

PROVISIONAL CAPITAL OF MEXICO NOW AT JUAREZ.

City was Captured By Madero's Followers, and General Navarro Surrenders His Entire Garrison—Insurrectos Are Disposed to Deal Frankly With Government.

Ciudad Juarez, Mex., May 11.—This little bullet-riddled city is now the provisional capital of Mexico, and Francisco I. Madero, jr., provisional president, and his staff have taken possession after winning the bloodiest battle of the Mexican revolution.

In a corner room of the barracks, in which for two days he held out against the fire of the rebels, is Gen. Juan Navarro, the federal commander, a captive, having surrendered yesterday, with almost his entire garrison of several hundred men. His face is sunken, his head bowed, and he does not talk for the bitter sting of defeat has disheartened him.

In contrast, in another part of the town, is Francisco I. Madero, jr., the conqueror, surrounded by members of his family and his staff, joyous, exultant and flushed with victory, yet ready, he says, to make peace with the Mexican Government if it is disposed to deal frankly and sincerely with the revolutionists, and without such vague promises as "President Diaz's manifesto contains."

All the dead were buried last night. A conservative estimate of physicians as well as of insurrecto leaders, who surveyed the fighting, puts the federal dead at about 50 and the rebel loss at about 100, with a total of about 250 wounded on both sides.

The actual surrender of the town by Gen. Navarro took place about 1 o'clock, Gen. Navarro giving his sword to Col. Garibaldi, of the insurrecto army, after the rebels had completely surrounded the barracks and threatened to annihilate the garrison within.

There was the same fraternal sentiment last night in the hearts of the entire insurrecto army for their countrymen who have been defeated, but everywhere are heard words of opprobrium for President Diaz, whom they hold responsible for the loss of life and suffering of the wounded.

Gen. Madero, when he arrived yesterday afternoon at the corral where the federal prisoners are quarantined, made an address full of sympathy and encouragement, lauding them for their bravery, and assuring them that in his heart, as well as in those of his men, there was no feeling of enmity, but uniform friendliness.

"You fought for Gen. Diaz," he said at the conclusion of his speech, "because you had to, because you were a part of that system which we are trying to dissolve. In a few days, perhaps, peace will be restored. You soon will be free. If the war is to be continued you can have your choice of being paroled or joining the army of liberation. In the meantime we shall treat you as brothers, not as foes."

With shouts of "Viva Madero," the vast throng of prisoners and insurrectos who gathered to hear him threw their hats skyward and shouted in most defiant applause.

Gen. Navarro tried about noon to arrange an armistice, but the rebels would accept nothing but immediate surrender.

REV. MR. McQUEEN APPEALS TO SYNOD.

Protests Against Two Decisions Rendered by Quebec Presbytery.

FRENCH PROTESTANTISM IS INCREASING IN THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC.

Perth, Ont., May 11.—That the French Protestant vote in Quebec was no longer a negligible quantity was the declaration made yesterday at the Presbyterian Synod of Montreal and Ottawa.

The discussion arose in connection with the report of French evangelization, presented by the Rev. James Taylor, who said that the Roman Catholic Eucharistic Congress had been designed by God to show the progress of true religion. It has displayed the difference between Catholicism and Protestantism to the advantage of the latter.

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES.

Branch Will Be Formed In Sherbrooke.

INTERESTING ADDRESS BY MISS MCKENZIE, THE SUPERINTENDENT.

Miss Mackenzie, of Ottawa, Chief Superintendent of the Victorian Order of Nurses, gave an address yesterday afternoon at the Art Hall, to a large and appreciative audience, composed principally of members of the various chapters of the Imperial League of the Daughters of the Empire, under whose auspices the meeting was introduced by Mrs. Norreys Worthington, Regent of the King George V. Chapter, and gave an address which was full of interest and information upon the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses, of which very few in this city have had more than a very hazy idea.

The speaker said that the Order was founded in 1897 by the then Governor-General of Canada, to commemorate the jubilee of the late Queen Victoria. The idea was a happy one, and the project was successful from the very beginning. From district nursing alone, the scheme, which aimed to do for the people of Canada what had been done for England by the Jubilee Order of Nurses, has wonderfully developed and broadened out, till at present the establishment of small cottage hospitals in connection with the order is planned, the Countess of Minto being at the heart of this movement, and two years ago the needs of the people of the great Northwest were realized, and under Lady Grey, the wife of the present Governor-General, the plan has been outlined and will be carried out. The work is expensive, but funds will be procured. Two Montreal ladies have donated $2,000 towards the district nursing in the cottage hospitals, and will follow. The nurses that belong to the Victorian Order started out with a high standard, and that standard has been religiously adhered to. No nurse is accepted who is not a graduate of a hospital, and each one must take a post-graduate course at one of the training schools of the order, of which there are four, at Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, and Winnipeg. There is a great deal, too, in fitting the right woman into her proper environment. A nurse who could do excellent work in one place might not be so successful in another.

MAGOG. "Rebecca's Triumph," a drama in three acts was presented at St. Luke's Church Hall on Tuesday evening of this week by fifteen young ladies of the town who have been holding frequent rehearsals of this drama for the past month, with the result that the crowded house which greeted the young ladies on their first appearance, were disappointed in the result. In fact quite the reverse, for it is the opinion of nearly all that they handled themselves with the ease of professionals. The play is woven around the chief character, Rebecca, a foundling, which role was taken by Miss Josie Taylor, who showed considerable ability. The cast of characters included: Mrs. Rokeman, taken by Miss Annie Rextford, who played her part to perfection; Miss Emily Willows, as Mrs. DeLaine, also showed up well; Miss Eva Trux and Miss Mary Whitehead as Katie and Miss Mary Whitehead as Meg, a colored girl, contributed in no small way to the enjoyment of the evening. Both Miss Gwendolyn Macpherson as Meg, a vagrant, and Miss Marjory Macpherson, as Clarissa Codman, a spinster, seemed extremely natural in the roles they took. Miss Rosalyn Taylor was quite debonaire in her role as Dora James. Various other parts were taken by the following young ladies with credit: Miss Christie Powers, Miss M. Cunningham, Miss Grace Horner, Miss Bernice Powers, Miss Jessie Powers, Miss C. Randall, Miss Helena Short, Miss Inez Norton also sang between the 2nd and 3rd acts, and proved to the audience that she has considerable talent as a soloist. There is some talk of having the play repeated. The net proceeds on this occasion were in the neighborhood of $60.00, showing that it was a success in every particular.

