NOW A CANADIAN — Horst Liebeck, former German fighter pilot captured after he was shot down in England during the Second World War, now is a successful Toronto contractor. Interned in Northern Ontario, he and another prisoner escaped but were picked up by the RCMP in Medicine Hat, Alta., only 12 hours before their scheduled rendez-vous with an escape boat off Vancouver. Winter work to start early

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker scheduled another cabinet meeting today, the third in three days this week wrestling with the prospect of mounting unemployment in the months ahead.

Labor Minister Starr announced Wednesday the municipal winter works incentive program, designed to increase winter jobs in local areas, will start Oct. 15, six weeks earlier than intended. He said further measures to make work under active consideration by the government.

Public Works Minister Walker, a few hours earlier, told reporters in the parliamentary press gallery that housing demand seems to be slackening, and that house construction no longer can be counted on as the powerful employer of man-hours of labor it has been.

The government has been disappointed, he said, in the relatively small number of applications it has received—800—in a special housing incentive plan designed to make work during the coming winter. He said that the applications may increase before the program's cut-off date, Nov. 30.

UNSOLD HOUSES

Most of the 800 applications were received before the program started Sept. 1. Under it, the government will make direct mortgage loans to builders who have committed purchasers with incomes of up to $7,600 to buy before the houses are built. It is designed to counter speculative building. Mr. Walker said there was already a backlog of unsold new houses in Toronto, Montreal, Calgary, and other centres.

Mr. Starr said this housing

Shorts approved at girls' school

NEW YORK (AP)—Never ones to skirt the issue, the girls at Barnard College have won the battle of Bermuda shorts. Shorts worn to class and library when sessions start later this month will be okay if they are not: Too short. Too bright. Or, ahem, too tight. However, across the street at Columbia University, the girls will simply have to wear long coats over the shorts. There are boys over there.

Fight to save Nfld. hospital

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
More than 100 men were fighting today to save a 45-bed hospital at Old Perlican, Nfld., from a rampaging brush and grass fire. At least half the 1,000 residents had fled their homes and others were prepared to leave if the flames came closer.

In Prince Edward Island, 700 fire fighters in the western end of the province went sleepless Wednesday night as they fought to contain seven fires, the worst at the scattered community of Bideford.

O. R. Simons, the province's civil defence co-ordinator, said "the situation is bad. As a rule,

Dag Hammarskjold:

May prove necessary to disarm Congolese

Aim at UN?

Think K. to revive U-2 case

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (CP) — Two seemingly irreconcilable forces are moving towards the United Nations this month in the persons of United States President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev of Russia.

In the view of American diplomats, Khrushchev will appear at the UN Sept. 20 principally for the purpose of renewing charges that Eisenhower's arrogance following the U-2 spy plane incident crushed the summit conference and offering once again Russian disarmament proposals that do not include inspection and controls that the Western powers demand.

Eisenhower, now in his final months of office, may appear solely to counter Russian accusations with charges that the Russians are stirring up trouble in the Congo and to renew disarmament offers that Russia has already rejected.

At a press conference where he was asked by a Soviet correspondent what new disarmament proposals he may bring to the UN, Eisenhower replied Wednesday that while there may be renewed efforts to place the American record before the world, "I don't know whether you can say that there is anything new."

DON'T ROCK THE BOAT

In the midst of a presidential election campaign, it is not likely that his political advisers would encourage Eisenhower to make new ventures that could risk defeat at the polls.

Charges rangers fired

HULL, Que. (CP) — Gerard Desjardins, Union Nationale member of the Legislature for Gatineau, said today that six senior fire rangers in the Gatineau area have been dismissed at a time when the forest fire hazard is at a maximum.

Mr. Desjardins said he has sent a strong protest against the dismissals to Henri Kieffer, chief of the provincial forestry fire protection agency in Quebec City.

"The dismissal of six of our senior, highly experienced fire rangers at this time could have

Asks halt to flow of arms

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold today called for Security Council action to halt the flow of outside aid to warring factions in the Congo.

The call presumably was directed against the Soviet Union and Belgium.

Hammarskjold also told the 11-nation council in a special post-midnight report that it may be necessary to disarm Congolese military units temporarily since these forces are an obstacle to the re-establishment of law and order.

Hammarskjold devoted a major part of the report to his proposal for international financial aid to the Congo.

The situation is so grave, he said, that the UN's whole program of military and technical aid "may very soon be put in jeopardy or even nullified unless certain steps are now taken to stabilize the financial position of the Congolese government and to lay the foundation for the future growth of the Congo economy."

The secretary-general did not say which country was sending military supplies into the Congo independently of the UN.

News dispatches have reported that a small fleet of 14 Soviet troop transport planes, trucks and about 200 technicians are in the Congo to help Premier Patrice Lumumba put down seces-

Warn of 'important decisions'

Cabinet threatens U.N.

LEOPOLDVILLE (Reuters) — The Congolese government today accused the United Nations of interfering in Premier Patrice Lumumba's conflict with President Joseph Kasavubu and warned of "important decisions" to be taken tonight on relations with the UN.

The accusation came in a communique as troops and police patrolled the streets of this uneasy capital and Lumumba and Kasavubu continued their behind-the-scenes struggle for power.

The premier told reporters the UN plotted with Kasavubu against him and added: "I envisage measures against the United Nations, Mr. Kasavubu is still president but he has no authority. We will settle this in our own African way."

The senate today refused to allow Lumumba to address it until Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko had spoken.

But Bomboko, one of the signers of Kasavubu's non-annulment declaration ousting Lumumba as premier, had disappeared after escaping a police attempt to arrest him in a hotel this morning.

Foreign ministry sources said Bomboko also had been dismissed from his cabinet post.

Albert Delvaux, another minister who signed Kasavubu's declaration, defended his action as quite legal in a speech to the senate.

When Lumumba tried to speak following Delvaux's address, senators protested and Vice-President Joseph Okito ruled that Bomboko was the next listed speaker and no one could speak before him. He then adjourned the session until the foreign minister arrived.

Hour-long

Debate at party in Kremlin

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Nikita Khrushchev says the Atlantic Pact planned this month to send a plane over the Black Sea between Russia and Turkey and that Soviet gunners had orders to shoot it down if it crossed Russian territory.

The Soviet premier made the claim in a lively hour-long exchange Wednesday night with United States Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson at a Kremlin reception.

Thompson interrupted: "You made a very serious statement. Do you mean you would shoot down any plane flying over the Black Sea?"

"No, no," Khrushchev said. "I mean one that crosses our borders."

The exchange occurred at a reception for Nureddin Kuhala, visiting vice-president of the United Arab Republic. Kuhala had already left when Khrushchev grabbed Thompson's elbow and began talking with him and his wife.

DISCUSSED U-2 INCIDENT

Khrushchev began talking about the U-2 spy plane shot down over Russia May 1.

"Whoever had the idea of sending a plane to the Soviet Union?" he asked. "You know how we Russians could have welcomed Eisenhower with traditional hospitality. And suddenly the plane came. Put yourself in our place. We said Eisenhower didn't know about the plane. Then he said he knew. What could we have done?"

Khrushchev added: "I am convinced Eisenhower did not know about the U-2."

Khrushchev pressed on: "Why did you send the RB-47 after the U-2? Surely you don't intend to keep violating our borders?"

"This was a different case," Thompson said.

"How do you know?" demanded Khrushchev. "You were not there - but our frontier guards were."

OFFERED EVIDENCE

"We offered to submit evidence to an international commission," Thompson said.

"That involved our sovereignty and we would never submit to this unless you had crushed us," Khrushchev declared.

The Soviet premier said Russia still will have to obtain "satisfaction" over U-2 pilot Gary Powers' flight.

communiqué attacking the United Nations while troops and police kept close guard on the national assembly building.

The communique was issued as Lumumba arrived at the closely-guarded national assembly building to address the senate on the growing political chaos in the country.

It said the Congolese government "notes with astonishment the interference of the United Nations in the conflict between the head of state and the government of the republic."

Lumumba already has protested to the UN against the closing of Congolese airfields and the shutdown of Leopoldville radio, the main outlet for his speeches to the Congolese people.

The first round of the battle between Lumumba and Kasavubu ended in a draw Wednesday night when the national assembly invalidated their action of firing each other from office.

Immigrant takes life over 'nazi' charges

OTTAWA (CP) — The immigration department said today that an examination of its records failed to disclose any information which would have made Aleksander Laak ineligible for admission to Canada as an immigrant.

Laak committed suicide in Winnipeg Tuesday night after being accused by the Russian news agency Tass of being a Nazi war criminal. The 53-year-old native of Estonia hanged himself from a garage rafter at his Winnipeg home.

The department said it had made a "thorough check" of records relating to Laak's admission to Canada in April, 1948, as a landed immigrant. Laak at that time was classified as a displaced person and was sponsored by the International Refugee Organization.

"An examination of these records failed to disclose any information which would have rendered Laak ineligible for admission to Canada," the department said.

A department official said Wednesday Laak was given a police security check before he was allowed to enter Canada.

Critical hours near for Hurricane Donna

MIAMI (AP) — The critical hours of southeast Florida's watch on hurricane Donna draw near today as the tropical storm moved across the Bahamas and toward this resort area.

The hurricane, with 150 mile-an-hour winds reaching out 140 miles from its centre, was 450 miles east-southeast of Miami early today. It was advancing at 10 miles an hour, on a westerly course.

Thousands of Florida's "gold coast" residents, along the 350-mile strip from Key West to the Cape Canaveral missile centre, awaited word from the weather bureau whether hurricane warnings would be posted

The word sent mobs of men and women scurrying to lumberyards, supermarkets and insurance agencies. Long lines were reported as people stocked up on canned goods, distilled water, candles and flashlight batteries. Lumberyards reported the heaviest run on plywood sheeting, for hurricane shutters, in years.

An insurance company said panic requests for new and additional hurricane protection jammed its offices. The company decided to accept coverage until 48 hours prior to the official predicted arrival of hurricane Donna.

About Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — While most of television's filmed series are neatly spliced together in Hollywood's film studios, some actors are suffering for their art.

The crew and cast of Route 66, for instance, are on the road and will stay there for the next nine months. The new hour-long series is being filmed on location.

