

no 43
243

The wind and the Harp
AND
We are Fairies of the sea

VOCAL DUETS

WORDS BY

J. E. Carpenter.

MUSIC BY

Stepⁿ Glover.

Wind and the Harp

We are fairies of the sea

Phlad.^a Published by BECK & LAWTON 766 Chestnut St. Cor. 7th.
Successors to J. E. GOULD.

Boston OLIVER DITSON & CO. — N. York. S. T. GORDON. — TRIAX & BALDWIN Cincinnati.

THE WIND AND THE HARP.

DUET.

WORDS BY J.E. CARPENTER.

MUSIC BY STEPHEN CLOVER.

Moderato.

f

dim. ritard:

a tempo.

p (G \sharp)

Cres.

What would the Harp with its wild chords be Did not the Wind set its mu - sic free?

What would the Harp with its wild chords be Did not the Wind set its mu sic free?.

p (D \sharp) (D \sharp)

Si- lent and sad, for its strings would own But for the breezes no

Si- lent and sad, for its strings would own But for the breezes no

an- sw'ring tone; Hush'd till the Wind with its rushing wings

an- sw'ring tone; Hush'd till the Wind with its rushing wings

cres.

cres.

cres.

Etouffes - - - - - *

dim. Swept o'er its bosom and woke the strings. Hush'd till the Wind with its

dim. Swept o'er its bosom and woke the strings. Hush'd till the Wind with its

dim. ritard: a tempo.

dim. ritard: a tempo.

dim. ritard: a tempo.

dim. ritard: a tempo.

(C#)

(C#)

Wind and the Harp.

Rall:

rushing wings Swept o'er its bosom and woke the strings.

Rall:

rushing wings Swept o'er its bosom and woke the strings.

Rall:

FIRST VOICE.
con espress.

Is it not thus with the hu - - - man heart, Thus that its mu - sic will

(Fix D#)

all de-part, When the lov'd voices are heard no more That

The wind and the harp.

woke it to gladness in days of yore? That woke it to gladness in days of yore?

Cres. Rall:

SECOND VOICE.
a tempo.

The Wind to the Harp gives its gen - - tle tone, The heart has no echo that

p a tempo.

dwells a - lone; It pines for some kin - - dred voice to swell The

(Fix D#) (B#)

LENTO.

music that sleeps in the soul's deep cell The music that sleeps in the soul's deep cell.

LENTO. (D#) (B#)

The wind and the harp.

a tempo.

Si - lent the Harp and the heart must be Set not some spirit their

a tempo.

Si - lent the Harp and the heart must be Set not some spirit their

pa tempo.

mu - sic free; The breeze to the Harp gives its thril - ling tone, But mu - sic free; The breeze to the Harp gives its thril ling tone, But

dolce.

love is the music the heart must own. Love is the mu - sic -

dolce.

love is the music the heart must own. Love - love - dolce.

p

dim. cres.

love dim. love cres. Love is the mu - sic the heart must own.

Love is the mu - sic gva. Love is the mu - sic the heart must own.

dim. cres.

dim. cres. rit.

Love is the mu - sic love dim. love Love is the mu - sic the cres. rit.

Love love Love is the mu - sic gva. Love is the mu - sic the

p dim. cres. rit.

heart, the heart must own.

heart, the heart must own.

Wind and the Harp.