Mrs. Hitchcock visited him about two weeks ago, at the time of her sister's funeral. He leaves three daughters, Miss Gladys Robinson, Mrs. Hitchcock's daughter, left Wednesday to attend his funeral at Littleton. Only three out of a family of nine children of Mrs. John (Richardson) Robinson are left. Mr. Clarence Richardson, of New York, and Mr. Fred Richardson and Mrs. Lillian Hitchcock, of this town.

Mr. Luke Colt has improved his house by the addition of a dormer window and verandah on the west side. About fifty attended the informal dance at the hotel hall Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Talcott St. Dizier were at Magog on Tuesday.

LATE GEORGE GILL, COATICOOK.

The late Mr. George Gill, who died at his home in Coaticook, on April 28th, in the 84th year of his age, was a native of Scotland, being born and brought up in the village of Kintore. He came to this country in 1855, and in 1856 married Mary Mayhew, who survives him.

By this union there were eleven children, of whom six are still living, Mr. G. A. Gill, of Sherbrooke, Messrs. Charles and Clarence Gill, of Coaticook, Joseph Gill, of Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. L. Hambley, Coaticook; Mrs. John Terrill, Mass., with eleven grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Deceased was foreman on the Grand Trunk Railway when it first passed through this section of the country and was also with the Boston & Maine for some time.

He cleared a fine farm in the virgin forest of the Township of Barnston, and lived there for some thirty years, when he sold out, and bought a farm in Barford, on which he remained until he once again disposed of his property, and moved to the village of Coaticook, where he died.

The late Mr. Gill was a staunch member of the Anglican Church and a staunch supporter of the clergy. He was ever ready with a word of encouragement, and was a prominent church worker. He was a warden for many years of his life, and a delegate to the Quebec Synod. He was active in Sunday School work, often gathering children in school houses or places where there was no regular school.

In his earlier days attendance at Church was by no means as easy as it is now, and it was no uncommon sight to see people going slowly to services in ox teams.

The funeral was largely attended by many relatives and friends, the service being conducted by the Rev. Albert Stevens, Rector, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Tanner, of Dixville. The remains were laid to rest in the family lot of the Cemetery at Dixville, his former home.

The flowers on the casket were sent by the following: Mr. Joseph Gill, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gill, bouquet; Mr. William H. Gill, grandnephew, bouquet, with many others.

Deceased was a kind husband and father, and was loved and respected by many friends, but "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

A new brick building is being erected in the rear of the old Johnson block by the Lennoxville Light and Power Company for distributing electrical power for lighting and manufacturing purposes.

MILITARY UNIFORMS. A BLUE-GREEN-GRAY MIXTURE IS SUCCEEDING KHAKI. (New York Sun.)

Germany has set the fashion for a new army service uniform. Khaki has had its innings. It was adopted by the British Army and spread to practically all the armies of the world. Then it was discovered that although the khaki color was very suitable as a service dress for soldiers in the dusty plains of Africa and India, it was hardly efficient against the green summer backgrounds and gray-white winter coloring of a European terrain.

A German officer wandering on the Indian frontier had his attention drawn to the peculiar slate-colored body cloths affected by the Yaghistan Afridis. He was told that the reason this color was so generally worn was that it disappeared rapidly on a rock-bound hillside, even in a blazing sun, and became invisible at a few feet distant in the night and that it was used by the Afridis as an artificial protection in their blood feuds by day and their foraging expeditions by night. He returned to Berlin with a report that set the army clothing experts thinking.

As a result of exhaustive tests the German general staff hit upon a blue-green-gray mixture that blended with the summer green and the blue-gray winter shadows of European scenery. Trials have given entire satisfaction, so much so that bodies of hussars when wearing the new uniforms were mistaken for parties of led horses.

France has now decided to adopt a similar color, and the ministry of war has selected a light gray-green for the kit that is to supersede the blue great-coat and the red trousers that French soldiers have worn in victory and defeat for half a century. Two battalions taking part in this year's French manoeuvres will be supplied with uniforms made from the new material.

HIPPOTELEPHUS OF SAND. (New York World.)

Pete, the hippopotamus in Bronx Zoo, ate about a ton of sand as an appetizer the other afternoon on his first spring outing. He shuffled from his winter house into the yard, saw the sand pile, and decided his stomach needed filling. After the meal Pete went to his pool for a swim, and waded into deep water. But Pete had too much sand in ballast to keep afloat. He sank and stayed under water, struggling hard to come to the surface. Keepers Richard and Thurman called all the other keepers to their aid. With a block and tackle Pete was got to dry land in an hour. Just what effect the ton of sand will have on Pete's health is a question.

Cause and Cure of Rheumatism

Rheumatism, you know, is caused by the retention of waste matter in the blood—poisonous matter which the kidneys and bowels have failed to carry off. This poisonous matter accumulates and crystallizes into little granules which the doctors call uric acid. These crystals increase in size till the blood can not carry them any longer. Then they are deposited in a joint or around a muscle. They graze on the joint and muscle, irritating them, and causing the pain which we call rheumatism.

Now it is easy to see, that the only way to cure rheumatism is to get rid of these uric acid crystals which cause it. Most remedies try to stimulate the kidneys enough to carry them off. The smaller granules may be thus carried off, but not the larger ones. They cannot get through the kidneys. And this is why so many remedies fail to cure a really hard case of rheumatism.

Now Kimo tablets contain a JAPAN-ESU URIC ACID SOLVENT (not found in any other remedy) which, absorbed by the blood, dissolves these little crystals and throws them back into the blood.

Then, other ingredients cause the bowels, liver and kidneys to remove them—the cause of rheumatism. And your rheumatism is cured.

Kimo Tablets rarely fail. If your suffer from rheumatism take them at once. You will find the result little less than wonderful.

the lynx at 25 lbs. It is the first specimen of this animal caught in this section for many decades. A larger specimen is still at large and is being hunted by Pelletier who saw him on the same day, and which is described as being fully five feet in length with a much longer tail than the one secured. The cries of these animals have been heard at night many times of late by the inmates of Crystal Spring Camp near which it was captured. The skin is pronounced as very valuable.

HORSE HAD TO BE KILLED.
Danville, May 11.—(Special)—While H. D. Breault was driving down Water street yesterday afternoon en route to the station with a heavy team owned by Mr. L. Robitaille, of Asbestos, the horse suddenly had blind staggers opposite Mr. McCoy's blacksmith shop and ran headlong into the hydrant and cut a gash 18 inches long in its shoulder and also broke its left shoulder. Dr. H. R. Cleveland was called and soon put the poor animal out of misery as there was no possible chance of saving it. Mr. Breault was hurt badly on the knee and generally shaken up by the fall.