Marlin Milner, one of the stars in the forthcoming CBS program, managed to make his way back to Hollywood, his wife and family for a two-day weekend between the end of one episode in Louisiana and the beginning of another in Utah.

The adventure series is based on the adventures of two young men driving across the country. Route 66, in truth, is a highway running west from Chicago to the Pacific Ocean.

"That's the beauty of the show," explained Milner. "We can go anywhere, shooting real places and hiring people on the street. Real people with real faces."

COST IS HIGH
Finding real places and real faces is expensive and complicated, it turns out. The producers of Route 66 sent a cavalcade of five trucks, carrying $225,000 worth of cameras, lenses, 146 miles of film, cable, lighting effects and dark room equipment more than 2,000 miles from Hollywood to the show filmed in Louisiana. The cast and crew numbered well over 50 and they never did get around to counting the flat tires, broken down engines and other incidents of the trip.

"Anyway," conceded Milner, "I'm seeing the country, and it's one way to build audience interest in advance."

NBC's new Jan Murray Show made its debut Monday in the old Queen For a Day spot and I thought hopefully that if it were ignored it might go away. It returned again Tuesday, however, a tired and reminiscent audience participation show larded with tired and reminiscent Jan Murray jokes.

"We're the only industry in the world that had no research facilities," Goldstein says. "General Motors, Ford, Du Pont—all the big companies spend millions on research. We have no system for bringing along new talent, which is the lifeblood of the picture industry."

He cited some of his finds at Universal: Rock Hudson, Tony Curtis, Shelley Winters, Jeff Chandler, Hugh O'Brian.

"Tony was going to school five days a week, learning to ride, to dance, to speak," Goldstein recalled. "He had such a New York accent that we put him in one picture as a deaf-and-dumb killer. He didn't say a word through the whole picture."

Those were the days when Tony was making $125 a week. Goldstein could now hire him at several hundred thousand dollars. Which makes him all the more resolved to seek and develop new talent.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The third man to head production at 20th Century-Fox studios is an unpretentious but no-nonsense guy named Robert Goldstein.

First chief was Darryl Zanuck, who ruled the lot with an iron hand from 1935 to 1956, leaving his imprint on most of the product. Then came Buddy Adler, the friendly, talented movie maker whose career was cut short by cancer this summer.

When 20th-Fox president Syros Skouras overlooked the more obvious candidates for a successor in choosing Goldstein, a common question was: "Who's he?"

Goldstein was long associated with his brother Leonard, a bright, showy film producer. They made a perfect team at Universal, Bob finding new faces as talent executive and Leonard using them in as many as 19 films a year.

Mine shaft and saw mill hit by two separate blazes

EASTMAN — Fire of unknown origin, last night gutted the main shaft of the Quebec Copper Mines operation here, Magog police and Fire Chief Telesphore Lavoie said today.

Unofficial damage estimates were as high as $35,000. The Magog fire department was called out early this morning to help fight the flames in the shaft. A nearby building, also the property of the mining company, was damaged.

Magog firemen under Chief Lavoie, managed to halt the outbreak in the building and save most of it, but the shaft is believed to be a total loss and is flooded.

On duty at the time was a night watchman. Operations at the shaft, according to Chief Lavoie, were halted about two years ago. However, work has been going on for the past few days removing the supporting materials in the shaft by means of cutting torches.

Actors wanted for Lennoxville Player's group

Currently planning their 1960-61 program, St. George's Players, of Lennoxville, are looking for new members interested in acting and other aspects of play production.

An organizational meeting is to be held on Wednesday, September 14, in St. George's Hall, Lennoxville, and if enough potential actors are available the group hopes to produce two plays, each one employing some veteran actors and some new talent.

The policy of producing first class comedies, such as last year's play "Hay Fever" by Noel Coward will be continued, though the actual choice of plays will not be decided until the available acting talent is known.

The Players rehearse on Wednesday evenings in St. George's Hall, Anyone, of any age, interested in acting, whether experienced or not, is urged to attend the first meeting on Wednesday the 14, at 8 p.m.

The annual congress of the Quebec Motor Coach Owners' Association will be held in Sherbrooke September 11th to 13th. Alphonse Laramee of Sherbrooke is president of the association.

LAKE MEGANTIC — An estimated $75,000 damages were caused by a sawmill fire here early this morning, and 45 employees are out of work.

The saw mill, the property of Elodien Duclos, of Megantic, was totally destroyed, including about 60,000 feet of wood which was being prepared for delivery.

Firefighting efforts were apparently hampered by explosions of a barrel of oil and a tank of gas, but none of the crew helping at the fire were reported injured.

Early this year a fire caused an estimated $30,000 damage at the same mill.

It is believed that banks of saws, valued at $20,000, were totally destroyed in the latest fire. Cause of the outbreak is not known.

OTTAWA — (Special) — Dr. Germain Joseph Brisson, 40, has been appointed superintendent of the Lennoxville Experimental Farm, the Canada Department of Agriculture announced today.

Dr. Brisson was born in St. Jacques, Que. He received his B.A. degree from University of Montreal in 1942; his B.Sc. from Laval University in 1946; his M.Sc. in poultry nutrition from McGill University in 1948; and his Ph.D. in animal nutrition from Ohio State University in 1950.

DR. G. J. BRISSON

He was awarded an I.O.D.E. scholarship in 1944, a Quebec Scientific Research Bureau scholarship in 1946-1947, and a W. M. Stewart scholarship in 1946. He also held a Quebec Agricultural Research Council scholarship and an Institute of Nutrition and Food Technology Fellowship in 1949-49.

Dr. Brisson joined the animal chemistry unit of the federal agriculture department in 1950. With the re-organization of the Research Branch in 1959, he was assigned as officer in charge of the nutrition unit, Biochemistry and Nutrition Section, Animal Research Institute.

He is a member of the Canadian and American Societies of Animal Production, American Dairy Science Association, and the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada.

Y's Men resume meetings

The Sherbrooke Y's Men's Club resumed activities after the summer recess last night at the Magog Hotel.

President Hal Evans welcomed the members back and spoke on the forthcoming Y's Men's Club 3rd Annual Gas Days which are being held on Sept. 23 and 24.

Chairman for this important club project is Steve Allatt and acting as co-chairmen are Earl Caunter and Wally Rouston. Chairman Steve Allatt stressed the importance of advance sales and urged all members to push these sales from now until the Gas Days. Garand BP service station located on the corner of King Street West and Jacques Cartier Street along with the Queen BP service station on the Brompton Road will be the service stations in use for the project.

At next week's meeting further details will be given to members and also a report on the past season's summer camp.

Mike Curtis BP supervisor was a guest at the meeting and was seated at the head table along with President Evans, Earl Caunter and Wally Rouston.

New SPCA shelter opened

A new S.P.C.A. Shelter has been established in Lennoxville, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. Ashley McMullen, who has been in charge of the S.P.C.A. Shelter in Lennoxville for the past two years.

Last year, she said, "we had some difficulty at the old shelter. People were just coming in and leaving their pets, we never knew whose animals they were. Then after a weekend, they just come and pick them up again without telling us about them."

This new shelter is located on private property, just outside the municipal limits.

"To give you an example of the work we do here," said Mrs. McMullen, "last year we found homes for 471 dogs, double that number of cats, eight pigeons — we ever cared for turtles, one was as big as a pie plate! — and rabbits. The S.P.C.A. cares for all unwanted animals, but has to depend on the generosity of the public, she said. "All animals brought to the shelter for care, are fed and tended by the S.P.C.A."

The shelter consists of a large fenced-in area, permitting exercise space for the animals, and a comfortable building containing the kennels. It is heated and insulated and the six or seven assorted dogs presently "in residence" appear healthy and happy.

"If people wish to turn their pets over to the S.P.C.A.," said Mrs. McMullen, "they should phone me at the listed S.P.C.A. number, L.O. 9-3533. If their pets are cats, they should get in touch with Mrs. Edna Markey at L.O. 9-0598.

Only eleven per cent turn out at the polls

By PAT BOUGIE (Record Staff Reporter)

A total of 7.1 per cent of the city's eligible voters voted in favor of "en bloc" elections in a city-wide referendum held yesterday.

A grand total of 1,779 people voted yesterday representing 11.5 per cent of the city's 15,351 eligible voters.

Following the tabulation of the referendum results, Mayor Armand Nadeau suggested that council forget the whole thing and not ask the Legislature to have the city's Charter amended because of the small number of voters who expressed their opinion.

Of the 1,779 voters who cast their ballots yesterday, 1,102 voted in favor of "en bloc" elections while the remaining 677 opposed.

425 MAJORITY

The majority of voters in favor of "en bloc" elections was 425. Residents of the West Ward voted as follows in yesterday's referendum.

A total of 12.8 per cent of the eligible voters in the ward cast their ballots. Of this percentage, 398 voted in favor of en bloc elections while 208 voted against to form a total of 606. Eligible voters in the Ward number 4,281.

In the East Ward, a total of 524 people voted—349 voted in favor while 175 were opposed.

This represented 12.2 per cent of the 4,281 eligible voters.

Those who showed the most interest in yesterday's referendum were South Ward residents. A total of 14.6 per cent of the Ward's 1,348 voters turned up at the polls.

Of the 1,348 eligible voters, 141 cast their ballots—85 in favor of en bloc and 56 against.

In the North Ward, 11.1 per cent of the eligible voters turned out. Of these, 244 voted in favor of en bloc elections while 215 pronounced themselves against for a total of 459.

Total number of eligible voters in the North Ward is 4,126.

The ward with the smallest turnout was the Center Ward. Only 49 voters out of a possible 914, or 5.3 per cent, cast their ballots.

Of the 49 who voted, 26 voted in favor of en bloc elections while the remaining 23 voters wanted things to stay as they are at present.

Change said not justified

Mayor Armand Nadeau last night suggested that council forget the whole matter of "en bloc" elections and not ask the Quebec Legislature to amend the City's charter to permit them.

Mr. Nadeau made the suggestion after learning of the results of the referendum held yesterday. Only 11.5 of the city's eligible voters turned out at the polls.

"This shows that 92.9 per cent of Sherbrooke voters are in favor of Sherbrooke's election system remaining the same. Therefore why ask for it to be changed," the mayor said.

