WHY STAFFORD WHITE LOST HIS LIFE

Passed Slighting Remark About the Wife of Thaw.

HIS AMATORY CAREER.

Was Under Surveillance by the Police —Played "Angel" to Many.

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, June 27.—The direct reason for the shooting of White, was a remark which he let fall in the hearing of young Thaw.

As White entered the Cafe Martin, and passed the table where Thaw was sitting with his wife, he glanced sneeringly at the lady and remarked:

"There she goes. She's anybody's property." Later he walked to the table where they were sitting and leaned over Mrs. Thaw whispering something in her ear.

Stanford White's amatory adventures have attracted attention in certain portions of New York for many years. While he maintained a private residence in the city in magnificent style, and a country residence on the same plane, he had a retreat in the tower of Madison Square Garden, which was closely watched for many months by detectives of the Society for the prevention of cruelty to children.

Many complaints against White have been made by parents, but the suspicions were explained away with plausible stories. At one time, however, the infuriated father of a fourteen year old girl, laid a charge of assault against White in District Attorney Gardner's office. Daniel O'Reilly, the lawyer now associated with others in Thaw's defence, was an assistant in Gardner's office at the time, and had charge of the prosecution, which was dropped about the time it was ready to reach the grand jury. Within the last year, White was forced to leave a room which he had held for five months in a restaurant on the East side. The police declare that they knew he lavished money, jewels, and costly raiment on a dozen girls.

White was the president of the Chorus Girls' Club.

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM.

Brassworkers' Strike May be Long Drawn Out.

The brass workers' strike against the firm of Robert Mitchell and Company, Limited, is still in an unsettled condition.

The chairman of the strike committee made the following statement to the Star to-day:

"The brass workers are firm in their determination to remain out until the Robert Mitchell Co., Limited, accede to their demands. The 70 men now out, which means the total number employed as brass workers, will be as well off financially as if they were working, as 260 men belonging to the union have pledged themselves to subscribe 10 per cent. of their earnings. This coupled with the weekly strike pay will enable them to put up a long fight."

The officials of the company state that they have paid as high wages as the trade would afford, and do not propose to pay higher until conditions are more favorable.

THE LATE JOHN HOPE.

Retired Business Man Passes Away at the Age of 76 Years.

Mr. John Hope, one of Montreal's oldest business men, passed away last evening at his residence, Dorchester street. Mr. Hope, who retired from business some years ago, after a long career of activity, was born in Peebles, Scotland, in 1830, and came to Montreal in the early sixties. In 1866 he founded the firm of John Hope & Co., which he managed until his retirement from active business in 1888.

Mr. Hope in the earlier days was a member of the Montreal Board of Trade and took an active interest in public affairs. He was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. He is survived by his wife, one son, Mr. William Hope, the artist; and one daughter, Mrs. George R. Hooper. The remains will be cremated.

Insurgents are Successful.

Mexico City, June 27.—The City of Ayutla, in Guatemala, has been captured by the insurgents. The Government troops are deserting.

GRAND SAGUENAY EXCURSION.

The most delightful holiday outing will be the special Dominion Day trip by the elegant steamer "St. Irenee," sailing from Montreal Friday evening, June 29th, at 8, to Quebec and via the picturesque north shore route to Murray Bay, Tadousac and Chicoutimi. Home Monday evening, July 2nd, at 6, completing a sail from Quebec to Montreal by daylight. This will be the only excursion to the Saguenay this summer. ARE ACCUSED OF HUGE FRAUD

Louis Berger and Richard Shuloff Face Charge of Conspiracy.

SIXTY THOUSAND INVOLVED.

Accused were Proprietor and Manager of New York Skirt Company which Failed in April.

Judge Desnoyers has been sitting continuously since Friday in the Police Court in the charge against Louis Berger and Richard Shulhof, for alleged conspiracy to defraud the creditors of the New York Skirt Company of $60,000. Berger was the proprietor of the skirt company, and Shulhof was the manager. In April the firm assigned owing $103,000, and the curator who was examined stated that the estate will pay the creditors between five and ten per cent. of their claims.

Mr. Carl Rosenberg, a wholesale merchant, testified yesterday that he purchased from the firm goods to the value of $9,000 during January, February and March. The goods were sold to him at the cost price, Berger giving as a reason that he was overstocked.

TESTIFIED TO MISREPRESENTATION.

Mr. J. Martin, bookkeeper for Gault Brothers, said that in February, 1905, a statement was given to his firm, showing that the skirt company had a surplus at that time of $17,000, and on the strength of this a line of credit for $2,000 was opened. Since January, 1906, the witness endeavored many times to get the annual statement and he was put off as it was claimed they had not had time to prepare it. Three days before the failure Mr Martin said Berger told him the firm had had a good year and the statement was promised within the course of a few days. On April 3rd the assignment was made.

Mr. J. W. Campbell, of the G. T. R., produced a letter written by Berger's lawyers on March 19th, threatening suit unless two cases of goods consigned were not turned over to the firm at once. The G. T. R. after consulting its solicitors, decided to deliver the goods. The packages were sold the following day for cost price, Berger claiming that the firm were giving up the handling of that class of goods.

SENT MONEY TO RELATIVES.

Charles W. Kendall, Berger's bookkeeper, was examined to-day by Mr. S. W. Jacobs for the complainant. He said that both Shulhof's and Berger's brothers-in-law, who live in New York, were paid sums aggregating $5,000 a few days before the assignment. The cash showed that payments were made on March 28th, but witness was under the impression that it was shortly before that time. The payments were on account of loans made to the firm. Shulhof's two sons, employed in the warehouse, were paid $1,400 on account of loans also made to the business.

LIST OF CREDITORS.

Mr. Bruno Turenne, deputy prothonotary of the Superior Court, filed the following list of creditors, which, he said, was the list handed in by the insolvent when the assignment was made in April:—Bagley & Wright Mfg. Co., $269.28; Belding Paul & Co., Ltd., $191.91; Brophy Cains & Co., $45.54; Canada Paper Co., $475; Caverhill & Kissock, 10.75; Clarrey, Fred A., $1,177.89; Corticelli Silk Co., $756.38; Crossley & Co., Jas. BAIL INCREASED.

At the adjournment yesterday afternoon, Judge Desnoyers intimated to the accused that he would be obliged to order the bail bonds increased. At the time of the arrest the bail was fixed at $1,000. In the opinion of the judge this was not sufficient, and he ordered that the accused be held in personal bonds of $8,000 and two sureties of $4,000 each, which must be furnished this afternoon.

ANTI-USURY BILL UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED BY BANKING COMMITTEE AND NOW GOES TO HOUSE OF COMMONS

One Money-Lender from Toronto Made Some "Modest" Demands—Labor Representatives Favor Sending Usurers to Gaol—Amendment made may Provoke Discussion.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Ottawa, June 27.—When the Banking and Commerce committee met this morning, Hon. Mr. Fielding said that the idea had been to first consider the act respecting money lenders, but as there were a couple of bills from the Senate which he did not think would be of a controversial character, they would first be proceeded with. The first of these, an act to incorporate the General Accident Assurance Company of Canada, was then proceeded with. The capital stock is one million dollars. The bill was reported without discussion.

The Senate bill to incorporate the Chartered Bank of London and Canada, with a capital stock of ten million dollars was also reported without discussion.

The provisional directors are W. H. Harris, C.M.G., L.C.C.; Parkinson Oates, A. M. Grenfell, A. Wilson, S. Kennedy and Geo. Kitchen, all of London, Sir A. P. Caron, Ottawa, and Hon. J. N. Kirchoffer, of Brandon.

When the money lenders' bill was called, Mr. Derbyshire, Liberal, of Brockville, suggested that it be held over till the autumn. It was decided to proceed with it, however.

Mr. Tremeare, of Toronto, was then heard on behalf of the money lenders of that city as a class. He stated at the outset that the bill was more stringent than the act in force in Great Britain. He claimed that it would be unfair to money lenders to provide that contracts could not be made for a higher rate of interest than twelve per cent. In view of all the risks involved, money could not be loaned in small amounts for such a rate of interest.

DEFENDS HIGH RATES.

Mr. Tremeare defended the practice of lending small sums for a period of one month at ten per cent. a month or 120 per cent. per annum. A member of the committee inquired if the money lenders could not use their money in more legitimate enterprises. Mr. Tremeare retorted that money lenders did not make larger profits than many other classes of business men. Proceeding, he objected to the proposal to imprison money lenders who extort high rates of interest. The money lenders would not object to a measure strictly on the lines of the English bill.

Mr. Tremeare then suggested that clause four of the bill giving the courts power to deal with contracts be allowed to stand, but that all the other important clauses be struck out. The proposal was greeted with laughter and cries of "What a modest young man."

LABOR MEMBER'S STAND.

Mr. Verville, the labor representative of Maisonneuve division, made a strong speech in support of the bill. He said he would not object if the rate of legal interest was fixed at less than 12 per cent. It would be a good thing to restrict the power of certain classes of people to borrow. A great many of them would be better off if they could not borrow. At present they are open to temptation and the money lenders are always after them. He would suggest that the legal rate be ten per cent.

Continuing, Mr. Verville said that usury had been a plague in Montreal and should be wiped out.

The clause providing the penalty of imprisonment should be allowed to stand. "Let them go to gaol," he added, "and if the gaols are not big enough to hold them, let us build larger ones."

Mr. Schell, Liberal, of Glengarry, spoke briefly in support of the bill. He thought a distinction should be made between ordinary money lenders and the class of people who would charge 120 per cent. and more. Usury has been a curse, particularly to the laboring classes.

Mr. Telford, speaking as a money-lender, said such an act was required in Ontario. This ended the discussion on the preamble, and, judging from the unanimous approval with which the first nine clauses of the bill were received by the members of the committee, there is little danger of serious opposition in the House of Commons. They were assented to without a word of discussion.

THE IMPORTANT CLAUSES.

Briefly summarized the important clauses are as follows:

Four—Interest on negotiable instruments contracts, etc., limited to twelve per cent. per annum and to six per cent. after judgment has been rendered by a court.

Five—Power given to courts to inquire into all borrowing transactions, and to provide relief for the debtor.

Six—Act to apply to existing contracts and to existing judgments.

Nine—Every offender is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to a penalty of one thousand dollars.

EXCEPTION FOR YUKON.

When clause ten, providing that the act should not apply to the Yukon territory was reached, Dr. Thompson, the representative of that district said he could not see why the Yukon should be excepted.

He admitted that conditions were different there and at the suggestion of Hon. Mr. Fielding withdrew his objections.

The Minister of Finance remarked that an act applying to the Yukon could be passed if it was deemed necessary at a later date.

A new clause was added on the suggestion of Mr. H. Miller, the chairman of the committee. It provided that the act will not apply to any loans or transactions in connection with which the interest does not exceed fifty cents. The reason for this is that the minimum charge of a chartered bank is fifty cents.

MONK SCENTS DANGER.

Mr. F. D. Monk pointed out that a money lender might lend a small sum and by dividing it into ten or twelve small notes still collect a large rate of interest.

Mr. Fielding thought the trouble involved would be beyond the reward. This ended the discussion and the bill was reported to the House of Commons, where according to the promise of the Premier, it will be proceeded with this session.

WITNESS MERWIN REFUSED TO ANSWER

Asked the Wholesale Dealer to Keep Secret Prices of the Biscuits.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Ottawa, Ont., June 27.—In the Public Accounts committee this morning, Mr. George T. Merwin was recalled, and was once more asked the question what the various articles cost which he sold to the department of Marine and Fisheries at high prices.

Again he refused, saying that he was willing personally, but that his partner, Mr. F. L. Brooks, would not consent. Mr. Wm. A. Wilson, of the firm of Williams & Wilson, Montreal, was next called. He sold the goods to F. L. Brooks & Company, which that firm passed on to the Government, and he was asked what the prices which he had charged had been.

He also refused, saying that Mr. Merwin had asked him not to divulge them, and that no business man would reveal matters which the other party to the bargain asked him to keep secret.

He had brought the books and invoices with him, and they were at his hotel, but since his arrival, Mr. Merwin had seen him and asked him not to answer.

Mr. Northrup and Mr. Foster tried several ways of arriving at the facts, but Mr. Wilson refused to answer all questions beyond a statement that he charged F. L. Brooks and Company current prices.

Much Stolen Property Found in the Houses of Convicted Women Store Thieves.

Elizabeth Loiselle, wife of Alfred Tardiff and Marie Renaud, wife of Adelard Lepine, were to-day found guilty of having stolen five pairs of boots from Alfred Vinette, shoemaker, Ontario street, and two pairs from U. Matte. Mrs. Tardiff was allowed to go on suspended sentence, as she had already passed eight days in gaol. Mrs. Lepine was sent to gaol for eight days. The two women have been travelling through the stores of Montreal shoplifting, and when their houses were searched over $600 worth of goods was found.

Owners were found for the goods, but except in the two cases tried today no charges were laid.

Mrs. Tardiff is the wife of Alfred Tardiff, who was shot through the leg a few weeks ago by his son while they were quarrelling. The young man was up in the Enquete Court this morning, and was remanded until tomorrow morning, when he will appear in the Court of Special Sessions for trial.

FIREMEN FEAR TO LIVE IN STATION

Falling Walls Drive Them to Appeal for Leave to Quit Structure.

RATHER LIVE OUT IN TENTS.

Ald. Payette Considers that Chief Benoit is Working Overtime to Get a New Station.

A peculiar state of affairs, in regard to No. 20 fire station, on the corner of Chenneville and Craig streets, was brought up to-day, before the Mayor by Chief Benoit of the Fire Department.

"The men in this station," said the Chief, "are afraid to remain in it any longer, and desire to camp on Champ de Mars, or in some other spot until they can be given a new fire station."

"What is the trouble?" asked the Mayor.

"The trouble," replied the Chief, "is that last night a lot of bricks fell down from the building on the Chenneville street side. At the present time there is a big wooden awning over the Craig street entrance to the station, in order to prevent citizens being killed by falling bricks from the place. The station, which has been condemned by the building inspector, has such bulging walls that the firemen are now actually terrified to remain in the place any longer. I wish Your Worship would authorize that they, and the fire apparatus, could go in a tent somewhere for the present. The Champ le Mars would be a central place."

The Mayor—"The matter is one that affects the finances of the city. Personally I cannot give any orders to make the drastic change you suggest."

The chief said the position of affairs was most serious. He asked what would happen to the men in the building should it collapse, which it might at any time.

In reply the Mayor said that the Chief had better make a formal report on the matter to the Finance Committee.

The fact that the Mayor could not take instant action in the matter disappointed the Chief very much, and he left to see what could be done with the Finance Committee.

ANOTHER SIDE TO QUESTION.

Speaking to the members of the press on the alleged dangerous condition of the building, Ald Payette, chairman of the Finance Committee, said to-day: "The Chief of the Fire Brigade is raising unnecessary alarm over the condition of this station. The fact is the Chief is determined to get a new station, and to achieve this end is losing no opportunity to proclaim that the station is falling down. I may say that I inspected the station some time ago, and I frankly admit it is not in good condition; the condition of the place, however, from my point of view, is not such that it will tumble down.

"It will be remembered that when the new fire station was built on Youville Square, the understanding was that the men and the apparatus of the Chenneville station should be removed to it; but for one reason or another this plan was not carried out. The position is that a demand is now made by the Chief to get yet another station. It is well known that the city has not sufficient funds on hand at this season of the year to allow of the building of a new station. The old station will have to be used till the corporation has more money.

"In regard to the request that the men should be allowed to go under canvas on the Champ de Mars because the city has no funds on hand to put up a new station, I do not think that the idea will commend itself to citizens generally. It would be a most astonishing state of affairs to have a fire station, covering men and apparatus, under a tent."

NEW CHURCH ON SHERBROOKE STREET

Plans Were Decided Upon at Meeting of Church of the Messiah Last Night.

At a well attended meeting of the congregation of the Church of the Messiah last evening the plans for a new church prepared by Messrs. Edward and W. S. Maxwell were accepted unanimously.

The old building committee was then thanked for its work and discharged, after which a committee composed of Mr. G. W. Stephens, M. L. A.; James Morgan and C. H. Stephens was elected to proceed with the construction of the church.

At a cost of $25,000 the congregation some months ago purchased the property at the north-east corner of Sherbrooke and Simpson streets, and it is expected that the work on the new church will be begun almost immediately.

It is expected that the new church will cost in the vicinity of $70,000.

UNIQUE CEREMONY IN WEDDING LINE

Vandelac Family in St. Jean Baptiste Central Figures In It.

THREE GENERATIONS THERE.

Each One of Them Celebrated an Important Epoch in Their Married Careers.

St. Jean Baptiste Church was the scene of a marriage ceremony presenting unique features to-day. Mr. Geo. Vandelac, jr., was married to Miss Alice Rheaume, while the bridegroom's father, Mr. George Vandelac, and his wife, nee Labossiere, celebrated their silver wedding, while the grandfathers and grandmothers of the groom, who are now celebrating the fifty-fourth anniversary of their marriage, were also present at the ceremony.

The Vandelac family counts among the first in St. Jean Baptiste parish, and Rev. Abbe Auclair, the pastor, although seriously ill, insisted on coming out to perform the marriage ceremony himself. Rev. Father Rheaume, a brother of the younger bride, celebrated a solemn high mass, while Rev. Abbe Palement, of St. Jean Baptiste, delivered a sermon on the glories of the married state.

Mr. George Vandelac, sr., is a prime mover in all charitable movements in the parish, and the people turned out in large numbers to take part in the ceremonies to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Vandelac, parents of Mr. George Vandelac, sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Francois Labossiere, parents of Mrs. Vandelac, sr., enjoyed the ceremony as much and appeared as sprightly and young as some people who were only half their age.

Last evening a number of prominent residents of St. Jean Baptiste called at the residence of Mr. George Vandelac, sr., to present him with their best wishes and gifts on the occasion of his silver wedding and the marriage of his son. Mr. J. A. Labelle, K.C., was the spokesman of the party and eloquently interpreted their views. Ald. N. Leclaire made the presentation, and among others who spoke were: Messrs. E. W. Villeneuve, Alfred Cadieux and others.

CANADA HONORED BY COMMISSION

Professor Herz for Local Society Granted Full Voting Powers.

ELECTRICAL COMMISSION.

Standard for Nomenclature and Ratings of Electrical Machinery Adopted.

By Special Cable from Our Own Correspondent.

London, June 27.—The International Electrical Commission in London, which was attended by Prof. Herx, of McGill, as a delegate of the Canadian committee closed its sessions to-day. Representatives attended from every industrial country of the world. Alexander Siemens, the eminent electrician, presided.

A result the most satisfactory, was the adoption of rules for the formation of a permanent international commission to carry out the standardization of nomenclature and ratings of electrical machinery. Canada's importance in electrical developments was recognized at the meetings by granting her the same voting power as England, the United States and any other country. Professor Herx, is also attending a gathering here of the Electrical Technical Societies of the world, who are now making a tour of the British industrial centres.

GAMBLING AT PARK IS THE CHARGE

Proprietor of Riverside Pleads Not Guilty—Police Raid Had No Results.

Levi Tremblay, President of the Riverside Park company, now awaits preliminary enquiry on a charge of keeping a gambling house. He pleads not guilty and will come up again on Friday. Acting on a complaint of Mrs. Joseph G. Girouard, High Constable St. Mars, with Deputy High Constable Cyr, raided the park last night with a search warrant, but were unable to find any gambling paraphernalia. They, however, served a warrant on Mr. Tremblay, and he was arraigned this morning.

THE PROSPECTS FOR THE NEXT HENLEY REGATTA

Arrangements and the Chances of the Various Competitors and the Preliminaries For the Big Contests Which Take Place First Week in July.

London, June 27.—Several competitors are already at Henley, and more will arrive in a day or two. The course is staked out, and more than half the piles and booms are in position. Not much that is new has to be chronicled about the arrangements on the famous reach, where there will probably be more houseboats than appeared at the regatta last year. Phyllis Court lawn, though part will of course be reserved for members of the new club, will once more be open by ticket, in the usual way, to the public, and it is not likely that those who have once been there will dream of going anywhere else for lunch or tea. The house is now thoroughly reorganized, and nothing better adapted to its purpose could be imagined than the pretty and spacious arrangements of the interior. Though great care seems to have been taken in the selection of members, the original list has now fully reached the numbers proposed, and will only remain open till the 25th inst. The secretary is securing bedrooms in the town for members and their wives who desire to stay in Henley all through the regatta week; and as a centre for motoring parties and week-end excursions, the club seems admirably adapted and well thought out in every detail. Its existence, of course, will imply a loss to the regatta funds of about the £450 which was made there last year by the stewards, and it is therefore more imperative than ever that generous subscriptions should be sent to Mr. J. F. Cooper, the regatta secretary, by members of the public, who freely enjoy the convenience of a course that cost £750 to boom and lay out in the first year of the improvements, and involves a further annual outlay of some £500.

There is every prospect of excellent racing and a capital programme for July 3, 4, and 5. All four first boats both on the Cam and the Isis will appear to represent their universities, which must be a record; for Oxford is sending Magdalen, New, Christchurch, Trinity, and Pembroke; while Third Trinity, First Trinity, Jesus, and Trinity Hall will come from Cambridge. Besides these, eights will come from the Mersey, from Dublin, from Eton, and from Radley, so the Grand, the Ladies', and the Thames are certain of a fine entry; and there may be added the eights that are certain to appear from London, Thames, Kingston, Twickenham, Vesta, and Molesey, while Chester is sending both an eight and a four and Bath Avon will send a four. A Leander four has been heard of, composed of A. K. Graham, Kelly, Etherington Smith, and Guy Nickalls. Bucknall may stroke their eight, and other Cambridge oars will be forthcoming. Hale and Carter, the two Old Blues who are masters at Radley, have been practicing in a pair, and should do well in the Goblets.

The list of "foreign entries," as they are called, has now been filled up, and it is interesting to observe so large a number of aspirants for the Diamond Sculls in the year after Kelly made his astonishing record for the distance. Without any disrespect to our visitors, it may fairly be said that none of them is likely this July to get over the course in less than 8 min. 10 sec., and if Kelly does not intend to scull we may possibly see the veteran Blackstaffe safely defend the trophy against all comers, and attain, at last, the goal of a persistent and honorable ambition. There is sure to be a big list from among our own men, and the scullers they will have to meet are R. W. Adam, of Melbourne, Australia; Harrison Bourke, of Tasmania; Miltiades Manno, of Buda-Pesth; W. B. West, of Philadelphia, who may prove to be the "dark horse" of the meeting; and Gastin de la Plane, of the Societe Nautique de la Basse-Seine. There is not much doubt that this large entry will necessitate preliminary heats on Monday, July 2, but it may be hoped that "foreigners" may at least be excused from them, and not be asked to row until July 3. Harrison Bourke has certainly done his best to get thoroughly acclimatised, for he was practising at Putney while the University crews were there, and his boat was sheltered in the Thames R. C. boathouse. As a development of modelling, she made an interesting comparison with the famous Casamajor's old boat, still preserved at the London R. C. headquarters, which has a triangular section. Bourke's ship is 25 feet long, 12 inches broad, with a riggerspread of 4 feet 9 inches, and the work 5 1-2 inches above the seat. The slide has a movement of 27 inches in all, and is arranged on a system of double-actioned rollers, which looks far better than that generally used in this country. Beneath the slide she has a false or double bottom, which is intended to reduce the amount of water that may splash in over the riggers, and to keep away from the feet any water that may get in elsewhere. The inside ribs are only fastened to the skin at the top and bottom, so that a certain amount of "give" is possible when they either contract or expand at different temperatures, and thus and any contortion of the hull is avoided. Her riggers are of hollow aluminium, and she does not look much heavier than the 22 1-2 lb. boat which Stanbury sculled. When she is turned over you can only tell bows from stern because the fullness is carried more forward than aft. Her extremities are slightly sharper and more angular in section than the rounded hulls which English designers chiefly favor; and this it was that suggested by comparison with Casamajor's boat, the extreme of the triangular formation which has now practically disappeared.

Two old friends are once more challenging us for the Blue Ribbon of the Thames—the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto, and the Club Nautique de Gand. The Canadians are always heartily welcome. Through Mr. S. E. Richards, of Winnipeg, a warm invitation was sent over to English oarsmen last autumn to send a crew across the Atlantic. If the winners of the Grand or the Stewards took a return ticket by the Allan Line from Liverpool to Montreal, it would cost under £30 a man, and from the moment they landed their further transportation would cost nothing. After the eight days' voyage, they would go by way of Toronto across Lake Ontario to St. Catharines, where it was proposed to hold the regatta at any date convenient to the English visitors, who could do the rowing part of their trip in a month, out and home, and who were cordially invited to stay a little longer, and enjoy some of the best shooting in the world with their hosts. The whole thing would not have cost each man much more either in time or money than many English athletes have just spent in visiting the Olympic games at Athens, and a sporting trip in one of our own Colonies presents advantages with which no other country can compete. But unluckily this is not a good year for such far-off adventures. The suggestion that Oxford and Cambridge should also compete for a £1,000 prize on the Zambesi is not likely to prove more fruitful. Still, we give the Canadian details because they may be useful another time, and they will add yet greater zest to the welcome we are all glad to extend to every Canadian oarsman.

TEN MILE ROAD RACE ADDED.

Waterloo Bicycle Club Added This to Championship Events.

Toronto, Ont., June 27. The Waterloo Bicycle Club have added a ten-mile handicap road race to the list of championship events to be run off at the C. W. A. old boys' reunion on Monday next. A handsome diamond pin will be the first prize for this event. Louis Rubenstein, the veteran C. W. A. official, will attend the reunion with a few of the old timers of the Montreal bicycle club, and act as official referee, a position he has held at the majority of C. W. A. annual meets. Toronto will be well represented on the race track, as twenty-eight riders are at present training on an exhibition track for the provincial championships.