PRESENTATION AT DUNHAM.
Dunham, May 11.—(Special)—A fine party was given in the Village Hall by the friends of Mr. W. F. Cheeseman as a token of the regret they feel at his departure as detailed in these columns previously. There was no more popular young man in Dunham and Councillor Baker, in presenting Mr. Cheeseman with a handsome present from his Dunham friends, pointed out that, whereas Mr. Cheeseman had come an entire stranger less than ten years ago, yet he had won his way into the regard of everyone and had established an unbroken rank of friends, not only in the Masonic and L.O.O.F. orders, but with all other classes. The dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by all present, the pleasure being only tinged with regret that Billy was leaving town.

The minutes after some discussion were confirmed and the Church Warden's accounts presented. It was gratifying to be present to learn that all liabilities were paid and a good balance on the right side. The receipts showed that the finances were in a healthy condition and that this was one of the best years on record. PROGRESS OF "CLEANING UP WEEK."

So far the "Cleaning Up Week" has been a great success. The citizens in general have taken hold and the most of them have done their part towards making Sherbrooke a more beautiful city.

There are a few spots in the city, however, which have not yet been cleaned up, although they need it badly. It is hoped that when the campaign closes on Saturday night, there will not be a single unsightly yard, lawn or street within the city limits.

Mrs. G. G. Bryant has offered two large lots on Island street for the use of the children as a play ground. The lots are being cleaned up today and will no doubt be appreciated by the younger generation.

AGAINST THE RECIPROCITY PACT.

U. S. Senate Committee Hearing of Evidence Against Measure.

FARMERS, FISHERMEN AND MANUFACTURERS OPPOSED TO TREATY.

Washington, T. C., May 11.—Assaults on the Canadian reciprocity bill marked yesterday's hearing on the measure by the Senate Finance Committee. Farmers from the border states, fishermen from Gloucester, Mass., manufacturers of wire cloth for paper making, and manufacturers of book, wrapping and newspaper paper, all poured forth their protests against the bill. Probably the greatest outburst against the bill occurred when former Governor John Strange, of Wisconsin, introduced as representing wrapping paper manufacturers, and the boards of trade of Neenah and Menasha, Wis., addressed the committee. He was opposed by criticism of the bill to attack "The American Publishers' Association and its related organization, the Associated Press," until finally Senator Penrose asked him to limit his remarks to his specific objection to the bill.

Mr. Strange characterized the bill as a "cowardly" measure and as lacking love of country, and brought forth at the demand of "the greatest trust in the world." He said that Congress would not be in session today considering the bill "if it had not been for this combination in restraint of trade." When a man who occupies an exalted position listens to such demands for fear of re-election rather than to the welfare of the nation it is time to stop," he exclaimed. "Why should the Secretary of State be influenced to become an auxiliary to the purchasing department of the newspaper trust of the country?" he asked.

LAST OF THE THEATRE NAMES.

A FEW WHICH CAME IN TOO LATE FOR PUBLICATION YESTERDAY.—DECISION SHORTLY.

The following are a few additional names received in yesterday's mail, but too late for publication. This closes the list of suggestions, and Mr. Cathro will shortly be able to announce the committee of judges and the result.

128. "The Clement," so named after the builder, a Canadian of Berlin, N.H., to whom the city owes its first theatre, and without whom it would probably have none as yet. An act of gratefulness, well deserved and which ought to be perpetuated. No other name as popular as name given at baptism. It will always be called by the original name anyway.

129. "Royal George Theatre" a royal name, appropriate and practical.

130. "The Union Theatre."

131. "Vaudramugay"

132. "Regent."

133. "The Imperial Theatre," or "Britannic Theatre," or "Sandringham Theatre."

134. "The Sun" or "Le Soleil."

NO TRUTH IN GABINET CRISIS.

HON. MR. FIELDING IS QUITE AGREEABLE TO ADJOURNMENT.

Ottawa, May 11.—There is no shadow of foundation for the report that there is a Cabinet crisis over the proposal to adjourn Parliament for a couple of months during Sir Wilfrid Laurier's absence in England. The decision to adjourn was reached at a Liberal caucus, and was agreed upon unanimously. Mr. Fielding is quite agreeable to the adjournment, and the yarn about his threatened resignation is part of the campaign to belittle Sir Wilfrid Laurier's colleagues because of the decision to adjourn Parliament during the Premier's absence. As a matter of fact, all the Ministers and members realize that it would be a waste of time and energy to try to force the reciprocity proposals through the House before they have been passed by the Senate at Washington.

PRESIDENT IS A CANADIAN.

Washington, May 11.—Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, was unanimously nominated president pro tem of the Senate at a Republican senatorial caucus. The four Progressives in attendance—Senators Borah, Brown, Dixon and Kenyon—voted for Mr. Gallinger. Senator Gallinger was placed in nomination by Senator Warren, who eulogized Senator Price, the retiring president.

SELF GOVERNMENT IS DISAPPOINTING.

Sir Eldon Aorst Reports on Condition of Affairs in Egypt.

HOUSE OF LEGISLATION WERE INSTRUMENTS OF NATIONAL AGITATION AGAINST BRITISH RULE.

London, May 11.—Sir Eldon Aorst, the British agent and consul-general in Egypt, in his report on Egyptian affairs, which has been issued as a parliamentary paper, frankly acknowledges that the efforts made to develop self-government had been disappointing. The Legislative Council and the General Assembly, he says, have become "mere instruments of national agitation against the occupation."

They seek to render the business of the Government impossible.

"The conclusion to be drawn," says Sir Eldon, "is that the policy of ruling this country in co-operation with native ministers at the present time is incompatible with that of encouraging so-called representative institutions."

The British agent adds: "We have to make the Egyptians understand that the Government do not intend to allow themselves to be hustled into going further or faster in the direction of self-government than they consider to be in the interests of the Egyptian people as a whole. Until this elementary lesson has been thoroughly learned no proposals looking to the further development of the Legislative Council

PROVISION MARKET

MARKET REMAINS STEADY.

Montreal, May 11.—There were no new developments in the market. The demand for dressed hogs in a jobbing way was fairly good at firm prices, sales of abattoir fresh-killed being made at $9.50 per 100 pounds. The trade in all lines of smoked meats is fairly active, but the demand for lard and other lines is quiet.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET

EXPORT LIVE STOCK TRADE.