"In view of these results," Mr. Nadeau said, "the municipal council would not be justified in asking the Quebec Legislature to modify the city's election system."

"The population of Sherbrooke had the opportunity to pronounce themselves freely. Council members did not participate in any way to influence the public in its decision," he said.

"I previously said," Mayor Nadeau added, "that in order to justify a change, 60 per cent of the voters would have to be in favor of one."

The mayor said that he was not going to go against the populations will and ask the Legislature to amend the City's charter for "en bloc" elections.

Appointed Fusiliers Officer Commanding

MONTREAL — Quebec Command of the Canadian Army today announced the promotion of Major John J. Dunn, CD, to the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and his appointment to command of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, RCIC, vice Lt.-Col. R. Crepeau, CD.

LT. COL. DUNN

He joined the 35th L.A.A. Battery, RCA of Sherbrooke as a boy-gunner in 1945, and remained with the unit until November 1947, being discharged as an acting bombardier.

On February 9, 1948 he was commissioned in Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, as a second lieutenant. He took Method "D" officer's qualifying course, in the Command Contingent Plan, which consisted of three months at Camp Val Cartier and three months at Camp Borden.

In 1958 Lt.-Col. Dunn was appointed second-in-command of his regiment, and took his staff course instruction at Kingston, 1959, to qualify for his M.S.C.

On Sept. 25, 1957, Lt.-Col. Dunn received his Canadian Forces Decoration.

Official change of command parade will be held in the Belvedere Street Armoury, October 5.

Born at Sherbrooke, he was educated at St. Patrick's Academy, from which he graduated in 1946. After a year at Loyola College in Montreal, he attended Bishop's University, and graduated in 1950 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Lt.-Col. Dunn then attended the University of Western Ontario, from which he obtained a diploma in business administration in 1952.

Old cemetery care

The Missisquoi County Historical Society has embarked upon an all-out campaign to clean up neglected cemeteries in the county.

The Society is carrying out this project from now until the snow flies.

Those who read old diaries know that many of our grandparents in the Eastern Townships spent a day in the family or parish cemetery twice a year, generally cleaning up and making sure everything was in a good state of repair.

There is a great deal more to cemetery care than simply cherishing the final resting place of local residents, although this, too, is important.

Many of the cemeteries in the Townships represent a vital part of Townships history. Some of them go back to the earliest settlers of this part of Canada.

There are quite a number of such cemeteries in Missisquoi County.

Many pioneer people, for example, lie buried near a stone home in Stanbridge East.

The burial ground was once enclosed by a fine white fence with a gate in it. Now the fence lies rotting on the ground, brush grows 12 feet high in the cemetery and many of the stones lie face down on the ground.

St. Armand is another neglected place where many of the first settlers in Missisquoi county lie. There is, for example, a very bad growth starting in the Dutch Street or Rosenberger cemetery that should be checked and cleaned out.

But such situations are not confined to Missisquoi County. Throughout the Townships there are innumerable old cemeteries — important links in the story of E.T. development — that are being allowed to go to ruin and eventual oblivion.

The example being set by the Missisquoi County Historical Society is a fine one. It should be followed by all other Townships groups dedicated to preserving our historical heritage.

Drastic highway safety regulations

Desperate ills are said to require desperate remedies and this idea seems behind the latest move by Vermont state police authorities to crack down on motor law violators.

Stunned by a number of multi-death accidents in recent weeks, Public Safety Commissioner William Baumann, who directs the state troopers, has ordered that all cars on the highways after midnight be stopped for license checks and sobriety tests for the drivers if there are indications of drinking.

Comm. Bauman explains that the crackdown will serve a double purpose — cut down on reckless driving and aid in curbing the growing crime rate in certain sections of the state.

In addition, many towns have passed local ordinances provide an 11 p.m. cur-few of persons under eighteen years of age who are not accompanied by adults or are not headed directly for some definite objective. The latter ruling results from accidents in which several youths were killed after midnight.

These regulations may seem rather harsh and it is doubtful if they will be adopted by other states or by Canadian provinces in a hurry — because of public objections and lack of law enforcement officers to make any such checks effective.

It will be interesting to observe, however, just what effect if any these measures have on the fatal accident rate. If a sharp curtailment in the death toll results, it is possible that similar regulations, amended to suit local conditions, may be enacted elsewhere.

Atomic heat

A few years ago we used to hear a lot of long-range forecasts about the "peaceful uses of atomic energy."

A wonderful world was in the offing, we were told, once people stopped concentrating on the war potential of atomic energy and started to put it to peaceful uses.

Then, of course, came a long series of bomb tests, first of the atom-bomb, then of the more devastating H-bomb.

Our attention was diverted more and more to the warlike properties of the atom and less and less to its peaceful ones.

And now, we learn, that part of that wonderful world of atomic energy is almost ready to materialize.

Significantly, it will come in Sweden, a country that has carefully kept itself in a position of strict neutrality and outside the tensions of the Cold War.

A press report claims that 12,000 homes in the satellite city of Farsta will be heated with atomically produced heat by the winter of 1963.

Farsta, a self-contained suburb of Stockholm is now under construction.

Use of nuclear energy for heating is made possible by the design of an atomic reactor now under construction nearby. It is primarily being built to feed electric power into Stockholm's power network. But in doing so, it will also produce the heat as a bi-product. And it will do this it is claimed, at a price competitive with coal or oil.

Press Comment

OLD-AGE PENSION (Fredericton Gleaner) Changes in national old-age pensions have been suggested and debated in the Commons, and there are reports that government legislation is being prepared on the subject. Possibility of a boost in the amount paid to needy and de-erving cases has been widely suggested. This is a solution that needs to be approached with caution. It involves the extension of the "means test" principle which is admirable in theory but which in practice has always been unpopular, difficult to administer and leaving the door open for fraud.

One pension reform we should like to see is the addition of a sound voluntary contributory feature to the present national old-age pension plan. This would enable every citizen to increase his old-age pension by contributions beginning at an early age. All would, as now, receive a certain basic minimum, regardless of their contributions.

DEATH OF A SKILL

(Peterborough Examiner) We discovered with annoyance the other day that some interesting busybody has devised a gadget for dispensing ketchup with the press of a plunger. Gone are the exhilarating battles with the reluctant bottle and wasted are the years we spent perfecting the art of depositing just the right amount on the plate.

You can keep your Edisons, Marconis and Watson-Watts; show us a man who can uncup a ketchup bottle with a casual snap of the fingers and garnish his meal without splattering the ceiling and walls, and we will show you a man who has taken the trouble to study and conquer the basic needs of life and practical dynamics without resorting to gadgetry.

Eight new states

Africa is transformed overnight

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

The birth of eight new independent states in the past month has almost overnight transformed the map of Africa.

An unbroken expanse of blue—the color depicting France's former west and equatorial African colonies, now will be checkered with the colorings of new republics. From Ouagadougou to Brazzaville the tricolor is being lowered.

Ivory Coast, Voltaic Republic, Dahomey, Niger, Chad, Central African Republic, Gabon and the (French) Congo Republic have decided to abandon their semi-autonomous status and become fully independent within the French community in the footsteps of Madagascar.

Their independence — declared only days and weeks apart in August—comes at a critical period in the emergence of Africa from colonial rule. Freedom celebrations in Brazzaville or Bangui were offset by dissension, rioting and near civil war across the river in the turbulent Congo which gained independence from Belgium July 1.

The French—by paying a little more attention to preparing administrators to run the new states — may have averted the cruel legacy of the sudden Belgian withdrawal from the Congo. Opportunity for education, social and economic advancement, and in recent years for political responsibility, may have paid dividends.

Chief criticism used to be that France was trying to create "black Frenchmen" to bind the colonies closer to the mother country. Today Africans want to use the knowledge and culture inherited from the French to run their own show.

Whether the peaceful transition of the former French territories from colony to independence has been jeopardized by the breakup of Mali Federation, which became independent earlier in the year, is a new danger. The future of secessionist Senegal and the former French Sudan is not yet clear.

At the beginning of 1960 there were only 10 independent states on the continent—the Arab countries of Egypt, Libya, Tunisia and Morocco; the "black" states south of the Sahara of Liberia, Ethiopia, Sudan, Ghana and Guinea; and the white-dominated Union of South Africa. Since January independence has come to French Africa, the Congo, and the United Nations trust terriories of Somalia, Togo and Cameroon.

The situation in other territories:

Mauritania: This large desert area on the northwest coast is expected to become independent in November, it now is an autonomous republic within the French community, internally self-governing but with French control of defence, education and external affairs.

Algeria: After years of bitter warfare, President de Gaulle is seeking a policy of self-determination for Algeria's majority Moslems and minority of white settlers. Much depends on whether a cease-fire can be negotiated with the Nationalists paving the way for a political settlement, and whether sufficient security for the whites can be guaranteed.

French Somaliland: France so far has resisted pressure from the new-born Somali Republic for incorporation of French Somaliland, another overseas territory of the French community.

Sierra Leone and Nigeria: Both already are internally self-governing. Nigeria is due to become independent within the British Commonwealth Oct. 1, and Sierra Leone on the west coast next April 27. In Nigeria the question is whether the federation can overcome regional ethnic and religious differences to become a cohesive unit. With a population of near 40,000,000, largest in Africa, Nigeria shares some of the ingredients of disintegration which now threaten the Congo.

Gambia: This small British west African colony just north of Sierra Leone has representative government similar to that enjoyed in Upper and Lower Canada prior to 1840.

High Commission Territories: Representative government is also in its early stages in Basutoland, wholly surrounded by South Africa, and in Swaziland and Bechuanaland. South Africa claims these territories, but Britain is not likely to relinquish control.

Zanzibar and Uganda: In British east Africa there now is an African majority in the legislative assembly of the clove island protectorate of Zanzibar. Despite recent disturbances the protectorate of Uganda is well advanced toward the goal of independence, promised but without a date set.

Kenya: The electoral system in this British colony favors the 50,000 white settlers, but Africans are members and ministers in the legislature. Amid rumblings of a revival of Mau Mau-type terrorism, officials in London would like to see a workable multi-racial society evolved in time to satisfy the 5,000,000 Africans, who seek independence.