RESULTS OF RACES HERE CONDENSED

Shields' Halifax Made a New World's Record in Winning the Swift Stakes at Sheepshead.

New York, June 27.—Alex. Shields, Halifax, carrying 119 pounds, made a new world's record for seven furlongs, circular track, when he won the Swift Stakes at Sheephead Bay. He was quoted at 7 to 1 and stepped the distance in 1.24 4-5, which is one-fifth of a second faster than the Muskateer's time at Saratoga in 1902 and Arconaut's time this year at Belmont Park.

The Swift Stakes only brought out three starters, with Brookdale Nymph favorite and Ormondale next in favor, while Halifax was the outsider.

Ormondale went to the front at the start, followed by Brookdale Nymph. This order was maintained to the stretch, where the leaders began to tire and Shaw sent Halifax to the lead, winning by two lengths from Ormondale.

Prince Hamburg in winning the first race, equalled the world's record for six and a half furlongs of 1.18 2-5 held by Mineola and Martinas. Two favorites won. Summary.

First race, 6 1-2 furlongs, main course—Prince Hamburg, won; Sir Lynnwood, second, Cinna, third. Time, 1.18 2-5.

Second race, selling, 1 mile—Rye, won; Watertank, second, Klindsor, third. Time, 1.39 1-5.

Third race, the Zephyr Stakes, 5 1-2 furlongs, futurity course—Red River, won; Sewell, second, Bat Masterson, third. Time, 1.06 4-5.

Fourth race, the Swift Stakes, 7 furlongs, main course—Halifax won; Ormondale, second, Brookdale Nymph, third. Time, 1.24 4-5.

Fifth race, selling, 1 mile — Fancy Bird, won; Stimulant, second; Mary Morris, third. Time, 1.40 2-5.

Sixth race, 1 mile and 3-16 on turf—Maxnar, won; Miss Crawford, second. Time, 2.02 4-5.

AT WINDSOR.

Windsor Race Track, Ont., June 27.—A large crowd was on hand. The weather was very warm and the track in perfect condition for racing. Jockey Swain was in the saddle to-day. The results:

First race, 7 furlongs, selling—Prestige, won; Fanny Blazes, second; Winchester, third. Time, 1.28.

Second race, 4 furlongs, selling—Wabash Queen, won; Minos, second; Mary Curtis, third. Time, 49 2-5.

Third race, one mile, handicap—La Pucelle, won; Peter Sterling, second; Harry Stephens, third. Time, 1.39 1-5.

Fourth race, 6 furlongs, selling — King's Guidon, won; Sans Coeur, second; Zelinda, third. Time, 1.14 4-5.

Fifth race, 4 furlongs, selling—Jerry Sharp, won; Attention, second; Tom Gilroy, third. Time, 48 1-5.

Sixth race, 7 furlongs, selling—King Pepper, won; Fair Calypso, second; Edwin Gum, third. Time, 1.28 2-5.

AT KENILWORTH.

Buffalo, N.Y., June 27.—Ellicott won the second race at Kenilworth from a field of the best 2-year-olds on the track. Weather clear; track fast. Summary:

First race, mile and 40 yards—Ruth W., won; Head Dance, second; Water Pansy, third. Time, 1.43 4-5.

Second race, 4 1-2 furlongs—Ellicott, won; Blondy, second; Lady Vera, third. Time, 54 3-5.

Third race, 6 furlongs—The Scold, won; Olive Leaf, second; Richard Jr., third. Time, 1.14 1-5.

Fourth race, short course steeplechase — Kassila, won; Bob Murphy, second; Billy Ray, third. Time, 3.56 3-5.

Fifth race, 5 furlongs—Betsy Binford, won; Affinity, second; Goldnote, third. Time, 1.02.

Sixth race, mile and eighth — The Borgian, won; Rhinock, second; Neva Welch, third. Time, 1.55.

The postponed local regatta at St. Lambert will be held on Saturday afternoon next, to be followed in the evening by a dance. Miss Whyddon will preside at the piano.

GOTCH AND THE GOLFERS.

The centre picture to-day is a characteristic one of Gotch at wrestling practice as he is having an effective neckhold on his sparring partner. Gotch is bound to be a great deal in the public eye again shortly.

To the right and left are two well-known professional golfers—Willie Anderson, who will take part in the open tournament at Chicago this week, and Murray, of the Royal Montreals, who will probably take part in the open tournament of the Lambton Golf Club.

ROYALS PLAYED GOOD GAME YESTERDAY

Whalen Played Great Game, and Raub's First Appearance was Well Received by Fans.

Brother George Bannon's second double, coming in the seventh when Raub and Huelsman were on bases, won for the Royals what is generally regarded as the best game seen here yet this season.

Whalen was on the slab for the locals, and served up a line superior to anything he has done since he joined the team.

Snappy fielding contributed to keep the visitors down to the tally, which they secured in the initial inning.

Joyce, generally so reliable, was responsible to a large extent for that score, when he fumbled Wallace's single, allowing Burrell, who had secured a pass and stolen second, to reach the plate.

McLean, of Rochester, also pitched gilt edged ball, but his safety to Wagner, in the seventh, was indirectly responsible for at least one other score. Raub, who followed Wagner at bat, hit out a grounder, which McLean snapped over to second, catching Wagner. Tommy's burst of speed was sufficient to land him on first before Moran could send the ball there.

Raub then stretched Huelsman's short single to left, and reached third, while the big outfielder got second on the throw in.

Then came George Bannon's double scoring both Lou Hartman got first on balls when Clancy failed to hold Moran's throw, and George Bannon was caught trying to make home on the play, while Carrisch put the ball down to second in time to put off Hartman.

The fielding sensations were Hartman's flying catch of Loudy's low liner in the second. Duffy's running catch of Joyce's fly to deep centre in the third, and a snappy double play initiated by Hartman retiring McLean and Duffy in the eighth.

Tommy Raub was given a hearty welcome by the fans on his first appearance this season in a Montreal uniform and his fine work on the bases attracted to him the favor of the big crowd present.

SUMMARY.

Two base hits, G. Bannon (2), Loudy. Sacrifice hit, Burrell. Stolen bases, Raub, Burrell. Double play, Hartman to G. Bannon to Raub. Struck out, by Whalen, 2; by McLean, 1. Base on balls, off Whalen, 2; off McLean, 2. Hit by pitched ball, by McLean, Wagner. Left on bases, Montreal, 2; Rochester, 4. Umpire, Moran. Attendance, 1,500.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Two doubles out of four hits in the game is pretty good going for Brother George.

Huelsman and George Bannon put a couple of fouls over the left field fence just to show McLean what would happen if they got a real good one.

The fans woke up and got after the Broncho pitcher in the seventh, with most satisfactory results.

While Raub's work with the willow was not up to expectations, his base running was certainly a big improvement on the article served up so far this season.

Buffalo Protests.

Buffalo, June 27.—President Harry Taylor, of the Eastern League, announced that the Buffalo management had protested last Sunday's game with Providence. The game, he said, will be passed upon later by the board of directors of the league. In the meantime it will be counted for Providence.

He also announced that he had fined Pitcher Brockett, of the Buffalo Club, $25 for using abusive language to Umpire Kerin, and hitting him with a baseball during the protested game. Hill, of Buffalo, has been fined $10, for using abusive language to Kerin the same day.

Yale's Championship.

New Haven, Conn., June 27.—Before crowded stands, which, at times, were masses of blue and crimson flags, Yale defeated Harvard yesterday at Yale Field in the second of the championship series of baseball. The game went through ten innings. This gives both games to Yale, the blue having defeated the crimson at Cambridge last week.

COMMENTS HERE AND THERE.

Now that lacrosse is virtually professional, would it not be possible to devise some more effective plan of punishing refractory players than merely ruling them off?

How would a system of fines do?

It is true that in most cases the clubs would pay these fines, but if they came too often it is more than likely that things would be made pretty uncomfortable for any player who gathered too many of them, no matter what club he belonged to.

And what about giving the Referees adequate recompense for their arduous work?

All outside entries at Henley, whether from the colonies or other countries are called "foreign" there. Of these "foreign" competitors both the Argonauts, of Toronto, and the Club Nautique de Gand have done very well before at Henley. It was in 1899 that the Argonauts made their real attack upon the home crew, with three scullers, a four, and an eight. Goldman was beaten by Hemmerde, Bright by B. H. Howell, and Thompson, after getting home a foot in front of Ashe, lost the race on the Englishman's appeal. The four lost the Stewards to a good Trinity crew, containing Dudley Ward and Etherington-Smith. The eight beat a Delft crew, but lost their next heat by half a length to London. In 1900, Fritz Miller, of Brussels, was beaten by Hemmerde, and Prevel lost to Blackstaffe; while the Club Nautique de Gand put up a close race against Leander, for the Grand, to whom they lost again in 1901, but not with so good a crew. The Belgians also had a pair in the same year, who lost to Hale and Warre, and were beaten the next year by Dudley Ward and Taylor. They were certainly troubled by a punt, but their opponents were too good to make the issue in the least doubtful. In 1901, also, the Argonaut eight beat University College, Oxford, for the Grand, but lost their next heat to Third Trinity, who won the trophy. In 1902 Prevel, of Nice, appeared again, and was beaten by Etherington Smith; and Scholes, of Toronto, lost to Titus, of New York. Kelly conquered both winners. In 1904 a Winnipeg four lost the Stewards to Third Trinity, and Scholes, of Toronto, won the Diamonds, after beating Cloutte and Kelly. In 1905 the Sport Nautique de Gand, which is quite different from the "Club" of the same name, though two members of the "Sport" are rowing for the latter this year, beat London and Thames, but lost the final of the Grand to Leander. It will be seen, therefore, that both the Belgian and the Canadian clubs, which will be rowing at Henley, in July, have every right to be considered as formidable opponents, considering their excellent records in the past. The list of foreign entries this year is completed by two Belgian pairs, one from the Club and one from the Sport Nautique, for the silver goblets, but British experts do not think it likely that another "foreign" name will be added to that list of winners, which now contains Amsterdam University, for the Thames Cup in 1895; Columbia College, New York, for the Visitors' in 1878, and J. J. K. Ooms, Ten Eyck, and Scholes, for the Diamonds.

A Western racing paper thus pays its compliments to Mr. Seagram, the Canadian turf magnate:

"J. E. Seagram won the most barrels of money at the Toronto meeting. We say barrels, as that is the unit of measure, we believe, employed for Mr. Seagram's other possessions."

AUTO SHOW TO TURN INTO A SPORTSMAN'S SHOW

It Was Such a Success That a Much More Ambitious Effort Will be Made for the Exhibition to be Held Next Year.

Mr. R. M. Jaffray has just returned from the West and completed arrangements for next year's second annual Automobile and Motor Show, which will open in Montreal on the 8th of April next. He reports that all the exhibitors at the first show held in Montreal are well satisfied with the business done during the show, and the after results, and claim that the effects of the show have been more than they had anticipated, and fully realize that Montreal is the one point in Canada for a big national automobile and motor show.

Next year's show will have on exhibition motor boats from every part of Canada, as well as marine engines from the most expert makers, not only from Canada, but from the United States, and as far as the automobile section is concerned, it is altogether likely that every manufacturer in Canada and every line of automobile now in Canada from England, America, France and Belgium, will be represented by their local agents, not only from Montreal, but from Toronto.

Mr Jaffray is also in communication with the different railways for the purpose of including a Sportsmen's Exhibition, similar to that held in New York and Boston, and he is confident that exhibits from these railways will be secured, as well as exhibits from manufacturers of sporting goods in Canada and the United States, so that the next show will not only be an automobile and motor show, but also a sportsman's exhibition. Plans for this big exposition will be issued some time in September, and we have been informed by Mr. Jaffray that already numerous applications are in for space. If Mr. Jaffray's plans materialize as expected, Montreal will see the first sportsmen's exhibition ever held in Canada, and if the project is carried out as he anticipates, Montreal will see a great gathering from all parts of Canada, of those interested in not only automobiles and motor boats, but in sportsmen's exhibits and the week commencing the 8th of April next will be a very important one to the people of Montreal.

SHAMROCKS WILL MEET THE CAPITALS

It Will Give the Souris an Opportunity to Get a Line on Them for Monday.

The Shamrocks have so far retained the position of monarchs of all they survey. Last Saturday, in spite of the odds against them, they proved themselves fully a match for the French-Canadians and a great deal more. However, this Saturday they will run up against the hardest proposition of the year, when the Capitals will be matched against them in a tussle which will test their ability to the very last ounce of strength. Both teams are hard at work already, and will let no opportunity slip by to gain this match. The Capitals are confident of winning after the game which they put up against the Tecumsehs last Saturday, while in the Shamrock camp there seems to be a lot of unrest. They fully realize the gravity of the situation, and as they are very anxious that they should keep up their present standing in the good books of the public, they naturally feel somewhat uneasy as to the results. They are working as though their very lives depended on the issue, however, and are determined to put up the fight of the season, and show the public that they can put up a game as well as ever they did. All the men are out in the field in the evenings at the practices, and put in some rattling fast work. Prominent among them may be seen the big manly form of Hoobin, who will be in the game in dead earnest on Saturday. What the result may be no one ventures to say as yet, and only time will show when the two teams line up on Saturday in warlike fashion, although in not very warlike garb. A large attendance is expected at this match, which will show if the Irishmen are what they appeared to be in their former matches this season and many other seasons.

LAMBTON GOLF CLUB OPEN TOURNAMENT

The Programme and the Prizes for Each Competitor Handsome.

Toronto, June 27. — The Lambton Golf Club will hold an open tournament next month, and it gives promise of being one of the largest affairs of its kind ever held in Canada. Invitations will be sent to many prominent clubs in America and Great Britain.

The programme to be followed will be much on the same principal as those of the larger tournaments held in the United States. The prizes to be presented will be valuable ones, and are even now being selected by the committee in charge of the affair.

There is no place in this country better suited for such a pretentious tournament than Lambton. The club-house is a large one, and all the visiting golfers who come here to compete can be housed in it.

In the programme there will be the usual championship competition with a qualifying round and match play, and there will likely be a consolation competition as well as driving, putting and clock competitions.

This is the first large affair of this kind ever pulled off on Canadian links. The new greens at the club are now in first-class shape and are being played on each day. They will be in perfect condition by August 4, on which date the tournament will commence. The play will continue until August 11, thus giving a whole week of golfing.

If there are enough American players taking part an international match will bring the week to an end.

The rules of the Royal Canadian Golf Association will govern, and it is quite probable that many gentlemen playing in the tournament at Ottawa next week will play at Lambton in the following month.

OTTAWA WON AGAIN.

Ottawa Again Succeeded in Shutting Out Montpelier-Barre.

Ottawa, June 27.—Sanger won his own game yesterday by pounding out a double to right field bleachers, with two men out in the seventh, scoring Clayton, administering the second shut out of the series to Montpelier-Barre.

The contest was a pretty pitchers battle, not a run being scored till the last half of the seventh. Besides allowing only two hits, Sanger was backed up by the cleanest kind of support. Blaine pitched good ball for the visitors and weakened only in the seventh. The game was cut short to allow the two teams to catch a train. The next game at home will be the morning of July 2 with Plattsburg.

Score by innings:—

Batteries—Sanger and Walch; Blaine and Larose. Umpire McCloud. Attendance, 1,500.

MINTO CUP TEAM LOST CLOSE MATCH

Lost by Six to Five at Regina—Some of the Best Men Did Not Play.

Souris, Man., June 27.—Just on the eve of their departure for Montreal, the Manitoba Champions sustained a defeat from the Regina team, by six goals to five. The champions showed the effects of their hard game with the Winnipegs last week, several of the best players not being able to play, rather wishing to reserve themselves for the Minto Cup games.

The members of the teams are otherwise in good condition and everybody is looking for them to give a good account of themselves in their battles in the East.

They left at noon and will arrive about Friday morning. They will take sixteen players and several outsiders will accompany them in their eastern journey.

SOME GOOD TROTTING RACES.

All But One Jockey Fined in the First Heat.

The thousand odd people who went to Delorimier Park yesterday afternoon to see the races that took place there amongst what were nearly all local horses, had a pretty good time of it, and saw some good contests barring the first heat, which was called off, and in which the Judge fined all the Jockeys except those of Alexandria, five dollars for pulling.

SOURIS HAVE LEFT FOR MONTREAL

They Are Determined to Win, and They Will Arrive Here Thursday Evening.

(By W. G. Hetherington, Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star, with the Souris Lacrosse Team.

Souris, Man., June 27.—The Minto Cup Challengers took their departure, in a special C. P. R. tourist for Montreal. Although feeling somewhat stiff after their hard battle with Regina, yesterday, yet they were all in the best of spirits and left with the determination to give a good account of themselves in their game for the World's championship. The following is a list of the players who will uphold the honors of Manitoba. Manitoba—goal, Roy Mewler; point, A. J. Tyson; cover point, Alex. Bethune; defence, field, G. J. McDonald, M. McDonough, M. McLeod; centre, F. Barger; homefield, W. J. McLean, R. C. Hetherington, W. L. Burns; outside-home, R. Lawrence; inside-home, H. Lyle. Spares—Wag Skelling, J. C. Fraser, B. R. Rickey. The boys are in charge of Trainer Sullivan, and he promises to place them in the field in excellent condition. J. H. Barlett, honorary president; W. Mitchell, vice-president; C. C. Dickson, treasurer; and J. A. Taylor, a member of the executive, and vice-president of the Western Canada Lacrosse Association, are also with the boys. In addition to those already mentioned, are a number of enthusiasts, and a number more will join the party at Brandon and Winnipeg. They will arrive in Montreal on Thursday evening.

JOE LALLY AGAIN REFEREE.

Toronto, Ont., June 27.—The Montreals have suggested Joe Lally, of Cornwall, as referee for Monday's game here, Mr. Lally to provide his own judge-of-play. The Torontos have agreed to this arrangement. The team that will line up alongside of the Montrealers next Monday had a workout against fifteen juniors last evening.

MORE CONVENTIONAL DRESS.

Debate on Senate Reform was Continued—A Number of Third Readings.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 27.—In the Senate on Tuesday the debate on Senate reform was continued by Hon. Mr. Robertson, of Prince Edward Island. He said that if any change were to be made, he would advocate having an election of half the senators every five years. He declared that the Senate furnished an example of Parliamentry dignity. It preserved the best traditions, forms and customs of the British Parliaments. The debate was adjourned by Senator Ellis.

Senator Edwards moved that the appropriation clause be stricken from the bill of the Grand River and Western Power Company. The stream and works affected were entirely in Ontario and should be dealt with as a provincial, not as a federal enterprise.

PRODUCTION OF POWER.

Senator McMullen said that the production of power for large communities had reached such a magnitude that such enterprises could now be declared for the general advantage of Canada.

An act respecting the Harbor of North Sydney in Nova Scotia; an act respecting the Columbia and Kootenay Railway and Navigation Company; an act respecting the Mather Bridge and Power Company; an act respecting the Schomberg and Aurora Railway Company, an act respecting a patent of the Anderson Pulp Rice Company; an act to amend the Supreme and Exchequer Courts act; an act respecting the Quebec Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan Railroad and Steamboat Company, an act respecting the Canada Atlantic Railway Company, an act respecting the Montreal Park and Island Railway Company, an act respecting the Central Ontario Railway, an act respecting the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, an act respecting the Thorold and Lake Erie Railway Company, an act respecting certain patents of Chester Burnell Duryea; an act to incorporate the Canadian Handicrafts Guild; an act for the enfranchisement of Jamieson Webster Lewis, an Indian of the Moravian Band of the Thames, in the Province of Ontario; an act respecting the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Limited, and the Keewatin Flour Mills Company, Limited; an act to incorporate the Canadian Bible Society Auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society; an act respecting the Farmers' Bank of Canada; an act respecting a patent of Henry Luther Houk; an act respecting a patent of the Cyclone Woven Wire Fence Company, Limited, an act respecting the Niagara, Queenston and St. Catharines Railway Company; an act respecting the Quebec and Lake Huron Railway Company; an act respecting the Quebec, Saguenay and Gulf of St. Lawrence Railway Company; an act respecting the Ottawa, Brockville and St. Lawrence Railway Company; an act to amend the Weights and Measures act; an act to amend the Criminal Code, 1892; an act to amend the Exchequer Court act.

Senator Sullivan declared that the power of expropriation was one that should not be lightly delegated. He was opposed to granting it to this company.

Senator J. P. B. Casgrain said in developing power this company had to deal with a large number of private proprietors. If one refused to sell the whole enterprise would be blocked. The company would be helpless unless the power to expropriate were given.

Senator Wilson said any one who knew the location and the proposal would agree this company should be given powers to carry through its undertaking.

The amendment was lost and the bill given its third reading.

SEVERAL THIRD READINGS.

The following bills were also read the third time:

To amend the Militia Pension Act; to amend the Militia Act, respecting roads and road allowances in Saskatchewan and Alberta; to incorporate the Hillcrest Ry. Coal and Coke Co.; respecting the British America Insurance Co.; respecting the Western Assurance Co.; respecting the Empire Trust Co., and changing its name to the Dominion Trust Co.

BILLS ASSENTED TO.

At four o'clock His Honor Mr. Justice Fitzpatrick, Deputy Governor, attended in the Senate and gave the Royal assent to a large number of bills. The Deputy Governor, unlike his predecessors in office, did not occupy the Vice-Regal throne, but sat in the Speaker's chair. Neither did he wear the usual robes of office, but was attired in a conventional frock coat and long trousers. The following are the bills to which assent was given:

An act respecting the Huron and Erie Loan and Savings Company; an act to incorporate the Inter-Ocean Fire Insurance Company; an act to amend the Rocky Mountain Park Act; an act to make further provision respecting grants of land to members of the Militia Force on active service in the North-West; an act to amend the Customs Tariff, 1897; an act for the relief of John Albert Peers; an act to incorporate the Kamloops and Yellow Head Pass Railway Company; an act respecting the Pacific Northern and Omineca Railway Company; an act to incorporate the Vancouver, Fraser Valley and Southern Railway Company; an act to incorporate the Ashcroft, Barkerville and Fort George Railway Company; an act respecting the Kettle River Valley Railway Company; an act for the relief of Minnie Florence Irvine; an act to incorporate the Colonial Bank of Canada; an act for the relief of Charles William Holmes; an act for the relief of Harriette Wesley Baker; an act respecting the James Bay Railway Company; an act to incorporate the Buffalo, Niagara and Toronto Railway Company; an act to incorporate the Brandon Transfer Railway Company; an act to incorporate the Erie, London and Tilsonburg Railway Company; an act respecting the Toronto and Hamilton Railway Company and to change its name to The Toronto, Niagara and Western Railway Company; an act respecting Leprosy; an act respecting the Citizens' Bank of Canada; an act to authorize the exchange of certain school lands for other Dominion lands; an act respecting the British North America Assurance Co.; an act respecting the Western Assurance Co.

'Little Stories of Courtship'

By Mary Stewart Cutting

When Love Is Kind

A Problem Love Story.

"What is that you like in a man, dear?" inquired Mrs. Lane, coming into the room. "Here's a box from the florist's, Anna, roses from Harland—I just opened it to see, I thought you would not mind. Now, don't be foolish. What difference does it make who see them first? And here's something else that just came—a telegram—I sort of hated to bring it up to you, though I know it's absurd to feel so in these days, when people send telegrams for everything. I suppose it is just more congratulations. Well?"

Anna was scanning the yellow paper she had unfolded, and looked up incredulously.

"It's from Harland. What does he mean? He can't mean—he can't mean—that he isn't coming?"

"Give it to me," cried Ethel, snatching the telegram from her. She read aloud.

"Have just been called to Philadelphia for important business meeting. Would have come to tell you, but must catch the six-thirty train. Very sorry not to be with you to-night. Will write on the train.

H. LLOYD."

"It certainly does mean that he isn't coming," said Ethel blankly. "It's too bad, Anna. If Latimer were only at home! But, of course, you can go with your brother James."

"He is going to take Gertrude."

"You know you can come with us, anyway," offered Ethel generously. "I'll make Jakey give you some of the dances he has with me, and—"

"I won't go at all!" cried Anna, with a heaving bosom. She ran down the hall and disappeared from view.

"Have you been in there?" Mrs. Lane questioned mysteriously of Ethel, later.

"I've been to the door, but she asked me not to come in," replied the visitor, bare-armed, lustrous-eyed, and fragrant of violet, in the first stages of a "party" toilet, pleasantly secure from disappointment in her own case. The house had been given up to a hurried and spasmodic dinner in the stumult attending the advent of Mr. Jakey Van Dorn, which seemed to necessitate endless runnings up and down stairs, and into different rooms on the part of James, with occasional loud slamming of the front door, in the effort to supplement the wardrobe of his guest, in the matter of collar-buttons and studs and clean linen and ties. Mr. Van Dorn having arrived hastily by train in an imperfect condition, with but three cents and a postage stamp for negotiable purposes. Ethel was blissfully unconscious that the flowers which he presented to her were a token paid for with the last available funds of an obliging James. She lent her cheerful sympathy now to the perturbed mother, who continued:

"She'll have to go, you know, the Wiltons have put off this dance especially for her and Mr. Lloyd. I've been talking to her, but I couldn't seem to make any impression at all." She was too much absorbed with her own disappointment to notice that Anna was scanning the telegram from her. She read aloud.