Montreal, May 10.—Since this day week there has been a decided improvement in the demand for both American and Canadian exporters for ocean freight space from this port, and in consequence the tone of the market has been stronger and rates have advanced 2s 6d per head to Liverpool and London, but the rates to the other ports are unchanged. All the available space to Liverpool and London for the months of May and June has been engaged at 27s. 6d. per head to the former port, and at 25s. and 27s. 6d. to the latter. The Manchester space is still offering on the market at 25s per head, and at the Glasgow is very limited and the rate is firm at 30s. This increased demand for space is accounted for by the fact that cable advices have been rather encouraging of late on the condition of the trade in all the foreign markets, and the fact that prices for cattle both here and in the Chicago markets are much lower than they were a month ago.

Toronto, May 10.—At the City Cattle market trade was sufficiently active to give a slightly firmer tone to butcher cattle of choice quality. A number of heavy steers and heifers sold for $6 per 100 pounds, but the general run of butcher cattle did not go above $5.90. There was a difference of about 5c to 10c between Monday and to-day. Cows were firm at yesterday's increase and bulls were steady at $4.50 to $5. There was a good demand for stockers and feeders, the former ranging from $4 to $4.75 and the latter from $5.25 to $5.75. Sheep and lambs were steady and hogs were unchanged at Monday's decline of 25c per 100 pounds. Calves were steady and unchanged.

KING GEORGE HOLDS FIRST COURT.

ATTENDANCE WAS LARGE. MANY VISITORS FROM COLONIES BEING PRESENT.

London, May 10.—The first court of King George's reign and the first big ceremonial function since the death of King Edward was held at Buckingham Palace last night. Although another court will be held to-day and that last night was especially for diplomatic representatives and officials, the attendance was very large, many visitors from the colonies, who are here for the Imperial Conference, being present. The entire diplomatic corps attended the court, and the wives of the ambassadors and ministers presented several of their countrywomen. Mrs. Reid, wife of the American ambassador, presented in the diplomatic circle Mrs. William Phillips, wife of the secretary of embassy; Mrs. Edward Simpson, wife of the naval attaché, and Mrs. S. L. COMMONS GETTING DOWN TO WORK.

Large Amount of Business on Order Paper to be Cleared.

MR. PATERSON INTRODUCES BILL AMENDING CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES.

Ottawa, May 11.—With morning sittings called for the coming week, the House is grappling with the large amount of business still on the order paper, so that adjournment for the two months' recess may come on the 23rd inst. Yesterday's session was devoted mainly to Government bills, with an instalment of supply at night. Mr. Paterson occupied some time with his lengthy resolution, on which a bill is founded, which received first reading amendment the Civil Service Act, by raising the maximum salaries of the outside service of the Customs Department. Finally the resolution passed and the bill founded thereon was given first reading.

STEAMER SUBSIDIES. In supply last night Sir Wilfred Laurier took up the steamship subsidies. When the item for the Atlantic mail service came up the Premier said this contract with the Allans was about to expire. It had not been renewed and the Government did not think it should renew it at the present time. This service could be performed on the St. Lawrence without any special subsidy, and the mails carried on the poundage system. As far as the summer service was concerned, Sir Wilfred Laurier said the Government was looking for a much superior service than the one now existing and they had in mind a 21-knot service. The Government was anticipating offers for such a service shortly. It was not proposed to renew the present contract, although it might have to be continued for a year or so until other arrangements were made.

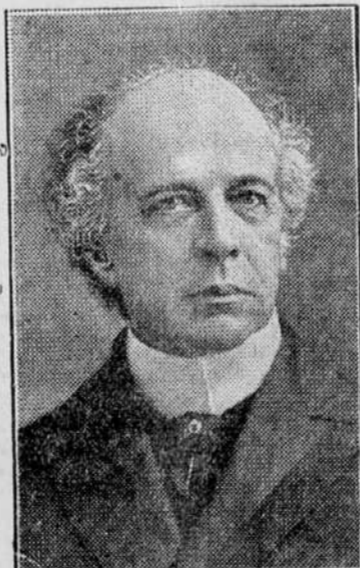

MR. LANCOT AGAIN. On the question of privilege, Mr. Adelard Lantot, of Richelieu, made a personal statement concerning rumors in a section of the press that other charges were to be made against him to the effect that he had received shingles and timber from the Government shops at Sorel for use on his house. "There is," he said, "no truth in them or foundation of fact for them. There has never been to my knowledge one five cents worth of shingles or lumber belonging to the Government used on my house or for my benefit." A slight round of Liberal applause greeted this statement.

WANTS BANK ACT AMENDMENTS. Although he admitted the bill could not possibly be proceeded with this session, Mr. E. N. Lewis, of West Huron introduced a measure to amend the Criminal Code respecting bank employees.

TENDERS FOR CRUISERS. In reply to a question by Mr. Monk as to the names of the tenders for the cruisers of the naval service, and the amount of the tenders, Mr. Brodeur said it would not be desirable to publish either the names or the amounts. The tenders covered construction of cruisers and destroyers, and the time fixed for construction was six years. The tenders had been opened and examined.

NEWFOUNDLAND SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION IN HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Ottawa, May 11.—The question of Newfoundland joining the Canadian Confederation was briefly discussed in the House last night during consideration of mail subsidies. Mr. Armstrong (East Lambton) asked if any effort was being made to bring British's oldest colony in. Sir Wilfred Laurier replied that no effort had been made since the offer made to Newfoundland in 1894 was not accepted. The Government understood that the people of that country were not favorable to joining the Union. Mr. Fielding added that it would be a mistake for any action in the matter to be taken by Canada at the present time. It was bound to be misunderstood by the people of the island, and do more harm than good. The public men of Newfoundland knew what the sentiment of the Canadian Government was in the matter, but any effort now would surely be misinterpreted.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER, Prime Minister of Canada, who left this afternoon to attend Imperial Conference and the Coronation.

Letters to the Editor

VITRIFIED BRICK PAVEMENTS— WOULD THAT BE SUITABLE FOR WELLINGTON STREET?

Editor Record, Sir:—During the past seventeen years there has been a steadily increasing use of vitrified brick for the pavements of the streets of cities and towns in the United States, especially of those of moderate size—that is of 100,000 inhabitants or less; the larger places welcoming brick as a competitor with sheet asphalt, and affording another means of escape from the intolerable noise and dirt resulting from the block stone pavements and from the temporary and unsanitary features of wooden blocks.

While the smaller western towns, with characteristic enterprise, have built miles of brick pavements to displace the natural mud. The total length of brick-paved streets in the United States in February, 1902, is estimated by William S. Cranford, editor of the Municipal Journal, at about 1,200 miles. The name is misleading, as they are not brick, but tile, and are not actually vitrified, but are fused, anyhow this does not affect their value as a pavement. The mean cost of 65 cities for brick pavement, laid on a macadam base, is $1.50 and in 6 inches of concrete is $2.20 per square yard.

