life, and they will have the advantage in competition with less favored students, if so there be, who come from other universities. Therefore, in this University of Ottawa, let there be no exclusion. On the contrary, let a broad Christian spirit prevail, and remember that the church and Canada also is broad enough not only for the English but also for the French language. I cannot conclude without conveying to my old friend and school mate, Rev. Father Emery, a sincere appreciation of myself and colleagues of the work which he has done."

Other Toasts.

The toast of the United States was offered by Rev. Dr. Herridge and responded to by Consul-General Foster. The Alumni was offered by Mr. H. J. Macdonald, and replied to by His Honor Judge Curran, of Montreal, the oldest living alumnus of the Ottawa University. He stated that the blessings of Canada had been acquired so easily that perhaps they were not appreciated as if we had fought for them. Other countries perhaps more keenly appreciated the blessings they had won. The spreading of learning was one of the things which should engage the efforts of our best men. At the seat of the Government of the country he thought it right that there should be a dual language university. As the Prime Minister had once recommended the study of English to his constituents he now would recommend the study of French to all men of his race. Canadian citizenship is broad enough to cover both languages.

Other Universities was proposed by Sir Sandford Fleming, of Queen's, and responded to by Rev. Dr. Mathieu, of Laval, and President Loudon, of Toronto University.

The toast to the city of Ottawa was responded to by Mayor Ellis and Mr. Dennis Murphy, M.L.A.

To-night Hon. N. A. Belcourt, Speaker of the House of Commons, gave a dinner in honor of His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons. The following guests were present: Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mgr. Sbarretti, Sir William Mulock, Mr. Duhamel, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Mgr. O'Connor, Mgr. Bruchesi, Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, Mgr. Gauthier, Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Lord Bishop Hamilton, of Ottawa, Mr. Speaker Power, of the Senate; Mgr. Lorrain, Mr. R. L. Borden, Mgr. Emard, Dr. Roddick, Mgr. Macdonell, Mgr. McEvoi, Rev. Dr. Herridge, Sir Sandford Fleming, Rev. Father Whelan, Rev. Father Emery, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. F. D. Monk, M.P., Rev. A. A. Cameron, Rev. E. F. Salton and Rev. Dr. Fallon.

AT THE THEATRES.

THE ACADEMY'S RE-OPENING.

Chauncey Olcott scored a very decided success with "Terence" at the re-opening of the Academy Monday night. There was nothing very startlingly original about the play, which might just as well be called "Chauncey" as "Terence," because it is purely and simply a vehicle for exploiting Mr. Olcott's versatile talents. In this it succeeds admirably. In fact, so satisfied was the audience on Monday night, that, not content with the usual number of curtain calls, they insisted upon a speech—and Mr. Olcott compromised with a song, which was probably much better than a speech anyway.

In discussing the play there is little need to consider the plot or the company—they are mere accessories before the deed. Everybody knows what an Irish drama is going to be like when they buy their tickets. The characters are as familiar as the villain in the melodrama. But like the same villain they fill a useful position in the dramatic world, and evidently please a large section of the play-going public, sated as they are with alleged musical comedies and unmusical choruses.

"Terence" is a particularly Irish romance, with a typically Hibernian contempt for probabilities, a good deal of fairly smart dialogue, in which, of course, Terence is the bright and shining wit, several very pleasing songs, and a quantity of excellent scenery. Of course, there are other characters which help to fill the stage and keep Terence busy during the four acts, but the only one it is necessary to mention is Margaret Hayden, who gave a very pleasing interpretation as Maureen D'Arcy, the impulsive young lady who falls in love with Terence in the first act and reaches a happy denouement just before the final curtain. Miss Hayden was here quite recently with the "Earl of Pawtucket" company, and is increasing the favorable reputation she then won in Montreal.

"Terence" is, of course, an ill-used scion of a noble Irish family whose estates are chiefly used for producing crops of debts. While he is lying low, disguised as a cross between an Apollo Belvidere and a remarkably well-dressed coachman, he falls in love with the arsitocratic Maureen, who naturally returns the coachdriver's tender passion with compound interest. During the progress of their wooing Terence performs a number of heroic acts and gives vent to many more lofty sentiments. There are, of course, missing deeds and a villainous lawyer, with whom Terence gets even just after he recovers the stolen deeds and Maureen at the same time, and other stage accessories. It is just as old a story as any love yarn must necessarily be, but is just as pleasing as ever, and it is remarkably well-dressed the scenic effects being really beautiful.

Mr. Olcott's songs, of which he sings a number, were very well received. He has a charming tenor and uses it in Irish ballads very effectively. If the cordial receptions won by Terence on Monday night and yesterday evening are any criterion, Mr. Olcott should play to full houses for the balance of the week, despite the warm weather.

AT PROCTOR'S.

The Durban Stock Company, which will hold the boards at Proctor's Theatre this summer opened its engagement Monday evening with the Empire Theatre success, "Brother Officers," an English military comedy.

It is hard to guage the merit of a stock company by any one production but judging from the manner in which the Durban company acquitted itself in its opening bill, Montreal will see the best stock company since the days when Macdowell held forth in the Academy.

Mr. James E. Wilson, the leading man, has an excellent stage presence, a beautifully modulated voice and elocutionary and dramatic ability to an extent not possessed by many actors outside of stardom. It has been claimed for Mr. Wilson that he is the best stock lead in America to-day. He is certainly the best seen in Montreal for many days. His work in "Brother Officers," easily proved this and his delineation of other roles as the engagement proceed, will be watched with interest. Mr. Benjamin Horning is well known to Montreal theatregoers as an actor of much ability. As Lieut. Pleydel in "Brother Officers," he was seen to excellent advantage and his love scene with Miss Rowan in the third act, was beautifully done. Mr. Mark Price in the role of the "heavy" Robert Hutton, not only made the part thoroughly villainous but he also presented a character study that is well worth seeing.

Miss Rowan, in the role of the Baroness Royden, was easy and graceful. She conveys the impression of possessing a great amount of reserve force as an emotional actress. Her work throughout was excellent and in the several strong scenes she acquitted herself admirably. The other members of the company were cast in minor parts but played them well.

AT THE FRANCAIS.

As their offering for the second week of their engagement at the Francais, the Aubrey stock company are presenting the drama, "Woman Against Woman." The plot and treatment are by no means strikingly original, as it is constructed to show the trouble caused in a happy home by a faithless, jealous woman. The play presented several opportunities for strongly emotional acting, which seemed to please the audience.

Mr. W. Beckwith, as John Tressider, portrayed a difficult character fairly well; Miss Maud Scott, as Rachel Westwood, showed considerable ability; Miss Bertine Robison, as Bessie Barton, was well received by the audience and Mr. F. Morey as Sir Henry Chesterton also came in for some applause. The company as a whole appears to be an improvement on the ordinary stock company of this kind.

AT THE ROYAL.

The stock burlesque company at the Theatre Royal this week presents an entertainment which contains several good vaudeville turns and two burlesques which were well received by the large audiences at the opening performances. The best number in the rather short olio is undoubtedly the MacGinley's, who do a trapeze act which is new and interesting. Other numbers in the olio are, the Misses Jackson and Douglas in a singing and dancing act, Gilbert Saxony, in his old maid specialty, and Harry Jolson, illustrated songs; a one-act play "The Elopers," gives Harry Hastings and Viola Sheldon an opportunity to introduce some pleasing songs, and the act is amusing. The burlesques contain lots of merriment and are well handled, but the comedy is certainly of a rather strenuous order. The company is known as the "London Gaiety Girls," and will, doubtless continue to attract large audiences during the remainder of the week.

SOHMER PARK OPENING.

A great programme of novelties has been arranged for the coming season at Sohmer Park. For weeks Messrs. Lavigne and Lajoie have been busy engaging talent and the result is that they have the best collection of notable vaudeville artists that they have ever had. If this be true then there is certainly a lot of amusement in store for those who patronize the park. A number of improvements have been made in the grounds of the park and the staff in attendance on the public will be larger than ever before. Among the acts which will appear during the season, which opens on Monday next, are the following: The Three Poiriers, the Sisters Devans, Raynard, a ventriloquist who has been making a great record in England; Prof. Kraesal's cats and dogs; Rae and Bennedetto, the ladder workers; the Ben Dunham trio; McCarts cats and dogs; McFee and Hill, the well known bar performers; Spencer Kelly, the singer, the Woods brothers, on their aerial rings, and scores of other equally important acts. Lavigne's band has been added to and will, as usual, be one of the biggest features.

Wouldn't You Kick?

If the Dr. held up his finger at you at breakfast and said: "It's that COFFEE, you know, that causes your stubborn, sick spells and my medicines are useless, fighting against the daily poison to your nerves you take in coffee. You simply cannot get well until you quit coffee, so if you continue to use it we must all consider you like to be sick all day as an exchange for the pleasure of a cup of coffee in the morning."

How We Do Hate Facts

And keep on drinking coffee and enjoying the headaches, stomach and bowel troubles, nervous prostration and the whole train of disorders that fellow, after we have used coffee long enough to build in the diseased cells, and when these cells exist we simply cannot be well. We must stop the daily poison of coffee and let good old Dame Nature make new and perfect cells for us.

A Pleasant Way Out

And an almost immediate comfort and relief is to quit coffee absolutely. Have as many or more cups of Postum Coffee, but be very sure to know—insist upon knowing that it has been boiled, actually boiling, not less than 15 minutes. Many cooks try to prepare Postum by 5 or 6 minutes boiling, but that will not do. Of course there's no harm in drinking a weak insipid cup of unboiled Postum, but where's the use, when it can be had rich, deep brown, with a decided crisp coffee snap, hot and delicious. Don't let them serve it to you half made. After a day or two you will find (probably to your surprise) that the old sick troubles are better.

That's Your Cue. Follow It.

THE HERALD
Established 1869.

THE RIGHT OF SEARCH.

While the question of international law raised by the stopping of the British mail steamer Osiris is still under discussion, a new complication arises by the reported indiscriminate sowing of the Gulf of Pe-chi-li, which surrounds the peninsula of Port Arthur, with floating mines. The British naval station of Wei-Hai-Wei is directly opposite Port Arthur, within half a day's steaming, and has been occupied by a fleet of nearly a dozen British men-of-war since hostilities commenced. The strong currents prevailing in this area make the presence of floating mines a very serious danger to neutrals even when at anchor or cruising outside the immediate area of combat. It will not be surprising if we find Admiral Noel employing his large squadron of torpedo boats in searching for and destroying any such sources of possible danger as may hamper free access to the non-blockaded ports without waiting for the cumbrous process of international law to lay down a definite ruling.