Rhodesia and Nyasaland: The 1953 constitution with an avowed eventual goal of "partnership" between whites and blacks is due for review later this year. Southern Rhodesia, a white-run self-governing colony, wants complete independence for the federation. But the protectorates of Northern Rhodesia, which includes the rich copperbelt, and Nyasaland with overwhelming African majorities fear white overlordship from Salisbury and want to go their separate ways. An elected African majority is to sit in the Nyasaland assembly.

Portuguese possessions: Mozambique, Angola and Guinea, administered as overseas provinces of the Lisbon government, are probably politically the most backward territories on the continent. The white population and a few "assimilated" Africans vote in Portuguese elections but enjoy no self-rule.

Spanish possessions: Spain clings to three small west coast colonies—Inhi, an enclave in Morocco, Spanish Sahara, and Spanish Guinea. Occasional reports of rebellion or slavery are rarely substantiated.

British Cameroons: One of four pre-First World War German colonies held in "trust" for the United Nations, this British-administered territory is on the verge of independence. Before next spring a plebiscite is to decide whether it will join neighboring Nigeria or the new Cameroon Republic, until January a French UN trust territory.

Tanganyika: In this British UN trust territory 8,000,000 Africans are moving toward internal self-government in September and eventual independence. Despite influential Asian and white minorities, its politics are dominated by the powerful Tanganyika African National Union, whose leader Julius K. Nyerere shares with Nyasaland's Dr. Hastings Banda the distinction of being colonial Africa's outstanding personalities.

Ruanda-Urundi: A Belgian-UN trust territory, this mountainous state is to have internal autonomy next year and independence shortly afterwards. For all practical purposes it used to be administered as part of the Congo.

Southwest Africa: This South African-administered trust territory, largely arid but wealthy in diamonds, is subject of perennial debates in the UN. South Africa considers it part of the union, has given it seats in parliament, and contends its future is a "domestic" affair.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

In December 1958, a petition was presented to the Mayor and Aldermen, by the then President of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. York, which was signed by some 200 property owners and tenants on the following streets: Wellington North; Frontenac; Dufferin; Moore; Prospect; Cresce; Portland and Queen Blvd.; concerning the inconvenience caused by the heavy traffic of trucks, and by actual count as many as 83 passed on these streets in one hour. It was stated that the problem had reached the point where prejudice was being caused to the residents concerned, and that a solution should be found without delay. These included: The junction of Jacques-Cartier Blvd. and the Highway No. 5. The construction of a new road along the C.N.R. tracks towards Bromptonville. The improvement of the east-Sherbrooke road to Bromptonville and the adoption of a By-Law rerouting the heavy trucks through the above-named arteries.

The petition has been ignored and no change made. The actual count of heavy trucks now passing on these streets is 120 odd per hour and that is the principal reason of traffic jams down Dufferin and Wellington Streets. At one of the Mayor's conferences with the Press, it was reported that he made a statement to the effect that the English citizens did not seem to take any interest in the affairs of the City, consequently they must be satisfied with what the Council does. When 200 property owners cannot get action on, as important a matter as this, without a few years' delay, they are not satisfied with that kind of treatment from their representatives in the present regime.

The Mayor wants to have a bridge built from Montreal St. to Terrill Ave., this winter, and has gone to the expense of having plans made for it, and we understand has or is about to approach the Governments for financial aid to build it there. Is the Mayor dictating where a bridge should be built, regardless of what the rate-payers want? Surely we have not reached that point yet. We have not been able to find anyone in the vicinity of these streets who want a bridge built there and none who think it will help the traffic situation any - on the contrary it is thought it would worsen the traffic jams. It is true that a bridge at that location is on the LaHaye plan, and there are also two or three more on the plan to be eventually built across the St. Francis river. We must not forget that a guide to follow in the best manner to improve our City during the next fifty years. The whole traffic trouble starts on the Bromptonville road and that is where it should be remedied and the bridge built without delay down there, and the heavy trucks re-routed to the East-Sherbrooke road and not come on to our main streets at all. The East-Sherbrooke road would have to be straightened and widened... and the bridge and the road work would not cost any $3,000,000 either.

If the trucks carrying pulpwood, logs, etc., from the Scotts-town direction, could be re-routed at Cookshire via the East Angus road to Sherbrooke, instead of coming into Lennoxville; Lennoxville road; and on to Depot St. and King St. where the traffic jams occur all the time, and rerouted to the New bridge, then Cookshire; Lennoxville; the Lennoxville road; Depot St.; Wellington St. No.; Dufferin; Prospect; etc., would be cleared of heavy trucks. We are sure that if Cookshire, Lennoxville and Sherbrooke got together, a plan could be made to accomplish this immediately. Now, the trucks coming from Beauce via East Angus with Pulpwood, could be rerouted at the entrance to Sherbrooke East to the new bridge. If the Jacques-Cartier Blvd. is extended to Route No. 5, on the Bromptonville road and trucks, on their way to Montreal, rerouted to the Montreal Road, our traffic problem would be pretty well solved.

This is a great deal more important to Sherbrooke than extending and widening King St. West, and should be tackled without any delay, and the Governments would no doubt help to finance it too.

Trusting that we shall get action and soon.

Thanking you for space in your valued paper. Yours, in the interest of our City RESIDENTS OF THE NORTH WARD

EAST KEEPS WRONG ACE Today's hand is one that I played shortly after my return from Korea in 1952.

My partner was a fine player but I had never played with him before and was not sure just what his four heart opening meant. In any event the game was duplicate and I wanted to get to no-trump for the extra 30 points.

Also I was willing to play five no-trump and hence bid four no-trump. Of course, this was Blackwood, and my partner dutifully showed his one ace.

Now I bid five spades. In the Blackwood convention this bid of a new suit after partner has shown his ace or aces says, "Partner, we miss two aces but I want to play five no-trump because we can make five no-trump."

My partner knew this but he also knew I was just back from Korea. So, on the theory that I was shell-shocked or something he passed my five spades.

Just then came the galloping hoofs of the cavalry to the rescue. East looked at his two aces and four spades and cried, "double!" I ran to five no-trump and East doubled that also. Needless to say I redoubled.

West opened a heart. I ran off dummy's eight hearts and discarded my three spades and the king, queen and jack of diamonds.

Then when I ran my four clubs East held on to the wrong ace and I made seven.

Bygone Days

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Extensive tariff changes are forecast in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of an emergency session of the Canadian Parliament called to deal with unemployment problems.

TEN YEARS AGO

A stop-gap budget, born of the Korean war and the threat of an even-larger conflict, put moderately-higher commodity taxes into effect today—with an ominous hint of bigger levels in the not-too-distant future.

No developments appeared today to be pushing Russians and communist China toward a decision on helping the North Koreans with troops and air power, or by some action to engage American forces elsewhere.

Q—The bidding has been: South West North East 4 Heart Pass 3 Hearts Pass 5 Spades Pass 4 Dmnds. Pass 5 Clubs Pass 6 Hearts Pass

A—Pass. There may be seven but those three little diamonds don't look good and six bid and made is a nice score anyway.

TODAY'S QUESTION You hold the same hand. Your partner responds one spade to your opening heart. What is your rebid?

USE POOR WAY TO DRAW TOURISTS

A government newspaper in Moscow says "The doors of the Soviet are open and will remain open to everybody who wants to get acquainted with its life and culture."

Most westerners who ponder this statement will come to the conclusion that the traffic through the doors will be light if Moscow continues its policy of suspicion where visitors are concerned. Certainly the American YMCA tourist who was expelled from Russia because he gave clothes, three Bibles and some American publications to a Soviet citizen is not going to recommend Russia as a place for other tourists to visit.

BRITISH AREA British Honduras, the only British dependency in Central America, has a population of 85,000 in an area of 8,800 square miles.

CHANGING CONTINENT — The birth of independent nations this year has changed the map of Africa. Maps above show areas that attained independence and (at right) those still dependent. Final status of The Congo, in central Africa, and the Mali Federation, in the northwest, still is uncertain.

Katanga, richest province of The Congo, declared itself a separate state not long after the former Belgian colony gained its independence July 1. Senegal has voted to quit the Mali Federation, formed by union of Senegal with the French Sudan, and has applied for recognition by the United Nations. (CP Newsmap)

Bishop's workshop cancelled

No translators, lack of response

A three-day workshop conference which was to have been held at Bishop's University yesterday, today and tomorrow, by the Canadian Cancer Society was cancelled because of "a lack of response from delegates and inability to obtain the services of a simultaneous translator," Mrs. John Castle, Administrative Secretary of the Canadian Cancer Society for Montreal, said yesterday.

"Lack of response," she blamed on the fact that school was opening on those dates and "lack of translators," she blamed on the fact that there are only four people in this province trained in simultaneous translation. Of these four, one was at a conference in Mexico, one at a conference in New York, one at a conference in Montreal and the other one sick.

Object of the workshop, which will be held in Montreal, Nov. 23, 24 and 25, is a thorough study and appraisal of education and welfare procedures.

Farewell Party Tendered Pastor At Sutton

SUTTON — Douglas N. Moffat, student pastor of Olivet Baptist Church here for nearly three years, completed his ministry on Aug. 14, and left the same evening for Hamilton, Ont., where he will be residing while completing his theological training at McMaster University.

Before his departure his friends in the Church entertained in his honor at the Church Hall.

After a brief program, colored slides of local interest were shown and Gordon Gillespie, on behalf of the Church and other friends, presented Mr. Moffat with an oil painting of a Sutton scene and with a gift of money.

After Mr. Moffat had thanked the donors, refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid. The president of the Ladies' Aid and the president of the Mission Circle presided at the tea table, which was centered by a beautifully decorated cake.

Later Rev. J. H. M. Brett, of the Anglican Church, and Mr. Wesley Ball, of the United Church, expressed their good wishes to Mr. Moffat, and to Mr. Andrew Moffat, of Pointe Claire, who succeeds his son as the lay pastor of the Church, and who thanked the members for the kindness shown his son during his stay in Sutton.

A pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of, Blest Be The Tie That Binds, and the pastor pronounced the benediction.

Mr. Moffat's marriage to Miss Gayle Dunlop took place in Dryden, Ont., on Monday, August 29.

Revolutionary new loom dispenses with shuttle

KINGSTON, Ont. — (CP) — The development of more than 200 years ago. The Draper machine, which replaced the shuttle with a wire hook arrangement for carrying the filling yarn between the lengthwise yarns, is being built at a rate of 100 a month and had already shown considerable savings over conventional machines.