MODE OF CONSTRUCTION. The earth together being sub-drained and rolled hard, as described for other pavements, should be formed with a regular crown of about one hundredth the width between curbs, the best amount of crown is an important factor.

SAND CUSHION.

When ready to set the brick, the sand cushion is formed by spreading screened moist sand over the concrete or other base; this is spread uniformly to the required depth of one and one-half to two and one-half inches, and smoothed and brought to the proper crown by wooden templates, travelling on wheels or shoes and resting on the top of the curbs on either side. Upon the true surface thus formed upon the sand, the brick are set on edge, the workmen standing only upon the brick already laid, and placing the bricks in front of them in regular lines across the street, the brick in each course breaking joints with those in the next courses. The bricks are then rammed with a seventy-five pound rammer and rolled with a two and one-half ton or a five ton steam roller and settled firmly into the sand bed. If the surface is then sprinkled and exposed to the soft brick can be detected and picked out as being those which remain wet after the hard bricks have dried.

JOINT FILLERS.

No filler has yet been found that is perfect, and there are wide differences of opinion as to the best. Pavine cement makes an elastic joint which in some cases is best, although it costs more than grout. The usual composition consists of 100 parts of weight of No. 4 coal-tar, three parts resinoid oil and twenty parts refined asphalt, kept and used at a temperature of 300 F., meantime carefully avoiding over-heating. This hot mixture should be poured into the joint, from a spout, or it may be poured upon the surface and swept in with steel-wire brooms; a thin coating of sand should be at once spread over the pavement, and this will mix with the surplus pitch which still lies on the surface and will soon grind the whole from the surface and leave the bricks clean.

EXPANSION.

The expansion of brick pavements during and after periods of extreme heat has been a frequent source of trouble, and many pavements have been thus heaved and broken; in some cases by a quiet raising of the brick pavement until the arch thus formed was broken by its own weight or by traffic, as occurred at Niagara Falls in July, 1897, and at Glens Falls in August, 1901; in other cases by sudden ruptures or explosions, as at Kansas City in July, 1901, where this occurred on seven streets and brick were thrown up a foot or more. In nearly every case this peculiar result has occurred where the brick have been laid with cement joints, and where the cross-expansion has been prevented by rigid curbs; or at the apex of grades from both ways, or at the top of a steep incline where the results of longitudinal expansion have been concentrated at one place.

Expansion-joints of one inch of coal-tar, or mastic, or bitumen or sand have been formed along the curbs on both sides of the street and across the pavements from curb at intervals of fifty feet. One city in central New York took special precaution of this kind and yet has had more or less trouble every year. Other cities have taken no precautions and have no trouble. It remains to find a preventative.

BRICK PAVEMENT FOR STEEP GRADES.

Brick pavements are often used successfully on grades which are considered to be too steep for smooth asphalt, which may afford no foothold, or for macadam, which may be gullied by heavy rainfalls. It is often difficult to decide what pavement to use in such cases, and equally difficult to select from the various forms of vitrified bricks and the different ways of laying them, in order to secure the best results on steep slopes.

GUARANTEE.

Some cities now require that the price for a brick pavement shall include a guarantee that it shall be kept in good condition for a term of years and delivered in good condition at the expiration of this time. This term varies widely as indicated by the records of fifty-five cities of the United States which had, on January 1st, 1899, 371 miles of brick pavements; of these three require guarantee for one year; two for three years; thirty-two for five years; one for six years; one for seven years, and ten for ten years, while eleven require no guarantee, some buying the brick and laying them by hired labor. The general tendency seems to be toward a five-year guarantee with a surety company bond. But, Mr. Editor, if our beautiful city of Sherbrooke has not the means to undertake any modern pavements, let us build a good macadam to an established level, practical crowning and up-to-date construction. L. ACHILLE DUFRESNE, Sherbrooke, April 28, 1911.

P. O. INSPECTORSHIP FOR SHERBROOKE.

Editor Record, Sir:—A few days ago I noticed in your paper a letter suggesting the advisability of the re-establishment in Sherbrooke of the Post Office Inspectorship, abolished some years ago and intimating that it would be a fit subject for the Board of Trade or Chambre de Commerce to take up in the interests of Greater Sherbrooke. I quite agree with this suggestion. It would certainly be of greater advantage to Sherbrooke than most of the recent schemes brought forward. Sherbrooke is now easily the third city of the Province in point of population and by its peculiar geographical situation and its railway facilities is exceptionally adapted for the purpose.

A good third of the post offices comprised in the prospective division are situated on the Quebec Central and Maine Railways. In order to reach most of these places, when visited from Montreal, as at present, it is necessary for the inspector or official to stop over night at Sherbrooke thus involving considerable expense and loss of time. The saving thereby effected would probably more than compensate for the additional costs of the new division which would merely consist of the rent of premises required, as probably no new appointment would be necessary, the present staff employed being quite numerous enough for the work involved.

Most people who want new post offices established or who have grievances to complain of would certainly much prefer seeing the inspector or official in person than doing it by the slower and less effective method of correspondence as at present. It would give Sherbrooke an added prominence as the official head of the Eastern Townships counties which would be included in the new division. I see the Public Works Department at Ottawa has recognized the advantages of this location, by dividing the province of Quebec into three official zones, instead of two, as heretofore, (Montreal and Quebec) and have appointed Mr. Kenneth Cameron of London, Ont., as resident-engineer at Sherbrooke to look after the construction and maintenance of public works in this part of the Province.

If it is advisable for the Department of Public Works to do this, is it not far more urgent for the Post Office Department to do the same? Sherbrooke has greatly increased in population and in facilities of communication since 1897, when the old inspectorship was abolished, and I have no doubt that the number of post offices in this section of the country must have nearly doubled since then. SHERBROOKE, Sherbrooke, May 10, 1911.

RAIN WELCOME IN THE WEST.

NOT IN MANY YEARS HAS IT FALLEN IN SUCH TIMELY ABUNDANCE. Winnipeg, May 10.—Throughout the whole of Manitoba, the major portion of Saskatchewan, and in parts of Alberta, copious rains fell yesterday, bringing the much-needed moisture to the crops and brightening fully 100 percent the outlook. Not since 1896 has rain fallen in the West with such timely abundance, and as seeding is practically completed, the crop everywhere will receive a splendid start. In some places the wheat is two inches high already. Here and there the rainfall developed into a storm of big proportions, and at Farrowby, Man., buildings were blown from their foundations and trees uprooted, but it was the salvation of the crop of that district, which yesterday looked like failure. At Carieville, Sask., a windy state of affairs existed, and though damage was done to property, no casualties are reported.