THE ANTI-USURY BILL REPORTED

The Banking and Commerce Committee reported the Anti-Usury bill this morning. It is now for the House of Commons to pass it and send it up to the Senate without delay. The Senate has already made a reputation for itself as a friend of the victims of the usurer by adopting anti-usury measures which have been lost on the way through the Commons. Consequently, if the Commons does its duty, the bill is almost certain to become law this session.

Both Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden displayed interest in the bill yesterday; so that it enters the Commons with the assurance of powerful support. It can only be by the inattention of the country that such a measure can be lost. Public opinion is too emphatically in its favor for Parliament to squarely reject it. But the secret enemies of such a bill are past-masters in the art of delay. Its friends have really nothing but inertia to fight.

LORD STRATHCONA AND THE N. A. T. CO.

The publication of Lord Strathcona's letters makes it perfectly plain that he was not in hearty approval of the N. A. T. Co. contract, by which the country agreed to pay certain parties unknown for certain services unknowable. When he found the scheme being pressed by the Department of the Interior in the Government whose representative he was in London, he did not feel it right to withhold such assistance as he might fairly give; but it was not his scheme — it was a scheme about which he had his doubts—it was a scheme whose necessity he could not appreciate.

His correspondence also puts a new face on the dramatic story that he had been warned to stay away from Germany for fear of the police. It seems that, on the contrary, his explanation of the purposes of his visit to Germany, forwarded through Mr. Chamberlain, "was regarded as entirely satisfactory." That the sleepless German authorities should enquire into the visit of so prominent a Canadian as Lord Strathcona to their country, is not at all surprising. But the incident loses its point when we are told that the enquiry resulted in the entire satisfaction of the enquirers. We can no longer tickle our fancy with the mental pictures of the Helmeted German officialdom waiting on the wharves of Hamburg for Lord Strathcona to venture back again on his nefarious errand.

The objections urged by Lord Strathcona against the contract with the N. A. T. Co. are convincing; and it is a thousand pities that they did not prevail with Mr. Preston and the department of the Interior before the contract was ever written. His first objection is that it might "land us in difficulties with some of the governments concerned"; and the reality of this danger could not better illustrated than by the tendency of Mr. Preston to see peril in Lord Strathcona's relations with the German government. Even a more serious objection was that the members of this Company "would obtain the advantage, without any great expense or effort to themselves, of the movement which was bound shortly to take place, by reason of our continuous educational work, with the various agencies on the continent."

Canada is bound to attract a greater and greater number of immigrants yearly because of the increasing magnetism of its growth and the cumulative effects of its advertising; and, under this contract, these newcomers in the field were to be paid bonuses on the entire harvest.

Then Canada will not want to do business with a man behind a dropped curtain. To pay public money to a hidden figure for alleged services which we have no means of measuring, could never be a satisfactory policy for this country. If, by chance, anything like this should ooze into our politics, we would provide an admirable opportunity for the exercise of that system.

Private and personal enterprises may make use on occasion of secret means, and the autocratic governments of Europe have their "secret service" funds; but a democracy, such as ours, must transact business in the open. Lord Strathcona's instinct was right. He was far more closely in touch with the spirit of our people than was the Department of the Interior.

THE ARCTIC INVESTIGATION.

It would be idle to pretend that the enquiry into the Arctic affair has ended satisfactorily. There has been altogether too much voting down of motions seeking further information. The result is that, from the evidence in hand, it is impossible for the layman to tell if the purchase of supplies for the Arctic was as honestly conducted as most public functions of the sort are under any Government, or whether a more serious view should be taken of the affair.

No better proof of the failure of the committee to elicit the facts can be had than the reading of the minority report. It is not at all likely that the Opposition members, who wrote the minority report, deliberately gave their document an appearance of haziness when a plain statement would have been much more effective, and yet, from the reading of it, it is impossible to learn just what the situation is with regard to the goods purchased, the goods used and the goods brought back. This hiatus irresistibly reminds the reader that the committee voted down motions to send experts down to take stock of the goods now on the Arctic and to appoint an accountant to go through the invoices and the inventories.

The testimony which was got before the committee, outside of that given by Government officials, was of a haphazard order. It established here and there that far too much had been charged for certain brands of goods supplied. But it did not bring the entire cargo under review in any systematic fashion. Nor could the members of the opposition be expected to accomplish very much in this way, when they were refused the services of experts—services which the then Government did not refuse to the Liberal investigators in 1891. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's motion of enquiry was broad and statesmanlike, but the committee majority gave it a narrow interpretation. The evidence of the officials on the boat was not a little damaging. The evidence of certain officials concerned in the purchase and inspection of supplies was even more so. A "prima facie" case was certainly made out for an investigation, and then no investigation worthy of the name was held. It is unfortunate that the incident should terminate in this way. To pretend that even the best of Governments are not liable to be tricked by their employes would be to assume a pharisaical attitude, at which every man on the street would laugh; but we should establish for Canada the reputation of being always ready to examine to the last detail any suspicion of such conduct.

ALLEGED CORRUPTION.

The Halifax Herald alleges that corrupt practices were indulged in during the recent provincial election in that city and county to an extent to explain the whole of the majority obtained by the Government candidates. The hint is also given that these facts will be "brought before the courts." If such statements are true, there should not be the slightest question about the facts getting before the courts. If they are not true, no political exigency, or partizan purpose, warrants their being made.

Offences against the election law are too often condoned. After an election is over, the victors are too happy to care about any trickery their opponents used. The vanquished too often are weary of the fight or conscious of wrongdoing on their own side, and content themselves with muttering threats, or filing an election petition with the deliberate intention of having a "saw-off" later on. Thus the serious crime of tampering with the sacred rights of the people comes to be regarded as a trivial matter, and one to be even winked at by many professedly honest, moral men. A noteworthy exception to this rule was shown in the St. Antoine election in Montreal. Men arrested on charges of offences against the election law were relentlessly prosecuted to the very end. Without questioning the justice of the verdict of acquittal, we will say that the prosecution had the effect of teaching many people that the law is not a dead letter, and prosecutions for election offences are not farce comedies.

CAN WE LESSEN THE TROLLEY'S TOLL?

The grinding to death of Mr. John Morrison and the non-committal verdict of the jury, reached only after long discussion of widely divergent views, bring into strong relief the need for thorough investigation of these street railway accidents which are becoming a terribly frequent feature in our city life. The evidence given at the inquest was contradictory and irreconcilable. There was no reasonable certainty as to the speed of the car. Whether the fender played a life-saving or life-destroying role could not be ascertained. All the jury could be sure of, was that Mr. Morrison was killed, and that the motorman was not criminally responsible. No verdict can give much consolation to the family of the victim, and such a verdict as this gives little satisfaction to the citizens who are interested in finding a way to render such accidents less frequent.

What is wanted is a thorough investigation of the whole question. Every possible effort should be made to lessen the toll of human life that rapid urban traffic is exacting. There has been much discussion lately of the value of the fender. Our Coroner has expressed his belief that it is a danger, rather than a protection, to life. One of the leading street railway officials has expressed serious doubts as to its usefulness. Human life depends upon the determination of this alternative. It is not a matter that should be left in uncertainty. An enquiry should be begun and carried on until as certain a conclusion as is possible is attained. Then, if a fender is obtainable which will protect human life, its use should be enforced under heavy penalties. If the fender is a menace to life, it should be at once abolished.

With the inspiration of protecting the lives of the citizens the questions of responsibility should receive unflinching enquiry. Where the lack of a proper fender is the cause of sacrifice of life, when an effective fender is obtainable, the responsibility rests with the company and the city officials whose duty it may be to see that the fender is in use. Where death is due to excessive speed the responsibility rests primarily with the motorman, but if his time schedule makes reckless rushing a necessity, or if he is held unduly close to his schedule, no matter what may be the reason for delay, the responsibility may be shifted to the company. The ascertainment of where the responsibility lies in these matters is necessary as a prelude to the adoption of measures to guard against the dangers. There should be no animus against motorman, company or civic officials; neither should there be favor toward any. What the public wants, and rightly wants, is the attainment of means to lessen the roll of trolley casualties and fatalities. An investigation made in the most thorough manner possible, should be conducted with this end in view, and no side issues should be allowed to divert the enquiry from its proper aim.

FROM SHIP IN MID-OCEAN.

(By Marconi Wireless to the Montreal Star via Sable Island.)

Nine-thirty a.m., Baltic, two hundred and thirty miles south-east Sable Island, bound for New York.

This vessel will be in communication with Marconi stations via Sable Island until arrival in port.

THIS DATE 30 YEARS AGO.

June 27, 1876.

The Hon. L. H. Holton and Mr. John Molson will be the visiting governors at the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge for the week commencing Monday next.

The Late Hon. L. H. Holton.

BOTH the governors have long since paid the debt of nature. The former was one of the Dominion's oldest and ablest statesmen, an acknowledged debater, and a recognized authority on parliamentary procedure. He died on March 14th, 1880. Mr. Molson was a prominent merchant and a benefactor of all charitable institutions.

Next Sunday the pulpit of Zion Church, now vacant by the retirement of Rev. Mr. Chapman, will be filled by the Rev. A. J. Bray, who arrived from England by the Sardinian. He comes with an excellent reputation as a powerful preacher.

THE late Rev. A. J. Bray, who passed away in London, England, many years ago, was a very fluent and logical speaker. He had a wonderful command of the English language, and his addresses were most interesting and scholarly. He succeeded the distinguished Dr. Parker as pastor of Cavendish Chapel, Manchester, England, and was in charge when he was called to Canada. While pastor of Zion he founded and published for a few years the Spectator, a high-class literary weekly journal, now defunct.

Mr. Lepine opened his fine race course on Friday last with a two days' trotting meeting. The attendance was very large, and the contests spirited. The course is well constructed, and no doubt will be well patronized by the sporting element.

FOR many years the above race course was successfully run by the proprietor, and excellent meetings of the Hunt and kindred organizations were carried out. The land was sold some years ago for residential purposes, and to-day the site is almost covered with well built residences on wide, well-graded avenues.

The national fete of St. Jean Baptiste was celebrated on Monday last with all the pomp and brilliant display for which our French-Canadian fellow-citizens are so renowned. The Champ de Mars was the general rendezvous for the different societies, and at 9 a.m. punctually the grand marshal, Mr. Euclide Roy, advocate, started the long procession on its march through Notre Dame, St. Lawrence, St. Catherine, St. Mary, Visitation and Notre Dame streets to the parish church.

THE late Mr. Roy was not only a good advocate, but he was a patriot and a great lover of his race. He enjoyed marshaling a large procession, and he knew how to handle the various groups. He was called to the Bar of Quebec in 1845. He was the president at the inauguration of the monument to the memory of the men who lost their lives in the uprising of 1837-8, in the Roman Catholic cemetery. He died many years ago.

A free lecture, under the auspices of St. Luke's Church Association, will be given in the basement of the church to-morrow evening by the Rev. S. Belcher. The subject will be "British Rule in India."

THE late Rev. S. Belcher was for many years the much respected and loved pastor of Grace Anglican Church, Point St. Charles. He had for a long period done good missionary service for the church before coming to Canada. He knew India and its people very well, and was very familiar with the customs and habits of the several castes. He passed away in the eighties after a long and useful life.

Things are getting so strained in exploration circles that the first thing we know Cap. Bernier and the North Pole will not be on speaking terms.

After eating up the C.P.R. at one gulp, it is probably James J. Hill's idea to have the Grand Trunk Pacific for dessert, washing them down with the Atlantic Ocean.

King Haakon of Norway probably lost no time in exchanging that crown for a straw hat after the ceremonies were over.

After his visit to the Russian Doums, W. J. Bryan must have been sorely tempted to let his whiskers grow.

Perhaps the Aldermen want to leave the holes in the streets for the benefit of golf players, who can go out and practice putting.

John D. Rockefeller is creating a great sensation in France with his money—by not spending it.

It isn't fair to beat a carpet when it is down.

A whale has been seen at Three Rivers. Several Montreal fishermen will, no doubt, immediately recognize the monster as the "one that got away."

Food — Something with which we deceive the stomach.

Away Out of Season.

"You said you were fond of active, outdoor sport," remarked the athletic girl.

"So I am," answered the lazy man in the hammock; "but not all of them. The sports I like are skating and throwing snowballs."

King Haakon has now taken his place among the men who earn their salaries by being blamed for everything that goes wrong.

The Judge who decided that hexamethylentertramin contains no alcohol must have been a judge of both alcohol and the English language.

THE SEASIDE INVALID.

He wasn't hearty, truth to tell,
His system wasn't working well,
They sent him to the seashore, where
He might get rest and fresher air.

When he arrived, this invalid
Surprised us by the things he did.
He hit the board-walk, and he stayed
For several hours on promenade.

He ate clam chowder, oyster stew,
And lobster a la Newburg, too;
Then lingered till the break of day
To hear the songs in a cafe.

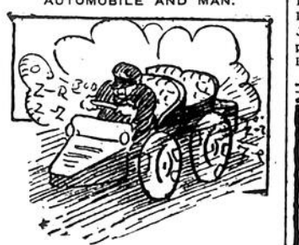

His friends and doctors, quite outdone,
Retired to slumber, one by one.
But he remarked, "I plainly see
This trip has benefited me!"

A western alderman is reported to be suffering from an application of X-rays. Very few aldermen will bear looking into.

A girl in New York reports having been robbed of $1,500. Some men would have been willing to take the girl, too, with an amount so large as that.

Three members of a family in Arkansas ate bologna sausage and died shortly afterward. Now, the question arises: Were they poisoned or frightened to death?

AUTOMOBILE AND MAN.

The splendid, big machine flits past,
With little noise from shaft or gear;
Well-planned and powerful and fast,
Its whir falls lightly on the ear.

With heavy chug and rasping clank
The poorly made machine goes by,
Proclaiming its inferior rank
And failing where the hills are high.

And thus it is with men; the cheap
And noisy ones are not the kind
That triumph where the hills are steep,
And easy ways are hard to find.

You have precisely half a year in which to do that Christmas shopping.

Some persons have taken the meat exposures so much to heart that they have quit reading the works of Bacon and Lamb.

That low rumbling heard from time to time is the sound of the McGill graduates all talking at once as they tell how they are going to make the world over while you wait.

A correspondent suggests that women lay aside deceit, perjury, untruthfulness and loquacity. Good idea. But why limit it to women?

According to English physicians, "silence will cure nervous women and delay coming wrinkles." Rather than take that treatment some women would prefer wrinkles.

Religion is a mighty poor fit on some people.

Prince Rupert, the G. T. P. terminal, is going to be a perfect city. It will no doubt be modelled after Montreal without the Westmount idea attached.

A manufacturer of awnings has done up his creditors. He was in a shady business, anyway.

The popularity of the St. Lawrence route is more evident than ever, seeing that even whales are now coming up to test its many advantages.

BOVRIL

Every ounce of BOVRIL is prepared under the most hygienic conditions as required by the laws of Great Britain.

In the preparation of BOVRIL absolutely nothing but the choicest lean beef is used, our main source of supply being the Argentine Republic, where cattle are so plentiful and the consuming population so small that the best parts of the beef can be obtained by us at a very reasonable cost.

BOVRIL is a specialty, not merely a bye-product of a packing house like many meat extracts.

RESOLUTIONS FOR 1906 A FAILURE.

When we look among our friends, from the men of brains to the men of toil we must acknowledge that our New Year's resolutions too often fail.

We must acknowledge that when alcoholism and drug habits have taken possession of us or them, and they have become uncontrollable diseases—yes, practically enslaved to them—there is no longer any necessity for believing that we can overcome them by an exercise of the will power—it will be impossible.

There is but one way to gain freedom, or to be restored to a normal condition, and that is through scientific medical treatment, one that positively controls and cures the disease. The restorative and cure is

"THE MACKAY TREATMENT."

It is a treatment founded on scientific principles, and has no relationship whatever to fake medicines or quackery. The best evidence of its sterling merit is that the Government of the Province of Quebec and the municipalities of Montreal and Quebec use Dr. Mackay's Treatment to cure their chronic inebriates.

This treatment restores the will—it builds up the nervous system—clears the brain, and practically renews the functions of life. When the treatment is completed it leaves the system fortified, and no longer requires the needs of the temporary bracing effects of stimulants and poisonous drugs, that slowly, but surely, destroy life.

Why delay an absolute cure any longer? The medicine itself can positively do no harm; it does only great good; it will make the victim happy, respected and trustworthy.

Remember—It has taken years to produce these diseases and habits, for which the Mackay Treatment is a Specific. By using it you will be cured, and become a free person, no longer enslaved to your previous habits, in the

in your own home — by following precisely and exactly the treatment as directed.

Over 2,000 CURED in the Last Few Years.

WHO'S WHO?

INSPECTOR OF GYMNASIA, INDIA.

— The death of Brevet Lieut.-Col. Norton James Goodwyn, D. S. O., Devonshire Regiment, Inspector of Gymnasia, India, deprives the army of a junior officer of great promise. He died at Sydney, Australia, of typhoid fever, when on his way home from India, at the early age of 44. He was the second son of the late Gen. J. E. Goodwyn, C.B., and entered the Devonshire Regiment in September, 1882. He served with the Irrawaddy Column in Burmah in 1891-92, and from 1894 to 1896 was employed with the Egyptian Army, and in 1898-99 he was attached to the West African Regiment on special service in the operations during the Hut Tax Rebellion, and in the operations in Sierra Leone. He was also engaged in the Mendiland Expedition, including the Songo-Town Kwalu Expedition, and afterwards with the Karene and Protectorate Expeditions. He captured Bai Bureh, the notorious chief of the Timmini tribe, and principal leader of the revolt, thus putting an end to the rebellion. He also took part in the South African War, 1899-02, and in the operations for the relief of Ladysmith he was severely wounded at Colenso, and mentioned for gallantry. Later in the campaign he commanded Thorneycroft's Mounted Infantry. For his services during the latter part of the war he was three times mentioned in despatches, receiving the Queen's medal with four clasps, and the King's medal with two clasps, and the brevet of Lieutenant-Colonel. He was appointed Inspector of Gymnasia in India in May, 1904.

APPOINTED ALMONER TO THE KING. — The very Rev. Joseph Armitage Robinson, Dean of Westminster, has been appointed Almoner to the King. He was educated at Christ Church, Cambridge, and was ordained priest in 1882. For many years he was a Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge, and for six years he held the Norrisian Professorship of Divinity in the University, which he left to become Rector of St. Margaret's, Westminster. From 1899 to 1902 he was Canon of Westminster. He became Dean in 1902.

Fresh Air Fund
THE RIVER BANK HOME.

The Home on the Richelieu River, at Chambly, is now open. Applications for admission may be made to the Committee at the Star Office, 165 St. James Street, on the afternoons of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week during the season, between the hours of two and four o'clock. Every application must be accompanied with a certificate from the clergyman to whose church the applicant belongs. Blank certificate forms may be obtained from the Secretary, at the Star Office, St. James Street.

The Fresh Air Fund is administered by a volunteer committee of men and women, including the city missionaries, interested in the welfare and suffering of children. It is established to take away from the city, for a longer or shorter period, children and mothers whom the visiting doctor advises to send. It is:

1st—For the sick children of the poor.
2nd—For the tired working mothers with children.
3rd—For children threatened with sickness, and whose parents have not the means to enable them to leave the city.

Five dollars will send a mother and sick child to the country for a fortnight, and larger amounts will do proportionate good. Contributions may be sent to the Star Office, 165 St. James Street; Star Branch Office, corner Peel and St. Catherine Streets, or to Charles M. Alexander, Esq., Hon. Treasurer, 219 St. James Street. 122 26eod

SHERRING'S DIFFICULTIES.

Eugene Peltier Issues Writ Against Sherring for Breach of Contract.

Hamilton, Ont., June 27.—William Sherring, the Marathon victor, has discovered that being a hero has its drawbacks. He was invited to take part in a sporting event at Guelph last Friday, but did not go because he wanted to take part in the benefit held for Jack Caffery, Eugene Peltier, who was running the Guelph show, says that he lost $700 because Sherring did not turn up, and as a result he has issued a writ against Sherring, claiming damages for alleged breach of contract.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theatre Francais.

At the Francais next week, the Fuller Stock Company will end their engagement by presenting one of Chas. E. Blaney's latest melodramas, "More to be Pitied than Scorned," which has not previously been seen in Montreal. The play is said to be of an original type, a combination of the tragic and humorous. It deals with characters connected with the church and stage. The story tells of the humiliation and sufferings of Julian Lorraine, the leading man of the Amphion Stock Company, and Viola Keith, a minister's daughter, who has fallen in love with and secretly married the actor. Several vaudeville numbers will be introduced. After next week the theatre will remain closed until the opening of the regular season in August.

Dominion Park.

Henri Morin, who comes to Dominion Park on Monday with his French military band, is described as a conductor of earnestness, of understanding and feeling—a conductor of temperament. There is nothing showy, nothing spectacular about his direction. He impresses one as fathoming the purpose and intent of the composer, as possessing the faculty of being able to impart this knowledge to those under his guidance, as knowing just what he wants in the matter of effects and being able to achieve it.

Three Workmen Sue Company.

Actions have been entered against the Carter White Lead Company by Alfred Hebert for $1,800; Joseph Lecavalier, for $950, and Theodore Hamelin for $195, for illness alleged to have been caused while in the employ of the Lead Company. Poor ventilation and lack of proper equipment are alleged to have been the cause of poisoning.

THE LATE MRS. MARNELL.—The funeral of the late Mrs. C. A. Marnell, wife of Inspector Marnell, of the St. Gabriel's Dyke, Pt. St. Charles, took place on Saturday to St. Gabriel's Church, and was largely attended. At the church the body was received by Rev. Wm. O'Meara, P.P., who also sang the requiem mass, assisted by Father A. Cullinan, as deacon, and Father Fahey, as sub-deacon.

"Arctic" Minority Report.

States That Extravagant Prices Paid for Excessive Quantities of Supplies.

Committee, However, Adopts Report Framed by Liberal Members—The Only Criticism is as to the Prices Paid a Quebec Firm for Tobacco.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 27.—The special committee of the House which has for some weeks been probing into the supplies for the Arctic concluded business on Tuesday afternoon. The report as adopted by the Liberal majority of the committee on the vote of four to three was presented to the House. The report is a practical whitewash of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, which purchased the supplies for the Arctic. When the committee met, Mr. Carvell read the report prepared by the Liberal members and, seconded by Mr. McPherson, moved for its adoption.

Mr. Northrup read the report prepared by the Conservative members, and, seconded by Mr. Bennett, moved an amendment that it be adopted. The amendment was voted down, and the main motion adopted.

THE MAJORITY REPORT.

The report adopted by the majority of the committee sets forth:—

(1) That in the year 1904, the Dominion Government steamer Arctic was provisioned and outfitted for 40 men for 1200 days, for a voyage to explore and patrol Hudson's Bay and the islands and waters north thereof, and to enforce and administer the laws of Canada therein.

(2) That in view of contemplated expedition of over 3 years, and of hardships and contingencies naturally attendant upon such a voyage, and the impossibility of replenishing stores, the quantity and variety of stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions were reasonable and necessary and were of the best quality.

(3) That all the stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions purchased by the Department of Marine and Fisheries for the said steamer and for the purpose of the said expedition into said waters to be placed on board, and that the said steamer was capable of carrying, holding and accommodating, and did carry, hold and accommodate all the said stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions, in addition to and exclusive of any stores carried for and on account of the North-West Mounted Police service.

(4) No part or portion of the said stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions were in whole or in part improperly diverted for other uses than originally contemplated for the profit of any person or persons.

(5) That fair and reasonable prices were paid for the said stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions, with the exception of a quantity of tobacco from a Quebec firm, the particulars of which, are as follows:

805 pounds smoking tobacco at 95 cents.

200 pounds chewing tobacco at 78 cents.

In addition to the prices charged and paid, for said 1,005 pounds of tobacco as above stated, the vendors charged the Department of Marine and Fisheries with the excise tax thereon of 39c per pound amounting to $391.95. The amount paid for said two quantities of tobacco the committee finds to have been unfair and unreasonable.

NO CORRUPTION.

(6) That no officers, agents or servants of the Department of Marine and Fisheries unjustly, unlawfully or corruptly profited in connection with the purchase or disposition of any of the stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions purchased and placed on board the said steamer Arctic.

(7) That all stores, merchandise, supplies and provisions not consumed during the progress of the expedition of the said steamer Arctic, as hereinbefore set forth, after making due allowance for depreciation in quantities by reason of natural and unavoidable causes, are now in possession of, and under the control of the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

(8) That the sum of $45.30, being the freight charges from Montreal to Quebec on a quantity of Bovril and pemmican, purchased from the Bovril Co. Ltd. of Montreal, was paid by the agent of the Department of Marine and Fisheries resident at Quebec, to the Intercolonial Railway, and subsequently by mistake and without knowledge of the prior payment, the same amount and charge was paid to the Bovril Company Ltd., by the Marine and Fisheries Department which amount during the progress of the committee investigation was repaid to the Department of Marine and Fisheries by the Bovril Company Ltd.

THE MINORITY REPORT.

The report framed by the Conservative members of the committee, Messrs. Northrup, Bennett, Bergeron, and Stockton, and which was not accepted, tells a different tale. It was as follows:

"Your committee, to whom were referred certain charges respecting the Arctic investigation, beg leave to report:

The only questions referred to your committee for investigation were:

(a) All the circumstances connected with the purchase of the supplies for said expedition;

(b) The disposal of the same.

(c) Whether or not said supplies were all put on board the Arctic or were in part diverted for other uses by and for the benefit of persons unknown.