As regards the stopping of neutral mail steamers it seems that there is already data to go upon. The despatches that might be carried by such fall into three classes; ordinary private and business letters, military or naval despatches, and diplomatic or consular reports. The first class has always been held free from capture, while the second is admittedly liable to be seized. It is said that the Russians can hardly have expected to find such despatches on board the Osiris, and that their action must have been taken to secure diplomatic desptches, which fall into the third category. On this point there is a very interesting decision on record, the case of the Caroline, which may be considered conclusive in so far as it admits the rights of neutrals. The case was heard in 1808, before Sir William Scott, who was not accustomed to favor neutral States unduly. The Caroline was an American ship carrying despatches from the French Ambassador and Consul in Washington to their Home Government. The vessel was searched, the despatches found, and both were seized. By the order of the Prize Court the vessel was set at liberty and the despatches returned. "They are despatches," said Sir William Scott, "from persons who are, in a peculiar manner, the favorite object of the protection of the Law of Nations, residing in the neutral country for the purpose of preserving the relations of amity between that State and their own Government. The neutral country has a right to preserve its relations with the enemy, and you are not at liberty to conclude that any communications between them can partake in any degree of the nature of hostility against you;" and again speaking of the position of the Ambassador of a belligerent country to a neutral State he says: "He is there for the purpose of carrying on the relations of peace and amity, for his own country primarily, but at the same time for the furtherance and protection of the interests which the neutral country also has in the continuance of those relations. . . . It is too much to say that all the business of the two States shall be transacted by the Minister of the neutral State resident in the enemy's country." This decision has stood unquestioned for nearly a century, and must be taken substantially to represent the present state of International Law on the subject.

During the last fifty years the custom of exempting mail steamers under a neutral flag from visit, search or capture has been growing unless they have been known to be conveying military or naval despatches, or have been under reasonable suspicion of carrying contraband. The owners of the great mail lines have too great an interest in maintaining regularity of transit to deliberately lay themselves open to detention. But it is admitted that unlike the United States in 1862, France in 1870, and Britain during the Boer war, Russia so late as 1877 persisted in her right to search all neutral vessels.

The legal advisers and the authorities of the Foreign Offices both in Washington and London are now considering the whole subject of the rights of neutrals, and if they can agree upon a common course of action a pressure almost irresistible will be brought to bear upon the other maritime powers which should prevent the discussion reaching an angry or dangerous stage.

MR. MORLEY.

The most remarkable feature of the political situation in the United Kingdom to-day is the tendency towards an increase of "groups" in the House of Commons. Mr. Balfour remains Premier, because he has the ability to play off section against section on both sides of the House. Reference to the analyses of recent divisions which, if hostile, would have involved resignation or dissolution, prove this fact. Sometimes he has averted defeat merely by the abstention of some section of opponents which has sacrificed principle to expediency. He is the first Premier, since the great Reform Bill, who has made it possible for the term "Opportunist" to be applied to a Ministry. That his strength has lain in the same presence of "groups" within the Opposition is proven by the tepid support Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the official leader of the Opposition, obtains in the lobbies as compared with the enthusiasm which Mr. John Morley evoked from the great gathering at Manchester which welcomed the appearance of Mr. Winston Churchill at his side at the annual meeting of the National Liberal Federation. The etiquette of political life in England has relegated Mr. Morley into a minor position upon the front Opposition bench, but of all its spokesmen upon public platforms he is the only man who goes so directly to the vital issues which separate Tory from Radical, Liberal from Conservative, Free Traders from Fiscal Reformers, Unionists from Home Rulers. He is the very antithesis of the Opportunist.

Mr. Morley ridicules the plea of the Prime Minister that the present House of Commons could not deal with the fiscal question because it had no mandate from the constituencies, by asking what mandate had the present House of Commons to deal with the questions of education or temperance which are so vitally stirring the public mind. His allusions to the Education Bill were punctuated with those cries of "Disestablishment" which show the same yearning for action, and that absence of official leadership which marked the era before the remnants of the party of Palmerston and Lord John Russell coalesced with the Radicals of 1868 under Mr. Gladstone to inaugurate great reforms.

The fact that dissenters from the Ministerialist party should identify themselves with the Morley wing of the Opposition has its significance. He is the one member of the Opposition, sitting in the House of Commons, who is admitted by opponents and friends alike to be governed by belief in the principles of his political faith and best appeals to that sentiment of aversion to Opportunism which has distinguished the political life of the United Kingdom from that of the rest of European nations.

WIRELESS STATIONS FOR THE ST. LAWRENCE.

The Marconi wireless telegraph system is destined to play an important part in perfecting the navigation of the St. Lawrence route to the ocean highways. Arrangements have been made by the Government for the installation of Marconi stations at four points on the St. Lawrence and Belle Isle Straits, which will be completed ready for operations by July or August next. Three other stations will be erected, at Cape Race, Sable Island and the Straits of Canso, as soon as the first four are completed. All these stations must be ready for business by June next year. The signalling will be operated by the Marconi Company under Government control, a stipulated sum being paid yearly for maintenance. Under the contract Government messages will be sent free, commercial business being also carried on by the company, subject to Government regulation of tolls. The company is also bound by the contract to give all possible aid to vessels in distress.

A number of the ocean liners using the St. Lawrence route are already provided with Marconi equipment, and it is expected that ere long the whole St. Lawrence fleet will be similarly equipped.

The completion of this network of communication will be a great aid to mariners on Canada's great ocean artery. The more dangerous points on the route have been selected, and the result of the Government's activity will be that from the moment a ship leaves Montreal until she is well out into blue water her pilot can continue in close touch with the shore. Not only will this be of great value to boats running safely in channel, but should disaster overtake a vessel it will mean that full information can be immediately despatched to the proper authorities, and prompt salvage operations ordered. As matters now stand if a boat goes wrong in a remote district it is exceedingly difficult to get any definite information, and this increases the danger of a complete wreck proportionately as it delays salvage operations.

It is evident that the Government is fully seized of the importance to Canada of safeguarding in every possible way the St. Lawrence route. With the efforts that have lately been put forth to increase the safety of the route it should eventually become so free from disaster as to even avoid the discriminatory tax of the underwriters.

NEEDED PROTECTION.

There may be something in the argument that if a high tariff is good for a country the application of that theory naturally devolves upon those who think so. But in that case it also devolves on those who think so to explain how it happens that under a high tariff things do not go well in the field of industry. There are those, for example, who claim that a tariff like that of the United States would be good for the Canadian workingman, but they cannot be induced to explain how a tariff which produces the American Steel trust takes care of the tens of thousands of workmen who were, a few months ago, turned into the street. Neither can they be got to explain what provision is made for the 75,000 railway employes who have been laid off recently in 10,000 lots. These men doubtless live on, hunting for something to do, finding work at employments to which they are not accustomed. But they could do that without the favor of the all-provident high tariff. So what does it do for them? Or have the 11,000 men laid off the other day by one railway no right to expect that the "protection" was intended for them?

Views of French Press

Le Journal—"We unite with all business men of the city in rejoicing that a decision has been reached to place icebreakers in the channel."

Le Journal—"While we are in favor of the west being populated as soon as possible, we ask that the Eastern provinces should also be assisted. If we remain where we are at present we would soon be dictated to by the west."

Le Canada—"The complaint that Canadian railways are discriminating in their rates will no longer exist once the Grand Trunk Pacific is established. The contract requires that grain should be carried at just as low a rate to Canadian ports as it can be brought to American ports."

Le Canada—"The Canadian Pacific Railway is perhaps in good faith in constructing the Sudbury and Toronto section, but in doing so it has an object in view. It must at all cost shorten its lines in order to compete with the Grand Trunk Pacific, which has the advantage of easier grades and will be more popular than the old line."

The "McGill Five."

The members of this band are all well-known in the city, earnest, manly young Christians, who cannot fail to be of great service in their chosen fields in the Far East.

Mr. Paterson, who goes to Calcutta as secretary of the Y.M.C.A. for High School boys, is a Montreal boy, the son of Mr. W. S. Paterson, of Drummond Street. For many years he has been active in Y.M.C.A. work, first in the Junior department of the city association and later in that at McGill, of which he was president for a year. He will remain in close connection with the city association, as his support is guaranteed by it. He graduated in science in 1901, as golf medallist, and has since acted as a demonstrator and gained the degree of M.Sc.

Mr. Irving, who is appointed Y.M.C.A. travelling secretary for Northern India, is a native of Vernon River Bridge, P.E.I. He graduated with the degree of B.A. in 1902, being known as one of the ablest debaters in the university. Since then he has served as general secretary of the McGill Y.M.C.A. with marked success, much of the credit for the success of the new building fund being due to him, and his support will be provided in part by the members of this association.

Mr. Keith is to assume a specially important position, in charge of the Bible study department of the Y.M.C.A. for all India. He is a native of Smith's Falls, Ont., and graduated in arts in 1899, taking his M.A. in 1900. Since then he has studied theology at Princeton and Montreal, graduating from the Montreal Presbyterian College this spring, with the degree of B.D., and winning the gold medal.

Mr. Lochead, who is appointed to the Canadian Presbyterian Mission in Honan province, was born at North Gower, Ont., both his father and grandfather being ministers. He took his B.A. at McGill in 1901, and has just graduated from the Presbyterian College with the degree of B.D., winning the silver medal and the McCorkill fellowship. He has also been McGill's best long distance runner in recent years, and last fall won the city championship road race.

Mr. Mowatt is the son of Rev. Dr. Mowatt, of Erskine Church, and it is a pleasing event that he goes to Honan as the second missionary to that field supported by his father's congregation. He is a B.A. of McGill and a graduate this year of the Presbyterian College. Like Mr. Lochead, he has also an athletic reputation, gained chiefly on the football field.

Unions, or Socialism?

