J. CARD FROM
The American Watch Company —OF—
WALTHAM, MASS.

THIS COMPANY have been to inform the citizens of the new Dominion of Canada that they have made arrangements to introduce their celebrated watches to their notice. They are prepared to prove that their watches are made upon a better system than others in the world.
They commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 100 operatives. They produce 75,000 watches a year, and make and sell less than one half of all the watches sold in the United States. Up to the present time it has been impossible for them to do more than supply the constantly increasing home demand; but recent additions to their works have enabled them to turn their attention to other markets.
The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European watches are made almost entirely by hand. In them, all these mysterious infinitesimal organs which when put together create the watch, are the result of slow and tedious manual processes, and the result is of necessity a lack of uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the maker, and the skill and taste of the workman, are constantly at work, and the result is a watch which is not only a work of art, but a work of nature. It is a genuine "M. I. Tobias, of Liverpool," (whose only fault is, that he can never regulate it to keep very good time), is really a masterpiece of art and science.

How American Watches are Made.
The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process, and by no such incompetent workmen. All their operations, from the reception of the raw materials—the brass, the steel, the silver, the gold and the precious stones, to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguishing feature of their watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine; that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style, and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that every succeeding watch must be like it. If any part of any American Waltham Watch is lost or injured, the owner has only to address the Company, stating the number of his watch and the part wanted, whether it be spring, pinion, jewel, or what not, and by return mail he would receive the desired article which any watchmaker would adjust to its position.
The Company respectfully submit their watches on this matter only. They have fully succeeded in overcoming popular prejudice in the States in favor of European watches, and solicit a thorough examination and fair trial for their manufactures elsewhere. They claim to make

A Better Article for the Money
by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old-fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low-priced and substantial article, in solid silver hunting cases, especially adapted to the wants of the farmer and lumberman, to the finest chronometer for the navigator, and also, ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enameled and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIMEKEEPERS. It should be remembered that except their single lowest grade named "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL WATCHES made by them

ARE FULLY WARRANTED
by a special certificate given to the purchaser of every watch by the seller, and this warranty is good at all times against the Company or its agents.