(d) Whether or not excessive prices were corruptly paid for said supplies, and that in connection therewith pecuniary benefits were received by officers of the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

(a) Your committee find that, although about $125,000 worth of supplies was purchased from various firms, some to very large amounts, namely, Hamilton & Co., $5,048.09; Woods & Co., Ltd., $6,437.20; Hudon & Orsall, $12,931.13; the Bovril Company, $19,780, no tenders were invited nor prices even asked for from any firm, nor was there any limitation as to price except that the favored venders were informed by letter sending the order from the department that these supplies were to be furnished at the usual market prices, and this, although the vessel did not sail within two months of the sending of said letter. Your committee further find that, although it was intended and expected by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, and the commander of the Arctic was promised that the Neptune or some other vessel would be sent to the relief of the Arctic each year carrying coal and 50 tons of miscellaneous stores, that Captain Bernier was instructed to send in requisitions for provisions and clothing for three years. He, having accordingly sent in his requisitions, which were based not on a trip to the Hudson's Bay, but to the North Pole, where they would be in every danger of shipwreck with no hope of additional supplies, these requisitions were wantonly and extravagantly increased by the officials of the department in utter disregard of the requirements of the contemplated expedition and the carrying capacity of the Arctic. Conclusive proof of this will be found on a comparison of the alleged copy of the original requisition, which original, although asked for, was not produced with the ship's inventory in the matter of liquors, wines, lime juice, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, furs, clothing, and many other items.

NO CONTROL WAS EXERCISED.

Although many officials, including the Minister, Deputy Minister, Commander Spain, the agent of the Department at Quebec, Captain Bernier, and the Doctor, seemed to be at liberty to purchase whatever was suggested, no one seems to have exercised any control or displayed any interest in the regulation of purchases or the determination of prices. The expenditures of over $22,000 for clothing, of $7,691.11 for an electric lighting plant whose power was to be furnished by the engines (although it was expected that the Arctic would be icebound for eight or more months each year), of $4,827.27 for medical supplies and appliances, of $3,500 for tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and pipes; of about $2,000 for wines and liquors (not including the liberal supply thereof in the medical stores), and the purchase of seventeen dozen packs of cards, amply justified this conclusion. The only consideration of the prices ever pretended was by a Mr. Semple, who was brought from Montreal to Ottawa to examine the provisions, and he was governed, according to his own evidence, by the two incontrovertible principles that one must assume that the invoice of a reputable friend was correct, and that a person would naturally expect higher prices from the Government than from an individual. Your committee further find that so large a quantity of stores was purchased that it would be quite impossible to have carried them on the Arctic had they been stowed, as is the practice on every ship on which the safety of the vessel and the lives of those on board are considered. This is established by the evidence of Major Moody, Captain Bernier and others, that not only were the holds and the private cabins filled with goods, but that a large quantity of cold beef, pork, all the gasoline, and the stores for the Northwest Mounted Police were piled up on the upper deck as high as the bridge, making it almost impossible to climb from one end of the ship to the other; and it must not be forgotten that the Arctic was intended to be propelled by sail as well as by steam, and for which she was fitted.

INACCURATE STATEMENTS.

(b) Your Committee regrets that the inaccurate and misleading statement furnished by the Department of Marine and Fisheries render it quite impossible for them to decide definitely on the disposition made of supplies. That Department gave the committee a statement purporting to show the amount of goods purchased, the amount issued on requision, and the amount now on hand. The two latter, with the addition of the few trifling quantities said to have been spoiled or abstracted, corresponding with the former. The evidence, however, of the purser, steward and others, shows that a large quantity of provisions was used in feeding the horde of Esquimaux, at one time numbering 95, but averaging from 50 to 60, who for six or seven months lived around the Arctic. A considerable quantity must have been used for refreshments at the dances, which were given fortnightly on the Arctic for the Esquimaux men and women during the winter spent at Fullerton. The purser, Mr. Weeks, further testified that a large quantity of the stores, having been found to be spoiled, were thrown overboard, while Mr. Semple, the expert employed by the Government to examine the samples of the provisions before the boat sailed, and who was also engaged, for a month on her return, in taking an inventory, swore at first that 25 per cent. of the cargo was destroyed or spoiled, although subsequently he declined to say more than that a considerable quantity of what was now on board had been so lost.

MEDICAL SUPPLIES MISSING.

A comparison, too, of the inventory of medical stores taken on board with that taken after they returned, shows that either a large quantity of specific medicines and other supplies had been abstracted, or that an investigation should be held into the conduct of the expedition during the winter at Fullerton, which was refused by a majority of the committee. Your committee also finds that wines, cigars, and cigarettes were purchased by the Department of Marine and Fisheries for the personal use of the officers of the Northwest Mounted Police, and were given to them, but no evidence was adduced to justify or excuse such expenditure. Such purchase and disposition of the said supplies was shown by the evidence of Mr. Gregory, Mr. Weeks, Mr. Duchesney, and Major Moody.

(c) As the evidence clearly showed that no attempt whatever was made to check the stores in the various cases and packages received at the boat by the invoices, it was impossible for your committee to decide whether or not all the supplies were put on the Arctic. In the case of goods received from one firm, namely Hamilton & Co., the purser certified that all had been received, although the invoice called for nine boxes, while his inventory only showed five received. It is claimed that two shipments of Bovril and pemmican, and only two, were shipped by the Bovril Company to and received on the Arctic. The one shipped on August 5th appears to have been received. There is no evidence whatever given by anyone that he received the other, and no receipts have been produced. It is true that a couple of witnesses referred to two shipments of Bovril, but Captain Bernier, who also spoke of the other shipment, swore that he understood that a shipment of Bovril had been made to the Neptune at Halifax, but it arrived too late and was returned from there addressed to him on the Arctic.

THE MISSING BOVRIL.

As no witnesses claimed that there were three shipments of Bovril received on the Arctic, it is plain that unless Captain Bernier is mistaken, one of the shipments of the value of $1,485 was not received. The carelessness of the Department of Marine and Fisheries is shown as well in the payments, for as in the receipt of the goods. The freight on the larger consignment of Bovril was paid by the agent of the department at Quebec, and refunded to him by the department, which also added the same amount to the invoice of the Bovril Company and paid the same. An enquiry as to the correctness of the payment was made by the company of the department, but no notice was taken thereof and no demand for repayment was made until after your committee had discovered the above facts, when the money was refunded. The failure properly to check the in-

A New Isthmian Railway.

MEXICO is about to take a 1,200-mile "kink" out of the line of international commerce which has been using the Panama route. At the same time it will give the American transcontinental railways a tremendous shock by opening a new short route from the Atlantic to the Pacific, which they cannot control. By the end of the year the new railway across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec is to be opened to interoceanic traffic on a large scale. The railway has been completed for some time and is in operation for local traffic. It is only awaiting the completion of its terminal ports to begin handling ocean freight. These ports, although they will not be fully completed in less than two or three years, will soon be sufficiently advanced to be used by vessels of any size. The railway, being 600 miles north of the Panama Railway, is that distance nearer the natural line of the world's East and West commerce. It will bring New York and North Atlantic ports 1,200 miles and New Orleans and Gulf ports 1,400 miles nearer to San Francisco, Japan and China. The sailing time from New York to Coatzacoalcos, the Atlantic terminal port, will be six or seven days, two days less than to Colon, the Atlantic port of the Panama Railway. Cargo from a vessel landing at Coatzacoalcos, say, of 10,000 tons, can be aboard another vessel in the harbor of Salinas Cruz in four or five days. In an emergency the trans-shipment could be accomplished in 36 hours. The same freight could not be transferred across the Isthmus of Panama in less than three weeks, possibly longer. At Salinas Cruz, the Pacific port, the vessel is two days nearer San Francisco than it would be at Panama. This serves to illustrate what the new route means in saving time.

Surgery That Leaves No Scars.

Dr. J. L. A. Aymord, a noted hospital surgeon of London, England, has made a wonderful discovery by which surgery will leave no scars. The doctor finds that it all depends on the manner in which the incision through the skin is made. His own description of his scarless method is re-printed from the London Lancet: "My new method of skin division consists of the simple operation of dividing it upon the slant in contradistinction to the present method of dividing the same at right angles to the surface. My idea, though new by design, is by accident of very ancient origin. There are few of us who have not on our person some example, however small, of this cut through the skin upon the slant. Such a cut, if extensive, generally presents a somewhat lumpy appearance, due to contraction and very often a smooth mark at the line of junction. The reason why a cut through the skin upon the slant and subjected to properly applied pressure heals so perfectly is not far to see. Contact is perfect and the greater the pressure within limits the better it is. With regard to the operation itself, the skin should be reasonably stretched in all directions by assistants, if this is not already the case by some underlying tumor. The angle at which the knife should be held can only be learned by practice. The skin, as a rule, will give five or six millimetres, or about a quarter of an inch, flap, but in addition at least as much fat flap, except, of course, when the fat is excessive. Fat makes firm, rapid union, and is, therefore, of considerable importance. Sometimes I secure the wound by placing across a few strips of China silk and collodion; at others by merely placing collodion on the curved or flat glass dressing. When the glass is pressed flat the exact position of the flap can be seen at a glance. I prefer glass to celluloid or mica, because it is rigid, a matter of importance when applying pressure. In all probability excellent results will be obtained in a dozen other ways. With regard to pressure, it should be slight for the first few days, then gradually increased. Whichever rigid dressing is placed over the wound, it should be covered by a large pad of wool. If no rigid dressing is thus used, in all probability a contracted condition of the flap will result. Sooner than allow a wound to heal in bad position I would always break it down and begin again."

A French Revolution in 1910.

Unabashed by the fiasco of last May Day, the Socialists of France, alued by the labor unions, are preparing for a monster demonstration on the same day four years hence. Intimation to this effect was given by Jules Geuesde when addressing a Socialist banquet at St. Mande recently. The report of his speech, however, did not appear in full in a printed version published in Humanite. The suppressed passage of his speech, which was evidently deemed premature, reads as follows: "The French proletariat may look forward calmly to a solution by revolution in 1910. Yes, 3,000,000 votes in France will then be behind the programme of capitalist expropriation, and the continuance of a middle class government, of whatever kind it may be, will not be permitted. Matters will have arrived at such a pass that the Government itself, driven into a corner, will provoke an immediate struggle. To defend itself it will call on its army and give the order to fire. But the army will not shoot in the direction it is told."

Beneficence of Reptiles.

A New York writer on "Beneficent Reptiles" defends the non-venomous snake, saying that it is of great value to the farmer in keeping down harmful animals, for the destruction of which, on a large scale, no cheap and effecient means has been found. The extermination of the snake would result, it is declared, in conditions far more harmful than the annoyance caused by its presence. This is doubtless true to-day, but one may ask why we need so many more snakes in this country than suffice in Europe. The answer that can be most readily given is that animal pests are always much worse in new countries, like Canada, the United States and Australia, than in those where the "balance of nature" has been developed to the fine point which prevails on the over-worked and over-worn soils of the Old World. The size of the calamity which the gypsy moths and similar pests inflict upon this country, it is often difficult for European entomologists to comprehend. The snake is probably a useful scavenger, but eventually this continent should be able to get along without him, as do large areas of the Old World.

THE GLEANER.

Said a manufacturer to one of our salesmen: "No more card system for me. I put one into my factory a year ago—a cost system. Every job going through is entered on seven separate cards. Not one of my workmen can blow his nose without recording it on a card. I've taken on two extra clerks to keep the thing running; and i'ts just as hard to-day to get the facts I want as it was a year ago."

Our salesman investigated for half a day.

He showed the manufacturer how to combine his seven records into ONE and get all the facts he wanted in the most concise and intelligent shape.

The moral is that index cards and cabinets don't make a card system.

NOTES WERE GIVEN FOR STOCK

Sovereign Life Shareholders Obtained Their Stock on Very Easy Terms.

A CURE FOR REBATING.

President Hoover Could Stop It in Twenty-four Hours by Fines.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Toronto, June 27.—The investigation of the Sovereign Life dragged on today, the chief points discussed being the methods used in 1903 in raising the necessary capital to bring business. Notes were taken in payment of stock subscriptions, even the president, Addison H. Hoover, giving a note for his stock. This was the way in which the act had been compiled with, it being stated that a certain amount of cash had to be deposited before the company could begin business.

A unique statement regarding rebating was made by A. H. Hoover. He said that rebating could be stopped by the companies in 24 hours. He advocated as penalties heavy fines and the taking away of license.

The evidence to-day was uninteresting, largely repetition. Mr. Hoover could not say when asked by Mr. Tilley just how much he had received from the Home Life in commissions. Mr. Tilley then went on to the incorporation of the Sovereign Life. Mr. Tilley said that under the charter of the company it had to have $250,000 stock subscribed and 25 per cent. paid up before incorporation and could not begin business until $62,500 was paid up in cash. Mr. Hoover explained that this had been paid up by discounting the notes given for stock by shareholders, the directors giving a personal note to the Imperial Bank for the purpose.

Mr. Hoover had really given a note for a large part of his stock.

George J. White, Sussex, N.B., and Charles T. White, each having paid $416.80, were on the books as having paid up $1,250.

The various kinds of policies issued by the Sovereign Life were taken up and then the profit and loss exhibit was discussed. Discussing the loss on mortality in 1905, Mr. Gould gave a list of gruesome accidents that could not be foreseen, that had swelled the list.

G. A. Geary, junior Ontario counsel took up Mr. Hamer for a time, asking him about rebating. The witness said that the companies were largely to blame by winking at it.

"It could be stopped in 24 hours," he said. "I would fine the company $1,000 for the first offence, take away its license for the second, fine the agent and cancel the policy."

The commission adjourned at 1.30. It will meet to-morrow in London and reassemble in Toronto on July 9th.

Furnish Information.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Ottawa, June 27.

Later Mr. Wilson, after telephoning to Mr. Brooks in New York, and obtaining his consent, gave the desired information. He produced invoices, of boilers, hoisting engines, pumps, etc., sold to Merwin. There was a long list of such supplies and it was demonstrated that the profit ranged from 50 per cent. upwards. A lot of the machinery came originally from the Goldie and McCullough Company, but passed through the hands of middlemen, whereas the manufacturers were quite prepared to sell direct to the Government.

DR. SHAW OF M'GILL ADDRESSED M.A.A.A.

A New and Valuable Departure in Athletics in Montreal.

ALL THE PUPILS ARE LADIES.

At the Opening of Summer School for Athletic Teachers, Dr. Shaw Gave Eloquent Address.

At the opening of the M. A. A. A. summer school for athletic teachers yesterday, and presided over by Sgt.-Major Long, the following address was delivered by Dr. T. F. Shaw, of McGill:

"The M. A. A. A. has honored me by asking me to deliver the address of welcome on the occasion of the opening of the first session of the M. A. A. A. Summer School of Physical Training. I feel that I cannot do better than point out to you some of the aims of modern physical education, as well as draw your attention to the increasing employment of gymnastics in the cure of disease.

Father John, the founder of the Turner Societies in 1811, has said, "Gymnastics are to restore the uniformity in our education, which has been lost; to add bodily education to one-sided mental culture, and to balance our refinement by manliness regained."

For many years athletes, and those interested in physical development, held the opinion that, in order to be strong, it was only necessary to increase the size of the muscles. It is now coming to be understood that physical strength depends more upon the general health and nerve tone than upon the size of the muscles.

You remember where Shakespeare tells about the rebellion of the stomach and how the rest of the body suffered. This physiological teaching of Shakespeare is just as true to-day as it was then, and illustrates how one set of organs are dependent upon the others, and that it is only when the muscular system, the nervous system, and the circulatory system, etc., work together that the body can be called healthy.

It is coming to be recognized that the function of our schools and colleges is not to turn out specialists in either intellectual or commercial pursuits. The same holds good of physical training. It should not be the aim of our schools or colleges to turn out professional ball players, or lacrosse players, etc., but to produce, by general body training, well-balanced (mentally and physically) men and women.

Outdoor sports and systematic gymnastics are the forms of exercise which yield the best results in the physical training of children and adults. All forms of athletics, sports and gymnastics have developed from one or from healthful play, the vital energy of the germ is found in the universal impulse of all healthful children to play. In the athletic sports of young men we see the highest and fullest expression of the play instinct.

The essential difference between athletics and gymnastics is one of aim. The aim of athletics should be pleasurable activity for the sake of recreation, that of gymnastics, is for discipline or training for pleasure, health and skill. Gymnastics as compared with athletics, are more comprehensive in their aims more formal, more elaborate and systematic in their methods, and are productive of more solid and considerable results.

I have no wish to disparage athletic sports. I believe that they are valuable as a means of recreation, that they conduce to bodily growth and improvement, and that their moral effects are of value, since they call for self-subordination, public spirit, and co-operative effort, and serve to reveal the dominant characteristics and tendencies as regards temper, disposition and form of will of those engaged in them. But they bear so indelibly the marks of their childish origin, they are so crude and unspecialized as to their methods as to render them inadequate for the purposes of a thoroughgoing and broad system of bodily education. It is well to promote them, but it is unwise and short-sighted to consider them as constituting anything more than a single stage in the best bodily training.

The course of instruction given by Mr. Long is based upon the British military system, but so modified by him as to meet the requirements of children and young adults of both sexes. In addition to the general training in gymnastics a series of talks will be given on the anatomy and physiology of the human body. It will comprise a working knowledge, so that you may approach your work in an intelligent manner. From time to time mention will be made of the use of physical training in the treatment of diseased conditions, but remember that "a little knowledge is a dangerous thing." Never fall into the error of attempting to prescribe any form of exercise as a form of treatment for any diseased condition. Refer them to their physician, and then act upon his advice in regard to the treatment. This is the only way you will gain the respect and co-operation of the medical profession "in your work."

Wrist Watches

are gaining in popularity daily, with both ladies and gentlemen.

¶ They are a great convenience when yachting, golfing, riding, fishing, shooting, travelling, in fact, at any time where there is risk of loss or injury to a watch when carried in the pocket.

¶ So important has our trade in them become that we have had specially devised movements made to our order, and while not expensive, they resist vibration to a marvellous degree.

No. 55W.—A full-jewelled movement, in double-backed gunmetal case, with solid leather strap holder . . . $11.00
No. 128W.—Same as No. 55W, but Silver case $12.00
These are suitable for either lady or gentleman.

PREFERENCE WILL BE GRANTED CANADA

Measure to that Effect is Now Before South African Parliaments.

REBATE TO BE SUBSTANTIAL.

The Range of Articles to be Included Within Its Scope is Wide.

Information reached Montreal to-day that the Customs Union of British South Africa is about to grant Canada some substantial preferences in its tariff, the consequences of which will prove most important to this country's foreign trade.

Messrs Elder, Dempster & Company received to-day a communication from their South African representatives, stating that the bill covering this revision of tariff is now before the South African Parliaments and will shortly become law.

This preference, which will take in all British colonies, will be made in the shape of a rebate, and is in most cases of such a substantial character that it is sufficient to more than equal the freight charges on the articles exported.

ARTICLES WITHIN REBATE.

On wheat the rebate is specified as 2d per hundred pounds, and the same rebate applies also to bran, barley, oats, rye, peas and beans, while upon flour the rate is 3d. per hundred pounds.

Specified in their tariff under classes 2, 3, 4 and 5 are numerous important articles of manufacture, all of which are subject to a rebate of three per cent ad valorem. Among these manufactured goods, and in which Canada is specially interested, are boots and shoes, carriages, carts, harness and saddlery, biscuits, all woollen and cotton goods, asbestos, packing and boiler composition, bolts, nails, nuts and the like, cement, fruits, plasters, manufactured iron and steel, galvanized iron, lead pipe, leather, paper of all descriptions, steel rails and all articles pertaining to railway construction, school furniture, telegraph and telephone materials.

THE FREE LIST.

On the free list are placed a number of articles important to the Canadian trade, among them being manufactured wood, ceiling and floor boards and fresh fruits.

Mr. David Campbell, Canadian manager of the Elder-Dempster Company, which corporation has a fleet of vessels in the South African trade, is of the opinion that these rebates should have a livening effect upon the Canadian export trade, as the advantage over the United States manufacturer, for instance, because of these rebates are material.

THE LATE MICHAEL J. POLAN.

Funeral of Noted Lacrosse Man was Largely Attended.

The funeral of the late Michael J. Polan, the well-known captain of the Shamrock Lacrosse Club for so many years, took place this morning from his former residence, 42 Boyer street, to St. Agnes Church, where Rev. Father Kiernan officiated.

His three sons, his brother, and his brother-in-law were the chief mourners, and amongst the out-of-town friends present was Mr. Frank Lally, of Cornwall.

Representatives of the firm of Frothingham & Workman, where he had been employed so many years, and of various societies to which he belonged helped to make the funeral procession a very long one.

Amongst those present were: Ald. Thos. O'Connell, W. J. Hinphy, T. F. Slattery, W. P. Lunny, E. Quinn, H. Hoobin, M. Hughes, F. J. O'Neill, B. Tansey, sr., J. B. I. Flynn, Frank Lally (Cornwall), W. VALUABLE LETTER LOST.

It Contained Three Hundred Dollars in Bills.

A letter containing $300 has been lost or stolen between Ste. Scholastique and Staynerville. The money was noticed to be missing on the 18th of last month, and, although the officials of the C.P.R., on which line the money was being carried, have been working on the case, no arrests have yet been made.

It appears that about the 18th of last month Mr. Cyr, doing business at Ste. Scholastque, sent a letter to Mr. Laurin, of Staynerville, containing $300 in bank bills. The mail is taken from the C.P.R. at St. Phillip, the next station to Lachute, and driven to Staynerville, a distance of some ten miles. The letter either disappeared in the train or during the short stage route.

TO SUE POWER COMPANY.

Westmount will Endeavor to Collect $4000 as Taxes.

The Westmount Council at its last meeting authorized legal proceedings against the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company to collect some $4,000, which is alleged to be due the town as taxes. The action was taken on motion by Councillor Galbraith, seconded by Councillor McGoun.

Stole Many Pocket Knives.

James Ryan, charged with theft, was sentenced to two months hard labor by Judge Lafontaine in the Arraignment Court to-day. Ryan pleaded guilty to having stolen $30 worth of pocket knives from the Edward Kavanagh Company, hardware merchants.

Exhibition of Cut Flowers.

The Montreal Horticultural Society's exhibition of cut blooms will be held Thursday afternoon in Mrs. John H. H. Molson's grounds, Piedmont. The exhibition is open to the public. The judges are Messrs. Daniel Wright and Charles Craig.

PASSED CLAUSE OF LORD'S DAY BILL

Mr. Borden's Amendment Regarding Shooting on Sunday Passes.

SECURITIES FROM RAILWAY.

The National Transcontinental Bill Amended on the Motion of Hon. Mr. Fielding.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, June 27.—At the opening of the sitting of the House this forenoon, Mr. Fielding introduced a bill to amend the National Transcontinental Railway act. The act provides that the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company shall give security to the Government for the carrying out of the company's obligations to the amount of five million dollars in cash or Government securities. The company had not offered Government securities, but others equally high class. Under the law such securities could not be accepted. The present bill proposed to permit the Government to accept such securities. The bill was read a first time.

Dr. Roche, Conservative, of Marquette, asked if the Minister of Justice had come to an opinion respecting the jurisdiction of the federal parliament to pass a law empowering a provincial legislature to expropriate local telephone lines within such provinces. Dr. Roche said he wished to introduce amendments to the part of the railway bill relating to telephone companies providing for such expropriation. But if such legislation was not within the power of the federal parliament there was no use of introducing the amendments. The Government would not give an opinion. The point, said the Prime Minister, could be discussed when the amendments were introduced.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the Lord's Day Bill, taking up the clause prohibiting shooting at targets on Sunday. The bill does not prohibit shooting galleries. These, as was pointed out, are regulated by the game acts of each province.

During the discussion Mr. Borden and Mr. Aylesworth had a little clash. Mr. Borden said that to his questions he received flippant answers, and in reply Mr. Aylesworth said all he received from the leader of the Opposition was obstruction. Mr. Borden replied by giving that charge an emphatic denial.

Mr. Bourassa again attacked the whole measure, which he said was absurd in every respect. It was an evasion of the rights of individuals, and he did not believe that Parliament would allow itself to be dictated to in this matter by outsiders.

Col. Hughes, Conservative, of Victoria, proposed that the clause be so amended as to prohibit all Sunday shooting of any kind, for hunting or otherwise.

Mr. Lavergne, Liberal, of Montmagny, moved to strike out the clause. Both amendments were lost.

Mr. Borden then proposed that the clause be so worded so as to prohibit all Sunday shooting for gain, or if it disturbed the quiet of other people.

Mr. Aylesworth held that the wording of the clause was not the work of the Government or of any member of the Government. It was the work of the select committee that studied the bill.

Mr. Aylesworth practically accepted Mr. Borden's amendment, but it was still before the committee when the House rose at one o'clock.

MARINE RULES WERE VIOLATED

Fireman was Killed by Explosion of Kerosene Used to Clean Boilers.

The inquest into the cause of the death of George Veale, the marine fireman who was killed on the SS. Restigouche at the beginning of the month, was concluded to-day by Coroner McMahon, when a verdict of accidental death was returned.

The evidence showed that the victim was at work in the engine room of the steamer when he was killed. A quantity of kerosene oil was being put in the boiler for cleaning purposes. Veale went too close to the oil with a lighted torch, which caused the explosion. He was so frightfully burned that he died a few hours later in the Notre Dame Hospital, as a result of his injuries. The inquest had to be postponed as important witnesses had left the city.

Assistant Steamer Inspector Harpin told the Coroner that one of the rules of the Marine Department was that no oil of any kind was to be used for the cleaning of boilers unless a special permit was obtained. On the other hand, the master and chief engineer on the steamship on which the accident occurred deposed that they had never used anything but kerosene oil. He said the oil was to keep the boiler clean.