The "open shop" question has been kept much in the foreground in the industrial disputes of the past month. Opponents of unionism inveigh bitterly against allowing unions to run their business. One is led to believe that unions exist for the purpose of retarding the creation and increase of wealth, whereas their object is to see that it is more widely and fairly diffused. No one will deny that industrial peace is worth fighting for, but there can be no permanent peace subsisting upon a basis of harsh rapacity and abject submission. The real essential of industrial peace is that the parties shall understand and respect each other's aims and objects. Let it be understood that organized labor aims only at obtaining in the shape of wages an honest appreciation of the value of work done, wages such as will allow a comfortable existence, and much bitterness will be eliminated from the struggle. The antipathy to organized labor is in most cases the result of deliberate prejudice and wilful misconception. This continual attempt at destroying trades unionism can only result in forcing socialism upon the country, and if employers would combat socialism let them recognize frankly the aims and objects of trades unions.

THE GUYSBORO ELECTION.

(Pictou Advocate).

The average Tory editor always presumes either on the ignorance or partisanship of his readers, and goes it blind. We assert that no more pure election was ever run in Nova Scotia than the Guysboro election so far as the Liberal party is concerned. On the other hand, not only did the Conservative party send all their available men in Nova Scotia and outside of it into the county, but collections were taken up in all the principal towns in Nova Scotia among Conservatives to corrupt the electorate. A large sum of money was sent from Montreal for a similar purpose, and representatives of the Montreal Star and Le Journal from Montreal came along to buy quarries and fish and sundry other things, and barrels filled with whiskey were sent into the county addressed to prominent Conservatives. Sectional appeals, low canvasses, and lying circulars were all used by the Conservatives. Had they dared to present a petition against Mr. Sinclair's return all this and more could be proven in a cross petition against Mr. Giffin. Now that by their own act the Conservative party prevented an investigation into their methods, they indulge in lying inuendoes and baseless charges to deceive their friends and mislead independent men into the belief that the leopard had changed his spots and that the Conservative party did not engage in a wholesale attempt to corrupt that county. The talk about the Guysboro election and the Liberal party is a little too flimsy, because it comes "a day after the fair."

A SATISFACTORY ARRANGEMENT.

A good story is told of a domestic in a Duluth family who had been a long time in her situation, and who "gave notice" because she was going to be married. The girl who was engaged to take her place sent word to her mistress to be that she would not be able to begin her duties for at least a fortnight after the date on which her predecessor was to be married. The maid was asked by her mistress whether she would agree to postpone the date of the wedding, but she declined to do so, bearing in mind the old adage, "Change the date, change the fate." She said, however, that she didn't mind getting married and coming back for a time, until the other girl could assume her duties, and this was finally agreed upon, as the young man offered no objection. Half an hour after the ceremony the girl was performing her customary duties, and her mistress said to her, smiling:

"And I suppose your husband has gone back to his work, too, Matilda?"

"Oh, no, indeed, ma'am," replied the girl. "He bane gone on his honeymoon."—Cleveland Leader.

Cribbing.

It is not always safe to judge of a man's scholarship by the fact that he has passed sundry examinations and obtained sundry degrees. There are several ways of causing one's name to figure on examination lists, and some of them are, to say the least, questionable. It is interesting to observe amongst a body of students the various ends to which they dedicate their studies and the years passed in the pursuit of a degree. The best student, of course, aims not wholly at obtaining his diploma, or "pigskin," but at preparing himself for his life work, medicine, science, whatever it may be. But a large number, very much too large, in fact, devote themselves entirely to passing examinations which will enable them legally to practice professions for which they may or may not be prepared. In this pursuit there are "specialists" whose originality and cleverness is certainly worthy of a better cause. Impersonation is practised to an extent almost incredible. "Cribs" of a hundred forms are introduced into examination halls and used to advantage. There is the cunningly devised "roller crib," a sheet of notes carefully prepared, and fastened on two cylinders in such a way that the student, by revolving them at his leisure, can find ready answers to any question. Instances are on record of aspiring physicians who entered the examination room with a Gray's Anatomy in their pocket, and a "Gray's" in size much resembles a family Bible. For the man who has specialized on cribbing, detection is almost out of the question. Dexterity and presence of mind are a strong combination. A peculiar fact of the case is that a man of this type will spend months preparing an elaborate "roller," or a book of carefully numbered notes, with an index for ready reference, devoting to this work quite sufficient time in which to prepare the subject adequately if he used legitimate methods. The increased vigilance of presiding examiners, and the heavy penalties attached to the crime of "cribbing" seem to have no better result than to render more scientific and exact the science of evasion.

Up to Date.

Two young people, a young man and a young woman, were standing on a corner talking confidentially. They appeared to be refined and well-bred. He was laughing as I passed them. "You know you look swell in that dress, Molly," I heard him say. The other day, I was down at the east end of St. Catherine Street, and noticed a neat little Chinese laundry, on the right side of the street. The red sign attracted my attention, "A swell Chinese laundry," it read.

Last Saturday noon, a number of boys on the corner of Windsor and St. Catherine were throwing torpedoes at the cars. One of them, after throwing his, which hit the car with an unusually loud report, remarked that "it had gone off swell."

A fine turnout at the "Horse Show became a "swell" rig, the box parties were a "swell" crowd, and everybody had a "swell"time. Some of the exhibitors were "swells," and the horses took the hurdles, according to one young fellow, "swell." In the eternal fitness of things, probably the "swell" crowd, who had a "swell" time, had to thank the "swell" Chinese laundry for their clean linen. Indeed the erroneous idea is taking hold of people that it is a "swell" thing to say "swell."

Now, a descriptive adjective that can be indiscriminately applied to girls, laundries, horses, torpedoes, and men and women, cannot but be of peculiar interest. Does a man produce an excellent story, which same people term "an addition to literature," your up-to-date friend asks you if you have read "that swell book." Does a young woman please him, she is a "swell girl." Does a minister preach an interesting discourse, he remarks that he has heard a "swell sermon," and he feels that the greatest compliment has been paid him if he is included in the list of 'swells."

When one thinks seriously of it, the word seems a god-send to those who have so few words at their command that one must do the duty of many. "Swell" in the slang vocabulary means simply "a little better than the ordinary," and its use does away with such adjectives as beautiful, excellent, splendid, good, lovely, charming and many others. It is used in place of adverbs, when describing an action that is worthy of praise, and becomes a noun in the specification of classes. Surely no grammar of the future would be complete without the following, "Swell is a word which will be found very useful to the student. It may be termed a word of general utility, and is of great assistance to people of small intelligence, as it lessens the necessity of choosing descriptive words. It is used as an adjective in the phrase, "a swell time," as an adverb in the sentence, "at the boating races, John Smith rowed swell," and as a noun in "Mrs. Jones is one of the "swells." The student will find these examples of great help to him in later years, when short of a descriptive expression. One writer has said that the best meaning, the strongest meaning of a word, was its primary one. The primary meaning of "swell" is "to increase in size." From this comes a slangy evolution of its meaning to describe a man who had too much pride, as having a "swelled head." Its downward journey of corruption after this was rapid, and Shakespeare himself might well rise from his grave to hear the production of his immortal "Hamlet" termed "swell." Indeed Shakespeare might get a "swelled head" if he could hear the "swell" remarks of some "swell" people, in regard to his "swell" plays, which are produced so "swell."

Surely, no "tongue as it is spoken," can be so "swell" as the English language, up-to-date.

What the Railways Are Doing.

Movements of Men, Managements and Materials in the Railway and Transportation World.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company has asked the city of Toronto to transfer to it without cost the land owned by the city along the Esplanade from the York street bridge to Yonge street and northerly .o a point 150 feet south of Front street. It proposes in return to tear down the old freight sheds and roundhouse west of the present depot and use the space on both sides for passenger traffic. It will also improve the present Union station and make it equal to almost any similar structure on the continent. Station street will be extended easterly to Yonge stret, striking the Esplanade south of the examining warehouse, and will form the northern boundary of the railway yards. The property sought to be expropriated is now returning to the city an annual rental of about $7,000. This is based on the valuation placed on it twenty-one year ago, and in the estimation of experts it would now be worth double that sum. The majority of the leases expire within a few years. Prominent merchants expressed the opinion that the city would be justified in giving the property to the company.

The New York Central has decided to use electricity for the operation of both suburban and through passenger service from its New York terminal at Forty-second street to Croton, a distance of thirty-five miles on the Hudson division, and to North White Plains, a distance of twenty-five miles on the Harlem division. About eight miles of the Putnam division, which connects with the elevated railroad at 155th street, will also be electrified. The boldness of this project leaves no doubt as to the confidence of the New York Central officers in the ultimate advantages of electricity for suburban traffic such as is handled by that road.

Interesting statistics regarding railway traffic in England have been issued. Exclusive of season ticket holders, of which there were 618,000, the railways last year carried 1,085,325,000 third class passengers, 74,466,000 second class and 35,042,000 first class.

There was a remarkable increase over the previous year in second class passengers, owing to the general cheapening of fares. The length of rails open for traffic was 22,380 miles, compared with 22,152 miles in 190?. A total of 393,703,000 miles were traversed by the trains. The amount earned by the railroads aggregated $554,025,000, an increase of about $10,000,000 over the previous year. The total expenditure is placed at $342,895,000. The authorized capital of the railroads is $6,859,525,000 and the capital paid up is $6,224,165,000.

A mess hall accommodating about 1,000 men has been decided on by the C.P.R. as a supplement to the group of new shop buildings now in course of erection west of the city of Winnipeg. The decision of the company will no doubt be highly appreciated by all the mechanics of the new shops as a boon. The new building will be located in the vicinity of the cluster of the shops now being erected, but definite details on the site and dimensions of the structure will be announced later. The company has changed the plans of the locomotive shops, enlarging them 102 feet in length, which will then make them the second largest on the continent, only the C.P.R. shops at Montreal outrivalling them. Machinery for the new shops has begun to arrive, among which are two steam hammers and several boring machines. Within a day or two the laying and connecting of the steel on the locomotive shops will be begun.