ORPHANS LOOKED AFTER BY I. O. F.

500 WARDS ARE NOW UNDER PROTECTION OF THE ORDER.
The triennial convention of the Supreme Court of the Independent Order of Foresters was held in Toronto last week. Over two hundred representatives were present, coming from every province of Canada, every state of the American Union, and from the British Isles. After the formal opening some 45 orphans from the Home at Oakville were brought to the platform, where they performed various evolutions with flags, sang and spoke their pieces recounting what had been done for them by the Foresters.
The entire delegation was profoundly moved by this touching performance, which reached a climax when the Hon. E. G. Stevenson, Supreme Chief Ranger, grasping the Union Jack around its staff with his right hand and the Stars and Stripes with his left, and with voice choking with emotion, replied, "All I will say is that 240,000 Foresters will see that these who are wards of the order are cared for." Of the 500 orphans who are wards of the Order, 105 belong to the Province of Quebec, the majority of whom are supported at their own homes.

MR. ELLIOTT G. STEVENSON, Supreme Chief Ranger, I. O. F.

The well equipped sanatorium in Rainbow, in the Adirondacks, is doing such excellent work that it is proposed to establish others, and to this end a fund of $1,000,000 is to be raised by voluntary subscriptions, the Supreme Chief himself offering $20,000.
The convention was pervaded with the sentiment that this great order must not exist for the purpose of life insurance alone, but must find its mission also in relieving distress and caring for its needy and afflicted ones, in which it leads all fraternal societies.

FARM LABOURERS FOR CANADA.

INTENDING EMIGRANTS ARE GIVEN SIX WEEKS' COURSE IN TRAINING.
London, May 11.—Though there are many agricultural colleges in England, the cost of tuition places them beyond the means of most men anxious to learn something of farming. The Hon. Rupert Guinness, after a visit to Canada, was convinced that if this country was to send to the colonies efficient farm labor, the emigrants should have an opportunity of getting a short but at least comprehensive idea of the sort of work that was before them.
Mr. Guinness has therefore secured a farm of 150 acres about a couple of miles from Woking, has equipped it with all the latest appliances, and has placed it in charge of C. L. S. Palmer, an associate of the Ontario Agricultural College. This gentleman has had much experience in many parts of the world, which makes him thoroughly suitable to the position.
The student will spend six weeks on the farm, and will learn as far as he can something of Canadian farm work. The object of the farm is to prevent men from going out absolutely ignorant of what is before them.
At present there is sufficient accommodation for 15 students. The men rise at 5 o'clock, breakfast at 6.30 or 6.45, work until 12, and are in the fields and barns from 1 p.m. until 6, which are the recognized Canadian hours.
If the men are going to isolated parts of Canada, a course of cooking is gone through, as the majority of men in England have only the faintest idea of the culinary art.

ABBOTSFORD.

The funeral of Lily Grisby, whose death was previously reported, took place Thursday morning, the service being held in the Presbyterian Church here, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Pergan, assisted by Rev. J. Brunton. The bearers were: Arthur Stewart, Harold McDonald, Willie Irwin and Henry Hamel, her classmates, and the teachers of the Sunday School followed the mourners from the house to the church and the little girls also sang "The Kind Shepherd," a hymn of which Lily was fond, and during her illness was constantly trying to sing. The choir sang "Let us in the Arms of Jesus" and "Forever with the Lord" and Mr. Pergan preached a very impressive sermon.
Miss Edith Smith, who has been so seriously ill, is now convalescent. Kenneth and Gladys Morkill are now sick with the measles, also David Clark and Gladys Atkinson.
Mr. Robitaille has purchased a new car, and Mr. S. Barlow has been engaged as chauffeur for the season. Mrs. Stevens and little grandson, of Windsor, are the guests of Mrs. Calvin Perkins.

DUNHAM.

HEALTH OF DUKE OF CONNAUGHT.

NO TRUTH IN CONFLICTING STORIES THAT HAVE BEEN CIRCULATED.
Toronto, May 11.—The Globe prints the following letter from its London correspondent, dated April 29th.
"Strange and conflicting stories have been current in London regarding the health of the Duke of Connaught, the new Governor-General of Canada, and it has been suggested that His Royal Highness may not be able to take up his duties in the Dominion. The Duke undertook to open the Scottish Exhibition at Glasgow on May 3, as he had cancelled a previous important Masonic engagement, it was thought that his illness was of a really serious nature and would prevent him from taking in hand any serious and responsible duties.
"So far these rumors have not been justified. The Duke opened the Glasgow Exhibition and there has been an official denial of all the alarmist rumors about his health. The Duke of Connaught is personally highly popular with all sorts and conditions of men, and there would be very general disappointment if anything intervened to put a limit to his public activities. There may be something behind the official denial, but so far as I have been able to learn the Duke will be quite capable of taking up his position as Governor-General of Canada."

DISCUSSED EXPENSES TO CORONATION.

Opposition Contends Members Should Pay Their Own Way.

MR. FOSTER SAYS HE WILL WITHDRAW FROM LIST CHOSEN.

Ottawa, May 10.—It was a field day for Mr. Oliver in the House. The Minister of the Interior brought forward his bill, which takes up 48 pages, respecting forest reserves and parks, and the entire day, with the exception of one hour for private bills, was devoted to its discussion. The objections of the Opposition to the measure were along the lines of too much power being given to the Minister of the Interior, although the principle was approved. Slow progress was made with the bill. The bill increases the acreage of reserves from 3,000,000 to 16,000,000. The bill to incorporate the New Ontario & Quebec Railway Company, which was the cause of much trouble in the Railway Committee, was talked out during the private bill hour. Messrs. Lancaster and Sproule objecting to it on the ground that it invaded provincial rights.
Further supplementary estimates for the present fiscal year, amounting to $185,000, were presented by Mr. Fielding last night. They are made up of two items as follows:
Coronation contingent—For all expenses in connection therewith, $155,000.
Coronation contingent—Required to meet the transportation and other expenses of the R. N. W. M. Police, $30,000.