PERSONALS.

Dr. H. Ross Matthews has left for Three Rivers to attend the military camp.

A quiet home wedding took place this afternoon at the residence of Alderman J. W. Vanwart, St. John, N.B., when his eldest daughter, Miss Della Peryl Vanwart was married to Mr. George Taylor Polly, of St. John, N.B. The bride wore white satin covered with lace, with veil and orange blossoms. Miss Dorothy Secord and Miss Lulu McDiarmid acted as flower girls. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. David Hutchinson, luncheon was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Polly left for an extended trip through Upper Canada. The bride went away in a costume of navy blue with hat to match.

The annual June ball at the R. M. C. took place in Kingston last evening, and was quite as successful as that of former occasions, the gathering being most brilliant. The decorations, which were arranged by the gentlemen cadets, were very elaborate, the college colors, red and white, being artistically blended and producing a beautiful effect. The guests numbered over six hundred, including many relatives and friends of the cadets from all parts of the Dominion. Among the Montrealers present were: Mrs. F. Barbe Harrison, who wore grey chiffon over pink; Miss Holden, in white net over silk with lace bertha; Miss Rhoda Haskell, in white tulle with lace; Mrs. Hebden, in grey brocaded with lace garniture; Miss Hebden, in white mousseleine de soie over white silk; and Miss Telfer, in light silk with touches of blue chiffon. The dance programme consisted of thirty-two numbers, the ball being brought to a close at daybreak.

NINTH BRIGADE AT THREE RIVERS

Regiments Reached Camp Yesterday and Began Training To-day.

PREPARATIONS WELL MADE.

Everything was in Readiness, and a Good Season's Work Appears Assured.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Three Rivers, June 27. — Although hardly in correct running order yet, the infantry camp is beginning to take on a very lively and soldierly air. Monday the advance parties from the different corps came in, and with the aid of No. 7 company of the Royal Canadian Regiment and No. 4 Company of the Canadian Army Service Corps things were put into shape in double quick order. Pending the arrival of Colonel Buchan, Lieutenant-Colonel Pelletier is in command, aided by Lieutenant-Colonel Dunbar, the District Adjutant-General and his staff of clerks. An orderly room tent has been erected, from which the orders are issued and directions given to the different squads employed in making ready for the regiments. These squads consist of three men—one of them a cook—from every company of every battalion of the 9th Brigade, materially assisted by the regulars and the Army Service Corps from Montreal. These men started work at noon on Monday, and by noon yesterday had all the tents pitched, camp kitchens ready, latrines dug, and everything in good shape for the incoming soldiery. Colonel Dunbar cannot speak too highly of the manner in which they have done their work, and if the remainder of the time is as well and faithfully spent by the rest of the men it will be a record camp indeed.

CAMP LOCATION CHANGED.

The camp has been located a little farther north of the Exhibition Grounds this year than previously. The men's lines are on the south, staff officers and orderly room on the west, while the field hospital and quarters of the Army Service Corps are situated in the Exhibition Grounds. An impromptu barber shop has also been rigged up, with a most unique barber's chair and pole—the latter being a small sapling stripped of branches and bark, and red tape wound around it—giving the appearance, at a distance, of a regularly painted pole. There is also a post office tent, in charge of Corporal McCall, with mail orderlies on duty all the time, and a guard tent, in charge of Provost-Sergeant Good, of the R. C. R. I. To-day when the regiments are all under canvas, one man will be appointed from each battalion as a military policeman, his sole duty being to keep order within the lines, and to prevent the men from breaking camp, smuggling liquor, and so forth.

NON-COMS IN CHARGE.

Quartermaster Sergeant Instructor J. Campbell, of the R. C. R. I., is the acting camp sergt.-major, a very efficient and experienced soldier, and a man upon whom the many minor duties of running the camp will devolve. Sergeant Charlton is the divisional clerk responsible for all the office work, and Bugler Tingman, R. C. R. I., is the divisional bugler. Sergeants Vaughan, McNess, and Corporal Ward, of No. 7 Co. R. C. R. I., will be responsible for the instruction of the regiments.

Warrant Officer Lindon, Lance Corporal Hunter and three privates of the Ordnance Store Corps are also attached for duty in regard to stores, and the issuing of rations.

Major Lordly, District Intelligence Officer, and Lieutenant Palmer, late adjutant of the Highland Cadets, rode into camp from Montreal this morning, a distance of ninety-five miles, their idea being to get a view of the country from a tactical standpoint.

THE HEADQUARTERS' STAFF.

The remainder of the staff is as follows:

Officers Commanding—Colonel Buchan, C. M. G., A. D. C., D.C.O.; Chief Staff Officer, Lieut.-Colonel Pelletier, Orderly Officers to O. C. Lieutenant Date of the D. Y. R. C. Hussars, District Adjutant General, Lieut.-Colonel Dunbar, Principal Medical Officer, Lieut.-Colonel Wilson, Senior of the Ordnance Store Corps, Lieutenant Cleaver Sullivan, Signalling Officer, Major Travers, Brigadier, Lieutenant-Colonel Mackay of the 65th Regiment, Brigade Major, Captain Godoin. No District Engineer has as yet been appointed, otherwise the staff is complete.

REGIMENTS IN CAMP.

The 9th Brigade, which is the only brigade going into camp at Three Rivers this year, is composed of the following regiments:—11th Argenteuil Rangers, Lt.-Colonel H. Jekyll in command; 64th Chateauguay and Beauharnois, Rifles, Lieut-Colonel Mallette; 80th, Nicolet Regiment, in command of Major T. H. Trudel, Colonel Barrie being absent on leave; 83rd, Joliette Regiment, Lieut-Colonel Piche, and the 85th, under Lieut-Colonel A. T. Paterson.

The 83rd, Regiment from Joliette was the first to put in an appearance, marching into camp about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The men were travel stained and weary, and looked as though they had been on the march about a hundred years, and never a bucket of water nor a cake of soap to help them out. However, headed by their band, they marched manfully up to camp and fell to on the "bully beef" and hard tack without a murmur.

The 85th came in next, looking quite cheerful afer their journey from Montreal by boat. Theirs is the crack corps of the brigade and really looked very creditable marching up the street. A dark cloud hung over the brilliant occasion, however, for Lieutenant-Colonel Paterson was unable to mount his fiery steed and had to lead him through the town. The 64th, Rifles also drifted in about this time, and the town was handed over to the militia.

Later on the 11th Argenteuil and the 80th Nicolet arrived, the latter being only a four company battalion and not making quite such a good showing as the larger corps.

By first post all the troops were under canvas, military routine had been established, and everything was in readiness for the first parade of the season's training.

Colonel Buchan arrived here last night from Sherbrooke, and leaves today to inspect the camp at St. Joseph de Levis. He will then return to take command until the season's training is ended.

STOCKS IN N.Y. GO ALL TO PIECES

The Wall Street list was almost demoralized this afternoon. Bear operators continued to have the upper hand, and found little difficulty in causing general selling by concentrating their attack on a few selected stocks.

Prices crumbled away rapidly and support was entirely withdrawn from the market. Heavy offerings met the insignificant demand and the market became semi-demoralized.

Anaconda fell 10 points, Great Northern pfd. 5 1-4, St. Paul 5 3-4, Mop. 4 3-8, Reading and Northern Pacific 3 1-2. Amalgamated Copper 3 1-8, Union Pacific, Delaware and Hudson and Smelting 3, Brooklyn Transit 2 1-4, and the active list generally 1 to 2 points.

Some rallied before 2 o'clock and trading became quieter, but continued feverish and unsettled.

St. Paul sold down to 170 7-8 and rallied to 171 3-8. Union sold down to 112 3-4. Amalgamated dropped to 235. Interborough was down to 33 3-4, and Reading 124 3-4.

There were scattered rallies just before the close.

LOCAL PRICES EASIER.

The Montreal market was quiet, but a little easier in line with Wall Street. Mackay common was down to 71 1-2 Street Railway, 279; Power, 96 3-4, and Detroit, 93 3-4. There was a sale of Dominion Coal at 77 3-4.

ANOTHER DRIVE AT THE MARKET

Prices in Wall Street go off 1 to 3 Points After a Strong Opening.

POWER WAS SHADE BETTER.

Good Chances for Richelieu Dividend as Business is Exceedingly Good.

Wall Street opened strong to-day, and the bulls seemed to have a certain amount of confidence, but just before the noon hour the bears made another drive at prices and carried them down from 1-2 to 3 per cent.

Copper crossed par early in the session, selling at 100 1-4, but on the break it went to 99. Anaconda was active again with fluctuations inclined to be rather narrow—for Anaconda. It opened at 245 and declined to 242.

Reading lost nearly two points after opening pretty firm at 129 7-8, while St. Paul dropped two full points after starting out strong at 175. Union Pacific lost 3-4 from the top level.

The market worked without news of an influential character and money was about the same, at 3 1-4 to 3 1-2 per cent.

The Montreal market seemed to be playing the waiting game with all eyes on Wall street. The fact that we are on the eve of a Saturday and Monday holiday may be something of a restricting influence in the market, but the uncertainty in regard to the situation across the line is the most potent factor. The fear that the bears may acquire the upper hand and dominate the course of values is more or less general one, although those pessimistically inclined have to admit that there is little in the general situation to warrant a prolonged bear compaign.

Power opened at 98 and sold off to 97 1-2. There was some Montreal Street Railway traded in at 280 and Mackay preferred at 73. The balance of the transactions was not worth talking about.

It is understood that Richelieu & Ontario earnings continued exceptionally good and are considerably ahead of last month. The weather this month has been very favorable for the company and traffic both from the States and this country has been large. If things continue at the present rate dividend prospects for this year will be good. The stock at the moment is firm, but neglected.

The Northern Ohio Traction and Light Co. will soon take over the Canton-Akron system. The former's stock will be increased for the purpose, and the latter's bonds will be guaranteed, its preferred stock being retired and its common exchanged for that of the Northern Ohio.

When the transaction is completed the Northern Ohio Traction's capital stock will be $10,000,000, its outstanding bonds, $900,000, and its earnings this year about $1,700,000.

The Northern Ohio Traction owns the interurban line from Cleveland to Akron and Barberton, and the city lines and lighting plants of Akron and Barberton, with a line to Kent and Ravenna. The Canton-Akron system includes the line from Canton to Akron with the city lines of Canton and Massillon and the new interurban line from Canton to New Philadelphia and the Tuscarawas Traction Co., altogether about 87 miles.

The Canton-Akron has outstanding $2,000,000 bonds and about $1,800,000 stock. This will give a through route, Cleveland to Canton.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP.

In regard to Twin City, the following from Minneapolis is interesting:

"The deadlock between the Twin City Rapid Transit Company and the city of St. Paul remains unbroken. The Street Railway Company is ready to co-operate in the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi River at Fort Snelling, which would make another interurban connection between Minneapolis and St. Paul.

"A bond issue of $100,000 on the part of St. Paul enters into it, and the bridge cannot be built until this issue is authorized. St. Paul will not favor the bond issue unless the Street Railway Company will agree to make a rate of 5c for passenger from St. Paul to Minnehaha Park in Minneapolis. The Street Railway Company claims this concession would unsettle rates generally, and that it cannot grant it."

The Hill stocks were quiet. Great Northern opened at 295, went off to 294 1-2, and recovered to 295 1-4. Northern Pacific opened at 203 1-4, went off to 202 1-2, and recovered to 203 1-2.

The earnings of the "Soo" road for the third week of June showed an increase of $41,221. From July 1st the gain is $2,759,757.

The New York banks have lost $839,000 to the Sub-Treasury since last Friday.

COTTON FIRMER AT NOON.

Prices a Shade Firmer—Uncertainty as to Near Future Prevails.

E. & C. Randolph's New York cotton market letter says: It is hardly to be expected that any great amount of cotton will be tendered. At the same time sentiment is nervous over these developments, and many people are waiting until after notice day to buy, while still more are waiting until after the Government report on July 3rd, and everything points to a nervous and irregular out of the way market.

Liverpool—Cotton was due 1 higher on old and ½ higher on new. Opened steady 1 higher on new and 2 higher on old. At 12.15, the market was dull, ½ to 2 lower on near and ½ to 1 lower on distant. Spot, dull, 3 lower. Sales, 6,000, 1,000 American; speculation and export, 500; no imports. Estimated port to-day, 7,000; last week, 5,719, last year, 12,702.

Prices at noon were as follows:

	Open.	High.	Low.	12.30
January	10.35	10.40	10.35	10.40
July	10.12	10.17	10.12	10.15

December	10.31	10.36	10.31	10.36

WALL STREET'S ENGINE.

(Wall Street Journal.)

Some market authorities contend that the trouble with the Wall Street engine is that you cannot generate enough steam to move it without bursting the boiler.

A SPLENDID LIST OF STOCKS.

The Late Daniel Lamont Did Not Leave Any "Wildcats."

It took the late Daniel S. Lamont, Jas. J. Hill's friend, about 10 years to make about $5[illegible],000. At the time of his death his holdings of stocks and bonds were as follows:

1650 shares Norther Pacific	$1,537,650
6612 shares Great Northern	1,897,799
Bonds of Northern Pacific	100,000
150 shares First National Bank	111,900
1410 shares Pacific Coast	131, 90
1000 shares American Tobacco	285,000
Granby Consolidated	155,564
Northern Securities	162,795
575 shares Bank of Commerce	76,875
975 shares G. S. Lumber Co	97,500
2000 shares Inter. Traction Co.	50,000
Commercial Bank	68,000
Phoenix Bank	57,000
Astor National Bank	40,000

Few rich men leave behind them a better collection of securities than that.

TORONTO EXCHANGE QUITS.

The Toronto Stock Exchange has followed Montreal's example, and will omit Saturday sessions during July and August.

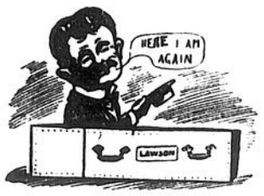

Next Monday (Dominion Day) will also be a holiday on the Canadian exchanges.

Next Wednesday (July 4th), will be a holiday in Wall Street and on other United States exchanges.

CLOSE TO $25,000,000 GOLD.

Mr. Holt, manager of the Bank of Commerce, Seattle, estimates that the gold output from the Yukon this year will be $22,000,000 to $25,000,000.

THE BOSTON PROPHET REVIVES.

ARE NOT COMING TO CANADA.

Rails That the Grand Trunk Recently Ordered in the States.

The Grand Trunk Ry. has ordered 5,300 tons of rails in the States for next year's delivery, but the rails are not coming to Canada, as the New York papers so enthusiastically state. They will be used on the Grand Trunk Western, which is across the line.

The New York papers also state that the G.T.R. has ordered 11,000 tons there, but the correct amount is 5,300 tons.

STEEL STOCK AND PUBLIC.

Assertion that Public is Not In Dom. Steel is Rather Amusing.

The "Street" has been considerably amused lately at the repeated assertions of a Montreal paper to the effect that the public is not in Dominion Steel, and that the stock is being held up by a "pool." Yesterday the paper said:

"With the public 'in' to any extent there would have been one of the most sensational slumps in the history of this market in Iron common on the publication of the profit and loss statement of the company."

The public, much to its regret, no doubt, is "in" Dominion Steel, and has been for many years. That stock is as widely distributed as almost any issue on the Montreal market, and is held from one end of the country to the other. The man on the local "Street" who does not hold Steel is the exception.

AT LAST CONSOLS HAVE RISE.

British Consols had a strong rally today, the first for some little time.

They closed at 88 3-16 for money and 88⅜ for account, a gain of 7-16.

The recent selling has been by insurance companies to pay for their San Francisco losses.

ARE NOT SO GOOD AS USUAL.

The Toronto Railway's showing for the week ending June 23rd was not as good as usual, the gain for the week being $2,031. The figures follow:

	1906.	Increase.
Sunday	$3,761	*$ 634
Monday	8,718	85
Tuesday	8,440	188
Wednesday	8,220	122
Thursday	9,471	1,488
Friday	8,261	109
Saturday	10,706	*196
Total	$57,579	$2,031

* Decrease.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE RATES.

Montreal exchange rates: New York funds, 3-64 b. and asked; Sterling, 60 days, 8⅜; Sterling, demand, 9 1-32; Sterling, cables, 9⅛. Paris, francs short, 5.18⅜ to 5.18 1-32.

HUDSON'S BAYS HOLD STEADY

Hudson's Bays were steady in London at 86¼. G.T.R. thirds, according to Clarence J. McCuaig & Co.'s cable, 66⅞; Canadian Pacific, 165⅞; Atchison, 93⅜, Louisville and Nashville, 147¾; Pennsylvania, 154½; Steell com., 38⅛; do pfd., 106⅝.

SUSTAINED $1,000,000 LOSS.

The financial loss sustained by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads during the past week by washed-out bridges and tracks and in delayed traffic is estimated to be close to $1,000,000.

WALL STREET LIST WAS LIMP

Several 3 Point Declines—Another Attack on Interborough.

Wall Street, June 27. — A period of weakness intervened in the direct after the market had opened in sympathy with a drive against Interborough-Metropolitan, which broke in 3 points to 35. The list got below yesterday's closing prices. Supporting orders caused a rally, but the moderate advances were poorly held, and the trading became intensely dull. Ontario and Western rose 2 points on dividend rumors. Atlantic Coast line gained 3, New York, Chicago and St. Louis 2, and Illinois Central, Lead, Virginia Carolina Chemical and General Electric 1.

Around noon the entire market was soft, and early gains were in most cases lost.

Around 2 o'clock the list was extremely weak, St. Paul dropping to 171, and Union Pacific to 143⅜.

MACKAY IS FAIRLY ACTIVE.

The Toronto market did as well as Montreal this morning. Sales: Mackay common, 435 at 73⅛ to 73¾; preferred 25 at 72⅜; Elec. Develop., 25 at 53; Toronto Elec., 25 at 152; N.S. Steel com., 25 at 67½; Twin City com., 446 at 111¼ to 112; Twin City rights, 25 at 1; Winnipeg, 99 at 185 to 187; General Elec., 100 at 142½; Ontario, 3 at 184¼; Commerce, 20 at 175¾; Standard, 1 at 249; Sovereign, 8 at 138½ to 139.

A DEAL IN OTTAWA.

Consolidation of the Ottawa Electric Company and the Ottawa Gas Company is about to go into effect.

RUSSIAN BONDS UP.

Russian 4 per cents. were ¼ higher in London at 78½.

LEADING STOCKS AND THEIR YIELD

What Investors Can Get on Their Money at Prices Ruling To-day.

HERE AND IN WALL STREET.

Montreal Industrials Show All the Way from 5 3-4 to 7 1-2 Per Cent. at Present.

Stocks have had a considerable decline of late, and the shift in the investment returns, especially in Wall Street, has been considerable.

High class stocks on the Montreal exchange are now yielding from 3½ to 4¼ per cent., while some industrials are to be found that will show the investor from 5¾ to 7½.

It is interesting to scan the adjoined tables, giving the returns at to-day's market prices:

ONCE A YEAR WILL SUIT HIM.

A Shareholder on the Question of Publishing Statements.

To the Editor of the Montreal Star:

Sir,—Mr. Asquith thinks that banks and stock companies should furnish a statement of their standing once a week. Once a year would please some of us. I have been a shareholder of the Laurentide Pulp Company for some time, and have never been able to see a statement of that company's finances. I hear that it is earning 18 to 20 per cent. on the common, but my broker says he cannot find out whether it is true or not, and I have to feast on rumors. Mr. Asquith, the Stock Exchange or somebody should make some companies stand around and tell what they are doing.

Yours, A SHAREHOLDER.

ORDERS TOTAL $2,400,000.

How the N. T. Ry. Amounts Were Actually Distributed.

The Dominion Steel Company's share of the Transcontinental Railway steel rail contract totals $1,127,000.

The Lake Superior Corporation's share is $1,088,000.

The prices are $34 to $34.50 a ton delivered at Quebec and Fort William.

The Nova Scotia Steel Company supplies $57,247 of splice bars.

The Hamilton Steel and Iron Company has a $16,475 order, and the Montreal Rolling Mills, the Toronto Bolt and Forging Company, the Peck Rolling Mills, and the Gananoque Bolt Company smaller orders.

HILL'S GREAT NORTHERN.

(Railway Gazette.)

It was built to carry freight where some other roads were built to carry bonds.

NOVA SCOTIA DIVIDEND.

The Nova Scotia Steel Company to-day declared the usual quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. on the preferred stock, payable on July 14th to shareholders of record July 30.

NIPISSING STOCK.

Nipissing mining stock was quoted today at 5⅜ to 5⅝.

GRANBY STEADY.

Granby was quiet and steady at the decline, being quoted at 11 to 11¼.

Western Banker Here.

Mr. W. D. Ross, general manager of the Metropolitan Bank, is in the city.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET

J. B. Picken — Although call money is plentiful and rates are low, bankers are still cautious about making time loans, the rate for which remains unusually high for this time of the year.

J. S. Bache—Toward noon the market gave way a point or so, as outside response was very disappointing. It is said nothing will be done on St. Paul financing to-day.

Charles Head — There is little participation as yet on the part of the public in the speculation, and they are still generally withholding buying orders for stocks. The outlook is difficult to forecast, and it may be well to limit losses and take moderate profits for the time being.

Burnett & Co.—It is announced that France may issue a loan.

E. & C. Randolph—What rumors there were were of a bullish character at the opening, and after the opening the tone became uncertain, and prices receded when attempts were made to bid the market up on shorts, and the bulls did not seem inclined to follow up any advantage gained.

N. P. Bryant—The market promises to continue irregular, but on declines we think purchases will prove profitable.

A glance at the daily earnings will show that the Montreal Street Ry. is now making a wonderful record.

The average daily increase for the first 23 days of June is $1,300 over last season, and in some instances it will be seen that ordinary week day earnings are running over the $10,000 mark.

Here is the June showing so far:

Street Ry. earnings, like C.P.R. earnings, seem to have exceeded the most optimistic expectations.

It is only a few years ago that Mr. F. L. Wankiyn, then managing director of the road, walked into Senator Forget's office full of confidence for the months that were coming.

"Senator," he said, "I'll bet you we will run over $5,000 a day this summer."

He was right. The road averaged over $5,000 a day that year, $6,000 the next, and over $7,000 the next.

The question is: How long will the earnings keep on increasing at the rate of $1,000 per day over the year before?

When the late John Morrison was about to leave the Merchants Bank meeting the other day, he gave some of the directors a typewritten sheet showing how the bank could easily pay 20 per cent. dividends.

Mr. Morrison was a magician with figures, and could extract sunshine from a cucumber.

He achieved the impossible feat one day of figuring that Dominion Steel preferred (of which he was a holder) could pay 19 per cent. dividends.

Mr. Morrison was all for cutting a melon, and had little use for reserves.

What pained him more than anything was to see the Bank of Montreal spend so much money on its new building.

He wanted the shareholders to get a slice.

The impression has prevailed that Canadians were almost overloaded with Mexican and Rio securities.

The figures printed in last night's Star demonstrate pretty clearly that they have placed much stock in bonds in London that were supposed to be held here.

The unrest in Russia seems to be the foundation of all disturbance in the foreign stock markets.

The London Stock Exchange is suffering at present from a congestion of membership. The business there could be done with less than half of the number of members on the books.

It must be remembered that clerks in London are authorized to transact business for brokerage houses on the floor of the exchange. This further limits the employment of members.

The difficulty is becoming acute. Many members find difficulty even in maintaining their subscriptions, and if this is the case what kind of capital can they have to carry on business with?

A LATE BREAK IN STOCKS.

Around two o'clock the Wall Street list was hammered hard, and declines from the opening level ranged from 2 to 7 points.

St. Paul dropped to 171, after opening at 176⅞, on talk of more financing.

WHAT'S THE GOOD NEWS?

A message from Wall Street to a Montreal house said:

"Friends of the Canadian Pacific, who are in close touch with the management, intimate that an announcement of special interest to the stockholders is likely to be made within a week or ten days."

Has Mr. Ivey revived?

SOME ALARM OVER "KAFFIRS"

Several South African Mines Have Passed Their Dividends.

The alarm occasioned in the London Kaffir market last week by the passing of dividends by the East-Rand Proprietary Subsidiary companies has since been relieved by the satisfactory distributions recommended by other South African mining corporations.

The following are a few of the June declarations compared with the dividends recommended at the same date last year:

	June, '06. Per cent.	June, '05. Per cent.
Bonanza	22½	25
City and Suburban	5	5
Crown Deep	40	30
Ferreira	150	125
Geldenhuis Deep	20	30
Geldenhuis Estate	40	35
Meyer and Charlton	30	25
Nigel	15	15
Rand Mines	120	100
Robinson Central Deep	35	15
Robinson Gold	9	8
Rose Deep	10	15
Van Ryan	10	10

It will be seen that three of the above companies show decreased dividends as compared with last year, but the total distributions of thirteen companies amount to 516½ per cent., as against 463 per cent. a year ago.

SHORTS WERE BADLY CAUGHT

Surprised Yesterday at the Increase in Anaconda Dividend.

The shorts were badly caught in Wall Street late yesterday, when Anaconda increased its dividend, and the stock rallied 17 points. It was entirely unexpected.

The directors declared a quarterly dividend of $1.37½ per share, an increase over the March disbursement of 25 cents per share, and over the January payment of 50 cents per share.

This declaration was at the rate of 5½ per cent. per share (par value $25), and makes 13½ per cent. paid thus far in 1906. In the full year 1905 the company paid 14 per cent.; in 1904, 1903 and 1902, 4; in 1901, 13; in 1900, 16; in 1899, 13, and in 1898, 10. Yesterday's declaration was at the rate of 22 per cent. for the year. The company's capital is $30,000,000.