Announcement is made that the Minneapolis & St. Louis road has bought the Des Moines & Fort Dodge, and that the formal transfer will be effective June 2. This will give the St. Louis a direct connection between Minneapolis and Des Moines, and will add about 135 miles to the system. The general offices of the smaller road will be removed to Minneapolis. The Des Moines & Fort Dodge was leased to the Rock Island in 1887 for eighteen years. This will soon expire. The Iowa line has good terminals at Des Moines, and will give the Minneapolis & St. Louis a good position in that city. The present terminus of the Minneapolis & St. Louis is at Angus, about fifty miles north of Des Moines.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha will, on or about June 1, place into service new equipment on its Northwestern Limited, running between St. Paul and Chicago. One of the new features to be included in the new trains will be a turbine electric generating engine which is said to be an improvement on the motor now used by the Omaha and the Northwestern. The turbine engine was recently adopted by the Pennsylvania, and has been found satisfactory by that system. The turbine engines eliminate the vibration caused by the engines now used on the Northwestern's trains, and are said to furnish brighter light and ensure better service. They are placed in the baggage car, and the steam used as the power is derived from the locomotive. A turbine engine may be operated twelve hours for the cost of two tons of coal, or about one cent for each individual light. Another feature will be a unique arrangement of the electric lights in the diners, which will be furnished in the latest fashion. There will be candelabra over each table and new designs will be secured in electric fixtures.

The water supply for the engines of the Grand Trunk has given the officials of that road much cause for consideration, not only in Guelph, but in Stratford and other places. They have now decided that they can pump their own water at a much lower expense in Guelph than the present cost. The result of their deliberations is that they will build a large and up-to-date pump house at Guelph Junction capable of supplying sufficient water for the large mogul engines, which will shortly be placed on the route. Workmen are now engaged in excavating for a well in the vicinity of the Junction and work on the station will start as soon as a good source of water supply has been located. The new pumping house will be built of brick and the latest class of pumps and machinery installed.

The Erie has lately put in service some day coaches which contain an innovation in interior arrangement. The principal change is in the smoking room which is placed in the centre of the car, dividing it into two compartments. Each of the three partition walls of the smoking room contains an ornamental window, 3 in. x 40 in., composed of plate glass set in a hard metal framework. In addition to aiding in making lighter the interior of the smoking room, these ornamental windows relieve the blank effect the exterior of these walls would present without them.

The cars are 70 feet over end sills, are mounted on six-wheel trucks and have seats for sixty-four persons outside of the smoking room. Ten were bought, some being used in the World's Fair service and others between Chicago and New York.

The report of the Michigan Central for the year ending Dec. 31, 1903, shows the largest gross earnings in the history of the company, with a gain of $3,507,118 over 1902. Of this amount, freight earnings contributed an increase of $2,882,103 and passenger earnings an increase of $375,632. In direct contrast to last year, when the number of ton-miles decreased, the report for 1903 shows the large increase of 492,437,775 ton miles. The greater share of this increase had been due to the rapid growth of both local and through freight. The average rate on the former was slightly less during the past year, but the average rate on the latter was the same, as the large increase in the rate of eastbound freight more than offset the large decrease in the rate of westbound freight.

Brim-full of Health and Energy.

Life is worth living when one can awake after a good night's sleep—ready for anything the day may bring. Eye clear; tongue clean; liver active; stomach right; hand steady and every nerve vibrating with that splendid sense of the power of perfect health. Too few enjoy this enviable morning awakening, but can always be depended upon to restore the system to its natural condition and keep you in good sound health. A gentle laxative it helps nature to rid the system of poisonous impurities, stimulates the liver and tones up the digestive organs.

AN ECCENTRIC OWNER.

Thousands of Newcastle citizens witnessed the funeral of the late Mr. George Handyside, a "self-made" millionaire, whose career was one of the most romantic in the annals of commercial life. He began as a cobbler's boy at Berwick, and died in his eightieth year the owner of vast tracts of residential and business property on Tyneside.

His methods were decidedly eccentric, says the News. He thought nothing of buying a whole street of houses at once, demolishing them, and re-erecting them upon plans of his own.

Every Monday he used to perambulate his acres of tenemented property with bell and barrow, collecting rents. Those who answered the summons and brought the money to him received discount in the shape of a few coppers returned. It was his proud boast that he had never employed a bailiff in his life. When imposed upon, he would philosophically say, "I shan't miss the money, and it won't do them any good."

He never asked for rent at a house in which the bread-winner was ill, and in the case of death, his first act was to call and say to the widow, "You shall live here rent free as long as you remain a widow."

Though worth considerably over five million dollars, he turned out at six every morning to labor with his men, whom he paid every night for the work done. From a consumption "cure" he made vast sums of money, but at all his establishments there was the announcement that those who could not afford to buy it would receive it free. At the time of his death he had building schemes on hand which would take twenty years to complete.

His bequests include $500,000 to Newcastle charities.

THE CENSUS AT CAPE COLONY.

In the native territories the total is 632,239, the white population being 15,770. In 1891 the corresponding figures were 487,364 and 10,379 respectively.

In Pondoland and Bechuanaland there are 10,406 whites out of a total of 287,005. The grand total for the whole colony is 2,404,878, as compared with 1,527,224 in 1891.

The city erected several public buildings, among which may be mentioned fire stations, public baths, etc., the cost of which amounted to $145,863, so that a total of $4,094,596 for building purposes was expended during the year, against $3,089,734 for the preceding year, thus giving a surplus of $1,004,862 over last year.

CHAPTER XIII.

At Lorelie's Villa.

ON the following day Beatrice Ravengar, with some misgivings, set out for the purpose of making an afternoon call upon Mademoiselle Riviere, or, to use her rightful title, Viscountess Walden.

Idris accompanied her, nominally as her escort, in reality consumed with the longing to meet Lorelie again. True wisdom told him that he was but tormenting himself in thus seeing her, that the better way was to avoid her altogether; but he found this latter course impossible; he despised himself for his weakness, yet as the moth is attracted by the light so was Idris attracted by the fascinating personality of Viscountess Walden.

On arriving at "The Cedars," Beatrice was received in a manner so gracious and winning that her misgivings were immediately put to flight.

"We are cousins, you and I," said Lorelie, kissing her affectionately," "and we must ever be good friends."

Beatrice, quick to read character, could tell that the other was really desirous of her friendship; and as she recalled her unjust suspicion she felt full of a guilty shame, and was almost tempted to fall upon her knees, confess her fault, and beg for pardon.

Aware of the circumstances under which Lorelie and Idris had last parted, Beatrice viewed their greeting of each other with an interest that was almost painful to her, and knowing that she was watched, the viscountess extended to Idris the dignified courtesy that she might have extended to a stranger, though all the time she was inwardly tormented lest Idris should think her unduly cold. None but herself knew how her heart was pulsating beneath her calm exterior. She was not to be blamed, she argued, for the feeling that had sprung up self-originated within her breast. Action and tongue may be controlled; thought never. So long, then, as she controlled her words and action, what more was required of her? What more? A secret voice seemed to say, "Never to see Idris again!"

They sat in the veranda conversing on various topics, and as Beatrice listened to the charming talk and the sweet laugh of the viscountess, and contemplated her brilliant beauty, she no longer wondered that Idris should have fallen deeply in love with her.

During the course of the conversation some details of Lorelie's history became revealed.

She was now twenty-three years of age, and was born at Nantes in the same year in which her father, Captain Rochefort, had aided Eric Marville to escape from the Breton prison. Her father she had never known, nor had he ever been seen again by Madame Rochefort after his flight in the yacht Nemesis.

When Lorelie was sixteen years of age her mother died, leaving to her daughter an income sufficient, with economy, for her maintenance. Henceforward she had led a solitary independent life, content with her books and music. In her twenty-first year she met Lord Walden at Monaco.

They were married privately, and while the Earl supposed his son to be carrying on the course of study requisite for the diplomatic profession, that son was in reality quietly celebrating his honeymoon on the Riviera.

After a few months of wedded life Lorelie suddenly conceived the purpose of visiting Ormsby, though her husband was opposed to the idea. By preconcerted arrangement she took up her residence at "The Cedars," some weeks prior to Ivar's homecoming, lest their coincident arrival should give rise to suspicion.

And here she remained, concealing her rightful name and rank in compliance with Ivar's wish, and waiting till a favorable opportunity should arrive for making the marriage known to the stern old earl.

Secret contempt stole over Idris at the course pursued by the viscount. A man might be very well content to brave his father's anger and the loss of an estate, however splendid, for such a wife as Lorell. By some subtle process of telepathy his thoughts communicated themselves to her, and knowing that he would not have hesitated at such sacrifice, the viscountess trembled and durst not meet his glance, lest he should read in her eyes more than he ought. Contrary to the proverb the third person on this occasion was not de trop. Lorell felt grateful for the presence of Beatrice, and clung to her as to a protecting angel.

"May I add one to this pleasant trio?" said a new voice, breaking in upon them; and, looking up, Idris caught the suspicious glance of the man whom he was striving not to hate—Lorelie's husband!

Lord Walden coldly acknowledged Idris's presence, smiled at Beatrice, and still keeping up the pretence of being merely a personal friend of Lorelie's, was addressing her as "Mademoiselle Riviere," when Beatrice intervened with, "Why disguise the truth, cousin Ivar? We know that there is no Mademoiselle Riviere now."

"Ah! then that makes it much more pleasant for all concerned."

But though he spoke thus there was on his face a look that showed he was not over-pleased to learn that the truth had become known.

"You may rely upon our secrecy," added Beatrice, thinking to put him at his ease.

"I trust so," replied Ivar, coldly.

He took a seat beside Lorelie, and proceeded to roll a cigarette, remarking as he did so, "You do not object?"

Lorelie assented with a smile that evoked the jealousy of the foolish Idris. If a woman may not smile upon her husband, upon whom may she smile?

Concluding that he and Beatrice were better away, Idris now arose, but Lorelie opposed their departure.

"Going after so short a stay?" she remonstrated. "Now you are here you must remain for the evening, and—and Mr. Breakspear as well," she added, glancing at Idris.

Her manner was so persuasive that the two visitors lacked courage to refuse the invitation. Thinking, however, that the viscount and his wife might wish to exchange confidences, Idris offered his arm to Beatrice, and invited her to a stroll through the grounds that surrounded the villa.

As she withdrew leaning on the arm of Idris and blushing at some compliment of his, Lorelie glanced after them with a touch of envy in her eyes. Her days for receiving such attentions were over; her husband had ceased to be her lover. She could not avoid contrasting the appearance of the two men—Ivar's pallid face and languid air with Idris's healthful bronzed complexion and splendid physique. There was a difference of ten years in their ages; and though Ivar was scarcely twenty, his face bore signs of dissipation—signs which his wife perceived with surprise and sorrow.

No sooner were Idris and Beatrice out of earshot than Ivar turned a frowning countenance upon his wife.