The Government bill relating to steamship subsidies was given second reading and considered in committee. Sir Wilfrid Laurier explained that $250,000 a year had to be given for the service of the C.P.R. between Vancouver, China and Japan, with a ten year contract. The Premier also explained that a faster service on the Atlantic between Canadian and British ports was a possibility of the near future. The bill was given third reading.
At 11.30 last night the House got into supply. Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking that the items in the supplementary estimates providing $6,000 for his expenses at the Conference and Coronation, $8,000 for the expenses of Sir Frederick Borden and Mr. Brodeur at the Conference, and $18,000 for the expenses of the parliamentary delegation at the Coronation, be passed.
During the discussion of this latter item, at midnight Mr. Foster rose and declared that he would instantly remove his name from the list of those chosen.
"I shall," said Mr. Foster, "hand my resignation in to Mr. Borden tomorrow. There were loud cries of dissent at this, and both Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding appeared to Mr. Foster to regard his decision without avail. The criticism of the vote was started by Col. Sam Hughes, who declared that it would be indefensible on the ground that the country should not pay the expenses of men accepting a private invitation. Mr. Meighen, Mr. Lake and Mr. Best supported this contention, and Mr. Perley intimated that the Prime Minister when he spoke to Mr. Borden about the matter after the invitation came, had given the Opposition leader to believe that the expenses of the members chosen would not be paid.

MR. BORDEN'S TOUR
OF THE WEST

WILL LEAVE CAPITAL ON JUNE 17 AND RETURN ON JULY 9.
Ottawa, May 10.—Details for Mr. R. L. Borden's tour of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta were completed last night, and the itinerary drawn up. The Opposition leader leaves the capital on June 17, and will be back by July 9, in ample time for the meeting of Parliament after the eight weeks' adjournment. One of the members who will accompany Mr. Borden is Mr. Andrew Broder, of Dundas, a practical farmer, and it is anticipated that Mr. Borden's explanation of the reciprocity agreement from the point of view of the agriculturist, will have great weight with the men of the prairies.
The following is the itinerary: June 19, Winnipeg; June 20, Carberry and Brandon; June 21, Weyburn and Moose Jaw; June 22, Indian Head and Regina; June 23, Maple Creek; June 24, Medicine Hat; June 25, Macleod and Lethbridge; June 26, High River and Calgary; June 27, Lacombe and Red Deer; June 28, Wetaskiwin and Edmonton; June 29, Vegreville and Lloydminster; June 30, North Battleford and South Battleford; July 1, Prince Albert or Saskatoon; July 2, Rosetown; July 3, Saskatoon or Prince Albert; July 4, Yorkton; July 5, Birtle and Minnedosa; July 6, Grandview and Dauphin; July 7, Portage La Prairie.

THE HOSPITABLE HABIT

(May Atlantic)
The family with the hospitable habit both enjoys more guests and enjoys them more, than the family which has to go through a separate preparation for the advent of everyone. Its spirit is more mellow, its judgments are more charitable, its fixed animosities, when it has any, are less fanatic; its moral perspective is more trustworthy, its attitude towards untried things more worldly-wise, its sense of humor keener and more constant, its contempt for trifles more spontaneous. The stranger within its gates fares better here than anywhere else outside of his own home, for it absorbs him into itself, for the time being, almost as an integral part; he yields to it unbidden the best he has to give, and it gives him the best in return.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT. A very successful literary entertainment was given last evening at St. Charles Seminary by the members of the Academy St. Pierre, ending their sessions for the year.

Mr. Charles McKenzie was applauded as the most recent addition to the Academicians, and diplomas were presented to the members elected in 1910-11, and the Laureate's prize was presented to Mr. Napoleon Fugere by Judge Mulvena with a few appreciative words.

Mr. Charles McKenzie recited an original poem, "Le Printemps" (Spring) and was vociferously applauded. "La Cloche" words of Victor Hugo set to music by Camille Saint-Saens was beautifully rendered by Mr. Leonidas Bachand, whose charming voice is full of sweetness and yet lacks nothing in power.

A feature of the evening was a reading contest by four younger boys budding academicians, as follows: 1. "Les Idees de Toto." (Henri Blois), Doria Desfrussesaux. 2. "Marius dans les marais de mirtines" (Arnault), Donat Richard. 3. "La Mouche" (Emile Giard), Napoleon Pepin. 4. "Le Leon" (Gravel-Daucourt), Fernand Despins. 5. "J'anne d'Arc" (C. HOUSE OF COMMONS TO ADJOURN MAY 23

Agreement Reached Between Government and Opposition.

STATED THAT GENERAL ELECTION WILL TAKE PLACE AFTER REDISTRIBUTION BILL.

Ottawa, May 11.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, Sir Wilfrid Laurier made a statement with regard to adjournment during his absence at the Imperial Conference and the Coronation. The adjournment will go into effect on the 23rd of May.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier then took up the question of supply. The public service was provided for until June 1, and the Government would ask for interim supply to carry it over until September 1. Some of the items, however, would require to be voted in their entirety. These were the votes for the Coronation and Northwest Mounted Police contingents, the vote for the Festival of Empire, and some Indian annuities which were treaty obligations.

MR. BORDEN SPEAKS.

Mr. Borden said, in view of what he had already stated in the House, he thought the course of the session's business should be left pretty much to the judgment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. While he was quite willing to accede to the proposal as to dates of adjournment and reassembling, Mr. Borden pointed out that May 22 and 23 were Monday and Tuesday, and it was hardly worth while members waiting over for a Tuesday adjournment. Friday, May 19, would be more satisfactory. With respect to supply, Mr. Borden quite agreed that the items mentioned by Sir Wilfrid Laurier should be voted in full, and he was very happy indeed, that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would be able to attend both the Conference and Coronation.

Then followed a desultory debate on the date for adjournment and reassembling, several members wanting adjournment on May 19 and meeting again on August 1, instead of July 13.

After having discussed the matter with his own friends, and with the leader of the Opposition, Sir Wilfrid Laurier thought that the House might adjourn on May 23 and meet again on July 13. From now on to the 23rd, the House would go on with the business on the order paper, and he thought useful work might be done.

The subject then dropped. It is said to be the evident intention of the Government to go to the country as soon as the session is ended in the fall. The redistribution bill will be put through, and an election held at the end of October or the beginning of November, with the new Parliament meeting the following February. As to the work of the House prior to adjournment, there will be a disposition on both sides to get through non-contentious business.

CLAIMS AGAINST INSURANCE COMPANIES.