An audience of international textile technologists heard a panel of experts representing Switzerland, the United States and Canada outline the merits of three such machines.

J. Craig Huff Jr. of the Draper Corporation, Hopedale, Mass., described the introduction of the shuttleless loom as the most radical departure from conventional weaving since the fly-shuttle.

the same chaotic state, with both men claiming control over the army and neither knowing for sure where the troops would turn in a showdown.

Today's government communiqué claimed that Lumumba and his government still had the backing of both the army and police and that the situation was in hand.

The heavy troop and police patrols on the streets gave no public indication of whether they backed Lumumba or Kasavubu although many soldiers said in private conversations that they would support the president in a showdown.

Lumumba addressed the assembly for two hours Wednesday before it voted, denouncing everyone from the United Nations to the Roman Catholic church.

SMEAR CAMPAIGN CHARGE
He charged that the UN had violated the sovereignty of the Congo in closing down airfields in the republic and shutting Leopoldville radio, his main outlet for speeches trying to rally the many Congolese tribes behind him.

Lumumba also accused Catholic missionaries, the Belgians and other colonialists of plotting against him. He said a smear campaign had been launched to label him a Communist.

The premier's speech was interrupted several times by boos from the opposition and cheers from his supporters. At one point, when Lumumba said a Catholic bishop had been found in Kasai Province disguised as a general of the breakaway "mining state," opposition member Mzezi Landa walked out of the assembly shouting and gesticulating at the premier.

Coaticook May Have Class For Retarded Children

COATICOOK — If plans of the local committee materialize it is quite possible that a class for retarded children may commence locally this autumn, according to chairman Gaston Jean Marie.

Following a recent meeting of the executive, it is indicated that about all that is delaying the plans for the project, is the finding of a suitable locale. Any line with suggestions along this line should contact Mr. Jean Marie, or others on the committee. Such help will be appreciated.

Miss Amy Leduc, education officer, and Mrs. W. Taylor, vice-president of the Quebec Association for Retarded Children met with the committee of the Coaticook branch at the home of Mrs. R. A. Rosenberg to discuss plans for the opening of the school in this area. To date 12 children have taken intelligence tests at the Sherbrooke Psychological Clinic.

United Church newspaper backs novels under fire

TORONTO — The United Church Observer, official publication of the United Church of Canada, has taken a stand in support of some novels under censorship clouds.

The Observer says in an editorial: "The Observer criticizes 'the illiterate and puritanical book burners who publicize and condemn things they haven't read' and 'zealous anti-censorship people who defend books they haven't read.'"

Peyton Place, by Grace Metalious, "was a pretty good book. It's not a bad mirror of some towns we all know. It's a good thing to have a good novelist take us to the places we can't go and show us the things we haven't seen."

The editorial describes D. H. Lawrence's hotly-controversial Lady Chatterley's Lover as "somewhat tedious."

—RELE. THURS. AUG. 18 L.D. IF YOU USE TRANQUILIZERS, BE AWARE OF CONSEQUENCES BY HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN M. D.

One in every seven Americans is taking tranquilizers as an escape from anxiety, according to Dr. E. M. Papper, professor of anesthesiology at Columbia's College of Physicians and Surgeons. In a recent conversation with several of my colleagues, I expressed the opinion that over-enthusiastic prescription of tranquilizers, especially without preliminary investigation into the cause for the individual's anxiety, constituted a serious indictment of current medical practice principles. Without a dissenting voice, my colleague insisted that practical considerations compelled them to act in a manner contrary to their better judgment.

According to their joint defense of themselves personally and of the profession in general, they asserted they were virtually compelled to prescribe each new drug that was glowingly reported in popular magazines.

If they protested that the drug was insufficiently tested or that it occasionally and unpredictably exhibited unpleasant or even toxic side effects, they came to be regarded as "old fogies."

If they suggested a preliminary inquiry into the cause for the anxiety, they were accused of trying to "psycho-analyze" and were assured that there was no need to pry into the private affairs of the patient.

Indeed, the purpose of the visit might be baldly stated to be a request for a prescription to obtain a drug that the local pharmacist would not sell over the counter. And, if that prescription were not forthcoming, the "customer" knew where one could be obtained.

Before you follow this unwise course, perhaps you'll be interested in the following list of some toxic side effects produced by certain tranquilizers, as reported in reputable medical journals:

Sleepiness, dizziness and uncertainty in gait (ataxia). Lack of muscular control, making it unsafe to operate a motor vehicle.

Shaking palsy (like paralysis agitans or Parkinson's disease). Severe depression, occasionally to the point of suicide attempts.

Rashes, occasionally covering the entire body. Nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, constipation or abdominal pain; the last with occasional stomach ulceration and perforation.

Liver damage, sometimes incapacitating and occasionally fatal.

Addition to some types with withdrawal symptoms such as occur when the morphinist attempts to "kick the habit."

Destruction of white or red cells, with occasional fatality. Unless the stakes are higher than the mere quieting of anxiety, I am unwilling to accept these risks.

And if you agree with me, you'll co-operate with your doctor when he seeks to discover and eliminate the causes for your anxieties.

Mothers Plan Kindergaren

For Knowlton

KNOWLTON — The kindergaren, which is held during the school year, is being planned to operate again this year, if enough parents are interested in sending their five-year olds.

The kindergaren is run by mothers, who meet at the beginning of each school year to elect officers. This year they are as follows: President, Mrs. Keith Mizener; vice-president, Mrs. Ian R. MacDougall; secretary, Mrs. John Barr; and Mrs. B. Hamel deserves a special vote of thanks for her excellent work as treasurer.

Classes are held from 9 - 11:30, and during this time the children are in the expert hands of Mrs. Harold Spencer. The kindergaren is supported financially by grants from the Narcissa Farrand Fund and the Fisher Trust Fund.

There are no area restrictions, and the only stipulation is that parents must get their children to the Church Hall themselves.

Those mothers with five-year-olds who are interested in the kindergaren are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Keith Mizener at ch 3-6636.

ST. MARY'S —

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fontaine, of Quebec City, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hunter and Miss Judy Hunter, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrissey.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bernier, of Lachine, visited Miss Doris Morrissey.

Marriage

PATRICK-GREEN

DANVILLE — On Monday, August 1, at 11 o'clock in Trinity United Church, Helen Chrissie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Green, became the bride of Lionel Gordon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Patrick, of Ottawa, Ont. Rev. Douglas Blair officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Mildred McNeill played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Gerald Spafford, aunt of the bride, who sang, I'll Walk Beside You preceding the ceremony and The Wedding Prayer, during the signing of the register. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, phlox and zinnia with low bowls of sweet peas on the communion table. The guest pews were designated with white satin rosettes centered with tiny nosegays of red summer flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. James Lewis, of Sherbrooke, was in a waltz length gown of pure silk organza over taffeta, the bouffant skirt falling from a basque waist-line. Her fitted bodice was finished with a wide shawl collar ending in a V with lace insert sprinkled with iridescent sequins. The long sleeves of organza ended in petal points over the hands. Her finger tip tiered veil of net, appliqued with roses, and centered with a pearl, a gift of her aunt, Mrs. Peter Dupigny, of Roseau, Manitoba, B.W.I. fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her only jewellery was a strand of pearls with matching earrings. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink carnations and white mums.

Miss Janet Molson, as maid of honour, wore a ballerina length bouffant dress of lavender organza over taffeta having a shirred cummerbund and a short bolero over the fitted bodice. She wore a matching picture hat of organza and net, and carried a small cascade bouquet of yellow and white mums.

Mr. Russell Patrick, of Ottawa, was best man for his brother and the ushers were James Green and Edward Gelinax, brother and cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a dress of forest green organza over a floral print with beige accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore an aqua dress of organza and lace with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

MR. and MRS. LIONEL GORDON PATRICK, photographed cutting the cake at the reception following their wedding which took place recently in Trinity United Church, Danville, Que. Mrs. Patrick, the former Helen Chrissie Green, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Green of Danville; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Patrick, of Ottawa, Ont.

church hall where summer flowers were used to decorate. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, decorated with miniature swans and topped with a white satin rosette. Sweet peas were arranged at the base of the cake which was flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra.

Beauty Tips

To add to a woman's beauty image her girdle must fit well. Make sure yours is fitted to waist, hip and ribcage.

If applied carelessly foundation make-up will show up in wrinkles and blemishes.

Summer is the time of light cottons. Enhance that light summer feeling by using sachets and floral scents in closets and drawers holding summer garments.

Women's Groups

GROUP I

Group I of the Woman's Federation of the Lennoxville United Church reconvened after the summer recess in the ladies' Parlor, Douglas Hall, Queen St., with nineteen present.

Mrs. A. R. Parsons, president, welcomed the group and opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn and a tribute of silence was observed for Mrs. John Copping, a member whose passing is deeply felt.

Mrs. W. S. Richardson acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. A. N. Flint and also gave the treasurer's report for Mrs. A. E. Abercrombie. A most satisfactory balance was shown in the report.

Plans were made to assist at a supper for members of the choir and food was solicited.

Notice was given of the W.M.S. W.A. regional meeting to be held at Waterville on Sept. 26 and delegates were named to attend.

The roll call was responded to by turning in talent money and plans were outlined for the making of a quilt with blocks 18 x 18 and other activities discussed.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah and tea was served with Mrs. H. C. Wright as convener.

PASTEURIZED FOR PURITY

AN EXCELLENT DIETARY SOURCE OF VITAMIN C

To help build strong bones, sound gums and teeth, your baby needs vitamin-C every day, since this important vitamin cannot be stored in the body. Gerber Strained Orange Juice, prepared just for babies, is made from specially selected, tree-ripened oranges. Careful pasteurization insures absolute purity.

Of course, Gerber Strained Orange Juice is easy to digest, has a mild flavour that appeals to tiny taste buds. Careful straining makes it easy to feed baby from spoon, bottle, or cup.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8th—Plans . . . Plans . . . Plans . . . Goodness knows how many plans George and I tried to get our finances on the rails, but nothing worked for us. Nothing, that is, till we discovered the BANK OF MONTREAL Family Finance Plan. Here is the modern plan that showed us how to get the things we need for our home and family with a single low-cost life-insured loan. A few minutes spent with the people at "My Bank" and this comprehensive plan was working for us that very day. Why don't you enquire about the B of M's Family Finance Plan at your nearest branch of "MY BANK".