"Why have you told them of our marriage?"

"It was necessary, Ivar."

As she recalled the occasion of its disclosure a faint color tinged her cheek; and Ivar, though not usually a quick-witted person, immediately suspected the cause.

"Necessitated by that fellow's making love to you, I presume?" he said, eyeing her keenly.

"Ivar," she answered quietly, evading his question, "so long as men deem me free——"

"Free! that's a good word."

The Birds Win Two Great Games Before Cheering Holiday Crowds

Things Looking So Well That We Can Begin to See, the Pennant.

NO USE talking, we can begin to see that pennant. A week ago it looked about 3,000,000 miles away. Late yesterday afternoon, as the fans stopped cheering and stood up to go, they distinctly saw it sprouting in centre field.

Four straight, and every one games that would make your hair curl.

Jersey City thinks it has the pennant this year, but that's a little delusion that they can cure themselves of with the following simple remedy, taken before and after meals; shake well before using:

Rx
Go away 3iv
back and 3ii
sit down 3ii
Sig Take freely or Chokum

In fact we are the World Beaters from World Beatersville, and we don't care who knows it.

Four straight!

It was like taking candy from a child.

Nearly 20,000 fans have witnessed these four games, 10,000 the two Jersey City games, 3,500 yesterday morning, and 6,000 in the afternoon.

Tom Martin, the treasurer of the club, has money to throw to the pigeons. Atherton is wearing diamonds and rubies, and by next Saturday Martin will be followed by a dray carrying the club's wad.

"Vote for Laurier, Prosperity and Four Years More of The Full Dinner Pail," said Tom yesterday; "boy, call my automobile."

3 to 2 in the Morning.

The day broke with an almost cloudless sky and a cool breeze that made everybody throw their chests out an additional two inches.

As early as 9.30 the fans began to buy tickets, and by 10.30 there were not many tickets left to buy.

After the Jersey City victories everybody felt like ready money, and the rooters called on the Birds to go in and wipe the Clamdiggers up by 68 to 0.

Umpire Egan put in an appearance in place of Kelly, who had departed to another trouble section of the map.

Egan was only called a robber two or three times, which under the circumstances was a fair showing.

The morning game had smoke on it, and ran ten innings.

Mr. Wagner, brother to the only Hans Wagner, of Pittsburg, and no relation to the celebrated composer or of the builder of the Wagner sleeping cars, was first to bat, and bunted down the foul line.

Wagner's bunt rolled foul by four feet.

"Safe," said Egan.

"W-h-a-t?" said McManus, only that doesn't give any idea of the way Mac said it.

They were sixty feet away, but Mac reached Egan in two jumps.

What Mac said, what Egan said, what the fans said, we don't know, but it was just like a Russian dropping through the roof into a Jap tea house.

After the argument had subsided, Wagner made a break for second, and Armbruster, who was at the bat, interfered with McManus' throw.

Egan called Armbruster out for being too funny and sent Wagner back to first.

That helped some, and Egan and the fans were all ready to eat out of the same dish again.

The First Scalp.

The Birds drew blood right away.

Clancy found one of Hooker's shoots just to his taste and peeled off a double.

He moved over to third on Yeager's out, and scored on a beautiful bunt by Atherton.

Every voice on the stands lumbered up with a yell.

Then the game settled down into fast ball.

The Providence infield played like chain lightning, and the Birds were not letting anything get away either.

In the eighth, however, McManus bumped into the ball for a single and so did Krause.

Clancy then performed the artistic sacrifice, and the fans whooped when Yeager dumped one in the infield and McManus skipped over the plate.

It looked liked money from home. It was 2 to 0.

Providence had one more chance, and they needed that chance in their business.

Conn singled. That was not so worse, but a cheap perso by the name of Daly took a wallop at the ball, and it started for the Ogilvie flour mills on the canal.

This tied the score, and the fans were not feeling so gay.

The Clamdiggers nearly scored in the tenth, but fast work by McManus cut two down at third base.

Then for us.

With two out and the rooters feeling like a funeral procession, Krause singled. So did Clancy.

Then along comes Yeager with a peacherine over second base.

Krause ran as if he was being chased by an escaped lion from the circus, and as he got over the plate a second before the ball arrived, with the winning run, the rooters let out a wild yell and hustled home for lunch.

Afternoon Game.

JUST one crowd exceeded that of yesterday and that was the one that saw Buffalo play here the year Dooley pulled off the championship. At that there was only a difference of perhaps 200 people.

The stands were black yesterday and there was an overflow out in right field.

This same right field overflow did a funny act just as the game closed.

The management presented all the fans who had to sit on the grass with cushions.

When the last man went out about 300 cushions suddenly shot up in the air.

The crowd spread across the field and a minute later there was a first-class cushion fight.

Enter: A member of the Westmount police force.

He got in the centre of the crowd and suddenly a cushion hit him on the back of the head.

As he turned, another landed on the same spot.

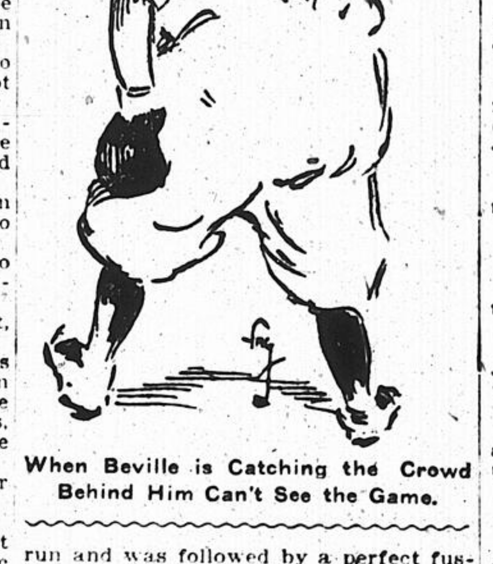
Two seconds later he was smothered with them.

The crowd on the stands stopped to watch the proceedings and roared.

Cushions by the hundred were hurled at him, and, like the Russians at Michaelondorfirtchski, he did the hasty retreat act.

He made for the nearest gate on the run and was followed by a perfect fusilade, just as he ducked out of sight.

It was a joyous crowd all right.



When Beville is Catching the Crowd Behind Him Can't See the Game.

A Juicy Start.

For the game Providence presented Catcher Beville, who has played this year with the New York Americans.

Beville has grand piano legs, but on his showing yesterday that's about all we can say for him.

In the box Providence had Viau, their star pitcher.

Viau also has grand piano legs, and that's all we can say for him.

Viau was easy picking on the first.

The picking was a little harder later on.

Bill Clancy was first up and Viau couldn't see the plate, so Bill threw his bat away and moved off in the direction of first.

Then Viau threw one at Yeager. It's our private belief that Yeager didn't sprain himself trying to get out of the way of the ball, and consequently it plunked him on the shoulder.

Then Clancy monkeyed off second, drew a throw from Beville and stole third amidst great cheers.

Atherton was on deck with a corking single and both scored, Atherton scoring later on Hartman's neat sacrifice and Joyce's single.

That lasted us for the game, but Providence couldn't do as well in the whole nine innings.

A Funny Play.

Kid Luyster, out in right field, was very much to the good during the ceremonies and pulled off a couple of star plays.

There was a funny one on Viau.

That illustrious pitcher hit a clean single out to right and started to move towards first like an ice-cart going backwards.

Luyster ran in on the gallop and picked the ball up and threw Viau out by a mile.

Only once before has that play been pulled off here, and that was on Eddie Henry, our old third baseman.

Henry never wore any medals for getting down to first in fast time, and one day he was nailed on a clean single, just like Viau's.

Viau got the merry laugh over the play yesterday, and he went back to the bench with a look on his face that would curdle an ice-chest.

Luyster's next great play was a catch of a low drive by Aubrey.

He smothered the ball close to the ground while on the run and then threw to Clancy, doubling up Mr. Connors, who strayed too far away from the bag.

The Clamdiggers looked dangerous once or twice, but Adams pitched pretty nice ball, and it was not until the seventh that there was anything doing in the scoring department.

Then they got one.

They were easy in the last spasm, however, and, as Clancy got his hooks on Wagner's foul, ending the game, the crowd got up and howled.

Peanuts, 5 cents, as per usual.

ITS ATWATER PARK.

The committee in The Herald's Name Competiton for the Baseball Park, has decided on the name of "Atwater Park."

The season ticket goes to Mr. J. F. Davison, of St. Peter St. Four more gentlemen guessed the same name, but Mr. Davison's ballot was in first.

Over 5,000 ballots were received.

Notes of the Game.

Cosgrove has been found .He is playing with his home team near Pittsburg. The Montreal club has suspended him, so he can't play with any of the leaguers.

Hoffman was still lame after his recent accident.

One rooter told Tom Martin after the game that in his expert judgment this is the best team Montreal has ever had.

There is a new wire netting over the grand stand. A ball went through the old screen the other day, and one of the rooters got a nasty bang in the jaw.

Sharp fielding by the Clamdiggers kept the score down in the morning game.

Daly's home run which tied the score came within a foot of going foul.

One fan called Clancy Dooley by mistake. The rest of the bunch told him to wake up.

In the morning game Armbruster was called out for interfering with a throw McManus made to second to catch Wagner. The latter was sent back to first.

Aubrey and Rock did great work in the morning game. They were all over the place.

That was the first full game that Krause was allowed to pitch. He is only twenty years old and is a comer.

When Daley put the ball over the fence, tying the score, the fans were too mad to give him much of a hand clap.

Garrison finish in the morning all right, all right.

Now for Baltimore.

Yeager is full of ginger, and is on his toes all the time.

Montreal took the heart out of the Jersey City bunch, and then Rochester went at them.

All we want is a second baseman and a hitting outfielder, and then a climb up towards the rag.

Great crowds.

Providence to-day, then Baltimore on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ever since the black kitten arrived the team has had great luck. It is taken out to the bench in its little basket every day.

Umpire Egan says: "You can bet that any man who proves a frost in the big leagues is not going to turn out a star in the Eastern."

Only a few more steps and we'll pass that Toronto bunch.

Daly, the Providence first baseman, is an old National Leaguer. He is still a fine player.

A team from the establishment of Messrs. Caverhill, Learmont & Co. gave the inmates of the Verdun Asylum the pleasure of seeing a good game of baseball yesterday afternoon. The home side, consisting of senior employes and one patient, who pitched successfully, was captained by Dr. Forrest Weatherhead, and gained a victory by 21 to 8.