IN ONTARIO THEY MUST BE PAID 60 DAYS AFTER BEING FILED. Toronto, May 11.—All fire insurance companies doing business in Ontario must in future pay claims for losses within 60 days of the filing of proofs of loss, and in the case of stock companies, insurance will be payable to the assured after fifteen days of the filing of the proofs

Farm mutual companies need not pay interest, but must meet all claims within sixty days, the same as stock companies. This was decided upon by the special committee of the Legislature which is considering Col. High Clark's bill to amend the Ontario Insurance Act, which met to-day, and will continue to-morrow. Col. Clark expressed the opinion that when the committee adjourned while the House was in session, the general opinion was that fifteen days was sufficient time in which to allow insurance companies to meet all claims. This was combated by representatives of the companies, and on suggestion of the Hon. Mr. Foy, however, the committee made the regulation mentioned.

MANY STARVING ON LABRADOR COAST.

4,000 SETTLERS SUFFERING SEVERELY FROM FOOD SHORTAGE.

New York, May 11.—Between 5,000 and 6,000 settlers on the Labrador Coast are suffering severely from food shortage and the effects of a severe winter, according to advices received by the Grenfell Association of America here. The news came in a telegram to Dr. W. T. Grenfell, the missionary and explorer, and head of the Grenfell Association, from Battle Harbor, Labrador. It read: "People on the coast are starving. Have wired Government for help. (Signed), Dr. John Grievie." Dr. Grievie is one of the missionary doctors in charge of the hospital at Battle Harbor.

Several efforts have been made to help the starving people. Vessels laden with supplies of food and clothing endeavored repeatedly to pierce the ice field which enclosed the Labrador coast, but were always forced back, sometimes badly damaged. Last season's fish catch was the poorest in years. As a result, no money was at hand to buy food and clothing, and the natives were forced to call upon the missionaries for help early in the season.

AMERICA'S FIRST VERONESE.

(Scribner's Magazine.) The acquisition by the Metropolitan Museum of a first-rate example of Paolo Cagliari, called Veronese, is an event of much greater significance than the mere addition of one more fine picture to the Museum's collections. For this picture of "Mars and Venus bound by Cupid" is not only the single authentic work by that master in any American collection; it is, so far as I know, the only really representative work, in any of our public collections, by an important master of the high Renaissance in Italy. Our museums are pretty well filled with good modern works, and we have for some time had the fair opportunity to study in them the art of Holland and of Flanders. Within certain limits of size and subject, Hals and Rembrandt are well represented. The Metropolitan's Vermeer is a capital example, and its Van Dyck as fine as any existing. Rubens is less well shown, but his greatest hunting piece is very characteristic. There are also, in the Metropolitan and other collections, a good many interesting primitive and semi-primitive Italian works, some of them of great beauty and charm. But now, for the first time, a student of painting, unable to cross the ocean, may gather some idea of the power and splendor of the Renaissance triumphant.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Fitzlers Moore, Beebe and Rowan are all shooting 'em over for the Quakers in classy fashion.

They call "Ping" Bodie of the White Sox a fence-buster, and he looks all of that sure enough.

Jim McGuire, former manager of the Cleveland team, is back on his old job of scouting for the Naps.

The Rochester team, champions of the Eastern League, are right out in front and hustling for another pennant.

George Graney and Griggs of the Cleveland Naps, make you think of a turn in some vaudeville show.

Captain Charley McLaughlin of the Harvard team is a clever ball player. He can play any position on the nine, even to pitching.

John Covaleski, a brother of the famous "Giant Killer," has signed with the San Antonio Texas League team. He is an outfielder.

Dedo Criss, of the Browns, is a better pinch hitter than he is a pitcher. He has worked in the box two games this season and has lost both of them.

Despite a cold, wet spring, and a cut in the salary limit, the Virginia League teams are moving right along and doing business at the same old stand.

It looks as if the teams in the second division of the National League have little or no chance to break through and enjoy the company of the elite in the first division.

George Mullin of the Tigers says he will have an operation performed on his nose after he has lost a game. George doesn't fancy the surgery stuff, hence his winning right along.

"Bugs" Raymond is pitching great ball for the Giants. If the erratic Arthur sticks to the soda fountain there is nothing to it but his name in the baseball hall of fame.

Manager Harry Wolverton, of the Oakland Pacific Coast League team has signed Outfielder Zacher, last season with the New York Giants, and the St. Louis Cardinals.

SIR WILFRID LEAVES FOR CONFERENCE.

Ottawa, May 11.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Frederick Borden, and Hon. L. P. Brodeur leave this afternoon for the Imperial Conference and the Coronation. Liberal members will give them a send-off. It is expected that the Prime Minister and the other Ministers will be absent about six weeks, returning a week or so before the probably date of the resumption of Parliament.

DO NOT BELIEVE IN ANNEXATION.

London, May 11.—Speaking before the colonial section of Royal Society of Arts, F. H. Taylor, London manager of the Bank of Montreal, referred to what he called the "sub-conscious fear which is haunting every Englishman and is a pleasing dream to every American," that the United States will annex Canada. Mr. Taylor said that although he enjoyed an enormous acquaintance in Canada, he did not know a single Canadian who believed in any such eventuality, or who harbored such a disloyal thought. Canada's determination, he said, is to retain her political entity as part of the Empire, and her anthem would remain "God Save the King."

NEW INTERNATIONAL ROAD

Montreal, May 11.—A large delegation from Laprairie County and from the Automobile Club of Canada was received by the Minister of Agriculture, the Hon. Mr. J. E. Caron. The deputation desired to know what proportion of the cost of the new international road would be borne by the Government of Quebec, it having been stated that the province would pay ninety percent of the cost if the farmers on the route would pay the balance.

Some disappointment was manifested by the delegates when Mr. Caron stated that the usual government subsidy of fifty percent of the cost of making the road was all that had been expected would be paid, but he said that he would make a strong application to have the government contribute no less than seventy-five percent, as he realized the necessity of furthering the idea of an international highway. The road is proposed to enter the province of Quebec at Roussell's Point, and to proceed from there to Montreal.

POOL ROOM OPERATORS DEFY LAW.

Ottawa, May 11.—The pool room proprietors of Hull have decided to defy the new Quebec law providing for Sunday closing, pending the hearing of an injunction to restrain the city from interfering with them. The proprietors of all the pool rooms have been summoned to appear in the police court on charges of keeping open contrary to the new by-law.

TO PREPARE FOR POSSIBLE EVENTUALITIES.

Ottawa, May 11.—On the eve of his departure for England to attend the Imperial Conference, the Hon. L. P. Brodeur met the French-Canadian Liberal members in caucus yesterday morning to discuss the political situation in Quebec. It is understood that the members were advised to prepare during the recess for possible eventualities, including a general election, which is likely to occur should the Opposition decline to allow the reciprocity agreement to pass at the mid-summer sitting of the House.