BWARE AND TAKE CARE . . . for dangerous germs lurk in every drain! That's why I urge you to enlist the aid of GILLET'S DRAIN CLEANER . . . because its special churning, boiling action completely scours out every bit of the filthy, germ-breeding muck that collects in clogged-up drains. You'll never miss the time it takes to put just 2 tablespoons of Gillett's Drain Cleaner in every drain, every week . . . that's all! So keep your kitchen sink a safe place to wash your family's food and dishes, keep your bathroom tub and basin wonderfully clean . . . by making one day a week your "Gillett's Drain Cleaner Day!"

WHEN BACK-TO-SCHOOL SHOPPING takes time away from meal preparation, you can still feed your family deliciously by relying on the flavour magic of MAGGI CHICKEN BOUILLON CUBES. Give gourmet flavour to stews, gravies and casserole dishes by adding Maggi Cubes. Or just drop two or more Maggi Cubes in the boiling water when cooking rice, peas, carrots or other vegetables. I know, once you've discovered this quick and easy secret, you'll agree that it makes a world of flavour difference. So look for the yellow and red package of Maggi Chicken Bouillon Cubes next time you shop.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA comes this grateful letter: "I have always kept TEMPLETON'S T-R-C's on hand, ever since my wife first used them years ago when we were living on the Prairies. She used to get cramps and rheumatic pain in her hands and feet, and whenever that happened she used T-R-C's with great relief." This letter is just one of many heartfelt testimonials to the effectiveness of T-R-C's in relieving the pain, not only of back-ache and lumbago, but also the long-drawn-out agony of arthritis, neuritic, sciatic or rheumatic pain. If you are troubled yourself—or know of anyone who is—do try Templeton's T-R-C's.

Improve public relations Monteith advises hospital

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canada's hospitals will have to step up their public relations efforts to educate citizens on their financial and operating problems, Health Minister Monteith said Tuesday.

In an address to the Western Canada Institute for Hospital Administrators and Trustees, the federal minister said control of costs will have to be a joint effort of hospital's, the medical profession, governments, voluntary agencies and the public at large.

He saw this as one of the factors already apparent in the developing operation of the national hospital insurance and diagnostic services program, which next year will embrace all provinces and territories.

OUTPATIENT CARE

Also of importance during the next decade would be the matter of outpatient care, the program's "greatest area of potential development." The federal government was prepared to share in the costs of the full range of inpatient services on an outpatient basis so long as these are made universally available to residents of a province.

"The advantages to be gained from a broad range of insured outpatient services are sufficient to merit an all-out effort being made in this direction," now an option of the provinces under the hospital care plan.

"The more that can be done in this field, the better chance we will have of lessening the pressure on inpatient services with the consequent saving in hospital expenditures."

Mr. Monteith also urged concerted action on providing facilities for the chronically-ill, a field "we in Canada have been somewhat slow in developing."

Mount Royal Wins In Tennis At Knowlton

KNOWLTON — The Mount Royal Tennis Club defeated the Brome Lake Boating Club Tennis Team, four matches to two, in Knowlton.

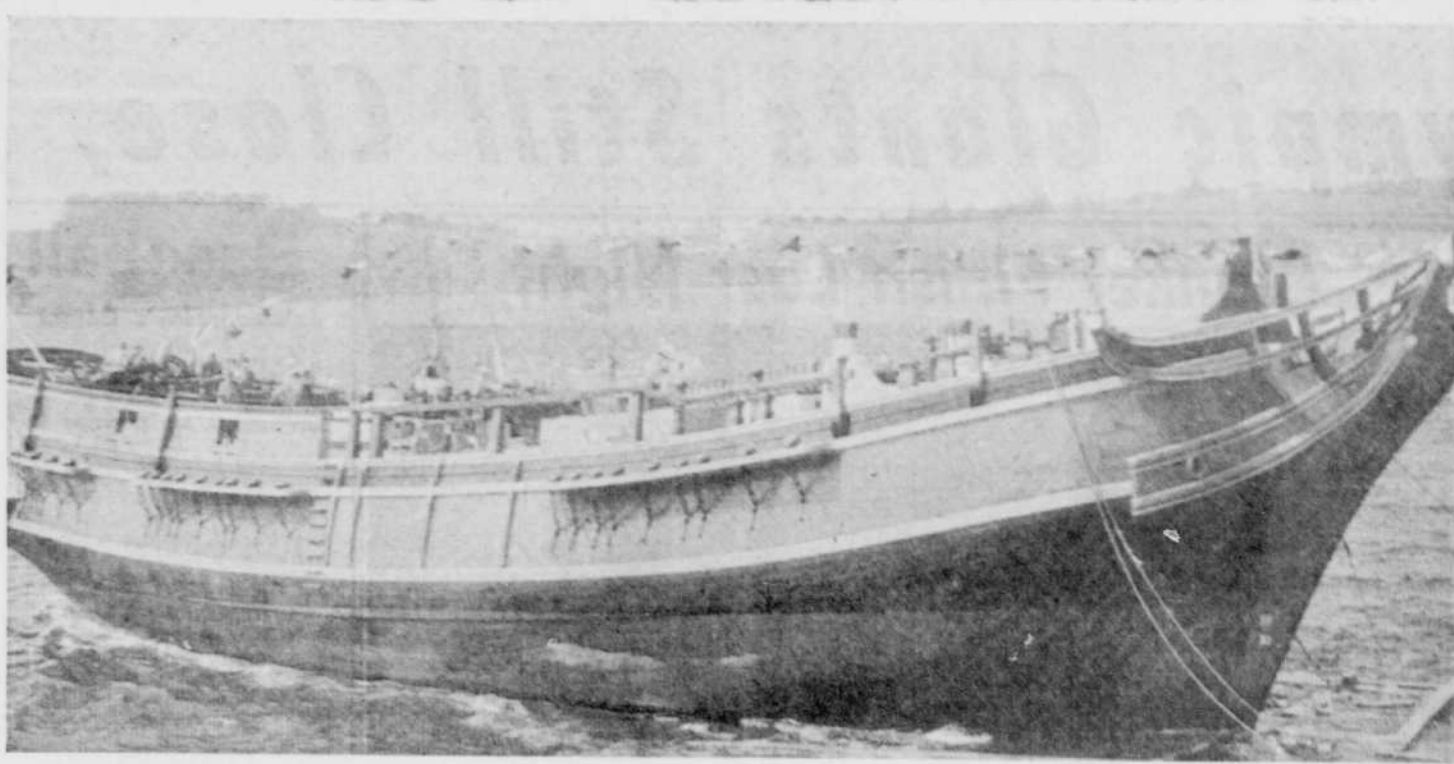

Mount Royal's four winning matches came in the men's and women's singles and the two men's doubles games. The Boat Club won the mixed doubles and the women's doubles for their two points.

The two singles matches were the longest and best played as Charlie Heinrich, of Mount Royal, the 1956 Canadian Boys Tennis Champion, lost the first set but came back strongly to defeat the Boat Club's Champion, Ritchie Bell, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Diana Wilkins, representing the Boat Club, lost to Susan Sharp, this year's Provincial Junior Champion, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

After the singles matches, Bell teamed with BLBC's player, Andy Allerton, in the No. 1 men's doubles, but lost in another close match, 6-3, 4-6, and 6-3, to Heinrich and Mickie Anderson. In the No. 2 men's doubles Allerton combined with Ilay Ferrer to lose the Boat Club's fourth match, 6-3, 6-2, to Kenny McReynolds and Bob Sinclair.

Bunny Lynch and his wife Cairine recorded one of the Boat Club's two points by winning the mixed doubles. They defeated Sinclair and Janet Miller 6-4, 4-6, 6-3. Diane Wilkins and Cathy O'Brien, the Club's most improved players, teamed with Sine Dodge, ton's other point as they defeated Janet Miller and Sine Dodge, 6-3, 6-3, in the women's doubles.

AIR CONDITIONING TOO — There probably wouldn't have been a Mutiny on the Bounty if the original version of Lieut. Bligh's ship had the up-to-date features of this one. Built in Lunenburg, N.S., for a refilming of Mutiny on the Bounty, it features air conditioning, deep freezes and an electric galley.

Built for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, the Bounty was launched recently. (CP Wirephoto)

Compton County Historical Soc. Officials Meet

COOKSHIRE — The executive and the directors of the Compton County Historical Museum Society held a meeting in the Eaton Town Hall on Aug. 29, with the president, Leslie MacLeod, in the chair.

The secretary, Mrs. George Parsons read the minutes, and Mrs. Stanley Bisop gave the treasurer's report, which showed that a generous contribution had been received from the Southern Canada Power Co. Ltd.

The date for the annual meeting was set for Sept. 19, at 8 p.m., in the Museum. A nominating committee was appointed to bring in a slate of officers for the ensuing year, and a slight misunderstanding about painting the steeple and belfry was adjusted.

The Museum is now in readiness to receive articles, and those wishing to contribute may contact Charles Picard, of Eaton, who will be glad to assist the donors and give information. All articles should have the history of the article and the name of the donor attached so that Mrs. Fred Robinson will be able to catalogue the information.

It was suggested that each branch of the Women's Institute of the County be responsible for the raising of funds by sponsoring one evening's entertainment a year; and for providing a program with some music. Thus the task and pleasure of having interesting programs would be equally shared by the eight branches.

Doughnuts and coffee will be served after the annual meeting on Sept. 19 and a social hour will be enjoyed.

DENISON'S MILLS —

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, of Montreal, accompanied their daughter, Dr. Kathleen M. Lloyd, and her son, Mr. Evan Lloyd, of New York City, on a trip to spend a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Denison and daughters.

Mr. Doug McNeill, of Danville, who was employed by Mr. Spencer Brook this summer, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac C. Denison, of Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Mich., and their niece, Mrs. Ross Noll, (Barbara Denison) with her three-year-old son, Bobbie, from Kitchener, Ont., spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Findlay and Mr. Harland Findlay, of Gatineau, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Paterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hodge, who were recently married in Chalmers United Church, Richmond, will reside in Greenfield Park.