Mascottes Won Out.

Mascotte defeated All-Montreal yesterday afternoon in an eleven innings game. There was lots of hard hitting and the game deserved better patronage. The score follows:

Polo Player Killed.

Yale, Conn., May 25.—The triumph of Princeton over Yale Saturday afternoon at Van Cortlandt Park in the first intercollegiate polo game ever played in the United States, cost the life of one of the players.

Harry D. Babcock, Jr., of the Yale team, died early on Sunday morning at his father's residence, from the effects of an accidental blow on the right temple with a heavy polo mallet.

The injury sustained by Babcock was believed to have been slight—a belief shared even by the victim and the members of his family up to an hour of his death.

The fatal accident occurred in the second half of the hotly contested game, when the Yale men, with characteristic courage, were making a final rally in the face of almost certain defeat. W. G. Devereux, captain of the Princeton team, whose mallet struck the fatal blow, was following the ball down the field at the top of his pony's speed.

The rolling ball stopped within six feet of the goal posts, with Devereaux sweeping down upon it like the wind for a stroke that would add another point to victorious Princeton's score.

As Devereux's mallet flashed up, missing the ball by a hair's breadth, it struck the plucky Yale player on the right temple. But Babcock was not knocked from his mount. The startled spectators saw him reel in the saddle as his pony plunged on between the goal posts, and when he slipped to the ground and slowly stretched himself at full length it looked like a voluntary act. But as a matter of fact, young Babcock—plucky to the core—had clung to his seat until consciousness left him.

Babcock chatted with his family, retired to rest unaided and died next morning.

NATIONALS PLAY OPENING MATCH

The Capitals Beat Them Yesterday by Five Goals to Three After a Good Game.

The Nationals unexpectedly went down before the Capitals yesterday to the tune of 5 goals to 3. Though beaten, they were not disgraced, for they kept the winners going all the time, and might with a little luck have drawn level. This was especially the case in the last quarter, when they made a determined attack on the Capitals' goal. Cattarinich scored as the result of the prettiest effort of the day. The ball was carried down the field and passed and repassed repeatedly until the net was found.

Though the match was only a friendly one, there was a good attendance to see the opening parade of the Nationals, and they were treated to an excellent game. Both teams were in better condition than is usually the case so early in the season.

The Capitals were slower than the Nationals in getting down to business, though they opened the scoring, "Bones" Allen doing the trick after about eighteen minutes play. The second quarter was splendidly contested, and was much in favor of the home team, who scored twice. Unfortunately for them, the Caps drew level when the quarter was almost over.

In the third quarter the Capitals had things pretty much their own way. Allen and Roberts both scored, and this spelled defeat for the home team. They made a plucky effort to save the game in the last period, but it was not to be, and the Capitals won by 5 goals to 3.

The game was pleasantly contested. Mr. Tom O'Connell ruled off a couple of men at the start, and there was no trouble after that. The Capitals promise to be a good team. There were several new faces among them, but the recruits performed well. Allen, the old Cornwall player, was the most prominent of them. The Nationals, when they are a little more shaken together, will also make the best of them hustle.

The teams were:

Brantford Beat Chippewas.

Brantford, May 25.—(Special.)—The opening game of lacrosse in this city was played yesterday afternoon between the Chippewas and Brantfords. The local team won by six goals to three, but the play was featureless and even listless in certain periods which were very dull. The cause is attributed to a lack of practice on the part of both teams.

The Chippewas scored their three goals in the first quarter in quick succession. Brantford got one in the first, three in the third and two in the fourth. The Chippewas home was a fast organization in the opening stage. Their defence was steady throughout.

Undoubtedly the Brantford home will be the most brilliant in the C.L.A. in the course of a month's practice. Degan plays well at centre. The home field with Taylor, Doyle and Dade is swift and daring. Cain fills outside home in a brilliant manner, and at inside Powers, late of Ottawa, is expected to be a marvel. The line up was as follows:

Brantford—Goal, Hess; point, Dowling; coverpoint, Brown; defence field, Finlayson, Hamburg, Neeley; centre, Degan; home field, Taylor, Doyle, Dade; outside home, Cain; inside home, Powers.

Chippewas—Goal, Camplin; point, Pitcher; coverpoint, Griffiths; defence field, Jeffreys, Selby, Ross; centre, Kelly; home field, Moran, T. O'Connor, Durkin; outside home, Adamson; inside home, M. O'Connor; referee, Crowley, of Brantford.

The goals scored were as follows: 1, Chippewas, 3 minutes, Durkin; 2, Brantford, 3 minutes, Cain; 3, Chippewas, 3 minutes, O'Connor; 4, Chippewas, 7 1-2 minutes, O'Connor; 5, Brantford, 3 minutes, Cain; 6, Brantford, 3 minutes, Powers; 7, Brantford, 4 minutes, Degan; 8, Brantford, 1-2 minute, Powers; 9, Brantford, 7 minutes, Dade.

Sherbrooke Won Easily.

Sherbrooke, May 25. (Special.) — The opening lacrosse match of the local season took place yesterday afternoon between Hochelaga and Sherbrooke. From the attendance it is evident that the interest in lacrosse has been revived, for the gate receipts were the largest in the last two years. The local team have not had an opportunity, owing to the wet weather, to get into form, but they showed yesterday afternoon that with a little more practice they will give a good account of themselves in the league matches. All through the game they outclassed their opponents. They had the speed and ability to shoot which Hochelaga seemed to lack. The visitors very seldom had a look in, while Sherbrooke kept most of the play around the Hochelaga goal. There were flashes of good combination work by both teams, showing that they were in need of practice.

Sherbrooke scored the first game within a minute after play was started, and succeeded in placing other five games, while Hochelaga did not succeed in getting one through the poles. The game was clean and there was no rough play. Mr. H. Lougheed, of Quebec, acted as referee, but his work was easy.

The line-up was as follows:

Hochelaga.	Position.	Sherbrooke.
D. Thompson	Goal	J. Byrd
J. Muir	Point	J. Drapeau
H. Scott	C. Point	J. Price
W. Jarrett	1st defence	W. Sutherland
E. Hayvren	2nd defence	D. Maguire
H. Demerse	3rd defence	C. Minard
H. Dupras	Centre	G. Parsons
S. McClinchy	3rd home	M. Dore
W. Liston	2nd home	G. Povey
C. Hanna	1st home	F. Povey

D. Shea	Inside home	W. Humphrey

The umpires were Messrs. O. Maguire and J. Davis.

Cornwall Celebration.

Cornwall, Ont., May 25—The Cornwall Lacrosse Club held their annual celebration yesterday. The programme on this occasion was a field day of sports. In the morning the Iroquois High School and Cornwall Commercial College teams played a drawn game, neither teams scoring. In the afternoon a programme of Caledonian sports and a drill by the Public School Cadets took place at the lacrosse grounds and was attended by a large crowd of people.

The Shamrocks and Nationals will play an exhibition game next Saturday.

The Crescents of New York defeated the Greater New York Irish Athletic Association at Bay Ridge by 12 goals to 2.

St. Catharines Athletics beat Toronto University yesterday by 5 to 0. The Athletics scored one each in the second and third quarters, and during the fourth piled up three more in rapid succession.

FOOTBALL.

Quakers Can Play.

Peterboro, May 25.—(Special.)— The Quakers of Peterboro, won their third consecutive victory in the Midland Football League at Harwood, defeating the latter team by two to nil, in the fastest game of the season. The play was very evenly contested throughout, the losers having the ball in the Quakers' territory fully one half the time.

The Norwood team won from the Old Country Wanderers of this place by a score of 1—0, in a Midland League game. The visitors were the aggressors throughout and had all the better of the play, but fine work by the Wanderers backs, especially Whitlow, kept the score down. The winners' forward line was light, but played well together and were faster than their opponents. The losers' forward line was the weak part of their team.

A practice match has been arranged between the M.A.A.A. football team and the new Montreal Rangers Club on the M.A.A.A. grounds to-morrow evening. Kick-off at 6.30.

YACHTING.

Opening of the Season.

The formal opening of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club season took place yesterday at Dorval, and there was a good attendance of members. There was one race slated for the afternoon, but owing to accidents and misunderstandings it was left unfinished.

Four boats were entered in the two-rater class, but only two of them got over the line, these two being Iris, belonging to Mr. F. W. Barlow and the Zela, owned by Mr. Angus A. Macdonald. There apparently was some misunderstanding regarding the signals. The yachts got away to the outer mark all right, but on making the turn the Iris capsized and the crew were struggling in the water. However, they managed to clamber on the top of the boat which was floating keel up. Sails were immediately hoisted on the Thorella II., and Commodore Finley and some others were soon at the scene of the accident. They took the Barlow boys on board and the Iris was towed to Dorval island.

The race was therefore called off. The wind was blowing a stiff breeze at the time and if the rescue had not been so promptly effected results might have been much more serious.

ROWING--AQUATICS.

Probably a Sail Over.

London, May 25.—The regatta committee of the Royal Yacht Cquasron received on Sunday a formal challenge from Commodore Morton Plant, of Larchmont Yacht Club, for the Cape May Cup, with his schooner yacht Ingomar.

The Times yesterday morning thinks it would be ridiculous to sail King Edward's yacht, the Britannia, especially with the present cut down rig against a fast schooner of the Ingomar type, and says it is by no means certain that the King will defend the cup with the Britannia.

When the Britannia was sold, says the Times, the cup ought to have been returned, but the matter was overlooked owing to the death of Secretary Rys, of the Royal Yacht Squadron, and the fact that the King repurchased the Britannia does not seem to effect this question.

Commodore Plant courteously agreed to race in August next and considering all the circumstances it will probably be a sail-over.

MAT AND RING.

Paid $10 a Ticket.

New York, May 25.—One of the fastest prize fights brought off here since the Horton law was repealed has just occurred in a dance hall on the upper East Side.

Larry Temple, colored, and Charles Haghey, local heavyweights, were the principals, and the negro secured the decision at the end of the ten rounds. Haghey's clever defence alone saved him from being knocked out, although he had all the better of the fight for five rounds.

A big crowd paid $10 a ticket to see the fight, after having journeyed to the entrance of the darkened hall in cabs to avoid the police.