AN OPINION ON THE MARKET.

Opinion on the future of the stock market is very much mixed. Henry Clews, who has "hit it off" as closely as anybody in the last few months, says:

"At present no settled tendencies are shown in either direction, and we would advise caution in speculative operations until the outlook becomes more decided. Such breaks as occurred in the local traction stocks last Tuesday and in Steel on Thursday are suggestive, and many of the recent spurts were more suggestive of an effort to unload surplus holdings on the rallies than of any genuine movement for an advance."

DOMINION PARK STOCK.

Dominion Park common stock continues strong, and a small lot sold at 55.

FEARED THAT HEAT WILL FOLLOW RAIN

This and Other Bull News had Strengthening Effect on Market.

COUNTRY PRODUCE STEADY.

Butter and Cheese Show No Change—English Cattle Market Easy—Cotton Rather Firmer.

From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Ill., June 27. — July wheat sold from 83½ to 82⅞, and September from 83⅝ to 83, compared with closings yesterday of 83¼ and 83⅜ respectively.

Considerable strength was shown by this market early on unfavorable weather in the North-West and fears that the rains will be followed by high temperatures. The strength in corn and oats was a help to wheat, and while there was no great buying it tended to keep the bears from attacking the prices in a determined way. The North-West reported the big millers as buyers of futures there, but the cash trade was said to be small. The advance at Liverpool was on the strength in La Plata and Manitoba offerings and the good demand.

The Santa Fe road, in a special report on the wheat crop of Kansas, says that state will raise at least 70,000,000 bushels.

The Liverpool spot wheat market closed unchanged to-day, at 6s 6d to 6s 6½d for No. 1 nor. Man., 6s 3½d to 6s 4d for No. 2 red, winter, 6s 2½d for No. 3. July options closed steady, at 6s 7½d for July, and ⅛c up on Sept., at 6s 8⅛d, and ¼c up on Dec., at 6s 8d. Antwerp closed unchanged on No. 2 Kansas, at 17. Paris closed unchanged at 24.15 for June, and 22.95 for Sept. and Dec.

Winnipeg was steady on June wheat at noon, at 82½c, and ⅜c down on July, at 82⅝c, and ⅜c down on Oct., at 80½c.

Chicago was ⅛c up at noon on July wheat, at 83¼c, and ⅛c up on Sept., at 83½c. July corn was ½c up, at 52⅜c, July oats being ⅜c up, at 38¾c.

Duluth was ⅛c up at noon, at 84¼c.

Inspections at Winnipeg yesterday were:

	Cars.
No. 1 hard	0
No. 1 northern	55
No. 2 northern	14
No. 3 northern	1
No. 4 northern	0
Other grades	3

Last year	72

England—Weather fine; forecast, warm. France—Weather very hot; forecast, North, fine; South, hot.

LOCAL MARKET. — The market for oats was again very dull. There is little or no change in the situation, holders being fairly firm in their ideas and demanding full quotations for the most part. These are still 42½c store for No. 4 oats, 43c for No. 3, and 43½c for No. 2.

PRODUCE MARKETS STEADY.

All Lines Remain Practically Steady —Some Demand for Eastern Cheese.

Campbellford, June 27.—On the cheese board yesterday, 1695 boxes of white cheese were boarded; 350 boxes sold at 11 5-16c, and 1335 boxes sold at 11¼c.

EGGS.—Dealers admit that there is a very wide difference in the quality of the so-called straight gathered stock offering on this market. Some of the goods are really reliable straight gathered, and for this quality there does not seem to be any trouble realizing 16½c, while some report 16¾c. But for some other qualities 15½c was accepted to-day. This would, of course, be very inferior stock. It is so easy to manipulate the stock just now owing to the amount of candling and picking over which has to be done, that a wide range in price and quality must be looked for. Candled selects are quoted at 19c and No. 2 at around 14c.

Receipts of eggs reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 1121 cases.

CHEESE.—Shipments of cheese from the port of Montreal last week were 91,100 boxes, against 86,322 the corresponding week of last year. Total shipments since the opening of navigation were 442,355 boxes, against 391,331 for the corresponding period of last year.

Holders of finest Ontario cheese were offering to sell at 11½c this forenoon, but buyers did not appear to be at all anxious to secure the goods at that figure. The fact is, there is a general belief that the market is too high, and it is asserted throughout the trade that it is utterly impossible to get orders from the other side at anything like what would give a profit on a basis of present cost here. That competition among exporters, and more particularly the effort to catch the shorts, is responsible for the present high top figures, sees to be generally accepted.

Many holders of choicest Ontario cheese will not accept less than 11⅝c, but some trading has been going on this morning at 11½c. The bulk of the trading, however, was in Easterns, at 11⅜ to 11¼c, this being at an unusually wide spread below Ontarios.

Receipts of cheese reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 24,798 boxes.

POTATOES. — The market for potatoes showed no change to-day. The movement continues fairly active, and buyers are apparently able to get all the stock they require at from 70 to 76c or so, per bag 90 lbs., carloads, on track. This stock is selling in broken lots, at 80 to 95c per bag of 90 lbs., delivered into store. It is difficult to secure choice stock at present, now that the hot weather is here, and the end of the season is approaching. It will be about a month yet before the new Canadian stock commences to offer in any quantity.

BUTTER. — The market for butter showed little or no change to-day. As a matter of fact, it is hardly possible to talk of changes in this market at present, for the reason that practically no one knows where the market is anyway, and there would have to be a decided upheaval of some kind before an alteration would be apparent. The market is quoted all the way from 21½ to 22c for choicest light salted creamery, but it is hard to say at what figures business is being done. One dealer says that his best offer is 21¼c, another says that he will not sell at less than 22c; another is willing to accept 21½c. The goods seem to be coasting from 21½ to 22c at country points. Yet shipments to the other side are very large, and unless the shippers have some method of disposing of it, unknown to the general trade, they must be either storing it in hope of an advance or else taking a loss which very few firms would care to face.

Receipts of butter reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 6957 pkgs.

C. F. Palmeter, New York, was introduced on 'Change by A. J. Brice. M. A. Sylvester, Vankleek Hill, by C. W. Evans.

Thomas Halligan, Toronto, by W. W. Craig.

James Oliver was on 'Change to-day for the first time in many months.

Colonel Robert Mitchell Floyd, formerly of Boston and now of New York, is making his usual summer visit to Montreal. The Colonel during his stay in this city is a regular attendant each day at the Board of Trade, being one of the few Americans who are members of that body. Each year Colonel Floyd spends a great portion of his time travelling, and he probably has seen more of Canada than half the people who reside here permanently.

To-day Colonel Floyd was discussing the merits of that section of the United States which is contiguous to Chesapeake Bay, and from which he has just returned. For some years back this section has been on the back track, but now all has changed. Farms, which a few years ago were apparently worth little or nothing, have been rejuvenated, as it were, and are now paying properties. Fine old farms, the buildings on which had gone practically to ruin, have been rebuilt; hundreds of miles of fences have been either built or rebuilt, and the ground is being worked in such a manner that handsome returns are being secured.

The numerous waterways leading into Chesapeake Bay, Col. Floyd pronounces to be second to none from the point of beauty, and, taken altogether, the country is desirable from a residential standpoint.

Baltimore, he says, is fast recovering from its fearful scorching of two years ago, is prosperous and fast becoming as handsome as it was formerly.

The condition of the Prussian crops as shown by the royal statistical bureau are as follows:

	June 15, 1906.	May 15, 1906.	June 15, 1905.
Wheat	84	82	80
Rye	75	76	78
Barley	—	80	78
Oats	84	80	78
Potatoes	76	76	78

"Crop prospects in this country could not be better up to the present time," wrote S. P. Clark, of the Northern Elevator Company, of Winnipeg, to a correspondent. "The wheat is heading out in different section, and about the only trouble we have to look for just now is that the grain is apt to lodge, as it is so heavy. All indications point to a bumper crop this year. We had the proper conditions when the grain was put into the ground, and it just remains to have ordinary weather until August 20 in Manitoba and the Territories to have an oldtime crop of No. 1 and No. 2 northern."

The Modern Miller, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Wheat speculation is without a manipulator. For the first time in many years the army of professional speculators are without a leader to follow or a leader to direct them. They are like unto a great army of stragglers, marching along, but with no guiding genius to make them potent. The country is to be congratulated. Mr. Armour, who had a greater grasp on the wheat market than any other man in the history of the trade, loosened his grip, and turned out a horde of followers to play the game without a leader. Therefore, it is certain that market rigging on a grand scale is at an end for a while in this country, and there will be less need for worry about corners and squeezes and the accumulation of large supplies for speculative purposes.

Armour was the only manipulator worthy of the name in the past five years. True, he had his lieutenants and department commanders — Valentine, Gates, Spencer and others, but all deals were made with reference to Armour, and Armour was the real speculative centre. Since the sun has been clouded the satellites have grown cold."

Drawbacks on wheat imported into the United States during the year ended June 30, 1905, amounted to $175,408. This sum was paid on 708,719 bushels of wheat, practically all of which came from Canada. No returns are yet available for the current fiscal year with regard to drawback, but the total quantity of wheat imported during the ten months ended April 30, 1906, was only 57,696 bushels. Prior to 1905 no wheat was imported subject to a drawback under the present law.

IRON AND STEEL TRADE.

Contracts are Extending Further and Further Into the Future.

Considering the season of the year, a very large tonnage of new business is coming forward in the iron and steel industry, says Dun's Review of New York. At this time it is customary to overtake orders to some extent, but the reverse is true of 1906, contracts extending further into the future than at any previous date. It is impossible to secure deliveries of many shapes within a reasonable period, and premiums are frequently offered for shipment before September 1. There is more or less uneven distribution of business, to which is due the irregularity of quotations where any changes occur, except in the case of the southern foundry iron decline, which was attributed by some of the dissolution of the Southern Furnace Association. This event was entirely unexpected and temporarily demoralized the Birmingham market. That the situation was distinctly local was evidenced by an advance in Bessemer pig iron at Pittsburg just when the southern market collapsed. Sheet and tin bars were advanced $1 per ton, taking effect on July 1, and light rails were similarly stiffened. There is little new in the situation, but prosperity is general throughout the industry.

CATTLE LOWER IN ENGLAND.

Local Prices Firmer all Round—Hogs and Cattle in Light Supply.

The English market for cattle was again on the easy side. Best Canadian cattle were cabled from Liverpool at 13¾ to 11¾c per lb., some cables quoting them as low as 10½c to 11c. London was reported at around the same figure, American being quoted there lower also at 11¾c, which was about ½c down.

Canadian shippers of North-West ranch cattle, being desirable of exporting to the Liverpool market during the next few months, owing to the advantages of that market and finding insufficient space available on the ocean ships leaving the port of Montreal, have been compelled to go to Boston to make up the deficiency. It is claimed that they have engaged the bulk of the space on the Warren and Cunard lines for the months of July, August and September at 30s per head to Liverpool. This will necessarily divert a large proportion of the exports originating in Canada. At the same time there has also

HIGHER PAY FOR CITY LABORERS

Special Committee Decides to Ask the City Council to Grant Increase.

At a meeting of a special civic committee yesterday afternoon it was decided to pass the following resolution asking Council to increase the pay of civic laborers and carters:

"That from and after January 1, 1907, no contract shall be awarded by the city unless a clause be inserted therein, fixing at $1.75 the minimum of the wages to be paid to laborers employed in connection therewith, the working day to consist of nine hours, or 54 hours a week. That every workman in the employ of the city shall receive $1.75 a day, except in case of complete or partial incapacity, infirmity, or old age, and that the Finance Committee be instructed to prepare the appropriations for 1907, in conformity with this resolution, the working day to consist of nine hours, or 54 hours a week; that all carters in the employ of the city be paid at the rate of $2.75 as a minimum, from January 1, 1907, and that the Finance Committee be instructed to prepare the appropriations for next year, accordingly, the working day to consist of nine hours, or 54 hours a week."

The proposal to increase the wages, as above, was made by Ald. M. Martin. Ald. Martin contended that laborers and carters could not exist on the old scale of wages. The old scale is $1.50 for laborers and $2.25 for carters.

Guilty of Fraud on Creditors.

Before Judge Choquet in the Court of Special Sessions yesterday afternoon, Samuel Smith and Maurice Muller were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the creditors of Mrs. Samuel Smith and Oscar Smith, who were doing business under the name of the British and German Importation Company.

Mrs. Smith and Oscar Smith assigned, and the two accused took over the business, with a promise to pay the creditors of the firm. A short time afterwards it was noticed that very little of the stock that had been turned over to the accused was left in the store. Warrants were issued for the arrest of Samuel H. Smith, Maurice Muller and Oscar Smith on a charge of concealing the goods belonging to the firm, for the purpose of defrauding their creditors. Oscar Smith had left the city before the warrants were issued, but the other two were arrested.

Sentence will be imposed on Smith and Muller to-morrow.

SIXTY YEARS IN GROWTH OF CHURCH

Rev. Martin Callaghan Reviews Progress at St. Patrick's Banquet.

SERMON OF CONSECRATION.

Rev. Father McCallen Congratulates Priests and People on Devotion of Church to God's Service.

Only two speeches were made at the St. Patrick's Church banquet in the Windsor Hotel yesterday afternoon, an address of welcome from the parish priest, Rev. Martin Callaghan, to the two archbishops Bruchesi and Gauthier, and a reply from Archbishop Bruchesi.

FATHER CALLAGHAN'S REMARKS

Rev. Father Martin Callaghan said, addressing Archbishop Bruchesi:

"St. Patrick's church was consecrated this morning with all the pomp of the Roman Pontificial. I thank God for the gift of having seen with my own eyes the dawn of this day. It is a day which reminds us of all those who hailing from the north, south, east and west of Ireland sought a home upon the Island of Montreal and principally in the beautiful city of Mary, as well as of all those who boast of being their descendants—a day which recalls what they proved to be and what they accomplished—a day which brings to memory all that happened them and all that concerned them during an interval of a century. I was born on College street, now St. Paul's street in the first year after the erection of St. Patrick's church. Previous to my birth, my parents belonged, not to the parish of St. Patrick but to the Irish congregation of Montreal."

"I had to wait no less than sixty years before I was granted the privilege of witnessing the consecration of St. Patrick's church. Father Conholy, Fathers Dowd and Quinlivan lay claim to special credit for having spared nothing in their power in preparing the halo of glory which upon this day is encircling the brow of St. Patrick's parish. Their names are wreathed with the laurels of immortality. The influence which they exerted is still felt, and will continue to be felt by generation after generation.

"I regret that we have not in our midst our most distinguished guest, the Canadian representative of His Holiness Pope Pius the Tenth.

"Let me delay no longer in saying that we are exceedingly delighted to find our own Archbishop presiding on this occasion. Has he not by consecrating St. Patrick's church added fresh lustre to his name and tightened the bonds uniting him to the English speaking population under his jurisdiction.

"What changes have taken place, and should not the overruling Providence of God be blessed—when in the Montreal College, I taught a little boy with an Italian name the rules of English grammer, when together we crossed the Atlantic ocean on our way to Paris and when at the first glimpse of the Green Isle we wafted our greetings to the shores of Erin, little did he dream that he would be in charge of this metropolitan See—the illustrous Archbishop of Montreal, and little did I suspect that I would be appointed by His Grace to look after St. Patrick's parish, a parish that may yet be equalled, but never surpassed.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S REPLY.

The Archbishop of Montreal was very brief in his reply. "It seems," he said, "that the Archbishop must have the last word. Well, I will say from the bottom of my heart that I am proud of St. Patrick's, of the church and the parish, and proud of all the Irish Catholics of Montreal. They know how to do things everywhere, in the church and in business life, but especially in the church. I count them among my very best friends."

His Grace then referred to the occasion which they were celebrating, and to the pleasure it had given him to perform the ceremony. "When, as a boy at college," he continued, "I used to come home for the holidays, I would always hear mass at St. Patrick's. Little did I think then that I would one day be called to consecrate it. Nor did I imagine when learning English from the Rev. Martin Callaghan that I had in him the future parish priest of St. Patrick's, any more than he probably dreamed that I would one day be his Archbishop and would consecrate his church. If he could have looked into the future he would probably have given me more first prizes. It is, however, to him I owe it that I can say to you to-day in your own language that I love you with all my heart."

His Grace concluded with a prayer of thanksgiving to the Giver of all good gifts for the many blessings of the day.

EVENING SERVICE.

The consecration ceremonies of St. Patrick's church were brought to a conclusion last night with solemn benediction services and the sermon of the day, which was preached by the Rev. Father McCallen, of Baltimore, formerly of St. Patrick's. The sacred edifice was crowded to the doors with even a denser throng than at the morning service, when many were kept away by the inconvenient hour. The church was brilliantly lighted and decorated, and the service was of a most impressive description. Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, was the celebrant at the benediction.

The sermon of the Rev. Father McCallen was on the subject of the everlasting unity of the Roman Catholic Church, and it was an eloquent exposition of the theme. He was succeeded by Father Martin Callaghan, the parish priest, who in a few words expressed his joy at the great event which they were all celebrating, and gracefully thanked the visiting church dignitaries for so honoring St. Patrick's. At the conclusion of his address, Father Martin asked Archbishop Gauthier to extend his blessing to the congregation, which His Grace at once responded to, the vast assembly kneeling.

FATHER McCALLEN'S SERMON.

Father McCallen spoke in part as follows:

"Beloved Brethren,—However great the events which have marked the history of this Mother Church of the English-speaking Catholics of Montreal, from the day on which its corner stone was laid, the day on which it was solemnly blessed, and its doors thrown open to constantly increasing numbers of devout worshippers, all through the intervening years, so full of cherished memories, there was still wanting its crowning glory, bestowed this day by its solemn consecration to the service of Almighty God.

"Both priests and people have longed to see this day, have worked hard to hasten its coming, have rejoiced as one after another each earthly lien was removed, till now in the fulness of their joy, they have offered it free of debt as a rich gift to Almighty God, a home on earth, which He can call His very own.

"It must be to you as it is to me a source of intense satisfaction, that the hands which "blessed and sanctified and consecrated" these walls and this altar, are the hands of your beloved Archbishop, who before his elevation to his present high dignity gave abundant proof of his interest in all that concerned your spiritual welfare, and who now, as the father of all the faithful of this archdiocese, continues to prove that his interest has in no way abated.

"It is a joy, too, that the honor of paying off the remaining balance of debt, standing against the church, and hastening the day of its consecration, has been reserved not to a stranger scarcely known to you, not to some young pastor stepping in at the eleventh hour to enjoy a reward which cost venerable priests so much labor, toil and fatigue, but to one who was their co-worker during a long ministry, who has since become their successor, and is now your devoted pastor."

The speaker then took up the subject of the unity of the Catholic Church and her permanency in the face of all the changes which have overtaken every other power on this earth at the time of her inception and have left of them little but the memory, while she still flourishes in immortal vigor. His text was taken from Ezekiel, "My tabernacle will be with them and I will be their God and they shall be my people."

ADDRESS TO MGR. GAUTHIER.

"May it please your Grace:

"In the name of the parishioners with whom I am charged, I bid you a most cordial welcome to dear old St. Patrick's Church—never so dear as on this twenty-sixth of June.

"Permit me to impress you with the fact that no greater delight or pride could we covet than to see you in our midst on any occasion whatsoever, but particularly on this day—the day of days—on a day which owing to a diversity of circumstances could not have been anticipated and which it cost a century of preparation to reach—on a day which cannot but vividly recall the achievements of our predecessors during the space of a hundred years—on a day which marks in golden characters the beginning of a new period in our annals.

"Our highest interests are safe in the hands of our Pius the Tenth, our Paul and our Edward the Seventh. In their hands nothing which affects our eternal or temporal good can be jeopardized. In no sense whatever are we bound with the chains of slavery. We share in the largest measure of liberty which could be enjoyed in any section of the globe we inhabit. How bright and serene the sky we contemplate! How bracing and congenial the atmosphere we breathe! Upon our unruffled waters rests the halcyon of peace. Upon our shores the faintest note of discord cannot be detected, and on all sides may be heard the strains of the most delicious harmony.

The consecration ceremonies will be brought to a close by a lecture in Stanley Hall, by the Rev. Father McCallen to-morrow evening.

Scientists Find the Perfect Food.

Pure Malted Wheat is Most Nutritious and Strengthening Because so Easily Digested.

We have lately conducted an investigation in which we believe our readers will be interested, for the results are vitally important to every man, woman and child.

We find that the food which physicians and food authorities everywhere call "The Perfect Food" is whole white wheat mixed with pure barley malt extract. The process of manufacture is especially interesting, in view of the fact that the product, Malta-Vita, is the only malted wheat food made, the process being fully protected by patents.

Every man and woman who reads this paper should realize just what the Malta-Vita process means to them and their children. For, above all, it means health and strength. Whole white wheat contains every food element necessary to the sustenance of the human body. In making Malta-Vita, the very finest whole white wheat is used. The wheat is first thoroughly cleaned, then steamed and cooked until all the starch cells of the grain are broken down. It is then mixed freely with pure barley malt extract, which contains all the nutrition of best selected barley in a readily digested form, of high tonic qualities, very nutritious and strengthening.

The malt extract converts the starch of the cooked wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, an active digestive agent. The result is a perfect food, rich in all the nutrition that builds up bone and blood, brain and muscle, healthy tissue and nerve force, and is at the same time easily digested by the weakest stomach and taken up readily by the system. It's the food for health and vitality, and stomach satisfaction, too. All grocers, now 10 cents.

ST. PATRICK'S CONSECRATION.—A view of the table of honor at the consecration feast yesterday.

AN OTTAWA MAN GOT BIG PROFITS

Mr. Cunningham's Paying Deals with Public Works Department.

DEPUTY MINISTER EXAMINED.

Engineer Rainboth Was Angry Because He Was Offered Bargain on Coon Coat.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Ottawa, June 27.—Ald. Cunningham, of Ottawa, appeared again before the Public Accounts Committee yesterday afternoon to answer questions regarding certain sales to the Government. Mr. Foster conducted the examination. He discovered from the witness that he had bought four sleighs for $40 each and had sold them to the Government for $75 each. Mr. Cunningham declared that when his sales were averaged up this was but a reasonable profit. Mr. Foster held him down to this deal, but could not get the Ottawa alderman to admit anything more.

As regards harness, he had bought four sets for $104 and had disposed of them to the Government for $150.

Considerable cross-examination ensued over a statement made by Ald. Cunningham that he had sold to Mr. Rainboth for the Government for $25 a sleigh which he purchased for $50. Mr. Foster grew sarcastic as to the alderman's generosity, and the witness said it had been one winter in use. Mr. Foster mentioned that Mr. Rainboth's opinion was not very favorable to that sleigh.

In reply to Mr. E. M. Macdonald, the witness admitted that when he went to the department he was told that something had been taken off his account. He could not remember who told him.

THAT COON COAT.

Thereafter Mr. E. J. Rainboth was examined. He affirmed he had only tried on one coat—a matter to which frequent reference has been made—in Mr. Cunningham's store, and Cunningham had said to him he could get it wholesale for him. He tried the coat on once, but never again. Two days afterwards the horses which he had arranged for from Cunningham were shipped for the Georgian Bay Canal work, and after the horses were shipped the coat arrived. He never saw Cunningham afterwards until yesterday, but had he met him a month or two afterwards he would have choked him.

Mr. Rainboth, referring to the question of robes, said that the robes supplied by Mr. Cunningham were entirely from those the prices of which had been quoted.

Replying to Mr. Macdonald, the witness said in connection with the robes: "I was sorry afterwards I had broached the subject when I saw the kind of man I had to deal with."

THE DEPUTY EXAMINED.

Mr. A. Gobeil, the Deputy Minister, was subjected to a stiff examination. He stated that on Mr. Rainboth's recommendation he had made a reduction of Mr. Cunningham's charges for robes and sleighs, but after examining the certificate given by Dr. James, veterinary surgeon, of Ottawa, he had allowed Cunningham's charges for horses.

Mr. Foster pointed out that the certificate from Dr James, which said the prices were all right, was dated April, while the horses were purchased in December and January. Mr. St. Laurent, chief engineer of the department, had said that not much value should be attached to this late certificate of Dr. James, as he had evidently changed his opinion. The veterinary surgeon had informed Mr. Rainboth over the telephone that the horses were not worth the price, and that $25 less for each would have been fair.

Mr. Gobeil explained that in coming to his judgment he had done so entirely on the certificate of Dr. James. Mr. Foster showed that he had taken the certificate got by an interested party—Mr. Cunningham had got this second certificate himself—instead of the judgment of his own officer.

THE PROFIT WAS LARGE.

The Deputy Minister admitted that the profits charged on the sleighs were uncommonly high, and had he known about the charges for the sleighs he would have had less confidence in Mr. Cunningham's declaration.

VISITING JOURNALISTS.

American Editorial Association Party Passes Through City.

Newspaper men to the number of three hundred passed through Montreal yesterday, on their way to Quebec and the Saguenay. They are members of the United States National Editorial Association, and are on a tour of Canada after their annual convention at Indianapolis. The party left Toronto via the C. P. R. proceeding to Kingston. There they took one of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company's steamers under the immediate charge of Mr. Thomas Henry, traffic manager, and Mr. Foster Chaffee, western agent of the company.

The scenery throughout the Thousand Islands was enjoyed immensely by the party. Every effort was made by the officials of the Richelieu Company in charge to make the trip pleasant and the unanimous decision was that success met their efforts.

At this city the party was transferred to the Quebec boat and proceeded on its way to Quebec and the Saguenay. At the end of the week the party will return to Montreal, spending Saturday and Sunday here.