ELECTRONIC BRAIN

An all-transistor electronic computer, developed in Britain, can perform nearly 500,000 calculations a minute.

Garden Party At Knowlton

KNOWLTON — The annual garden party, under the co-operation of Mrs. Erissa Coote, and sponsored by the Women's Association took place on the United Church lawn and was most successful.

The weather was ideal and the large crowd in attendance took advantage of the many interesting sales' tables which included home-cooking, homemade candy, fancy-work, aprons, knitted goods, miscellaneous articles, white elephant table, mystery table and many others.

The tea tables were attractively arranged in the church hall, each being tastefully centered with tiny bouquets of summer flowers.

Proceeds amounted to nearly $500.00.

ST. MARY'S —

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. Dennis Carlin, who celebrates his 94th birthday on September 7th despite his advanced age Mr. Carlin enjoys very good health.

Guests of the Nadeau and Paquette families were Mrs. H. Vallee, of Whitty, Ont., and Mrs. Rita Lacelle, of Granby.

Battle Of Olympic Giants Still Close, Russia Ahead

Pirates Worried Over Losing Groat, Out With Broken Wrist, Lose 2-1 To Cards, Braves Edge Giants To Gain

There's no panic in Pittsburgh, but there's still the question: can the Pirates do it without Dick Groat?

Playing their first game without the sparkling shortstop, sidelined with a broken wrist, the Pirates lost a 2-1 decision to the second-place St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night.

That left the Bucs with a still healthy six-game buge and 20 games to play in a bid for their first National League pennant in 33 years.

The Cards wound up their season series against the Pirates with an 11-11 split by beating 19-game winner Vern Law—the big right-hander who had whipped them five times this year and 11 times in a row since June, 1958.

NEED GROAT AT BAT

Consider, too, that the man in Groat's No. 2 spot in the batting order twice left runners stranded in a game lost by one run.

Then consider the fact that Groat, the Bucs' top batsman (.325) and rally starter, had batted .363 against the Cards this season.

While the Cards dropped the Pirates, third-place Milwaukee moved within 6½ games of the top with a 6-5, 11-inning victory over San Francisco. Cincinnati edged Los Angeles 4-3 in 15 innings and Philadelphia defeated Chicago's Cubs 2-0.

The Cards scored the clincher in the eighth inning at Pittsburgh on Earl Spencer's single after Law, losing his seventh in his second try for No. 20, had given up a single by Joe Cunningham and then hit Ken Boyer.

BROGLIO'S 18TH WIN

Right-hander Ernie Broglio, who singled home the Cards' first run in the second inning, needed help from Lindy McDaniel but put away a 4-0 record over the Pirates with his 18th victory against seven defeats. That's the most won by a Card pitcher since Harvey Haddix, now with the Pirates, had an 18-13 record in 1954.

Broglio blanked the Bucs on seven hits until the ninth, after getting out of a fifth-inning jam. Bill Virdon led off the fifth with a triple, but was stranded when sub shortstop Dick Schofield, who was 1-for-3 batting in Groat's spot struck out, and Bob Skinner and Dick Stuart grounded out. In the ninth, singles by Don Hoak and Virdon broke the shut-out with two out, but McDaniel then got Hal Smith—batting for Schofield—to hit into a game-ending forceout.

The Braves beat the Giants and reliever Stu Miller (5-6) on Billy Bruton's one-out triple and a single by Del Crandall. Bruton's high fly, which fell for a two-run triple, and Crandall's single had brought the Braves from behind in a three-run fourth inning. Carl Willey (6-7) was the winner, giving up just one hit—Joe Amalfitano's tying sixth-inning double—in seven innings of relief.

A pinch double by Eddie Kasko gave the Reds a 3-3 tie in the ninth, and they then won the NL's longest game of the year when winning reliever Marshall Bridges (5-2) singled and scored on Frank Robinson's one-out single. Danny McDevitt (0-4) lost it in relief. The game went 15 innings.

Gene Conley, after losing six in a row, beat the Cubs with a four-hitter, striking out eight for his eighth victory. Don Cardwell (7-13) was the loser, giving up a third-inning run on singles by Bob Makmus, Tony Taylor and Tony Gonzalez.

Barry MacKay Isn't Worried Over Fact Top Europeans Didn't Show Up US National, Fraser, Laver Around

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—America's No. 1 hope in the national tennis championships isn't the least bit impressed by the fact that some of the top Europeans failed to put in an appearance this year.

"What difference does it make?" shrugged big Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio. "When you get down to the end, you still run into the Frasers and Lavers."

MacKay is seeded No. 3 behind defending champion Neale Fraser and his Australian Davis Cup mate, Rod Laver.

MacKay gained the round of 16 Wednesday when he downed young Rafael Osuna of Mexico, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Vic Seixas, 37-year-old champion back in 1954, won a marathon two-hour, 45-minute struggle from Chris Crawford of Piedmont, Calif., 6-4, 7-5, 3-6, 13-15, 6-2. He'll meet Chuck McKinley of St. Ann., Mo., in the round of 16. McKinley got past Joaquin Reyes of Mexico, 7-5, 6-4, 6-4.

LAVER HAD TROUBLE

Ron Holmberg of Brooklyn, seeded No. 7, stopped Frank Froehling III of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-4, 6-3, 6-2 and goes against Dennis Ralston, who downed Bob Hewitt of Australia, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

Blanket Finish Last Night

Seven horses are shown as they pulled under the wire at the local track last night in the Ninth race on the card. It was the closest finish ever witnessed here and required the photo-finish to determine the finishing positions. Fabi's Poplar Dream, number one, is ahead of the wire and was the winner, but the rest were bunched. Every horse in the race is seen and the finish was four, three, two, six, seven and five.

Berra and Blanchard Deliver In Clutches As Yanks Rally To Stop White Sox, Orioles Lose To Indians

Pinch hitters had been such a flop for New York Yankees that they went out looking for help. But a couple of guys they had all along — Yogi Berra and Johnny Blanchard—delivered in the clutch and put the Yanks within a half game of the American League lead.

After an error loaded the bases, Berra and Blanchard each slammed two runs across with pinch hits as the Yankees came from behind in a four-run eighth inning and defeated Chicago White Sox 6-4 Wednesday night.

It was only the third victory in eight games for the Yankees, who recently bought Dale Long from San Francisco of the National League for pinch-hit help.

Meanwhile the first-place Orioles lost 3-2 at Cleveland. Washington beat Kansas City 5-3 and Boston rallied for a 5-4 victory over Detroit.

BOBBLES GROUND

The Yankees, down 4-1 after Sheem Lollar's two-run homer for the Sox in the seventh, got rolling when Sammy Esposito booted Bill Skowron's double-play grounder. Berra, batting for Estion Howard, then tagged a two-run single off loser Early Wynn and Blanchard, batting for Cleve

Baseball Holds 18½-Point Edge But US Has 30 Gold Medals To Russia's 26, Harry Jerome's Aggravates Leg

ROME — (CP) — Russia matched the United States gold medal for gold medal in Wednesday's Olympic program to retain a small lead in the battle of the two giants for the unofficial team championship of the 1960 Games. The Russians are defending the title.

A gold medal in the weightlifting competition enabled the Soviet Union to equal the American bag of four golds and to go into today's medal-rich program with an 18½-point edge in the team race.

The Russians had 503 points and the U.S. 484½, but the Americans had won 30 gold medals to Russia's 26 since the start of the current games.

Canada picked up two points for a fifth in yachting Wednesday and its first point in track and field for a sixth-placing to increase its point-total to 15 — based on the 10-5-4-3-2-1 scoring system for the first six positions in each event.

U.S. TRIUMPHS

The Americans came through with gold medal triumphs in the men's discus and pole vault, a yachting competition and a weightlifting division.

The Russians picked up 10 points for the weightlifting victory and 19 points in the gymnastics, including 10 from a gold medal. A yachting victory and a triumph in the women's 800-metre run accounted for two more Russian gold medals and 20 points.

Evgeniy Minaev won Russia's fourth gold medal when he out-lifted American Isaac Berger in a duel for the featherweight weightlifting championship.

The Russian lifted a total of 821 pounds to equal Berger's world mark and smash the American's 1956 Olympic record of 776½. Berger himself broke his old record with a lift of 799 pounds.

The U.S. won the bantam-weight weightlifting title earlier when Charles Vinci lifted a total of 759 pounds in the press, snatch and clean and jerk to match the world record of Russian V. Stogov and break his own 1956 Olympic mark of 754½ pounds.

YACHTING WINNERS

The American gold medal in yachting came in the 5.5-metre class. Russia won its yachting gold in the star class.

Argo II, skippered by Dr. Samuel Macdonald of Montreal, finished fifth in the over-all standings of the dragon class after seven trials on the Bay of Naples. It was the best showing by Canada in three Olympics.

REMEMBER WHEN

Dick Fowler of Toronto, just released from the Canadian army pitched a no-hitter for Philadelphia Athletics against St. Louis Browns in the American baseball league 15 years ago today. The 21-year-old right-hander walked four men and allowed the Browns to hit only five balls out of the infield.

Alex Oakley Walks 31 Miles To Give Canada One Point, Finishes Sixth

ROME (CP)—Alex Oakley sat on a dressingroom rubbing table and said, "well, I got a point."

The 31-year-old welder from Oshawa, Ont., had just finished sixth in Wednesday's 50-kilometre walk, the punishing Olympic grind of 31 miles, 120 yards.

Sixth place is by far the best a Canadian has ever done. Ferd Hayward of St. John's, Nfld.—Oakley's birthplace and his home until five years ago—placed 25th in the 1952 Olympics at Helsinki.

Sixth place means one point in the unofficial compilation of standings.

TRIFLE TIRED

Alex looked a trifle tired but by no means exhausted. He said his feet didn't bother him at all. He had been cautioned by a judge as he made the turn for home.

"I had figured on a medal until then, but I couldn't take a chance and go all out. Another caution would have put me out of the race."

The walkers must conform to certain regulations and style, and Oakley's decision to take no chances was probably wise. Six walkers were disqualified, including Australians Noel Freeman and Ron Crawford who were ahead of Oakley in the early stages.