CRICKET CREASE.

Montreal Beat Westmount.

Montreal beat Westmount yesterday at the M.A.A.A. grounds by 72 runs. Two innings were played, and the scores were: Montreal, 162; Westmount, 90. The best innings of the day was that of the Rev. Plumptre. He got his 34 in brilliant style. Of the others, Smith, Moberly and Chevalier all reached double figures.

Nash with the ball was the hero of the day. He had 11 wickets for 38 runs. McClure's excellent work in the long field helped him considerably. Motherwell had 7 wickets for 37 runs. On the Westmount side G. A. Shortrede was top scorer, while D. T. Gough and F. S. Holliday batted well.

ROD AND GUN.

Westmount's Big Meeting.

Stocks and Money.

STOCKS ARE DEAD BUT THEY HOLD FIRM—THE GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM CHEERS THE "STREET" WITH AN INCREASE

There was absolutely no accumulation of orders over the holidays, and the loca market this morning opened flatter than a pancake.

The buying was practically nil, and brokers are taking what little encouragement they can get out of the fact that there is little or no disposition to sell, and that prices keep reasonably firm.

News from Wall street was not particularly encouraging, but here and there brokers regaled Montreal offices with the tip that stocks were a buy for a short turn.

Consols opened lower, and created a little talk, but later on London reported an improvement all through the list, and consols recovered the early loss, selling at 90 3-8.

One wire from New York said: "The selling yesterday and to-day has not been good. I think the decline is over, and believe the market will have a sharp rally."

Certainly an encouraging feature here is the fact that the Grand Trunk is again out with an increase, the gain for the third week of May being $47,905. Grand Trunks were a little stiffer in London on this announcement, the first preferred again going over par.

As bearing upon C.P.R. stock it may be chronicled that (according to report) in the absence of any big grain shipments from the West, the Canadian Pacific Railway Atlantic Steamship Co. has just closed an important contract, which is the first of its kind ever made in Canada, and which will make up for the lightness of the wheat shipments. This report goes on: "The contract calls for the shipment of 15,000 tons of lead ore from the Kootenay district of British Columbia to England. The company in this way will be able to fill up a great deal of the space occupied in other seasons by grain and will be able to bring the tonnage well up to the same level as last year. The company has also made contracts for the shipment of large quantities of copper ore from the Sudbury district."

Pacific was also rather on the firm side this morning, but very dull here, only twenty-five shares changing hands at 117 1-8.

There were sales of Street Railway at 209 to 209 1-2, while Trinidad sold at 73. There was also a sale of twenty-five Mackay common at 22 3-4.

Ogilvie Milling bonds sold at 114 to 115, small blocks changing hands.

G. T. R. Earnings.

The Grand Trunk Railway System earnings from the 15th to the 21st May were:—

1904	$695,828
1903	647,923
Increase	$47,905

The sales to noon in Wall street today were 140,000 shares.

Forget's Cable.

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quoted Grand Trunk first at 100½, second at 84½, third at 37¾, Canadian Pacific at 120⅜, Anaconda at 3¾, and Hudson Bay 40.

The Features.

A noon wire to Mr. C. D. Monk said: Market shows hardening tendency in many directions. B.R.T. shows strength on the big earnings reported. Steel holds well. Market dull and steady at noon.

Copper Settlement.

Butte, Mont.—Story from Boston and New York about settlement of Heinze Amal. trouble created considerable excitement until T. W. Lawson was quoted as authority for the story, when all interest in report ceased.

Butte Statement.

Butte, Mont.—The Butte & Boston has filed annual statement showing assets $4,124,814 and liabilities $1,990,242 excluding capital stock.

Noon Letter.

A noon letter to E. & C. Randolph said:—The market opened off somewhat lower this morning, as the newspapers, and especially the New York Herald, were filled with bearish news and detailed statements of the number of men in the United States that were at present being discharged by railroads, figuring up a total of about 7 per cent. of the entire railroad force of the country. There was not, however, much liquidation on the decline, and the room found that hammering did not bring out much stock. The market held firm at the lower level, and at present shows a tendency to advance. It looks on the whole pretty well sold out, and as if bad news would not produce much effect. It is now very dull and trading almost entirely professional.

London Closing.

London, 2 p.m.—Anaconda, 3¾ and 72½; Atchison, 70⅝ and 68¾; C.P.R., 120⅜ and 117⅜; St. Paul, 143½ and 139¾; Erie, 23⅝ and 23; Erie 1st, 59¾ and 58¼; Ill. Cen., 133 and 129½; Louisville & Nashville, 110¼ and 107½; N.Y. Sen., 117¾ and 114¾; Penna., 58¼ and 113; Reading, 21⅞ and 42½; Southern Pac., 46¾ and 45½; Union Pac., 84⅞ and 82⅝; U. S. Steel, 9⅜ and 9⅛; U. S.Q., 54⅜ and 53.

A Market Opinion.

A wire to Robert Meredith & Co. said:—"Bear traders are hesitating, not wishing to sell stocks unless there are some signs of liquidation in order to rebuy. On any rally stocks will advance further than many think. On the other hand should this market remain dull and heavy in tone, drives will be made against Steel pfd. and Eries.

"Lazard Freres will ship $2,250,000 in gold bars to Paris to-morrow.

"Canadian Pacific closed in London at 117⅜."

Coal Bonds.

Eighty-three one thousand dollar bonds and twenty-four five thousand dollar bonds of the Dominion Coal Company have been drawn for payment.

Le Roi Mine.

The April report on Le Roi mine includes the following:

"Shipped from the mine to the Northport smelter during the past month 3,720 tons of ore from all stopes, which show the average value of the mine is $8.17 per ton; 430 tons shipped from the 1,350 ft. level showed $4.75 per ton. No profit at all has been made for several months. The amount realized from the treatment of the furnace bottoms is $85,000. Owing to faulty sampling and assaying, excessive valuation $335,000 has been made in the assets. Four furnaces running. We are now shipping 200 tons of picked ore per day.—J. H. Mackenzie." "I have been only three days; have not had time to thoroughly investigate. After further investigation and seeing S. F. Parrish who is expected to arrive here towards the end of this week, I shall be able to better advise.—A. J. McMillan."

Wheat.

H. V. Jones, of Watson & Co., wires: "I get very bullish private reports from Ohio and Indiana and feel you can safely proceed on my estimate of 600,000,000 bushels wheat crop as maximum. I do not put Kansas as high as the enthusiasts. Three or four states will not raise bread and seed.

The Bond Market.

The bond market does not show the pessimistic feelings prevalent in stocks. In the long run the stock market obeys the bond market, and sooner or later there should be a realization that great portions of the stock list have been unduly depressed. It is even reasonable to predict that with average crop progress during the summer business in Wall Street will be fully up to the average, and that ruling prices will be as much above those at present as prices are now below those ruling at the beginning of the year.

BALLOON ASCENSION AT TORONTO.

Toronto, May. 24.—Victoria Day was celebrated here this afternoon by a grand balloon ascension at Hanlon's Point in the presence of 100,000 people. Prof. Stewart, who made the ascension, was completey successful, and after rising to a great height, he gracefully broke away, with his parachute, and reached terra firma without injury. Colonel Collins Young, the smallest man in Canada, was present. The ascension took place in the interest of "Bobs" plug chewing tobacco, and the balloon bore the words, "Save the Snowshoe tags," as a reminder to chewers to take their tags to the premium department and receive valuable presents. Souvenirs were showered from the balloon during the ascension, and these souvenirs included envelopes containing a certain number of "snowshoe tags," as a starter.

"Street" Gossip.

THE GOOD AND BAD POINTS IN PRESENT FINANCIAL SITUATION

In the general security situation there have been some favorable developments. Amongst these are: (1) The cheerful reports from the Canadian Northwest as to the seeding under excellent conditions of what promises to be an increased wheat crop acreage; (2) the continued inpouring of thousands of immigrants from Europe and the United States, (3) the increased Canadian railway earnings, (4) the better bank clearings at Toronto, Winnipeg, (5) the good weekly statement of the Bank of England, (6) the success attending the flotation of security issues in New York, Paris and London.

On the other hand there are some less desirable features in the situation. Among these are (1) the reports as to the failure of the winter wheat crop in Ontario, (2) the uncertainty as to the crop in the United States, (3) the apparent slackening off in the iron and steel trade across the line, (4) the decline in United States Steel stocks, and the rumors that the dividend on the preferred will be reduced, (5) the imminence of the American Presidential election, (6) the exceedingly heavy gold exports from New York, and the great aggregate of New York bank loans, the persistent demands of the railway corporations on the American money markets, the reported imminence of numerous security issues in London, the possibility of further Russian and Japanese borrowing, and the uncertainty as to the effect of these several features on the money situation. It is well under the circumstances that funds are comparatively plentiful in London and Paris, and that South Africa continues to pour out its stream of gold for the replenishing of the world's credit.

CANADIAN BANK STOCKS ARE IN LIMITED SUPPLY

A tendency toward appreciation in some of the Canadian bank stocks some days ago drew attention to that department of the market. Several of the issues are quoted considerably lower than they were a year ago, the price shrinkage being, of course, in part, attributable to sympathy with the worldwide depression in securities. These stocks, with a few minor exceptions, carry dividends of from 5 to 10 per cent., and at current figures yield the investor a return of from 3.80 to 5.30 per cent. on his money. It is perhaps doubtful, however, if any considerable quantity of these securities could be picked up at anything like the present nominal figures. Canadian bank stocks, being the most desirable on the list, are apparently pretty well held by actual investors, in consequence of which the floating supply is generally rather limited.

JAMES J. HILL GIVES OUT A BEARISH TALK

The N.Y. Herald prints an interview with Mr. J. J. Hill upon the subject of business reaction, in which he speaks thus: The discharge of railway employes is simply the outward sign of a condition which has been gradually growing more and more apparent for the last year. General business is contracting. It was first apparent, and is now most evident in manufacturing enterprises. The railroads are public carriers, and if the public has nothing to carry the railroads can do no business. As traffic decreases so railroad earnings must shrink unless rates are raised. In the present instances traffic has decreased, but rates have remained stationary. The necessary corollary of such a proposition is a reduction of the working forces. The railroads are dropping men simply because there is not work enough for all. Why are the railroads carrying less freight than a year ago? Because the demand for the products of the United States is not commensurate with the supply. To regain a market for our products prices must come down.