Catholic Sailors' Club.

At a special meeting of the Catholic Sailors' Club, held at Loyola College, a resolution of regret and sympathy was adopted in regard to the death of the late Mr. F. B. McNamee, whose services to the organization contributed much to its success. At the weekly meeting of the club, held last night, reference was again made to the late president's death by ex-Ald. C. F. Smith, the vice-president. The concert programme proved most successful.

Suddenly Plunged to Death.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., June 27.—Thomas Gladwell, an Englishman, who had been in Canada but a few months was drowned in the bay yesterday afternoon. He was smoking on the dock with a companion when he suddenly remarked that he was going in for a swim and pulling off his coat and vest, he jumped into the bay, without waiting to remove the rest of his clothing. Gladwell was 33 years old and leaves a widow and three small children.

Killed Walking on Track.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Strathroy, Ont., June 27.—Clark Fisher, aged 75, was run over by a passenger train while walking on the track east of the depot here last evening and killed.

Killed by a Kick.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Peterboro, Ont., June 27.—The three-year-old son of Joseph Collins, of Otonabee Township, died of his injuries received from a kick by a horse.

A British Failing.

The abundance of ornament in architecture, dress and furniture is a British failing. We are afraid of simple lives, clear spaces, true values, and the consequence is an incongruous jumble.—Lady Violet Greville, in the Graphic.

INSPECTION AT SHERBROOKE.

Major-General Lake and Col. Lessard at the Cavalry Camp.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Sherbrooke, Que., June 27.—Major-General Lake and Col. Lessard are inspecting the 3rd Cavalry Brigade today. They arrived last night and proceeded to the camp about 9 o'clock this morning. Yesterday's sunshine dried up the grounds and restored them to first class condition. The inspecting officer will remain till Thursday afternoon, and early Friday morning the brigade will break camp. Only one half day's drill has been missed. It has been a working camp. The 13th Dragoons held a programme of sports last evening which were keenly contested. The Harmony band of Sherbrooke has been engaged to give a concert in the lines this evening.

Quakers Ignored Verigen.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, Man., June 27.—Delegates sent by the Philadelphia Quakers to initiate the work of education among the Doukhobors have returned from visiting the communities and report most encouraging success. They have ignored Peter Verigen in their negotiations and found the people quite willing to secure educational facilities. Several schools will be built in various villages by the Quakers, and teachers will be sent.

Leoncavallo, the composer-conductor, who will visit this country next season with an orchestra of sixty-five musicians, will give entire opera and miscellaneous numbers, without costume or scenery, and will bring eight singers to aid him.

Cannot Merge Toronto Life Into Union

Toronto, June 27.—Mr. Justice Clute, on petition of Mr. Emile Brooks, a shareholder and policyholder in the Toronto Life Insurance Company, has issued an injunction to prevent the Union Life from merging the Toronto Life, which was an offshoot of the York County Loan Company, while the Union Life is an offspring of the National Agency. Messrs Macdonnell & Boland, who represented the petitioner, took out the writ, which was served only a few minutes before the opening of a meeting of the shareholders of the Toronto Life to confirm the transfer. On the return of the writ before Mr. Justice Anglin, the case was adjourned to Thursday.

Invite Stirling Divine.

Lakefield, June 27.—The Presbyterian Church here has extended an invitation to the Rev. Mr. Burns, of Stirling.

Peculiar Administration of Justice.

Toronto, June 27.—A peculiar condition of affairs in Springer, Nipissing, was disclosed before Mr. Justice Anglin, in an application for a writ of certiorari, presented by Mr. E. J. Jones, on behalf of John Gaynor. The petitioner alleges that he had an understanding with Reeve Vachon, that on pleading guilty to keeping a disorderly house, he would be fined $50, as he had been seven times previously. When he appeared and pleaded, however, he was fined $100 and condemned to serve six months in gaol.

Cannot See King to Confer Degree.

—Design by May Manton.

5385 Girl's Box Plaited Dress.

FIGURED LAWN WITH PLAIN.

Nothing makes prettier simple summer frocks than figured lawn with trimming of white. This one shows all the long lines that are so becoming to childish figures and is as graceful as it is satisfactory to the young wearer. The sleeves either can be in elbow or full length, but the shorter ones are in every way to be commended for summer wear, being ideally comfortable as well as in the height of style. In this instance the material is white with a dot of rose color and the collar and cuffs of white are trimmed with rose colored banding, while the belt also is made from that material. The little frock is box plaited below the yoke and is finished with the becoming sailor collar, the closing being made beneath the box plait at the front, while the shield is separate and closed at the back.

For a girl of eight will be required 5 yards of material 27, 3 1-2 yards 36 or 2 3-4 yards 44 inches wide with 1 yard of contrasting material to make as illustrated.

A May Manton pattern, No. 5385, sizes 4 to 10 years, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

PASSED FORGED CHEQUE.

George Trites Fined Twenty Dollars by Judge Choquette.

George Trites, 24 years of age, was found guilty yesterday afternoon, before Judge Choquet, of having obtained money under false pretences. The money was obtained from Mr. Thomas W. Burgess, restaurant keeper, Richardson street. Trites gave Burgess a cheque, which he said would pay his bill and give him some change. Mr. Burgess, after taking the cheque, returned Trites $12.60. When Trites accepted this money he knew that the cheque was false and that there were no such funds in the bank. Judge Choquet imposed a fine of $20 or two months in gaol.

Swiss Muslin Allover Embroidery .75

23 Inches Wide, Worth $1.25 to $2.00 Thursday - -

IN a large shipment of embroideries that we have just received from Switzerland, there come to us 660 yards of allovers, 23 inches wide, that will compare favorably with anything that has been selling at from $1.25 to $2.00 a yard. How we were able to get it at a price that enables us to sell it at .75 we cannot tell. Suffice it to say the goods are here and we know that when you see them you will be as eager to accept our offer as we were to accept the manufacturer's.

We are making a display of them in the windows to-day. There are six patterns in eyelet and other open designs, any one of which would make an exquisite summer dress or blouse, costing you half, more or less, of what you would ordinarily pay. Special price Thursday per yard. .75.

THE "ARCTIC" MINORITY REPORT.

voices of goods taken on the Arctic makes it almost impossible to say whether or not such goods were diverted for other purposes. A large number of boxes of stores was brought to the Arctic, but only a few were opened, it being assumed that the contents of the others corresponded with the invoices. A great many of the invoices when produced had certificates signed by three and sometimes four persons, generally including captain, purser and steward. On enquiry, however, all these parties admitted that they had not not compared the contents of the cases with the invoices, that they did not know what quantities of various kinds of supplies had been taken on board, and that some had signed because requested to do so by a superior officer, and some because, seeing the signatures of others already appended, they assumed that the goods had been received, and so signed, although personally quite ignorant as to quantity, quality and receipt. Your committee expresses its regret that not only were the contents of the cases received on board the Arctic not compared with the invoices, but that these invoices were laid before them bearing one or more (generally several) of the following certificates: "I certify that the above was received by me in good order, and the quantity as mentioned correct," or "We guarantee that above goods have been received in good order," or "I certify that the above was duly purchased and that the prices paid are fair and just," and signed J. Bernier, C. S. Duchesnay (steward), W. H. Weeks (purser), when, in fact, such certificates were given under the circumstances above set forth, and in many cases the goods receipted for had been received (if received) and stowed away on board before the party who signed the receipt had even arrived in Quebec. In many cases it must be evident that the parties so certifying, from lack of business experience, could not have known what the prices of the goods should have been.

MISLEADING CERTIFICATES.

The above facts are shown in the evidence of Captain Bernier, Purser Weeks and Steward Duchesney. Your committee refrains from making any comments on the fact that such unwarranted and misleading certificates were laid before them for the purpose of proving the receipt of the goods purchased for the Arctic expedition. In view of the failure to compare goods and invoices when leading the Arctic, and the statement of the department above given that the list of requisitions of goods used added to the inventory taken after the return of the Arctic would, with a few trifling additions which were given, show the amount of goods originally taken on board, it was moved in the committee as follows:

"Moved by Mr. Northrup, seconded by Mr. Bennett, that an accountant be employed by the committee to go through the invoices, the requisition for supplies, and the inventory of goods on hand to ascertain if the supplies which were furnished by the Department of Marine and Fisheries for the Government steamer Arctic were not all put on board the said steamer."

This was, however, voted down by a majority of the committee.

Your committee is of opinion that such a report from an accountant might have enabled them to give a full and complete answer to this inquiry as to whether or not all the supplies were put on the boat.

FEW SAMPLES OF SUPPLIES.

(d) Your committee regrets that owing to the absence of samples of the various kinds of goods purchased, and the refusal of the majority of the committee to allow said samples to be produced, or experts to examine the goods now on board, it was prevented from making full inquiry as to whether or not excessive prices were paid for supplies. The following motions were made and voted down by a majority of the committee:

"Moved by Mr. Northrup, seconded by Mr. Bennett, that samples of all the different goods on board the Arctic be sent to Ottawa for inspection and examination by this committee."

"Moved by Mr. Bennett, seconded by Mr. Northrup, that two experts to be named by the mover and chairman shall be selected to take stock and examine quality and report as to goods now on board the Arctic, and reported as unused, and that they be at liberty to examine such goods as they see fit."

"Moved by Mr. Northrup, seconded by Mr. Bennett, that as Mr. Boudreau, who was sent by the department to supervise the shipping of the goods on the Arctic has admitted that he left the Molsons Bank in consequence of having received commission as a manager of the bank from a customer, that the general manager and inspector of said bank be subpoenaed to give evidence as to the reason why Mr. Boudreau left said bank."

"Moved by Mr. Northrup, seconded by Mr. Bennett, that the motions rejected by the committee this afternoon be reported to the House forthwith."

Only two samples of all the supplies were brought before your committee, namely, Bovril and Pemmican. An expert in the same line of business swore that if given an oportunity to tender for Bovril or its equivalent, he would have tendered and would have supplied an equally good, in fact, practically the same article, for $1.10 a pound, while the Department paid $1.65 a pound for 5,900 pounds. While pemmican as applied to dried buffalo meat, is a well-known article, the same expert testified that he had never heard of the article purchased under that name which, according to the evidence of Mr. Mitchell, the manager of the Bovril Company, from whom 8,000 pounds were purchased at $1.25 per pound, was made of ordinary meat dried and shredded, pounded down, and mixed with fat and currants. In the absence of further evidence as to the cost of pemmican, your committee can only regret that the name of a well-known article of commerce was applied to a new production wholly dissimilar, and the price paid for which, judging by the materials used, as given by the manufacturer, was grossly excessive. Your committee also regrets the refusal of the majority of the committee to hear the evidence of Mr. Van Beaver, an expert from the William Davies Company, Limited, who came from Toronto, was present in the room, and prepared to give evidence to show that the William Davies Company, Limited, if an opportunity of tendering had been afforded, would have tendered for pemmican, so-called, at 35 cents a pound.

PRICES WERE EXCESSIVE.

In view of the evidence of Mr. Wovenden, and the exercise of their own judgment as to the cost of materials, used in manufacturing pemmican, your committee finds that the prices paid for Bovril as well as pemmican were grossly excessive, and that supplies at least equally good could have been obtained at much lower prices, had tenders been called for and competition been allowed. Your committee deems it its duty in connection with this purchase to point out that while 5,900 pounds of Bovril were paid for, only 449 pounds were used during the thirteen months the expedition was absent, leaving 5,461 pounds still on hand, showing that at the same rate of consumption a supply of Bovril for over thirteen years was taken on board. Your committee would also call attention to the fact of the uncertainty of the receipt of one lot of Bovril, and the improper payment of freight ($45.30, the omission to refund same, and the neglect of the Department to demand its return even after its attention was called to the matter, which facts are more fully set out above. Although several members of your committee endeavored to secure evidence as to the prices paid for supplies, they were unable, as witnesses declined to testify unless samples were placed before them, in which case they were prepared to examine the same and put a price on goods corresponding to samples. The evidence of Mr. Semple proved that before the expedition sailed he was asked to value the provisions and check the prices paid therefore, and that he came from Montreal to Ottawa, where, in the presence of a number of officials of the Department, he examined samples of at all events a great many kinds of provisions in order to be able to express an opinion as to the prices charged. Had samples been provided or experts been allowed to examine the goods now on hand your committee would have been able to give a full and complete answer to this inquiry.

PRICE PAID FOR TOBACCO.

Among the items in the invoice of Amyot, Elle & Fils, are 805 lbs. of T. & B. smoking tobacco at 95 cents per lb. and 39 cents excise, amounting in all to $1.34 per lb. Being informed that Mr. Cockshutt, M.P. of Brantford, was in 1904 engaged in a business dealing in tobacco, he was called as a witness. He testified that during that year the price of tobacco was practically unchanged, and that he purchased T. & B. smoking tobacco in plugs at 67 cents per lb. Captain Bernier testified that this tobacco was in large plugs. Your committee therefore finds, this evidence being uncontradicted, that on this item there was a profit to the vendor of about 100 per cent., and that over and above the business profit. Your committee submits that when a furlined coat is charged for as in the account of Woods & Co., Ltd., it is impossible to give the value or fix a reasonable price without seeing the coat, as the varieties of fur-lined coats are almost infinite. This difficulty is not wholly removed when witnesses Weeks, the purser, Duchesney, the steward, and others, testify that the so-called furlined coat was canvass or duck on the outside and sheepskin on the inside. The same difficulty arises with regard to the sleeping bags. For the crew of 34 men, 25 bags at $70 each, for one man, 3 at $200 each, for two men, and 3 at $225 each for three men. Also 80 at $25 each for one man were purchased. Without inspection of the bags no one can say positively that the prices were excessive, although they certainly appear to justify such a conclusion. Although a refusal of a majority of the committee as above stated to allow evidence as to the value of the goods purchased has prevented the committee from making a full and satisfactory inquiry into the prices, they feel justified in finding that the mere statement of the quantities of supplies purchased is in itself evidence of corruption or of negligence and incapacity so great as to be absolutely incredible and almost criminal. In addition to the articles above mentioned, 15,000 lbs. of wheat biscuits were purchased in London, Ont., and the freight and packing ($312.00), paid in addition to the price of $862.50, making in all $1,175.10, another, 15,014 lbs. of pilot biscuits were bought in Toronto at a price of $595.51, and 643 boxes at 50 cents each were allowed for the packing of the same, amounting to $321.50, and the freight thereon amounting to $80.45 was paid to Quebec, amounting in all to $1,297.41; 854 tins of fancy biscuits were also bought at a cost of $523.44 for the contents, and $292.00 was paid for the tins in which they were packed, also $36.75 for the wooden cases in which the tins were sent to Quebec, amounting in all to $862.15 without the freight, and $942.55 including freight. The evidence also shows that over 30,000 lbs. of flour was purchased and that the cook baked bread for the expedition all the time it was away.

THE OUTLAY IN CLOTHING.

As above stated, over $22,000 was spent in clothing for a crew of 34 men, allowing about $700 a piece. To illustrate the expenditure there were:

1 Uniform, at $35	$ 35.00
25 Uniforms, at $30	750.00
12 Uniforms, at $8	96.00
12 White Coats, $1.50	18.00
80 Suits Blue Pilot Cloth, $19	1,520.00
40 Camel Hair Suits, $19.80	792.00
23 Overcoats, $25	575.00
40 Fur Coats, $30	1,200.00
40 Fur Pants, $22	880.00
40 Coats, fur lined, $15	600.00
40 Ulsters, rubber with hoods, $14	560.00
80 Oil Coats, $1.25	100.00
80 Oil Pants, $1.25	100.00
40 Jackets, with hoods, $5.50	220.00
40 Jackets, leather, $10.75	430.00
80 dozen Shirts, $16.50	1,320.00
7 dozen Shirts, $12.50	87.50
7 dozen Shirts, $21.25	148.75
40 Camel Hair Shirts, $2.50	100.00
10 dozen Wool Undershirts, $14.50	145.00
20 dozen Navy Twilled and Plain Over Shirts, $15	300.00
10 dozen Navy Knitted Guernseys, $18	180.00
	$10,157.25

REFERENCE TO PREMIER.

That in view of the fact that the Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been (long before the departure of the vessel) advised by persons in whom he placed confidence, that the quality of the goods was suspicious, and that it was a question as to whether or no the quantity supposed to have been purchased was being loaded on the vessel, it became imperatively necessary that more stringent measures should have been taken to see that the country was not imposed upon either as to quantity or quality of goods alleged to have been supplied.

FOOD GIVEN TO NATIVES.

No evidence was given to justify or explain the feeding of the Esquimaux band of fifty or sixty men and women on the Arctic for six or seven months out of the stores purchased for the Arctic expedition. As the provisions were purchased on a basis of feeding forty men for twelve hundred days, it is obvious that to increase this number by from 125 to 150 per cent. for six months would entail a consumption of more than one-sixth of the provisions, which would cost fully $10,000. As no explanation was even suggested by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, your committee regrets that its effort to inquire into the reasons for the presence and maintenance of so many Esquimaux was prevented by the majority of its members who refused to allow questions inquiring into the conduct of the members of the expedition during the winter, and their relations with the Esquimaux.

A RAP AT MEMBERS.

Your committee also regrets that supplies were in some cases purchased through the solicitation of members of Parliament, as evidenced by the purchase of $1,080 worth of Lacto Globuline on the recommendation of a member of this House, as shown in a letter addressed to the firm selling the same, written to the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

Especially For Women

FRUIT-A-TIVES are the finest medicine in the world for women.

As a mild and gentle laxative—as a positive and speedy cure for Constipation and Biliousness—as the only cure for weak and irritated kidneys and especially for "that pain in the back"—as a positive cure for headaches—and as a general tonic to build up and invigorate the whole system — FRUIT-A-TIVES stand supreme.

In cases of irritated Ovaries, Ovarian Pains, Vaginal Catarrh, Excessive and Scanty Menstruation, Ulcerations, Bearing Down Pains—and all those troubles peculiar to women—have the most remarkable effect.

Fruit-a-tives OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

Ninety-nine cases out of a hundred of Female Troubles are due to neglect. Bowels become constipated — kidneys irregular — skin neglected — and the poisons of the body, which should be carried off by these important organs, are taken up by the blood carried to the female organs and poison them, thus starting up a train of female troubles.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are made from fruits and by their remarkable action on bowels, kidneys and skin, rid the system of poisons, purify the blood, and restore the delicate organs of generation to new vigor and health.

No woman, who suffers, should ever be without them. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50, at your druggist's or sent postpaid by FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED - OTTAWA.

BUSINESS GIRLS

Need Rich, Red Blood to Stand Worry and Strain of Business Hours.

Business overtaxes a woman's strength. Weak, languishing girls fade under the strain. They risk health rather than lose employment, and the loss of health means the loss of beauty. Thousands of earnest intelligent young woman who earn a livelihood away from home in public offices, and business establishments are silent, suffering victims of overtaxed nerves and deficiency of strength because their blood supply is not equal to the strain placed upon them. Fragile, breathless and nervous, they work against time with never a rest when headaches and backaches make every hour like a day. Little wonder their cheeks lose the tint of health and grow pale and thin. Their eyes are dull, shrunken and weary; their beauty slowly but surely fades. Business girls and women look older than their years because they need the frequent help of a true blood-making strengthening medicine to carry them through the day. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are actual food to the starved nerves and tired brains of business women. They actually make the rich, red blood that imparts the bloom of youth and glow of health to women's cheeks. They bring bright eyes, high spirits and make the day's duties lighter. Twelve months ago Miss Mary Cadwell, who lives at 49 Maynard street, Halifax, N.S., was run down. The least exertion would tire her out. Her appetite was poor and fickle, and frequent headaches added to her distress. The doctor treated her for anaemia, but without apparent results. A relative advised her to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using but six boxes she says she feels like an altogether different person. She can now eat her meals with zest, the color has returned to her cheeks and she feels better and stronger in every way.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure bloodlessness just as food cures hunger. That is how they cured Miss Cadwell, and it is just by making rich, red blood that they cure such common ailments as indigestion, rheumatism, headaches and backaches, kidney trouble, neuralgia and the special ailments which make miserable the lives of so many women and young girls. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

The Nerves of School Children

Dr. Weir Mitchell, the great American authority on diseases of the nerves, makes the following observations on school children's nerves:

As examination time approaches headaches become frequent as the result of eye strain and exhausted nerves. St. Vitus' dance is preceded by incessant winking, shrugging of the shoulders and twitching of the face muscles.

Girls become hysterical, nervous, cry easily, get fidgety, etc.

Under these circumstances the system demands such assistance as is afforded by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Failure to restore the depleted nerves makes a complete failure of health almost certain, for nervous diseases do not get well of their own accord.

Because of its mild and gentle action and extraordinary restorative influence, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is especially suited as a treatment for pale, weak and sickly children.

It instils new vigor into brain and nerves, adds new, firm flesh and tissue and builds up the system generally; 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

BRAKEMAN WAS KILLED.

Gravel Train Ran Into Hand Car. Wounding Several.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sherbrooke, June 27. — Brakeman Hugh McLean, of Milan, was killed and Roadmaster Moe, Sherbrooke; Conductor Arthur Taylor, fireman; J. Mercier; and Brakeman Joseph Arbec, of Farnham, were injured in a wreck on the Canadian Pacific, at McLeod's Crossing, near Scotstown, yesterday. It appears that in rounding a curve a work train into a handcar. The men on the hand car jumped and escaped, but the engine was thrown from the rails. The track was blocked and all traffic past the point suspended until to-day. The injured men were brought to Sherbrooke for treatment. They are severely, but, it is thought, not seriously injured.

DEATHS REPORTED.

Hartford, Conn. — Justice Nathaniel Shipman, from 1873 to 1892 Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Connecticut district is dead, aged 76.

St. Thomas, Ont.—Jabez Brumpton, aged 56, of Putnam, a C. P. R. section foreman, is dead here.

Six Dinners for a Penny.

Dr. Hansteen, professor at the Agricultural School at Christiania, has entertained his professional colleagues at a banquet of common Iceland moss.

The doctor ascribes to the moss rare virtues as a food when properly prepared, and beats all previous vegetarian claims by announcing that he can provide a satisfying, nutritious meal for six people at the cost of a penny.

His menu for the professors consisted of:

Moss with boiled ham.
Moss a la haricot.
Moss au naturel.
Pure moss bread.

The banquet was a great success, the guests declaring themselves delighted with the appetising quality of the fare.

The doctor states that by cleaning the moss and chemically treating it, he has produced a substance possessing all the nutritive qualities of various vegetables, and that from yellow moss he has extracted a wholesome fine, white flour.

He Was Suffering From Rheumatism!

Read the following letter. It is new testimony.

Mr. D. Masson & Co., Montreal.:
Gentlemen.—

As I was suffering from Rheumatism, I tried many remedies without results.

According to the advice of my doctor, I followed a treatment of "EAU de VITTEL" (VITTEL WATER) for two months.

I am now no longer troubled with cruel pains, and I do all I can to have people suffering with Rheumatism follow my example, and try the water which has relieved me so rapidly.

I am happy to have the public know the wonderful results of that remedy.

Yours truly,
J. HERBOUT.

FRIENDS ADVISED USE OF PE-RU-NA

Suffered Much—Catarrh Affected Throat and Nose — Pe-ru-na Proves Highly Satisfactory.

Mr. Raoul Pilon, 116 Rue Notre Dame, Lachine, P.Q., writes:

"I write you a few words to express to you my satisfaction at being cured.

"I was afflicted with catarrh of the throat and nose and suffered much.

"I was greatly discouraged.

"I had a bad breath and a bad taste in my mouth in the morning.

"I took treatment for some time without obtaining relief.

"At the advice of friends I tried Peruna, and the results have been highly satisfactory.

"At the end of four months I was completely cured."

Neglected catarrh becomes chronic. Having developed into the chronic stage, a longer and more persistent treatment will be required to cure it than if the disease were treated at the onset.

However, Peruna will bring relief, whether the catarrh is acute or chronic. If you are wise you will keep Peruna on hand and take a few doses at the first appearance of a cold or cough, and thus save yourself both suffering and expense.

TOWN'S REPLY TO BEAUBIEN SUIT

St. Louis Councillors will Frame it at Special Meeting on Friday.

IS BASTIEN CONTRACT VOID?

That is Issue Raised by Hon. Mr. Beaubien—Report on Work Done Under Contract.

The famous Bastien contract was again the subject of discussion at the St. Louis Council meeting last evening, when Secretary Vincent read a notice of action which has been taken against the town by Hon. Louis Beaubien. Plaintiff's declaration contained twenty-four allegations, the gist of which is that in awarding the Bastien contract in 1905, the Council had exceeded its borrowing powers, in consequence of which Hon. Mr. Beaubien claimed that the contract was null and void, and asked that it be declared such by the court.

Councillor Berube thought that the plaintiff and the contractor should be left to fight the matter out between themselves, but after some discussion it was decided to adopt Councillor Turcot's motion to refer the suit to Mr. F. J. Bisaillon, K.C., town attorney, with instructions to report to Council on Friday evening next, when a special meeting of the Council will be held to deal with the matter.

Secretary Vincent then read a report from Engineer Vanier on the work already executed by Mr. Treffle Bastien, who has undertaken to equip certain sections of the town with water mains and sewers at a cost of nine hundred thousand dollars. According to the report of the engineer, $21,549 has already been spent on the construction of water mains and $82,851 on sewers.

LEASES FOR FIXED AWNINGS

Roads Committee Decides to Base Rent Charge on Area Covered.

It was decided at the meeting of the Roads Committee yesterday afternoon that persons using fixed awnings in future take out a lease from the city for the space covered.