Oakley called the race "the best I ever walked." His time was four hours, 33 minutes and 8 seconds. Donald Thompson of Britain, the winner, set an Olympic record with his time of 4:25.30.

"My best previously was 4:41.25."

Following Oakley in a jeep was

Adios Cleo Sets Record Winning In 1:59 2-5

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Favored Adios Cleo set a season's record of 1:59 2/5 for two-year-old pacers Wednesday in the first heat of the $41,693 Fox Stake at the Indiana State Fair.

Johnny Simpson, getting his third victory of the last five Fox Stakes, had to bring the bay colt from away back in both of its straight heat victories of the grand circuit feature.

Adios Cleo edged Cape Horn by three quarters of a length. High Test was third in the field of 12.

The second heat was a duplicate performance of Adios Cleo. After being fifth at the half, the colt had a 1¾-length margin at the wire. Logan Hanover was second and Lagan Hanover third. The time was 2:00 3/5.

The victory was worth $22,931.47 to the Commanche Stable of Hanover, Pa.

Hoot Frost, a heat winner and third-place finisher in last week's Hambletonian at Duquoin, Ill., easily won the 28 class trot.

LAST NIGHT'S STARS

Hitting — Yogi Berra, Johnny Blanchard, Yankees, each delivered pinch hits good for two runs in eighth-inning rally that beat White Sox 6-4.

Pitching — Ernie Broglio, Cardinals, won his 18th, with Lindy McDaniel's one-out relief, in 2-1 decision over Pirates after shutting out National League leaders on eight hits for 8 2-3 innings.

The Rocket Will Decide Future In Training

MONTREAL. — (CP) — Maurice (Rocket) Richard, still undecided about giving the National Hockey League another whirl, said Wednesday he will announce his plans before the league's all-star game here Oct. 1.

His Montreal Canadiens open training camp Sept. 12 and the 39-year-old Rocket is among the 48 players on the club's drill roster.

Richard, a 19-year NHL vet and the game's most prolific scorer, said he has been playing handball regularly in the off-season and his weight is down to 196 pounds, about four more than he weighed at the end of last year.

"If I skate without trouble in training and everything else goes good, I'll play. But if I don't skate easily and I have to put out too much of an effort to do things, I won't play."

"But one thing is sure," said Richard.

"Once I make my decision, nothing will make me change my mind."

Sam Etcheverry, Montreal's Durable Quarterback, Runs His Consecutive Game Record to 150, Crowds Increase

Sam Etcheverry, Montreal's durable and brilliant quarterback, ran his consecutive league game record to 150 when he led the Alouettes to their 39-22 victory over the Ottawa Rough Riders in the teams' traditional Labor Day game in Montreal.

Etcheverry joined the Alouettes in 1952. Since then the 30-year-old quarterback has never missed a game, a span that includes 147 League and playoff games, three Grey Cup finals and about 45 pre-season exhibitions.

Etcheverry's present to himself and the Alouettes was a parcel of three touchdown passes to George Dixon, sophomore import halfback from Bridgeport University, Conn. Dixon became the first Eastern Football Conference player to score four touchdowns in one game this year. He scored on passes of 18, 10 and five yards and ran eight yards for his fourth score.

What might be a significant omen in Eastern professional football emerged from the Toronto Argonauts' victory, 32-21, over Hamilton Tiger-Cats on Labor Day. Argonauts, in handing the Tiger-Cats their fourth straight loss this season, marked the first time since 1953 — the last year Argos won the Grey Cup — they had won in Hamilton on Labor Day.

Another highlight from the Argonaut win was the fact that the game went 48 minutes before Argonauts scored on a running play — their first score on a ground play in four games. Argo quarterback, Tobin Rote, had thrown passes for all of his team's 14 touchdowns before "Cookie" Gilchrist barreled over on a short run.

Close to 70,000 fans watched the three EFC games played over the holiday weekend. A crowd of 19,343 watched the Montreal Rough Rider game in Ottawa on Saturday.

On Labor Day a Hamilton record of 26,553 was set. In Montreal, the same day, 23,876 watched the Alouette revenge against Ottawa.

Ottawa and Hamilton figured in another player trade last week. Halfback Harry Lunn, who came to Ottawa last season, following a distinguished career with Regina, played for the Tiger-Cats against Argos on Monday and came up with a pass interception. Ottawa received Canadian line-backer Steve Hmieł.

Sonny Liston Gets Decision Over Machen

SEATTLE (AP)—Sonny Liston of Philadelphia was a disappointed fighter today although he had proven a few hours earlier that he was better than the second best heavyweight contender — Eddie Machen of Portland.

The victory left Liston No. 1 man behind heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson. But he said it was a poor fight because Machen wouldn't do battle.

Weighing 211 pounds to Machen's 196, Liston pursued the agile Machen for 12 rounds Wednesday night and caught up just often enough to score a unanimous, but close, decision in the nationally televised fight.

"Couldn't do anything. He was running," grunted Liston.

HIT BELOW BELT
He landed a few punches, a couple of times below the belt. One of these underhand pitches dropped Machen to his knees in the 11th and the referee took the round away from Liston.

Machen landed a few solid lefts but spent most of his time circling away from the plodding Liston.

Under the 10-point-must system one judge favored Liston 118-114, the other 118-116. The referee had it 119-112 and The Associated Press card had Liston by 118-115. The 11th was taken away from the winner because of the foul.

Junior Baseball Finals Open Here Tonight

Fuller And Kist Clash In Battle For Crown, Close Series Expected, Both Clubs Ready For Crucial Test

The finals of the Sherbrooke Junior Baseball League opens this evening at the Municipal Stadium on Park Avenue at 7:30. Fuller will be battling Kist in a three-out-of-five series for the championship of Marie-Louis Fortier's circuit.

The series should be a close battle as both clubs will be going all out to win the crown. For the past two seasons they have been battling every inch of the way and this final shouldn't be any exception.

Fuller earned their berth in the finals by disposing of the Indians in two straight games. They won 4-3 and 3-1 but only after a couple of close battles. As for Kist they came through in fine fashion knocking over Coaticook in their series.

The under-dogs, Kist, pulled the surprise of the season by taking the Canadiens in their two-out-of-three affair. Coaticook finished first in the league standing and were rated highly to make the playoffs but Kist pulled the upset taking it. In the first they won 2-0 and lost the second 13-4 but then came through to clinch the deciding tilt 6-2.

The series could develop into a pitcher's battle as both clubs possess good hurlers. The Fuller crew has Wayne Nugent while Jean-Guy Chartier can hold his own for the Kist squad and both these boys can make things tough for their opponents.

Coach Emilien Hamel, who handles Fuller, and Claude Ruel, the other pilot, have plenty of experience and the fans can expect a close fight before the series is over. Both clubs will be going all out in an effort to close out the season with the honors.

Ted Elsby And Juneau Get OK From Doctor

MONTREAL (CP) — Two-way impact end Curry Juneau and Canadian tackle Ted Elsby have been pronounced medically fit to rejoin Montreal Alouettes for the Sept. 14 night game here with Hamilton Tiger-Cats, the Big Four football club announced Wednesday.

Both sat out Montreal's first five league games.

Juneau, 24, from the United States armed services and Mississippi Southern College, underwent an appendectomy after starting as a pass-catcher in 1960 season exhibition games.

His return is expected to give Montreal's already formidable passing attack more depth, providing quarterback Sam Etcheverry with another top-line receiver to go with Hal Patterson.

The Als big trouble this year has been defence—they've average 24 points a game but have surrendered almost 28 a game to their opponents—and coach Perry Moss is hoping Elsby will prove a stopper.

Jersey City In Do-Or-Die Effort Tonight In Battle For Playoff Berth; Royals Lose To Bisons 7-4

This could be do-or-die night for Jersey City Reds in their battle for the International League's final playoff spot.

The Reds, still a half game back of Buffalo Bisons, meet Richmond Virginians while the Bisons are idle. A Jersey City victory would give both teams a 76-74 record while a loss would throw the Reds a full game back in fifth place with four games to play.

The Reds beat Richmond 4-2 Wednesday night but Buffalo handled Montreal Royals 7-4. Columbus Jets just about nailed down sixth place with a 3-2 victory over Miami Marlins while pennant-winner Toronto lost in 10 innings to Rochester Red Wings 8-5.

Howie Nunn held Richmond hitless from the second through the sixth inning when he walked John Jaciuk. Andres Ayon took over here and didn't allow a base hit the rest of the way. Nunn got the victory, his 12th, as the Reds wrapped up the game with three runs in the first inning off loser Jim Bronstad (9-13).

MOVE TO ATLANTA?

Buffalo scored twice in each of the last three innings to help wind up Montreal's home season amidst speculation that the parent Los Angeles Dodgers will move the team to Atlanta, Ga., next season. Bob Morgan hit his 15th homer for the Bisons as T-Bone Phillips won his sixth in nine decisions.

Reliever Don Dobrino scored the first Columbus run after a triple, then drove home the go-ahead run an inning later to beat Miami. He allowed only two hits from the second to the seventh in relief of Earl Francis. Jim Umbrecht finished up. Leo Burke homered for the Marlins.

Parade Is Held Prior To Game At Waterloo

WATERLOO — On Saturday a parade was held through the principal streets of town with the co-operation of the Police and Fire Dept., prior to the Little League match between the Sherbrooke All Stars and the Les Hopperton Memorial Little League All Stars, of Waterloo.

The townspeople gathered along the route to show support to the boys.

On arrival at the Little League diamond the players and officials were welcomed in English by Walter Hughes, president of the Kiwanis Club, and in French by Maurice Lalumiere, president of Little League. Mayor Armand Russell welcomed everybody.

The Waterloo All Stars won a good game, 10-2.

The Little League drawings were won by the following: Sleeping bag by M. Sakala, of Granby; lawn chair by Mrs. William Hooper, of Waterloo, sand and play pool by Normand Chagnon, of Waterloo, electric mixer by J. E. Letendre, of Montreal; insulated picnic bag, by Emile Decelle, of Waterloo; a dozen golfballs by Robert Lewis, of Verdun; men's automatic wrist watch by Mrs. Paul Benoit, of Waterloo. A special prize was awarded to Toni Sanschagrin for selling the most tickets.

Both teams were treated to lunch at a local restaurant.