When asked if he thought a bountiful harvest would save the day, Mr. Hill said: "It would help, that is all."

PROGRESS OF THE LATEST "SOO" SCHEME

The amount of funds now on deposit in the Fidelity Trust Company of Philadelphia, the Morton Trust Company of New York, and the Imperial Bank of Canada to the credit of the reorganization committee of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, is said to fall short of $2,000,000. Information as to the total deposits in New York and Canada is difficult to obtain, but the total amount held by the Fidelity Trust Company is set at about $1,850,000. These figures, if correct, indicate that considerably less than 70 per cent. of the stock has been assented, since the assessments from 700,000 shares of stock alone would foot up $2,100,000.

Instead of $850,000 standing subscribed to the underwriting, as was approximately the case last December, the Canadian Improvement Company will probably not receive aid from this source to the extent of more than $750,000 or $800,000, half of which was paid in last Tuesday.

The recent call upon the underwriters for an additional 25 per cent. of their subscriptions has not been generally understood. This call only affected the individual underwriters, referred to above, whose aggregate subscription is understood to be something less than $800,000.

One of the latest stockholders to pay his assessment was a gentleman who did so on 24,000 shares, his cheque therefore amounting to $72,000.

COTTON WAS EASIER; THE DAY'S GOSSIP

The cotton market was easy again to-day. Liverpool closed easy, one point up on near and 2 points up on distant months. Gossip over Judson & Co.'s wire said:

Price was reported to be a free seller of July.

An evening paper published the following:—A prominent Wall Street operator is said to be short 100,000 bales, not one of which is hedged.

The bears say the Government report next month will place conditions at between 85 and 90. The bulls say that the weekly reports do not justify a report of over 80. Many believe the figures will be between 76 and 79.

Theo. H. Price, it is said on good authority, had planned a big bear raid to follow the announcement of the weekly weather report. The report, however was so very bullish that it knocked the plan in the head.

Market Reports.

NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE DAIRY MARKETS

Improved Feeling in Cheese and Butter is Maintained—Prices Steady.

Cheese—The market continues quiet to-day as regards the spot situation, and orders are scarce at present prices. The market is clearly a waiting one. The high prices prevailing in the country are understood to be due to the light make. No new business is reported in an export way, and quotations are nominally unchanged. In spot values from second hands a nominal range is as follows: Ontario colored, 8 1-2c to 8 5-8c; do. white, 8 3-8c to 8 1-2c; Townships, 8 1-8c to 8 1-4c; Eastern colored, 8c to 8 1-8c; do. white, 7 3-4c to 7 7-8c.

HOGS AND PROVISIONS

The market for fresh-killed abattoir dressed hogs was firm with a good demand from butchers and sales were made at $7.25 to $7.50 per 100 lbs.

The provision market is firm in tone under a good demand from foreign and local sources. Prices are steady. We quote: Heavy Canada short cut mess pork in tierces, $26; selected heavy Canada short cut boneless in barrels, $18.50; heavy Canada short cut mess, $18; Canada shot cut back pork, $17.50; heavy Canada long cut mess pork, $17; heavy Canada short cut clear pork, $16.50; heavy flank pork, $16.50; light Canada short cut clear pork, $15.

Smoked meats—Hams, 6 to 28 lbs., 10 1-2c to 13c; boneless hams, rolled, 12 1-2c; English boneless breakfast bacon, 13c; boneless spiced roll bacon, 9 1-2c; Wiltshire bacon, 50 lb. sides, 12 1-2c; Windsor bacon, backs, 12 1-2c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE

Beans—The tone of the market was about steady, but the volume of business passing is small. In a jobbing way sales of choice primes were made at $1.40 to $1.45; and primes at $1.35 per bushel, while car lots of choice primes were quoted at $1.35, and primes at $1.30 per bushel.

Honey—The demand shows no improvement; in consequence the market remains quiet and steady: We quote as follows: Extracted white clover honey, 8 1-2c to 9c per 10-lb tin, and at 7c to 7 1-2c in 300-lb keg; buckwheat honey, 6c to 7c, and white clover comb, 13c to 13 1-2c.

Maple Product—Only a small trade was done and prices show no change. We quote as follows: Syrup, in 15 gallon casks, 5 1-4c to 5 1-2c per lb.; in tins, 55c to 60c per wine measure, and 70c to 75c for Imperial and Beauce sugar, 8c to 10c per lb.

Potatoes—The trade continues quiet, owing to the fact that buyers are generally inclined to operate in a limited way at present. The offerings are not large, and prices rule steady at 90c per bag for choice stock and at 85c for ordinary, in car lots, and at $1 per bag in a jobbing way.

ADVANCE IN SUGAR

Sugar — Local sugar refiners this morning marked up prices on all grades of sugar 5c per 100 lbs.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING AMONG IRISH POOR

Member of Congested Districts Board Points Out Result of Their Work.

W. J. D. Walker, Inspector of Industries and an officer of the Congested Districts Board of Ireland, is at the Windsor. To The Herald he spoke in an interesting manner of the work being done by the board in the west of Ireland in improving the condition of the Irish poor by education.

Mr. Walker says the present state of affairs in Ireland is much better than the agricultural conditions of the congested districts a few years ago. Many agriculturists have been enabled to purchase their holdings of land and consequently they now work with greater energy to keep their farms in good condition.

The board has also established schools in different parts of these districts and in these schools the girls are taught lace-making, cooking and general household duties. Previously they had labored on their farms. Consequently there has been great improvement in the condition of the girls. In the same schools the boys are taught the elements of education and also something of carpentry and glazing. As a result they are handy around the farm and are much more useful than they were before.

The Roman Catholic clergy are cooperating nobly with the board to bring about improvement in the conditions and they all seem to realize that the men at the head of the movement have Ireland's best interests at heart.

Mr. Walker is en route to St. Louis, where a large display of hand-made Irish lace will be exhibited.

SHIPS MUST SLOW UP PASSING THREE RIVERS

Harbor Commissioners Fear Damage Otherwise—New Elevator to be Finished in Ten Days.

Complaints have been been made by the Harbor Commissioners of Three Rivers in regard to the high speed at which ocean steamships pass through the harbor. It was feared that serious damage would result sooner or later unless this practice was prohibited and a request was made that orders be issued to captains to slacken speed when passing Three Rivers. A copy of the letter voicing the complaint will be sent to the Shipping Federation and to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

In reply to a communication from the Harbor Commissioners the Steel Storage Elevator and Construction Company wrote that with the exception of the electric machinery and light wiring, the elevator at Three Rivers was complete. In about ten days this work will also be finished.

The contractors also wrote that they would protect the commisisoners against any legal trouble over the claim made by J. Fleming of Belleville, in regard to alleged infringement of his patent in putting up the marine leg without consulting him.

The Deputy Minister of Marine wrote, enclosing a copy of a letter recived from Mr. J. L. A. Guibeau, of Montreal, suggesting the blasting of a portion of Ile Ronde, in order that navigation might be opened earlier in the spring. But as the Government commission of a few years ago claimed that this would have no material effect in allowing the ice to move out more freely, no action was taken.

GRAIN MARKETS HERE AND ELSEWHERE

Local Grain Business Quiet Following the Holiday—Cables Inactive.

Business was very quiet to-day, following the holiday yesterday, and there was nothing new to note in any line of grain. The cable enquiry was not active, and the few bids received did not show any improvement over those received earlier in the week. In oats the feeling was steady, with sales of car lots of No. 2 white at 38 1-2c to 39c, and No. 3 at 37 1-2c to 38c per bushel ex store. There was no change in other lines of coarse grains, for which the demand was slow. Buckwheat was quoted at 59c, peas at 71 1-2c to 72c, No. 2 rye at 62c to 62 1-2c, No. 2 barley at 50c, No. 3 extra at 49c, and No. 3 at 48c per bushel afloat.

Wheat in Chicago opened a little easier and then became firmer. The options were quoted as follows:

EAST END CATTLE MARKET

Trade was rather slow to-day at the East End cattle market owing to the large run of offerings, and a rather light demand from local butchers. Receipts included 500 head of butchers' cattle, 2,000 calves, 400 hogs, 50 sheep and 100 lambs.

FLOUR, FEED, HAY

Flour—Business shows a slight improvement under a good demand from all sources. Prices are steady. We quote: Manitoba spring wheat patent, $4.90; Manitoba strong bakers', $4.60; winter wheat patents, $4.85 to $5; straight rollers; $4.60 to $4.75; straight rollers in bags, $2.25 to $2.30.

Badly Disfigured By Violent Eczema

A Chronic Case Which Defied Doctors' Skill Was Permanently Cured Seven Years Ago by

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Once eczema becomes chronic it is most difficult to cure, and many people after doctoring for a time give up in despair.

It is to the discouraged ones especially that we would introduce Dr. Chase's Ointment, knowing from experience with hundreds of severe cases that it will positively effect a lasting cure.

Mr. Oakley W. Beamer, Boyle, Ont., states:—"For two years prior to 1897 I suffered from eczema in a violent form. I was perfectly disfigured about the face and head, and was in great misery day and night. Though I tried many remedies and the best doctors, I steadily became worse, and was finally prevailed upon by friends to use Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"Five boxes of this golden remedy perfectly cured me. I shall always recommend this ointment, and often think that if I was a "Carnegie" my first move would be to purchase a million boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment and send it free to the afflicted all over the land. It is six years since I was cured, and the cure is therefore a permanent one."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has a record of cures unparalleled in the history of medicine; 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous recipe book author, are on every box.

THE POSITION OF BLACK
In the Gamut of Fashion!

Black has long since ceased to be viewed solely as the badge of mourning. Madame La Mode is not sufficiently courageous to ostracize the all black costume, and one, at least will be counted within the wardrobes of each of her votaries.

It is not presumed that the Sale of Black Goods, now in progress at this establishment, will increase the general demand for fabrics or made-up-garments in this color, but the anticipated result is that a larger percentage of the demand will centre here.—Firstly: because of the greater range of choice to be met. Secondly: because of the most numerous opportunities to practice safe economies. The most we can do in a newspaper announcement is to print a limited list of the best values—some of those that will be bought up the soonest—that you should come for without delay.

TO-DAY THE PREMIER POSITION IS
Accorded to the Black Silks

Two values in Black Silks that will forge their way to the front in any company are:—