What the city desires is to regulate the erection of these awnings, it was explained, and in order to do that a by-law was adopted some time ago fixing a tax of five cents a square foot for land occupied over the sidewalk. But when the city attempted to collect the tax it was contested in court, and later a judgment was rendered declaring the by-law illegal, inasmuch as the awnings were attached to the buildings, and, being a part of the same, they could not be taxed separately.

In order to secure the end desired, the City Council, a few months ago, repealed the by-law, giving such structures legal existence, and now it is proposed to require persons making use of fixed awnings or marquees to take out an annual lease from the city.

The Roads Committee, in discussing the means of carrying out this policy, yesterday decided to recommend Council to authorize the basis of rental for such leases at five per cent. for the area of land which awnings would cover.

POLES IN THE STREETS.

The Light, Heat & Power Company sent an application to erect poles in the streets. It was contended by the company that it had powers from the Legislature whereby it could put up poles in the streets; all the city had the right of doing was to locate the particular spots where such poles would be put up.

It was stated in a communication from the Light, Heat & Power Co. that if, in thirty days, the city surveyor did not select places in the streets that the company itself would select spots and go ahead with the erection of poles.

The committee decided to submit the whole matter to the City Council for consideration.

TO CHANGE STREET NAME.

Mr. D. McCord presented a petition asking that the name of Cote des Neiges road be changed to Temple avenue. It was shown by Mr. McCord that the old name caused a great deal of confusion; while the new one would be more suitable and satisfactory.

The matter will be submitted to Council, and it is expected the change will be made.

Boys Escaped. City is Sued.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society has taken an action for $175 against the city of Montreal for having removed, without permission, a fence between their lot and the lot where the Berthelet Street Fire Station is being built. Plaintiffs claim that the removal of the fence caused the escape of two juvenile inmates of the institution.

Montreal Press Club Outing.

Members of the Montreal Press Club to the number of forty saw the sights at Dominion Park last evening, the guests of the Montreal Street Railway. After spending some two hours visiting the various attractions the company was entertained at supper, the chairman of the occasion being Mr. Duncan McDonald, manager of the Montreal Street Railway. The party proceeded to the park in the company's observation car, under the immediate charge of Mr. Patrick Dube, secretary of the corporation. The night being pleasant the Park had its full quota of visitors, but the party was so arranged that the sights were all taken in without the loss of time. Those of the party who had recently visited like attractions in the vicinity of New York and in Chicago pronounced Dominion Park to be ahead of any of its competitors in point of attractiveness.

Colonization Work.

Rev. J. L. Brooks, who has charge of the training colony for out-of-work men and the home for epileptic children at Lingfield, Surrey, England, is in Canada, consulting with officials connected with the charitable and colonization departments. The institution named and a similar one near Kendall, Westmoreland, are projects of the Christian Social Service Union, and are assisted by grants from the municipal, educational and poor law authorities. Mr. Brooks is looking over Western Ontario, with a view to selecting a site for a suitable shelter for immigrants sent out by his organization, where such immigrants can be received and cared for before being placed in positions, which, as far as possible, will be ready for them on arrival in this province.

Mr. Brooks thinks arrangements for receiving immigrants at Montreal for Ontario points outside of Toronto are not what they ought to be. Cases, he says, have come to his notice of immigrants sent to places where they were told they would be looked after by assistant agents, only to find themselves without shelter or food for the first night, and, in fact, practically neglected. Others have been assured that positions await them at such and such a place, and they found this to be incorrect.

A Canadian Returns.

Mr. A. L. McPherson, who forty years ago was a well known resident of Montreal, arrived in Montreal yesterday, and registered at the St. Lawrence Hall.

"I have been the world over," said Mr. McPherson, "but I have yet to see a greater country than Canada. Why, do you know, that when I was in Russia a few weeks ago they were talking about their wheat-growing lands, and when I told them about Canada they were prepared to tell me I was a fabricator. Of course, the business men knew that I told the truth, but the masses in Russia, as in every part of the world, have no idea of the greatness of this country.

Mr. McPherson is to-day visiting a number of business men with a view to carrying out his plans.

"Back from Boston."

"Back from Boston," said Mr. F. Q. Wentforth, while chatting with a Star reporter last night at the Windsor. The significance of the remark lies in the fact that, like Mr. McPherson, Mr. Wentforth is an old Montrealer, and, after seeing much of the country across the line, comes back to Montreal after an absence of twenty years.

"I saw my old friend, Col. Stevenson, since my return," said Mr. Wentforth, "and I recalled to him a remark I made twenty-five years ago. I said, 'within twenty-five years Montreal will be one of the most important cities on the continent.' I verily believe that to-day Montreal is one of the most important cities on the continent. I am coming back to reside here, but, before I finally settle down, I want to arrange some interests I have in Boston, and, much as I like the city of bean-eaters, I am going to spend the rest of my days here."

An Englishman's Confidence in Canada.

There strolled into the Grand Trunk offices yesterday a man who, in appearance, much resembles the late Sir John A. Macdonald. He dropped in to the office of Mr. Wainwright and enquired for that gentleman, but it would take all the detectives in the world to catch Mr. Wainwright in Montreal these days. He is in Ottawa, and when a message is sent asking when he will return, the equirer is always told, "I don't know."

That is what Mr. Loomis heard yesterday. Mr. Loomis came to Montreal with Mr. Wainwright some forty years ago, but he did not stay here. He is a railway man now in England, and he is visiting Canada in the interests of a number of men who are prepared to do some speculating here.

In speaking to a Star reporter yesterday, he said that in England people were prepared to believe anything that is told them about Canada, so great has become the belief that it is the most wonderful country in the world.

"I want to tell you," said he, "that the railway questions of Canada are attracting much attention in England. It is said that Mr. Hill has, to use a slang phrase, bitten off more than he can swallow, but don't you believe it. Mr. Hill knows just what he is doing, and he will succeed. There is room for them all. The C.P.R. will not suffer in the least, and the Grand Trunk Pacific will make more money than has ever been dreamed of by even the more sanguine of its supporters. I met Mr. Hill some weeks ago in New York, and he told me that he had so much faith in all that he has suggested that he was prepared to back it up with millions. That, too, is my feeling in the matter. There is room for them all. I am somewhat surprised that the Government has not made a better fist of the Intercolonial. There is a road that ought to pay if it is properly worked. I am not prepared to criticize the management, because I do not know much about the facts; but from all I have learned, I do not find much excuse for the present condition of affairs."

COUNCIL TO TAKE HOLIDAY.

But Until July 9 Frequent Meetings Will Be Held.

Mayor Ekers stated to-day that he intended to call frequent meetings of Council so that the Council could adjourn on July 9 for one month. There would then be a meeting of Council on August 9, when an adjournment would be made for another month.

This decision has raised the issue among members of Council as to what should be done with the gas question. Many of the members thought it should be left over till after the holidays.

Ald. J. B. A. Martin, however, was of the opinion that the question should be settled as soon as possible; in consequence he will make a motion at the next meeting of Council, asking that the matter be dealt with without further delay.

The Best Dressed Woman.

When she reigned in Paris the Empress Eugenie was the best dressed lady in the world. At one time her wardrobe was estimated to be worth no less than $1,000,000, while her household expenses amounted to about $10,000 a week. To-day she spends as little as possible on herself, and dresses invariably in black.

Only Venomous Bird.

The only venomous bird known is the "death bird" of New Guinea. The bite of this bird is said to cause intense pain in all parts of the body, loss of sight, convulsions, and finally death.

Light to moderate variable winds; fine and decidedly warm to-day and on Thursday.

It is warm to-day. Opinions to this effect were almost universally expressed in town to-day, and seemed to meet everywhere with agreement or at least no open opposition. It may therefore be taken for granted that to-day was warm, and, according to the Weather Man, to-morrow is destined to be warm, too. Ho! for the soda-fountain and the long cool!

PRESBYTERY ON LORD'S DAY ACT

Resolution Passed Urging Passing of Bill—Council's Action Regretted.

At the meeting of the Montreal Presbytery held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to send a copy of the following resolution at once to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Justice:

"That the Presbytery of Montreal has watched with deep interest the progress of the Lord's Day Act through Parliament, and would earnestly appeal to the Government to press the Bill to a conclusion, and expresses the hope that further amendments will be accepted which would diminish the effectiveness of the Bill in securing a national day of rest for all classes of the people."

Rev. Principal Scrimger, in moving the resolution, regretted the action of the City Council in opposing the bill.

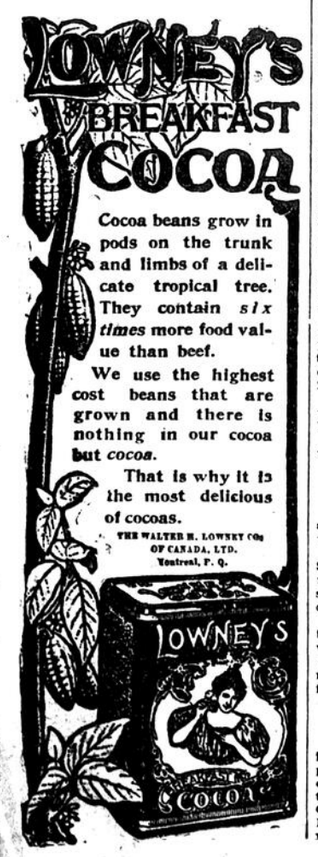

The motion was seconded by Rev. F. M. Dewey and was unanimously carried.

The name of Rev. George Maclennan was placed on the roll of the Presbytery as minister without charge.

Mr. W. S. Dalan was also transferred to the Presbytery of Quebec to be licensed there, as he is to be stationed at Riviere du Loup.

Rev. Mr. Cruickshank submitted a call from the congregation of Montreal West to Rev. A. S. Ross, of Westboro, Ont., to accept the pastorate. On motion of Rev. Principal Scrimger, seconded by Rev. John Mackay, it was decided that the call be issued and transmitted to the Presbytery of Ottawa.

BROTHER SUED BROTHER.—Judgment was rendered yesterday in the case of Ethier against Ethier, in which one brother was suing another to have a deed of property made by his mother annulled, claiming that when she made it she was not of sane mind. The contrary was, however, clearly proven to the court and the action was dismissed with costs.

HOUSE AMENDS RAILWAY ACT

Commission may Enforce Interchange of Telephone Traffic on Trunk Lines.

NO SUBSIDIES THIS YEAR.

The Board May Regulate the Number of Men to be Employed on Trains

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, June 27. — The House, after returning from the Senate Chamber where it had heard the Chief Justice give assent to certain bills, resumed consideration of the railway subsidies. These subsidies were all old, being revotes of subsidies granted several years ago, but which had lapsed because they had not been earned by actual construction of the lines. In all they amounted to about ten million dollars. Among them was a vote of $89,600 for a line from St. Constant, in Laprairie County, to the International Boundary at Rouse's Point, N.Y. This, it is expected, will give the Delaware and Hudson Railway connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway and afford the American road another entrance into Montreal.

All these subsidies being revotes they did not bind the Government in regard to new subsidies. The Minister of Railways stated that applications for new subsidies were being held over for further consideration. No subsidies were voted last year and no new ones would be proposed this session.

All these subsidies, a full account of which was published in the Star of Saturday were passed in committee of the whole.

AMENDING RAILWAY ACT.

The House in committee then returned to the bill amending the Railway Act. The amendments made by the select committee with respect to express companies, were first considered. These lengthy amendments to a very large extent place these companies under the control of the Railway Commission. For instance, subsection 2 of this amendment reads: "All express tolls shall be subject to the approval of the Board."

Sub-section 3 reads:

"Tariffs of such express tolls shall be filed with the Board and shall be in such form, size and style and give such information, particulars and details as the Board, from time to time, by regulation or by order in any particular case, prescribes."

These express amendments were adopted.

In many respects the bill extends the powers of the Board, for instance, clause 15 reads.—

"The Board shall endeavor to provide for uniformity in the construction of rolling stock to be used upon the railway and for a uniformity of rules for the operation and running of trains; and may make regulations designating the number of men to be employed upon trains, their qualifications, and term of service, or providing that coal shall be used on all locomotives instead of wood in any district, and generally with respect to the running and operation of trains by the company, for the protection of property, and the protection, safety, accommodation and comfort of the public and the employes of the company."

The Board is also given power to regulate timetables so as to permit connections between trains of different railways for the accommodation of passengers and mails.

A number of other changes were made tending to supply omissions in matters of procedure and otherwise perfect the Railway Act.

The committee then passed to the clauses relating to the telephones which have been discussed so many times. One amendment provides for connection and interchange of traffic between trunk lines, but not between local services.

Mr. Maclean, of South York, protested on the ground that the provision did not go far enough. He advocated complete interchange.

Mr. Campbell, Liberal of Centre York, vigorously opposed the amendment as not being satisfactory. By refusing complete inter-change the Government, he said, were defying the wishes of the people and were treating the Bell Company as if they were something in the nature of a demi-god.

The Opposition applauded Mr. Campbell's attack upon the amendment presented by the Minister of Railways.

Mr. Bergeron, Conservative of Beauharnois, claimed that it was unjust to hamper the Bell Company, and it was inimicable to the public interest. Let the rates be regulated by the Railway Board, but it was going too far to compel all inter-change of traffic.

Mr. Bourassa, Liberal of Labelle, said that the time was not distant when the telegraph and the telephone service would have to be administered by the Government. The time must come when the public interest in a great utility must be paramount to the interest of the public corporation.

Mr. Maclean moved that the amendment under consideration be changed so as to make interchange apply to local as well as to trunk lines.

Mr. Maclean's sub-amendment was voted down by 20 ayes, 52 nays. Among those who voted for it were the following Liberals:

Messrs. Bourassa, Campbell, Conmee, Schell (of Oxford), Martin and McIntrye.

All the other Liberals voted against Mr. Maclean's sub-amendment, and among the Conservatives voting on the same side were Mr. Borden, leader of the Opposition; Mr. Bergeron, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Pringle and Mr. Monk.

Mr. Emmerson's amendment to the bill as drafted was then adopted. This limits interchange of traffic to trunk lines.

Mr. Alcorn, Conservative of Prince Edward, Ont., moved that the principle of interchange be made to apply to local associations and unincorporated companies. This was voted down; ayes 21, nays 36.

The committee then rose and reported progress. The bill is to be reprinted before its third reading is moved.

The House adjourned at 1.10 this morning.

Parliamentary Notes.

The House will sit on Saturday next and prorogation will be reached towards the end of the next week.

The House of Commons will sit on Saturday, but will adjourn over Dominion Day. The earliest date now suggested for promulgation is Thursday next, but it will probably be later.

The Dominion leader of the Conservative party, Mr. Robert Laird Borden, was 52 years of age yesterday, and upon reaching another milestone is receiving the good wishes of his many friends.

Drunkard Got Maximum Sentence.

Judge Sicotte imposed this morning in the Recorder's Court the maximum penalty for habitual drunkards. It is quite a long time since a similar sentence has been passed in the Recorder's Court. The man sentenced is Robert Montelth, who was sent to gaol for one year.

QUALIFICATION OF FIRE OFFICERS

Ald. Yates Condemns Appointment of Men Unable to Read and Write.

HIS HANDS ARE NOT TIED.

Chairman Declines to be Bound by "Future" Appointments Made by Past Committee.

There was some talk at the meeting of the Fire Committee yesterday afternoon in regard to what rules should apply when appointments to the Fire Brigade are made. It appears in the past that men had been appointed to important positions who could not read and write.

Ald. Yates, chairman of the committee, said that no man should be given an important post who had not sufficient education to send in reports to the committee and had to get a fireman to do the work. This placed the official at the mercy of the fireman. Ald. Yates also condemned the practice of friends of aldermen being given positions whether they were fitted for them or not. "What we should do," said Ald. Yates, "is to choose the best man every time. A question of aldermanic influence should have no weight in the matter. We can only get a satisfactory brigade by selecting the best men."

Chief Benoit approved Ald. Yates' stand.

ASSERTS HIS FREEDOM.

The chairman at this point brought up another important matter. He said he was very much against the custom of committees picking out men for future appointments; this was wrong in principle and was also irregular.

It was pointed out that last year the committee had made several such appointments: Capt. Briere had been named sub-chief; Foreman Blain appointed captain to replace Captain Briere; Foreman Charest, appointed captain for the next vacancy, as were Emile Brosseau and Oberin, and J. Lapointe appointed foreman on the same condition.

In all these appointments funds had not been available. It was contended by Ald. Yates that he did not intend to be bound by any such actions by the old Fire Committee. He said council did not need to be bound by the actions of past councils, and the Fire Committee would not be bound by the action of past committees.

There was some discussion on this point, but the chairman said he intended to stick by the principle he had laid down.

It was then decided that the appointment of sub-Chief Briere should stand, as the Finance Committee had formally voted his salary. Various vacancies in the department were then filled as follows:—New captains, Foremen Reynolds and Perrier; new foremen, T. Burnett and E. Brosseau. Reynolds will go to No. 2 station, and be replaced at No. 1 station by Burnett; Perrier will stay at No. 4 and Brosseau will go to St. Henri.

Captain George Reynolds, who will command at No. 2 Fire Station.

CAPTAIN REYNOLDS'S RECORD.

Fireman George Reynolds, who has been promoted to the position of captain of No. 2 fire station, joined the brigade on January 7, 1890. The newly-made fire captain became prominent at the time of the Webster Hotel conflagration, when he rescued from death Mrs. Benbolt, of Ottawa, after a desperate fight with the roaring flames. He also succeeded in bringing three other women safely down the long ladder. Four lives were lost in this disastrous fire and several firemen were badly injured. Captain Reynolds has distinguished himself several times since the Webster Hotel fire by saving lives and property.

McGILL MODEL SCHOOL.

Closing Proceedings Took Place To-day—Words to the Boys.

A large attendance of relatives and friends assembled to witness the closing exercises at McGill Model School this morning. Rev. Dr. Symonds was in the chair. Miss Peebles and Mr. J. Montgomery Campbell in turn read the results and prize lists of the girls' and boys' departments respectively.

Rev. James Fleck then addressed a few remarks to the pupils relative to the importance of the school work, after which songs of a patriotic character were rendered in truly British style by the pupils.

Mr. Campbell then spoke briefly, expressing regret that so many of the boys found it necessary to leave school before completing the course; also there were many lads who, through irregularity in attendance, forfeited any sort of standing at the close of the scholastic year; that this very irregularity, if parents would only be brought to realise it, was a habit which would cling for a lifetime to the detriment of the boy's future career.

Dr. Symonds then brought proceedings to a close by a few remarks in the course of which, he wished to remind the pupils that mere ability or cleverness was not all that was necessary to make success in school and beyond; but, attendant upon this faculty there must be regularity, accuracy and a well governed temper.

Action of St. Louis Dismissed.

Judgment was rendered yesterday in the case of the Town of St. Louis against the Light, Heat and Power Company, the action being dismissed. The town wanted a new chart of rates to be furnished by the company, as they claimed that the one now in use was not accurate, and consequently the rates were not correct.

PERSONALS.

At St. Mary's Church this morning, in the presence of a large congregation, the marriage took place of Miss Mary Etta Mullally, only daughter of Mr. James Mullally, to Dr. Emmet James Mullally, formerly of Souris, P.E.I., but now of Montreal. Rev. Father Gerald McShane officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore white silk, veiled with chiffon an over-dress of beautiful Mechlin lace. She wore orange blossoms with her tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Birdie Kehoe was maid of honor and Miss Lilly McCabe and Miss Florence Mullally sister of the groom, were bridesmaids; Miss Irene Morley was flower girl. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were gowned alike in white organdie over white taffeta with trimmings of Valenciennes lace, with white lace picture hats with long ostrich plumes. They carried bouquets of pink peonies. The flower girl was dressed in white organdie with trimmings of Valenciennes lace and English eyelet embroidery. Mr. Leo Ryan was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Tom Wright and Mr. Jim McCrory. Prof. John McCaffrey presided at the organ. During the ceremony solos were rendered by Mrs. Morley, Miss F. McCabe and Miss Gougeon, of Chicago. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the decorations being palms, peonies and roses. An orchestra screened off by palms played at intervals. The bride's mother wore black silk with black lace over-dress. Many handsome presents were received by the bride, including a chest of silver from the Columbian Club and a cabinet from the Knights of Columbus. The bride gave the groom gold cuff links and to the maid of honor and bridesmaids fleur de lys pearl pins, and to the flower girl a bar pin with pearl crescents. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain, and to the best man and ushers monogrammed gold cuff links. Out-of-town guests included Miss Gougeon, of Chicago, and Mr. James Feeney, of Berlin, N.H. The bride's going-away gown was a black and white checked serge with trimmings of pale blue and gold braid, pale blue hat with wings. Dr. and Mrs. Mullally left by the Maritime express for Quebec and the Lower Provinces. The honeymoon will be spent on Prince Edward Island. On their return they will reside at 72 Park avenue.

The marriage of Miss Mary Mabel Riddell to Mr. Charles McKergow, professor in the University of Virginia, and son of Mr. John McKergow, of Rosemount avenue, Westmount, took place this afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, 364 Oliver avenue, Westmount, Rev. Mr. Bushell officiating. The bride, who was given away by Mr. J. M. Riddell, wore a gown of white crepe de chine trimmed with rose point, tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Olga Riddell, and by Miss Maud McKergow, sister of the groom. They were gowned alike in pale yellow messaline, with wreaths of marguerites and carried bouquets of the same flowers. Mr. Foreman, of Toronto, was best man. The ceremony was followed by a reception, the decorations of the house being carried out in marguerites. This evening Mr. and Mrs. McKergow leave for New York, the bride going away in a costume of dark green Louisine, with Panama hat trimmed with green and touches of pale blue. They will reside at Charlottesville, Va. The bride received many beautiful presents, including a diamond and sapphire ring from the groom. At the wedding Mrs. Riddell, mother of the bride, was gowned in pale grey crepe de chine over blue taffeta, with trimming of rose point. Mrs. McKergow, mother of the groom, wore black satin trimmed with old lace, and a sequin toque with a touch of white.

The marriage took place at the Methodist Church, Winchester, yesterday afternoon, of Miss May Winter, daughter of Rev. David Winter, of Winchester, formerly of Montreal, to Rev. T. Anson Halpenny, B.A., of Sherbrooke Street Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Winter officiated, assisted by Rev. W. T. Halpenny and Rev. W. W. Jones. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Dr. D. E. Winter, of Ottawa, wore cream silk eolienne trimmed with chiffon and lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss L. M. Winter, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, was gowned in a pale blue silk eolienne, white hat with pink roses, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Miss Gladys Hopewell, of Ottawa, was flower-girl. The Rev. G. D. Armstrong, assistant pastor of St. James Methodist Church, was best man, and Messrs. F. W. Bates, of Montreal, and G. O. Barclay, of Winchester, were ushers. Mrs. Winter, mother of the bride, was gowned in black silk trimmed with Irish lace, and wore a black hat. Mr. and Mrs. Halpenny have left for a short trip to Toronto, Niagara, and London, the bride wearing a costume of navy blue broadcloth. On their return they will reside at the Sherbrooke Street Methodist parsonage, 6 Sherbrooke street west, where they will be at home after September 3rd.

The marriage of Miss Florence Ogden to Mr. J. L. Eaves took place very quietly, this afternoon, at three o'clock at St. Luke's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. Craig, only immediate relatives being invited to be present. The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. G. H. Ogden, wore her travelling costume of blue silk, with white silk blouse and cream hat with pale blue feather. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Lyla Ogden, sister of the bride, who was bridesmaid, wore a gown of cream crepe, with pale blue hat, and carried pink carnations. Mr. Edmund Eaves, brother of the groom, was best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Eaves left for a trip to the West, and on their return will reside at 417 Mount Stephen avenue. The bride received many beautiful presents, including a pearl pendant, and a watch from the groom, whose gift to the bridesmaid was a ring.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Thomson, daughter of Mr. Frederick Thomson, of Bruce avenue, to Mr. John William Thomas, takes place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Hugh Pedley officiating. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will wear white chiffon over white satin brocade, with tulle veil and orange blossoms, and will carry a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Wallace, will be gowned in white point d'esprit over white silk, and will carry scarlet carnations. Mr. Joseph Thomas, brother of the groom, will be best man. A reception will follow the ceremony, and later Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will leave on a trip to the United States, the bride going away in a costume of grey mohair, with white lace blouse and grey hat. The bride received a number of handsome presents.

A pretty house wedding took place in Brockville yesterday, at the home of Mrs. A. G. Kendall, when her eldest daughter, Miss Louise Kendall, was married to Mr. Alfred Bigbie, late of Edinburgh, Scotland. There were no attendants. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. E. Kendall, wore white crepe de chine. Rev. D. Strachan officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Bigbie have left on a two months' trip to Scotland and on their return will reside in Brockville.

The marriage of Miss Sadie E. Rawstron, daughter of Mr. J. E. Rawstron, of Hochelega, to Mr. Thomas Roland Spicer, took place recently at St. Mary's Church, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Spicer are spending their honeymoon in the Lower Provinces.

LITTLE GIRL ASSAULTED.

Alphonse Foucault Must Answer to Serious Charge.

A charge of assaulting the twelve-year-old daughter of Odilas Baillargeon has been laid against Alphonse Foucault, who is thirty-two years old. Neighbors heard screams in Baillargeon's house yesterday and warned the police and the father, who when they reached the house found Foucault there. Baillargeon was the first to arrive and the police were just in time to prevent him from making a fierce attack upon Foucault. The little girl says that Foucault offered her a gold watch and a sum of money if she would allow him to carry out his disgraceful designs. When arraigned this morning Foucault pleaded not guilty and will come up again on Friday.
